Senate Committee on Finance
Wednesday, June 5, 2013
Room 544 LOB, 1:00 p.m.

Minutes

The Senate Committee on Finance met at 1:00 p.m. on Wednesday, June 5, 2013 in room 544 of the Legislative Office Building. Lilly Kinney of Reidsville, Hailey Webb of Summerfield, Amelia Mangan of Granite Falls, Mary Catherine Starnes of Hickory, Max Toney of Reidsville, Kevin Treacy of Oxford, and Will Finch of Reidsville served as pages. Senator Rabon presided as chair.

H.B. 200 – Require Certain General Reappraisals

Representative Brawley was recognized to explain the bill which requires counties to retroactively change appraisals valued during the county's last general reappraisal if certain conditions are met. Senator Apodaca moved for a favorable report and the motion carried. A copy of the bill, the summary and the fiscal note is attached.

H.B. 817 – Strategic Transportation Investments

Representative Brawley explained the bill. Senator Brunstetter moved to adopt the proposed committee substitute (PCS) for discussion and the motion carried. The PCS would enact a new Strategic Prioritization funding plan governing use of Highway Trust Fund and federal aid funds for State transportation construction and capital needs; phase out the Highway Fund secondary road construction program; require statewide prioritization for secondary unpaved road paving; provide that the Highway Fund is the sole source of funds for State aid to municipalities/Powell Bill funds, and holds harmless the amount allocated for that purpose; would modify the authorized Turnpike Authority Project list; and would authorize up to three partnership agreements with private entities for DOT or Authority projects. Senator Hise moved for a favorable report and the motion carried. A copy of the PCS, the summary and the fiscal note is attached.

H.B. 248 – Taxpayer Debt Information Act

Representative Conrad was recognized to explain the bill. It would make the estimation of interest on a proposed bond issuance of voted debt by a local government part of the Local Government Commission review process and would require the ballot question for the authorization of bonds to state the authorization includes interest and that additional taxes may be levied to repay the debt. Senator Brunstetter was recognized to offer a technical amendment which changed to effective date to September 1, 2013. He moved for its adoption and the motion carried. Senator Tillman moved to adopt the bill as amended. The motion carried. A copy of the bill, the summary and the amendment is attached.

H.B. 664 – Cell Tower Deployment Act

Representative Hager was recognized to explain the bill. Senator Newton moved to adopt the PCS for discussion and the motion carried. The PCS would amend local government authority to regulate the equipment and facilities used for the provision of wireless service. The bill would also amend the authority for the State to lease land for communication purpose. The PCS makes two changes. First, the PCS clarifies the authority of local governments to impose a fee to review an eligible facilities request. Second, the PCS requires the approval of the Secretary of DENR to lease land in a State park for the purpose of installing and operating communications equipment. Senator Tillman moved for a favorable report and the motion carried. A copy of the PCS and the summary is attached.

H.B. 743 – UI Laws Administrative Changes

Representative Howard was recognized to explain the bill. Senator Apodaca moved to adopt the PCS for discussion and the motion carried. The PCS would make administrative and technical changes to S.L. 2013-2 and corrects cross references in Chapter 96 of the General Statutes. Senator Apodaca moved for a favorable report. The motion carried. A copy of the PCS and the summary is attached.

H.B. 439 – Economic Development Jobsites Program

Representative Howard explained the bill. It would create a property tax deferral program to defer a portion of taxes on a parcel of property if the parcel (i) is at least 100 contiguous acres, (ii) is zoned for industrial and/or office use, (iii) does not have a building permit for a primary building or structure issued for it, and (iv) is classified under the present use value (PUV) property tax deferral program or was classified under the PUV program within the previous six months. The portion of taxes to be deferred is the sum of the value of any improvements on the site and the difference between the true value of the site and the value of the site treated as agricultural land in the present-use value program. Senator Jenkins moved for a favorable report and the motion carried. A copy of the PCS and the summary is attached.

S.B. 571 – Authorize Various Special Plates

Senator Brock was recognized to explain the bill. Senator Tillman moved to adopt the PCS for discussion and the motion carried. The PCS would authorize the Division of Motor Vehicles to issue various special license plates and would make various other changes to the statutes concerning special plates. Senator Tillman was recognized to offer an amendment which would transfer specific plate funds to the Speedway Children's Charities. He moved for its adoption and the motion carried. Senator Rabin offered an amendment which would revise the fees charged for certain military plates. The amendment was tabled since the language was included in the PCS. Heather Fennell, a staff attorney with the Research Division, was recognized to answer questions. Senator Tillman moved to adopt the PCS as amended and the motion carried. A copy of the PCS, the summary, the fiscal note, and the amendments is attached.

S.B. 312 – Referendum on Incorporating Lake James

Senator Daniel was recognized to explain the bill. Senator Wade moved to adopt the PCS for discussion. The motion carried. The bill would incorporate the Village of Lake James in Burke County, subject to the approval of the qualified voters at an election held on November 5, 2013 and requires that an election for the initial Village Council be held at the same time as the election on incorporation. The PCS would make changes to the corporate boundaries be deleting all described property west of Mallard Pointe development. It would make changes regarding commencement of tax collection. It would make changes regarding ad valorem taxes where the Village Council is prohibited from approving an ad valorem tax rate greater than seven and one-half cents per one hundred dollars valuation unless the tax rate is approved by an affirmative vote of the majority of the qualified voters of the Village of Lake James. Jim Powers, an area resident, was recognized to speak in opposition to the bill. Derinda Stein, an area resident, was recognized to speak in favor of the bill. Senator Newton moved for a favorable report and the motion carried. A copy of the PCS and the summary is attached.

The meeting adjourned at 1:48 p.m.

HOUSE BILL 200*
Committee Substitute Favorable 4/8/13

Short Title: Require Certain General Reappraisals. (Public)

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO CORRECT GENERAL REAPPRAISALS RESULTING IN PROPERTY VALUES THAT DO NOT COMPLY WITH THE REQUIREMENTS OF NORTH CAROLINA LAW BY SETTING FORTH THE STEPS REQUIRED TO BRING THE GENERAL REAPPRAISAL INTO COMPLIANCE WITH THE APPLICABLE PROPERTY TAX MANDATES.

Whereas, the Great Recession has had deleterious effects on the economy and especially on the housing market; and

Whereas, valuation data for a calendar year is used to determine market value for a general reappraisal as of January 1 of the following year; and

Whereas, there were a total of 3,825,637 foreclosure filings during the 2010 calendar year, and 2.23% of all households were in some stage of foreclosure during 2010; and

Whereas, annual analysis of the housing market in North Carolina in 2011 shows tax assessments in nearly half of the counties in the State were higher, on average, than actual market values; and

Whereas, the General Assembly has previously required accelerated general reappraisals when sales values deviated too much from assessed values, but such countywide analyses can fail to properly account for pockets of improperly valued properties or where properties have values that offset improperly valued properties located elsewhere within the county; and

Whereas, these unique and extraordinary conditions have increased the difficulty of accurately appraising real property for tax purposes and increased the number of actual errors in conducting reappraisals; and

Whereas, independent evidence shows instances of high degrees of inequity in valuations among like properties of a type that is not acceptable by widely accepted mass appraisal standards; and

Whereas, independent evidence shows, among other things, that there exist concrete examples of erroneous valuations, for example, that resulted both from the values accepted as initial values and from other inequities produced during the property tax appeals process; and

Whereas, these examples prove the existence of errors that give rise to significant issues that must be addressed to resolve inequities among like and similar properties; and

Whereas, the General Assembly recognizes that the confluence of these issues arising during the time when general reappraisals of real property were occurring has resulted not only in a higher risk but in a higher incidence of assessed values failing to accurately and fairly reflect true market values; Now, therefore,

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Notwithstanding G.S. 105-287, 105-325, 105-380, any provision of law restricting the time for which a change in appraisal or valuation may be made, or any other provision of Subchapter II of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes inconsistent with the provisions of this act, a board of county commissioners shall undertake the measures required by this act if all of the following conditions are met:

(1) The county has independent evidence that the majority of commercial neighborhoods in the county reviewed by a qualified appraisal company possess significant issues of inequity.

(2) The county has independent evidence that for residential neighborhoods instances of inequity or erroneous data had an impact on the valuation of the neighborhood as a whole.

(3) The county's last general reappraisal was performed for the 2008 tax year, 2009 tax year, 2010 tax year, 2011 tax year, or 2012 tax year.

(4) The independent evidence resulted from a review performed by a qualified appraisal company selected and retained by the county and registered with the Department of Revenue and had a sample size of no less than 375 properties, the relevant characteristics of which were reviewed on location at the property.

SECTION 2. If all of the conditions of Section 1 of this act are met, a board of county commissioners shall either (i) conduct a reappraisal, using no less than one person certified by the Department of Revenue for mass valuations per 4,250 parcels, pursuant to G.S. 105-286 within 18 months, applicable to all tax years from and including the tax year when the last general reappraisal was performed pursuant to G.S. 105-286 or (ii) have a qualified appraisal company, which may be the same company that provides the evidence in Section 1, conduct a review of all the values in the county by neighborhoods and make recommendations as to the true value of the properties as of January 1 of the year of the last general reappraisal performed pursuant to G.S. 105-286. After the reappraisal or after each neighborhood review required by this section is complete, the board of county commissioners shall make any change on the abstracts and tax records to ensure that the assessed values of incorrectly appraised properties in the county reflect the true values of those properties effective for the year of the last general reappraisal performed pursuant to G.S. 105-286 and shall apply the adjusted values for those properties for each tax year until the next general reappraisal for real property is performed by the county pursuant to G.S. 105-286 unless those adjusted values are changed in accordance with G.S. 105-287. In making changes to the abstracts and tax records mandated by this act, the board of county commissioners shall make adjustments for previous errors prioritized as follows:

(1) Adjustments to parcels with errors that resulted in the parcels having a significantly overstated value.

(2) Adjustments to parcels with errors that resulted in the parcels having a significantly understated value.

(3) Adjustments to parcels with errors that resulted in the parcels having an overstated value.

(4) Adjustments to parcels with errors that resulted in the parcels having an understated value.

In instances of parcels with errors that resulted in an overpayment of taxes, the governing board shall require that notice of refund and the refund amount be sent to the owner of record as of the date the payment was made. The provisions of G.S. 105-380 do not apply to the issuance of any refund under the provisions of this act.

SECTION 3. Interest on taxes paid on parcels with errors that resulted in the parcels having an overstated value shall be calculated at a rate of five percent (5%) per annum. Additional taxes levied on parcels as a result of errors causing the parcels to have an understated value shall be treated as taxes on discovered property pursuant to G.S. 105-312, except that the discovery penalties set forth in subsection (h) of G.S. 105-312 shall not apply.

SECTION 4. This act is effective when it becomes law. If any provision of this act or its application is held invalid, the invalidity does not affect other provisions or applications of this act that can be given effect without the invalid provisions or application, and to this end the provisions of this act are severable.

HOUSE BILL 200:
Require Certain General Reappraisals

2013-2014 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Finance	Date:	June 5, 2013
Introduced by:	Reps. W. Brawley, Cotham	Prepared by:	Dan Ettefagh
Analysis of:	Second Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: House Bill 200 requires counties to retroactively change appraisals valued during the county's last general reappraisal if certain conditions are met.

[As introduced, this bill was identical to S159, as introduced by Sens. Tarte, Rucho, which is currently in House Government, if favorable, Regulatory Reform, if favorable, Finance.]

CURRENT LAW: Under current law, the value of real property must be appraised as of January 1 by each county at least once every 8 years. Unless another standard applies for limited circumstances, the value to be determined is the true value of the property, or the price at which the property would change hands between a willing and financially able buyer and a willing seller, neither being under any compulsion to buy or sell and both having reasonable knowledge of all the uses to which the property is adapted and capable of being used. With limited exceptions, this value must be used by the county until the county conducts its next general reappraisal, and property tax appraisals may not be changed for tax years other than the current tax year, regardless of whether such changes are sought by the taxpayer from the assessor, the board of equalization and review, or the board of county commissioners.[1] While G.S. 105-381 permits refunds or releases if the tax in question was levied illegally or due to clerical error and while G.S. 105-394 permits retroactive changes to property tax records to correct "immaterial irregularities" in the listing, appraisal, levy, or collection process, neither provision likely authorizes retroactive changes to appraisals based on the alleged misjudgments of market value by the county.[2]

BILL ANALYSIS: The bill would supersede the time limitations disallowing retroactive changes where the following conditions are met:

- The county has evidence that the majority of commercial neighborhoods reviewed by a qualified appraisal company possess significant issues of inequity.
- The county has evidence that instances of inequity or erroneous data had an impact on the valuation of residential neighborhoods in the county.

[1] (See G.S. 105-287(c) (any change in appraisals made in non-general-revaluation years may take effect in the current tax year only and not retroactively; G.S. 105-296(i) (changes made informally by the assessor prior to the first meeting of the Bd of E&R may affect only current-year appraisals); G.S. 105-322 (authorizes board of E&R to make changes as permitted by G.S. 105-287 and as needed to resolve timely filed appeals of current year's appraisals); G.S. 105-325 (authorizes board of county commissioners to make changes only to current-year appraisals).

[2] Neither provision has been the subject of much litigation. The leading cases are Ammons v. Wake County, 127 N.C. App. 426 (1997), which makes clear that a misjudgment of market value under G.S. 105-381 cannot justify a refund under the "clerical error" standard but does not address the "levied illegally" standard, and In re: Morgan, 362 N.C. 339 (2008), which deals with immaterial irregularities. An argument that a misjudgment of market value was either an illegal tax or an immaterial irregularity would render the appeal deadline created by G.S. 105-322 unnecessary, and courts strive to avoid interpreting a statute in a manner that eliminates the relevance of another statute.

- The county's last general reappraisal was performed in one of the years when the economic downturn most severely affected home prices (2008-2012).
- The county's evidence (i) resulted from a review performed by an appraisal service retained and selected by the county and registered with the Department of Revenue and (ii) resulted from a sample size of not less than 375 properties that were examined on site.

If all of the conditions are met, the county must undertake one of the two following options:

- The county must conduct a general reappraisal pursuant to G.S. 105-286 within 18 months with at least 1 appraiser certified by the Department for mass valuations per 4,250 parcels.
- The county must have a qualified appraisal service expand the county's evidence of inequity to cover the entire county.

Once one of the two options has been completed, the county must change the abstracts and tax records so that the assessed value reflects the true value for each tax year until the next general reappraisal required by G.S. 105-286. In making these changes, the county must prioritize significantly overvalued parcels first, significantly undervalued parcels second, other overvalued parcels third, and other undervalued parcels last, and, in making refunds, the governing board of the county (and city, where applicable), must direct that a notice of refund and the refund amount be sent to the owner of record as of the date the payment was made. For overvalued parcels, the county would be required to repay the overpayment with interest in the same manner as if there were an order of the Property Tax Commission reducing a valuation on property resulting in an overpayment under G.S. 105-290(b)(4), which is currently 5% per annum. For undervalued parcels, the additional taxes would be treated as taxes on discovered properties pursuant to G.S. 105-312, on which interest does not begin to accrue until the next calendar date of delinquency, which would be the next January 6th. Penalties associated with discovered properties are expressly made non-applicable.

EFFECTIVE DATE: Effective when it becomes law and the provisions of the bill are severable.

BACKGROUND: In 2011, Mecklenburg County conducted a general reappraisal, which has been a source of controversy and debate. In response to a significantly higher rate of appeal and public criticism, the county commissioned a review of the reappraisal data. The resulting report indicated that many of the neighborhoods throughout the county had valuations that had either major or minor issues affecting the calculation.[3]

The report is available online at the following website:

http://charmeck.org/mecklenburg/county/AssessorsOffice/Pages/RevaluationReview.aspx

The bill seeks to provide a remedy by conforming the previously established valuations to true or market values as of the date for which the reappraisal was to be effective coupled with a retroactive adjustment to tax liabilities. Laws amending property tax statutes must adhere to two North Carolina Constitutional provisions:

- Art. II, Sec. 24 of the NC Constitution prohibits local bills that "extend the time for the levy or collection of taxes or otherwise relieving any collector of tax from the due performance of his official duties."
- Art. V, Sec. 2 of the NC Constitution requires that any "classification" of property for tax purposes "be made by general law uniformly applicable in every county, city, and town."

[3] For example, in the neighborhood review, the report indicated major or minor issues in 49 of 150 neighborhoods, and in the land increase neighborhood review, the report indicated major or minor issues in 38 of 52 neighborhoods.

North Carolina courts have not addressed the question of whether a bill permitting or ordering the retroactive changing of property tax assessments in some (but not all) counties would violate either of these constitutional provisions. Although the bill addresses primarily a local issue and Mecklenburg County is the only county known to meet all of the conditions set forth in the bill, any county that conducted a revaluation between 2008 and 2012 can meet the bill conditions. A taxpayer or a county in the State may have standing to challenge a law that violated a Constitutional provision. It is unknown whether a court would find the bill to be local in nature or non-uniform.

BILL SUMMARY:
HB 200 would require counties to retroactively change appraisals valued during the county's last general reappraisal if the county has independent evidence of significant inequity issues or erroneous data related to a reappraisal performed for one of the previous five tax years. Affected counties would have the option to conduct a reappraisal or have a qualified appraisal company conduct a review of values and make recommendations for adjustments.

If the county determines that a parcel has been overvalued, the county must repay the overpayment with 5% interest per annum. If a property was found to be undervalued, additional taxes will be treated as taxes on discovered property pursuant to 105-312.

ASSUMPTIONS AND METHODOLOGY:
According to the Department of Revenue, Mecklenburg County is the only county that would be affected by the bill. The county commissioned a report which concluded the 2011 reappraisal was impacted by commercial and residential neighborhoods with significant inequity issues or erroneous data that affected valuations. HB 200 would require Mecklenburg County to conduct a reappraisal or contract with an appraisal company to make any adjustments to tax values necessary to ensure that the assessed values reflect the true values effective for the year of the last general reappraisal.

In the case of overvalued properties, the county must refund overpayments. The interest rate for overpayments is 5% per annum. For undervalued parcels, the taxpayer would be responsible for the amount of underpayment; interest would not accrue until the following due date for tax payments, which would be January 6th.

Data sufficient to determine the fiscal impact to Mecklenburg County will not be available until appraisal adjustments are made and corrected property values are determined. Therefore, Fiscal Research is unable to estimate the fiscal impact of the legislation.

Secondary Road Construction Program:
Currently, secondary roads receive funding for construction from the Highway Fund and Highway Trust Fund. G.S. 136-189.10.(3)(b) in Section 1.1.(a) enables secondary road construction to continue in the "Division" category in the Highway Trust Fund. Per Section 2.6.(d), the construction program is funded at $15 million non-recurring in the Highway Fund in FY 2013-14.

Unpaved Secondary Road Paving Program:
Currently, the unpaved secondary road paving program is funded from the Highway Fund and Highway Trust Fund within the secondary road construction programs. The Department of Transportation funded this program at $12 million in the current fiscal year. Per Section 2.6.(d), the unpaved secondary road paving program is funded at $12 million recurring in FY 2013-14. Section 2.5 prohibits the Highway Trust Fund from being used to fund the paving of unpaved secondary roads beginning in FY 2013-14. Section 2.5 makes permanent the one-year pilot program implemented in Section 24.15 of S.L. 2012-142 to pave unpaved secondary roads based on a State-wide prioritization process.

Aid to Municipalities:
Currently, the Aid to Municipalities program receives 6.5% of funds from the Highway Trust Fund after administration, debt service, Mobility Fund appropriations, and Turnpike Authority gap funds are removed and 1¾ ¢/gallon of motor fuels revenues deposited in the Highway Fund. Section 3.1 eliminates the Highway Trust Fund allocation and attempts to hold municipalities harmless over a five-year period based on the forecasted statutory allocations from the Highway Fund and Highway Trust Fund. Section 3.1 establishes the Aid to Municipalities allocation rate at 10.4% of total motor fuels tax revenues deposited in the Highway Fund.

The amounts shown in the "Local Impact" section of the "Fiscal Impact" chart, located on page 1 of this analysis, represent the difference from the base budget amounts. Therefore, these amounts do not reflect the statutory adjustment amounts that were used to determine the hold harmless at five-year amounts. If current statutory allocations were upheld, Aid to Municipalities allocations would be reduced by $2,366,421 in FY 2013-14 and $4,912,107 in FY 2014-15 in the Highway Fund and Highway Trust Fund. Table Two shows the impact of the new allocation rate in Section 3.1 in comparison to the forecasted statutory adjustments in the first two fiscal years.

Table Two: Comparison of Current and Proposed Aid To Municipalities Funding

	FY 2013-14	FY 2014-15	FY 2015-16	FY 2016-17	FY 2017-18	Five-Year Difference

Impact to Highway Trust Fund
Section 1.1 establishes the Strategic Prioritization Funding Plan for Transportation Investments. G.S. 136-176(b)(1) through G.S. 136-176(b)(4) in Section 4.8 eliminate the statutory formulas that appropriate funding to the Interstate System, Urban Loops, Aid to Municipalities, and Secondary Road Construction programs. These appropriations are allocated to a new fund that will be established to administer the Transportation Investment Strategy Formula, as set forth in G.S. 136-189.11. Table Three shows the adjustments within the Highway Trust Fund in FY 2013-14 and FY 2014-15 as a result of this bill.

Administration:

G.S. 136-176(b) in Section 4.8 eliminates the statutory formula that appropriates 4.8% of total Highway Trust Fund monies for administration. The Appropriations Act will determine the amount of funds appropriated to administration in FY 2013-14 and FY 2014-15. Reductions or additions to the amount appropriated from administration will impact the amount appropriated to the new fund, as set forth in G.S. 136-189.11.

Mobility Fund

Sections 4.16, 4.17, and 4.18 repeal the Mobility Fund. The Mobility Fund appropriation is allocated to the new fund, as set forth in G.S. 136-189.11.

Secondary Roads

Section 2.1 changes the distribution of the $15 of each title fee allocated to the secondary road programs in the Highway Trust Fund to the new fund as set forth in G.S. 136-189.11.

Turnpike Authority and Public Private Partnerships:

Sections 5.1 – 5.8 make changes to the Turnpike Authority and authorize additional public private partnerships. Section 5.1 removes Garden Parkway, Mid-Currituck Bridge, Cape Fear Skyway, and the NC-540 Southeast Extension from the list of Turnpike Projects. Section 5.1 enables DOT to construct an additional five toll projects, based on varying criteria. G.S. 136-176(b2) in Section 4.8 eliminates gap funding in the amount of $35 million for the Garden Parkway and $28 million for the Mid-Currituck Bridge beginning in FY 2013-14. The associated $63 million in gap funds are allocated to the new fund, as set forth in G.S. 136-189.11.

Section 5.2 raises the number of partnership agreements DOT may enter into with a private entity from one to three agreements.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO REQUIRE DISCLOSURE ON THE BALLOT THAT AUTHORIZATION OF INDEBTEDNESS INCLUDES INTEREST AND THAT TAXES MAY BE LEVIED TO REPAY THE INDEBTEDNESS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 159-55 reads as rewritten:

"§ 159-55. Sworn statement of debt; debt ~~limitation.~~limitation; statement of estimated interest on the bonds.

...

(d) At the time the bond order is introduced, the finance officer (or some other officer designated by the governing board for this purpose) shall file with the clerk a statement of the finance officer estimating the total amount of interest that will be paid on the bonds over the expected term of the bonds, if issued, and a summary of the assumptions upon which the estimate is based. The statement shall include a statement to the effect that the amount estimated is preliminary and is for general informational purposes only, that there is no assurance that the assumptions upon which the estimate is based will occur, that the occurrence of certain of the assumptions is beyond the control of the unit, and that differences between the actual circumstances at the time the bonds are issued from the assumptions included in the estimate could result in significant differences between the estimated interest and the actual interest on the bonds. The statement may include other qualifications as the finance officer deems appropriate. The validity of the bonds authorized by the order is not subject to challenge on the grounds that the actual interest cost of the bonds when issued is different than the amount set forth in the statement. The statement shall be filed with the Local Government Commission and maintained by the Clerk."

SECTION 2. G.S. 159-56 reads as rewritten:

"§ 159-56. Publication of bond order as introduced.

The finance officer of the [issuing unit] has filed a statement estimating that the total amount of interest that will be paid on the bonds over the expected term of the bonds, if issued, is $ _____. The estimate is preliminary, is for general informational purposes only, and may differ from the actual interest paid on the bonds. A tax will [may] be levied to pay the principal of and interest on the bonds if they are issued. Anyone who wishes to be heard on the questions of the validity of the bond order and the advisability of issuing the bonds may appear at a public hearing or an adjournment thereof to be held at _____

Clerk"

The publication may include a summary of the assumptions upon which the estimate of the total amount of interest that will be paid on the bonds over the expected term of the bonds, if issued, is based, and may further state that there is no assurance that the circumstances included in the assumptions will occur, that the occurrence of certain of the assumptions is beyond the control of the issuing unit, and that differences between the actual circumstances at the time the bonds are issued from the assumptions included in the estimate could result in significant differences between the estimated interest and the actual interest on the bonds. The statement may include additional qualifications as the unit deems appropriate. The validity of bonds authorized to be issued pursuant to this act is not subject to challenge on the grounds that the actual interest cost of the bonds when issued is different than the amount set forth in the estimate referenced in the publication of the bond order as introduced."

SECTION 3. G.S. 159-58 reads as rewritten:

"§ 159-58. Publication of bond order as adopted.

After adoption, the clerk shall publish the bond order once, with the following statement appended:

"The foregoing order was adopted on the _____ day of _____, _____, and is hereby published this _____ day of _____, _____. Any action or proceeding questioning the validity of the order must be begun within 30 days after the date of publication of this notice. The finance officer of the [issuing unit] has filed a statement estimating that the total amount of interest that will be paid on the bonds over the expected term of the bonds, if issued, is $_____. The estimate is preliminary, is for general informational purposes only, and may differ from the actual interest paid on the bonds.

Clerk"

The publication may include a summary of the assumptions upon which the estimate of the total amount of interest that will be paid on the bonds over the expected term of the bonds, if issued, is based, and may further state that there is no assurance that the circumstances included in the assumptions will occur, that the occurrence of certain of the assumptions is beyond the control of the issuing unit, and that differences between the actual circumstances at the time the bonds are issued from the assumptions included in the estimate could result in significant differences between the estimated interest and the actual interest on the bonds. The statement may include such additional qualifications as the unit deems appropriate. The validity of bonds authorized to be issued pursuant to this act is not subject to challenge on the grounds that the actual interest cost of the bonds when issued is different than the amount set forth in the estimate referenced in the publication of the bond order as adopted."

SECTION 4. G.S. 159-61(d) reads as rewritten:

"(d) The form of the question as stated on the ballot shall be in substantially the following words: "Shall the order authorizing $ _____ bonds plus interest for (briefly stating the purpose) and providing that additional taxes may be levied in an amount sufficient to pay the principal of and interest on the bonds be approved?

HOUSE BILL 248:
Taxpayer Debt Information Act

Committee:	Senate Finance	Date:	June 4, 2013
Introduced by:	Reps. Conrad, Fulghum, Cleveland, Blust	Prepared by:	Cindy Avrette Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	Second Edition

SUMMARY: House Bill 315 would make the estimation of interest on a proposed bond issuance of voted debt by a local government part of the LGC review process and would require the ballot question for the authorization of bonds to state that the authorization includes interest and that additional taxes may be levied to repay the debt.

CURRENT LAW: Article 4 of Chapter 159 of the General Statutes (Local Government Bond Act) governs the ability of units of local government to borrow money secured by a pledge of the taxing power. When a local government proposes to issue bonds that must be approved by a vote of the people,[1] it must publish a notice of intent to apply to the Local Government Commission (LGC) for approval. After considering an application, the LGC enters an order either approving or denying the application after considering several factors. The LGC must approve the application if it determines the following:

- The proposed bond issue is necessary or expedient.
- The proposed amount is adequate for the proposed purpose.
- The unit's debt management procedures are good, or that reasonable assurances have been given that its debt will be managed in strict compliance with the law.
- The increase in taxes, if necessary to service the proposed debt will not be excessive.
- The proposed bonds can be marketed at reasonable rates of interest.

Upon approval, the local government must hold a public hearing, followed by a bond referendum. Bonds may be issued under a bond order at any time within seven years after the order takes effect and up to 10 years with LGC approval. Any action contesting the validity of a bond referendum must begin within 30 days after the publication of the results. After this time period, no right of action may be brought. Chapter 142 governs the issuance of State debt.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Statement of Estimated Interest. – After or at the same time the application is filed, a bond order must be introduced before the governing board of the local government. Once introduced, the board must schedule a public hearing.

[1] Bonds issued for the following purposes do not require voter approval: (1) to suppress riots, insurrections, or any extraordinary breach of law and order; (2) to supply an unforeseen deficiency in the revenue when taxes actually received or collected during the fiscal year fall below collection estimates made in the annual budget ordinance; (3) to meet emergencies threatening the public health or safety, as conclusively determined in writing by the Governor; (4) to refund outstanding general obligation bonds or general obligation bond anticipation notes; (5) bonds as described in G.S. 159-49(2). There are also certain other purposes for which no vote is required to the extent of two-thirds of the amount by which the outstanding indebtedness of the issuing county, county water and sewer district, metro water district, or city was reduced in the preceding fiscal year.

Section 1 of the bill would require that, after the bond order has been introduced but before the public hearing, the finance officer of the local government unit file a statement with the clerk and the LGC indicating the estimated total amount of interest that will be paid on the bonds over the expected term of the bonds and a summary of the assumptions upon which the estimate is based. It must also include a statement to the effect that the estimate is preliminary, that there is no assurance that the assumptions upon which the estimate is based will occur, and that the actual circumstances at the time the bonds are issued from the assumptions could result in significant differences between the estimated interest and the actual interest. Section 1 also provides that the validity of the bonds is not subject to challenge on the grounds that the actual interest when issued is different than the amount set forth in the statement.

Publication of Bond Order. – The bond order must be published after it has been introduced and again after it has been approved. Upon publication after introduction, it must include a statement describing the amount of the proposed bonds, indicating that a tax may be levied to pay the principal and interest on the bonds, and announcing when the public hearing will be held. Upon publication after adoption, it must include a statement that any action challenging the validity of the order must commence within 30 days after the date of publication of the notice.

Sections 2 and 3 of the bill would add similar language to each of the statutes related to the publication of the bond order. They would require inclusion of a statement in the order that the finance officer has filed a statement of estimated interest and indicating what the estimated amount is. The changes would permit a summary of the assumptions to be included in the publication and would include disclaimer language to the effect that the estimated amount of interest is preliminary, is for general informational purposes only, and that the validity of the bonds may not be challenged on the basis of the actual interest being different than the estimated interest once the bonds are issued.

Ballot Question. – Under current law, the form of the question on the ballot for a local bond order is as follows:

"Shall the order authorizing $ _____ bonds for (briefly stating the purpose) be approved?
[ ] NO"

Section 4 of the bill would require that the ballot question also indicate that the approval includes the application of interest to the principal debt amount authorized, but would not state a specific amount of estimated interest. The ballot would also include a statement that additional taxes may be levied in an amount necessary to pay the principal and interest on the bonds.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act is effective when it becomes law and applies to bonds proposed on or after that date.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO FACILITATE THE DEPLOYMENT OF MOBILE BROADBAND AND OTHER ENHANCED WIRELESS COMMUNICATIONS SERVICES BY STREAMLINING THE PROCESSES USED BY STATE AGENCIES AND LOCAL GOVERNMENTS TO APPROVE THE PLACEMENT OF WIRELESS FACILITIES IN THEIR JURISDICTIONS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Article 19 of Chapter 160A of the General Statutes reads as rewritten:

"Part 3E. Wireless Telecommunications Facilities.

"§ 160A-400.50. Purpose and compliance with federal law.

(a) The purpose of this section is to ensure the safe and efficient integration of facilities necessary for the provision of advanced mobile broadband and wireless telecommunications services throughout the community and to ensure the ready availability of reliable wireless service to the public, government agencies, and first responders, with the intention of furthering the public safety and general welfare.

(a1) The deployment of wireless infrastructure is critical to ensuring first responders can provide for the health and safety of all residents of North Carolina and that, consistent with section 6409 of the federal Middle Class Tax Relief and Job Creation Act of 2012, 47 U.S.C. § 1455(a), which creates a national wireless emergency communications network for use by first responders that in large measure will be dependent on facilities placed on existing wireless communications support structures, it is the policy of this State to facilitate the placement of wireless communications support structures in all areas of North Carolina. The following standards shall apply to a city's actions, as a regulatory body, in the regulation of the placement, construction, or modification of a wireless communications facility.

(b) The placement, construction, or modification of wireless communications facilities shall be in conformity with the Federal Communications Act, 47 U.S.C. § 332 as amended, section 6409 of the federal Middle Class Tax Relief and Job Creation Act of 2012, 47 U.S.C. § 1455(a), and in accordance with the rules promulgated by the Federal Communications Commission.

"§ 160A-400.51. Definitions.

The following definitions apply in this Part.

(1) Antenna. – Communications equipment that transmits, receives, or transmits and receives electromagnetic radio signals used in the provision of all types of wireless communications services.

(2) Application. – A formal request submitted to the city to construct or modify a wireless support structure or a wireless facility.

(2a) Base station. – A station at a specific site authorized to communicate with mobile stations, generally consisting of radio receivers, antennas, coaxial cables, power supplies, and other associated electronics.

(3) Building permit. – An official administrative authorization issued by the city prior to beginning construction consistent with the provisions of G.S. 160A-417.

(4) Collocation. – The placement or installation of wireless facilities on existing structures, including electrical transmission towers, water towers, buildings, and other structures capable of structurally supporting the attachment of wireless facilities in compliance with applicable codes. ~~The installation of new wireless facilities on previously approved structures, including towers, buildings, utility poles, and water tanks.~~

(4a) Eligible facilities request. – A request for modification of an existing wireless tower or base station that involves collocation of new transmission equipment or replacement of transmission equipment but does not include a substantial modification.

(7a) Substantial modification. – The mounting of a proposed wireless facility on a wireless support structure that substantially changes the physical dimensions of the support structure. A mounting is presumed to be a substantial modification if it meets any one or more of the criteria listed below. The burden is on the local government to demonstrate that a mounting that does not meet the listed criteria constitutes a substantial change to the physical dimensions of the wireless support structure.

a. Increasing the existing vertical height of the structure by the greater of (i) more than ten percent (10%) or (ii) the height of one additional antenna array with separation from the nearest existing antenna not to exceed 20 feet.

b. Except where necessary to shelter the antenna from inclement weather or to connect the antenna to the tower via cable, adding an appurtenance to the body of a wireless support structure that protrudes horizontally from the edge of the wireless support structure the greater of (i) more than 20 feet or (ii) more than the width of the wireless support structure at the level of the appurtenance.

c. Increasing the square footage of the existing equipment compound by more than 2,500 square feet.

A city may plan for and regulate the siting or modification of wireless support structures and wireless facilities in accordance with land development regulations and in conformity with this Part. Except as expressly stated, nothing in this Part shall limit a city from regulating applications to construct, modify, or maintain wireless support structures, or construct, modify, maintain, or collocate wireless facilities on a wireless support structure based on consideration of land use, public safety, and zoning considerations, including aesthetics, landscaping, structural design, setbacks, and fall zones, or State and local building code requirements, consistent with the provisions of federal law provided in G.S. 160A-400.50. For purposes of this Part, public safety includes, without limitation, federal, State, and local safety regulations but does not include requirements relating to radio frequency emissions of wireless facilities.

"§ 160A-400.52. Construction of new wireless support structures or substantial modifications of ~~facilities and~~ wireless support structures.

~~(a) A city may plan for and regulate the siting or modification of wireless support structures and wireless facilities in accordance with land development regulations and in conformity with this Part. Except as expressly stated, nothing in this Part shall limit a city from regulating applications to construct, modify, or maintain wireless support structures, or construct, modify, maintain, or collocate wireless facilities on a wireless support structure based on consideration of land use, public safety, and zoning considerations, including aesthetics, landscaping, structural design, setbacks, and fall zones, or State and local building code requirements, consistent with the provisions of federal law provided in G.S. 160A-400.50. For purposes of this Part, public safety shall not include requirements relating to radio frequency emissions of wireless facilities.~~

(b) Any person that proposes to construct a new wireless support structure or substantially modify a wireless support structure ~~or wireless facility~~ within the planning and land-use jurisdiction of a city must do both of the following:

(1) Submit a completed application with the necessary copies and attachments to the appropriate planning authority.

(2) Comply with any local ordinances concerning land use and any applicable permitting processes.

(c) A city's review of an application for the ~~placement, construction,~~ placement or construction of a new wireless support structure or substantial modification of a ~~wireless facility or~~ wireless support structure shall only address public safety, land development, or zoning issues. In reviewing an application, the city may not require information on or evaluate an applicant's business decisions about its designed service, customer demand for its service, or quality of its service to or from a particular area or site. A city may not require information that concerns the specific need for the wireless support structure, including if the service to be provided from the wireless support structure is to add additional wireless coverage or additional wireless capacity. A city may not require proprietary, confidential, or other business information to justify the need for the new wireless support structure, including propagation maps and telecommunication traffic studies. In reviewing an application, the city may review the following:

(1) Applicable public safety, land use, or zoning issues addressed in its adopted regulations, including aesthetics, landscaping, land-use based location priorities, structural design, setbacks, and fall zones.

(2) Information or materials directly related to an identified public safety, land development, or zoning issue including evidence that no existing or previously approved wireless support structure can reasonably be used for the ~~antenna~~ wireless facility placement instead of the construction of a new ~~tower,~~wireless support structure, that residential, historic, and designated scenic areas cannot be served from outside the area, or that the proposed height of a new ~~tower~~ wireless support structure or initial ~~antenna~~ wireless facility placement or a proposed height increase of a substantially modified ~~tower,~~wireless support structure, or replacement ~~tower,~~wireless support structure ~~or collocation~~ is necessary to provide the applicant's designed service.

(3) A city may require applicants for new wireless facilities to evaluate the reasonable feasibility of collocating new antennas and equipment on an existing wireless support structure or structures within the applicant's search ring. Collocation on an existing wireless support structure is not reasonably feasible if collocation is technically or commercially impractical or the owner of the ~~tower~~ existing wireless support structure is unwilling to enter into a contract for such use at fair market value. Cities may require information necessary to determine whether collocation on existing wireless support structures is reasonably feasible.

~~(d) A collocation application entitled to streamlined processing under G.S. 160A-400.53 shall be deemed complete unless the city provides notice in writing to the applicant within 45 days of submission or within some other mutually agreed upon timeframe. The notice shall identify the deficiencies in the application which, if cured, would make the application complete. The application shall be deemed complete on resubmission if the additional materials cure the deficiencies identified.~~

(e) The city shall issue a written decision approving or denying an application ~~within 45 days in the case of collocation applications entitled to streamlined processing under G.S. 160A-400.53 and~~ under this section within a reasonable period of time consistent with the issuance of other land-use permits in the case of other applications, each as measured from the time the application is deemed complete.

(f) A city may fix and charge an application fee, consulting fee, or other fee associated with the submission, review, processing, and approval of an application to site new wireless support structures or to substantially modify wireless support structures or wireless facilities that is based on the costs of the services provided and does not exceed what is usual and customary for such services. Any charges or fees assessed by a city on account of an outside consultant shall be fixed in advance and incorporated into a permit or application fee and shall be based on the reasonable costs to be incurred by the city in connection with the regulatory review authorized under this section. The foregoing does not prohibit a city from imposing additional reasonable and cost based fees for costs incurred should an applicant amend its application. On request, the amount of the consultant charges incorporated into the permit or application fee shall be separately identified and disclosed to the applicant. The fee imposed by a city for review of the application may not be used for either of the following:

(1) Travel time or expenses, meals, or overnight accommodations incurred in the review of an application by a consultant or other third party.

(2) Reimbursements for a consultant or other third party based on a contingent fee basis or a results-based arrangement.

(g) The city may condition approval of an application for a new wireless support structure on the provision of documentation prior to the issuance of a building permit establishing the existence of one or more parties, including the owner of the wireless support structure, who intend to locate wireless facilities on the wireless support structure. A city shall not deny an initial land-use or zoning permit based on such documentation. A city may condition a permit on a requirement to construct facilities within a reasonable period of time, which shall be no less than 24 months.

(h) The city may not require the placement of wireless support structures or wireless facilities on city owned or leased property, but may develop a process to encourage the placement of wireless support structures or facilities on city owned or leased property, including an expedited approval process.

(i) This section shall not be construed to limit the provisions or requirements of any historic district or landmark regulation adopted pursuant to Part 3C of this Article.

"§ 160A-400.53. Collocation and eligible facilities requests of wireless support structures. ~~facilities.~~

(a) Pursuant to section 6409 of the federal Middle Class Tax Relief and Job Creation Act of 2012, 47 U.S.C. § 1455(a), a city may not deny and shall approve any eligible facilities request as provided in this section. Nothing in this Part requires an application and approval for routine maintenance or limits the performance of routine maintenance on wireless support structures and facilities, including in-kind replacement of wireless facilities. Routine maintenance includes activities associated with regular and general upkeep of transmission equipment, including the replacement of existing wireless facilities with facilities of the same size. A city may require an application for collocation or an eligible facilities request. ~~Applications for collocation entitled to streamlined processing under this section shall be reviewed for conformance with applicable site plan and building permit requirements but shall not otherwise be subject to zoning requirements, including design or placement requirements, or public hearing review.~~

(a1) A collocation or eligible facilities request application is deemed complete unless the city provides notice that the application is incomplete in writing to the applicant within 45 days of submission or within some other mutually agreed upon time frame. The notice shall identify the deficiencies in the application which, if cured, would make the application complete. A city may deem an application incomplete if there is insufficient evidence provided to show that the proposed collocation or eligible facilities request will comply with federal, State, and local safety requirements. A city may not deem an application incomplete for any issue not directly related to the actual content of the application and subject matter of the collocation or eligible facilities request. An application is deemed complete on resubmission if the additional materials cure the deficiencies indicated.

(a2) The city shall issue a written decision approving an eligible facilities request application within 45 days of such application being deemed complete. For a collocation application that is not an eligible facilities request, the city shall issue its written decision to approve or deny the application within 45 days of the application being deemed complete.

(a3) A city may impose a fee not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000) for technical consultation and the review of a collocation or eligible facilities request application. The fee must be based on the actual, direct, and reasonable administrative costs incurred for the review, processing, and approval of a collocation application. A city may engage a third-party consultant for technical consultation and the review of a collocation application. The fee imposed by a city for the review of the application may not be used for either of the following:

(1) Travel expenses incurred in a third party's review of a collocation application.

(2) Reimbursement for a consultant or other third party based on a contingent fee basis or results-based arrangement.

~~(b) Applications for collocation of wireless facilities are entitled to streamlined processing if the addition of the additional wireless facility does not exceed the number of wireless facilities previously approved for the wireless support structure on which the collocation is proposed and meets all the requirements and conditions of the original approval. This provision applies to wireless support structures which are approved on or after December 1, 2007.~~

~~(c) The streamlined process set forth in subsection (a) of this section shall apply to all collocations, in addition to collocations qualified for streamlined processing under subsection (b) of this section, that meet the following requirements:~~

~~(1) The collocation does not increase the overall height and width of the tower or wireless support structure to which the wireless facilities are to be attached.~~

~~(2) The collocation does not increase the ground space area approved in the site plan for equipment enclosures and ancillary facilities.~~

~~(3) The wireless facilities in the proposed collocation comply with applicable regulations, restrictions, or conditions, if any, applied to the initial wireless facilities placed on the tower or other wireless support structure.~~

~~(4) The additional wireless facilities comply with all federal, State and local safety requirements.~~

~~(5) The collocation does not exceed the applicable weight limits for the wireless support structure.~~"

SECTION 2. Article 18 of Chapter 153A of the General Statutes reads as rewritten:

"Part 3B. Wireless Telecommunications Facilities.

"§ 153A-349.50. Purpose and compliance with federal law.

(a) Purpose. – The purpose of this section is to ensure the safe and efficient integration of facilities necessary for the provision of advanced mobile broadband and wireless telecommunications services throughout the community and to ensure the ready availability of reliable wireless service to the public, government agencies, and first responders, with the intention of furthering the public safety and general welfare.

(a1) The deployment of wireless infrastructure is critical to ensuring first responders can provide for the health and safety of all residents of North Carolina and that, consistent with section 6409 of the federal Middle Class Tax Relief and Job Creation Act of 2012, 47 U.S.C. § 1455(a), which creates a national wireless emergency communications network for use by first responders that in large measure will be dependent on facilities placed on existing wireless communications support structures, it is the policy of this State to facilitate the placement of wireless communications support structures in all areas of North Carolina. The following standards shall apply to a county's actions, as a regulatory body, in the regulation of the placement, construction, or modification of a wireless communications facility.

(b) Compliance with the Federal Communications Act. – The placement, construction, or modification of wireless communications facilities shall be in conformity with the Federal Communications Act, 47 U.S.C. § 332 as amended, section 6409 of the federal Middle Class Tax Relief and Job Creation Act of 2012, 47 U.S.C. § 1455(a), and in accordance with the rules promulgated by the Federal Communications Commission.

"§ 153A-349.51A. Local authority.

A county may plan for and regulate the siting or modification of wireless support structures and wireless facilities in accordance with land development regulations and in conformity with this Part. Except as expressly stated, nothing in this Part shall limit a county from regulating applications to construct, modify, or maintain wireless support structures, or construct, modify, maintain, or collocate wireless facilities on a wireless support structure based on consideration of land use, public safety, and zoning considerations, including aesthetics, landscaping, structural design, setbacks, and fall zones, or State and local building code requirements, consistent with the provisions of federal law provided in G.S. 153A-349.50. For purposes of this Part, public safety includes, without limitation, federal, State, and local safety regulations but does not include requirements relating to radio frequency emissions of wireless facilities.

(a) The following definitions apply in this section:

(1) Antenna. – Communications equipment that transmits, receives, or transmits and receives electromagnetic radio signals used in the provision of all types of wireless communications services.

(2) Buildings. – Structures owned or leased by the State on which equipment may be placed or attached.

(3) Collocation. – The placement or installation of wireless facilities on existing structures, including electrical transmission towers, water towers, buildings, and other structures capable of structurally supporting the attachment of wireless facilities in compliance with applicable building and line safety codes.

(4) Equipment. – Antennas, transmitters, receivers, cables, wires, transformers, power supplies, electric and communication lines necessary for the provision of television broadcast signals, radio wave signals, wireless data or wireless telecommunication services to a discrete geographic area, and all other apparatuses and appurtenances, including shelters, cabinets, buildings, platforms, and ice bridges used to house or otherwise protect equipment.

electromagnetic radio signals used in the provision of wireless communications service, or the provisioning of wireless infrastructure.

(7) Tower. – New or existing structures, such as a monopole, lattice tower, guyed tower, fire observation tower or water tower that are designed to support or are capable of supporting equipment used in the transmission or receipt of televisions broadcast signals, radio wave signals, or electromagnetic radio signals used in the provision of wireless communication service.

(b) The State may lease real property, or may grant an easement or license with an interest in real property for the following communication purposes:~~any interest in real property, for the purposes of~~

(1) ~~construction and placement of communications~~Constructing, installing, and operating towers and equipment on State land.~~land or for placement of antennas upon State-owned structures.~~

(2) Installing and operating equipment on towers, buildings, or ground area owned or leased by the State.

(c) If otherwise feasible and determined by the Department of Administration to be in the best interest of the State:

(1) New towers constructed on State land shall be designed for collocation. This requirement shall not apply to towers constructed on State land by the State or any of its agencies or by a "public entity" as that term is defined in G.S. 146-29.1(b).

(2) The State shall encourage the collocation of equipment on existing towers and buildings owned by the State.

(3) The State shall sublease for collocation purposes space on any tower or ground area leased by the State, if allowed under the terms of the lease.

(4) The State shall, to the extent practicable, adopt standard terms and conditions for applications to lease, easements, or other conveyances of an interest in real property for communication purposes.

(d) Pursuant to G.S. 143-341(4)f., the Governor, acting with the approval of the Council of State, may adopt rules authorizing the Department of Administration to enter into or approve classes of leases, easements, or licenses with an interest in real property for the purposes set forth in this section. The rules may allow for execution of leases or other instruments by the Department of Administration rather than execution of the instruments in the manner prescribed in G.S. 146-74 through G.S. 146-78.

(e) Land in the State Parks System, as defined in G.S. 113-449.9, may only be leased or conveyed for the purposes of this section upon the approval of the Secretary of the Department of Environment and Natural Resources. Lease or conveyance of land in the State Parks System for the purposes of this section shall comply with the requirements of Articles 2 and 2C of Chapter 113 of the General Statutes. When selecting a location for a communications tower or antenna in the State Parks System, the State shall choose a location that minimizes the visual impact on the surrounding landscape. No land acquired or developed using funds from the Federal Land and Water Conservation Fund shall be leased or conveyed for the purposes of this section.

~~The following additional requirements shall apply to such leases:~~

~~(1) The lease shall require the lessee to permit other telecommunications carriers to co-locate on the communications tower on commercially reasonable terms between the lessee and the co-locating carrier until the communications tower reaches its capacity. Unless the State determines that co-location is not feasible at that location, the communications tower shall be designed and constructed to accommodate other carriers on the tower.~~

~~(2) The State shall, in determining the location of lands to be leased for communications towers, encourage communications towers to be located near other communications towers to the extent technically desirable.~~

~~(3) The State shall, when choosing a communications tower or antenna location, choose a location which minimizes the visual impact on surrounding landscape.~~

~~(4) The State shall not lease lands of the State Parks System for such purposes.~~

~~For purposes of this section, "co-locate and co-location" mean the sharing of a communications tower by two or more services.~~

(e) City and county ordinances apply to communications towers and antennas authorized under this section."

SECTION 4. Sections 1 and 2 of this act become effective October 1, 2013, and apply to applications received on or after that date. The remainder of this act is effective when it becomes law.

HOUSE BILL 664:
Cell Tower Deployment Act

Committee:	Senate Finance	Date:	June 5, 2013
Introduced by:	Reps. Hager, Moffitt, W. Brawley, Alexander	Prepared by:	Heather Fennell Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	PCS to Second Edition H664-CSTDf-27

SUMMARY: The PCS to House Bill 664 would amend local government authority to regulate the equipment and facilities used for the provision of wireless service. The bill would also amend the authority for the State to lease land for communication purpose.

The PCS makes two changes. First, the PCS clarifies the authority of local governments to impose a fee to review an eligible facilities request. Second, the PCS requires the approval of the Secretary of DENR is required to lease land in a State Park for the purpose of installing and operating communications equipment.

CURRENT LAW: Article 19 of Chapter 160A and Article 18 of Chapter 153A of the General Statutes provides for local government regulation of the equipment and network components necessary to provide wireless service and new or existing structures designed to support wireless facilities.

Local governments may regulate the location and modification of wireless facilities and wireless support structures based on considerations of land use, public safety and zoning considerations. These regulations may include aesthetics, landscaping, structural design, setbacks, and State and local building code requirements. The regulations must be consistent with federal law. Any person that proposes to construct or modify a wireless facility or wireless support structure must comply with local ordinances concerning land use and applicable permitting processes. Applications for wireless facilities and support structures must be submitted to the appropriate local government.

Collocation is the installation of new wireless facilities on previously-approved structures. Applications for collocation that meet the requirements are eligible for streamlined processing and are reviewed for conformance with applicable site plans and building permits, but are not subject to zoning requirements or public hearing review.

Applications eligible for the streamlined approval process are deemed complete unless the city or county provides written notice within 45 days of the submission of the application. Other applications are deemed complete within a reasonable time consistent with other land use permits for other uses. Local governments may charge application fees and consulting fees for the review of applications. Any charges or fees in relation to consultant services must be fixed in advance and included in the permit or application fee.

G.S. 146-29.2 authorizes the State to lease property for the placement of communication equipment on State land or State-owned structures. When feasible, leases must allow for collocation of equipment. The State must also minimalize visual impact on the landscape when locating a tower or antenna. The State cannot lease land in the State Parks System for communication towers.[1]

[1] G.S. 143-260.10 provides and exception to the prohibition of towers on State park land. The State may lease space in Mount Jefferson State Natural Area to local governments in Ashe County for public communications purposes.

The Federal Middle Class Tax Relief and Job Creation Act of 2012 preempts certain State and local regulation of wireless facilities. The Act provides, in part, "a State or local government may not deny, and shall approve, any eligible facilities request for a modification of an existing wireless tower or base station that does not substantially change the physical dimensions of such tower or base station." The Act also provides a definition of "eligible facilities request" to include a request to modify an existing wireless facility that involves collocation of new transmission equipment, removal of transmission equipment, or replacement of transmission equipment.

BILL ANALYSIS: Sections 1 and 2 of House Bill 664 provide identical modifications to the authority of cities and counties to regulate the construction and modification of wireless facilities.

Local Authority. – Except as otherwise limited by law, local governments may regulate the location and modification of wireless facilities and wireless support structures based on considerations of land use, public safety and zoning considerations.

The application and approval process for wireless facilities is divided into two categories: (1) construction of new facilities and substantial modification of facilities or (2) collocation and eligible facilities requests.

Construction of new facilities and substantial modification. – Applications must be filed to construct a new facility or to substantially modify an existing facility. To be considered a substantial modification, the change must meet certain criteria. If the change does not meet the criteria, the burden is on the local government to demonstrate that the modification is substantial. The criteria are:

- Increasing the existing vertical height of the structure by the greater of (i) more than ten percent (10%), or (ii) the height of one additional antenna array with separation from the nearest existing antenna not to exceed 20 feet.
- Except where necessary to shelter the antenna from inclement weather or to connect the antenna to the tower via cable, adding an appurtenance to the body of a wireless support structure that protrudes horizontally from the edge of the wireless support structure the greater of (i) more than 20 feet, or (ii) more than the width of the wireless support structure at the level of the appurtenance.
- Increasing the square footage of the existing equipment compound by more than 2,500 square feet.

The bill provides that certain information may not be requested in an application for new construction or a substantial modification to an existing structure. The city or county may not request information that concerns the specific need for the facility, including whether the facility is needed to add additional wireless coverage or capacity. A city or county may not request proprietary, confidential or other business information including propagation maps and telecommunication traffic studies.

The bill also provides that the fee for review of applications for new facilities and substantial modifications cannot be used for either:

- Travel expenses, meals, or overnight accommodations for consultants or third-parties.
- Reimbursements for consultants or third-parties that are paid on a contingent fee basis, or a results based arrangement.

Collocation and eligible facilities requests. – A city or county may also require applications for collocation and eligible facilities requests. Applications and approval are not required for routine maintenance requests or in-kind replacement of wireless facilities.

Applications for eligible facilities requests must be approved. Eligible facilities requests do not include substantial modifications to existing structures. Eligible facilities requests do include requests to modify an existing tower or base station, including the collocation of new transmission equipment or replacement of transmission equipment.

Applications for collocation or eligible facilities requests are considered complete, unless the local government notifies the applicant within 45 days, or another mutually agreed upon time frame. Notice of an incomplete application must provide notice of the deficiencies in the application. Applications may not be deemed incomplete for any information that is not related to the content of the application or the subject matter of the application. An application may be deemed incomplete if the application lacks sufficient evidence to show the proposed action would comply with safety requirements.

Written notice of whether the application for collocation is approved or denied must be issued with 45 days of submission of a complete application. Written approval of applications for eligible facilities requests must be issued in 45 days of submission of a complete application.

A local government may impose a fee to review an application for collocation or an eligible facilities request. The fee may not exceed $1000 and must be based on the actual, direct, and reasonable administrative costs of the review of the application. The local government may use a third-party consultant for review of the application. The fee may not be used for either:

- Travel expenses, meals, or overnight accommodations for consultants or third-parties.
- Reimbursements for consultants or third-parties that are paid on a contingent fee basis, or a results based arrangement.

Section 3 of the bill amends the provisions related to the State's authority to lease State land for communications purposes. The State may lease real property, or grant an easement or license with an interest in real property for the purpose of constructing towers or other communications equipment on State land, or installing and operating equipment on towers or buildings on State land.

If otherwise feasible and determined to be in the best interest of the State, new towers shall be designed for collocation, the State shall encourage collocation, and the State shall sublease for collocation purposes. The State must also adopt standard terms and conditions for leases, easements, or other conveyances for communications purposes.

The Governor, with approval of the Council of State, may adopt rules authorizing the Department of Administration to enter into leases, easements, or licenses for communication purposes. The rules may allow for the execution of these documents by the Department.

The Secretary of DENR must approve leases and conveyances for communications purposes for land on the State Parks System. When locating communications equipment on land in the State Parks System, the State must choose a location that minimizes the visual impact on the surrounding landscape.

EFFECTIVE DATE: Sections 1 and 2 of the bill are effective October 1, 2013, and applies to applications received on or after that date. The remainder of the bill is effective when it becomes law.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 96-4(q), as enacted by S.L. 2013-2, reads as rewritten:

"(q) The ~~Division~~ Board of Review after due notice shall have the right and power to hold and conduct hearings for the purpose of determining the rights, status and liabilities of an employer. The Board of Review shall have the power and authority to determine any and all questions and issues of fact or questions of law that may arise under the Employment Security Law that may affect the rights, liabilities and status of an employer including the right to determine the amount of contributions, if any, which may be due the Division by any employer. Hearings may be before the Board of Review and shall be held in the central office of the Board of Review or at any other designated place within the State. They shall be open to the public and shall consist of a review of the evidence taken by a hearing officer designated by the Board of Review and a determination of the law applicable to that evidence. The Board of Review shall provide for the taking of evidence by a hearing officer employed in the capacity of an attorney by the Department. Such hearing officer shall have the same power to issue subpoenas, administer oaths, conduct hearings and take evidence as is possessed by the Board of Review and such hearings shall be recorded, and he shall transmit all testimony and records of such hearings to the Board for its determination. All such hearings conducted by such hearing officer shall be scheduled and held in any county in this State in which the employer resides, maintains a place of business, or conducts business; however, the Board of Review may require additional testimony at any hearings held by it at its office. From all decisions or determinations made by the Board of Review, any party affected thereby shall be entitled to an appeal to the superior court. Before a party shall be allowed to appeal, the party shall within 10 days after notice of such decision or determination, file with the Board of Review exceptions to the decision or the determination, which exceptions will state the grounds of objection to the decision or determination. If any one of the exceptions shall be overruled then the party may appeal from the order overruling the exceptions, and shall, within 10 days after the decision overruling the exceptions, give notice of his appeal. When an exception is made to the facts as found by the Board of Review, the appeal shall be to the superior court in term time but the decision or determination of the Board of Review upon such review in the superior court shall be conclusive and binding as to all questions of fact supported by any competent evidence. When an exception is made to any rulings of law, as determined by the Board of Review, the appeal shall be to the judge of the superior court at chambers. The party appealing shall, within 10 days after the notice of appeal has been served, file with the Board of Review exceptions to the decision or determination overruling the exception which statement shall assign the errors complained of and the grounds of the appeal. Upon the filing of such statement the Board of Review shall, within 30 days, transmit all the papers and evidence considered by it, together with the assignments of errors filed by the appellant to a judge of the superior court holding court or residing in some district in which such appellant either resides, maintains a place of business or conducts business, or, unless the appellant objects after being given reasonable opportunity to object, to a judge of the Superior Court of Wake County: Provided, however, the 30-day period specified herein may be extended by agreement of parties."

SECTION 6. G.S. 96-9.6(e), as enacted by S.L. 2013-2, reads as rewritten:

"(e) Annual Reconciliation. – A reimbursing employer must maintain an account balance equal to one percent (1%) of its taxable wages. The Division must determine the balance of each employer's account on the computation date. If there is a deficit in the account, the Division must bill the employer for the amount necessary to bring its account to one percent (1%) of its taxable wages for the ~~preceding calendar year.~~ immediate four quarters preceding July 1. Any amount in the account in excess of the one percent (1%) of taxable wages will be retained in the employer's account as a credit and will not be refunded to the employer. The Division must send a bill as soon as practical. Payment is due within 30 days from the date a bill is mailed. Amounts unpaid by the due date accrue interest and penalties in the same manner as past-due contributions and are subject to the same collection remedies provided under G.S. 96-10 for past-due contributions."

"§ 96-11.2. Allocation of charges to base period employers.

Benefits paid to an individual are charged to an employer's account when the individual's benefit year has expired. Benefits paid to an individual must be allocated to the account of each base period employer in the proportion that the base period wages paid to the individual in a calendar quarter by each base period employer bears to the total wages paid to the individual in ~~that quarter~~ the base period by all base period employers. The amount allocated to an employer that pays contributions is multiplied by one hundred twenty percent (120%) and charged to that employer's account. The amount allocated to an employer that elects to reimburse the Unemployment Insurance Fund in lieu of paying contributions is the amount of benefits charged to that employer's account."

SECTION 11. G.S. 96-11.4(a), as enacted by S.L. 2013-2, reads as rewritten:

(2) The employer or agent has a pattern of failing to respond timely or adequately to requests from the Division for information relating to claims for unemployment compensation. In determining whether the employer or agent has a pattern of failing to respond timely or adequately, the Division must consider the number of documented instances of that employer's or agent's failures to respond in relation to the total requests made to that employer or agent. An employer or agent may not be determined to have a pattern of failing to respond if the number of failures during the year prior to the request is ~~less~~ fewer than two or less than two percent (2%) of the total requests made to that employer or agent, whichever is greater.~~agent.~~"

SECTION 12. G.S. 96-14.1(e), as enacted by S.L. 2013-2, reads as rewritten:

"(e) Federal Restrictions. – Benefits are not payable for services performed by the following individuals, to the extent prohibited by section 3304 of the Code:

(1) Instructional, research, or principal administrative employees of educational institutions.

(2) Services in any other capacity for an educational institution.

~~(2)~~(3) Professional athletes.

~~(3)~~(4) Aliens."

SECTION 13. G.S. 96-14.3, as enacted by S.L. 2013-2, reads as rewritten:

"§ 96-14.3. Minimum and maximum duration of benefits.

The minimum and maximum number of weeks an individual is allowed to receive unemployment benefits depends on the seasonal adjusted statewide unemployment rate that applies to the six-month base period in which the claim is filed. One six-month base period begins on January 1 and one six-month base period begins on July 1. For the base period that begins January 1, the average of the seasonal adjusted unemployment ~~rate~~ rates for the State for the preceding ~~month~~ months of ~~October~~ July, August, and September applies. For the base period that begins July 1, the average of the seasonal adjusted unemployment ~~rate~~ rates for the State for the preceding ~~month~~ months of ~~April~~ January, February, and March applies. The Division must use the most recent seasonal adjusted unemployment rate determined by the U.S. Department of Labor, Bureau of Labor Statistics, and not the rate as revised in the annual benchmark. The number of weeks allowed for an individual is determined in accordance with G.S. 96-14.4.

SECTION 14. G.S. 96-14.9(d), as enacted by S.L. 2013-2, reads as rewritten:

(4) The individual is on disciplinary suspension for ~~more than~~ 30 or fewer days based on acts or omissions that constitute fault on the part of the employee and are connected with the work."

SECTION 15. G.S. 96-14.10, as enacted by S.L. 2013-2, reads as rewritten:

"§ 96-14.10. Disciplinary suspension.

The disciplinary suspension of an employee for 30 or fewer consecutive calendar days does not constitute good cause for leaving work. An individual who is on suspension is not available for work and is not eligible for benefits for any week during any part of the disciplinary suspension. If the disciplinary suspension exceeds 30 days, the individual is considered to have been discharged from work because of the acts or omissions that caused the suspension and the issue is whether the discharge was for disqualifying reasons. During the period of suspension of ~~up to~~ 30 or fewer days, the individual is considered to be attached to the employer's payroll, and the issue of separation from work is held in abeyance until a claim is filed for a week to which this section does not apply."

SECTION 16. G.S. 96-15(a1), as enacted by S.L. 2013-2, reads as rewritten:

"(a1) Attached Claims. – An employer may file claims for employees through the use of automation in the case of partial unemployment. An employer may file an attached claim for an employee only once during a ~~calendar year,~~ benefit year, and the period of partial unemployment for which the claim is filed may not exceed six weeks. To file an attached claim, an employer must pay the Division an amount equal to the full cost of unemployment benefits payable to the employee under the attached claim at the time the attached claim is filed. The Division must credit the amounts paid to the Unemployment Insurance Fund.

An employer may file an attached claim under this subsection only if the employer has a positive credit balance in its account as determined under Article 2B of this Chapter. If an employer does not have a positive credit balance in its account, the employer must remit to the Division an amount equal to the amount necessary to bring the employer's negative credit balance to at least zero at the time the employer files the attached claim."

SECTION 17. G.S. 96-15(b), as enacted by S.L. 2013-2, reads as rewritten:

(2) Adjudication. – When a protest is made by the claimant to the initial or monetary determination, or a question or issue is raised or presented as to the eligibility of a claimant, or whether any disqualification should be imposed, or benefits denied or adjusted pursuant to G.S. 96-18, the matter shall be referred to an adjudicator. The adjudicator may consider any matter, document or statement deemed to be pertinent to the issues, including telephone conversations, and after such consideration shall render a conclusion as to the claimant's benefit entitlements. The adjudicator shall notify the claimant and all other interested parties of the conclusion reached. The conclusion of the adjudicator shall be deemed the final decision of the Division unless within 30 days after the date of notification or mailing of the conclusion, whichever is earlier, a written appeal is filed pursuant to rules adopted by the Division. The Division shall be deemed an interested party for such purposes and may remove to itself or transfer to an appeals referee the proceedings involving any claim pending before an adjudicator.

Provided, any interested employer shall be allowed ~~10~~14 days from the mailing or delivery of the notice of the filing of a claim against the employer's account, whichever first occurs, to file with the Division its ~~account to~~ protest of the claim in order to ~~and~~ have the claim referred to an adjudicator for a decision on the question or issue raised. Any protest filed must contain a basis for the protest and supporting statement of facts, and the protest may not be amended after the 14-day period from the mailing or delivery of the notice of filing of a claim has expired. A copy of the notice of the filing shall be sent contemporaneously to the employer by telefacsimile transmission if a fax number is on file. No payment of benefits shall be made by the Division to a claimant until one of the following occurs:

a. The employer has filed a timely protest to the claim.

b. The 14-day period for the filing of a protest by the employer has expired.

c. A determination under this subdivision has been made.

Provided further, no question or issue may be raised or presented by the Division as to the eligibility of a claimant, or whether any disqualification should be imposed, after 45 days from the first day of the first week after the question or issue occurs with respect to which week an individual filed a claim for benefits. None of the provisions of this subsection shall have the force and effect nor shall the same be construed or interested as repealing any other provisions of G.S. 96-18.

An employer shall receive written notice of the employer's appeal rights and any forms that are required to allow the employer to protest the claim. The forms shall include a section referencing the appropriate rules pertaining to appeals and the instructions on how to appeal."

SECTION 18. G.S. 96-9.15(d), as enacted by S.L. 2013-2, reads as rewritten:

"(d) Form of Report. – An employer must complete the tax form prescribed by the Division. An employer or an agent of an employer that reports wages for at least 25 employees must file the portion of the "Employer's Quarterly Tax and Wage Report" that contains the name, social security number, and gross wages of each employee in ~~a~~ an electronic format prescribed by the Division. For failure of an employer to comply with this subsection, the Division must assess a penalty of twenty-five dollars ($25.00). For failure of an agent of an employer to comply with this subsection, the Division may deny the agent the right to report wages and file reports for that employer for a period of one year following the calendar quarter in which the agent filed the improper report. The Division may reduce or waive a penalty for good cause shown."

SECTION 19. Section 11 of S.L. 2013-2 reads as rewritten:

"SECTION 11. This act becomes effective July 1, 2013. Changes made by this act to unemployment benefits apply to claims for benefits filed on or after ~~July 1, 2013.~~ June 30, 2013. The requirements of G.S. 96-15(a1), as enacted by S.L. 2013-2 and amended by Section 14 of this act, apply to any week of an attached claim filed on or after June 30, 2013. Changes made by this act to require an account balance by an employer that is a governmental entity or a nonprofit organization and that elects to finance benefits by making reimbursable payments in lieu of contributions apply to advance payments payable for calendar quarters beginning on or after July 1, 2013. Changes made by this act to the determination and application of the contribution rate apply to contributions payable for calendar quarters beginning on or after January 1, 2014."

SECTION 20.(a) G.S. 96-4(x)(6), as enacted by S.L. 2013-2, reads as rewritten:

"(6) Nothing in this subsection (x)~~(t)~~ shall operate to relieve any claimant or employer from disclosing any information required by this Chapter or by regulations promulgated thereunder."

SECTION 20.(b) G.S. 96-4(x)(7) reads as rewritten:

"(7) Nothing in this subsection (x)~~(t)~~ shall be construed to prevent the Division from allowing any individual or entity to examine and copy any report, return, or any other written communication made by that individual or entity to the Division, its agents, or its employees."

SECTION 20.(c) G.S. 96-9.5(4)(c.), as enacted by S.L. 2013-2, reads as rewritten:

"c. The employer has elected coverage in this State in accordance with ~~G.S. 96-9.9.~~G.S. 96-9.8."

SECTION 20.(d) G.S. 96-10(d) reads as rewritten:

paid, or a certificate that no contributions are due. If the purchaser of a business or a successor of such employer shall fail to withhold purchase money or any money due to such employer in consideration of a lease or other transfer and the contributions shall be due and unpaid after the next reporting date, as above set forth, such successor shall be personally liable to the extent of the assets of the business so acquired for the payment of the contributions accrued and unpaid on account of the operation of the business by the former owner or employer."

SECTION 20.(e) G.S. 96-14.11(c)(2), as enacted by S.L. 2013-2, reads as rewritten:

"(2) The individual has satisfied the requirements of this Chapter for the receipt of regular benefits that are applicable to individuals claiming extended benefits, including not being subject to a disqualification for the receipt of benefits. Provided, however, that for purposes of disqualification for extended benefits for weeks of unemployment beginning after March 31, 1981, the term "suitable work" means any work which is within the individual's capabilities to perform if: (i) The gross average weekly remuneration payable for the work exceeds the sum of the individual's weekly extended benefit amount plus the amount, if any, of supplemental unemployment benefits (as defined in section 501(C)(17)(D) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954) payable to such individual for such week; and (ii) the gross wages payable for the work equal the higher of the minimum wages provided by section 6(a)(1) of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 as amended (without regard to any exemption), or the State minimum wage; and (iii) the work is offered to the individual in writing and is listed with the State employment service; and (iv) the considerations contained in G.S. 96-14.9(f)~~G.S. 96-14(3)~~ for determining whether or not work is suitable are applied to the extent that they are not inconsistent with the specific requirements of this subdivision; and (v) the individual cannot furnish evidence satisfactory to the Division that his prospects for obtaining work in his customary occupation within a reasonably short period of time are good, but if the individual submits evidence which the Division deems satisfactory for this purpose, the determination of whether or not work is suitable with respect to such individual shall be made in accordance with G.S. 96-14.9(f)~~G.S. 96-14(3)~~ without regard to the definition contained in this subdivision. Provided, further, that no work shall be deemed to be suitable work for an individual which does not accord with the labor standard provisions set forth in this subdivision, but the employment service shall refer any individual claiming extended benefits to any work which is deemed suitable hereunder. Provided, further, that any individual who has been disqualified for voluntarily leaving employment, being discharged for misconduct or substantial fault, or refusing suitable work under G.S. 96-14.11~~G.S. 96-14~~ and who has had the disqualification terminated, shall have such disqualification reinstated when claiming extended benefits unless the termination of the disqualification was based upon employment subsequent to the date of the disqualification."

"(3) After March 31, 1981, he has not failed either to apply for or to accept an offer of suitable work, as defined in G.S. 96-14.14(c)(2),~~G.S. 96-12.01(c)(2),~~ to which he was referred by an employment office of the Division, and he has furnished the Division with tangible evidence that he has actively engaged in a systematic and sustained effort to find work. If an individual is found to be ineligible hereunder, he shall be ineligible beginning with the week in which he either failed to apply for or to accept the offer of suitable work or failed to furnish the Division with tangible evidence that he has actively engaged in a systematic and sustained effort to find work and such individual shall continue to be ineligible for extended benefits until he has been employed in each of four subsequent weeks (whether or not consecutive) and has earned remuneration equal to not less than four times his weekly benefit amount."

HOUSE BILL 743:
UI Laws Administrative Changes

2013-2014 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Finance	Date:	June 5, 2013
Introduced by:	Reps. Howard, Warren	Prepared by:	Greg Roney Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	PCS to Second Edition H743-CSTMx-43

SUMMARY: The Proposed Committee Substitute (PCS) for House Bill 743 would make administrative and technical changes to S.L. 2013-2, UI Fund Solvency & Program Changes (House Bill 4) and correct cross references in Chapter 96 of the General Statutes.

CURRENT LAW: S.L. 2013-2, UI Fund Solvency & Program Changes (House Bill 4) made changes to the State unemployment insurance program (UI) to accelerate the repayment of the $2.5 billion advance the State borrowed from the federal government to pay UI benefits. The Governor signed S.L. 2013-2 on February 19, 2013.

BILL ANALYSIS: The PCS for House Bill 743 would make the following technical changes to S.L. 2013-2, UI Fund Solvency & Program Changes (House Bill 4):

- Correct references to "Board of Review."
- Clarify that penalties are paid into the Supplemental Employment Security Administration Fund then transferred to the Civil Penalty and Forfeiture Fund.
- Correct reference to the Unemployment Insurance Reserve Fund as an enterprise fund – not a special revenue fund.
- Correct references to fiscal years.
- Clarify that amounts in the account of a reimbursing employer in excess of 1% of taxable wages will not be refunded to the employer and will be retained as a credit.
- Correct language taken from Internal Revenue Code section 3304.
- Determine the minimum and maximum number of weeks of benefits based on the seasonal adjusted statewide unemployment rate over a 3-month period. S.L. 2013-2 used the unemployment rate for a single month to determine the weeks of benefits. Using an average of 3 months avoids administrative delays when the US Department of Labor adjusts the unemployment rate for a month subsequent to the announcement.
- Correct definition of disciplinary suspension to less than 30 days from more than 30 days.
- Require by statute that employers must state a basis for a protest of a claim within 15 days from the delivery of the notice of filing of a claim.
- Require by statute that benefits are not paid until one of the following occurs: the employer files a protest, the 14-day period to file a protest expires, or the claim is adjudicated.
- Require by statute that employers with 25 employees file wage reports in an electronic format.
- Move the effective date from Monday, July 1, 2013 to Sunday, June 30, 2013 because claims for unemployment benefits are based on weeks beginning on Sundays.

- Direct the Governor to appoint the members of the Board of Review by September 1, 2013 and allow the initial Board of Review appointments to serve without confirmation by the General Assembly.
- Correct statutory cross references and other technical errors.

The PCS for House Bill 743 would also correct cross references in Chapter 96 of the General Statutes.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The PCS to House Bill 743 would be effective when it becomes law.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO CREATE AN INFRASTRUCTURE PROPERTY TAX DEFERRAL PROGRAM.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Article 12 of Subchapter II of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 105-277.15A. Taxation of site infrastructure land.

(a) Classification. – Site infrastructure land is designated a special class of property under Section 2(2) of Article V of the North Carolina Constitution and must be appraised, assessed, and taxed in accordance with this section.

(b) Requirements. – Land qualifies as site infrastructure land if it meets the following size and use requirements:

(1) Size. – The land must consist of at least 100 contiguous acres.

(2) Use. – The land must meet all of the following requirements:

a. It must be zoned for industrial use, office use, or both.

b. A building permit for a primary building or structure must not have been issued for the land, and there is no primary building or structure on the land.

c. It must be classified under G.S. 105-277.3 or have been classified under G.S. 105-277.3 within the previous six months.

(c) Deferred Taxes. – An owner may defer a portion of tax imposed on site infrastructure land that represents the sum of the increase in value of the property attributable solely to improvements made to the site infrastructure land, if any, and the difference between the true value of the site infrastructure land and the value of the site infrastructure land as if it were classified under G.S. 105-277.3 as agricultural land. The difference between the taxes due under this section and the taxes that would have been payable in the absence of this section is a lien on the site infrastructure land as provided in G.S. 105-355(a). The difference in taxes must be carried forward in the records of each taxing unit as deferred taxes. The deferred taxes are due and payable in accordance with G.S. 105-277.1F when the site infrastructure land loses its eligibility for deferral because of the occurrence of a disqualifying event as follows:

(1) The deferred taxes for the preceding five fiscal years are due and payable when an amount equal to the deferred taxes is not invested in improvements to make the land suitable for industrial use, office use, or both within five years from the first day of the fiscal year the property was classified under this section.

(2) The deferred taxes for the preceding five fiscal years are due and payable when the minimum investment required by subdivision (1) of this subsection is timely made, but the land has been classified under this section for 10 years.

(3) All deferred taxes are due and payable when some or all of the site infrastructure land is rezoned for a use other than for industrial use, office use, or both.

(4) The deferred taxes for the preceding year are due and payable when the land is transferred or when a building permit for a primary building or structure for the land is issued.

(d) Notice. – On or before September 1 of each year, the collector shall notify each owner to whom a tax deferral has previously been granted of the accumulated sum of deferred taxes and interest. An owner who fails to notify the county assessor when land classified under this section loses its eligibility for classification is subject to a penalty in the amount set in G.S. 105-277.5.

(e) Exception to Payment. – No deferred taxes are due in the following circumstances, and the deferred taxes remain a lien on the land:

(1) When the owner of site infrastructure land that was previously classified under G.S. 105-277.3 does not transfer the land, and the land again becomes eligible for classification under G.S. 105-277.3. In this circumstance, the deferred taxes are payable in accordance with G.S. 105-277.3.

(2) When a portion of the site infrastructure land is transferred for industrial use, office use, or both or has issued for the land a building permit for a primary building or structure for industrial use, office use, or both, and the remainder of the site infrastructure land no longer meets the size requirement of this section. In this circumstance, the deferred taxes for the remainder are payable in accordance with this section without application of the size requirement of subdivision (b)(1) of this section.

(f) Application. – An application for property tax relief provided by this section should be filed during the regular listing period but may be filed after the regular listing period upon a showing of good cause by the applicant for failure to make a timely application, as determined and approved by the board of equalization and review or, if that board is not in session, by the board of county commissioners. An untimely application approved under this subsection applies only to property taxes levied by the county or municipality in the calendar year in which the untimely application is filed. Decisions of the county board may be appealed to the Property Tax Commission. Persons may apply for this property tax relief by entering the appropriate information on a form made available by the assessor under G.S. 105-282.1. An application for property tax relief provided by this section may not be approved for any portion of site infrastructure land which has previously lost eligibility for the program.

(g) Report. – On August 1 of each year, the Secretary shall report to the Department of Commerce the number and location of site infrastructure lands qualified under this section."

SECTION 2. G.S. 105-277.3 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(d3) Site Infrastructure Exception. – When an owner of land classified under this section (i) does not transfer the land and the land becomes eligible for classification under G.S. 105-277.15A or (ii) does transfer the land but the land becomes eligible for classification under G.S. 105-277.15A within six months of the transfer, no deferred taxes are due. The deferred taxes remain a lien on the land and are payable in accordance with G.S. 105-277.15A."

SECTION 3. G.S. 105-277.1F(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) Scope. – This section applies to the following deferred tax programs:

(1) G.S. 105-275(12), real property owned by a nonprofit corporation held as a protected natural area.

(1a) G.S. 105-275(29a), historic district property held as future site of historic structure.
(2) G.S. 105-277.1B, the property tax homestead circuit breaker.
(2a) G.S. 105-277.1D, the inventory property tax deferral.
(3) G.S. 105-277.4(c), present-use value property.
(4) G.S. 105-277.14, working waterfront property.
(4a) G.S. 105-277.15, wildlife conservation land.
(4b) G.S. 105-277.15A, site infrastructure land.
(5) G.S. 105-278(b), historic property.
(6) G.S. 105-278.6(e), nonprofit property held as future site of low- or moderate-income housing."

SECTION 4. G.S. 143B-437.02(k) reads as rewritten:

"(k) Monitoring and Reports. – The Department is responsible for monitoring compliance with the performance criteria under each site development agreement and for administering the repayment in case of default. The Department shall pay for the cost of this monitoring from funds appropriated to it for that purpose or for other economic development purposes.

On September 1 of each year until all funds have been expended, the Department shall report to the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations regarding the Site Infrastructure Development Program. This report shall include a listing of each agreement negotiated and entered into during the preceding year, including the name of the business, the cost/benefit analysis conducted by the Committee during the application process, a description of the project, and the amount of the site development incentive expected to be paid under the agreement during the current fiscal year. The report shall also include detailed information about any defaults and repayment during the preceding ~~year.~~year and the information contained in the report required by G.S. 105-277.15A(g). The Department shall publish this report on its web site and shall make printed copies available upon request."

SECTION 5. Sections 1, 2, and 3 of this act are effective for taxes imposed for taxable years beginning on or after July 1, 2013. The remainder of this act is effective when it becomes law.

HOUSE BILL 439:
Economic Development Jobsites Program

2013-2014 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Finance	Date:	June 5, 2013
Introduced by:	Reps. Howard, Moffitt, Murry, Tine	Prepared by:	Dan Ettefagh Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	Second Edition

SUMMARY: This act creates a property tax deferral program to defer a portion of taxes on a parcel of property if the parcel (i) is at least 100 contiguous acres, (ii) is zoned for industrial and/or office use, (iii) does not have a building permit for a primary building or structure issued for it, and (iv) is classified under the present use value (PUV) property tax deferral program or was classified under the PUV program within the previous 6 months. The portion of taxes to be deferred is the sum of the value of any improvements on the site and the difference between the true value of the site and the value of the site treated as agricultural land in the present-use value program.

CURRENT LAW: North Carolina currently has seven property tax deferral programs: (i) historic district property held as a future site of historic structures, (ii) the circuit breaker tax deferral program, (iii) nonprofit property held as a future site of low or moderate income housing, (iv) PUV property, (v) working waterfront property, (vi) historic property, and (vii) the inventory deferral program. Uniform tax provisions for all deferral programs include the following:

- Taxes that are deferred under one of these programs become a lien on the property, which is extinguished when the taxes are paid.
- The deferred taxes are due and payable on the day the property loses its eligibility for deferral as a result of a disqualifying event.
- Interest accrues during the deferral period as of the date the taxes would have originally become due without the deferral program.
- Upon disqualification, the tax for a year in which a disqualifying event occurs is computed without the benefit of the deferral program.

BILL ANALYSIS: This bill would create an eighth property tax deferral program for sites with potential to be developed for office or industrial applications and encourage horizontal improvement so as to make them more readily adapted to those uses in a shorter timeframe. In order to qualify, the site must be zoned for office and/or industrial use, must consist of at least 100 acres, may not have a building permit for a primary building or structure issued for it, and must be or have been enrolled within the previous six months in the PUV program. The amount of property tax liability that can be deferred is the portion of tax that represents the increase in the property value resulting from any existing horizontal improvement plus the difference between the property valued at its true value and the property valued as agricultural land in the present use value system.

The deferred taxes are carried forward in the records of the county and, if applicable, the city in which the property is located until the occurrence of a disqualifying event. A disqualifying event causes the current years' tax liability (without benefit of the program) and some previous years' deferred tax liability to be due and payable as follows:

- If, within five years of classification, an amount equal to the deferred taxes is not invested in improvements to make the land suitable for office and/or industrial use ("minimum investment"), the deferred taxes for the preceding five years are due and payable.
- If the minimum investment is made but the property is classified for 10 years in the program, the deferred taxes for the preceding five years are due and payable.
- If some or all of the land is rezoned for a use other than office and/or industrial use, all deferred taxes are due and payable.
- If land is transferred or a building permit issues for the land, the deferred taxes (for only that portion transferred or to which the permit applies) for the preceding year are due and payable. The remaining parcel continues to receive treatment under this classification, even if it no longer meets the size requirement.

The tax collector must annually notify the owner of the accumulated sum of deferred taxes and interest. The owner must notify the county assessor if the land loses eligibility for the program, or the owner will be subject to a penalty of 10% of the total amount of deferred taxes and interest. The uniform provisions for deferral programs apply to this tax deferral program. Annual applications should be filed within the regular listing period and may be filed later if the board of equalization and review determines there is good cause for the lack of timely filing.

Deferred taxes are not triggered if land enrolled in the program is eligible and is transitioned back into a PUV program. The Secretary must annually report the number and location of lands enrolled in the program to the Department of Commerce, and the Department of Commerce must include that information in an annual publication.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This bill would be effective for taxes imposed for taxable years beginning on or after July 1, 2013.

Authorize Various Special Plates

2013-2014 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Finance	Date:	June 5, 2013
Introduced by:	Sen. Brock	Prepared by:	Heather Fennell Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	PCS to First Edition S571-CSTDf-25

SUMMARY: The PCS to Senate Bill 571 authorizes the Division of Motor Vehicles to issue various special license plates and makes various other change to the statutes concerning special plates.

[As introduced, this bill was identical to H22, as introduced by Reps. Warren, Stevens, Torbett, Ford, which is currently in House Transportation, if favorable, Finance.]

CURRENT LAW: G.S. 29-79.4 provides that upon application and payment of the required registration fees, a person may obtain from the Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV) a special registration plate for a motor vehicle registered in that person's name if the person qualifies for the registration plate. The issuance of most authorized plates is contingent upon the receipt by DMV of at least 300 applications for the particular plate.

As a general rule, the fee for a special registration plate is the regular vehicle registration fee plus a $10 special registration plate fee. The Division may issue one free registration plate to a recipient of the Legion of Valor award, a 100% disabled veteran, or an ex-prisoner of war. All other special registration plates, including additional Legion of Valor, 100% Disabled Veteran, and Ex-Prisoner of War plates, are subject to the regular motor vehicle registration fee of $28, and the additional special registration plate fee of $10.

The $10 special registration plate fee is credited to the Special Registration Plate Account. After deducting the cost of the plates from this account, $1.3 million is appropriated to provide operating assistance for Visitor Centers. The remaining revenue in the account is transferred quarterly to the Department of Commerce for advertising (33%), the Department of Transportation for highway beautification (50%), and the Department of Human Resources to promote travel accessibility for disabled persons (17%).

The cost of some special plates includes a fee in addition to the $10 special registration plate fee. In those instances, the first $10 goes to the special registration plate fund and the remainder is transferred quarterly to designated beneficiaries of the additional fee amount.

BILL ANALYSIS: Sections 1 through 5 of the PCS to Senate Bill 571 authorizes the Division of Motor Vehicles to issue the following new special license plates, and specifies the use of the additional special plate fee in excess of $10. The additional fee authorized for each plate follows the name of the plate:

- Flag of the United States of America - $10.
- Improved Benevolent and Protective Order of the Elks of the World (I.B.P.O.E.W) - $25.
- Municipality Plate - $30.
- National Law Enforcement Officers Memorial - $30.

- NC First Robotics - $30.
- NC Sportsmen's Caucus - $30.
- North Carolina's Cattlemen's Association - $30.
- Operation Coming Home - $30.
- Pancreatic Cancer Awareness - $30.
- Retired Register of Deeds - $10.
- RiverLink - $30.
- Motorcycle plate for Vietnam Veterans of America - $10.
- YMCA - $30.

The PCS to Senate Bill 571 also makes the additional changes to the authority for special plates:

- Clarifies the issuance of a plate to a retired legislator plate. A retired legislator is defined as a person who has served in the North Carolina General Assembly.
- Authorizes a new fee of $20 for the Fraternal Order of Police Plate.
- Adds the following plates to the list of plates for which there is not subject to a special plate fee in excess of $10 – Bronze Star Combat Recipient, Bronze Star Recipient, Combat Veteran, Legion of Merit, Military Veteran, Partially Disabled Veteran, and Pearl Harbor Survivor.
- Adjusts the proceeds from the Olympic Games plate.
- Provides that the proceeds from Carolina Motor Speedway plates in the Collegiate and Cultural Attractions Plate Account be transferred to the Speedway Children's Charities.
- Expands the list of State Attraction Plates by adding the North Carolina Transportation Museum and designates the use of revenue derived from the sale of the plate.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act is effective when it becomes law.

BILL SUMMARY:

Senate Bill 571 enacts new subdivisions to GS 20-79.4(b) to authorize the following types of special registration plates:

- Flag of the United States of America
- Municipality Plate
- NC Cattlemen's Association
- Riverlink

Each plate issuance is contingent on the receipt of at least 300 plate applications. The bill makes revisions to the Register of Deeds and the Vietnam Veterans of America plates. It sets out the special plate fees and distribution amounts for each plate. And SB 571 amends GS 20-81.12(b2) to add the NC Transportation Museum plate as a state attraction plate.

ASSUMPTIONS AND METHODOLOGY:

Fiscal Research is unable to estimate the demand and the number of applications for each of the newly authorized plates. If each of the special plates achieves the 300 plate application mark, they will be issued and accompanied by the fees that are listed below.

Special Plate	Additional Fee Amount	SRPA	CCAPA
Flag of the United States of America	$10.00	$10.00	$0.00
Municipality Plate	$20.00	$10.00	$20.00
North Carolina Cattlemen's Association	$30.00	$10.00	$20.00
North Carolina Transportation Museum	$30.00	$10.00	$20.00
RiverLink	$30.00	$10.00	$20.00

The Special Registration Plate Account (SRPA) and the Collegiate and Cultural Attraction Plate Account (CCAPA) are established within the Highway Fund. The revenue derived from the North Carolina Transportation Museum special plate will be transferred quarterly to the North Carolina Transportation Museum Foundation, to be used for educational programs and conservation programs and for operating expenses of the North Carolina Transportation Museum.

SOURCES OF DATA: Division of Motor Vehicles

TECHNICAL CONSIDERATIONS: For the Municipality Plate, either the additional fee amount or the sum of the account distributions needs to be changed to be equal.

- That the Village shall not hold a malt beverage, unfortified wine, ABC store, or mixed beverage election.
- That the Village may exercise the power of eminent domain only for the public use, and shall not take private property for the purpose of conveying an interest in the property to a third party for economic development.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act is effective when it becomes law.

BACKGROUND: The proposed incorporation of the Village of Lake James did not receive a favorable recommendation from the Joint Legislative Commission on Municipal Incorporation in its report, dated July 29, 2009, because the Commission found that the proposed Village did not meet the Commission standards for contiguity.

Giles Perry, counsel to House Government Committee substantially contributed to this summary.

The Senate Committee on Finance met at 1:00 p.m. on Tuesday, June 11, 2013 in room 544 of the Legislative Office Building. Jonathan Coby of Wake Forest, Amanda Davis of Red Oak, Ali Clary of Battleboro, William Cheung of Taylorsville, Spencer Zachary of Taylorsville, Tyler Hendricks of Greensboro, Daniel Rangel of Greensboro and Griffin Evans of Wilmington served as pages. Senator Rucho presided as chair.

Dr. Michael Walden, North Carolina State University; Dr. Benjamin Russo, Belk College of Business – UNC Charlotte; Dr. Roby Sawyers, Poole College of Management – North Carolina State University; and Brent Lane, Executive Director, Carolina Center for Competitive Economies, UNC Chapel Hill, were recognized. They expressed concern over the ineffective, current tax code. They pointed out that North Carolina has the 10th largest economy in the nation and that tax reform should be equitable for all, not just a few. They explained that a 5-6% corporate and individual tax rate would make North Carolina competitive in the Southeast, but how broad a tax base to get to that rate remains to be seen. They admonished legislators for expecting the tax code to do more than possible and that updates do not necessarily fix all of North Carolina's challenges. They said that broadening the tax base would alleviate current volatility (since the State relies too much on the individual income tax). Finally, they pointed out that states are moving to single sales factor apportionment and feel that eventually all states will be there. A copy of Dr. Russo's and Dr. Sawyer's presentations and the NC Fair Tax Act report is attached.

The meeting adjourned at 2:20 p.m.

An Economic Rationale for North Carolina Tax Reform

Benjamin Russo
Belk College of Business
The University of North Carolina at Charlotte
brusso@uncc.edu

1) Introduction

Long-run demographic and technological changes in North Carolina's economy are reducing the tax system's capacity to generate revenue sufficient to support state services. As currently structured the sales and use tax base is eroding. The income tax base also is at risk. However, I believe that by broadening North Carolina tax bases, and lowering marginal tax rates, the NC Fair Tax Act (Bill Draft 2013-RBx-21C, April 25, 2013) would shore-up the foundation of North Carolina's tax system, reduce revenue volatility that occurs during business cycles, and increase tax efficiency.

2) The Sales and Use Tax Base

Threats to the sales tax base have been widely documented. The composition of household consumption spending is undergoing a long-run transition away from tangible goods toward intangible services. The sales tax is levied, for the most part, on the former. Therefore, the proportion of spending on taxable commodities is slowly declining.

Demographic change and technological innovation play large roles in the transition away from tangible goods. Both sources of change are beneficial for society at large, but not for North Carolina's tax base.

The role played by the demographic transition is easiest to see. North Carolina's population is aging. Older taxpayers tend to spend relatively large fractions of their economic resources on medical services, most of which are untaxed. At the same time, the price of medical services tends to rise faster than the prices of other commodities. As a result, the share of household spending on medical services has increased from about two and one-half percent in 1947 to more than eighteen percent today.

The demographic transition eventually will end. However, the technological transition almost surely will continue. The role played by technology is less obvious than the demographic transition, but no less real, so an analogy based on recent history is useful. Manufacturing of tangibles is "suffering" from a fate similar to that of agriculture. In a recent newspaper column George Will points out that a little over one hundred years ago most Americans were employed in agriculture. Today, employment in agriculture is about two percent of the labor force. At one point in our history, five farmers produced enough food for a single person. Today, a single farmer's production feeds three hundred and fifty. Productivity growth in farming outpaced productivity growth in other industries. Therefore, the amount of labor required to produce food declined relative to the amount of labor required elsewhere. The relative decline in labor required to produce tangibles has reduced the relative price of tangibles. Because demand for food is relatively insensitive to the price decline, spending on food has declined as a fraction of total household spending.

Technology and productivity growth has a similar effect on production and consumption of tangible goods relative to services. William Baumol, an NYU economist has shown that it is relatively easy to increase manufacturing productivity. As a result, less labor is required to produce tangibles, causing the relative price of tangible goods to decline: Computing power and memory are examples. In 1947 more than sixty-one percent of total household consumption spending was devoted to tangibles: In 2013 about thirty-four percent of household consumption will be spent on tangibles. If the future is like the past, in twenty years tangibles will decline to about twenty-six percent of consumption spending. In forty years tangibles will be less than eighteen percent of consumption.

The figure below illustrates the transition from tangible goods to services. The solid line in the figure shows the ratio of tangible goods spending in the U.S. to total consumption spending, in percent, between 1947 and 2002. The dashed line shows the fraction of spending on services.[1] Although there have been temporary pauses in the transition to services, the long-run trend dominates changes in the composition of spending.

Figure: Ratios of Goods and Services to Total Consumption Spending

[1] Because some services are taxed and some tangible goods are exempt, this overstates somewhat the decline in the share of taxed commodities.

3) The Income Tax Base

The income tax base faces risks, as well. At least part of the risk to the income tax also results from demographics and technology. As the population ages, the fraction of income from untaxed Social Security is rising. In addition, the fraction of income whose source is personal or employer retirement funds will rise. Pension income tends to be easier than earned income to shelter from taxes. Technology plays a role here because it has increased the fraction of net worth that is intangible. Intangible capital is more mobile than the tangible kind, and, therefore, is easier to shelter from taxation. As a result of innovations in the form that high-income taxpayers receive income, sheltered unearned income has grown as a share of total income.

4) Shoring Up North Carolina's Tax Base

I believe that while the challenges faced by North Carolina's tax base are large they are not impervious to solution. Broader tax bases and lower marginal tax rates can help shore up the revenue stream. Broader taxation of services would reduce erosion of the sales tax base. The more services taxed, the slower the pace of base erosion. Broader taxation of income, via curtailment of deductions, credits, and special tax treatment would strengthen the income tax base. Revenue held constant, broader bases permit declines in marginal tax rates. Lower marginal tax rates reduce the incentive for income tax avoidance. Past experience suggests that when marginal income tax rates change, everything else held constant, any resulting change in revenue is smaller than changes predicted by standard economic models. For example, Martin Feldstein, former president of the National Bureau of Economic Research, argues that increases in marginal income tax rates during President Clinton's Administration generated only about sixty percent of the revenue predicted by the Congressional Budget Office. Feldstein's studies suggest a large part of the difference between actual and predicted revenue resulted from an increase in tax avoidance, which is not accounted for in the models.

5) Conclusion

I believe the NC Fair Tax Act would have effects on the simplicity and equity of the tax system that are difficult to predict with great confidence. At the same time, I am confident that by broadening North Carolina tax bases, and lowering marginal tax rates, the Act would produce many benefits for North Carolina.

First and foremost, the Act would reduce erosion of tax bases, putting them on a more sustainable foundation. As well, base broadening would reduce revenue volatility that occurs in the course of business cycles. Finally, by reducing marginal tax rates and shifting the tax base toward consumption, the Act would tend to reduce the tax-induced inefficiencies that occur when taxpayers substitute untaxed commodities and activities for commodities that are taxed.

An Economic Rationale for North Carolina Tax Reform

Benjamin Russo
Belk College of Business
The University of North Carolina at Charlotte
brusso@uncc.edu

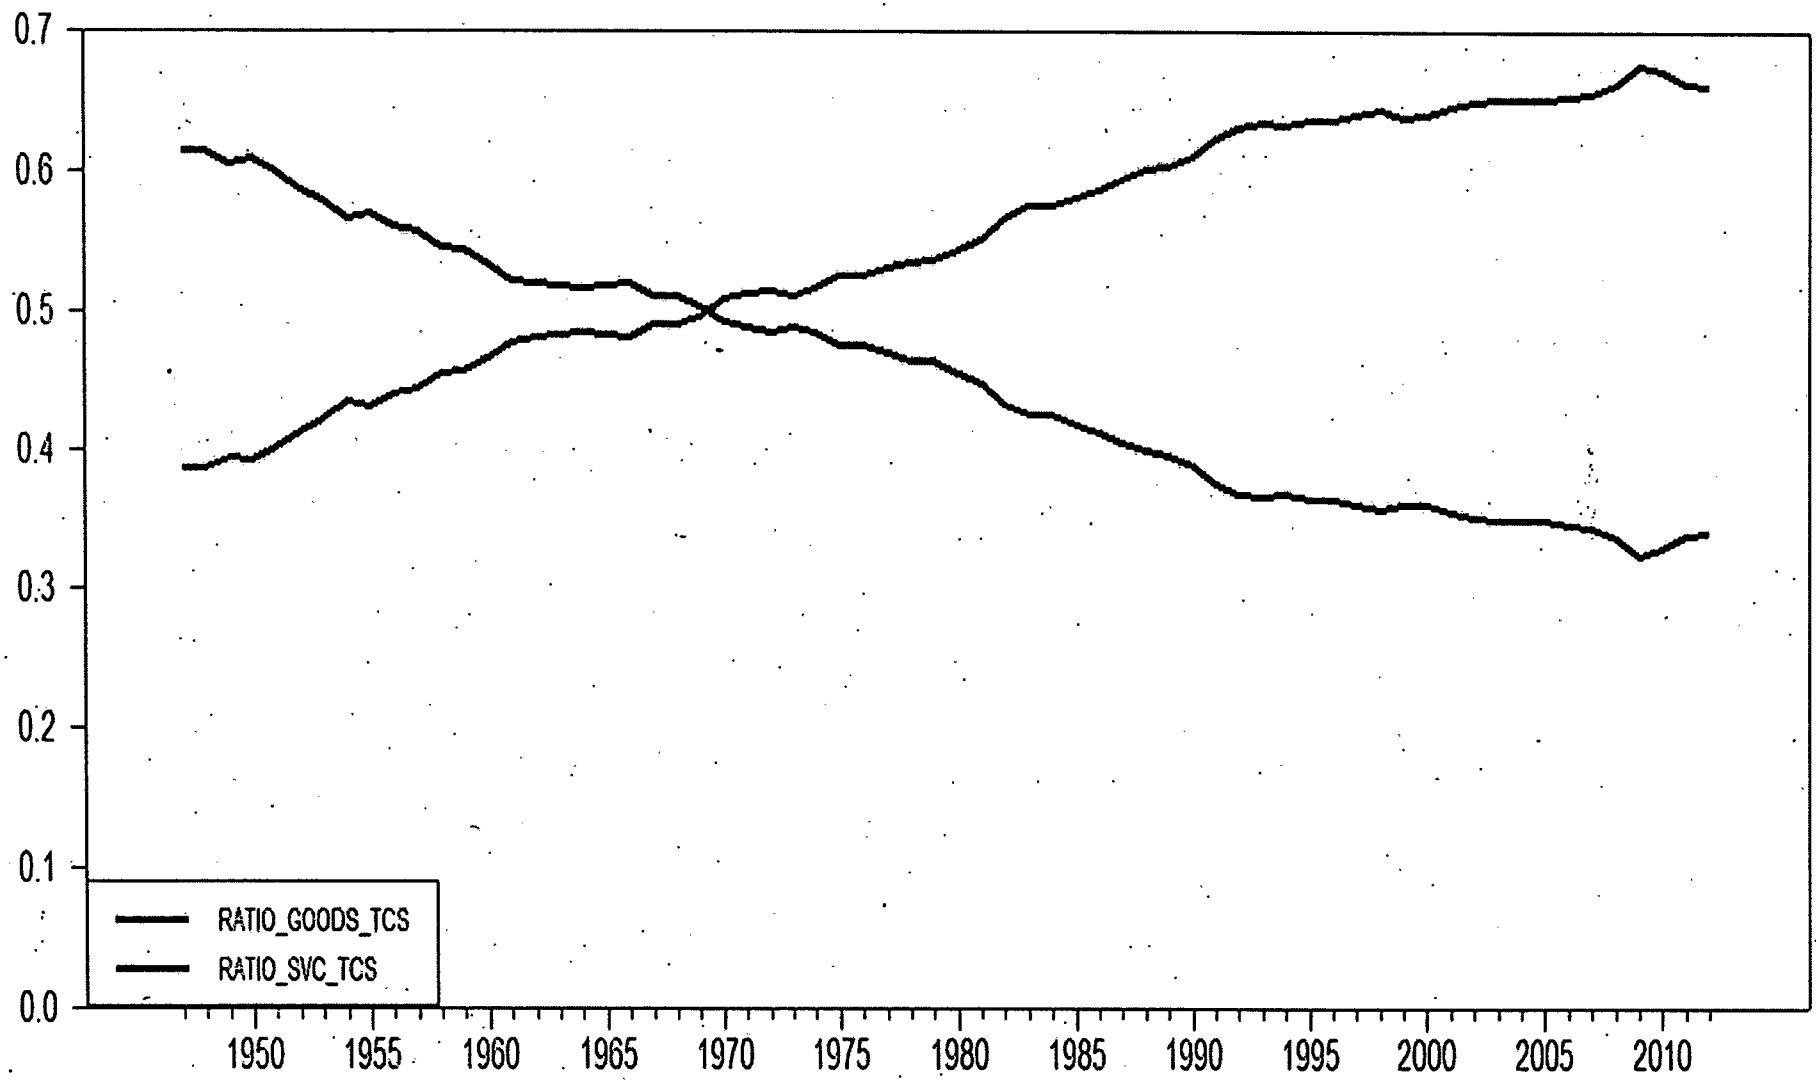
1) Introduction

- Demographic and technological changes are eroding North Carolina's tax base
- By broadening tax bases, and lowering marginal tax rates, tax reform could:
  - reduce base erosion
  - reduce revenue volatility
  - increase tax efficiency

2) Erosion of the Sales & Use Tax Base

- Demographics
  - Population aging
    - Increases fraction of spending taxpayers devote to med. services
      - » 2.5% in 1947
      - » More than 18% in 2012
- Technical innovation
  - Productivity growth in tangibles exceeds productivity growth in services
    - Reduces labor required to produce tangibles relative to services
    - Reduces the relative price of tangibles
    - Demand for tangibles not price sensitive, so fraction of spending on tangibles declines

Ratios of Goods and Services to Total Consumption Spending



3) The Income Tax Base

- Demographics
  - Population aging
    - Increase in fraction of income from untaxed Social Security
    - Increase in fraction of income in tax sheltered pensions

- Innovation
  - Increase in the fraction of capital that is intangible and mobile
  - Increase in tax shelters
  - Increase in tax avoidance

4) Shoring Up Tax Bases

- Challenges facing North Carolina's tax system can be reduced by broadening tax bases, lowering marginal tax rates
    - Broader taxation of services would reduce erosion of the sales tax base
    - Broader income taxation would strengthen the income tax base
    - Revenue held constant, broader bases permit lower marginal tax rates
        - Lower marginal tax rates reduce incentives for income tax avoidance
        - Past experience: when marginal income tax rates change, all else constant, revenue change is less than changes predicted by standard economic models
            - » models don't account for tax avoidance

5) Conclusion

- I believe tax reforms being considered, by broadening bases and lowering marginal tax rates, would
    - increase long-run revenue sufficiency
    - reduce volatility
    - increase tax efficiency
- I believe it is not possible to confidently predict the effect on simplicity and equity

Single Sales Factor Apportionment

Allocation and Apportionment of Income

- Apportionment is the means by which business income is divided among states in which a business operates

Allocation and Apportionment of Income

- Allocation is a method used to directly assign nonbusiness income to a specific state

Business vs. Nonbusiness Income

- Apportionable business income arises from the regular course of business from activities that are an integral part of a taxpayer's regular business
- Allocable nonbusiness income generally includes:
  - Income or loss from sale of nonbusiness property
  - Income or losses from rents or royalties from nonbusiness real or tangible personal property

Apportionment Formulas

- Apportionment formulas vary among states
  - Traditionally, states used a three-factor formula that equally weights sales, property, and payroll
    - However, today only a dozen or so states use an equally weighted 3-factor test
    - 14 states use 3 factors and double weight sales
    - 14 states utilize a sales-only formula
  - Trend is towards increasing the weight on sales

Why this trend?

- Reduces production costs for "in-state" companies relative to competitors in states with higher weights on property and payroll
- Incentive to increase presence in NC
- Tends to pull larger amount of "out-of state" corporation's income into the state
- May provide tax relief to "in-state" corps that make large % of sales to other states

Revenue Effects

- In the short run, corporate tax revenue is likely to decrease
- In the long run, increasing the weight on sales can have a positive effect
  - Previous studies have found a 1 to 3% increase in job growth
    - higher individual income tax revenue
    - higher sales tax revenue
    - higher property tax revenue to local governments

Caveats

- There will be winners and losers
- Changing apportionment does not affect a purely in-state business – unless you also change the rate!
- Difficult to quantify the long-run impact
- Benefits become less certain the longer you wait!

Dear Senator Rucho:

Earlier this month, you asked that the University of North Carolina organize an expert panel to analyze the potential impact of proposed changes to North Carolina tax law, specifically the North Carolina Fair Tax Act (2013-RBx-21c, v.4).

In response to the request, we assembled a small team of faculty that has worked quickly to provide four perspectives on the proposed changes. Let me underscore that their analysis of the tax plan is not exhaustive—that was not possible given the time allotted—and their findings do not represent the official opinion of the University of North Carolina. The panel makes no recommendations about the specific merits of this particular tax plan as compared to any other plan currently being discussed, nor does it attempt to predict the "wealth effects" on taxpayers who might behave differently based on the increased or decreased amounts taxpayers would have to spend. We were not asked to make judgments about the "fairness" of the draft plan or its impact on particular groups of North Carolinians. Rather, the panel offers lenses through which tax reform may be viewed in order to assist lawmakers as they attempt to assess the merits and potential drawbacks of proposed changes.

In the following pages we present the panel members' findings. First, Dr. Ben Russo of UNC Charlotte's Belk College of Business describes how the law intersects with some principles of sound tax policy. Second, Dr. Michael Walden of NC State University's College of Agriculture and Life Sciences examines what we can know about the likely impacts of the proposed changes on state gross product, employment and income. Dr. Roby Sawyers of N C State's Poole College of Management then reviews studies analyzing the short-term and long-term effects of the proposed switch to a single sales factor apportionment on tax revenue and employment. Finally, Brent Lane from UNC-Chapel Hill's Carolina Center for Competitive Economies assesses the role of tax reform in North Carolina's larger efforts to strengthen its economy. Review of these separate chapters, along with other feedback and contributions, has been provided by Dr. John Connaughton of UNC Charlotte's Belk College of Business and David Brown of UNC-Chapel Hill's School of Government. Additional review and logistical support for the effort has come from Donnie Charleston of the Institute for Emerging Issues at NC State and Leslie Boney, Vice President for International, Community, and Economic Engagement at UNC General Administration.

We appreciate the opportunity to review this tax plan. Our University system – its faculty, staff, and students – has valuable perspective and analytical abilities on a wide range of topics that can be brought to bear on many different matters of public policy issues to help inform discussion and debate.

The lead authors of the analysis would be happy to provide additional information or clarifications about their review as part of your ongoing deliberations. Please let them know if you have questions concerning this matter.

Sincerely,

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

The North Carolina General Assembly is considering substantial changes in state tax policy. A proposal has been made to shift the mix of state tax revenues away from individual income and corporate income taxes to sales taxes. The North Carolina General Assembly asked the University of North Carolina to analyze the potential effects of the NC Fair Tax Act.[1] In the following papers faculty members from N.C. State University, UNC-Chapel Hill and UNC Charlotte assess the tax plan for its adherence to important principles of sound tax policy and for its impact on the state's economic growth, specifically on aggregate economic measures such as employment, total output and income. We also note that other economic factors not addressed by the new tax plan will likely play an important role in the future growth of the economy.

WHAT THE PLAN DOES

After full implementation in 2017, the NC Fair Tax Act would reduce the highest individual marginal income tax rate to 4.5%, reduce the number of income tax brackets, eliminate deductions and credits, and add a personal tax credit. The proposal would reduce the corporate income tax rate to 6% and change the way corporate taxes are computed, from the current formula that apportions taxes based on property, payroll and sales, with a double weight on sales, to a formula that would apportion corporate tax solely based on sales by 2016. It would reduce the franchise tax rate from 0.15% to 0.135%. The proposal would also reduce the combined (state plus local) sales and use tax rate to 6.5%. The Act would broaden the combined sales tax base to many services, as well as to cover food for home consumption.

THE PLAN AND THE PRINCIPLES OF SOUND TAX POLICY

Any tax reform proposal should be evaluated along criteria that include efficiency, equity, simplicity, revenue stability and revenue sufficiency. Dr. Benjamin Russo, professor of economics at UNC Charlotte, finds that the net effect of the changes proposed in the NC Fair Tax Act on efficiency, stability and sufficiency would be positive. The net effects on simplicity and equity are harder to gauge. The Fair Tax Act would simplify individual income taxes by replacing the deductions, exemption, and credits with a single personal tax credit. But it would require service firms that do not now collect sales tax to do so. Therefore, the net effect on simplicity is difficult to assess. The Act would tend to improve horizontal equity[2] by eliminating special tax treatment of some taxpayers and activities. However, estimates made by the Fiscal Research Division indicate an increase in the tax burden on lower income taxpayers in relative and absolute dollar terms. This would tend to reduce vertical equity.[3] As described in Dr. Russo's paper, the net effect on equity is unclear.

[2] A method of collecting income tax in which those who have the same wealth, or are in the same income bracket, face the same tax rate.

[3] A method of collecting income tax in which the taxes paid increase with the amount of earned income.

THE PLAN'S POTENTIAL IMPACT ON THE ECONOMY

A key component of this analysis is the quantitative assessment of the potential effects of the proposed policy. Dr. Mike Walden, Professor of Economics at NC State University, analyzed the potential effect of moving away from taxing income to taxing spending and the implications for the state's long run economic growth. Following a review of the most comprehensive academic analyses of the effect of state taxes on economic growth, he applied the reports' findings to the specific changes to the "tax mix" being proposed in North Carolina.[4]

The results of the analysis of tax reform vary dependent on which methodology is used. For example, focusing on the employment effects, for the decade after the full implementation of the tax-mix proposal (2017-2027), the results from the studies range from a high of 864,000 net additional jobs created in the state in 2027 to a low of 198,000 net jobs lost in 2027. Comparable ranges were found for state aggregate output (gross state output) and aggregate income. Dr. Walden indicates that a main distinction between the studies he included in his analysis was their divergent finding for the economic impacts from transitioning to a greater reliance on the sales tax. Some studies found moving from "taxing income" to "taxing spending" accelerated economic growth, while other studies found the opposite.

Dr. Roby Sawyers of NC State's Poole College of Management provides analysis of the proposal to change to a "single sales factor" apportionment formula for corporate income taxes. State government projections suggest revenue loss under this plan, though the experience of many states finds increases in revenue following such a change. IN the longer run, he concludes that such a change can have positive long-term benefits for a state, including job growth, increased individual income tax and sales tax revenue, as well as increased property tax revenue for local governments.

THE PLAN IN THE CONTEXT OF ECONOMIC GROWTH

Brent Lane of UNC-Chapel Hill's Kenan Institute of Private Enterprise provides a basis for understanding the extent to which tax reform can achieve the goal of improving the state's economic competitiveness. In his paper, he endorses the necessity of tax reform and applauds the strategy of looking beyond programmatic efforts like simplistic economic growth strategies. But he notes that states mounting tax reform efforts have achieved widely varied results.

Given the broad range of macro-economic forces facing North Carolina, Lane cautions that tax reform can only accomplish some of the economic results policy makers are seeking. North Carolina's struggles predate the economic recession, and tax reform alone cannot assure long-term economic recovery.

TAX REFORM AND ITS RELATIONSHIP TO PRINCIPLES OF SOUND TAX POLICY

INTRODUCTION: A BRIEF OVERVIEW OF PRINCIPLES OF SOUND TAX POLICY

Tax analysts generally cite three fundamental characteristics of an economically sound tax system. These are efficiency, equity, and simplicity. However, because states must balance their budgets, state tax analysts include two additional principles that are important for a reliable state tax system. These are revenue stability and revenue sufficiency.

Efficiency. An efficient tax system minimizes intrusion into consumers' and producers' economic choices, thereby maximizing their economic value, and encouraging enterprise.

Equity. Standards for tax equity hold that taxpayers with equal real incomes face equal tax liabilities, taxpayers with higher real incomes face higher tax liabilities, and, where possible, costs and benefits of government services received by a taxpayer are equal.

Simplicity. A simple tax system is relatively easy for taxpayers to understand and comply with, and for government officials to administer.

Revenue Stability. A stable tax system minimizes the declines and expansions of tax revenue that occur as a result of short-run business cycle contractions and expansions.

Revenue Sufficiency. A state tax system is sufficient if its capacity to generate revenue required to meet the state's funding objectives is impervious to long-run structural changes in the economy.

DISCUSSION OF PRINCIPLES AND THE EFFECTS OF TAXES

Taxation and Economic Efficiency

An efficient tax system minimizes intrusion into consumers' and producers' economic choices, thereby maximizing their economic value, and encouraging enterprise. By their nature, taxes impose costs that exceed the amount of revenue collected. This extra cost reduces economic value and is an inefficiency imposed by taxes. Although it is impossible to eliminate tax-induced inefficiency, taxes can be structured in a way that tends to reduce it.

The financial costs of administering and complying with tax laws are obvious types of inefficiency. However, an important but often hidden inefficiency arises also when taxation intrudes into individual economic choices. For example, taxpayers in jurisdictions with relatively high sales tax rates have been known to travel to lower tax jurisdictions to avoid taxes.[5] Here, part of the economic cost of higher taxation is the value of the extra time spent in travel. That cost is hard to measure and does not appear on a balance sheet, yet is no less real to the consumer.

Inefficiency and the Income Tax

Relatively high marginal income tax rates encourage tax avoidance. For example, relatively well-off taxpayers have an incentive to shelter income. This is one reason stock options have replaced substantial fractions of wage income for high earners, and why deferred income arrangements are popular. In the modern knowledge economy a substantial and growing proportion of capital is intangible. Patents and trademarks are examples. Intangible capital is easily transferred to low tax jurisdictions. Tax avoidance consumes scarce resources that could otherwise be put to productive use, so it is inefficient.

Private income is either used to purchase commodities, is saved, or is invested. Therefore, a tax on income taxes both commodity purchases and saving. Taxpayers can avoid the tax on saving by saving less. In contrast, a tax dedicated to retail sales would not tax saving, so the retail sales tax does not discourage saving. This is a main reason many tax analysts support shifting the state tax base away from income and toward consumption. Saving is the foundation of capital formation, which, in turn, is one of the main supports of the standard of living in a modern economy. By discouraging saving and investment, the income tax tends to have a negative effect on the standard of living and economic growth. This inefficient loss in economic value may explain empirical results reported by Carroll et al. indicating that the personal income tax inhibits the growth of small firms.[6]

[5] J. Mikesell and C. Zorn. "Impact of the Sales Tax Rate on Its Base: Evidence from a Small Town," Public Finance Quarterly, 1983, 329-38.

A pernicious characteristic of tax inefficiency is that it increases more than proportionately with the marginal tax rate. A one percentage point increase in a tax rate generates an increase in inefficiency that exceeds one percentage point. This has an important implication for the social benefit of state marginal income tax rates. North Carolina's corporate income tax generates inefficiency per se. The personal income tax compounds that inefficiency. However, because inefficiency increases faster than marginal tax rates, when added to the federal income tax rates on corporate and personal income, the state income taxes can generate very large amounts of inefficiency.

It follows that a decline in state marginal income tax rates can reduce tax inefficiency by relatively large amounts, even if the reductions appear to be relatively modest.

Inefficiency and the Sales Tax

Consider a taxpayer who will choose between repairing a faulty product or purchasing a new one. The purchase is a taxable event. Because of the exemption of services from sales tax, servicing the product is not. If, in this example, the taxpayer would prefer a new product, but chooses service to avoid the tax, she is worse off although the tax raises no revenue. This is a tax-induced inefficiency. The choice to avoid tax would not only impose a cost on this taxpayer, it also would contribute to the long-run trend away from manufacturing production, which has been a stalwart of North Carolina productivity in the past. In fact, empirical evidence suggests that state sales tax exemptions for most services have reinforced the trend away from spending on tangibles toward spending on services.[7]

[6] Carroll, R., Holtz-Eakin, D., Rider, M., Rosen, H. "Personal Income Taxes and the Growth of Small Firms," Tax Policy and the Economy, 2001, 121-148.

Nonetheless, a sales tax can also create avoidable inefficiency. This occurs when certain categories of goods are exempted and when the tax falls on business inputs. Business inputs are a cost of production, so taxing them discourages production. A tax on all business inputs, for example a gross receipts tax, is inefficient because it creates tax cascading, which occurs when a commodity used in production is taxed multiple times as it is transferred between stages of production. For example, consider electricity sold to a manufacturer who sells computers to accounting firms, which in turn provide tax services to furniture manufacturers. The electricity is taxed when sold to the computer manufacturer, again because it is a cost of producing computers, again as a component in the cost of the accounting service, and again in the cost of furniture sold to a consumer. Thus the electricity and the tax itself are each taxed multiple times. In this example, if the statutory tax rate were three percent, the effective tax rate would cascade upwards to about six percent. Because the inefficiency increases faster than the tax rate, it would more than double.

[7] Merriman, D., and M. Skidmore, "Did Distortionary Sales Taxation Contribute to the Growth of the Services Sector?" National Tax Journal, 2000, 125-142.

The last argument suggests that business inputs should be spared the sales tax. It is worth noting that North Carolina's current sales tax on business inputs collects a substantial amount of revenue.[8] Therefore, eliminating the part of the tax levied on inputs would reduce revenue. Nonetheless, a computer simulation of the effect of eliminating the sales tax on business inputs indicates a net increase in efficiency.[9]

Broadening the sales tax to food for home consumption and to services would contribute to tax efficiency to the extent that it supports a decline in marginal tax rates and reduces the bias against purchases of tangible products.[10] It should also be noted that a substantial amount of tax saved due to the food exemption accrues to middle and high income earners, who are not the intended beneficiaries of exempting food: this creates a relatively large revenue cost with relatively little offsetting social benefit.

Equity and Taxation

Tax equity includes a benefit principle and an ability-to-pay principle. The benefit principle recommends that, to the extent possible, individuals benefitting from government services should pay fees commensurate with the benefits. In cases where taxpayers receive in-kind benefits or government transfers, the benefits or payments should be accounted for when evaluating tax equity.

[8] R. Ring, "estimates that nearly forty percent of North Carolina sales tax revenue results from its sales tax on business inputs. See Ring, "Consumer's Share and Producers' Share of the General Sales Tax," National Tax Journal, 1999, 79-90.

[9] B. Russo, "An Efficiency Analysis of Proposed State and Local Sales Tax Reforms," Southern Economic Journal, 2005, 443-462.

[10] Broadening the sales tax to food for home consumption would also effect equity. This is discussed below.

The ability-to-pay principle recommends that taxpayers with equal real incomes face equal tax liabilities: This is called horizontal equity. Taxpayers with greater real incomes should face higher tax liabilities: This is called vertical equity.

North Carolina's graduated personal income tax system together with its itemized deduction feature provides a relatively large benefit to relatively high income earners. This is true because the higher the marginal income tax rate, the larger the reduction in tax liability per dollar of deduction. This is a vertical inequity that reduces income tax progressivity.[11] Flattening personal income tax rates and increasing the household exemption would reduce this inequity.

Horizontal equity tends to be violated by tax deductions, exemptions, credits, and special tax treatment that reduce tax liability for only select groups of taxpayers. For example, the sales tax exemption for most services tends to generate a smaller tax liability for one spending a relatively large amount on services than another spending the same amount, but mostly on tangible goods. Certain businesses and activities receive special treatment, both by the corporate income tax and the sales tax. This creates disparities between taxes owed by taxpayers with similar incomes. Elimination of special exemptions and credits tend to reduce horizontal inequity.

It has often been pointed out that retail sales taxes tend to place a higher burden on households earning relatively low annual incomes, because low income households tend to spend relatively large fractions of income on commodities. The relative burden is offset somewhat during retirement when higher income households tend to spend more than their incomes. [12] Therefore, over entire lifetimes, sales taxes are less regressive than in any particular year. Broadening the sales tax to services also would tend to offset the relative burden on low income households because high earners tend to spend relatively large fractions of income on services, such as those provided by attorneys, lawyers, on travel, etc. In contrast, broadening the sales tax to food for home consumption would tend to increase the burden on low income taxpayers. While middle and high income earners may spend more actual dollars on food, as noted above, low income earners spend a relatively larger fraction of their incomes on food.

The Fiscal Research Division of the North Carolina General Assembly has studied the effects of proposals in the NC Fair Tax Act on the tax liabilities of taxpayers in different tax brackets. Fiscal Research estimates that after the plan is fully implemented in 2017, the total (income plus sales) tax liability of the typical taxpayer whose Adjusted Gross Income is less than $51,000 will be higher than at present. The estimated tax liability of a typical taxpayer with income above that threshold will be lower than at present. This indicates a decline in progressivity (decline in vertical equity) in the tax system. However, the estimates do not account for the value of improvements in horizontal equity that would result from eliminating tax exemptions and credits. [13]

[12] The excess of spending over income is financed by drawing upon previously accumulated wealth. See D. Fullerton and D. Rogers, 1996, "Lifetime Effects of Fundamental Tax Reform," Economic Effects of Fundamental Tax Reform, ed. Aaron and Gale (Washington: Brookings Institution).

[13] In order to calculate the net effect on equity, one would need estimates of the social value of the improvement in horizontal equity, as well as a way of weighting that value against the decline in vertical equity. Unfortunately, such estimates are unavailable. We are reluctant to speculate on the net equity effects because doing so could be highly inaccurate and misleading.

Simplicity and Taxation

A simple tax system is transparent and relatively easy for tax administrators to understand and implement, and for taxpayers to comply with. Unnecessarily complicated taxes tend to cause administrator and taxpayer errors, which can reduce confidence in the system's accuracy and fairness. The uncertainty that results tends to discourage risk taking and the entrepreneurial spirit requisite for capital development and a high standard of living. Moreover, because errors occur, the Department of Revenue must monitor taxpayers closely. Monitoring is costly and promotes friction between administrators and taxpayers.

Sales tax exemptions and exclusions complicate administration and compliance. For example, retailers must distinguish between taxed and exempt products. Prepared meals are taxed, but food for home consumption is not. Modern supermarkets sell both, so they must distinguish between food products. Broadening the tax to food for home consumption would reduce complexity.

Broadening the sales tax to more services would require collection and remittance of sales tax on the part of some service firms who do not now perform these functions. Thus, some service firms who previously were not required to register with the Department of Revenue would have to, reducing simplicity.

Revenue Stability and Taxation

A stable tax system minimizes the declines and expansions of tax revenue that occur as a result of short-run business cycle expansions and contractions. As revenue declines in a downturn, policymakers must make short-run adjustments to balance budgets. This often has led to changes in tax rates and adjustments in the tax base (what is taxed). For example, in each of the past three recessions, North Carolina has resorted to increasing tax rates. These unexpected tax changes tend to create uncertainty and reinforce downturns. Short-run revenue shortfalls can lead to ad hoc changes in policy that undermine the ability of the state of North Carolina to provide a predictable stream of public services.

The state sales tax exemption of food for home consumption and the general (state and local) exemption of services magnifies short-run volatility of the sales tax base. This is true partly because durable goods, like cars and home appliances, are the most volatile type of private spending. Taxpayers tend to conserve resources during economic contractions by reducing purchases of durables. In contrast, spending on services is relatively stable. In a typical contraction spending on durables declines by about thirty-three percent more than services spending. Spending on food for home consumption is among the most stable types of private spending. Income taxes with graduated marginal tax rates also are relatively responsive to economic contractions.[14] The corporate income tax is particularly volatile in this way.

Broadening the sales tax base to more services and food for home consumption, and reducing reliance on the income tax in favor of the broadened sales tax, would increase the stability of North Carolina's tax revenue.

Tax Sufficiency

A state tax system is sufficient if its capacity to generate revenue required to meet the state's funding objectives is impervious to long-run structural changes in the economy. In an important sense, sufficiency is fundamental. If the capacity of the tax system to generate revenue policymakers deem necessary to meet the state's financial obligations is impaired by structural economic changes, achievement of many of the other criteria is likely to be undermined. For example, the often observed erosion in North Carolina's sales tax base has led to repeated increases in the sales tax rate.

The need for public services and the revenue required to finance them tends to grow along with the economy in the long run. Therefore, sufficiency requires a tax revenue stream that also grows along the economy's long-run upward trend. All else constant, a sufficient tax system would maintain a constant ratio of tax revenue to GDP in the long run. Mainly due to erosion in the sales tax base, North Carolina's current tax system does not satisfy this criterion. This has occurred in large part because the fraction of private spending on tangible goods has trended downward since the end of WWII, with only a few temporary interruptions. Because the sales tax is levied primarily on tangible goods, exempting most services, the long-run trend toward services is eroding the sales tax base.

Broadening the sales tax base to more services would tend to forestall further sales tax base erosion by automatically adjusting to the long-run shift from tangibles to services.

CONCLUSION

After full implementation, the NC Fair Tax Act would reduce the individual and corporate income tax rates, the franchise tax rate, and the combined (state plus local) sales tax rate. The Act would reduce the number of income tax brackets, eliminate income tax deductions and credits, and add a personal tax credit. In the next chapter of this report Dr. Mike Walden reports his estimate that the sales tax base would expand by about 40 percent.

For the reasons described in the text above, the net effect of these changes on efficiency, stability, and sufficiency would be positive. The net effects on simplicity and equity are harder to gauge. The Fair Tax Act would simplify individual income taxes by replacing the deductions, exemptions, and credits by a single personal tax credit. However, it would require service firms that do not now collect sales tax to do so. Therefore, the net effect on simplicity is unclear at this reading. The Act would tend to improve horizontal equity by eliminating special tax treatment of some taxpayers and activities. However, estimates made by the Fiscal Research Division indicate an increase in the tax burden on lower income taxpayers in relative and absolute dollar terms. This would tend to reduce vertical equity. As described earlier in this chapter, the net effect on equity is unclear.

In general, no single type of tax is capable of simultaneously achieving all the criteria set out in the principles of sound tax policy—there are always tradeoffs. For example, by reducing taxation of income in favor of taxation of retail sales the NC Fair Tax Act will improve efficiency (by reducing taxation of saving); however, estimates made by the Fiscal Research Division indicate the tax burden on lower income taxpayers will increase. Nevertheless, there is a solution to this tradeoff dilemma: broadening tax bases and lowering marginal tax rates. Broadening tax bases can improve horizontal equity by reducing tax disparities among similarly situated taxpayers, while simultaneously providing revenue that can be used to lower rates, thereby increasing efficiency. By carefully calibrating base broadening and marginal tax rate reductions there is a potential to make changes that tend to support efficiency and equity.

Finally, noted tax economist Martin Feldstein argues that tax reform tends to be difficult to achieve because taxpayers have adjusted to the existing system.[15] Reform always produces hardships for some. Feldstein suggests that the transition can be eased by introducing reforms gradually, so taxpayers have time to adjust, and that reforms be presented as transparently as possible, so taxpayers can understand the economic consequences.

ESTIMATES OF THE ECONOMIC IMPACT OF CHANGES IN THE COMPOSITION OF NORTH CAROLINA TAXES

PREPARED BY:

Michael L. Walden, Ph.D.
William Neal Reynolds Distinguished Professor
North Carolina State University

The helpful comments of Dr. John Connaughton and Dr. Ben Russo, both Professors of Economics at the University of North Carolina-Charlotte, Leslie Boney at UNC-General Administration, and Donnie Charleston at the Institute of Emerging Issues, are greatly appreciated.

North Carolina's economy has been impacted by several economic "shocks" in recent decades. Two national recessions hit the state in the 2000's decade, resulting in severe job losses and economic dislocation. The reduction in trade barriers and the resultant increase in international trade – while benefitting some sectors – hastened output and employment losses in some of the state's traditional industries. Globalization and the development of technology have increased the skill demands of businesses and created challenges for low-skilled workers finding adequate-paying employment.

Among the many ideas discussed to improve the long-run economic condition of North Carolina are proposals to alter the state's tax structure. Several issues have been debated. As consumer spending has shifted to services and away from tangible products, growth in sales tax revenues has not kept pace with economic growth. This trend has led to proposals to expand the sales tax base to include more services. Also, with national and – indeed – international competition for business location seemingly more intense today, concerns have been expressed that states taxing income-earning activities at a higher level will be at a competitive disadvantage for generating economic development. Last, there is a viewpoint that simpler tax systems with more transparency and fewer complications reduce tax compliance costs and preparation time and allow resources to be better directed to income-enhancing activities.

The combination of these ideas has led to three major tax proposals. First, for any tax, combine a lower tax rate with a broader tax base (what is taxed). This system will result in less tax per dollar of tax base and therefore will – on average – reduce the influence of taxes on economic decision-making. Second, for any particular tax, make tax rates flatter – that is – move away from "progressive" tax systems to "proportional" tax systems. Such a system reduces the likelihood of additional income-earning activities being deterred by higher tax rates. Third, shift the allocation of taxes away from taxing income and to taxing consumption (spending). While taxing consumption more might reduce economic activity today, the theory is that taxing income-earning less (and, by implication, taxing saving and investing less) will grow economic activity faster and ultimately lead to even higher levels of consumption.

There are a number of prominent economists supporting the tax principles outlined in the above paragraph. However, there are also noted economists who have questioned these proposals, resulting in a vigorous debate over the principles of tax policy.[16] The debate centers on the classic economic tradeoff of "efficiency versus equity." Measures that might improve economic efficiency (growth) may – in the short run at least – be detrimental to equity. For example, moving from an income-based tax system to more of a consumption-based system, or reducing the progressivity of any tax type, may reduce the relative tax payments of higher-income taxpayers and increase the relative tax payments of lower-income taxpayers.

This report focuses on the effects of altering North Carolina's state tax structure and mix on measures of economic growth – specifically gross state product (GSP), income to workers, and total employment. The purpose of the analysis in the paper is not to take a position on the proposed changes to North Carolina's tax structure, but – instead – to provide information on potential consequences of the proposals for the state's aggregate economy. This focus does not deny the importance and relevance of the efficiency versus equity argument. Equity issues are important and hopefully are addressed in other forums. However, measures of economic growth impacts are necessary in order to conduct debates about "efficiency versus equity."

The paper only considers the economic impact of changes in the mix of state taxes; economic impacts of any resulting changes in spending are not addressed – one important reason being that where spending changes might occur are not known, and research shows the economic impact of state spending varies between spending programs. So, implicitly, the analysis is based on "revenue-neutral" tax mix changes. Also, only aggregate economic impacts – for the state economy in total - are calculated. Economic impacts for individual sectors will likely vary. Lastly, evaluation of possible "wealth effects" of the tax proposals and impacts of changing the sales factor apportionment formula for the corporate income tax are not presented. Changing the deductibility status of some household or business expenditure, changing the rate at which assets are taxed, and changing the tax status of some transactions can each impact the market value of associated assets. The proposals, if adopted, would likely have positive impacts on some asset values and negative impacts on others.

Following are four sections of the report: a summary of the major state tax proposals; a review of the considerable academic literature examining the impacts of state and local taxes on state economic growth; estimates of the impacts from changing the state tax mix on state employment, aggregate state output (GSP), and income using findings from several of the studies in the previous section; and a final section offering discussion and conclusions. An appendix is included detailing the calculations of the impacts.

THE PROPOSALS

Several bills have been introduced into the 2013 session of the North Carolina General Assembly to alter the state's tax structure. The bills focus on changing three taxes, together which account for 90% of the revenues for the General Fund: the individual income tax, business taxes (corporate income tax, franchise tax), and the sales and use tax. The proposed changes are numerous and detailed. Only the major components are summarized here, and they are based on the draft bill titled "NC Fair Tax Act." (2013-RBx-21C, v.4)

Proposed Changes to the Individual Income Tax: The plan would reduce the highest individual tax rate by over 40% (from 7.75% to 4.5%), reduce the number of tax brackets, eliminate current deductions and credits, and add a personal tax credit. Hence, the new individual income tax would be lower, flatter, and simpler.

Proposed Changes to Business Taxes: The plan would reduce the corporate income tax rate by 13% (6.9% to 6%) and also reduce the business franchise tax.

Proposed Changes to the Sales and Use Tax: The plan would broaden the sales tax base by adding spending on over 150 services, thereby expanding the sales tax base by approximately 50%. The state sales tax rate would rise from 4.75% to 5%, but the combined state and local sales tax rate would fall from 6.75% to 6.5%.

It is estimated these changes would alter the tax mix from sales, individual income, and businesses (corporate income tax and franchise tax) in a major way (Table 1).

STUDIES OF THE ECONOMIC IMPACT OF STATE TAXES

The impact of a state's tax structure on state economic growth has long been a focus of academic study, with scores of articles published in peer-reviewed journals and in working papers in recent decades. However, researchers confront several challenges in attempting to develop links between tax structure and economic growth.

Perhaps the biggest challenge is recognizing that many factors other than state taxes affect the economic trends of a state. Among them are labor, land, and energy costs, the regulatory environment, the strength of unions, the educational attainment and skill levels of the workforce in the state, the physical environment (number of days of sunshine!), the transportation network and access to markets, levels of private and public investments, the quality of educational institutions, the tax structure of neighboring states, and the economic structure of the state. The last factor simply means that – at any point in time – each state has a unique composition of sectors and industries that are impacted by factors and forces beyond the state's control.[17] The studies also use different statistical techniques, different time periods to derive estimates of the impacts of state taxes on economic growth, and different measures of both economic activity and taxes. Hence, as this review will show, there is a wide variation in findings for the links between state tax structure and state economic growth.

The next section summarizes the findings by type of tax. Where possible, ranges for the quantitative impact of taxes on growth are given.

Corporate income tax: The literature examining the effects of different levels of the corporate income tax rate on economic activity is, perhaps, the most consistent among all tax types, but still there is significant variation in the results. Recent studies looking at international comparisons or national studies for one country over time find, for example, that a 1% point reduction in the corporate income tax rate leads to a 0.06 % point increase in the real (inflation –adjusted) per capita annual GDP growth rate, and a 1% decrease in the corporate income tax rate is associated with a 0.5% increase in real wage rates.[18] The studies

[17] Two examples illustrate this point for North Carolina. The textile and apparel industry was long a mainstay of economic growth in the state in the early and mid-20th century. International trade agreements and the weakening of tariff protections caused the domestic industry to significantly decline in the last third of the 20th century. Similarly, the banking and financial services sector was a source of growth in the state beginning in the mid-1990s. However, the collapse of the financial sector in the 2007-2009 national recession created enormous losses for the state.

comparing economic growth across regions of a country (states in the U.S, provinces in Canada) generally find similar impacts, such as a 1% point cut in the state corporate income tax rate being associated with a 0.1 to 0.2% point increase in the real per capita annual GSP growth rate.[19] Other analyses – using different methods – are also consistent with these findings.[20]

There are, however, studies finding both larger and smaller economic impacts from altering the state corporate income tax rate. Chirinko and Wilson's simulation model specifically for North Carolina resulted in a 1% point reduction in the corporate income tax rate leading to a 0.40% increase in GSP.[21] However, both work by Ojede and Yamarik and by Alm and Rogers for U.S. states found no link between state corporate income tax rates and state economic growth.[22]

Importantly, all these studies do attempt to "control" for the multitude of other factors impacting economic growth either between countries, in a country over time, or within subdivisions (states, provinces) of a country.

Individual (personal) income tax: At the national level, there have been relatively small, yet statistically significant, relationships found between the individual income tax and various measures of economic activity, with a 1% reduction in the income tax measure associated with between a 0.1% and 0.3% increase in economic activity.[23] At the state level, Poulson and Kaplan found that states with a lower average marginal income tax rate – implying less "progressivity" in the individual income tax code – had faster economic growth.[24] Statistically, a 1% reduction in a state's marginal income tax rate relative to the average marginal income tax rate for all states increases the state's gross state product (GSP) growth rate relative to the growth rate for all states by 0.3%.[25]

But once again, all studies are not in agreement that differences in individual income taxes make a significant difference to a state's economic growth. Specifically, research by Harden and Hoyt, by Ojede and Yamarik, and by Alm and Rogers – each using different statistical methods – did not find a link between a state's individual income tax structure and state economic growth.[26] Ojede/Yamarik use data incorporating the most recent years, so their results may imply something different about state economies and the reaction of state economies to tax changes in the early 21st century.

Once again, all the studies include "control variables" for non-tax factors.

Sales Tax: Inconsistent results have also been found for the impact of variation in sales taxes on state economic growth. Alm/Rogers and Ferede/Dahlby find statistical support for faster economic growth in states (or provinces) with higher sales taxes. Conversely, Ojede/Yamarik, Harden/Hoyt, and Felix found the opposite – lower economic growth in state with higher sales taxes. Ferede/Dahlby's findings suggest a 1% point increase in the sales tax rate prompts a 0.5% point increase in the average annual growth rate of real GSP per capita, while Felix's results translate to a 1% point reduction in the sales tax rate being associated with a 0.1 % increase in the wage rate – an impact smaller than for the corporate income tax rate but larger than for the individual income tax rate. Both Alm/Rogers and Ojede/Yamarik found no impact of individual income and corporate income taxes on state economic growth. "Controls" for non-tax factors were included in the studies.

CHANGING THE NORTH CAROLINA TAX MIX: ESTIMATES OF ECONOMIC IMPACTS

This section of the report presents alternative estimates of proposed changes in North Carolina's tax structure on three key economic measures: state gross product (GSP), employment, and income. The estimates are derived from research results in five studies: Felix, Ferede/Dahlby, Harden/Hoyt, Ojede/Yamarik, and Alm/Rogers. These five studies are used for several reasons. First, they are recent, having been published within the last decade; therefore they are current with respect to the latest tax issues, statistical methodologies, and data. Second, the studies have each been published in peer-reviewed academic journals, so they received scrutiny by reviewers not associated with the study prior to its publication. Third, the analyses in the studies include individual results for the three major tax types involved in North Carolina's proposals – the corporate income, individual income, and sales taxes - therefore allowing investigation of impacts when the mix of tax types is changed. Fourth, the studies include "controls" for the large number of non-tax factors affecting state economic growth – meaning the results for the tax measures exclude impacts from other non-tax factors. Fifth, the studies give a range of estimates of economic impact, thereby reinforcing the point that academic research is not settled on a standard expectation of how the tax system impacts economic behavior and outcomes.

The forecasted impacts from the five studies are presented in Table 1. All impacts are calibrated for the year 2027, a decade after the tax changes would be fully implemented. All dollar values are measured in 2012 purchasing power dollars. Details of the calculations are given in the Appendix. The results should be interpreted as the economic impact of "revenue-neutral" changes in the mix of North Carolina state taxes.

The obvious conclusion is that the estimated impacts span a wide range. The estimated net job impact in 2027 ranges from a high of over 800,000 to a low of almost -200,000. Two of the studies produce positive economic impacts, two studies give negative impacts, and one study shows little impact. There are comparable ranges for the GSP and income forecasts.

These results suggest many features, components, and impacts from altering the state tax mix – in addition to those on economic growth - should be considered by decision-makers.

DISCUSSION AND CONCLUSIONS

It should – perhaps – not be surprising that the results from the five studies are not consistent. The studies use different measures of taxes and spending, different time periods, and different statistical methods. Also, it should be emphasized, none of the studies model all the specifics of the North Carolina proposals – which would likely be very challenging in an analysis based on comparing results for states (or provinces) over time. Finally, it should be understood the studies are attempting to calibrate the responses of individuals and businesses to economic factors. Modeling and predicting human behavior has always been challenging.

Still, the studies do provide some considerations for policy makers in the debate over tax structure and mix. The five studies are most consistent in their findings for changes in tax revenue from corporate income. Even using different measures, three of the five studies showed more revenues from corporate income were related to less economic growth, two showed no relationship, and none of the studies indicated greater corporate income tax revenues being related to greater economic growth. However – to emphasize – these results from changing the corporate income tax would have to be combined with the results from simultaneously changing other taxes if "revenue-neutrality" and unchanged spending are to be maintained. Indeed, this is what the analysis in this paper of altering the tax mix accomplishes.

These results for the corporate income tax are in contrast to those for the individual income tax – where four of the five studies suggest no relationship between the level of the tax and economic activity in a state.

The results for the sales tax are very mixed – with two studies finding more sales tax revenues are related to more economic growth, two studies showing more sales tax revenues are associated with less economic growth, and one study suggesting the relationship depends on what other tax source is changed. Interestingly, two of the three studies with analysis including years in the 21st century conclude greater sales tax revenues lead to slower economic growth (and the third study showing the opposite effect is based on Canadian data, so there may be questions of applicability to U.S. states). One explanation may be the effect of increased on-line-buying, particularly since 2000. With on-line purchases from out-of-state sellers largely untaxed by state sales taxes, higher state sales taxes may motivate more on-line-buying, thereby reducing economic activity within states through lost economic activity at "brick and mortar" stores located in states.

Therefore, the potential adverse impact on state economic growth of higher sales taxes may be muted if the federal government approves state taxation of on-line sales from out-of-state companies. Conversely, the adverse impact may be maintained if the increased reliance on sales taxes is from expanding the base to services – which are more difficult to purchase from out-of-state companies – rather than from increasing the sales tax rate.

APPENDIX

The Appendix gives the details for the calculations of economic impact from altering North Carolina's tax structure (from the draft of the proposed "NC Fair Tax Act") based on the five studies.

Felix

The estimates based on Felix's study are from her third equation, which controls for the level of government services in the state in deriving the impact of tax changes and uses state level data from 1977 to 2005. The dependent variable is the wage rate of workers in the state. Felix's results show a 1% point decrease in the state corporate income tax rate is associated with a 0.17% increase in the wage rate, a 1% point increase in the state sales tax rate is associated with a 0.10% decrease in the wage rate, and no impact from the individual income tax rate.

The proposed percentage point change (reduction) in the North Carolina corporate income tax rate is 0.9 (6.9% to 6.0%). The total sales tax rate is scheduled to fall from 6.75% to 6.5%, a decrease of 0.25 percentage points. However, this reduction is countered by the expansion of the sales tax base, which is estimated to increase by 40%.[27] Therefore, the rate that incorporates the expanded base is 6.5% x 1.40, or 9.1%, implying an increase of 2.6% points. Applying these numbers to Felix's wage rate effects from corporate income and sales tax rates, and using an average North Carolina hourly wage rate of $21.87,[28] gives an implied change in the wage rate of (0.9 x 0.0017 x $21.87) – (2.6 x 0.0010 x $21.87) = -0.02, or a decline of 2 cents per hour.

This decline in the average wage rate will have two broad economic effects. First, it will reduce the income earned from working a certain number of hours. But it will also motivate a decline in total work hours – along with a commensurate decline in income – if workers respond to lower wage rates by working less. Economic evidence suggests this response to changing wage rates is exactly the case, with (on average) a 1% decrease in the wage rate leading to a 0.31% decline in labor supply.[29]

Therefore, the change in aggregate North Carolina income resulting from the 2 cent decrease in the wage rate can be estimated by:

(1) ($0.02 x yearly hours worked per worker x # workers) + (proportional change in the wage rate x 0.31 x yearly hours worked per worker x $21.87 x # workers).

The number of yearly hours worked per worker is set at 1920[30], and the estimated number of workers in 2017 is 4,278,000.[31] The percentage change in the wage rate is -0.09%, or -0.0009 in proportional terms. The result of the calculations is a one-time income loss of $214,393,346. Furthermore, using a GSP to worker compensation ratio of 1.94 and a total [31] The employment number for 2017 is derived by applying the long-run (1990-2012) annual employment growth rate in North Carolina (1.19%) to the 2012 employment number of 4,032,300 (U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics).

state employment to $1 million of GSP ratio of 9, the one-time loss in GSP is $415,923,080 and the one-time loss in employment is 3743 jobs.[32]

Ferede/Dahlby

The calculations based on Ferede/Dahlby's study using Canadian provincial data for 1977-2006 is from their second equation, using fixed effects and including provincial government expenditure data. Their results show a 1% point reduction in the corporate income tax rate leads to a 0.163% point increase in the annual real GDP (GSP for North Carolina) growth rate per capita, and a 1% point increase in the sales tax rate results in a 0.587% point increase in the annual real GDP growth rate per capita. They found no statistically significant impact on the annual real GDP growth rate from changing the individual income tax rate. Hence, with the proposal in North Carolina to reduce the corporate income tax rate and increase the effective sales tax rate, using Ferede/Dahlby's results will lead to an increase in state economic activity.

Numerically calibrating the implications of Ferede/Dahlby's study for the North Carolina economy is done using this equation:

(2) (-% point change in corporate income tax rate x 0.163) + (% point change in effective sales tax rate x 0.587) = change in real GSP growth rate per capita in percentage points.

Applying the corporate income tax rate change of -0.9% points and the sales tax rate change accounting for the expanded base of 2.6% points leads to a significant 1.67% point increase in the annual real GSP growth rate per capita. Using a projected real GSP per capita in 2017 of $48,982 (2012$), the additional tax-change-induced growth would imply an additional $8823 (2012$) of real GSP per capita in North Carolina in 2027.[33] Multiplying by the state's projected population in 2017 gives $92 billion of additional real GSP in 2027 due to the faster economic growth from the proposed tax changes. Accounting for faster economic growth related to projected population growth between 2017 and 2027 adds another $4 billion for a total estimated additional GSP in 2027 of $96 billion.[34] Using the rate of 9 jobs per $1 million of real GSP and an income to GSP ratio of 0.515[35] gives an estimated additional 864,000 jobs and $49 billion of income (compensation) in the state in 2027.

[32] The GSP to worker compensation ratio is for 2010, the latest year available, and is from the U.S. Bureau of Economic Analysis. The employment to GSP ratio is for 2011 (latest year available for both series) and is from the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics and the U.S. Bureau of Economic Analysis.

Harden/Hoyt

Harden/Hoyt looked directly at the impact of different state tax mixes on employment growth using state data spanning 1977 to 1994. Based on their empirical results, they calculated how shifts in the tax mix (that is, shifts in the percentage of state revenue from each tax type) affected employment growth.

Harden/Hoyt found that every 1% shift in state revenue from the corporate income tax to the sales tax would increase the annual growth rate in employment by 0.32%. Every 1%

[33] Real GSP per capita in 2017 is derived by applying the long-run (1997-2011) average annual real GSP growth rate to actual North Carolina GSP in 2012 (2012$) to project real GSP in 2017 (2012$; data are from the U.S. Bureau of Economic Analysis). Dividing the estimated 2017 real GSP value by North Carolina's projected population in 2017 (North Carolina State Data Center) gives the projected real GSP per capita value in 2017.

[34] The additional $5 billion of GSP is derived by applying the previously estimated additional real GSP per capita to the decadal mid-point average of projected state population growth from 2017-2027 (North Carolina State Data Center).

[35] This is the inverse of the GSP to income ratio of 1.94.

shift in state revenues from the corporate income tax to the individual income tax would increase the annual growth rate in employment by 0.28%. Every 1% shift in state revenues from the individual income tax to the sales tax would decrease the annual growth rate in employment by 0.03%.

The proposed shifts in the tax mix for North Carolina were presented in Table 1, and these shifts can be applied to the Harden/Hoyt findings. Two "mix" shifts are proposed, from business taxes to the sales tax, and from the individual income tax to the sales tax[36]. Hence, only the Harden/Hoyt equations for these two shifts are used.

The shift from business taxes to sales taxes is from 8.6% of General Fund revenues to 7.9% of General Fund revenues, equal to a 0.7% shift in the share of General Fund revenues. The shift from the individual income tax to the sales tax is from 54.5% of General Fund revenues to 40.8% of General Fund revenues, equivalent to a 13.7% shift in the share of General Fund revenues. The estimated change in the annual employment growth rate (in %) is:

(3) $(0.7 \times 0.32) - (13.7 \times 0.03) = -0.187\%$.

Using the long-run average annual employment growth rate for North Carolina of 1.19%, [36] By including the change in the franchise tax share with the corporate income tax share, it is implicitly assumed both taxes have the same type of impact on employment growth.

the calculation implies the annual employment growth rate falls from 1.19% to 1.1878%.[37] Using the forecasted 2017 total state employment of 4,278,000[38], the estimated difference in jobs in 2027, using the annual growth rate, would be:

jobs with faster growth: $4{,}278{,}000 \times (1.0119)^{10} = 4{,}815{,}227$

for a loss of 1047 jobs.

To derive estimated additional income, 1047 is multiplied by an average annual salary of $42,008,[39] and to obtain estimated additional GSP, additional income is multiplied by the GSP/income ratio of 1.94.[40] These results are:

-1047 x $42,008 = $43,982,376 in lower income (compensation) in 2027,

$1,494,528,000 x 1.94 = $87,325,809 in lower GSP in 2027.

Given the always present problem of measurement error, the Harden/Hoyt results can be interpreted as suggesting no long-run economic impact from the tax mix shift.

Ojede/Yamarik

Ojede/Yamarik used data for states over the period 1968-2008. They used the annual growth rate in real private personal income (net of transfers) and measured taxes as a ratio to personal income. Among corporate income, individual income, and sales taxes, they found a statistically significant relationship only for the sales tax, and the relationship was negative with growth. Specifically, Ojede/Yamarik's results (using their first equation) suggest an increase of 1% in the (sales tax/personal income) ratio reduces the annual growth rate of real private personal income by 0.4%.

[37] See footnote 16 for the source of the state's long-run annual average employment growth rate. The calculation is (1-0.00187) x 1.19%

Ojede/Yamarik's findings will result in a decline in economic activity for states shifting their tax mix to the sales tax. The following equation implements Ojede/Yamarik's results.

(4) (((salespr2017/salespr2013) -1)x 100) x 0.4 = percentage reduction in annual growth rate, where:

salespr2017 = sales tax revenue as a proportion of NC personal income in 2017, and salespr2013 = sales tax revenue as a proportion of NC personal income in 2013.

Incorporating the tax proposals, salespr2017 is estimated at 0.02, and salespr2013 is estimated at 0.014, a 42.9% increase.[41] Multiplying by 0.4 gives a predicted 17.2% reduction in the annual real growth rate of private personal income. The average annual real growth rate in North Carolina private personal income is 2.2%.[42] A reduction of 17.2% reduces the rate to 1.82%. Using $329 billion as the estimated private personal income of North Carolina in [41] The numerators for salespr2013 and salespr2017 are from the North Carolina Senate Finance Committee, op. cit. Projections for North Carolina personal income (nominal) in 2013 and 2017 are derived by applying the average annual personal income growth rate from 1990 to 2012 to the actual 2012 level (U.S. Bureau of Economic Analysis).

[42] Based on 1990-2011 data.

2017[43], the difference in total private personal income in the state in 2027 using the two alternative growth rates is:

$379 billon x $(1.022)^{10}$ = $471 billion

$379 billion x $(1.0182)^{10}$ = $454 billion, implying a loss of $17 billion (2012$) in private personal income in 2027. Applying a factor of 1.28 for the ratio of GSP to private personal income[44] and a rate of 9 jobs per $1 million of GSP gives the complementary impacts of:

(5) $17 billion x 1.28 = $22 billion loss of GSP in 2027, and

(6) 22,000 (millions) x 9 = 198,000 job loss in 2027.

Alm/Rogers

The Alm/Rogers study is unique for the number of explanatory variables it includes – over 130 – in examining differences in real per capita personal income growth rates for states over the period 1947 to 1997. Alm/Rogers found two statistically significant results of importance to North Carolina's tax proposals. Increases in both real individual income tax revenue per capita and in real sales tax revenue per capita are associated with increases in the real per capita personal income growth rate. Their results imply that every 1% increase in North Carolina's individual income tax revenue per capita leads to a little more than one-tenth of a percentage point (0.0115) increase in the real per capita personal income annual growth rate, and every 1% increase in North Carolina's sales tax revenue per capita results in a little less than one-tenth of a percentage point (0.009) increase in the real per capita personal income annual growth rate. With the state's long-run annual per capita real personal income growth rate at 0.9%, this means it would increase to 0.1015 for a 1% increase in individual income tax revenue per capita, and it would increase to 0.099 for a 1% increase in sales tax revenue per capita.[45]

The North Carolina proposals for changing North Carolina's tax mix imply a 50% increase in real sales tax revenues per capita and a 28% decrease in real individual income tax revenues per capita between 2013 and 2017.[46] The net change in North Carolina's real per capita personal income growth rate would then be:

(7) $50 \times 0.009 - 28 \times 0.0115 = 0.13\%$.

Thus, based on the Alm/Rogers analysis, North Carolina's long-run real per capita personal income growth rate would rise from 0.9% to 1.03%.

North Carolina's per capita personal income in 2012 was $37,049. Using the existing long-run real annual per capita growth rate of 0.9%, in 2027 the state's real (2012$) per capita personal income would be $42,378. Using a 0.9% annual growth rate from 2012 to 2017 and then the higher annual growth rate of 1.03%, from 2017 to 2027, per capita personal income in 2027 (2012$) would be $42,927, an increase of $549 per capita. North Carolina's population in

THE EFFECTS OF A SINGLE SALES FACTOR APPORTIONMENT FORMULA ON NORTH CAROLINA CORPORATE INCOME TAX REVENUE AND THE ECONOMY

PREPARED BY:

Roby Sawyers, Ph.D.
Professor, Department of Accounting
Poole College of Management
North Carolina State University

Most large corporations conduct business in more than one state and are subject to corporate income tax in more than one state. Accordingly, it is necessary to divide or apportion the total income of the company to the various states in which it operates. Most states use a variation of a three-factor formula based on the amount of sales, property and payroll in the state compared to total sales, property and payroll.

Under current law, corporations that do business in North Carolina generally use a three-factor apportionment formula (property, payroll and sales with a double-weight on the sales factor) to apportion business income and determine the amount of income subject to tax in the state. Under this approach, a multistate business would determine the amount of its income subject to tax in North Carolina by calculating the ratio of property, payroll and sales in North Carolina to the property, payroll and sales nationwide. If a corporation has 100% of its property located in North Carolina, 100% of its payroll located in North Carolina but makes only 80% of its sales in North Carolina, under the current formula, North Carolina would tax 90% of the corporation's apportionable business income. Note that the sales factor is weighted twice in the following calculation: [(100% + 100% + (80% x 2)) / 4 = 90%].

The North Carolina Fair Tax Act (2013-RBx-21C, v.4) would modify the current three-factor formula by increasing the weight placed on the sales factor culminating in single-sales factor apportionment beginning in 2016. In the previous example, the company with 100% of its property and payroll in the state but only 80% of its sales would apportion 80% of its income to North Carolina rather than the 90% using a double-weighted sales factor apportionment formula.

APPORTIONMENT FACTORS AND WEIGHTS

Historically, the most common apportionment formula used by states has been a three-factor equally weighted formula that considers the ratio of in-state property, payroll and sales to overall property, payroll and sales. However, at present only 12 states use an equally weighted three-factor test while 14 states utilize a three-factor formula with sales double-weighted, and another 14 states utilize a one-factor sales formula.[49] Since the late 1990s, the definite trend has been for states to increase the weight on the sales factor.

Other states use different weighting schemes (triple weighting sales, for example) or allow companies to choose among formulas. Several states require different formulas for specific industries including airlines, financial institutions, telecommunication companies, railroad and trucking companies, etc.[50]

POTENTIAL BEHAVIORAL EFFECTS OF MOVING TO SINGLE SALES FACTOR APPORTIONMENT

Why would a state double-weight sales or use sales as the only apportionment factor? An increase in the weight on sales and the simultaneous reduction of the weights on payroll and property reduces the production costs for in-state companies relative to companies in states with higher weights on property and payroll.[51] Generally, taxes paid by in-state companies that export to other states and small in-state companies with little presence in other states will decrease[52] while taxes paid by companies with little physical presence that sell into a state from an out-of-state location will increase. For example, a South Carolina company with 90% of its property and payroll but only 50% of its sales in South Carolina and 10% of its property and payroll and 50% of its sales in North Carolina would apportion 30% of its income to North Carolina under a double-weighted sales formula [(10% + 10% + (50% x 2)) / 4 = 30%] while 50% would be apportioned to North Carolina under a sales-only [49] In the southeast, South Carolina and Georgia use single sales factor apportionment, Virginia has recently adopted single sales factor apportionment for certain businesses (see Footnote 2) and Tennessee and Florida use a three factor formula with sales double weighted.

[50] For example, Virginia has recently adopted a phase-in of single sales factor apportionment for qualified manufacturers and retailers.

[51] E. Dubin, "Changes in State Corporate Income Tax Apportionment Formulas and Changes in State Corporate Income Tax Bases," 2010 (Winter), Multistate Tax Commission.

[52] However, single factor apportionment creates no advantages for a small company if the state has a throwback rule. While North Carolina does not technically have a throwback rule, it requires a company that makes sales into a state where it is not required to file a tax return to include those sales as North Carolina sales.

apportionment formula. It should be noted that a North Carolina company that does not sell across state boundaries would not be affected by the change in apportionment as 100% of the company's income is subject to North Carolina tax regardless of the apportionment method used. However, a purely in-state company would see its tax liability decrease under the NC Fair Tax Act as a result of reductions in the corporate income tax rate.

In addition, single sales factor apportionment may serve as an incentive for a North Carolina company to increase its presence in North Carolina or for an out-of-state company to relocate operations into the state (at least from a state that includes property and payroll in its formula) since its property and payroll will not be included in the apportionment formula thereby decreasing the amount of income subject to tax in the state.[53]

REVENUE AND ECONOMIC EFFECTS OF MOVING TO SINGLE-SALES FACTOR APPORTIONMENT

In the short run, increasing the weight of the sales factor is expected to reduce corporate tax revenue. This is consistent with the Legislative Fiscal Note prepared by the Fiscal Research Division of the North Carolina General Assembly for Senate Bill 677 which estimates the fiscal impact to exceed $150 million in annual lost tax revenue by the time single sales factor apportionment is fully phased in (2016). However, even this expectation is not uniformly held and evidence suggests that the expected short-term effect is more complicated. Studying 18 states that increased the weight of the sales tax factor between 2001 and 2008, Dubin (2010) finds that 13 experienced greater corporate income tax capacity in the short term. For the most part, these states could be characterized as market states (which generally import more goods and services) rather than production states (which generally import more goods and services).[54]

In addition, some academic studies have found that adopting a higher sales factor weight can have positive long-term economic benefits for a state. In the long run, it is expected that increased economic activity from the shift to single sales factor apportionment will result in job growth and ultimately higher individual income tax revenue and sales tax revenue. Using data from 1978 to 1994, Goolsbee and Maydew (2000) found that "for the average state, reducing the payroll weight from one-third to one-quarter [which increases the weight on sales form one quarter to one half] increases manufacturing employment around 1.1%."[55] In a separate study conducted for the Public Policy Institute of New York State, the same authors estimated that switching to a single sales factor would have a long-run impact of increasing manufacturing jobs in New York by 3.5% and non-manufacturing jobs by 1.3%.[56] Around the same time, Edmiston (2002) found that "when imposed independently, single-factor sales policies may have substantially positive economic development impacts in the very long run, but that the magnitude of these effects varies considerably across regions."[57] In a more recent study prepared for the Wisconsin Department of Revenue, Bernthal et al. (2012) predicted a 1.22% increase in manufacturing jobs when moving the sales weight from one-third to 100%.[58]

However, in certain circumstances, shifting to single sales factor apportionment could have a negative effect on job growth. For example, Mazerov (2001) points out that a company with little physical presence (a small sales office for example) but significant sales in a state might elect to close the sales office and do business remotely in order to avoid creating tax liability in the state.[59]

Adopting single sales factor apportionment may also affect other taxes collected in the state. For example, to the extent the policy encourages the movement of property into the state, higher property tax revenues may result, benefiting local governments in North Carolina.[60]

CONCLUSION

Fourteen states now use a single sales factor apportionment formula for their corporate income taxes. The North Carolina Fair Tax Act would replace this state's current double-weighting of sales with single sales factor apportionment. This would tend to reduce tax liabilities of firms with substantial property and employment in North Carolina, and increase taxes on out-of-state firms with substantial sales in North Carolina. While this change will likely reduce corporate tax revenue in the short run, empirical evidence has shown that moving to sales only apportionment could lead to higher employment in the state and possibly increase revenue in the long run.

THE RELEVANCE OF TAX REFORM TO ECONOMIC GROWTH

PREPARED BY:

Brent Lane, M.B.A.
Executive Director, Carolina Center for Competitive Economies
Kenan Institute of Private Enterprise
The University of North Carolina - Chapel Hill

North Carolina's leaders face difficult and complex decisions over a broad range of issues that affect the economic well-being of our citizens. Tax reform in particular has emerged as a policy priority for those who perceive it as an opportunity to improve the state's economic competitiveness. In their respective analyses, my colleagues have described the probable ranges of economic outcomes and their mechanisms of proposed changes included in The North Carolina Fair Tax Act. It is also useful that such expected outcomes of the proposed tax reform be viewed in the context of the state's economic needs to achieve an informed understanding of the necessity of tax reform and of its significance as an economic growth strategy.

The assessments of my colleagues suggest that proposed tax reforms included in The North Carolina Fair Tax Act may yield economic benefits that will increase job growth in the state, but not to a certainty. In his paper, "Estimates of the Economic Impact of Changes in the Composition of North Carolina Taxes," our colleague, Dr. Michael L. Walden, a William Neal Reynolds Distinguished Professor in the Department of Agricultural and Resource Economics at North Carolina State University, reviewed recent academic literature from five studies addressing the effects of state taxes on state economic growth. His assessment of those findings when applied to proposed tax reforms, yielded estimates for additional job creation that ranged from a high of 864,000 net additional jobs in 2027 to a low of 198,000 net jobs lost. His conclusion that desired job creation gains of proposed tax reforms were uncertain, while not an insurmountable obstacle to reform, does necessitate careful oversight of intended and unintended outcomes enabling corrective actions are needed in the implementation of any reforms.

Specific elements of the proposed tax reform may offer more certain economic benefits. In his paper "The Effects of a Single Sales Factor Apportionment Formula on North Carolina Corporate Income Tax Revenue and the Economy," Dr. Roby B. Sawyers, Professor of Accounting at North Carolina State University's Poole College of Management assessed the likely effects of changing the way North Carolina calculates the basis for corporate taxation, especially for companies with income generated or received in multiple states. As Professor Sawyer explained, most large corporations conduct business in more than one state and are therefore subject to corporate income tax in more than one state. In such instances it is necessary to divide or apportion the total income of the company to the various states in which it operates.

Under current law, corporations that do business in North Carolina generally use a three-factor apportionment formula (property, payroll and sales with a double-weight on the sales factor) to apportion business income and determine the amount of income subject to tax in the state. The proposed North Carolina Fair Tax Act would replace this state's current double-weighting of sales with single sales factor apportionment.

Fourteen other states now use such a single sales factor apportionment formula for their corporate income taxes. Dr. Sawyer's assessment concluded that implementing single sales factor apportionment in North Carolina would tend to reduce tax liabilities of firms with substantial property and employment in the state, while increasing taxes on out-of-state firms with substantial in-state sales. While this change will likely reduce corporate tax revenue in the short run, empirical evidence has shown that moving to sales only apportionment could lead to higher employment in the state and possibly increase revenue in the long run.

While these evaluations indicate it would be difficult to forecast with precision and/or accuracy most economic effects of the North Carolina Fair Tax Act tax reforms, it is possible, and constructive, to describe the mechanisms by which fundamentally sound tax reforms can produce economic benefits. In his paper "Tax Reform and Its Relationships to the Principles of Sound Tax Policy," Dr. Benjamin Russo, Professor of Economics at the Belk College of Business of the University of North Carolina at Charlotte, described three fundamental characteristics – efficiency, equity, and simplicity - of a reformed tax system that could enhance economic outcomes.

Dr. Russo explained that an efficient tax system maximizes economic value and encourages enterprise by minimizing distorting effects on consumer and producer economic choices. He cited examples of effective reforms including reductions in compliance costs, reduction of high marginal tax rates that induce wasteful tax avoidance behaviors, and addressing taxes that discourage savings and capital formation. Dr. Russo described how achieving equity in tax policies ensures that taxpayers with equal real incomes face equal tax liabilities. He also cited examples of how violations of equity, such as selective deductions, exemptions, credits and special tax treatments, create disparities. His principle of simplicity emphasizes the value of transparency in facilitating understanding, implementation and compliance. This quality contributes to the economy by minimizing uncertainty that tends to exacerbates risk and discourages entrepreneurship. He described how existing exemptions in North Carolina's sales taxes introduced complexity and associated costs, while acknowledging that though broadening the sales tax would reduce complexity it would also impose new collection burdens.

Dr. Russo concluded that there can be no optimal tax structure achieving all three principles. Trade-offs are inevitable as policy makers seek to achieve oft-times competing economic and social objectives. Greater reliance on sale taxes risks equity imbalances for the sake of increasing efficiency. But he saw the potential achieving both efficiency and equity through a careful calibration of base broadening and marginal rate reductions.

Whether through the proposed North Carolina Fair Tax Act or through other proposals under consideration in the current tax reform effort, the General Assembly is recognizing the need to look beyond specific programmatic efforts – such economic development "incentives" to targeted firms - to address systemic policy areas that affect growth by businesses of every form in the broader economy.

Such an approach is insightful as the scale of the North Carolina economy inevitably renders more simplistic economic growth strategies insufficient.

It has long been easy for North Carolinians and non-citizens alike to underestimate the size and scope of the state's economy. For decades North Carolina had the paradoxical distinction of simultaneously being the nation's most rural population and its most industrialized. North Carolina's image as the "small town state" was appropriate, as its traditional industries of textiles, tobacco and furniture sustained a relatively dispersed population.

Such breadth of distribution masks the true size of the state economy. During the past decade, when for the first time North Carolina's population tilted from majority rural to majority urban, the state's economy surpassed those of Georgia, Michigan and Massachusetts. By 2011 North Carolina's estimated gross state product (GSP) exceeded $400 billion, making it the 10th largest in the country. In fact, if it were a separate country, North Carolina's economy would be the 28th largest in the World Bank's 2012 ranking of national economies.

With such scale comes complexity. North Carolina is home to more than 200,000 employer businesses and many more small businesses in a variety of legal forms. So while the state has invested heavily in economic development programs, direct assistance is possible to only a few thousand firms and high profile economic incentives go to just a few dozen companies annually. As a result even the greatest economic development success through these projects has only small direct effects on the larger economy.

By some highly visible measures the state has succeeded economically. Few states rival North Carolina's track record in the recruitment and location of new industry. The state has been ranked #1 for "Best Business Climate" 12 out of the past 13 years by industry leader "Site Selection" magazine. In 2012, when North Carolina was once again at the top of that ranking, the NC Department of Commerce's "Annual Sales Report" cited 146 projects announcements accounting for 16,487 new jobs.

It is important to recognize that in the nation's 10th largest state economy, such "announcements" constitute only a fraction of the new jobs required each year by North Carolina's rapidly growing workforce. Despite its well-publicized economic successes, for the past 5 years North Carolina has had one of the highest unemployment rates in the US because job growth in the state has failed to keep up with workforce growth. In January 2013 North Carolina's labor force totaled nearly 4.8 million. Of that number only 4.3 million people were employed, leaving almost a half million unemployed North Carolinians actively seeking jobs.

This situation is not simply attributable to a slow recovery from the 2008 recession. Job growth has lagged behind workforce growth in the state for nearly two decades, even during period of relative prosperity nationally. Since the beginning of the current economic recovery in 2009, the state's workforce has grown by an average of 56,000 annually, but jobs have grown by only an average of 36,000 per year. So even as employment in the state in 2012 has finally recovered to pre-recession levels, adding a net 15,000 jobs since 2008, its workforce grew by more than 240,000 over the same period.

With North Carolina's population projected to grow by more than 1 million between 2010 and 2020, the state will need to add 700,000 new jobs over the next 7 years to reduce unemployment to a goal of 5.5%. Adding 100,000 new jobs annually would require doubling the job creation rate North Carolina has achieved since 2000. Reliance on economic development efforts, however successful, has proven inadequate to the task. Proposed tax reforms such as those in North Carolina Fair Tax Act are intended to positively influence broad-based employment growth throughout North Carolina's business community in a less intrusive, more efficient manner than targeted incentives and special exemptions in the current North Carolina tax code.

The failure of numerous past reform efforts may have imbued tax reform with exaggerated import among legislators in its potential to positively affect economic growth. Evaluations suggests that while proposed reforms have the potential to contribute positively to future economic growth, the effects are not certain and cannot be quantified with confidence. Therefore tax reform should be seen not as a panacea to North Carolina's economic ills, but as one of several fundamental policy concerns that affect every employer, employee and citizen. In that context, tax reform is a necessary, significant, but insufficient means to address our state's economic growth challenges.

A resident who removes from the State during a taxable year is considered a resident until he has both established a definite domicile elsewhere and abandoned any domicile in this State. The fact of marriage does not raise any presumption as to domicile or residence.

~~(13) Retirement benefits. – Amounts paid to a former employee or the beneficiary of a former employee under a written retirement plan established by the employer to provide payments to an employee or the beneficiary of an employee after the end of the employee's employment with the employer where the right to receive the payments is based upon the employment relationship. a. The United States or its possessions.
b. This State, a political subdivision of this State, or a commission, an authority, or another agency of this State or of a political subdivision of this State.

(4) Refunds of State, local, and foreign income taxes included in the taxpayer's gross income.

(5) The amount received during the taxable year from one or more State, local, or federal government retirement plans to the extent the amount is exempt from tax under this Part pursuant to a court order in settlement of any of the following cases:

(6) Income that meets both of the following requirements:
a. Is earned or received by an enrolled member of a federally recognized Indian tribe.
b. Is derived from activities on a federally recognized Indian reservation while the member resides on the reservation. Income from intangibles having a situs on the reservation and retirement income associated with activities on the reservation are considered income derived from activities on the reservation.

(7) The amount by which the basis of property under this Article exceeds the basis of the property under the Code, in the year the taxpayer disposes of the property.

(8) The amount allowed as a deduction under G.S. 105-153.6 as a result of an add-back for federal accelerated depreciation and expensing.

(4) The amount excluded from gross income under section 199 of the Code.
(5) The amount required to be added under G.S. 105-153.6 when the State decouples from federal accelerated depreciation and expensing.

"§ 105-134.6A. Adjustments when State decouples from federal accelerated depreciation and expensing.

(a) Special Accelerated Depreciation. – A taxpayer who places property in service during a taxable year listed in the table below and who takes a special accelerated depreciation deduction for that property under section 168(k) or 168(n) of the Code must add to the taxpayer's federal taxable income or adjusted gross income, as appropriate, eighty-five percent (85%) of the amount taken for that year under those Code provisions. For taxable years before 2012, the taxpayer must add the amount to the taxpayer's federal taxable income. For taxable year 2012 and after, the taxpayer must add the amount to the taxpayer's adjusted gross income.

A taxpayer who made the addition is allowed to deduct twenty percent (20%) of the add-back in each of the first five taxable years following the year the taxpayer is required to include the add-back in income. The table below indicates the applicable five-year period.

Taxable Year of 85% Add-Back	Five Taxable Years of 20% Deduction
2010	2011 through 2015
2011	2012 through 2016
2012	2013 through 2017
2013	2014 through 2018

(b) 2009 Depreciation Exception. – A taxpayer who placed property in service during the 2009 taxable year and whose North Carolina taxable income for the 2009 taxable year reflected a special accelerated depreciation deduction allowed for the property under section 168(k) of the Code must add eighty-five percent (85%) of the amount of the special accelerated depreciation deduction to its federal taxable income for the 2010 taxable year. A taxpayer who made the addition is allowed to deduct this add-back under subsection (a) of this section as if it were for property placed in service in 2010.

(c) Section 179 Expense. – For purposes of this subdivision, the definition of section 179 property has the same meaning as under section 179 of the Code as of January 1, 2011. A taxpayer who places section 179 property in service during a taxable year listed in the table below must add to the taxpayer's federal taxable income or adjusted gross income as appropriate, eighty-five percent (85%) of the amount by which the taxpayer's expense deduction under section 179 of the Code exceeds the amount that would have been allowed for that taxable year under section 179 of the Code as of May 1, 2010. For taxable years before 2012, the taxpayer must add the amount to the taxpayer's federal taxable income. For taxable year 2012 and after, the taxpayer must add the amount to the taxpayer's adjusted gross income.

A taxpayer who made the addition is allowed to deduct twenty percent (20%) of the add-back in each of the first five taxable years following the year the taxpayer is required to include the add-back in income. The table in subsection (a) of this section indicates the applicable five-year period."

(d) Asset Basis. – The adjustments made in this section do not result in a difference in basis of the affected assets for State and federal income tax purposes."

"§ 105-153.7. Individual income tax imposed.

(a) Tax. – A tax is imposed for each taxable year on the North Carolina taxable income of an individual. The tax is five and four-tenths percent (5.4%) of the taxpayer's North Carolina taxable income that exceeds the zero tax bracket for the taxpayer's filing status. For purposes of Section 2 of Article V of the North Carolina Constitution, the zero tax bracket provides an exemption so that only net incomes are taxed.

The zero tax brackets are as follows:

(1) For married individuals who file a joint return under G.S. 105-153.8 and for surviving spouses, as defined in section 2(a) of the Code:

Over	Up To	Rate
0	$15,000	0.0%

(2) For heads of households, as defined in section 2(b) of the Code:

Over	Up To	Rate
0	$12,000	0.0%

(3) For unmarried individuals other than surviving spouses and heads of households:

Over	Up To	Rate
0	$7,500	0.0%

(4) For married individuals who do not file a joint return under G.S. 105-153.7:

Over	Up To	Rate
0	$7,500	0.0%

(b) Withholding Tables. – The Secretary may provide tables that compute the amount of tax due for a taxable year under this Part. The tables do not apply to an individual who files a return under section 443(a)(1) of the Code for a period of less than 12 months due to a change in the individual's annual accounting period, or to an estate or trust."

SECTION 1.1.(e) This section becomes effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2014.

SECTION 1.2.(a) G.S. 105-153.7(a), as enacted by Section 1.1 of this Part, reads as rewritten:

"(a) Tax. – A tax is imposed for each taxable year on the North Carolina taxable income of an individual. The tax is ~~five and four-tenths percent (5.4%)~~ five and twenty-five hundreds percent (5.25%) of the taxpayer's North Carolina taxable income that exceeds the zero tax bracket for the taxpayer's filing status. For purposes of Section 2 of Article V of the North Carolina Constitution, the zero tax bracket provides an exemption so that only net incomes are taxed.

SECTION 1.2.(b) This section becomes effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2015.

SECTION 1.3.(a) G.S. 105-152 and G.S. 105-151, recodified by this Part as G.S. 105-153.8 and G.S. 105-153.9, read as rewritten:

"§ 105-153.8. Income tax returns.

(a) Who Must File. – The following individuals ~~shall~~ must file with the Secretary an income tax return under affirmation:

(1) Every resident required to file an income tax return for the taxable year under the ~~Code and every~~ Code.

(1a) Every nonresident individual who ~~(i) derived~~meets all of the following requirements:

a. Receives during the taxable year gross income that is derived from North Carolina sources ~~during the taxable year~~and is attributable to the ownership of any interest in real or tangible personal property in this ~~State or~~State, is derived from a business, trade, profession, or occupation carried on in this ~~State and (ii) is~~State, or is derived from gambling activities in this State.

b. Is required to file an income tax return for the taxable year under the Code.

(2) Repealed by Session Laws 1991 (Reg. Sess., 1992), c. 930, s. 1.

(3) Any individual whom the Secretary believes to be liable for a tax under this Part, when so notified by the Secretary and requested to file a return.

(b) Taxpayer Deceased or Unable to Make Return. – If ~~the~~ a taxpayer is unable to file ~~the~~ an income tax return, ~~the return shall be filed by~~ a duly authorized agent of the taxpayer or ~~by~~ a guardian or other person charged with the care of the person or property of the ~~taxpayer.~~taxpayer must file the return. If an individual who was required to file an income tax return for the taxable year while living has died before making the return, the administrator or executor of the estate ~~shall~~ must file the return in the decedent's name and behalf, and the tax ~~shall be levied upon and collected from~~is payable by the estate.

(c) Information Required With Return. – The income tax return ~~shall~~ must show the ~~taxable income and adjustments~~adjusted gross income and modifications required by this ~~Part~~ Part, and any other information the Secretary requires. The Secretary may require some or all individuals required to file an income tax return to attach to the return a copy of their federal income tax return for the taxable year. The Secretary may require a taxpayer to provide the Department with copies of any other return the taxpayer has filed with the Internal Revenue Service and to verify any information in the return.

(d) Secretary May Require Additional Information. – When the Secretary has reason to believe that any taxpayer conducts a trade or business in a way that directly or indirectly distorts the taxpayer's ~~taxable income~~adjusted gross income or North Carolina taxable income, the Secretary may require any additional information for the proper computation of the taxpayer's ~~taxable income~~adjusted gross income and North Carolina taxable income. In computing the taxpayer's ~~taxable income~~adjusted gross income and North Carolina taxable income, the Secretary ~~shall~~ must consider the fair profit that would normally arise from the conduct of the trade or business.

(e) Joint Returns. – A husband and wife whose ~~federal taxable income~~adjusted gross income is determined on a joint federal return ~~shall~~ must file a single income tax return jointly if each spouse either is a resident of this State or has North Carolina taxable income and may file a single income tax return jointly if one spouse is not a resident and has no North Carolina taxable income. Except as otherwise provided in this Part, a wife and husband filing jointly are treated as one taxpayer for the purpose of determining the tax imposed by this Part. A husband and wife filing jointly are jointly and severally liable for the tax imposed by this Part reduced by the sum of all credits allowable including tax payments made by or on behalf of the husband and wife. However, if a spouse qualifies for relief of liability for federal tax attributable to a substantial understatement by the other spouse pursuant to section 6015 of the Code, that spouse is not liable for the corresponding tax imposed by this Part attributable to the same substantial understatement by the other spouse. A wife and husband filing jointly have expressly agreed that if the amount of the payments made by them with respect to the taxes for which they are liable, including withheld and estimated taxes, exceeds the total of the taxes due, refund of the excess may be made payable to both spouses jointly or, if either is deceased, to the survivor alone.

(1) The credit is allowed only for taxes paid to another state or country on income that is derived from sources within that state or country ~~that~~ and is taxed under its laws irrespective of the residence or domicile of the recipient, except that whenever a taxpayer who is ~~deemed to be~~ considered a resident of this State under ~~the provisions of~~ this Part is ~~deemed also to be~~ considered a resident of another state or country under the laws of that state or country, the Secretary may allow a credit against the taxes imposed by this Part for taxes imposed by and paid to the other state or country on income taxed under this Part.

(2) The fraction of the adjusted gross income, as ~~calculated under the Code and adjusted as provided in G.S. 105-134.6 and G.S. 105-134.7,~~ modified in G.S. 105-153.5, that is subject to income tax in another state or country shall be ascertained, and the North Carolina net income tax before credit under this section shall be multiplied by that fraction. (3) Receipts showing the payment of income taxes to another state or country and a true copy of a return or returns upon the basis of which the taxes are assessed shall be filed with the Secretary when the credit is claimed. If credit is claimed on account of a deficiency assessment, a true copy of the notice assessing or proposing to assess the deficiency, as well as a receipt showing the payment of the deficiency, shall be filed.

(b) If any taxes paid to another state or country for which a taxpayer has been allowed a credit under this section are at any time credited or refunded to the taxpayer, a tax equal to that portion of the credit allowed for the taxes so credited or refunded is due and payable from the taxpayer and is subject to the penalties and interest provided in Subchapter I of this Chapter."

(c) Characterization of Income. – S Corporation items of income, loss, deduction, and credit taken into account by a shareholder pursuant to G.S. 105-131.1(b) are characterized as though received or incurred by the S Corporation and not its shareholder."

SECTION 1.4.(b) G.S. 105-131.5 reads as rewritten:

"§ 105-131.5. Part-year resident shareholder.

If a shareholder of an S Corporation is both a resident and nonresident of this State during any taxable period, the shareholder's pro rata share of the S Corporation's income attributable to the State and income not attributable to the State for the taxable period shall be further prorated between the shareholder's periods of residence and nonresidence, in accordance with the number of days in each period, as provided in ~~G.S. 105-134.5.~~G.S. 105-153.4."

SECTION 1.4.(c) G.S. 105-131.7(c) reads as rewritten:

purposes of the collection of any unpaid income tax, together with related interest and penalties, owed by the nonresident shareholder. If the corporation fails to timely file an agreement required by this subsection on behalf of any of its nonresident shareholders, then the corporation ~~shall~~ must at the time specified in subsection (d) of this section pay to the Department on behalf of each nonresident shareholder with respect to whom an agreement has not been timely filed an estimated amount of the tax due the State. The estimated amount of tax due the State ~~shall be~~ is computed at the ~~rates~~ rate levied in ~~G.S. 105-134.2(a)(3)~~ G.S. 105-153.7 on the shareholder's pro rata share of the S Corporation's income attributable to the State reflected on the corporation's return for the taxable period. An S Corporation may recover a payment made pursuant to the preceding sentence from the shareholder on whose behalf the payment was made."

SECTION 1.4.(d) G.S. 105-131.8(a) reads as rewritten:

In this case, the manager ~~shall~~ must include a copy of the affirmation with the report required by this subsection."

(a) Distribution. – The Secretary must distribute to cities forty-four percent (44%) of the net proceeds of the tax collected under G.S. 105-164.4 on electricity. Each city's share of the amount to be distributed is its franchise tax share calculated under subsection (b) of this section plus its ad valorem share calculated under subsection (c) of this section. The Secretary must make the distribution within 75 days after the end of each quarter.

(b) Franchise Tax Share. – The quarterly franchise tax share of a city is the amount of electricity gross receipts franchise tax distributed to the city under repealed G.S. 105-116.1 for the same related quarter that was the last quarter in which taxes were imposed on electric power companies under repealed G.S. 105-116.

The franchise tax share of a city that has dissolved, merged with another city, or divided into two or more cities since it received a distribution under repealed G.S. 105-116.1 is adjusted as follows:

(1) If a city dissolves and is no longer incorporated, the franchise tax share of the city is added to the amount distributed under subsection (c) of this section.

(a) Distribution. – The Secretary must distribute to cities twenty percent (20%) of the net proceeds of the tax collected under G.S. 105-164.4 on piped natural gas. Each city's share of the amount to be distributed is its excise tax share calculated under subsection (b) of this section plus its ad valorem share calculated under subsection (c) of this section. The Secretary must make the distribution within 75 days after the end of each quarter.

The Secretary must determine the excise tax share of a gas city and divide that amount by four to calculate the quarterly distribution amount for a gas city. The excise tax share of a gas city is the amount the gas city would have received under repealed G.S. 105-187.44 for the last year in which taxes were imposed under repealed Article 5E of this Chapter if piped natural gas consumed by the city or delivered by the city to a customer had not been exempt from tax under repealed G.S. 105-187.41(c)(1) and (c)(2). A gas city must report the information required by the Secretary to make the distribution under this section in the form, manner, and time required by the Secretary. For purposes of this subsection, the term "gas city" has the same meaning as defined in repealed G.S. 105-187.40.

The excise tax share of a city that has dissolved, merged with another city, or divided into two or more cities since it received a distribution under repealed G.S. 105-187.44 is adjusted as follows:

(1) If a city dissolves and is no longer incorporated, the excise tax share of the city is added to the amount distributed under subsection (c) of this section.

(2) If two or more cities merge or otherwise consolidate, their excise tax shares are combined.

(3) If a city divides into two or more cities, the excise tax share of the city that divides is allocated among the new cities in proportion to the total amount of ad valorem taxes levied by each on property having a tax situs in the city.

(c) Ad Valorem Share. – The ad valorem share of a city is its proportionate share of the amount that remains for distribution after determining each city's excise tax share under subsection (b) of this section. A city's proportionate share is the amount of ad valorem taxes it levies on property having a tax situs in the city compared to the ad valorem taxes levied by all cities on property having a tax situs in the cities.

(d) Methodology. – The ad valorem method set out in G.S. 105-472(b)(2) applies in determining the share of a city under this section based on ad valorem taxes, except that the amount of ad valorem taxes levied by a city does not include ad valorem taxes levied on behalf of a taxing district and collected by the city.

(e) Determination Final. – The determination made by the Department with respect to a city's excise tax share is final and is not subject to administrative or judicial review.

(f) Nature. – The General Assembly finds that the revenue distributed under this section is local revenue, not a State expenditure, for the purpose of Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution. Therefore, the Governor may not reduce or withhold the distribution."

Tax Reform in North Carolina: Simple, Neutral, Pro-Growth

Scott Drenkard
Economist, Tax Foundation

Hearing of the Finance Committee of the North Carolina Senate

June 11, 2013

Chairman Rabon and Chairman Rucho, Members of the Committee:

My name is Scott Drenkard, and I'm an economist at the Tax Foundation. For those unfamiliar with the Tax Foundation, we are a non-partisan, non-profit organization that has monitored fiscal policy at all levels of government since 1937. We have produced the Facts & Figures handbook since 1941, we calculate Tax Freedom Day each year, and have a wealth of data, rankings, and other information at our website, www.TaxFoundation.org.

I'm pleased to have the opportunity to speak today with regard to the Senate Finance Committee Substitute to H.B. 998, a comprehensive bill to restructure North Carolina's tax code. While we take no position on the bill, I hope to give some perspective based on our research.

In January of this year, my colleague Joe Henchman and I released a book titled North Carolina Tax Reform Options: A Guide to Fair, Simple, Pro-Growth Reform. In it, we detail reform recommendations in line with the principles of sound tax policy: simplicity, neutrality, transparency and stability.

The focus of my testimony today is that tax structures matter just as much as tax collections. In other words, how North Carolina collects taxes can have fundamental impacts on economic growth and deadweight loss. With careful consideration, the Tar Heel state can collect the revenue it needs for necessary government services without stalling the engine of economic growth.

Taxes and Economic Growth

Rarely does empirical economic literature speak so strongly in unison as it does about the effect of taxes on economic growth. In 2012, my colleague Will McBride conducted a comprehensive study of peer-reviewed literature on economic growth and tax levels. He found that of the 26 studies written on the topic, 23 find that raising taxes hurts economic growth.

The three studies that disagree had statistically insignificant results, and all studies published in the last 15 years find that raising taxes hurts growth. This last fact is especially convincing, as these more recent articles address statistical problems with early studies on the topic.

The bill before the committee cuts taxes to the tune of $1.4 billion, and keeping that money in the private sector will create economic growth immediately and in the long run.

The Corporate Income Tax

A central element of this bill is the elimination of the corporate income tax by the year 2017, a move that would make North Carolina one of just four states without a corporate income tax or gross receipts tax. This reform is beneficial for a few reasons. First, corporate income taxes are generally considered to be the most economically destructive. Of the economic literature that distinguishes between types of taxes, the consensus is that corporate income taxes hurt economic growth most, followed by personal income taxes, then sales taxes, and finally property taxes least.

Add to this the fact that corporate income taxes represented just 4 percent of statewide state and local collections in 2010, and in many ways corporate tax elimination is a high "bang-for-your buck" option to increasing growth. As opposed to simply cutting tax rates, elimination of an entire tax also reaps benefits in compliance costs.

Each year, corporate entities spend millions on attorneys, accountants, and tax consultants to comply with the corporate income tax, carefully structuring their income to achieve lower tax bills through the use of special credits even if doing so doesn't make business sense otherwise. Elimination of the tax entirely removes these costs and allows businesses to spend that money on other resources that better serve the economy.

Finally, economists agree that corporate income taxes are not even borne by corporations themselves. They are passed on in one of three ways: to consumers in the form of higher prices, to workers in the form of lower wages, and to shareholders in the form of lower dividends. To review, state corporate income taxes are the most damaging tax to growth, they don't collect very much revenue, they have large compliance costs, and they are ultimately passed on.

Cutting and Flattening the Income Tax

North Carolina's individual income tax, first enacted in 1921, has a graduated rate structure, meaning that taxable income above each threshold (after subtracting deductions and exemptions) is taxed at progressively higher percentages.

North Carolina's top income tax rate is the highest in the region, and the other lower rates are still relatively high and kick in at low levels of income (see Figure 1). As North Carolina grows its finance sector, many prospective employees will have income levels above the top bracket, so the comparison to other states in the region (and other finance centers) is important for relocation decisions.

Excessive taxes on income are also generally less desirable than taxes on consumption because they discourage wealth creation. In a comprehensive summary of international econometric tax studies, an OECD study found that personal income taxes are among the most destructive to growth, being outdone only by corporate income taxes. The authors found that consumption and property taxes are the least harmful.

The economic literature on progressive income taxes is especially unkind. For example, the OECD study finds that reductions in the top marginal rate of income taxes would be beneficial to long term growth. Examining the period 1969-1986, Mullen and Williams (1994) found that higher marginal tax rates reduce gross state product growth. This finding even adjusts for the overall tax burden of the state, lending credence to the principle of broad bases and low rates.

For these reasons, I'm pleased to see that this bill and several of the other bills being considered in North Carolina are pushing for a flat income tax.

Estate Tax Repeal

While estate taxes are often a polarizing issue, a 2009 poll by the Tax Foundation found that they are viewed as the most "unfair" of all federal taxes. Though our poll didn't ask, I think this is largely because of the posthumous nature of the tax and the fact that it taxes income that has already been taxed once.

While these elements make the tax unfair, they also hurt the economy. As pointed out by the Joint Economic Committee in a 2012 report, the federal estate tax has since its inception decreased capital stock by $1.1 trillion due to discouragement of savings and the taxing of intergenerational transfers, which are perhaps the largest source of aggregate capital in the economy. The estate tax discourages savings by promoting a "die broke" mentality, as untaxed consumption becomes relatively cheaper than savings for those who intend to build wealth and bequeath a gift to inheritors, such as children or grandchildren.

Further, the tax is among the most complex taxes; some estimates show that the compliance costs of collecting the tax (estate and gift planning) actually exceed the amount the tax brings in. State estate taxes just add to the complexity.

Reforming the Sales Tax: Taxing Business Inputs Distorts the Economy

North Carolina is not alone in needing to modernize its sales tax. In the 1930s, when sales taxes were first created, they were placed on sales of "tangible personal property," or goods. Services have not been traditionally subject to sales taxes. This base worked well for a time, as goods represented about two-thirds of the economy. But today, the U.S. economy is fundamentally service-based, with goods representing only one-third of trade and services comprising the other two-thirds.

The result is that instead of expanding the base of the sales tax to services as the economy has changed, states have just raised rates on the existing base defined back in the 1930s, meaning states tax goods at very high rates, while services largely pay no sales tax. For the sales tax to remain a viable revenue source in the next two decades, services will have to be included sooner or later in all states that rely on the sales tax.

The bill introduced today is different than other bills the Senate and House have considered in that it doesn't include expansion to services. My hope is that if that this legislative body is not able to make room for that reform in this session that they will flag that reform for future examination.

But another equally important sales tax reform is the exemption of business-to-business transactions from the sales tax. Business inputs should be exempt not because businesses deserve special treatment, but because failure to do so results in "tax pyramiding," the process whereby taxes stack on top of each other as raw goods move through the production process.

As an example, if one were to build a car under a sales tax regime that taxes business-to business transactions, the rubber of the tire would be taxed once when it was sold from the rubber producers to the tire company, then taxed again when the tire is sold to the car company, then taxed a final time when the finished car is sold to the end consumer. This practice inordinately burdens industries with long production lines.

Finally, taxing business-to-business transactions reduces tax transparency, because while a statutory rate paid by the consumer at the point of final sale may be low, the business-to-business taxes are already embedded in the price of the product.

Many states try to avoid these problems by engaging in the laborious task of picking products that are frequently used as business inputs and individually carving out exemptions for them in the sales tax code. This approach is a step in the right direction but does not and cannot ever comprehensively address all the items that businesses use in the production process and should therefore not pay sales taxes on.

In the materials I've been able to obtain on the current bill before the committee, it seems to be moving in the opposite direction, with some of the new expansions to the sales tax falling on business-to-business transactions.

I'd like to hold out the sales tax treatment laid out in an earlier version of S.B. 677 as a straightforward solution to this problem. That bill expressly excludes businesses from paying sales taxes on products that are used in production with the following language included in the exemption section:

> Sales of capital equipment purchased by a business subject to the franchise tax under Article 3 of this Chapter or to a farmer for use by the farmer in the planting, cultivating, harvesting, or curing of farm crops or in the production of dairy products, eggs, or animals.
> A service taxable under G.S. 105-164.4(b)(13) through (25) that is provided to a business subject to the franchise tax under Article 3 of this Chapter for use in that business.

The State Business Climate Index

As an informational tool, I've run the various plans through our State Business Tax Climate Index. As you can see, the new Senate plan scores the best on our Index, and the score is driven mainly by the elimination of the corporate income tax. The Rucho and Rabon bill scores very well in the sales tax component of the Index, mainly for its correct treatment of business input exemptions.

	Current Law	H.B. 998 (Lewis et. al.)	S.B. 677 (Rucho & Rabon)	S.B. 394 (Clodfelter & Hartsell)	H.B. 998 Substitute

Conclusion

In closing, this session represents a unique opportunity for North Carolina to enact serious, growth-maximizing tax reform. I'm excited to see so many good ideas on the table, and I look forward to your questions.

H.B. 998 – Tax Simplification and Reduction Act

Senator Berger was recognized to explain the proposed committee substitute (PCS) which was adopted for discussion at the previous meeting. Senator Brunstetter was recognized to offer an amendment which would change the fee schedule by adding a year and a tier to sales tax execution. Senator Berger commended the amendment and Senator Tillman moved for its adoption. The motion carried. Dr. Barry Boardman, Chief Economist, and Jonathan Tart, a fiscal analyst with the Fiscal Research Division, were recognized to answer questions. Senator Rucho was recognized to speak in opposition to the bill, pointing out that it is not a comprehensive tax reform package. Senator Clodfelter was recognized to express concerns about the pyramiding of sales taxes in Section 11.1. Lew Ebert, President of the NC Chamber, was recognized to speak in favor of the PCS. Herman Stone, a Charlotte movie theater owner, was recognized to oppose increased taxes on movie tickets. Alexandra Sirota, Director of the NC Budget and Tax Center, was recognized to express concerns with the current proposals and oppose the PCS. Mary Bethel, a lobbyist for the AARP, was recognized. She applauded tax reform efforts, but was concerned about the taxing of Social Security benefits, increasing the tax burden on retirees, reducing services (Meal on Wheels, in home care, etc.), and the proposed property tax increase. Senator Hartsell was recognized to offer and amend to clarify the tobacco discount for filing returns. Senator Jenkins moved for a favorable report and the motion carried. Senator Brown moved for a favorable report for the PCS and to roll the approved amendments into a new PCS. The motion carried. A copy of the PCS, the summary chart, the amendments, and the fiscal note is attached.

"§ 105-153.3 Definitions.

The following definitions apply in this Part:

(1) Adjusted gross income. – Defined in section 62 of the Code.

(1a) Code. – Defined in G.S. 105-228.90.

(2) Department. – The Department of Revenue.

(7a) Limited liability company. – Either a domestic limited liability company organized under Chapter 57C of the General Statutes or a foreign limited liability company authorized by that Chapter to transact business in this State that is classified for federal income tax purposes as a partnership. (7b) Repealed by Session Laws 1998-98, s. 9, effective August 14, 1998.

(8) Married individual. – An individual who is married and is considered married as provided in section 7703 of the Code.

A resident who removes from the State during a taxable year is considered a resident until he has both established a definite domicile elsewhere and abandoned any domicile in this State. The fact of marriage does not raise any presumption as to domicile or residence.

~~(13) Retirement benefits. – Amounts paid to a former employee or the beneficiary of a former employee under a written retirement plan established by the employer to provide payments to an employee or the beneficiary of an employee after the end of the employee's employment with the employer where the right to receive the payments is based upon the employment relationship. a. Is earned or received by an enrolled member of a federally recognized Indian tribe.
b. Is derived from activities on a federally recognized Indian reservation while the member resides on the reservation. Income from intangibles having a situs on the reservation and retirement income associated with activities on the reservation are considered income derived from activities on the reservation.

(7) The amount by which the basis of property under this Article exceeds the basis of the property under the Code, in the year the taxpayer disposes of the property.

(8) The amount allowed as a deduction under G.S. 105-153.6 as a result of an add-back for federal accelerated depreciation and expensing.

(4) The amount excluded from gross income under section 199 of the Code.

"§ 105-134.6A. Adjustments when State decouples from federal accelerated depreciation and expensing.

(a) Special Accelerated Depreciation. – A taxpayer who places property in service during a taxable year listed in the table below and who takes a special accelerated depreciation deduction for that property under section 168(k) or 168(n) of the Code must add to the taxpayer's federal taxable income or adjusted gross income, as appropriate, eighty-five percent (85%) of the amount taken for that year under those Code provisions. For taxable years before 2012, the taxpayer must add the amount to the taxpayer's federal taxable income. For taxable year 2012 and after, the taxpayer must add the amount to the taxpayer's adjusted gross income.

A taxpayer who made the addition is allowed to deduct twenty percent (20%) of the add-back in each of the first five taxable years following the year the taxpayer is required to include the add-back in income. The table below indicates the applicable five-year period.

Taxable Year of 85% Add-Back	Five Taxable Years of 20% Deduction
2010	2011 through 2015
2011	2012 through 2016
2012	2013 through 2017
2013	2014 through 2018

(b) 2009 Depreciation Exception. – A taxpayer who placed property in service during the 2009 taxable year and whose North Carolina taxable income for the 2009 taxable year reflected a special accelerated depreciation deduction allowed for the property under section 168(k) of the Code must add eighty-five percent (85%) of the amount of the special accelerated depreciation deduction to its federal taxable income for the 2010 taxable year. A taxpayer who made the addition is allowed to deduct this add-back under subsection (a) of this section as if it were for property placed in service in 2010.

(c) Section 179 Expense. – For purposes of this subdivision, the definition of section 179 property has the same meaning as under section 179 of the Code as of January 1, 2011. A taxpayer who places section 179 property in service during a taxable year listed in the table below must add to the taxpayer's federal taxable income or adjusted gross income as appropriate, eighty-five percent (85%) of the amount by which the taxpayer's expense deduction under section 179 of the Code exceeds the amount that would have been allowed for that taxable year under section 179 of the Code as of May 1, 2010. For taxable years before 2012, the taxpayer must add the amount to the taxpayer's federal taxable income. For taxable year 2012 and after, the taxpayer must add the amount to the taxpayer's adjusted gross income.

A taxpayer who made the addition is allowed to deduct twenty percent (20%) of the add-back in each of the first five taxable years following the year the taxpayer is required to include the add-back in income. The table in subsection (a) of this section indicates the applicable five-year period.

(d) Asset Basis. – The adjustments made in this section do not result in a difference in basis of the affected assets for State and federal income tax purposes."

"§ 105-153.7. Individual income tax imposed.

(a) Tax. – A tax is imposed for each taxable year on the North Carolina taxable income of an individual. The tax is five and four-tenths percent (5.4%) of the taxpayer's North Carolina taxable income that exceeds the zero tax bracket for the taxpayer's filing status. For purposes of Section 2 of Article V of the North Carolina Constitution, the zero tax bracket provides an exemption so that only net incomes are taxed.

The zero tax brackets are as follows:

(1) For married individuals who file a joint return under G.S. 105-153.8 and for surviving spouses, as defined in section 2(a) of the Code:

Over	Up To	Rate

0	$7,500	0.0%

(4) For married individuals who do not file a joint return under G.S. 105-153.7:

Over	Up To	Rate
0	$7,500	0.0%

(b) Withholding Tables. – The Secretary may provide tables that compute the amount of tax due for a taxable year under this Part. The tables do not apply to an individual who files a return under section 443(a)(1) of the Code for a period of less than 12 months due to a change in the individual's annual accounting period, or to an estate or trust."

SECTION 1.1.(e) This section becomes effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2014.

SECTION 1.2.(a) G.S. 105-153.7(a), as enacted by Section 1.1 of this Part, reads as rewritten:

"(a) Tax. – A tax is imposed for each taxable year on the North Carolina taxable income of an individual. The tax is ~~five and four-tenths percent (5.4%)~~ five and twenty-five hundreds percent (5.25%) of the taxpayer's North Carolina taxable income that exceeds the zero tax bracket for the taxpayer's filing status. For purposes of Section 2 of Article V of the North Carolina Constitution, the zero tax bracket provides an exemption so that only net incomes are taxed.

SECTION 1.2.(b) This section becomes effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2015.

SECTION 1.3.(a) G.S. 105-152 and G.S. 105-151, recodified by this Part as G.S. 105-153.8 and G.S. 105-153.9, read as rewritten:

"§ 105-153.8. Income tax returns.

(a) Who Must File. – The following individuals ~~shall~~ must file with the Secretary an income tax return under affirmation:

b. Is required to file an income tax return for the taxable year under the Code.

(2) Repealed by Session Laws 1991 (Reg. Sess., 1992), c. 930, s. 1.

The Secretary may require a taxpayer to provide the Department with copies of any other return the taxpayer has filed with the Internal Revenue Service and to verify any information in the return.

(d) Secretary May Require Additional Information. – When the Secretary has reason to believe that any taxpayer conducts a trade or business in a way that directly or indirectly distorts the taxpayer's ~~taxable income~~adjusted gross income or North Carolina taxable income, the Secretary may require any additional information for the proper computation of the taxpayer's ~~taxable income~~adjusted gross income and North Carolina taxable income. In computing the taxpayer's ~~taxable income~~adjusted gross income and North Carolina taxable income, the Secretary ~~shall~~ must consider the fair profit that would normally arise from the conduct of the trade or business.

(e) Joint Returns. – A husband and wife whose ~~federal taxable income~~adjusted gross income is determined on a joint federal return ~~shall~~ must file a single income tax return jointly if each spouse either is a resident of this State or has North Carolina taxable income and may file a single income tax return jointly if one spouse is not a resident and has no North Carolina taxable income. Except as otherwise provided in this Part, a wife and husband filing jointly are treated as one taxpayer for the purpose of determining the tax imposed by this Part. A husband and wife filing jointly are jointly and severally liable for the tax imposed by this Part reduced by the sum of all credits allowable including tax payments made by or on behalf of the husband and wife. However, if a spouse qualifies for relief of liability for federal tax attributable to a substantial understatement by the other spouse pursuant to section 6015 of the Code, that spouse is not liable for the corresponding tax imposed by this Part attributable to the same substantial understatement by the other spouse. A wife and husband filing jointly have expressly agreed that if the amount of the payments made by them with respect to the taxes for which they are liable, including withheld and estimated taxes, exceeds the total of the taxes due, refund of the excess may be made payable to both spouses jointly or, if either is deceased, to the survivor alone.

(a) Distribution. – The Secretary must distribute to cities forty-four percent (44%) of the net proceeds of the tax collected under G.S. 105-164.4 on electricity. Each city's share of the amount to be distributed is its franchise tax share calculated under subsection (b) of this section plus its ad valorem share calculated under subsection (c) of this section. The Secretary must make the distribution within 75 days after the end of each quarter.

(b) Franchise Tax Share. – The quarterly franchise tax share of a city is the amount of electricity gross receipts franchise tax distributed to the city under repealed G.S. 105-116.1 for the same related quarter that was the last quarter in which taxes were imposed on electric power companies under repealed G.S. 105-116.

The franchise tax share of a city that has dissolved, merged with another city, or divided into two or more cities since it received a distribution under repealed G.S. 105-116.1 is adjusted as follows:

(1) If a city dissolves and is no longer incorporated, the franchise tax share of the city is added to the amount distributed under subsection (c) of this section.

(a) Distribution. – The Secretary must distribute to cities twenty percent (20%) of the net proceeds of the tax collected under G.S. 105-164.4 on piped natural gas. Each city's share of the amount to be distributed is its excise tax share calculated under subsection (b) of this section plus its ad valorem share calculated under subsection (c) of this section. The Secretary must make the distribution within 75 days after the end of each quarter.

(b) Excise Tax Share. – The quarterly excise tax share of a city that is not a gas city is the amount of piped natural gas excise tax distributed to the city under repealed G.S. 105-187.44 for the same related quarter that was the last quarter in which taxes were imposed on piped natural gas under repealed Article 5E of this Chapter. The Secretary must determine the excise tax share of a gas city and divide that amount by four to calculate the quarterly distribution amount for a gas city. The excise tax share of a gas city is the amount the gas city would have received under repealed G.S. 105-187.44 for the last year in which taxes were imposed under repealed Article 5E of this Chapter if piped natural gas consumed by the city or delivered by the city to a customer had not been exempt from tax under repealed G.S. 105-187.41(c)(1) and (c)(2). A gas city must report the information required by the Secretary to make the distribution under this section in the form, manner, and time required by the Secretary. For purposes of this subsection, the term "gas city" has the same meaning as defined in repealed G.S. 105-187.40.

The excise tax share of a city that has dissolved, merged with another city, or divided into two or more cities since it received a distribution under repealed G.S. 105-187.44 is adjusted as follows:

(1) If a city dissolves and is no longer incorporated, the excise tax share of the city is added to the amount distributed under subsection (c) of this section.

(2) If two or more cities merge or otherwise consolidate, their excise tax shares are combined.

(3) If a city divides into two or more cities, the excise tax share of the city that divides is allocated among the new cities in proportion to the total amount of ad valorem taxes levied by each on property having a tax situs in the city.

(c) Ad Valorem Share. – The ad valorem share of a city is its proportionate share of the amount that remains for distribution after determining each city's excise tax share under subsection (b) of this section. A city's proportionate share is the amount of ad valorem taxes it levies on property having a tax situs in the city compared to the ad valorem taxes levied by all cities on property having a tax situs in the cities.

(d) Methodology. – The ad valorem method set out in G.S. 105-472(b)(2) applies in determining the share of a city under this section based on ad valorem taxes, except that the amount of ad valorem taxes levied by a city does not include ad valorem taxes levied on behalf of a taxing district and collected by the city.

(e) Determination Final. – The determination made by the Department with respect to a city's excise tax share is final and is not subject to administrative or judicial review.

(f) Nature. – The General Assembly finds that the revenue distributed under this section is local revenue, not a State expenditure, for the purpose of Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution. Therefore, the Governor may not reduce or withhold the distribution."

SECTION 7.3.(c) This section is effective for quarters beginning on or after July 1, 2014.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO REQUIRE THE DIVISION OF MOTOR VEHICLES TO IMPLEMENT A STATEWIDE ELECTRONIC LIEN SYSTEM TO PROCESS THE NOTIFICATION AND RELEASE OF SECURITY INTERESTS AND CERTIFICATE OF TITLE DATA.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Article 3 of Chapter 20 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 20-58.4A. Electronic lien system.

(a) Implementation. – No later than July 1, 2014, the Division shall implement a statewide electronic lien system to process the notification, release, and maintenance of security interests and certificate of title data where a lien is notated, through electronic means instead of paper documents otherwise required by this Chapter. The Division may contract with a qualified vendor or vendors to develop and implement this statewide electronic lien system, or the Division may develop and make available to qualified service providers a well-defined set of information services that will enable secure access to the data and internal application components necessary to facilitate the creation of an electronic lien system.

(b) Minimum Standards for a Vendor Implemented System. – When contracting with a qualified vendor or vendors to implement the system required in subsection (a) of this section, the Division shall set the following minimum standards:

(1) The Division shall issue a competitive request for proposal to assess the qualifications of any vendor or vendors responsible for the establishment and ongoing support of the statewide electronic lien system. The Division may also reserve the right to receive input regarding specifications for the electronic lien system from parties that do not respond to a request for proposal to establish and operate an electronic lien system.

(2) Any contract entered into with a vendor or vendors shall include no costs or charges payable by the Division to the vendor or vendors. The vendor or vendors shall reimburse the Division for documented reasonable implementation costs directly associated with the establishment and ongoing support of the statewide electronic lien system.

(3) Upon implementation of the electronic lien system pursuant to subsection (a) of this section, the qualified vendor or vendors may charge participating lienholders or their agents a per-transaction fee for each lien notification. The per-transaction lien notification fee shall be consistent with market pricing in an amount not to exceed three dollars and fifty cents ($3.50) for costs associated with the development and ongoing administration of the electronic lien system. The qualified vendor or vendors shall not charge lienholders or their agents any additional fee for lien releases, assignments, or transfers. To recover their costs, participating lienholders or their agents may charge the borrower of a motor vehicle loan or the lessee of an automotive lease an amount equal to the transaction fee per lien notification plus a fee in an amount not to exceed three dollars ($3.00) for each electronic transaction where a lien is notated.

(4) A qualified vendor or vendors may also serve as a service provider to lienholders, if all of the following conditions are met:

a. The contract with the vendor must include provisions specifically prohibiting the vendor from using information concerning vehicle titles for marketing or business solicitation purposes.

b. The contract with the vendor must include an acknowledgment by the vendor that it is required to enter into agreements to exchange electronic lien data with any service providers who offer electronic lien and title services in the State and who have been approved by the Division for participation in the system and with service providers who are not qualified vendors.

c. The Division must periodically monitor fees charged by a qualified vendor also serving as a service provider to lienholders and providing services as a qualified vendor to other service providers to ensure the vendor is not engaged in predatory pricing.

(c) Minimum Standards for Division-Developed System. – If the Division chooses to develop an interface to enable service provider access to data to facilitate the creation of an electronic lien system, then the Division shall do so for a cost not to exceed two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000) and set the following minimum standards:

(1) The Division shall establish qualifications for third-party service providers offering electronic lien services and establish a qualification process that will vet applications developed by service providers for compliance with defined security and architecture standards as follows:

a. Qualifications shall be posted within 60 days of the effective date of this section.

b. Interested service providers shall respond by providing qualifications within 30 days of posting.

c. The Division shall notify service providers of their approval.

d. Within 30 days of approval, each qualified service provider shall remit payment in an amount equal to the development costs as a fraction of the number of qualified service providers participating in the electronic lien services.

e. If there is a service provider who later wishes to participate but did not apply or pay the initial development costs, then that provider may apply to participate if the provider meets all qualifications and pays the same amount in development costs as other participating service providers.

(2) Each qualified service provider shall remit to the Division an annual fee not to exceed three thousand dollars ($3,000) on a date prescribed by the Division to be used for the operation and maintenance of the electronic lien system.

(3) Any contract entered into with a service provider shall include no costs or charges payable by the Division to the service provider.

(4) Upon implementation of the electronic lien system pursuant to subsection (a) of this section, the service provider may charge participating lienholders or their agents a per-transaction fee consistent with market pricing.

(5) The contract with the service provider must include provisions specifically prohibiting the service provider from using information concerning vehicle titles for marketing or business solicitation purposes.

(d) Qualified vendors and service providers shall have experience in directly providing electronic solutions to State motor vehicle departments or agencies.

(e) Notwithstanding any requirement in this Chapter that a lien on a motor vehicle shall be noted on the face of the certificate of title, if there are one or more liens or encumbrances on the motor vehicle or mobile home, the Division may electronically transmit the lien to the first lienholder and notify the first lienholder of any additional liens. Subsequent lien satisfactions may be electronically transmitted to the Division and shall include the name and address of the person satisfying the lien.

(f) When electronic transmission of liens and lien satisfactions is used, a certificate of title need not be issued until the last lien is satisfied and a clear certificate of title is issued to the owner of the vehicle.

(g) When a vehicle is subject to an electronic lien, the certificate of title for the vehicle shall be considered to be physically held by the lienholder for purposes of compliance with State or federal odometer disclosure requirements.

(h) A duly certified copy of the Division's electronic record of the lien shall be admissible in any civil, criminal, or administrative proceeding in this State as evidence of the existence of the lien.

(i) Mandatory Participation. – Beginning July 1, 2015, all individuals and lienholders who are normally engaged in the business or practice of financing motor vehicles, and who conduct at least five transactions annually, shall utilize the electronic lien system implemented in subsection (a) of this section to record information concerning the perfection and release of a security interest in a vehicle.

(j) Effect of Electronic Notice or Release. – An electronic notice or release of a security interest made through the electronic system implemented pursuant to subsection (a) of this section shall have the same force and effect as a notice or release on a paper document provided under G.S. 20-58 through G.S. 20-58.8.

(k) Nothing in this section shall preclude the Division from collecting a title fee for the preparation and issuance of a title."

SECTION 2. Prior to the statewide implementation of the electronic lien system pursuant to G.S. 20-58.4A, the Division, along with one or more qualified vendors and up to five lienholders, may conduct a pilot program of the electronic lien system for a period of up to 90 days.

SECTION 3. No later than October 1, 2013, the Division shall report to the Chairs of the Joint Legislative Transportation Oversight Committee on the status of the implementation of the electronic lien system pursuant to G.S. 20-58.4A. The report shall include, at a minimum, whether the Division is proceeding with a vendor-implemented system or Division-implemented system and whether implementation is on schedule and on budget.

SECTION 4. This act is effective when it becomes law.

SENATE BILL 407:
Electronic Vehicle Lien/Title

2013-2014 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Finance	Date:	June 19, 2013
Introduced by:	Sens. Brunstetter, Rabon	Prepared by:	Heather Fennell
Analysis of:	PCS to First Edition S407-CSTD-26		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: The PCS for Senate Bill 407 would require the Division of Motor Vehicles to implement a statewide electronic lien system for dealing with security interests and certificate of title data under the motor vehicle statutes. The Division would have to report to the Chairs of the Joint Legislative Transportation Oversight Committee on the status of implementation by October 1, 2013. The Division would be required to implement the system by July 1, 2014. Participation by those engaged in the business of financing motor vehicles would be required beginning July 1, 2015.

CURRENT LAW: Chapter 20 of the General Statutes contains provisions dealing with security interests and certificates of title for motor vehicles. Currently, the statutes contemplate transactions involving paper documents, rather than electronic transactions.

BILL ANALYSIS: The PCS for Senate Bill 407 would require the Division of Motor Vehicles to implement a statewide electronic system for processing and maintaining security interest and certificate of title data where a lien is notated.

The Division would be authorized to either contract with a qualified vendor to implement the system or to develop and make available to qualified service providers an interface that enables them to access data and facilitate the creation of a system. The PCS sets out minimum standards for each possible method of implementation as follows:

Vendor implemented system –

- The Division would issue competitive request for proposal to assess qualifications of vendors.
- Resulting contract could not include costs payable by the Division to the vendors and vendors shall reimburse the Division for reasonable implementation costs.
- Qualified vendors would be able to charge participating lienholders a per-transaction fee consistent with market price but not exceeding $3.50. Additional fees for lien releases, assignments, or transfers are not permitted.
- Lienholders would be able to charge borrowers the per-transaction fee plus an additional amount not to exceed $3.
- Qualified vendors would also be able to serve as service providers to lienholders if certain conditions are met.

Division implemented system –

- Cost to the Division must not exceed $250,000. The cost of development would be recovered from payments made by qualified service providers.

- The Division would establish qualifications for service providers.
- Approved service providers would be required to pay an annual fee not to exceed $3,000 for operation and maintenance of the system.
- Contracts could not include costs payable by the Division to the service provider.
- Service providers would be able to charge participating lienholders a per-transaction fee consistent with market price.
- Service providers would be prohibited from using information on vehicle titles for marketing purposes.

Qualified vendors and service providers would be required to have experience in providing electronic solutions to state motor vehicle departments or agencies.

By October 1, 2013, the Division would be required to report to the Chairs of the Joint Legislative Transportation Oversight Committee on the status of implementation of the system.

Prior to statewide implementation, the Division would be authorized to conduct a pilot program of the system for up to 90 days with one or more qualified vendors and up to five lienholders.

By July 1, 2014, the Division would be required to implement the system.

Beginning July 1, 2015, all individuals and lienholders normally engaged in the business of financing motor vehicles would be required to utilize the electronic system.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The act would be effective when it becomes law.

TECHNICAL CONSIDERATIONS: See below.

BILL SUMMARY: This bill requires the Division of Motor Vehicles (DMV) to implement a statewide electronic lien system to process the notification, release, and maintenance of security interests no later than July 1, 2014. The DMV may contract with a qualified vendor, or vendors, to implement this statewide electronic lien system, or it may develop and make available to qualified service providers a well-defined set of information services that will enable secure access to the data and the internal application components necessary to facilitate the creation of an electronic lien/title system.

Minimum standards for the DMV to consider in contracting with a vendor are included. The bill requires the DMV to issue a competitive request for proposal (RFP) to evaluate the qualifications of any vendor or vendors responsible for the development and ongoing support of the state electronic lien system and permits the DMV to receive input from parties that do not respond to an RFP. It also requires a qualified vendor to have experience in directly providing electronic solutions to state motor vehicle departments or agencies. However, it provides that a qualified vendor may also serve as a service provider to lienholders if certain enumerated conditions are met.

The bill permits the qualified vendor or vendors to charge participating lienholders and their agents a per-transaction fee, consistent with market pricing, in an amount not more than $3.50. It also permits participating lienholders and their agents to charge the borrower of a motor vehicle loan or the lessee of an automotive lease an amount that is equal to the transaction fee, plus a fee that does not exceed $3.00 for each electronic transaction where a lien is notated.

If DMV chooses to develop an interface to enable service provider access to data to facilitate the creation of an electronic lien/title system, the cost cannot exceed $250,000, and the system must meet specific standards. Additionally, each qualified service provider is to remit an annual fee to DMV, not to exceed $3,000, for operation and maintenance of the electronic lien system, and any contracts with the service provider cannot result in additional costs or charges payable by DMV. Further, the service providers are allowed to charge a market rate per-transaction fee and are prohibited from using vehicle title data for marketing or business solicitation.

The bill mandates participation in the electronic lien system by all individuals and lienholders normally engaged in the business or practice of financing motor vehicles beginning July 1, 2015. It provides that an electronic notice or release is to have the same force and effect as a paper document of notice or release as provided under G.S. 20-58 through G.S. 20-58.8 and directs the DMV to adopt rules to implement this section. The bill also authorizes the DMV, along with multiple qualified vendors and up to five lienholders, to conduct a pilot program of the electronic lien system for a 90-day period prior to the statewide implementation. Additionally, it requires the DMV to report, no later than October 1, 2013, to the chairs of the Joint Legislative Transportation Oversight Committee on the status of the implementation of the electronic lien system.

ASSUMPTIONS AND METHODOLOGY:

The implementation of an electronic lien/title system using an outside vendor should result in some administrative savings to the Department of Transportation (DOT) Division of Motor Vehicles (DMV). However, the amount of the savings cannot be determined until the terms of the vendor's contract are defined, or until a determination is made regarding whether an outside vendor will be used to implement the system.

If an outside vendor is used, the bill specifies that there are to be no costs to the Department to establish an electronic lien/title system. The vendor is to be paid based on fees collected for providing the electronic lien/title service. Additionally, the vendor is required to reimburse DMV for reasonable implementation costs directly associated with the establishment and ongoing support of the statewide electronic lien/title system.

During fiscal year 2011-2012, DMV issued a total of 1,126,900 titles with lien recordings. They estimate that 80 percent, or 901,520, of these titles involve individuals and lienholders normally engaged in the business or practice of financing motor vehicles. At the proposed transaction rate, this could generate fees of $3,155,320 for the electronic lien/title vendor.

The bill requires implementation no later than July 1, 2014, and mandatory participation beginning July 1, 2015. The normal timeframe for the Department of Transportation to post a request for proposal and select a vendor is six months, which should allow the Department to implement an electronic lien/title system on schedule, resulting in some savings to the Department beginning in fiscal year 2014-2015, with full transition in the following fiscal year.

There should be cost savings to the Division of Motor Vehicles (DMV) because there will no longer be a need to provide secure titles, with the necessary administrative support and supplies, such as postage and envelopes. However, the Division is unable to determine the actual cost savings, since customers may still request a paper title once the lien has been paid in full, which would still require the DMV's support. It is also not clear as to whether or not the cost of providing a paper title is considered a cost directly associated with the ongoing support of the electronic lien system. Florida, which has already implemented an electronic lien/title system, generally keeps all titles electronically, including titles without liens. The Florida Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles (DHSMV) encourages owners to maintain their titles electronically. Lenders can also request that a title be mailed to the owner (assuming all liens are satisfied). Florida charges an additional fee for this procedure, which is not explicitly addressed in this bill. If the DMV provides this service without reimbursement by the vendor, or a transaction fee, then there would be a cost to DMV for the service.

In the event that DMV develops a system internally, in addition to the possible $250,000 development costs, there will be ongoing operations and maintenance costs. These cannot be determined until the specific system requirements are defined. The bill allows for an annual fee not to exceed three thousand dollars ($3,000) from each qualified service provider, but the number of potential service providers is unknown.

SOURCES OF DATA: Department of Transportation Division of Motor Vehicles, Department of Transportation Chief Information Officer, Florida Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles

TECHNICAL CONSIDERATIONS: The bill does not address the conversion of paper titles to an electronic format. This is being done by some states and usually involves a fee to the vendor.

HOUSE BILL 412:
Eden/Duke Energy/Annexation Agreement

2013-2014 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Finance	Date:	June 18, 2013
Introduced by:	Rep. Jones	Prepared by:	Judy Collier
Analysis of:	First Edition		Research Assistant

SUMMARY: House Bill 412 authorizes the City of Eden to agree by contract not to annex two described tracts, and accept payment in lieu of taxes as part of the agreement.

CURRENT LAW: Article 4A of Chapter 160A of the General Statutes governs annexation by cities, including voluntary annexation by petition, voluntary satellite annexation, and municipal initiated annexation subject to referendum.

S.L. 1993-418 and S.L. 2002-74 authorized the City of Eden, by contract, to provide that certain property described in the contract would not be annexed by the City prior to December 31, 2013, and that the City could accept, as consideration for the contract, payments in lieu of taxes.

BILL ANALYSIS: House Bill 412 authorizes the City of Eden, by contract, to provide that two described tracts (the Dan River Plant Property - Duke Energy tracts) may not be annexed by the City between January 1, 2014, and December 31, 2019, and that the City may accept, as consideration for the contract, payments in lieu of taxes.

The bill specifies that the City of Eden will accept one million dollars as payment in lieu of taxes for the five year period of the agreement. Duke Energy must make annual payments of $200,000 during the course of the agreement.

The bill also provides that (1) the City of Eden shall not seek to repeal this act if it is approved by the General Assembly, (2) the agreement is consistent with public policy of the State, (3) the agreement is binding on current and future members of the City Council of Eden, and (4) the parties may modify the agreement without approval of the General Assembly as long as the modification does not materially alter the concept of the agreement.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act is effective when it becomes law.

BACKGROUND: Other prior legislation authorizing payment in lieu of taxes annexation agreements: City of Eden S.L. 1993-418; City of Washington S.L. 1993-713; Town of Stanley S.L. 1993-713; City of Belmont S.L. 1997-105; City of Hendersonville S.L. 1997-188; Town of Laurel Park S.L. 1997-188; Town of Huntersville S.L. 1997-426; Town of Huntersville S.L. 2000-100; Town of Weldon S.L. 2001-425; City of Eden S.L. 2002-74; City of Eden S.L. 2003-316; Town of Navassa S.L. 2007-314; Town of Robbins S.L. 2009-294.

HOUSE BILL 234:
Clarify Pender County ABC Laws

2013-2014 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Finance	Date:	June 18, 2013
Introduced by:	Rep. Millis	Prepared by:	Judy Collier
Analysis of:	Second Edition		Research Assistant

SUMMARY: House Bill 234 would clarify that the Pender County ABC Board has authority to make distributions of 5%-15% of the net profits from Pender County ABC Stores to law enforcement.

CURRENT LAW: G.S. 18B-805 provides for the distribution of revenue of a local board: net receipts are paid to the general fund of the city or county for which the board is established, unless another distribution or schedule is provided for by law.

Pursuant to local acts[1], a range from 5% to 15% of the net profits from Pender County Alcoholic Beverage Control Stores is distributed to law enforcement.

BILL ANALYSIS: House Bill 234 would clarify that the amount of total net profits that must be expended for law enforcement is a range of not less than 5% or not more than 15%. The range is set by the Pender County ABC Board and determined by quarterly audits.

BACKGROUND: A series of local acts affected the distribution to law enforcement. The local acts were not properly coordinated.

EFFECTIVE DATE: House Bill 234 would become effective July 1, 2013.

HOUSE BILL 261:
Kannapolis/Deannexation

2013-2014 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Finance	Date:	June 18, 2013
Introduced by:	Rep. Ford	Prepared by:	Judy Collier
Analysis of:	Third Edition		Research Assistant

SUMMARY: House Bill 261 would deannex a 1.85 acre tract from the City of Kannapolis and add the tract to the City of Landis.

CURRENT LAW: Under Section 1 of Article VII of the NC Constitution, the General Assembly is empowered to "provide for the organization and government and the fixing of boundaries of counties, cities and towns, and other governmental subdivisions, and, except as otherwise prohibited by this Constitution, may give such powers and duties to counties, cities and towns, and other governmental subdivisions as it may deem advisable."

Pursuant to this Section, the General Assembly enacted Article 4A of Chapter 160A of the General Statutes, which governs municipal annexations. The General Assembly has not enacted any method for municipalities to deannex property — that power remains with the General Assembly.

BILL ANALYSIS: House Bill 261 would deannex a 1.85 acre tract from the City of Kannapolis and place the tract in the City of Landis. The property is currently owned by Gary and Anita Moss.

House Bill 261 would not affect the duty of the owners to pay taxes for any prior year, and does not eliminate any liens for taxes for prior years.

BACKGROUND: The Cities of Kannapolis and Landis support moving the property from Kannapolis to Landis. House Bill 261 resolves a boundary issue where a 3.42 acre parcel was split between two jurisdictions and places the entire parcel in the City of Landis.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The act would become effective June 30, 2013.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT REPEALING THE ANNEXATION OF CERTAIN DESCRIBED PROPERTY BY THE CITY OF KANNAPOLIS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. S.L. 2009-113, as amended by S.L. 2011-124, is repealed.

SECTION 2. This act is effective when it becomes law.

HOUSE BILL 302:
Repeal Kannapolis Annexation

2013-2014 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Finance	Date:	June 18, 2013
Introduced by:	Rep. Ford	Prepared by:	Judy Collier
Analysis of:	First Edition		Research Assistant

SUMMARY: House Bill 302 would repeal S.L. 2009-113 that placed the Southland Development property (approximately 327 acres) in the City of Kannapolis.

CURRENT LAW: S.L. 2009-113 provided for the annexation of the Southland Development property, approximately 327 acres adjacent to I-85 in southern Rowan County into the City of Kannapolis, effective September 30, 2011.

S.L. 2011-124 delayed the annexation of the Southland Development property for two years, to September 30, 2013.

Under Section 1 of Article VII of the NC Constitution, the General Assembly has the authority to set the boundaries of cities. The General Assembly enacted Article 4A of Chapter 160A of the General Statutes, which governs municipal annexations. The power to deannex property remains with the General Assembly.

BILL ANALYSIS: House Bill 302 would repeal S.L. 2009-113, as amended by S.L. 2011-124, that will place the Southland Development property in the City of Kannapolis in 2013.

BACKGROUND: In 2009, the property owner planned to develop a corporate business park, Southland Development. The owner formally requested that Southland Development be voluntarily annexed into Kannapolis. Kannapolis could not annex Southland Development because the property is closer to other cities. The General Assembly enacted S.L. 2009-113 to annex Southland Development into Kannapolis effective September 30, 2011.

By 2011, Southland Development had not developed at the anticipated rate, and the property owner sought to delay the start of Kannapolis' property taxes for two years. The General Assembly enacted S.L. 2011-124 delaying the annexation of the Southland Development property for two years.

Now, the owner of Southland Development seeks to reverse the annexation sought in 2009. The planned business park has not been economically feasible. The City of Kannapolis does not oppose repealing the session laws that would place Southland Development in the City.

EFFECTIVE DATE: House Bill 302 would be effective when it becomes law.

SUMMARY: House Bill 421 would deannex 118.95 acres from the Town of Marshville.

CURRENT LAW: The North Carolina Constitution, in Section 1 of Article VII, authorizes the General Assembly to "provide for the organization and government and the fixing of boundaries of counties, cities and towns, and other governmental subdivisions, and, except as otherwise prohibited by this Constitution, may give such powers and duties to counties, cities and towns, and other governmental subdivisions as it may deem advisable." The General Assembly enacted Article 4A of Chapter 160A of the General Statutes governing municipal annexations. The General Assembly has not enacted any method for municipalities to deannex property. The authority to deannex remains with the General Assembly.

BILL ANALYSIS: House Bill 421 would deannex 118.95 acres from the Town of Marshville.

Property taxes and special assessments imposed by the Town of Marshville before the effective date are valid and may be collected as though the property was still in the Town of Marshville.

BACKGROUND: The Town of Marshville annexed the property in 2002. The tract is a farm qualifying for present use value.

On March 18, 2013, the Town Council of the Town of Marshville passed a resolution requesting the property be deannexed. The Town of Marshville cites the following in support of the deannexation:

- The property is not contiguous to the current Town of Marshville corporate limits and is approximately 1.3 miles from the closest point of corporate boundary.
- The property contains no development.
- The property has no access to public utilities, and the Town of Marshville provides no services to the property.

HOUSE BILL 567:
Lumberton Deannexation

2013-2014 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Finance	Date:	June 18, 2013
Introduced by:	Reps. Waddell, C. Graham, Goodman, Pierce	Prepared by:	Judy Collier Research Assistant
Analysis of:	Second Edition

SUMMARY: House Bill 567 would deannex 2 tracts from the City of Lumberton.

CURRENT LAW: The North Carolina Constitution, in Section 1 of Article VII, authorizes the General Assembly to "provide for the organization and government and the fixing of boundaries of counties, cities and towns, and other governmental subdivisions, and, except as otherwise prohibited by this Constitution, may give such powers and duties to counties, cities and towns, and other governmental subdivisions as it may deem advisable." The General Assembly enacted Article 4A of Chapter 160A of the General Statutes governing municipal annexations. The General Assembly has not enacted any method for municipalities to deannex property. The authority to deannex remains with the General Assembly.

BILL ANALYSIS: House Bill 567 would deannex 2 tracts from the City of Lumberton. The tracts include parts of the right-of-way of the following roads: I-95 South, US 74, US 301, SR 1164 (Back Swamp Road), SR 2422 (McDonald Road), SR 1003 (Chicken Road), I-74, SR 2417 (Thompson Road), SR 2503 (Garland Road).

Property taxes and special assessments imposed by the City of Lumberton before the effective date are valid and may be collected as though the property was still in the City of Lumberton.

BACKGROUND: The City of Lumberton annexed the property approximately 10 years ago. The tracts are primarily undeveloped land and highway right-of-way along I-95 and I-74.

On March 26, 2013, the City Council of the City of Lumberton passed a resolution requesting the property be deannexed. The City of Lumberton cites the following in support of the deannexation:

- The tracts are more than 5 miles from Lumberton and are classified as the lowest fire protection class for homeowners' insurance policies. The low rating on the tracts affects the fire protection rating of the entire City and increases insurance cost in Lumberton.
- The correct emergency responders vary along the Interstates as the roadways move in and out of the tracts. The City and county do not know who should respond.
- The tracts have no industry and few homes. There is no plan to extend utilities such as sewer.
- The roadways have moved over time, and the tracts no longer match the location of the roads.

EFFECTIVE DATE: June 30, 2013.

HOUSE BILL 553:
Amend Carteret Co. Occupancy Tax

2013-2014 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Finance	Date:	June 18, 2013
Introduced by:	Rep. McElraft	Prepared by:	Judy Collier
Analysis of:	Second Edition		Research Assistant

SUMMARY: House Bill 553 authorizes Carteret County to levy an additional 1% occupancy tax and modifies the distribution of the proceeds. Fifty percent (50%) of the proceeds may be used for tourism promotion and fifty percent (50%) may be used for beach nourishment. The county may not accumulate more than $30 million for beach nourishment.

CURRENT LAW: Carteret County has the authority to levy a five percent (5%) occupancy tax. Fifty percent (50%) of the proceeds is remitted to the TDA and is used to promote travel and tourism and the remaining fifty percent (50%) is used for beach nourishment. The county may not accumulate a balance of proceeds for beach nourishment in excess of $15 million dollars.

In 2001, the General Assembly enacted legislation completely rewriting Carteret County's occupancy tax legislation. Among other things, the act provided for an additional 1% occupancy tax contingent upon a development plan for the construction of a civic center being in place by June 30, 2006. In 2005, the General Assembly extended the deadline to June 30, 2008. In 2007, the General Assembly extended the deadline for another two years.[1] The legislation provided for the repeal of the authority to levy the additional 1%, effective September 1, 2011, if construction on the proposed convention center had not begun by July 1, 2011. Construction on a convention center did not occur as required by the local act and, therefore, Carteret's authority to levy the additional 1% was repealed by operation of law.

BILL ANALYSIS: To the extent the county's authority to levy an additional 1% was repealed by operation of the local act, House Bill 553 would reauthorize Carteret County to levy an additional one percent (1%) room occupancy tax, for a total rate of 6%. The bill deletes the language regarding contingencies related to proposed plans to construct a convention center.

Of the 6% total tax, fifty percent (50%) of the proceeds would be remitted to the Carteret County Tourism Development Authority to be used to promote travel and tourism. The other fifty percent (50%) must be used by the county for beach nourishment on Bogue Banks. The bill would prohibit the county from accumulating more than $30 million in tax proceeds for beach nourishment.

The bill also makes a technical change with regard to identifying the types of accommodations that are subject to the tax. In 2010[2], the General Assembly amended the uniform provisions governing occupancy tax to provide that room occupancy tax applies to the same gross receipts as the State sales tax on accommodations and is calculated in the same manner as that tax. The legislation further

[1] Specifically , the deadline was extended for the following: (1) the time allowed for developing a plan for a convention center, (2) the time to execute a contract between the local government and a developer to begin construction, (3) the date the one percent (1%) may be imposed, (4) the date to begin calculating the total amount of money to be collected from the one percent (1%) tax, and (5) the date of repeal of the tax if the Board does not act.

provided that to the extent this provision conflicts with any provision of a local act, the general law supersedes the local provision. Therefore, the changes on lines 15-22 are technical because to the extent they conflict with State law, they have been superseded by the 2010 legislation. Specifically, there is no State sales tax exemption for businesses that rent fewer than five units, and the exemption for summer camps is not needed because they are already exempt under State law. The other deletions also reflect the application of State sales tax on accommodations.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act is effective when it becomes law.

BILL SUMMARY:
HB 553 would allow Carteret County to levy an additional 1% occupancy tax, for a total rate of 6%. Fifty percent of the proceeds would be remitted to the Carteret County Tourism Development Authority to be used to promote travel and tourism, and the remaining fifty percent would be used for beach nourishment. The bill would prohibit the county from accumulating more than $30 million in tax proceeds for beach nourishment.

ASSUMPTIONS AND METHODOLOGY:
According to the Department of State Treasurer, the current 5% occupancy tax generated approximately $4.5 million in 2012. This amount is divided by 5 to determine the amount generated by each one percent. The result is approximately $0.9 million, which is grown by the General Consumer Price Index (CPI) to estimate the impact for future years.

Introduced by:	Sen. Bingham	Prepared by:	Heather Fennell

SUMMARY: The PCS for Senate Bill 18 would do the following:

- Requires the licensure of individuals providing locksmith services to institutions.
- Prohibits the possession of locksmith tools by individuals not licensed as locksmiths.
- Increases the penalty for performing locksmith services in this State without a license from a Class 3 to a Class 1 misdemeanor for the first offense, and a Class I felony for second and subsequent offenses.

- Increases the fees for issuance, renewal, late renewal, and reinstatement of a license and the fee for an apprentice license.
- Authorizes the Locksmith Board to assess the costs of disciplinary actions against a licensee.
- Modifies the exemptions from licensure.

[As introduced, this bill was identical to H834, as introduced by Reps. Collins, Burr, which is currently in Senate Pensions & Retirement and Aging.]

CURRENT LAW: Prior to 2002, locksmiths were not licensed or regulated in this State. In 2001, the General Assembly enacted the Locksmith Licensing Act (Act) establishing the North Carolina Locksmith Licensing Board and providing the qualifications for licensure. There are approximately 1,400 licensees in North Carolina. To become licensed, an applicant must meet the following qualifications:

(1) Be of good moral and ethical character, as evidenced in part by a criminal history record check.
(2) Be at least 18 years of age.
(3) Successfully complete an examination administered by the Board that measures the knowledge and skill of the applicant in locksmith services and the laws applicable to licensed locksmiths.
(4) Pay the required fee.

Performing locksmith services without a license is punishable as a Class 3 misdemeanor unless the conduct is covered under some other provision of law providing for greater punishment. G.S. 14-55 provides it is a Class I felony to possess burglary tools without a lawful excuse.

"Locksmith services" is defined as repairing, rebuilding, rekeying, repinning, servicing, adjusting, or installing locks mechanical or electronic locking devices, access control devices, egress control devices, safes, vaults, and safe deposit boxes for compensation, including services performed by safe technicians.

The are 12 exemptions from licensure, including: an employee acting under the control and supervision of a licensed locksmith, an apprentice, an employee of a towing service, an automotive repair business, a repossessor, a taxicab service as long as the person does not represent himself to be a locksmith, a property owner providing locksmith services on the owner's property, a merchant that duplicates keys or maintains locks in the normal course of business, or a member of law enforcement who opens locked doors to vehicles, homes, or businesses when acting within the scope and course of the member's employment.

In North Carolina, the locksmith profession is represented by the North Carolina Locksmith Association (NCLA). There is also a national association – The Associated Locksmiths of America (ALOA). These organizations set ethical standards for their members; however, membership is voluntary. In addition, the ALOA offers a certification program to its members.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1 requires certain individuals that are currently exempt from licensure to obtain a license to perform locksmith service. This section would require licensure of all individuals providing locksmith services to buildings containing the following types of records:

- Medical.
- Pharmaceutical.
- Educational.
- Criminal.
- Voting.
- Tax.
- Legal.
- Personnel.

This new licensure requirement includes employees of institutions that the Board considers "institutional locksmiths." An "institutional locksmith" is a person who is employed by or working for a school, college, university, hospital, company, institution, or government facility and who provides locksmith services as defined under G.S. 74F-4(5) as part of the person's employment.

Section 2 prohibits any individual that is not licensed as a locksmith, or otherwise exempt from license as a locksmith, from possessing locksmith tools. The penalty for violating the prohibitions on providing service without a license and possessing locksmith tools is a Class 3 misdemeanor for the first offense.[1] The maximum punishment that may be imposed for a Class 1 misdemeanor is 1-120 days of community, intermediate, or active punishment and a fine in an amount set by the court. This section also provides the penalty for second and subsequent offenses is a Class I felony. The maximum punishment for a Class I felony is 24 months active punishment.

Section 3 would expand the definition of locksmith services to include "any method of bypassing a locking mechanism of any kind, whether in a commercial, residential, or automotive setting, for compensation."

Section 4 would authorize the Board to issue subpoenas for records of an entity offering locksmith services, including employees, contractors, and subcontractors of a company providing service.

[1] This is an increase in the penalty for performing locksmith services in this State without a license from Class 1 misdemeanor.

Section 5 would increase the fees as follows:

	Current Fee	Proposed Fee
Issuance of license	$100	$300
Renewal of license	$100	$300
Examination	$200	No change
Reinstatement	$150	$250
Late Fees	$150	$300
Apprentice fee	$100	$300
Apprentice transfer fee	$25	No change

Section 6 would authorize the Board to adjust the renewal and reinstatement fees for good cause shown.

Section 7 would require advertisements for locksmith services include a valid license number. Current law already requires that advertising contain the "identification number printed on the license."

Section 8 would allow the Board to assess an applicant or licensee the costs of a disciplinary action, including attorney fees, if a violation has occurred.

Section 9 would make the following modifications to the exemptions from licensure as a locksmith:

- For the exemption for employees of locksmiths to apply, a licensed locksmith must physically accompany the employee to the premises or the employee must be one who performs administrative duties only.
- Creates a new exemption for employees of a locksmith performing only administrative duties.
- Repeals the exemption for employees of a taxi cab service.
- Clarifies the exemptions for towing services, automotive repair businesses, repossessing companies, and auto dealers.
- Narrows the exemption for merchants and hardware stores to only include (i) rekeying a lock at the time of sale, or (ii) duplicating a key. Duplicating a "transponder-type" key is not including in the new exception, and therefore, would require licensure.

Section 10 would provide a grandfather clause for "institutional locksmiths" that are now required to be licensed under Section 1 of the act. Individuals that are currently providing locksmith services to these institutions would be eligible for licensure as a locksmith if the individual has been engaged as an intuitional locksmith for 2 years prior to October 1, 2013 (the effective date of the new licensing requirements). The individual must pay the appropriate fee, but does not need to take the required exam.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The new prohibition created by this act and the increase in criminal penalties are effective December 1, 2013. The new licensure requirements are effective October 1, 2013. The fee increases are effective when the act becomes law.

SENATE BILL 305:
DMV Commission Contract Changes

2013-2014 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Finance	Date:	June 18, 2013
Introduced by:	Sens. Tillman, Jenkins, Rabin	Prepared by:	Cindy Avrette Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	Third Edition

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 305 sets the rate license plate tag agents may be compensated for the collection of property taxes paid at the time a person renews a license plate registration. Beginning July 1, 2013, taxpayers will be required to pay the property tax on a vehicle at the same time the vehicle's registration is renewed.

The bill received a favorable report from the Senate Transportation Committee.

CURRENT LAW: The Division of Motor Vehicles is required to ensure, as far as practicable and possible, that registration and registration renewals for motor vehicles may be issued through license tag agents located in every community across the State. The Division enters into commission contracts with individuals to perform this service. The Program Evaluation Division determined that license tag agents perform vehicle title and registration transactions at $4.00 less per transaction than the cost of the same transactions performed at the two State-operated offices.[1] The local tag agents are compensated on a per transaction basis. The rate of compensation for collecting the highway use tax is $1.27. The rate for all other transactions is $1.43. The performance of one or more transactions at the same time is considered a single transaction for purposes of compensation.

In 2005, the General Assembly created a framework establishing a combined system for motor vehicle registration renewal and property tax collection. Under the new Tax and Tag Together program, the motor vehicle owner will receive one bill, and make one payment for both property taxes and vehicle registration renewal. If a person renews the vehicle registration with a local license tag agent, the collection of property tax by the tag agent is not considered a separate transaction for which a separate transaction rate applies.[2] Instead, it is one of the transactions that, when performed at the same time as other transactions, is considered part of a single transaction.

BILL ANALYSIS: Senate Bill 305 recognizes the collection of property taxes as a separate transaction, just as the collection of the highway use tax is recognized as a separate transaction. The rate for collecting property tax for the first six months of the Tax and Tag Together program is set at $1.06. The transaction rate after the first six months is set at $0.71.

The Tax and Tag Together program provides for the issuance of a limited, or temporary, registration plate. A person may be issued a limited registration "T" sticker without paying property tax on the vehicle. The bill sets the compensation rate for this transaction at $1.27; this rate is the same rate allowed for the collection of the highway use tax.

[2] There is a Memorandum of Understanding signed by the Department of Revenue, the Division of Motor Vehicles, and the counties and cities that sets a $0.48 rate for collecting property tax.

The bill also does the following:

- Codifies the License Plate Agent Advisory Committee. The Commissioner of Motor Vehicles established this Committee to improve the working relationship between the Division and the license tax agents and to improve vehicle titling and registration services. The Committee consists of persons who are staff of the Division and six persons appointed by the North Carolina Association of Motor Vehicle Registration Contractors.
- Directs the License Plate Agent Advisory Committee to review the standard operating procedures applicable to commission contractors and to recommend to the 2014 General Assembly a process by which the Division is required to give commission contractors notice of proposed changes and receive comments from them on proposed changes before the changes are implemented.
- Provides that the compensation rates set for the issuance of a limited registration "T" sticker and for the collection of property taxes are payable by the counties and cities as part of the cost of the Tax and Tag Together program.
- Provides that the Division will train the license tag agents on the use of the integrated computer system that combines vehicle registration with the collection of property tax and that the training cost is payable from the Combined Motor Vehicle and Registration Account. The Account is funded from interest collected on past due motor vehicle property tax collections.[3]

EFFECTIVE DATE: The part of the bill that set the compensation rates payable to license tag agents for collection of property taxes and for the issuance of "T" stickers becomes effective July 1, 2013. The remainder of this act is effective when it becomes law.

PRINCIPAL DEPARTMENT(S) & PROGRAM(S) AFFECTED:
Department of Transportation, Division of Motor Vehicles; Combined Motor Vehicle and Registration Account

EFFECTIVE DATE: Section 2 is effective July 1, 2013. The remainder of the bill is effective upon enactment.

TECHNICAL CONSIDERATIONS:
None

BILL SUMMARY:

Section 1 establishes the License Plate Agency Advisory Committee (Committee), comprised of Division of Motor Vehicles (DMV) personnel designated by the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles and six appointees of the North Carolina Association of Motor Vehicle Registration Contractors (Association). Association appointees are to serve two-year terms and are allowed per diem, subsistence, and travel allowances under G.S. 138-5. The Committee is charged with reviewing Division of Motor Vehicles standard operating procedures for contract license plate agents and recommending to the General Assembly during the 2014 Session a process for notification of procedural changes, including a comment period prior to implementation.

Section 2 increases the compensation rate for the collection of property taxes by commission contractors and DMV offices under the Combined Motor Vehicle Registration and Property Tax Collection System ("Tax & Tag Together" program), from $0.48 per transaction, as set by the current Memorandum of Understanding between DMV and the Department of Revenue, to $0.71 per transaction. Additionally, Section 2 increases the compensation rate for limited registration plate transactions from $0.504 to $1.27 per transaction. Further, Section 2(c) sets a temporary compensation rate of $1.06 for property tax transactions completed by commission contractors during the first six months of the Tax & Tag Together program.

Section 3 requires DMV to reimburse commission contractors for costs incurred for required trainings on the Tax & Tag Together program between April 1, 2013 and July 1, 2013. Costs are payable from the Combined Motor Vehicle and Registration Account, a non-reverting account supported by a portion of the interest on overdue vehicle property taxes and administered by the State Treasurer for the implementation of the Tax & Tag Together program.

Section 2 is effective July 1, 2013. The remainder of the act is effective upon enactment.

ASSUMPTIONS AND METHODOLOGY:

Section 1: License Plate Agent Advisory Committee

State Employees are not eligible for reimbursement under G.S. 138-5. Assuming a quarterly meeting frequency, current per diem rates, and round trip mileage of 100 miles for six non-State members, estimated Committee expenses total $3,504. Accordingly, Fiscal Research anticipates that costs incurred for Committee support can be accommodated with existing Division of Motor Vehicles funds.

Section 2: Property Tax & Limited Registration Plate Transactions

G.S. 105-330.5(b) authorizes the entities responsible for collection of property taxes on behalf of county and municipal taxing jurisdictions to receive a fee for this administrative responsibility, equal to at least $0.48 per completed transaction. The current Memorandum of Understanding between DMV and the Department of Revenue, executed pursuant to G.S. 105-330.10, sets the fee for property tax collection at the required minimum of $0.48, and sets the fee for limited registration plate transactions at $0.504. Each fee is payable via proportionate deductions to taxes collected on behalf of counties and municipalities. Consequently, additional costs resulting from the increased compensation rates for property tax and limited registration plate transactions are borne by taxing jurisdictions through reduced net remittances.

The Department of Transportation estimates that a total of 2,780,645 property tax transactions will be completed by the Division of Motor Vehicles annually, with the following distribution by transaction type:

Transaction Type	Count
Internet	1,647,174
Registration Offices (Walk-In)	366,054
Mail (Remittance Processor)	767,417
Total	2,780,645

Assuming that 1,390,323 transactions are completed by DMV within the first six months of implementation at the proposed compensation rate of $1.06 and 926,882 additional transactions are completed before June 30, 2013, projected receipts during FY 2013-14 total $2,131,829, representing an increase of $1,019,571 over baseline estimates. In contrast, projected receipts during FY 2014-15 total $1,974,258, an increase of $639,548. These additional receipts will be credited to the Division of Motor Vehicles operating budget within the Highway Fund.

Fiscal Research cannot estimate the number of limited registration plate transactions which might be completed under the Tax & Tag Together program and are compensable at the increased rate of $1.27. Additionally, Fiscal Research cannot estimate the number of property tax transactions which might be completed by commission contract agents during the applicable timeframes. However, for illustration, if 5.7 million of a potential 8.5 million transactions are performed by commission contractors annually, the proposed compensation rate increase for property tax collection could result in a base local revenue loss of approximately $1.32 million recurring.

Section 3: Combined Motor Vehicle Registration and Property Tax Collection System Training

Based on an estimated 4,644 total training hours and average hourly wage of $12.00 for commission contractor employees, DMV estimates that costs incurred for trainings conducted between April 1, 2013 and July 1, 2013 will approach $55,728. Incurred costs will be deducted from the Combined Motor Vehicle and Registration Account balance, currently $28,118,086.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO (1) EXTEND THE DURATION OF PERMITS FOR SANITARY LANDFILLS AND TRANSFER STATIONS TO THIRTY YEARS; (2) MODIFY THE DEPARTMENT OF ENVIRONMENT AND NATURAL RESOURCES' AUTHORITY TO ISSUE AND TRANSFER PERMITS FOR SOLID WASTE MANAGEMENT FACILITIES; (3) MODIFY CERTAIN REQUIREMENTS GOVERNING SANITARY LANDFILLS, INCLUDING APPLICABLE BUFFERS, CLEANING AND INSPECTION OF LEACHATE COLLECTION LINES, ALTERNATIVE DAILY COVER, AND REQUIRED STUDIES FOR CERTAIN LANDFILL OWNERS AND OPERATORS; (4) MODIFY REQUIREMENTS FOR FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY APPLICABLE TO APPLICANTS AND PERMIT HOLDERS FOR SOLID WASTE MANAGEMENT FACILITIES; (5) AMEND THE RULE GOVERNING COLLECTION AND TRANSPORT OF SOLID WASTE TO REQUIRE THAT CONTAINERS BE "LEAK-RESISTANT" RATHER THAN "LEAK-PROOF," AND AMEND A STATUTE THAT REQUIRES VEHICLES TO BE CONSTRUCTED AND LOADED TO PREVENT LEAKAGE; (6) AMEND THE DEFINITION OF LEACHATE TO EXCLUDE LIQUID ADHERING TO TIRES OF VEHICLES LEAVING SANITARY LANDFILLS AND TRANSFER STATIONS; (7) AUTHORIZE CITIES AND COUNTIES THAT ACCEPT SOLID WASTE FROM OTHER LOCAL GOVERNMENTS TO LEVY A SURCHARGE ON FEES FOR USE OF THEIR DISPOSAL FACILITIES, AND AUTHORIZE THEM TO MAKE APPROPRIATIONS FROM A UTILITY OR PUBLIC SERVICE ENTERPRISE FUND USED FOR OPERATION OF A LANDFILL TO THE JURISDICTION'S GENERAL FUND UPON CERTAIN FINDINGS; (8) REQUIRE THE RETURN OF A PORTION OF THE REIMBURSEMENTS PAID OUT PURSUANT TO S.L. 2007-543 IN CERTAIN CIRCUMSTANCES; AND (9) MAKE RELATED CLARIFYING, CONFORMING, AND TECHNICAL CHANGES.

Whereas, the provision of effectively managed solid waste services is of vital importance to North Carolina's economy and environment; and

Whereas, previous changes to the statutes and rules of the State that govern solid waste matters have significantly and negatively impacted the ability of providers of solid waste disposal services to site landfills within the State, have raised the cost of waste disposal for the State's citizens, and have put North Carolina at a competitive disadvantage in the recruitment of industry; Now, therefore,

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

PART I. EXTENSION OF DURATION OF PERMITS FOR SANITARY LANDFILLS AND TRANSFER STATIONS TO THIRTY YEARS AND CONFORMING CHANGES

SECTION 2. G.S. 130A-294 reads as rewritten:

"§ 130A-294. Solid waste management program.

(a) The Department is authorized and directed to engage in research, conduct investigations and surveys, make inspections and establish a statewide solid waste management program. In establishing a program, the Department shall have authority to:

(4) a. Develop a permit system governing the establishment and operation of solid waste management facilities. A landfill with a disposal area of 1/2 acre or less for the on-site disposal of land clearing and inert debris is exempt from the permit requirement of this section and shall be governed by G.S. 130A-301.1. Demolition debris from the decommissioning of manufacturing buildings, including electric generating stations, that is disposed of on the same site as the decommissioned buildings, is exempt from the permit requirement of this section and rules adopted pursuant to this section and shall be governed by G.S. 130A-301.3. The Department shall not approve an application for a new permit, major modification, ~~the renewal of a permit,~~ or a substantial amendment to a permit for a sanitary landfill, excluding demolition landfills as defined in the rules of the Commission, except as provided in subdivisions (3) and (4) of subsection (b1) of this section. No permit shall be granted for a solid waste management facility having discharges that are point sources until the Department has referred the complete plans and specifications to the Environmental Management Commission and has received advice in writing that the plans and specifications are approved in accordance with the provisions of G.S. 143-215.1. If the applicant is a unit of local government, and has not submitted a solid waste management plan that has been approved by the Department pursuant to G.S. 130A-309.09A(b), the Department may deny a permit for a sanitary landfill or a facility that disposes of solid waste incineration, unless the Commission has not adopted rules pursuant to G.S. 130A-309.29 for local solid waste management plans. In any case where the Department denies a permit for a solid waste management facility, it shall state in writing the reason for denial and shall also state its estimate of the changes in the applicant's proposed activities or plans that will be required for the applicant to obtain a permit.

b. Repealed by Session Laws 2007-550, s. 1(a), effective August 1, 2007.

c. The Department shall deny an application for a permit for a solid waste management facility if the Department finds that:

1. Construction or operation of the proposed facility would ~~be inconsistent with or~~ violate this Article or rules adopted by the ~~Commission.~~Commission pursuant to this Article.

2. Construction or operation of the proposed facility would result in a violation of water quality standards adopted by the Environmental Management Commission pursuant to G.S. 143-214.1 for waters, as defined in G.S. 143-213.

~~3. Construction or operation of the facility would result in significant damage to ecological systems, natural resources, cultural sites, recreation areas, or historic sites of more than local significance. These areas include, but are not limited to, national or State parks or forests; wilderness areas; historic sites; recreation areas; segments of the natural and scenic rivers system; wildlife refuges, preserves, and management areas; areas that provide habitat for threatened or endangered species; primary nursery areas and critical fisheries habitat designated by the Marine Fisheries Commission; and Outstanding Resource Waters designated by the Environmental Management Commission.~~

4. Construction or operation of the proposed facility would substantially limit ~~or threaten~~ access to ~~or use of~~ public trust waters or public lands.
5. The proposed facility would be located in a ~~natural hazard area, including a floodplain, a~~ landslide hazard area, or an area subject to storm surge or excessive seismic activity, such that the facility will present a significant risk to public health or safety.
~~6. There is a practical alternative that would accomplish the purposes of the proposed facility with less adverse impact on public resources, considering engineering requirements and economic costs.~~
~~7. The cumulative impacts of the proposed facility and other facilities in the area of the proposed facility would violate the criteria set forth in sub-sub-subdivisions 2. through 5. of this sub-subdivision.~~
8. Construction or operation of the proposed facility would ~~be inconsistent with~~ violate the State solid waste management policy and goals as set out in G.S. 130A-309.04 and with the State solid waste management plan developed as provided in G.S. 130A-309.07.
9. The cumulative impact of the proposed facility, when considered in relation to other similar impacts of facilities located or proposed in the community, would have a disproportionate adverse impact on a minority or low-income community protected by Title VI of the federal Civil Rights Act of 1964. This subdivision shall apply only to the extent required by federal law.

(a1) A permit for a solid waste management facility may be transferred ~~only with the approval of the Department.~~upon 30 days' written notice to the Department to include such information as the Department may reasonably require to complete the Department's review pursuant to subsection (b2) of this section, G.S. 130A-295.2, and G.S. 130A-295.3, and with the approval of the Department.

(b1) (1) For purposes of this subsection and subdivision (4) of subsection (a) of this section, a "substantial amendment" means either:
a. An increase of ten percent (10%) or more in:
1. The population of the geographic area to be served by the sanitary landfill;
2. The quantity of solid waste to be disposed of in the sanitary landfill; or
3. The geographic area to be served by the sanitary landfill.
b. A change in the categories of solid waste to be disposed of in the sanitary landfill.~~landfill or any other change to the application for a permit or to the permit for a sanitary landfill that the Commission or the Department determines to be substantial.~~

(2) A person who intends to apply for a new permit, major modification, ~~the renewal of a permit,~~ or a substantial amendment to a permit for a sanitary landfill shall obtain, prior to applying for a permit, a franchise for the operation of the sanitary landfill from each local government then having jurisdiction over any part of the land on which the sanitary landfill and its appurtenances are located or to be located. A local government may adopt a franchise ordinance under G.S. 153A-136 or G.S. 160A-319. A franchise granted for a sanitary landfill shall include all of the following:

a. A statement of the population to be served, including a description of the geographic area.
b. A description of the volume and characteristics of the waste stream.
c. A projection of the useful life of the sanitary landfill.
d. An explanation of how the franchise will be consistent with the jurisdiction's solid waste management plan required under G.S. 130A-309.09A, including provisions for waste reduction, reuse, and recycling.
e. The procedures to be followed for governmental oversight and regulation of the fees and rates to be charged by facilities subject to the franchise for waste generated in the jurisdiction of the franchising entity.
f. A facility plan for the sanitary landfill that shall include the boundaries of the proposed facility, proposed development of the facility site in five-year operational phases, the boundaries of all waste disposal units, final elevations and capacity of all waste disposal units, the amount of waste to be received per day in tons, the total waste disposal capacity of the sanitary landfill in tons, a description of environmental controls, and a description of any other waste management activities to be conducted at the facility. In addition, the facility plan shall show the proposed location of soil borrow areas, leachate facilities, and all other facilities and infrastructure, including ingress and egress to the facility.

(4) An applicant for a new permit, major modification, ~~the renewal of a permit,~~ or a substantial amendment to a permit for a sanitary landfill shall request each local government having jurisdiction over any part of the land on which the sanitary landfill and its appurtenances are located or to be located to issue a determination as to whether the local government has in effect a franchise, zoning, subdivision, or land-use planning ordinance applicable to the sanitary landfill and whether the proposed sanitary landfill, or the existing sanitary landfill as it would be operated under the ~~renewed or~~ substantially amended permit, would be consistent with the applicable ordinances. The request to the local government shall be accompanied by a copy of the permit application and shall be delivered to the clerk of the local government personally or by certified mail. In order to serve as a basis for a determination that an application for a new permit, major modification, ~~the renewal of a permit,~~ or a substantial amendment to a permit for a sanitary landfill is consistent with a zoning, subdivision, or land-use planning ordinance, an ordinance or zoning classification applicable to the real property designated in the permit application shall have been in effect not less than 90 days prior to the date the request for a determination of consistency is delivered to the clerk of the local government. The determination shall be verified or supported by affidavit signed by the chief administrative officer, the chief administrative officer's designee, clerk, or other official designated by the local government to make the determination and, if the local government states that the sanitary landfill as it would be operated under the new, majorly modified, ~~renewed,~~ or substantially amended permit is inconsistent with a franchise, zoning, subdivision, or land-use planning ordinance, shall include a copy of the ordinance and the specific reasons for the determination of inconsistency. A copy of the determination shall be provided to the applicant when the determination is submitted to the Department. The Department shall not act upon an application for a permit under this section until it has received a determination from each local government requested to make a determination by the applicant; provided that if a local government fails to submit a determination to the Department as provided by this subsection within 15 days after receipt of the request, the Department shall proceed to consider the permit application without regard to a franchise, local zoning, subdivision, and land-use planning ordinances. Unless the local government makes a subsequent determination of consistency with all ordinances cited in the determination or the sanitary landfill as it would be operated under the ~~new, renewed,~~new or substantially amended permit is determined by a court of competent jurisdiction to be consistent with the cited ordinances, the Department shall attach as a condition of the permit a requirement that the applicant, prior to construction or operation of the sanitary landfill under the permit, comply with all lawfully adopted local ordinances cited in the determination that apply to the sanitary landfill. This subsection shall not be construed to affect the validity of any lawfully adopted franchise, local zoning, subdivision, or land-use planning ordinance or to affect the responsibility of any person to comply with any lawfully adopted franchise, local zoning, subdivision, or land-use planning ordinance. This subsection shall not be construed to limit any opportunity a local government may have to comment on a permit application under any other law or rule. This subsection shall not apply to any facility with respect to which local ordinances are subject to review under either G.S. 104E-6.2 or G.S. 130A-293.

(5) As used in this subdivision, "coal-fired generating unit" and "investor-owned public utility" have the same meaning as in G.S. 143-215.107D(a). Notwithstanding subdivisions (a)(4), (b1)(3), or (b1)(4) of this section, no franchise shall be required for a sanitary landfill used only to dispose of waste generated by a coal-fired generating unit that is owned or operated by an investor-owned utility subject to the requirements of G.S. 143-215.107D.

PART III. MODIFICATIONS TO CERTAIN REQUIREMENTS GOVERNING SANITARY LANDFILLS INCLUDING APPLICABLE BUFFERS, CLEANING AND INSPECTION OF LEACHATE COLLECTION LINES, ALTERNATIVE DAILY COVER, AND REQUIRED STUDIES FOR CERTAIN LANDFILL OWNERS AND OPERATORS

SECTION 3.(a) G.S. 130A-295.6 reads as rewritten:

"§ 130A-295.6. Additional requirements for sanitary landfills.

(a) The applicant for a proposed sanitary landfill shall contract with a qualified third-party, approved by the Department, ~~Department shall~~to conduct a study of the environmental impacts of any proposed sanitary ~~landfill.~~ landfill, in conjunction with its application for a new permit as defined in sub-subdivisions a. through d. of subdivision (1) of subsection (b) of G.S. 130A-295.8. The study shall meet all of the requirements set forth in G.S. 113A-4 and rules adopted pursuant to G.S. 113A-4. If an environmental impact statement is required, the Department shall publish notice of the draft environmental impact statement and shall hold a public hearing in the county where the landfill will be located no sooner than 30 days following the public notice. The Department shall consider the study of environmental impacts and any mitigation measures proposed by the applicant in deciding whether to issue or deny a permit. An applicant for a permit for a sanitary landfill shall pay all costs incurred by the Department to comply with the public notice and public hearing requirements of this subsection.~~this subsection including the costs of any special studies that may be required.~~

(b) The Department shall require a buffer between any ~~perennial~~ stream ~~or wetland~~with continuous flow and the nearest waste disposal unit of a sanitary landfill of at least 200 feet. The Department may approve a buffer of less than 200 ~~feet, but in no case less than 100~~ feet, if it finds all of the following:

(1) The proposed sanitary landfill or expansion of the sanitary landfill will serve a critical need in the community.

(2) There is no feasible alternative location that would allow siting or expansion of the sanitary landfill with 200-foot buffers.

(c) A waste disposal unit of a sanitary landfill shall not be constructed within:

(1) A 100-year floodplain, as shown on the current floodplain maps prepared pursuant to the National Flood Insurance Program, ~~floodplain or land removed from a 100-year floodplain designation pursuant to 44 Code of Federal Regulations Part 72 (1 October 2006 Edition) as a result of man-made alterations within the floodplain such as the placement of fill,~~ except as authorized by variance granted under G.S. 143-215.54A(b).~~This subdivision does not apply to land removed from a 100-year floodplain designation (i) as a result of floodplain map corrections or updates not resulting from man-made alterations of the affected areas within the floodplain, or (ii) pursuant to 44 Code of Federal Regulations Part 70 (1 October 2006 Edition) by a letter of map amendment.~~

(2) Wetlands classified as waters of the United States, ~~A wetland,~~ unless the applicant or permit holder can show all of the following, as to the waste disposal unit:

a. Where applicable under section 404 of the federal Clean Water Act or applicable State wetlands laws, the presumption that a practicable alternative to the proposed waste disposal unit is available which does not involve wetlands is clearly rebutted;

b. Construction of the waste disposal unit will not do any of the following:

1. Cause or contribute to violations of any applicable State water quality standard.

2. Violate any applicable toxic effluent standard or prohibition under section 307 of the federal Clean Water Act.

3. Jeopardize the continued existence of endangered or threatened species or result in the destruction or adverse modification of a critical habitat, protected under the federal Endangered Species Act of 1973.

4. Violate any requirement under the federal Marine Protection, Research, and Sanctuaries Act of 1972.

c. Construction of the waste disposal unit will not cause or contribute to significant degradation of wetlands.

d. To the extent required under section 404 of the federal Clean Water Act or applicable State wetlands laws, any unavoidable wetlands impacts will be mitigated.

(d) The Department shall not issue a permit to construct any disposal unit of a sanitary landfill if, at the earlier of (i) the acquisition by the applicant or permit holder of the land or of an option to purchase the land on which the waste disposal unit will be located, (ii) the application by the applicant or permit holder for a franchise agreement, or (iii) at the time of the application for a permit, any portion of the proposed waste disposal unit would be located within:

~~(1) Five miles of the outermost boundary of a National Wildlife Refuge.~~

~~(2) One mile of the outermost boundary of a State gameland owned, leased, or managed by the Wildlife Resources Commission pursuant to G.S. 113-306.~~

~~(3) Two miles of the outermost boundary of a component of the State Parks System.~~

(4) Fifteen hundred feet of the outermost boundary of a national or State park or other component of the State Parks System, segment of the Natural and Scenic Rivers System, National Wildlife Refuge, critical fisheries habitat designated by the Marine Fisheries' Commission, or Outstanding Resource Waters designated by the Environmental Management Commission.

(h) The following requirements apply to any sanitary landfill for which a liner is required:

(1) A geomembrane base liner system shall be tested for leaks and damage by methods approved by the Department that ensure that the entire liner is evaluated.

(2) A leachate collection system shall be designed to return the head of the liner to 30 centimeters or less within 72 hours. The design shall be based on the precipitation that would fall on an empty cell of the sanitary landfill as a result of a 25-year-24-hour storm event. The leachate collection system shall maintain a head of less than 30 centimeters at all times during leachate recirculation. The Department may require the operator to monitor the head of the liner to demonstrate that the head is being maintained in accordance with this subdivision and any applicable rules.

(3) All leachate collection lines shall be designed and constructed to permanently allow cleaning and remote camera inspection. Remote camera inspections of the leachate collection lines shall occur upon completion of the construction and at least once every five years. Cleaning of leachate collection lines found necessary for proper functioning and to address buildup of leachate over the liner shall occur. ~~All leachate collection lines shall be cleaned at least once a year, except that the Department may allow leachate collection lines to be cleaned once every two years if: (i) the facility has continuous flow monitoring; and (ii) the permit holder demonstrates to the Department that the leachate collection lines are clear and functional based on at least three consecutive annual cleanings. Remote camera inspections of the leachate collection lines shall occur upon completion of construction, at least once every five years thereafter, and following the clearing of blockages.~~

(4) Any pipes used to transmit leachate shall provide dual containment outside of the disposal unit. The bottom liner of a sanitary landfill shall be constructed without pipe penetrations.

(h1) With respect to requirements for daily cover at sanitary landfills, once the Department has approved use of an alternative method of daily cover for use at any sanitary landfill, that alternative method of daily cover shall be approved for use at all sanitary landfills located within the State.

(h2) Studies and research and development pertaining to alternative disposal techniques and waste-to-energy matters shall be conducted by certain sanitary landfills as follows:

(1) The owner or operator of any sanitary landfill permitted to receive more than 240,000 tons of waste per year shall research the development of alternative disposal technologies. In addition, the owner or operator shall allow access to nonproprietary information and provide site resources for individual research and development projects related to alternative disposal techniques for the purpose of studies that may be conducted by local community or State colleges and universities or other third-party developers or consultants. The owner or operator shall report on research and development activities conducted pursuant to this subdivision, and any results of these activities, to the Department annually on or before July 1.

(2) The owner or operator of any sanitary landfill permitted to receive more than 240,000 tons of waste per year shall perform a feasibility study of landfill gas-to-energy, or other waste-to-energy technology, to determine opportunities for production of renewable energy from landfills in order to promote economic development and job creation in the State. The owner or operator shall initiate the study when sufficient waste is in place at the landfill to produce gas, as determined by the United States Environmental Protection Agency's Landfill Gas Emissions Model (LandGEM), and may consult and coordinate with other entities to facilitate conduct of the study, including local and State government agencies, economic development organizations, consultants, and third-party developers. The study shall specifically examine opportunities for returning a portion of the benefits derived from energy produced from the landfill to the jurisdiction within which the landfill is located in the form of direct supply of energy to the local government and its citizens, or through revenue sharing with the local government from sale of the energy, with revenues owing to the local government credited to a fund specifically designated for economic development within the jurisdiction. The owner or operator shall report on its activities associated with the study, and any results of the study, to the Department annually on or before July 1.

(i) The Department shall not issue a permit for a sanitary landfill that authorizes:

(1) A capacity of more than 55 million cubic yards of waste.

(2) A disposal area of more than 350 acres.

(3) A maximum height, including the cap and cover vegetation, of more than 250 feet above the mean natural elevation of the disposal area.

(j) This section does not apply to landfills for the disposal of land clearing and inert debris or to Type I or Type II compost facilities."

SECTION 3.(b) S.L. 2013-25 is repealed.

SECTION 3.(c) This section becomes effective August 1, 2013, except that (i) the repeal of G.S. 130A-295.6(d)(2), as enacted by Section 3(a) of this act, applies retroactively to applications for permits submitted on or after January 1, 2013; (ii) G.S. 130A-295.6(h1) and

G.S. 130A-295.6(h2), as enacted by Section 3(a) of this act, apply to new landfills for which a permit is issued on or after August 1, 2013; and (iii) to the extent that G.S. 130A-295.6, as amended by Section 3(a) of this act, imposes requirements that are more stringent than those in effect prior to August 1, 2007, the more stringent requirements do not apply to:

(1) An amendment, modification, or other change to a permit for a landfill issued on or before June 1, 2006.

(2) A permit for a horizontal or vertical expansion of the landfill permitted on or before June 1, 2006.

(3) A permit to construct a new landfill within the facility boundary identified in the facility plan of a landfill permitted on or before June 1, 2006.

(4) A permit to operate a new landfill if a permit to construct the new landfill was issued on or before June 1, 2006.

(5) A permit for a sanitary landfill used only to dispose of waste generated by a coal-fired generating unit that is owned or operated by an investor-owned utility subject to the requirements of G.S. 143-215.107D.

(6) A permit for a sanitary landfill determined to be necessary by the Secretary of Environment and Natural Resources in order to respond to an imminent hazard to public health or a natural disaster.

PART IV. MODIFICATIONS TO REQUIREMENTS FOR FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY APPLICABLE TO APPLICANTS AND PERMIT HOLDERS FOR SOLID WASTE MANAGEMENT FACILITIES

SECTION 4. G.S. 130A-295.2 reads as rewritten:

"§ 130A-295.2. Financial responsibility requirements for applicants and permit holders for solid waste management facilities.

...

(h) To meet the financial assurance requirements of this section, the owner or operator of a sanitary landfill shall establish financial assurance sufficient to cover the ~~a minimum of two million dollars ($2,000,000) in~~ costs ~~for~~ of potential assessment and corrective action at the facility. The Department may require financial assurance in a higher amount and may increase the amount of financial assurance required of a permit holder at any time based upon the types of waste disposed in the landfill, the projected amount of waste to be disposed in the landfill, the location of the landfill, potential receptors of releases from the landfill, and inflation. The financial assurance requirements of this subsection are in addition to the other financial responsibility requirements set out in this section.

(j) In addition to the other methods by which financial assurance may be established as set forth in subsection (f) of this section, the Department may allow the owner or operator of a sanitary landfill permitted on or before August 1, 2009, to meet the financial assurance requirement set forth in subsection (h) of this section by establishing a trust fund which conforms to the following minimum requirements:

(1) The trustee shall be an entity which has the authority to act as a trustee and whose trust operations are regulated and examined by a State or federal agency.

(2) A copy of the trust agreement shall be placed in the facility's operating record.

(3) Payments into the trust fund shall be made annually by the owner or operator over a period not to exceed five years. This period is referred to as the pay-in period.

(4) Payments into the fund shall be made in equal annual installments in amounts calculated by dividing the current cost estimate for potential assessment and corrective action at the facility ~~facility, which shall not be less than two million dollars ($2,000,000) in accordance with subsection (h) of this section,~~ by the number of years in the pay-in period.

(5) The trust fund may be terminated by the owner or operator only if the owner or operator establishes financial assurance by another method or combination of methods allowed under subsection (f) of this section.

(6) The trust agreement shall be accompanied by a formal certification of acknowledgement."

PART V. AMEND THE RULE GOVERNING COLLECTION AND TRANSPORT OF SOLID WASTE TO REQUIRE THAT CONTAINERS BE "LEAK-RESISTANT" RATHER THAN "LEAK-PROOF," AND AMEND A STATUTE THAT REQUIRES VEHICLES TO BE CONSTRUCTED AND LOADED TO PREVENT LEAKAGE

SECTION 5.(a) Definitions. – "Collection and Transport Rule" means 15A NCAC 13B .0105 (Collection and Transportation of Solid Waste) for purposes of this section and its implementation.

SECTION 5.(b) Collection and Transport Rule. – Until the effective date of the revised permanent rule that the Commission for Public Health is required to adopt pursuant to Section 5(d) of this act, the Commission and the Department of Environment and Natural Resources shall implement the Collection and Transport Rule, as provided in Section 5(c) of this act.

SECTION 5.(c) Implementation. – Notwithstanding any provision of the Collection and Transport Rule, the Commission shall not require vehicles or containers used for the collection and transportation of solid waste to be leak-proof; however, they may require that these containers be designed and maintained to be leak-resistant in accordance with industry standards.

SECTION 5.(d) Additional Rule-Making Authority. – The Commission shall adopt a rule to replace the Collection and Transport Rule. Notwithstanding G.S. 150B-19(4), the rule adopted by the Commission pursuant to this section shall be substantively identical to the provisions of Section 5(c) of this act. Rules adopted pursuant to this section are not subject to G.S. 150B-21.9 through G.S. 150B-21.14. The rule adopted pursuant to this section shall become effective, as provided in G.S. 150B-21.3(b1), as though 10 or more written objections had been received, as provided by G.S. 150B-21.3(b2).

SECTION 5.(e) Effective Date. – Section 5(c) of this act expires when permanent rules to replace Section 5(c) of this act have become effective, as provided by Section 5(d) of this act.

SECTION 5.(f) G.S. 20-116(g)(1) reads as rewritten:

"§ 20-116. Size of vehicles and loads.

...

(g) (1) No vehicle shall be driven or moved on any highway unless the vehicle is constructed and loaded to prevent any of its load from falling, blowing, dropping, sifting, ~~leaking,~~ or otherwise escaping therefrom, and the vehicle shall not contain any holes, cracks, or openings through which any of its load may escape. However, sand may be dropped for the purpose of securing traction, or water or other substance may be sprinkled, dumped, or spread on a roadway in cleaning or maintaining the roadway. For purposes of this subsection, ~~load~~ the terms "load" and "leaking" ~~does~~ do not include water accumulated from precipitation."

PART VI. AMEND THE DEFINITION OF "LEACHATE" TO EXCLUDE LIQUID ADHERING TO TIRES OF VEHICLES LEAVING SANITARY LANDFILLS AND TRANSFER STATIONS

SECTION 6.(a) G.S. 130A-290 is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:

"(16a) "Leachate" means a liquid that has passed through or emerged from solid waste and contains soluble, suspended, or miscible materials removed from such waste. The term "leachate" does not include liquid adhering to tires of vehicles leaving a sanitary landfill and transfer stations."

SECTION 7.(a) G.S. 153A-292(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) The board of county commissioners may impose a fee for the collection of solid waste. The fee may not exceed the costs of collection.

The board of county commissioners may impose a fee for the use of a disposal facility provided by the county. ~~The~~ Except as provided in this subsection, the fee for use may not exceed the cost of operating the ~~facility and may be imposed only on those who use the~~ facility. The fee may exceed those costs if the county enters into a contract with another county or city to accept the other entity's solid waste and the county by ordinance levies a surcharge on the fee which may be used for any purpose for which the county may appropriate funds. A fee under this paragraph may be imposed only on those who use the facility. The fee for use may vary based on the amount, characteristics, and form of recyclable materials present in solid waste brought to the facility for disposal. A county may not impose a fee for the use of a disposal facility on a city located in the county or a contractor or resident of the city unless the fee is based on a schedule that applies uniformly throughout the county.

The board of county commissioners may impose a fee for the availability of a disposal facility provided by the county. A fee for availability may not exceed the cost of providing the facility and may be imposed on all improved property in the county that benefits from the availability of the facility. A county may not impose an availability fee on property whose solid waste is collected by a county, a city, or a private contractor for a fee if the fee imposed by a county, a city, or a private contractor for the collection of solid waste includes a charge for the availability and use of a disposal facility provided by the county. Property served by a private contractor who disposes of solid waste collected from the property in a disposal facility provided by a private contractor that provides the same services as those provided by the county disposal facility is not considered to benefit from a disposal facility provided by the county and is not subject to a fee imposed by the county for the availability of a disposal facility provided by the county. To the extent that the services provided by the county disposal facility differ from the services provided by the disposal facility provided by a private contractor in the same county, the county may charge an availability fee to cover the costs of the additional services provided by the county disposal facility.

In determining the costs of providing and operating a disposal facility, a county may consider solid waste management costs incidental to a county's handling and disposal of solid waste at its disposal facility, including the costs of the methods of solid waste management specified in G.S. 130A-309.04(a) of the Solid Waste Management Act of 1989. A fee for the availability or use of a disposal facility may be based on the combined costs of the different disposal facilities provided by the county."

SECTION 7.(b) G.S. 159-13(b)(14) reads as rewritten:

"(b) The following directions and limitations shall bind the governing board in adopting the budget ordinance:

...

(14) No appropriation may be made from a utility or public service enterprise fund to any other fund than the appropriate debt service fund unless the total of all other appropriations in the fund equal or exceed the amount that will be required during the fiscal year, as shown by the budget ordinance, to meet operating expenses, capital outlay, and debt service on outstanding utility or enterprise bonds or notes. A county may, upon a finding that a fund balance in a utility or public service enterprise fund used for operation of a landfill exceeds the requirements for funding the operation of that fund, including closure and post-closure expenditures, transfer excess funds to be used to support the other services supported by the county's general fund."

SECTION 7.(c) G.S. 160A-314.1 reads as rewritten:

"§ 160A-314.1. Availability fees for solid waste disposal facilities; collection of any solid waste fees.

(a) A city may impose a fee for the collection of solid waste. The fee may not exceed the costs of collection.

A city may impose a fee for the use of a disposal facility provided by the city. Except as provided in this subsection, the fee for use may not exceed the cost of operating the facility. The fee may exceed those costs if the city enters into a contract with another county or city to accept the other entity's solid waste and the city by ordinance levies a surcharge on the fee which may be used for any purpose for which the city may appropriate funds. A fee under this paragraph may be imposed only on those who use the facility. The fee for use may vary based on the amount, characteristics, and form of recyclable materials present in solid waste brought to the facility for disposal.

(a1) In addition to a fee that a city may impose for collecting solid waste or for using a disposal facility, a city may impose a fee for the availability of a disposal facility provided by the city. A fee for availability may not exceed the cost of providing the facility and may be imposed on all improved property in the city that benefits from the availability of the facility. A city may not impose an availability fee on property whose solid waste is collected by a county, a city, or a private contractor for a fee if the fee imposed by a county, a city, or a private contractor for the collection of solid waste includes a charge for the availability and use of a disposal facility provided by the city. Property served by a private contractor who disposes of solid waste collected from the property in a disposal facility provided by a private contractor that provides the same services as those provided by the city disposal facility is not considered to benefit from a disposal facility provided by the city and is not subject to a fee imposed by the city for the availability of a disposal facility provided by the city. To the extent that the services provided by the city disposal facility differ from the services provided by the disposal facility provided by a private contractor in the same city, the city may charge an availability fee to cover the costs of the additional services provided by the city disposal facility.

In determining the costs of providing and operating a disposal facility, a city may consider solid waste management costs incidental to a city's handling and disposal of solid waste at its disposal facility. A fee for the availability or use of a disposal facility may be based on the combined costs of the different disposal facilities provided by the city.

(b) A city may adopt an ordinance providing that any fee imposed under subsection (a) or under G.S. 160A-314 for collecting or disposing of solid waste may be billed with property taxes, may be payable in the same manner as property taxes, and, in the case of nonpayment, may be collected in any manner by which delinquent personal or real property taxes can be collected. If an ordinance states that delinquent fees can be collected in the same manner as delinquent real property taxes, the fees are a lien on the real property described on the bill that includes the fee."

SECTION 7.(d) G.S. 160A-314(a2) reads as rewritten:

"§ 160A-314. Authority to fix and enforce rates.

(a2) A fee for the use of a disposal facility provided by the city may vary based on the amount, characteristics, and form of recyclable materials present in solid waste brought to the facility for disposal. This section does not prohibit a city from providing aid to low-income persons to pay all or part of the cost of solid waste management services for those persons. A city may, upon a finding that a fund balance in a utility or public service enterprise fund used for operation of a landfill exceeds the requirements for funding the operation of that fund, including closure and post-closure expenditures, transfer excess funds to be used to support the other services supported by the city's general fund."

SECTION 7.(e) G.S. 130A-294(b1) is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:

"(2b) A local government may elect to include as part of a franchise agreement a surcharge on waste disposed of in its jurisdiction by other local governments located within the State."

SECTION 7.(f) This section is effective August 1, 2013, and Section 7(e) is applicable to franchise agreements executed on or after that date.

PART VIII. RETURN OF REIMBURSEMENTS/S.L. 2007-543

SECTION 8. Applicants for a permit for a sanitary landfill who received funds as reimbursement in accordance with subsections (a) through (g) of Section 3 of S.L. 2007-543 shall repay eighty percent (80%) of the funds received as reimbursement to the Secretary of Revenue before a permit may be issued to construct a sanitary landfill on the property, or part thereof, which was the subject of a permit application for which funds were received as reimbursement in accordance with subsections (a) through (g) of Section 3 of S.L. 2007-543. Any funds received by the Secretary pursuant to this Section shall be credited or distributed as set forth in G.S. 105-187.63.

PART IX. SEVERABILITY AND EFFECTIVE DATE

SECTION 9.(a) If any section or provision of this act is declared unconstitutional or invalid by the courts, it does not affect the validity of this act as a whole or any part other than the part so declared to be unconstitutional or invalid.

SECTION 9.(b) Except as otherwise provided, this act is effective when it becomes law.

SENATE BILL 328:
Solid Waste Management Reform Act of 2013

2013-2014 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Finance	Date:	June 19, 2013
Introduced by:	Sens. Wade, Brown, Jackson	Prepared by:	Jennifer McGinnis Staff Attorney
Analysis of:	PCS to Second Edition S328-CSRI-26 [v.13]

SUMMARY: The Proposed Committee Substitute (PCS) for Senate Bill 328 would: (1) extend the duration of permits for sanitary landfills and transfer stations for a period up to thirty years; (2) modify the Department of Environment and Natural Resources' authority to issue and transfer permits for solid waste management facilities; (3) modify certain requirements governing sanitary landfills including applicable buffers, cleaning and inspection of leachate collection lines, alternative daily cover, and required studies for owners and operators of certain sanitary landfills; (4) modify requirements for financial responsibility applicable to applicants and permit holders for solid waste management facilities; (5) amend the rule governing collection and transport of solid waste to require that containers be "leak-resistant" rather than "leak-proof" and amend a statute that requires vehicles to be constructed and loaded to prevent leakage; (6) define the term "leachate" and clarify that it excludes liquid adhering to tires of vehicles leaving sanitary landfills; and (7) make related clarifying, conforming, and technical changes to the statutes and rules governing solid waste matters.

CHANGES MADE BY PCS TO PREVIOUS VERSION:

- Applies a provision that extends the duration of permits for sanitary landfills and transfer stations of up to 30 years to existing permits, taking into account the duration of any permits previously issued for the facility. The previous version of the bill only applied the extension to new facilities permitted on or after July 1, 2014. In addition, the PCS provides that the limited review required every five years under the provision would include review of the operations plan, closure plan, post-closure plan, financial assurance cost estimates, environmental monitoring plans, and any other applicable plans for the facility.
- Modifies the schedule of fees applicable to sanitary landfills and transfer stations included in the previous version of the bill.
- Modifies a provision concerning transfer of a permit for a solid waste management facility, to require approval of the Department of Environment and Natural Resources (DENR).
- Restores a requirement under existing law that a study of the environmental impacts of any proposed sanitary landfill be conducted, and modifies the requirement to provide that a permit applicant shall conduct the study using a qualified third-party contractor approved by DENR. The previous version of the bill deleted this provision (under current law DENR must conduct the study and the applicant must reimburse DENR for all costs incurred).
- Modifies a provision concerning a buffer between a waste disposal unit and surface water impoundments or any streams with continuous flow included in the previous version of the bill, to eliminate the reference to surface water impoundments.
- Modifies a provision concerning construction of a waste disposal unit in a wetland. The previous version of the bill had eliminated a number details associated with the showings an applicant must make, and in lieu, provided that a waste disposal unit may not be constructed within a wetland classified as a water of the United States, except in compliance with applicable federal and State laws. The PCS restores the details associated with the showings an applicant must make.

- Eliminates a prohibition included in the previous version of the bill concerning construction of a waste disposal unit in a designated critical habitat for a threatened or endangered species, and in historically or archaeologically sensitive sites of more than local significance.
- Modifies a provision in the previous version of the bill that would have eliminated requirements for annual cleaning of leachate collection lines and remote camera inspections of the lines every five years, to restore the inspection requirement and require cleaning of the lines as necessary for proper functioning and to address buildup of leachate over the liner.
- Modifies a provision concerning containers for collection and transport of solid waste in the previous version of the bill to provide that vehicles or containers used for the collection and transportation of solid waste be maintained, as well as designed, to be leak-resistant in accordance with industry standards. In addition, the PCS would amend a statute that requires vehicles to be constructed and loaded to prevent leakage, to provide that "leakage," for purposes of the statute does not include water accumulated from precipitation.
- Modifies a provision concerning leachate to clarify that the definition of leachate only excludes liquid adhering to tires of vehicles leaving a sanitary landfill and a transfer station. An additional exclusion under the previous version of the bill concerning liquid generated during the transport of solid waste is eliminated under the PCS. The PCS also eliminates direction given to the Commission for Public Health under the previous version of the bill to amend rules governing leachate storage requirements.
- Adds a provision to require that applicants for a permit for a sanitary landfill who received funds as reimbursement in accordance with provisions of S.L. 2007-543 repay 80% of the funds received as reimbursement to the Secretary of Revenue before a permit may be issued to construct a sanitary landfill on the property, or part thereof, which was the subject of a permit application for which funds were received as reimbursement.
- Makes other technical, clarifying, and conforming changes to the previous version of the bill.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1.(a) of the PCS would extend the duration of permits for sanitary landfills and transfer stations for a duration of up to 30 years (from the current option for a 5- or 10-year permit), unless revoked as otherwise provided under the statutes governing solid waste management or upon the expiration of any local government franchise required for the facility. A limited review of the permit would be required five years after issuance of the initial permit, and at five-year intervals thereafter until expiration. The PCS provides that the limited review includes review of the operations plan, closure plan, post-closure plan, financial assurance cost estimates, environmental monitoring plans, and any other applicable plans for the facility. This provision would be applicable to new facilities for which permit applications were submitted on or after July 1, 2014, and to existing facilities when the associated permits next come up for renewal after July 1, 2014.

Section 1.(b) of the PCS would require the Commission for Public Health, by July 1, 2014, to adopt rules to: (i) allow applicants for sanitary landfills to apply for a permit to construct and operate landfill development phase of up to 30 years; and (ii) allow applicants for permits for transfer stations to apply for a permit with a duration of up to 30 years to construct and operate a transfer station.

Section 1.(c) of the PCS would increase the fees applicable to new sanitary landfills and transfer stations permitted on or after July 1, 2014 to reflect the extension to the duration of permits for these facilities of up to 30 years. The provision also deletes or amends a number of definitions associated with the fees.

Section 1.(d) of the PCS would make a conforming change to the statutes governing solid waste management to reflect extension of the duration of permits up to 30 years, by striking the word "renewal."

Section 1.(e) of the PCS would repeal a provision enacted last year as part of the Regulatory Reform Act of 2012 that directed the Commission for Public Health to amend its rules to extend the duration of permits for sanitary landfills and transfer stations, and allow owners and operators of landfills and transfer stations the option to apply for: (i) a 5-year permit; or (ii) 10-year permit with a limited review at the 5-year interval.

Sections 1.(f) and (g) of the PCS would repeal two pending bills (H135 and S380), if they became law. These bills would increase the fees applicable to sanitary landfills and transfer stations to reflect the extension of the duration of permits for these facilities that was authorized in 2012 (see Sec. 1.(e) above).

Section 1.(h) of the PCS would provide that the preceding sections would become effective August 1, 2013, except as otherwise provided.

Section 2 of the PCS would

- Make conforming changes to the statutes governing solid waste management to reflect extension of the duration of permits for a period up to 30 years (see Section 1 above), by striking the word "renewal."
- Modify or repeal certain basis on which DENR must deny permits for solid waste management facilities. Under current law, DENR must deny a permit if construction or operation of the proposed facility would:
  - Be inconsistent with or violate rules adopted by the Environmental Management Commission (EMC). The PCS would modify this provision to direct DENR to deny a permit where the proposed facility would violate the Article governing solid waste management under the General Statutes (Article 9 of Chapter 130A) or the associated rules.
  - Result in significant damage to ecological systems, natural resources, cultural sites, recreation areas, or historic sites of more than local significance (including detail on the types of sites included). The PCS would repeal this provision.
  - Substantially limit or threaten access to or use of public trust waters or public lands. The PCS would modify this provision to direct DENR to deny a permit where the proposed facility would substantially limit access to public trust waters or public lands.
  - Be inconsistent with the State's solid waste management policy and goals and the State's solid waste management plan developed as provided in the General Statutes. The PCS would modify this provision to direct DENR to deny a permit where the proposed facility would violate the State's solid waste management policy, goals, and plan.

In addition, the PCS would modify or repeal the following basis on which the DENR must deny permits for solid waste management facilities under current law:

- The proposed facility would be located in a natural hazard area, including a floodplain, a landslide hazard area, or an area subject to storm surge or excessive seismic activity, such that the facility will present a risk to public health or safety. The PCS would modify this provision to delete the reference to a floodplain.
- There is a practical alternative that would accomplish the purposes of the proposed facility with less adverse impact on public resources, considering engineering requirements and economic costs. The PCS would repeal this provision.
- The cumulative impacts of the proposed facility and other facilities in the area of the proposed facility would violate water quality standards, result in significant damage to ecological systems and other specified areas. The PCS would repeal this provision.
- The cumulative impact of the proposed facility, when considered in relation to other similar impacts of facilities located or proposed in the community, would have a disproportionate adverse impact on a minority or low-income community protected by Title VI of the federal Civil Rights Act of 1964. The PCS would modify this provision to specify that the provision only applies to the extent required by federal law.

- Modify the basis on which DENR may transfer a permit for a solid waste management facility, to provide that a transfer may occur upon 30 days' written notice with such information as DENR may reasonably require with respect to financial assurance and environmental compliance, and with DENR's approval (current law provides only that permits may be transferred upon approval of DENR).
- Modify the definition of what constitutes a "substantial amendment." Current law provides that a substantial amendment includes, among other things, "... any other change to the application for a permit for a sanitary landfill that the Commission or the Department determines to be substantial." The PCS would delete this language.

Section 3.(a) of the PCS would:

- Amend a provision under existing law that requires a buffer between any perennial stream or wetland and the nearest waste disposal unit of a sanitary landfill of at least 200 feet, but allows DENR to approve a buffer of less than 200 feet, but no less than 100 feet, if certain criteria are met. The PCS would modify the language to require a buffer of 200 feet to surface water impoundments or any streams with continuous flow, and would allow DENR by variance to approve a buffer of less than 100 feet if certain criteria are met.
- Amend provisions under existing law that prohibit construction of a waste disposal unit of a sanitary landfill within:
  - A 100 year floodplain, or land removed from a 100 year floodplain as a result of man-made alterations. The PCS would delete the prohibition on siting waste disposal units on land removed from a 100 year floodplain.
  - A wetland, unless the applicant can make a showing on a number of specific criteria involving State and federal law. The PCS adds language to provide that the wetland must be classified as a water of the United States.
- Delete the following buffers to waste disposal units: five miles of the outermost boundary of a National Wildlife Refuge; one mile of the outermost boundary of a State gameland owned, leased, or managed by the Wildlife Resources Commission; and two miles of the outermost boundary of a component of the State Parks System. The PCS would replace these buffers with a prohibition on constructing a waste disposal unit within fifteen hundred feet of a national or State park, or other component of the State Parks System, segment of the Natural and Scenic Rivers System, National Wildlife Refuge, critical fisheries habitat designated by the Marine Fisheries Commission, or Outstanding Resource Waters designated by the Environmental Management Commission.

- Delete requirements for annual cleaning of leachate collection lines, but provide that these lines must be cleaned as necessary for proper functioning and to address buildup of leachate over the liner.
- Add a requirement that with respect to requirements for daily cover at sanitary landfills, once the Department has approved use of an alternative method of daily cover for use at any sanitary landfill, that alternative method of daily cover shall be approved for use at all sanitary landfills located within the State.
- Add requirements that owners or operators of sanitary landfills permitted to receive more than 240,000 tons of waste per year: (i) research the development of alternative disposal technologies and allow access to nonproprietary information and provide site resources for individual research and development projects related to alternative disposal techniques for the purpose of studies that may be conducted by local community or State colleges and universities or other third-party developers or consultants; and (ii) perform a feasibility study of landfill gas-to-energy, or other waste-to-energy technology, to determine opportunities for production of renewable energy from landfills in order to promote economic development and job creation in the State, and specifically examine opportunities for returning a portion of the benefits derived from energy produced from the landfill to the jurisdiction within which the landfill is located in the form of direct supply of energy to the local government and its citizens, or through revenue sharing with the local government from sale of the energy, with revenues owing to the local government credited to a fund specifically designated for economic development within the jurisdiction.

Section 3.(b) of the PCS would repeal Senate Bill 24 enacted this year that decreased the buffer requirement from State gamelands for landfills for the disposal of construction and demolition debris from 1 mile to 500 in certain circumstances.

Section 4 of the PCS would modify a provision under existing law that requires applicants and permit holders for solid waste management facilities to establish financial assurance sufficient to cover a minimum $2,000,000 in costs for potential assessment and corrective action at the facility, to eliminate the minimum amount.

Section 5 of the PCS would direct the Commission for Public Health to amend a rule governing containers for collection and transport of solid waste to provide that vehicles or containers used for the collection and transportation of solid waste be designed and maintained to be leak-resistant in accordance with industry standards, rather than be leak-proof as required under existing law. In addition, the PCS would amend a statute that requires vehicles to be constructed and loaded to prevent leakage, to provide that "leakage," for purposes of the statute does not include water accumulated from precipitation.

Section 6 of the PCS would amend the statutes governing solid waste to define "leachate" as:

> "a liquid that has passed through or emerged from solid waste and contains soluble, suspended, or miscible materials removed from such waste. The term "leachate" does not include liquid adhering to tires of vehicles leaving a sanitary landfill and transfer station."

Section 7 of the PCS would authorize cities and counties to levy a surcharge on existing fees for use of waste disposal facilities provided by them on other cities and counties located within the State that use the disposal facility, and authorizes cities and counties imposing such a surcharge to use the funds that accrue in excess of the amount needed to operate the landfill for other purposes. In addition, the PCS authorizes cities and counties to include such a surcharge on other local governments' waste as part of a franchise agreement entered into with a private landfill owner or operator.

Section 8 of the PCS would add a provision requiring that applicants for a permit for a sanitary landfill who received funds as reimbursement in accordance with subsections (a) through (g) of Section 3 of S.L. 2007-543 must repay 80% of the funds received as reimbursement to the Secretary of Revenue before a permit may be issued to construct a sanitary landfill on the property, or part thereof, which was the subject of a permit application for which funds were received as reimbursement. The applicable sections of S.L. 2007-543 allowed an applicant for a permit for a sanitary landfill to receive reimbursement for the reasonable costs of preparation of a permit application incurred prior to August 1, 2006, if the permit would have been denied as a result of required setbacks enacted as part of the Solid Waste Management Act of 2007.

Section 9.(a) of the PCS would provide that if any section or provision of the act is declared unconstitutional or invalid by the courts, it would not affect the validity of the act as a whole or any part other than the part declared to be unconstitutional or invalid.

Section 9.(b) of the PCS would provide that the act would be effective when it becomes law except otherwise noted.

BILL SUMMARY: The Proposed Committee Substitute (PCS) for Senate Bill 328 would: (1) extend the duration of permits for sanitary landfills and transfer stations to thirty years ("life of site"); (2) modify the Department of Environment and Natural Resources' authority to issue and transfer permits for solid waste management facilities; (3) modify certain requirements governing sanitary landfills including applicable buffers, cleaning and inspection of leachate collection lines, alternative daily cover, and required studies for owners and operators of certain sanitary landfills; (4) modify requirements for financial responsibility applicable to applicants and permit holders for solid waste management facilities; (5) amend the rule governing collection and transport of solid waste to require that containers be "leak-resistant" rather than "leak-proof" and amend a statute that requires vehicles to be constructed and loaded to prevent leakage; (6) define the term "leachate" and clarify that it excludes liquid adhering to tires of vehicles leaving sanitary landfills; and (7) make related clarifying, conforming, and technical changes to the statutes and rules governing solid waste matters.[1]

ASSUMPTIONS AND METHODOLOGY:

In calculating the fiscal impact of the PCS, this fiscal memo uses the following assumption:

1. The number of active facilities permitted remains constant over the next five years. The Department of Environment and Natural Resources (DENR) does anticipate limited growth in the number of sanitary landfills (less than 5) and transfer stations (less than 10) in the next five years; however, the exact number and size of these facilities is unknown and therefore not included in the expenditure or revenue projections.

This memo also acknowledges the following:

2. No permits have been issued using the 10-year permit option recently enacted by the General Assembly in the Regulatory Reform Act of 2012 (S.L. 2012-187). The Regulatory Reform Act required the Commission for Public Health to adopt rules to issue the 10-year permit for sanitary landfills and transfer stations by July 1, 2013; therefore this option has not yet gone into effect. This PCS repeals both the 5-year and 10-year options and replaces it with a 30-year "life of site" permit.

3. Revenue currently collected from solid waste management facilities by the Department of Environment and Natural Resources (DENR) is based on permits of five-year duration, 5-year amendment fees, and annual fees using the existing fee schedule set in statute.

Section 1 of the PCS extends the duration of permits for sanitary landfills and transfer stations to a total of 30 years (from the current 5-year permit), and requires the Commission for Public Health to adopt a rule to allow applicants for sanitary landfills and applicants for transfer stations to apply for the 30-year permits. A limited review of the permit would be required five years after issuance of the initial permit, and at five-year intervals thereafter until expiration. The PCS provides that the limited review includes a review of the operations plan, closure plan, post-closure plan, financial assurance cost estimates, environmental monitoring plans, and any other applicable plans for the facility. This provision would be applicable to new facilities for which permit applications were submitted on or after July 1, 2014, and to existing facilities when the associated permits next come up for renewal after July 1, 2014.

The PCS also changes the fee schedule applicable to new sanitary landfills and transfer stations permitted on or after July 1, 2014 to reflect the extension to the duration of permits for these facilities to 30 years (see Table 1 for new fees; see Table 4 at end of memo for a comparison of current fees to proposed fees). In all instances, except for the two highlighted in bold on Table 1 below, the 30-year "life of site" permit fees for new facilities are the same as they currently are for a 5-year permit. For existing facilities, the "life of site" permit fee is based on the 5-year amendment fee which is repealed and replaced with a new major modification fee in the same amount, except for Tire Monofill facilities where the fee is increased from $1,250 to $9,000 and for small Transfer Stations where the fee is reduced from $3,000 to $1,500. The PCS also establishes a new ownership modification fee for the facility types listed on the Table. Lastly, the annual fee is also amended by increasing the fee for all facility types and sizes, except for small Transfer Stations where the annual fee stays the same.

Table 1: PCS - SB 328 Proposed Fee Schedule by Facility Type and Size

Facility Type & Size	# of Active Facilities	New 30-Year "Life of Site" Permit Fee	Major Modifcation Fee	Change Ownership Fee	Proposed Annual Fee
Municipal Solid Waste Landfill Facility < 100,000 tons/yr	20	$25,000	$15,000	$5,000	$7,500
Municipal Solid Waste Landfill Facility ≥ 100K tons < 250K tons/yr	12	$50,000	$30,000	$5,000	$12,000
Municipal Solid Waste Landfill Facility ≥ 250,000 tons/yr	8	$75,000	$55,000	$5,000	$15,000
Construction and Demolition Landfill Facility < 25,000 tons/yr	35	$15,000	$9,000	$3,000	$5,500
Construction and Demolition Landfill Facility > 25,000 tons/yr	17	$30,000	$18,500	$3,000	$8,500
Industrial Landfill <100,000 tons/yr	8	$15,000	$9,000	$2,000	$5,500
Industrial Landfill >100,000 tons/yr	9	$30,000	$18,500	$2,000	$10,000
Tire Monofill	2	$15,000	$9,000	$2,000	$5,500
Transfer Station < 25,000 tons/yr	40	$2,500	$1,500	$1,000	$750
Transfer Station > 25,000 tons/yr	47	$5,000	$3,000	$1,000	$1,500

Note that only newly permitted facilities would pay the full cost of the new 30-year permit fees shown on Table 1. Existing facilities would pay a smaller fee based on the Major Modification fee that will be prorated for each facility to reflect the number of years remaining in its 30-year life.

For existing facilities, the PCS also phases in the cost of the 30-year permit over the life of the permit with 50% of applicable fee due upon submission of the application, 25% paid at five years after the issuance of the permit, and remaining 25% paid at 10 years after the issuance of the permit.[2] Because the current length of a permit is five years, all existing permits are scheduled to come up for renewal in the first five years that the 30-year permit becomes effective (July 1, 2014). All facilities would also be paying 50% of their 30-year permit during years zero through four with their next installment due in years five through nine and their final installment in years ten through 14.
The amount of fee revenue generated by the issuance of a "life of site" permit depends upon the number of years remaining in its 30-year life. Without a detailed review of permits for all active facilities (total 198) to determine the number of years remaining for each of the facilities, it is not possible to develop an exact estimate of the future revenue generated from the new 30-year permit and its associated fees.

[2] The schedule for the payment of the application fee for newly permitted facilities is different than the schedule for existing facilities already permitted. New facilities would pay 50% of the applicable fee upon submission of the permit application. The next 25% would be paid at 10 years and the remaining 25% would be paid at 20 years.

Instead this fiscal memo uses an average remaining life of 20 years and applies that average to all facility types and sizes. The average number of years was provided by DENR after a review of a sample of facility types and sizes. This memo also assumes that the permit renewals are evenly divided over the first five years.

Table 2: Summary of Estimated Annual Fee Revenue

	Current	Projected Revenue Years 0-4	Projected Revenue Years 5-9	Projected Revenue Years 10-14
30-yr Permit Fees	406,300	145,800	72,900	72,900
Annual Fees	396,000	996,500	996,500	996,500
Total	$ 802,300	$ 1,142,300	$ 1,069,400	$ 1,069,400
Δ current to proposed		340,000	267,100	267,100

Compared to current collections for permits and annual fees, the proposed fee schedule is estimated to increase fee revenue annually by $340,000 in the first five years. Fee revenue drops in the subsequent years as compared to the first five years, but remains slightly higher than current collections. For a detailed chart on revenue projections by facility type, see Table 3 at the end of this memo.

Section 7 of the PCS authorizes cities and counties to levy a surcharge on existing fees for use of waste disposal facilities provided by them on other cities and counties located within the State that use the disposal facilities. It also authorizes cities and counties imposing such a surcharge to use the funds that accrue in excess of the amount needed to operate the landfill for other purposes. In addition, the PCS authorizes cities and counties to include such a surcharge on other local governments' waste as part of a franchise agreement entered into with a private landfill owner or operator.

The fiscal impact of this section on the revenue of local governments is unknown because the number of cities and counties that may impose such a surcharge is unknown as is the amount of the surcharge.

Section 8 of the PCS requires applicants for a permit for a sanitary landfill who received funds as reimbursement in accordance with subsections (a) through (g) of Section 3 of S.L. 2007-543 to repay 80% of the funds received as reimbursement to the Secretary of Revenue before a permit may be issued to construct a sanitary landfill on the property which was the subject of a permit application for which funds were received.

The total amount paid out as reimbursement was $4,113,095. The maximum amount that may be paid back is $3,290,476. The actual amount to be paid back depends on whether the facility decides to seek another permit which is unknown at this time. Funds that are paid back will be distributed in accordance with the use of the Solid Waste Disposal Tax proceeds as follows:

1. 50% to the Inactive Hazardous Sites Cleanup Fund
2. 37.5% to cities and counties on a per capita basis, and

3. 12.5% to the Solid Waste Management Trust Fund.

BILL ANALYSIS: Section 1 of the bill increases the education and experience requirements for licensure as a nursing home administrator. As amended, the law will now require a person seeking licensure as nursing home administrator to obtain a bachelor's degree, or an associate's degree in nursing plus 5 years' experience as a director of nursing for 5 of the previous 6 years.

In addition to the new educational requirements, an applicant must also pass the national and State examinations designed to test for competency in services provided by nursing homes, laws governing nursing homes, protection of patients' interests, and nursing home administration.

Section 2 of the bill increases licensure fees.

- Fees for applicants for examination or for an administrator in training program go from $100 to $500. Persons seeking a reciprocity endorsement under 90-287 shall also pay a $500 fee.
- Fees for licensure and licensure renewal (biennial) increase from $500 to $1,000.
- Fees for obtaining a duplicate license of a verification of license increase from $25 to $100.
- Fees for placement on the inactive list (on which a licensee may be placed for up to 4 years) increase from $50 to $200 for each year.
- Fees for a temporary license are increased from $200 to $500.
- Fees for conducting and administering initial training and continuing education increase from $250 to $1,000. Fees for certifying a course submitted for review by another individual or agency wishing to offer a course increases from $100 to $100/hour and fees for certifying a course provider, from $2,000 to $4,000.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO REMOVE CERTAIN DESCRIBED PROPERTY FROM THE CORPORATE LIMITS OF THE CITY OF SHELBY.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. The following described property is removed from the corporate limits of the City of Shelby:

Parcel #60180, being all of 56.381 acre tract on plat book 31, page 184 of the Cleveland County Registry and reference is hereby made to said plat for a full metes and bounds description as if fully set out therein.

SECTION 2. Section 1 of this act shall have no effect upon the validity of any liens of the City of Shelby for ad valorem taxes or special assessments outstanding before the effective date of this act. Such liens may be collected or foreclosed upon after the effective date of this act as though the property was still within the corporate limits of the City of Shelby.

SECTION 3. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the City of Shelby may exercise the powers of extraterritorial jurisdiction, as provided in Article 19 of Chapter 160A of the General Statutes, within the property area described in Section 1 of this act.

SECTION 4. If the property described in Section 1 of this act is not developed by June 30, 2016, for the purpose of operating a public school including a charter school, Pinnacle Classical Academy, Section 1 of this act is repealed effective June 30, 2016, and the property described in Section 1 of this act shall be added back to the corporate limits of the City of Shelby, effective July 1, 2016.

SECTION 5. This act is effective when it becomes law.

HOUSE BILL 409:
Shelby Deannexation

2013-2014 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Finance	Date:	June 24, 2013
Introduced by:	Rep. T. Moore	Prepared by:	Judy Collier
Analysis of:	Second Edition		Research Assistant

SUMMARY: House Bill 409 would deannex an approximately 56.381-acre tract from the corporate limits of the City of Shelby.

CURRENT LAW: Under Section 1 of Article VII of the NC Constitution, the General Assembly is empowered to "provide for the organization and government and the fixing of boundaries of counties, cities and towns, and other governmental subdivisions, and, except as otherwise prohibited by this Constitution, may give such powers and duties to counties, cities and towns, and other governmental subdivisions as it may deem advisable."

Pursuant to this Section, the General Assembly enacted Article 4A of Chapter 160A of the General Statutes, which governs municipal annexations. The General Assembly has not enacted any method for municipalities to deannex property — that power remains with the General Assembly.

BILL ANALYSIS: House Bill 409 would do all of the following:

- Deannex Parcel #60180, being approximately 56.381 acres, from the corporate limits of the City of Shelby.
- Specify that the City of Shelby may exercise ETJ powers in the area being deannexed.
- Specify that if the property being deannexed is not developed for the purpose of operating a public school, Pinnacle Classical Academy, by June 30, 2016, then the property is annexed back into the corporate limits of Shelby, effective July 1, 2016.

EFFECTIVE DATE: Effective when it becomes law.

BACKGROUND: S.L. 2013-7, enacted March 7, 2013, permits the County of Cleveland to convey by gift, by private negotiation and sale, or by lease for a term of more than 10 years, the same property to Pinnacle Classical Academy, for the purpose of operating a public school, including a charter school. Cleveland County may require the property be returned to Cleveland County if the property ceases to be used for public school purposes.

Counsel to House Government Committee and staff to House Finance Committee, substantially contributed to this summary.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT AUTHORIZING BUNCOMBE COUNTY TO USE SOME LOTTERY FUNDS TO EXPAND DIGITAL LEARNING IN THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

Whereas, the North Carolina Education Lottery legislation requires the distribution of lottery net proceeds for specific education purposes, including forty percent (40%) of the net proceeds to the Public School Building Capital Fund for school construction; and

Whereas, lottery funds may not currently be used for school connectivity, digital textbooks, digital devices, or professional development for teachers to learn how to most effectively use digital learning for teaching; and

Whereas, since the lottery's enactment in 2005, the innovation of digital learning and its growing use throughout schools in North Carolina have significantly altered the landscape of public education in the State; and

Whereas, while the lottery money is currently designated for other necessary education causes, the expansion of digital learning is also a crucial component to ensure North Carolina's students graduate from high school globally competitive for work and postsecondary education and prepared for life in the 21st Century; and

Whereas, Buncombe County has designated one-half of the local government sales and use tax revenue distributed to the County under Article 39 of Chapter 105 to be used for school construction, improvement, and renovation; and

Whereas, Buncombe County currently has lottery funds on hand that are not needed for the purposes to which they are limited; Now, therefore,

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 115C-546.2(d) reads as rewritten:

"(d) Monies transferred into the Fund in accordance with Chapter 18C of the General Statutes shall be allocated for capital projects for school construction projects as follows:

(1) A sum equal to sixty-five percent (65%) of those monies transferred in accordance with G.S. 18C-164 shall be allocated on a per average daily membership basis according to the average daily membership for the budget year as determined and certified by the State Board of Education.

(2) A sum equal to thirty-five percent (35%) of those monies transferred in accordance with G.S. 18C-164 shall be allocated to those local school administrative units located in whole or part in counties in which the effective county tax rate as a percentage of the State average effective tax rate is greater than one hundred percent (100%), with the following definitions applying to this subdivision:

a. "Effective county tax rate" means the actual county rate for the previous fiscal year, including any countywide supplemental taxes levied for the benefit of public schools, multiplied by a three-year weighted average of the most recent annual sales assessment ratio studies.

b. "State average effective tax rate" means the average effective county tax rates for all counties.

c. "Sales assessment ratio studies" means sales assessment ratio studies performed by the Department of Revenue under G.S. 105-289(h).

(3) No county shall have to provide matching funds required under subsection (c) of this section.

(4) A county may use monies in this Fund to pay for school construction projects in local school administrative units and to retire indebtedness incurred for school construction projects.

(5) ~~A county may not use monies in this Fund to pay for school technology needs.~~A county may use monies in this Fund for digital learning needs such as school connectivity, digital textbooks and instructional resources, digital devices, and associated ongoing professional development for teachers."

SECTION 2. This act applies only to Buncombe County.

SECTION 3. This act is effective when it becomes law and applies only to unencumbered funds received by the County prior to that date.

Buncombe Cty Sales Tax Use Expansion

Committee:	Senate Finance	Date:	June 25, 2013
Introduced by:	Reps. Ramsey, Moffitt	Prepared by:	Susan Sitze Staff Attorney
Analysis of:	PCS to First Edition H334-CSSA-57

SUMMARY: The proposed committee substitute to House Bill 334 would authorize Buncombe County to use some lottery funds to expand digital learning in the public schools.

CURRENT LAW: Net revenues from the lottery are distributed pursuant to G.S. 18C-164, which requires 40% of the net revenues, after a 5% designation to the Education Lottery Reserve Fund, to be distributed to the Public School Building Capital Fund, which is distributed pursuant to G.S. 115C-546.2. The lottery funds are distributed pursuant to a formula set out in G.S. 115C-546.2 and are restricted for use in school construction projects and to retire indebtedness incurred for school construction projects. Current law specifically prohibits the use of these funds for school technology needs.

BILL ANALYSIS: The proposed committee substitute for House Bill 334 would authorize Buncombe County to use the funds from the lottery for digital learning needs such as school connectivity, digital textbooks and instructional resources, digital devices, and associate ongoing professional development for teachers. The bill limits this use to only the unencumbered funds received by the County prior to the effective date of the act.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act is effective when it becomes law and applies only to unencumbered funds received by the County prior to that date.

BILL SUMMARY: In 1983, the General Assembly passed S.L. 1983-534 and S.L. 1983-134. This legislation created the Buncombe School Capital Fund Commission. In addition to the amount of sales tax revenue that counties must allocate to public school capital outlay purposes, the Buncombe School Capital Fund Commission (Commission) allocates 50% of Article 39 (1-cent local tax) to public school capital outlay, school construction. This bill provides flexibility in how the funds received by the Commission can be used.

ASSUMPTIONS AND METHODOLOGY:
All counties must allocate 25% of their local sales tax revenue to school construction. G.S. 105-462 and G.S. 105-502 mandate that counties allocate 40% of Article 40 (1/2-cent local tax) and 60% of Article 42 (1/2-cent local tax) to public school capital outlay purposes. In addition to the funds mandated by statute, Buncombe County Schools and Asheville City Schools receive an allocation of sales tax revenue because of the local legislation.

Buncombe County's contribution to capital outlay exceeds the state mandate—50% of Article 39 represents 25% of the county's total sales tax revenue. The 50% allocation of Article 39 to capital outlay purposes occurs before the ad-valorem sales tax distribution to the counties contained special property tax districts. The Buncombe School Capital Fund also receives 50% of all sales tax revenue allocated to Buncombe County. For fiscal year 2011-12, the Buncombe County Capital Fund received $12.7 million.

The Commission divides the money between Buncombe County Schools and Asheville City Schools according to school enrollment/ADM (average daily membership). Table 1 highlights the total revenue received as a result of this additional allocation.

HOUSE BILL 418:
Buncombe Culture & Rec. Authority

2013-2014 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Finance	Date:	June 24, 2013
Introduced by:	Reps. Ramsey, Moffitt	Prepared by:	R. Erika Churchill Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	PCS to Fourth Edition H418-CSSTx-79

SUMMARY: The Proposed Committee Substitute for House Bill 418 would authorize Buncombe County to levy an additional property tax of up to 7¢/$100 and dedicate the funds for cultural and recreational purposes and to establish a Culture and Recreation Authority to manage those funds.

CURRENT LAW: G.S. 153A-149 sets out the scope of a county's authority to levy a property tax. A county may also levy a property tax for any authorized purpose with an approving vote of the people. Any property tax authorized by a vote of the people is not counted toward the rate limitation.

No Rate Restriction. – Each county may levy property taxes without restriction as to rate or amount for the following purposes:

- courts
- debt service
- deficits
- elections
- jails
- joint undertakings
- schools
- social services

Rate Restriction. – A county may levy property taxes up to a combined rate of $1.50 on the $100.00 appraised value of property subject to taxation for approximately 50 named purposes, including libraries, parks and recreation, and open space.

BILL ANALYSIS: The Proposed Committee Substitute for House Bill 418 provides for the establishment of a Culture and Recreation Authority to manage and operate libraries, parks, greenways, recreation facilities, or cultural organizations in Buncombe County. The bill further provides a dedicated source of funding for the Authority by authorizing license and regulatory fees as well as an additional property tax of 7¢/$100. Under current law, the county already has authority to levy this additional property tax for this purpose, but this bill specifically directs a separate levy, dedicates the use, and establishes a separate entity to manage the funds.

Creation of Authority. – The Authority may be created by Buncombe County. At least one member must be a member of the board of commissioners. The Authority would be created by ordinance and consist of seven members appointed by the Board of Commissioners.

Upon creation the County of Buncombe may assign employees to the Authority, who become employees of the Authority and no longer subject to the Buncombe County Personnel Ordinance.

Purpose. – The purpose of the Authority is to manage or operate libraries, parks, greenways, recreation facilities, or cultural organizations.

Interest in Property. – The county may dedicate, sell, convey, donate, or lease any of its interest in any property to the Authority under any terms established by the county. Once an asset is conveyed to the Authority, it may not be removed from the Authority's management or control without the approval of a majority of the members of the governing boards of the county.

Powers. – The powers of the Authority are set out in Section 3 of the PCS and include:

- Make rules and regulations for its organization and internal management.
- Employ persons necessary to carry out functions and duties assigned to them by the Authority and to fix their compensation within the limit of available funds.
- To use officers, employees, agents, and facilities of the county on such basis as may be agreed upon.
- Appoint a full-time Director to serve at its pleasure. The Director is responsible to the Authority for the administration of all departments within the Authority. The Director shall appoint, suspend, or remove all Authority employees. The Director shall make his or her appointments, suspensions, and removals in accordance with any general personnel rules, regulations, policies, or ordinances that the Authority may adopt.
- Acquire, maintain, and operate any buildings, structures, and facilities as may be necessary or convenient for the operations of the Authority.
- Establish rules governing the use of the cultural and recreational facilities under the jurisdiction of the Authority.
- Enter into contracts and leases for facilities and services.
- Acquire and dispose of real and personal property under the jurisdiction of the Authority with the approval of the county.
- Allocate funds for repairs, renovations, and improvements of real and personal property under the jurisdiction of the Authority.
- Solicit financial and material support from public and private sources and receive public and private donations, appropriations, and grants.
- Prepare and submit an annual budget, subject to adoption by the county.
- Make recommendations and an annual report to the county concerning the operation of the Authority and the status of cultural and recreational programs under the jurisdiction of the Authority.
- Make plans, surveys, and studies of libraries, parks, greenways, recreational facilities, and cultural organizations under the jurisdiction of the Authority and to prepare and make recommendations to the county in regard thereto.

Funding. – Funding for the Authority may come from any of the following sources:

- Funds appropriated by participating units.
- License and regulatory fees established by the Authority and approved by the county.
- A separately levied county-wide property tax of up to 7¢ on the $100 valuation of property, the proceeds of which must be maintained in a separate fund to be used only for cultural and recreational purposes. The Authority itself would have no authority to levy a tax, no powers of eminent domain, or be eligible to receive sales and use tax proceeds allocated to counties.

Fiscal Accountability. – The Authority would be fiscally accountable to the county, which would have authority to examine records and accounts of the Authority at any time.

Termination. – The Authority may be terminated at any time by a majority vote of the county. In the event of termination, all property and assets of the Authority that were conveyed to the Authority automatically become the property of the county. The county shall succeed to all other rights, obligations, and liabilities of the Authority.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act is effective when it becomes law.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO ALLOW CAMDEN COUNTY TO COLLECT DELINQUENT STORMWATER UTILITY FEES IN THE SAME MANNER AS DELINQUENT PERSONAL AND REAL PROPERTY TAXES.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Section 1(c) of S.L. 2012-55 reads as rewritten:

"SECTION 1.(c) This section applies only to the Counties of Camden, Granville and Person."

SECTION 2. This act is effective when it becomes law.

HOUSE BILL 404:
Camden Local Stormwater Fees

2013-2014 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Finance	Date:	June 24, 2013
Introduced by:	Rep. Steinburg	Prepared by:	Judy Collier
Analysis of:	First Edition		Research Assistant

SUMMARY: House Bill 404 would authorize Camden County to bill stormwater utility fees in the same manner as property taxes, and in the case of nonpayment, to collect stormwater utility fees in the same manner as property taxes.

CURRENT LAW: Cities and counties may operate a stormwater management program as a public enterprise, and may establish a schedule of fees for the services furnished by the program. A county or city may collect delinquent fees by any remedy provided by law for collecting and enforcing private debts. As a general rule, fees for enterprise services cannot be a lien upon the property served by the enterprise service. In 1991, the General Assembly provided an exception to this rule for fees imposed for solid waste collection and disposal services when it allowed cities and counties to collect the fees for this service in the same manner as property taxes. Delinquent property taxes may be collected using any one or more of the remedies provided in G.S. 105-366 through G.S. 105-375:

- Levy upon and sell or attach personal property.
- Attachment and garnishment of wages and other compensation, rents, bank deposits, the proceeds of property subject to levy, or any other intangible property.
- Foreclosure of real property.

BILL ANALYSIS: House Bill 404 would authorize Camden County to adopt an ordinance providing that stormwater management fees (1) may be billed with property taxes, (2) may be payable in the same manner as property taxes, and (3) in the case of nonpayment, may be collected in the same manner as delinquent property taxes. If an ordinance states that delinquent fees can be collected in the same manner as delinquent real property taxes, the fees are a lien on the real property described on the bill that includes the fee.

BACKGROUND: By local acts, the General Assembly has already authorized Granville and Person Counties, the Towns of Butner, and Stem, the Cities of Creedmoor, Durham, Winston-Salem, Garner, Knightdale, Morrisville, Wendell, and Zebulon, and the Village of Clemmons, to collect delinquent stormwater management fees in the same manner as property taxes. S.L. 2005-441, S.L. 2011-109, S.L. 2012-55.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act is effective when it becomes law.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO EXEMPT COMPENSATION PAID TO AN H-2A AGRICULTURAL WORKER FROM STATE INCOME TAX WITHHOLDING TO THE EXTENT THE COMPENSATION IS EXEMPT FROM FEDERAL INCOME TAX WITHHOLDING.

SECTION 1. G.S. 105-163.3(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Exemptions. – The withholding requirement does not apply to the following:

(1) Compensation that is subject to the withholding requirement of G.S. 105-163.2.

(3) Compensation paid to an entity exempt from tax under G.S. 105-130.11.

SECTION 2. This act is effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2014.

SENATE BILL 640:
No Income Tax Withholding on H2A Workers

2013-2014 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Finance	Date:	June 24, 2013
Introduced by:	Sens. Jackson, Brock	Prepared by:	Cindy Avrette Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	First Edition

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 640 would exempt employers of H-2A agricultural workers from withholding State income tax on compensation paid to those workers to the same extent employers are exempt from withholding federal income taxes on the compensation.

CURRENT LAW: Section 1441 of the Internal Revenue Code, and the regulations created under it, governs the withholding of tax on nonresident aliens. The usual 30% withholding requirements with respect to U.S. source personal service income paid to a nonresident alien does not apply in the case of compensation paid to a nonresident alien H-2A agricultural worker.[1] An employer may withhold federal income tax only if both the H-2A agricultural worker and the employer agree to withhold.

Beginning in calendar year 2011, an employer must report compensation of $600 or more paid to an H-2A agricultural worker on Form W-2, but the employer is not required to withhold federal taxes on the compensation unless the worker fails to provide the employer with either a Social Security Number (SSN) or an Individual Taxpayer Identification Number (ITIN). In the case of an H-2A worker who fails to provide a SSN or ITIN, the employer must withhold and remit 28% of the compensation and continue withholding this amount until the worker furnishes the employer the SSN or ITIN.

BILL ANALYSIS: Senate Bill 640 provides that an employer does not have to withhold State income tax on compensation paid to an alien if the employer is not required to withhold federal income tax on that compensation.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The bill becomes effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2014.

BACKGROUND: The H-2A program allows U.S. employers to bring foreign nationals to the United States to fill temporary agricultural jobs. To qualify for H-2A classification, an employer must petition the U.S. Department of Labor on behalf of the worker. The petition must show all of the following: the job is temporary or seasonal in nature, there are not sufficient U.S. workers who are able, willing, qualified, and available to do the temporary work, and the employment of the H-2A worker will not adversely affect the wages and working conditions of similarly employed U.S. workers. The maximum period of stay in H-2A classification is three years. Generally, the stay is for the period of time authorized on the temporary labor certification, but this time may be extended for qualifying employment in increments of up to one year. An H-2A worker's spouse and unmarried children under 21 years of age may seek admission in H-4 classification. Family members are not eligible for employment in the U.S. while in H-4 status.

[1] This compensation is also exempt from U. S. Social Security and Medicare taxes.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO PROVIDE FOR FAIR AND OPEN COMPETITION IN GOVERNMENTAL CONSTRUCTION CONTRACTS AND TO PROHIBIT REQUIREMENTS FOR CERTAIN TERMS IN GOVERNMENT CONTRACTS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Article 8 of Chapter 143 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read as follows:

"§ 143-133.5. Public contracts; labor organizations.

(a) It is the intent of the General Assembly that the provisions of this section will provide for more economical, nondiscriminatory, neutral, and efficient procurement of construction-related services by the State and political subdivisions of the State as market participants. The General Assembly finds that providing for fair and open competition best effectuates this intent.

(b) Every officer, board, department, commission, or commissions charged with the responsibility of preparation of specifications or awarding or entering into contracts for the erection, construction, alteration, or repair of any buildings for the State, or for any county, municipality, or other public body subject to this Article shall not in any bid specifications, project agreements, or other controlling documents:

(1) Require or prohibit a bidder, offeror, contractor, or subcontractor from adhering to an agreement with one or more labor organizations in regard to that project or a related construction project.

(2) Otherwise discriminate against a bidder, offeror, contractor, or subcontractor for becoming, remaining, refusing to become or remain a signatory to, or for adhering or refusing to adhere to an agreement with one or more labor organizations in regard to that project or a related construction project.

(c) No officer, board, department, commission, or commissions charged with the responsibility of awarding grants or tax incentives, or any county, municipality, or other public body in the award of grants or tax incentives, may award a grant or tax incentive that is conditioned upon a requirement that the awardee include a term described in subsection (b) of this section in a contract document for any construction, improvement, maintenance, or renovation to real property or fixtures that are the subject of the grant or tax incentive.

(d) This section does not prohibit any officer, board, department, commission, or commissions or any county, municipality, or other public body from awarding a contract, grant, or tax incentive to a private owner, bidder, contractor, or subcontractor who enters into or who is party to an agreement with a labor organization if being or becoming a party or adhering to an agreement with a labor organization is not a condition for award of the contract, grant, or tax incentive, and if the State agent, employee, or board or the political subdivision does not discriminate against a private owner, bidder, contractor, or subcontractor in the awarding of that contract, grant, or tax incentive based upon the person's status as being or becoming, or the willingness or refusal to become, a party to an agreement with a labor organization.

(e) This section does not prohibit a contractor or subcontractor from voluntarily entering into or complying with an agreement entered into with one or more labor organizations in regard to a contract with the State or a political subdivision of the State or funded in whole or in part from a grant or tax incentive from the State or political subdivision.

(f) The State or the governing body of a political subdivision may exempt a particular project, contract, subcontract, grant, or tax incentive from the requirements of any or all of the provisions of subsection (b) or (c) of this section if the State or governing body of the political subdivision finds, after public notice and a hearing, that special circumstances require an exemption to avert a significant, documentable threat to public health or safety. A finding of special circumstances under this section shall not be based on the possibility or presence of a labor dispute concerning the use of contractors or subcontractors who are nonsignatories to, or otherwise do not adhere to, agreements with one or more labor organizations, or concerning employees on the project who are not members of or affiliated with a labor organization.

(g) This section does not do either of the following:

(1) Prohibit employers or other parties from entering into agreements or engaging in any other activity protected by the National Labor Relations Act, 29 U.S.C. §§ 151 to 169.

(2) Interfere with labor relations of parties that are left unregulated under the National Labor Relations Act, 29 U.S.C. §§ 151 to 169."

SECTION 2. This act becomes effective October 1, 2013, and applies to all contracts awarded on or after that date.

HOUSE BILL 110:
Public Contracts/Project Labor

2013-2014 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Finance	Date:	June 25, 2013
Introduced by:	Reps. Goodman, J. Bell, Moffitt, Murry	Prepared by:	Heather Fennell Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	Second Edition

SUMMARY: House Bill 110 would prohibit the State and its political subdivisions from requiring or prohibiting project labor agreements (PLAs) in government construction contracts or conditioning the award of grants or tax incentives on the existence or absence of PLAs.

[As introduced, this bill was identical to S611, as introduced by Sen. Brown, which is currently in Senate Commerce.]

CURRENT LAW: The State has not statutorily regulated the use of PLAs. The National Labor Relations Act (NLRA) permits the use of PLAs in construction contracts. Consequently, the State and its subdivisions may require that all contractors and subcontractors on any given government construction project be unionized. This requirement is usually effectuated through the use of a PLA. The PLA requires all contractors and subcontractors to adhere to its terms and typically includes provisions such as no-strike clauses, grievance procedures, and jurisdiction requirements for any dispute that may arise. Generally, a contractor must agree to the PLA in bid specifications.

BILL ANALYSIS: The PCS would prohibit the State and its political subdivisions from requiring or prohibiting PLAs in government construction contracts or conditioning the award of grants or tax incentives on the existence or absence of PLAs. An exception can be made if the State or governing body of the political subdivision determines, after holding a public hearing, that there is a significant threat to public health or safety if a PLA is not required. The finding of such a threat cannot be based on the potential existence of a labor dispute.

Contractors who choose to unilaterally enter into agreements with unions on a project are not prohibited from doing so.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The act is effective October 1, 2013, and applies to all contracts awarded on or after that date.

BACKGROUND: House Bill 110 is substantively identical to a Michigan statute — Michigan Public Act 238 of 2012 ("Public Act 238"). On November 15, 2012, the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan entered a preliminary injunction in Michigan Building v. Snyder (2011) ("Snyder II") enjoining the enforcement of Public Act 238 because the law is preempted by the NLRA. Defendant Snyder, the Governor of Michigan, has appealed the lower court's decision to the Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals.

The predecessor to Public Act 238, Michigan Public Act 98 of 2011 ("Public Act 98"), was permanently enjoined in Michigan Building v. Snyder (2012) ("Snyder I") by the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan in February 2012 because the law is preempted by the NLRA. An appeal is pending with the Sixth Circuit in this case as well.

Snyder I and II have been consolidated by the Sixth Circuit. The court is expected to rule on each case individually, but at the same time. The opinions will likely be released this summer.

Other states have enacted similar measures as Michigan, either through statute or Executive Order ("EO"): Arizona; Arkansas; Idaho; Iowa; Kansas; Louisiana; Maine; Missouri; Minnesota (subsequently repealed); Montana; South Carolina; Tennessee; Utah; and Virginia.

Aside from Michigan, the laws in Iowa, Idaho, and Louisiana have been challenged. All of these statutes ban PLAs in government construction contracts.

- The Louisiana case is still in the early stages of litigation.
- The United States District Court of Idaho held that the statute is preempted.[1]
- The United States District Court for the Southern District of Iowa granted the motion to dismiss the plaintiff's complaint challenging the Iowa statute banning government-mandated PLAs.[2]

On the federal level, the D.C. Circuit Court upheld an EO by president George W. Bush that forbid federal agencies and any entity receiving federal funds to require a PLA.[3]

Introduced by:	Reps. Hurley, McNeill	Prepared by:	Judy Collier
Analysis of:	PCS to First Edition H257-CSRE-2		Research Assistant

SUMMARY: House Bill 257 is a request of the State Treasurer's Office and would make technical changes to the administration of unclaimed property (i.e., escheated property):

The Proposed Committee Substitute (PCS) changes the general administration of the Escheat Fund to conform to the North Carolina Unclaimed Property Act and it changes the effective date.

CURRENT LAW: S.L. 2011-230 (House Bill 692 from 2011-2012 Session), Increase Payment of Unclaimed Property Claims, allowed data sharing to facilitate locating owners of unclaimed property between the Treasurer and Division of Motor Vehicles (DMV), Department of Revenue (DOR), and Employment Security Commission (ESC).

BILL ANALYSIS: Section 1 of House Bill 257 would prevent public disclosure of personal information gathered from DMV, DOR, and ESC through data sharing authorized by S.L. 2011-230. House Bill 257 authorizes the Treasurer to withhold information and limit disclosure to the names and last known addresses of apparent owners and holders of unclaimed property.

The PCS requires the State Treasurer to maintain the records it receives from holders who report unclaimed property in accordance with G.S. 116B-60. To protect the privacy of the owners of unclaimed property, the information that may be subject to public inspection will be limited to the information the State Treasurer is required to annually submit to the clerks of superior court in accordance with G.S. 116B-62.

G.S 116B-62 requires the Treasurer to annually prepare a list of reported escheated and abandoned property and further requires the Treasurer to deliver the list in electronic format to the Administrative Office of the Courts for distribution to the clerk of superior court of each county. The list shall contain all of the following:

(1) The names, if known, in alphabetical order of surname, and last known addresses, if any, of apparent owners of escheated and abandoned property as of June 30 of that year.

(2) The names and addresses of the holders of the abandoned property.

(3) A statement that claim and proof of legal entitlement to escheated or abandoned property shall be presented by the owner to the Treasurer, which statement shall set forth where further information may be obtained.

EFFECTIVE DATE: House Bill 257 is effective when it becomes law.

HOUSE BILL 340:
Limited Lines Travel Insurance

2013-2014 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Finance	Date:	June 25, 2013
Introduced by:	Rep. Dockham	Prepared by:	Heather Fennell Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	Third Edition

SUMMARY: House Bill 340 would authorize the Department of Insurance to regulate travel insurance producers. The bill would allow a licensed travel insurance producer to offer travel insurance through travel retailers, such as travel agents. The newly-regulated producers would pay a registration fee to the Department of Insurance.

CURRENT LAW: Travel insurance is currently not regulated by the Department of Insurance.

BILL ANALYSIS: House Bill 340 would add a new section, G.S. 58-33-19, that would authorize the Department of Insurance to regulate travel insurance providers.

New G.S. 58-33-19(a) defines travel insurance. Travel insurance does not include major medical plans that provide comprehensive medical protection for travelers with trips lasting 6 months or longer. Travel insurance is defined as insurance coverage for all of the following:

- Personal risks incident to planned travel including interruption or cancellation of trip or event.
- Loss of baggage or personal effects.
- Damages to accommodations or rental vehicles.
- Sickness, accident, disability, or death occurring during travel.

New G.S. 58-33-19(b) provides for the licensing of travel insurance producers and the sale of travel insurance by a producer through a licensed insurer. The producers would pay an application fee to the Department of Insurance.

New G.S. 58-33-19(c) requires the following information to be disclosed to purchasers including a description of material terms, the process for filing a claim, cancellation procedures, and contact information. Producers must also maintain a registry of each travel retailer; designate an employee as the person responsible for compliance with this section; pay all producer licensing fees; and require a travel retailer's representatives to receive instruction on the types of insurance offered, ethical sales practices, and required disclosures.

New G.S. 58-33-19(d) requires travel retailers to provide prospective customers written materials that include the insurer's and producer's contact information, an explanation that travel insurance is not required, and a disclaimer that the retailer is not qualified to answer technical questions.

New G.S. 58-33-19(e) prohibits a travel retailer's representative from evaluating or interpreting technical terms, benefits, and conditions of coverage, or from providing advice concerning a prospective purchaser's existing coverage. The representatives may not hold themselves out as a licensed insurer, licensed producer or insurance expert.

New G.S. 58-33-19(f) authorizes the producer to pay the travel retailer compensation.

New G.S. 58-33-19(g) states that travel insurance may be provided under an individual or group policy.

New G.S. 58-33-19(h) holds the producer responsible for the acts of the travel retailer.

New G.S. 58-33-19(i) holds producers and retailers subject to the provisions in Chapter 58 on unfair trade practices and subjects producers and retailers to the Department of Insurance's enforcement powers, including license revocation and possible civil or criminal penalties.

EFFECTIVE DATE: House Bill 340 would become effective January 1, 2014.

HOUSE BILL 343:
Courts/Procedure and Fee Amendments.-AB

2013-2014 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Finance	Date:	June 24, 2013
Introduced by:	Rep. Turner	Prepared by:	Cindy Avrette
Analysis of:	Third Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: House Bill 343 would eliminate arbitration caps in district court, make clarifications to court fees, amend the motion fee exemption, require counties and municipalities to advance fees, and provide priority for the payment of criminal costs and fees. The Administrative Office of the Courts requested this bill. The bill received a favorable report from the Senate Judiciary I Committee on May 30, 2013.

BILL ANALYSIS: House Bill 343 does the following:

Section 1 would amend the statute governing non-binding arbitration in civil actions in district court to allow arbitration on a claim of any amount. Currently, arbitration is only available for claims of $15,000 or less.

Section 2 would amend the statute governing general court costs in civil actions to clarify that the $1,000 for cases designated as complex business cases is to be paid by the party filing the notice of designation or motion for designation as a complex business case, or in the case of referral by the court on its own motion, by the plaintiff.

Section 3 would add third-party complaints to the statute currently requiring fees for counterclaims and cross-claims, and also makes the changes made to the fee in complex business cases in Section 2 by reference to that statute.

Section 4 modifies the General Court of Justice fee of $20 in civil actions, special proceedings and administration of estates to clarify that it is paid only on the filing of a notice of hearing on the motion and exempts motions to exempt property from a judgment from paying the fee. This section also exempts motions filed by a child support enforcement agency from the same fee in civil actions and the $15 fee for alias and pluries summons and endorsements on an original summons. The exemption of the child support enforcement agencies from fees is a codification of uncodified law enacted in 2011, and subsection (e) of Section 4 repeals that uncodified language.[1]

Section 5 requires counties and municipalities to pay all costs and fees when making a filing with the court. The clerk of superior court may allow 45 days for the costs and fees to be paid. If any costs or fees owed by the county or municipality are not paid within 90 days of the filing of the action, the clerk of superior court shall withhold all facilities fees due to the county or municipality.

Section 6 provides that changes to the disbursement priority of amounts collected in criminal matters that were enacted in 2012 apply to all amounts assessed or collected on or after the date this act becomes law, so that all amounts will be disbursed by the same priority order going forward.

[1] Section 18B.17 of SB 402, the Appropriations Act of 2013, also contains changes to these statutes. The changes do not conflict with each other.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 115D-58.15 reads as rewritten:

The tax-levying authority may in each fiscal year appropriate sufficient funds to meet the amounts to be paid during the fiscal year under the contract. The source of funds for lease purchase or installment purchase contracts for real property shall be local funds. If the source of funds for payment of the obligation by the community college is intended to be State funds, the contract must be approved by resolution of the State Board of Community Colleges. The State Board may in each fiscal year allocate sufficient funds to meet the amounts to be paid during the fiscal year under the contract.

(c) Local Government Commission. – A contract that is subject to approval by the tax-levying authority also shall be subject to approval by the Local Government Commission as provided in Article 8 of Chapter 159 of the General Statutes if the contract:

(2) Obligates the board of trustees to pay sums of money to another, regardless of whether the payee is a party to the contract; and

HOUSE BILL 754:
Lease Purchase of Real Property/Comm. Coll

2013-2014 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Finance	Date:	June 24, 2013
Introduced by:	Reps. Johnson, Starnes	Prepared by:	Cindy Avrette
Analysis of:	Second Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: House Bill 754 would authorize community colleges to acquire real property by lease purchase. The bill is identical to Section 10.11 of SB 402 (the Appropriations Act of 2013) as passed by the Senate. SB 402, as passed by the House, did not contain a similar provision.

The effective date of the bill needs to be amended.

CURRENT LAW: Boards of trustees of community colleges may use lease purchase or installment purchase contracts to buy or finance the purchase of equipment using either State funds or local funds. For a contract that is (i) is for more than $100,000 or is for term of more than three years and (ii) is to be paid with from State funds, the contract must be approved by resolution of the State Board of Community Colleges (SBCC).

For a contract that (i) is for more than $100,000 or is for term of more than three years and (ii) is to be paid with from local funds, the contract must be approved by resolution of the tax-levying authority. The tax-levying authority must acknowledge in writing that an appropriation may be required to meet the obligations of the contract.

The Local Government Commission must also approve a contract that must be approved by a tax-levying authority if the contract: (i) extends for five or more years from the date of the contract; (ii) obligates the board of trustees to pay money to another, regardless of whether the payee is a party to the contract; and (iii) obligates the board of trustees to pay $500,000 or more over the full term of the contract.

Deficiency judgments cannot be rendered against any board of trustees, any tax-levying authority, the SBCC or the State of North Carolina in any action for a breach of a lease purchase or installment purchase contract. The taxing power of a tax-levying authority and the State is not and may not be pledged directly or indirectly to secure any funds due under a lease purchase or installment purchase contract.

BILL ANALYSIS: HB 754 would authorize the board of trustees of a community college to use local funds for lease purchase or installment purchase contracts to buy real property. All other aspects of the current law would remain in place, including the requirement for a resolution from the tax-levying authority for contracts using local funds that are more than $100,000 or for more than 3 years, and approval by the Local Government Commission if the criteria set out above are met.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The bill would become effective July 1, 2013.

EFFECTIVE DATE July 1, 2013 for Section 4. January 1, 2014 for Section 2. The remainder when it becomes law.

TECHNICAL CONSIDERATIONS:
None

FISCAL SUMMARY:

The Fiscal Research Division (FRD) expects that the changes in this bill would lead to an insignificant loss of revenue for the State. FRD cannot estimate that amount at this time.

BILL SUMMARY:

Section 1 of this bill amends existing G.S. 7A-37.1(c) to allow non-binding arbitration on a civil claim of any amount in district court. Currently, arbitration is only available for claims of amounts of $15,000 or less.

Section 2 amends existing G.S. 7A-305(a)(2) to clarify that the payment of the $1,000 fee for the designation of a complex business case will be paid by the party requesting the designation and is due upon assignment. If no party files a notice of designation and the judge recommends the designation ex mero motu, the plaintiff is responsible for payment of the $1,000 fee. Section 2 of this bill has an effective date of January 1, 2014 and applies to all pleadings and motions filed on or after that date.

Section 3 amends existing G.S. 7A-305(a5) to clarify that the civil fee in this section apply to any civil action in the superior or district court wherein a party files a pleading containing one or more third party complaints. The fee already applies to pleadings containing counterclaims and cross-claims. This section also clarifies that the business court fee shall be collected in accordance with G.S. 7A-305(a).

Section 4 amends multiple sections within Chapter 7A to exempt motions to exempt property from a judgment from paying the General Court of Justice fee of $20 in civil actions, special proceedings and administration of estates. This section also exempts motions filed by a child support enforcement agency from the same fee in civil actions and the $15 fee for alias and pluries summons and endorsements on an original summons. The exemption of the child support enforcement agencies from fees is a codification of uncodified law enacted in 2011, and subsection (e) of Section 4 repeals that uncodified language. Section 4 has an effective date of July 1, 2013 and applies to pleadings filed on or after that date.

Section 5 amends subsection (a) of existing G.S. 7A-317, Counties and municipalities not required to advance certain fees, by requiring the payment of all costs and fees due to the court at the time of filing. It provides that the clerk of superior court may consent to allow the county or municipality to pay within 45 days of the date of the filing of any action. New subsection (b) directs the clerk of superior court to withhold all facilities fees due to be remitted to a county or municipality when the county or municipality does not pay costs and fees due to the court within 90 days of the date of the filing of any action.

Section 6 provides that changes to the disbursement priority of amounts collected in criminal matters that were enacted in 2012 apply to all amounts assessed or collected on or after the date this bill becomes law, so that all amounts will be disbursed by the same priority order going forward.

Sections 1, 3, 5, and 6 are effective when the bill becomes law and applies to actions filed and to amounts assessed or collected on or after that date.

ASSUMPTIONS AND METHODOLOGY:

The Fiscal Research Division (FRD) expects that the changes in Section 4 of this bill would lead to a small loss of revenue for the State. FRD cannot estimate that amount at this time.

The Administrative Office of the Courts (AOC) estimates that Sections 1, 2, 3, and 5 of this bill would not have a fiscal impact on the court system.

AOC cannot estimate the fiscal impact of Section 4, which provides an exemption for motions to exempt property from a judgment from the $20 motions fee. AOC states that this change may cause a decrease in the number of these motions fees that are collected by the courts, but the agency cannot determine how many of the currently collected motion fees are assessed for this specific reason. AOC does not anticipate that the exemption of the fee for actions filed by a child support enforcement agency would have a fiscal impact because this change codifies an existing exemption that was created in 2011.

AOC anticipates that the changes from Section 6 would be cost-neutral to the courts. Section 6 would streamline AOC's financial systems and disbursement priority procedures.

HOUSE BILL 362:
Dept. of Public Safety Changes.-AB

2013-2014 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Finance	Date:	June 25, 2013
Introduced by:	Rep. Faircloth	Prepared by:	Heather Fennell Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	PCS to Third Edition H362-CSTD-32

SUMMARY: The Proposed Committee Substitute for House Bill 362 makes a number of conforming changes to reflect the 2011 consolidation and reorganization of the Department of Public Safety.

The PCS adds a new section to authorize engineers with the Department of Public Safety to evaluate electric devices for use in the Department of Adult Correction.

BILL ANALYSIS: The Current Operations and Capital Improvements Appropriations Act of 2011 (Part XIX of S.L. 2011-145) consolidated the Department of Correction, the Department of Crime Control and Public Safety, and the Department of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention into the Department of Public Safety (DPS), effective January 1, 2012. The new agency consists of four divisions – Law Enforcement, Correction, Juvenile Justice, and Administration. The revised structure of DPS maintains the separation between the juvenile and adult systems while allowing coordination of administrative and facility management functions. House Bill 362 makes several conforming changes to reflect the recent consolidation.

Section 1 would clarify that the Department's Engineering Section and the Inmate Construction Program have authority to perform any construction or renovation project for the Department, not just the Division of Adult Correction.

Section 2 would repeal the detailed language creating the various divisions and offices of the Department, allowing the Secretary the authority to organize the Department, consistent with other departmental statutes.

Section 3 is conforming language. The responsibility for federal and State liaison activities, victim services, the Victim Services Warehouse, and the storage and management of evidence is currently assigned in statute to the Office of External Affairs. After the consolidation, this Office is no longer in existence. Therefore, Section 3 assigns responsibility for its role directly to the Secretary.

Section 4 repeals G.S. 143B-710, which reads as follows:

> "§ 143B-710. Division of Adult Correction of the Department of Public Safety – head.
> The Secretary of Public Safety shall appoint a chief deputy secretary to be the head of the Division."

Under the revised organization of the Department, the head of the Adult Correction Division is named a Commissioner.

Section 5 would change the terminology regarding the head of the Division of Juvenile Justice from Chief Deputy Secretary to Commissioner.

Section 6 expands the markets to which Correction Enterprises may sell. It would allow Correction Enterprises to sell to any non-profit, not just those who receive governmental grant funds, and also to private contractors exclusively for projects performed for the State. For example, Correction Enterprises manufactures the paint that is used on roads for lane marking, but cannot sell it to a private road construction contractor. This would allow contractor to purchase the inmate-produced paint for state road construction projects. The revised PCS adds a prohibition against resale by nonprofits and limits private contractors to purchasing goods to be used to perform work under a contract only with public agencies (the previous PCS also included nonprofits).

Sections 7 and 8 eliminate the $25,000 benchmark ceiling for purposes of requiring review of agency contracts by the Division of Purchase and Contract. The existing method for setting benchmarks in G.S. 143-53(a)(2) will still apply to agencies seeking a different benchmark, but there would no longer be a $25,000 ceiling. Upon written request of an agency to raise the benchmark for that agency, the Division of Purchase and Contract will consider the agency's overall capabilities, including staff resources, purchasing compliance reviews, and audit reports and make a determination that promotes compliance with principles of procurement efficiency, transparency, and fair competition.

Section 9 adds a new subsection to G.S. 20-185 requiring an applicant for a trooper position in the Highway Patrol to be at least 21 and not more than 39, and establishes a mandatory retirement age of 62.

Section 10 would permit the Commissioner of the Law Enforcement Division of the Department of Public Safety to supervise members of the Highway Patrol. Under current law, the only people who may hold a supervisory position over sworn law enforcement officers are the Governor, the Secretary, or a uniformed member of the Highway Patrol who has completed Patrol school. Currently, the Commissioner of the Law Enforcement Division has not completed Patrol school, though he previously worked for the FBI. Therefore, Highway Patrol officers may not report directly to him. The change would allow the Commissioner to supervise those individuals.

Section 11 would authorize engineers with the Department of Public Safety to evaluate electric devices, appliance, and equipment used by the Department of Adult Correction for safety and suitability purposes. Generally electric devices purchased by the State must be evaluated by a qualified testing lab. Equipment used by the Department in adult correctional facilities is modified prior to delivery to prevent inmate tampering. The modifications void the testing certification by the qualified testing labs.

BILL SUMMARY:

H371 adds a section to Article 8 of Chapter 90 of the General Statutes. The legislation creates a definition for the term "chiropractic clinical assistant". A chiropractic clinical assistant is a non-licensed employee whose duties include:

1. Collecting general health data, such as the taking of an oral history or vital sign measurements
2. Applying therapeutic procedures, such as thermal, sound, light and electrical modalities, and hydrotherapy
3. Monitoring prescribed rehabilitative activities

Chiropractic clinical assistants may not provide a chiropractic adjustment, manual therapy, nutritional instruction, counseling, or any other therapeutic service that requires individual licensure.

The legislation lays out several requirements and proficiencies an applicant for chiropractic clinical assistant certification must meet. The bill gives the NC Board of Chiropractic Examiners the authority to develop the materials necessary to test and licensure applicants. The Board shall set the fee for the initial certification and renewal. The fee may not exceed $50.

ASSUMPTIONS AND METHODOLOGY:

Fiscal Research does not foresee any costs to the State as a result of this legislation. According to General Statute 90-156, all expenses of the Board shall be paid out of the revenues collected from licensure and renewal fees. All funds collected by the Board are held in a private bank account, which receives no money from the State. The legislation will increase the receipts of the Board due to the fees from chiropractic clinical assistant applications but the Board receives no appropriation so there will be no General Fund impact.

S.B. 485 – UNC/Report/E-Commerce Improvements

Senator Apodaca explained the bill and Senator Hise moved to adopt the PCS for discussion. The motion carried. The PCS would eliminate a duplicative reporting requirement regarding personal service contracts for The University of North Carolina and adds two unrelated provisions to the bill. First, it would allow the Board of Governors to implement and expand the use of electronic commerce infrastructure and capabilities among the constituent institutions. Second, it would provide a property tax exemption for improvements to real property that are owned by a university organization and located on land owned by one of the constituent institutions. Senator Tillman moved for a favorable report and the motion carried. A copy of the PCS and the summary is attached.

The meeting adjourned at 1:45 p.m.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO ALLOW A COUNTY FROM THE EASTERN REGION TO RECEIVE A DISBURSEMENT OF ITS SHARE OF THE MOTOR VEHICLE REGISTRATION TAX PROCEEDS AS WELL AS PAYMENTS MADE BY THE COUNTY IN LIEU OF TAXES.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 158-42 is amended by adding the following new subsection:

"(g) Disbursement of Tax Proceeds. – Upon receipt of a resolution adopted by a participating county's board of county commissioners, the Region shall disburse to the county its net share of tax proceeds placed in trust under this section. A participating county's net share of tax proceeds is the total amount in the trust fund attributable to that county less the total amount of outstanding loans from the Region to the county and less any amount attributable to an appropriation made to the Region by the General Assembly. If this calculation results in a negative amount, the county is not entitled to a disbursement under this subsection. Funds disbursed under this subsection may be used only for economic development purposes. For purposes of this subsection, "economic development purposes" includes the provision of land, buildings, facilities, programs, information and data systems, or infrastructure required to promote business or industry in the county. Upon acceptance of the disbursement, the county is removed from the Region."

SECTION 2. G.S. 158-41(a) is repealed.

SECTION 2.1. This act applies only to Craven County.

SECTION 3. This act becomes effective July 1, 2013.

HOUSE BILL 107:
Eastern Region/Disbursement of Funds

2013-2014 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Finance	Date:	June 26, 2013
Introduced by:	Rep. Speciale	Prepared by:	Heather Fennell Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	Third Edition

SUMMARY: House Bill 107 would eliminate a participating county's ability to withdraw from the Eastern Region but would permit a participating county to obtain the disbursement of its net share of the tax proceeds placed in trust that serves as a revolving loan fund for economic development.

CURRENT LAW: The North Carolina Eastern Region was authorized in 1993. The purpose is to promote the development of the North Carolina Global TransPark, and encourage economic development within the region by fostering or sponsoring development projects to provide land, buildings, facilities, programs, information and data systems, and infrastructure requirements for business and industry. Thirteen counties are permitted to create a special economic development district, known as the Eastern Region – Carteret, Craven, Duplin, Edgecombe, Greene, Jones, Lenoir, Nash, Onslow, Pamlico, Pitt, Wayne, and Wilson. G.S. 158-31. Currently, all 13 counties are participants.

The Eastern Region is governed by a Commission, appointed by the General Assembly and the participating boards of county commissioners. G.S. 158-35. In addition to other powers and duties, the Region has the power to levy a temporary annual motor vehicle registration tax. G.S. 158-37. The amount of the annual registration tax is $5.00, and is in addition to any other motor vehicle license or registration tax. G.S. 158-42. Currently, there is no temporary annual motor vehicle registration tax in place. Only one has been implemented, from July 1, 1994 through June 30, 1999.

Under G.S. 158-41, if a county were to withdraw from participation, that county would cease to participate while retaining its right to distributions of assets upon termination of the Eastern Region.

BILL ANALYSIS: House Bill 107 authorizes a participating county in the Eastern Region to seek a disbursement of its net share of the tax proceeds in trust, but it eliminates a county's ability to withdraw from the Region. In order to obtain the disbursement, a participating county must present the Region with a resolution adopted by its board of commissioners. The county's net share is the total amount in the trust fund attributable to that county less any outstanding loans between the Region and the county and less the amount of any appropriations made by the General Assembly. If this calculation were to result in a negative number, the county would not be entitled to any disbursement.[1] The funds that are disbursed must be used for "economic development purposes" which includes the provision of land, buildings, facilities, programs, information and data systems, or infrastructure required to promote business or industry in that county.

EFFECTIVE DATE: House Bill 107 would be effective July 1, 2013.

Erika Churchill, counsel to House Government, and Trina Griffin, counsel to House Finance, substantially contributed to this summary.

[1] Currently, 3 of the 13 participating counties have a negative amount in trust.

HOUSE BILL 529: Edgecombe County Occupancy Tax Authorization

2013-2014 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Finance	Date:	June 26, 2013
Introduced by:	Rep. Tolson	Prepared by:	Heather Fennell Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	First Edition

SUMMARY: House Bill 529 would authorize Edgecombe County to levy a room occupancy tax of up to 6%, the proceeds of which would be remitted to a Tourism Development Authority. The Authority would be required to use at least two-thirds of the proceeds to promote travel and tourism and the remainder for tourist-related expenditures. The Occupancy Tax Subcommittee gave this bill a favorable report at its meeting on June 18, 2013.

CURRENT LAW: Currently, Edgecombe County does not have the authority to levy a room occupancy tax.

BILL ANALYSIS: House Bill 529 would authorize Edgecombe County to levy a room occupancy tax of up to 6 percent. The County would be required to establish a Tourism Development Authority to administer the proceeds. The proceeds must be used as follows: at least two-thirds for tourism promotion and the remainder for tourism-related expenditures. The bill conforms to the Guidelines for Occupancy Tax adopted by the House Finance Committee.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act is effective when it becomes law.

BACKGROUND: In 1997, the General Assembly enacted uniform municipal and county administrative provisions for occupancy tax,[1] which provide uniformity among counties and cities with respect to the levy, administration, collection, repeal, and imposition of penalties.

In 1993, the House Finance Committee established the Occupancy Tax Guidelines, which address the rate of tax, the use of the tax proceeds, the administration of the tax, and the body with authority to determine how the proceeds will be spent. A summary of these provisions is detailed in the chart below.

UNIFORM OCCUPANCY TAX PROVISIONS
Rate – The county tax rate cannot exceed 6% and the city tax rate, when combined with the county rate, cannot exceed 6%.
Use – Two-thirds of the proceeds must be used to promote travel and tourism and the remainder must be used for tourism related expenditures.
Definitions The term "net proceeds", "promote travel and tourism", and "tourism related expenditures" are defined terms.
Administration – The net revenues must be administered by a local tourism development authority that has the authority to determine how the tax proceeds will be used, is created by a local ordinance, and at least 1/2 of the members must be currently active in the promotion of travel and tourism in the county and 1/3 of the members must be affiliated with organizations that collect the tax.
Costs of Collection – The taxing authority may retain from the revenues its actual costs of collection, not to exceed 3% of the first $500,000 collected each year plus 1% of the remainder collected each year.

BILL SUMMARY:

House Bill 529 would authorize Edgecombe County to levy a room occupancy tax of up to 6 percent. The County would be required to establish a Tourism Development Authority to administer the proceeds. The proceeds must be used as follows: at least two-thirds for tourism promotion and the remainder for tourism-related expenditures.

ASSUMPTIONS AND METHODOLOGY:

According to the North Carolina Department of Commerce, Edgecombe County had 4 businesses reporting under the NAICS Code 7211 – Traveler Accommodations – in 2012. Since there is no data as to the number of rooms available, we have assumed a range of rooms from 50 rooms per establishment to 100 rooms per establishment. The North Carolina Department of Commerce estimates that for 2012, the region of North Carolina that Edgecombe County is located in had a 59% room occupancy rate with a $75.00 average nightly rate.

The amount of occupancy tax revenue that Edgecombe County could expect to collect for FY2013-14 would range from $194,000 to $388,000, estimating between 200 and 400 eligible rooms in the county. The occupancy tax revenue range is reached by the following: (4 eligible locations * 50/100 rooms * 365 days * 59% room occupancy rate * $75 nightly rate * 6% occupancy tax rate). The leisure and hospitality portion of North Carolina's gross state product, as forecast by Moody's, was used in growing the estimate.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE TOBACCO GROWERS TO ASSESS THEMSELVES TO PROMOTE THE INTERESTS OF TOBACCO GROWERS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Chapter 106 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new Article to read:

"Article 50D.
"Tobacco Growers Assessment Act.

"§ 106-568.40. Title.

This Article shall be known as the "Tobacco Growers Assessment Act."

"§ 106-568.41. Purpose.

It is in the public interest for the State to enable growers of tobacco to assess themselves in order to raise funds to promote the interests of tobacco growers. This assessment shall be in addition to the assessment authorized by Article 50C of Chapter 106 of the General Statutes to promote export sales of tobacco and the assessment authorized by Article 50A of Chapter 106 of the General Statutes for tobacco research.

"§ 106-568.42. Definitions.

The following definitions apply in this Article:

(1) Association. – The Tobacco Growers Association of North Carolina, Inc., a North Carolina nonprofit corporation.

(2) Buyer. – Any person engaged in the business of buying tobacco from a producer of tobacco grown in North Carolina, including a broker, dealer, or agent of the buyer.

(3) Department. – The North Carolina Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services.

(4) Person. – An individual, a partnership, a firm, or a corporation.

(5) Tobacco. – Flue-cured tobacco.

(6) Tobacco grower. – A person who (i) is a North Carolina resident, (ii) owns, manages, or has a financial interest in tobacco production, and (iii) is actively involved in tobacco production.

"§ 106-568.43. Referendum.

(a) The Association may conduct among tobacco growers a referendum upon the question of whether an assessment shall be levied on tobacco sold in this State.

(b) The Association shall determine the amount of the proposed assessment and the date by which the referendum ballot must be returned by mail as provided in this section.

(c) The amount of the proposed assessment shall be stated on the referendum ballot. The amount may not exceed fifteen cents (15¢) for each hundred pounds of tobacco marketed in this State. If the assessment is approved in the referendum, the Association may set the assessment at an amount equal to or less than the amount stated on the ballot. If the Association sets a lower amount than the amount approved by referendum, it may increase the amount annually without a referendum by no more than one cent (1¢) for each hundred pounds of tobacco marketed. The increased rate may not exceed the amount approved by referendum and may not exceed the maximum allowable rate of fifteen cents (15¢) for each hundred pounds.

(d) The Association shall mail a referendum ballot to all known tobacco growers in the State for whom the Association has a current and valid mailing address at least three months prior to the date the ballot must be returned. Additionally, the Association must, for the greater of three months or 90 days before the date the ballot must be returned, (i) provide a printable referendum ballot on the Association's official Web site and (ii) make hard copies of the referendum ballot available at all county North Carolina Cooperative Extension Service offices. The ballots shall be returned to the Commissioner of Agriculture by the date set by the Association. The Department shall be responsible for counting the votes and reporting the results of the referendum to the Association.

(e) All tobacco growers may vote in the referendum. Any dispute over eligibility to vote or any other matter relating to the referendum shall be determined by the Association. The Association shall make reasonable efforts to provide tobacco growers with notice of the referendum and an opportunity to vote.

"§ 106-568.44. Payment and collection of assessment.

(a) The assessment shall not be collected unless more than two-thirds of the votes cast in the referendum are in favor of the assessment. If more than two-thirds of the votes cast in the referendum are in favor of the assessment, then the Association shall notify the Department of the amount of the assessment and the effective date of the assessment. The Department shall notify all tobacco buyers of the assessment.

(b) Each tobacco producer shall pay the assessment on all tobacco sold to a buyer.

(c) A buyer shall collect the assessment when buying tobacco by deducting the assessment from the price paid to the producer. The buyer shall remit collected assessments to the Department no later than the 10th day of the following month. The Department shall provide forms to buyers for reporting the assessment. If the total assessments collected by a buyer in a month are less than twenty-five dollars ($25.00), the buyer may keep the assessments until the total amount due is at least twenty-five dollars ($25.00) or the end of the calendar quarter, whichever comes first. All buyers shall file at least one report in each calendar quarter in which they purchase tobacco from a producer, regardless of the amount due.

(d) A buyer shall keep records of the amount of tobacco purchased and the date purchased. All information or records regarding purchases of tobacco by individual buyers shall be kept confidential by employees or agents of the Department and the Association and shall not be disclosed except by court order.

(e) The Association may bring an action to recover any unpaid assessments, plus the reasonable costs, including attorneys' fees, incurred in the action.

"§ 106-568.45. Use of assessments; refunds; annual audit.

(a) At least once per month, the Department shall remit all funds collected under this Article to the Association. The Association shall use the funds to promote the interests of tobacco growers. The Association shall prepare an annual report on the assessment funds collected and the use of assessment funds. The Association shall publicly post the annual report on its official Web site at least 30 days before the Association's annual meeting. Copies of the annual report shall be made available to growers at the Association's annual meeting, and a copy shall also be sent to the Commissioner of Agriculture.

(b) A tobacco grower may request a refund of the assessment collected under this Article by submitting a written request for a refund to the Association postmarked on or before December 31 of the same year. A refund request shall be accompanied by proof of payment of the assessment satisfactory to the Association. The Association shall mail a refund to the grower within 30 days of receipt of a properly documented refund request.

(c) The Association shall designate a third party to conduct an annual audit of the implementation of this Article. The Association shall also designate the time at which the audit may be conducted each year, provided that the results of the audit be available before or in conjunction with the annual report.

"§ 106-568.46. Termination of assessment.

Upon receipt of a petition signed by at least ten percent (10%) of the tobacco growers in North Carolina known to the Association, the Department shall notify the Association, and the Association shall, within six months, conduct a referendum upon the question of continuing the assessment. If a majority of the votes cast in the referendum are against continuing the assessment, or if the Association fails to conduct a referendum within the six-month period, the assessment expires at the end of the six-month period. If a majority of the votes cast in the referendum are in favor of continuing the assessment, then no subsequent referendum shall be held for at least three years."

HOUSE BILL 816:
Tobacco Growers Assessment Act

2013-2014 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Finance	Date:	June 26, 2013
Introduced by:	Rep. Langdon	Prepared by:	Heather Fennell
Analysis of:	Third Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: Bill 816 would authorize the Tobacco Growers Association of North Carolina, Inc., (Association) to conduct a referendum and to assess tobacco marketed in the State. The Association would use the funds to promote the interests of tobacco growers. The maximum assessment would be 15¢ for each 100 pounds of tobacco marketed in this State and would be in addition to existing assessments for export sales of tobacco (Article 50C of Chapter 106) and tobacco research (Article 50A of Chapter 106).

CURRENT LAW AND BILL ANALYSIS: Section 1 of the bill would authorize the Tobacco Growers Association of North Carolina, Inc., (Association) to conduct a referendum and to assess tobacco marketed in the State. The Association would use the funds to promote the interests of tobacco growers. A "tobacco grower" is defined as a North Carolina resident who owns, manages, or has a financial interest in tobacco production and who is actively involved in tobacco production. All tobacco growers may vote in the referendum.

The assessment would only be collected if two-thirds of the votes cast in the referendum are in favor of the assessment. The referendum would be conducted by mail, and the Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services (Department) would count the votes and report the results of the referendum. This assessment would operate in addition to the existing assessments authorized by Article 50A (10¢ per 100 pounds of tobacco marketed to provide funds for research and dissemination of research facts concerning tobacco) and Article 50C ($4 per acre per year on all flue-cured tobacco in the State for the promotion of the export trade of flue-cured tobacco) of Chapter 106 of the General Statutes. The amount of the assessment may not exceed 15¢ per 100 pounds of tobacco marketed in the State. If the Association sets a lower amount than the amount approved by referendum, the Association may increase the amount by no more than 1¢ annually without a referendum, but the increased rate may not exceed the amount approved by referendum.

If 10% of the tobacco growers in the State petition the Department to end the assessment, the Association must conduct another referendum within 6 months of the receipt of the petition to determine whether to continue the assessment. If a majority of the votes in the referendum are against the assessment, then the assessment expires at the end of the 6-month period. If a majority of votes in the referendum are in favor of continuing the assessment, another referendum cannot be held for at least 3 years.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act would be effective when it becomes law, and the Association would be permitted to conduct a referendum at any time after the effective date.

(1) From or with the use of any vehicle; vessel, other than one manually propelled; airplane; or other conveyance except that the use of vehicles and vessels is authorized:

a. As hunting stands, subject to the following limitations. No wild animal or wild bird may be taken from any vessel under sail, under power, or with the engine running or while still in motion from such propulsion. No wild animal or wild bird may be taken from any vehicle if it is in motion, the engine is running, or the passenger area of the vehicle is occupied. The prohibition of occupying the passenger area of a vehicle does not apply to a disabled individual whose mobility is restricted.

b. For transportation incidental to the taking.

(2) With the use or aid of any artificial light, net, trap, snare, electronic or recorded animal or bird call, or fire, except as may be otherwise provided by statute[;] provided, however, that the Wildlife Resources Commission may adopt rules prescribing seasons and the manner of taking of wild animals and wild birds with the use of artificial light and electronic calls. No wild birds may be taken with the use or aid of salt, grain, fruit, or other bait. Upon finding that the placement of processed food products in areas frequented by black bears is detrimental to the health of individual black bears or is attracting and holding black bears in an area to the extent that the natural pattern of movement and distribution of black bears is disrupted and bears' vulnerability to mortality factors, including hunting, is increased to a level that causes concern for the population, the Wildlife Resources Commission may adopt rules to regulate, restrict, or prohibit the placement of those products and prescribe time limits during which hunting is prohibited in areas where those products have been placed.

Any person who is convicted of unlawfully taking bear with the use or aid of any type of bait as provided by this subsection or by rules adopted pursuant to this subsection is punishable as provided by G.S. 113-294(c1)."

The PCS also makes the following additional changes:

Repeal of licenses. – The following types of licenses are repealed:

- County hunting, fishing, and trapping licenses.
- The noncommercial special device license.

Black bears. – The PCS authorizes the Commission to establish an electronically generated stamp for the taking of a bear within the State. No individual could take a black bear without first purchasing a stamp. Individuals with lifetime licenses purchased prior to July 1, 2014, will not be charged for the stamp. The PCS also repeals a local act prohibiting the taking of black bear with bait.

Discounted license changes. – The PCS makes changes for 2 categories of licenses that offered at a discounted rate to qualifying individuals:

- Under current law, individuals that are over 65 are eligible for discounted licenses. The PCS raises the age for the discount to 70. The PCS provides this section will apply to individuals born after August 1, 1953.
- Under current law, disabled veterans as determined by the US Department of Veteran Affairs, and totally permanently disabled individuals as determined by the Social Security Administration are eligible for discounted licenses. The PCS allows the Commission to adopt rules to establish eligibility criteria to allow additional individuals to qualify for the discounted licenses.

Fees set in rules. – Section 20 of the PCS authorizes the Commission to set the fees for hunting and fishing licenses through rulemaking. The current fees would remain in effect until the new rules are established. Upon adoption of the new fees in rules, the current statutes establishing the fees would no longer apply. The fee increases authorized in the rulemaking process must not exceed the average increase in the Consumer Price Index for the preceding five years.

Fees for agents. – Current law authorizes the Commission to appoint license agents to issue license and permits. The agents are compensated at the rate of 6% per license or permit fee collected. The PCS changes the remuneration for agents to $2 per transaction.

Current law also authorizes the Commission to allow vessel agents to collect fees related to boating. The PCS raises the following fees:

Renewal of certificate of number – increased to $3 from $1.25
Transfer of ownership and certificate of number – increased to $5 from $3
Issuance of new certificate of number – increased to $5 from $3
Issuance of duplicate certificate of number – increased to $3 from 50¢
Issuance or transfer of certificate of title – increased to $5 from $3

Fee for the Commission. – The PCS authorizes the Commission to charge a $2 fee for licenses sold through the Commission by telephone, mail, online, or at a service counter.

Reserves. – Section 18 of the PCS limits the Commission to accumulating no more than 25% of the its operating budget in a cash balance. The General Assembly will reduce the operating budget in any subsequent fiscal year in an amount equal to the cash balance that exceeds 25% percent.

Endowment. - Current law establishes a Wildlife Endowment Fund. Section 19 of the PCS authorizes the Commission to budget 50% of the expendable interest of the Fund to implement conservation goals if the Fund is greater than $100 million.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The license fee increases are effective August 1, 2014. The increase in collection fees are effective January 1, 2014. The authority to establish fees and future increase in rules is effective January 1, 2015.

PRINCIPAL DEPARTMENT(S) & PROGRAM(S) AFFECTED: Wildlife Resources Commission

EFFECTIVE DATE: Fees effective date Janaury 1, 2014.

TECHNICAL CONSIDERATIONS: None

BILL SUMMARY: The Proposed Committee Substitute (PCS) to HB 296, Omnibus Wildlife Resources Commission Act, adjusts certain hunting, fishing, trapping, and activity licenses issued by the Wildlife Resources Commission (WRC), and makes the fee changes effective January 1, 2014. It requires the WRC to adopt rules to establish fees for hunting, fishing, trapping and activity licenses and limits the increase in fees to the January 1, 2015 level plus the average of the CPI for All Urban Consumers over the preceding five years. The statutory fees expire when the WRC rules become effective. It also adjusts service agent commission fees and transaction fees charged by WRC. The PCS also amends the WRC statutes to limit the amount of revenue that can accumulate in a cash balance, and requires WRC to budget at least 50% of the annual expendable interest from the Wildlife Endowment Fund when the Endowment exceeds $100 million.

ASSUMPTIONS AND METHODOLOGY: In calculating the fiscal impact of the fees proposed in this PCS, this fiscal memo uses the following assumptions:

1. The fee increases in the PCS, especially the fee increases for the lifetime licenses, will deter a certain percentage of hunters, anglers, and sportsmen from purchasing licenses (buyer resistance). Because the percentage of users who will change their behavior due to the fee increases is unknown, this fiscal memo uses a range from 10% to 20% to calculate the net revenue.
2. The proposed fee increases may cause some hunters, anglers and sportsmen who were inclined to purchase lifetime licenses, but still undecided, to go ahead and purchase the lifetime license before the fee increase goes into effect causing a one-time bump in lifetime license sales. This number of purchasers is unknown, but this fiscal memo uses a range of 10% to 20% in one-time increased lifetime license sales.
3. 10% of the Annual Sportsman License holders will move to the Annual Comprehensive Hunting License and the Annual Comprehensive Fishing License at a 50%-50% ratio.
4. 100% of the County Hunting License holders and County Inland Fishing License holders move to State Hunting and State Fishing Licenses.
5. 100% of the County Trapping License holders will move to the State Trapping License.
6. 100% of the Special Device License holders will remain constant.

Tables 2 and 3 show the fiscal impact of the proposed fee changes on annual and lifetime license sales and revenue. The tables include current license fees, the number of licenses sold, the proposed license fees and the range of licenses to be sold taking in consideration buyer resistance from 10% to 20% due the fee increases.

The PCS also amends the current statute regarding the commission fee paid to Wildlife Service Agents and Vessel Agents (collectively, service agents). Currently, service agents may deduct a portion of the fee collected for each license, boat registration and title sold. This lowers the amount of the fee available to the WRC. The PCS allows service agents to charge and retain a transaction fee in addition to the license, registration or title fee. This change allows WRC to collect the full amount of the license, boat registration and title fees and will result in additional revenue for the Commission. The PCS also allows the WRC to charge a $2.00 fee per transaction for licenses sold directly through the Commission by telephone, mail, online or at a service counter. The estimated amount of additional revenue collected by WRC is shown on the summary table below.

HOUSE BILL 951:
Eliminate Tax Designation for Political Party

2013-2014 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Finance	Date:	June 26, 2013
Introduced by:	Reps. Riddell, Whitmire, Burr, Brody	Prepared by:	Heather Fennell Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	Second Edition

SUMMARY: HB 951 would eliminate the North Carolina Political Parties Financing Fund.

CURRENT LAW: G.S. 105-159.1 allows individuals to designate on their tax returns $3 to be credited to the North Carolina Political Parties Financing Fund (Fund) for the use of the political party that the taxpayer designates. If a taxpayer does not designate a political party, the funds are distributed on a pro rata basis based on party registration among the political parties.

Article 22B of Chapter 163 provides for the process for appropriations from the Fund, provides for certain uses of the funds, and requires annual reporting on use of the funds by the State party chairs to the State Board of Elections.

BILL ANALYSIS: HB 951 would eliminate the North Carolina Political Parties Financing Fund by repealing G.S. 105-159.1 and Article 22B of Chapter 163.

EFFECTIVE DATE: HB 951 would be effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2013.

BILL SUMMARY:

House Bill 951 would repeal GS 105-159.1 which allows for a designation of tax by individuals to the North Carolina Political Parties Financing Fund. The funds go to the political party designated by the taxpayer.

ASSUMPTIONS AND METHODOLOGY:
A taxpayer whose income tax liability is $3 or more may designate $3 of the tax to the North Carolina Political Parties Financing Fund. Couples who are filing a joint return may designate $3 each if their tax liability is at least $6.

Based on the most recent Biennial Tax Expenditure Report produced by the NC Department of Revenue, the annual revenue that is designated for the Fund is approximately $2 million. H951 would not affect revenue collections, but would eliminate the designation of tax revenue for this purpose. Because the funds would remain in the General Fund instead of being designated to the NC Political Parties Financing Fund, the result is a $2 million increase to the General Fund.

State Board of Elections (SBOE)

1. The Fund currently pays for 1.5 full time equivalent positions at SBOE. Those positions are:

   1 FTE General Accounts Auditor 1 position, $54,811(salary and benefits)
   .52 FTE Deputy Director of Campaign Finance, $54,430 (52% of salary and benefits)

2. SBOE paid out over $2.5 million from the Political Parties Financing Fund and NC Presidential Election Year Fund.

BILL SUMMARY: Senate Bill 480 authorizes the campuses of the University of North Carolina (UNC) to finance and construct capital improvement projects utilizing obligated resources. The projects are discussed in the Assumptions and Methodology Section of this Note. The statutory framework to authorize and issue debt lies within Article 3 of G.S. 116D. Under this Article, obligated resources refers to: rents, charges, or fees; earnings on investments of endowment funds, overhead receipts, and other resources that do not include appropriations from the General Assembly or tuition. UNC is authorized to change, with approval of the Director of the Budget, the means of finance for the projects authorized in the Bill and increase or decrease the cost of the project. UNC is allowed to issue debt over 5% of the total cost of the project, including any increase authorized by the Director of the Budget, to cover various costs of issuance of the debt. The proposed indebtedness authorized under this Bill is not a debt of the State.

Winston Salem State University (WSSU) is granted an exemption in order to sell alcohol at the Bowman-Gray Stadium authorized for acquisition under this Bill. The requirement that the Bowman Gray Stadium be on the campus of WSSU is not withstood for the purposes of finance and acquisition.

ASSUMPTIONS AND METHODOLOGY: Each campus is presented discretely due to the varied nature of the projects under consideration and the information available to evaluate the projects. The table below provides information on the projects within Section 2 of this bill and provides the proposed sources of finance. Article 3 of G.S. 116D authorizes all obligated resources to be used as means of repayment and does not limit the means of finance to the sources presented in the table below. If an existing fee or receipt is to be used, the table identifies the fee and any annual increase associated with the fee. In some cases, the project will be financed by a new fee, and the amount is provided in the table. UNC and the campuses assume no General Fund impact from the projects proposed for authorization.

For the projects UNC estimates that increased expenditures will be required to service the debt and to operate and maintain the constructed facilities. Additionally, increased revenue will be generated by any new fee or increase to existing fee. The discussion below provides estimates for each campus, utilizing information provided by each campus and UNC.

Appalachian State University:

Appalachian State University (ASU) has two planned projects under consideration. The Anne Belk Hall Renovation project would repurpose approximately 30,000 square feet of underutilized library space on the campus. The second project converts a soccer field to a field hockey field. Both projects are financed by a new per student annual debt service fee. Both UNC and ASU estimate that enrollment will remain relatively flat over the long term at the university. The projects involve existing facilities, thus no additional operating impact is expected. UNC provided debt service estimates assuming a 20-year repayment term with an interest rate of 6%. These should be considered high end estimates. The debt service fee revenue does not generate enough revenue to cover the debt service costs under UNC's scenario. ASU acknowledges this and has informed Fiscal Research that they believe that a combination of lower actual interest rates (3%); a longer bond repayment term (25-year); additional State-appropriated Repair and Renovation funding (not yet appropriated); and, additional receipts and donations for the athletic project should adequately fund the projects. Additional information was not provided for these claims. From 2003 to 2012 ASU has issued bonds with an average interest rate of 4.84% - 2.84%, respectively. In 2012, ASU issued two different refunding bonds with an average interest rate of 3.80% and 3.98%.

East Carolina University:

East Carolina University (ECU) has two planned projects under consideration. The projects are to increase the amount authorized in 2012 for the reconstruction of Belk Residence Hall. The total project authorization would rise to $56 million. The source of repayment is housing receipts for this project, which are to increase by approximately two percent annually per tenant to cover increased costs. The second project would construct a 140,000 square foot medical facility and 900 space parking facility. The sources of repayment are parking fees for the garage and physician receipts for the clinic. For the residence hall, the cash balance from the Housing Fund is expected to cover the cost overrun identified below. In FY 2012-13 the Fund has a projected final cash balance of $15.7 million. In addition, all housing receipts will support debt service. The debt coverage ratio is expected to be 1.41 after this project is fully online.[1] ECU expects to issue the debt with a term of 30 years with an interest rate of 3.5%.

The Women and Children's Clinic and Parking Garage will include a onetime transfer from the parking fund of $5.5 million to lower the debt financed portion of the project. Once the parking facility is running, ECU estimates the facility to generate an additional $500,000 for debt service. According to ECU, the parking related enterprises currently generate in excess of $1 million per year in net revenues. For the Women and Children's Clinic, the ECU Physicians Practice Plan will be the source of receipts to support debt service. The Plan currently generates excess revenue. The Plan has generated approximately $42.9 million in excess revenues for the last two complete fiscal years and for the current fiscal year. The Plan is generating less in revenue for the current fiscal year due to lower reimbursement rates and timing of payments (FY 2012-13 excess revenues are estimated to be $5.5 million). ECU expects additional savings from foregone lease expenses ($1 million in savings); a reduction in administrative expenses from moving it a single location ($450,000 per year); and, additional profits related to increased facility utilization ($1 million). ECU expects to issue the debt with a term of 30 years with an interest rate of 4.5%.

The projects are presented separately due to the different nature of the projects.

North Carolina Agriculture and Technical University:

North Carolina Agriculture and Technical University (NCAT) has a planned new 175,000 square foot student union building that will be financed by a new $450 per student annual debt service fee. The new fee will be phased in over a four year period. NCAT expects a slight increase in student population over the five year period and thereafter. In addition, NCAT expects the facility to generate an additional $2 million in revenue due to retail and dining operations once it is fully online. NCAT assumes that the debt will be issued with a term of 30 years at an interest rate of 5.00%.

North Carolina State University:

North Carolina State University has a planned renovation to the Carmichael Recreation Center Locker Room. The project will be financed by a new $27.50 per student annual debt service fee. Student population is assumed not to increase. UNC assumed an operating impact of $79,752 per year; however this cost was not included in NCSU's response to Fiscal Research. NCSU assumed the debt to have a term of 15 years with and interest rate of 4.75%.

University of North Carolina-Chapel Hill:

The University of North Carolina-Chapel Hill (UNC-CH) has three projects planned for construction. UNC-CH does not expect to construct the South Road Bridge and Improvements project and it is not included in this analysis. The Rizzo Center Phase III project is an expansion of a facility at the business school to add 72 guest beds, a 172 space parking deck, and additional teaching space. The project is to be financed from gifts and $6 million in cash. The Odum Village project will replace an existing housing facility. This project will be repaid from housing receipts. Housing receipts are expected to rise three percent per year, per tenant to provide sufficient revenue. The final project is a supplement to the Craige Parking Deck. This project was approved in 2005 and again in 2012. This supplement would provide an additional 500 spaces. Parking receipts would pay the debt service associated with the deck. UNC-CH provided information regarding the projects in total, save for the Odom Village project. UNC-CH did not provide information related to any increased costs or revenues resulting from the Rizzo Hall or Craige Parking Deck project, thus total amounts are presented below for these two projects.

University of North Carolina – Charlotte

The University of North Carolina – Charlotte (UNCC) has three dormitory projects planned for renovation and construction. UNCC plans to renovate two existing dorms and construct a new 430 bed dormitory. Housing receipts would finance each project and are projected to be increased by 6.5% each year per tenant to provide the necessary revenue. The dorms are all assumed to come online in FY 2015-16 while the debt is assumed to be issued for a term of 30 years at an interest rate of 5.03%. UNCC expects the debt service coverage ratio to remain above 1.2 for housing receipts.

University of North Carolina - Greensboro

The University of North Carolina at Greensboro (UNCG) has a project planned to acquire a dormitory, academic space, mixed-use space, and parking known collectively as Spartan Village Phase 1. The facility was constructed by the UNCG Capital Facilities Foundation. UNCG did not provide detail regarding the projects revenue stream, only that it is expected to generate $13.9 million in net operating revenue per year. There is an expected increase of 3.5% in housing charges per tenant factored into UNCG's analysis. UNCG expects the debt service coverage ratio to remain above 1.15 after debt associated with the project is issued.

Western Carolina University:

Western Carolina University (WCU) has a new 600-bed dormitory planned. The proposed project would demolish an existing structure to build the new facility. Housing charges are expected to increase 5% annually per tenant in order to pay for the facility and other costs. The debt coverage ratio is expected to be above 1.6 after the debt associated with this project is issued. The debt is assumed to be issued for a 20 year term at a 6% interest rate. UNC stated that there would be 23 new FTE's required by the facility. WCU did not provide any information regarding the number of FTE's. WCU did provide the expected operating cost, which may not be sufficient to cover the new employees assumed in UNC's analysis.

Winston Salem State University:

Winston Salem State University (WSSU) has two projects planned for acquisition. The first project is to acquire the Bowman Gray Stadium from the City of Winston Salem for $7.1 million. WSSU currently utilizes the stadium for their motor sports management program and football team. The stadium is also used for race events in the community. WSSU assumes that race events will continue to be a source of revenue. The stadium acquisition will be financed by a new $110 per student annual debt service fee. Student population is expected to remain flat the first five years and increase slightly thereafter. The second project is for a new 295 bed suite style residence hall. The project will be financed through housing receipts. Housing charges are expected to increase 5% in the opening year of occupancy. WSSU expects that the debt coverage ratio to remain above 1.15 after the debt has been issued. WSSU assumed debt to be issued at a 20 year term with a 5% interest rate for the Bowman Gray Stadium Project. The new residence hall is assumed to be financed with debt issued for 20 years at a 6% interest rate. Revenue from the new housing project has not been provided.

SENATE BILL 485: UNC/Eliminate Duplicative Report Requirements

Committee:	Senate Finance	Date:	June 26, 2013
Introduced by:	Sen. Apodaca	Prepared by:	Cindy Avrette
Analysis of:	PCS to First Edition S485-CSLB-75		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 485 eliminates a duplicative reporting requirement regarding personal service contracts for the University of North Carolina. The proposed committee substitute adds two unrelated provisions to the bill:

- It allows the Board of Governors to implement and expand the use of electronic commerce infrastructure and capabilities among the constituent institutions.
- It provides a property tax exemption for improvements to real property that are owned by a university organization and located on land owned by one of the constituent institutions.

CURRENT LAW AND BILL ANALYSIS:

Each State agency must report annually to the Office of State Budget and Management on its use of personal services contracts that exceed $25,000. The constituent institutions utilize personal service contracts. The reports take a great deal of time to compile. As the institutions try to become more efficient, several have asked about the usefulness of the reports. Section 1 of the bill would exempt The University of North Carolina from the reporting requirement.

Section 2 of the bill would allow the Board of Governors of The University of North Carolina to implement and expand its electronic commerce infrastructure among the constituent institutions. As the institutions move towards electronic payment services, this tool will allow them to use common application programs.[1]

Section 3 provides a property tax exemption for improvements made on property owned by a constituent institution by a social fraternity, sorority, or similar organization. Under current law, the property would be exempt from property tax, but not necessarily the improvements on it. Historically, the schools have owned the Greek housing. The exemption will encourage the Greek organizations to invest in the property and help the institutions defer investment in the housing.[2]

EFFECTIVE DATE: The property tax exemption becomes effective for taxes imposed for taxable years beginning on or after July 1, 2013. The remainder of the act is effective when it becomes law.

[1] This section is especially meaningful to UNC-CH, UNC-W, and UNC-App. Without the legislation these institutions may have to discontinue the common application service they currently utilize and incur expense to build their own systems.

[2] This section is especially meaningful to NCSU. It has developed a new on-campus master planned Greek housing area to encourage on-campus fraternity and sorority housing.

(7) The amount by which the basis of property under this Article exceeds the basis of the property under the Code, in the year the taxpayer disposes of the property.

(8) The amount allowed as a deduction under G.S. 105-153.6 as a result of an add-back for federal accelerated depreciation and expensing.

(c) Additions. – In calculating North Carolina taxable income, a taxpayer must add to the taxpayer's adjusted gross income any of the following items that are not included in the taxpayer's adjusted gross income:

(1) Interest upon the obligations of states other than this State, political subdivisions of those states, and agencies of those states and their political subdivisions.

(2) The amount by which a shareholder's share of S Corporation income is reduced under section 1366(f)(2) of the Code for the taxable year by the amount of built-in gains tax imposed on the S Corporation under section 1374 of the Code.

(3) The amount by which the basis of property under the Code exceeds the basis of the property under this Article, in the year the taxpayer disposes of the property.

(a) Special Accelerated Depreciation. – A taxpayer who takes a special accelerated depreciation deduction for that property under section 168(k) or 168(n) of the Code must add to the taxpayer's federal taxable income or adjusted gross income, as appropriate, eighty-five percent (85%) of the amount taken for that year under those Code provisions. For taxable years before 2012, the taxpayer must add the amount to the taxpayer's federal taxable income. For taxable year 2012 and after, the taxpayer must add the amount to the taxpayer's adjusted gross income. A taxpayer is allowed to deduct twenty percent (20%) of the add-back in each of the first five taxable years following the year the taxpayer is required to include the add-back in income.

(b) 2009 Depreciation Exception. – A taxpayer who placed property in service during the 2009 taxable year and whose North Carolina taxable income for the 2009 taxable year reflected a special accelerated depreciation deduction allowed for the property under section 168(k) of the Code must add eighty-five percent (85%) of the amount of the special accelerated depreciation deduction to its federal taxable income for the 2010 taxable year. A taxpayer is allowed to deduct this add-back under subsection (a) of this section as if it were for property placed in service in 2010.

(c) Section 179 Expense. – For purposes of this subdivision, the definition of section 179 property has the same meaning as under section 179 of the Code as of January 2, 2013. A taxpayer who places section 179 property in service during a taxable year listed in the table below must add to the taxpayer's federal taxable income or adjusted gross income, as appropriate, eighty-five percent (85%) of the amount by which the taxpayer's expense deduction under section 179 of the Code exceeds the dollar and investment limitation listed in the table below for that taxable year. For taxable years before 2012, the taxpayer must add the amount to the taxpayer's federal taxable income. For taxable year 2012 and after, the taxpayer must add the amount to the taxpayer's adjusted gross income.

A taxpayer is allowed to deduct twenty percent (20%) of the add-back in each of the first five taxable years following the year the taxpayer is required to include the add-back in income. The table below indicates the applicable five-year period.

Taxable Year of 85% Add-Back	Dollar Limitation	Investment Limitation
2010	$250,000	$800,000
2011	$250,000	$800,000
2012	$250,000	$800,000
2013	$25,000	$125,000

"§ 105-153.7. Individual income tax imposed.

(a) Tax. – A tax is imposed for each taxable year on the North Carolina taxable income of every individual. The tax shall be levied, collected, and paid annually. The tax is five and seventy-five hundredths percent (5.75%) of the taxpayer's North Carolina taxable income.

(b) Withholding Tables. – The Secretary may provide tables that compute the amount of tax due for a taxable year under this Part. The tables do not apply to an individual who files a return under section 443(a)(1) of the Code for a period of less than 12 months due to a change in the individual's annual accounting period, or to an estate or trust."

SECTION 1.1.(e) This section becomes effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2014.

SECTION 1.2.(a) G.S. 105-134.5, recodified by this Part as G.S. 105-153.4, reads as rewritten:

"§ 105-153.4. North Carolina taxable income defined.

(a) Residents. – For an individual who is a resident of this State, the term "North Carolina taxable income" means the taxpayer's adjusted gross income as modified in ~~G.S. 105-134.6.~~G.S. 105-153.5.

(b) Nonresidents. – For a nonresident individual, the term "North Carolina taxable income" means the taxpayer's adjusted gross income as modified in ~~G.S. 105-134.6,~~ G.S. 105-153.5 and G.S. 105-153.6, multiplied by a fraction the denominator of which is the taxpayer's gross income as modified in ~~G.S. 105-134.6,~~ G.S. 105-153.5 and G.S. 105-153.6, and the numerator of which is the amount of that gross income, as modified, that is derived from North Carolina sources and is attributable to the ownership of any interest in real or tangible personal property in this State, is derived from a business, trade, profession, or occupation carried on in this State, or is derived from gambling activities in this State.

(c) Part-year Residents. – If an individual was a resident of this State for only part of the taxable year, having moved into or removed from the State during the year, the term "North Carolina taxable income" has the same meaning as in subsection (b) of this section except that the numerator includes adjusted gross income, as modified under ~~G.S. 105-134.6,~~ G.S. 105-153.5 and G.S. 105-153.6, derived from all sources during the period the individual was a resident.

SECTION 1.2.(b) G.S. 105-152 and G.S. 105-151, recodified by this Part as G.S. 105-153.8 and G.S. 105-153.9, read as rewritten:

"§ 105-153.8. Income tax returns.

(a) Who Must File. – The following individuals ~~shall~~ must file with the Secretary an income tax return under affirmation:

(1) Every resident required to file an income tax return for the taxable year under the ~~Code and every~~ Code.

(2) Every nonresident individual who ~~(i) derived~~meets all of the following requirements:

a. Receives during the taxable year gross income that is derived from North Carolina sources ~~during the taxable year~~and is attributable to the ownership of any interest in real or tangible personal property in this ~~State or~~State, is derived from a business, trade, profession, or occupation carried on in this ~~State and (ii) is~~State, or is derived from gambling activities in this State.

b. Is required to file an income tax return for the taxable year under the Code.

(3) Any individual whom the Secretary believes to be liable for a tax under this Part, when so notified by the Secretary and requested to file a return.

(b) Taxpayer Deceased or Unable to Make Return. – If ~~the~~ a taxpayer is unable to file ~~the~~ an income tax return, ~~the return shall be filed by~~ a duly authorized agent of the taxpayer or ~~by~~ a guardian or other person charged with the care of the person or property of the ~~taxpayer.~~taxpayer must file the return. If an individual who was required to file an income tax return for the taxable year while living has died before making the return, the administrator or executor of the estate ~~shall~~ must file the return in the decedent's name and behalf, and the tax ~~shall be levied upon and collected from~~is payable by the estate.

(c) Information Required With Return. – The income tax return ~~shall~~ must show the ~~taxable income and adjustments~~adjusted gross income and modifications required by this ~~Part~~ Part, and any other information the Secretary requires. The Secretary may require some or all individuals required to file an income tax return to attach to the return a copy of their federal income tax return for the taxable year. The Secretary may require a taxpayer to provide the Department with copies of any other return the taxpayer has filed with the Internal Revenue Service and to verify any information in the return.

(d) Secretary May Require Additional Information. – When the Secretary has reason to believe that any taxpayer conducts a trade or business in a way that directly or indirectly distorts the taxpayer's ~~taxable income~~adjusted gross income or North Carolina taxable income, the Secretary may require any additional information for the proper computation of the taxpayer's ~~taxable income~~adjusted gross income and North Carolina taxable income. In computing the taxpayer's ~~taxable income~~adjusted gross income and North Carolina taxable income, the Secretary ~~shall~~ must consider the fair profit that would normally arise from the conduct of the trade or business.

(e) Joint Returns. – A husband and wife whose ~~federal taxable income~~adjusted gross income is determined on a joint federal return ~~shall~~ must file a single income tax return jointly if each spouse either is a resident of this State or has North Carolina taxable income and may file a single income tax return jointly if one spouse is not a resident and has no North Carolina taxable income. Except as otherwise provided in this Part, a wife and husband filing jointly are treated as one taxpayer for the purpose of determining the tax imposed by this Part. A husband and wife filing jointly are jointly and severally liable for the tax imposed by this Part reduced by the sum of all credits allowable including tax payments made by or on behalf of the husband and wife. However, if a spouse qualifies for relief of liability for federal tax attributable to a substantial understatement by the other spouse pursuant to section 6015 of the Code, that spouse is not liable for the corresponding tax imposed by this Part attributable to the same substantial understatement by the other spouse. A wife and husband filing jointly have expressly agreed that if the amount of the payments made by them with respect to the taxes for which they are liable, including withheld and estimated taxes, exceeds the total of the taxes due, refund of the excess may be made payable to both spouses jointly or, if either is deceased, to the survivor alone.

(2) The fraction of the gross income, as ~~calculated under the Code and adjusted as provided in G.S. 105-134.6 and G.S. 105-134.7,~~ modified as provided in G.S. 105-153.5 and G.S. 105-153.6, that is subject to income tax in another state or country shall be ascertained, and the North Carolina net income tax before credit under this section shall be multiplied by that fraction. "Article 3L.

"Business Privilege Tax.

"§ 105-129.100. Business privilege tax.

(a) Nature of Tax. – This Article imposes a privilege tax on a business entity for the privilege of doing business in this State in an organizational form that confers limited liability on one or more owners of the entity. Payment of the tax imposed by this Article is a condition precedent to the right to do business in this State and, for a business entity that is organized or formed in this State, to the right to continue in the entity's organizational form. When a noncorporate business entity is doing business in this State, each owner of the noncorporate business entity is doing business in this State.

(b) Tax Imposed. – An annual privilege tax is imposed on a business entity doing business in this State in the amount of four hundred dollars ($400). The tax is due when a return is due. A return is due on or before the 15th day of the fourth month of the business entity's income year. A taxpayer may ask the Secretary for an extension of time to file a return under G.S. 105-263. A business entity must file a return under affirmation with the Secretary at the place and in the manner prescribed by the Secretary. The return must be signed by an officer, a member, the chief financial officer, or an individual authorized to bind the business entity.

(c) Income Year. – The tax imposed by this Article is for the income year of the corporation in which the tax becomes due. For purposes of this Article, the income year of a business entity is the calendar year or the fiscal year upon the basis of which the net income is computed for federal income tax purposes under the Code. After the end of the income year in which a business entity is dissolved, the business entity is no longer subject to the tax levied in this Article unless the Secretary finds that the business entity has engaged in business activities in this State not appropriate to winding up and liquidating its business and affairs. A business entity that ceases its operations in this State before the end of its income year is not entitled to a refund of tax for any full calendar months remaining in the entity's income year.

"§ 105-164.44K. Distribution of part of tax on electricity to cities.

(a) Distribution. – The Secretary must distribute to cities forty-four percent (44%) of the net proceeds of the tax collected under G.S. 105-164.4 on electricity. Each city's share of the amount to be distributed is its franchise tax share calculated under subsection (b) of this section plus its ad valorem share calculated under subsection (c) of this section. The Secretary must make the distribution within 75 days after the end of each quarter.

(b) Franchise Tax Share. – The quarterly franchise tax share of a city is the amount of electricity gross receipts franchise tax distributed to the city under repealed G.S. 105-116.1 for the same related quarter that was the last quarter in which taxes were imposed on electric power companies under repealed G.S. 105-116.

The franchise tax share of a city that has dissolved, merged with another city, or divided into two or more cities since it received a distribution under repealed G.S. 105-116.1 is adjusted as follows:

(1) If a city dissolves and is no longer incorporated, the franchise tax share of the city is added to the amount distributed under subsection (c) of this section.

(2) If two or more cities merge or otherwise consolidate, their franchise tax shares are combined.

(3) If a city divides into two or more cities, the franchise tax share of the city that divides is allocated among the new cities in proportion to the total amount of ad valorem taxes levied by each on property having a tax situs in the city.

(c) Ad Valorem Share. – The ad valorem share of a city is its proportionate share of the amount that remains for distribution after determining each city's franchise tax share under subsection (b) of this section. A city's proportionate share is the amount of ad valorem taxes it levies on property having a tax situs in the city compared to the ad valorem taxes levied by all cities on property having a tax situs in the cities.

(d) Methodology. – The ad valorem method set out in G.S. 105-472(b)(2) applies in determining the share of a city under this section based on ad valorem taxes, except that the amount of ad valorem taxes levied by a city does not include ad valorem taxes levied on behalf of a taxing district and collected by the city.

(e) Determination Final. – The determination made by the Department with respect to a city's franchise tax share is final and is not subject to administrative or judicial review.

(f) Nature. – The General Assembly finds that the revenue distributed under this section is local revenue, not a State expenditure, for the purpose of Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution. The Governor may not reduce or withhold the distribution."

SECTION 8.3.(b) Part 8 of Article 5 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

(a) Distribution. – The Secretary must distribute to cities twenty percent (20%) of the net proceeds of the tax collected under G.S. 105-164.4 on piped natural gas. Each city's share of the amount to be distributed is its excise tax share calculated under subsection (b) of this section plus its ad valorem share calculated under subsection (c) of this section. The Secretary must make the distribution within 75 days after the end of each quarter.

(b) Excise Tax Share. – The quarterly excise tax share of a city that is not a gas city is the amount of piped natural gas excise tax distributed to the city under repealed G.S. 105-187.44 for the same related quarter that was the last quarter in which taxes were imposed on piped natural gas under repealed Article 5E of this Chapter. The Secretary must determine the excise tax share of a gas city and divide that amount by four to calculate the quarterly distribution amount for a gas city. The excise tax share of a gas city is the amount the gas city would have received under repealed G.S. 105-187.44 for the last year in which taxes were imposed under repealed Article 5E of this Chapter if piped natural gas consumed by the city or delivered by the city to a customer had not been exempt from tax under repealed G.S. 105-187.41(c)(1) and (c)(2). A gas city must report the information required by the Secretary to make the distribution under this section in the form, manner, and time required by the Secretary. For purposes of this subsection, the term "gas city" has the same meaning as defined in repealed G.S. 105-187.40.

The excise tax share of a city that has dissolved, merged with another city, or divided into two or more cities since it received a distribution under repealed G.S. 105-187.44 is adjusted as follows:

(1) If a city dissolves and is no longer incorporated, the excise tax share of the city is added to the amount distributed under subsection (c) of this section.

(2) If two or more cities merge or otherwise consolidate, their excise tax shares are combined.

(3) If a city divides into two or more cities, the excise tax share of the city that divides is allocated among the new cities in proportion to the total amount of ad valorem taxes levied by each on property having a tax situs in the city.

(c) Ad Valorem Share. – The ad valorem share of a city is its proportionate share of the amount that remains for distribution after determining each city's excise tax share under subsection (b) of this section. A city's proportionate share is the amount of ad valorem taxes it levies on property having a tax situs in the city compared to the ad valorem taxes levied by all cities on property having a tax situs in the cities.

(d) Methodology. – The ad valorem method set out in G.S. 105-472(b)(2) applies in determining the share of a city under this section based on ad valorem taxes, except that the amount of ad valorem taxes levied by a city does not include ad valorem taxes levied on behalf of a taxing district and collected by the city.

(e) Determination Final. – The determination made by the Department with respect to a city's excise tax share is final and is not subject to administrative or judicial review.

(f) Nature. – The General Assembly finds that the revenue distributed under this section is local revenue, not a State expenditure, for the purpose of Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution. Therefore, the Governor may not reduce or withhold the distribution."

SECTION 8.3.(c) This section is effective for quarters beginning on or after July 1, 2014.

HOUSE BILL 998:
Tax Simplification and Reduction Act

2013-2014 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Finance	Date:	July 1, 2013
Introduced by:	Reps. Lewis, Setzer, Moffitt, Szoka	Prepared by:	Cindy Avrette
Analysis of:	PCS to Fourth Edition H998-CSRBx-41		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: The proposed Senate Committee Substitute for House Bill 998 reduces individual and business tax rates. To help offset the revenue loss from rate reductions applicable to all taxpayers, the bill eliminates some tax expenditures and expands the sales tax base. The PCS differs from the one distributed to the membership as follows:

- Technical changes.
- Maintains the personal income tax rate at 5.75%.
- Caps the motor fuel excise tax at 37.5 cents per gallon for the period September 1, 2013, through July 1, 2014.
- Directs Revenue Laws Study Committee to study various tax policy issues.

BILL ANALYSIS: The attached chart summarizes the contents of the Senate PCS for House Bill 998, H998-CSRBx-41, and compares its contents to House Bill 998, 3rd Edition, as passed by the House of Representatives on June 10, 2013, and to House Bill 998, 4th Edition, as earlier passed by the Senate Finance Committee on June 12, 2013, and by the full Senate on June 13, 2013.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO MAKE CHANGES REQUESTED BY THE DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES TO LAWS PERTAINING TO CHILD ABUSE, NEGLECT, AND DEPENDENCY; MEDICAID; AND PUBLIC HEALTH.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

PART I. CHANGES TO LAWS PERTAINING TO CHILD ABUSE, NEGLECT, AND DEPENDENCY

SECTION 1. G.S. 7B-507 reads as rewritten:

"§ 7B-507. Reasonable efforts.

(a) An order placing or continuing the placement of a juvenile in the custody or placement responsibility of a county department of social services, whether an order for continued nonsecure custody, a dispositional order, or a review order:

(1) Shall contain a finding that the juvenile's continuation in or return to the juvenile's own home would be contrary to the juvenile's best interest;

(2) Shall contain specific findings as to whether a county department of social services has made reasonable efforts to either prevent the need for placement or eliminate the need for placement of the juvenile, unless the court has previously determined under subsection (b) of this section that such efforts are not required or shall cease;

(3) Shall contain findings as to whether a county department of social services should continue to make reasonable efforts to prevent or eliminate the need for placement of the juvenile, unless the court has previously determined or determines under subsection (b) of this section that such efforts are not required or shall cease;

(4) Shall specify that the juvenile's placement and care are the responsibility of the county department of social services and that the department is to provide or arrange for the foster care or other placement of the juvenile. After considering the department's recommendations, the court may order a specific placement the court finds to be in the juvenile's best interest; and

(5) May provide for services or other efforts aimed at returning the juvenile to a safe home or at achieving another permanent plan for the juvenile.

A finding that reasonable efforts have not been made by a county department of social services shall not preclude the entry of an order authorizing the juvenile's placement when the court finds that placement is necessary for the protection of the juvenile. Where efforts to prevent the need for the juvenile's placement were precluded by an immediate threat of harm to the juvenile, the court may find that the placement of the juvenile in the absence of such efforts was reasonable.

(b) In any order placing a juvenile in the custody or placement responsibility of a county department of social services, whether an order for continued nonsecure custody, a dispositional order, or a review order, the court may direct that reasonable efforts to eliminate the need for placement of the juvenile shall not be required or shall cease if the court makes written findings of fact that:

(1) Such efforts clearly would be futile or would be inconsistent with the juvenile's health, safety, and need for a safe, permanent home within a reasonable period of time;

(2) A court of competent jurisdiction has determined that the parent has subjected the child to aggravated circumstances as defined in G.S. 7B-101;

(3) A court of competent jurisdiction has terminated involuntarily the parental rights of the parent to another child of the parent; or

(4) A court of competent jurisdiction has determined that: the parent has committed murder or voluntary manslaughter of another child of the parent; has aided, abetted, attempted, conspired, or solicited to commit murder or voluntary manslaughter of the child or another child of the parent; ~~or~~ has committed a felony assault resulting in serious bodily injury to the child or another child of the ~~parent.~~parent; has committed sexual abuse against the child or another child of the parent; or has been required to register as a sex offender on any government-administered registry.

(c) When the court determines that reunification efforts are not required or shall cease, the court shall order a plan for permanence as soon as possible, after providing each party with a reasonable opportunity to prepare and present evidence. If the court's determination to cease reunification efforts is made in a hearing that was duly and timely noticed as a permanency planning hearing, then the court may immediately proceed to consider all of the criteria contained in G.S. 7B-907(b), make findings of fact, and set forth the best plan of care to achieve a safe, permanent home within a reasonable period of time. If the court's decision to cease reunification efforts arises in any other hearing, the court shall schedule a subsequent hearing within 30 days to address the permanent plan in accordance with G.S. 7B-907. At any hearing at which the court orders that reunification efforts shall cease, the affected parent, guardian, or custodian may give notice to preserve the right to appeal that order in accordance with G.S. 7B-1001. The party giving notice shall be permitted to make a detailed offer of proof as to any evidence that party sought to offer in opposition to cessation of reunification that the court refused to admit.

(d) In determining reasonable efforts to be made with respect to a juvenile and in making such reasonable efforts, the juvenile's health and safety shall be the paramount concern. Reasonable efforts to preserve or reunify families may be made concurrently with efforts to plan for the juvenile's adoption, to place the juvenile with a legal guardian, or to place the juvenile in another permanent arrangement."

PART II. CHANGES TO LAWS PERTAINING TO MEDICAID

SECTION 2. G.S. 108A-70.5(b)(2) reads as rewritten:

"(2) Estate. – All the real and personal property considered assets of the estate available for the discharge of debt pursuant to G.S. 28A-15-1. The Department has all rights available to estate creditors, including the right to qualify as personal representative or collector of an estate. For individuals who have received benefits under a qualified long-term care partnership policy as described in G.S. 108A-70.4, "estate" also includes any other real and personal property and other assets in which the individual had any legal title or interest at the time of death (to the extent of such interest), including assets conveyed to a survivor, heir, or assign of the deceased individual through joint tenancy, tenancy in common, survivorship, life estate, living trust, or other arrangement."

SECTION 3. G.S. 28A-14-1(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Prior to filing the proof of notice required by G.S. 28A-14-2, every personal representative and collector shall personally deliver or send by first class mail to the last known address a copy of the notice required by subsection (a) of this section to all persons, firms, and corporations having unsatisfied claims against the decedent who are actually known or can be reasonably ascertained by the personal representative or collector within 75 days after the granting of ~~letters.~~letters and, if at the time of the decedent's death the decedent was receiving medical assistance as defined by G.S. 108A-70.5(b)(1), to the Department of Health and Human Services, Division of Medical Assistance. Provided, however, no notice shall be required to be delivered or mailed with respect to any claim that is recognized as a valid claim by the personal representative or collector."

SECTION 4. G.S. 28A-19-6(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) After payment of costs and expenses of administration, the claims against the estate of a decedent must be paid in the following order:

First class. Claims which by law have a specific lien on property to an amount not exceeding the value of such property.

Second class. Funeral expenses to the extent of three thousand five hundred dollars ($3,500). This limitation shall not include burial place or gravestone. The preferential limitation herein granted shall be construed to be only a limit with respect to preference of payment and shall not be construed to be a limitation on reasonable funeral expenses which may be incurred; nor shall the preferential limitation of payment in the amount of three thousand five hundred dollars ($3,500) be diminished by any Veterans Administration, social security or other federal governmental benefits awarded to the estate of the decedent or to the decedent's beneficiaries.

Third class. Costs associated with gravestones and reasonable costs for the purchase of a suitable burial place as provided in G.S. 28A-19-9 to the extent of one thousand five hundred dollars ($1,500). The preferential limitation herein granted shall be construed to be only a limit with respect to preference of payment and shall not be construed to be a limitation on reasonable gravestone or burial place expenses which may be incurred; nor shall the preferential limitation of payment in the amount of one thousand five hundred dollars ($1,500) be diminished by any Veterans Administration, social security or other federal governmental benefits awarded to the estate of the decedent or to the decedent's beneficiaries.

Fourth class. All dues, taxes, and other claims with preference under the laws of the United States.

Fifth class. All dues, taxes, and other claims with preference under the laws of the State of North Carolina and its subdivisions.

Sixth class. Judgments of any court of competent jurisdiction within the State, docketed and in force, to the extent to which they are a lien on the property of the decedent at the decedent's death. The Department of Health and Human Services is a sixth-class creditor for purposes of determining the order of claims against the estate; provided, however, that judgments in favor of other sixth-class creditors docketed and in force before the Department seeks recovery for medical assistance shall be paid prior to recovery by the Department.

Seventh class. Wages due to any employee employed by the decedent, which claim for wages shall not extend to a period of more than 12 months next preceding the death; or if such employee was employed for the year current at the decease, then from the time of such employment; for medical services within the 12 months preceding the decease; for drugs and all other medical supplies necessary for the treatment of such decedent during the last illness of such decedent, said period of last illness not to exceed 12 months.

Eighth class. A claim for equitable distribution.

Ninth class. All other claims."

SECTION 5. Article 8A of Chapter 36C of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read as follows:

"§ 36C-8-818. Notice of deceased Medicaid beneficiaries.

If a trust was established by a person who at the time of that person's death was receiving medical assistance, as defined in G.S. 108A-70.5(b)(1), and the trust was revocable at the time of that person's death, then any trustee of that trust who knows of the medical assistance within 90 days of the person's death shall provide notice of that person's death to the Department of Health and Human Services, Division of Medical Assistance, within 90 days of the person's death. This section does not apply to trustees of preneed funeral trusts established or created pursuant to Article 13D of Chapter 90 of the General Statutes."

HOUSE BILL 399:
Amend Laws Pertaining to DHHS.-AB

2013-2014 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Finance	Date:	July 16, 2013
Introduced by:	Reps. Burr, Hollo, Avila	Prepared by:	Heather Fennell
Analysis of:	Sixth Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: House Bill 399 makes changes to statutes pertaining to child abuse, neglect and dependency, Medicaid, and public health, as requested by the Department of Health and Human Services.

Part I: Changes to Laws Pertaining to Child Abuse, Neglect, and Dependency.

Section 1 of the bill would clarify G.S. 7B-507(a)(2) by requiring court orders placing a juvenile in the custody or responsibility of a county department of social services to include case specific findings as to the reasonable efforts made by the department to either prevent or eliminate the need for placement of the juvenile. In order for a State to be eligible for grants for child abuse/neglect prevention and treatment programs under the Child Abuse Prevention and Treatment Reauthorization Act of 2010, courts must have the option to not pursue reunification when a parent is found to have sexually abused a child or a parent is listed on a sex offender registry. Section 1 adds language consistent with requirements under 42 USCA 5106a.

Part II: Changes to Laws Pertaining to Medicaid

Sections 2, 3, 4, and 5 of the bill address Medicaid Estate Recovery.

42 USC 1396p(b) requires that a state seek recovery for medical assistance paid on behalf of individuals in certain circumstances. The Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1993 made enactment of a Medicaid estate recovery program a condition for receiving federal funding for that state's Medicaid program. The North Carolina Medicaid Estate Recovery Plan is established by G.S. 108A-70.5. The purpose of the estate recovery plan is "to recover from the recipients of medical assistance an equitable amount of the state and federal shares of the cost paid to the recipient."

Section 2 of the bill provides that the Department of Health and Human Services (Department) would have all rights available to estate creditors, including the right to qualify as Personal Representative or Collector of an estate.

Section 3 of the bill would give the Division of Medical Assistance (DMA) notice as a known creditor when an estate is opened, if the decedent was receiving medical assistance at the time of death.

Section 4 would clarify that the Department is a sixth-class creditor for purposes of determining the order of claims against the decedent's estate. Judgments in favor of other sixth-class creditors docketed and in force before the Department seeks recovery for medical assistance would be paid prior to recovery by the Department.

Section 5 would require that trustees of revocable trusts who know the person who established the trust was receiving medical assistance give notice to the DMA within 90 days of the death of the person.

Section 6 of the bill addresses Medicaid and Health Choice provider and enrollment screening. Pursuant to federal regulation, all Medicaid and Health Choice providers must be screened according to one of three risk levels: limited, moderate, and high. Section 6 would add additional providers to the already established categories.

Part III: Changes to the Laws Pertaining to Public Health

Section 7 of the bill would increase the potential penalty for violations of the DHHS Lead-Based Paint Program. The maximum penalty would be increased to $5,000 per day for each day a violation continues. Federal regulations establish a minimum penalty of $5,000 per day for State programs. 42 CFR 745.327.

Under G.S. 130A-101 there are currently two different time limits for filing a certificate of live birth with the local county registrar: one for births in a hospital or medical facility (five days) and one for all other births (ten days). Section 8 would create one standard time limit of ten days for all births.

Section 9 of the bill would make a change to the central cancer registry, established under G.S. 130A-208. Pursuant to G.S. 130A-209 all health care providers and facilities are required to report each diagnosis of cancer or benign brain or central nervous system tumors. House Bill 399 would require that cancer registry reporting be done electronically by October 1, 2014, and that electronic transmission be done so in a format prescribed by the National Program of Cancer Registries.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The bill would become effective October 1, 2013.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT REMOVING CERTAIN DESCRIBED PROPERTY FROM THE CORPORATE LIMITS OF THE TOWN OF GRIFTON.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. The following described property is removed from the corporate limits of the Town of Grifton:

Lying and being in Grifton Township, Pitt County, North Carolina and BEING all of Lot 3, containing 1.7743 acres as said lot is depicted and shown upon that map entitled, "Mills Commercial Center," drawn by Billy Lee Merrill, R.L.S., dated January 27, 1989, recorded in Map Book 37, Page 104, Pitt County Registry, reference to which is hereby made for a more complete and accurate description of the aforesaid lot.

SECTION 2. This act has no effect upon the validity of any liens of the Town of Grifton for ad valorem taxes or special assessments outstanding before the effective date of this act. SECTION 3. This act is effective when it becomes law.

HOUSE BILL 191:
Grifton/Deannexation

2013-2014 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Finance	Date:	July 16, 2013
Introduced by:	Rep. B. Brown	Prepared by:	Heather Fennell
Analysis of:	First Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: House Bill 191 would deannex 1.7743 acres from the Town of Grifton.

CURRENT LAW: Under Section 1 of Article VII of the NC Constitution, the General Assembly is empowered to "provide for the organization and government and the fixing of boundaries of counties, cities and towns, and other governmental subdivisions, and, except as otherwise prohibited by this Constitution, may give such powers and duties to counties, cities and towns, and other governmental subdivisions as it may deem advisable."

Pursuant to this Section, the General Assembly enacted Article 4A of Chapter 160A of the General Statutes, which governs municipal annexation. The General Assembly has not enacted any method for municipalities to deannex property — that power remains with the General Assembly.

BILL ANALYSIS: House Bill 191 would deannex 1.7743 acres from the Town of Grifton. The bill states that it does not affect the duty of property owners to pay taxes for any prior year and does not eliminate any liens for taxes for prior years.

BACKGROUND: During a regular meeting held September 11, 2012, the Board of Commissioners of the Town of Grifton voted unanimously to seek the General Assembly to deannex the property. The landowner told the Town's Board of Commissioners that the annexation was originally sought to allow a day care center on the property, but the day care center was never built.

EFFECTIVE DATE: House Bill 191 would be effective when it becomes law.

HOUSE BILL 493:
Robbinsville Occupancy Tax

2013-2014 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Finance	Date:	July 16, 2013
Introduced by:	Rep. West	Prepared by:	Kelly Quick Committee Staff
Analysis of:	PCS to First Edition H493-CSTHx-23

SUMMARY: House Bill 493 would authorize the Town of Robbinsville to levy a room occupancy tax of up to 3%, the proceeds of which would be remitted to a Tourism Development Authority. The Authority would be required to use at least two-thirds of the proceeds to promote travel and tourism and the remainder for tourist-related expenditures. In addition, the proposed committee substitute would create a special tax district in Graham County consisting of the entire county except the Town of Robbinsville. Graham County District G would be authorized to levy a room occupancy tax of up to 3%, the proceeds of which would be remitted to a Tourism Development Authority. The Authority would be required to use at least two-thirds of the proceeds to promote travel and tourism and the remainder for tourist-related expenditures. The PCS also modifies Graham County's existing 3% occupancy tax to conform to the Occupancy Tax Guidelines adopted by the House Finance Committee.

PART I: TOWN OF ROBBINSVILLE OCCUPANCY TAX

CURRENT LAW: Robbinsville is located in Graham County, which has the authority to levy a 3% room occupancy tax. The proceeds of that tax may be, but are not required to be, administered by a Travel and Tourism Authority. All of the proceeds must be used to promote travel and tourism in the county.

BILL ANALYSIS: House Bill 493 would authorize Robbinsville to levy a 3% room occupancy tax. The Town would be required to establish a Tourism Development Authority to administer the proceeds. The proceeds must be used as follows: at least two-thirds for tourism promotion and the remainder for tourism-related expenditures. The bill conforms to the Guidelines for Occupancy Tax adopted by the House Finance Committee.

PART II: GRAHAM COUNTY OCCUPANCY TAX

CURRENT LAW: In 1985,[1] the General Assembly authorized Graham County to levy a 3% room occupancy tax. Currently, the proceeds are remitted to the Graham County Travel and Tourism Authority, which is required to spend the funds remitted to it to promote travel and tourism in the county.[2] The Authority is restricted to 15% use of the funds for administrative expenses. The current authority does not conform to the House occupancy tax guidelines.

[2] S.L. 1987-118

O. Walker Reagan

Research Division
(919) 733-2578

BILL ANALYSIS: Part II of the bill would make a number of changes to Graham County's existing occupancy tax legislation so that it conforms to the guidelines adopted by the House Finance Committee. Among the changes are permitting the county to use up to 1/3 of the proceeds for tourism-related expenditures and requiring that the TDA membership consist of collectors of the tax (1/3) and individuals who are active in the promotion of travel and tourism in the county (1/2).

PART III: GRAHAM COUNTY DISTRICT G OCCUPANCY TAX

CURRENT LAW: Graham County desires to levy a 6% occupancy tax (Senate Bill 136). However, the Town of Robbinsville, which is located in Graham County is also seeking authority to levy a 3% occupancy tax. If both measures were to pass, the occupancy tax rate in Robbinsville would be 9% and would exceed to maximum 6% rate set by the House Finance Guidelines on Occupancy Tax. Therefore, this bill creates a special taxing district in Graham that excludes the Town of Robbinsville so that the maximum rate is not exceeded.

BILL ANALYSIS: Part III of the PCS would create a new taxing district in Graham County defined to include all areas of the county except for the Town of Robbinsville and authorize the district to levy a 3% room occupancy and tourism development tax. The administrative and use provisions conform to the House Finance Guidelines for occupancy tax.

BACKGROUND: Since 1983, the General Assembly has authorized many units of local government to levy a room occupancy tax. Over the past several years, there has been a greater effort to make the occupancy taxes uniform. In 1997, the General Assembly enacted uniform municipal and county administrative provisions for occupancy tax,[3] which provide uniformity among counties and cities with respect to the levy, administration, collection, repeal, and imposition of penalties.

In 1993, the House Finance Committee established the Occupancy Tax Guidelines, which address the rate of tax, the use of the tax proceeds, the administration of the tax, and the body with authority to determine how the proceeds will be spent. A summary of these provisions is detailed in the chart below. Many of the principles contained in the Guidelines are similar to those contained in policy statements adopted by the North Carolina Travel and Tourism Coalition and the North Carolina Restaurant and Lodging Association. The House Finance Committee Chairs have traditionally appointed a Subcommittee on Occupancy Taxes to scrutinize occupancy tax legislation to determine whether the legislation adheres to the Guidelines. The House Finance Chairs appointed Representatives Moffitt, Cotham, Carney, Davis, and Warren to be members of the House Finance Subcommittee on Occupancy Taxes this biennium.

UNIFORM OCCUPANCY TAX PROVISIONS
Rate – The county tax rate cannot exceed 6% and the city tax rate, when combined with the county rate, cannot exceed 6%.
Use – Two-thirds of the proceeds must be used to promote travel and tourism and the remainder must be used for tourism related expenditures.
Definitions The term "net proceeds", "promote travel and tourism", and "tourism related expenditures" are defined terms.
Administration – The net revenues must be administered by a local tourism development authority that has the authority to determine how the tax proceeds will be used, is created by a local ordinance, and at least 1/2 of the members must be currently active in the promotion of travel and tourism in the county and 1/3 of the members must be affiliated with organizations that collect the tax.
Costs of Collection – The taxing authority may retain from the revenues its actual costs of collection, not to exceed 3% of the first $500,000 collected each year plus 1% of the remainder collected each year.

BILL SUMMARY:

House Bill 493 authorizes the Robbinsville Town Council to levy a room occupancy tax of up to 3%. It provides that the tax must be levied, administered, collected, and repealed as provided in GS 160A-215 (uniform provisions for room occupancy taxes). The bill requires the Robbinsville Tourism Development Authority (TDA) to use at least two-thirds of the occupancy tax proceeds to promote travel and tourism in the town and the remainder for tourism-related expenditures. It mandates that at least one-third of the members of the TDA must be affiliated with businesses that collect the tax in the town and at least one-half must be currently active in the town's travel and tourism promotion. And the bill makes conforming changes to GS 106A-215.

ASSUMPTIONS AND METHODOLOGY:

The Graham County Finance Office calculates that $31,135 in Graham County occupancy tax revenue was collected for fiscal year 2011-12 within the city of Robbinsville. The Graham County occupancy tax rate is currently at 3%, equal to that of the Robbinsville occupancy tax proposed under House Bill 493. The estimated fiscal year impact takes into account North Carolina leisure and hospitality growth factors as estimated by Moody's.

BILL SUMMARY:

Senate Bill 136 (Second Edition) amends subsection 1(a) of SL 1985-969, as it applies to Graham County, providing that the Graham County Board of Commissioners can adopt a resolution to levy an occupancy tax to 6% (was 3%), subject to the 10 days' public notice and public hearing requirements.

ASSUMPTIONS AND METHODOLOGY:

Currently, Graham County levies a 3% room occupancy tax. Senate Bill 136 (Second Edition) would allow Graham County to levy an additional 3% for a total 6% room occupancy tax. Over the past two years, Graham County collected an average of $158,000 in occupancy taxes at the current 3% rate. Doubling the room occupancy tax rate from 3% to 6% would therefore double the revenue collected from the tax. The leisure and hospitality portion of North Carolina's gross state product, as forecast by Moody's, was used in growing the estimate.

"(c1) Apportionment. – A corporation that is doing business in this State and in one or more other states must apportion its capital stock, surplus, and undivided profits to this State. A corporation must use the apportionment method set out in subdivision (1) of this subsection unless the Department has authorized it to use a different method under subdivision (2) of this subsection. The portion of a corporation's capital stock, surplus, and undivided profits determined by applying the appropriate apportionment method is considered the amount of capital stock, surplus, and undivided profits the corporation uses in its business in this State.

(2) Alternative. – A corporation that believes the statutory apportionment method set out in subdivision (1) of this subsection subjects a greater portion of its capital stock, surplus, and undivided profits to tax under this section than is attributable to its business in this State may make a written request to the Secretary for permission to use an alternative method. The request must set out the reasons for the corporation's belief and propose an alternative method. The corporation has the burden of establishing by clear, cogent, and convincing proof that the statutory apportionment method subjects a greater portion of the corporation's capital stock, surplus, and undivided profits to tax under this section than is attributable to its business in this State and that the proposed alternative method is a better method of determining the amount of the corporation's capital stock, surplus, and undivided profits attributable to the corporation's business in this State.

The Secretary must issue a written decision on a corporation's request for an alternative apportionment method. If the decision grants the request, it must describe the alternative method the corporation is authorized to use and state the tax years to which the alternative method applies. A decision may apply to no more than three tax ~~years, unless the provisions of subdivision (3) of this subsection applies.~~ years. A corporation may renew a request to use an alternative apportionment method by following the procedure in this subdivision. A decision of the Secretary on a request for an alternative apportionment method is final and is not subject to administrative or judicial review. A corporation authorized to use an alternative method may apportion its capital stock, surplus, and undivided profits in accordance with the alternative method or the statutory method."

SECTION 2.(b) G.S. 105-130.4(t1) reads as rewritten:

"(t1) Alternative Apportionment Method. – A corporation that believes the statutory apportionment method that otherwise applies to it under this section subjects a greater portion of its income to tax than is attributable to its business in this State may make a written request to the Secretary for permission to use an alternative method. The request must set out the reasons for the corporation's belief and propose an alternative method.

The statutory apportionment method that otherwise applies to a corporation under this section is presumed to be the best method of determining the portion of the corporation's income that is attributable to its business in this State. A corporation has the burden of establishing by clear, cogent, and convincing proof that the proposed alternative method is a better method of determining the amount of the corporation's income attributable to the corporation's business in this State.

The Secretary must issue a written decision on a corporation's request for an alternative apportionment method. If the decision grants the request, it must describe the alternative method the corporation is authorized to use and state the tax years to which the alternative method applies. A decision may apply to no more than three tax ~~years, unless the provisions of subsection (t2) of this section apply.~~ years. A corporation may renew a request to use an alternative apportionment method by following the procedure in this subsection. A decision of the Secretary on a request for an alternative apportionment method is final and is not subject to administrative or judicial review. A corporation authorized to use an alternative method may apportion its income in accordance with the alternative method or the statutory method. A corporation may not use an alternative apportionment method except upon written order of the Secretary, and any return in which any alternative apportionment method, other than the method prescribed by statute, is used without permission of the Secretary is not a lawful return."

SECTION 3. G.S. 105-163.41(c) reads as rewritten:

"(c) The period of the underpayment ~~shall run~~ runs from the date the installment was required to be paid to the earlier of:

(1) The 15th day of the ~~3rd~~ fourth month following the close of the taxable year, or

(2) With respect to any portion of the underpayment, the date on which the portion is paid. An installment payment of estimated tax ~~shall be~~ is considered a payment of any previous underpayment only to the extent the payment exceeds the amount of the installment determined under subdivision (1) of subsection (b) for that installment date."

SECTION 4. G.S. 105-129.84(c) reads as rewritten:

"(c) Carryforward. – Unless a longer carryforward period applies, any unused portion of a credit allowed under G.S. 105-129.87 or G.S. 105-129.88 may be carried forward for the succeeding five years, and any unused portion of a credit allowed under G.S. 105-129.89 may be carried forward for the succeeding 15 years. If the Secretary of Commerce makes a written determination that the taxpayer is expected to purchase or lease, and place in service in connection with an eligible business within a two-year period, at least one hundred fifty million dollars ($150,000,000) worth of business and real property, any unused portion of a credit under this Article with respect to the establishment that satisfies that condition may be carried forward for the succeeding 20 years. If the taxpayer does not make the required level of investment, the taxpayer shall apply the ~~five-year~~ standard carryforward period rather than the 20-year carryforward period."

SECTION 5.(a) G.S. 105-134.6 reads as rewritten:

"§ 105-134.6. Modifications to adjusted gross income.

...

(b) Other Deductions. – In calculating North Carolina taxable income, a taxpayer may deduct any of the following items to the extent those items are included in the taxpayer's adjusted gross income.

...

(17b) An amount equal to twenty percent (20%) of the amount added ~~to federal taxable income as accelerated depreciation~~ under subdivision (c)(8b) of this section. For the amount added to taxable income in the 2010 taxable year, the deduction allowed by this subdivision applies to the first five taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2011. For the amount added to taxable income in the 2011 taxable year, the deduction allowed by this subdivision applies to the first five taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2012. For the amount added to ~~taxable~~ adjusted gross income in the 2012 taxable year, the deduction allowed by this subdivision applies to the first five taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2013.

(d) Other Adjustments. – In calculating North Carolina taxable income, a taxpayer must make the following adjustments to adjusted gross income.

(1) The amount of inheritance or estate tax attributable to an item of income in respect of a decedent required to be included in gross income under the Code, adjusted as provided in G.S. 105-134.5, 105-134.6, and ~~105-134.7,~~105-134.6A, may be deducted in the year the item of income is included. The amount of inheritance or estate tax attributable to an item of income in respect of a decedent is (i) the amount by which the inheritance or estate tax paid under Article 1 or 1A of this Chapter on property transferred to a beneficiary by a decedent exceeds the amount of the tax that would have been payable by the beneficiary if the item of income in respect of a decedent had not been included in the property transferred to the beneficiary by the decedent, (ii) multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the amount required to be included in gross income for the taxable year under the Code, adjusted as provided in G.S. 105-134.5, 105-134.6, and ~~105-134.7,~~ 105-134.6A, and the denominator of which is the total amount of income in respect of a decedent transferred to the beneficiary by the decedent. For an estate or trust, the deduction allowed by this subdivision shall be computed by excluding from the gross income of the estate or trust the portion, if any, of the items of income in respect of a decedent that are properly paid, credited, or to be distributed to the beneficiaries during the taxable year.

The Secretary may provide to a beneficiary of an item of income in respect of a decedent any information contained on an inheritance or estate tax return that the beneficiary needs to compute the deduction allowed by this subdivision.

(3) The taxpayer shall add to ~~taxable~~ adjusted gross income the amount of any recovery during the taxable year not included in ~~taxable~~ adjusted gross income, to the extent the taxpayer's deduction of the recovered amount in a prior taxable year reduced the taxpayer's tax imposed by this Part but, due to differences between the Code and this Part, did not reduce the amount of the taxpayer's tax imposed by the Code. The taxpayer may deduct from ~~taxable~~ adjusted gross income the amount of any recovery during the taxable year included in ~~taxable~~ adjusted gross income under section 111 of the Code, to the extent the taxpayer's deduction of the recovered amount in a prior taxable year reduced the taxpayer's tax imposed by the Code but, due to differences between the Code and this Part, did not reduce the amount of the taxpayer's tax imposed by this Part.

SECTION 9. G.S. 105-164.4(a)(3) reads as rewritten:

"(3) A tax at the general rate applies to the gross receipts derived from the rental of an accommodation. The tax does not apply to (i) a private residence or cottage that is rented for fewer than 15 days in a calendar year; (ii) an accommodation rented to the same person for a period of 90 or more continuous days; or (iii) an accommodation arranged or provided to a person by a school, camp, or similar entity where a tuition or fee is charged to the person for enrollment in the school, camp, or similar entity.

Gross receipts derived from the rental of an accommodation include the sales price of the rental of the accommodation. The sales price of the rental of an accommodation is determined as if the rental were a rental of tangible personal property. The sales price of the rental of an accommodation marketed by a facilitator includes charges designated as facilitation fees and any other charges necessary to complete the rental.

A person who provides an accommodation that is offered for rent is considered a retailer under this Article. A facilitator must report to the retailer with whom it has a contract the sales price a consumer pays to the facilitator for an accommodation rental marketed by the facilitator. A retailer must notify a facilitator when an accommodation rental marketed by the facilitator is completed ~~and, within three business days of receiving the notice,~~ and the facilitator must send the retailer the portion of the sales price the facilitator owes the retailer and the tax due on the sales ~~price.~~ price no later than 10 days after the end of each calendar month. A facilitator that does not send the retailer the tax due on the sales price is liable for the amount of tax the facilitator fails to send. A facilitator is not liable for tax sent to a retailer but not remitted by the retailer to the Secretary. Tax payments received by a retailer from a facilitator are held in trust by the retailer for remittance to the Secretary. A retailer that receives a tax payment from a facilitator must remit the amount received to the Secretary. A retailer is not liable for tax due but not received from a facilitator. The requirements imposed by this subdivision on a retailer and a facilitator are considered terms of the contract between the retailer and the facilitator.

A person who, by written contract, agrees to be the rental agent for the provider of an accommodation is considered a retailer under this Article and is liable for the tax imposed by this subdivision. The liability of a rental agent for the tax imposed by this subdivision relieves the provider of the accommodation from liability. A rental agent includes a real estate broker, as defined in G.S. 93A-2.

The following definitions apply in this subdivision:

a. Accommodation. – A hotel room, a motel room, a residence, a cottage, or a similar lodging facility for occupancy by an individual.

b. Facilitator. – A person who is not a rental agent and who contracts with a provider of an accommodation to market the accommodation and to accept payment from the consumer for the accommodation."

Payment of sales or use tax to this State on an item by a retailer extinguishes the liability of a purchaser for the tax imposed under this section.

(2) The amount of sales or use tax due and paid on the item to another state. If the amount of tax paid to the other state is less than the amount of tax imposed by this section, the difference is payable to this State. The credit allowed by this subdivision does not apply to tax paid to a state that does not grant a similar credit for sales or use taxes paid in North Carolina."

SECTION 47.(a) G.S. 105-241.6(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Exceptions. – The exceptions to the general statute of limitations for obtaining a refund of an overpayment are as follows:

(1) Federal Determination. – If a taxpayer files a return reflecting a federal determination and the return is filed within the time required by this Subchapter, the period for requesting a refund is one year after the return reflecting the federal determination is filed or three years after the original return was filed or due to be filed, whichever is later.

(2) Waiver. – A taxpayer's waiver of the statute of limitations for making a proposed assessment extends the period in which the taxpayer can obtain a refund to the end of the period extended by the waiver.

(3) Worthless Debts or Securities. – Section 6511(d)(1) of the Code applies to an overpayment of the tax levied in Part 2 or 3 of Article 4 of this Chapter to the extent the overpayment is attributable to either of the following:
a. The deductibility by the taxpayer under section 166 of the Code of a debt that becomes worthless, or under section 165(g) of the Code of a loss from a security that becomes worthless.
b. The effect of the deductibility of a debt or loss described in subpart a. of this subdivision on the application of a carryover to the taxpayer.

(4) Capital Loss and Net Operating Loss Carrybacks. – Section 6511(d)(2) of the Code applies to an overpayment of the tax levied in Part 2 or 3 of Article 4 of this Chapter to the extent the overpayment is attributable to a capital loss carryback under section 1212(c) of the Code or to a net operating loss carryback under section 172 of the Code.

(5) Contingent Event. – If a taxpayer is subject to a contingent event and files notice with the Secretary, the period to request a refund of an overpayment is six months after the contingent event concludes.

a. For purposes of this subdivision, "contingent event" means litigation or a State tax audit initiated prior to the expiration of the statute of limitations under subsection (a) of this section, the pendency of which prevents the taxpayer from possessing the information necessary to file an accurate and definite request for a refund of an overpayment under this Chapter.

b. For purposes of this subdivision, "notice to the Secretary" means written notice filed with the Secretary prior to expiration of the statute of limitations under subsection (a) of this section for a return or payment in which a contingent event prevents a taxpayer from filing a definite request for a refund of an overpayment. The notice must identify and describe the contingent event, identify the type of tax, list the return or payment affected by the contingent event, and state in clear terms the basis for and an estimated amount of the overpayment.

c. A taxpayer who contends that an event or condition other than litigation or a State tax audit has occurred that prevents the taxpayer from filing an accurate and definite request for a refund of an overpayment within the period under subsection (a) may submit a written request to the Secretary seeking an extension of the statute of limitations allowed under this subdivision. The request must establish by clear, convincing proof that the event or condition is beyond the taxpayer's control and that it prevents the taxpayer's timely filing of an accurate and definite request for a refund of an overpayment. The request must be filed within the period under subsection (a) of this section. The Secretary's decision on the request is final and is not subject to administrative or judicial review."

SECTION 47.(b) G.S. 105-241.7(b) reads as rewritten:

(b) Initiated by Taxpayer. – A taxpayer may request a refund of an overpayment made by the taxpayer by taking one of the ~~following~~ actions listed in this subsection within the statute of limitations for obtaining a ~~refund:~~refund. A taxpayer may not request a refund of an overpayment based on a contingent event as defined in G.S. 105-241.6(b)(5) until the event is finalized and an accurate and definite request for refund of an overpayment may be determined. The actions are:

(1) Filing an amended return reflecting an overpayment due the taxpayer.

(2) Filing a claim for refund. The claim must identify the taxpayer, the type and amount of tax overpaid, the filing period to which the overpayment applies, and the basis for the claim. The taxpayer's statement of the basis of the claim does not limit the taxpayer from changing the basis.

SECTION 47.(c) This section becomes effective January 1, 2014, and applies to a request for a refund of an overpayment of tax filed on or after that date.

SECTION 48. G.S. 105-262.1(d) reads as rewritten:

"(d) Adoption. – The Secretary may adopt a rule under this section by using the procedure for adoption of a temporary rule set forth in G.S. 150B-21.1(a3). Commission, the rule must be reviewed in accordance with subsections (e) through (i) of this section. A person may object to the rule and request review by the Commission at any point ~~prior to the adoption~~ following the agency's adoption of the rule and by 5:00 P.M. on the third business day following electronic notification from the Secretary of the adoption of a rule. If the Secretary receives no written comment objecting to the rule and requesting review by the Commission, the Secretary must deliver the rule to the Codifier of Rules. The Codifier of Rules must enter the rule into the North Carolina Administrative Code upon receipt of the rule."

SECTION 49.(a) G.S. 105-468 reads as rewritten:

The use tax authorized by this Article is a tax at the rate of one percent (1%) of the cost price of each item or article of tangible personal property that is not sold in the taxing county but is used, consumed, or stored for use or consumption in the taxing county. The tax applies to the same items that are subject to tax under G.S. 105-467. The collection and administration of this tax shall be in accordance with Article 5 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes.

~~Every retailer who is engaged in business in this State and in the taxing county and is required to collect the use tax levied by G.S. 105-164.6 shall collect the one percent (1%) use tax when the property is to be used, consumed, or stored in the taxing county. The use tax contemplated by this section shall be levied against the purchaser, and the purchaser's liability for the use tax shall be extinguished only upon payment of the use tax to the retailer, where the retailer is required to collect the tax, or to the Secretary, where the retailer is not required to collect the tax.~~

Where a local sales or use tax was due and has been paid with respect to tangible personal property by the purchaser in another taxing county within the State, or where a local sales or use tax was due and has been paid in a taxing jurisdiction outside the State where the purpose of the tax is similar in purpose and intent to the tax which may be imposed pursuant to this Article, the tax paid may be credited against the tax imposed under this section by a taxing county upon the same property. If the amount of sales or use tax so paid is less than the amount of the use tax due the taxing county under this section, the purchaser shall pay to the Secretary an amount equal to the difference between the amount so paid in the other taxing county or jurisdiction and the amount due in the taxing county. The Secretary may require such proof of payment in another taxing county or jurisdiction as is deemed to be necessary. The use tax levied under this Article is not subject to credit for payment of any State sales or use tax not imposed for the benefit and use of counties and municipalities. No credit shall be given under this section for sales or use taxes paid in a taxing jurisdiction outside this State if that taxing jurisdiction does not grant similar credit for sales taxes paid under this Article."

SECTION 49.(b) G.S. 105-467(c) reads as rewritten:

"(c) Sourcing. – ~~The local sales tax authorized to be imposed and levied under this Article applies to taxable transactions by retailers whose place of business is located within the taxing county.~~ The sourcing principles in G.S. 105-164.4B apply in determining whether the local sales tax applies to a transaction."

SECTION 50. G.S. 105-561(d) reads as rewritten:

"(d) Special Tax District. – If a regional transportation authority created under Article 27 of Chapter 160A of the General Statutes or a regional public transportation authority created under Article 26 of Chapter 160A of the General Statutes has not levied the tax under this section or has levied the tax at a rate of less than eight dollars ($8.00), it may create a special district that consists of the entire area of one or more counties within its territorial jurisdiction and may levy on behalf of the special district the tax authorized in this section. The rate of tax levied within the special district may not, when combined with the rate levied within the entire territorial jurisdiction of the authority; exceed eight dollars ($8.00). The regional transportation authority may not levy or increase a tax within the special district unless the board of commissioners of each county in the special district has adopted a resolution approving the levy or increase.

A special district created pursuant to this subsection is a body corporate and politic and has the power to carry out the purposes of this subsection. The board of trustees of the regional transportation authority created under Article 27 of Chapter 160A of the General Statutes or a regional public transportation authority created under Article 26 of Chapter 160A of the General Statutes shall serve, ex officio, as the governing body of a special district it creates pursuant to this subsection. The proceeds of a tax levied under this subsection may be used only for the benefit of the special district and only for the purposes provided in G.S. 105-564. Except as provided in this subsection, a tax levied under this subsection is governed by the provisions of this Article."

If the Department is unable to accurately identify and calculate the amount of tax proceeds allocable and distributable to a county or city for any one or more of these taxes for one or more of the distributional periods because of implementation issues with the Tax Information Management System (TIMS), the Department must allocate and distribute to a county and city an amount for that period that is equal to the average of the applicable tax proceeds allocated and distributed to it for the same distributional period in the preceding three fiscal years.

SECTION 70.(d) Section 13 of S.L. 2005-294, as amended by Section 31.5 of S.L. 2006-259, and Section 22(b) of S.L. 2007-257, and Section 65 of S.L. 2008-134, and Section 3.6 of S.L. 2012-79, reads as rewritten:

"SECTION 13. Sections 4 and 8 of this act become effective January 1, 2006. Sections 1, 2, 3, 5, 6, 7, 10 and 11 of this act become effective July 1, 2013, ~~or when the Division of Motor Vehicles of the Department of Transportation and the Department of Revenue certify that the integrated computer system for registration renewal and property tax collection for motor vehicles is in operation, whichever occurs first.~~ and apply to combined tax and registration notices issued on or after that date. Counties may continue to collect property taxes on motor vehicles for taxable years beginning on or before September 1, 2013, under the provisions of Article 22A of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes as those statutes are in effect on June 30, 2013. Sections 12 and 13 of this act are effective when they become law. Nothing in this act shall require the General Assembly to appropriate funds to implement it for the biennium ending June 30, 2007."

SECTION 70.(e) This section is effective when it becomes law.

SECTION 71.(a) Effective June 26, 2012, Sections 3.2, 3.3, and 3.4 of S.L. 2012-79 are repealed.

SECTION 71.(b) Effective July 1, 2013, G.S. 105-330.2, as amended by Section 2 of S.L. 2005-294 and Section 24(a) of S.L. 2009-445, reads as rewritten:

(b1) Valuation Appeal. – The owner of a classified motor vehicle may appeal the appraised value ~~or taxability~~ of the vehicle by filing a request for appeal with the assessor within 30 days of the date taxes are due on the vehicle under G.S. 105-330.4. An owner who appeals the appraised value ~~or taxability~~ of a classified motor vehicle must pay the tax on the vehicle when due, subject to a full or partial refund if the appeal is decided in the owner's favor.

The combined tax and registration notice or tax receipt for a classified motor vehicle must explain the right to appeal the appraised value ~~and taxability~~ of the vehicle. A lessee of a vehicle that is required by the terms of the lease to pay the tax on the vehicle is considered the owner of the vehicle for purposes of filing an appeal under this subsection. Appeals filed under this subsection shall proceed in the manner provided in G.S. 105-312(d).

(b2) Exemption or Exclusion Appeal. – The owner of a classified motor vehicle may appeal the vehicle's eligibility for an exemption or exclusion by filing a request for appeal with the assessor within 30 days of the assessor's initial decision on the exemption or exclusion application filed by the owner pursuant to G.S. 105-330.3(b). Appeals filed under this subsection shall proceed in the manner provided in G.S. 105-312(d).

SECTION 71.(c) Effective July 1, 2013, G.S. 105-330.3, as amended by Section 24(a) of S.L. 2009-445, reads as rewritten:

"§ 105-330.3. Listing requirements for classified motor vehicles; application for exempt status.

(a1) Unregistered Vehicles. – The owner of an unregistered classified motor vehicle must list the vehicle for taxes by filing an abstract with the assessor of the county in which the vehicle is located on or before January 31 following the date the owner acquired the unregistered vehicle or, in the case of a registration that is not renewed, January 31 following the date the registration expires, and on or before January 31 of each succeeding year that the vehicle is unregistered. If a classified motor vehicle required to be listed pursuant to this subsection is registered ~~during the calendar~~before the end of the fiscal year ~~in~~ for which it was ~~listed, the vehicle is taxed for the fiscal year that opens in the calendar year of listing as an unregistered vehicle.~~required to be listed, the following applies:

(1) The vehicle is taxed as a registered vehicle, and the tax assessed pursuant to this subsection for the fiscal year in which the vehicle was required to be listed shall be released and/or refunded.

(2) For any months for which the vehicle was not taxed between the date the registration expired and the start of the current registered vehicle tax year, the vehicle is taxed as an unregistered vehicle as follows:

a. The value of the motor vehicle is determined as of January 1 of the year in which the registration of the motor vehicle expires.

b. In computing the taxes, the assessor must use the tax rates and any additional motor vehicle taxes of the various taxing units in effect on the date the taxes are computed.

c. The tax on the motor vehicle is the product of a fraction and the number of months for which the vehicle was not taxed between the date the registration expires and the start of the current registered vehicle tax year. The numerator of the fraction is the product of the appraised value of the motor vehicle and the tax rate of the various taxing units. The denominator of the fraction is 12.

d. The taxes are due on the first day of the second month following the month the notice was prepared.

e. Interest accrues on unpaid taxes for these unregistered classified motor vehicles at the rate of five percent (5%) for the remainder of the month following the month the taxes are due. Interest accrues at the rate of three-fourths percent (3/4%) for each following month until the taxes are paid, unless the notice is prepared after the date the taxes are due. In that circumstance, the interest accrues beginning the second month following the date of the notice until the taxes are paid.

(3) A vehicle required to be listed pursuant to this subsection that is not listed by January 31 and is not registered before the end of the fiscal year for which it was required to be listed is subject to discovery pursuant to ~~G.S. 105-312, unless the vehicle has been taxed as a registered vehicle for the current year.~~G.S. 105-312.

(b) Exemption or Exclusion. – The owner of a classified motor vehicle who claims an exemption or exclusion from tax under this Subchapter has the burden of establishing that the vehicle is entitled to the exemption or exclusion. The owner may establish prima facie entitlement to exemption or exclusion of the classified motor vehicle by filing an application for exempt status with the ~~assessor.~~assessor within 30 days of the date taxes on the vehicle are due. When an approved application is on file, the assessor must omit from the tax records the classified motor vehicles described in the application. An application is not required for vehicles qualifying for the exemptions or exclusions listed in G.S. 105-282.1(a)(1). The remaining provisions of G.S. 105-282.1 do not apply to classified motor vehicles.

SECTION 71.(d) Effective July 1, 2013, G.S. 105-330.4, as amended by Sections 4 and 5 of S.L. 2005-294, and Section 24(a) of S.L. 2009-445, reads as rewritten:

"§ 105-330.4. Due date, interest, and enforcement remedies.

(a) Due Date. – The registration of a classified motor vehicle may not be issued unless a temporary registration plate is issued for the motor vehicle under G.S. 20-79.1A or the taxes for the motor vehicle's tax year that begins after the issuance of the registration are paid upon registration. A registration of a classified motor vehicle may not be renewed unless the taxes ~~that are due have been paid.~~ for the motor vehicle's tax year that begins after the registration expires are paid upon registration. If the registration of a classified motor vehicle is renewed earlier than the date the taxes are due, the taxes must be paid as if they were due. Taxes on a classified motor vehicle are due as follows:

(1) For an unregistered classified motor vehicle, the taxes are due on September 1 following the date by which the vehicle was required to be listed.

(2) For a registered classified motor vehicle that is registered under the staggered system, the taxes are due each year on the date the owner applies for a new registration or the fifteenth day of the month following the month in which the registration renewal sticker expires pursuant to G.S. 20-66(g).

(3) For a registered classified motor vehicle that is registered under the annual system, taxes are due on the date the owner applies for a new registration or 45 days after the registration expires.

(4) For a registered classified motor vehicle that has a temporary registration plate issued under G.S. 20-79.1 or a limited registration plate issued under G.S. 20-79.1A, the taxes are due on the last day of the second month following the date the owner applied for the plate.

(b) Interest. – Interest accrues on unpaid taxes and unpaid registration fees for registered classified motor vehicles at the rate of five percent (5%) for the remainder of the month ~~following the month~~ the taxes are due under subsection (a) of this section. Interest does not accrue for the first month following the due date. Interest accrues at the rate of three-fourths percent (3/4%) beginning the second month following the due date and for each following month until the taxes and fees are ~~paid, unless the notice required by G.S. 105-330.5 is prepared after the date the taxes and fees are due. In that circumstance, the interest accrues beginning the second month following the date of the notice until the taxes and fees are paid.~~ paid. Subject to the provisions of G.S. 105-395.1, interest accrues on delinquent taxes on unregistered classified motor vehicles as provided in G.S. 105-360(a) and the discounts allowed in G.S. 105-360(a) apply to the payment of the taxes.

(c) Remedies. – The enforcement remedies in this Subchapter apply to unpaid taxes on an unregistered classified motor ~~vehicle. The enforcement remedies in this Subchapter do not apply~~ vehicle and to unpaid taxes on a registered classified motor ~~vehicle.~~vehicle for which the tax year begins before October 1, 2013.

(d) Payments. – Tax payments submitted by mail are deemed to be received as of the date shown on the postmark affixed by the United States Postal Service. If no date is shown on the postmark or if the postmark is not affixed by the United States Postal Service, the tax payment is deemed to be received when the payment is received ~~in the office of the tax collector.~~by the collecting authority. In any dispute arising under this subsection, the burden of proof is on the taxpayer to show that the payment was timely made."

SECTION 72. Effective July 1, 2013, G.S. 105-330.1(b), as amended by Section 24(a) of S.L. 2009-445, reads as rewritten:

"(b) Exceptions. – The following motor vehicles are not classified under subsection (a) of this section:

(1) Motor vehicles exempt from registration pursuant to G.S. 20-51.
(2) Manufactured homes, mobile classrooms, and mobile offices.
(3) Semitrailers or trailers registered on a multiyear basis.
(4) Motor vehicles owned or leased by a public service company and appraised under G.S. 105-335.
(5) Repealed by Session Laws 2000, c. 140, s. 75(a), effective July 1, 2000.
(6) Motor vehicles registered under the International Registration Plan.
(7) Motor vehicles issued permanent registration plates under G.S. 20-84.
(8) Self-propelled property-carrying vehicles issued three-month registration plates at the farmer rate under G.S. 20-88.
(9) Motor vehicles owned by participants in the Address Confidentiality Program authorized under Chapter 15C of the General Statutes."

SECTION 80. Sections 5, 6, and 7 of this act are effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2012. Except as otherwise provided, the remainder of this act is effective when it becomes law.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section	Explanation
	REVENUE LAWS RECOMMENDATIONS
1	Corrects several references to "reports and statements" where there is no longer a requirement to submit a statement and substitutes the more appropriate term "return." Also replaces "make" or "making" a return with "file" or "filing." Makes other grammatical and stylistic changes to conform to drafting conventions.
2	Deletes a statutory reference due to repeal of another subsection.[1]

[1] In S.L. 2010-89, the General Assembly provided an alternative apportionment formula for a corporation that signed a letter of commitment by September 15, 2010, certifying that it planned to invest at least $500 million in private funds to construct a facility in a development tier one area. No company signed such a letter. The General Assembly enacted the provision at the request of Microsoft; Microsoft announced in August of 2010 that it would be locating in Virginia. Since the alternative apportionment formula provided in G.S. 105-130.4(t2) and G.S. 105-122(c1)(3) was no longer needed, the General Assembly repealed those provision in S.L. 2011-330, s. 5. Therefore, the references to the repealed subdivisions in G.S. 105-122(c1)(2) and G.S. 105-130.4(t1) should be deleted.

3	Corrects reference to period of underpayment to reflect the change in the due date of the corporate return from the third month (March 15) to the fourth month (April 15).
4	Corrects reference to the proper carryforward period under Article 3J when a taxpayer fails to qualify for an extended carryforward period due to a large investment.[2]
5	Makes technical corrections related to the shift from taxable income to AGI as the starting point for determining NC taxable income.[3]
6	Ensures that relevant transitional adjustments under G.S. 105-134.7 are retained by adding them to G.S. 105-134.6 with corresponding changes throughout.
7	Makes technical changes to the Credit for the Disabled.
8	Amends definitions related to the Streamlined Agreement and adjusts the definition of 'storage' to clarify that the purchaser must know the original purpose and location where items will be used at the time of purchase.
9	Amends the facilitator reporting requirements to recognize various business practices and recordkeeping by facilitators. The Department was advised that some facilitators provide a credit card number for use by the hotelier before, during, or after the rental of accommodations.
10	Clarifies that a credit is allowed for use tax if the tax is shown on the invoice or other documentation issued by the retailer.
11	Makes various changes to certain sales tax exemptions: (26), (26a), (27), (31a), & G.S. 105-164.13A [4]: Adds "prepared food" to various sales tax exemptions to modernize the language as a result of the adoption of definitions for Streamlined purposes and reflects the fact that schools sell both food and "prepared food." (33a): Clarifies that the sales and use tax exemption for tangible personal property delivered by the retailer for use outside the State applies to certain printed material. This exemption was adjusted during the 2011 Session at the request of the Department to add "by the retailer." However, additional adjustments are needed to retain the exemption for printed material that is not delivered by the retailer to the United States Postal Service or that is not purchased with a direct pay permit.[5]

[2] The Article 3J credits for creating jobs and for investing in business property have a 5-year carryforward period and the credit for investing in real property has a 15-year carryforward period. S.L. 2012-74 temporarily allows for a 20-year carryforward period under Article 3J for a taxpayer who makes an investment of $100 million in business and real property in a tier one county.

[3] Section 31A.1 of S.L. 2001-145 changed the starting point for calculating NC taxable income from federal taxable income to federal adjusted gross income. This change did not change the tax base or increase NC tax in any way.

[4] These changes have been requested by the Department since the introduction of the bill and were not included in the original Revenue Laws recommendation.

[5] The proposed language tracks the language that is in Sales and Use Tax Bulletin 7.

	(43a): Amends the exemption for computer software "designed to run on an enterprise server operating system." The inclusion of the term "designed" has been problematic. The Department issued an "Important Notice" in February 2010 in an attempt to further clarify this issue. At issue are products that are designed but may not be run on an enterprise server operating system. It is burdensome for the Department to attempt to determine if the products meet the "designed" requirement. (57)[6]: Clarifies that in order for the exemption for fuel and electricity sold to a manufacturer to apply, the facility must be primarily engaged in manufacturing.
12	Makes three changes to the sales tax refund statute for nonprofit entities. • Provides that sales and use tax liability indirectly incurred by a nonprofit entity through reimbursement to an employee of the entity for the purchase of tangible personal property and services for use in carrying on the work of the nonprofit entity is considered a direct purchase by the entity. • Replaces the term "medicines" with "over-the-counter drugs" in the statute that permits a refund of sales and use taxes to nonprofit entities and hospitals. • Clarifies that a single member LLC that is disregarded for federal income tax purposes qualifies for a refund if the owner of the single member LLC is a 501(c)(3) and the LLC engages in qualifying activities.
13	Ensures that statute is consistent with the Sales and Use Tax Technical Bulletin Section 46-1 E., which provides that the issuance of a direct pay permit to avoid payment of State and local sales taxes levied on hotel accommodations is a prohibited use. Adds a provision requiring a person who purchases direct mail under a direct pay permit to file a return and pay the tax due monthly or quarterly to the Secretary.
14	Repeals G.S. 105-164.35, which authorizes the Secretary to recompute sales and use tax if, after examining a return, he determines the correct amount of tax is greater or less than the amount shown on the return and to credit or refund excessive payments. This statute, which is specific to sales and use tax, is unnecessary because G.S. 105-241.7 gives the Secretary this authority for all tax types.
15	Provides liability relief to retailers for erroneous information provided by the Department regarding the taxability of certain items or insufficient notice regarding a sales tax rate change as required by the Streamlined Agreement.
16	Clarifies that the credit allowed under Article 5F for similar tax paid to another state also applies to sales and use tax paid in this State and not just paid to another state.

[6] This change has been requested by the Department since the introduction of the bill and was not included in the original Revenue Laws recommendation.

17	Corrects references to Department Divisions based on reorganization. Adds various forms of identity theft to the subject matter jurisdiction of revenue law enforcement officers. Generally speaking, revenue law enforcement officers have the authority to serve and execute notices, orders, warrants, and demands, have full powers of arrest, and must be certified as criminal justice officers.
18	Deletes obsolete provision. The Secretary no longer makes a final agency decision in contested tax cases. Substantive final decisions are published on the OAH website.
19	Amends the secrecy statute as follows: (15a): Modifies the circumstances under which the Department may share information with law enforcement agencies. On occasion, the Department has shared information with the IRS or another taxing jurisdiction under G.S. 105-259(b)(3) that is connected to a criminal investigation. However, some of the information shared may be information that is not "discovered" in the course of the investigation (i.e. audits that occurred prior to the criminal investigation that led the Department to initiate the criminal investigation). While those records may be shared with other taxing agencies (i.e. the IRS) under (b)(3), there may not be specific authorization to share the information with prosecutors (i.e. the US Attorney) who later are working on the criminal case. In addition, the change gets rid of awkward language regarding who may receive the information. The Department has agreements with all agencies with whom it is allowed to share information listing the specific individuals allowed to receive the information. A literal reading of the current language would allow the Department to share the info only with the head of the agency. It clarifies that a prosecutorial agency is a law enforcement agency. Finally, it allows the share of information with local law enforcement or law enforcement from another state. (25)[7]: Permits the Department to include a retailer's registration number in the public database of retailers who are authorized to collect sales and use tax. The Department already maintains a publicly accessible database listing the names of retailers authorized to collect sales and use tax. Many sellers use the online registry to verify sales and use tax numbers provided by customers who present an exemption certificate. (29): Corrects a citation and statutory reference.[8]
20	Conforms payment for TIMS to current practice. The language in the 2012-13 budget bill differed from standard practice used by DOR since the beginning of benefits funding for the project. Technically, OSBM authorizes DOR to make purchases rather than making those purchases itself.
21	Modifies the circumstances under which the Department may share information regarding the unauthorized substances tax. The current restriction on disclosure could prevent Department employees from sharing information in situations that do not present concerns about Constitutional protections for criminal defendants like double jeopardy or self-incrimination such as: • A prosecutor investigates allegations of law enforcement unlawfully seizing property from specific individuals. Law enforcement personnel report the property has been turned over the Department to satisfy a tax debt. • A prosecutor requests information from the Department in order to satisfy his obligation to provide the defendant in a criminal case with potentially exculpatory information. • A Department employee serving a tax warrant witnesses a crime committed by the taxpayer against a third party.

[7] This change has been requested by the Department since the introduction of the bill and was not included in the original Revenue Laws recommendation.

[8] Part 2F of Article 10 of Chapter 143B relates to the E-NC Initiative and has been repealed.

22	Subsection (a) clarifies the procedure and requirements for obtaining a license for the distribution of tobacco products and provides the Department with specific guidance as to when a license may be denied. This subsection also requires the Department to include certain information on the face of each license, and directs the Department to keep a record of license holders that may be provided to other license holders upon request. Subsection (b) clarifies the violations for which the Secretary, after a hearing, may cancel a license for the distribution of tobacco products. Subsection (c) clarifies a distributor of cigarettes may provide security to the Secretary in the form of an irrevocable letter of credit as an alternative to a bond. This subsection also deletes a redundant provision for investigation of license applicants. This section becomes effective September 1, 2013.
23	Makes changes to the sourcing of direct mail to comply with Streamlined requirements. Under current law, direct mail is sourced to the location from which it is shipped unless it was purchased using a direct pay permit or the purchaser provides the seller with information showing the jurisdictions to which the mail is to be delivered. In those instances, the mail is sourced to the delivery location. Under the Streamlined Agreement, direct mail categorized into "advertising and promotional direct mail" and "other direct mail." The current law as stated above is accurate except that "other direct mail" (direct mail other than advertising and promotional direct mail) should be sourced to the purchaser's address available from the seller's business records if the mail is not purchased using a direct pay permit or if the purchaser does not provide the seller with jurisdictional delivery information.
ADDITIONAL CHANGES
30	Corrects a citation.

31	Clarifies that Department personnel have the right to access a specialty market registration list. This clarification will assist with compliance checks by Department employees and provide clear direction that operators are required to obtain and provide information to assist with administration and collection of sales tax at events.
32	Adds a sunset to 105-129.16H, which is the credit for donating funds to a nonprofit or unit of State or local government to enable that entity to acquire renewable energy property. G.S. 105-129.16A, which is the credit for investing in renewable energy property, currently has a sunset of January 1, 2016. The same sunset is implied for G.S. 105-129.16H to the extent the credit is tied to G.S. 105-129.16A; that is, G.S. 105-129.16H allows the same credit when the purchaser of renewable energy property is a nonprofit that is not subject to income tax.
33	Deletes the word "large" from the statute. This is a technical change because the credit for large recycling facilities was repealed by S.L. 2010-166.[9]
34	Consolidates the bonus depreciation and section 179 expensing provisions related to decoupling from the Code into a new, stand-alone statute. Provides that in the event of a transfer of assets, instead of taking any remaining bonus depreciation deductions, the transferee adds the amount of any remaining deductions to the basis of the transferred asset.
35	Effectuates intent of IRC Update (S.L. 2013-10) by clarifying that charitable deduction is not subject to charitable contribution limitation and carryover provisions but is subject to the overall limitation on itemized deductions under section 68 of the Code.
36	Makes conforming changes required by the fact that G.S. 105-130.6, which dealt with forced combinations, was repealed in 2011 and replaced with a new statute. The definitions for "subsidiary" and "affiliate" are the same definitions that were in G.S. 105-130.6.
37	Modifies the individual income tax credit for charitable contributions by non-itemizers for tax year 2013 by including in the taxpayer's excess charitable contributions the amount by which the taxpayer's charitable contributions for the taxable year would have been deductible under Section 170 of the Code had the taxpayer not elected to take the income exclusion under Section 408(d)(8) of the Code that exceed two percent of the taxpayer's adjusted gross income.
39	Gives the Department flexibility in requiring electronic submissions.

[9] The repeal of this credit was a recommendation of the Revenue Laws Study Committee because the incentive was never utilized. The credit was intended for Wisconsin Tissue; however, that company never located in North Carolina.

40	Makes the sales tax imposition statute for digital property mirror the sales tax imposition statute for tangible personal property to make clear that the imposition of sales tax on digital property includes lease or rental. This is a technical change.
41	Adds the word "product" to the sourcing provisions for mobile telecommunications, which currently covers only services. This change was recommended by Streamlined in light of the fact that under the federal Mobile Telecommunications Sourcing Act, sales of certain digital products, such as a ringtone, is adjunct to mobile telecommunication service and is, therefore, sourced under the mobile sourcing provisions.
42	Clarifies that joint library systems that serve two or more counties, or counties and cities, are allowed the sales and use tax refund as a public library.[10] Currently, the sales and use tax refund for public libraries applies only to public libraries created by act of the General Assembly. While most libraries are part of a city or county government and receive the refund due to the county/city refund provision, some libraries were chartered by an act of the General Assembly.[11] A public library may also be established jointly by two or more counties or cities and counties under general authority granted in G.S. 153A-270. This provision would allow libraries created pursuant to this general authority, in addition to those created by a specific local act of the General Assembly, to be eligible for a sales and use tax refund.
43	Rewrites the provision dealing with a certificate of exemption for sales tax purposes in light of changes adopted by the Streamlined Governing Board. Among the changes is the requirement that a retailer must pay within 90 days sales tax on a transaction unless it obtains a fully completed exemption certificate, or within 120 days upon audit.
44	Allows the Secretary of Revenue to authorize the Streamlined Sales Tax Governing Board to contract, on behalf of the Secretary, with a certified service provider for the collection and remittance of sales and use taxes on behalf of the seller.
45	Makes a technical change to the distribution of part of the sales tax on video programming service and telecommunications service to counties and cities. In 2010, the General Assembly repealed the PEG Grant Fund and increased the revenues from the video programming sales tax designated for Supplemental PEG channel support to $4 million per year.[12] However, the distributional section of the statute was not amended accordingly and still refers to $2 million.

Two or more counties or cities or counties and cities may establish a joint library system or contract for library services, according to the procedures and provisions of Chapter 160A, Article 20, Part 1.
[11] The Public Library of Charlotte and Mecklenburg County was chartered in 1903 by act of the General Assembly.
[12] S.L. 2010-158.

47	Codifies the Department's administrative practice of allowing protective refund claims. Generally speaking, there is a time limit within which a taxpayer may file a claim for refund. If the claim for refund is not timely filed, it will be barred. Occasionally, a taxpayer's right to a potential refund is based on a contingent event, such as pending litigation or an ongoing income tax audit in another state, for a taxable period for which the statute of limitations is about to expire, and the outcome of that event may affect the North Carolina tax liability. The Department has administratively allowed for a taxpayer in these circumstances to file a timely but incomplete claim for refund, known as a "protective refund claim," and then later perfect the claim when the essential information becomes available. The proposed language would require the taxpayer to file the claim within 6 months of the conclusion of the contingent event. Under current practice, there is no stated timeline for filing a protective claim. It would also require the taxpayer to indicate an estimated amount of the overpayment. Currently, an estimate is not required.
48	Clarifies when a person may object to a proposed rule related to the Secretary's authority to require a combined return and request review by the Rules Review Commission (RRC). The rulemaking process allows an agency to change the text of a proposed rule in response to comments and objections raised during the public hearing and comment period, but a person should not be able to subject a rule to RRC review until the agency has adopted the rule. Under this rewrite, a person would only be able to subject the rule to RRC review after the agency has adopted the rule rather than prior to its adoption.
49	Clarifies that it is the intent of the General Assembly to harmonize the language of the local statutes to be consistent with the State sales and use tax statues. These changes clarify that the local statutes are intended to be consistent with G.S. 105-164.8(c) relative to imposition of tax and destination sourcing requirements.
50	Allows a regional public transportation authority created under Article 26 of Chapter 160A[13] to create a special district consisting of one or more counties within its territorial jurisdiction to levy an annual license tax upon any motor vehicle in its jurisdiction to raise revenue for capital and operating expenses of the Authority in providing public transportation systems. Currently, regional public transportation authorities can only levy the tax if all counties in the region agree to the tax. Regional transportation authorities created under Article 27 of Chapter 160A[14] already have the authority to levy the tax if less than all of the member counties approve the tax.

[13] This Article applies to the Research Triangle Regional Public Transportation Authority, better known as Triangle Transit or TTA, which is a three-county regional public transit agency serving Wake, Durham and Orange Counties.

[14] This Article applies to the Piedmont Authority for Regional Transportation (PART), which provides inter-city and regional public transportation for the Greensboro, Winston-Salem and High Point, NC area.

51	Codifies Departmental policy promulgated in an Important Notice dated June 30, 2011, that lease receipts billed on or after July 1, 2011, are subject to the 4.75% State rate of sales tax instead of the 5.75% State rate of sales tax, regardless of the fact that the lease was entered into for a definite period of time prior to July 1, 2011, at which time the rate was 5.75%.[15]
52	Makes two clarifying changes regarding the retention by the Department of Revenue of the 911 surcharge for the first year of implementation. S.L. 2011-122 authorized collection of the 911 service charge for prepaid wireless service at the point of retail sale. Although the charge is not a tax, it is collected by the Department of Revenue. To offset the cost of collection, the Department is authorized to retain the cost of collection below a cap. This section clarifies the first year cap applies to the surcharge collected by the retailers in the first year. Due to the delay of the remittance, not all of the charges collected by retailers in the first 12 months will be remitted to the Department in those first 12 months. This section also clarifies that the Department may retain costs incurred by the Department prior to the effective date of the surcharge. In order to ensure compliance, the Department has mailed notification of the law change to all entities that remit the 911 surcharge prior to the effective date of the surcharge.
53	Requires the Department of Revenue to allocate and distribute to cities and counties the amount equal to the average of the local sales and use taxes that was allocated and distributed to them in the preceding three fiscal years if the Department cannot accurately identify and calculate correct amounts for distributions payable in fiscal year 2014-15 because of implementation issues with the Tax Information Management System (TIMS).
54	Expands eligibility for a refund of sales and use taxes to include volunteer fire departments and EMS squads that are financially accountable to a city, a county, or a group of cities and counties and not merely those that are exempt from income tax under the Internal Revenue Code. The IRS treats entities that are financially accountable to a city or a county as tax exempt without any formal determination process. This section modifies the refund statute to match the current IRS practice and allow refunds to entities that would be treated by the IRS as tax exempt under the Internal Revenue Code. The NC Department of Revenue (DOR) has administratively ruled that some volunteer fire departments and volunteer EMS qualify for refunds of sales and use tax because the entities are financially accountable to a city or a county. This provision becomes effective July 1, 2013, and applies to purchases occurring on or after that date.

[15] S.L. 2009-451 provided for a temporary 1% State sales tax increase (to 5.75%) with a July 1, 2011 expiration date. Without further legislation action, the State sales tax rate returned to 4.75% on July 1, 2011.

56	Provides that a responsible person in a business entity is personally and individually liable only for the principal amount of taxes owed by the business entity. As recommended by the Revenue Laws Study Committee, this bill included a proposal to clarify that penalties and interest, in addition to the principal amount of taxes, transfers to a responsible officer in a business entity that fails to pay taxes owed. During discussion in House Finance, the bill was amended to delete this provision, the intent being that a responsible officer should not be liable for penalties and interest. This provision more clearly effectuates that intent by specifically stating that the responsible person may only be liable for the principal amount of taxes owed. This provision is effective when the act becomes law and applies to assessments proposed on or after that date.
57	Authorizes a new special registration plate for the North Carolina Paddle Festival. The plate would cost $30 and the proceeds would go to the Friends of the Hammocks and Bear Island, Inc.
58	Makes a series of technical and conforming changes that need to be made in the event H998 is enacted. Subsection (a) incorporates the changes made by Section 34(d) of this bill, of this bill. Subsection (b) repeals reporting requirements that are no longer necessary because the tax credits for which the information is needed have been eliminated. Subsection (c) corrects statutory references. Subsection (d) maintains the current authority cities have to impose a local privilege tax on live entertainment. Under current law, a local tax may not exceed $25. Without this clarification, a city's authority to impose a privilege tax on live entertainment could be interpreted to be more expansive than current law.
OCCUPANCY TAX CHANGES
60	Makes technical changes to various local occupancy tax acts so that they conform to changes made to the Uniform Provisions for Room Occupancy Taxes. In 2010[16], the General Assembly amended the uniform provisions governing occupancy tax to provide that room occupancy tax applies to the same gross receipts as the State sales tax on accommodations and is calculated in the same manner as that tax. The legislation further provided that to the extent this provision conflicts with any provision of a local act, the general law supersedes the local provision. Therefore, the changes in this section are technical because to the extent they conflict with State law, they have been superseded by the 2010 legislation. Specifically, there is no State sales tax exemption for businesses that rent fewer than five units, and the exemption for summer camps is not needed because they are already exempt under State law. The other deletions also reflect the application of State sales tax on accommodations. The table below shows the localities impacted because their legislation either imposes an occupancy tax on campgrounds/campsites or exempts from occupancy tax all or some combination of the following: • A business that offers to rent fewer than five units

[16] Section 31.6 of S.L. 2010-31.

	• Summer camps • Religious organizations • Educational organizations • Charitable, benevolent, and other nonprofit organizations

TAX & TAG TOGETHER MOTOR VEHICLE PROPERTY TAX SYSTEM CHANGES

In 2005, the General Assembly created a framework establishing a combined system for motor vehicle registration renewal and property tax collection. Originally, the act was to become effective the earlier of January 1, 2009, or the date that the Department of Revenue and the Division of Motor Vehicles certified that an integrated computer system is in operation. The effective date has since been extended and is currently set to go into effect July 1, 2013. Under the new system, the taxpayer/motor vehicle owner will receive one bill for property taxes and the DMV license renewal, and DMV will be the collecting authority. Counties will still determine the value and the taxability situs of motor vehicles. A number of conforming changes are needed to fully implement the combined system, which goes into effect July 1, 2013. Sections 70-72 of this bill consist of those changes.

70	Makes two changes to the effective dates of the acts that establish the combined system: • Removes conditional language. – The current effective date for the combined system contained a conditional clause that allowed the system to be effective earlier than July 1, 2013, if the integrated computer system was operational. The system will be online as of July 1, 2013. Therefore, the conditional clause is deleted from the effective dates. • Clarifies local government authority. – Although the tax year for registered motor vehicles does not change under the combined system, the collection date for property taxes is earlier under the combined system. For the months of July, August, and September, local governments will send bills for tax years that begin on or before September 1, 2013. During those same months, the Tax and Tag Together system will begin to send bills for tax years that begin after September 1, 2013. The effective date is amended to clarify local government authority to collect property tax for tax years beginning on or before September 1, 2013, under the statutes as in effect June 30, 2013.

71	Repeals certain prior technical and conforming changes that are now inconsistent with the statutes as they will become effective July 1, 2013, and recodifies the necessary technical changes. Over 8 different session laws have amended the Tag and Tax Together system. The effective date for the system has also been changed at least three times. The combination of the multiple changes has made further technical changes difficult to make.
71(a)	Repeals inconsistent changes.
71(b)	Clarifies the appeals process for motor vehicle property tax. A taxpayer may appeal motor vehicle taxes on a number of grounds: the valuation by the county, the denial of an application for exemption or exclusion, and on the grounds that the county does not have authority to tax the vehicle because the situs of the vehicle is in another taxing district. The term "taxability" in the appeal statutes has been used to refer to both exemption status and situs, but because there are different time periods that apply depending on the basis of a taxpayer's appeal, the Department recommends separating the statutory provisions.[17] Therefore, this section strikes the term "taxability" from G.S. 105-330.2(b1) so that, as amended, this subsection would apply only to appeals based on valuation. It also creates a new subsection (b2) to address appeals based on an application for exemption or exclusion. Appeals based on a county's authority to tax are covered under current law in G.S. 105-381.
71(c)	Establishes a process for the collection of property tax on an unregistered vehicle. The objective of the process is to ensure that the taxpayer is not double-taxed and that property taxes are paid on motor vehicles that a person owns even if it is not registered. If a person does not register or renew registration, then the person would be required to list the vehicle with the county assessor. The listing will generate a tax bill. However, if the person subsequently registers or renews the tag for the vehicle, then DMV will charge the person for the registration plus the property tax. This provision allows a county to ignore the listing to the extent the person registered or renewed within the same year.
71(d)	Clarifies that counties would have authority to use collection remedies for unpaid motor vehicle taxes that were billed prior to the effective date of the combined motor vehicle/property tax system. With a July 1 effective date, the first bills sent under the combined system will be for September registration renewals. The October 1st date is used because the tax year for September renewals begins October 1. It allows 45 days before the second month's interest begins. This is needed due to DMV's business process which DOR thinks may cause some taxpayers who pay by mail to get caught in a loop of sending in the payment after the due date, and the payment would be rejected. Without this change, the next month's interest would start before they got the correct amount mailed back in to DMV. This section also changes the term "tax collector" to "collecting authority" because under the new system, DMV and not the county tax assessor or tax collector will be the collecting authority.

[17] A taxpayer has 30 days to appeal a determination of value or eligibility for an exemption or exclusion. However, there is a five-year period to appeal an "illegal" tax under G.S. 105-381.

72	Allows vehicles of victims of domestic violence, sexual offense, stalking, or human trafficking vehicles to be billed as other personal property, keeping the addresses confidential. Chapter 15C of the General Statutes establishes an Address Confidentiality Program to protect the confidentiality of the addresses of victims of domestic violence, sexual offense, stalking, or human trafficking. If these vehicles were taxed under the combined system, the address would not be confidential.

HOUSE BILL 194:
Allow PAVE Certification/Veterinary License

2013-2014 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Finance	Date:	July 16, 2013
Introduced by:	Reps. Whitmire, Moffitt, Setzer, L. Bell	Prepared by:	Heather Fennell Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	First Edition

SUMMARY: House Bill 194 would add the Program for the Assessment of Veterinary Education Equivalence (PAVE) as a program that a graduate from a nonaccredited college of veterinary medicine must successfully complete in order to practice veterinary medicine in North Carolina.

CURRENT LAW: Under current law, in order for a person to practice veterinary medicine in North Carolina, the person must either:

- Be a graduate of an accredited veterinary school.
- Be a graduate of a nonaccredited college of veterinary medicine who has successfully completed the certification program developed and administered by the Educational Commission for Foreign Veterinary Graduates (ECFVG) of the American Veterinary Medical Association.

BILL ANALYSIS: House Bill 194 would add the Program for the Assessment of Veterinary Education Equivalence (PAVE) of the American Association of Veterinary State Boards to the ECFVG program as a program that a graduate from a nonaccredited college of veterinary medicine must successfully complete in order to practice veterinary medicine in North Carolina. A graduate from a nonaccredited college of veterinary medicine would have to successfully complete PAVE or the ECFVG program, not both.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act would become effective when it becomes law.

BACKGROUND: Currently, 38 states recognize PAVE as meeting the education component of their licensure requirements, including our neighboring states of South Carolina, Georgia, Tennessee, and Virginia.

Jeff Hudson, counsel to House Regulatory Reform Subcommittee on Business and Labor, substantially contributed to this summary.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT REWRITING THE LAWS REGULATING UNDERGROUND UTILITY DAMAGE PREVENTION.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Article 8 of Chapter 87 of the General Statutes is repealed.

SECTION 2. Chapter 87 of the General Statutes is amended by adding the following new Article to read:

"Article 8A.

"Underground Utility Safety and Damage Prevention Act.

"§ 87-115. Short title.

This Article may be cited as the "Underground Utility Safety and Damage Prevention Act."

"§ 87-116. Declaration of policy and purpose.

The General Assembly of North Carolina hereby declares as a matter of public policy that it is necessary to protect the citizens and workforce of this State from the dangers inherent in excavating or demolishing in areas where underground lines, systems, or infrastructure are buried beneath the surface of the ground, and it is necessary to protect from costly damage underground facilities used for producing, storing, conveying, transmitting, or distributing communication, electricity, gas, petroleum, petroleum products, hazardous liquids, water, steam, or sewage. In order to carry out this public policy and to satisfy these compelling interests, the General Assembly has enacted the provisions of this Article providing for a systematic, orderly, and uniform process to identify existing facilities in advance of any excavation or demolition in this State and to implement safe digging practices.

"§ 87-119. Costs associated with compliance; effect of permit.

Any costs or expenses associated with an excavator's compliance with the requirements of this Article shall not be charged to any operator. Any costs or expenses associated with an operator's compliance with the requirements of this Article shall not be charged to any excavator. The Notification Center may not impose any charge on any person giving notice to the Notification Center. This section shall not affect costs related to the operation of the Notification Center apportioned to an operator pursuant to G.S. 87-120(b). This section shall not excuse an operator or excavator from liability for any damage or injury for which the operator or excavator would be responsible under applicable law.

"§ 87-120. Notification Center; responsibilities.

(a) The operators in the State shall maintain a Notification Center for the sole purpose of providing the services required by this Article. The Notification Center shall maintain information concerning receipt of notification of proposed excavation and demolition activities as provided in this Article and shall maintain information received from operators concerning the location of the operators' facilities and the operators' positive responses to marking of the facilities. The Notification Center shall also receive, maintain, and provide general administration of reports of alleged violations of this Article and responses. The Notification Center is not responsible in any way for identifying or marking facilities for operators. The Notification Center is not responsible in any way for resolving reports of alleged violations of this Article. All operators in the State shall join the Notification Center as provided in subsection (b) of this section, and they shall use the services of the Notification Center to perform the acts required by the provisions of this Article. There shall be only one Notification Center for the State of North Carolina. The Notification Center is not an agency of the State or any of the State's political subdivisions and is not subject to the provisions of Chapter 132 or Chapter 133 of the General Statutes.

(b) Operators who are members of the Notification Center by whatever name that is in existence on October 1, 2013, must remain members. Operators with more than 50,000 customers or 1,000 miles of facilities who are not members on October 1, 2013, must join no later than October 1, 2014. Operators with more than 25,000 customers or 500 miles of facilities who are not members on October 1, 2013, must join no later than October 1, 2015. All operators that do not meet one of the criteria provided in this subsection must join no later than October 1, 2016. Each engineering division of the Department of Transportation established pursuant to G.S. 136-14.1 must join no later than October 1, 2016. The board of directors of the Notification Center shall develop a reasonable method of apportioning the costs of operating the Notification Center among the member operators. Prior to adopting a method of determining such cost allocation, the board of directors shall publish the proposed method of cost allocation to the member operators, and the proposed method of cost allocation shall be approved by the member operators.

(c) The Notification Center shall have the following duties and responsibilities:

(1) Maintain a record of the notices received under subsection (d) of this section for at least four years.

(2) Maintain a record of reports of alleged violations of this Article received under subsection (e) of this section for at least four years, including responses to such reports.

(3) Receive and transmit notices as provided in subsection (d) of this section.

(4) Develop and update, as needed, a business continuation plan.

(5) Notify those persons against whom reports of alleged violations of this Article have been made and receive and maintain information submitted from such persons in defense against the allegations.

(6) Provide a positive response system.

(7) Establish and operate a damage prevention training program for members of the Notification Center. No person may recover damages in any manner or form from the Notification Center arising out of or related to the manner in which the Notification Center conducts a damage prevention training program or receives, transmits, or otherwise administers a report of an alleged violation of this Article.

(d) The Notification Center shall receive notice from any person intending to excavate or demolish in the State and shall, at a minimum, transmit the following information to the appropriate operator:

(1) The name, address, and telephone number of the person providing the notice and, if different, the person responsible for the proposed excavation or demolition.

(2) The starting date of the proposed excavation or demolition.

(3) The anticipated duration of the proposed excavation or demolition.

(4) The type of proposed excavation or demolition operation to be conducted.

(5) The location of the proposed excavation or demolition.

(6) Whether or not explosives are to be used in the proposed excavation or demolition.

(e) The Notification Center shall receive reports of alleged violations of this Article. The Notification Center shall contact persons against whom reports have been filed to inform them of the alleged violation within 10 days of the filing of the report. The Notification Center shall maintain the following information regarding reports of alleged violations:

(1) The name, address, and telephone number of the person making the report;

(2) The nature of the report, including the statute that is alleged to have been violated;

(3) Information provided by the person making the report, including correspondence, both written and electronic, pictures, and videos; and

(4) Information provided by the person against whom the report has been filed, including correspondence, both written and electronic, pictures, and videos.

"§ 87-121. Facility operator responsibilities.

(a) An operator shall provide to the excavator the following:

(1) The horizontal location and description of all of the operator's facilities in the area where the proposed excavation or demolition is to occur. The location shall be marked by stakes, soluble paint, flags, or any combination thereof, as appropriate, depending upon the conditions in the area of the proposed excavation or demolition. The operator shall, when marking as provided under this subdivision, use the APWA Uniform Color Code. If the diameter or width of the facility is greater than four inches, the dimension of the facility shall be indicated at least every 25 feet in the area of the proposed excavation or demolition. An operator who operates multiple facilities in the area of the proposed excavation or demolition shall locate each facility.

(2) Any other information that would assist the excavator in identifying and thereby avoiding damage to the marked facilities.

(b) Unless otherwise provided in a written agreement between the operator and the excavator, the operator shall provide to the excavator the information required by subsection (a) of this section within the times provided below:

(1) For a facility, within three full working days after the day notice of the proposed excavation or demolition was provided to the Notification Center.

(2) For a subaqueous facility, within 10 full working days after the day notice of the proposed excavation or demolition was provided to the Notification Center.

(3) If the operator declares an extraordinary circumstance, the times provided in this subsection shall not apply.

(c) The operator shall provide a positive response to the Notification Center before the expiration of the time provided in subsection (b) of this section. The response shall indicate whether and to what extent the operator is able to provide the information required by subsection (a) of this section to respond to the notice from the excavator.

(d) If the operator determines that provisions for marking subaqueous facilities are required, the operator will provide a positive response to the Notification Center not more than three full working days after notice has been provided by the excavator.

(e) If extraordinary circumstances prevent the operator from marking the location of the facilities within the time specified in subsection (b) of this section, the operator shall either notify the excavator directly or notify the excavator through the Notification Center. When providing the notification under this subsection, the operator shall state the date and time when the location will be marked.

(f) An operator shall prepare or cause to be prepared installation records of all facilities installed on or after the date this Article becomes effective in a public street, alley, or right-of-way dedicated to public use, excluding service drops and services lines. The operator shall maintain these records in the operator's possession while the facility is in service.

(g) All facilities installed by or on behalf of operators on or after the date this Article becomes effective shall be electronically locatable using a locating method that is generally accepted by operators in the particular industry or trade in which the operator is engaged.

(h) A locator shall notify the operator if the locator becomes aware of an error or omission in the records or documentation showing the location of the operator's facilities. The operator must update its records to correct any error or omission.

(i) An operator may reject an excavation or demolition notice due to homeland security considerations based upon federal statutes or federal regulations until the operator can confirm the legitimacy of the notice. The operator shall notify the person making the notice of the denial and may request additional information through the positive response system.

(j) Gravity fed sanitary sewers installed prior to the date this Article becomes effective and all storm water facilities shall be exempt from the location requirements provided in subsection (a) of this section. Neither the excavator nor the person financially responsible for the excavation will be liable for any damage to an unmarked gravity fed sanitary sewer line or unmarked storm water facility if the person doing the excavation exercises due care to protect existing facilities when there is evidence of the existence of those facilities near the proposed excavation area.

(k) An operator who does not become a member of the Notification Center as required by G.S. 87-120(b) may not recover for damages to a facility caused by an excavator who has complied with the provisions of this Article and has exercised reasonable care in the performance of the excavation or demolition.

"§ 87-122. Excavator responsibilities.

(a) Before commencing any excavation or demolition operation, the person responsible for the excavation or demolition shall provide or cause to be provided notice to the Notification Center of his or her intent to excavate or demolish. Notice for any excavation or demolition that does not involve a subaqueous facility must be given within three to 12 full working days before the proposed commencement date of the excavation or demolition. Notice for any excavation or demolition in the vicinity of a subaqueous facility must be given within 10 to 20 full working days before the proposed commencement date of the excavation or demolition. Notice given pursuant to this subsection shall expire 15 full working days after the date notice was given. No excavation or demolition may continue after this 15-day period unless the person responsible for the excavation or demolition provides a subsequent notice which shall be provided in the same manner as the original notice required by this subsection. When demolition of a building is proposed, the operator shall be given a reasonable time in which to remove or protect the operator's facilities before the demolition commences.

(b) The notice required by subsection (a) of this section shall, at a minimum, contain all of the following:

(1) The name, address, and telephone number of the person providing the notice.

(2) The anticipated starting date of the proposed excavation or demolition.

(3) The anticipated duration of the proposed excavation or demolition.

(4) The type of proposed excavation or demolition operation to be conducted.

(5) The location of the proposed excavation or demolition, not to exceed one-quarter mile in geographical length, or five adjoining addresses, not to exceed one-quarter mile in geographical length.

(6) Whether or not explosives are to be used in the proposed excavation or demolition.

(c) An excavator shall comply with the following:

(1) When the excavation area cannot be clearly and adequately identified within the area described in the notice, the excavator shall designate the route, specific area to be excavated, or both by premarking the area before the operator performs a locate. Premarking shall be made with soluble white paint, white flags, or white stakes.

(2) Confirm through the Notification Center's positive response system prior to excavation or demolition that all operators have responded and that all facilities that may be affected by the proposed excavation or demolition have been marked.

(3) Plan the excavation or demolition to avoid damage to or minimize interference with facilities in or near the construction area.

(4) Begin excavation or demolition prior to the specified waiting period only if the excavator has confirmed that all operators have responded with an appropriate positive response.

(5) If the operator declares extraordinary circumstances, the excavator shall not excavate or demolish until after the time and date that the operator has provided in the operator's response.

(6) If an operator fails to respond to the positive response system, the excavator may proceed if there are no visible indications of a facility at the proposed excavation or demolition area, such as a pole, marker, pedestal, meter, or valve. However, if the excavator is aware of or observes indications of an unmarked facility at the proposed excavation or demolition area, the excavator shall not begin excavation or demolition until an additional call is made to the Notification Center detailing the facility and an arrangement is made for the facility to be marked by the operator within three hours from the time the additional call is received by the Notification Center.

(7) Beginning on the date provided in the excavator's notice to the Notification Center, the excavator shall preserve the staking, marking, or other designation until they are no longer required. When a mark is no longer visible or is destroyed, but the excavation or demolition continues in the vicinity of the facility, the excavator shall request a re-mark from the Notification Center to ensure the protection of the facility.

(8) When demolition of a building is proposed, the excavator shall give the operator a reasonable time in which to remove or protect the operator's facilities before demolition commences.

(9) An excavator shall not perform any excavation or demolition within the tolerance zone unless the excavator complies with all of the following conditions:

a. The excavator shall not use mechanized equipment, except noninvasive equipment specifically designed or intended to protect the integrity of the facility, within the marked tolerance zone of an existing facility until:

1. The excavator has visually identified the precise location of the facility or has visually confirmed that no facility is present up to the depth of excavation;

2. The excavator has taken reasonable precautions to avoid any substantial weakening of the facility's structural or lateral support, or both, or penetration or destruction of the facilities or their protective coatings; and

3. The excavator may use mechanical means, as necessary, for the initial penetration and removal of pavement or other materials requiring use of mechanical means of excavation but only to the depth of the pavement or other materials. For parallel type excavations within the tolerance zone, the existing facility shall be visually identified at intervals not to exceed 50 feet along the line of excavation to avoid damages. The excavator shall exercise due care at all times to protect the facilities when exposing these facilities.

b. The excavator shall maintain clearance between a facility and the cutting edge or point of any mechanized equipment, taking into account the known limit of control of the cutting edge or point, as may be reasonably necessary to avoid damage to the facility.

c. The excavator shall provide support for facilities in and near the excavation or demolition area, including backfill operations, as may be reasonably required by the operator for the protection of the facilities.

(10) The excavator shall not use mechanized equipment within 24 inches of a facility that is a gas, oil, petroleum, or electric transmission line unless the facility operator has consented to the use in writing and the operator's representative is on site during the use of the mechanized equipment. For purposes of this subdivision, the term "gas, oil, petroleum transmission line" has the same meaning as the term "transmission line" in Title 49 C.F.R. § 192.3, and the term "electric transmission line" has the same meaning as the term "transmission line" in G.S. 62-100(7).

"§ 87-123. Training.

(a) Every person who is an excavator, locator, or operator under this Article by virtue of engaging in these activities in the course of a business or trade has a duty to provide education and training to employees and to document such education and training. The training shall include sufficient information, guidance, and supervision such that employees can competently and safely operate the equipment used in the course of the business or trade and complete assigned tasks in a competent and safe manner while minimizing the potential for damage.

(b) When an excavator, locator, or operator under this Article retains an independent contractor to perform activities regulated by this Article, the duty set forth in subsection (a) of this section shall not apply to the excavator, locator, or operator. Independent contractors shall provide training to their employees in accordance with this section.

(c) Excavation shall be conducted in accordance with OSHA Standard 1926 and under the direction of a competent person, as defined therein.

(d) Locators shall be properly trained. Locator training shall be documented.

"§ 87-124. Exemptions.

The notice requirements in G.S. 87-122(a) and G.S. 87-122(b) do not apply to the following:

(1) An excavation or demolition performed by the owner of a single-family residential property on his or her own land that does not encroach on any operator's right-of-way, easement, or permitted use.

(2) An excavation or demolition performed by the owner of a single-family residential property on his or her own land that encroaches on any operator's right-of-way, easement, or permitted use that is performed with non-mechanized equipment.

(3) An excavation or demolition that involves the tilling of soil for agricultural or gardening purposes.

(4) An excavation or demolition for agricultural purposes, as defined in G.S. 106-581.1, performed on property that does not encroach on any operator's right-of-way, easement, or permitted use.

(5) An excavation by an operator or surveyor with nonmechanized equipment for the following purposes:

a. Locating for a valid notification request or for the minor repair, connection, or routine maintenance of an existing facility or survey pin.

b. Probing underground to determine the extent of gas or water migration.

(6) An excavation or demolition performed when the Department of Transportation, a local government, special purpose district, or public service district is conducting maintenance activities within its designated right-of-way. Maintenance activities shall include resurfacing, milling, emergency replacement of signs critical for maintaining safety, or the reshaping of shoulders and ditches to the original road profile. Maintenance activities do not include the initial installation of traffic signs, traffic control equipment, or guardrails.

(7) An excavation or demolition performed by a railroad entirely on land which the railroad owns or operates or, in the event of an emergency, on adjacent land. No provision in this Article shall apply to any railroad which owns, operates, or permits facilities under land which the railroad owns or operates.

(8) An excavation of a grave space, as defined in G.S. 65-48(10), the installation of a monument or memorial at a grave space, or an excavation related to the placement of a temporary structure or tent by a cemetery regulated under Chapter 65 of the General Statutes that does not encroach on any operator's right-of-way, easement, or permitted use.

"§ 87-125. Notice in case of emergency excavation or demolition.

(a) An excavator performing an emergency excavation or demolition is not required to give notice to the Notification Center as provided in G.S. 87-122. However, the excavator shall, as soon as practicable, give oral notice to the Notification Center which shall include a description of the circumstances justifying the emergency. The excavator may request emergency assistance from each affected operator in locating and providing immediate protection to the facilities in the affected area.

(b) The declaration of an emergency excavation or demolition shall not relieve any party of liability for causing damage to an operator's facilities even if those facilities are unmarked.

(c) Any person who falsely claims that an emergency exists requiring an excavation or demolition shall be guilty of a Class 3 misdemeanor.

"§ 87-126. Notification required when damage is done.

(a) The excavator performing an excavation or demolition that results in any damage to a facility shall immediately upon discovery of the damage notify the Notification Center and the facility operator, if known, of the location and nature of the damage. The excavator shall allow the operator reasonable time to accomplish necessary repairs before completing the excavation or demolition in the immediate area of the facility. The excavator shall delay any backfilling in the immediate area of the damaged facility until authorized by the operator. The operator or qualified personnel authorized by the operator shall repair any damage to the facility.

(b) An excavator who is responsible for an excavation or demolition where any damage to a facility results in the discharge of electricity or escape of any flammable, toxic, or corrosive gas or liquid, or that endangers life, health, or property shall immediately notify emergency responders, including 911 services, the Notification Center, and the facility operator. The excavator shall take reasonable measures to protect himself or herself, other persons in immediate danger, members of the general public, property, and the environment until the operator or emergency responders arrive and complete an assessment of the situation.

"§ 87-127. Design notices.

(a) A designer may submit a design notice to the Notification Center. The design notice shall describe the tract or parcel of land for which the design notice has been submitted with sufficient particularity, as defined by policies and procedures adopted by the Notification Center, to allow the operator to ascertain the precise tract or parcel of land involved.

(b) Within 10 working days, not including the day the notice was given, after a design notice for a proposed project has been submitted to the Notification Center, the operator shall respond in one of the following manners:

(1) By designating the location of all facilities owned by the operator within the area of the proposed excavation as provided in G.S. 87-121(a).

(2) By providing to the person submitting the design notice the best available description of all facilities in the area designated by the design notice, which may include drawings marked with a scale, dimensions, and reference points for underground utilities already built in the area or other facility records that are maintained by the operator.

(3) Allowing the person submitting the design notice or any other authorized person to inspect the drawings or other records for all facilities within the proposed area of excavation at a location that is acceptable to the operator.

(c) An operator may reject a design notice based upon homeland security considerations pending the operator obtaining additional information confirming the legitimacy of the notice. The operator shall notify the person making the request through a design notice of the denial and may request additional information through the positive response system.

"§ 87-128. Absence of facility location.

If an operator who has been given notice as provided in G.S. 87-120(d) by the Notification Center fails to respond to that notice as provided in G.S. 87-121 or fails to properly locate the facility, the person excavating is free to proceed with the excavation. Neither the excavator nor the person financially responsible for the excavation will be liable to the nonresponding or improperly responding operator for damages to the operator's facilities if the person doing the excavating exercises due care to protect existing facilities when there is evidence of the existence of those facilities near the proposed excavation area.

"§ 87-129. Underground Damage Prevention Review Board; enforcement; civil penalties.

(a) The Notification Center shall establish an Underground Damage Prevention Review Board to review reports of alleged violations of this Article. The members of the Board shall be appointed by the Governor. The Board shall consist of the following members:

(1) A representative from the North Carolina Department of Transportation;

(2) A representative from a facility contract locator;

(3) A representative from the Notification Center;

(4) A representative from an electric public utility;

(5) A representative from the telecommunications industry;

(6) A representative from a natural gas utility;

(7) A representative from a hazardous liquid transmission pipeline company;

(8) A representative recommended by the League of Municipalities;

(9) A highway contractor licensed under G.S. 87-10(b)(2) who does not own or operate facilities;

(10) A public utilities contractor licensed under G.S. 87-10(b)(3) who does not own or operate facilities;

(11) A surveyor licensed under Chapter 89C of the General Statutes;

(12) A representative from a rural water system;

(13) A representative from an investor-owned water system;

(15) A representative from a cable company.

(b) The Notification Center shall transmit all reports of alleged violations of this Article to the Board, including any information received by the Notification Center regarding the report. The Board shall meet at least quarterly to review all reports filed pursuant to G.S. 87-120(e). The Board shall act as an arbitrator between the parties to the report. If, after reviewing the report and any accompanying information, the Board determines that a violation of this Article has occurred, the Board shall notify the violating party in writing of its determination and the recommended penalty. The violating party may request a hearing before the Board, after which the Board may reverse or uphold its original finding. If the Board recommends a penalty, the Board shall notify the Utilities Commission of the recommended penalty, and the Utilities Commission shall issue an order imposing the penalty.

(c) A party determined by the Board under subsection (b) of this section to have violated this Article may initiate an arbitration proceeding before the Utilities Commission. If the violating party elects to initiate an arbitration proceeding, the violating party shall pay a filing fee of two hundred fifty dollars ($250.00) to the Utilities Commission, and the Utilities Commission shall open a docket regarding the report. The Utilities Commission shall direct the parties enter into an arbitration process. The parties shall be responsible for selecting and contracting with the arbitrator. Upon completion of the arbitration process, the Utilities Commission shall issue an order encompassing the outcome of the binding arbitration process, including a determination of fault, a penalty, and assessing the costs of arbitration to the non-prevailing party. Any party may appeal an order issued by the Utilities Commission pursuant to this section to the superior court division of the General Court of Justice in the county where the alleged violation of this Article occurred or in Wake County, for trial de novo. The authority granted to the Utilities Commission within this section is limited to this section and does not grant the Utilities Commission any authority that they are not otherwise granted under Chapter 62 of the General Statutes.

(d) Any person who violates any provision of this Article shall be subject to a penalty as set forth in this subsection. The provisions of this Article do not affect any civil remedies for personal injury or property damage otherwise available to any person, except as otherwise specifically provided for in this Article. The penalty provisions of this Article are cumulative to and not in conflict with provisions of law with respect to civil remedies for personal injury or property damage. The clear proceeds of any civil penalty assessed under this section shall be used as provided in Section 7(a) of Article IX of the North Carolina Constitution. The penalties for a violation of this Article shall be as follows:

(1) If the violation was the result of negligence, the penalty shall be a requirement of training, a requirement of education, or both.

(2) If the violation was the result of gross negligence, the penalty shall be a civil penalty of one thousand dollars ($1,000), a requirement of training, a requirement of education, or a combination of the three.

(3) If the violation was the result of willful or wanton negligence or intentional conduct, the penalty shall be a civil penalty of two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500), a requirement of training, and a requirement of education.

"§ 87-130. Severability.

If any provision of this Article or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications, and to this end the provisions of this Article are severable."

SECTION 3. This act becomes effective October 1, 2014, and applies to all activities regulated by the provisions of Article 8A of Chapter 87 of the General Statutes, as enacted by this act, that occur on or after that date.

HOUSE BILL 476:
Rewrite Underground Damage Prevention Act

2013-2014 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Finance	Date:	July 16, 2013
Introduced by:	Reps. Hager, Moffitt, Murry	Prepared by:	Peter Ledford Staff Attorney
Analysis of:	PCS to Fifth Edition H476-CSTPf-59

SUMMARY: The PCS to House Bill 476 would repeal the State's existing Underground Damage Prevention Act and enact a new Underground Utility Safety and Damage Prevention Act.

The PCS makes changes to the exemptions and to the punishments for violations of the Underground Utility Safety and Damage Prevention Act.

CURRENT LAW: The existing Underground Damage Prevention Act requires anyone excavating in an area containing highways, public spaces, or private easements owned by a utility to notify each utility owner with underground utilities located in the area. The utility owner is then required to provide the location and description of all underground utilities which may be damaged by the excavation, the location and description of all utility markers in the area, and any other information that would assist in locating and avoiding damage to underground utilities, such as temporary markings. The excavator is then required to plan the excavation to avoid damage to any underground utilities, to maintain a clearance between the underground utilities and any mechanized equipment, and provide structural support to protect the underground utilities.

The current Act has not been significantly amended since it was introduced in 1985.

BILL ANALYSIS: Section 1 repeals the existing Underground Damage Prevention Act. Section 2 enacts a new Underground Utility Safety and Damage Prevention Act.

Notification Center. – G.S. 87-120 would create a Notification Center for the purpose of providing services under the Act. The Notification Center would receive notifications from excavators and designers, and would transmit the information to utility operators.

All utility owners would be required to join the Notification Center no later than October 1, 2016. The Notification Center would be required to maintain records, receive and transmit notifications, provide a response system that allows parties to determine the status of a notification, and provide damage prevention training.

Responsibilities of Utility Owners. – Utility owners would be required to join the Notification Center under G.S. 87-120(b) by a set date based on the facilities they own in the State. G.S. 87-121(g) would require all underground facilities installed after the Act becomes effective to be electronically locatable. Subsection (j) of the section would exempt existing gravity fed sanitary sewers and new and existing stormwater facilities from the Act, and would provide that an excavator is not liable for damage to an unmarked gravity fed sanitary sewer or stormwater facility if due care was used to protect the facilities. Utility owners would also be required by G.S. 87-123 to educate and train their employees.

G.S. 87-121 would require utility operators to provide an excavator with the horizontal location and description of underground facilities in the area of the proposed excavation, including temporary markings, as well as any other information that would assist the excavator in avoiding damage to underground facilities. Utility operators are required to provide the information within three working days of the request being provided to the Notification Center for most requests, as well as to provide a response to the Notification Center indicating the extent to which the utility operator was able to provide the required information. Subsection (k) would also provide that an excavator is not liable for damage to underground utilities owned by a utility that is not a member of the Notification Center if due care was used to protect the facilities.

Under G.S. 87-127, utility owners would be required to respond to requests from design professionals by either (1) designating the location of facilities as they would for an excavator, (2) providing the best available description of all facilities in the area, or (3) allowing the professional to inspect drawings and other records for facilities in the area.

Responsibilities of Excavators. – G.S. 87-122 would require an excavator to provide notice of proposed work to the Notification Center between three and twelve working days before the start of excavation. An excavator would be required to take steps to verify that the underground utilities have been marked and to take due care not to damage underground utilities. The section would establish a tolerance zone of 24 inches, inside which the excavator is prohibited from using mechanized equipment unless specified precautions are taken. G.S. 87-123 would require excavators train employees in accordance with the applicable OSHA standard and to document the training.

Under G.S. 87-125, in the event of an emergency excavation, an excavator would not be required to provide advance notice to the Notification Center. The excavator would be required to provide oral notice as soon as practicable to the Notification Center describing the circumstances of the emergency.

When damage to a facility occurs, under G.S. 87-126 an excavator must notify the Notification Center and the utility owner. The excavator would be required to delay backfilling the area until the utility owner has been able to repair the facility.

G.S. 87-128 would allow an excavator to commence excavation if a utility operator fails to respond to a location request or fails to properly locate underground facilities. If the excavator exercises due care, he would not be liable to the utility operator for any damages that occur.

Design Professionals. – G.S. 87-127 would establish a procedure for architects, engineers, and other design professionals to request location information for underground utilities to allow for the design of a proposed project.

Exemptions. – G.S. 87-124 would provide exemptions from the Act for the following acts:

- An excavation or demolition by a homeowner on property that does not encroach on any operator's right-of-way, easement, or permitted use.
- An excavation or demolition by a homeowners using non-mechanized equipment on property that encroaches on any operator's right-of-way, easement, or permitted use.
- An excavation or demolition that involves tilling soil for agricultural or gardening purposes.
- An excavation or demolition for agricultural purposes on property that does not encroach on any operator's right-of-way, easement, or permitted use.
- An excavation by an operator or surveyor using non-mechanized equipment to either:
    - Locate for a valid notification request or for minor repair, connection, or routine maintenance of an existing facility or survey pin.
    - Probing underground to determine the extent of gas or water migration.

- An excavation or demolition performed when the D.O.T., a local government, special purpose district, or public service district is conducting maintenance activities within its right-of-way.
- An excavation or demolition performed by a railroad entirely on land which they own or operate.
- An excavation of a grave space, the installation of a monument or memorial at a grave space, or an excavation related to the placement of a temporary structure or tent by a cemetery that does not encroach on any operator's right-of-way, easement, or permitted use.

Enforcement. – G.S. 87-129 would create the Underground Damage Prevention Review Board (Board) consisting of representatives from various stakeholder groups. The Notification Center would be required to transmit all reports of alleged violations of the Act to the Board, which would then act as an arbitrator between the parties to the report. If the Board determines that a violation of the Act occurred, it is required to notify the violating party, who may request a hearing before the Board. If the Board recommends a penalty, it is required to notify the Utilities Commission, who will issue an order imposing the penalty. If the violating party wishes to contest the penalty, it may pay a $250.00 filing fee and request the Utilities Commission send the issue to a binding arbitration process. Upon completion of the arbitration process, the Utilities Commission is required to issue an order encompassing the outcome of the arbitration process, including a determination of fault, a penalty, and an award of the costs of arbitration. Any party may then appeal the order of the Utilities Commission to superior court.

Under G.S. 87-129(d), penalties for violations of this Act are as follows:

- If the violation was the result of negligence, the penalty shall be a requirement of training, a requirement of education, or both.
- If the violation was the result of gross negligence, the penalty is a civil penalty of $1,000.00, a requirement of training, a requirement of education, or a combination of the three.
- If the violation was the result of willful or wanton negligence or intentional conduct, the penalty is a civil penalty of $2,500.00, a requirement of training, and a requirement of education.

Costs. – G.S. 87-119 would require that costs incurred by a party associated with compliance with the Act would be borne by that party, and will not be passed on. Under G.S. 87-120(b), costs associated with the operation of the Notification Center are to be apportioned among the member operators.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act becomes effective October 1, 2014, and applies to all activities regulated by the provisions of Article 8A of Chapter 87 of the General Statutes that occur on or after that date.

BILL SUMMARY:

House Bill 476 repeals Article 8 of Chapter 87 of the General Statutes regarding damage prevention of underground utility infrastructure and creates a new Article 8A addressing the same issue.

The bill supersedes any existing ordinance adopted by a city or county government within the State to prevent damage to underground utility infrastructure.

The bill implements a new requirement that any person, public utility, communications or cable service provider, municipality, electrical utility, or electric or telephone cooperative that owns or operates a facility in the State must become a member of a Notification Center that receives and maintains information regarding underground infrastructure managed by the respective entity. All operators within the State must join the Notification Center. Only one Notification Center will be permitted to operate in the State at any point in time, and the Center will be a not-for-profit corporation supported by its member operators.

The bill details the responsibilities of utility operators, the Notification Center, and excavators. The bill also establishes a new process for violations of the responsibilities detailed in the Act.

The bill creates a new Underground Damage Prevention Review Board with 15 gubernatorial appointees to hear and arbitrate disputes between excavators in violation of the Act and utility providers.

The bill allows arbitration decisions determined by the Underground Damage Prevention Review Board to be appealed to the Utilities Commission for a $250 fee. A contested case appealed to the Utilities Commission undergoes an additional arbitration process in which a third-party arbitrator is chosen by the contesting parties.

The losing party following the arbitration process administered by the Utilities Commission has the ability to appeal the ruling to a superior court.

ASSUMPTIONS AND METHODOLOGY:

Background

As defined in the bill, the Notification Center is a not-for-profit corporation that provides a system through which a person can notify operators of proposed excavations and demolitions and submit reports of alleged violations. Currently, the largest Notification Center in the State is North Carolina 811, Inc ("NC 811"). The bill would task the Notification Center with receiving reports of violations of the Act and notifying persons of their alleged violations. Alleged violations would then be provided to the Underground Damage Prevention Review Board ("Board").

If the Board determines that a violation has occurred, the Board will notify the alleged violator and recommend a penalty.

Penalties include:

- Education, training, or both if the violation was an accident,
- $1,000 fine, education, training, or a combination of all three if a negligence standard was established, or,
- $2,500 fine, education, training, or a combination of all three if a gross negligence standard was established.

Penalties assessed under this Act are not related to any possible civil actions taken addressing personal injury or property damage resulting from violations of the Act.

If the alleged violator disagrees with the Board's ruling, they may request a hearing before the Board. If the Board maintains a penalty ruling following the hearing, the Board is directed to notify the Utilities Commission of the recommended penalty and the Utilities Commission is directed to compel payment.

If the alleged violator chooses to further appeal the ruling from the Board, they may pay a $250 fee to the Utilities Commission and initiate another arbitration process with the prosecuting party and an independent third-party arbitrator. Based on the decision from the third-party arbitrator, the Utilities Commission shall issue an order detailing the outcome of the process, assessing the determined penalty (if any), and award arbitration costs to the prevailing party.

If the losing party wishes to appeal the ruling following the arbitration process administered by the Utilities Commission, the case is appealed to superior court.

Key Assumptions

For the purposes of this analysis, staff assumes that all alleged violations reported to the Notification Center would be based on an excavator failing to notify the Notification Center prior to excavating or demolishing a site where utility infrastructure exists. The bill does not prohibit alleged violations on utility operators, but staff assumes these violations would be minimal to non-existent.

According to NC 811, there were approximately 6,000 instances in which utility damages were reported in 2012. NC 811 was not able to identify how many of these instances resulted from an excavator failing to notify NC 811 prior to beginning excavation, but stated that approximately 25 percent of national utility damages result from a failure to notify utility providers prior to excavation. Using the information provided by NC 811, there are approximately 1,500 instances in which utility infrastructure is damaged as a result of failing to notify utility providers prior to excavations.

Given that the bill requires a formal complaint be provided to the Notification Center, the maximum penalty authorized under this bill is $2,500, and legal actions for other civil damages related to personal injury and property damage are not related to the bill; staff assumes that the number of alleged violations will be much smaller than the eligible population. However, the lack of historical information prevents any assumptions to be made regarding the caseload that would be administered by the Board, Utilities Commission, and the court system.

The Board established by the bill is established within the Notification Center which is a not-for-profit organization. The bill does not indicate that any State agency will provide monetary assistance to operate the Board. Therefore, no fiscal impact is anticipated to result from cases heard by the Board.

The Utilities Commission has indicated that upgrades to their docket management software system necessary to administer the provisions under this bill would cost approximately $75,000 to $100,000 on a one-time basis. While the bill does provide the Commission a $250 fee for parties wishing to enter the arbitration process administered by the Commission, it is unknown if the number of cases before the Commission will be sufficient to offset the implementation costs.

Since arbitration administered by the Utilities Commission will be conducted by an independent third-party and the arbitrator will be compensated by the conflicting parties, the Utilities Commission anticipates being able to incorporate any new administrative requirements into their existing workload without any additional assistance. Therefore, there is an estimated one-time implementation cost ranging from $75,000 to $100,000 associated with the Utilities Commission arbitration process.

Since cases that reach the superior court level must have gone through three review processes (Board review, Board hearing, and Utilities Commission arbitration) and the associated penalty does not exceed $2,500, it is anticipated that the number of cases that reach the court system to be negligible.

Local Impact

Under existing law, municipal utility providers are not required to register with a statewide Notification Center. This bill would require municipal utility providers to become a member of the statewide Notification Center. According to NC 811, the initial fee charged to new members is $0.75 for each notification provided by the Notification Center to the utility provider. While most municipal utilities operate as an enterprise agency, the new fee could have a small impact on their existing expenditures. However, registration with the Notification Center could help prevent future repairs from excavation activities. At this time, it is unknown how many municipal utilities are currently registered with a Notification Center and any approximate savings or approximate costs resulting from joining a Notification Center. Therefore, no local fiscal impact estimate is available.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT AUTHORIZING PUBLIC CONTRACTS TO UTILIZE THE DESIGN-BUILD METHOD OR PUBLIC-PRIVATE PARTNERSHIP CONSTRUCTION CONTRACTS.

Whereas, the legislature recognizes that there is a public need for the design, construction, improvement, renovation, and expansion of high-performing public buildings within the State of North Carolina; and

Whereas, the public need may not be, in limited situations, wholly satisfied by existing procurement methods in which public buildings are designed, constructed, improved, renovated, or expanded; and

Whereas, many local governmental entities request special legislative authorization to enter into public-private partnerships and use design-build contracting every legislative session; and

Whereas, in some instances, more efficient delivery of quality design and construction can be realized when a governmental entity is authorized to utilize an integrated approach for the design and construction of a project under one contract with a single point of responsibility; and

Whereas, the design-build integrated approach to project delivery, based upon qualifications and experience, in some instances, can yield improved collaboration among design professionals, builders, and owners throughout the entire process and deliver a quality and cost-efficient building; and

Whereas, certain governmental entities within the State lack the financial resources required to undertake capital building construction projects that are necessary to satisfy critical public needs; and

Whereas, partnerships with private developers may offer an effective financial mechanism for governmental entities to secure public buildings to satisfy critical public needs that cannot otherwise be met; and

Whereas, the legislature recognizes that the general public must have confidence in governmental entities' processes for construction contracting; and

Whereas, the legislature realizes that open competition delivers the best value for taxpayers and public owners; and

Whereas, the legislature seeks to create transparent, fair, and equitable contracting procedures for the use of public funds in government construction contracting; and

Whereas, the legislation proposed in this act is not intended to affect the existing statutes, regulations, or practices relevant to projects administered by the North Carolina Department of Transportation nor licensing requirements of designers or contractors; Now, therefore,

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:
