When contracts are awarded pursuant to this section, the public entity shall provide for a dispute resolution procedure as provided in G.S. 143-128(f1). (d) The construction manager at risk shall provide a performance and payment bond to the public entity in accordance with the provisions of Article 3 of Chapter 44A of the General Statutes."

SECTION 6. G.S. 44A-16 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(c) For improvements performed in conjunction with a development contract under G.S. 143-128.1C, a claim of lien on real property or a claim of lien on funds served on a private developer may also be discharged by the private developer and the surety on a payment bond issued under G.S. 143-128.1C(g)(1) in accordance with this subsection. The claim of lien may be discharged by the private developer and surety jointly filing with the clerk of superior court of the county where the project is located a copy of the payment bond together with an affidavit executed by the surety stating that, as of the date of the filing of the payment bond with the clerk of superior court, the amount of the penal sum of the payment bond minus any amounts paid in good faith to other claimants on the project and minus the amount of all other claims of lien on real property filed against the property improved by the project exceeds the amount claimed by the lien claim being discharged by at least one hundred twenty-five percent (125%). Notwithstanding any other contractual provision or law, where a claimant's lien claim has been discharged under this subsection, the claimant shall have no less than one year from the date of being served with the payment bond and affidavit to file suit on the payment bond."

SECTION 7. G.S. 115C-521 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

(f) A local board of education may use prototype designs from the clearinghouse established under subsection (e) of this section that is a previously approved and constructed project by the School Planning Division of the State Board of Education, and other appropriate review agencies. The local board of education may contract with the architect of record to make changes and upgrades as necessary for regulatory approval.

(g) For prototype schools under this section, local boards of education shall be exempt from the designer selection procedure in Article 3D of Chapter 143 of the General Statutes and may enter into an agreement with the original design professional of the prototype to supply design services for future construction of the prototype school.

SECTION 8.(a) There shall be established a Purchase and Contract Study Committee to study the issue of pre-qualification on public non-transportation construction work for both local and state government projects. The Committee may study any of the following:

(1) An analysis of existing pre-qualification requirements and consider whether or not current State Construction voluntary standards should be required for all public projects.

(2) An analysis of whether and/or how pre-qualification standards may have effectively disqualified licensed North Carolina general contractors who are able to satisfy all applicable bonding requirements under Chapter 44A of the North Carolina General Statutes.

(3) Development of one or more objective and non-discriminatory systems for pre-qualification to permit all appropriately licensed North Carolina general contractors to have the opportunity to bid in open competition for public construction projects in the State.

(4) Any other matter relevant to the implementation of House Bill 857, 2013 Regular Session.

SECTION 8.(b) Appointments to the committee established by Section (a) of this section shall as follows:

(1) Two Senators, appointed by the President Pro Tempore of the Senate.

(2) Two Representatives, appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives.

(3) Three licensed general contractors, appointed by the President Pro Tempore of the Senate.

(4) One professional engineer, appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives.

(5) One registered architect, appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives.

(6) One person upon recommendation of the North Carolina League of Municipalities, appointed by the Speaker of the House of the Representatives.

(7) One person upon recommendation of the North Carolina County Commissioners Association, appointed by the President Pro Tempore of the Senate.

(8) A representative from the State Construction Office.

SECTION 8.(c) The Committee shall report its findings, together with any recommendations, to the General Assembly on or before the convening of the 2014 Session of the 2013 General Assembly.

SECTION 9. This act becomes effective October 1, 2013, and applies to projects bid on or after that date and public-private development contracts entered into on or after that date, and does not supercede any prior enacted local act of the General Assembly on or before July 1, 2013.

HOUSE BILL 857:
Public Contracts/Construction Methods/DB/P3

2013-2014 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Finance	Date:	July 15, 2013
Introduced by:	Reps. Arp, Bryan, Moffitt, Hager	Prepared by:	R. Erika Churchill Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	PCS to Fourth Edition H857-CSST-90

SUMMARY: The proposed committee substitute for House Bill 857 would authorize three new methods of bidding for construction of public buildings:

- Design-build method.
- Design-build bridging method.
- Public-Private Partnership method.

The pcs makes technical changes to the definition of design builder and specifically allows local boards of education to utilize the additional methods of contracting when building a prototype school facility.

CURRENT LAW:

With respect to public contracting, Article 8 of Chapter 143 sets out the current general law for public building contracts. That Article generally requires separate or single-prime bidding. The sections of Article 8 for construction or renovations of buildings that require or imply the separate or single-prime bidding process are:

- G.S. 143-128, regarding separate specifications for HVAC, Plumbing, Electrical, and general contract work under separate prime or single-prime bidding.
- G.S. 143-129, regarding bidding for public construction over $500,000.
- G.S. 143-131, regarding informal bidding procedures
- G.S. 143-132, concerning the minimum number of bids for a public construction contract.

Article 3D of the Chapter 143 governs public procurement of architectural, engineering, and surveying services. The sections of Article 3D for those services that require or imply the separate or single-prime bidding process are:

- G.S. 143-64.31, regarding procurement of architectural, engineering and surveying services.
- G.S. 143-64.32, regarding local government exemptions from the law regarding the procurement of architectural, engineering, and surveying services.

With respect to acquisition of land by State agencies, Article 6 of Chapter 146 governs acquisition of State lands by State agencies. "Every acquisition of land on behalf of the State or any State agency, whether by purchase, condemnation, lease, or rental, shall be made by the Department of Administration (DOA) and approved by the Governor and Council of State." G.S. 146-22(a). Acquisitions by the University of North Carolina, through the Board of Governors, are governed separately, under Chapter 116 of the General Statutes. When a State agency desires to acquire land, that State agency is to file an application with the DOA. DOA then reviews that application, looking at:

- The existence of actual need for the requested property on the part of the requesting agency

- The availability of land already owned by the State or by any State agency which might meet the requirements of the requesting agency.
- The availability, value, and status of title of other land, whether for purchase, condemnation, lease, or rental, which might meet the requirements of the requesting agency.
- The availability of funds to pay for land if purchased, condemned, leased, or rented. G.S. 146-23.

In order to promote the use of buildings having historic, architectural or cultural significance, the Department of Administration shall inform the North Carolina Historical Commission of all geographical areas in the State within which the State is actively seeking to lease space for the accommodation of State agencies. In acquiring lease space under G.S. 146-25.1, DOA must give preference to lease proposals involving historic buildings identified by the North Carolina Historical Commission if DOA determines that such proposal is feasible, prudent and in the best interest of the State. G.S. 146-23.1

G.S. 146-25.1 sets the forth procedure for the leasing of space for State agencies. If the DOA determines that it is in the State's best interest to lease or rent land, that exceeds $25,000 or a term of three years, DOA must require the State agency desiring to rent land to prepare and submit a set of specifications for its needs. If DOA approves the specifications, DOA must publicly advertise for at least five days in a newspaper of general circulation in the county for the proposal. Proposals from prospective lessors must be received for at least seven days from the date of the last advertisement. DOA is permitted to negotiate with prospective lessors. If no proposal, or no acceptable proposal, is received after the public advertisement, DOA may negotiate with lessors in the open market.

Generally, all leases and rental agreements entered into by DOA must be submitted to the Governor and Council of State for approval or disapproval. G.S. 146-22(a), G.S. 146-25, G.S. 146-25.1(c). Some exceptions apply for lands owned by a governmental entity, and certain leases exempted by the Governor.

BILL ANALYSIS: The pcs would:

1. Establish 3 new methods of bidding public construction contracts, as follows:
    a. Design-Build contracts (Page 3, line 31). A governmental entity opting to use the design-build method would be required to establish written criteria for the project, publish notice of the request for qualifications, solicit three responses, rank the three most qualified design-builders, and begin negotiations with the highest ranked design-builder. The governmental entity would select the design-builder on the basis of demonstrated competence and qualification for the type of professional services required without regard to fee other than unit price information, and would negotiate for a contract at a fair and reasonable fee with the best qualified firm. G.S. 143-64.31. The selected design-builder would be required to provide a performance and payment bond, and obtain written approval of the governmental entity prior to changing key personnel.
    b. Design-Build Bridging contracts (Page 4, line 49). Similar to design-build contracts, but the governmental entity opting to use the design-build bridging method would first select a design criteria design professional to develop 35% of the project, then publish notice of the request for qualifications and solicit bids based upon that partial completion of the design documentation. The design criteria design professional may not be a full-time employee of the governmental entity, and is selected on the basis of demonstrated competence and qualifications. The selection of the design-build contractor would utilize the same process as the design build method, but the awarding of the contract would be based upon the fees provided in the response to the RFP. The selected design-builder would be required to provide a performance and payment bond, and obtain written approval of the governmental entity prior to changing key personnel.

c. Public-Private Partnership contracts (Page 7, line 17). A governmental entity would authorized to enter into a development contract with a private developer, where the private developer is required to provide at least 50% of the financing for the total cost necessary to deliver the project. The development contract may require the private developer to be responsible for any of the following:

   i. Construction of the entire project.

   ii. Reconstruction or repair of the project, or any part thereof subsequent to the project.

   iii. Construction of any addition to the project.

   iv. Renovation of the projection, or any part thereof.

   v. Purchase of supplies, materials, or equipment for the project.

   vi. A good faith effort to comply with the minority and underutilized business participation goals, and to recruit and select small businesses.

   vii. To use the same contractor(s) as the governmental entity for the project, or any portion thereof.

   Bonding requirements would apply to the project. If the governmental entity is a public body for purposes of the Open Meetings Law, that governmental entity must act upon the public-private partnership in an open meeting after conducting a public hearing on the proposed contract.

   If the governmental entity is a unit of local government and it is a capital or operating lease, the Local Government Commission would need to approve of the project. If it is a State entity, is a capital lease, and the moneys for the project are payable from the general fund or other accounts of the State except the Highway Fund or Highway Trust Fund, the project would be approved under the approval procedures for special indebtedness, unless the project was funded by a financing program approved by the General Assembly.

2. For procurement of architectural, engineering and surveying services, increase the threshold for exemption from the required bidding from $30,000 to $50,000 when the estimated professional fee is at or below that amount and eliminate the exemption for those projects determined in the sole discretion of the Department of Transportation or a unit of local government to be exempt.

3. For construction management at risk contracts, require a good faith effort to recruit and select small business entities when selecting the construction manager at risk and the construction itself.

The bill does not change or amend any of the procedures for acquisition of State lands by State agencies.

EFFECTIVE DATE: October 1, 2013, and does not supercede any prior local act of the General Assembly.

AN ACT TO ESTABLISH A WILDLIFE POACHER REWARD FUND TO PAY REWARDS TO PERSONS WHO GIVE INFORMATION TO LAW ENFORCEMENT AUTHORITIES THAT RESULTS IN THE ARREST AND CONVICTION OF PERSONS WHO COMMIT SERIOUS WILDLIFE VIOLATIONS AND TO AUTHORIZE THE USE OF COMPENSATION PAID TO THE WILDLIFE RESOURCES COMMISSION AS CONDITIONS OF OFFENDERS' PROBATION AS ASSETS OF THE FUND.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Article 22 of Chapter 113 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 113-294.1. Wildlife Poacher Reward Fund.

(a) There is established in the Office of the State Treasurer the Wildlife Poacher Reward Fund. Monies in the Fund shall be used to pay rewards to persons who provide information to the Wildlife Resources Commission or to law enforcement authorities that results in the arrest and conviction of persons who have committed criminal offenses involving the taking, injury, removal, damage, or destruction of wildlife resources. The Wildlife Resources Commission shall adopt rules for the administration of the Fund for these purposes.

(b) The assets of the Wildlife Poacher Reward Fund shall be derived from the following:

(1) A percentage of the compensation paid annually to the Commission as special conditions of offenders' probation in criminal cases involving the taking, injury, removal, damage, or destruction of wildlife pursuant to G.S. 15A-1343(b1)(5), to be set by the Commission at not less than ten percent (10%) of those amounts paid as replacement costs and investigative costs.

(2) All amounts paid to the Commission under G.S. 15A-1343(b1)(5) as compensation for rewards paid from the Fund.

(5) Compensate the Department of Environment and Natural Resources or the North Carolina Wildlife Resources Commission, as the case may be, for the replacement costs of any marine and estuarine resources or any wildlife resources which were taken, injured, removed, harmfully altered, damaged or destroyed as a result of a criminal offense of which the defendant was convicted. If any investigation is required by officers or agents of the Department of Environment and Natural Resources or the Wildlife Resources Commission in determining the extent of the destruction of resources involved, the court may include compensation of the agency for investigative costs as a condition of probation. The court may also include, as a condition of probation, compensation of an agency for any reward paid for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the offender. This subdivision does not apply in any case governed by G.S. 143-215.3(a)(7).

SECTION 3. Section 2 of this act becomes effective December 1, 2013, and applies to offenses committed on or after that date. The remainder of this act becomes effective July 1, 2013.

HOUSE BILL 936:
Wildlife Poacher Reward Fund

Committee:	Senate Finance	Date:	July 16, 2013
Introduced by:	Reps. Wray, Faircloth, Moffitt, J. Bell	Prepared by:	Heather Fennell Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	Third Edition

SUMMARY: House Bill 936 would establish a Wildlife Poacher Reward Fund to pay rewards to individuals who report information to law enforcement authorities resulting in the arrest and conviction of persons who commit serious wildlife violations.

CURRENT LAW: G.S. 15A-1343(b1)(5) (Conditions of probation) currently provides that a court may, as a condition of probation, require a defendant to compensate the Department of Environment and Natural Resources ("Department") or the Wildlife Resources Commission ("Commission"), as appropriate, for the replacement costs of marine, estuarine, or wildlife resources that were taken, damaged, or destroyed as a result of a criminal offense of which the defendant was convicted. If the Department or Commission must investigate to determine the extent of the damage to these resources, the court may also require the defendant to compensate the agency for investigative costs.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1 of House Bill 936 would establish the Wildlife Poacher Reward Fund ("Fund") in the Office of the State Treasurer. Monies in the fund would be used to pay rewards to persons who provide information to the Commission or law enforcement authorities resulting in the arrest and conviction of persons who commit serious wildlife violations. The Commission would be instructed to adopt rules for the administration of the Fund.

The assets of the Fund would be derived from (1) a percentage no greater than 10% of the compensation paid annually to the Commission as replacement and investigative costs pursuant to G.S. 15A-1343(b1)(5); (2) 100% of funds paid to the Commission as compensation for any reward paid for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the defendant pursuant to G.S. 15A-1343(b1)(5); (3) gifts, grants, and contributions that are specifically designated for inclusion in the Fund; and (4) any other sources specified by law.

Section 2 of House Bill 936 would provide that a court may, as a special condition of probation under G.S. 15A-1343(b1)(5), require a defendant to compensate an agency for any reward paid for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the defendant.

EFFECTIVE DATE:

Section 2 of this act would become effective December 1, 2013, and would apply to offenses committed on or after that date. The remainder of this act would become effective July 1, 2013.

TECHNICAL CONSIDERATIONS: None

BILL SUMMARY: House Bill 936 establishes a Wildlife Poacher Reward Fund to be used to pay rewards to individuals who provide information to law enforcement authorities resulting in the arrest and conviction of persons who commit serious wildlife violations. It also amends an existing law to allow a court to require the offender to compensate the Wildlife Resources Commission (WRC) or the Department of Environment and Natural Resources (DENR) for any reward paid for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the offender. This compensation is in addition to the existing law that allows judges to require repayment to WRC or DENR for replacement and investigative costs.

ASSUMPTIONS AND METHODOLOGY: The amount of money deposited in and paid from the Wildlife Poacher Reward Fund is the dependent on the following factors:

1) The number of individuals who provide information to law enforcement authorities that result in the arrest and conviction of a serious wildlife offender;

2) The number of offenders convicted of serious wildlife violations who the court requires to compensate the Wildlife Resources Commission (WRC) for any reward paid for information that led to their the arrest and conviction; and

3) A percentage of the replacement and investigative costs paid annually to the WRC as a special condition of probation. The bill directs the WRC to set the percentage at an amount not less than 10%.

At this time, none of these factors are known so a fiscal estimate cannot be reasonably determined. Based on its experience, the Wildlife Resources Commission estimates that there are approximately 500 serious wildlife violations annually. These cases have resulted in approximately $65,000 in replacement and investigative costs paid as compensation to WRC in each of the past three years. However, the amount of funds received as compensation for replacement and investigative costs to be deposited in the Reward Fund is unknown as the bill allows the WRC to set the percentage to be used to pay rewards. In addition, most of the previous cases have been "made" by WRC's enforcement staff, so it is not known in how many of the future cases that the WRC would need to offer a reward in order to gain a conviction.

PROPOSED COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE S522-PCS75348-TM-47

Short Title: New Markets Jobs Act. (Public)

April 1, 2013

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO ENACT NEW MARKETS ACT OF 2013.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Chapter 105 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new Article to read:

"Article 3L.
"North Carolina New Markets Jobs Act of 2013.

"§ 105-129.100. Short title.

The provisions of this Article shall be known and may be cited as the "North Carolina New Markets Jobs Act of 2013."

"§ 105-129.101. Definitions.

The following definitions apply in this Article:

(1) Applicable percentage. – Zero percent (0%) for the first two reduction allowance dates, eleven percent (11%) for the next two reduction allowance dates, and twelve percent (12%) for the following three reduction allowance dates.

(2) Below the line reduction of tax or "reduction". – A subtraction from the total amount of State premium tax liability made after all additions and deductions have been made to the gross premium amount and after the appropriate rates of tax have been applied; for the purposes of constitutional, statutory, and common law interpretation and enforcement, the reduction shall be afforded the same property and contractual protections as a credit.

(3) Reduction allowance date. – With respect to any qualified equity investment, the date on which the investment is initially made and each of the six anniversary dates thereafter.

(4) Department. – The Department of Commerce.

(5) Long-term debt security. – Any debt instrument issued by a qualified community development entity, at par value or a premium, with an original maturity date of at least seven years from the date of its issuance, with no acceleration of repayment, amortization, or prepayment features prior to its original maturity date. The qualified community development entity that issues the debt instrument may not make cash interest payments on the debt instrument during the period beginning on the date of issuance and ending on the final reduction allowance date in an amount that exceeds the cumulative operating income, as defined by regulations adopted under section 45D of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, of the qualified community development entity for that period prior to giving effect to the interest expense of such long-term debt security. The foregoing shall in no way limit the holder's ability to accelerate payments on the debt instrument in situations where the issuer has defaulted on covenants designed to ensure compliance with this section or section 45D of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

(6) Purchase price. – The amount paid to the issuer of a qualified equity investment for such qualified equity investment.

(7) Qualified active low-income community business. – The meaning given such term in section 45D of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and 26 C.F.R. § 1.45D-1 but limited to those businesses meeting the SBA size eligibility standards established in 13 C.F.R. § 121.101-201 at the time the qualified low-income community investment is made. A business shall be considered a qualified active low-income community business for the duration of the qualified community development entity's investment in or loan to the business if the entity reasonably expects, at the time it makes the investment or loan, that the business will continue to satisfy the requirements for being a qualified active low-income community business, other than the SBA size standards, throughout the entire period of the investment or loan. The term excludes any business that derives or projects to derive fifteen percent (15%) or more of its annual revenue from the rental or sale of real estate. This exclusion does not apply to a business that is controlled by or under common control with another business if the second business (i) does not derive or project to derive fifteen percent (15%) or more of its annual revenue from the rental or sale of real estate and (ii) is the primary tenant of the real estate leased from the first business.

(8) Qualified community development entity. – The meaning given such term in section 45D of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended; provided that such entity has entered into, for the current year or any prior year, an allocation agreement with the Community Development Financial Institutions Fund of the U.S. Treasury Department with respect to credits authorized by section 45D of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, which includes the State of North Carolina within the service area set forth in the allocation agreement. The term shall include qualified community development entities that are controlled by or are under common control with the qualified community development entity.

(9) Qualified equity investment. – Any equity investment in or long-term debt security issued by a qualified community development entity that meets each of the following requirements:

a. Is acquired after the effective date of this act at its original issuance solely in exchange for cash.

b. Has at least eighty-five percent (85%) of its cash purchase price used by the issuer to make qualified low-income community investments in qualified active low-income community businesses located in this State by the first anniversary of the initial reduction allowance date.

c. Is designated by the issuer as a qualified equity investment under this subdivision and is certified by the Department as not exceeding the limitation contained in subdivision (5) of this section. This term shall include any qualified equity investment that does not meet the provisions of sub-subdivision a. of this subdivision if such investment was a qualified equity investment in the hands of a prior holder.

(10) Qualified low-income community investment. – Any capital or equity investment in or loan to any qualified active low-income community business.

(11) Rural census tracts. – Any census tract in which a qualified low-income community business is located that also is located in a county designated as nonmetropolitan by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) pursuant to 44 U.S.C. § 3504(e) and 31 U.S.C. § 1104(d) and Executive Order 10253 (3 C.F.R. Part 1949-1953 Comp., p.758), as amended, with respect to the 2010 Census.

(12) Secretary. – The Secretary of Commerce.

(13) State premium tax liability. – Any liability incurred by any entity under the gross premiums tax or the retaliatory premium tax levied in Article 8B of this Chapter, or, if the tax liability under the gross premiums tax or the retaliatory premium tax levied in Article 8B of this Chapter is eliminated or reduced, the term shall also mean any tax liability imposed on an insurance company or other person that had premium tax liability under the laws of this State.

"§ 105-129.102. Reduction for qualified equity investment.

(a) Reduction Established. – An entity that makes a qualified equity investment earns a vested contractual right to a below-the-line reduction of tax applicable to the entity's State premium tax liability on future premium tax reports filed under this Article. On or after each reduction allowance date of the qualified equity investment, the taxpayer or subsequent holder of the qualified equity investment may utilize a portion of the tax reduction during the taxable year including the reduction allowance date. The tax reduction amount is equal to the applicable percentage for the reduction allowance date multiplied by the purchase price paid to the issuer of the qualified equity investment. The amount of the tax reduction claimed in that taxable year by a taxpayer shall not exceed the amount of such taxpayer's State tax liability for the tax year for which the tax reduction is claimed. Any amount of tax reduction that the taxpayer is prohibited from claiming in a taxable year as a result of this section may be carried forward for use in any subsequent taxable year.

(b) Tax reductions earned by a partnership, limited liability company, S corporation, or other "pass-through" entity shall be allocated to the partners, members, or shareholders of such entity for their direct use in accordance with the provisions of any agreement among such partners, members, or shareholders. Such allocation shall create a contractual right to such tax reduction in such partners, members, or shareholders.

(c) Certification of Qualified Equity Investments. – A qualified community development entity that seeks to have an equity investment or long-term debt security designated as a qualified equity investment and eligible for tax reductions under this section shall apply to the Department. The qualified community development entity must submit an application on a form that the Department provides that includes each of the following:

(1) Evidence of the entity's certification as a qualified community development entity, including evidence of the service area of the entity that includes this State.

(2) A copy of the allocation agreement executed by the entity or its controlling entity and the Community Development Financial Institutions Fund.

(3) A certificate executed by an executive officer of the entity (i) attesting that the allocation agreement remains in effect and has not been revoked or cancelled by the Community Development Financial Institutions Fund and

(ii) stating the cumulative amount of allocations awarded to the entity by the Community Development Financial Institutions Fund.

(4) A description of the proposed amount, structure, and purchaser of the qualified equity investment.

(5) Identifying information for any known taxpayer eligible to utilize tax reductions earned as a result of the issuance of the qualified equity investment.

(6) Examples of the types of qualified active low-income businesses in which the applicant, its controlling entity, or affiliates of its controlling entity have invested under the Federal New Markets Tax Credit Program. Applications are not required to identify qualified active low-income community businesses in which they will invest when submitting an application.

(7) A nonrefundable application fee of five thousand dollars ($5,000).

(8) The refundable performance deposit required by G.S. 105-129.104.

(d) A qualified community development entity, on an aggregate basis with all qualified community development entities controlled by or under common control with such applicant, may not apply to have equity investments or long-term debt instruments designated as qualified equity investments under this section in excess of the lesser of:

(1) The total amount of qualified equity investments that may be certified by the Department pursuant to this section; and

(2) The total amount of qualified equity investment allocation awarded to the applicant, its controlling entity, and all qualified community development entities controlled by or under common control with the applicant from the Community Development Financial Institutions Fund under section 45D of the Internal Revenue Code.

Within 30 days after receipt of a completed application containing the information necessary for the Department to certify a potential qualified equity investment, including the payment of the application fee, and the performance deposit, the Department shall grant or deny the application in full or in part. If the Department denies any part of the application, it shall inform the qualified community development entity of the grounds for the denial. If the qualified community development entity provides any additional information required by the Department or otherwise completes its application within 15 days of the notice of denial, the application shall be considered completed as of the original date of submission. If the qualified community development entity fails to provide the information or complete its application within the 15-day period, the application is denied and must be resubmitted in full with a new submission date.

If the application is deemed complete, the Department shall certify the proposed equity investment or long-term debt security as a qualified equity investment that is eligible for a reduction under this section, subject to the limitations contained in this subsection. The Department shall provide written notice of the certification to the qualified community development entity. The notice shall include the names of those taxpayers who are eligible to utilize the reductions and their respective reduction amounts. If the names of the taxpayers who are eligible to utilize the reductions change due to a transfer of a qualified equity investment or a change in an allocation pursuant to this section, the qualified community development entity shall notify the Department of such change.

Once the Department has certified a qualified equity investment, the qualified community development entity may suballocate all or any portion of the amount of the certified equity investment to one or more qualified community development entities with the same controlling entity as the applicant qualified community development entity, provided that the applicant qualified community development entity files a notice of such suballocation with the Department and the recipient of the suballocation meets all the requirements of a qualified community development entity under this section. The notice of suballocation shall include the information required in the application for all suballocatees.

The Department shall certify qualified equity investments in the order applications are received by the Department. Applications received on the same day shall be deemed to have been received simultaneously. For applications received on the same day and deemed complete, the Department shall certify, consistent with remaining tax reduction capacity, qualified equity investments in proportionate percentages based upon the ratio of the amount of qualified equity investment requested in an application to the total amount of qualified equity investments requested in all applications received on the same day.

The Department shall certify three hundred and thirty-three million dollars ($333,000,000) in qualified equity investment authority. If a pending request cannot be fully certified due to this limit, the Department shall certify the portion that may be certified unless the qualified community development entity elects to withdraw its request rather than receive partial certification.

Within 30 days after receiving notice of certification, the qualified community development entity or any transferee under this section shall issue the qualified equity investment and receive cash in the amount of the certified amount. The qualified community development entity or transferee must provide the Department with evidence of the receipt of the cash investment within 10 business days after receipt. If the qualified community development entity or transferee does not receive the cash investment and issue the qualified equity investment within 30 days following receipt of the certification notice, the certification shall lapse and the entity may not issue the qualified equity investment without reapplying to the Department for certification. A certification that lapses reverts back to the Department and may be reissued pro rata to other applicants whose qualified equity investment allocations were reduced under this section and thereafter in accordance with the application process.

(e) Disallowance. –

(1) The Department may determine that reductions previously claimed or to be claimed by a taxpayer under this Article should be disallowed. Notice that a reduction shall be disallowed shall be transmitted in writing to the taxpayer and the Department of Revenue. Disallowance may be determined if any of the following occurs:

a. Any amount of the federal tax credit available with respect to a qualified equity investment that is eligible for a tax reduction under this section is recaptured under section 45D of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. In such case, the Department's disallowance shall be proportionate to the federal recapture with respect to such qualified equity investment.

b. The issuer redeems or makes principal repayment with respect to a qualified equity investment prior to the seventh anniversary of the issuance of such qualified equity investment. In such case, the Department's disallowance shall be proportionate to the amount of the redemption or repayment with respect to such qualified equity investment.

c. The issuer fails to (i) invest at least eighty-five percent (85%) of the purchase price of the qualified equity investment in qualified low-income investments in the State within 12 months of the issuance of the qualified equity investment and (ii) maintain such level of investment in qualified low-income community investments in the State until the last reduction allowance date for the qualified equity investment.

(2) For purposes of this section, an investment shall be considered held by an issuer even if the investment has been sold or repaid if the issuer reinvests an amount equal to the capital returned to or recovered by the issuer from the original investment, exclusive of any profits realized, in another qualified low-income community investment within 12 months of the receipt of such capital. Periodic amounts received as repayment of principal on a loan that is a qualified low-income community investment shall be treated as continuously invested in a qualified low-income community investment if the amounts are reinvested in one or more qualified low-income community investments by the end of the following calendar year. An issuer shall not be required to reinvest capital returned from qualified low-income community investments after the earlier of (i) the sixth anniversary of the issuance of the qualified equity investment or (ii) the date by which a qualified community development entity has made a qualified low-income community investment with the proceeds of the qualified equity investment on a cumulative basis equal to at least one hundred fifty percent (150%) of the proceeds, and the qualified low-income community investment shall be considered held by the issuer through the seventh anniversary of the qualified equity investment's issuance. For purposes of the immediately preceding sentence, the maximum amount of qualified low-income community investments in any one qualified active low-income business, on an aggregate basis with all of its affiliates, that may be counted towards the one hundred fifty percent (150%) test shall be twenty-five percent (25%) of the total amount of qualified equity investments issued by the qualified community development entity under this section.

(3) At any time prior to the final reduction allowance date of a qualified equity investment, the proceeds were used to make qualified low-income equity investments in any one qualified active low-income community business, including affiliated qualified active low-income community businesses, exclusive of reinvestments of capital returned or repaid with respect to earlier investments in the qualified active low-income community business and its affiliates, in excess of twenty-five percent (25%) of the cash proceeds of all qualified equity investments issued by the qualified community development entity under this section.

"§ 105-129.103. Notice of noncompliance.

Enforcement of the disallowance under this Article shall not occur until the qualified community development entity shall have been given notice of noncompliance and afforded six months from the date of such notice to cure the noncompliance.

"§ 105-129.104. Refundable performance deposit.

(a) A qualified community development entity that seeks to have an equity investment or long-term debt security designated as a qualified equity investment and eligible for a reduction under this Article shall make a performance deposit in the amount of the greater of one-quarter of one percent (.25%) of the amount of the equity investment or long-term debt security requested to be designated as a qualified equity investment or five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) to the Department for deposit in the New Markets performance guarantee account, which is hereby established. The entity shall forfeit the amount deposited if (i) the qualified community development entity together with any qualified community development entities to which it has suballocated qualified equity investment authority pursuant to G.S. 105-129.102(d), if any, fail to issue the total amount of qualified equity investments certified by the Department and receive cash in the total amount certified under G.S. 105-129.102, or (ii) the qualified community development entity or any qualified community development entity that issues suballocated qualified equity investment authority pursuant to G.S. 105-129.102(d) certified under this Article fails to invest at least eighty-five percent (85%) of the purchase price of any qualified equity investment issued in qualified low-income community investments within 12 months of the issuance of the qualified equity investment; provided that forfeiture for the failure under clause (ii) of this subsection is subject to the cure period established in G.S. 105-129.103.

(b) The performance deposit required under this section shall be paid to the Department and held in the New Markets performance guarantee account until such time as compliance with the provisions of this section have been established. The qualified community development entity may request a refund of the performance deposit from the Department no sooner than 30 days after having met all the requirements of this section. The State Treasurer shall have 30 days to comply with the request or give notice of noncompliance.

"§ 105-129.105. Letter rulings.

(a) The Secretary shall issue letter rulings regarding the tax reduction program authorized under this Article, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in this section. For the purposes of this Article, the term "letter ruling" means a written interpretation of law to a specific set of facts provided by the applicant requesting a letter ruling.

(b) The Secretary shall respond to a request for a letter ruling within 60 days of receipt of such request. The applicant may provide a draft letter ruling for the Secretary's consideration. The applicant may withdraw the request for a letter ruling, in writing, prior to the issuance of the letter ruling. The Secretary may refuse to issue a letter ruling for good cause but must list the specific reasons for refusing to issue the letter ruling. Good cause includes any of the following:

(1) The applicant requests the director to determine whether a statute is constitutional or a regulation is lawful.

(2) The request involves a hypothetical situation or alternative plan.

(3) The facts or issues presented in the request are unclear, overbroad, insufficient, or otherwise inappropriate as a basis upon which to issue a letter ruling.

(4) The issue is currently being considered in a rule-making procedure, contested case, or other agency or judicial proceeding that may definitely resolve the issue.

(c) Letter rulings shall bind the Secretary and the Secretary's agents and their successors and all other state agencies until such time as the entity or its shareholders, members, or partners, as applicable, claim all of the reductions on a North Carolina tax return or report, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in properly published regulations. The letter ruling shall apply only to the applicant.

(d) In rendering letter rulings and making other determinations under this Article, to the extent applicable, the Department and the Department of Revenue shall look for guidance to section 45D of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and the rules and regulations issued thereunder.

"§ 105-129.106. Retaliatory tax.

An entity claiming a reduction under this Article is not required to pay any additional retaliatory tax levied under G.S. 105-228.8 as a result of claiming the reduction. It is the intent of the General Assembly that an entity claiming a reduction under this Article is not required to pay any additional tax that may arise as a result of claiming that reduction.

"§ 105-129.107. Decertification.

(a) Once certified under this Article, a qualified equity investment may not be decertified unless all of the requirements of this section have been met. Until all qualified equity investments issued by a qualified community development entity are decertified under this section, the qualified community development entity shall not be entitled to distribute to its equity holders or make cash payments on long-term debt securities that have been designated as qualified equity investments in an amount that exceeds the sum of (i) the cumulative operating income, as defined by regulations adopted under section 45D of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, earned by the qualified community development entity since issuance of the qualified equity investment, prior to giving effect to any interest expense of long-term debt securities designated as qualified equity investments and (ii) fifty percent (50%) of the purchase price of the qualified equity investments issued by the qualified community development entity.

(b) To be decertified, all of the following conditions must be met:

(1) The qualified equity investment is beyond its seventh reduction allowance date.

(2) The qualified equity investment was in compliance with the requirements of this Article through its seventh reduction allowance date, including any cures.

(3) The qualified equity investment has its proceeds invested in qualified active low-income community investments such that the total qualified active low-income community investments made, cumulatively including reinvestments, exceeds one hundred fifty percent (150%) of its qualified equity investment. For purposes of the immediately preceding sentence, the maximum amount of qualified low-income community investments in any one qualified active low-income business, on an aggregate basis with all of its affiliates, that may be counted towards the one hundred fifty percent (150%) test shall be twenty-five percent (25%) of the total amount of qualified equity investments issued by the qualified community development entity under this section.

(c) A community development entity that seeks to have a qualified equity investment decertified under this section shall send notice to the Department of its request for decertification along with evidence supporting the request. The provisions of subdivision (2) of subsection (b) of this section are met if no disallowance action has been commenced by the Department as of the seventh reduction allowance date. A request under this section shall not be unreasonably denied and shall be responded to within 30 days of receiving the request. If the request is denied for any reason, the burden of proof shall be on the Department in any administrative or legal proceeding that follows.

"§ 105-129.108. Limitation on fees.

No qualified community development entity shall be entitled to pay any affiliate of such qualified community development entity any fees in connection with any activity under this Article prior to decertification under G.S. 105-129.107 of all qualified equity investment issued by the qualified community development entity. The foregoing shall not prohibit a qualified community development entity from allocating or distributing income earned by it to the affiliates or paying reasonable interest on amounts lent to the qualified community development entity by such affiliates.

"§ 105-129.109. Rural investment requirement.

(a) Of the aggregate qualified low-income community investments made by the qualified community development entity and all qualified community development entities' suballocated qualified equity investment authority under G.S. 105-129.102(d) for the purpose of satisfying the requirement of G.S. 105-129.102(e)(1)c., an amount of qualified low-income community investments equal to at least forty percent (40%) of the purchase price of all qualified equity investments issued by the qualified community development entity and all such suballocatees shall be made in Rural Census Tracts.

(b) The Department may reduce the requirement of subsection (a) of this section to twenty percent (20%) if the qualified community development entity uses its commercially reasonable best efforts to satisfy such subsection and fails to do so within nine months of its initial credit allowance date."

SECTION 2. This act is effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2013, and applies to qualified equity investments made on or after November 1, 2013.

Subject: Review of New Markets Tax Credit

Summary

Per your request, Fiscal Research has reviewed the available literature and evidence on federal and state New Markets Tax Credits. The following conclusions can be drawn from the literature on New Markets Tax Credits (NMTC):

1. Mixed evidence about tax incentives targeted at low-income communities: While specific communities have benefited from many of these programs, there is relatively little evidence that tax incentives are generally effective at attracting new investment to distressed communities. One study on the federal NMTC program found that it modestly increased individual investment into low-income communities, but had no impact on levels of corporate investment.[1] The Empowerment Zone Progam, which is generally seen as the predecessor to the NMTC program, was also found to have little effect on economic growth.[2] Finally, most of the research on Enterprise Zones, which is another type of tax incentive targeted at specific areas, has found little economic impact.[3]

(2002). State Enterprise Zone Programs: Have they Worked? Kalamazoo, MI. W.E. Upjohn Institute for Employment Research.

2. Too early to evaluate the effectiveness of state-level NMTC programs: Because most state-level NMTC programs were enacted in the last 2-3 years, there is very little evidence about how effective they are. One study conducted by Ball State University estimated that every 1 percent in state-level NMTC generated approximately $1 million in increased investment to distressed communities.[4] Given the lack of data, there is a great deal of uncertainty surrounding this result. The Ball State study estimated that states with a 39 percent NMTC generated anywhere from $17.8 to $65.9 million in new investment into distressed areas.

3. Some credits would go to investment that would have occurred in the absence of a State NMTC: Layering state-level tax credits on top of the federal NMTC program would result in North Carolina subsidizing investments that were going to happen anyway. In these cases, all State credits dispensed would represent pure losses to the State. Linking a State NMTC program to the federal program makes administration very easy for the State, but it also prevents any administrative review of whether the tax credits are actually attracting new investment that would not have occurred otherwise.

4. Some investments not targeted at generating economic activity: A significant amount of NMTC activity has gone to real estate investments instead of to active businesses.[5] This has raised concerns that the program is not sufficiently targeted at the types of business investments and loans that are most likely to generate transformative economic activity in low-income communities.

5. Residents of distressed communities do not necessarily benefit from projects that receive NMTC: Given the structure of the NMTC program, it is possible that jobs created in low-income communities will not benefit residents of these distressed areas, particularly if the jobs created require skills and education levels that are not readily available within the local workforce. While increasing economic activity in distressed areas has the potential to create spill-over benefits for residents of low-income communities, the NMTC program does not ensure that residents of distressed areas are the primary beneficiaries of economic growth stimulated by the credits.

For more discussion on the research that has been conducted about New Markets Tax Credits, see below.

Overview of Federal New Markets Tax Credit

The federal NMTC program was created as part of the Community Renewal Tax Relief Act of 2000. The central purpose of the program is to attract private-sector capital to low-income communities. To achieve that central goal, the NMTC is intended to increase the return on investment for projects that would have difficulty attracting capital on the open market, thereby making it possible for otherwise marginal projects in low-income communities to go forward.

New Market Tax Credits are allocated to certified private-sector intermediaries called Community Development Entities, which are corporations or partnerships that provide loans, investments, and financial counseling in low-income communities. To be certified as a Community Development Entity, a corporation or partnership submits an application to the U.S. Treasury Department's Community Development Financial Institutions fund. Community Development Entities are authorized to use the credits they receive under the NMTC program to attract invest capital that can then be used to provide investment or loan financing to projects in low-income communities.

A company or individual that invests in a Community Development Entity is eligible to receive 39 percent of their total investment in tax credits, spread out over seven years. As such, an investment of $1 million into a Community Development Entity would reduce the investor's federal tax liability by $390,000 over a seven-year period.

Overview of State-Level New Markets Tax Credits

Fourteen states currently offer credits that are linked to the federal NMTC program.[6] Another six states, including North Carolina, have proposed state-level New Markets Tax Credit programs. Most of these state programs have been created within the last two to three years, so there is very little track record upon which to evaluate their effectiveness.

In most cases, state-level programs simply provide relief from state taxes for companies and individuals that receive federal credits. Tying state tax credits to the federal program makes the costs of implementation and administration for the states much lower, as the federal government carries all of the cost of authorizing Community Development Entities and allocating credits. On the other hand, tying state tax relief to federal credits effectively eliminates any state oversight of whether particular projects generate sufficient economic benefits to justify state tax expenditures.

SENATE BILL 522:
New Markets Jobs Act

2013-2014 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Finance	Date:	July 16, 2013
Introduced by:	Sen. Gunn	Prepared by:	Greg Roney Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	PCS to First Edition S522-CSTM-42

SUMMARY: The Proposed Committee Substitute (PCS) to Senate Bill 522 would allow a tax credit[1] equal to 58% of the amount invested through federally-recognized development entities in small businesses with less than 500 employees in high-poverty counties. The Statewide total investment that could qualify for the tax credit is $333 million. The $333 million investment pool would yield approximately $193 million in tax credits.

CURRENT LAW: The State does not currently have a tax credit program modeled after the federal New Markets Tax Credit (NMTC) under §45D of the Internal Revenue Code. The State's primary tax credit program is the Article 3J Tax Credits that provide tax credits to qualifying businesses for job creation, investment in business property, and in some cases investment in real property.

BILL ANALYSIS: The PCS would create a State-level tax credit that generally follows the federal New Markets Tax Credit (NMTC) under §45D of the Internal Revenue Code. The State tax credit would be available for investments receiving the federal credit, acting as an incentive to attract the federally-credited investments to NC. Additionally, the State tax credit is available where the federal credit is not received if NC has sufficient availability of tax credits to allocate to the investment.

The PCS would permit corporate taxpayers to receive a credit against gross premiums taxes for making Qualified Equity Investments (QEIs) in qualified community development entities (CDEs). The small businesses that receive the State tax credit must have less than 500 employees and be located in a high-poverty county.[2]

The credit equals 58% of the investment and is claimed during a seven-year credit period as follows: Year One: 0%; Year Two: 0%; Year Three: 11%; Year Four: 11%; Year Five: 12%; Year Six: 12%; Year Seven: 12% – totaling 58%.

The federal credit is 39% of the investment but is claimed at different percentages over the seven-year credit period. Investments could receive both the federal credit (39%) and State credit (58%) – totaling 97% tax credit.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The PCS would be effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2013, and applies to qualified equity investments made on or after November 1, 2013.

[1] The bill describes the tax benefit as a "reduction" but gives the tax benefit the same "property and contractual protections as a credit."

[2] A "low-income community" is defined as any population census tract where the poverty rate for such tract is at least 20% or in the case of a tract not located within a metropolitan area, median family income for such tract does not exceed 80 of statewide median family income, or in the case of a tract located within a metropolitan area, the median family income for such tract does not exceed 80% of the greater of statewide median family income or the metropolitan area median family income.

BILL SUMMARY:

SB 522 would create a State-level tax credit that generally follows the federal New Markets Tax Credit (NMTC) under §45D of the Internal Revenue Code. The State tax credit would be available for investments receiving the federal credit, acting as an incentive to attract the federally-credited investments to NC.

The bill would permit taxpayers to receive a credit gross premiums taxes for making Qualified Equity Investments (QEIs) in qualified community development entities (CDEs).
Source: Committee Counsel

ASSUMPTIONS AND METHODOLOGY:
The bill would allow tax credits to be taken against a maximum of $333 million in qualified equity investment authority. The tax credits can only be taken against the gross premiums insurance tax and are equal to zero percent of the investment authority in the first two years following the initial investment. The credit amounts are 11% for years 3 and 4 following initial investment and 12% for the following three years.

Assuming the maximum qualified equity investment authority of $333 million is achieved in 2012, the credits available to be taken would equal zero in the first two years, $33.6 million in years 3 and 4 and $39.9 million in years 5 through 7.

SOURCES OF DATA:

TECHNICAL CONSIDERATIONS: The PCS does not specify whether the total investment authority is a one-time amount limited to $333 million, or whether this amount would be authorized annually. This fiscal memorandum assumes the authorization is a one-time amount.

The Senate Committee on Finance met on Wednesday, July 17, 2013, at 1:00 p.m. in room 544 of the Legislative Office Building. Andy Shiver of Raleigh, Isabel Ferguson of Raleigh, Amanda Packer of Hope Mills, Jordan Keyes of Raleigh, Victoria Kroll of Holly Springs, Nicholas Kroll of Holly Springs, Caleb Reed of Wake Forest and Jazsmin McNeil of Raleigh served as pages. Senator Rucho served as Chair to the meeting.

H.B. 269 – Children w/Disabilities Scholarship Grants

Representative Jordan was recognized to explain the bill, which would create the special education scholarship grants for children with disabilities. Rodney Bizzell, an Analyst with the Fiscal Research Division, was recognized to answer funding questions. Julia Adams, a Lobbyist with the Arc of NC, was recognized to answer questions and further explain the bill. Senator Cook moved for a favorable report and the motion carried. A copy of the bill, the summary, and the fiscal memo is attached.

S.B. 538 – Result from DOR Inaction on Review Requests

Senator Clodfelter and Senator Tucker were recognized to explain the bill. Senator Brock moved to adopt the proposed committee substitute (PCS) for discussion and the motion carried. The PCS would grant a taxpayer's request for a refund or remove a proposed assessment by operation of law, with some exceptions, if the Department of Revenue fails to issue a final determination within the 9-month time limit. Senator Clodfelter was recognized to offer a clarifying amendment and moved for its adoption. The motion carried. Kris Nordstrom, an Analyst with the Fiscal Research Division, was recognized to further explain the bill and answer questions regarding funding. Senator Cook moved for a favorable report and the motion carried. A copy of the PCS, the summary, and the amendment is attached.

H.B. 565 – Amend Real Estate Appraisers' Laws/Fees

Representative Szoka was recognized to explain the bill. Senator Rabin moved to adopt the PCS and the motion carried. The bill amends the Real Estate Appraisers licensing laws by increasing the educational requirements for certification as a residential real estate appraiser from an associate's degree to a bachelor's degree, and requiring registered appraisal management companies to maintain a $25,000 surety bond. The PCS makes two changes: (1) authorizes the Board to license real estate appraisers with the education requirements for a licensed real estate appraiser will be an associate's degree; and (2) studies the feasibility of the Appraisal Management Recovery Fund that would require each applicant for registration or renewal of registration as an appraisal management company to pay a $500 fee for the Fund. Don Rogers, Executive Director of the NC Appraisal Board, was recognized to answer questions. Senator Rabin moved for a favorable report and the motion carried. A copy of the PCS and the summary is attached.

The meeting adjourned at 1:40 p.m.

Information about scholarship grants and the application process shall be made available on the Authority's Web site. The Authority shall give priority in awarding scholarship grants to eligible students who received a scholarship grant during the previous semester. Except as otherwise provided by the Authority for prior scholarship grant recipients, scholarship grants shall be awarded to eligible students in the order in which the applications are received.

(d) The Authority shall establish rules and regulations for the administration and awarding of scholarship grants.

Of the funds appropriated to NCSEAA under this section, NCSEAA shall use the sum of three million dollars ($3,000,000) for fiscal year 2013-2014 and the sum of three million dollars ($3,000,000) for fiscal year 2014-2015 to award scholarship grants to eligible students. Any unexpended funds for this purpose shall not revert at the end of each fiscal year but shall remain available to award scholarship grants to eligible students.

The remainder of the funds, up to six hundred seventy thousand five hundred dollars ($670,500) for fiscal year 2013-2014 and up to one million three hundred forty-one thousand dollars ($1,341,000) for fiscal year 2014-2015 shall be transferred to the North Carolina Department of Public Instruction to conduct reevaluations of eligible students as required by G.S. 115C-112.3(c), as enacted by this act.

SECTION 6.(a) Article 32D of Chapter 115C of the General Statutes is repealed.

SECTION 6.(b) The State Controller shall transfer the fund balance from the Fund for Special Education and Related Services to Nontax Budget Code 19978 (Intrastate Transfers) or the appropriate budget code as determined by the State Controller to support General Fund appropriations for the 2013-2014 fiscal year.

SECTION 7. Notwithstanding the definition for "eligible student" set forth in G.S. 115C-112.2, as enacted by this act, a child who is otherwise eligible to receive a scholarship grant for the spring semester of the 2013-2014 school year is deemed to have met the requirements of G.S. 115C-112.2(2)f., as enacted by this act, if the child is a dependent child for whom a taxpayer is allowed a credit for the fall semester of the 2013-2014 school year under G.S. 105-151.33 and the taxpayer affirms, under oath, that the taxpayer will claim the credit for that semester. Notwithstanding G.S. 105-259(b), the Department of Revenue shall furnish, upon request, to the Authority a list of claimants that received a credit pursuant to G.S. 105-151.33 for the taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 2013.

SECTION 8. Sections 1, 2, and 3 of this act are effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2014. This act does not affect the rights or liabilities of the State, a taxpayer, or another person arising under a statute amended or repealed by this act before the effective date of its amendment or repeal; nor does it affect the right to any refund or credit of a tax that accrued under the amended or repealed statute before the effective date of its amendment or repeal. Sections 5 and 6 of this act become effective July 1, 2013. The remainder of this act is effective when it becomes law and applies beginning with the spring semester of the 2013-2014 school year. Notwithstanding the requirement to make applications available by May 1 in G.S. 115C-112.3(a), as enacted by this act, applications for the 2014 spring semester shall be made available no later than October 1, 2013, and the Authority shall notify parents in writing of the eligibility as soon as practicable.

HOUSE BILL 269:
Children w/Disabilities Scholarship Grants

Committee:	Senate Finance	Date:	July 16, 2013
Introduced by:	Reps. Jordan, Brandon, Jones, Stam	Prepared by:	Kara McCraw and Drupti Chauhan Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	Fifth Edition

SUMMARY: House Bill 269 would create the special education scholarship grants for children with disabilities.

CURRENT LAW: A taxpayer is entitled to an education expenses tax credit of up to $3,000 per semester for tuition and special education and related services expenses for each "eligible dependent child" who is a resident of North Carolina and who enrolled for one or two semesters during the taxable year in grades kindergarten-12 at either (i) a nonpublic school or (ii) a public school where tuition is charged for the child's enrollment. For home schools, the credit is equal to the amount the taxpayer paid for special education and related services expenses, not to exceed $3,000 per semester.

Qualifications for the Tax Credit. – In order for a child to be an "eligible dependent child," all of the following criteria must be met:

- The child must be a child with a disability who requires an individualized education program (IEP) under Article 9 of Chapter 115C of the General Statutes (Education of Students with Disabilities) and the federal Individuals with Disabilities Education Improvement Act (IDEA), 20 U.S.C. § 1400 et seq. (2004), as amended. The child must be reevaluated every three years by a local educational agency to verify that the child continues to be a child with a disability. Local educational agencies are not responsible for implementing IEPs for children in parentally placed nonpublic schools.
- The child must receive special education or related services on a daily basis.
- The child must be a child for whom the taxpayer is entitled to deduct a personal exemption under section 151(c) of the Internal Code for the taxable year.

For the initial eligibility for the tax credit during the first five years that the credit is available, the eligible dependent child must have been enrolled for at least the preceding two semesters in a public school or receiving special education or related services through the public schools as a preschool child with a disability. This initial eligibility requirement is reduced to one semester beginning for taxable years on or after January 1, 2016.

Disqualifications for the Tax Credit. – A taxpayer does not qualify for the education expenses tax credit for any semester when the taxpayer's otherwise eligible dependent child was:

- Placed in a nonpublic school or facility by a public agency at public expense.
- Enrolled for any time as a full-time student taking at least 12 hours of academic credit at a postsecondary educational institution.
- 22 years of age or older during the entire semester or graduated from high school prior to the end of the semester.

Reduction of the Tax Credit. – The amount of the education expenses tax credit is reduced for any semester in which the eligible dependent child spent any time enrolled in a public school. The amount of the reduction is equal to the percentage of the semester that the eligible dependent child was enrolled in a public school.

Carryforward of the Tax Credit. – Any unused portion of the credit may be carried forward for 3 succeeding years.

Fund for Special Education and Related Services. – The Fund for Special Education and Related Services (Fund) is a special revenue fund where monies in the Fund are to be used only for special education and related services for children with disabilities, to reimburse local educational agencies for conducting reevaluations for continued eligibility, and to develop revised individualized education programs for children with disabilities. At the end of each fiscal year, the Secretary of Revenue must transfer to the Fund from the net individual income tax collections an amount equal to $2,000, multiplied by the number of education expenses tax credits taken during the fiscal year. Interest and other investment income earned by the Fund accrue to it and monies in the Fund do not revert.

BILL ANALYSIS:

HB 269 would repeal the current tax credit for children with disabilities as well as the Fund for Special Education and Related Services. It would create the following new program in Article 9 of Chapter 115C of the General Statutes (Education of Children with Disabilities). All terms defined for that Article would apply in this bill, including the definitions for child with a disability, IEPs, and special education and related services.

Special Education Scholarship Grants (grants) – The program would provide grants of not more than $3000 per semester to eligible students for reimbursement of tuition and special education and related services. Priority would be given in awarding grants to students who received a grant in the previous semester. Otherwise, grants would be awarded to eligible students in the order in which applications are received.

Scholarship Grant Eligibility - A child with a disability under the age of 22 who meets all of the following requirements would be eligible for a scholarship grant:

- Requires an individualized education plan.
- Receives special education or related services on a daily basis.
- Has not been placed in a nonpublic school or facility by a public agency at public expense.
- Has not spent any time enrolled in a postsecondary institution as a full-time student taking at least 12 academic credit hours.
- Has not received a high school diploma.
- Meets one of the following requirements:
  - Was enrolled in a NC public school during the previous semester.
  - Received special education or related services through the NC public schools as a preschool child with a disability during the previous semester.
  - Received a scholarship grant for the previous semester, or received a tax credit for students with disabilities as provided in G.S. 105-151.33 for the fall semester of the 2013-2014 school year.
  - Is eligible for enrollment in kindergarten or the first grade in a NC public school.

Administration - The State Education Assistance Authority (SEAA) would administer the scholarship grants.

- Timeline of awards - Applications would be made available by May 1 to eligible students. Awards of grants for fall semester will be made by July 1, and awards for spring semester will be made by December 1.
- Reimbursement Documentation - At the end of each semester, parents will submit receipts or other documentation to the SEAA for reimbursement up to the maximum amount of the grant. Parents must provide documentation that the student was enrolled in nonpublic school or was homeschooled and receiving related services for no less than 75 days of the semester for which the parent seeks reimbursement.
- Verification of Eligibility – The SEAA may seek verification on information on applications and may revoke grants if parents fail to cooperate with verification efforts. Parents must authorize the SEAA to access information held by the local educational agency.
- Reevaluation - After an initial award, students must be reevaluated by the local educational agency every three years to verify the student continues to be a child with a disability.

Reporting – The SEAA must report to the Joint Legislative Education Oversight Committee annually no later than October 1 on the following:

- Total number, age, and grade level of students receiving grants.
- Total amount of grant funding awarded.
- Nonpublic schools in which grant recipients are enrolled, and number of grant students at those schools
- Types of special education or related services for which grants were awarded.

Appropriations: $3,670,500 is appropriated to the SEAA for the 2013-2014 fiscal year, and $4,341,000 in recurring funds is appropriated to the SEAA for the 2014-2015 fiscal year to implement the act. Of those funds, $3,000,000 per year must be used by the SEAA to fund grants to eligible students. Unexpended funds do not revert and remain available to award grants. The remainders of the funds are transferred to DPI to conduct evaluation of eligible students. The SEAA may retain up to $200,000 of the funds for grants for administrative costs in fiscal year 2013-2014. For fiscal year 2014-2015 and subsequent years, the SEAA may retain 2% annually for administrative costs.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The repeal of the current tax credit (Sections 1, 2, and 3) is effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2014. The scholarship grant program (Section 4), is effective when it becomes law and applies beginning with the spring semester of the 2013-2014 school year. Sections 5 and 6, concerning appropriations and fund transfers, are effective July 1, 2013. Initial applications for the 2014 spring semester must be made available no later than October 1, 2014 and parents notified of awards as soon as practicable. The bill specifies that nothing in the act requires the General Assembly to appropriate funds to implement it. The appropriations would become effective only if those funds are appropriated by the Current Operations and Capital Improvement Act of 2013.

BACKGROUND: The House Appropriations Committee Report on the Continuation, Expansion, and Capital Budgets for House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill 402, 6/11/2013 appropriates the funds required for HB 269. Approximately six states have scholarship grant programs for students with disabilities: Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, Ohio, Oklahoma, and Utah.

BILL SUMMARY:
Sections 1 through 3 repeal relevant Session Law and General Statutes related to S.L. 2011-395, Tax Credits for Children With Disabilities. These pieces are repealed effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2014.

Section 4 amends Article 9 of Chapter 115C of the General Statutes to create the new Special Education Scholarship Grants for Children with Disabilities program (the Program). The program provides scholarship grants of up to $3,000 per semester to eligible children to attend a nonpublic school.[1] The scholarship grant may only be used for the reimbursement of tuition and special education and related services.

[1] Nonpublic schools include traditional private schools and home schools.

To be eligible for the scholarship grant, the student must:

1. Require an individualized education plan;
2. Receive special education or related services on a daily basis;
3. Not have been placed in a nonpublic school or facility by a public agency at public expense;
4. Not have spent any time enrolled in a postsecondary institution as a full-time student taking at least 12 hours of academic credit.
5. Not have received a high school diploma; and
6. Meet one of the following requirements:
    a. Was enrolled in a North Carolina public school during the previous semester;
    b. Received special education or related services through the North Carolina public schools as a preschool child with a disability during the previous semester;
    c. Received a scholarship grant for the previous semester; or
    d. Is eligible for initial enrollment in kindergarten or the first grade in a North Carolina public school.

Eligible students who received a scholarship grant during the previous semester or who generated a tax credit for the fall semester of the 2013-14 school year shall be given priority. Otherwise, scholarship grants will be awarded in the order in which the applications are received.

The Program will be administered by the North Carolina State Education Assistance Authority (SEAA). SEAA will have the following responsibilities:

1. Make applications available no later than May 1 of each year
2. Provide information about the scholarship grants and the application process on the SEAA website.
3. Notify parents of their eligibility to receive scholarship grants by July 1 of each year for fall semesters and by December 1 of each year for spring semesters
4. Issue additional scholarship grants if scholarship grant funds remain after making initial awards.
5. Establish rules and regulations for the administration of the Program.
6. Ensure that students receiving scholarship grants are reevaluated at least every three years by the local education agency (LEA) in order to verify that the student continues to be a child with a disability.

SEAA shall report to the Joint Legislative Education Oversight Committee by October 1 of each year on the following:

1. Total number, age and grade level of eligible students receiving scholarship grants;
2. Total amount of scholarship grant funding awarded;
3. Nonpublic schools in which scholarship grant recipients are enrolled and the number of scholarship grant students at the school; and
4. The type of special education or related services for which scholarship grants were awarded.

SEAA may seek verification of information on any application for scholarship grants.

SEAA must report to the Department of Public Instruction (DPI) by August 1 of each year, reporting the number of students who both:

1. Awarded a scholarship grant for the upcoming semester; and
2. Were enrolled in a public school during the prior semester.

DPI shall adjust the allotments of LEAs based on the number of students awarded a scholarship grant who attended an LEA during the semester prior to the semester for which the scholarship grant was awarded.

Section 5 of the bill appropriates $3,670,500 for FY 2013-14 and $4,341,000 for FY 2014-15. Of these amounts, up to $670,500 may be transferred to DPI to conduct reevaluations of eligible students as required by G.S. 115C-112.3(c) in FY 2013-14, and up to $1,341,000 may be transferred and used for the same purposes in FY 2014-15. Of the funds appropriated, SEAA may retain up to $200,000 in FY 2013-14 and up to 2% of the appropriated amount for FY 2014-15 and subsequent years.

ASSUMPTIONS AND METHODOLOGY:

This bill would eliminate the tax credit created by S.L. 2011-395 and replace this program with a scholarship grant program. As a result, the fiscal analysis must compare the projected fiscal impact of:

1. The tax credit created by S.L. 2011-395; and
2. The scholarship grant program created by this bill.

Projecting the cost of the S.L. 2011-395 tax credit

Data from the Department of Revenue (DOR) indicates that 619 returns reported an associated tax credit value of $1,538,054 for the 2011 taxable year. Preliminary data through March 12, 2013 indicates that 485 returns reported an associated tax credit value of $1,218,383 for the 2012 taxable year. Over both years, the average tax credit claimed was approximately $2,500.

Of course, the tax credit created by S.L. 2011-395 is non-refundable. That is, the tax filer can only receive a credit up to the amount that he or she owes in State taxes. This amount is reduced further by claiming of other tax credits. As a result, tax credits claimed exceeds the value of tax credits realized.

Based on the first two years' data, it appears as if tax credits realized are approximately half of tax credits claimed. That is, while $1.2 million of tax credits have been claimed so far for the 2012 taxable year, the amount of credits realized is likely to be closer to $600,000.

It is important to note that many taxpayers have yet to file their 2012 taxes as of March 12. That means that the number of tax credits claimed and realized are likely to be significantly higher than the initial data above indicates. Unfortunately, there is little historic data to draw from to formulate an estimate. It is probably safe to say, however, that the number and value of credits will exceed the number claimed in the 2011 taxable year for two reasons. First, the program for the 2011 taxable year only covered one semester. Second, the program is likely to grow in the 2012 taxable year, as more taxpayers become aware of the program. As a result, this analysis assumes that there will ultimately be 800 tax credits claimed for the 2012 taxable year, with an average value of $2,500 each. This analysis assumes a further 10% growth in the program for the subsequent taxable years.

Finally, it is also important to note that unused portions of the credit may be carried forward for the succeeding three years. For purposes of calculating carry-forward amounts, this analysis assumes that the program will have a turnover rate of 15%. That is, 15% of taxpayers claiming a credit in 2011 will not claim a credit in 2012, and instead will begin to realize the credits carried forward.

For purposes of analysis, it is assumed that tax credits generated in the 2012 taxable year will impact State revenues in the 2012-13 fiscal year, tax credits generated in the 2013 taxable year will impact State revenues in the 2013-14 fiscal year, and so forth.

Based on the above, one would anticipate that the S.L. 2011-395 tax credit would have the following estimated impact going forward:

	2011-12	2012-13	2013-14	2014-15	2015-16	2016-17	2017-18
Returns	619	800	880	968	1065	1172	1289
Claimed Value	$1,538,054	$2,000,000	$2,200,000	$2,420,000	$2,662,500	$2,930,000	$3,222,500
Realized Value	$769,027	$1,000,000	$1,100,000	$1,210,000	$1,331,250	$1,465,000	$1,611,250
Amount Carried Forward		$115,354	$197,842	$315,000	$496,500	$546,188	$600,938
Total Reduction to Revenues	$769,027	$1,115,354	$1,297,842	$1,525,000	$1,827,750	$2,011,188	$2,212,188

Projecting the additional expenditures of the scholarship grant program
The expenditures related to the scholarship grant program proposed by this bill is simply the appropriated amount of $3,670,500 for FY 2013-14 and $4,341,000 for FY 2014-15.

Total fiscal impact of the bill
The total impact of the bill is the increase in revenues anticipated from the elimination of the tax credit program, less the appropriation made for the scholarship grant program (increased expenditures).

SOURCES OF DATA: Department of Revenue

TECHNICAL CONSIDERATIONS:
SEAA indicates that administrative costs for FY 2014-15 are likely to exceed the amount they are authorized to retain for such purposes in FY 2014-15. SEAA indicates that administration of the program considered by this bill would cost $117,900. SEAA would be authorized to retain up to $86,820 under this bill. Bill sponsors might consider increasing the allowable retention percentage for FY 2014-15 to 2.8% to provide the funds necessary to SEAA for program administration.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO GRANT A TAXPAYER'S REQUEST FOR A REFUND OR TO REMOVE A PROPOSED ASSESSMENT BY OPERATION OF LAW IF THE DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE HAS NOT ISSUED A FINAL DETERMINATION WITHIN THE STATUTORY TIME FRAME.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 105-241.11 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(d) Form and Basis. – A request for review of a proposed denial of a refund or a proposed assessment must include a detailed explanation, including any supporting documentation, setting forth the specific grounds of the request for review. The inability to pay an assessment is not a sufficient basis for requesting review of a proposed assessment. Failure to comply with the requirements of this subsection results in an automatic denial of the request for a refund or the request to remove a proposed assessment. In the case of an automatic denial, the Department is not required to schedule a conference with the taxpayer and must send the taxpayer notification that the denial is final and is not subject to further administrative or judicial review. In the case of an automatic denial of a request for review of a proposed assessment, the notice must include a statement that the assessment is collectible under G.S. 105-241.22."

SECTION 2. G.S. 105-241.13(a)(3) reads as rewritten:

"(3) Request additional information from the taxpayer concerning the requested refund or proposed assessment. The Department may make multiple requests for information. All requests for information must be made prior to 60 days before the final determination must be issued under G.S. 105-241.14 or before the time set by mutual agreement."

SECTION 3. G.S. 105-241.14 reads as rewritten:

"§ 105-241.14. Final determination after Departmental review.

(a) Refund. – If a taxpayer files a timely request for a Departmental review of a proposed denial of a refund and the Department and the taxpayer are unable to resolve the taxpayer's objection to the proposed denial, the Department must send the taxpayer a notice of final determination concerning the refund. The notice of final determination must state the basis for the determination and inform the taxpayer of the procedure for contesting the determination. The statement of the basis for the determination does not limit the Department from changing the basis.

(b) Assessment. – If a taxpayer files a timely request for a Departmental review of a proposed assessment and the Department and the taxpayer are unable to resolve the taxpayer's objection to the proposed assessment, the Department must send the taxpayer a notice of final determination concerning the assessment. A notice of final determination concerning an assessment must contain the following information:

(1) The basis for the determination. This information may be stated on the notice or be set out in a separate document. The statement of the basis for the determination does not limit the Department from changing the basis.

(2) The amount of tax, interest, and penalties payable by the taxpayer.

(3) The procedure the taxpayer must follow to contest the final determination.

(4) A statement that the amount payable stated on the notice is collectible by the Department unless the taxpayer contests the final determination.

(5) An explanation of the collection options available to the Department if the taxpayer does not pay the amount shown due on the notice and any remedies available to the taxpayer concerning these collection options.

(c) Time Limit. – The process set out in G.S. 105-241.13 for reviewing and attempting to resolve a proposed denial of a refund or a proposed assessment must conclude, and a final determination must be issued within nine months after the date the taxpayer files a request for review. The Department and the taxpayer may extend this time limit by mutual agreement. ~~Failure to issue a notice of final determination within the required time does not affect the validity of a proposed denial of a refund or proposed assessment.~~The Secretary and the taxpayer may mutually agree to reduce the nine-month period in an effort to expedite the issuance of a final determination.

(d) Consequences of Inaction. – Failure to issue a notice of final determination within the time limit set in subsection (c) of this section is considered a grant of a requested refund or the removal of a proposed assessment by operation of law, unless one or more of the circumstances listed in this subsection applies. When a refund is granted by operation of law, the Department must send the taxpayer the refund. When an assessment is removed by operation of law, the Department must notify the taxpayer that the assessment is removed. The circumstances that negate this result are:

(1) The Department and the taxpayer extended the time limit set in subsection (c) of this section by mutual agreement and that time has not expired.

(2) The Department made a written request to the taxpayer for additional information, and the taxpayer has not responded to the request or has not responded in a complete manner as determined by the Secretary.

(3) The Department received information from the taxpayer pursuant to a written request for additional information, and the time set in this subdivision for further action has not expired. If the time limit set in subsection (c) of this section will expire within 60 days of receipt of the requested information from the taxpayer, the Department must review the information and either grant the requested refund, remove the proposed assessment, or issue a final determination within 90 days of receipt of the requested information.

(4) The Department received a request for review based upon a proposed denial of refund and the denied refund is based on a contingent event defined in G.S. 105-241.6(b)(5)a. that has not been finalized.

SECTION 4. This act becomes effective January 1, 2014, and applies to requests for review filed on or after that date.

SENATE BILL 538:
Result from DOR Inaction on Review Requests

2013-2014 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Finance	Date:	July 17, 2013
Introduced by:	Sens. Clodfelter, Tucker	Prepared by:	Trina Griffin
Analysis of:	PCS to First Edition S538-CSSV-38		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: The Proposed Committee Substitute for Senate Bill 538 would grant a taxpayer's request for a refund or remove a proposed assessment by operation of law, with some exceptions, if the Department of Revenue fails to issue a final determination within the 9-month time limit.

CURRENT LAW: If the Department of Revenue proposes an assessment against a taxpayer or denies a taxpayer's request for a refund, there is an administrative process by which the taxpayer may challenge the Department's action. First, the taxpayer must, within 45 days from the notice, file a request for review by the Department. The Departmental review generally consists of an initial review followed by an informal conference. If the review results in the Department granting the refund or removing the assessment, the matter ends there. If the review does not resolve the dispute, the Department may request additional information from the taxpayer and must schedule a conference with the taxpayer. If the Department and the taxpayer are unable to resolve the matter at conference, the Department must issue a final determination.

The final determination must be issued within nine months after the date the taxpayer filed a request for review. A final determination represents the Department's decision regarding a proposed denial of a refund or a proposed assessment. Once issued at the conclusion of the Departmental review process, it triggers the taxpayer's ability to seek further review regarding a disputed tax matter. Without a final determination, a taxpayer may not proceed with a contested case at the Office of Administrative Hearings, which would be the next step in the process.

While the Department is statutorily required to issue a final determination within nine months after the date the taxpayer filed the request, some taxpayers have complained that this requirement is not always met. Among the reasons that the Department may be unable to issue a final determination within 9 months is that requests are often incomplete or too vague or that taxpayers either fail to respond to requests for information or respond at the end of the 9-month period.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1 of the bill would require that a taxpayer, when making a request for review of a proposed assessment or a proposed denial of a refund, to provide a detailed explanation, including any supporting documentation, setting for the basis for the request. The bill declares that the inability to pay an assessment is not a sufficient basis for requesting review. Failure to comply with these requirements would be an automatic denial of the request for a refund or the request to remove a proposed assessment. The denial would not be subject to administrative or judicial review. However, if the statute of limitations has not expired, a taxpayer would be able to resubmit his or her request in the proper form.

In response to a taxpayer's request for review, the Department may request additional information from the taxpayer. Section 2 of the bill clarifies that the Department may make multiple requests during the 9-month period it has before it must make a final determination on the request. However, the bill would preclude the Department from requesting additional information during the 60-day window immediately prior to the expiration of the 9-month time limit.

Section 3 of the bill provides that if the Department fails to issue a final determination within the 9-month time limit, the refund request or the request to remove the proposed assessment is granted as a matter of law, and the Department must notify the taxpayer of said result. There are four exceptions:

- The Department and the taxpayer have mutually agreed to extend the 9-month time limit.
- The taxpayer has either failed to respond or has responded insufficiently to the Department's written request for information.
- The taxpayer responded to the Department's request for information within 60 days of the expiration of the 9-month time limit. In this circumstance, the Department has 90 days from the receipt of the information to issue the final determination, even if that would extend beyond the original 9-month time limit.
- The proposed denial of a refund is based on a contingent event that has not been finalized.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The act would become effective January 1, 2014, and apply to requests for review filed on or after that date.

(6) The bond shall remain in effect until cancellation, which may occur only after 90 days written notice to the Board. Cancellation shall not affect any liability incurred or accrued during that period.

(7) The surety bond shall remain in place for no less than two years after the registrant ceases operations in this State. However, notwithstanding this provision, the Board may permit the surety bond to be reduced or eliminated prior to that time to the extent that the amount of the registrant's outstanding obligations to appraisers is reduced."

SECTION 6. G.S. 93E-2-8(a) reads as rewritten:

"§ 93E-2-8. Disciplinary authority.

(a) The Board may, by order, deny, suspend, revoke, or refuse to issue or renew a registration of an appraisal management company under this Article or may restrict or limit activities of a person who owns an interest in or participates in the business of an appraisal management company if the Board determines that an applicant, registrant, or any partner, member, manager, officer, director, compliance manager, or person occupying a similar status, performing similar functions, or directly or indirectly controlling the applicant or registrant has done any of the following:

(1) Filed an application for registration that, as of its effective date or as of any date after filing, contained any statement that, in light of the circumstances under which it was made, is false or misleading with respect to any material fact.
(2) Violated or failed to comply with any provision of this Article or any rules adopted by the Board.
(3) Been convicted of any felony or, within the past 10 years, been convicted of any misdemeanor involving mortgage lending or real estate appraisal or any offense involving breach of trust, moral turpitude, or fraudulent or dishonest dealing.
(4) Been permanently or temporarily enjoined by any court of competent jurisdiction from engaging in or continuing any conduct or practice involving any aspect of the real estate appraisal management business.
(5) Been the subject of an order of the Board or any other state appraiser regulatory agency denying, suspending, or revoking the person's license as a real estate appraiser.
(6) Acted as an appraisal management company while not properly licensed by the Board.
(7) Failed to pay the proper filing or renewal fee under this Article.
(8) Failed to maintain the bond required by G.S. 93E-2-4."

SECTION 7. G.S. 93E-2-8(g) reads as rewritten:

"(g) If the Board has reasonable grounds to believe that an appraisal management company has violated the provisions of this Article or that facts exist that would be the basis for an order against an appraisal management company, the Board may at any time, either personally or by a person duly designated by the Board, investigate or examine the books, accounts, records, and files of any registrant or other person relating to the complaint or matter under investigation.

(g1) The Board may require any registrant or other person to submit a criminal history record check and a set of that person's fingerprints in connection with any examination or investigation. Refusal to submit the requested criminal history record check or a set of fingerprints shall be grounds for disciplinary action. The reasonable cost of the investigation or examination shall be charged against the registrant."

SECTION 8. G.S. 114-19.30 reads as rewritten:

"§ 114-19.30. Criminal history record checks of applicants for trainee registration, appraiser licensure, appraiser certification, or registrants for registration as real estate appraisal management companies.

The Department of Justice may provide to the North Carolina Appraisal Board from the State and National Repositories of Criminal Histories the criminal history of any applicant or registrant for registration under Article 1 and Article 2 of Chapter 93E of the General Statutes. Along with the request, the Board shall provide to the Department of Justice the fingerprints of the applicant or registrant, a form signed by the applicant or registrant consenting to the criminal history record check and use of fingerprints and other identifying information required by the State and National Repositories, and any additional information required by the Department of Justice. The applicant's or registrant's fingerprints shall be forwarded to the State Bureau of Investigation for a search of the State's criminal history record file, and the State Bureau of Investigation shall forward a set of fingerprints to the Federal Bureau of Investigation for a national criminal history record check. The Board shall keep all information obtained pursuant to this section confidential. The Department of Justice may charge a fee to offset the cost incurred by the Department to conduct a criminal history record check under this section. The fee shall not exceed the actual cost of locating, editing, researching, and retrieving the information."

SECTION 9. Any person who has been licensed or certified by the Board as a residential or general real estate appraiser on or before the effective date of this act shall be deemed to have complied with the requirements of G.S. 93E-1-6, as enacted in Section 2 of this act.

SECTION 10. The Legislative Research Commission is authorized to study issues relating the North Carolina Appraisal Board limited to the advisability of establishing a recovery fund to provide restitution to appraisers. In conducting the study, the Commission may study the following:

(1) The need for the fund and whether a surety bond is adequate.
(2) Review any existing recovery funds in other states for efficacy and appropriateness.
(3) Review other similar consumer protection funds in other regulated settings, and the funds protect the consumer and the licensee.
(4) Conduct a cost benefit analysis of the recovery fund.
(5) Consider the financial impact of the fund on licensees.
(6) Any other matters the Commission finds relevant to the issue.

SECTION 11. Sections 10 and 11 are effective when this act becomes law. The remainder of this act becomes effective January 1, 2014.

HOUSE BILL 565:
Amend Real Estate Appraisers' Laws/Fees

2013-2014 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Finance	Date:	July 17, 2013
Introduced by:	Reps. Szoka, Howard, B. Brown, Saine	Prepared by:	Heather Fennell Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	PCS to Third Edition H565-CSTDf-36

SUMMARY: House Bill 565 amends the Real Estate Appraisers licensing laws by licensing laws by increasing the educational requirements for certification as a residential real estate appraiser from an associate's degree to a bachelor's degree, and requiring registered appraisal management companies to maintain a $25,000 surety bond.

The PCS makes the following two changes:

- Authorizes the Board to license real estate appraisers. The education requirements for a licensed real estate appraiser will be an associate's degree.
- Studies the feasibility of the Appraisal Management Recovery Fund that would require each applicant for registration or renewal of registration as an appraisal management company to pay a $500 fee for the Fund.

CURRENT LAW: Article 1 of Chapter 93E of the General Statutes provides for the registration, licensing and certification of real estate appraisers. Under current law, a residential real estate appraiser is required to hold an associate's degree in order to obtain certification. General real estate appraisers must hold a bachelor's degree.

Article 2 of Chapter 93E provides for the registration of appraisal management companies and payment of application and annual renewal fees. Appraisal management companies are business entities that use an appraisal or fee panel and perform, directly or indirectly, appraisal management services. An appraisal panel is a network of licensed/certified appraisers who are independent contractors of the appraisal management company.

Two federal laws provide guidance to the states on the regulation of property appraisers. The Financial Institutions Reform, Recovery, and Enforcement Act of 1989 (FIRREA) created federal guidelines for regulation real estate appraisals. The Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act (Dodd-Frank Act) further amended these guidelines and created the Appraisal Subcommittee (ASC) of the Federal Financial Institutions Examinations Council (FFIEC). The ASC oversees the State certification of real estate appraisers.

BILL ANALYSIS: Section 1 amends G.S. 93-1-6 which places limitations on the activities of registered trainee appraisers. The amendment would eliminate licensees from being able to submit appraisal reports under the personal supervision of a licensee. Only certified real estate appraisers will be able to perform that function.[1]

Section 2 amends G.S. 93E-1-6 to amend the qualifications for registration and certification.

[1] S.L. 2007-506 provided for the phase out of the licensee category of real estate appraisers. Licensees are allowed to maintain their license if properly renewed.

- Persons applying for registration as an appraiser will not have to take an examination.
- Certification as a residential real estate appraiser will require an applicant to hold a bachelor's degree (was an associate's degree).
- Course requirements for both residential and general real estate appraisers must have been completed on or after January 1, 2008.
- Applicants will no longer have to provide the Board with a criminal record report from an approved source. Instead, applicants must consent to a criminal record check.

Section 2 also authorizes the Board to issue licenses to real estate appraisers. The education requirement for licensed real estate appraisers is an associate degree.

Section 3 amends G.S. 93E-1-6.1 and provides that both trainees and appraisers who want to supervise trainees must take a course in trainee supervision.

Section 4 makes a change in terminology in G.S. 93E-1-8 regarding appraiser education programs. The Board is authorized to prescribe minimum standards for the approval of schools and course sponsors for appraiser "prelicensing and precertification" courses. The amendment changes that term to appraiser "qualifying" courses.

Section 5 amends G.S. 93E-2-4 regarding the qualifications for registration as an appraisal management company, to require certification that the appraisal management company has obtained a surety bond. The amendment also provides that the surety bond shall be in the amount of $25,000 and:

- Shall be in a form satisfactory to the Board.
- Will accrue to the Board for the benefit of a claimant and to a real estate appraiser who has not been paid for an appraisal.
- The aggregate liability of the surety will not exceed the principal sum of the bond.
- Either a claimant or the Board may bring suit directly on the surety bond in one or successive actions.
- A claim reducing the bond shall be annually restored.
- The bond shall remain in effect until cancellation which requires 90 days written notice to the Board.
- The bond shall remain in place for no less than 2 years after the appraisal management company ceases operations in the State. The bond may be reduced or eliminated prior to that time depending on the company's outstanding obligations to appraisers.

Section 6 adds failure to maintain the required surety bond to the grounds for disciplinary action by the Board.

Section 7 amends G.S. 93E-2-8(g) by dividing that subsection into 2 parts: Subsection (g) dealing with the Board's authority to inspect the accounts and records of an appraisal management company that it has reasonable grounds to believe is in violation of the licensing laws; and Subsection (g1) providing for criminal history record checks.

Section 8 amends the law providing for criminal history checks for applicants for registration as a real estate appraisal management company. The amendment provides for criminal history checks for those applying for registration or certification as real estate appraisers

Section 9 provides for the grandfathering of those licensed or certified by the Board prior to the effective date of the act.

Section 10 creates a study of the Appraisal Management Company Recovery Fund. The purpose of a Fund would be to provide restitution to real estate appraisers who have not been paid by an appraisal management company.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The act becomes effective January 1, 2014.

Barbara Riley, counsel to House Commerce, substantially contributed to this summary.

Senate Finance Committee
Thursday, July 18, 2013
Room 643 LOB, 11:00 a.m.

Minutes

The Senate Committee on Finance met on Thursday, July 18, 2013, at 11:00 a.m. in room 643 of the Legislative Office Building. Senator Rucho served as Chair to the meeting.

S.B. 581 – Establish Historical Boilers Licensing Act

Senator Bingham was recognized to explain the bill. Senator Brock moved to adopt the proposed committee substitute (PCS) for discussion. The motion carried. The PCS would require individuals that operate historical boilers in public to be licensed. It would also create new certification standards for the operation of historical boilers that differ from the standards currently required for all boilers. It removes the certification of historical boilers from the NC Board of Boiler and Pressure Vessels Rules that is part of the Department of Labor, and creates the new Historical Boilers Licensing Board in the Department of Agriculture. Boilers, including historical boilers, would continue to be inspected by the Boiler Safety Bureau of the Department of Labor. The standards for inspections of historical boilers would be set by the Historical Boilers Licensing Board while the standards for all other boilers would be set by the NC Board of Boiler and Pressure Vessels Rules. Jennifer Haigwood, the Legislative Liaison for the Department of Labor, was recognized to explain that the Commissioner opposes the bill with thoughts that the new board could weaken current safety rules. Brian Slivka, an Analyst with the Fiscal Research Division, was recognized to answer questions. Senator Jenkins moved for a favorable report and the motion carried. A copy of the PCS, the summary, and the fiscal memo is attached.

The meeting adjourned at 11:16 a.m.

Establish Historical Boilers Licensing Act

2013-2014 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Re-ref to Finance. If fav, re-ref to Appropriations/Base Budget	Date:	July 19, 2013
Introduced by:	Sen. Bingham	Prepared by:	Heather Fennell Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	PCS to First Edition S581-CSTQ-61

SUMMARY: The PCS to S581 would require individuals that operate historical boilers in public to be licensed. It would also create new certification standards for the operation historical boilers that differ from the standards currently required for all boilers. It removes the certification of historical boilers from the North Carolina Board of Boiler and Pressure Vessels Rules that is part of the Department of Labor, and creates the new Historical Boilers Licensing Board in the Department of Agriculture.

Boilers, including historical boilers, would continue to be inspected by the Boiler Safety Bureau of the Department of Labor. The standards for inspections of historical boilers would be set by the Historical Boilers Licensing Board while the standards for all other boilers would be set by the North Carolina Board of Boiler and Pressure Vessels Rules.

CURRENT LAW: Article 7A of Chapter 95 of the General Statutes provides the statutory authority for safety inspections of boilers in the State. Boilers are defined as "a closed vessel in which water is heated, steam is generated, steam is superheated, or any combination thereof, under pressure or vacuum by the direct or indirect application of heat." The term also includes "fired units for heating or vaporizing liquids other than water where these units are complete within themselves."

The North Carolina Board of Boiler and Pressure Vessels Rules adopts rules for installation, construction, and repair and use of boilers. The rules adopted by the Board must conform with the standards of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers. This Board consists of 9 members appointed by the Labor Commissioner.

All boilers and pressure vessels must be inspected by a commission inspector. The Boiler Safety Bureau with the Department of Labor administers the inspections. The inspections may be conducted by one of the following types of inspectors:

- A Boiler and Pressure Vessel Inspector, or Deputy Inspector – Qualified individuals employed by the Department of Labor and appointed by the Labor Commissioner.
- Special/Insurance Inspector – Qualified individuals employed by an insurance company.
- Owner-User Inspector – Qualified individuals employed by a company in the business of operating pressure vessels for its own use. The company must maintain an inspection program of periodic inspection under the supervision of qualified engineers.

A boiler or pressure vessel may not be operated without an inspection certificate. A person that operates a boiler without a certificate is subject to a fine of $250 for each day the boiler is operated without a certificate. A person that operates a boiler for which the Commission has refused to issue a certificate, or for which a certificate has been revoked is subject to a fine of $500 for each day the boiler is operated without a certificate. The penalty for misrepresenting oneself as an authorized inspector of boilers or pressure vessels is a Class 2 misdemeanor.

BILL ANALYSIS: The PCS creates the Historical Boilers Licensing Board. A historical boiler is defined as a "steam boiler of riveted construction that is preserved, restored, or maintained for hobby or demonstration."

The Board: The term of Board members will be 5 years after the initial appointment term. Members may not serve more than 2 consecutive terms. The Board will consist of nine members appointed as follows:

- 4 members appointed by the General Assembly; 2 upon the recommendation of the President Pro Tempore of the Senate, and 2 upon the recommendation of the Speaker of the House. The members appointed by the General Assembly must meet all of the following:
    - Own a historical boiler.
    - Have at least 10 years of experience in the operation of historical boilers.
    - A current resident of the State representing a different region of the State.
- 3 members appointed by the Governor.
- 2 members appointed by the Commissioner of Labor. One of the members appointed by the Commissioner must be employed by the Boiler Safety Bureau as a boiler inspector.

The Department of Agriculture must provide staff, meeting space, and office supplies for the Board. Board members will receive per diem and reimbursement for travel expenses.

License to Operate Historical Boiler: The Board must issue a license to operate a historical boiler if an individual meets the following criteria:

- Is at least 16 years of age.
- Complete a safety program created and conducted by the Board.
- Has 100 hours of actual operating experience or training in the operation of historical boilers.

Once a license is issued, the license is good for the lifetime of the individual, unless revoked by the Board. The Board may charge a $45 fee for the safety program required for licensure, and may charge a fee of $50 for licensure. There is no renewal fee required.

Inspections of Historical Boilers: The Board would set the criteria and procedure for inspection of historical boilers. Owners of historical boilers in places open to the public must obtain a certificate from the Board. At least every 3 years, the historical boiler must be inspected by inspectors designated by the Chief Inspector of the Boiler Safety Bureau of the Department of Labor. If the inspector determines the historical boiler is in safe operating condition, the inspector shall recommend the Board certify the historical boiler. If the inspector does not recommend certification, or if the Board does not issue a certificate, the owner of the historical boiler may file an appeal with the Board. Once the Board has adopted rules to implement this act, historical boilers will no longer be subject to the inspection requirements of Uniform Boiler and Pressure Vessel Act.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act is effective when it becomes law. Historical boilers with a valid inspection certificate may continue to operate until the rules are adopted by the new Board. The new rules will become effective October 1, 2014.

BILL SUMMARY:

The PCS to S581 would require individuals that operate historical boilers in public to be licensed. It would also create new certification standards for the operation historical boilers that differ from the standards currently required for all boilers. It removes the certification of historical boilers from the North Carolina Board of Boiler and Pressure Vessels Rules that is part of the Department of Labor, and creates the new Historical Boilers Licensing Board in the Department of Agriculture.

Boilers, including historical boilers, would continue to be inspected by the Boiler Safety Bureau of the Department of Labor. The standards for inspections of historical boilers would be set by the Historical Boilers Licensing Board while the standards for all other boilers would be set by the North Carolina Board of Boiler and Pressure Vessels Rules.

ASSUMPTIONS AND METHODOLOGY:

It's estimated that there are approximately 40 historical boilers in North Carolina. There is a one-time fee of $50.00 for the issuance of a license to operate a historical boiler in a place open to public. Assuming there is one operator for each historical boiler, this fee would raise $2,000.00 in revenue in FY2013-14.

The Board may also create and conduct a safety program for the purpose of providing instruction on how to properly care for, maintain, operate, and exhibit historical boilers. The Board may charge a fee not to exceed $45.00 for each person attending the safety program. Assuming one operator per historical boiler attends the safety program yearly, the fee could raise $1,800 annually.

The Board is also given the authority to establish an inspection fee in an amount sufficient to reimburse the Department of Labor for the cost of conducting the inspections. Although no specific fee amount is included in the bill.

Each member of the Board shall receive a per diem and reimbursement for travel and subsistence as provided in G.S. 93B-5. No estimate is available, as this amount depends upon the number of meeting and distance traveled by each member of the Board.

In addition, the notice shall be mailed at least two weeks before the date of the hearing by any class of U.S. mail which is fully prepaid to the owners as shown by the county tax records as of the preceding January 1 (and at the address shown thereon) of all property located within the territory to be removed. The person designated by the board to mail the notice shall certify to the board that the mailing has been completed, and the certificate shall be conclusive in the absence of fraud.

(d) Effective Date. – The resolution reducing the boundaries of the district shall take effect at the beginning of a fiscal year commencing after its passage, as determined by the board."

HOUSE BILL 552:
Remove Area from County Service District

2013-2014 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Finance	Date:	July 23, 2013
Introduced by:	Rep. McElraft	Prepared by:	Greg Roney
Analysis of:	First Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: House Bill 552 would authorize boards of county commissioners to remove territory from a county water or sewer district.

CURRENT LAW: Under current law, G.S. 153A-301 and G.S. 160A-536, county boards of commissioners and city councils are authorized to create service districts, in order to finance and provide services in the district to a greater extent than those furnished for the entire county or city.

Cities have authority to remove territory from their service districts under G.S.160A-538.1.

Boards of county commissioners can remove territory from: a County Research and Production Service District (G.S. 153A-314.1) and an Urban Research Service District (G.S. 153A-316.4).

BILL ANALYSIS: House Bill 552 would authorize counties to remove territory from county service districts created to provide water or sewer (or both) if all of the following requirements are met:

- 100% of the property owners petition for removal.
- Territory no longer requires the service.
- Public report prepared showing the current and proposed boundaries on a map.
- Notice of the public hearing published and mailed.
- Public hearing conducted.

EFFECTIVE DATE: House Bill 552 would be effective when it becomes law.

Giles Perry, Counsel to House Government, substantially contributed to this summary.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO MAKE ADJUSTMENTS TO THE FEE SCHEDULE FOR PERMITS FOR SANITARY LANDFILLS AND TRANSFER STATIONS TO REFLECT EXTENSION OF THE DURATION OF THESE PERMITS AS DIRECTED BY S.L. 2012-187, AS RECOMMENDED BY THE ENVIRONMENTAL REVIEW COMMISSION.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 130A-294 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(a2) Permits for sanitary landfills and transfer stations shall be issued for (i) a design and operation phase of five years or (ii) a design and operation phase of 10 years. A permit issued for a design and operation phase of 10 years shall be subject to a limited review within five years of the issuance date."

SECTION 2. G.S. 130A-295.8 reads as rewritten:

"§ 130A-295.8. Fees applicable to permits for solid waste management facilities.

(a) The Solid Waste Management Account is established as a nonreverting account within the Department. All fees collected under this section shall be credited to the Account and shall be used to support the solid waste management program established pursuant to G.S. 130A-294.

(b) As used in this section:

(1) "New permit" means any of the following:

a. An application for a permit for a solid waste management facility that has not been previously permitted by the Department. The term includes one site suitability review, the initial permit to construct, and one permit to operate the constructed portion of a phase included in the permit to construct.

b. An application that proposes to expand the boundary of a permitted waste management facility for the purpose of expanding the permitted activity.

c. An application that includes a proposed expansion to the boundary of a waste disposal unit within a permitted solid waste management facility.

d. An application for a substantial amendment to a solid waste permit, as defined in G.S. 130A-294.

(2) "Permit amendment" means any of the following:

a. An application for a permit to construct and one permit to operate for the second and subsequent phases of landfill development described in the approved facility plan for a permitted solid waste management facility.

b. An application for the five-year renewal of a permit for a permitted solid waste management facility or for a permit review of a permitted solid waste management facility.

c. Any application that proposes a change in ownership or corporate structure of a permitted solid waste management facility.

(3) "Permit modification" means any of the following:

a. An application for any change to the plans approved in a permit for a solid waste management facility that does not constitute a "permit amendment" or a "new permit".

b. A second or subsequent permit to operate for a constructed portion of a phase included in the permit to construct.

c. An application for a five-year limited review of a 10-year permit, as required by G.S. 130A-294(a2), including review of the operations plan, closure plan, post-closure plan, financial assurance cost estimates, environmental monitoring plans, and any other applicable plans for the facility.

(4) "Major permit modification" means an application for any change to the approved engineering plans for a sanitary landfill or transfer station permitted for a 10-year design capacity that does not constitute a "permit amendment," "new permit," or "permit modification."

(c) An applicant for a permit shall pay an application fee upon submission of an application according to the following schedule:

HOUSE BILL 135:
Adjust Landfill Permit Fee Timing

2013-2014 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Finance	Date:	July 23, 2013
Introduced by:	Reps. Samuelson, McElraft, McGrady	Prepared by:	Jennifer McGinnis
Analysis of:	Second Edition		Staff Attorney

SUMMARY: House Bill 135 would make adjustments to the fee schedule for permits for sanitary landfills and transfer stations to reflect extension of the duration of these permits as directed by legislation enacted in 2012. The legislation was a recommendation of the Environmental Review Commission.

[As introduced, this bill was identical to S380, as introduced by Sen. Jackson, which was passed by the Senate on May 8, 2013, and is currently in House Environment, if favorable, Finance.]

CURRENT LAW and BACKGROUND:

Prior to legislation enacted in 2012, the duration of permits for sanitary landfills and transfer stations was five years. S.L. 2012-187 directed the Commission for Public Health to adopt rules to allow applicants for permits for sanitary landfills and transfer stations the option to apply for a permit to construct (and operate) a facility for a period of ten years, with a limited review of the permit five years after issuance. In addition, the legislation directed the Department of Environment and Natural Resources (Department) to examine the fee schedule for permits for sanitary landfills and transfer stations and to formulate recommendations for adjustments to the applicable fees that would be sufficient to address any additional demands associated with review of permits issued for a longer period of time. The legislation further provided that the rule changes to allow permits of extended duration would not become effective until the fee schedule was amended to address any additional demands associated with review of permits issued for longer periods of time. The Department reported its findings and recommendations, including a legislative proposal, to the Environmental Review Commission (ERC) in December 2012. House Bill 135 embodies the Department's legislative proposal concerning needed fee adjustments, and was a recommendation of the ERC.

BILL ANALYSIS:

In conformance with the legislation enacted in 2012 that extended the duration of permits for sanitary landfills and transfer stations to ten years, the bill would add language to the statutes specifying that permits for sanitary landfills and transfer stations may be issued for a design and operation phase of 10 years, with a limited review five years after the date of issuance. In addition, the bill would make changes to the fee schedule under the General Statutes for sanitary landfills and transfer stations, based on the directive for an extended duration.

EFFECTIVE DATE:

The bill would be effective when it became law and apply to permit applications submitted on or after July 1, 2013.

BILL SUMMARY: The Proposed Committee Substitute (PCS) for House Bill 135 makes adjustments to the fee schedule for permits for sanitary landfills and transfer stations to reflect the extension of the duration of these permits as directed by the Regulatory Reform Act of 2012 (S.L. 2012-187). The PCS also makes conforming changes to add language to the statutes specifying that permits for sanitary landfills and transfer stations may be issued for a design and operation phase of ten years with a limited review five years after the date of issuance.

ASSUMPTIONS AND METHODOLOGY:

Background: The Regulatory Reform Act of 2012 required the Commission of Public Health to adopt rules that would allow the applicants for permits for sanitary landfills and transfer stations the option to apply for a new permit to construct and operate a facility for a period of ten years, with a limited review of the permit five years after issuance. At the end of the first five years, facilities issued new 10-year permits are required to submit a "permit modification" application. At the end of the first ten years, facility operators are required to submit a 10-year "amendment." At the end of year five of the 10-year amendment, a "permit modification" is again required. Any time a facility operator makes a significant change to a 10-year permit, a "major modification" permit and associated fees are required.

To conform with the legislation that was enacted in 2012 and the subsequent rules, the PCS adjusts the current statutory fee schedule for sanitary landfills and transfer stations by 1) adding fees for new permits of 10-year duration, 2) adding fees for 10-year permit amendments, and 3) adding new fees for a 10-year "major modification" (see Table 1 at end of memo).

Prior to the legislation enacted in 2012, the duration of new permits for sanitary landfills and transfer stations was five years. This 5-year permit option is still available and the existing fee structure for five-year permits has not changed. (see Table 1 at end of the memo).

The PCS sets the fee structure for new 10-year permits such that a facility would pay the same amount in fees over a 10-year period regardless of the chosen permit option (five or 10-years).

The fees collected by the Division of Waste Management are deposited into a special fund and are used to support the staff in the Division's Solid Waste Management Section.

Assumptions:

1. The option of obtaining a 10-year permit versus a 5-year permit will not affect the number facilities seeking permits. The Division of Waste Management (DWM) projects the number of sanitary landfills to increase by less than five facilities over the next five years and the number of transfer stations to increase by approximately 10 facilities within the same timeframe. This increase is not due to the option of obtaining a 10-year permit, or its associated fees.

2. The services provided by the DWM will not change. There is no expected change in the current type of service provided to applicants of 10-year permits for sanitary landfills and transfer stations. The same type of permit review will be conducted in accordance with the statutory and rule requirements for facilities that seek either a five or 10-year permit.

3. DWM estimates that the amount of time it will take to review a 10-year permit will be approximately 30 percent more than the current five-year permits. This initial increase in the review time however, is offset by a five-year review of a 10-year permit that is projected to take 30 percent less time than a conventional five-year permit renewal (amendment). According to DWM, the projected workload can be accommodated within the agency's existing staff levels but the permit fees need to be adjusted in order to preserve the current program budget amounts.

4. Sanitary landfill and transfer station operators have the choice of selecting a 5-year or 10-year permit term; however, DWM projects that 75 percent of the facilities will choose permits of 10-year duration. This assumption is based on the fact that private solid waste companies initiated the 2012 legislation to lengthen the permit term for sanitary landfills and transfer stations. In addition, a 10-year permit offers potential savings to facility owners because the necessary engineering and hydrogeological work must only be completed once for a permit of 10-year duration versus repeating the work for two five-year permits. A 10-year permit also allows facilities the flexibility to construct individual landfill phases as needed by volume instead of by a particular date.

Fee Structure: The new fee structure for sanitary landfills and transfer stations is illustrated in Table 1. While the fee for a 10-year permit is higher than for a 5-year permit, the new fees are structured so that the total cost of a 10-year permit and its required 5-year modification is the same as the total cost of a 5-year permit and its required 5-year amendment over a ten-year period of time. As a result, the overall amount of permit fee revenue collected from sanitary landfills and transfer stations will not change under the proposed permit fee adjustments, but the timing of payments will be different. Permit fee revenue will increase during the first five years and will decrease on an equal basis during the second five years.

Fiscal Impact: The amount of additional revenue collected by the Division of Waste Management from proposed fee increases is approximately $270,000 each year for the next five years with a corresponding reduction in fees collected in the subsequent five years. This estimate is based on the following information:

1. The Division of Waste Management currently collects an average of $400,000 in permit fees from sanitary landfills and transfers stations.
2. The assumption that 75% of the facilities will switch to the new 10-year permit option. No new facilities have been permitted in recent years, so the switch to the 10-year option would require a 10-year amendment.
3. The 10-year permit amendment fees are about 90% higher than the five-year permit amendments.

Using this information, the annual amount of additional revenue from the proposed fee increase for next five years is calculated to be ($400,000 x 75%) x (90%) = $270,000. There is an equal reduction in fee revenue for the subsequent five years due to small fees associated with required 5-year modification permit. Over the ten year period the amount of fees collected by the division does not change, just the timing of revenue collection.

SECTION 14. Article 27 of Chapter 113 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 113-415A. Local ordinances prohibiting oil and gas exploration, development, and production activities invalid; petition to preempt local ordinance.

(a) It is the intent of the General Assembly to maintain a uniform system for the management of oil and gas exploration, development, and production activities, and the use of horizontal drilling and hydraulic fracturing for that purpose, and to place limitations upon the exercise by all units of local government in North Carolina of the power to regulate the management of oil and gas exploration, development, and production activities by means of special, local, or private acts or resolutions, ordinances, property restrictions, zoning regulations, or otherwise. Notwithstanding any authority granted to counties, municipalities, or other local authorities to adopt local ordinances, including, but not limited to, those imposing taxes, fees, or charges or regulating health, environment, or land use, any local ordinance that prohibits or has the effect of prohibiting oil and gas exploration, development, and production activities that the Mining and Energy Commission has preempted pursuant this section, shall be invalid to the extent necessary to effectuate the purposes of this Article. To this end, all provisions of special, local, or private acts or resolutions are repealed that do the following:

(1) Prohibit the siting of wells for oil and gas exploration, development, and production within any county, city, or other political subdivision.

(2) Prohibit the use of horizontal drilling or hydraulic fracturing for the purpose of oil or gas exploration or development within any county, city, or other political subdivision.

(3) Place any restriction or condition not placed by this Article upon oil and gas exploration, development, and production activities and use of horizontal drilling or hydraulic fracturing for that purpose within any county, city, or other political subdivision.

(4) In any manner are in conflict or inconsistent with the provisions of this Article.

(b) No special, local, or private act or resolution enacted or taking effect hereafter may be construed to modify, amend, or repeal any portion of this Article, unless it expressly provides for such by specific references to the appropriate section of this Article. Further to this end, all provisions of local ordinances, including those regulating land use, adopted by counties, municipalities, or other local authorities that prohibit or have the effect of prohibiting oil and gas exploration, development, and production activities and use of horizontal drilling or hydraulic fracturing for that purpose within the jurisdiction of a local government are invalidated to the extent preempted by the Commission pursuant to this section.

(c) When oil and gas exploration, development, and production activities would be prevented from construction or operation by a county, municipal, or other local ordinance, the operator of the proposed activities may petition the Mining and Energy Commission to review the matter. After receipt of a petition, the Commission shall hold a hearing in accordance with the procedures in subsection (d) of this section and shall determine whether or to what extent to preempt the local ordinance to allow for the proposed oil and gas exploration, development, and production activities.

(d) When a petition described in subsection (c) of this section has been filed with the Mining and Energy Commission, the Commission shall hold a public hearing to consider the petition. The public hearing shall be held in the affected locality within 60 days after receipt of the petition by the Commission. The Commission shall give notice of the public hearing by both of the following means:

(1) Publication in a newspaper or newspapers having general circulation in the county or counties where the activities are to be conducted, once a week for three consecutive weeks, the first notice appearing at least 30 days prior to the scheduled date of the hearing.

(2) First-class mail to persons who have requested notice. The Commission shall maintain a mailing list of persons who request notice in advance of the hearing pursuant to this section. Notice by mail shall be complete upon deposit of a copy of the notice in a postage-paid wrapper addressed to the person to be notified at the address that appears on the mailing list maintained by the Commission, in a post office or official depository under the exclusive care and custody of the United States Postal Service.

(e) Any interested person may appear before the Mining and Energy Commission at the hearing to offer testimony. In addition to testimony before the Commission, any interested person may submit written evidence to the Commission for the Commission's consideration. At least 20 days shall be allowed for receipt of written comment following the hearing.

(f) A local zoning or land-use ordinance is presumed to be valid and enforceable to the extent the zoning or land-use ordinance imposes requirements, restrictions, or conditions that are generally applicable to development, including, but not limited to, setback, buffer, and stormwater requirements, unless the Mining and Energy Commission makes a finding of fact to the contrary. The Commission shall determine whether or to what extent to preempt local ordinances so as to allow for the establishment and operation of the facility no later than 60 days after conclusion of the hearing. The Commission shall preempt a local ordinance only if the Commission makes all of the following findings:

(1) That there is a local ordinance that would prohibit or have the effect of prohibiting oil and gas exploration, development, and production activities, or use of horizontal drilling or hydraulic fracturing for that purpose.

(2) That all legally required State and federal permits or approvals have been issued by the appropriate State and federal agencies or that all State and federal permit requirements have been satisfied and that the permits or approvals have been denied or withheld only because of the local ordinance.

(3) That local citizens and elected officials have had adequate opportunity to participate in the permitting process.

(4) That the oil and gas exploration, development, and production activities, and use of horizontal drilling or hydraulic fracturing for that purpose, will not pose an unreasonable health or environmental risk to the surrounding locality and that the operator has taken or consented to take reasonable measures to avoid or manage foreseeable risks and to comply to the maximum feasible extent with applicable local ordinances.

(g) If the Mining and Energy Commission does not make all of the findings under subsection (f) of this section, the Commission shall not preempt the challenged local ordinance. The Commission's decision shall be in writing and shall identify the evidence submitted to the Commission plus any additional evidence used in arriving at the decision.

(h) The decision of the Mining and Energy Commission shall be final unless a party to the action files a written appeal under Article 4 of Chapter 150B of the General Statutes, as modified by this section, within 30 days of the date of the decision. The record on appeal shall consist of all materials and information submitted to or considered by the Commission, the Commission's written decision, a complete transcript of the hearing, all written material presented to the Commission regarding the location of the oil and gas exploration, development, and production activities, the specific findings required by subsection (f) of this section, and any minority positions on the specific findings required by subsection (f) of this section. The scope of judicial review shall be that the court may affirm the decision of the Commission, or may remand the matter for further proceedings, or may reverse or modify the decision if the substantial rights of the parties may have been prejudiced because the Commission's findings, inferences, conclusions, or decisions are any of the following:

(1) In violation of constitutional provisions.

(2) In excess of the statutory authority or jurisdiction of the Commission.

(3) Made upon unlawful procedure.

(4) Affected by other error of law.

(5) Unsupported by substantial evidence admissible under G.S. 150B-29(a) or G.S. 150B-30 in view of the entire record as submitted.

(6) Arbitrary or capricious.

(i) If the court reverses or modifies the decision of the Mining and Energy Commission, the judge shall set out in writing, which writing shall become part of the record, the reasons for the reversal or modification.

(j) In computing any period of time prescribed or allowed by this procedure, the provisions of Rule 6(a) of the Rules of Civil Procedure, G.S. 1A-1, shall apply."

SECTION 15.(a) Article 27 of Chapter 113 of the General Statutes is amended by adding four new sections to read:

"§ 113-395A. Miscellaneous permit requirements.

The Department shall require that all natural gas compressor stations associated with an oil and gas drilling operation be located inside a baffled building.

"§ 113-395B. Subsurface injection of waste prohibited.

Disposal of wastes produced in connection with oil and gas exploration, development, and production, and use of horizontal drilling and hydraulic fracturing treatments for that purpose by injection to subsurface or groundwaters of the State by means of wells is prohibited in accordance with G.S. 143-214.2.

"§ 113-395C. Environmental compliance review requirements for applicants and permit holders.

(a) For purposes of this section, "applicant" means an applicant for a permit and a permit holder and includes the owner or operator of the facility, and if the owner or operator is a business entity, applicant also includes (i) the parent, subsidiary, or other affiliate of the applicant; (ii) a partner, officer, director, member, or manager of the business entity, parent, subsidiary, or other affiliate of the applicant; and (iii) any person with a direct or indirect interest in the applicant, other than a minority shareholder of a publicly traded corporation who has no involvement in management or control of the corporation or any of its parents, subsidiaries, or affiliates.

(b) The Department may conduct an environmental compliance review of each applicant for a new permit under this Article. The environmental compliance review may evaluate the environmental compliance history of the applicant for a period of five years prior to the date of the application and may cover a longer period at the discretion of the Department. The environmental compliance review of an applicant may include consideration of the environmental compliance history of the parents, subsidiaries, or other affiliates of an applicant or parent that is a business entity, including any business entity or joint venturer with a direct or indirect interest in the applicant, and other facilities owned or operated by any of them. The Department may determine the scope of the review of the environmental compliance history of the applicant, parents, subsidiaries, or other affiliates of the applicant or parent, including any business entity or joint venturer with a direct or indirect interest in the applicant, and of other facilities owned or operated by any of them. An applicant for a permit shall, at the request of the Department, provide environmental compliance history information for each facility, business entity, joint venture, or other undertaking in which any of the persons listed in this subsection is or has been an owner, operator, officer, director, manager, member, or partner, or in which any of the persons listed in this subsection has had a direct or indirect interest as requested by the Department.

(c) The Department may determine the extent to which the applicant, or a parent, subsidiary, or other affiliate of the applicant or parent, or a joint venturer with a direct or indirect interest in the applicant, has substantially complied with the requirements applicable to any activity in which any of these entities previously engaged, and has substantially complied with federal, North Carolina, and other states' laws, regulations, and rules for the protection of the environment. The Department may deny an application for a permit if the applicant has a history of significant or repeated violations of statutes, rules, orders, or permit terms or conditions for the protection of the environment or for the conservation of natural resources as evidenced by civil penalty assessments, administrative or judicial compliance orders, or criminal penalties.

(d) Upon request of the Department, a permit holder shall notify the Department of any significant change in its environmental compliance history or any significant change in the (i) identity of any person or structure of the business entity that holds the permit for the facility; (ii) identity of any person or structure of the business entity that owns or operates the facility; or (iii) assets of the permit holder, owner, or operator of the facility. If requested by the Department, the permit holder shall notify the Department within 30 days of a significant change. A change shall be considered significant if it would result in a change in the identity of the permit holder, owner, or operator for purposes of environmental compliance review. Based on its review of the changes, the Department may modify or revoke a permit, or require issuance of a new permit.

"§ 113-395D. Seismic or geophysical data collection.

(a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no liability for trespass shall arise from activities conducted for the purpose of seismic or geophysical data collection. Provided, however, (i) persons conducting seismic and geophysical data collection may only conduct such activity by undershooting from an off-site location and without physical entry to private land, unless the landowner's consent for such activity is obtained in writing and (ii) persons conducting seismic or geophysical data collection shall be civilly liable for any physical or property damage determined to be a direct result of their seismic or geophysical data collection activities, whether or not the seismic or geophysical data collection was conducted by undershooting the land at an off-site location or by physical entry to land as permitted by the landowner.

(b) Conduct of seismic or geophysical data collection activities through physical entry to land without a landowner's written consent shall constitute a Class 1 misdemeanor."

SECTION 15.(b) This section is effective when it becomes law, except that G.S. 113-395D(b), as enacted by Section 15(a) of this act, shall become effective December 1, 2014.

SECTION 16. G.S. 87-98.4(b) is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:

"§ 87-98.4. Well contractor certification required; exemptions.

(a) Certification Required. – No person shall perform, manage, or supervise any well contractor activity without being certified under this Article. A person who is not a certified well contractor or who is not employed by a certified well contractor shall not offer to perform any well contractor activity unless the person utilizes a certified well contractor to perform the well contractor activity and, prior to the performance of the well contractor activity, the person discloses to the landowner in writing the name of the certified well contractor who will perform the well contractor activity, the certification number of the well contractor, and the name of the company that employs the certified well contractor.

(b) Exempt persons and activities. – This Article does not apply to any of the following persons or activities:

(14) Construction, repair, or abandonment of a well used for the exploration or development of oil or gas.

...."

PART VI. ESTABLISH SEVERANCE TAX

SECTION 17.(a) Chapter 105 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new Article to read:

"Article 5I.

"Severance Tax.

"§ 105-187.71. Definitions.

The following definitions apply in this Article:

(1) Casinghead gas. – Gas or vapor indigenous to an oil stratum and produced from the stratum with oil.

(2) Commission. – The Mining and Energy Commission.

(3) Condensate. – Liquid hydrocarbon that is or can be recovered from gas by a separator or other means.

(4) Energy mineral. – All forms of natural gas, oil, and related condensates.

(5) First purchaser. – A person who purchases an energy mineral from a producer.

(6) Gas. – All natural gas, including casinghead gas, and all other hydrocarbons not defined as condensates.

(7) Gross price. – The total price paid by the first purchaser of the energy mineral at the wellhead.

(8) Marginal gas well. – A well incapable of producing more than 100 MCF per day, as determined by the Commission using the current wellhead deliverability rate methodology utilized by the Commission, during the calendar month for which the severance tax report is filed.

(9) MCF. – One thousand cubic feet of natural gas.

(10) Oil. – Crude petroleum oil, and other hydrocarbons, regardless of gravity, which are produced at the well in liquid form by ordinary production methods and which are not the result of condensation of gas after it leaves the reservoir.

(11) Owner. – An owner of a landowner's royalty interest, of an overriding royalty, of profits and working interests, or any combination thereof in energy minerals. The term does not include an owner of federal, State, or local governmental royalty interest.
(12) Person. – Defined in G.S. 105-228.90.
(13) Producer. – A person who takes an energy mineral from the soil or water in this State.
(14) Return. – Any report or statement required to be filed under this Article to determine the tax due.
(15) Royalty interest. – An interest in mineral rights in a producing leasehold in the State. A royalty interest does not include the interest of a person having only the management and operation of a well.
(16) Secretary. – The Secretary of Revenue.
(17) Severance. – The extraction or other removal of an energy mineral from the soil or water of this State.
(18) Severed. – The point at which the energy mineral has been separated from the soil or water of this State.
(19) Standard barrel of oil. – A barrel of oil containing 42 gallons.
(20) Taxpayer. – Any person required to pay the severance tax levied by this Article.

"§ 105-187.72. Tax on severance of energy minerals.

(a) Purpose. – An excise tax is levied on the privilege of engaging in the severance of energy minerals from the soil or water of this State. The purpose of the tax is to provide revenue to administer and enforce the provisions of this Article, to administer the State's natural gas and oil reclamation regulatory program, to meet the environmental and resource management needs of this State, and to reclaim land affected by exploration for, drilling for, and production of natural gas and oil. The severance tax is imposed upon all energy minerals severed when sold.

(b) Calculation of Tax. – The amount of the severance tax is calculated as follows:
(1) Condensates. – The applicable percentage rate of the gross price paid.
(2) Gas. – The applicable percentage rate of the market value as determined in G.S. 105-187.73.
(3) Oil. – The applicable percentage rate of the gross price paid.

(c) Oil and Condensates Rate. – The percentage rate for condensates and oil is two percent (2%).

(d) Marginal Gas Rate. – The producer of a proposed or existing gas well may apply to the Mining and Energy Commission for a determination that the well qualifies as a marginal gas well. The producer may elect to have the gas taxed at the marginal gas rate or the gas rate. For severance of gas from a marginal gas well the percentage rate is four-tenths of one percent (0.4%).

(e) Gas Rate. – The percentage rate for gas is nine-tenths of one percent (0.9%).

"§ 105-187.73. Delivered to Market Value.

(a) Delivered to Market Value of Natural Gas. – The delivered to market value of natural gas is the total actual gross price as adjusted in this section. The delivered to market value of gas is determined by subtracting the producer's actual costs to deliver the gas to the market from the producer's total gross cash receipts from the sale of the natural gas. A producer receiving a cost reimbursement from the gas purchaser shall include the reimbursement in the gross cash receipts and is entitled to deduct the actual costs of delivering the gas to market incurred.

(b) Records. – In order to be eligible to subtract the actual costs to deliver the gas to the market from the producer's gross receipts for purposes of calculating the delivered-to-market value of natural gas, the producer shall provide any information required by the Secretary. Every producer subtracting the costs to deliver the gas to the market as permitted under this subsection shall maintain and make available for inspection by the Secretary any records the Secretary considers necessary to determine and verify the amount of the costs to deliver the gas to the market the producer is eligible to subtract. The burden of proving eligibility for subtracting the costs to deliver the gas to the market and the amount of the costs to deliver the gas to the market to be subtracted shall rest upon the producer, and no subtraction of costs to deliver the gas to the market shall be allowed to a producer that fails to maintain adequate records or to make them available for inspection.

(c) Costs to Deliver the Gas to the Market and Facilities Used to Deliver the Gas to the Market. – A "facility used to deliver the gas to market" includes flow lines or gathering systems from the separator to the purchaser's transmission line, compressor stations, dehydration units, line heaters after the separator, and treating facilities. "Costs to deliver the gas to the market" are the actual and reasonable costs incurred by the producer to get the gas from the mouth of the well to the first purchaser, except costs incurred in normal lease separation of the oil or condensate from the gas, and costs associated with insurance premiums on a facility used to deliver the gas to market. Costs to deliver the gas to the market include only the following:

(1) Costs for compressing the gas sold.
(2) Costs for dehydrating the gas sold.
(3) Costs for sweetening and treating the gas sold.
(4) Costs for delivering the gas to the purchaser.
(5) Reasonable charges for depreciation of the facility used to deliver the gas to market being used, provided that, if the facility is rented, the actual rental fee is added.
(6) Costs of direct or allocated labor associated with the facility used to deliver the gas to market.
(7) Costs of materials, supplies, maintenance, repairs, and fuel associated with the facility used to deliver the gas to market.
(8) Property taxes paid on the facility used to deliver the gas to market.
(9) Charges for fees paid by the producer to any provider of dehydration, treating, compression, and delivery services.

"§ 105-187.74. On-site use exemption from the tax.

On-site use is exempt from the tax imposed under this Article. On-site use is the severance of energy minerals from land or water in this State owned legally or beneficially by the producer, which energy minerals are used on the land from which they are taken by the producer as part of the improvement of or use in the producer's homestead and which have a yearly cumulative delivered to market value of not greater than one thousand two hundred dollars ($1,200). When severed energy minerals so used exceed a cumulative delivered to market value of one thousand two hundred dollars ($1,200) during any year, the further severance of energy minerals shall be subject to the tax imposed by this Article.

"§ 105-187.75. Returns and payment of tax.

(a) General. – Severance taxes are payable when a return is due. A return is due quarterly or monthly as specified in this section. A return must be filed by the producer of the energy mineral with the Secretary on a form prescribed by the Secretary and in the manner required by the Secretary. A return must be signed by the taxpayer or the taxpayer's agent.

(b) Payment. – A producer of energy minerals shall pay the tax for all owners of the energy minerals. The producer shall withhold from any payment due owners the proportionate tax due for remittance to the Secretary.

(c) Quarterly. – A taxpayer who is consistently liable for less than one thousand dollars ($1,000) a month in severance taxes must file a return and pay the taxes due on a quarterly basis. A quarterly return covers a calendar quarter and is due by the 25th day of the second month following the end of the quarter.

(d) Monthly. – A taxpayer who is consistently liable for at least one thousand dollars ($1,000) a month in severance taxes must file a return and pay the taxes due on a monthly basis. A monthly return is due by the 25th day of the second month following the calendar month covered by the return.

(e) Category. – The Secretary must monitor the amount of severance taxes paid by a taxpayer or estimate the amount of taxes to be paid by a new taxpayer and must direct each taxpayer to pay tax and file returns as required by this section. In determining the amount of taxes due from a taxpayer, the Secretary must consider the total amount due from all places of business owned or operated by the same person as the amount due from that person. A taxpayer must file a return and pay tax in accordance with the Secretary's direction.

(f) Information on Return. – The amount of tax due and any other information required by the Secretary must be included on the return. Returns that do not contain the required information will not be accepted. When an unacceptable return is submitted, the Secretary will require a corrected return to be filed. The return must contain the following information concerning energy minerals produced during the month being reported:

(1) The gross amount of energy minerals produced that are subject to the tax imposed by this Article.

(2) The leases from which the energy minerals were produced.

(3) The names and addresses of the first purchasers of the energy minerals.

(g) Additional Information. – To claim an exemption for on-site use, the producer or taxpayer of a proposed or existing gas well shall apply to the Secretary for determination of eligibility. The Secretary may require an applicant to provide any information required to administer this provision. The Secretary shall make the determination within 15 calendar days of the receipt of all information required by the Secretary from the producer or taxpayer, and the producer or taxpayer shall attach the determination of eligibility to its severance tax form next due, as applicable. The taxpayer shall provide any information required by the Secretary. Every taxpayer claiming the exemption shall maintain and make available for inspection by the Secretary of Revenue any records the Secretary considers necessary to determine and verify the claim to which the taxpayer is entitled. The burden of proving eligibility shall rest upon the taxpayer, and no exemption shall be allowed to a taxpayer who fails to maintain adequate records or to make them available for inspection. The portion of the severance tax that is required to be deducted from the royalty owner or other interest shall be calculated in the same manner as the portion of the severance tax borne by the producer.

(h) Commission Determination. – To claim the marginal gas rate, the producer or taxpayer of a proposed or existing gas well shall provide to the Secretary proof that the Mining and Energy Commission has determined the well qualifies as a marginal gas well.

"§ 105-187.76. Bond or letter of credit required.

A producer must file with the Secretary a bond or an irrevocable letter of credit if the producer fails to file a return required under this Article. A bond or an irrevocable letter of credit must be conditioned upon compliance with the requirements of this Article, be payable to the State, and be in the form required by the Secretary. The amount of the bond or irrevocable letter of credit is two times the applicant's average expected monthly tax liability under this Article, as determined by the Secretary. When notified to do so by the Secretary, a person who is required to file a bond or an irrevocable letter of credit must file the bond or irrevocable letter of credit in the amount required by the Secretary within 30 days after receiving the notice from the Secretary.

"§ 105-187.77. Liability of producer for tax.

The tax imposed by this Article is the primary liability of the producer, except as provided in this section. A first purchaser may not take delivery of energy minerals from a producer unless the producer furnishes the purchaser with a taxpayer identification number assigned by the Secretary. A first purchaser failing to secure the producer's taxpayer number, either from the producer or the Secretary, will be liable for any tax, penalty, and interest due on the energy minerals purchased from the producer.

"§ 105-187.78. Royalty owner's records.

The owner of a royalty interest shall keep and provide to the Secretary, upon request, both of the following:

(1) A record of all money received as royalty from each producing leasehold in the State.

(2) A copy of all settlement sheets furnished by a purchaser or operator or other statement showing the amount of energy minerals for which a royalty was received and the amount of severance tax deducted.

"§ 105-187.79. Permits suspended for failure to report.

If an entity fails to file any report or return or to pay any tax or fee required by this Article for 90 days after it is due, the Secretary shall inform the Secretary of Environment and Natural Resources of this failure. The Secretary of Environment and Natural Resources shall suspend permits for oil and gas exploration using horizontal drilling and hydraulic fracturing under G.S. 113-395 of any entity that fails to file a return under this Article. The Secretary of Environment and Natural Resources shall immediately notify by mail an entity of a suspension under this section.

"§ 105-187.80. No local taxation.

A city or county may not impose a franchise, privilege, license, income, or excise tax on the severing, production, treating, processing, ownership, sale, storage, purchase, marketing, or transportation on any energy minerals produced in the State, or upon the business of severing, producing, treating, processing, owning, selling, buying, storing, marketing, or transporting such energy minerals, or upon the ownership, operation, or maintenance of plants, facilities, machinery, pipelines, and gathering lines related to the severing, production, treating, processing, ownership, storage, sale, purchase, marketing, or transportation of energy minerals. This section does not preclude the taxation of the property in accordance with Article 11 of this Chapter."

SECTION 17.(b) G.S. 105-259(b) is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:

"(46) To furnish to the Department of Environment and Natural Resources the name, address, tax year end, and account and identification numbers of an entity liable for severance tax to enable the Secretary of Environment and Natural Resources to notify the entity that the Department of Environment and Natural Resources shall suspend permits of the entity for oil and gas exploration using horizontal drilling and hydraulic fracturing under G.S. 113-395."

SECTION 17.(c) G.S. 113-387 and G.S. 113-388 are repealed.

SECTION 17.(d) G.S. 105-187.72, as enacted by Section 17(a) of this act, reads as rewritten:

SECTION 18. G.S. 105-275 is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:

"(47) Energy mineral interest in property for which a permit has not been issued under G.S. 113-395. For the purposes of this subdivision, "energy mineral" has the same meaning as in G.S. 105-187.71."

SECTION 19. Sections 17(a), 17(b), and 17(c) become effective July 1, 2015, and apply to energy minerals severed on or after that date. Section 17(d) becomes effective January 1, 2019, and applies to energy minerals severed on or after that date. Section 17(e) becomes effective January 1, 2021, and applies to energy minerals severed on or after that date. Section 17(f) becomes effective January 1, 2023, and applies to energy minerals severed on or after that date. Section 18 is effective for taxes imposed for taxable years beginning on or after July 1, 2015. The remainder of this Part is effective when it becomes law.

PART VII. STUDIES

SECTION 20. The Local Government Division of the Department of Revenue shall study how other states value energy minerals for the purpose of property taxation. The Division shall establish guidelines for counties to ensure the consistent and fair taxation of energy minerals throughout the State. The Local Government Division shall report its findings to the Joint Legislative Commission on Energy Policy by January 1, 2015.

SECTION 21. The Joint Legislative Commission on Energy Policy shall study how the development of the oil and gas industry in the State would affect the property tax revenues of local governments. The study shall examine how the presence of energy minerals will affect property enrolled in the present use value program. The study shall also study ways to limit the growth of property tax revenues that result from increased property valuations due to the development of the oil and gas industry in the State. The Commission shall report to the 2015 General Assembly on its findings and recommendations, including any legislative recommendations.

SECTION 22.(a) The Department of Commerce, in consultation with the Department of Environment and Natural Resources, the North Carolina Ports Authority, and the Department of Administration, shall study the desirability and feasibility of siting, constructing, and operating a liquefied natural gas (LNG) export terminal in North Carolina. At a minimum, as a part of the study, the agencies shall:

(1) Identify the State, federal, and local regulatory programs under which LNG export terminals are permitted and approved.

(2) Identify any State statutory or regulatory barriers to siting, constructing, or operating a LNG export terminal in the State.

(3) Evaluate infrastructure needs and impacts as follows:

a. Identify the infrastructure that is necessary to support a LNG export terminal.

b. Identify any idle publicly owned infrastructure that may be utilized to support LNG export terminal operations.

c. Identify publicly owned unutilized or underutilized lands that may be used to support LNG export terminal operations.

d. Identify potential impacts on infrastructure, including roads, pipelines, and water and wastewater services, and other provision of services by local governments including schools, law enforcement, and development.

(4) Conduct a cost-benefit analysis for the construction and operation of an LNG export terminal. The analysis shall evaluate scenarios in which the State is the primary producer of the exported natural gas and scenarios in which the State is not the primary producer of the exported natural gas.

(5) Examine potential economic impacts, including:

a. Possible sources of revenue that could accrue to the benefit of the State if LNG is exported from a terminal in North Carolina.

b. The number of jobs that may be expected as a result from the construction and operation of a LNG export terminal.

(6) Identify and evaluate potential environmental impacts of construction and operation of a LNG export terminal. In examining this issue, the agencies shall gather information on regulatory programs in other states where LNG export terminals are in operation.

(7) Identify potential social impacts, including impacts of construction and operation of a LNG export terminal on nearby communities and quality of life within those communities, recreational activities, and commercial and residential development.

(8) Examine any other pertinent issues that the agencies deem relevant to the construction and operation of a LNG export facility in the State.

SECTION 22.(b) The Department of Commerce shall report its findings and recommendations to the Joint Legislative Commission on Energy Policy and the Environmental Review Commission on or after January 1, 2015.

SECTION 23.(a) The Department of Transportation shall study (i) additional statutory authority that may be necessary or advisable for the Department to adequately address energy-related traffic, including authority that pertains to permitting and assessment of fees; (ii) the feasibility and advisability of including any requirements that the Department may recommend to manage energy-related traffic, and resulting impacts, in a coordinated permit in conjunction with requirements of the Department of Environment and Natural Resources, or whether such requirements should be implemented through a separate permitting process; and (iii) performance bonding and other surety mechanisms, including road use agreements, to reclaim and repair any State posted roads that are damaged due to heavy vehicle, equipment, and machinery traffic used in support of and conjunction with horizontal drilling and hydraulic fracturing operations on State posted roads. For purposes of this study, the term "posted roads" means a system that records any secondary road on the State Highway System that is unable to carry heavy vehicles or equipment. In the conduct of its study, the Department shall do the following:

(1) Consider mechanisms for requiring performance bonds running to the Department.

(2) Develop criteria for setting the amount of the bond, including the weight and size of the proposed vehicles, equipment and machinery projected to utilize posted roads, the planned route and projected number of trips, and the duration of the activity necessitating travel of heavy vehicles, equipment, and machinery along posted roads.

(3) Identify documentation necessary to support bonding of posted roads.

(4) Identify any statutory or regulatory changes necessary to maintain and protect the State's transportation infrastructure network.

SECTION 23.(b) The Department of Transportation shall report its findings and recommendations, including any legislative proposals, to the Joint Legislative Energy Policy Commission and the Joint Legislative Transportation Oversight Committee on or before January 1, 2015.

SECTION 24.(a) The State Board of Community Colleges shall study the feasibility and desirability of developing a program to prepare students with a general education foundation and technical competencies for employment opportunities in the oil and natural gas drilling, gathering, and field operations industry. In particular, the State Board shall consider developing such a program at one or more of the community colleges located where the potential for shale gas resources is highest. In the conduct of its study, the State Board shall evaluate similar education programs in community college systems in other states.

SECTION 24.(b) The State Board shall report its findings and recommendations, including any legislative proposals, to the Joint Legislative Energy Policy Commission and the Joint Legislative Education Oversight Committee on or before January 1, 2015.

SECTION 25.(a) The General Assembly finds the following:

(1) Section 2(l) of S.L. 2012-143 directed the Mining and Energy Commission, in conjunction with the Department of Environment and Natural Resources and the Consumer Protection Division of the North Carolina Department of Justice, to study the State's current law on the issue of integration or compulsory pooling and other states' laws on the matter; and

(2) Whereas, the Department was directed to report its findings and recommendations, including legislative proposals, to the Joint Legislative Commission on Energy Policy and the Environmental Review Commission on or before January 1, 2013; and

(3) The Mining and Energy Commission and the Department issued separate reports pursuant to the study; and

(4) The Mining and Energy Commission's report included specific recommendations for legislative changes related to compulsory pooling; and

(5) The Department's report did not include specific recommendations for legislative changes related to compulsory pooling; and

(6) In lieu of specific recommendations for legislative changes, the Department recommended that "prior to establishing new laws related to compulsory pooling, the General Assembly should consider the rules adopted by the Mining and Energy Commission related to oil and gas exploration, including, but not limited to, rules concerning drilling units, spacing requirements, and setbacks, all of which will affect the regulation of compulsory pooling in the State." And the Department further recommended that "decisions on the status and implementation of a compulsory pooling law precede decisions related to cost sharing, notifications, and compensation for damages" and "further study on the issue of amending current dormant mineral statutes regarding extinguishment and other consumer protection issues related to split estates."

SECTION 25.(b) Based upon the findings of Section 24(a) of this act, the General Assembly directs the Department to do the following:

(1) Examine the Mining and Energy Commission's rules, once adopted, related to oil and gas exploration, including, but not limited to, rules concerning drilling units, spacing requirements, and setbacks, and all rules the Department determines will affect the regulation of compulsory pooling in the State.

(2) Study, in conjunction with the Mining and Energy Commission and the Consumer Protection Division of the North Carolina Department of Justice, the issue of amending current dormant mineral statutes regarding extinguishment and other consumer protection issues related to split estates.

(3) Issue specific recommendations for legislative action related to compulsory pooling and dormant mineral statutes and report the findings of their study, including specific proposals for legislative action, to the Joint Legislative Commission on Energy Policy and the Environmental Review Commission on or before October 1, 2015.

SECTION 26. The Mining and Energy Commission and the Department of Environment and Natural Resources shall study the development of midstream infrastructure in North Carolina, which is necessary or advisable to facilitate the exploration, development, and production of the State's oil and gas resources. Infrastructure examined shall include development of pipelines, gathering systems, compressor stations, pumping systems, on-site and near-site storage tanks, and natural gas liquids processing systems. All State agencies, including the constituent institutions of The University of North Carolina, shall provide information and support to the Commission and the Department in the conduct of this study. The Commission shall report the findings of this study, including specific proposals for legislative action, to the Joint Legislative Commission on Energy Policy on or before March 1, 2015.

SECTION 27. The State Energy Office in the Department of Environment and Natural Resources shall study and make legislative recommendations on a comprehensive long-range State energy policy to achieve maximum effective management and use of present and future sources of energy. The Office shall study all of the following:

(1) The long-term environmental and economic impact of base load power generation of electric public utilities.

(2) The comparison of base load power generation alongside all other forms of energy used for power generation, including renewable and alternative sources of energy, and the environmental and economic impact of all forms of power generation.

(3) The implementation of S.L. 2007-397, including environmental and economic impacts of the law, and recommendations on any changes to the law as necessary.

The State Energy Office shall report its findings to the Joint Legislative Commission on Energy Policy on or before December 1, 2014.

SECTION 28.(a) The Division of Purchase and Contract in the Department of Administration shall, in coordination with the Department of Public Instruction, provide that any fuel option may be considered for the award of a school bus contract. In the development of requests for proposals for school buses, the Departments shall include any fuel option practicable, including diesel, propane, liquefied natural gas, compressed natural gas, and electricity.

SECTION 28.(b) The consideration of any fuel sources in Section 27(a) of this act shall apply to any changes or modifications to term contracts executed on or after the effective date of this section.

SECTION 28.(c) The Department of Administration and the Department of Public Instruction shall jointly study the infrastructure that would be necessary to support school bus fleets fueled by natural gas and report any findings and recommendations to the Joint Legislative Energy Policy Commission on or before January 1, 2015.

PART VIII. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS UNRELATED TO SHALE GAS

SECTION 29.(a) G.S. 114-4.2D is repealed.

SECTION 29.(b) G.S. 113B-11(e) reads as rewritten:

"(e) Staff support required by the Council shall be supplied by the Division of Energy, Mineral, and Land Resources of the Department of Environment and Natural Resources. The Department of Environment and Natural Resources shall provide legal support to the Council as needed from the Department's staff. The Department of Commerce and the Utilities Commission are hereby authorized to make their staff available to the Council to assist in the development of a State energy policy."

SECTION 30.(a) G.S. 105-449.130 is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:

"(1f) Diesel gallon equivalent of liquefied natural gas. – The energy equivalent of 6.06 pounds of liquefied natural gas."

SECTION 30.(b) G.S. 105-449.130 is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:

"(1g) Gas gallon equivalent of compressed natural gas. – The energy equivalent of 5.66 pounds of compressed natural gas."

SECTION 30.(c) G.S. 105-449.136 reads as rewritten:

"§ 105-449.136. Tax on alternative fuel.

(a) Rate. – A tax at the motor fuel rate is imposed on liquid alternative fuel used to operate a highway vehicle by means of a vehicle supply tank that stores fuel only for the purpose of supplying fuel to operate the vehicle. The tax on liquefied natural gas is imposed on each diesel gallon equivalent of liquefied natural gas. A tax at the equivalent of the motor fuel rate is imposed on all other alternative fuel used to operate a highway vehicle. The tax on compressed natural gas is imposed on each gas gallon equivalent of compressed natural gas. The Secretary must determine the equivalent ~~rate.~~ rate for all other non-liquid alternative fuels.

(b) Administration. – The exemptions from the tax on motor fuel in G.S. 105-449.88 apply to the tax imposed by this section. The refunds for motor fuel tax allowed by Part 5 of Article 36C of this Chapter apply to the tax imposed by this section, except that the refund allowed by G.S. 105-449.107(b) for certain vehicles that use power takeoffs does not apply to a vehicle whose use of alternative fuel is taxed on the basis of miles driven. The proceeds of the tax imposed by this section must be allocated in accordance with G.S. 105-449.125."

SECTION 30.(d) This section becomes effective January 1, 2015.

PART IX. SEVERABILITY AND EFFECTIVE DATE

SECTION 31.(a) If any section or provision of this act is declared unconstitutional or invalid by the courts, it does not affect the validity of this act as a whole or any part other than the part so declared to be unconstitutional or invalid.

SECTION 31.(b) Except as otherwise provided, this act is effective when it becomes law.

SENATE BILL 786:
Energy Modernization Act

2013-2014 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Ref to Commerce. If fav, re-ref to Finance	Date:	May 20, 2014
Introduced by:	Sens. Rucho, Newton, Brock	Prepared by:	Jennifer McGinnis and Heather Fennell, Staff Attorneys Jennifer Mundt, Legislative Analyst
Analysis of:	PCS to First Edition S786-CSRIxf-35

SUMMARY: The Proposed Committee Substitute (PCS) to Senate Bill 786 does the following:

PART I. EXTENSION OF RULE DEVELOPMENT DEADLINE

SECTION 1 of the PCS would extend the rule development deadline to January 1, 2015. Under current law, Section 2(m) of S.L. 2012-143 requires the Mining and Energy Commission (MEC) to adopt rules for a modern regulatory program for the management of oil and gas, including the use of hydraulic fracturing for that purpose by October. 1, 2014.

PART II. EXEMPTIONS FROM THE ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURE ACT (APA)

SECTION 2.(a) of the PCS would modify a provision in the APA that requires that rules be adopted by the Rules Review Commission (RRC) 25 days before the start of a legislative session in order to be eligible for legislative review during that session. The PCS would eliminate the 25 day requirement, as it applies to rules for the management of oil and gas, thus making such rules eligible for legislative review no matter when approved, including if they are approved while a session is underway.

SECTION 2.(b) of the PCS would modify a provision in the APA that provides that a legislator may introduce a bill during the first 30 legislative days of any regular session to disapprove a rule that has been approved by the RRC. The PCS would change the time allowed to file a disapproval bill from 30 legislative days to 30 calendar days. The language allows for the circumstance in which the rules are approved while session is underway (and at that point become subject to legislative review).

SECTION 2.(c) of the PCS would modify a provision under the APA that governs filing of disapproval bills in connection with the legislative review process for rules. Specifically, the APA provides that if a disapproval bill is filed in connection with a rule or suite of rules, the rule(s) cannot become effective until the earlier of either: (i) the day an unfavorable final action is taken on a disapproval bill, or (ii) the day that session adjourns without ratifying a disapproval bill.

The PCS would provide instead that rules for the management of oil and gas would become effective on the earlier of: (i) the 31st calendar day of a regular session that begins after the date the RRC approved the rule if a bill that specifically disapproves the rule has not been introduced in either house of the General Assembly by that date; or, (ii) if a bill that specifically disapproves the rule is introduced in either house of the General Assembly before the 31st calendar day of that session, the rule becomes effective on the earlier of either the day an unfavorable final action is taken on the bill, or the 61st calendar day of the session if by that date a bill that specifically disapproves the rule has not been ratified. The language allows for the circumstance in which the rules are approved while session is underway (and at that point become subject to legislative review).

SECTION 2.(d) of the PCS would modify a provision under the APA that provides that rules received by the 20th day of a month must be reviewed by the RRC by the "last day of the second subsequent month." Instead, the PCS would provide that the RRC must review any rule for the management of oil and gas submitted to it by the end of a month by the last day of the next month (thereby potentially expediting review by a month).

SECTION 2.(e) of the PCS would exempt the rules for the management of oil and gas from the limitations under the APA that govern certain environmental rules.

SECTION 2.(f) of the PCS would modify a provision enacted in 2013 that exempted rules for the management of oil and gas from any requirements under the APA to prepare fiscal notes to provide that the fiscal note exemption for such rules may operate until the provision sunsets on December 31, 2017.

SECTION 2.(g) of the PCS would exempt rules for the management of oil and gas from any requirements under the APA that require that a certification be obtained from the Office of State Budget and Management (OSBM), and any requirement for preliminary review of the rules by OSBM.

PART III. DATE CERTAIN FOR ISSUANCE OF PERMITS TO JULY 1, 2015

SECTION 3.(a) of the PCS would, effective July 1, 2015, authorize the Department of Environment and Natural Resources (DENR) and MEC to issue permits for oil and gas exploration, development, and production activities using horizontal drilling and hydraulic fracturing treatments.

SECTION 3.(b) of the PCS would repeal Section 3(d) of S.L. 2012-143 (S820), which prohibited the issuance of permits for oil and gas exploration and development activities using the processes of horizontal drilling and hydraulic fracturing in the State until the General Assembly took legislative action to allow the issuance of such permits, in order to allow the Mining and Energy Commission to create a modern regulatory program to govern all aspects of such activities.

SECTION 3.(c) of the PCS would repeal Section 1(c) of S.L. 2013-365 (S76), which amended the moratorium on issuance of permits for oil and gas exploration and development activities enacted by Section 3(d) of S.L. 2012-143 (S820), to prohibit issuance of permits until: (i) all rules required to be adopted by MEC, the Environmental Management Commission, and the Commission for Public Health pursuant to S.L. 2012-143 (S820) have become effective and (ii) the General Assembly takes affirmative legislative action, including repeal of Section 3(d) of S.L. 2012-143 (S820), to allow the issuance of such permits.

PART IV. CREATE OIL AND GAS COMMISSION AND RECONSTITUTE MINING COMMISSION

SECTIONS 4, 5, and 6 of the PCS would, effective July 31, 2015, reinstate the Mining Commission (to consist of 7 members) and establish the Oil and Gas Commission (to consist of 9 members) as separate entities. The terms of all members serving on MEC would expire on July 31, 2015, and new appointments to the two distinct commissions would be required by August 1, 2015.

PART V. MISCELLANEOUS STATUTORY CHANGES RELATED TO SHALE GAS EXPLORATION, DEVELOPMENT, AND PRODUCTION

SECTION 7 of the PCS would: (i) eliminate two references in the statutes concerning MEC's authority to require operation of wells with efficient gas oil ratios, based upon information that the language is antiquated and does not readily adapt to unconventional oil and gas wells such as those found in the Triassic basin; and (ii) provide that that entry of rules in the North Carolina Administrative Code that address areas identified in subsections (a) and (a3) of G.S. 113-391 by July 1, 2015, create a rebuttable presumption that the rules are sufficient to meet the requirements for development of a modern regulatory program pursuant to that section of the General Statutes.

SECTION 8 of the PCS would clarify requirements applicable to trade secrets received in connection with permitted oil and gas activities. Specifically, the provision would explicitly require: (i) MEC and DENR to retain trade secret information received; (ii) provision of the information to the Division of Emergency Management; and (iii) immediate disclosure of the information to first responders and medical personnel in the event of an emergency. Unlawful disclosure of information in violation of the provision would constitute a Class I felony[1]. Appeals of decisions concerning trade secrets would be directed to the Business Court.

SECTION 9 of the PCS would repeal a provision in the statutes that requires State involvement regarding an owner's request for a survey. Specifically, current law reads as follows:

> "(6) To require surveys upon application of any owner who has reason to believe that a well has been unlawfully drilled by another person into land of the owner without permission. In the event such surveys are required, the costs thereof shall be borne by the owner making the request."

SECTION 10 of the PCS would repeal a provision in the statutes that requires each well to be drilled in the center of a drilling unit, based upon information that the language does not readily adapt to unconventional oil and gas wells such as those found in the Triassic basin.

SECTION 11 of the PCS would reduce the fee due upon application to drill, from $3,000 for each well drilled, to $3,000 for a first well on a pad and $1,500 for each additional well on the same pad.

SECTION 12 of the PCS would amend a provision in existing law that requires oil and gas operators to provide surface owners with advance notice prior to entry to property (14 days for non-land disturbing; 30 days for land-disturbing), to add language requiring notice to subsurface owners as well (30 days for initiation of exploration, development, and production activities).

SECTION 13 of the PCS would:

- Amend a provision enacted in 2011 that established an oil and gas operator's presumptive liability for contamination of water supplies located within 5,000 feet of a wellhead, to change the distance to water supplies located within a ½ mile radius of a wellhead.
- Amend a provision enacted in 2011 that required an oil and gas operator to conduct pre-drilling testing of water supplies within 5,000 feet of a wellhead, to change the required distance to a ½ mile radius. Under current law, the provision also allows a surface owner to elect to have DENR sample the water supplies, in lieu of the operator – the PCS would specify that rather than DENR, a surface owner could elect to have an independent third party from a DENR-approved list conduct the sampling (with the costs of testing still reimbursed by the operator). In addition, the PCS would explicitly state that an operator must provide the results of any testing conducted within 30 days of sampling to DENR, and allow operators to share results of testing with other operators.

- Specify that actions for recovery of cleanup costs, damages, or for civil penalties may be brought against any of the persons having control over the activities that contributed to the contamination, damage to property, or other violations, and provides that such persons would be jointly and severally liable, with ultimate liability between the parties determined by common-law principles.

SECTION 14 of the PCS would invalidate local ordinances that prohibit or have the effect of prohibiting oil and gas exploration, development, and production activities (including, those that would impose taxes, fees, or charges, or that regulate health, environment, or land use). The provision mirrors a statute preempting local government regulation of hazardous waste facilities (G.S. 130A-293). Specifically, the PCS would invalidate ordinances that:

- Prohibit the siting of wells for oil and gas exploration, development, and production within any county, city, or other political subdivision.
- Prohibit the use of horizontal drilling or hydraulic fracturing for the purpose of oil or gas exploration or development within any county, city, or other political subdivision.
- Place any restriction or condition not placed by the statutes governing oil and gas upon oil and gas exploration, development, and production activities and use of horizontal drilling or hydraulic fracturing for that purpose within any county, city, or other political subdivision.
- In any manner are in conflict or inconsistent with the provisions of the statutes governing oil and gas.

SECTION 15 of the PCS would:

- Require that all natural gas compressor stations associated with an oil and gas drilling operation be located inside a baffled building.
- Include a provision in the statutes governing oil and gas that prohibits the injection of wastes produced in connection with oil and gas exploration, development, and production, and use of horizontal drilling and hydraulic fracturing treatments to subsurface or groundwaters of the State by means of wells. Note that this is prohibited in another Chapter of the General Statutes, and is also prohibited under a draft rule pending with MEC.
- Provide that DENR may conduct an environmental compliance review of each applicant for a new permit for oil and gas activities in order to determine the extent to which the applicant, or affiliated entity, has substantially complied with the requirements applicable to any activity in which any of these entities previously engaged, and has substantially complied with federal, North Carolina, and other states' laws, regulations, and rules for the protection of the environment. DENR is authorized to deny an application for a permit if the applicant has a history of significant or repeated violations of statutes, rules, orders, or permit terms or conditions for the protection of the environment or for the conservation of natural resources as evidenced by civil penalty assessments, administrative or judicial compliance orders, or criminal penalties. DENR is also authorized to modify or revoke a permit, or require issuance of a new permit, based on substantial changes to environmental compliance history after a permit's issuance.
- Provide that no liability for trespass would arise from activities conducted for the purpose of seismic or geophysical data collection if a person has a landowner's written consent to enter the land for the activities, or if the person conducts seismic and geophysical data collection by undershooting from an off-site location and without physical entry to private land. If such activities are conducted through physical entry to land without a landowner's written consent, the violation would constitute a Class 1 misdemeanor[2]. The language further provides that persons conducting seismic or geophysical data collection are civilly liable for any physical or property damage determined to be a direct result of their seismic or geophysical data collection activities, whether or not the seismic or geophysical data collection was conducted by undershooting the land at an off-site location or by physical entry to land as permitted by the landowner.

SECTION 16 of the PCS would exempt persons engaged in activities involving the construction, repair, or abandonment of a well used for the exploration or development of oil or gas from the water well contractor certification requirements under Chapter 87 of the General Statutes.

PART VI. SEVERANCE TAX

SECTIONS 17 THROUGH 19:

The draft proposal would repeal North Carolina's current severance tax and levies a new severance tax on the removal of energy minerals from the soil and water of the State. The current State severance tax was enacted in 1945 and has not been modified since 1973. The current tax is five mills on each barrel of oil (the equivalent of .5¢ per barrel of oil) and one-half mill on each 1000 cubic feet of gas (the equivalent of .05¢ per 1000 cubic feet of gas). No tax is collected under the current law. The new severance tax would add condensates to the tax base, raise the tax rate on oil, and create a floating tax rate for gas.

Energy minerals are defined in the draft to include all forms of natural gas, oil, and related condensates. Thirty-three states, including North Carolina, currently impose some form of severance taxes on the extraction of oil and gas. Of the 33 states, 25 states impose a tax as a percentage of the value of the resource extracted, 7 states impose a tax on the volume extracted, and 1 state imposes a tax that is a combination of the two methods.

Tax Rate – Marginal gas is the gas produced from a well that is only capable of producing a small amount of gas (no more than 100 MCF of gas). The tax rate for the severance of energy minerals would be as follows:

	2015-2018	2019-2020			2021-2023			2023 and thereafter
Oil and condensates	2%	3.5%			5%			5%
Marginal Gas	.4%	.6%			.8%			.8%
Gas	.9%	Based on delivered to market price per mcf			Based on delivered to market price per mcf			Based on delivered to market price per mcf
		Over	Up to	Rate	Over	Up to	Rate	Over	Up to	Rate
		-0-	$3	.9%	-0-	$3	.9%	-0-	$3	.9%
		$3.01	$4	1.9%	$3.01	$4	1.9%	$3.01	$4	1.9%
		$4.01	NA	2.9%	$4.01	$5	2.9%	$4.01	$5	2.9%
					$5.01	$6	3.9%	$5.01	$6	3.9
					$6.01	$7	4.9%	$6.01	$7	4.9%
					$7.01	NA	5%	$7.01	$8	5.9%
								$8.01	$9	6.9%
								$9.01	$10	7.9%
								$10.01	NA	9%

[2] Assuming no prior convictions the presumptive minimum sentence for a Class 1 misdemeanor is 1-45 days community punishment. The disposition may range from supervised or unsupervised probation, community service, restitution, or fines. The amount of the fine would be in the discretion of the court.

Tax Base – For condensates and oil, is applied to the total actual gross price paid by the first purchaser of the condensate or oil. For gas, the tax rate is applied to the "delivered to market" value of the mineral sold. The "delivered to market value" of gas is the actual gross price paid minus the costs incurred by the producer to get the gas from the mouth of the well to the first purchaser.

Administration – The tax would be the liability of the producer of the gas. The producer is the entity that extracts the mineral from the soil or the water of the State. Returns and taxes are due on either a monthly or quarterly basis, depending on the tax liability of the producer. A bond or letter of credit would be required for producers that fail to file a return or make a payment of tax due.

Permit Suspension – Permits for oil and gas exploration using horizontal drilling or hydraulic fracturing would be suspended for any producer that fails to file a return or make a payment for severance taxes.

No Local Taxes – Local governments would not be authorized to impose any additional taxes on the severance of energy minerals in the State.

Property Taxes – The value of real property attributable to the presence of energy minerals is exempt from taxation where a permit to drill on the property has not been issued.

PART VII. STUDIES

SECTION 20 of the PCS would direct the Local Government Division of the Department of Revenue to: (i) study how other states value energy minerals for the purpose of property taxation; and, (ii) establish guidelines for counties to ensure the consistent and fair taxation of energy minerals throughout the State. The Division would report its findings to the Joint Legislative Commission on Energy Policy on or before January 1, 2015.

SECTION 21 of the PCS would direct the Joint Legislative Commission on Energy Policy to study how the development of the energy industry will affect the property tax revenues of local governments. The study shall examine how the industry will affect property enrolled in the present use value program, and ways to limit the growth of property tax revenues resulting from increased property valuations due to energy production. The Commission shall report its findings to the 2015 General Assembly.

SECTION 22 of the PCS would direct the Department of Commerce, in consultation with DENR, the North Carolina Ports Authority, and the Department of Administration, to study the desirability and feasibility of siting, constructing, and operating a liquefied natural gas (LNG) export terminal in North Carolina. The Department of Commerce would report its findings and recommendations to the Joint Legislative Commission on Energy Policy and the Environmental Review Commission (ERC) on or before January 1, 2015.

SECTION 23 of the PCS would direct the Department of Transportation to study: (i) additional statutory authority that may be necessary or advisable for DOT to adequately address energy-related traffic, including authority that pertains to permitting and assessment of fees; (ii) the feasibility or advisability of including any requirements that DOT may recommend to manage energy-related traffic, and resulting impacts, in a coordinated permit in conjunction with requirements of the Department of Environment and Natural Resources, or whether such requirements should be implemented through a separate permitting process; and (iii) performance bonding and other surety mechanisms, including road use agreements, to reclaim and repair any State posted roads that are damaged due to heavy vehicle, equipment, and machinery traffic used in support of and conjunction with horizontal drilling and hydraulic fracturing operations on State posted roads. DOT would report its finding and recommendations, including any legislative proposals, to the Joint Legislative Energy Policy Commission and the Joint Legislative Transportation Oversight Committee on or before January 1, 2015.

SECTION 24 of the PCS would direct the State Board of Community Colleges to study the feasibility and desirability of developing a program to prepare students with a general education foundation and technical competencies for employment opportunities in the oil and natural gas drilling, gathering, and field operations industry. Specifically, the State Board would be required to consider developing such a program at one or more of the community colleges located where the potential for shale gas resources is highest and would evaluate similar education programs in community college systems in other states. The State Board would report its findings and recommendations, including any legislative proposals to the Joint Legislative Energy Policy Commission and the Joint Legislative Education Oversight Committee on or before January 1, 2015.

SECTION 25 of the PCS would direct DENR to:

(1) Examine MEC's rules, once adopted, related to oil and gas exploration, including, but not limited to, rules concerning drilling units, spacing requirements, and setbacks, and all rules DENR determines will affect the regulation of compulsory pooling in the State.

(2) Study, in conjunction with MEC and the Consumer Protection Division of the North Carolina Department of Justice, the issue of amending current dormant mineral statutes regarding extinguishment and other consumer protection issues related to split estates.

(3) Issue specific recommendations for legislative action related to compulsory pooling and dormant mineral statutes and report the findings of their study, including specific proposals for legislative action, to the Joint Legislative Commission on Energy Policy and the Environmental Review Commission on or before October 1, 2015.

SECTION 26 of the PCS would direct MEC and DENR to study the development of midstream infrastructure in North Carolina, which is necessary or advisable to facilitate the exploration, development, and production of the State's oil and gas resources. Infrastructure examined must include development of pipelines, gathering systems, compressor stations, pumping systems, on-site and near-site storage tanks, and natural gas liquids processing systems. MEC would report the findings of this study, including specific proposals for legislative action, to the Joint Legislative Commission on Energy Policy on or before March 1, 2015.

SECTION 27 of the PCS would direct the State Energy Office to study and make legislative recommendations on a comprehensive long-range State energy policy to achieve maximum effective management and use of present and future sources of energy. The Office shall study all of the following:

(1) The long-term environmental and economic impact of base load power generation of electric public utilities.

(2) The comparison of base load power generation alongside all other forms of energy used for power generation, including renewable and alternative sources of energy, and the environmental and economic impact of all forms of power generation.

(3) The implementation of S.L. 2007-397, including environmental and economic impacts from the law, and recommendations on any changes to the law as necessary.

The State Energy Office shall report its findings to the Joint Legislative Commission on Energy Policy on or before December 1, 2014.

SECTION 28 of the PCS would direct the Division of Purchase and Contract in the Department of Administration, in coordination with the Department of Public Instruction, to allow any fuel option to be considered for the award of a school bus contract. DOA and DPI would also be directed to study the infrastructure that would be necessary to support school bus fleets fueled by natural gas and report any findings and recommendations to the Joint Legislative Energy Policy Commission on or before January 1, 2015.

PART VIII. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS UNRELATED TO SHALE GAS

SECTION 29 of the PCS would repeal a provision that requires the Energy Policy Council to use an attorney assigned by the AG's office, and instead allow the Council to have legal support provided by DENR.

SECTION 30 of the PCS would adopt the gas gallon equivalent (GGE) equivalent for compressed natural gas and the (diesel gas equivalent) DGE equivalent for liquid natural gas for the purpose of motor fuel taxation. The GGE equivalent is 5.66 pounds of compressed natural gas. The DGE equivalent of liquefied natural gas is 6.06 pounds of liquefied natural gas.

PART IX. SEVERABILITY AND EFFECTIVE DATE

SECTION 31 of the PCS would provide a severability clause in the event that any section or provision of the act were declared unconstitutional or invalid by the courts, and would provide that the act would be effective when it becomes law (except as otherwise provided).

PRINCIPAL DEPARTMENT(S) & PROGRAM(S) AFFECTED: Department of Environment and Natural Resources; Department of Revenue; Department of Justice; Department of Transportation

EFFECTIVE DATE: Effective when law except as otherwise provided.

TECHNICAL CONSIDERATIONS:
None

ASSUMPTIONS AND METHODOLOGY:

Note: A separate incarceration note will address changes to criminal penalties included in the bill.

Part IV: Create Oil and Gas Commission and Reconstitute Mining Commission: Sections 3, 4 and 5 eliminate the 15 member North Carolina Mining and Energy Commission (MEC), establish a nine member North Carolina Oil and Gas Commission and reinstate the Mining Commission to consist of seven members. The terms of the all members of the MEC expire on July 31, 2015 and new appointments to the two new commissions would be required by August 1, 2015.

No fiscal impact: The net increase in commission members due to the changes above is one new member. Staff support for the commissions will be provided from existing staff of the Department of Environment and Natural Resources (DENR). No fiscal impact is anticipated from the changes to the commissions.

Part V: Miscellaneous Statutory Changes Related to Shale Gas Exploration, Development, and Production

Section 11: This section reduces the fee due upon application to drill, from $3,000 for each well drilled, to $3,000 for the first well on a pad and $1,500 for each additional well on the same pad.

No Fiscal Estimate Available: The fiscal impact on the amount of revenue generated from the permit application fee depends on the number wells to be drilled. This number is unknown at this time.

Section 14: This section would invalidate local ordinances that prohibit or have the effect of prohibiting oil and gas exploration, development and production activities. It also sets out the procedure the Mining and Energy Commission must follow when petitioned by an operator whose proposed oil and gas activities have been prevented by a local ordinance.

No Fiscal Estimate Available: DENR noted that "considerable time" may be required to support the Commission's findings of local preemption when petitioned; however, the Department was not able to quantify this requirement. Without knowing the number of petitions to be filed or the extent to which to preempt the local ordinance, the fiscal impact can't be determined.

Section 15: This section, among other things, requires DENR to conduct an environmental compliance review of each applicant for a new permit for oil and gas activities in order to determine the extent to which the applicant has substantially complied with federal, North Carolina, and other states' laws, regulations, and rules for the protection of the environment. It sets the environmental compliance review at a minimum of five years but allows the Department to establish a longer period of time. It provides the Department with the discretion to determine whether the environmental compliance review extends to the history of the parents, subsidiaries, or other affiliates of the applicant. It directs the Department to determine the scope of the review and to determine when the applicant has "substantially complied" with the requirements applicable to any activity in which the applicant, or affiliated entity, has previously engaged.

No Fiscal Estimate Available: The fiscal impact is dependent on a number of factors, none of which are known at this time, including: 1) the applications to be received, 2) the number of affiliated entities subject to the review, 3) the scope of the review, and 3) the definitive period of time covered by the review.

Part VI: Severance Tax

Sections 17 – 19: These sections would repeal North Carolina's current severance tax on the removal of energy minerals from the soil and water of the State, and would create a new severance tax structure for the extraction of oil, gas, and related condensates. The current tax is five mills on each barrel of oil (the equivalent of .5¢ per barrel of oil) and one-half mill on each 1000 cubic feet of gas (the equivalent of .05¢ per 1000 cubic feet of gas). No tax is collected under the current law. The new severance tax would add condensates to the tax base, raise the tax rate on oil, and create a floating tax rate for gas.

Energy minerals are defined in the draft to include all forms of natural gas, oil, and related condensates. Thirty-three states, including North Carolina, currently impose some form of severance taxes on the extraction of oil and gas. Of the 33 states, 25 states impose a tax as a percentage of the value of the resource extracted, 7 states impose a tax on the volume extracted, and 1 state imposes a tax that is a combination of the two methods. This proposal creates a severance tax structure that treats oil and condensates, marginal gas, and natural gas differently. In addition, the rates charged generally increase in the out years. For a complete breakdown of the tax rates included in this proposal, see the bill summary.

> No Fiscal Estimate Available: It is impossible to estimate the level of severance tax revenues that may be generated as a result of this proposal. First, the natural gas reserves in North Carolina remain untested, so it is unclear how much recoverable gas exists. Second, it is unclear what price points would make the natural gas and related condensates in North Carolina economically recoverable. Third, given the recent volatility in natural gas and condensate commodity prices, it is unclear when the market will justify substantial extraction activities in North Carolina. As a result of these factors, it is unclear if substantial exploration or extraction activities will occur in North Carolina within the next five years. In addition, this proposal creates a variable rate structure that is tied to the delivered market price for natural gas, further complicating any revenue projection.

Part VIII: Miscellaneous Provisions Unrelated to Shale Gas

Section 29: This section repeals a provision that requires the Energy Policy Council to use an attorney assigned by the Attorney General's Office, and instead allows the Council to have legal support provided by DENR.

> Fiscal Impact: The Energy Policy Council was transferred from the Department of Commerce to the DENR effective July 1, 2013. In past ten months, the Department has reassigned two attorneys who have worked approximately half time to support the Council. It is anticipated that the Council will need this level of legal support for the foreseeable future. An additional Attorney position budgeted at the middle of the salary range is $85,312, or $109,424 with benefits.

Section 30. This bill allows compressed natural gas (CNG) and liquefied natural gas (LNG) to be taxed based on the pound equivalent of a gallon of gasoline. It is not known how much tax revenues from CNG and LNG that are used for transportation purposes are currently generated. The North Carolina Department of Revenue's (DOR) motor fuel tax forms that track the type of fuel being taxed do not include a line for LNG reporting. DOR plans to add a line to capture LNG taxes in the future. DOR captures CNG tax reporting in a line that includes propane use. North Carolina tax collections for propane/CNG are increasing. Tax collections have grown from $399,000 in FY 2011-12, to $675,000 in FY 2012-13, to $880,000 in the first 10 months of FY 2013-14. It is not known how much of this tax collection is attributable to CNG sales, but it is assumed the majority of the tax is from propane sales.

Both CNG and LNG used for non-transportation purposes are taxable under the North Carolina sales tax. It is not known how much revenue is generated from these taxes.

The agency must also obtain from the Office a certification that the agency adhered to the regulatory principles set forth in G.S. 150B-19.1(a)(2), (5), and (6). The agency may request the Office of State Budget and Management to prepare the fiscal note only after, working with the Office, it has exhausted all resources, internal and external, to otherwise prepare the required fiscal note. If the Office of State Budget and Management fails to prepare a fiscal note within this time period, the agency proposing the rule change shall prepare a fiscal note. Failure to prepare or obtain approval of the fiscal note as required by this subsection shall be a basis for objection to the rule under G.S. 150B-21.9(a)(4).

As used in this subsection, the term "substantial economic impact" means an aggregate financial impact on all persons affected of at least one million dollars ($1,000,000) in a 12-month period. In analyzing substantial economic impact, an agency shall do the following:

(1) Determine and identify the appropriate time frame of the analysis.

(2) Assess the baseline conditions against which the proposed rule is to be measured.

(3) Describe the persons who would be subject to the proposed rule and the type of expenditures these persons would be required to make.

(4) Estimate any additional costs that would be created by implementation of the proposed rule by measuring the incremental difference between the baseline and the future condition expected after implementation of the rule. The analysis should include direct costs as well as opportunity costs. Cost estimates must be monetized to the greatest extent possible. Where costs are not monetized, they must be listed and described.

(5) For costs that occur in the future, the agency shall determine the net present value of the costs by using a discount factor of seven percent (7%)."

ENVIRONMENTAL SELF AUDIT PRIVILEGE AND LIMITED IMMUNITY

SECTION 3.6.(a) Chapter 8 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new Part to read:

"Part 7D. Environmental Audit Privilege and Limited Immunity.

"§ 8-58.50. Purpose.

(a) In order to encourage owners and operators of facilities and persons conducting activities regulated under those portions of the General Statutes set forth in G.S. 8-58.52, or conducting activities regulated under other environmental laws, to conduct voluntary internal environmental audits of their compliance programs and management systems and to assess and improve compliance with statutes, an environmental audit privilege is recognized to protect the confidentiality of communications relating to voluntary internal environmental audits.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, nothing in this Part shall be construed to protect owners and operators of facilities and regulated persons from a criminal investigation or prosecution carried out by any appropriate governmental entity.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any privilege granted by this Part shall apply only to those communications, oral or written, pertaining to and made in connection with the environmental audit and shall not apply to the facts relating to the violation itself.

"§ 8-58.51. Definitions.

The following definitions apply in this Part:

(1) "Department" means the Department of Environment and Natural Resources.

(2) "Environmental audit" means a voluntary, internal evaluation or review of one or more facilities or an activity at one or more facilities regulated under federal, State, regional, or local environmental law, or of compliance programs, or management systems related to the facility or activity if designed to identify and prevent noncompliance and to improve compliance with these laws. For the purposes of this Part, an environmental audit does not include an environmental site assessment of a facility conducted solely in anticipation of the purchase, sale, or transfer of the business or facility. An environmental audit may be conducted by the owner or operator, the parent corporation of the owner or operator or by their officers or employees, or by independent contractors. An environmental audit must be a discrete activity with a specified beginning date and scheduled ending date reflecting the auditor's bona fide intended completion schedule.

(3) "Environmental audit report" means a document marked or identified as such with a completion date existing either individually or as a compilation prepared in connection with an environmental audit. An environmental audit report may include field notes and records of observations, findings, opinions, suggestions, recommendations, conclusions, drafts, memoranda, drawings, photographs, computer-generated or electronically-recorded information, maps, charts, graphs, and surveys, provided the supporting information is collected or developed for the primary purpose and in the course of an environmental audit. An environmental audit report, when completed, may include all of the following components:

a. An audit report prepared by an auditor, which may include the scope and date of the audit and the information gained in the audit, together with exhibits and appendices and may include conclusions, recommendations, exhibits, and appendices.

b. Memoranda and documents analyzing any portion of the audit report or issues relating to the implementation of an audit report.

c. An implementation plan that addresses correcting past noncompliance, improving current compliance, or preventing future noncompliance.

(4) "Enforcement agencies" means the Department, any other agency of the State, and units of local government responsible for enforcement of environmental laws.

(5) "Environmental laws" means all provisions of federal, State, and local laws, rules, and ordinances pertaining to environmental matters.

"§ 8-58.52. Applicability.

This Part applies to activities regulated under environmental laws, including all of the following provisions of the General Statutes, and rules adopted thereunder:

(1) Article 7 of Chapter 74.
(2) Chapter 104E.
(3) Article 25 of Chapter 113.
(4) Articles 1,4, and 7 of Chapter 113A.
(5) Article 9 of Chapter 130A.
(6) Articles 21, 21A, and 21B of Chapter 143.
(7) Part 1 of Article 7 of Chapter 143B.

"§ 8-58.53. Environmental audit report; privilege.

(a) An environmental audit report or any part of an environmental audit report is privileged and, therefore, immune from discovery and is not admissible as evidence in civil or administrative proceedings instituted by an enforcement agency, except as provided in G.S. 8-58.54 and G.S. 8-58.55. Provided, however, all of the following documents are exempt from the privilege established by this Part:

(1) Information obtained by observation of an enforcement agency.
(2) Information obtained from a source independent of the environmental audit.
(3) Documents, communication, data, reports, or other information required to be collected, maintained, otherwise made available, or reported to a enforcement agency or any other entity by environmental laws, permit, order, consent agreement, or as otherwise provided by law.
(4) Documents prepared either prior to the beginning of the environmental audit or subsequent to the completion date of the audit report and, in all cases, any documents prepared independent of the audit or audit report.
(5) Documents prepared as a result of multiple or continuous self-auditing conducted in an effort to intentionally avoid liability for violations.
(6) Information which is knowingly misrepresented or misstated or which is knowingly deleted or withheld from an environmental audit report, whether or not included in a subsequent environmental audit report.

(7) Information in instances where the material shows evidence of noncompliance with environmental laws, permits, orders, consent agreements, and the owner or operator failed to either promptly take corrective action or eliminate any violation of law identified during the environmental audit within a reasonable period of time.

(b) If an environmental audit report or any part of an environmental audit report is subject to the privilege provided for in subsection (a) of this section, no person who conducted or participated in the audit or who significantly reviewed the audit report may be compelled to testify regarding the audit report or a privileged part of the audit report except as provided for in G.S. 8-58.53(d), 8-58.54, or 8-58.55.

(c) Nothing in this Part shall be construed to restrict a party in a proceeding before the Industrial Commission from obtaining or discovering any evidence necessary or appropriate for the proof of any issue pending in an action before the Commission, regardless of whether evidence is privileged pursuant to this Part. Further, nothing in this Part shall be construed to prevent the admissibility of evidence which is otherwise relevant and admissible in a proceeding before the Industrial Commission, regardless of whether the evidence is privileged pursuant to this Part. Provided, however, the Commission, upon motion made by a party to the proceeding, may issue appropriate protective orders preventing disclosure of information outside of the Commission's proceeding.

(d) Nothing in this Part shall be construed to circumvent the employee protection provisions provided by federal or State law.

(e) The privilege created by this Part does not apply to criminal investigations or proceedings. Where an audit report is obtained, reviewed, or used in a criminal proceeding, the privilege created by this Part shall continue to apply and is not waived in civil and administrative proceedings and is not discoverable or admissible in civil or administrative proceedings even if disclosed during a criminal proceeding.

"§ 8-58.54. Waiver of privilege.

(a) The privilege established under G.S. 8-58.53 does not apply to the extent that it is expressly waived in writing by the owner or operator of a facility at which an environmental audit was conducted and who prepared or caused to be prepared the audit report as a result of the audit.

(b) The audit report and information generated by the audit may be disclosed without waiving the privilege established under G.S. 8-58.53 to all of the following persons:

(1) A person employed by the owner or operator or the parent corporation of the audited facility.

(2) A legal representative of the owner or operator or parent corporation.

(3) An independent contractor retained by the owner or operator or parent corporation to conduct an audit on or to address an issue or issues raised by the audit.

(c) Disclosure of an audit report or information generated by the audit under all of the following circumstances shall not constitute a waiver of the privilege established under G.S. 8-58.53:

(1) Disclosure made under the terms of a confidentiality agreement between the owner or operator of the facility audited and a potential purchaser of the business or facility audited.

(2) Disclosure made under the terms of a confidentiality agreement between governmental officials and the owner or operator of the facility audited.

(3) Disclosure made under the terms of a confidentiality agreement between a customer, lending institution, or insurance company with an existing or proposed relationship with the facility.

"§ 8-58.55. Notification of audit.

In order to assert the privilege established under G.S. 8-58.53, the owner or operator of the facility conducting the environmental audit shall, upon inspection of the facility by an enforcement agency, or no later than 10 working days after completion of an agency's inspection, notify the enforcement agency of the existence of any audit relevant to the subject of the agency's inspection, as well as the beginning date and completion date of that audit. Any environmental audit report shall include a signed certification from the owner or operator of the facility that documents the date the audit began and the completion date of the audit.

"§ 8-58.55. Revocation of privilege in civil and administrative proceedings.

In a civil or administrative proceeding, an enforcement agency may seek by motion a declaratory ruling on the issue of whether an environmental audit report is privileged. The court shall revoke the privilege established under G.S. 8-58.53 for an audit report if the factors set forth in this section apply. In a civil proceeding, the court, after an in camera review, shall revoke the privilege established under G.S. 8-58.53 if the court determines that disclosure of the environmental audit report was sought after the effective date of this Part and either of the following apply:

(1) The privilege is asserted for purposes of deception or evasion.

(2) The material shows evidence of significant noncompliance with applicable environmental laws; the owner or operator of the facility has not promptly initiated and pursued with diligence appropriate action to achieve compliance with these environmental laws or has not made reasonable efforts to complete any necessary permit application; and, as a result, the owner or operator of the facility did not or will not achieve compliance with applicable environmental laws or did not or will not complete the necessary permit application within a reasonable period of time.

"§ 8-58.56. Privilege in criminal proceedings.

The privilege established under G.S. 8-58.53 is not applicable in any criminal proceeding.

"§ 8-58.57. Burden of proof.

A party asserting the privilege established under G.S. 8-58.53 has the burden of proving that (i) the materials claimed as privileged constitute an environmental audit report as defined by this Part and (ii) compliance has been achieved or will be achieved with a reasonable period of time. A party seeking disclosure under G.S.8-58.55 has the burden of proving the condition for disclosure set forth in that section.

"§ 8-58.58. Stipulations; declaratory rulings.

The parties to a proceeding may at any time stipulate to entry of an order directing that specific information contained in an environmental audit report is or is not subject to the privilege. In the absence of an ongoing proceeding, where the parties are not in agreement, an enforcement agency may seek a declaratory ruling from a court on the issue of whether the materials are privileged under G.S. 8-58.53 and whether the privilege, if existing, should be revoked pursuant to G.S. 8-58.55.

"§ 8-58.59. Construction of Part.

Nothing in this Part limits, waives, or abrogates any of the following:

(1) The scope or nature of any statutory or common law privilege, including the work-product privilege or the attorney-client privilege.

(2) Any existing ability or authority under State law to challenge privilege.

(3) An enforcement agency's ability to obtain or use documents or information that the agency otherwise has the authority to obtain under State law adopted pursuant to federally delegated programs.

"§ 8-58.60. Voluntary disclosure; limited immunity from civil and administrative penalties and fines.

(a) An owner or operator of a facility is immune from imposition of civil and administrative penalties and fines by enforcement agencies for a violation of environmental laws voluntarily disclosed subject to the requirements and criteria set forth in this section. Provided, however, that waiver of penalties and fines shall not be granted until the applicable enforcement agency has certified that the violation was corrected within a reasonable period of time. If compliance is not certified by the enforcement agency, the enforcement agency shall retain discretion to assess penalties and fines for the violation.

(b) If a person or entity makes a voluntary disclosure of a violation of environmental laws discovered through performance of an environmental audit, that person has the burden of proving (i) that the disclosure is voluntary by establishing the elements set forth in subsection (c) of this section and (ii) that the person is therefore entitled to immunity from any administrative or civil penalties associated with the issues disclosed. Nothing in this section may be construed to provide immunity from criminal penalties.

(c) For purposes of this section, disclosure is voluntary if all of the following criteria are met:

(1) The disclosure is made within 14 days following a reasonable investigation of the violation's discovery through the environmental audit.

(2) The disclosure is made to an enforcement agency having regulatory authority over the violation disclosed.

(3) The person or entity making the disclosure initiates an action to resolve the violation identified in the disclosure in a diligent manner.

(4) The person or entity making the disclosure cooperates with the applicable enforcement agency in connection with investigation of the issues identified in the disclosure.

(5) The person or entity making the disclosure diligently pursues compliance and promptly corrects the noncompliance within a reasonable period of time.

(d) A disclosure is not voluntary for purposes of this section if any of the following factors apply:

corrective action and retesting where appropriate. The ~~Commission for Public Health~~Commission may by rule require testing for additional parameters, including volatile organic compounds, if the Commission makes a specific finding that testing for the additional parameters is necessary to protect public health. If the Commission finds that testing for certain volatile organic compounds is necessary to protect public health and initiates rule making to require testing for certain volatile organic compounds, the Commission shall consider all of the following factors in the development of the rule: (i) known current and historic land uses around well sites and associated contaminants; (ii) known contaminated sites within a given radius of a well and any known data regarding dates of contamination, geology, and other relevant factors; (iii) any GIS-based information on known contamination sources from databases available to the Department of Environment and Natural Resources; and (iv) visual on-site inspections of well sites. In addition, the rules shall require local health departments to educate citizens for whom new private drinking water wells are constructed and for citizens who contact local health departments regarding testing an existing well on all of the following:

(1) The scope of the testing required pursuant to this Article.
(2) Optional testing available pursuant to this Article.
(3) The limitations of both the required and optional testing.
(4) Minimum drinking water standards."

SECTION 3.34.(c) The Codifier of Rules shall make any conforming rule changes necessary to reflect the transfer of rule-making authority under Article 10 of Chapter 130A of the General Statutes from the Commission for Public Health to the Environmental Management Commission.

WELL CONTRACTOR LICENSING CHANGES

SECTION 3.35.(a) G.S. 87-43.1 is amended by adding the following new subdivision to read:

"§ 87-43.1. Exceptions.

The provisions of this Article shall not apply:

...

(10) To the installation, construction, maintenance, or repair of electrical wiring, devices, appliances, or equipment by a person certified as a well contractor under Article 7A of this Chapter when running electrical wires from the well pump to the pressure switch."

SECTION 3.35.(b) G.S. 87-98.6 reads as rewritten:

"§ 87-98.6. Well contractor qualifications and examination.

(a) The Commission, with the advice and assistance of the Secretary, shall establish minimum requirements of education, experience, and knowledge for each type of certification for well contractors and shall establish procedures for receiving applications for certification, conducting examinations, and making investigations of applicants as may be necessary and appropriate so that prompt and fair consideration will be given to each applicant.

(b) The Commission, with the advice and assistance of the Secretary, shall establish minimum requirements of education, experience, and knowledge for each type of certification for well contractors for the installation, construction, maintenance, and repair of electrical wiring devices, appliances, and equipment related to the construction, operation, and repair of wells. Requirements developed pursuant to this subsection shall apply only to the initial certification of an applicant and shall not be required as part of continuing education or as a condition of certification renewal."

SECTION 3.35.(c) This section is effective when it becomes law. The requirements of subsection (b) of G.S. 87-98.6, as enacted by Section 3.35(b) of this section, apply to applicants applying for certification on or after the date this section becomes effective.

STANDARDIZE LOCAL WELL PROGRAMS

SECTION 3.36.(a) G.S. 87-97 reads as rewritten:

"§ 87-97. Permitting, inspection, and testing of private drinking water wells.

(a) Mandatory Local Well Programs. – Each county, through the local health department that serves the county, shall implement a private drinking water well permitting, inspection, and testing program. Local health departments shall administer the program and enforce the minimum well construction, permitting, inspection, repair, and testing requirements set out in this Article and rules adopted pursuant to this Article. No person shall unduly delay or refuse to permit a well that can be constructed or repaired and operated in compliance with the requirements set out in this Article and rules adopted pursuant to this Article.

(a1) Use of Standard Forms. – Local well programs shall use the standard forms created by the Department for all required submittals and shall not create their own forms unless the local program submits a petition for rule making to the Environmental Management Commission, and the Commission by rule finds that conditions or circumstances unique to the area served by the local well program constitute a threat to public health that will be mitigated by use of a local form different from the form used by the Department.

(k) Registry of Permits and Test Results. – Each local health department shall maintain a registry of all private drinking water wells for which a construction permit or repair permit is ~~issued.~~issued that is searchable by address or addresses served by the well. The registry shall specify the physical location of each private drinking water well and shall include the results of all tests of water from each well. The local health department shall retain a record of the results of all tests of water from a private drinking water well until the well is properly closed in accordance with the requirements of this Article and rules adopted pursuant to this Article.

SECTION 3.36.(b) Notwithstanding 15A NCAC 02C .0107(j)(2), neither the Department of Environment and Natural Resources nor any local well program shall require that well contractor identification plates include the well construction permit numbers. Local well programs may install a plate with the well construction permit number or any other information deemed relevant on a well at the expense of the local program.

SECTION 3.36.(c) The Environmental Management Commission shall adopt a rule to amend 15A NCAC 02C .0107(j)(2) consistent with Section 3.36(b) of this section.

SECTION 3.36.(d) Section 3.36(b) of this section expires on the date that the rule adopted pursuant to Section 3.36(c) of this section becomes effective.

SECTION 3.36.(e) If the well location marked on the map submitted with an application to a local well program is also marked with a stake or similar marker on the property, then the local well program may not require the contractor to be onsite during the on-site predrill inspection, as long as the contractor is available by telephone to answer questions.

PART IV. STUDIES

HONEYBEE WORKING GROUP

SECTION 4.1.(a) The General Assembly recognizes the importance of the State's agriculture sector and heritage and the importance of honeybee pollination to this sector. In an effort to proactively address the issue of Colony Collapse Disorder and its damaging effects on honeybee populations, the Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services shall create the Honeybee Improvement for Vital Ecology (HIVE) working group. The group shall consist of nine members appointed as follows:

(1) The Commissioner of Agriculture, or the Commissioner's designee, serving ex officio.

(3) A representative from the Department of Transportation.
(4) A representative from the Utilities Commission Public Staff.
(5) Two representatives from publicly owned utilities that operate within the State.
(6) Two representatives from the biotechnology sector whose company is actively involved in honeybee research.
(7) One researcher from North Carolina State University, who shall be an entomologist or apiculturist.

Vacancies in the HIVE group shall be filled by the Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services. A quorum of the group shall consist of five members.

The HIVE group may contract for professional, clerical, or consultant services.

SECTION 4.1.(b) Purpose. – The HIVE group shall create and issue a report containing the following:

(1) A list of bee-friendly vegetation and planting requirements for such vegetation. The list shall include a recommendation as to the appropriateness of locating each bee-friendly plant with respect to:
a. Department of Transportation public road rights-of-way,
b. Rights-of-way held by publicly owned utilities.
(2) Whether planting requirements for bee-friendly vegetation within rights-of-way for public utilities should be voluntary or required.
(3) A recommendation from the Department of Transportation as to whether priority should be given to bee-friendly vegetation for landscaping projects within Department-owned rights-of-way and rest areas. Any recommendation of priority shall also include a percentage breakdown of urban and rural areas to be targeted.
(4) A recommendation from the Utilities Commission Public Staff, publicly owned utilities, or both as to dedications of rural easements for bee-friendly vegetation, including a percentage breakdown of urban and rural areas to be targeted.
(5) A recommendation from the Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services as to whether a statewide bee-friendly vegetation planting program would be beneficial to the State's agriculture industry, including any estimated benefit. In doing so, the Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services shall address the following:
a. The willingness of farms to plant bee-friendly vegetation in rural areas;
b. The ability of the Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services to provide support for a farm planting program from existing funds; and
c. The ability of research stations or other properties to plant bee-friendly vegetation.

SECTION 4.1.(c) Staff. – The Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services shall assign professional and clerical staff to assist in the work of the HIVE group.

SECTION 4.1.(d) Report. – The HIVE group shall submit a final report to the Environmental Review Commission by November 30, 2014. The report shall contain the information required in this section and any findings, legislative proposals, cost/benefit analyses, or additional recommendations for legislative action to proactively address Colony Collapse Disorder or other honeybee-related issues that may threaten the economy, ecology, and agricultural heritage of the State.

SENATOR JEAN PRESTON MARINE SHELLFISH SANCTUARY

SECTION 4.2.(a) It is the intent of the General Assembly to establish a marine shellfish sanctuary in the Pamlico Sound to be named in honor of former Senator Jean Preston, to be called the "Senator Jean Preston Marine Shellfish Sanctuary."

SECTION 4.2.(b) The Division of Marine Fisheries of the Department of Environment and Natural Resources shall designate a contiguous area of approximately 10,000 acres within the Pamlico Sound as a recommendation to the Environmental Review Commission for establishment of the "Senator Jean Preston Marine Shellfish Sanctuary" and create a plan for managing the sanctuary that includes the following components:

(1) Location and delineation of the sanctuary. – The plan should include a location for the sanctuary that minimizes the impact on commercial trawling. In addition, the sanctuary should be gridded into areas leased to private parties for restoration and harvest and areas operated and maintained by the State for restoration that are not open for harvest. The leased and unleased areas should be arranged in a pattern where leased squares are surrounded on four sides by unleased squares.

(2) Administration. – The plan should include the prices to be charged for the leased portions of the sanctuary, including an administration fee to be retained by the Division to support the leasing and monitoring program. The plan shall also provide that the balance of lease payments collected by the Division be transferred to the General Fund with a recommendation that some or all of the proceeds be used for the support of the State's special education programs in memory of Senator Jean Preston.

(3) Funding. – The plan should include a request for appropriations sufficient to provide funds for the construction of appropriate bottom habitat and shellfish seeding and for Division staff necessary to conduct oyster restoration and monitoring activities. The plan should provide that, whenever possible, construction and shellfish seeding be carried out by contract with private entities.

(4) Commercial fisherman relief. – To promote the diversification of commercial fishing opportunities, the plan should include a program to award free or discounted leases under this section to commercial fishermen who (i) have held one or more commercial fishing licenses continually for a period of 10 or more years and (ii) receive at least fifty (50%) of their income from commercial fishing with those licenses.

(5) Recommendations. – The plan should include recommendations for statutory or regulatory changes needed to expedite the expansion of shellfish restoration and harvesting in order to improve water quality, restore ecological habitats, and expand the coastal economy.

SECTION 4.2.(c) No later than October 1, 2014, and quarterly thereafter until submission of a final plan to the Environmental Review Commission, the Department of Environment and Natural Resources shall report to the Environmental Review Commission regarding its implementation of this section and its recommended plan.

DEPARTMENT OF ENVIRONMENT AND NATURAL RESOURCES TO STUDY INTERBASIN TRANSFERS

SECTION 4.3.(a) The Department of Environment and Natural Resources shall study the statutes and rules governing interbasin transfers and make recommendations as to whether the statutes and rules should be amended. The study shall specifically examine all of the following:

(1) Whether and to what extent temporary and emergency interbasin transfers, including interbasin transfers to provide drought relief, should be subject to different regulatory requirements than long-term interbasin transfers.
(2) Whether and to what extent interbasin transfers between river sub-basins should be subject to different regulatory requirements than interbasin transfers between major river basins.
(3) Whether there are types of interbasin transfers that should be exempted from the interbasin certification or other regulatory requirements.

SECTION 4.3.(b) No later than October 1, 2014, the Department of Environment and Natural Resources shall report its findings and recommendations to the Environmental Review Commission.

PROGRAM EVALUATION DIVISION TO STUDY WATER AND SEWER SYSTEMS

SECTION 4.4.(a) The Joint Legislative Program Evaluation Oversight Committee shall include in the 2014-2015 Work Plan for the Program Evaluation Division of the General Assembly a study of the benefits that may result from the merger of public water systems and wastewater collection and treatment works. The Program Evaluation Division shall specifically include the following in the study:

(1) Consideration of whether the benefits that have resulted from the merger of certain public water systems and certain wastewater collection and treatment works can be replicated for other systems. In considering this issue, the Program Evaluation Division shall investigate the performance of the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Utility Department, the Cape Fear Public Utility Authority, and Two Rivers Utilities.
(2) Whether the State can incentivize public water systems and wastewater collection and treatment works that provide service that is affordable, reliable, and in compliance with all applicable laws to purchase, to interconnect with, or enter into joint management agreements with public water systems and wastewater collection and treatment works that do not provide service that is affordable, reliable, and in compliance with all applicable laws.
(3) Whether the State can allow public water systems and wastewater collection and treatment works that provide service that is affordable, reliable, and in compliance with all applicable laws to apply for grant funding or other assistance on the behalf of public water systems and wastewater collection and treatment works that do not provide service that is affordable, reliable, and in compliance with all applicable laws if the award of such funding is contingent on purchase, interconnection, or a joint management agreement between the systems.

SECTION 4.4.(b) The Program Evaluation Division shall submit its findings and recommendations to the Joint Legislative Program Evaluation Oversight Committee and the Environmental Review Commission at a date to be determined by the Joint Legislative Program Evaluation Oversight Committee.

PART V. SEVERABILITY CLAUSE AND EFFECTIVE DATE

SECTION 5.1. If any section or provision of this act is declared unconstitutional or invalid by the courts, it does not affect the validity of this act as a whole or any part other than the part declared to be unconstitutional or invalid.

SECTION 5.2. Except as otherwise provided, this act is effective when it becomes law.

SENATE BILL 734:
Regulatory Reform Act of 2014

2013-2014 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Finance	Date:	May 21, 2014
Introduced by:	Sens. Wade, B. Jackson, Brock	Prepared by:	Karen Cochrane-Brown, Heather Fennell, Jeff Hudson, Peter Ledford, Mariah Matheson, Jennifer McGinnis, Jennifer Mundt, Chris Saunders Committee Staff
Analysis of:	Second Edition

SUMMARY: The 2nd Edition of Senate Bill 734 would make various changes to administrative, environmental, and other State laws.

[As introduced, this bill was identical to H1136, as introduced by Rep. McGrady, which is currently in Unknown.]

BILL ANALYSIS:

PART I. ADMINISTRATIVE REFORMS

HARDISON AMENDMENT CLARIFICATION

SECTION 1.1.(a) of the PCS would delay the effective date of rules adopted by certain agencies which impose standards for the protection of the environment or natural resources that are more restrictive than standards imposed by federal law or rule until the next legislative session. Under current law, these agencies are prohibited from adopting rules that are more stringent than applicable federal law or rules, unless the rule is required by one of the following exceptions:

- A serious and unforeseen threat to the public health safety, or welfare.
- An act of the General Assembly or United States Congress that expressly requires the agency to adopt the rules.
- A change in federal or State budgetary policy.
- A federal regulation required by an act of the United States Congress to be adopted or administered by the State.
- A court order.

This provision would delay the effective date of rules required by one of these exceptions until the next legislative session at which time a legislator could introduce a bill to disapprove the rule. This section would become effective July 1, 2014, and apply to rules adopted or readopted on or after that date.

SECTION 1.1.(b) of the PCS would amend the process for the periodic review of existing rules that was enacted in the Regulatory Reform Act of 2013. This provision would amend the definition of "necessary with substantive public interest," thereby requiring that agencies readopt all existing rules that impose a more restrictive standard than is imposed by federal law or rule. This provision is made retroactive to the effective date of last year's law (August 13, 2013), so all agencies that have already completed the review would have to redo the process using the new definition.

SCOPE OF LOCAL AUTHORITY FOR ORDINANCES

SECTION 1.2.(a) of the PCS would repeal a temporary limitation on enactment of environmental ordinances by cities and counties and direct the Environmental Review Commission (ERC) to study the circumstances under which cities and counties should be authorized to enact such ordinances and report its findings and recommendations to the 2014 Regular Session of the 2013 General Assembly.

SECTIONS 1.2.(b) and (c) of the PCS would require the Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services (DACS) and the Department of Environment and Natural Resources (DENR) to report to the ERC on any local government ordinances that impinge on or interfere with any area subject to regulation by the agencies no later than November 1, 2014, and November 1, 2015.

SECTION 1.2.(d) of the PCS would prohibit cities and counties from regulating the use, sale, distribution, storage, transportation, disposal, formulation, labeling, registration, manufacture, or application of fertilizer. This section would not limit the authority of DENR to enforce water quality standards.

LOTTERY OVERSIGHT COMMITTEE ELIMINATED

SECTION 1.4.(a) of the PCS would repeal the Lottery Oversight Commission.

SECTION 1.4(b) of the PCS is a conforming change.

REPRESENTATION OF SMALL BUSINESS ENTITIES IN ADMINISTRATIVE APPEALS

SECTION 1.5.(a) of the PCS would amend the Administrative Procedure Act to allow a small business to be represented by one or more of its owners in a contested case and prohibits the Office of Administrative Hearings from requiring that the business be represented by an attorney. The provision defines a small business entity as a limited liability company or a corporation that is owned directly or indirectly by no more than two individuals.

SECTION 1.5.(b) of the PCS would amend the Tax Law to allow a small business to be represented by one or more of its owners in an appeal before the Property Tax Commission and prohibits the Commission from requiring that the business be represented by an attorney. The provision defines a small business entity as a limited liability company or a corporation that is owned directly or indirectly by no more than two individuals.

EXEMPT SMALL BUSINESS ENTITIES BUYING OR SELLING ENTITY-OWNED PROPERTY

SECTION 1.6.(a) of the PCS would amend the Real Estate License Law to exempt the owners, officers, managers, and employees of a closely held business entity from the requirement of obtaining a license in order to act as a real estate broker in connection with property owned or leased by the business. A closely held business is defined in the provision as a limited liability company or a corporation with no more than two legal owners.

REDUCE STATE AGENCY MOBILE DEVICE REPORTING FREQUENCY

SECTION 1.7. of the PCS would reduce the reporting requirement for State agencies with regard to the number, type and use of mobile devices issued by the agency. Since 2011, agencies have been required to report to the Legislature and the Office of State Budget and Management on a quarterly basis. This provision would reduce the reporting requirement to annually.

ELIMINATE, AS OBSOLETE, THE SMALL BUSINESS CONTRACTOR AUTHORITY, THE COMMITTEE ON DROPOUT PREVENTION, THE STATE EDUCATION COMMITTEE, THE STATE EDUCATION COMMISSION, THE NATIONAL HERITAGE AREA DESIGNATION COMMISSION, THE GOVERNOR'S MANAGEMENT COUNCIL, THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE NORTH CAROLINA CENTER FOR NURSING, THE BOARD OF CORRECTIONS; AND ENCOURAGE THE CHIEF JUSTICE TO ABOLISH THE ACTUAL INNOCENCE COMMISSION

SECTION 1.8.(a) of the PCS would repeal the Small Business Contractor Act, which authorized the creation of the Small Business Contractor Authority to assist small businesses. The Authority is not currently funded.

SECTION 1.8.(b) of the PCS would terminate, effective July 1, 2014, the Committee on Dropout Prevention of the Department of Public Instruction, overseeing dropout prevention grants. The Committee is not currently funded.

SECTION 1.8.(c) and (d) of the PCS would repeal the State Education Commission (created by G.S. 116C-2 in 1993), and make a conforming change. This Commission consists of the Board of Governors of The University of North Carolina, the State Community College Board, and the State Board of Education. It is a "forum for airing proposals and engaging in dialogue about issues the Education Cabinet is addressing." Section 1.5(a) is a conforming change.

SECTION 1.8.(e) of the PCS would repeal the statutes (Article 26 of Chapter 143 of the General Statutes) that created an earlier State Education Commission in 1947. This Commission was established to study the State's educational problems, and report to the Governor and the General Assembly in 1949. This Commission has not been active in recent years.

SECTION 1.8.(f) of the PCS would, effective July 1, 2014, terminate the National Heritage Area Designation Commission. This Commission was created in the 2001 Studies Act to seek from Congress the designation of the North Carolina Appalachian Heritage Area as a National Heritage Area. The Commission is no longer functioning.

SECTION 1.8.(g) of the PCS would repeal the Governor's Management Council, created in 1983 to assist the Governor with management and productivity issues. The Council has not been active in recent years.

SECTION 1.8.(h) of the PCS would repeal the North Carolina Center for Nursing Board of Directors, created in 1991 to address issues of supply and demand for nursing. The Center and the Board have not been funded for several years.

SECTION 1.8.(i) and (j) of the PCS would repeal the Board of Correction, an advisory board to the Secretary of Public Safety, and make a conforming change to the statutes. The Board has not met in over a decade.

SECTION 1.8.(k) of the PCS would encourage the Chief Justice of the North Carolina Supreme Court to take appropriate action to formally abolish the Actual Innocence Commission. The Actual Innocence Commission was established by the Chief Justice to make recommendations which would reduce or eliminate the possibility of the wrongful conviction of an innocent person. In 2006, the General Assembly established the Innocence Inquiry Commission, as recommended by the Actual Innocence Commission.

CLARIFY PROCESS FOR READOPTION OF EXISTING RULES

SECTION 1.9. of the PCS would clarify the process for readoption of existing rules in accordance with the periodic review and expiration of existing rules provision of the Administrative Procedure Act (APA). The Rules Review Commission (RRC) established the schedule for agencies to review their existing rules as directed by the Regulatory Reform Act of 2013, and the process has proceeded accordingly. The original statute did not set the process for agencies to readopt rules once the review process was complete. This provision would direct the RRC to set the date by which each agency must readopt its rules, after consulting with the agency. The agency may amend rules as part of the readoption process, but if the rule is readopted without change, the agency is not required to prepare a fiscal note.

AUTHORIZE LICENSING BOARDS TO ADOPT RULES FOR PROFESSIONAL CORPORATIONS

SECTION 1.10. of the PCS would authorize licensing boards subject to the Professional Corporations Act to adopt rules to implement the provisions of the Act. Professional corporations are corporations that provide professional services that require the obtaining of a license from a State licensing board, such as architects, doctors, or engineers. The Act sets the requirements for creating a professional corporation, including the requirement that the corporation be registered with the appropriate licensing board. Licensing boards are authorized by the Act to charge a fee for registration, not to exceed $50 and a fee for renewal not to exceed $25; however, there is no statute which specifically authorizes each licensing board to adopt rules to set the specific amount of the fee. This provision would grant the needed rulemaking authority.

OCCUPATIONAL LICENSING BOARD REPORTING AMENDMENTS

SECTION 1.11. of the PCS would amend the reporting requirements for occupational licensing boards to include the total number of licensees supervised by the board and the number of applicants who fail the examination each year. The provision would also require the Joint Legislative Administrative Procedure Oversight Committee to notify any board that fails to file the reports as required. It also adds a requirement that the reports be submitted electronically and corrects the name of the legislative oversight committee.

OAH ELECTRONIC FILING

SECTION 1.12. of the PCS would authorize the Office of Administrative Hearings to allow documents in a contested case to be filed and served electronically.

STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION RULEMAKING CLARIFICATION

SECTION 1.13. of the PCS would clarify that the State Board of Education (SBOE) is subject to rulemaking under the APA and provides a remedy when an agency fails to act as directed by statute. The provision would add language similar to that found in G.S. 150B-18 to the Education law to clarify that the SBOE is subject to the Administrative Procedure Act (APA) and that policies not adopted in accordance with the APA are unenforceable. It would also amend the APA to clarify that a person who is aggrieved by an agency's failure to act may commence a contested case and if the administrative law judge (ALJ) finds that the agency has failed to act as required by law, the ALJ may order the agency to act within a specified time. Finally, the provision would clarify that the right to judicial intervention applies when a final decision has been unreasonably delayed.

STREAMLINE RULEMAKING PROCESS

SECTION 1.14. of the PCS would streamline the rulemaking process by eliminating the requirement that an agency obtain a certification of adherence to rulemaking principles prior to submitting the proposed text of a rule for publication. The provision also amends the fiscal note section of the APA to provide that the agency must obtain certification from OSBM that the agency has adhered to certain principles in preparing a substantial economic impact fiscal note.

BURDEN OF PROOF IN CERTAIN CONTESTED CASES

SECTION 1.15. of the PCS would clarify that the petitioner has the burden of proof in most contested cases and establishes that the State agency has the burden of proof in certain contested cases, including cases involving the imposition of civil fines or penalties and cases involving the demotion, suspension or discharge of a career State employee. The Joint Legislative Administrative Procedure Oversight Committee is directed to study whether there are other categories of cases in which the burden should be placed with the agency.

This section would become effective when it becomes law and would apply to contested cases commenced on or after that date.

LEGISLATIVE APPOINTMENTS

SECTION 1.16.(a) of the PCS would amend the law governing legislative appointments to boards and commissions to provide that in cases where the Speaker and the President Pro Tempore are directed by law to make a recommendation for an appointment by the General Assembly and the recommendation must be made in consultation with a third party, (1) the consultation is not binding on the legislator, (2) the third party must submit the recommendation at least 60 days before expiration of the term or within 10 days of a vacancy, and (3) failure to submit the recommendation within the time period is deemed a waiver of the opportunity. The provision also sets the same time limits and consequence for failure to meet the time limits in cases where the Speaker and President Pro Tempore are directed to make recommendations from nominees provided by a third party.

SECTION 1.16.(b) of the PCS would add a new section to the law governing legislative appointments to boards and commissions. In cases where a legislator is authorized to make an appointment upon the recommendation or consultation with a third party, the party must submit the recommendation at least 60 days before expiration of the term or within 10 days of a vacancy. In cases where a legislator is authorized to appoint a member of a board or commission from nominees provided by a third party, the party must meet the same time limits. Failure to submit recommendations or nominees within the time limits is deemed a waiver of the opportunity.

SECTION 1.16.(d) These sections would become effective when they become law and apply to recommendations, consultations, and nominations made on or after that date.

PART II. PERMITTING REFORMS

CAPSTONE PERMITTING

SECTION 2.1. of the PCS would amend the Administrative Procedure Act to create a new process for contested cases in which multiple licenses are required from an agency for a single activity. The Secretary or chief administrative officer of the agency is authorized to issue a written determination that the agency decision is only reviewable on the date the last license for the activity is issued, denied, or otherwise disposed of. The written determination is not subject to a contested case.

CONTESTED CASES FOR AIR QUALITY PERMITS

SECTION 2.2. of the PCS would amend the process for filing a contested case regarding an air quality permit decision of the Environmental Management Commission (EMC) by:

- Providing that the filing for a contested case by a permit applicant or permittee would stay the EMC's decision while the filing for a contested case by a person who is not the permit applicant or permittee would not automatically stay the EMC's decision.
- Limiting the ability of a person who is not the permit applicant or permittee to file a contested case to circumstances where the EMC's decision would result in an exceedance of a national air quality standard.
- Limiting these contested case provisions to permit application decisions rather than other types of permit decisions, such as permit modification, suspension, or revocation.

CLOSURE OF CERTAIN ANIMAL WASTE CONTAINMENT BASINS

SECTION 2.3. of the PCS would direct the Department of Environment and Natural Resources (DENR) to treat a waste containment basin as closed and no longer part of an animal waste management system if the owner of the basin demonstrates to the satisfaction of DENR that the basin has been used only for dairy cattle waste; it was constructed prior to 1967; it has not been used to contain dairy cattle waste since September 1, 2006; the only liquid currently in the basin is from rainwater or rainwater runoff; and the nitrogen levels in the basin do not exceed 40 parts per million.

CONTESTED CASES FOR CAMA PERMITS

SECTION 2.4. of the PCS would amend the process for filing a contested case regarding a Coastal Area Management Act (CAMA) development permit decision by the Coastal Resources Commission (CRC) by providing that the filing for a contested case by a permit applicant would suspend the permit and prevent any action that would be unlawful in the absence of a permit while the filing for a contested case by a person who is not the permit applicant would not automatically suspend the permit.

GUBERNATORIAL ENVIRONMENTAL PERMIT WAIVER AUTHORITY

SECTION 2.5. of the PCS would authorize the Governor, during a state of emergency, to issue an executive order to waive the requirements for an environmental document or permit issued under Article 1 (Environmental Policy Act), Article 4 (Sedimentation Pollution Control Act), or Article 7 (Coastal Area Management Act) of Chapter 113A of the General Statutes for the repair, protection, safety enhancement, or replacement of a component of the State highway system that provides the sole road access to an incorporated municipality or an unincorporated inhabited area bordering the Atlantic Ocean or any coastal sound where bridge or road conditions as a result of the events leading to the declaration of the state of emergency pose a substantial risk to public health, safety, or welfare. The executive order must include the duration of the waiver and the activities to which the waiver applies.

FEE ROLLBACK FOR OYSTER PERMITS UNDER PRIVATE DOCKS

SECTION 2.6. of the PCS would repeal the fee for an Under Dock Oyster Culture Permit. An Under Dock Oyster Culture Permit authorizes the holder of the permit to attach up to 90 square feet of oyster cultivation containers to a dock or pier owned by the permit holder. Under current law, the annual fee for an Under Dock Oyster Culture Permit is $100.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT LEASES FOR RENEWABLE ENERGY FACILITIES

SECTION 2.7. Under current law, cities are authorized by G.S. 160A-272 to lease property owned by the city for up to 10 years. Certain cities are authorized by G.S. 160A-272(c) to lease property owned by the city for the siting and operation of a renewable energy facility for up to 20 years. This section of the PCS would amend the statute to allow a lease term of up to 25 years and remove the language that restricts the provision to certain cities.

CLOSING-OUT SALES

SECTION 2.8. Article 17 of Chapter 66 of the General Statutes, Closing-Out Sales, regulates the sales that occur when a business liquidates inventory during a going out of business sale. Under current law, the business must obtain a license from the clerk of the city or, if the business is in an unincorporated area, from an officer designated by the Board of County Commissioners. This section of the PCS would amend G.S. 66-77 so that the license would be obtained from an officer designated by the governing board of the city.

PART III. REGULATORY AND STATUTORY MODIFICATIONS

REGULATION OF IMPACT TO ISOLATED WETLANDS

SECTION 3.1. of the PCS would make the following changes to the regulation of activities that impact isolated wetlands:

- Increase the amount of isolated wetlands that could be impacted without requiring a permit from 1/3 of an acre to 1 acre east of Interstate 95 and from 0.1 acre to 1 acre west of Interstate 95.
- Decrease the amount of mitigation that would be required for impacts to isolated wetlands.
- Direct the Department of Environment and Natural Resources (DENR) to study regulatory thresholds for mountain bog isolated wetlands and to report its findings and recommendations to the Environmental Review Commission (ERC) on or before November 1, 2014.

COMMUNITY COLLEGE BREWING COURSE WAIVER

SECTION 3.2. of the PCS would authorize the Alcoholic Beverage Control Commission to grant a brewing, distillation, and fermenting course authorization to a college or community college that offers the program as part of its curriculum offerings. This authorization provides that the college or community college may possess and sell malt beverages manufactured and produced during the course to wholesalers or retailers upon obtaining appropriate permits. The sale of products raised or produced incident to the operation of a community college or college brewing, distillation, or fermentation program would be exempt from the Umstead Act, a law that generally prohibits the sale of merchandise or services by governmental units in competition with citizens of the State.

CARBON MONOXIDE ALARMS

SECTION 3.3. of the PCS would amend the requirements for carbon monoxide alarms that apply to lodging establishments, including hotels and motels. The provision includes technical revisions to comply with industry terminology and also directs the Building Code Council to amend the building code to require carbon monoxide alarms in both new and existing lodging establishments. The amendments require that for all violations that pose an imminent hazard discovered during a fire inspection the inspector immediately notify the local health director who must investigate and take appropriate action regarding the permit for the lodging establishment. The amendments would further require that for all violations that do not pose an imminent hazard, the owner of the lodging establishment has three working days to correct the violation, after which the inspector may re-inspect the lodging establishment and, if the violation has not been corrected, submit the violation to the local health director who must investigate and may take appropriate action regarding the permit for the lodging establishment.

WATER SUPPLY WATERSHED CLASSIFICATIONS

SECTION 3.4. of the PCS would provide that if the Environmental Management Commission (EMC) receives a rule-making petition from a unit of local government with jurisdiction over an area to be served by a proposed water intake that is impacted by a reclassification made by the EMC after January 1, 2012, and the unit of local government requests the repeal of the reclassification, the EMC must grant the rule-making petition. The reclassification and any related local ordinance changes will be stayed until the EMC has promulgated rules that are retroactively effective to the date of the original reclassification. The unit of local government that filed the petition for rule-making must repeal local ordinance changes required to implement the reclassification upon filing the petition.

This section is effective when it becomes law and applies to petitions for rule-making received by the EMC on or after January 1, 2012, and before the effective date of this section. This section will expire when the EMC issues rules in response to the petition for rule-making.

ADA REQUIREMENTS FOR PRIVATE POOLS

SECTION 3.5. Section 1109.14 of the NC State Building Code (Building Code) requires all recreational and sports facilities, including swimming pools, be provided with handicap accessible features. This section of the PCS would require the Building Code Council to amend the building code such that swimming pools are required to be accessible only to the extent required by the Americans with Disabilities Act.

ENVIRONMENTAL SELF AUDIT PRIVILEGE AND LIMITED IMMUNITY

SECTION 3.6. of the PCS would establish a disclosure privilege for environmental audit reports that would generally prevent the use of the reports as evidence in civil or administrative proceedings. The provision would also prohibit persons who conducted or participated in an audit or who significantly reviewed an audit report from being compelled to testify regarding the audit report or a privileged part of the audit, except in certain circumstances. In addition, the provision would generally establish immunity for owners and operators of facilities from imposition of civil and administrative penalties and fines by enforcement agencies for a violation of environmental laws discovered through the conduct of an environmental audit and voluntarily disclosed to an enforcement agency in conformance with requirements established by the provision. The provision specifically provides, however, that waiver of penalties and fines shall not be granted until the applicable enforcement agency has certified that the violation was corrected within a reasonable period of time (i.e., the enforcement agency retains discretion to assess penalties and fines for the violation until it is corrected).

CLARIFY DEFINITION OF "CHILD CARE"

SECTION 3.7. of the PCS would exempt a child care program operated by a nonpublic school before or after normal school hours from licensure and regulation by the Division of Child Development and Early Education under rules promulgated by the Child Care Commission.

AMBIENT AIR MONITORING

SECTION 3.9. of the PCS would direct the Department of Environment and Natural Resources (DENR) to review its ambient air monitoring network and request from the United States Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) the authority to remove any monitor not required by federal law. This section would also direct DENR, no later than September 1, 2014, to discontinue all ambient air monitors not required by federal law and for which EPA approval for discontinuance is not required.

This section would not preclude DENR from installing temporary ambient air monitors as part of an investigation of a suspected air quality violation or in response to an emergency causing an imminent danger to human health and safety.

GOOD SAMARITAN LAW

SECTION 3.10. of the PCS would clarify that a person who provides emergency services voluntarily, not expecting at that time to be paid for those services, is protected from liability under the Good Samaritan Law.

OPEN BURNING

SECTION 3.11. of the PCS would amend rules in the North Carolina Administrative Code (NCAC) that pertain to open burning without an air quality permit to provide that, in addition to the open burning of leaves, tree branches, and yard trimmings, a permit is not required for the burning of logs and stumps when certain conditions are met. This section would also amend the statutes to prohibit local air pollution control program authorities, the Department of Environment and Natural Resources and the Environmental Management Commission from regulating combustion heaters, appliances, or fireplaces in private dwellings, except as authorized by federal law.

INLET HAZARD AREAS

SECTION 3.12. of the PCS would direct the Coastal Resources Commission (Commission) to adopt rules disallowing the establishment of any inlet hazard area in any location where (i) the location formerly contained an inlet, but the inlet has been closed for at least 15 years, (ii) the location no longer contains the inlet due to shoreline migration, or (iii) the location includes an inlet providing access to a State Port via a channel maintained by the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers. An inlet hazard area is an area vulnerable to erosion and flooding due to its proximity to ocean inlets. This section would not prevent the Commission from studying current or potential inlet hazard areas, or designating new inlet hazard areas.

HUNTING TRIALS

SECTION 3.13. of the PCS would authorize the Wildlife Resources Commission to issue a Field Trial Dog Handler or Judge Permit, which would allow a person to participate as a dog handler or judge in a field trial without possessing a hunting license. The person could not participate in hunting activities with the dog. Field trials using exclusively domestically-raised waterfowl and game birds or legally taken dead game are not considered "hunting activities."

This section would become effective July 1, 2014.

ADJUST UTILITY REGULATORY FEE

SECTION 3.15. All public utilities operating in the State pay a regulatory fee set by the General Assembly that is a percentage of their jurisdictional revenues. The regulatory fee is used to pay the expenses incurred by the Utilities Commission and the Public Staff in regulating public utilities. Reforms enacted by the General Assembly in 2009 and 2011 allow a local exchange company (telecommunications company) whose territory is open to competition from other local providers to elect to participate in alternative forms of regulation which require less oversight from the Utilities Commission.

This section of the PCS would lower the regulatory fee beginning July 1, 2015, for those companies electing to participate in alternative forms of regulation, and lower the fee further beginning July 1, 2016. This section also directs that the regulatory fee for all other public utilities be adjusted to compensate for the overall decrease in revenues such that the total regulatory fee collected for each fiscal year is sufficient to cover the operations of the Utilities Commission and the Public Staff.

AMEND JORDAN LAKE RULE FOR EXISTING RIPARIAN BUFFERS

SECTION 3.16. of the PCS would amend a 2013 legislative change to 15A NCAC 02B .0267 (Jordan Water Supply Nutrient Strategy: Protection of Existing Riparian Buffers), by providing that the piping of a stream allowed under a permit issued by the United States Army Corps of Engineers would be an exempt use rather than an allowable use. Under the Jordan Water Supply Nutrient Strategy: Protection of Existing Riparian Buffers Rule, an exempt use does not require local government authorization while an allowable use does.

ELIMINATE OUTDATED AIR QUALITY REPORTING REQUIREMENTS

SECTION 3.17.(a) of the PCS would delete the requirement for the Department of Environment and Natural Resources (DENR) to annually report to the Environmental Review Commission (ERC) and the Fiscal Research Division on the cost of the Title V Program. The federal Clean Air Act requires the Title V program to be funded entirely by fees collected from permitted facilities. The annual report discusses the costs and other aspects of North Carolina's Title V permit program. The U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) provides oversight of this federally mandated permitting program.

SECTION 3.17.(b) of the PCS would repeal:

- The requirement that the State use resources, means, negotiation, participation in interstate compacts, petitions, and litigation to induce other states and entities, including the Tennessee Valley Authority, to achieve reductions in emissions of oxides of nitrogen (NOx) and sulfur dioxide (SO_2) comparable to those required by the Clean Smokestacks Act.
- The requirement for the Environmental Management Commission (EMC) to report on the desirability of requiring and the feasibility of obtaining reductions in NOx and SO_2 beyond those required by the Clean Smokestacks Act to the ERC and the General Assembly. The reporting requirement was amended from annual to biennial in 2011.
- The requirement for the Division of Air Quality (DAQ) of DENR to annually report its interim findings and recommendations on issues related to monitoring emissions of mercury from coal-fired generating units to the EMC and the ERC.
- The requirement that the DAQ study issues related to the development and implementation of standards and plans to control emissions of carbon dioxide (CO2) from coal-fired generating units and other stationary sources of air pollution, evaluate control technologies, estimate the cost and benefits of alternative strategies to reduce emissions of CO2 and report its findings and recommendations to the EMC and ERC.

SECTION 3.17.(c) of the PCS would repeal the requirement for air pollution permit holders to submit to DENR a written description of their current and projected plans to reduce the emission of air contaminants under such permits by source reduction or recycling. The written description is required to accompany the payment of the annual permit fee, any application for a new permit, or for modification of an existing permit. The written description is not considered part of a permit application and does not serve as the basis for the denial of a permit or permit modification.

CLARIFYING CHANGES TO STATUTES PERTAINING TO THE MANAGEMENT OF VENOMOUS SNAKES AND OTHER REPTILES

SECTION 3.18. of the PCS would clarify that when a venomous reptile is seized, and antivenin approved by the U.S. Food and Drug Administration for that reptile is not readily available, the North Carolina Museum of Natural Sciences or the North Carolina Zoological Park or their designated representative must euthanize the reptile unless the species is protected under the federal Endangered Species Act of 1973.

TRANSFER RULEMAKING AUTHORITY FOR WASTEWATER SYSTEMS FROM COMMISSION FOR PUBLIC HEALTH TO ENVIRONMENTAL MANAGEMENT COMMISSION AND MAKE OTHER CHANGES TO ACHIEVE ONSITE WASTEWATER REGULATORY REFORM

SECTION 3.19. of the PCS would:

- Transfer the rulemaking responsibility for onsite wastewater management systems from the Commission for Public Health to the Environmental Management Commission.
- Define "ground absorption system" (a system of tanks, treatment units, nitrification fields, and appurtenances for wastewater collection, treatment, and subsurface disposal) as a wastewater system and provide that systems located on multiple adjoining lots or tracts under common ownership or control must be considered a single system for permitting purposes.
- Remove the five-year limit on improvement permits.

REPEAL WASTE MANAGEMENT BOARD RULES

SECTION 3.20. of the PCS would provide that the General Assembly finds that the Governor's Waste Board (Board) was repealed in 1993 and that the Board's rules are no longer enforceable or necessary. This section would also direct the Secretary of Environment and Natural Resouces to repeal the Board's rules on or before December 1, 2014, and prohibit any political subdivision of the State from implementing or enforcing the rules.

The Board was authorized to preempt local ordinances that would have the effect of prohibiting the siting or operation of a low-level radioactive waste facility. The 1993 legislation that repealed the Board transferred most of the Board's duties and responsibilities to the Secretary of Environment and Natural Resources.

EXPAND DAILY FLOW DESIGN EXEMPTION FOR LOW-FLOW FIXTURES

SECTION 3.21. of the PCS would amend a provision enacted in 2013 to provide for reduced flow alternatives to the Daily Flow Rate for Design for wastewater systems as required by 15A NCAC 18A .1949 (Sewage Flow Rates for Design Units) such that, in addition to exempting establishments, dwellings would be exempt from the Daily Flow Rate for Design and any design flow standard under certain conditions. This section would also direct the Commission for Public Health and the Department of Health and Human Services to establish flow rate limits by rule based on scientific evidence specific to soil types found in the State.

REPEAL OBSOLETE STATUTES

SECTION 3.22. of the PCS would repeal obsolete provisions in the criminal law related to using profane or indecent language on public highways and refusing to relinquish a party telephone line in an emergency.

INCREASE CERTAIN PENALTIES FOR TAKING OF PROTECTED PLANTS

SECTION 3.23.(a) of the PCS would increase certain penalties for the taking of protected plants. Under current law, any person convicted of pulling or taking protected plants without having a permit is subject to a Class 3 misdemeanor only punished by a fine of not less than $10 and not more than $50 for each offense. The PCS would increase the fine to not less than $75 and no more than $175 for each offense. This fine has not been increased since 1941. The section of the PCS would also require the Clerk of Court for the jurisdiction to report the conviction to the Plant Conservation Board (Board), provided that the plant taken is also listed under the Protected Plants list pursuant to the Plant Protection and Conservation Act (Act).

SECTION 3.23.(b) of the PCS would require the Board to assess a civil penalty of up to $2,000 to any person guilty of violating the Act a second or subsequent time. Current law allows the Board to use discretion when assessing this civil penalty.

INCREASE PENALTIES FOR PARKING IN HANDICAPPED SPACE WITHOUT REQUIRED PLACARD

SECTION 3.24. of the PCS would amend the Motor Vehicle Law to increase the penalty range for violating the handicapped parking privileges provision from a minimum of $100.00 to a maximum of $250.00 under current law, to a minimum of $300.00 and a maximum of $500.00. The provision also removes the requirement that signs designating handicapped parking spaces must state the maximum penalty for parking in violation of the law. The provision prohibits signs displaying incorrect maximum penalties.

This section would become effective December 1, 2014 and would apply to violations committed on or after that date.

REPEAL OUTDATED PUBLIC UTILITIES STATUTES OR REPORTS

SECTION 3.25.(a) through 3.25.(e) of the PCS would repeal redundant and obsolete reports as requested by the North Carolina Utilities Commission.

REPEAL ENERGY AUDIT REQUIREMENTS

SECTION 3.26. of the PCS would repeal the requirement for the State Energy Office to conduct energy audits of each State agency and institution of higher learning as a part of the Department of Administration's Facilities Condition and Assessment Program. This section would also change, from annual to biennial, the required updates to the management plans developed by State agencies and institutions of higher learning to manage energy, water, and utility use.

COASTAL STORMWATER GRANDFATHER

SECTION 3.27. of the PCS would exempt from the requirements of 15A NCAC 02H .1005 (Stormwater Requirements: Coastal Counties) development activity on certain properties that are contiguous to properties already exempt from the requirements of the rule. 15A NCAC 02H .1005 (Stormwater Requirements: Coastal Counties) manages stormwater in the coastal counties by regulating development in those counties, including regulation of the amount of impervious surface allowed for any particular development.

PESTICIDE USE FOR MOLES

SECTION 3.28. of the PCS would authorize the use of any pesticide registered by the Pesticide Board to control any species of mole other than the Star-Nosed mole if Pesticide Board rules are followed and hazards to nontarget species are minimized.

CLARIFY PERIODIC INSPECTIONS AUTHORITY OF HOUSING FINANCE AGENCY

SECTION 3.29. of the PCS would exempt any residential building subject to periodic inspections by the North Carolina Housing Finance Agency from a county or city's authority to conduct periodic inspections as part of a targeted effort within a geographic area, if the residential building is in compliance with federal standards and provided the owner of the residential building supplies the compliance results letters from the North Carolina Housing Financing Agency to the local inspections department.

SECURITY GRILLES

SECTION 3.30. Section 1008.1.4.5 of the NC State Building Code (Fire Code) requires that no more than one-half of the doors of certain buildings be equipped with security grilles when two or more means of egress are required. This section of the PCS would require the Building Code Council to amend the code such that security grilles are permitted at all exits if the grilles may be opened from the inside during periods when the building is occupied by authorized persons and remain open when the building is occupied by the general public.

REWRITE LANDSCAPE CONTRACTOR LICENSING STATUTES

SECTION 3.31. of the PCS, effective August 1, 2015, would rewrite the laws to require that any person engaged in the business of landscape contracting must obtain a license. This section would: more clearly define the term "landscape contractor"; establish requirements for landscape contractor licensure including application requirements, qualifications, and examination and continuing education; provide for exemptions for licensure; establish the North Carolina Landscape Contractors' Licensing Board; establish standards for issuing licenses to corporations, partnerships, and persons doing business under a trade name; establish fees; and articulate causes for disciplinary action, civil penalties, and injunctions.

CLARIFY RIGHTS OF MARINE ARTIFACT DONORS

SECTION 3.32. of the PCS would allow a person who discovers a shipwreck or salvages marine artifacts from State waters and who donates the artifacts or a contractual interest in the artifacts to the State to retain the right to access the artifacts and display them on tour or conduct nondestructive research on them. The person would retain this right if he or she (i) pays 40% of the net proceeds from display of the artifacts to the General Fund, (ii) leaves at least 1/3 of the artifacts in State custody, (iii) provides to the State to-scale replicas of unique artifacts at no cost while the artifacts are on display elsewhere, (iv) returns the artifacts to the State at least every two years for a period of at least one year, and (v) promotes the cultural and natural heritage of the State in any display of the artifacts. The right would be valid for 30 years after discovery of the artifacts, and the State would return replicas to the person who donated the artifacts, or the person's heir or designee, at the end of the 30 year period.

TRANSFER SOLID WASTE RULEMAKING AUTHORITY FROM COMMISSION FOR PUBLIC HEALTH TO ENVIRONMENTAL MANAGEMENT COMMISSION

SECTION 3.33. of the PCS would transfer all rule-making authority for matters related to solid and hazardous waste management (Article 9 of Chapter 130A of the General Statutes), from the Commission for Public Health to the Environmental Management Commission, and makes conforming changes throughout the statutes.

TRANSFER DRINKING WATER RULEMAKING AUTHORITY FROM COMMISSION FOR PUBLIC HEALTH TO ENVIRONMENTAL MANAGEMENT COMMISSION

SECTION 3.34. of the PCS would transfer all rule-making authority for matters under the North Carolina Drinking Water Act (Article 10 of Chapter 130A of the General Statutes) from the Commission for Public Health to the Environmental Management Commission, including drinking water rules to regulate public water systems.

WELL CONTRACTOR LICENSING CHANGES

SECTION 3.35. Under current law, no person may engage in electrical contracting without having received a license from the State Board of Examiners of Electrical Contractors. This section of the PCS would exempt from the requirements of the electrical contractor statutes, including the licensure requirements, the installation, construction, maintenance, or repair of electrical wiring, devices, appliances, or equipment by a person certified as a well contractor when running electrical wires from the well pump to the pressure switch. This section would also direct the Well Contractors Certification Commission to establish minimum education, experience, and knowledge requirements for each type of certification for well contractors for the installation, construction, maintenance, and repair of electrical wiring devices, appliances, and equipment related to the construction, operation, and repair of wells. These requirements would apply only to the initial certification and would not be required as part of continuing education or as a condition of certification renewal.

STANDARDIZE LOCAL WELL PROGRAMS

SECTION 3.36.(a) of the PCS would provide that private drinking water well permitting, inspection, and testing programs administered by county health departments must use the standard forms created by the Department of Environment and Natural Resources (Department) unless the local program submits a petition for rule-making to the Environmental Management Commission (EMC), and the EMC finds by rule that the area has unique conditions constituting a threat to public health that would be mitigated by the use of a different form. The PCS would also provide that local health department registries of private drinking water wells must be searchable by the address or addresses served by the well.

SECTIONS 3.36.(b) through (d) of the PCS would provide that neither the Department nor any local well program may require that well contractor identification plates include well construction permit numbers, and directs the EMC to adopt conforming rules. A local well program may install a plate with the well construction permit number or any other relevant information on a well at its own expense.

SECTION 3.36.(e) would provide that if the well location marked on the map submitted with an application to a local well program is also marked with a stake or similar marker on the property, the local well program may not require the contractor to be onsite during the onsite pre-drill inspection provided that the contractor is available to answer questions by telephone.

PART IV. STUDIES

HONEYBEE WORKING GROUP

SECTION 4.1. of the PCS would direct the Department of Agriculture and Consumer Service to create the Honeybee Improvement for Vital Ecology (HIVE) Working Group. The Working Group would include representatives from various government agencies and organizations directed to proactively address the issue of Colony Collapse Disorder. The Working Group would report its findings and recommendations to the Environmental Review Commission by November 30, 2014.

SENATOR JEAN PRESTON MARINE SHELLFISH SANCTUARY

SECTION 4.2. of the PCS would direct the Division of Marine Fisheries (DMF) of the Department of Environment and Natural Resources (DENR) to designate an area of approximately 10,000 acres within the Pamlico Sound as a recommendation to the Environmental Review Commission (ERC) for the establishment of the "Senator Jean Preston Marine Shellfish Sanctuary" and to create a plan for managing the sanctuary. The plan would include components for the location and delineation of the sanctuary, the administration of the sanctuary, the funding of the sanctuary, free or discounted leasing in the sanctuary for commercial fishermen, and recommendations related to the sanctuary. No later than October 1, 2014 and quarterly thereafter, DENR would report to the ERC on the implementation of the plan.

DEPARTMENT OF ENVIRONMENT AND NATURAL RESOURCES TO STUDY INTERBASIN TRANSFERS

SECTION 4.3. of the PCS would direct the Department of Environment and Natural Resources (DENR) to study the statutes and rules governing interbasin transfers and make recommendations as to whether the statutes and rules should be amended. Specifically, DENR is directed to examine whether temporary and emergency interbasin transfers should be subject to different regulatory requirements than long-term interbasin transfers, whether interbasin transfers between river subbasins should be subject to different regulatory requirements than interbasin transfers between major river basins, and whether there are types of interbasin transfers that should be exempted from the interbasin certification or other regulatory requirements. DENR must report its findings and recommendations to the Environmental Review Commission no later than October 1, 2014.

PROGRAM EVALUATION DIVISION TO STUDY WATER AND SEWER SYSTEMS

SECTION 4.4. of the PCS would direct the Joint Legislative Program Evaluation Oversight Committee to direct the Program Evaluation Division (PED) to study the benefits that may result from the merger of public water systems and wastewater collection and treatment works. Specifically, PED is directed to consider whether the benefits that have resulted from the merger of certain systems can be replicated for other systems, whether the State can incentivize systems to purchase, interconnect with, or enter into joint management agreements with systems that do not provide sufficient service, and whether the State can allow systems and works to apply for grant funding or other assistance on the behalf of systems that do not provide sufficient service if the award of such funding is contingent on purchase, interconnection, or a joint management agreement between the systems.

PART V. SEVERABILITY CLAUSE AND EFFECTIVE DATE

SECTION 5.1. If any section or provision of this act is declared unconstitutional or invalid by the courts, it does not affect the validity of this act as a whole or any part other than the part declared to be unconstitutional or invalid.

EFFECTIVE DATE: Except as otherwise provided, this act is effective when it becomes law.

BILL SUMMARY:

Section 1.19: Clarify Process for Readoption of Existing Rule

This section clarifies the process for readoption of existing rules in accordance with the periodic review and expiration of existing rules provision of the Administrative Procedure Act (APA) by directing the Rules Review Commission to set the date by which each agency must readopt its rules, and clarifying that the agency is not required to prepare a fiscal note if the rule is readopted without change.

Fiscal Impact Unknown: The Department of Environment and Natural Resources anticipates savings in staff time dedicated to the review and development of fiscal notes due to the proposed clarification of the fiscal note requirement; however, the amount of this savings is unknown. Savings are dependent on the number of rules adopted without change.

Section 3.15: Adjust Utility Regulatory Fee

Section 3.15 of the bill adds new definitions for the types of jurisdictional utility revenues that are subject to the public utility regulatory fee. "Non-competitive" jurisdictional revenues will continue to be assessed the public utility regulatory fee established by the General Assembly. "Competitive" jurisdictional revenues will be assessed a lower regulatory fee that is established in statute. Competitive jurisdictional revenues are separated into two categories:

1. Subsection (h) competitive jurisdictional revenues – revenues derived from retail services provided by local exchange companies and competing local providers that elected to operate under G.S. 62-133.5(h).
2. Subsection (m) competitive jurisdictional revenues – revenues derived from retail services provided by local exchange companies and competing local providers that elected to operate under G.S. 62-133.5(m).

Section 3.15 also directs the Utilities Commission to adjust established utility rates to allow for the recovery of any future increases in regulatory fees. As an alternative, the Commission may approve a utility's request to defer any future fee increases.

Fee reductions for competitive jurisdictional revenues would begin on July 1, 2015 and would further decrease on July 1, 2016. Subsection (h) revenues would decrease from 0.13% to 0.06% in 2015, and 0.04% in 2016. Subsection (m) revenues would decrease from 0.13% to 0.05% in 2015, and 0.02% in 2016.

Section 3.25: Repeal Outdated Public Utilities Statutes or Reports

Section 3.25 repeals a variety of public utilities reporting requirements placed on the Utilities Commission. While workload requirements may be reduced due to fewer reports, no fiscal impact is anticipated.

Section 3.31: Rewrite Landscape Contractor Licensing Statutes

Section 3.31 repeals G.S. 89D-1 through G.S. 89D-10. It sets forth definitions for landscape contractors and the licensing of landscape contractors. The bill defines when a license is required and any exemptions. Section 3.31 also defines the makeup, powers, and duties of the North Carolina Landscape Contractors' Licensing Board. It provides rules for the application, qualifications, examination, and issuance of a landscape contractor's license. Section 3.31 sets forth compliance rules for the Board to issue a license to corporations, partnerships, persons doing business under trade name, and non-residents. It provides a list of expenses and fees the Board may impose. And it details the Board's ability to undertake disciplinary actions, civil penalties, and injunctions to prevent violations.

Section 3.9: Ambient Air Monitoring

This section directs the Department of Environment and Natural Resources (DENR) to review its ambient air monitoring network and request from the United States Environmental Protection Agency

(EPA) the authority to remove any monitor not required by federal law. This section also directs DENR, no later than September 1, 2014, to discontinue all ambient air monitors not required by federal law and for which EPA approval for discontinuance is not required.

> Fiscal Impact: The Department of Environment and Natural Resources' Division of Air Quality (DAQ) estimates savings ranging from $60,000 for the removal of five air quality monitors to approximately $216,000 for the removal of up to 18 monitors. Operating costs for each monitor are approximately $12,000 per year. DAQ reports that the there are five monitors that can be shut down without EPA approval, and an additional 13 monitors that could be potentially shut down if approved by EPA. There are additional potential savings in the number of staff needed to service and maintain the monitors depending on the number approved by EPA, which is unknown at this time. Because DAQ is entirely receipt-supported, these savings accrue to the special funds that support this Division, and not the General Fund.

Section 4.1: Honeybee Working Group

Section 4.1 directs the Department of Agriculture to create and conduct a working group regarding honeybee improvement. Staff anticipates that the Department will be able to assume the workload within existing resources. No fiscal impact is anticipated.

Section 4.2: Senator Jean Preston Marine Shellfish Sanctuary

Section 4.2 directs DENR's Division of Marine Fisheries to designate an area within Pamlico Sound as a recommendation to the Environmental Management Commission for the establishment of the "Senator Jean Preston Marine Shellfish Sanctuary" and to create a plan for managing the Sanctuary. Staff anticipates that the Division will be able to assume the workload within existing resources. No fiscal impact is anticipated.

ASSUMPTIONS AND METHODOLOGY:

Section 3.15

There are currently five types of regulation on telecommunication providers in the State:

1) Price-Plan Regulation
2) Rate-of-Return Regulation
3) G.S. 62-133.5(h)
4) G.S. 62-133.5(m)
5) Certification

There are two types of regulated entities that would be eligible to be regulated under G.S. 62-133.5(h) or G.S. 62-133.5(m):

1) Incumbent Local Exchange Companies (ILECs)
2) Competing Local Providers (CLPs)

Telecommunication providers can elect to be regulated under any of the regulation types listed above, with the exception that only CLPs are eligible for the certification process.

Information supplied by the Utilities Commission for the 2012 Calendar Year details the entity participation by regulation type as displayed in Table 1:

Table 1: Number of Providers by Regulation Type

Regulation Type	Number of ILECs	Number of CLPs
Price-Plan	4	0
Rate-of-Return	1	0
G.S. 62-133.5(h)	10	5
G.S. 62-133.5(m)	1	8
Certification	0	161

The same information provided by the Commission included jurisdictional revenues and regulatory fees paid to the Commission from all regulated entities. In addition, 10 of the 16 ILECs provided a breakdown between "competitive" or retail revenues and "non-competitive" or wholesale revenues. The same breakdown was not available for any CLPs.

In CY 2012, jurisdictional revenues received by all ILECs and CLPs totaled $1,595,297,288. Of this amount, $1,083,469,223 was derived from the 10 of 16 ILECs providing a breakdown of wholesale and retail revenues. The retail revenues reported by these 10 ILECs totaled $894,596,745, or 83% of their total jurisdictional revenues.

For this analysis, the percentage of revenues derived from retail operations as reported by 10 of the 16 ILECs (83%) will be applied to the total jurisdictional revenues within the State to calculate total retail jurisdictional revenues. When the experience from the 10 reporting ILECs is applied to total jurisdictional revenue for all ILECs and CLPs, the result is total retail jurisdictional revenue of $1,324,096,749.

All ILECs and CLPs listed above can elect to be regulated under G.S. 62-133.5(h) or G.S. 62-133.5(m). The likelihood of a provider electing to be regulated under G.S. 62-133.5(h) or G.S. 62-133.5(m) will vary among each provider. Since providers opting to be regulated under G.S. 62-133.5(h) or G.S. 62-133.5(m) will pay a lower regulatory fee on retail revenues, an incentive exists for eligible providers to elect to be regulated under these statutes. If more providers choose to be regulated under these statutes, the fiscal impact on the Utilities Commission will increase.

Best Estimate

A variety of factors can influence a provider's election of regulatory coverage. Some examples would include ease of rate increases, positioning for funding from a possible universal service fund, inertia, cost of regulation, etc. Accurately forecasting which providers elect certain types of regulation in a lower-fee environment is improbable. As a result, staff has assumed that if the bill were to become law, all eligible providers will elect to be regulated under G.S. 62-133.5(h) or G.S. 62-133.5(m) and jurisdictional revenues would be split equally between the regulatory types. Estimated fee reduction impacts are presented in Table 2:

Table 2: Estimated Reduced Revenue Due to Reduced Regulatory Fee

	G.S. 62-133.5(h)	G.S. 62-133.5(m)
Total Juris. Revenue	$797,648,644	$797,648,644
Estimated Retail Revenue	$662,048,375	$662,048,375
FY 2015-16 Fee Reduction	($463,434)	($529,639)
FY 2016-17 Fee Reduction	($595,844)	($728,253)

The total estimated fiscal impact on the Utilities Commission and Public Staff is presented in Table 3:

Table 3: Projected Competitive Revenue Fee Reduction Impact on NCUC/ Public Staff

Fee Reduction Impact on NC Utilities Commission/ Public Staff Revenue
	FY 2014-15 ($)	FY 2015-16 ($)	Δ Fee Revenue ($)	FY 2016-17 ($)	Δ Fee Revenue ($)
Best Estimate	$14,662,857	$13,669,784	($993,073)	$13,338,760	($1,324,097)

For FY 2015-16, the Utilities Commission and the Public Staff would receive reduced regulatory fee revenue of $993,073. For FY 2016-17 and subsequent years, the Utilities Commission and Public Staff would receive reduced regulatory revenue of approximately $1.3 million annually.

Section 3.15(f) expresses the intent of the General Assembly to increase the regulatory fee on noncompetitive jurisdictional revenues to replace funding lost from reduced regulatory fees on competitive revenues. However, the bill does not increase the regulatory fee.

Section 3.31

The table below illustrates the current and proposed maximum fees for the North Carolina Landscape Contractors' Licensing Board:

	Current	Proposed
Application Fee	75.00	100.00
Examination Fee	75.00	250.00
Individual license fee and individual license renewal	75.00	100.00
Initial corporate, limited liability company, partnership, or trade name license	NA	100.00
Corporate, limited liability company, partnership, or trade-name license renewal	NA	100.00
Late renewal fee	25.00	50.00
Reinstatement fee	25.00	250.00
License by reciprocity	75.00	250.00
Duplicate license	5.00	25.00

The North Carolina Green Industry Council estimates there are currently 1,200 licensed landscape contractors. They estimate that by rewriting the landscape contractor licensing statutes, the number of licenses could reach 5,000 by the end of 2015. Of those 5,000, approximately 2,500 would not have to take the examination, due to grandfathering language in Section 3.31(e). We've estimated that the North Carolina Landscape Contractors' Licensing Board would collect approximately $500,000 more in revenue in FY14-15. This assumes the distribution of 3,750 licenses by June 2015. In FY15-16, when all of the new fees are in place, revenue would increase by approximately $700,000. This amount includes all 5,000 estimated licenses. Subsequent years would see about $400,000 in new revenue.

Senate Committee on Finance
Tuesday, May 27, 2014 at 7:00 PM
Room 544 of the Legislative Office Building

MINUTES

The Senate Committee on Finance met at 7:00 PM on May 27, 2014 in Room 544 of the Legislative Office Building. Thirty members were present.

Senator Bob Rucho, Chair, presided. He recognized Secretary of Revenue, Lyon Gray.

HB 1050 Omnibus Tax Law Changes.

Senator Rabon was recognized and moved to adopt the proposed committee substitute (PCS) for discussion. The motion carried. Ms. Cindy Avrette, committee counsel, was recognized to explain the PCS. Part I would replace the corporate net economic loss deduction with a State net loss deduction for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2015. Part II makes technical and clarifying changes to various income tax laws. Part III gives guidance to the farming community and the Department of Revenue as to the administration of the income threshold a person must meet to qualify for a sales tax agricultural exemption certificate. It also allows a three-year income averaging to address issues of income volatility in farming operations. Part IV addresses sales tax issues related to the repeal of the sales tax exemption for meals served to students in dining rooms of regularly operated educational institutions. Part V addresses sales tax issues associated with the expansion of the sales tax base to include gross receipts derived from admissions to a live event, a movie, and other attractions for which an admission is charged. Part IV addresses sales tax issues associated with the expansion of the sales tax base to include the sales price of a service contract. Trina Griffin, committee counsel, was requested to explain Part VII. It addresses the applicability of the sales tax laws to retailer-contractors, such as the major home improvement stores, when they are engaged in a performance contract rather than a retail sale. Specifically, a retailer-contractor would be considered the consumer of the items or materials they furnish and install or apply to real property to the extent the item becomes part of the real property. As the consumer of those items, the retailer-contractor would be responsible for payment of the tax rather than the customer. Part VIII makes various sales tax changes. Part IX makes various changes to the excise tax statutes, as requested by the Excise Tax Division of the Department of Revenue. Greg Roney, committee counsel, was recognized to explain Part X. It would require filing all State tax returns and paying all State taxes to receive and hold an ABC permit. It would also authorize the Department of Revenue to use $500,000 (currently, $150,000) from the collection assistance fee account to contract for taxpayer locater services. Ms. Griffin explained Parts XI and XII. Part XI provides for the central assessment of mobile telecommunications property. Part XII would maintain the local privilege tax authority for one more year with two modifications: a city may not increase the tax on any business during that year, and it may not tax a business physically located outside the city's limit. Beginning July 1, 2015, both the city and county authority to levy a privilege license tax would be repealed. This would include their authority to levy a privilege tax on low-level radioactive and hazardous waste facilities. Heather Fennell, committee counsel, was recognized to explain Part XIII. It sets the license plate agent (LPA) transaction rate for the collection of property tax under the Tax & Tag Together program at the transitional rate of $1.06. It also clarifies the increased rate applies to all transactions where an LPA collects property tax as of July 1, 2014, and allows the retroactive portion of the fee increase to be paid out over a three month time period. Part XIV makes clarifying, conforming, and administrative changes to the various tax laws. Part XV would provide an excise tax of 5¢ per milliliter to be imposed on vapor products, would prohibit the use of vapor products in State correctional facilities, and would make it a criminal offense for a person to provide a vapor product to an inmate of a local confinement facility and for an inmate to possess a vapor product. Senator Rabon was recognized to offer a technical amendment and moved for it adoption. Senator Curtis seconded the motion and it carried. Senator Tillman moved to report the PCS favorably as amended and the motion carried. A copy of the PCS, the summary, the fiscal memo and the amendment is attached.

The meeting adjourned at 8:20 p.m.

In the case of a corporation that has income from business activity within and without this State, the loss must be allocated and apportioned to this State in the year of the loss in accordance with G.S. 105-130.4.

(b) Deduction. – A taxpayer may carry forward a State net loss the taxpayer incurred in a prior taxable year and deduct it in the current taxable year, subject to the limitations in this subsection:

(e) Net Economic Loss Carryforward. – For taxable years beginning before January 1, 2015, a taxpayer is allowed a net economic loss as calculated under G.S. 105-130.8. The term does not include any charge for food, prepared food, and alcoholic beverages subject to tax under this Article.

(3) Entertainment activity. – An activity listed in this subdivision:

A facilitator that does not send the retailer the tax due on the gross receipts derived from an admission charge is liable for the amount of tax the facilitator fails to send to the retailer. A facilitator is not liable for tax sent to a retailer but not remitted by the retailer to the Secretary. The requirements imposed by this subsection on a retailer and a facilitator are considered terms of the contract between the retailer and the facilitator.

(d) Dual Remittance. – The tax due on the gross receipts derived from an admission charge may be partially reported and remitted to the operator of the venue for remittance to the Department and partially reported and remitted by the facilitator directly to the Department. If charges for amenities are separately stated on a billing document given to the purchaser at the time of the sale, then the tax does not apply to the separately stated charges for amenities. If charges for amenities are not separately stated on the billing document given to the purchaser at the time of the sale, then the transaction is a bundled transaction and taxed in accordance with G.S. 105-164.4D except that G.S. 105-164.4D(a)(3) does not apply.

(4) An event that is sponsored by an elementary or secondary school. For purposes of this exemption, the term "school" is an entity regulated under Chapter 115C of the General Statutes.

The tax is due and payable in accordance with G.S. 105-164.16.

The retailer of a service contract is the applicable person listed below:

(3) When a service contract is sold at retail to a purchaser by a facilitator on behalf of the obligor under the contract and there is an agreement between the facilitator and the obligor that states the obligor will be liable for the payment of the tax, the obligor is the retailer. The facilitator must send the retailer the tax due on the sales price of or gross receipts derived from the service contract no later than 10 days after the end of each calendar month. A facilitator that does not send the retailer the tax due on the sales price or gross receipts is liable for the amount of tax the facilitator fails to send. A facilitator is not liable for tax sent to a retailer but not remitted by the retailer to the Secretary. Tax payments received by a retailer from a facilitator are held in trust by the retailer for remittance to the Secretary. A retailer that receives a tax payment from a facilitator must remit the amount received to the Secretary. A retailer is not liable for tax due but not received from a facilitator. The requirements imposed by this subdivision on a retailer and a facilitator are considered terms of the agreement between the retailer and the facilitator.

(b) Exemptions. – The tax imposed by this section does not apply to the sales price of or the gross receipts derived from a service contract applicable to any of the following items:

(c) Exceptions. – The tax does not apply to the sales price of or the gross receipts derived from a service contract for tangible personal property sold at retail that is or will become a part of real property unless the service contract is sold by the obligor or by a third party or facilitator on behalf of the obligor at the same time as the item of tangible personal property covered in the service contract. The tax imposed by this section does not apply to a security or similar monitoring contract for real property or to a renewal of a service contract where the tangible personal property becomes a part of or affixed to real property prior to the effective date of the renewal.

(d) Basis of Reporting. – A retailer who sells or derives gross receipts from a service contract must report those sales on an accrual basis of accounting, notwithstanding that the retailer reports tax on the cash basis for other sales at retail. The tax on the sales price of or the gross receipts derived from a service contract is due at the time of the retail sale, notwithstanding any portion that may be financed. If the sales price of or the gross receipts derived from the service contract is financed in whole or in part, the financed amount of the sales price of or the gross receipts derived from the service contract included in each payment is exempt from sales tax if the amount is separately stated in the contract and on the billing statement or other documentation provided to the purchaser at the time of the sale.

A service is cancelled when the service is terminated and the purchaser receives a refund, in whole or in part, of the sales price paid, including a refund of the pro rata amount of the sales tax paid based on the taxable amount of the sales price refunded. A retailer entitled to a refund under this section may reduce taxable receipts by the taxable amount of the refund for the period in which the refund occurs or may request a refund of an overpayment as provided in G.S. 105-241.7, provided the tax has been refunded to the purchaser. The records of the retailer must clearly reflect and support the claim for refund for an overpayment of tax or adjustment to taxable receipts for the period in which the refund occurs.

(b) Service Contract. – When a service contract is cancelled and a purchaser receives a refund, in whole or in part, of the sales price paid for the service contract, the purchaser may receive a refund of the pro rata amount of the sales tax paid based on the taxable amount of the sales price refunded as provided in this subsection:

(1) Refund from retailer. – If the purchaser receives a refund on any portion of the sales price for a service contract purchased from the retailer required to remit the tax on the retail sale of the service contract, then the provisions of subsection (a) of this section apply.

(2) Refund application. – If the purchaser receives a refund on any portion of the sales price for a service contract from a person other than the retailer required to remit the tax on the retail sale of the service contract, then the amount refunded to the purchaser by the person does not have to include the sales tax on the taxable amount of the refund. If the amount refunded to the purchaser by the person does not include the sales tax paid, then the purchaser may apply to the Department for a refund of the pro rata amount of the tax paid based on the taxable amount of the service contract refunded to the purchaser. The application for a refund by a purchaser must be made on a form prescribed by the Secretary, supported by documentation on the taxable amount of the service contract refunded to the purchaser from the person who refunded that amount, and filed within 30 days after the purchaser receives a refund. An application for a refund filed by the purchaser after the due date is barred. Taxes for which a refund is allowed directly to the purchaser for sales tax paid on a service contract are not an overpayment of tax and do not accrue interest as provided in G.S. 105-241.21."

SECTION 6.1.(e) G.S. 105-164.13(61) reads as rewritten:

"(61) A service contract for tangible personal property ~~that is provided for any of the following:~~may be exempt as provided in G.S. 105-164.4I.

"§ 105-164.13. Retail sales and use tax.

(62) An item used to maintain or repair tangible personal property or a motor vehicle pursuant to a service contract if the purchaser of the contract is not charged for the item. This exemption does not apply to an item used to maintain or repair tangible personal property pursuant to a service contract exempt from tax under G.S. 105-164.4I(b). For purposes of this exemption, the term "item" does not include a tool, equipment, supply, or similar tangible personal property used to complete the maintenance or repair and that is not deemed to be a component or repair part of the tangible personal property or motor vehicle for which a service contract is sold to a purchaser."

SECTION 6.1.(g) G.S. 105-187.3 reads as rewritten:

"(a) ~~Amount.~~Tax Base. – The ~~rate of the use~~ tax imposed by this Article is applied to the sum of the ~~three percent (3%) of the sum of the following:~~

~~(1)~~ ~~The~~ retail value of a motor vehicle for which a certificate of title is ~~issued.~~issued and any fee regulated by G.S. 20-101.1. The tax is payable as provided in G.S. 105-187.4."

SECTION 6.1.(h) G.S. 105-187.5(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) Election. – A retailer may elect not to pay the tax imposed by this Article at the rate set in G.S. 105-187.3 when applying for a certificate of title for a motor vehicle purchased by the retailer for lease or rental. A retailer who makes this election shall pay a tax on the gross receipts of the lease or rental of the vehicle. The portion of a lease or rental billing or payment that represents any amount applicable to the sales price of or sales tax on a service contract sold at retail that is subject to the tax imposed by Article 5 of this Chapter and sourced to this State should not be included in the gross receipts subject to the tax imposed by this Article. The amount of the lease or rental billing or payment applicable to the sales price of or sales tax on a service contract sold at retail subject to the tax imposed by Article 5 of this Chapter and sourced to the State should be separately stated on documentation given to the purchaser at the time the lease or rental agreement goes into effect, or on the monthly billing statement or other documentation given to the purchaser. Like the tax imposed by G.S. 105-187.3, this alternate tax is a tax on the privilege of using the highways of this State. The tax is imposed on a retailer, but is to be added to the lease or rental price of a motor vehicle and thereby be paid by the person who leases or rents the vehicle."

SECTION 6.1.(i) G.S. 105-467(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Exemptions and Refunds. – The State exemptions and exclusions contained in G.S. 105-164.13 apply to the local sales and use tax authorized to be levied and imposed under this Article. A refund of an excessive or erroneous State sales tax collection allowed under G.S. 105-164.11 and a refund of State sales tax paid on a rescinded sale or cancelled service contract under G.S. 105-164.11A apply to the local sales and use tax authorized to be levied and imposed under this Article. The aggregate annual local refund amount allowed an entity under G.S. 105-164.14(b) for a fiscal year may not exceed thirteen million three hundred thousand dollars ($13,300,000).

"(13) The general rate of tax applies to the sales price of tangible personal property sold to a real property contractor for use by the real property contractor in erecting structures, building on, or otherwise improving, altering, or repairing real property. These sales are taxed in accordance with G.S. 105-164.4H."

SECTION 7.1.(c) Article 5 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 105-164.4H. Real property contractors.

(a) Applicability. – A real property contractor is the consumer of the tangible personal property that the real property contractor installs or applies for others and that becomes part of real property. A retailer engaged in business in the State shall collect tax on the sales price of the tangible personal property sold at retail to a real property contractor unless a statutory exemption in G.S. 105-164.13 or G.S. 105-164.13E applies. Where a real property contractor purchases tangible personal property for storage, use, or consumption in this State and the tax due is not paid at the time of purchase, the provisions of G.S. 105-164.6 apply except as provided in subsection (b) of this section.

(b) Retailer-Contractor. – This section applies to a retailer-contractor when the retailer-contractor acts as a real property contractor. A retailer-contractor that purchases tangible personal property to be installed or affixed to real property may purchase items exempt from tax under a certificate of exemption pursuant to G.S. 105-164.28 provided the retailer-contractor also purchases inventory items from the seller for resale. When the tangible personal property is withdrawn from inventory and installed or affixed to real property, use tax must be accrued and paid on the retailer-contractor's purchase price of the tangible personal property. Tangible personal property that the retailer-contractor withdraws from inventory for use that does not become part of real property is also subject to the tax imposed by this Article.

If a retailer-contractor subcontracts any part of the real property contract, tax is payable by the subcontractor on the subcontractor's purchase of the tangible personal property that is installed or affixed to real property in fulfilling the contract. The retailer-contractor, the subcontractor, and the owner of the real property are jointly and severally liable for the tax. The liability of a retailer-contractor, a subcontractor, or an owner who did not purchase the property is satisfied by receipt of an affidavit from the purchaser certifying that the tax has been paid.

(c) Erroneous Collection if Separately Stated. – An invoice or other documentation issued to a consumer at the time of the sale by a real property contractor shall not separately state any amount for tax. Any amount for tax separately stated on an invoice or other documentation given to a consumer by a real property contractor is an erroneous collection and must be remitted to the Secretary, and the provisions of G.S. 105-164.11(a)(2) do not apply."

SECTION 7.2.(a) This act shall not be construed to affect the interpretation of any statute that is the subject of a State tax audit pending as of the effective date of this act or litigation that is a direct result of such audit.

SECTION 7.2.(b) A seller who collected and remitted sales or use tax in accordance with an interpretation of the law by the Secretary in the form of a rule, bulletin, or directive published before the effective date of this act is not liable to a purchaser for any overcollected sales or use tax that was collected in accordance with the rule, bulletin, or directive.

SECTION 7.3. This Part becomes effective January 1, 2015, and applies to sales on or after that date and contracts entered into on or after that date.

HOUSE BILL 1050:
Part I - Deduction for State Net Loss

This Bill Analysis reflects the contents of the bill as it was presented in committee.

2013-2014 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Finance	Date:	May 23, 2014
Introduced by:	Reps. Howard, W. Brawley, Lewis, Setzer	Prepared by:	Cindy Avrette
Analysis of:	PCS to Third Edition H1050-CSRBx-49		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: Part I of the Omnibus Tax Law Changes bill would replace the corporate net economic loss deduction with a State net loss deduction for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2015.

CURRENT LAW: Both federal and State tax law provide relief to a corporation that incurs more expenses than revenues during the taxable period. For federal tax purposes, a corporation is allowed a net operating loss deduction equal to the amount by which tax deductible expenses are more than taxable revenues. The federal deduction may be carried back two years preceding the loss year, thus providing immediate tax relief in the form of a tax credit; any unused portion of the deduction may be carried forward for 20 years. For State tax purposes, a corporation is allowed a net economic loss deduction[1] equal to the amount by which allowable deductions for the year other than prior year losses exceed income from all sources in the year, including nontaxable income.[2] The State deduction may be carried forward 15 years; any loss carryforward must first be offset by nontaxable income, including allowable deductions.

BILL ANALYSIS: This Part does three things to simplify the calculation and ease the administration of the corporate loss deduction, effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2015:

- It replaces the net economic loss calculation with a State net loss calculation that is more comparable to the federal net operating loss calculation.
- It removes the requirement that a net economic loss carried forward to taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2015, be first offset by nontaxable income.
- It instructs the Secretary of Revenue to apply the standards under sections 381 and 382 of the Code when determining to what extent a loss survives a merger or an acquisition.

The Part would replace the State's net economic loss deduction with a State net loss deduction. The State net loss would be the amount by which allowable deductions for the year, other than prior year losses, exceed gross income under the Code for the year adjusted as provided in G.S. 105-130.5. Adjustments under G.S. 105-130.5 include items such as the adjustments taxpayers must make when the State

[1] NC is the only state with a net economic loss deduction that differs significantly from the federal net operating loss deduction. Other states that have a corporate income tax loss deduction use a calculation that is comparable to the federal net operating loss deduction.

[2] Nontaxable income includes income that has been deducted in computing State net income, nonapportionable income that has been allocated directly to another state under G.S. 105-130.4, and any other income that is not taxable under State law. Prior to August 17, 2013, the Department of Revenue interpreted G.S. 105-130.8 to require items deductible under G.S. 105-130.5, such as U.S. government interest and dividends, to be considered in the computation of the loss in the year of creation as nontaxable income. The Department revised its interpretation to recognize that an allowable deduction, although not taxable, may not reduce a loss in the year the loss is created. However, pursuant to G.S. 105-130.8(a)(3), the Department continued to require that a loss carried forward to a subsequent year must first be offset by any income not taxable, including allowable deductions under G.S. 105-130.5.

decouples from federal accelerated depreciation and expensing. If the taxpayer is a multi-state corporation with business within and without North Carolina, then the loss must be allocated and apportioned in the year of the loss in accordance with G.S. 105-130.4.

The repeal of the net economic loss deduction removes the applicability of North Carolina case law that governs the extent to which a net economic loss survives in a merger or an acquisition. The draft instructs the Secretary of Revenue to apply the federal regulations adopted under sections 381 and 382 of the Code in determining the extent to which a loss survives in a merger or acquisition. Although the provisions of the Code would be applied, the loss limitations may differ at the State level based upon the single entity reporting requirement in North Carolina and subject to the allocation and apportionment provisions of G.S. 105-130.4 in the year of the loss.

The Part changes the calculation of a net economic loss carry-forward. Under current law, the carry-forward must be reduced by nontaxable income. What constitutes nontaxable income has been a source of questions, disagreements, and litigation. Under the change made by this Part, the amount of the net economic loss, as determined on December 31, 2014, becomes a static amount. Any unused portion of a net economic loss carried forward in taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2015, would be administered in accordance with the State net loss statute:

- Any unused portion of a net economic loss would not have to first be offset by nontaxable income.
- The standards under sections 381 and 382 of the Code would be applied in determining the extent to which a net economic loss survives a merger or acquisition that occurs on or after January 1, 2015.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This Part becomes effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2015.

HOUSE BILL 1050:
Part II - Other Income Tax Changes

2013-2014 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Finance	Date:	May 23, 2014
Introduced by:	Reps. Howard, W. Brawley, Lewis, Setzer	Prepared by:	Cindy Avrette
Analysis of:	PCS to Third Edition H1050-CSRBx-49		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: Part II makes technical and clarifying changes to various income tax laws.

CURRENT LAW, BILL ANALYSIS, AND EFFECTIVE DATE: This Part makes the following technical and clarifying changes to the income tax laws.

Section 179 expense deduction

Section 2.1 makes two changes to the section 179 expense deduction for State income tax purposes to reflect the intent of legislative action taken in 2013. These changes need to be enacted as soon as possible since the changes impact 2013 tax returns. Many taxpayers have filed extensions, waiting for these provisions to be enacted.

First, it corrects the dollar amount of the section 179 expense investment limit. In the American Taxpayer Relief Act of 2013, Congress extended the $500,000/$2,000,000 accelerated section 179 expense deduction allowances for 2013 and 2014. The intent of S.L. 2013-10 was to decouple from this federal provision and return to the limits that would have been applicable under the Code as written in December 2010. The act erroneously referred to the Code as defined in May 2010. The Code was amended three times in 2010, and the changes included three different section 179 expense limits. S.L. 2013-414 rewrote the statutes that decouple from the federal accelerated depreciation expensing to make them clearer to understand. As part of the rewrite, the subsection decoupling from the section 179 expense limits sets forth the limits as opposed to referring to the Code on a certain date. In setting forth the limits, the dollar amount of the investment limit should have been $200,000 rather than $125,000.

Second, it makes changes to ensure that qualifying taxpayers may receive the benefit of the add-back deductions. Beginning in 2002, Congress has allowed taxpayers to depreciate certain assets more quickly than would otherwise be allowed – 100% bonus depreciation and section 179 expense deductions. Many states, including North Carolina, have decoupled from those provisions primarily because the fiscal impact of conforming to the greater depreciation rules would have been too costly. Instead of granting the larger depreciation in the initial years, North Carolina required taxpayers to add-back 85% of the deduction in the first year and to deduct 20% of this amount over the next five years. Taxpayers who changed their form of business entity or who merged with subsidiaries within the five-year period of deductions were not allowed to take the remaining deductions because the taxable entity that made the add-back and received the initial deductions either no longer existed or no longer owned the depreciable asset. The result in some cases was that the asset did not receive the full benefit of the deduction. S.L. 2013-414 changed the law to allow the transferee of an asset, where the tax basis of the transferred asset carried over from the transferor to the transferee for federal income tax purposes, to add any remaining deductions to the basis of the transferred asset and to depreciate the adjusted basis over the remaining life of the asset. For transactions that occurred prior to January 1, 2013, the law provided an election whereby the transferee could make the basis adjustment for any deductions foregone by the transferor. However, this allowance does not help a taxpayer who had disposed of the asset or whose asset had no remaining useful life. This section remedies this situation by allowing a taxpayer to deduct the remaining bonus depreciation on the 2013 tax return.

Personal income tax deductions

Section 2.2 does the following two things.

First, it clarifies that a person who is not eligible for a federal standard deduction is not eligible for a State standard deduction. North Carolina follows the federal law concerning an individual's eligibility for a standard deduction. The tax reform legislation inadvertently failed to follow this practice. Under federal law, the following individuals are not eligible for a standard deduction:

- A married individual filing a separate return where either spouse itemizes deductions.
- A nonresident alien individual. A resident alien is a person who meets either the "green card test" or the "substantial presence test".
- An individual making a return for a period of less than 12 months on account of a change in the person's annual accounting period.
- An estate or trust, common trust fund, or partnership.

Second, it clarifies the application of the $20,000 deduction for mortgage interest expenses paid and property taxes paid on real estate. S.L. 2013-316 limited the federally allowed itemized deductions for mortgage interest expenses paid and property taxes paid on real estate at $20,000. The intent of the legislation was for the $20,000 cap to apply to the cumulative deduction for a married couple, regardless of how the couple files a return. At the request of the Department of Revenue, this section clarifies this intent.

This section is effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2014.

Income tax rate applicable to estates

Section 2.3 updates the statutory references in G.S. 105 160.2 which imposes income tax on estates and trusts. Estates and trusts generally receive the same modifications to taxable income and tax rates as single individuals. House Bill 998, S.L. 2013 316, moved the statutes allowing modifications to North Carolina taxable income and setting the tax rate.

This section is effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2014.

HOUSE BILL 1050:
Part III - Agricultural Exemption Certificate

2013-2014 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Finance	Date:	May 23, 2014
Introduced by:	Reps. Howard, W. Brawley, Lewis, Setzer	Prepared by:	Cindy Avrette
Analysis of:	PCS to Third Edition H1050-CSRBx-49		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: Part III of the Omnibus Tax Law Changes bill gives guidance to the farming community and the Department of Revenue as to the administration of the income threshold a person must meet to qualify for a sales tax agricultural exemption certificate. It also allows a three-year income averaging to address issues of income volatility in farming operations.

CURRENT LAW: In S.L. 2013-316, the General Assembly imposed an income threshold a person must meet to qualify for a sales tax agricultural exemption certificate. Effective July 1, 2014, a person does not qualify for an agricultural exemption certificate unless the person has an annual gross income for the preceding taxable year[1] of at least $10,000 from farming operations. For federal income tax purposes, gross income from farming includes sales of agricultural products, cooperative distributions, agricultural program payments, and crop insurance and federal disaster payments. It appears five other states impose an income requirement to qualify for a sales tax agricultural exemption: Connecticut, Georgia, Rhode Island, Tennessee, and Washington. The income limit in these states varies from $1,000 n Tennessee to $10,000 in Washington. Four of those states have conditional exemption certificates for ıew farmers.

An agricultural exemption certificate allows a person to purchase the following items for farming operations without paying sales tax on those items: fuel; electricity; commercial fertilizer, lime, land plaster, plastic mulch, plant bed covers, potting soil, baler twine, and seeds; farm machinery; attachments and repair parts for farm machinery; containers used in farm production, packaging, and transporting; grain, feed, or soybean storage facilities; substances for use on animals and plants, such as vaccines, insecticides, defoliants, and plant growth regulators; baby chicks; facilities used for housing, raising, or feeding animals; and bulk tobacco barns and parts and accessories for those barns.

A person who qualifies for an exemption certificate must apply to the Department. A certificate is valid until it is cancelled or revoked. An exemption certificate authorizes the retailer to sell an item to the holder and either collect tax at a preferential rate or not collect tax on the sale, as appropriate. A retailer does not need to obtain a certificate for each purchase if the retailer has a blanket certificate from a purchaser with which the retailer has a recurring business relationship. A person who purchases an item with a certificate is liable for any tax due on the sale if the Department determines the person is not eligible for the certificate. The statute does not place an affirmative duty on the holder of a certificate to notify the Department if the person no longer qualifies for it.

BILL ANALYSIS: Part III of the bill answers questions the farming community has posed concerning the implementation of the gross income requirements:

[1] The statute currently says "calendar year". The Department has requested that the term be changed to "taxable year". The bill draft makes this change.

- Administration. – The bill clearly states that a person may not use an agricultural exemption certificate after July 1, 2014, unless the person meets the income requirements and that a person who no longer qualifies for the certificate is liable for any tax due. A qualifying farmer must apply to the Department for a new exemption certificate. A retailer may continue to rely upon a blanket certificate until October 1, 2014.
- Application for Certificate. – Neither the law enacted last year nor this bill changes the current administration of exemption certificates. However, the bill does impose an affirmative duty on a person who has an exemption certificate to notify the Department whenever the person no longer qualifies for it and to give notice to any seller that may rely on it. The affirmative duty applies to all holders of a certificate, not just farmers. This affirmative duty is similar to the one imposed on taxpayers who no longer qualify for preferential property tax treatment. The farming community is familiar with this requirement as part of the present use value property tax exemption program.
- Liability for Tax Due. – The bill affirmatively states that anyone who purchases an item under an exemption certificate is liable for the tax due on the purchase if the Department determines that the person is not eligible for the certificate or that the item purchased does not qualify for exemption under the certificate.
- Income Volatility. – The bill makes a substantive change to the income threshold at the request of the farming community to address volatility in farming income and to prevent a person from moving into and out of the exemption annually. To obtain a certificate, a person must have $10,000 of gross income from farming operations during the preceding taxable year or an average of $10,000 of gross income from farming operations for the three preceding taxable years. A farmer no longer qualifies for the exemption certificate when the farmer fails to meet the income threshold for three consecutive years. The Farm Bureau expressed concerns for certain types of farming operations that may not produce income on an annual basis, such as cattle breeders and timber operations.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The bill would become effective July 1, 2014, and apply to purchases made on or after that date.

BACKGROUND: There are currently 49,437 agricultural exemption certificates outstanding. Last year the Department issued 2,185 new certificates and it issued 2,253 certificates in 2012. Here are some statistics from the 2012 USDA Census of Agriculture:

HOUSE BILL 1050:
Part IV - Prepaid Meal Plans

2013-2014 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Finance	Date:	May 23, 2014
Introduced by:	Reps. Howard, W. Brawley, Lewis, Setzer	Prepared by:	Cindy Avrette
Analysis of:	PCS to Third Edition H1050-CSRBx-49		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: Part IV of the Omnibus Tax Law Changes bill addresses sales tax issues related to the repeal of the sales tax exemption for meals served to students in dining rooms of regularly operated educational institutions.

CURRENT LAW: S.L. 2013-316 repealed the exemption for meals served to students in dining rooms of regularly operated by educational institutions, effective January 1, 2014. In practice, meals are not always sold directly. Today, educational institutions sell a variety of meal plans that offer choices between a specific number of "meal swipes" and "food dollars". The meal swipes are part of a prepaid meal plan that entitles the student to a predetermined number of meals. The cost applies regardless of whether or not the student consumes the meals. The food dollars are part of a declining card balance, much like a debit card, that may be used in on-campus facilities for a variety of purchases as well as with participating privately-owned facilities. The meal swipes are problematic to tax on a transactional basis because the gross receipts paid for the meal swipes applies regardless of whether or not the meals are consumed. In practice, few institutions operate their dining halls; instead, they contract with third party vendors to prepare the meals and operate the dining halls.

BILL ANALYSIS: Part IV of the bill addresses questions and administrative issues taxpayers and the Department of Revenue have encountered with the taxation of food and prepared food sold to students in colleges and universities.

Subsection	Explanation
(a)	Defines a prepaid meal plan to be a plan offered by an institution of higher education that entitled a person to food or prepared food, that is billed or paid for in advance, and that provides for predetermined units or unlimited access to food or prepared food but does not include a dollar value that declines with use. The definition limits the applicability to those transactions that benefited from the sales tax exemption repealed in S.L. 2013-316. It does not apply to the part of a meal plan that is based on a declining card balance, such as the food dollars, because those transactions are taxed at the time they are made. By applying the tax to the gross receipts derived from the plan, it is clear that that the tax is based upon the amount paid for the plan and not upon the use of the plan.
(b)	Imposes a sales tax at the general rate upon the sales price of or gross receipts derived from a prepaid paid meal plan. The local sales tax also applies to an item taxed by the State at the general sales tax rate.
(c)	Sources the local sales tax revenue to the county where the school is located.
(d)	Addresses how to tax a transaction where one amount is paid for a taxable item (prepaid meal plan; meals) and a nontaxable item (declining card balance; tuition; room). In that instance, tax applies to the allocated price of the prepaid meal plan. The tax applies to items purchased with a dollar value that declines with use as the dollar value is used. Tuition and room are not subject to sales tax.

(e)	This subsection does two different things: Clarifies that the remaining sales tax exemption for meals sold in elementary and secondary schools applies to any school regulated under Chapter 115C. Public K-12 schools, private K-12 schools, regional schools, and home schools are regulated under Chapter 115C. Residential schools are regulated elsewhere.[1] The bill removes the words "not for profit" because meals provided to K-12 students take many forms. This change ensures that the tax treatment for meals sold in elementary and secondary schools remains unchanged until the General Assembly makes a policy choice to tax them differently. Exempts food and prepared food used to prepare a meal for consumption under a prepaid meal plan from sales tax because this transaction is analogous to a sale for resale.
(f)	Provides schools with an option for reporting and remitting sale tax revenue derived from a prepaid meal plan to the State. The option allows the institution to contract with the food service contractor to be liable for the collection and remittance of the tax. At least one university has a contract with its food service contractor to remit the tax to the State on behalf of the university. The university remains the retailer under the sales tax laws because it is the person making, offering, and soliciting the sale of the prepaid meal plan. The tax will apply to the gross receipts the university derives from the prepaid meal plan; this amount includes the amount charged the university by the food service contractor and any other expenses included by the university in the price it charges for the prepaid meal plan. Under this option, the retailer (institution) would send the tax receipts collected to the food service contractor and the food service contractor would send the receipts, along with other tax receipts, to the Department of Revenue.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act is effective when it becomes law and applies to gross receipts derived on or after that date. Colleges and universities will begin billing for the fall semester in July, and payments will be received primarily during the months of July and August.

HOUSE BILL 1050:
Part V - Admissions

2013-2014 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Finance	Date:	May 23, 2014
Introduced by:	Reps. Howard, W. Brawley, Lewis, Setzer	Prepared by:	Cindy Avrette
Analysis of:	PCS to Third Edition H1050-CSRBx-49		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: Part V of the Omnibus Tax Changes bill draft addresses sales tax issues associated with the expansion of the sales tax base to include gross receipts derived from admissions to a live event, a movie, and other attractions for which an admission is charged.

CURRENT LAW: S.L. 2013-316 changed the taxation of live events and movies from a 3% gross receipts privilege tax to a State and local sales tax. The two taxes differ in that the gross receipts tax was imposed upon the person engaged in providing the event; it was not designed to be passed directly onto the consumer. The sales tax is imposed upon the retailer, but it is intended to be passed onto the purchaser and borne by the purchaser instead of the retailer.[1] The payment of the tax is considered a debt from the purchaser to the retailer until it is paid. A retailer is considered to act as a trustee on behalf of the State when it collects tax from the purchaser. The tax should be stated and charged separately unless the retailer displays a statement indicating the sales price includes the tax.

The gross receipts tax was payable monthly and the return covered the gross receipts received during the previous month.[2] The sales tax is due quarterly, monthly, or bi-monthly depending upon the tax liability of the retailer.[3] The administration of the sales tax is more defined to ensure uniform tax treatment. North Carolina is also a member state in the Streamlined Sales Tax Agreement. One of the purposes of this Agreement is to ensure uniformity among the participating states so the tax may be more efficiently administered by retailers who conduct business in more than one state.

BILL ANALYSIS: This Part makes the following changes to the laws applicable to sales tax on the gross receipts derived from an admission charge:

Subsection	Explanation
(a)	Clarifies that for purposes of the imposition of sales tax, the term "gross receipts" has the same meaning as the term "sales price". "Sales price" is defined to be the total amount or consideration for which tangible personal property, digital property, or services are sold, leased, or rented. This subsection also removes the details concerning how amusements are taxed and moves those provisions to a new statute in subsection (c) of this section. The imposition of the tax itself remains in G.S. 105-164.4.
(b)	Sources the local sales tax revenue derived from admission charges to the location where admission to the entertainment activity may be gained. When the location where admission may be gained is not known at the time of the transaction, the general sourcing principles of G.S. 105-164.4B(a) apply: the business location where the product is received; the location where the product is received; the location indicated by the address of the purchaser.

[1] G.S. 105-164.7.

[2] By practice, some taxpayers remitted the gross receipts tax at the time the event occurred.

[3] G.S. 105-164.16.

(c)	Creates a new statute to address the taxation of admission charges: • It defines an "admission charge" as the gross receipts derived for the right to attend an entertainment activity. An entertainment activity is defined as a live performance, a movie, a museum or similar attraction and a guided tour of that attraction. The bill does not expand the definition the types of entertainment subject to the tax. The policy decision of what types of entertainment to include in the sales tax base was made in S.L. 2013-316. It defines an "amenity" as a feature that increase the value of an entertainment activity by giving the person access to items that are not subject to sales tax and that are not available with purchase of admission to the event without the feature. Lastly, it defines a facilitator. The law enacted last session did not define "admission charge" or "amenity". A definition of "facilitator" is needed to accomplish the administration of the tax as provided in this subsection. • It provides that a retailer is the operator of the venue where the entertainment activity occurs. In practice, admission to an entertainment event may often be obtained at multiple places from multiple people. To accommodate this business practice, the bill does the following: o Provides that a person who provides the entertainment and received admission charges directly from purchaser is a retailer. This provision would allow a person, such as the symphony, that leases space to perform to be a retailer. In this example, the venue would also be a retailer if the venue also sells admission to the symphony event. o Provides the operator of the venue and a facilitator may have a contractual agreement for dual reporting. Dual remittance will allow the operator of the venue to remit the tax on the admission charge and the facilitator to remit the tax on any other charges the facilitator imposed that were necessary for the purchaser to pay to complete the transaction. • It defines a facilitator as a person who accepts payment of an admission charge to an entertainment activity and is not the operator of the venue where the entertainment activity occurs. It requires the facilitator to report to the retailer the admission charge a person pays to the facilitator and to send to the operator the tax due on the gross receipts derived from an admission charge no later than 10 days after the end of each calendar month. A facilitator that does not send this amount to the retailer is liable for the tax due. These requirements are considered terms of the contract between the retailer and the facilitator. These provisions are the same as the provisions applicable to facilitators who accept payment from a consumer for accommodations. • It clarifies what transactions are not subject to the tax: o Amounts paid to participate in sporting events. o Tuition, registration, or any other charge to attend an instructional or educational seminar, workshop, or conference. o A political contribution. o A charge for lifetime seat rights, leases, or rental of a suite or box, provided the charge is separately stated.

- An amount paid solely for transportation.

- It clarifies the following exemptions from the tax:
  - The portion of a membership charge that is deductible as a charitable contribution under federal income tax laws.
  - A donation that is deductible as a charitable contribution under federal income tax laws.
  - Charges for an amenity. An amenity was not taxed under the gross receipts privilege tax and the exemption for an amenity was continued when the taxation of the admission charge became subject to sales tax. In the bill enacted last session, the language from the old privilege license tax statute saying an amenity was not subject to tax was carried over into the imposition statute for sales tax. Based on conversations the Department of Revenue and legislative staff had with the staff of the Streamlined Sales Tax Governing Board, the language was removed from the imposition language and an exemption for an amenity has been added

    Under the exemption, if an amenity is separately stated on a billing document given to a purchaser, then the tax does not apply to the separately stated amount. If charges for an amenity are not separately stated, then the transaction is a bundled transaction and taxed in accordance with the general principle that the retailer must determine an allocated price for each product in the bundle based on a reasonable allocation of revenue that is supported by the retailer's business records kept in the ordinary course of business. Under the old privilege license tax statutes, the language provided: If charges for amenities are not separately stated on the face of an admission ticket, then the charge for admission is considered to be equal to the admission charge for a ticket to the same event that does not include amenities and is for a seat located directly in front of or closest to a seat that includes amenities. This draft removes this language at the suggestion of the Streamlined Sales Tax Governing Board and refers instead to the general principles applicable to a bundled transaction. This change is not intended to be a substantive one since the language cited above in italics may be the reasonable allocation a retailer uses, based on the retailer's business records, to determine the allocated price of the taxable portion of the admission charge and the exempt portion of the charge allocable to the exempt amenity.

- It changes the events that are exempt from the tax to the following:
  - An event sponsored by an elementary or secondary school.
  - An event sponsored by a nonprofit that is exempt from income tax if all of the following conditions are met: the entire proceeds of the event are used exclusively for the entity's nonprofit purpose; the entity does not compensate members or individuals; the entity does not compensate any person for participating in the event, performing in the event, placing in the event, or producing the event.

- It repeals the following exemptions, thus subjecting the gross receipts derived from an admission charge to that event to sales tax, effective January 1, 2015: o An agricultural fair. o Up to two activities a year sponsored by a nonprofit.[4] o A State attraction.

(d)	Makes a conforming change to the exemption statute. This subsection becomes effective January 1, 2015.
(e)	Clarifies that long-standing exemptions applicable to tangible personal property sold by nonprofit entities do not apply to gross receipts derived from an admission charge to an entertainment activity.
(f)	Provides that the gross receipts derived from admission to a live event purchased on or after January 1, 2015, will be taxable under the sales tax statutes, regardless of the date of the initial sale of tickets. S.L. 2013-315 provided a transitional period. Under S.L. 2013-316, the gross receipts for a live event where the initial sale of admission occurred on or before January 1, 2014, are taxable under the old 3% gross receipts privilege tax statutes.

EFFECTIVE DATE: Except as otherwise stated in the summary, the bill draft would become effective January 1, 2015.

[4] A subcommittee of the Revenue Laws Study Committee recommended that similar events be taxed similarly, regardless of the entity providing the event. This policy decision led to the repeal of these exemptions. The subcommittee also found that the exemptions caused confusion re: what was a State attraction and what two events could be exempt. This confusion should be eliminated by the repeal of these exemptions.

HOUSE BILL 1050:
Part VI - Service Contracts

2013-2014 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Finance	Date:	May 23, 2014
Introduced by:	Reps. Howard, W. Brawley, Lewis, Setzer	Prepared by:	Cindy Avrette Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	PCS to Third Edition H1050-CSRBx-49

SUMMARY: Part VI of the Omnibus Tax Law Changes bill addresses sales tax issues associated with the expansion of the sales tax base to include the sales price of a service contract.

CURRENT LAW: S.L. 2013-316 expanded the sales tax base to include the sales price of a service contract. A service contract is defined as a warranty agreement, a maintenance agreement, a repair contract, or a similar agreement or contract by which the seller agrees to maintain or repair tangible personal property. The act exempted from the tax items exempt from sales tax, other than motor vehicles; network assets on utility owned lands and on right-of-ways or easements; and items purchased by a professional motorsports racing team for which the team may receive a sales tax refund. The act also exempted an item used to maintain or repair tangible personal property pursuant to a service contract if the purchaser of the contract is not charged for the item.

BILL ANALYSIS: This Part makes the following changes to the law applicable to the sales tax on service contracts:

Subsection	Explanation
(a)	Changes the definition of a service contract to alleviate confusion about who must provide the work under the service contract for the contract to be taxable. In practice, service contracts are often sold by a seller on behalf of the person obligated to provide the service. This subsection changes the definition of a service contract to be a contract where the obligor under the contract agrees to maintain or repair tangible personal property or a motor vehicle.
(b)	Clarifies in the sales tax imposition statute that the tax applies to the sales price of or the gross receipts derived from a service contract.
(c)	Creates a new statute to address the sales tax on service contracts: • It clarifies that the local sales tax revenue from a service contract are sourced in accordance with the general sourcing principles of G.S. 105-164.4B. • It defines a retailer as the obligor when the obligor sells the service contract to the purchaser at retail. If the service contract is sold to the purchaser by a facilitator, the facilitator is the retailer unless the facilitator and the obligor have a contractual agreement that the obligor will be liable for payment of the tax. In this instance, the facilitator must send the retailer the tax due on the sales price of or the gross receipts derived from the service contract within 10 days after the end of each calendar month. A facilitator that does not send the retailer the sales tax due is liable for the tax. A facilitator is defined as a person who contracts with an obligor to market the service contract and accept payment for the contract. These provisions are substantially the same as the provisions that apply to a facilitator who accepts payment of sales tax on accommodations. • It moves the exemptions from G.S. 105-164.13 and places them in the newly created statute. • It adds an exemption for items subject to tax under Article 5F, the 1% excise tax on mill machinery and other similar transactions. • It clarifies that the tax does not apply to service contract for items sold at retail that become part of real property unless the service contract is sold at the same time as the item of tangible personal property covered in the contract. The tax does not apply to security or similar monitoring contracts for real property or to a renewal of a service contract where the tangible personal property covered by the contract becomes part of or affixed to real property prior to the effective date of the renewal. • It requires a retailer to report the sales price of or gross receipts derived from a service contract on an accrual basis, so that the receipts are recognized when the transaction occurs rather than when payment is received. Some service contracts are financed over time. This provision clarifies that the sales tax is due at the time of the retail sale and not at the time of the periodic payments.

(d)	Creates a new statute for refunds of sales tax paid on a rescinded sale or a cancelled service. Historically, retailers have provided purchasers a refund of the sales tax paid on tangible personal property that is returned to the retailer for a refund. The retailer is allowed to reduce taxable receipts on the subsequent sales tax return by the taxable amount of the refund for the period in which the refund occurs or may request a refund of an overpayment of tax. This section codifies this current practice. The new statute creates a process to allow a purchaser of a service contract a refund of the sales tax paid. The process is different for a service contract because often the refund is provided by a person who was not the retailer that sold the service contract. This situation becomes more uncertain when the service contract is for a motor vehicle. Under the bill, if the purchaser receives a refund on any portion of the sales price of a service contract purchased from the retailer who collected the sales tax on the retail sale, then the general provisions applicable to rescinded sales apply. If the purchaser receives a refund from anyone else and the amount refunded does not include the sales tax paid on the refundable amount, then the purchaser may apply directly to the Department of Revenue for a refund. An application for a refund must be supported by documentation on the taxable amount of the service contract refunded to the purchaser and it must be filed within 30 days after the refund is received. A sales tax refund filed after the due date is barred.
(e)	Makes a conforming change.
(f)	Clarifies the exemption applicable to an item used to maintain or repair tangible personal property pursuant to a service contract. The exemption does not apply to an item used to maintain or repair mill machinery and other items taxable under Article 5F, since the service contract applicable to this tangible personal property is not subject to tax. The exemption does not apply to a tool, equipment, or similar item of tangible personal property used to complete the maintenance or repair unless the item becomes a component or repair part of the item for which the service contract is sold. For example, the exemption does not apply to the hammer and screwdriver used to do the work under a service contract.

(g)	Clarifies that the gross receipts derived from a service contract for a motor vehicle are not subject to the highway use tax.
(h)	Conforming change to the local sales tax statutes.

HOUSE BILL 1050:
Part VII – Retailer-Contractors

2013-2014 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Finance	Date:	May 23, 2014
Introduced by:	Reps. Howard, W. Brawley, Lewis, Setzer	Prepared by:	Trina Griffin Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	PCS to Third Edition H1050-CSRBx-49

SUMMARY: Part VII of the PCS addresses the applicability of the sales tax laws to retailer-contractors, such as the major home improvement stores, when they are engaged in a performance contract rather than a retail sale. Specifically, a retailer-contractor would be considered the consumer of the items or materials they furnish and install or apply to real property to the extent the item becomes part of the real property. As the consumer of those items, the retailer-contractor would be responsible for payment of the tax rather than the customer. This Part would become effective January 1, 2015.

CURRENT LAW: Under current law, retailers are required to collect and remit sales tax on retail sales of tangible personal property. Under a performance contract, the contractor agrees to furnish the necessary materials, labor, and expertise to accomplish the job; it is not a contract for the sale of specific items. Contractors are deemed to be the consumers or end users of the tangible personal property they use in fulfilling performance contracts and are liable for the tax. However, when a customer purchases an item from a home improvement store and enters into a contract with the store for the installation of the item in their home, it is not always clear whether that transaction is a retail sale plus installation or a performance contract.

The statutes provide little guidance as to what the correct interpretation is. They do not define "contractor" or "performance contract" or speak to when the installation of tangible personal property constitutes a real property improvement. The definition of "sale" refers to when title or possession is transferred. When a contractor permanently affixes an item of tangible personal property to real estate, title and possession typically transfer upon installation. However, once the item is permanently affixed to real property, general principles of real estate law provide that the item is no longer tangible personal property but has transformed into a real property fixture. Therefore, when a homeowner obtains title or possession to the property, the property is real estate and, therefore, one could argue no retail sale of tangible personal property has occurred. Adding further confusion to the mix, North Carolina's definition of "retailer" includes the business of installing tangible personal property regardless of whether it is permanently affixed to real property. This definition suggests that all contractors are also retailers, which conflicts with other principles at play.

The Department has developed guidance on this issue through its technical bulletins, and the tax treatment is ultimately determined by looking at a number of factors, such as whether an item is sold with an installation agreement, the tenor of the agreement, if there is one, whether an item is pre-fabricated, whether an item is built on-site, and whether a specific quantity is stated in the agreement. Determining the tax consequences involves a complex and fact-specific analysis. Over the years, the guidance has been inconsistent and, at the very least, confusing. For example, the sale and installation of the same item, such as carpet, may have different tax treatment depending on who the seller is and how the transaction is structured. Also, transactions that seem to be similar in nature, such as the installation of countertops and cabinets, are treated differently as well.

For several years, the Department has sought clarification from the General Assembly on this issue. The Revenue Laws Study Committee first studied it in 2012, with no recommendation, and again in 2013 recommending this legislation.

BILL ANALYSIS: Part VII of the Senate PCS for House Bill 1050 provides that the general rate of tax applies to the sales price of tangible personal property sold to a real property contractor when that property is used by the contractor for the improvement, alteration, or repair of real property and the item becomes part of the real property. The bill defines the term "retailer-contractor" as an entity that can act either as a retailer or as a real property contractor. The sales tax provisions applicable to a real property contractor would apply to a retailer-contractor when it is acting as a real property contractor. Retailer-contractors may continue to make tax-exempt purchases of materials, as they do now, but would accrue and pay the tax once the items are withdrawn from inventory and used in the performance of a real estate improvement contract. If the retailer-contractor uses a subcontractor to perform the installation, then the subcontractor would pay the tax on any items the subcontractor purchases in fulfilling the contract. However, in accordance with existing use tax principles, the retailer-contractor and the subcontractor would be jointly and severally liable for the tax.

The second part of the proposal holds harmless retailers that have been following the law as interpreted by the Department, such as Home Depot, as well as retailers who have asserted that the Department's interpretation is inconsistent with existing statutes, such as Lowe's.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This Part would become effective January 1, 2015, and would apply to sales on or after that date and contracts entered into on or after that date.

BACKGROUND: This issue drew particular attention in 2009 when newspaper reports revealed a long-running dispute between Lowe's and the Department of Revenue on the application of the law in this area. The report indicated that Lowe's was not collecting sales tax when it sold and subsequently installed items such as cabinets, flooring, and countertops. The Department's position is that these transactions are retail sales plus installation and that Lowe's should be collecting sales tax on the purchases but not the installation charges as long as those charges are separately stated on the customer's invoice. Lowe's position is that these transactions are performance contracts and, therefore, they are only required to pay the use tax because they are the user or consumer of that property and that the cost is factored into the "contract price" ultimately paid by the customer, but it is not a separately stated cost.

HOUSE BILL 1050:
Part VIII – Other Sales Tax Changes

2013-2014 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Finance	Date:	May 23, 2014
Introduced by:	Reps. Howard, W. Brawley, Lewis, Setzer	Prepared by:	Trina Griffin Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	PCS to Third Edition H1050-CSRBx-49

SUMMARY: Part VIII makes various sales tax changes.

CURRENT LAW, BILL ANALYSIS, AND EFFECTIVE DATE:

Section	Explanation and Effective Date
8.1	This section moves the substance of the law imposing the State sales tax on accommodations to a new statutory section for stylistic purposes. The only substantive change provides that a private residence or cottage rented for fewer than 15 days that is listed with a real estate broker or agent is subject to sales tax and occupancy tax. Beginning in 1984, the Department of Revenue interpreted the private residence exemption to apply only if the residence was not listed with a real estate agent. A 1988 memo by an Associate Attorney General supported this interpretation. In 2012, the Department changed its interpretation and issued an Important Notice indicating that the sales tax exemption applied to a private residence rented for fewer than 15 days regardless of whether it was listed with a real estate agent. The current law states that "The tax does not apply to a private residence or cottage that is rented for fewer than 15 days in a calendar year...", but it goes on to state that "A person who, by written contract, agrees to be the rental agent for the provider of an accommodation is considered a retailer under this Article and is liable for the tax." The Department has requested that language be added to the statute that is consistent with its pre-2012 interpretation. This change would impact the application of occupancy tax as well because G.S. 155A-155 and 160A-215 provide that "the room occupancy tax applies to the same gross receipts as the State sales tax on accommodations and is calculated in the same manner as that tax." This section would become effective June 1, 2014, and apply to private residences occupied as a transient accommodation on or after that date even if the accommodation was reserved or paid for prior to the effective date.
8.2	This section disallows a sales tax refund for sales tax paid on video programming and piped natural gas. Historically, the State sales tax refunds allowed to nonprofits and local governments has not applied to sales tax paid on utilities. Prior to 1995, when piped natural gas was subject to sales tax, piped natural gas was included in the list of utilities for which a sales tax refund was not allowed. Last session, when the General Assembly made the policy decision to return piped natural gas to the sales tax base, this conforming change was not considered or made. Likewise, when the General Assembly made the policy decision to begin taxing video programming as a utility, a conforming change to the refund statutes was not considered or made. This section treats utilities that are taxed by the State at the combined general rate the same. This section becomes effective July 1, 2014, and applies to purchases occurring on or after that date.

8.3	Subsection (a) repeals the sales tax exemption for sales from vending machines of one cent per sale. The provision is obsolete. S.L. 2013-316 removed the sales tax exemption applicable to newspapers sold by street vendors, newspaper carriers, and vending machines. The intent was to tax all newspapers at the State and local sales tax rate. However, G.S. 105-164.13(50) exempts 50% of the sales price of items sold through a coin-operated vending machine from sales tax. To maintain the intent of the 2013 tax law change, subsection (b) provides that the sales tax exemption applicable to 50% of the sales price of items sold through a vending machine does not apply to newspapers. The law currently excludes tobacco products sold through vending machines from this 50% exemption. This section becomes effective October 1, 2014, and applies to sales made on or after that date.
8.4	Effective January 1, 2014, S.L. 2013-316 increased the State sales tax rate on manufactured and modular homes. In response to industry concerns, this section imposes the tax on ½ of the price of the home by exempting 50% of the sales price from sales tax. The industry states that the average material cost in a factory-built home is approximately 50% of the invoice price. The intent of this section is to more closely tax manufactured and modular homes in a similar manner as stick-built homes. This section becomes effective July 1, 2014.

HOUSE BILL 1050:
Part IX - Excise Tax Changes

2013-2014 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Finance	Date:	May 23, 2014
Introduced by:	Reps. Howard, W. Brawley, Lewis, Setzer	Prepared by:	Cindy Avrette Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	PCS to Third Edition H1050-CSRBx-49

SUMMARY: Part IX of the Omnibus Tax Law Changes bill makes various changes to the excise tax statutes, as requested by the Excise Tax Division of the Department of Revenue.

CURRENT LAW, BILL ANALYSIS, AND EFFECTIVE DATE:

Section	Explanation	Effective Date
9.1	Subsection (c) of this section applies to the excise tax on alcohol. It would allow a wholesaler or importer of malt beverages and wine to provide security to the Secretary in the form of a letter of credit as an alternative to a bond. This form of security is consistent with what is currently allowed under the excise tax statutes for motor fuels and tobacco products. This subsection also removes the option of a taxpayer providing security in the form of a bond based upon obligations of a governmental unit. This option has not been used in recent memory and is not a form of collateral allowed in other tax schedules. In the few instances where it has been used, the Department's experience has shown that the bonds are often rolled over into a personal CD when the bond matures rather than another governmental bond. Subsections (a) and (b) of this section modernize the statutes and clarify that the letter of credit must be issued by a bank acceptable to the Secretary and available to the State as a beneficiary.	When it becomes law
9.2	This section would allow a wholesale dealer or retail dealer of other tobacco products to provide the Department a manufacturer's tax affidavit in lieu of a notarized tax affidavit as supporting documentation for a tax refund. A dealer that has stale or unsalable tobacco products upon which the tax has been paid is allowed a refund of that amount. The majority of states allow a dealer to use manufacturer tax affidavits as supporting documentation. The allowance of a written certification from the manufacturer signed under perjury of law does not lessen the accountability of the taxpayer and it expedites the administration of the refund. The change in the statute has been requested by taxpayers.[1]
9.3	This section would amend the tax secrecy provisions as follows: • To allow the Department to furnish a data clearinghouse the information required to be released in accordance with the State's agreement under the	When it becomes law

[1] U.S. Smokeless Tobacco Brands operates a secure website that allows distributors to access affidavits and credit memos for their returns. Each affidavit includes an accurate list of product eligible for return in a state along with an electronically signed statement.

	December 2012 Term Sheet Settlement, as finalized by the State in the NPM Adjustment Settlement Agreement, concerning annual tobacco product sales by a nonparticipating manufacturer. • To allow the Department to share information with a person who provides a surety bond or irrevocable letter of credit on behalf of a taxpayer if the information is necessary for the Department to collect on the bond or letter of credit in the event the taxpayer does not comply with the tax laws.
9.4	This section would allow the Secretary of Revenue to delegate the authority to hold hearings. Under administrative practice, this authority has been delegated to a staff attorney.	When it becomes law
9.5	This section clarifies that the tax on motor carriers applies to both intrastate motor carriers and to interstate motor carriers. It also updates the reference to the International Fuel Tax Agreement from June 1, 2010, to July 1, 2013. The update in the reference does not make any substantive changes to the tax laws concerning motor carriers.	When it becomes law
9.6 9.10	Section 9.6 clarifies that local sales tax is due on motor fuel for which a refund of the per gallon excise tax is allowed. Under current law, the State sales tax is deducted from any amount of excise tax refunded. This section clarifies that the local sales tax revenue is also deducted from any amount of excise tax refunded. Section 9.10 clarifies the amount of local sales tax to be deducted from a refund of excise tax paid.	When it becomes law
9.7	This section would tax all biodiesel fuel. B100 is not subject to federal excise tax, and as such is not subject to the State excise tax. B99.9 is subject to the State excise tax since it is a blended product. B100 is most commonly used as a motor fuel.	October 1, 2014
9.8	This section would allow the Secretary to waive or reduce civil penalties imposed under the motor fuel tax statutes under the Department's penalty waiver policy used for other tax schedules. Under current law, a person assessed a civil penalty under the motor fuel tax laws must pay the penalty at the time it is assessed and file a request for a Departmental review of the penalty. Under the change proposed by this section, the penalty would not automatically be payable upon assessment and the administrative process for waiving or reducing it would be simpler and less time consuming. Although a taxpayer must go through the review process for the waiver or reduction of a penalty, the guidelines used to make the decision are the same guidelines currently applied through the penalty waiver policy.	When it becomes law
9.9	This section would clarify that a shipping document required by the vessel transporting motor fuel is intended to provide permanent information. Under current law, if the document is issued by a refiner or a terminal operator, the document must be machine printed. That requirement is not there for a tank wagon importer. A tank wagon importer is a person who imports motor fuel from a terminal or bulk plant in another state and	October 1, 2014 transports the fuel only by means of a tank wagon. A tank wagon is a truck designed to carry at least 1,000 gallons of motor fuel but is not a transport truck. Motor fuel investigators have found shipping documents to be notes contained on a "grease board" or chalk board or other type of device that can be erased.

9.10	Removes obsolete references to the privilege tax.

HOUSE BILL 1050:
Part X - Tax Law Compliance Changes

2013-2014 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Finance	Date:	May 23, 2014
Introduced by:	Reps. Howard, W. Brawley, Lewis, Setzer	Prepared by:	Greg Roney Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	PCS to Third Edition H1050-CSRBx-49

SUMMARY: Part X of the bill draft would require filing all State tax returns and paying all State taxes to receive and hold an ABC permit. Part X of the bill draft also would authorize the Department of Revenue to use $500,000 (currently, $150,000) from the collection assistance fee account to contract for taxpayer locater services.

CURRENT LAW: G.S. 18B-900 lists the following requirements to receive and hold an ABC permit:

- Be at least 21 years old (19 years old for managers selling only beer and wine).
- Be a NC resident unless the out-of-state person is not responsible for operations.
- Not have been convicted of a felony within 3 years or had citizenship restored.
- Not have been convicted of an alcoholic beverage offense within 2 years.
- Not have been convicted of a misdemeanor controlled substance offense within 2 years.
- Not have had an ABC permit revoked within 3 years except failures to pay registration fee.
- Not have an unsatisfied judgment for injury caused by sales to underage persons.

The requirements under G.S. 18B-900 apply to each of the following persons:

- Owner of a sole proprietorship.
- Managers for a corporation.
- Members of a general partnership.
- General partners in a limited partnership.
- Managers and any members with 25% interest in a limited liability company.
- Each officer, director, and owner of 25% of a corporation.

G.S. 18C-141 prohibits the Director of the North Carolina State Lottery Commission from recommending lottery game retailers to the Commission who are not current in filing all State tax returns and paying all State taxes.

G.S. 105-230 suspends the charter of any corporation or a limited liability company that fails to file any tax return or pay any tax. Any act performed or attempted to be performed during the period of suspension is invalid and of no effect unless the charter is reinstated after filing and paying all taxes.

G.S. 105-243.1 imposes a 20% collection assistance fee on overdue tax debts after 90 days.[1] The collection assistance fee is credited to a special account and must be applied to the costs of collecting overdue tax debts.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Part X – Section 10.1.(a): The bill draft would add a new requirement to G.S. 18B-900 that ABC permit applicants file and pay all State taxes. State taxes must be collectable and finally determined to be due for the tax to block an ABC application.

Procedurally, the ABC Commission will request the Department of Revenue check the State tax compliance status of persons. If the Department of Revenue reports to the ABC Commission that a person is not in State tax compliance, then the person cannot receive an ABC permit until the Department of Revenue reports to the ABC Commission that the person is in compliance. Taxpayers who enter into an installment payment agreement with the Department of Revenue are considered in compliance as long as the agreement is in force.

The requirement of State tax compliance operates like all ABC permit requirements under G.S. 18B-900 – applying to all persons listed in G.S. 18B-900(c) and applying continually to hold a permit. Four types of ABC permits may still be issued without State tax compliance: special occasion permit under G.S. 18B-1001(8), limited special occasion permit under G.S. 18B-1001(9), special one-time permit under G.S. 18B-1002, and salesman permit under G.S. 18B-1111.

Part X – Section 10.1.(b): The Administrative Procedure Act (Chapter 150B) does not apply to the ABC Commission's actions when determining State tax compliance and refusing to issue ABC permits.

Part X – Section 10.1.(c): The exchange of confidential taxpayer information between the Department of Revenue and the ABC Commission is authorized.

Part X – Section 10.1.(d): The bill draft authorizes the Department of Revenue to spend $500,000 annually on taxpayer locater services. The current authorization is $150,000. The source of the funds is the collection assistance fee imposed on overdue tax debts.

BACKGROUND:

Sections 10.1(a-c): The bill draft closely follows the statute (G.S. 18C-141) requiring lottery retailers to file and pay all State taxes. The ABC Commission and the NC Department of Revenue plan to check the State tax compliance of all new and renewing ABC permits starting May 1, 2015.

Section 10.1(d): The collection assistance fee provides funds to pay for the costs of collecting overdue tax debts which have included personnel at the Department of Revenue that collect taxes, locator services, and infrastructure projects at the Department of Revenue. When attempting to collect overdue taxes, the Department of Revenue uses locator services through contracts with private data services to identify current addresses for taxpayers.

EFFECTIVE DATE: Sections 10(a-c) of the bill draft requiring tax compliance for ABC permits would be effective May 1, 2015. Section 10.1(d) increasing funding for locator services is effective when it becomes law.

[1] The Department of Revenue may not mail the collection assistance fee notice earlier than 60 days after the tax debt becomes collectible under G.S. 105-241.22. A collection assistance fee is imposed on an overdue tax debt that remains unpaid 30 days or more after the fee notice is mailed to the taxpayer.

HOUSE BILL 1050:
Part XI – Property Tax Changes

2013-2014 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Finance	Date:	May 23, 2014
Introduced by:	Reps. Howard, W. Brawley, Lewis, Setzer	Prepared by:	Trina Griffin Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	PCS to Third Edition H1050-CSRBx-49

SUMMARY: Part XI provides for the central assessment of mobile telecommunications property.

CURRENT LAW & ANALYSIS: Under current law, the property is locally assessed by each county. The valuation of this property has become increasingly complex due largely to the rapidly changing technology in the industry and to the frequent acquisitions and mergers of wireless carriers. Central assessment by the Department would simplify the listing process for the industry and ensure uniformity of assessment among the counties. The Department would then allocate the valuation to each county where the property is sited. The change is supported by the mobile telecommunications industry, the Department of Revenue, and local governments.

The central assessment would apply to all of the tangible personal property of a mobile telecommunications company and would also include the cellular towers owned by such companies as well as the cellular towers owned by "tower aggregators." The assessment would not include intangible personal property, such as FCC licenses. Real property owned or leased by a mobile telecommunications company or tower aggregator would continue to be assessed locally in each county. This section would become effective for taxable years beginning on and after July 1, 2015.

HOUSE BILL 1050:
Part XII – Privilege License Tax

2013-2014 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Finance	Date:	May 23, 2014
Introduced by:	Reps. Howard, W. Brawley, Lewis, Setzer	Prepared by:	Trina Griffin Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	PCS to Third Edition H1050-CSRBx-49

SUMMARY: Part XII would maintain the local privilege tax authority for one more year with two modifications: a city may not increase the tax on any business during that year, and it may not tax a business physically located outside the city's limits. Beginning July 1, 2015, both the city and county authority to levy a privilege license tax would be repealed. This would include their authority to levy a privilege tax on low-level radioactive and hazardous waste facilities.

CURRENT LAW: Under current law, a city has the authority to levy a privilege tax on all trades, occupations, professions, businesses, and franchises carried on within the city, subject to certain limitations. These limitations range from outright prohibitions on certain businesses and professions to a cap on the amount of tax for other types of businesses. For example, cities are currently prohibited from levying a privilege license tax on certain professionals who are taxed at the State level, such as attorneys, physicians, engineers, real estate brokers, and home inspectors. Cities are also prohibited from taxing banks, private protective services, burglar alarm dealers, household appliance dealers, and office equipment dealers. Approximately 64 types of businesses are subject to a cap on the amount of tax that a city may impose. Examples of businesses whose rate is capped include: amusements, $25; collection agencies, $50; peddlers of farm products, $25; contractors, $10; restaurants, $42.50; barbershops & beauty parlors, $2.50 per person employed; firearms dealers, $50; auto dealers, $25.

Other than these specifically named prohibitions and caps, there is no statutory restriction on the amount of tax that may be charged. It may be in the form of a flat tax or a tax measured by gross receipts. Over 300 cities levy a privilege tax generating $62.2 million. It produces significant revenue for about seven cities: Charlotte, Raleigh, Greensboro, Durham, High Point, Lumberton, and Hickory.

Cities and counties may tax businesses that do not have a permanent physical location in the taxing jurisdiction as long as the business has a legally significant economic nexus with the city. Most businesses that fall into this category are service providers that provide services on a customer's property. This would include businesses like landscapers, plumbers, electricians, home inspectors, and appraisers. To the extent a business sends employees into a taxing jurisdiction to perform service or repair work, to deliver goods on a regular basis, to take orders for goods, or to receive payments, it is conducting business in that city and may be subject to the city's privilege tax.

Cities and counties also have authority under a separate statute to impose a privilege license tax on hazardous waste facilities or low-level radioactive waste facilities that are located within their limits. The rate is based on the additional costs incurred by the city or county from having such a facility in its jurisdiction to the extent compensation for the costs is not otherwise provided. These costs may include the loss of property tax revenues from the property on which the facility is located, the cost of providing additional emergency services, and the cost of monitoring air, surface water, groundwater, and other environmental media. There are approximately 42 of these facilities located inside city limits.

BILL ANALYSIS: Part XII of the Senate PCS for House Bill 1050 does three things:

- It reenacts G.S. 160A-211(a), the subsection that authorizes cities to levy a privilege license tax, which was inadvertently repealed by virtue of a drafting error in Section 58(b) of S.L. 2013-414. The reenactment is effective when it becomes law.
- It modifies the current authority in the following two ways:
    - For purposes of the 2014-2015 fiscal year, it limits a city's authority to tax only those businesses that are physically located within the city's limits. A business is not physically located within a city if its only presence in that city is through the performance of services or through the dispatch of employees to perform work, deliver goods, collect payments, or take orders. The intent of this provision is to tax only those businesses that have a physical location in the city, such as an office, a headquarters, a storefront, or other location from which the business directs and conducts its operations, or from which it holds itself out to the public as the place where the business is located.
    - It limits a city to the same privilege license tax schedule that was in place for the 2013-2014 fiscal year, meaning that a city may not increase any tax rate or tax amount for the 2014-2015 fiscal year; if a city did not have a privilege license tax in 2013-2014, it may not levy one in 2014-2015.
- Beginning July 1, 2015, both the county and city authority to levy a local privilege license tax are repealed. This includes the authority to levy a privilege tax on low-level radioactive and hazardous waste facilities. The city privilege tax generates a cumulative total of approximately $62 million; the county privilege tax, levied in only 37 counties, generates a total of less than $500,000. For many cities, the loss of revenue from the repeal of the current tax structure is overcome by the revenue it receives in local sales tax revenue from an expansion of the sales tax base under S.L. 2013-316[1] and from the greater collection of sales tax applicable to online purchases from the agreement of Amazon to collect and remit sales tax on purchases made through Amazon.[2]

HOUSE BILL 1050:
Part XIII - License Plate Agent Compensation

2013-2014 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Finance	Date:	May 27, 2014
Introduced by:	Reps. Howard, W. Brawley, Lewis, Setzer	Prepared by:	Heather Fennell
Analysis of:	PCS to Third Edition H1050-CSRBx-49		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: Part XIII sets the LPA transaction rate for the collection of property tax under the Tax & Tag Together program at the transitional rate of $1.06, clarifies the increased rate applies to all transactions where an LPA collects property tax as of July 1, 2014, and allows the retroactive portion of the fee increase to be paid out over a three month time period.

CURRENT LAW: The Division of Motor Vehicles (DMV) is required to ensure, as far as practicable and possible, that registration and registration renewals for motor vehicles may be issued through license plate agents (LPAs) located in every community across the State. DMV enters into commission contracts with individuals to perform this service. The local tag agents are compensated on a per transaction basis. The standard rate for a transaction is $1.43. Unless otherwise provided, the performance of one or more transactions at the same time is considered a single transaction for purposes of compensation. Certain transactions are always considered separate transactions and allowed a different rate of compensation. The collection the highway use tax is considered a separate transaction and compensated at $1.27.

In September 2013, the State began implantation of a combined system for motor vehicle registration renewal and property tax collection. Under the new Tax & Tag Together program, the motor vehicle owner will receive one bill, and make one payment for both property taxes and vehicle registration renewal. The Tax & Tag Together program also provides for the issuance of a temporary registration plate if property taxes are not paid with the issuance of a new plate. A person may be issued a limited registration "T" sticker for the temporary registration plate.

S.L. 2013-372 provided increased compensation for LPAs new duties required under the Tax & Tag Together program. The collection of property taxes and the issuance of a "T" sticker" are recognized as separate transactions for the purpose of compensation. The transaction rate for the issuance of a "T" sticker was set at $1.27, effective July 1, 2013. The transaction rate for collecting property tax with registration renewals for the transitional period of the first six months of the Tax & Tag Together program was set at $1.06. The transaction rate after the first six months for both new registration and renewals was set at $0.71.

BILL ANALYSIS: Part XIII sets the LPA transaction rate for the collection of property tax under the Tax & Tag Together program at the transitional rate of $1.06. The transitional rate will apply to the collection of property taxes with registration renewals for the entire 2013 fiscal year. The draft also clarifies the increased rate applies to all transactions where an LPA collects property tax, effective July 1, 2014, therefore, setting the transitional rate of $1.06 per transaction to all collections of property tax by LPAs for the 2014 fiscal year and thereafter.

Below is a chart that shows the recent changes in the compensation to LPAs, as well as the proposed increase:

	Transaction fee to LPAs for collection of:
	Property tax with renewal		Property tax with new registration		Property tax with new registration and renewals
	July 2013 – March 2014	March 2014 – July 2014	July 2013 – March 2014	March 2014 – July 2014	July 2014 and thereafter
Prior to 2013-372	$0.48	$0.48	$0.48	$0.48	$0.48
2013-372	$1.06	$0.71	$0.71	$0.71	$0.71
Draft proposal	No change	$1.06	No change	No change	$1.06

Under current law, the fee for property tax collection by LPAs for renewals that expire on or after March 1, 2014, will decrease to $0.71. The draft extends the transitional rate of $1.06 for the collection of property tax with registration renewals that expire on or after June 30, 2014. If enacted, the draft proposal would direct DMV to calculate the difference in the payments made under the current law and the proposed increase in this draft by September 1, 2014. The difference in the two rates would be paid to LPAs by deducting the appropriate amount of the property tax revenues remitted to the counties. The payment to the LPAs and the corresponding reduction in the payments to the counties would be made in equal amounts over a three month period.

The draft also clarifies the increased fee for property tax collection applies to all transactions where a LPA collects property taxes, effective July 1, 2014.

DMV receives compensation from the counties for the duties it performs under the Tax & Tag Together program. A conforming change made in S.L. 2013-372 has been interpreted to provide DMV with an increase in the fee it receives for the collection of property tax to mirror the amount paid to LPAs. This draft maintains the increase in the fee to $0.71 for DMV provided in S.L. 2013-372, but does not provide DMV with the increase provide LPAs in this draft. The fee provided to DMV will be the amount set in the Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) signed by the Department of Revenue and the Division of Motor Vehicles. Future MOUs can amend the transaction fee paid to DMV, but the fee cannot exceed the per transaction fee allowed for LPAs.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The portion of this Part related to the fee for registration renewals is effective March 1, 2014. The remainder of this Part is effective July 1, 2014.

HOUSE BILL 1050: Part XIV – Technical, Clarifying, & Administrative Changes

Committee:	Senate Finance	Date:	May 23, 2014
Introduced by:	Reps. Howard, W. Brawley, Lewis, Setzer	Prepared by:	Trina Griffin Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	PCS to Third Edition H1050-CSRBx-49

SUMMARY: Part XIV makes clarifying, conforming, and administrative changes to the various tax laws. Unless otherwise stated, this Part would become effective when it becomes law.

CURRENT LAW, BILL ANALYSIS, AND EFFECTIVE DATE:

Section	Explanation and Effective Date
14.1	This section corrects a cross reference.
14.2	This section replaces two outdated references with respect to qualifying for the major recycling facility tax credits. First, it replaces the term "enterprise tier one area" with the term "development tier one area." The current statute requires that, at the time the owner begins construction, the facility be located in an enterprise tier one area. The term "enterprise tier one area" was part of the Bill Lee tax credits, which expired in 2007. The current equivalent term, originating with the enactment of the Article 3J tax credits, is "development tier one area." A development tier one area is a county whose annual ranking is one of the 40 highest in the State. Second, it deletes the wage standard requirement to be consistent with the current law as it applies to a tier one area. In 2002, the General Assembly eliminated the wage standard for enterprise tier one and two areas[1] but a conforming change was not made to this statute. At the time, there was only one taxpayer that qualified for the credit, and the wage standard was only required to be met at the time construction began on the facility, which had already occurred. However, to the extent there may be taxpayers who qualify for this credit, which is only available in a tier one area, in the future, the statute should be amended to reflect the fact that the wage standard is no longer a requirement in a tier one area.
14.3	This section inserts a word that was inadvertently omitted.
14.4(a)	This section deletes the definition of "Dependent" because the term is not required after the changes made by House Bill 998, S.L. 2013-316.
14.4(b) &14.5	This section updates the terminology used in the statutes authorizing withholding of income tax from wages. After House Bill 998, S.L. 2013-316, "exemptions" are not part of the computation of estimated tax to withhold from wages. Instead, the Department of Revenue uses the term "allowances."
14.6	This section deletes a statutory formula used to calculate the amount of estimated tax to withhold from pension payments where the recipient fails to file a withholding tax form. After House Bill 998, S.L. 2013-316, the statutory formula no longer approximates recipient's tax liability. Recipients who do not complete the tax form to calculate withholding from pension payments will be treated the same as employees who do not complete the tax form.

14.7	This section makes technical changes to sales tax definitions. It deletes the word "retail" within the definition of "net taxable sales" because the term is already included by virtue of the definition of the term "gross sales." It deletes the word "the" in the definition of "retailer" because "engaged in business" is the proper defined term. It also updates the reference to the most recent version of the Streamlined Sales Tax Agreement as adopted by the governing board.
14.8	This section makes various technical changes to the sales tax imposition statute.
14.9	This section clarifies that a facilitator who is liable for tax[2] must obtain a certificate of registration like other retailers. A facilitator is a person, other than a real estate agent, who contracts with a provider of an accommodation to market the accommodation and who accepts payment from the consumer for the accommodation. An example of a facilitator would be an online travel company like Expedia, Orbitz, or Priceline.
14.10	This section provides for the applicable due date for a sales tax payment if the due date falls on a weekend or holiday or on a day that the Federal Reserve Bank is closed, which prohibits a person from making a payment by ACH[3] Debit or Credit. These provisions are currently contained in an informational document on the Department's website, but there is not a specific statute, other than one that applies only to payment of property taxes.[4]
14.11	This section changes from March 1 to March 15 the annual due date for the captive insurance tax return. S.L. 2013-116 provided that the annual report due date for some captive insurance companies is March 1 and, for others, such as a pure captive, it is March 15. The tax returns for all captives are due March 1. This year, the pure captive insurance companies filed premium tax returns by the March 1 due date and attached to the return copies of pages from their annual reports in support of the premium information marked "draft" since the tax return was due before the financial statement. This issue would be eliminated by changing the due date for all premium tax returns to March 15.
14.12	This section makes one technical change and one substantive change. The technical change corrects a statutory reference. The substantive change would add a new criminal offense to the list of offenses for which the Secretary of Revenue may appoint employees of the Criminal Investigations Division to serve as revenue law enforcement officers. The new offense, which was created by the General Assembly in 2013, is for the possession, transfer, or use of an automated sales suppression device, informally known

[2] Under G.S. 105-164.4(a)(3), a facilitator must send the retailer the portion of the sales price that the facilitator owes the retailer plus the tax due once the accommodation rental marketed by the facilitator is completed. A facilitator that does not send the retailer the tax due on the sales price is liable for the amount of tax the facilitator failed to send.

[3] Automated Clearing House Debit is a method of payment that enables companies to electronically withdraw funds from bank accounts using bank routing numbers and individual account number.

	as "tax zapper software."
14.13	This section provides the Department of Revenue with guidance on how to treat amended returns filed under two repealed taxes. Subsections (a) and (b) provide guidance for amended returns filed under the franchise tax on electricity. Subsections (c) and (d) provide guidance for amended returns filed under the excise tax on piped natural gas. Subsections (e) and (f) clarify that only cities that received a distribution under the repealed franchise tax and excise tax will receive distributions from the new sales tax on electricity and piped natural gas. The Tax Reduction Act, S.L.2013-316, included electricity and piped natural gas in the State sales tax base while repealing the utility franchise tax on electricity and the excise tax on piped natural gas. A portion of both of the repealed taxes was shared with the cities. The Tax Reduction Act replaced the tax-sharing revenue under the repealed taxes with a distribution of part of the sales tax on electricity and piped natural gas. The amount distributed to each city under the sales tax is based on the distribution under the repealed taxes the last year those taxes were in effect. Utilities are allowed to file amended returns on the repealed taxes for up to three years. Amended returns filed on the repealed taxes can change both distributions under the repealed taxes and the amount to be distributed to cities under the new sales tax on electricity and piped natural gas. These sections provide guidance to the Department on how to treat amended returns that change past and future distributions. First, it provides that any additional funds needed for increases to past distributions under the repealed taxes can be drawn from the sales tax revenue. Second, it creates a date certain for the future distributions to be determined. The Department of Revenue will set the distributions for each fiscal year by September 15 using amended returns processed by the Department prior to July 31 of that year.
14.14	Property that is appraised at its present use value may remain in the program if the property is under an enforceable conservation easement that would qualify for the conservation easement tax credit. S.L. 2013-316 repealed the conservation easement tax credit for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2014. The repeal of the tax credit was not intended to effect property in the present use value program. This section puts the applicable provisions that were provided in the tax credit statutes in Chapter 113A and makes the necessary conforming changes in other statutes.
14.15	This section deletes an inconsistent effective date for the repeal of G.S. 105-159.2 which formerly allowed a taxpayer to checkoff a donation to the North Carolina Public Campaign Fund. Section 38.1.(f) of S.L. 2013-381 repealed G.S. 105-159.2 effective July 1, 2013. This section makes the effective date of a duplicative repeal in Section 21.1.(c) of S.L. 2013 360 effective at the same time.
14.16	This section updates from January 2, 2013, to December 31, 2013, the reference to the Internal Revenue Code. This change keeps the statute up to date, but does not result in any substantive changes because there have not been any federal tax law changes since January 2, 2013, that impact the calculation of North Carolina taxable income.
14.17	This section changes the name of the document filed by the Secretary of Revenue to release an erroneous tax lien. Currently, the Department of Revenue files a "certificate of release" that credit reporting agencies treat as a negative item on a credit report. The renamed document, "certificate of withdrawal," is expected to cancel the original tax lien without impacting the taxpayer's credit report. This section is effective when it becomes law.

14.18	S.L. 2013-157 made a number of changes to North Carolina's Limited Liability Company Act. Among the changes was a new defined term of "company official" defined as: "Any person exercising any management authority over the limited liability company whether the person is a manager or referred to as a manager, director, or officer or given any other title." This section incorporates the new term into the responsible person statute, which provides for personal liability when certain taxes are not paid. The section also removes the limitation on the type of withholding taxes that can be collected from a responsible person. Current law allows the Department of Revenue to hold business operators liable for income tax withheld on employee wages. This section eliminates the requirement that the withholding be for employee wages. For example, withholding on independent contractors could now be collected from responsible persons. This section is effective when it becomes law.
14.19	This section updates a statutory reference.
14.20	S.L. 2013-316 repealed the individual income tax credit for property taxes paid on farm machinery. This section removes references to the tax credit that are no longer needed in the property tax statutes.
14.21	This section makes a technical correction by adding (32a) to the list of exempt inventories for which a person need not provide a report under G.S. 105-315 and makes stylistic changes to update the statute.
14.22	This section repeals an obsolete subsection. G.S. 105-537(d) provides that a county may not levy the one-quarter cent sales and use tax under Article 46 if it also levies the land transfer tax under Article 60. Article 60 was repealed by S.L. 2011-18.
14.23	This section corrects a Session Law reference in last year's Revenue Laws Technical changes act with respect to a local occupancy tax act.
14.24	This section creates a new limited registration plate for vehicles that are registered after the prior registration on the vehicle has expired. Current law provides for a limited registration plate for an initial registration, but there is not a similar provision for registration renewals. This section is designed to solve two customer service problems, one involving military service members, and the second involving appeals for vehicle valuations where the customer has not been given an opportunity to appeal the valuation. There are instances where an individual can choose not to renew the registration on a vehicle for a year or longer. As long as the vehicle is not being driven, this is allowed under the law. When the vehicle will be operated again, the owner must renew the vehicle registration. Under Tax & Tag Together, when the individual renews the registration, property taxes on the vehicle for the upcoming tax year are due at the time of renewal. Military service members – The federal Service Members Civil Relief Act provides that personal property (including vehicles) of service members is not subject to personal property taxes simply due to the fact that the member is serving in the state. Active duty service members often do not renew vehicle registrations when the member is deployed overseas. Under Tax & Tag Together, when a service member returns from deployment and seeks to renew a vehicle registration, the system will not allow the vehicle to be registered without payment of the property tax, even if the service member does not owe the tax. Valuation appeals – Under current law, individuals may appeal the valuation assigned to a motor vehicle for property tax purposes. Taxpayers are given notice of the valuation of the vehicle and the right to appeal on the combined property tax notice. The combined notice is sent 60 days prior when the taxes are due. However, if an individual has allowed the registration to lapse more than a year, the individual would not have received a bill and would not have received notice of the tax value for the upcoming property tax year. Under the current system, the taxpayer will not be able to renew the vehicle registration without paying the tax for which the taxpayer did not have the opportunity to appeal. This section allows a temporary limited registration plate to be issued in both of these circumstances. Once the limited registration plate is issued, the taxpayer would have 60 days to remedy the tax issue. Once the tax issue has been resolved, the taxpayer could apply for a permanent tag.

14.25	This section would allow the Unauthorized Substances Division within the Department of Revenue to pursue tax owed on controlled substances that are considered low-street-value drugs sold by weight. The prime example of this is meth. The Department may already collect tax on a variety of other controlled substances, including low-street-value drugs that are not sold by weight.
14.26	This section corrects a statutory reference.
14.27	This section corrects and conforms a cross-reference in the criminal statutes regarding ticket resales to the new sales tax statute governing admission charges.

HOUSE BILL 1050:
Part XV - Tax Vapor Products/ Prohibit in Jails

2013-2014 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Finance	Date:	May 27, 2014
Introduced by:	Reps. Howard, W. Brawley, Lewis, Setzer	Prepared by:	Heather Fennell
Analysis of:	PCS to Third Edition H1050-CSRBx-49		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: Part XV would provide an excise tax of 5¢ per milliliter to be imposed on vapor products, would prohibit the use of vapor products in State correctional facilities, and would make it a criminal offense to for a person to provide a vapor product to an inmate of a local confinement facility and for an inmate to possess a vapor product.

CURRENT LAW: Under G.S. 105-113.5, cigarettes are taxed at 45¢ per pack. Other tobacco products (OTP), including pipe tobacco and roll-your-own tobacco is taxed under G.S. 105-113.35 at 12.8% of the cost of the product. The tax on cigarettes is paid by the distributor of the product. The tax on OTP products is payable by the wholesale dealer or retail dealer who first acquires or otherwise handles the product.

An electronic cigarette is a handheld device that produces vapor from a liquid. The liquid is generally heated to produce the vapor by a battery operated device. The liquid usually contains nicotine and sometimes contains flavors. The amount of the nicotine in the liquid can vary. Most electronic cigarettes are reusable. The liquid in the device can either be replenished replacing the cartridge that holds the liquid, or by manually refilling the liquid container.

In 2009, Congress enacted the Family Smoking Prevention and Tobacco Control Act, which gave the US Food and Drug Administration (FDA) the authority to regulate new tobacco products including e-cigarettes, nicotine gels, cigars, pipe tobacco, and dissolvable nicotine products.

In April 2014, the FDA issued proposed rules to regulate e-cigarettes. The proposed rules will be subject to 75 days of public comment. The proposed rules deem e-cigarettes a "tobacco product" for the purpose of federal regulation. The rules further propose to subject e-cigarettes to the following restrictions:

- Enforcement against adulterated or misbranded products.
- Ingredient disclosure and reporting of harmful components
- No modified risk descriptors (light cigarettes)
- No free samples
- Premarket review
- Minimum age for purchase

G.S. 148-23.1 prohibits the use and possession of tobacco products anywhere on the premises of a State correctional facility. Exemptions are provided for use and possession for religious purposes consistent with the policies of the Department of Public Safety (DPS), and also for possession by employees or visitors within the confines of a motor vehicle located in a parking area if the tobacco product remains in the vehicle and the vehicle is locked when the employee or visitor exits the vehicle.

G.S. 14-258.1 provides that it is a Class 1 misdemeanor to do either of the following:

- To knowingly give or sell tobacco products to an inmate on the premises of a correctional facility or in the custody of a local confinement facility, or to a person for delivery to an inmate.
- For an inmate in the custody of a local confinement facility to possess tobacco products.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Excise tax: Section 15.1 of Part XV would impose an excise tax of 5¢ per milliliter of the consumable product of vapor products. Vapor products are defined as noncombustible products that use a heating element to produce vapor from nicotine in a solution. The consumable product is the part of the vapor product that contains the nicotine liquid solution. All invoices for vapor products must contain the amount of the consumable product in milliliters.

Vapor products would be considered a subset of the other tobacco products, therefore, the tax would be administered as the tax on OTP. The tax will be paid the wholesale dealer or retail dealer who first acquires or otherwise handles the product. The tax does not apply to products sold outside the State, products sold to the federal government, or products distributed without charge. Taxes are paid monthly. Each dealer must keep sufficient records of vapor products transactions.

Wholesale dealers and retail dealers must obtain a license for each place of business that handles tobacco products. The license fee for wholesale dealers is $25, and the license fee for retail dealers is $10.

Taxpayers that file timely returns and payments of the taxes on OTP are allowed a discount of 2% of the amount due. This discount will not apply to the tax on vapor products.

No vapor in prisons and jails: Section 15.2(a) of Part XV prohibits the use of vapor products in State correctional facilities. Exemptions are provided for use and possession for religious purposes consistent with the policies of DPS, and for possession by employees or visitors within the confines of a motor vehicle located in a parking area if the vapor product remains in the vehicle and the vehicle is locked when the employee or visitor exits the vehicle.

Section 15.2(b) it a Class 1 misdemeanor for either of the following:

- To knowingly give or sell vapor products to an inmate on the premises of a correctional facility or in the custody of a local confinement facility, or to a person for delivery to an inmate.
- For an inmate in the custody of a local confinement facility to possess vapor products.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The provisions related to imposing the excise tax on vapor products is effective February 1, 2015. The provisions related to vapor products in State and local confinement facilities are effective December 1, 2014.

HOUSE BILL 1050:
Omnibus Tax Law Changes

2013-2014 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Finance	Date:	May 23, 2014
Introduced by:	Reps. Howard, W. Brawley, Lewis, Setzer	Prepared by:	Cindy Avrette
Analysis of:	PCS to Third Edition H1050-CSRBx-49		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: House Bill 1050 makes various tax law changes recommended by the Revenue Laws Study Committee. The Revenue Laws Study Committee met each month during the interim and began reviewing bill drafts at its November meeting. The Committee posted the drafts on its website; received comments from taxpayers, the Department of Revenue, and other interested parties; and held committee discussions. The Committee's meeting materials may be found on its website. Revenue Laws Committee Documents

The Senate PCS for HB 1050 differs from the 3rd edition as follows:

- It removes Section 8.4. That section would have exempted from sales and use tax 50%of the sales price of a manufactured and a modular home.
- It substantially changes PART XII. Under the Senate PCS, the local privilege license tax authority is repealed effective July 1, 2015, and the local privilege license tax authority for 2014 is limited to those businesses physically located within the city's limits.
- It removes PART XVI. That Part would have reinstated the ability of any school of medicine affiliated with The University of North Carolina and The University of North Carolina Health Care System to be able to use the Setoff Debt Collection Act to collect unpaid debts.

CURRENT LAW, BILL ANALYSIS, AND EFFECTIVE DATE: The bill draft incorporates the various bill drafts the Revenue Laws Study Committee considered this past interim. The purpose of this summary is to highlight the major provisions in each Part and to provide links to more detailed explanations.

PART I. DEDUCTION FOR STATE NET LOSS

This Part does three things to simplify the calculation and ease the administration of the corporate loss deduction, effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2015:

- It replaces the corporate net economic loss deduction with a State net loss deduction that is more comparable to the federal net operating loss deduction.
- It removes the requirement that a net economic loss must first be offset by nontaxable income.
- It instructs the Secretary of Revenue to apply the standards under sections 381 and 382 of the Internal Revenue Code when determining the extent to which a loss survives a merger or acquisition.

PART II. OTHER INCOME TAX CHANGES

This Part includes the following changes to the income tax laws:

- Corrects the dollar amount of the section 179 expense investment limit. This provision needs to be enacted as soon as possible since it impacts 2013 tax returns. Many taxpayers have filed extensions, waiting for this provision to be enacted. Others may file amended returns.
- Allows an asset transferred prior to January 1, 2013, to receive the full benefit of a Section 179 expense deduction. This provision needs to be enacted as soon as possible since it impacts 2013 tax returns. Over the past several years, North Carolina has decoupled from the federal section 179 enhanced expense deductions. For State tax purposes, a taxpayer has to add back 85% of the federal deduction and then deduct 20% of the add-back over five years. Last session, the General Assembly allowed a transferee of an asset for which the transferor had not taken all of the add-back deductions to have the benefit of the remaining deductions by adding the remaining deductions to the asset's basis and depreciating the adjusted basis over the remaining life of the asset. For transactions occurring before January 1, 2013, the transferee was allowed to make the basis adjustment on the transferee's 2013 return. However, this allowance does not help a taxpayer who had disposed of the asset or whose asset had no remaining useful life. This section remedies this situation by allowing a taxpayer to deduct the remaining bonus depreciation on the 2013 tax return.
- Clarifies the application of the standard deduction and the $20,000 deduction for mortgage interest expenses paid and property taxes paid on real estate.
- Updates the statutory references in G.S. 105-160.2 which imposes income tax on estates and trusts. Estates and trust generally receive the same modifications to taxable income and tax rates as single individuals. S.L. 2013-316 moved the statutes allowing modifications to North Carolina taxable income and setting the tax rate.

PART III AGRICULTURAL EXEMPTION CERTIFICATE

S.L. 2013-316 imposed an income threshold a person must meet to qualify for a sales tax agricultural exemption certificate, effective for purchases made on or after July 1 2014. This Part gives guidance to the farming community and the Department of Revenue as to the administration of the income threshold. It also allows the threshold to be met through a three-year income averaging to address issues of income volatility in farming operations.

PART IV. PREPAID MEAL PLANS

S.L. 2013-316 repealed the sales tax exemption for meals served to students in dining rooms regularly operated by educational institutions. The repeal of the exemption imposes the sales tax on a transactional basis. However, in practice, meals are not always directly sold. Today, educational institutions sell a variety of meal plans that offer choices between a specific number of "meal swipes" on a prepaid meal plan and "food dollars" that may be used to purchase items directly. The meal swipes are problematic to tax on a transactional basis because the gross receipts paid for the meal swipes applies regardless of whether or not the meals are consumed. This Part imposes the sales tax on the gross receipts derived from prepaid meal plans and makes other changes that will greatly simplify the administrative compliance burden and that will alleviate confusion regarding who is the retailer, what is the taxable transaction, and how the local tax revenues are sourced. This provision needs to be enacted as soon as possible because educational institutions will begin billing for the fall semester in July and payments will be received primarily during the months of July and August.

PART V. ADMISSIONS

S.L. 2013-316 changed the taxation of live events and movies from a gross receipts privilege tax to a State and local sales tax. It also expanded the sales tax base to include other attractions for which an admission is charged. The act listed five exemptions from the tax. This Part answers questions taxpayers have about the administration and implementation of the tax, such as who must collect the tax, how will the local tax revenues be sourced, and what constitutes "admission charges". The Committee received numerous questions related to the exemptions, so the chairs appointed a subcommittee to specifically look at the exemptions. The subcommittee recommended streamlining and limiting the number of exemptions as the simplest way to ease confusion and ensure that similar events are taxed similarly, regardless of who sponsors the events.

PART VI. SERVICE CONTRACTS

S.L. 2013-316 expanded the sales tax base to include the sales price of a service contract. This Part removes ambiguity from the definition of a "service contract" and addresses the concerns expressed by taxpayers related to who must collect the tax and how to administer refunds of sale tax paid on service contracts that are later rescinded.

PART VII. RETAILER-CONTRACTORS

The applicability of sales tax to a transaction when a retailer acts as a performance contractor has been a source of contention over the past several years. This Part provides greater clarity to taxpayers and the Department of Revenue as to how the sales tax applies to retailer-contractors. Specifically, it provides that a retailer-contractor is the consumer of the items the retailer-contractor purchases and installs on real property to the extent the item becomes part of the real property. As the consumer, the retailer-contractor would be responsible for payment of the tax rather than the person who receives the finished item from the retailer-contractor.

PART VIII. OTHER SALES TAX CHANGES

This Part of the bill draft addresses various sales tax issues concerning the expansion of the sales tax base in S.L. 2013-316. It also addresses a sales tax issue concerning the taxation of accommodations from conflicting Department of Revenue interpretations over the past years.

- Provides that a private residence or cottage rented for fewer than 15 days that is listed by a real estate broker or agent is subject to sales tax and occupancy tax. Beginning in 1984, the Department of Revenue interpreted the private residence exemption to apply only if the residence was not listed with a real estate agent. A 1988 memo by an Associate Attorney General supported this interpretation. In 2012, the Department changed its interpretation and issued an Important Notice indicating that the sales tax exemption applied to a private residence rented for fewer than 15 days regardless of whether it was listed with a real estate agent.
- Disallows a sales tax refund for sales tax paid on video programming and piped natural gas. Historically, the State sales tax refunds allowed to nonprofits and local governments has not applied to sales tax paid on utilities. This section becomes effective July 1, 2014
- Maintains the legislative intent that all newspaper be taxed the same and removes the obsolete sales tax exemption for sales from vending machines of one cent per sale.

PART IX. EXCISE TAX CHANGES

The Committee recommends various changes to the alcohol, tobacco, and motor fuel excise tax statutes at the request of the Department of Revenue and taxpayers.

PART X. TAX LAW COMPLIANCE CHANGES

The Department of Revenue requested the Committee to consider enhancing its tools to improve compliance with the revenue laws. This Part increases the budget for locator service fees and subjects renewal of ABC retail permits to tax compliance checks.

PART XI. PROPERTY TAX CHANGES

This Part provides for the central assessment of mobile telecommunications equipment by experienced public service company appraisers at the Department of Revenue. Under current law, the property is locally assessed by each county. The change is supported by the mobile telecommunications industry, the Department of Revenue, and local governments. The Part would become effective for taxable years beginning on or after July 1, 2015.

PART XII. PRIVILEGE LICENSE TAX CHANGES

The Revenue Laws Study Committee has been presented with an overview of the local privilege license tax system four times in 10 years: 2004, 2008, 2012, and 2014. Historically, this system of taxation has been considered an outmoded, inefficient, and arbitrary method of raising revenue largely because it places a tax burden on only a limited portion of businesses. The tax has been characterized as archaic, arbitrary, and inconsistent. It is archaic because it is based on references to repealed statutes. It is arbitrary because there is no rationale for exempting some businesses, capping the amount of tax that may be imposed on other businesses, and subjecting still others to an unlimited amount of tax. It is inconsistent because different cities impose the tax in different amounts and use different interpretations of how to apply the repealed statutes.

This Part does 3 things:

- It reenacts G.S. 160A-211(a), the subsection that authorizes cities to levy a privilege license tax, which was inadvertently repealed by virtue of a drafting error in Section 58(b) of S.L. 2013-414. The reenactment is effective when it becomes law.
- For purposes of the 2014-2015 fiscal year, it amends the current privilege license tax statute by limiting the authority to tax only those businesses that are physically located within a city's limits. It also limits a city to the same privilege license tax schedule that was in place for the 2013-2014 fiscal year, meaning that a city may not increase any tax rate or tax amount for the 2014-2015 fiscal year; if a city did not have a privilege license tax in 2013-2014, it may not levy one in 2014-2015.
- Beginning July 1, 2015, both the county and city authority to levy a local privilege license tax are repealed. This includes the authority to levy a privilege tax on low-level radioactive and hazardous waste facilities.

Currently, over 300 cities levy a privilege tax generating $62.2 million. Although many cities may levy a privilege license tax, less than a dozen receive a measurable amount of revenue from it. For many cities, the loss of revenue from the repeal of the current tax structure is overcome by the revenue it receives in local sales tax revenue from an expansion of the sales tax base under S.L. 2013-316[1] and from the greater collection of sales tax applicable to online purchases from the agreement of Amazon to collect and remit sales tax on purchases made through Amazon.[2]

PART XIII. LICENSE PLATE AGENT COMPENSATION

S.L. 2013-372 increased compensation for license plate agents (LPAs) to recognize new job responsibilities imposed upon them under the Tax & Tag Together program. The State began the implementation of the Tax & Tag Together program in September 2013. Under this program, a motor vehicle owner receives one bill and makes one payment for both property taxes and vehicle registration renewal. Under the legislation, the transaction rate for the transitional period of the first six months of the program was set at $1.06; the rate was set at $0.71 thereafter. The legislation directed the Revenue Laws Study Committee to study the transaction rate applicable to LPAs. The chairs appointed a subcommittee to review the changes. This Part sets the rate at the transitional rate of $1.06, clarifies the increased rate applies to all transactions where a LPA collects property tax as of July 1, 2014, and allows the retroactive portion of the fee increase to be paid out over a three month time period.

PART XIV. TECHNICAL, CLARIFYING, AND ADMINISTRATIVE CHANGES

This Part makes various other technical, clarifying, and administrative changes to the revenue laws.

PART XV. TAX VAPOR PRODUCTS AND PROHIBIT THE USE OF VAPOR PRODUCTS IN JAILS

This Part imposes an excise tax of 5¢ per milliliter of the consumable product of vapor products, commonly referred to as electronic cigarettes, effective June 1, 2015. An electronic cigarette is a handheld device that produces vapor from a liquid. The liquid is generally heated to produce the vapor by a battery operated device. The liquid usually contains nicotine and sometimes contains flavors. The amount of the nicotine in the liquid can vary. Most electronic cigarettes are reusable. The liquid in the device can either be replenished replacing the cartridge that holds the liquid, or by manually refilling the liquid container. This Part also prohibits the use of electronic cigarettes in State correctional facilities, effective July 1, 2014, and makes it a Class 1 misdemeanor to possess a vapor product in a local confinement facility, effective December 1, 2014.

PART XVII. EFFECTIVE DATE

BILL SUMMARY:

Corporate Income Tax

Under current North Carolina law, corporations are allowed a deduction for a "net economic loss" instead of the "net operating loss" calculated for federal tax purposes. The primary difference is that a "net economic loss" generally means the amount by which allowable deductions exceed income from all sources including income not taxable, and the federal "net operating loss" generally means the amount by which allowable deductions exceed taxable income. The proposal would replace the "net economic loss" with a "State net loss" that is more closely aligned with the federal "net operating loss" calculation.

The current carryforward period of 15 years to utilize a loss for corporate income tax purposes is not changed by this proposal. The proposal is effective January 1, 2015.

Tobacco Tax
The proposal applies an excise tax to vapor products. The bill modifies G.S. 105-113 creating a definition for vapor products and imposing an excise tax of 5¢ per milliliter on the consumable portion of vapor products. Vapor products are defined as noncombustible products that use a heating element to produce vapor from nicotine in a solution. The consumable portion is the part of the vapor product that contains the nicotine liquid solution. This tax is effective June 1, 2014.

Privilege License Tax
This bill proposes to repeal city and county privilege license taxes (PLTs), effective July 1, 2015.

ASSUMPTIONS AND METHODOLOGY:

Corporate Income Tax

State Net Loss
The estimate for the State net loss provision is based on information from the Department of Revenue regarding audit experience and contested cases resulting from the separate calculation required for North Carolina purposes.

Fiscal impact resulting from the adoption of the federal calculation is not expected to be significant. This is because differences between the state and federal calculation have been reduced due to policy changes that have occurred. Additionally, when a loss is reduced for North Carolina purposes in a carryforward year, a taxpayer has the opportunity to use the loss in a subsequent tax year until the 15-year carryforward period expires. This results in deferral of a loss, not elimination of a loss. Although the fiscal impact is not expected to be significant, Fiscal Research has taken a conservative approach to account for potential impact due to conformity to the federal calculation and to account for timing differences.

Sales Tax
The legislation makes two sales tax changes with an unknown or minimal fiscal impact. Removing the sales tax exemption for newspapers sold through vending machines is expected to be a positive gain for the General Fund, but the estimated fiscal impact is minimal (less than $50,000).

The second sales tax change with an unknown fiscal impact is modifying the sales tax base for retailer-contractors. This act provides that the sales tax applies to the wholesale price of tangible personal property (in lieu of the retail price) if purchased by a real property contractor that installs the tangible personal property on the retailer's behalf. A "retailer-contractor" is an entity that can act either as a retailer or as a real property contractor. The best example of a retailer-contractor is a home-improvement store that allows customers to purchase tangible personal property alongside contracts for real property improvements. The fiscal impact is expected to be negative, but the magnitude of the impact is unknown.

Vapor Products
Based on industry information, Fiscal Research estimates that the nickel per milliliter tax on vapor products will generate $5.1 million in General Fund revenue per fiscal year, approximately 50-cents per capita. A similar tax proposal of a nickel per milliliter on e-liquid in South Carolina was estimated to generate $2.5 million per fiscal year, a revenue amount equivalent to a 52-cents per capita tax levy.

According to Nielson data, the e-cigarette industry grossed $1.8 billion in 2013. Roughly 45 percent of e-cigarette sales occur online, with the remainder occurring through traditional channels such as convenience stores. Lorillard's vapor product, Blu, is an industry leader representing 45 percent of all e-cigarette convenience store purchases. Despite the decline/leveling off of traditional tobacco products, the e-cigarette sector is expected to continue to grow with refillable cartridges playing a key role.

Effective June 1, 2014 the fiscal estimate assumes that between 2.9 percent and 3.4 percent of all e-liquid product sales occur in North Carolina, and that three billion milliliters of e-liquid are sold nationally. Apportioning this amount to NC, between 87 million and 102 million milliliters of e-liquid is sold in the state annually. A nickel per milliliter excise tax on e-liquid would generate between $4.4 million and $5.2 million in General Fund Revenue per fiscal year.

Privilege License Tax
Effective July 1, 2015, enacting this bill would result in an annual $62.2 million loss for all municipalities. The estimated loss to all 100 North Carolina counties is less than $500,000 per fiscal year.

SOURCES OF DATA:
- NC Department of Revenue
- North Carolina League of Municipalities: The League of Municipalities surveyed its members in 2013 on the number businesses currently paying a privilege license tax. Members responded to the survey, reporting the number of companies reflected in the 2009-10 fiscal year PLT collections. Of the 310 cities that levied a PLT tax in FY 09-10, the League received information on the number of businesses taxed from 120 cities.

SENATE FINANCE

Senate Committee on Finance
Thursday, May 29, 2014 at 1:00 PM
Room 544 of the Legislative Office Building

MINUTES

The Senate Committee on Finance met at 1:00 PM on May 29, 2014 in Room 544 of the Legislative Office Building. Thirty members were present.

Senator Bill Rabon, Chair, presided.

HB 230 - Clarify Read to Achieve/Sch. Perform. Grades.

Patsy Pierce, an education staff attorney with the Research Division, was recognized to explain the finance portion of the bill. The bill would allow local school administrative units to admit reading proficient students to reading amp, and to charge those students an enrollment fee of up to $825 to attend. Senator Berger was recognized to further explain the bill and to answer questions. Pamela Grady was recognized for comments and to speak in opposition to the bill. Senator Tillman moved for a favorable report, seconded by Senator Harrington, the motion carried. A copy of the bill, the summary and the fiscal note is attached.

SB 744 – Appropriations Act of 2014.

Senator Brown was recognized to explain the bill and asked for staff assistance. Cindy Avrette, committee counsel, was recognized. The bill contains several tax and fee provisions. The tax provisions include:

- Directing the Secretary of Health and Human Services to implement a Medicaid assessment for local management entities/managed care organizations. The rate of the assessment would be 3.5% of the non-Medicare net payments to the LME/MCOs for services performed on or after July 1, 2014;
- Increasing the cap on the highway use tax applicable to commercial vehicles and out-of-state vehicles registered in this State; it repeals the exemption from the motor fuel excise tax for taxicabs and buses operated as part of a city transit system; and it delays the expansion of the highway use tax base to include dealer administrative fees from July 1, 2014, to October 1, 2014;
- Clarifying what is meant by the term "net General Fund tax collected" for purposes of the corporate income tax rate trigger; and,
- Phasing out over four years the Medicaid hold harmless provision that guaranteed counties and additional $500,000 benefit.

Amna Cameron, a fiscal analyst with the Fiscal Research Division, was recognized to answer questions regarding the highway use tax section of the bill. Rodney Bizzell, committee fiscal analyst, was recognized to explain fee impacts. Senator Harrington was recognized to offer an amendment which involves the ethics provisions of the Department of Transportation Board. Senator Meredith moved for its adoption and the motion carried. A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO CLARIFY PROVISIONS OF THE READ TO ACHIEVE ACT AND SCHOOL PERFORMANCE GRADES AND TO EXPAND THE TESTING WINDOW FOR ONE YEAR.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 115C-83.3(2) reads as rewritten:

"(2) "Alternative assessment" means a valid and reliable standardized assessment of reading comprehension, approved by the State Board of Education, that is not the same test as the State-approved standardized test of reading comprehension administered to third grade students. The State Board of Education shall (i) provide several valid and reliable alternative assessments to local school administrative units upon request, (ii) approve valid and reliable alternative assessments submitted by local school administrative units, and (iii) establish achievement level ranges for each approved alternative assessment. The State Board of Education shall annually review all alternative assessments to ensure ongoing relevance, validity, and reliability."

SECTION 2. G.S. 115C-83.3(8) reads as rewritten:

"(8) "Student reading portfolio" means a compilation of independently produced student work selected by the student's teacher, beginning during the first half of the school year, and signed by the teacher and principal, as an accurate picture of the student's reading ability. The student reading portfolio shall include an organized collection of evidence of the student's mastery of the State's reading standards that are assessed by the State-approved standardized test of reading comprehension administered to third grade students. A single piece of evidence may show mastery of up to two standards. For each benchmark, there shall be three examples of student work demonstrating mastery by a grade of seventy percent (70%) or above."

SECTION 3. G.S. 115C-83.3(9) reads as rewritten:

"(9) ~~"Summer reading~~ "Reading camp" means an additional educational program outside of the instructional calendar provided by the local school administrative unit to any student who does not demonstrate reading proficiency. Parents or guardians of the student not demonstrating reading proficiency shall make the final decision regarding the student's ~~summer~~ reading camp attendance. ~~Summer~~ Reading camps shall (i) ~~be six to eight weeks long, four or five days per week; (ii) include at least three hours of~~ ~~instructional time per day; (iii)~~ offer at least 72 hours of reading instruction to yield positive reading outcomes for participants; (ii) be taught by compensated, licensed teachers selected based on demonstrated student outcomes in reading proficiency; and ~~(iv) allow~~ (iii) allow volunteer mentors to read with ~~students.~~students at times other than during the 72 hours of reading instruction. The 72 hours of reading instruction shall be provided over no less than three weeks for students in schools using calendars other than year-round calendars."

SECTION 4. G.S. 115C-83.5(d) reads as rewritten:

"(d) The kindergarten entry assessment shall (i) address the five essential domains of school readiness: language and literacy development, cognition and general knowledge, approaches toward learning, physical well-being and motor development, and social and emotional ~~development.~~development and (ii) yield both qualitative and quantitative data in each of these domains. Data obtained through administration of the kindergarten entry assessment shall be used to populate relevant fields in a longitudinal data base. The language and literacy component of the kindergarten entry assessment may be used as a formative and diagnostic reading assessment as provided in G.S. 115C-83.6."

SECTION 5. G.S. 115C-83.7(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Students may be exempt from mandatory retention in third grade for good cause, but shall continue to be eligible to participate in reading camps, receive instructional supports and services and reading interventions appropriate for their age and reading level. Good cause exemptions shall be limited to the following:

(1) Limited English Proficient students with less than two ~~years~~ school years of instruction in an English as a Second Language program.

(2) Students with disabilities, as defined in ~~G.S. 115C-106.3(1), whose individualized education program indicates the use of alternative assessments and reading interventions.~~G.S. 115C-106.3(1), and whose individualized education program indicates (i) the use of the NCEXTEND1 alternate assessment, (ii) at least a two school year delay in educational performance, or (iii) receipt of intensive reading interventions for at least two school years.

(3) Students who demonstrate reading proficiency appropriate for third grade students on an alternative assessment approved by the State Board of Education. ~~Teachers may administer alternative assessment following the administration of the State-approved standardized test of reading comprehension typically given to third grade students at the end of the school year or after a student's participation in the local school administrative unit's summer reading camp.~~

(4) Students who demonstrate, through a student reading portfolio, reading proficiency appropriate for third grade students. ~~Teachers may submit the student reading portfolio at the end of the school year or after a student's participation in the local school administrative unit's summer reading camp. The student~~ Student reading portfolio and review ~~process~~ processes used by local school administrative units shall be ~~established~~ approved by the State Board of Education.

(5) Students who have (i) received reading intervention and (ii) previously been retained more than once in kindergarten, first, second, or third grades."

SECTION 6. G.S. 115C-83.8 reads as rewritten:

"§ 115C-83.8. Successful reading development for retained students.

(a) Parents or guardians of ~~Students~~ students not demonstrating reading proficiency shall be ~~enrolled~~ encouraged to enroll their student in a ~~summer~~ reading camp provided by the local school administrative ~~unit prior to being retained.~~ unit. ~~Students who demonstrate reading proficiency on an alternative assessment of reading comprehension or student reading portfolio after completing a summer reading camp shall be promoted to the fourth grade. Students who do not demonstrate reading proficiency on these measures after completing a summer reading camp shall be retained under G.S. 115C-83.7(a) and provided with the instruction listed in subsection (b) of this section during the retained year.~~ Parents or guardians of a student not demonstrating reading proficiency shall make the final decision regarding a student's reading camp attendance. Local school administrative units shall provide at least one opportunity for students not participating in a reading camp to demonstrate reading proficiency appropriate for third grade students on an alternative assessment or through a student reading portfolio process approved by the State Board of Education prior to retaining the student.

(b) Students retained under G.S. 115C-83.7(a) shall be provided with a teacher selected based on demonstrated student outcomes in reading proficiency and placed in an accelerated reading class or a transitional third and fourth grade class combination, as appropriate. Classroom instruction shall include at least 90 minutes of daily, uninterrupted, evidence-based reading instruction, not to include independent reading time, and other appropriate instructional supports and services and reading interventions.

(c) The State Board of Education shall establish a midyear promotion policy for any student retained under G.S. 115C-83.7(a) who, by November 1, demonstrates reading proficiency through administration of the alternative assessment of reading comprehension or student reading portfolio review. Principals shall use the provisions under G.S. 115C-288(a) to grade and classify students demonstrating reading proficiency after the November 1 midyear promotion deadline.

(d) Repealed by Session Laws 2013-360, s. 8.30, effective July 1, 2013.

(e) Parents or guardians of students who have been retained twice under the provisions of G.S. 115C-83.7(a) shall be offered supplemental tutoring for the retained student in evidence-based reading services outside the instructional day."

SECTION 7. G.S. 115C-83.9 reads as rewritten:

"§ 115C-83.9. Notification requirements to parents and guardians.

(a) Parents or guardians shall be notified in writing, and in a timely manner, that the student shall be retained, unless he or she is exempt from mandatory retention for good cause, if the student is not demonstrating reading proficiency by the end of third grade. Parents or guardians shall receive this notice when a kindergarten, first, second, or third grade student (i) is demonstrating difficulty with reading development; (ii) is not reading at grade level; or (iii) has a personal education plan under G.S. 115C-105.41.

(b) Parents or guardians of any student who is to be retained under the provisions of G.S. 115C-83.7(a) shall be notified in writing of the reason the student is not eligible for a good cause exemption as provided in G.S. 115C-83.7(b). Written notification shall also include a description of proposed reading interventions that will be provided to the student to remediate identified areas of reading deficiency.

(c) Parents or guardians of students retained under G.S. 115C-83.7(a) shall receive at least monthly written reports on student progress toward reading proficiency. The evaluation of the student's progress shall be based upon the student's classroom work, observations, tests, assessments, and other relevant information.

(d) Teachers and principals shall provide ~~opportunities~~ opportunities, including, but not limited to, information sessions, to discuss with parents and guardians the notifications listed in this section."

SECTION 8. Part 1A of Article 8 of Chapter 115C of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 115C-83.11. Continued support for students demonstrating reading proficiency.

(a) Parents or guardians of a student demonstrating reading proficiency appropriate for a third grade student as provided under G.S. 115C-83.7 may choose to enroll the student in the reading camp as defined in G.S. 115C-83.3(9) but may be charged an attendance fee. Local boards of education may establish a fee amount to be equal to the per student program cost of participating in the reading camp, not to exceed eight hundred twenty-five dollars ($825.00).

(b) Priority enrollment in the reading camp is for students not demonstrating reading proficiency as provided under G.S. 115C-83.8. Local boards of education shall establish application procedures and enrollment priorities for reading camps for students demonstrating reading proficiency."

SECTION 9. G.S. 115C-238.29F(d1) reads as rewritten:

SECTION 10. The State Board of Education shall implement the developmental screening instrument as provided in G.S. 115C-83.5 in each school in a local school administrative unit enrolling kindergarten students, and according to the approved time line for the administration of the Kindergarten Entry Assessment as provided under Section 3.9 of S.L. 2013-363. Additional components of the Kindergarten Entry Assessment shall be fully implemented in each school in a local school administrative unit enrolling kindergarten students beginning with the 2016-2017 school year.

SECTION 11. The title of Part 5 of Article 10A of Chapter 115C of the General Statutes reads as rewritten:

"CAREER AND COLLEGE READINESS."

SECTION 12. G.S. 115C-83.4A is recodified in Part 5 of Article 10A of Chapter 115C of the General Statutes as G.S. 115C-174.26.

SECTION 13. G.S. 115C-83.15(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Calculation of the School Achievement Score. – In calculating the overall school achievement score earned by schools, the State Board of Education shall total the sum of points earned by a school on all of the following indicators that are measured for that school:

(2) One point for each percent of students who score at or above proficient on annual assessments for reading in grades three through eight.

(3) One point for each percent of students who score at or above proficient on annual assessments for science in grades five and eight.

(4) One point for each percent of students who score at or above proficient on the Algebra I or Integrated Math I end-of-course test.

(5) One point for each percent of students who score at or above proficient on the English II end-of-course test.

(6) One point for each percent of students who score at or above proficient on the Biology end-of-course test.

(7) One point for each percent of students who complete Algebra II or Integrated Math III with a passing grade.

(8) One point for each percent of students who achieve the minimum score required for admission into a constituent institution of The University of North Carolina on a nationally normed test of college readiness.

(9) One point for each percent of students enrolled in Career and Technical Education courses who meet the standard when scoring at Silver, Gold, or Platinum levels on a nationally normed test of workplace readiness.

(10) One point for each percent of students who graduate within four years of entering high school.

~~Each school achievement indicator shall be of equal value when used to determine the overall school achievement score.~~ In calculating the overall school achievement score earned by schools, the State Board of Education shall (i) use a composite approach to weigh the achievement elements based on the number of students measured by any given achievement element and (ii) proportionally adjust the scale to account for the absence of a school achievement element for award of scores to a school that does not have a measure of one of the school achievement elements annually assessed for the grades taught at that school. The overall school achievement score shall be translated to a 100-point scale and used for school reporting purposes as provided in G.S. 115C-12(9)c1., 115C-238.29F, and 115C-238.66."

SECTION 14. G.S. 115C-83.15(d) reads as rewritten:

"(d) Calculation of the School Performance Scores and Grades. – ~~For schools exceeding or not meeting expected school growth, the~~ The State Board of Education shall use EVAAS to calculate the school performance score by adding the school achievement score, as provided in subsection (b) of this section, and the school growth score, as provided in subsection (c) of this section, earned by a school. The school achievement score shall account for eighty percent (80%), and the school growth score shall account for twenty percent (20%) of the total sum. ~~For schools meeting expected growth, and with a school achievement score of eighty percent (80%) or higher, the school performance score shall solely reflect the achievement score. For schools meeting expected growth, and with a school achievement score below eighty percent (80%), the school achievement score shall account for eighty percent (80%), and the school~~

~~growth score shall account for twenty percent (20%) of the total sum.~~ If a school has met expected growth and inclusion of the school's growth score reduces the school's performance score and grade, a school may choose to use the school achievement score solely to calculate the performance score and grade. For all schools, the total school performance score shall be converted to a 100-point scale and used to determine a school performance grade based on the following scale:

(1) A school performance score of at least 90 is equivalent to an overall school performance grade of A.

(2) A school performance score of at least 80 is equivalent to an overall school performance grade of B.

(3) A school performance score of at least 70 is equivalent to an overall school performance grade of C.

(4) A school performance score of at least 60 is equivalent to an overall school performance grade of D.

(5) A school performance score of less than 60 points is equivalent to an overall school performance grade of F."

SECTION 15. Notwithstanding G.S. 115C-83.15(d), for the 2013-2014 school year only, for all schools the total school performance score shall be converted to a 100-point scale and used to determine a school performance grade based on the following scale:

(1) A school performance score of at least 85 is equivalent to an overall school performance grade of A.

(2) A school performance score of at least 70 is equivalent to an overall school performance grade of B.

(3) A school performance score of at least 55 is equivalent to an overall school performance grade of C.

(4) A school performance score of at least 40 is equivalent to an overall school performance grade of D.

(5) A school performance score of less than 40 points is equivalent to an overall school performance grade of F.

SECTION 16. For the 2014-2015 school year only, local boards of education may apply for waivers from the requirements in G.S. 115C-174.12(4) which limit the administration of final exams for year-long courses to the final 10 instructional days of the school year and the final five instructional days of the semester for semester courses. Local boards of education shall apply for these waivers to the State Board of Education by September 1, 2014. The State Board of Education shall grant the waivers for up to five additional days in order to allow the administration of final exams for year-long courses within the final 15 instructional days of the school year and for semester courses within the final 10 instructional days of the semester. By October 1, 2014, the State Board of Education shall notify the local boards of education whether the requested waivers have been granted.

SECTION 17. This act is effective when it becomes law. Section 16 of this act applies only for the 2014-2015 school year.

HOUSE BILL 230:
Clarify Read to Achieve/Sch. Perform. Grades

2013-2014 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Finance	Date:	May 29, 2014
Introduced by:	Reps. Malone, S. Martin, Brody, Samuelson	Prepared by:	Patsy Pierce
Analysis of:	Second Edition		Legislative Analyst

SUMMARY: The Senate Committee Substitute for House Bill 230[1] would make several clarifying changes to the Read to Achieve program including providing flexibility for local school administrative units (LEAs) when implementing reading camps, alternative assessments, and student reading portfolios. Additional students with individualized education programs (IEPs) would be exempt from mandatory retention. It would also change the scale for calculating A-F school performance grades from a 10-point to a 15-point scale for the 2013-2014 school year.

The Finance provision is in Section 8 of the bill, beginning on page 3. It would allow LEAs to admit reading proficient students to reading camp, and to charge those students an enrollment fee of up to $825 to attend.

CURRENT LAW: Part 1A of Chapter 115C of the General Statutes establishes the Read to Achieve program. The Program requires that a student who fails to demonstrate third grade reading proficiency on a State-approved standardized test of reading comprehension must be retained in third grade, unless the student meets one of certain good cause exemptions to the retention requirement. Exemptions include limited English proficiency, disability, demonstrated proficiency on an alternative reading test or student portfolio, or multiple retentions. Retained students are enrolled in summer reading camps, and may be promoted upon a showing of reading proficiency on an alternative assessment. Retained students are provided with a successful reading teacher in an accelerated reading or transitional 3rd-4th grade classroom where specific reading instruction takes place. Students demonstrating reading proficiency by November 1 may be promoted midyear under a policy developed by the SBE. Parents must be notified of third grade retention policies, and must be given monthly written reports regarding student progress for retained students.

Part 1B of Chapter 115C establishes the calculation methodology for school achievement, growth, performance scores and grades.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1 directs the State Board of Education to (i) provide several valid and reliable alternative assessments, (ii) approve valid and reliable alternative assessments submitted by LEAs, (iii) establish achievement levels for approved alternative assessments, and (iv) annually review alternative assessments.

Section 2 allows the student reading portfolio to begin to be compiled during the first half of the school year, and that a single piece of evidence may be used to show mastery for up to two standards.

[1] The original House Bill 230 would amend the definition of a home school to allow children taught in home schools to receive academic instruction from sources other than parents or guardians. The same language that is in House Bill 230 was passed in Senate Bill 189 (S.L. 2013-57).

Section 3 provides that reading camps will be provided for at least 72 hours over a period of no less than 3 weeks.
Section 4 requires the Kindergarten Entry Assessment to yield both qualitative and quantitative data.
Section 5 clarifies the good cause exemptions from mandatory retention by specifying school years of English instruction for Limited English Proficient students, and a two year delay in educational performance or a two year history of intensive reading intervention for students with IEPs. This section also provides flexibility as to when an alternative assessment may be administered and allows LEAs to develop their own student reading portfolio process. The process must be approved by the State Board of Education.
Section 6 clarifies that parents or guardians make the final decision regarding a retained student's participation in reading camp and that local school systems must provide at least one opportunity for students not participating in reading camp to demonstrate proficiency prior to being retained. This Section also clarifies that a principal can promote a student when he or she demonstrates proficiency, even after the midyear promotion cutoff date.
Section 7 adds that teachers and principals may offer information sessions for parents or guardians about a student's difficulty with reading development and possibility of retention.
Section 8 allows LEAs to admit reading proficient students to reading camp, but may charge an enrollment fee of up to $825.
Section 9 adds the new good cause exemption language to the charter school statutes.
Section 10 directs the State Board of Education to implement the developmental screening (literacy and mathematics) in half of the LEAs during the 2014-2015 school year, and in all of the LEAs by the 2015-2016 school year.
Sections 11-12 make a technical correction to move a misplaced section of the statutes to the appropriate location.
Sections 13-15 change the school achievement score methodology to a composite approach, clarify that, if the growth score depresses the achievement score for schools meeting expected growth, then just the achievement score can be used to calculate performance, and for the 2013-2014 school year, a 15-point rather than a 10-point scale would be used to assign school performance letter grades of A-F.
Section 16 allows local school boards to apply for a waiver to the State Board of Education during the 2014-2015 school year only to add 5 additional testing days for end-of-course and end-of-semester testing.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act is effective when it becomes law.

BACKGROUND: The Read to Achieve Program and School Performance Grades requirements were enacted through the Excellent Public Schools Act of 2012 and amended in 2013.

BILL SUMMARY:
Sections 1 through 10 of this bill would make several changes related to the Read to Achieve program found in Part 1A in Chapter 8 of the General Statutes. The majority of the changes involve clarifying existing requirements, or providing operational flexibility in delivering certain interventions.

Section 8 of this bill is the only section that potentially creates a new fiscal impact. This section allows local education agencies (LEAs) to charge a fee equal to the per student program cost of participating in the reading camp (up to a maximum of $825 per student) to students who:

1. Attend a reading camp; and
2. Demonstrate reading proficiency appropriate for a third grade student.

LEAs would be required to establish application procedures and enrollment priorities to govern enrollment in summer reading camps, and to ensure that students not demonstrating reading proficiency are provided priority for summer camp enrollment.

Sections 11 through 15 modify the methodology for awarding school performance grades.

Section 16 would allow LEAs to apply to the State Board of Education to receive waivers providing LEAs additional flexibility regarding final exam administration dates.

ASSUMPTIONS AND METHODOLOGY:
This bill has no State fiscal impact. This bill has an indeterminate impact on the local budgets of LEAs.

Section 8 of this bill creates a new fee that LEAs could charge – at their option – to a certain subset of students (those performing at grade level according to third grade reading exams) opting to participate in a yet-to-be-implemented program (reading camps).

We are unable to estimate the additional local revenue that might be created as a result of this bill. Because the program is new, student participation is optional, and the decision on whether or not to charge the fee is optional, there is no data from which to estimate the additional local revenue that might be created in this section of the bill.

(c) ~~(1) Election of a Teacher to Career Status. Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (3) of this subsection, when a teacher has been employed by a North Carolina public school system for four consecutive years, the board, near the end of the fourth year, shall vote upon whether to grant the teacher career status. The teacher has a right to notice and hearing prior to the board's vote as provided in G.S. 115C-325(m)(3) and G.S. 115C-325(m)(4). The board shall give the teacher written notice of that decision by June 15 or such later date as provided in G.S. 115C-325(m)(7). If a majority of the board votes to grant career status to the teacher, and if it has notified the teacher of the decision, it may not rescind that action but must proceed under the provisions of this section for the demotion or dismissal of a teacher if it decides to terminate the teacher's employment. If a majority of the board votes against granting career status, the teacher shall not teach beyond the current school term. If the board fails to vote on granting career status, the teacher shall be entitled to an additional month's pay for every 30 days or portion thereof after June 16 or such later date as provided in~~

~~G.S. 115C-325(m)(7) if a majority of the board belatedly votes against granting career status.~~

~~(2) Employment of a Career Teacher. – A teacher who has obtained career status in any North Carolina public school system need not serve another probationary period of more than one year. The board may grant career status immediately upon employing the teacher, or after the first year of employment. The teacher has a right to notice and hearing prior to the board's vote as provided in G.S. 115C-325(m)(3) and G.S. 115C-325(m)(4). The board shall give the teacher written notice of that decision by June 15 or such later date as provided in G.S. 115C-325(m)(7). If a majority of the board votes against granting career status, the teacher shall not teach beyond the current term. If after one year of employment, the board fails to vote on the issue of granting career status, the teacher shall be entitled to one additional month's pay for every 30 days or portion thereof beyond June 16 or such later date as provided in G.S. 115C-325(m)(7) if a majority of the board belatedly voted against granting career status.~~

~~(2a) Notice of Teachers Eligible to Achieve Career Status. – At least 30 days prior to any board action granting career status, the superintendent shall submit to the board a list of the names of all teachers who are eligible to achieve career status. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the list shall be a public record under Chapter 132 of the General Statutes.~~

~~(3) Ineligible for Career Status. – No employee of a local board of education except a teacher as defined by G.S. 115C-325(a)(6) is eligible to obtain career status or continue in a career status as a teacher if he no longer performs the responsibilities of a teacher as defined in G.S. 115C-325(a)(6). No person who is employed as a school administrator who did not acquire career status as a school administrator by June 30, 1997, shall have career status as an administrator. Further, no director or assistant principal is eligible to obtain career status as a school administrator unless he or she has already been conferred that status by the local board of education.~~

(4) Leave of Absence. – A career teacher who has been granted a leave of absence by a board shall maintain his career status if he returns to his teaching position at the end of the authorized leave.

~~(5) Consecutive Years of Service. –~~

~~a. If a probationary teacher in a full-time permanent position does not work for at least 120 workdays in a school year because the teacher is on sick leave, disability leave, or both, that school year shall not be deemed to constitute (i) a consecutive year of service for the teacher or (ii) a break in the continuity in consecutive years of service for the teacher.~~

~~b. If a probationary teacher in a full-time permanent position is nonrenewed because of a decrease in the number of positions due to decreased funding, decreased enrollment, or a district reorganization, and is subsequently rehired by the same school system within three years, the intervening years when the teacher was not employed by the local school administrative unit shall not be deemed to constitute (i) a consecutive year of service for the teacher or (ii) a break in the continuity of years of service. However, if at the time of the teacher's nonrenewal for the reasons described in this subsection, the teacher was eligible for career status after being employed four consecutive~~

~~years pursuant to G.S. 115C-325(e)(1), or one year pursuant to G.S. 115C-325(e)(2), and the board subsequently rehires the teacher within three years, the teacher will be eligible for a career status decision after one additional year of employment. Unless the superintendent unilaterally grants a teacher the benefit set forth in this subsection pursuant to a policy adopted by the board of education for this purpose, the teacher is entitled to such benefit only if the teacher notifies the head of human resources for the local school administrative unit in writing within 60 calendar days after the first day of employment upon being rehired that the teacher was nonrenewed because of a decrease in the number of positions triggered by decreased funding, decreased enrollment, or a district reorganization, and therefore the teacher's nonrenewal did not constitute a break in service for purposes of determining eligibility for career status. The local school administrative unit shall notify the teacher of the 60-day deadline as described herein in the employment application, contract, or in some other method reasonably calculated to provide the teacher actual notice within 30 calendar days after the first day of employment for the rehired teacher. The burden is on the teacher to submit information establishing that the teacher was nonrenewed because of a decrease in the number of positions triggered by decreased funding, decreased enrollment, or a district reorganization. If the local school administrative unit fails to provide notice to the teacher within this 30-day period, then the teacher's obligation to notify the local school administrative unit within 60 days does not commence until such time that the teacher is notified of the 60-day deadline.~~

~~The superintendent or designee will inform the teacher on whether the teacher qualifies for the benefit of this subsection within a reasonable period of time after receiving the information submitted by the teacher. This decision is final and the teacher has no right to a hearing or appeal except that the teacher may petition the board in writing within 10 calendar days after receiving the decision of the superintendent or designee, and the board or board panel shall review the matter on the record and provide the teacher a written decision. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no appeal to court or otherwise is permitted in regard to the benefits provided under this subsection. This subsection creates no private right of action or basis for any liability on the part of the school system, nor does it create any reemployment rights for a nonrenewed probationary teacher.~~

~~The provisions of this subsection also shall apply to a probationary teacher in a full-time permanent position who resigns effective the end of the school year in good standing after receiving documentation that the teacher's position may be eliminated because of a decrease in the number of positions triggered by decreased funding, decreased enrollment, or a district reorganization, and is subsequently rehired by the same school system.~~

~~(6) Status of Exchange Teachers. Exchange teachers shall not be eligible to obtain career status. However, for purposes of determining eligibility to receive employment benefits under this Chapter, including personal leave,~~

~~annual vacation leave, and sick leave, an exchange teacher shall be considered a permanent teacher if employed with the expectation of at least six full consecutive monthly pay periods of employment and if employed at least 20 hours per week.~~

(d) Career ~~Teachers and Career School Administrators.~~Teachers.

(1) A career teacher ~~or career school administrator~~ shall not be subjected to the requirement of annual appointment nor shall he be dismissed, demoted, or employed on a part-time basis without his consent except as provided in subsection (e).

(2) ~~a. The provisions of this subdivision do not apply to a person who is ineligible for career status as provided by G.S. 115C-325(c)(3).~~

b. Repealed by Session Laws 1997, c. 221, s. 13(a).

c. Subject to G.S. 115C-287.1, when a teacher has performed the duties of supervisor or principal for three consecutive years, the board, near the end of the third year, shall vote upon his employment for the next school year. The board shall give him written notice of that decision by June 1 of his third year of employment as a supervisor or principal. If a majority of the board votes to reemploy the teacher as a principal or supervisor, and it has notified him of that decision, it may not rescind that action but must proceed under the provisions of this section. If a majority of the board votes not to reemploy the teacher as a principal or supervisor, he shall retain career status as a teacher if that status was attained prior to assuming the duties of supervisor or principal. A supervisor or principal who has not held that position for three years and whose contract will not be renewed for the next school year shall be notified by June 1 and shall retain career status as a teacher if that status was attained prior to assuming the duties of supervisor or principal.

A year, for purposes of computing time as a probationary principal or supervisor, shall not be less than 145 workdays performed as a full-time, permanent principal or supervisor in a contract year.

~~A principal or supervisor who has obtained career status in that position in any North Carolina public school system may be required by the board of education in another school system to serve an additional three-year probationary period in that position before being eligible for career status. However, he may, at the option of the board of education, be granted career status immediately or after serving a probationary period of one or two additional years. A principal or supervisor with career status who resigns and within five years is reemployed by the same school system need not serve another probationary period in that position of more than two years and may, at the option of the board, be reemployed immediately as a career principal or supervisor or be given career status after only one year. In any event, if he is reemployed for a third consecutive year, he shall automatically become a career principal or supervisor.~~

(3) Inadequate Performance. – In determining whether the professional performance of a career employee is adequate, consideration shall be given to regular and special evaluation reports prepared in accordance with the published policy of the employing local school administrative unit and to any published standards of performance which shall have been adopted by the board. Failure to notify a career employee of an inadequacy or deficiency in performance shall be conclusive evidence of satisfactory performance. Inadequate performance for a teacher shall mean (i) the failure to perform at a proficient level on any standard of the evaluation instrument or (ii) otherwise performing in a manner that is below standard. ~~However, for a probationary teacher, a performance rating below proficient may or may not be deemed adequate at that stage of development by a superintendent or designee.~~ For a career teacher, a performance rating below proficient shall constitute inadequate performance unless the principal noted on the instrument that the teacher is making adequate progress toward proficiency given the circumstances.

~~(m) Probationary Teacher.~~

~~(1) The board of any local school administrative unit may not discharge a probationary teacher during the school year except for the reasons for and by the procedures by which a career employee may be dismissed as set forth in subsections (e), (f), (f1), and (h) to (j3) above.~~

~~(2) The board, upon recommendation of the superintendent, may refuse to renew the contract of any probationary teacher or to reemploy any teacher who is not under contract for any cause it deems sufficient: Provided, however, that the cause may not be arbitrary, capricious, discriminatory or for personal or political reasons.~~

~~(3) The superintendent shall provide written notice to a probationary teacher no later than May 15 of the superintendent's intent to recommend nonrenewal and the teacher's right, within 10 days of receipt of the superintendent's recommendation, to (i) request and receive written notice of the reasons for the superintendent's recommendation for nonrenewal and the information that the superintendent may share with the board to support the recommendation for nonrenewal; and (ii) request a hearing for those teachers eligible for a hearing under G.S. 115C-325(m)(4). The failure to file a timely request within the 10 days shall result in a waiver of the right to this information and any right to a hearing. If a teacher files a timely request, the superintendent shall provide the requested information and arrange for a hearing, if allowed, and the teacher shall be permitted to submit supplemental information to the superintendent and board prior to the board making a decision or holding a hearing as provided in this section. The board shall adopt a policy to provide for the orderly exchange of information prior to the board's decision on the superintendent's recommendation for nonrenewal.~~

~~(4) If the probationary teacher is eligible for career status pursuant to G.S. 115C-325(e)(1) and (e)(2) and the superintendent recommends not to give the probationary teacher career status, the probationary teacher has the right to a hearing before the board unless the reason is a justifiable board or superintendent approved decrease in the number of positions due to district reorganization, decreased enrollment, or decreased funding.~~

~~(5) For probationary contracts that are not in the final year before the probationary teacher is eligible for career status, the probationary teacher shall have the right to petition the local board of education for a hearing, and~~

~~the local board may grant a hearing regarding the superintendent's recommendation for nonrenewal. The local board of education shall notify the probationary teacher making the petition of its decision whether to grant a hearing.~~

~~(6) Any hearing held according to this subsection shall be pursuant to the provisions of G.S. 115C-45(c).~~

~~(7) The board shall notify a probationary teacher whose contract will not be renewed for the next school year of its decision by June 15; provided, however, if a teacher submits a request for information or a hearing, the board shall provide the nonrenewal notification by July 1 or such later date upon the written consent of the superintendent and teacher.~~

~~(n) Appeal. Any career employee who has been dismissed or demoted under G.S. 115C-325(e)(2), or under G.S. 115C-325(j2), or who has been suspended without pay under G.S. 115C-325(a)(4a), or any school administrator whose contract is not renewed in accordance with G.S. 115C-287.1, or any probationary teacher whose contract is not renewed under G.S. 115C-325(m)(2) shall have the right to appeal from the decision of the board to the superior court for the superior court district or set of districts as defined in G.S. 7A-41.1 in which the career employee is employed. This appeal shall be filed within a period of 30 days after notification of the decision of the board. The cost of preparing the transcript shall be determined under G.S. 115C-325(j2)(8) or G.S. 115C-325(j3)(10). A career employee who has been demoted or dismissed, or a school administrator whose contract is not renewed, who has not requested a hearing before the board of education pursuant to this section shall not be entitled to judicial review of the board's action.~~

(o) Resignation. –

(2) A ~~teacher, career or probationary,~~ career teacher who is not recommended for dismissal should not resign without the consent of the superintendent unless he or she has given at least 30 days' notice. If a teacher who is not recommended for dismissal does resign without giving at least 30 days' notice, the board may request that the State Board of Education revoke the teacher's license for the remainder of that school year. A copy of the request shall be placed in the teacher's personnel file.

(p) Section Applicable to Certain Institutions. – Notwithstanding any law or regulation to the contrary, this section shall apply to all persons who are employed as career teachers in teaching and related educational classes in the schools and institutions of the Departments of Health and Human Services and Public Instruction and the Divisions of Juvenile Justice and Adult Correction of the Department of Public Safety regardless of the age of the students.

(p1) Procedure for Dismissal of School Administrators and Teachers Employed in Low-Performing Residential Schools. –

(1) ~~Notwithstanding any other provision of this section or any other law, this~~ This subdivision shall govern the dismissal by the Secretary of Health and Human Services of teachers, principals, assistant principals, directors, supervisors, and other licensed personnel who are career employees and are assigned to a residential school that the State Board has identified as low-performing and to which the State Board has assigned an assistance team under Part 3A of Article 3 of Chapter 143B of the General Statutes. The Secretary shall dismiss a teacher, principal, assistant principal, director, supervisor, or other licensed personnel when the Secretary receives two consecutive evaluations that include written findings and recommendations regarding that person's inadequate performance from the assistance team.

These findings and recommendations shall be substantial evidence of the inadequate performance of the teacher or school administrator.

The Secretary may dismiss a teacher, principal, assistant principal, director, supervisor, or other licensed personnel when:

a. The Secretary determines that the school has failed to make satisfactory improvement after the State Board assigned an assistance team to that school under Part 3A of Article 3 of Chapter 143B of the General Statutes; and

b. That assistance team makes the recommendation to dismiss the teacher, principal, assistant principal, director, supervisor, or other licensed personnel for one or more grounds established in G.S. 115C-325(e)(1) for dismissal or demotion of a career employee.

Within 30 days of any dismissal under this subdivision, a teacher, principal, assistant principal, director, supervisor, or other licensed personnel may request a hearing before a panel of three members designated by the Secretary. The Secretary shall adopt procedures to ensure that due process rights are afforded to persons recommended for dismissal under this subdivision. Decisions of the panel may be appealed on the record to the Secretary, with further right of judicial review under Chapter 150B of the General Statutes.

(q) Procedure for Dismissal of ~~School Administrators and~~ Teachers Employed in Low-Performing Schools. –

~~(1) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section or any other law, this subdivision governs the State Board's dismissal of principals assigned to low-performing schools to which the Board has assigned an assistance team:~~

~~a. The State Board through its designee may, at any time, recommend the dismissal of any principal who is assigned to a low-performing school to which an assistance team has been assigned. The State Board through its designee shall recommend the dismissal of any principal when the Board receives from the assistance team assigned to that principal's school two consecutive evaluations that include written findings and recommendations regarding the principal's inadequate performance.~~

~~b. If the State Board through its designee recommends the dismissal of a principal under this subdivision, the principal shall be suspended with pay pending a hearing before a panel of three members of the State Board. The purpose of this hearing, which shall be held within 60 days after the principal is suspended, is to determine whether the principal shall be dismissed.~~

~~c. The panel shall order the dismissal of the principal if it determines from available information, including the findings of the assistance team, that the low performance of the school is due to the principal's inadequate performance.~~

~~d. The panel may order the dismissal of the principal if (i) it determines that the school has not made satisfactory improvement after the State Board assigned an assistance team to that school; and (ii) the assistance team makes the recommendation to dismiss the principal for one or more grounds established in G.S. 115C-325(e)(1) for dismissal or demotion of a career employee.~~

~~e. If the State Board or its designee recommends the dismissal of a principal before the assistance team assigned to the principal's school has evaluated that principal, the panel may order the dismissal of the principal if the panel determines from other available information that the low performance of the school is due to the principal's inadequate performance.~~

~~f. In all hearings under this subdivision, the burden of proof is on the principal to establish that the factors leading to the school's low performance were not due to the principal's inadequate performance. SUBPART XII-C. DIVISION OF SOCIAL SERVICES

CHILD PROTECTIVE SERVICES IMPROVEMENT INITIATIVE

SECTION 12C.1.(a) Findings and Intent. – The General Assembly makes the following findings:

(1) Child Protective Services' policy from the Department of Health and Human Services, Division of Social Services, recommends that the average child protective services caseload be no greater than 10 families at any time for workers performing child protective services assessments and 10 families at any time for staff providing in-home services. However, data suggests that in 43 of the counties in this State, 21 have a caseload size of over 15 cases per worker; and further, in nine of those 21 counties, there is an average caseload size of over 20 cases per worker.

(2) During the 2013-2014 fiscal year, county departments of social services lost federal funding for child protective services under the Temporary Assistance of Needy Families (TANF) Block Grant and Title IV-E funding. However, the number of Child Protective Services investigations has grown by twenty percent (20%) from fiscal year 2002 to fiscal year 2012.

(3) There is no current, statewide data available on the performance of county departments of social services regarding child protective services.

(4) There exists the potential for a conflict of interest to arise when a county department of social services has been appointed as guardian for both (i) a child who is the subject of a report of abuse, neglect, or dependency that would be investigated by Child Protective Services and (ii) for the parent or legal guardian of the child.

It is the intent of the General Assembly to (i) reduce caseload size for Child Protective Services' workers to the recommended standard, (ii) provide adequate resources for county departments of social services to provide child protective services for abused, neglected, and dependent children, (iii) provide for a comprehensive evaluation of various functions and funding regarding child protective services, and (iv) study ways to reduce conflicts of interest regarding guardianship and child protective services. To that end, the General Assembly supports the initiatives and the allocation of funds for child welfare services as described in this section.

SECTION 12C.1.(b) Funds for Child Protective Services. – Of the funds appropriated in this act to the Department of Health and Human Services, Division of Social Services, the sum of eight million three hundred twenty-six thousand six hundred twenty-seven dollars ($8,326,627) shall be allocated to provide additional child protective services workers at county departments of social services to reduce caseloads to the recommended standard.

SECTION 12C.1.(c) Funds for In-Home Services. – Of the funds appropriated in this act to the Department of Health and Human Services, Division of Social Services, the sum of four million five hundred thousand dollars ($4,500,000) shall be allocated for Child Welfare in-home services to provide and coordinate interventions and services that focus on child safety and protection, family preservation, and the prevention of further abuse or neglect.

SECTION 12C.1.(d) Funds for Oversight of Child Welfare Services. – Of the funds appropriated in this act to the Department of Health and Human Services, Division of Social Services, the sum of seven hundred fifty thousand dollars ($750,000) shall be allocated to fund nine positions to the Division to enhance oversight of child welfare services in county departments of social services. These positions shall be used to monitor, train, and provide technical assistance to the county departments of social services to ensure children and families are provided services that address the safety, permanency, and well-being of children served by child welfare services.

SECTION 12C.1.(e) Pilot Program. – Of the funds appropriated in this act to the Department of Health and Human Services, Division of Social Services, the sum of three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000) shall be used to establish and implement a child protective services pilot program. The funds shall be used to enhance coordination of services and information among county departments of social services, local law enforcement agencies, the court system, guardian ad litem programs, and other agencies as deemed appropriate by the Department. The Department shall determine the number of sites that may participate in the pilot program and include regions that are geographically diverse.

The Division shall make a progress report on the pilot program to the Senate Appropriations Committee on Health and Human Services, the House of Representatives Appropriations Subcommittee on Health and Human Services, and the Fiscal Research Division no later than March 1, 2015. The Division shall make a final report of its findings and recommendations on the pilot program to the Joint Legislative Oversight Committee on Health and Human Services no later than March 1, 2016.

SECTION 12C.1.(f) Statewide Evaluation. – Of the funds appropriated in this act to the Department of Health and Human Services, Division of Social Services, the sum of seven hundred thousand dollars ($700,000) shall be used to provide for a comprehensive, statewide evaluation of the State's child protective services system. The Division of Social Services shall contract for an independent evaluation of the system, which evaluation shall include developing recommendations on the following:

(1) The performance of county departments of social services as related to child protective services.
(2) Caseload sizes.
(3) The administrative structure of the child protective services system in the State.
(4) Any funding needs.
(5) Child protective services' worker turnover.
(6) Monitoring and oversight of county departments of social services.

The Division shall report the findings and recommendations from the evaluation to the Joint Legislative Oversight Committee on Health and Human Services no later than January 1, 2016.

SECTION 12C.1.(g) Study Conflicts of Interest/Public Guardianship and Child Protective Services. – The Department of Health and Human Services, Division of Social Services, shall study the issue of conflicts of interest in child welfare cases as related to public guardianship. In conducting the study, the Department shall consider the following regarding addressing potential conflicts of interest:

(1) Creating internal firewalls to prevent information sharing and influence among staff members involved with the conflicting cases.
(2) Creating a formal or an informal "buddy system" allowing a county with a conflict to refer a case to a neighboring county.
(3) Referring the guardianship to a corporate guardian until the child welfare case is resolved.
(4) Having the Department assume responsibility for either the guardianship or the child welfare case.
(5) Recommending legislation to permit the clerk the option to appoint a public agency or official, other than the Director of Social Services, to serve as a disinterested public agent in exceptional circumstances only.
(6) Any other issues specific to this matter the Department deems appropriate.

The Division shall submit a final report of its findings and recommendations to the Senate Appropriations Committee on Health and Human Services, the House of Representatives Appropriations Subcommittee on Health and Human Services, and the Fiscal Research Division no later than February 1, 2015.

The amount of cash awarded to a prisoner upon discharge or parole after being incarcerated for two years or longer shall be at least forty-five dollars ($45.00).

(a1) The Secretary of Public Safety shall adopt rules to specify the rates at, and circumstances under, which earned time authorized by G.S. 15A-1340.13(d) and G.S. 15A-1340.20(d) may be earned or forfeited by persons serving activated sentences of imprisonment for felony or misdemeanor convictions.

(b) With respect to prisoners who are serving ~~prison or~~jail terms for impaired driving offenses under G.S. 20-138.1, the Secretary of Public Safety may, in his discretion, issue regulations regarding deductions of time from the terms of such prisoners for good behavior, meritorious conduct, work or study, participation in rehabilitation programs, and the like.

"§ 148-32.1. Local confinement, costs, alternate facilities, parole, work release.

(a) Repealed by Session Laws 2009-451, s. 19.22A, effective July 1, 2009.

(b) In the event that the custodian of the local confinement facility certifies in writing to the clerk of the superior court in the county in which the local confinement facility is located that the local confinement facility is filled to capacity, or that the facility cannot reasonably accommodate any more prisoners due to segregation requirements for particular prisoners, or that the custodian anticipates, in light of local experiences, an influx of temporary prisoners at that time, or if the local confinement facility does not meet the minimum standards published pursuant to G.S. 153A-221, any judge of the district court in the district court district as defined in G.S. 7A-133 where the facility is located, or any superior court judge who has jurisdiction pursuant to G.S. 7A-47.1 or G.S. 7A-48 in a district or set of districts as defined in G.S. 7A-41.1 where the facility is located may order that a prisoner not housed pursuant to the Statewide Misdemeanant Confinement Program established in subsection (b2) of this section be transferred to any other qualified local confinement facility within that district or within another such district where space is available, including a satellite jail unit operated pursuant to G.S. 153A-230.3 if the prisoner is a non-violent misdemeanant, which local facility shall accept the transferred prisoner.

If no other local confinement facility is available and the reason for the requested transfer is that the local confinement facility that would be required to house the prisoner cannot reasonably accommodate any more prisoners due to segregation requirements for particular prisoners or the local facility does not meet the minimum standards published pursuant to G.S. 153A-221, then the judge may order that a prisoner not housed pursuant to the Statewide Misdemeanant Confinement Program established in subsection (b2) of this section be transferred to a facility operated by the Division of Adult Correction of the Department of Public Safety as designated by the Division of Adult Correction. In no event, however, shall a prisoner whose term of imprisonment is less than 30 days be assigned or ordered transferred to a facility operated by the Division of Adult Correction.

(b1) It is the intent of the General Assembly to authorize the Division of Adult Correction to enter into voluntary agreements with counties to provide housing for misdemeanants serving periods of confinement of more than 90 days and up to 180 days, except for those serving a sentence for an impaired driving offense. It is further the intent of the General Assembly that the Division of Adult Correction, in conjunction with the North Carolina Sheriffs' Association, Inc., establish a program for housing misdemeanants serving periods of confinement of more than 90 days ~~and up to 180 days, except for those serving sentences for an impaired driving offense.~~ and for all sentences imposed for impaired driving under G.S. 20-138.1, regardless of length. It is also the intent of the General Assembly that the Division of Adult Correction contract with the North Carolina Sheriffs' Association, Inc., to provide a service that identifies space in local confinement facilities that is available for housing these misdemeanants.

The General Assembly intends that the cost of housing and caring for these misdemeanants, including, but not limited to, care, supervision, transportation, medical, and any other related costs, be covered by State funds and not be imposed as a local cost. Therefore, the General Assembly intends that the funds in the Statewide Misdemeanant Confinement Fund established in G.S. 148-10.4 be used to provide funding to cover the costs of managing a system for providing that housing of misdemeanants in local confinement facilities as well as reimbursing the counties for housing and related expenses for those misdemeanants.

(b2) The Statewide Misdemeanant Confinement Program is established. The Program shall provide for the housing of misdemeanants from all counties serving sentences imposed for a period of more than 90 days ~~and up to 180 days, except for those serving sentences for an impaired driving offense under G.S. 20-138.1~~and for all sentences imposed for impaired driving under G.S. 20-138.1, regardless of length. Those misdemeanants shall be confined in local confinement facilities except as provided in subsections (b3) and (b4) of this section. The Program shall address methods for the placement and transportation of inmates and reimbursement to counties for the housing of those inmates. Any county that voluntarily agrees to house misdemeanants from that county or from other counties pursuant to the Program may enter into a written agreement with the Division of Adult Correction to do so.

This Program shall only operate as long as sufficient State funds are available through the Statewide Misdemeanant Confinement Fund established in G.S. 148-10.4(c).

Unless otherwise ordered by the court, an interlocutory or final judgment in an action for an injunction or in a receivership action shall not be stayed during the period after its entry and until an appeal is taken or during the pendency of an appeal. The provisions of section (c) govern the suspending, modifying, restoring, or granting of an injunction during the pendency of an appeal.

(b) Stay on motion for new trial or for judgment. – In its discretion and on such conditions for the security of the adverse party as are proper, the court may stay the execution of or any proceedings to enforce a judgment pending the disposition of a motion for a new trial or to alter or amend a judgment made pursuant to Rule 59, or of a motion for relief from a judgment or order made pursuant to Rule 60, or of a motion for judgment made pursuant to Rule 50, or of a motion for amendment to the findings or for additional findings made pursuant to Rule 52(b). If the time provided in the controlling statute or rule of appellate procedure for giving notice of appeal from the judgment had not expired before a stay under this subsection was entered, that time shall begin to run immediately upon the expiration of any stay under this section, and no execution shall issue nor shall proceedings be taken for enforcement of the judgment until the expiration of that time.

(c) Injunction pending appeal. – When an appeal is taken from an interlocutory or final judgment granting, dissolving, or denying an injunction, the court in its discretion may suspend, modify, restore, or grant an injunction during the pendency of the appeal upon such terms as to bond or otherwise as it considers proper for the security of the rights of the adverse party.

(d) Stay upon appeal. – When an appeal is taken, the appellant may obtain a stay of execution, subject to the exceptions contained in section (a), by proceeding in accordance with

When stay is had by giving supersedeas bond, the bond may be given at or after the time of filing the notice of appeal or of procuring the order allowing the appeal as the case may be, and stay is then effective when the supersedeas bond is approved by the court.

(e) Stay in favor of North Carolina, city, county, local board of education, or agency thereof. – When an appeal is taken by the State of North Carolina, or a city or a county thereof, a local board of education, or an officer in his official capacity or agency thereof or by direction of any department or agency of the State of North Carolina or a city or county thereof or a local board of education and the operation or enforcement of the judgment is stayed, no bond, obligation, or other security shall be required from the appellant.

(f) Power of appellate court not limited. – The provisions of this rule do not limit any power of an appellate court or of a judge or justice thereof to stay proceedings during the pendency of an appeal or to suspend, modify, restore, or grant an injunction during the pendency of an appeal or to make any order appropriate to preserve the status quo or the effectiveness of the judgment subsequently to be entered.

(g) Stay of judgment as to multiple claims or multiple parties. – When a court has ordered a final judgment under the conditions stated in Rule 54(b), the court may stay enforcement of that judgment until the entering of a subsequent judgment or judgments and may prescribe such conditions as are necessary to secure the benefit thereof to the party in whose favor the judgment is entered.

(h) Injunction pending appeal of as-applied constitutional challenge. – Notwithstanding any other provision of law, where a trial court grants interlocutory, temporary, or permanent injunctive or declaratory relief restraining the State or a political subdivision of the State from enforcing the operation or execution of an act of the General Assembly as applied against a party in a civil action, the court shall stay the relief granted pending appeal. This subsection does not apply to facial challenges heard by a three-judge panel pursuant to G.S. 1-267.1."

Legislative Changes

A. Reserve for Salaries & Benefits

1 Compensation Increase Reserve - Educators $465,317,000 R
$3,410,000 NR

Provides funds for the new 21-step Professional Status Teacher Salary Schedule as well as an experience-based step for educators opting into this new schedule. It increases the Statewide guaranteed minimum starting educator pay to $33,000 annually. Assuming that all educators opt into the Professional Status Schedule, local supplement amounts remain unchanged, there is no turnover, and there are no changes to educators' education attainment or certifications, this schedule provides, on average, an 11% salary increase. Under this comparison, average educator salary from all fund sources would increase to over $51,000.

For individuals at the top of the new salary schedule, funds are provided for a 1% salary bonus. Two corresponding provisions in the Salaries and Benefits section of the bill provide additional information on this item.

2 Compensation Increase Reserve - School-based Administrators $5,818,632 R
$133,410 NR

Provides funds for salary schedule changes and an experience-based step for all step-eligible school-based administrators. In addition, funds are provided for a nonrecurring salaries and benefits bonus of $1,000 ($809 bonus) for all school-based administrators who do not receive a salary increase on this schedule. A corresponding provision in the Salaries and Benefits section of the bill provides additional information on this item.

3 Compensation Increase Reserve - Non-certified and Central Office Staff $32,635,439 R

Provides a $618 recurring salary and benefit increase ($500 salary increase) for permanent full-time non-certified and central office staff.

4 Compensation Increase Reserve - Department of Public Instruction (DPI) $891,973 R

Provides a $1,000 annual recurring salary and benefit increase ($809 salary increase) for permanent full-time employees located administratively under the State Board of Education.

5 State Retirement System Contributions - School District Personnel $21,514,025 R

Increases the State's contribution to the Teachers' and State Employees' Retirement System to fund the Annual Required Contribution and provide a 0.8% cost-of-living adjustment to retirees. Total General Fund appropriation across all sections in the committee report is $37 million.

6 State Retirement System Contributions - DPI $183,857 R

Increases the State's contribution to the Teachers' and State Employees' Retirement System to fund the Annual Required Contribution and provide a 0.8% cost-of-living adjustment to retirees. Total General Fund appropriation across all sections in the committee report is $37 million.

B. Technical Adjustments

7 Average Daily Membership (ADM) (Multiple Fund Codes) ($37,453,734) R

Revises projected ADM for FY 2014-15 to reflect 6,286 fewer students than originally projected. The adjustment includes revisions to all position, dollar, and categorical allotments.

Total allotted ADM for FY 2014-15 is 1,520,305, an increase of 10,320 students over FY 2013-14.

8 Average Certified Personnel Salaries (Multiple Fund Codes) ($64,923,926) R

Revises budgeted funding for certified personnel salaries based on actual salary data from December 2013. The adjustment does not reduce any salary paid to certified personnel, nor does it reduce the number of guaranteed State-funded teachers, administrators, or instructional support personnel.

9 Education Lottery Receipts (1800) ($56,298,342) R

Adjusts the receipts budgeted for the Classroom Teachers allotment to reflect an updated distribution between the four Lottery programs. This adjustment does not impact the combined total funding from Lottery and General Fund sources available for the Classroom Teachers allotment.

C. Public School Funding Adjustments

10 Excellent Public Schools Act (Multiple Fund Codes) $6,015,859 R

Provides additional funds to the Department of Public Instruction to carry out elements of the Excellent Public Schools Act contained in Section 7A.1 and Section 7A.7 of S.L. 2012-142. DPI will have $38.0 million available to implement these requirements.

11	Classroom Teachers (1800) Revises adjustment made in the 2013 budget to reduce the classroom teachers allocations in Grades 2 and 3 from 1 teacher per 18 students to 1 teacher per 17 students. This adjustment will forego an additional 788 new teaching positions budgeted to be added in FY 2014-15. FY 2014-15 classroom teacher allocations and class size requirements will remain the same as they are in FY 2013-14. $3.72 billion remains in the budget for this allotment.	($43,362,064)	R
12	Excellent Public Schools Act - Five Extra Days (Multiple Fund Codes) Eliminates funding that had been provided to support a requirement that local education agencies (LEAs) provide additional instructional days (S.L. 2011-145, Section 7.29). A subsequent amendment to G.S. 115C-84.2.(a).(1) eliminated this mandate. Funding had previously supported $40,168 for additional costs related to substitute teachers and $351,469 for additional costs related to student transportation.	($391,637)	R
13	Education-Based Salary Supplements Restoration (1800) Provides additional funding necessary to restore education-based salary supplements for master's, advanced or doctoral degrees for certain personnel, as directed in a corresponding special provision.	$18,700,000	R
14	School Bus Replacement (1830) Reduces this allotment supporting the purchase of replacement school buses to reflect lower-than-expected bus prices and departmental operational efficiencies. This reduction does not reduce the number of replacement buses to be purchased in FY 2014-15. $46.2 million remains in this allotment to support the purchase of 579 replacement buses in FY 2014-15.	($3,369,983)	R
15	Teacher Assistants (1800) Reduces funding for teacher assistants and modifies the basis for funding in this allotment. For FY 2014-15, this allotment will provide $971.75 per student in ADM in grades K-1. Previously, this allotment had provided funding on the basis of ADM in grades K-3. LEAs may continue to place teacher assistants in any K-3 classroom with these funds. $240.2 million will remain in this allotment in FY 2014-15.	($233,182,240)	R

16 Central Office Administration (1810) ($4,795,567) R

Reduces the allotment to LEAs for the salaries and benefits of central office staff by 5%. This staff includes, but is not limited to, superintendents, associate and assistant superintendents, finance officers, athletic trainers, and transportation directors. $91.1 million will remain to support these local staff in FY 2014-15.

17 Transportation (1830) ($28,608,891) R

Reduces by 6% the total support for the allotment, which supports the salaries of transportation personnel, the maintenance of yellow buses, and support for the Driver Training program, which will now be distributed via this allotment. A corresponding provision redirects a transfer from the Highway Fund for Driver Training into this allotment. This transfer will only occur in FY 2014-15, as it is repealed beginning in July 1, 2015 in a corresponding provision. Combined General Fund and receipt support for this allotment will be $448.0 million in FY 2014-15.

18 Small County Supplemental Funding (1800) $3,581,140 R

Revises the funding formula to provide differentiated funding based on the size of eligible districts as directed in a corresponding special provision. $46.3 million will be available for this allotment in FY 2014-15.

19 Panic Alarms (1830) ($1,100,000) R

Reduces available funding for this program to reflect FY 2013-14 actual expenditures. $900,000 will be available for awards in FY 2014-15, slightly more than the amount awarded in FY 2013-14.

D. Department of Public Instruction

20 DPI Flexible Reduction (Multiple Fund Codes) ($15,078,150) R

Reduces State support for DPI by 30%. The State Board of Education may allocate this reduction at its discretion, within the guidelines mandated by a corresponding provision.

E. Grants

21	Teaching Fellows (1900) Eliminates the General Fund appropriation supporting the Teaching Fellows. Obligations to previous Fellows classes will continue to be supported from funds available in the Teaching Fellows Trust Fund. The Teaching Fellows Trust Fund has a cash balance of $4.7 million as of April 30, 2014. A related special provision charges the State Education Assistance Authority with the responsibility for the program's financial closeout.	($3,095,000)	R

Changes eligibility for Child Care Subsidy from 75% of State Median Income to 200% of Federal Poverty Level (FPL) for children age 0-5 and children with special needs. Children who are age 6-12 are eligible at 133% of FPL. This change is effective September 1, 2014. This change in eligibility reduces funding needs by $22 million; half of these funds; $11 million, will be used to reduce the waiting list by 2,300 eligible children. Combined with items 14, 16, 17, and 18, General Fund appropriation is reduced by 22% to $49.7 million due to the replacement of State funds with federal funding in item 14. Total funding for Child Care Subsidy is unchanged.

16 Child Care Subsidy Co-Payments Set at 10% of Income (1380) ($1,812,687) R

Sets co-payments at 10% of income for all households that are required to pay a co-payment effective September 1, 2014. This does not change who pays a co-payment; children receiving child care subsidy through Child Welfare, Child Protective Services and Foster Care will continue to be exempt from the co-payment requirement. This reduction does not change the slot availability for child care subsidy as the amount paid by the Child Care Subsidy Program will be reduced due to the increased co-payment. The co-payment is paid to the child care provider. There were 40,000 children whose families paid a co-payment based on 8% or 9% of their family income out of 110,000 children whose families paid a co-payment in FY 2012-13. Combined with items 14, 15, 17, and 18 General Fund appropriation is reduced by 22% to $49.7 million due to the replacement of state funds with federal funding in item 14. Total funding for Child Care Subsidy is unchanged.

17 Child Care Subsidy Co-Payment No Longer Prorated for Part-time Care (1380) ($2,359,965) R

Eliminates the proration of co-payments for part-time care effective September 1, 2014. This reduction does not result in any loss of child care slots. The increased co-payment will reduce the amount paid to child care providers by the Child Care Subsidy program. Providers collect the co-payment from the parents. There were 26,000 children whose families paid a reduced co-payment due to part-time care out of 110,000 children whose families paid a co-payment in FY 2012-13. Combined with items 14, 15, 16, and 18, General Fund appropriation is reduced by 22% to $49.7 million due to the replacement of State funds with federal funding in item 14. Total funding for Child Care Subsidy is unchanged.
