Introduced by: Rep. Balkcom	Prepared by: Nicholas Giddings and Jessica Sammons
Analysis of: Second Edition	Staff Attorneys

OVERVIEW: House Bill 57 would do the following:

- Authorize the City of Hendersonville to expand the use of proceeds collected from on-street parking meters to fund any capital projects.
- Provide for even-year elections and extend the terms of elected officers to a four-year term in the Towns of Harmony and Love Valley.

[As introduced, this bill was identical to S68, as introduced by Sen. Moffitt, which is currently in Senate Finance.]

CURRENT LAW/BILL ANALYSIS:

PART I – Effective when law

Cities in North Carolina may use proceeds from parking meters on public streets only to defray the cost of enforcing and administering traffic and parking ordinances and regulations.

PART I of House Bill 57 would authorize the City of Hendersonville to expand the use of proceeds from charging for on-street parking to fund any capital projects, in addition to defraying the cost of enforcing and administering traffic and parking ordinances and regulations.

PARTS II and III – Effective when law and applies to elections held on or after that date

G.S. 163-279 establishes a statewide default rule for the timing of municipal elections as the odd-numbered years. The Town of Harmony is represented by a mayor and four council members serving two-year terms. The Town of Love Valley is represented by a mayor and five commissioners serving two-year terms.

The Towns of Harmony and Love Valley conduct municipal elections in odd-numbered years using the nonpartisan plurality method. Elected officials remain in office until their successors are elected and qualified. All current terms of office for elected officials in these towns end in 2023.

PARTS II and III of House Bill 57 would do the following:

- Extend the term of office for elected officers in the Town of Harmony and the Town of Love Valley to staggered four-year terms.
- Change municipal elections in the Town of Harmony and the Town of Love Valley to even-numbered years, beginning in 2024.
