Amends Title [NO]
Second Edition

Date _____, 2023

Representative _____

1 moves to amend the bill on page 2, lines 19-26

2 by rewriting those lines to read:

3 "(h) If conditions of pretrial release have previously been imposed upon a defendant and 4 are active at the time the defendant allegedly committed a new offense, the judicial official who 5 determines the conditions of pretrial release for the new offense shall be a judge. The judge shall 6 direct a law enforcement officer, pretrial services program, or a district attorney to provide a 7 criminal history report and risk assessment, if available, for the defendant and shall consider the 8 criminal history when setting conditions of pretrial release. After setting conditions of pretrial 9 release, the judge shall return any report information obtained from a restricted database to the 10 providing agency or department. The nonrestricted information shall become a part of the court 11 record. No judge shall unreasonably delay the determination of conditions of pretrial release for 12 the purpose of reviewing the defendant's criminal history report."
