HOUSE JOURNAL

SECOND SESSION 2016

ONE HUNDRED THIRTY-SIXTH DAY

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Monday, April 25, 2016

The House meets at 7:00 p.m. pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by the Speaker.

The following prayer is offered by Representative Bert Jones:

"Our Father and Our God,

"This is a day that You have made, and we will rejoice and be glad in it.

"Father, we have so much for which to be thankful. Indeed, You have greatly blessed our State and our Nation in so many ways. Your word reminds us that blessed is the Nation whose God is the Lord.

"We pray for the citizens of our State, and know that many of them are also praying for us. As we open this year's session of the legislature, we pray that You would grant us the wisdom to know, and the commitment to do what is right in Your sight.

"There will often be disagreements due to the nature of what we do. Help us to conduct ourselves with dignity and grace, to speak truth in love, to debate policy rather than attack people, and to forgive one another when we offend.

"I pray that we will always strive first to honor You, Lord, in all that we do.

"As each one prays in their own way, I offer my prayer in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ. Amen."

The Speaker leads the Body in the Pledge of Allegiance.

Representative Lewis, for the Committee on Rules, Calendar, and Operations of the House, reports the Journal of September 30, 2015 has been examined and found correct. Upon his motion, the Journal is approved as written.

Leaves of absence are granted Representatives Terry and Watford for today.

ONE HUNDRED THIRTY-NINTH DAY

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Thursday, April 28, 2016

The House meets at 10:00 a.m. pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by the Speaker.

The following prayer is offered by Representative Ken Waddell:

April 28, 2016

"Oh God,

"We begin this session by giving thanks. We are thankful for the beautiful day before us and the coming rain that will nourish our land and soul. We are thankful for this work to serve the people of North Carolina and thankful for our families and friends who support us in this work.

"And we pray for Your guidance. We come to You from different backgrounds and understandings of who You are. Some of us have a deep faith and some of us may have no faith at all. Still, we take this time to pause and reflect on what unifies us instead of what divides us. We care for the people of North Carolina and seek what is best for them.

"We know the power of love that can transform people and ask for Your love to be expressed through us. We know the power of respect and ask for the ability to listen and hear from different points of view. We know the power of grace and ask that we are able to offer grace and receive grace during the times we make mistakes and are not kind.

"We pray for the work we have before us and that the conversations we have together will better inform us in the decisions we will make. We pray for the people of North Carolina and the different hardships we all are going through. We pray for the many communities throughout this State as they reach out and support each other in life's difficulties.

"May we discover what it really means to partner together through love and grace for the sake of the men and women throughout the great State of North Carolina and beyond. Amen."

ONE HUNDRED FORTY-FIRST DAY

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Tuesday, May 3, 2016

The House meets at 3:00 p.m. pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by Representative Lewis.

The following prayer is offered by Representative Bert Jones:

"Our Heavenly Father,

"Once again we have the blessed privilege to come before Your throne of grace. We praise Your Holy Name, and come with thanksgiving and reverence - as Your word says, the fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge and the beginning of wisdom.

"Lord Father, we ask for a special measure of wisdom throughout this body as we collectively carry the mantle of leadership in our State. You have promised to grant wisdom from above to Your people who will ask in earnest. Let us ask. For the wisdom from above is pure, sincere, and full of mercy and good fruit.

"We pray that You would heal and preserve our State and Nation such that we would bring honor and glory to You. The challenges we face are great, but with God, and only with God, all things are possible. May our efforts be faithful according to Your Word, and ultimately of eternal worth in the Kingdom of God.

May 3, 2016

"We lift up every soul within the sound of our voice and beyond, knowing that You are always there to meet their greatest need. As others may choose to pray in their own way, I pray in the matchless name of Christ my Savior. Amen."

The Chair leads the Body in the Pledge of Allegiance.

Representative Torbett, for the Committee on Rules, Calendar, and Operations of the House, reports the Journal of May 2 has been examined and found correct. Upon his motion, the Journal is approved as written.

Leaves of absence are granted Representatives Brockman, G. Martin, Shepard, Steinburg, Terry, and Yarborough for today. Representatives Bryan, Fraley, Hastings, Horn, and Jordan are excused for a portion of the Session.

On motion of Representative L. Hall, the following remarks are spread upon the Journal.

REMARKS BY REPRESENTATIVE HORN

"I would bet that every one of us, if called upon to specifically identify the people that most impacted our lives, most live in vivid memory for creating who we are today, every list would include several of our elementary and secondary school teachers.

"Anyone who has chosen to teach, inform, support, guide, nurture, and, most importantly, encourage the thirst and excitement for learning amongst students and peers has our upmost respect and veneration. Childhood and adolescence is a vulnerable time, especially if a child is lacking a secure, safe environment. Many children come to school with little more than their hands jammed into empty pockets. Needless to say, such consequences can be devastating. But such opportunities can also be exhilarating.

"For me, our schools are the very fabric of our society. They are not just places of academic learning and examinations. They are often the only safe, consistent place a child has in their lives and it is where they are taught that they can cope with circumstances that they cannot change.

"We all greatly respect those who become teachers and stand in front of 30 children with the genuine desire to see them all thrive, including those whose behavior sometimes overwhelms and casts doubts on their own ability. Each one of us will always remember the teachers and professors who truly made a difference in our lives.

May 3, 2016

"They will also make a difference in the lives of others. They did in mine. I am and will forever be grateful for their patience, persistence, and confidence in my ability to succeed. I hope to live up to those expectations. For me, EVERY Day is Teacher Appreciation Day!"

REMARKS BY REPRESENTATIVE MEYER
Reading of a Senatorial Statement on the House Floor

RECOGNIZING ALL TEACHERS ON NATIONAL TEACHER DAY

WHEREAS, teachers mold future citizens through guidance and education, while serving as listeners, explorers, role models, motivators, and mentors; and

WHEREAS, teachers encounter students of widely differing backgrounds and work diligently to help them learn and impact their lives and their families in ways that often extend beyond the classroom; and

WHEREAS, people in the United States began celebrating National Teacher Day in 1953, when Eleanor Roosevelt persuaded Congress to set aside a day to recognize educators; and

WHEREAS, the origins of the idea for a national day to honor teachers are unclear; some references cite the advocacy of a Wisconsin teacher and other references credit the efforts of a teacher in Arkansas for being the first to advocate establishing a teacher appreciation day; and

WHEREAS, Congress declared March 7, 1980, as National Teacher Appreciation Day; and

WHEREAS, the National Education Association (NEA), and its affiliates, observed National Teacher Appreciation Day until 1985, when the National Parent Teacher Association designated the first full week of May as Teacher Appreciation Week and, then voted the following year to make Tuesday of that week National Teacher Day; and

WHEREAS, during the observance of National Teacher Day, it is fitting to reflect upon the lifelong lessons we learned from our teachers and to recognize the members of the General Assembly who are current or former teachers; and

WHEREAS, in order to respect, recruit, and retain quality teachers, our state and our country's future depend on providing a quality education to all students, and teachers are needed to provide that education;

NOW, THEREFORE, teachers deserve our respect, recognition, and appreciation particularly during the observance of National Teacher Day on May 3, 2016, and throughout the year.

REMARKS BY REPRESENTATIVE LUCAS

"Having worked as a teacher and school administrator for thirty-four years, it is with great pleasure that I salute all teachers today. Teachers epitomize Abraham Maslow's philosophy that 'Self-actualization is the higher order of need.' They consider themselves rewarded just by witnessing quality results from their students.

"Of course, they would feel even better if they could realize better remuneration for their efforts, but in the final analysis, teachers continue to embrace Maslow's philosophy regardless."

THE RECEIVING OF PETITIONS, MEMORIALS, AND PAPERS ADDRESSED TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OR TO THE HOUSE

The Greensboro City Council adopts Resolution No. 083-16, "A Resolution to Oppose Session Law 2016-3/House Bill 2".

The resolution is on file with the House Principal Clerk's office.

On motion of Representative Luebke, the following remarks are spread upon the Journal.

REMARKS BY REPRESENTATIVE L. HALL

"I would like to recognize all the teachers who made it possible for all of us as legislators to be here, to be able to serve our communities, to understand the different issues that we have to deal with, and to pass on those opportunities to subsequent generations. Not only do I want to thank all of those teachers who have done that for all of us, but also thank all of you who have remembered that you too came along that trail in education and you will in the future provide the support necessary so we can have great generations going forward.

May 3, 2016

"I also want to make sure we thank all North Carolinians who so graciously support education and support our teachers in our communities. ONE HUNDRED FORTY-THIRD DAY

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Thursday, May 5, 2016

The House meets at 11:00 a.m. pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by Representative Stam, Speaker Pro Tempore.

The following prayer is offered by Representative Harry Warren:

"Our Father, who watches and rules from Heaven, it seems arrogant of us that at random times, we stop in our activities to call upon You to address our needs, as if You are only available to be at our beck and call.

"We ask You to bless our food, get us that promotion, help our team win, or give us the right numbers for the lottery drawing. Rather than recognizing that having food to eat, a job to earn a living, a team to cheer for, and sufficient means to survive, are wonderful blessings in themselves, we unabashedly ask for more. You have blessed us and we implore You - to bless the blessing.

"Still, others turn to You with earnest hearts and tear-filled eyes, pleading for relief from persecution, for a miracle of healing for themselves or a loved one, for food to eat, clothes to wear, for the gun fire to stop, and their children to be safe. Sincere petitions offered in desperation and hope.

"Today, we pause to remember a moment in time when millions of such voices were silenced, systematically and methodically silenced forever in the most horrendous act of inhumanity in the history of mankind. We have proven throughout our existence our ability for creating marvelous lasting beauty in music, sculpture, art, and architecture. We have also impressed ourselves with our achievements in science and medicine. We have also consistently demonstrated our capacity for unimaginable acts of cruelty and deprivation of morality. We cannot deny that we are conflicted creatures. We thank You, Almighty Lord, for Your patience, Your tolerance, and Your forgiveness.

"Now, Lord, as we prepare to work together, on behalf of those whom we represent, enlighten us, encourage us, and enable us to use the talents that You have already blessed us with, to collaborate for the betterment of our charges, to glorify You. I and many among us, ask this prayer in the name of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ."

The Chair leads the Body in the Pledge of Allegiance.

Representative Lewis, for the Committee on Rules, Calendar, and Operations of the House, reports the Journal of May 4 has been examined and found correct. Upon his motion, the Journal is approved as written.

H.R. 1124, A HOUSE RESOLUTION HONORING OUR VETERANS BY EXPRESSING APPRECIATION FOR THEIR SERVICE TO OUR STATE AND NATION.

Pursuant to Rule 32, the resolution is placed on today's Calendar.

CALENDAR

Action is taken on the following:

H.R. 1124, A HOUSE RESOLUTION HONORING OUR VETERANS BY EXPRESSING APPRECIATION FOR THEIR SERVICE TO OUR STATE AND NATION.

The resolution is adopted, by electronic vote (115-0), and ordered printed.

On motion of Representative Pierce, the following remarks are spread upon the Journal.

REMARKS BY REPRESENTATIVE HORN

"We are here today to remember, honor, and teach a new generation about the lives of those who serve or have served our great Nation and about those that paid the ultimate price, doing everything that they could to uphold the values and ideals that we all hold dear in this Nation and in this State. Their lives, their example, and their sacrifice have instilled in us a pride and a sense of service that we leave to our children and our grandchildren. Very few of us returned home to an appreciative community. In fact, many of us were met with hostility and ridicule. As a consequence, many young people today are either not eligible or not willing to 'wear the uniform.'

"The veteran is often asked, 'Why did you serve?' It is because we want to give back a small portion of what we have been given; we want our children to know what it means to live in 'The Land of the Free and the Home of the Brave.' We want others to realize the tremendous honor it is to live in a country based on the highest ideals man has even known, and we realize what a privilege it is to be an American and to serve and protect the very freedoms upon which this Nation was founded.

"DaNang, Pleiku, Ia Drang, Phu Kat, Omaha Beach, Bastogne, Remagen, Dachau, Guadalcanal, Iwo Jima, Pusan, Inchon, Chosin, Baghdad, Kandahar, and Tikrit are all places burned in our hearts and minds. But there were other places, places that we sometimes could not even pronounce.

Places where we were not there, but we were! Places that no one has ever even heard about and we were there, too. And there were those that simply disappeared, never to be known or to know. Yes, we were there, too. We answered the call, saluted smartly, and charged the hill.

"I stand with you today proud to be an American, a veteran, and a citizen living in a land that provides the brightest beacon of hope and freedom in the world. We all, here, commit ourselves to seeing that beacon continue to shine brightly for years and generations to come.

"Today we honor those Americans that serve and sacrifice, those persons that put themselves forward, write a check in the amount of their very own life, make it payable to the American people and sign it, often with our own blood. We do this so that our community and our country, nay the entire world, can have hope for a peaceful and productive future."

REMARKS BY REPRESENTATIVE G. MARTIN

"I've been in the House now for over a decade, and each year the Veterans Lobby Day is my favorite day of the year. When I first got here in 2005, it was an opportunity for me as a young legislator and a young veteran to hear veterans of Vietnam and Korea, and even a few from World War II, come by and tell their stories - just a chance for me to sit there quietly and to listen. I noticed today, though, for the first time, that a large number of the veterans who came today were actually much younger than me, a combination of the fact that we've been at war for an awful long time now and my advancing age. But the same joy in my heart was there to hear stories from my fellow Afghanistan Veterans, who were there over a decade after I was, and to see the same similarities I have with them that I do with our World War II, Korean, and Vietnam Veterans.

"I think it's very appropriate, as the gentleman from Gaston, Representative Hastings, said, that we do have Members of the General Assembly who are retiring, who are veterans, who are Primary Sponsors here. If you look at the data, both in Congress and in the North Carolina General Assembly, we have a declining number of veterans actually serving. As we're saying goodbye to those four and perhaps others who are members of this Body, I hope that any veterans up there listening or listening over the internet, will realize they have an obligation to continue their service and to consider service in elected office. Whether you are a Democrat, Republican, Libertarian, or Unaffiliated, it doesn't matter. I do think that we will get a better decision-making process both at the Federal level and at the State level the more veterans we can get involved in politics.

"So, if you're listening and you're a veteran, it's not time to stop the service to your country yet. Continue it in a new fashion and come join us here in the General Assembly."

REMARKS BY REPRESENTATIVE WHITMIRE

"I will start by paraphrasing a quote by John Stuart Mill that I, as a service academy cadet, had to quote many times that reminds us all of the vital importance of all who have served.

"War is an ugly thing, but not the ugliest of things. The decayed and degraded state of moral and patriotic feeling which thinks that nothing is worth war is much worse. The person who has nothing for which he/she is willing to fight, nothing which is more important than their own personal safety, is a miserable creature and has no chance of being free unless made and kept so by the exertions of better people than himself."

"With this, Members of the House, I rise to honor my fellow veterans - the Airmen, Sailors, Soldiers, Marines, Coast Guardsmen, and Merchant Marines - who have given up the conveniences of home to selflessly defend our Great Nation, our ideals, and our American way of life.

"To date, more than 1.3 million American military veterans have paid the ultimate price for the freedoms we hold dear today and more than 38,000 remain missing in action.

"Many millions more of our veterans survived a multitude of dangers to return to their families after deploying around the globe in military service to defend our interests and continued to contribute to our Nation in many ways in the civilian sector upon completion of their military commitment.

"Additionally, I commend those who presently serve in our armed forces. These service members comprise our all-volunteer military, the greatest in the history of the world, and give up many conveniences to ensure our Nation has the most capable military might in the world when needed. This is especially important today as our Nation maintains a constant state of awareness for State, non-State, and failed State threats that we must defend against in a global fight against enemies whose fanatical ideals threaten our very way of life. Today, tens of thousands are deployed around the world. Whether at home or abroad, our military service members give the United States the unique ability to conduct 24-hour operations and engagement of all types, to hold any target set at risk in any weather or threat environment anywhere in the world, to command and control our activities, and to assess our effects.

"This said, in honor of our veterans, I ask the Lord above to watch over America's sons and daughters, husbands and wives, fathers and mothers, and brothers and sisters as they serve; to bring them home safely, to wrap His loving arms around the wounded, and bring to His side the ones who have lost their lives; to let their loved ones know peace of mind and spirit from the pain of having lost those who are so dear to them; and to let their children gain wisdom of the selfless sacrifice and incredible purpose for which their parent perished.

"I conclude by asking ALL to thank our veterans who've paved the way for our freedoms and for those who continue to serve. Thank you."

English economist & philosopher (1806-1873))

REMARKS BY REPRESENTATIVE BRAWLEY

"I think today will probably be the most personal conversation I've ever had on this Floor. I was given a pin today as a Vietnam War veteran, and I felt a little uncomfortable with it. I enlisted in 1969 as a punk kid of 19 years old. It was a time a great division in this country and many people were encouraged to resist the draft, to go to Canada, to accept the draft and try to deal with it. I made the first truly adult decision of my life. In 1969, I enlisted in the United States Army simply because I felt I had to make a statement and say that I had picked my side, and when I was serving that the men already there would know that I chose to be there. I was not there unwilling. I accepted the duty.

"I went where they told me to go and I did what they told me to do, and, for me, military service was mostly an inconvenience. I have no wounds. I have to great feats of military prowess on which to brag. But I can say that for two years, eight months, three days, five hours, and approximately thirty minutes, I was in the company of men and women of heroic stature.

"The Class of '46 was just ending up the last of their careers. It was my privilege to serve with men who jumped into Normandy on June fifth. I served with a man who crossed the bridge at Remagen. I knew men that held the Elsenborn Ridge against Sepp Dietrich's 6thSS Panzer Army for thirty days in winter snow, in January of 1945, and a man whose combat patch was Merrill's Marauders, who had spent almost an entire year in the jungles of Southeast Asia, being resupplied by air.

"There were men with whom I had served, and I want to name some of them today. There was Skip Johnson, who had been a sergeant with the 2nd of the 27th Infantry, the Wolfhounds of the 25th Infantry Division, who had been a military historian with the Department of the Army before going on active duty, who began my long-seeded interest in the history of the military. Clarence Thames, 'Sergeant T' - who commanded the lead track of the 11th Armored Cavalry Regiment when they went into Cambodia. Jim Turner, who with the 1st Air Cav, was wounded in an engagement that killed two-thirds of his company. A boyhood friend, John Boye, we had played as young men, who with the 23rd Infantry Division - also known as the Americal - was horrendously wounded his first week in Vietnam.

"Serving with these men gave me an example of what to be. I received guidance that began my first day at Fort Bragg from drill sergeants, Platoon Sergeant LaBoo, it's the same rank as a Sergeant First Class, but there is a difference. And then Sergeant (E5) Seeny. I served with the men that I have named and in particular served under men whose leadership showed me what leadership can be. Captain Jerry W. Webster, 1st Lieutenant Luis F. Pizarro - a Puerto Rican who is a knight of medieval stature - 1st Sergeant Robert D. Millirons, who came in 1945 and finished with me as a buck sergeant underneath his command - John W. Feaster, my last commanding officer at Headquarters Company of the 1st COSCOM, who had led at an A-Team with the Sixth Group in Vietnam, our Brigade Commander (James B. Vaughn).

"Last but not least, Isadro C. Aguinaga, my last and favorite 1st Sergeant. They made me, to a large extent, the man I am today. They taught me honor. They taught me courage and gave me encouragement. And by the way, encourage means to fill others with courage. To face the realities, do the best you can, stand tall, support your friends. Last, Ronny Griffin, Mike Price, and Ansel Morse, whose names were on the wall, who as young men, not yet old enough to vote, spent all they had to preserve our liberty. For those who made me what I am today, thank you."

REMARKS BY REPRESENTATIVE FLOYD

"They didn't come by one. They didn't register by two. They registered by the thousands to defend this great Nation. Those that made the sacrifice, those that remain here with us in this great State, after retiring from the military. Those who fought for this country, and I'm one, and I can recall the times, Mr. Speaker, that I volunteered for the Army, and went into the barracks. Those of you who are a bit younger than I am, remember the wood barracks that we were in.

May 11, 2016

"Never had a shower until I got in the Army. Those of you who are much younger don't remember how we used to take a bath. We used to take a bath in a round tin tub. A round tin tub - that was the only shower that I knew about. I didn't know how to turn the shower on when I was in service. I had to have assistance from a fellow veteran, who was not of the same persuasion that I am, that helped me turn the shower on. It felt good, too, to take a shower for the first time. It truly did. I'm always so proud to stand before you, and you have heard me say it many times before, that if it was not for the military, I would not be standing before you here today. I'm proud to serve with the General Assembly on the General Government Committee where we have a division of veterans affairs. I'm one that always speaks up for that division. Sometimes Representative Cleveland gets tired, but I'm a veteran, and Fort Bragg is the home of the 911 call-up, when it needs to be called.

"But of this Resolution, page two, line nine, if I'm not mistaken, sums it up - 'We owe a debt of gratitude to our veterans.'"

REMARKS BY REPRESENTATIVE PENDLETON

"Well, I heard a lot of fond memories today, and also reflect back. Growing up, my father was a career Army Officer, and I was an Army Brat. And all these Second World War Veterans - my father was a Second World War Veteran - that I grew up around were role models. Getting to talk to people that flew B-24s and B-17s and were tank commanders. It was just wonderful growing up having people like that for my Scout Masters. When I was 18, I decided to join the Army and go to college later, and I'm glad I did. I think back over reporting to Fort Knox, Kentucky in 1967 for basic training and tank training and it brought a lot of structure into my life.

"In basic training, the thing that really meant a lot, not while I was there, but when I got out, is that we were 44 men in our open-bay barracks, with no partitions between the commodes and open showers. We had people that were poor as dirt that came from the big cities, we had a Philadelphia lawyer in our platoon - all kinds of people and we all had to get along. At first, I was wondering, 'How are we going to get along?' But by the end of the eight-week basic training period, we all did. Everybody did well, and it was wonderful - a wonderful experience.

"So, as I think about my career, of staying in and pulling 26 years, but starting out as a Private, it just meant so much to me as a young man. It taught me one thing: leadership. And people ask me, 'Isn't it great that you are in the legislature? Isn't that the highlight of your life?' I say no, being a soldier was the highlight of my life, and it's always been that, my wife knows that. It's always been the highlight of my life. I think about how many of my friends were killed or wounded in Vietnam. You know the old saying is so true, freedom isn't free."

REMARKS BY REPRESENTATIVE JONES

"Ladies and Gentlemen of the House, it just occurred to me as I've listened to the comments that have been made today, that every person who has spoken to us is a veteran. As we honor the veterans, I just felt like it was appropriate that they hear a word of thanks and appreciation on behalf of those of us who are not veterans. We're here to honor the veterans. It seems like it shouldn't just be veterans honoring veterans. I'm not worthy to share the stage with those that have served for what you have done, but I did want for someone to stand who did not serve as a veteran or is not a veteran of service to just thank you, to thank everyone here, and to thank everyone within the sound of my voice for the freedoms that you fought and secured for us.

"I wouldn't be eloquent enough to pen something like this, but I think it's appropriate to just read this brief little poem that I think some of you are familiar with, but I think it's very appropriate to read it today:

'It is the Soldier, not the minister
Who has given us freedom of religion.

It is the Soldier, not the reporter
Who has given us freedom of the press.

It is the Soldier, not the poet
Who has given us freedom of speech.

It is the Soldier, not the campus organizer
Who has given us freedom to protest.

It is the Soldier, not the lawyer
Who has given us the right to a fair trial.

It is the Soldier, not the elected official
Who has given us the right to vote.

May 11, 2016

It is the Soldier who salutes the flag,
Who serves beneath the flag,
And whose coffin is draped by the flag,
Who allows the protester to burn the flag.'

"Ladies and Gentlemen, we live in a day when perhaps the spirit of patriotism is not often what it should be compared to times past. And like you, I have the privilege of meeting often with veterans: Veterans of Foreign Wars, American Legion, all kinds of veterans groups. We have events back in my District on Memorial Day, on Veteran's Day, in which we have the opportunity to participate. When I go to those, it's always a privilege just to be in the company of those that have served, those that were willing to give their lives. It's also a wonderful thing to see other people who are not veterans, particularly young people, who are being taught, hopefully, a spirit of patriotism, a spirit of love for country, a spirit of love for freedom that we stand for in this country, and in particular, love and respect for our veterans who fought - and many died - and the others who were willing to give their lives for that.

"So, to the veterans here and all over the State of North Carolina and far beyond, let us just say thank you and give our most deep appreciation for your service."

("It is the Soldier" (1970), poem by U.S. Army Veteran Charles M. Province)

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Tuesday, May 17, 2016

The House meets at 10:00 a.m. pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by the Speaker.

"Gracious and Merciful Father,

"We give You thanks for yet another day. You have bestowed upon us a world of wonder, of beauty, and of grace. You granted us each a moral conscience and a questioning and inquisitive mind. Please help us to use those gifts to seek You and Your guidance for our lives and for the lives of those we represent.

"So many in our world struggle for the basic necessities of water, food, and shelter. We are blessed that You have granted those to so many, yet we ask You to help us provide for those who do not.

"As we gather here in this Chamber, we are reminded that we are here to serve others as Servant Leaders. Jesus defined Servant Leadership in Matthew's Gospel: He said, 'Whoever wants to become great among you must be your servant, and whoever wants to be first must be your slave - just as the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve.'

"We are called here to be humble, to seek a better life for those we represent, and to protect all life. We ask that You continue to inspire us to overcome differences in opinion and that You help us to seek just and moral laws that benefit all of Your beautiful creation.

"Please also remind us to think not only for today but also for those who would follow us, five years, 10 years, 100 years from now. Help us to be mindful that the decisions we make here in this Chamber have consequences for those we know, but also the millions we do not know and the millions that will follow us.

"As You have shown us the Great Example of what the Love of Fatherhood means, please help our State to restore the critical necessity of the Father in our children's home. Our State and our Nation now suffer the indignity of so many of our youth growing up without a father's influence in their lives.

"As I end, Father, we ask You most of all for peace. Peace in our hearts, peace in our minds, and peace in our souls. In God's Glorious Name we say, Amen."

The Speaker leads the Body in the Pledge of Allegiance.

The Honorable Tim Moore

Raleigh, North Carolina 27601

Dear Lieutenant Governor Forest, President Pro Tempore Berger and Speaker Moore:

Pursuant to N.C.G.S. § 7A-45.1(a10), I hereby nominate and submit for confirmation James L. Gale for the position of Special Superior Court Judge.
Chief Judge Gale is nominated to fill the vacancy created by the expiration of his term on February 27, 2016. Upon Chief Judge Gale's confirmation, I intend to ask Chief Justice Mark Martin to once again designate him as a Business Court Judge.

Chief Judge Gale, until recently, was Chief Judge of the North Carolina
Business Court. I have consulted with Chief Justice Martin about Chief Judge Gale's leadership on the Court and his record of handling complex business cases. We are in agreement that we cannot afford to lose his expertise, experience, or leadership. As the Business Court's longest serving member, granting an additional term will provide continuity and stability to the Court. The Chief Justice and I are most grateful for his willingness to continue to serve the State of North Carolina in this important capacity.

In addition to the Governor and the Chief Justice's support, the North Carolina Chamber of Commerce, the North Carolina Association of Defense Attorneys, and numerous other well-respected judges and attorneys also support Chief Judge Gale's nomination to the Business Court.

Enclosed, you will find biographical information for Chief Judge Gale. Please feel free to contact my staff for any additional information.

SPECIAL MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

The following Special Message is received from the Senate:

S.J.R. 853, A JOINT RESOLUTION HONORING THE LIFE AND MEMORY OF EARLINE W. PARMON, FORMER MEMBER OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

Pursuant to Rule 32, the resolution is placed on today's Calendar for immediate consideration.

On motion of Representative Carney, the following remarks are spread upon the Journal.

REMARKS BY REPRESENTATIVE HANES

"March 15th has become quite a profound day in my life. It's the day that I lost a mentor and the day that I lost a friend that until recently, I don't think I fully appreciated that I actually had in my life. That's the day we lost Senator Earline Parmon.

"I've known Earline my entire life, but she didn't know me. The first time I met her, I told her I've known you my entire life. I've seen you on TV, I've seen you marching, I've seen you doing all the things in the community that means so much to people's prosperity and freedom, but I did not meet her until I decided to run for office in 2012.

"Our first meeting was at little lunch place in downtown Winston-Salem. I had an opportunity to introduce myself to her and she had an opportunity to get to know me a little bit, and I thought 'what an interesting and incredible woman.' I didn't quite realize how interesting and incredible she was until I got down here and actually saw her get to work. At that point, I really began to understand exactly her struggle - exactly what it meant to the community of Winston-Salem to have her representing us here in the General Assembly for as long as we had. I grew to love the woman and I grew to feel that she was someone I needed to have close to my life.

"As many of you know, I'm somewhat the 'bad boy' of education in the General Assembly. Earline used to talk to me on the way home from Raleigh to Winston-Salem every single Thursday. I'd get on the phone as soon as I got to Wade Avenue and we would talk the entire way home - about my feelings, about children, about life, anything that came up. I always felt better when I got off the phone with Senator Parmon; I always felt like I was growing.

"The day we lost her, the day the city lost her, the day I lost her, I felt an incredible unease come over me and I felt that an incredible weight had just been placed upon all the leaders in Winston-Salem and especially those leaders who represent our community in north east and east Winston-Salem in District 72 and District 32, because we had indeed lost a titan. When I tell you the day she passed, a community wept. People were troubled because we'd always had this champion and she was no longer there. It's had a tremendous impact on us. It's also instilled us with a tremendous resolve - a tremendous resolve to keep moving forward, to keep working in the manner in which she would have us work - forward together and never back. I think a lot of people don't understand she meant that for all of us. She meant that for all the people who touched her life and whose lives she touched. She touched them from Buena Vista to Morningside - everywhere. I like to say that Earline was the realization of a dream come true to many of us. She was a crystallization of a vision made clear. She was a bridge over seasoned misfortune for so many people in our community. It's absolutely true that sometimes it absolutely does snow in April and we don't understand why that is, and it makes you feel very badly.

"Today I honor Earline Parmon for the work that she did and I just want to let the Assembly know that I do indeed miss my friend Earline. Thank you."

REMARKS BY REPRESENTATIVE EARLE

"Mr. Speaker and Members, I want to talk to you about and tell you about my friend. Earline loved her family. She loved her children. She was the backbone; she was the go-to person. Also, she loved her husband Al, and she missed Albert so very much. He died two years ago and I don't think she ever got over that. One good thing is that I feel like they are together again and I've got to feel like Earline is happy because she truly, truly missed Albert.

"I miss my friend so very much, I really do. Earline and I kind of go way, way, way back. If you had anything to do with politics, you knew about Earline Parmon wherever you lived. Then, we were in Washington together with two different groups, and I can't even recall now what we were there for. Earline's group had an opportunity, an invitation, to go to the White House. Somehow or another, she got me in that group. I really don't know but you know, you don't ask any questions with her - you just go on and do it.

May 24, 2016

"Then we reconnected when she came to the Legislature. I guess you would say that Earline and I were the two most unlikely people to bond and become good friends. Earline could be a little radical - she could be a lot radical. I'm a little bit more laid back. Earline smoked and I stayed on her all the time about that. They wouldn't let me play cards with them, Rosa and Mobley. I guess I didn't play well enough and I certainly didn't play seriously enough. I know one time, or more, they even played over at my place, and I just went to bed and left them up because, like I said, I knew they weren't going to allow me to play with them.

"Then, Earline came to the Legislature and she took Pete Oldham's seat. Pete was what we all refer to as a 'big chair.' I'm going to give you a little history on Room 634. All the rooms on the sixth floor, all the corner rooms on the sixth floor, used to be committee rooms. Then, in 1995 they changed some of them out to offices. Teresa Esposito had 634; they changed it into an office room. I just loved it because it had all the windows around and it was really nice, so I set my sights on that some time ago. When Earline came, of course for a brief moment, she was in that office. My office was on the fifth floor, so I went up to my office, my new office, because I knew I was going to be a 'big chair.' So I went up to my office and I just told Earline not to settle in, don't put up any pictures, and do not smoke up my office. She was pretty good at following directions, but after that, we got to be good friends and we stayed friends during all that time.

"One thing about Earline, we were very good friends and we could pretty much read each other. She knew that once I made up my mind about something, it was kind of done. We certainly didn't think alike about everything, but she knew that once I made up my mind, I was kind of done. I could tell when she was coming to me with something that she wanted to change me on because she would say, 'Now Beverly Earle.' When I heard her call my whole name, I knew that we were going to have some kind of serious discussion. Whether you knew it before, but Earline was a minister. She tried to minister to me quite often. From everything - from my church life, my love life, anything else that came up - I guess she was trying to make sure that when she got to Heaven, I came up to visit her or was up there with her. She wanted to kind of keep me straight.

"I guess I could have been a bad influence on her a little bit. I drank wine - it's good for you. You know that red wine is good for you. Every now and again I could talk Earline into maybe having a glass of wine. When we first started off, of course she wanted sweet wine. So I said, 'Well, why don't you try some White Zinfandel.' Well that wasn't sweet enough. Then, I had her to try some Riesling. That wasn't sweet enough, either. Then, I had her to try 'after dinner wine.' You know that's what it is - it's desert after dinner, so it's very sweet. Then if we couldn't find anything sweet enough, she'd put Equal in her glass of wine. I mean it's just nothing like messing up a good glass of wine. Everybody that ever went out with her knows that she'd put Equal in it. It almost made my flesh crawl to see her mess up a glass of wine like that.

"I just really, really miss her so much. At any age, but especially at my age, you really start to appreciate the friends you have, the people that you can trust and that you can depend on, you can talk to, you don't have to worry about what you say and how you say it. As I said, we did not always agree on everything, but we could talk about anything and we didn't worry about the other, later on, thinking about something that we got offended about. I tried very hard to talk her out of not leaving every time we had a conversation. I tried to talk her out of leaving. I do want to tell Representative Reverend Lowe that I tried to talk her into coming back and reclaiming her seat. I want him to know that.

"Anyway, I miss my friend. I miss my friend so very, very much. When I go to Winston-Salem, it's almost like I still expect to be able to call her and talk to her. I appreciate you listening to me talk about my friend. I really appreciate it. Thank you."

REMARKS BY REPRESENTATIVE STAM

"I traveled to Turkey six years ago with Earline and Senator Larry Shaw, if y'all remember him. He was the tour guide and Earline was the entertainment. She was especially entertained that I helped carry her bags.

"We hit the usual sites at Ankara and Ephesus and Cappadocia, but spent quite a bit of time in Istanbul crossing back and forth the Bosphorus and had a lot of meetings with government leaders and business leaders.

"We spent a morning at Zaman, which is the largest newspaper... well, the fifth largest in Europe. I think it's been shut down now by the authoritarian new president. But we crossed back and forth, and Earline stopped traffic in Asia and in Europe - she asked to be a maid. I'll have to explain that, because you can't imagine Earline asking to be a maid. Every evening for several days we were supposed to spend the evening at the home of some normal citizens - you know, regular people, and we did that. One night we drove up the Bosphorus. We were told we were coming to the house of some normal citizens. We get up there, and we finally come up a little hill. You can see the Bosphorus; you can almost see the Black Sea, and here's this house - the second home of the owner of that newspaper, Zaman, who's a billionaire - maybe the Donald Trump of Istanbul - and this is his second home.

May 24, 2016

"So as we walked in and Earline saw everything there, she said, 'I want to get a job here.'"

REMARKS BY REPRESENTATIVE LUCAS

"I first met Earline in 2002 when she assumed her seat in this Chamber. We immediately became friends because of her gregarious personality.

"Earline loved to travel! A few years ago, I had the pleasure of traveling with Earline to Singapore. While there, she chose to present herself as my personal chaperone. She also enlisted Representative Debbie Clary to guard me when she was unavailable. The two of them jokingly viewed this as a perceived necessary task.

"Earline, being familiar with my wife (Brenda) knew my taste in clothing, so she accompanied me to a local tailor shop and selected several articles of clothing for Brenda and me.

"At dinner one night, Earline decided that she wanted an American drink. She was offered a Coca-Cola (no price mentioned). After dinner, she was billed $12.00 for the Coke. This made her quite furious, so I decided to pay the bill in order to appease her.

"Earline will be missed and I commend the resolution to you."

REMARKS BY REPRESENTATIVE FARMER-BUTTERFIELD

"Representative-Senator Parmon: wife, mother, grandmother, great grandmother, minister, former member of the Army Reserve, educator, Member of the House of Representatives, Senator, a phenomenal person.

"She was very proud of the fact that she started a charter school. That was one of the first things she shared with me when I met her in the Class of 2003. Indeed, she and myself, Representative Carney, Representative Lewis, Speaker Moore, and many others came to the Legislature together in the House. She was always right. She was an excellent debater. You knew she had that honorary degree from her alma mater, Winston-Salem State University where she got serious on legislative issues like dropout prevention, eugenics, death penalty, people needing justice who were wrongly incarcerated, and the list goes on and on.

"I will long remember all the things she did to express her wonderful sense of humor and her wit and shared jokes with those of us on both sides of the aisle. In fact Representative Parmon, when my party was in control, sat directly in the midst of the party on the other side. She blended in and worked effectively with both sides of the aisle. That's why she was able to be successful in not only working with dropout prevention, but domestic violence, voter registration. She worked with the silver alert and just always put people first in everything that she did, regardless of the number of hats that she wore. It was always about putting people first and making sure that their needs were addressed.

"Now, she did have an issue with me because I was a Delta and she was in the AKA Sorority. Of course, she thought her sorority was the best of the rest. So, she and I used to debate about which office was going to be occupied by whom, who was going to moderate a mock session for the Black Caucus on Youth and Family Day, and indeed, we talked about who was going to go to what reception with Beverly Earle, when we were going to go, and when we were going to come back. Earline always won out because she always debated and argued her point with good rationale and logic, so you could respect her opinion.

"I shall miss Representative-Senator Parmon and I know that she's in Heaven, in charge and giving commands of directives to those angels that she's in the midst of, including her husband Albert of 47 years. I commend the resolution to you."

REMARKS BY REPRESENTATIVE LAMBETH

"Earline Parmon was born in Buffalo, New York. I liked to call her, 'Little Buffalo' because you certainly did not want to get in her way for fear of getting run over.

"Earline and I worked closest together during my tenure on the local Board of Education. She was an outspoken crusader. Earline would fight for those less fortunate. In the late 1990's, Earline founded Lift Academy - Forsyth County's first charter school - even before there were charter school designations. Students who had given up on finishing school, had no parental backing, and lacked the motivation to succeed were welcomed there. Against all odds, she fought for each one who attended Lift Academy.

"Several words come to mind that describe Earline: spunky, direct, accessible, compassionate, and caring.

"When you saw Earline, she always had a smile on her face. I imagine today that she is smiling on this Body.

"I commend to you the resolution."

REMARKS BY REPRESENTATIVE CARNEY

"I didn't want to do this, but all of you who have been paying attention that did not know Earline, I hope you are grasping the incredible impact she made on lives up here. As referenced by Representative Farmer-Butterfield, we all came in in the freshman class together, along with Representative Lewis, the Speaker, and others that are still here. Earline will never leave this place. She put her mark here on so many things.

"I have the distinct privilege of sitting in Seat 54 and she sat behind me in 66. All the accolades have been said about Earline, but I want to put a little 'human' side to it. I also had the opportunity to go on a van trip around the State. There were some of us that went out in 2010 and some of us stayed for the whole thing. We would pick up other members along the way. Earline and I were the two that started out together and ended up back here together. I learned a lot sitting in front of her, but I learned a whole lot more on that trip. When you're in a van and you've been in a group talking, you get in the car and you're tired but you keep going.

"The one thing about Earline that hasn't been said is she was an incredible, dapper dresser. She loved coordinating her outfits. So sitting in front of her every day, it was something different. I don't know how long it took me before I realized she hadn't changed an outfit in quite a while. Not only were her clothes a message, or a statement, about her, but I looked down at her shoes and they always were coordinating or they always stood out. I commented one day 'Earline, where do you find your shoes?' Now, some of you may know, but I don't; she never told me. There was a store off the interstate that she would stop by on her way to and from here and pick up something, pick up some new shoes. The other thing that she always wore with her attire was a pin. It was all kinds of pins. So I brought two to her one day that I had for a long time that was passed on to me. I gave them to her and she said, 'What are these?' I said, 'I wanted to contribute to your collection of two pins.' She was most appreciative, but then she came the next day and said, 'I can't take these, they belong to you.' We went back and forth for a couple days, and she ended up keeping them, I knew she wanted them. Anyway, I didn't give in to her.

"There was another thing on the trip that I learned about Earline and that is - and some of you who have been in her home know this - she collected salt and pepper shakers. She had hundreds, I guess, every kind you could imagine. On our van trip, we had one opportunity to go into a local country gas station store. By golly, when we left there, she left there she left with a pair salt and pepper shakers.

May 24, 2016

"That's the human side of her, that someone who is a stranger to her - 11, 12, 13 years ago - she'd just embrace you. I've seen her stand up from Seat 66 many times and chew into some issue on the floor, then she'd sit down and laugh. Then she would go up to the person that she had confronted on the floor, she would apologize for a minute and say, 'Now I'm not sorry I said what I did, but maybe it was the way I said it.'

"She won over everybody that touched her and it was an absolute, incredible privilege for me to get to know Earline Parmon, but she's still with us. I commend the resolution to you."

REMARKS BY REPRESENTATIVE DOLLAR

"I first got to know Earline back in, I believe it was, 1989 in the Institute of Political Leadership. There were several Members of that class that ended up serving both here in the House, as well as in the Senate and some local offices. Earline was just a real joy to work with. As has been mentioned, she had some very strong opinions. She was not shy about sharing those with you. But you always knew where you stood and how she stood on an issue, which was tremendous.

"But I got entangled, shall we say, on a bill that she ran - a hair braiding bill. The laughter from those that were actually here at the time - that was sort of an amazing bill, it was hotly debated on the floor, it was something. She had her passion into that. So, the bill gets over to the Senate. For some reason, it was toward the end of Session, and most people weren't here in the House, but the Senate was working on that particular day, and I ended up - through a comedy of errors, I suppose - but I ended up over in the Senate working on this thing, for some reason. And in between, I guess, Senator Rand was just trying to keep Senator Garrou, who was trying to make sure that Earline's bill came through ok. Senator East - which some of you remember him - was looking out for the barbers at the time. I don't know if Representative Fisher remembers this but we borrowed your bill and you helped save us. Thank you for that. We borrowed a bill, we split the two issues up, and we untangled them. Anyway, we ended up coming back, I think, the first of the next week and passing two or three different bills, but we got it all done. It was a pretty amazing experience. I thought I was taking my life into my own hands except that her bill was passed and she had what she was looking for.

"She was just, as many have mentioned, she was just a real joy to work with. Remember her very, very fondly as a great legislator, and I commend the resolution to you."

REMARKS BY REPRESENTATIVE L. BELL

"There's a lot that has been said about Earline, and all of it is true. I'm not going to try to repeat some of that. I remember Senator Parmon when she was a county commissioner. We met at that time and worked together at state conferences and national conferences. I remember working with her when she was traveling around the state with the drop-out prevention program. I met her husband at that time and learned him very well, and we traveled quite a bit not only in the state, but also outside as well.

"I used to tease Earline because when I found out she was a minister, and I'm a deacon at my church, I called her my pastor. I just couldn't imagine her being a preacher at that time. We socialized together a lot. I just teased her about that.

"We miss her quite a bit - already miss her a lot around here. I commend this resolution to you."

REMARKS BY REPRESENTATIVE HURLEY

"As a freshman, Speaker Hackney appointed me to the commission on dropout prevention and high school graduation. Representative Parmon was a co-chair along with Representative Fisher and they had taken the General Assembly to the people in Forsyth County. I went to the meeting to hear the public and learn from the experience. Representative Parmon asked me if I would be interested in having a meeting of this commission in Randolph County. Of course, I was. It was scheduled, and session adjourned late that day, so we didn't get to Asheboro until around 8:00 p.m., but the auditorium was pretty full. Only one person was there who spoke on why they had dropped out. It had been difficult to contact them because of privacy issues. I had had to go through the schools to send letters I had written to whomever the administration chose. I appreciated her caring about this freshman legislator and for the opportunity it afforded the people of my district.

"I am thankful for the experience of serving with Representative-Senator Parmon. She was always kind and thoughtful. North Carolina has lost a very special person who served citizens and our State with dignity."

REMARKS BY REPRESENTATIVE R. MOORE

"Very rarely do I stand up and speak on resolutions about past members, but I had a great deal of respect for Senator Parmon. When I came in, I didn't spend a whole lot of time with her, but the time that we did spend together was very productive. She always had a very, very helpful insight to what I was going through coming into the General Assembly. The first year I was here was the year the Chamber transitioned from Democrat to Republican. I was sitting over there in the Speaker's chair feeling a little lonely. Earline used to come by, and she used to speak with me. She used to tell me, 'Son, keep holding your head up and keep doing the right thing and moving forward, and you're going to be alright and you're going to have success in this Chamber. Don't worry. Just keep going forward.'

"I have very fond memories of Earline. She was a small woman, but she had a will of iron and the strength and the heart of a lion. She is our modern-day Shirley Chisholm. I just wanted to lend my voice to what's been said. All of you have different experiences, but I will always hold her deep in my heart with love and respect. I commend the resolution to you."

REMARKS BY REPRESENTATIVE STEVENS

"I waited to see if anybody else brought this up - one thing that incredibly impressed me about Representative Parmon, as we were working on issues one day, I think we were actually talking about the eugenics bill, and she told me that she understood and knew a lot about that because she herself had been the foster mother of eleven children. Now, all the other things we know she's done, and as busy and as active as she's been, to take in eleven of somebody else's children - on top of her own - says something incredible about that woman. I just never forgot that she really devoted her time to the things that she believed in. And to take in eleven foster kids is a lot. So, I commend the resolution to you."

REMARKS BY REPRESENTATIVE MICHAUX

"I knew Earline, probably, before any of you all ever thought of Earline. I knew Earline back when we called her a rebel with a cause. She sort of rankled with people in Winston-Salem with her activities that many of us would engage in at the time. But it all ended up in the most generous and fruitful manner.

"When she got here in the General Assembly, we renewed - well, we had never lost the friendship that we had made during the movement at all. She got in the habit of calling me 'godfather.' Every time we would cross each other, or come across each other, she'd say godfather this, godfather that, godfather the other. So, I said, 'Earline, why do you keep calling me godfather?' She said, 'Well, for two reasons. One was I saw the movie The Godfather and you sort of reminded me of the capo.' I said, 'Why is that?' She said, 'Because you have a habit of talking to people in a way that's nice, but then they better look out for their lives.' I said, 'Wait a minute. Wait a minute, Earline. You're calling me a capo in the Mafia?' She said, 'Well,

The Godfather, that's what it was about and he was the one that shepherded the people through and got them through life or just got rid of them.' She said, 'On the other hand, you have played a part in my life and let me believe you were my godfather and that you helped me, particularly here in the House.'

"She and Representative Larry Womble actually were a pair that you could not dismiss. The eugenics legislation that this House eventually passed was because of the prodding, not only of Larry Womble, but because Earline insisted on it being done. When Larry had his accident, Earline took over the fight and got more done and got things done much better than had been happening in the past.

"Earline had a voice - she spoke, she talked. She said things some times that rankled people. She said things some times that just really hit the wrong nerve at first. But then people began to realize that what she was saying, you know, was true. It reminds me of the great theologian Martin Luther who had a problem with the High Church of Rome, and he began to write letters and theses about how it was being run and the Holy Catholic Church didn't like it. And they eventually engaged in what they called the Diet of Worms where they brought Martin Luther in to get him to ask him whether or not he believed what he wrote. A lot of people asked Earline, 'Do you really believe what you said?' Martin Luther said, 'Give me overnight to think about it.' He came back the next day, and this is what he told the Diet of Worms: 'I neither can nor will recant anything, for it is neither right nor safe to act against conscience. Here I stand, I can do no other.' That was Earline's real forte.

"I miss her. And Beverly, you tried to talk her out of going over to that other Body, and you weren't any more passionate about it than I was. I said, 'You're making a mistake. You need to be over here backing up the rest of us.' Well, she went on over there.

"I guess we will all miss here guidance, miss her counsel, miss her words of wisdom. We will always miss her personality. We will all miss everything that she offered to this Body. I guess the best thing I can say is something I learned a while back which I've tried to apply. I know it sort of epitomizes Earline. And it goes something like this: 'I seek opportunity, not security. I do not wish to be a kept citizen, humbled and dogged, by having the State look after me. I want to take the calculated risk, to dream and to build, to fail and to succeed. I will never cower before any master nor bend to any threat. It is my heritage to stand erect, proud, and unafraid, to think and act for myself, and to face the world boldly and say, 'This I have done.'

"Earline, you have done it."

May 31, 2016

The following remarks and prayer are offered by Representative Susan Martin:

"Yesterday we commemorated Memorial Day; a day to honor all Armed Services personnel who lost their lives serving our Nation. Consider these comments capturing the spirit of Memorial Day that were shared in 1863 at the dedication of a new national cemetery at Gettysburg:

"The world will little note, nor long remember what we say here, but it can never forget what they did. It is for us, the living, to be dedicated here to the unfinished work which they who fought...have thus so nobly advanced. It is rather for us to be here dedicated to the great task of remaining before us - that from these honored dead we take increased devotion to that cause for which they gave the last full measure of devotion - that we here highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain - that this Nation under God shall have a new birth of freedom - and that the government of the people, by the people, for the people, shall not perish from the earth.'

(Dedication remarks by Abraham Lincoln)

"Dear Lord,

"Thank You for blessing our great Nation and State. We praise You for soldiers with a fighting spirit, for a proud, courageous people with the core values upheld by the Armed Services of the United States of America, and for people with honor, courage, commitment, integrity, service, loyalty, duty, respect, and excellence.

"As we honor our fallen patriots and the ideas and values those soldiers stood for and died defending, we ask Your blessing on their families and friends, including those they served with. We ask Your blessing on our active duty and retired military.

"The New Testament says, 'There is no greater love than to lay down one's life for one's friends.'

"Lord, we thank You for those who have gone before us and made that ultimate sacrifice: for our freedom worth continuing to fight for. Help us to never forget. Give us strength, courage, and wisdom to perform the work we are called to on behalf of Your great people. God, bless America. We ask in Jesus' Name. Amen."

The Speaker leads the Body in the Pledge of Allegiance.

The following prayer is offered by Representative Susan Fisher:

"Eternal God, Ruler of the Universe,

"We find ourselves in a time of bewilderment over the current state of affairs in our world. We witness, daily, incomprehensible acts against children, elders, everyday people, the poor, the unguarded, the helpless.

"Today, I ask You to help us not to spend our spirits bemoaning these difficult times, but to give us hope, and a willingness to engage one another in constructive dialog and action.

"Keep us from dwelling too much on what is outside our reach or what cannot be.

June 2, 2016

"Remind us that we are needed for these times.

"Assist us in meeting resistance, by revealing to us those who will love us and guide us, so that we will know when they appear. We are united in our belief in a power greater than ourselves, and we know that we are not put here to fix everything all at once.

"Give us the grace to concentrate on mending the part of the world that is within our reach, so that by an accumulation of acts of kindness, we tip the scales toward enduring good.

"Help us, God, to remember why we are here, whom we serve, and who brought us to this place in this time. Amen."

SPECIAL MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

2015 GENERAL ASSEMBLY SECOND SESSION 2016

Senate Chamber
June 7, 2016

June 7, 2016

Mr. Speaker:

It is ordered that a message be sent your honorable body that S.B. 71 Conference Committee Substitute (Ratified), AN ACT TO (1) REQUIRE A COAL COMBUSTION RESIDUALS IMPOUNDMENT OWNER TO PROVIDE PERMANENT ALTERNATIVE WATER SUPPLIES FOR RESIDENTS IN AREAS SURROUNDING COAL COMBUSTION RESIDUALS SURFACE IMPOUNDMENTS; (2) EXTEND THE PERIOD FOR PUBLIC COMMENT AND REVIEW OF PROPOSED RISK CLASSIFICATIONS FOR COAL COMBUSTION RESIDUALS SURFACE IMPOUNDMENTS; AND (3) MODIFY APPOINTMENTS TO THE COAL ASH MANAGEMENT COMMISSION, THE MINING COMMISSION, AND THE OIL AND GAS COMMISSION, IN ACCORD WITH THE HOLDING OF MCCRORY V. BERGER, was vetoed by Governor Pat McCrory on June 6, 2016 and was returned to the Senate with the attached veto message.

Respectfully,
S/ Sarah Lang
Principal Clerk

OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR

GOVERNOR'S OBJECTIONS AND VETO MESSAGE

SENATE BILL 71: "AN ACT TO (1) REQUIRE A COAL COMBUSTION RESIDUALS IMPOUNDMENT OWNER TO PROVIDE PERMANENT ALTERNATIVE WATER SUPPLIES FOR RESIDENTS IN AREAS SURROUNDING COAL COMBUSTION RESIDUALS SURFACE IMPOUNDMENTS; (2) EXTEND THE PERIOD FOR PUBLIC COMMENT AND REVIEW OF PROPOSED RISK CLASSIFICATIONS FOR COAL COMBUSTION RESIDUALS SURFACE IMPOUNDMENTS; AND (3) MODIFY APPOINTMENTS TO THE COAL ASH MANAGEMENT COMMISSION, THE MINING COMMISSION, AND THE OIL AND GAS COMMISSION, IN ACCORD WITH THE HOLDING OF MCCRORY V. BERGER."

Senate Bill 71 is not good for the environment or for the rule of law in North Carolina.

This bill weakens environmental protections, delays water connections for well owners, ignores dam safety, and hinders environmentally sound efforts to reuse coal ash. This bill also lacks a firm deadline to connect well owners to alternate water supplies. In contrast, my administration proposed a solution that would have provided water connections within 18 months and required Duke Energy to repair dams around its coal ash ponds.

Furthermore, Senate Bill 71 yet again violates the separation of powers by interfering with a Governor's constitutional duty to faithfully execute the laws. It does this by re-establishing unaccountable bureaucracies within the cabinet agencies that have the power to make or overrule executive decisions. This legislation completely disregards a decisive 6-1 North Carolina Supreme Court ruling that came a mere four months ago. The re-established Coal Ash, Mining, and Oil & Gas Commissions have the same lack of supervision and extremely limited removal authority that the Supreme Court objected to in McCrorry v. Berger. This bill further limits appointment authority by requiring the General Assembly to approve executive appointments by confirmation.

In addition, this legislation imposes unrealistic deadlines to make appointments to the Mining and Oil & Gas Commissions. If an appointment is not made, the General Assembly gives gubernatorial appointments to the Lieutenant Governor, who is also the President of the Senate, despite the fact that these commissions are located in the Governor's cabinet. The Supreme Court was clear that it is the Governor who must have control over entities within the cabinet agencies.

As Governor, I have a duty to protect the environment and preserve the constitutional role of the executive branch, therefore, I veto Senate Bill 71.

S/ Pat McCrory
Governor of the State of North Carolina

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Wednesday, June 8, 2016

The House meets at 2:00 p.m. pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by the Speaker.

The following prayer is offered by Representative Dean Arp:

"Our Heavenly Father,

"I come to You today praising You for the many blessings of life and liberty You have bestowed upon us and that we live in a State and Nation that is free. You, God, are sovereign over our lives and know our hearts and our struggles. You know that we are all broken and sinners, but it is in

June 8, 2016

You that we find new, abundant life. I thank You, God, for bringing us together to glorify Your name in all that we do. We make sacrifices every day, but You are the one who made the ultimate sacrifice for us and we thank You for that. The Psalmist tells us:

"You hear our voices as we lay our requests before You and wait patiently. You are not a God who delights in wickedness; evil cannot dwell with You. The boastful cannot stand in Your presence; You hate all evildoers. You destroy those who tell lies; the Lord abhors a man of bloodshed and treachery.'

"Therefore, let us be pure in our actions, far from any evil intent, honest in our dealings with others and with You, and let us be righteous.

"For all who take refuge in you rejoice; ...Spread Your protection over them, so that those who love Your name may exult in You. For You bless the righteous, O Lord; You cover them with favor as with a shield.'

"Your Son Jesus did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life as a ransom for many. We thank You, for the chance we have to serve others because You first served us.

"Today, Lord, I come to You asking for wisdom and guidance in our decisions and that we will make decisions that bring You honor and glory. Equip us with humility. Help us to love and serve the people of North Carolina because You love them.

"It is Your will that will prevail and You are sovereign above all else. I love You and praise You, and it is in Your Holy Name that I pray. Amen."

The Speaker leads the Body in the Pledge of Allegiance.

"You remind us to not look forward to what may happen tomorrow. You, the Everlasting Father, who cares for us today, will take care of us tomorrow and every day. Either You will shield us from suffering, or You will give us the unfailing strength to bear it.

"Be at peace then. We must put aside all anxious thoughts and imaginations, and say continually, 'The Lord is my strength and my shield. My heart has trusted in Him and I am helped. You are not only with me but in me, and I with You.'

June 23, 2016

"We lift Your Name above all names and recognize You as the Creator of all things.

"We pray for Your servants in this legislature of the State of North Carolina, that You might keep us faithful to the solemn office which You have charged us.

"Strengthen and uphold us. Guide and direct us to fulfill Your purposes according to Your Word.

"Give us council and aid that we may preserve the integrity and honor of our State, protect our neighbor's best interest, and uphold and preserve all life You have given to us.

"Grant us firmness to maintain and promote law and justice, and the determination to strive for the good of our State and the betterment of its citizens, remembering that we, also, must live under the same laws we write and enforce.

"Give us wisdom in the hours of decision and may we speak and decide on matters in a spirit of unity and the bond of peace. When we face the challenge of defending Your Word and the direction Your Word takes us, give us the strength and serenity needed to meet that challenge.

"Guard and defend us that we may serve the security and well-being of the people You have given us to serve. Protect us from those who choose to do us harm.

"Make us leaders of a people who will do Your righteous and Holy Will in our State and our Nation.

"In the Name of Your most Holy Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, bless these United States and the great State of North Carolina. Amen."

ONE HUNDRED SEVENTY-THIRD DAY

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Tuesday, June 28, 2016

The House meets at 10:00 a.m. pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by Representative Lewis.

June 28, 2016

The following prayer is offered by Representative Susan Martin:

"Thank You for this day. We are grateful for the opportunity to come before You with thanksgiving for the many blessings that You have given to each of us and poured out on our great State and Nation. We are grateful, also, for the opportunity to bring our requests to You.

"Thank You for the gift of Your Word which provides truth and wisdom to guide us. Isaiah 6:8 says, 'Whom shall I send?' and the response, 'Here I am Lord, send me.' Romans 13:1 states that, 'We submit to governing authorities because all authority comes from God.' Esther 4:14 says of a person placed in a position of influence that, 'Perhaps you are here for such a time as this.'

"Lord, each of us has accepted the call. You have placed us in our current positions of authority. Help us to recognize that we are here to serve Your purpose for Your people. As we face difficult situations, controversial decisions, divisive attacks, I pray that You would unite us through Your spirit. Give us wisdom and discernment to take necessary actions 'in such a time as this.'

"Help us to forgive as You have forgiven. Let Your spirit so fill us that our thoughts and actions reflect evidence of the fruit of Your spirit according to Galatians 5:22, 'Love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control.'

"Lord, help us to do all that You require of us, according to Micah 6:8, 'To do what's right, to love mercy, and to walk humbly with Your God.'

"We lift up our families who are sacrificing to allow us to serve, our military and their families, our government leaders at every level, and all the people involved in any way in the work we are trying to do here. Bless them and keep them safe. Thank You for the privilege of praying in Jesus' Holy Name. Amen."

H.R. 1124, A HOUSE RESOLUTION HONORING OUR VETERANS BY EXPRESSING APPRECIATION FOR THEIR SERVICE TO OUR STATE AND NATION.

Whereas, throughout our country's history, generations of men and women have answered the call to leave their families, their jobs, and put their futures and even their lives on the line to valiantly defend our nation and its inalienable rights; and

Whereas, for many, that sacrifice has ended in permanent injury or death, yet their spirit remains in the continued preservation of our freedoms and the promise of liberty; and

Whereas, the military has a prominent presence in North Carolina serving as the location of five military bases, a military ocean terminal, and a U.S. Coast Guard base: Fort Bragg; Camp Lejeune Marine Corps Base; Cherry Point Marine Corps Air Station and Naval Air Depot; New River Marine Corps Air Station; Seymour Johnson Air Force Base; Sunny Point Military Ocean Terminal; U.S. Coast Guard Base, Elizabeth City; accounting for over 116,000 active-duty personnel stationed in the State; and

Whereas, over 11,773 North Carolinians serve in the Air and Army National Guard and 11,562 North Carolinians serve in U.S. Army Reserve, U.S. Marine Corps Reserve, U.S. Air Force Reserve, and U.S. Navy Reserve; and

Whereas, nearly 775,000 veterans live in North Carolina, ranking the State eighth in the nation for the number of veterans; and

Whereas, as of 2014, North Carolina had a female veteran population of over 84,070 ranking fifth in the nation; a military retiree population of more than 92,500 ranking sixth in the nation; and a rural veteran population of over 137,350 ranking second in the nation; and

Whereas, the State of North Carolina is committed to the veterans in this State and provides various services and resources, which are all accessible on a Web site maintained by the North Carolina Division of Veterans Affairs in the North Carolina Department of Military and Veterans Affairs; and

Whereas, the Division of Veterans Affairs is working in partnership with other State agencies to provide veterans a "one-stop-shop" experience for services, benefits, or support from federal, State, and nonprofit programs; and

Whereas, the Division of Veterans Affairs is responsible for overseeing the State Service Office, 22 Veterans Service Centers, four State Veterans Homes, and four State Veterans Cemeteries; and

Whereas, the Division of Veterans Affairs also assists, trains, and accredits county veterans service officers in order to create a coordinated network; and

Whereas, the North Carolina Veterans Council, Inc., has for over 25 years represented the interests of all veterans before the North Carolina General Assembly; and

Whereas, the North Carolina Veterans Council, Inc., is composed of representatives of the 11 active veterans organizations, including Military Officers Association of America (MOAA), Fleet Reserve Association, Disabled American Veterans (DAV), American Veterans (AMVETS), American Legion, Vietnam Veterans of America, Military Order of the Purple Heart, Veterans of Foreign Wars (VFW), Marine Corps League, Department of American EX-POW, and the NC ELKS Association, as an ex officio member; and

Whereas, the U.S. Veterans Administration and Department of Defense spent a combined $7.3 billion in North Carolina on veterans, benefits programs, and military retiree pensions during the 2013 fiscal year, including operating 27 VA medical sites throughout the State; and

Whereas, we owe a debt of gratitude to our veterans and wish to express our appreciation to all of our veterans for their selfless service to this State and the United States; Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives:

SECTION 1. The House of Representatives expresses its profound gratitude and appreciation to all the men and women who served in our nation in the armed services, Reserves, and National Guard.

SECTION 2. The House of Representatives wishes to honor the memory of all the North Carolinians who gave their lives while serving our nation in the armed services.

SECTION 3. This resolution is effective upon adoption.

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE FOR SENATE BILL 71

S71-PCCS45507-RI-3, A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT TO (1) REQUIRE A COAL COMBUSTION RESIDUALS IMPOUNDMENT OWNER TO PROVIDE PERMANENT ALTERNATIVE WATER SUPPLIES FOR RESIDENTS IN AREAS SURROUNDING COAL COMBUSTION RESIDUALS SURFACE IMPOUNDMENTS; (2) EXTEND THE PERIOD FOR PUBLIC COMMENT AND REVIEW OF PROPOSED RISK CLASSIFICATIONS FOR COAL COMBUSTION RESIDUALS SURFACE IMPOUNDMENTS; AND (3) MODIFY APPOINTMENTS TO THE COAL ASH MANAGEMENT COMMISSION, THE MINING COMMISSION, AND THE OIL AND GAS COMMISSION, IN ACCORD WITH THE HOLDING OF MCCRORY V. BERGER.

Whereas, the Coal Ash Management Act of 2014 required the owner of a coal combustion residuals surface impoundment to sample and analyze the water quality of drinking water supply wells in areas surrounding coal combustion residuals surface impoundments and, if the sampling and water quality analysis indicated that water from a drinking water supply well exceeded groundwater quality standards for constituents associated with the presence of the impoundment, required the owner to replace the contaminated drinking water supply well with an alternate supply of potable drinking water and an alternate supply of water that is safe for other household uses; and

Whereas, the Department of Environmental Quality recently reported that well water of residents living nearby coal ash residuals impoundments met federal requirements for safe drinking water, but the General Assembly nonetheless recognizes that confusion and worry has persisted with these residents in the aftermath of testing conducted by the Department of Environmental Quality and issuance of "do-not-drink advisories" by the Department of Health and Human Services, even after many of these advisories were subsequently withdrawn; and

Whereas, the General Assembly concludes that the owner of a coal combustion residuals surface impoundment should establish permanent alternative water supplies for residents in areas surrounding coal combustion residuals surface impoundments, to alleviate their concerns about availability of clean, safe, pure, and wholesome water; and

Whereas, in 2014 the General Assembly developed and enacted groundbreaking legislation, the Coal Ash Management Act, to comprehensively address the issue of proper management of coal ash residuals impoundments in the State for the protection of public health, safety, and welfare; the environment; and natural resources; and

Whereas, the Coal Ash Management Act of 2014 set forth closure requirements based on a comprehensive assessment of a site's risk, taking into account a number of factors, including:

- (1) Any hazards to public health, safety, or welfare resulting from the impoundment.
- (2) The structural condition and hazard potential of the impoundment.
- (3) The proximity of surface waters to the impoundment and whether any surface waters are contaminated or threatened by contamination as a result of the impoundment.
- (4) Information concerning the horizontal and vertical extent of soil and groundwater contamination for all contaminants confirmed to be present in groundwater in exceedance of groundwater quality standards and all significant factors affecting contaminant transport.
- (5) The location and nature of all receptors and significant exposure pathways.
- (6) The geological and hydrogeological features influencing the movement and chemical and physical character of the contaminants.
- (7) The amount and characteristics of coal combustion residuals in the impoundment.
- (8) Whether the impoundment is located within an area subject to a 100-year flood; and

Whereas, the Coal Ash Management Act of 2014 conclusively designated eight coal combustion residuals surface impoundments as high-priority, including two impoundments each at the following facilities: the Dan River Steam Station, the Riverbend Steam Station, the Asheville Steam Electric Generating Plant, and the Sutton Plant; and,

Whereas, the Executive Branch agency tasked with developing proposed classifications based on risk, the Department of Environmental Quality, issued proposed classifications on May 18, 2016, which designated all other coal combustion residuals surface impoundments located in the State as intermediate priority; and

Whereas, upon issuance of the proposed classifications, the Department of Environmental Quality requested that the General Assembly allow the Department an additional 18 months to enable the Department to reconsider the proposed classifications, indicating that "work that is already either planned or underway could significantly change the risk posed by the ponds"; and

Whereas, upon issuance of the proposed classifications, the Secretary of Environmental Quality stated that the Coal Ash Management Act of 2014 did "not allow for revisions to the classifications based on new information about a pond's risk to public health and the environment"; and

Whereas, the Secretary of Environmental Quality further stated that "making decisions based on incomplete information could lead to the expenditure of billions of dollars when spending millions now would provide equal or better protection"; and

Whereas, the General Assembly concurs that accurate classification of risk for coal combustion residuals surface impoundments is essential to appropriate management of the impoundments; and

Whereas the General Assembly created the Coal Ash Management Commission as an integral part of the Coal Ash Management Act of 2014 to provide oversight to the Department of Environmental Quality in establishment of risk classifications and closure plans for all coal combustion residuals surface impoundments; and

Whereas, in reviewing a classification proposed by the Department of Environmental Quality, the Coal Ash Management Act of 2014 directed the Coal Ash Management Commission to evaluate all information submitted in accordance with the Coal Ash Management Act of 2014 related to the proposed classifications, and any other information the Coal Ash Management Commission deemed relevant; and

Whereas, in reviewing a classification proposed by the Department of Environmental Quality, the Act directed the Coal Ash Management Commission to approve a proposed classification only if the Commission determined that the classification accurately reflected the level of risk posed by the coal combustion residuals surface impoundment; and

Whereas, a mechanism existed under the Coal Ash Management Act of 2014, as enacted, to allow sufficient time for the State to properly assess accurate risk for impoundments given that the Act (i) authorized the Commission to consider all information submitted pursuant to the law, and any other information the Commission deemed relevant, (ii) required that the Commission approve plans that accurately reflected the level of risk posed by an impoundment, and (iii) established no deadline for the Commission to issue final approval of an accurate classification; and

Whereas, closure methods under the Coal Ash Management Act of 2014 cannot be developed, approved, or implemented until accurate risk classifications for the impoundments have been finalized; and

Whereas, the General Assembly believes addressing the issue of proper management of coal combustion residuals surface impoundments is too pressing to grant a blanket extension of finalization of risk classifications of the impoundments for 18 months, while recognizing that accurate classifications of impoundments is imperative for timely and proper closure of coal ash impoundments; and

Whereas, the General Assembly established the Coal Ash Management Commission in 2014, to be comprised of individuals qualified with particular experience and expertise, including requirements for appointments of individuals who are representatives of an electric membership corporation or that have a background in power supply resource planning and engineering, individuals that have experience in economic development, and individuals that have expertise in determining and evaluating the costs associated with electricity generation and establishing the rates associated with electricity consumption, in order to facilitate thorough examination and sound decision making on complex and wide-reaching issues surrounding coal ash management, facets of which are beyond the jurisdictional responsibilities of the Department of Environmental Quality; and

Whereas, in McCrorry v. Berger, the North Carolina Supreme Court expressed concerns that the General Assembly retained a majority of appointments to the Coal Ash Management Commission under the Coal Ash Management Act of 2014 and held the appointments provisions violated the separation of powers clause of the Constitution of North Carolina; but stated that "the appointments clause does not prohibit the General Assembly from appointing statutory officers, and the General Assembly can appoint them in many instances"; and

Whereas, the Court expressed other separation of powers concerns that although the Coal Ash Management Commission was administratively located within the Division of Emergency Management of the Department of Public Safety, the Commission was directed to exercise all of its power and duties independently and was not subject to the supervision, direction, or control of the Division or Department; and

Whereas, Section 5 of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution ascribes to the General Assembly the power to assign functions, powers, and duties to the Executive Branch; and

Whereas, in accord with the authority given to it under Section 5 of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution, the General Assembly enacted the Coal Ash Management Commission, and other statutorily created commissions, with varying functions, powers, and duties; and

Whereas, Section 11 of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution provides that all administrative departments, agencies, and offices of the State and their respective functions, powers, and duties shall be allocated by law, and further provides that regulatory, quasi-judicial, and temporary agencies may, but need not, be allocated within a principal department; and

Whereas, allocations of the functions, powers, and duties of administrative agencies, by law, is the province and responsibility of the General Assembly through the aforementioned provisions of the Constitution of North Carolina and Article II of the State's Constitution establishing the purpose and power of the legislative branch; and

Whereas, the General Assembly intends to reconstitute the membership of the Coal Ash Management Commission in accord with the Court's holding so that the authority of the Coal Ash Management Commission established in 2014 to finalize accurate risk classifications, based on evaluation of all information the Commission deems necessary to achieve accurate classifications, can be exercised without further delay for the protection of public health, safety, and welfare; the environment; or natural resources for the benefit of all citizens of North Carolina; and

Whereas, the Court also expressed concerns that the General Assembly retained a majority of appointments to the Oil and Gas Commission and the Mining Commission and held the appointments provisions violated the separation of powers clause of the Constitution of North Carolina but stated that "the appointments clause does not prohibit the General Assembly from appointing statutory officers, and the General Assembly can appoint them in many instances"; and

Whereas, the General Assembly intends to reconstitute the membership of the Oil and Gas Commission and the Mining Commission in accordance with the Court's holding; Now, therefore,

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1.(a) G.S. 130A-309.211 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(c1) Provision of Permanent Water Supply. - As soon as practicable, but no later than October 1, 2017, the owner of a coal combustion residuals surface impoundment shall execute a memorandum of agreement or other binding agreement with the Department of Environmental Quality to establish permanent replacement water supplies for (i) each household that has a drinking water supply well located within one-half mile radius from the established compliance boundary of a coal combustion residuals impoundment, and is not separated from the impoundment by the mainstem of a river, as that term is defined under G.S. 143-215.22G, or other body of water that would prevent the migration of contaminants through groundwater from the impoundment to a well and (ii) each household that has a drinking water supply well that is located in an area in which contamination resulting from constituents associated with the presence of a coal combustion residuals impoundment is expected to migrate, as demonstrated by groundwater modeling, and hydrogeologic, geologic, and geotechnical investigations of the site, conducted in accordance with the requirements of G.S. 130A-309.214(a)(4) and the results of other modeling or investigations that are submitted pursuant to G.S. 130A-309.213(b)(4). Preference shall be given to permanent replacement water supplies by connection to public water supplies; however, if the State Water Infrastructure Authority determines that connection to a public water supply to a particular household would be cost-prohibitive, the State Water Infrastructure Authority shall authorize provision of a permanent replacement water supply to that household through installation of a filtration system. For households for which filtration systems are installed, the impoundment owner shall be responsible for periodic required maintenance of the filtration system. No later than September 1, 2017, an impoundment owner shall submit information on permanent replacement water supplies proposed to be provided to each household to the State Water Infrastructure Authority, including, at a minimum, the type of permanent water supply proposed; the location of the household and its proximity to the nearest connection point to a public water supply; projected cost of the permanent water supply option proposed for the household; and if proposing to connect to a public water supply, a binding written agreement with that public water supplier. Projects involving permanent replacement water supplies by connection to public water supplies shall be deemed approved for this purpose. Nothing in this section shall be construed to obviate the need for other federal, State, and local permits and approvals. The Department of Environmental Quality shall expedite any State permits and approvals required for such projects. For projects involving installation of a filtration system, the State Water Infrastructure Authority shall evaluate information submitted by the impoundment owner to determine whether connection to a public water supply is cost-prohibitive and render a decision to approve or disapprove the plan, including written findings of fact, no later than December 1, 2017."

SECTION 1.(b) This section is effective when it becomes law. Requirements for establishment of a permanent alternative water supply under subsection (a) of this section shall apply only to households with drinking water supply wells in existence on the date this act becomes effective.

SECTION 1.1.(a) G.S. 130A-309.214 reads as rewritten:

"§ 130A-309.214. Closure of coal combustion residuals surface impoundments.

(g) Notwithstanding any other requirement for closure under this section or Part, no later than December 1, 2016, an impoundment owner shall submit plans to the Department of Environmental Quality to make at least 2.5 million tons of coal combustion residuals per year available for beneficial use for addition to concrete. At least fifty percent (50%) of the coal combustion residuals made available for beneficial use shall be removed from the current inventory of coal combustion residuals. Facilities that are receiving or have received coal combustion residuals from other sites will be the sites from which the coal combustion residuals inventory will be used first. No later than June 1, 2018, an impoundment owner shall begin to supply such coal combustion residuals for beneficial use in accordance with this subsection."

SECTION 1.1.(b) This section is effective when it becomes law.

SECTION 2.(a) G.S. 130A-309.202 reads as rewritten:

"§ 130A-309.202. Coal Ash Management Commission.

INDEX GUIDE

The North Carolina General Statutes titles form the basis for these indices. Following each bill title, the last action or the present status of said bill is indicated. For example, a ratified bill will be followed by its chapter number in the Session Laws. Bills included in whole or in part in other measures are reflected as such, if known.

All bills dealing with funds are indexed under Appropriations. Local legislation is placed under the county it affects.

A list of bills and resolutions introduced by each Representative is found under the Member's name with an asterisk (*) noting that person as the primary sponsor.
