HOUSE JOURNAL

SESSION 2019

FIRST DAY

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Wednesday, January 9, 2019

This day, in accordance with the Constitution of the State of North Carolina and G.S. 120-11.1, which fixes the date for the meeting of the General Assembly of North Carolina, the Members of the House of Representatives assemble in the House Chamber of the State Legislative Building in the City of Raleigh at 12:00 p.m. and are called to order by the Honorable James White, Principal Clerk of the 2017 House of Representatives.

The following prayer is offered by Representative Jimmy Dixon:

"Our kind Father in Heaven,

"Desiring to have our paths directed by Thee (Proverbs 3:5-6), we begin this Session of the North Carolina General Assembly in prayer, with heads bowed and hearts seeking Thy blessings as we assemble to conduct the People's business.

"We thank Thee for the pleasant conditions under which we gather and for the successful election of each Representative here and for their willingness to serve the citizens of our Great State.

"We are thankful for the beauty of these facilities, and we thank Thee for some of the essential people within the confines of this General Assembly complex.

"We are thankful for our dedicated custodians who maintain these facilities for those who work here and for those who visit here.

"We are thankful, Father, for our hard working citizens who provide the operational revenue supporting this workplace wherein they have sent us to conduct their business.

"We are thankful for all our security staff and Sergeants-at-Arms who help us who work here and those who visit here feel safe and secure in a sometimes dangerous world.

"We are thankful for the Principal Clerk and his dedicated staff who are efficient, diligent, and faithful to the Rules of this institution.

"We are thankful for the dedicated women and men who staff the many departments within the General Assembly and for the quality of their work.

"We are especially thankful for the dedicated efforts of our Founding Fathers - who through sorrow and suffering, toil and tribulation, established, with Divine Investiture, The United States of America to be governed as a constitutional republic.

"We are likewise thankful for those liberty-loving Founders of North Carolina who supported those original efforts that helped establish America as the greatest Nation on Earth.

"We are thankful, Father, for the dedicated service of our colleagues who have moved into a new season of their lives, and we pray for their happiness and success.

"We are profoundly thankful for those precious youth present here today representing some of the posterity of Members of the People's House.

"Oh, Father, with our most earnest and sincere pleadings, we ask Thee to bless these precious grandchildren with the same abundant opportunities for freedom and liberty that we have heretofore enjoyed.

"Please bless us in this House and all other men and women in all branches of government at all levels of government with the righteous desires of our hearts to do that which will most likely preserve freedom and liberty for future generations.

"Finally, and in conclusion, Father, please indulge us a moment as we petition Thee for one of our own who faces some challenges.

January 9, 2019

"We ask Thee to bless Representative Becky Carney with the choicest blessings Heaven has to offer as she continues to serve in this House which she has grown to love.

"In the Name of Jesus Christ. Amen."

The North Carolina National Guard Honor Guard presents the colors.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my official seal.

DONE IN OFFICE at Raleigh, this 28th day of December, 2018.

S/ Elaine F. Marshall
Secretary of State

The roll is called and one hundred-sixteen Members-elect are present.

The Chair declares a quorum to be present.

The Members-elect take and subscribe to the following oath of office, which is administered by Senior Associate Justice Paul M. Newby, North Carolina Supreme Court.

January 9, 2019

OATH FOR MEMBERS OF THE
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
2019 SESSION

"I do solemnly and sincerely swear that I will support the Constitution of the United States; that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to the State of North Carolina, and to the constitutional powers and authorities which are or may be established for the government thereof; and that I will endeavor to support, maintain and defend the Constitution of said State, not inconsistent with the Constitution of the United States, to the best of my knowledge and ability; so help me God.

"I do swear (or affirm) that I will well and truly execute the duties of the office of a member of the North Carolina House of Representatives according to the best of my skill and ability, according to law; so help me, God."

Leaves of absence are granted to Representatives Clark, Fisher, Iler, and Murphy for today.

ELECTION OF SPEAKER

The Chair states that the first order of business is the election of a Speaker and explains the voting procedure to be used in the absence of adopted rules.

The Chair declares that nominations are in order for Speaker of the House of Representatives.

The Chair recognizes Representative Dobson who nominates Representative Tim Moore for the Speaker of the House of Representatives.

"Newly-elected Members of the North Carolina House, family, and special guests,

"It is my honor to nominate the gentleman from Cleveland, Mr. Timothy Moore, for the office of Speaker of the North Carolina House of Representatives for the 2019-2020 Legislative Session.

"When approached about making this nomination, it was not a hard decision for me. I am proud to place the nomination for Speaker, a devoted father, statesman, leader, and friend, Representative Tim Moore.

"I know that it's not as appealing for some to talk about the things that unite us as it is the things that divide us. However, that's where I want to start.

January 9, 2019

"Under Speaker Moore's leadership, there has been much that the General Assembly has done together that we can all be very proud of and this State can be proud of. I don't have time to go through all the policies that Speaker Moore presided over to move this State forward, but I do want to mention a few.

"North Carolina has not been immune to the opioid crisis. In 2015, more than 1,400 of our fellow North Carolinians died because of this deadly epidemic. Speaker Moore decided that we, as a State, would not sit idly by. In June of 2017, the General Assembly passed unanimously, and the Governor signed, the STOP Act. And the HOPE Act was passed in 2018 on a bipartisan basis and signed into law. Both of these laws are crucial to combating the crisis in which we face.

"Under Speaker Moore's leadership and guidance, we tackled Medicaid reform, first in 2015, then in 2018. Under a Democratic governor, Republican House and Senate, the General Assembly passed unanimously House Bill 403, which integrated behavioral and physical health for our Medicaid population - a major piece of legislation that will serve North Carolinians well for a generation to come - on a bipartisan basis.

"Over the last four years, North Carolina has faced many struggles, specifically, the unspeakable horrors of Hurricane Matthew and Hurricane Florence. Under Speaker Moore's leadership, previous General Assemblies appropriated over $1.2 billion to rebuild the eastern part of our Great State.

"These are just a few of the things, and I could go on and on, but these are just a few of the things that have been accomplished because of Tim Moore's leadership.

"On a personal note, in 2015, Speaker Moore gave this Representative opportunities to pursue my passion for healthcare that others may not have given me. I am, and always will be, eternally grateful for the confidence that he placed in me four years ago.

"Finally, in his acceptance speech two years ago, Tim said, 'One thing that I will continue to do as Speaker is empower you to represent your district as only you can.' I have no reservation when I say he has done exactly that.

"Therefore, Mr. Clerk, Members, because of the bipartisan accomplishments achieved under Speaker Moore's leadership, his leadership through two catastrophic storms, the autonomy that he has given to each Member to represent their districts as they see fit, and, I believe, because of Speaker Moore's leadership and steady hand over the last four years, North Carolina is better off now than we were four years ago.

January 9, 2019

"Mr. Clerk, it is my distinct honor to nominate Timothy K. Moore for Speaker of the North Carolina House of Representatives for the 2019-2020 Session. Thank you."

The Chair recognizes Representative Hurley who seconds the nomination.

"Thank you, Mr. Clerk.

"Ladies and gentlemen of the House, special guests,

"It is an honor for me to second the nomination of the Member from Cleveland, Representative Moore, for the Speaker of the House in this 154th convening of the General Assembly.

"Representative Moore has represented the citizens of District 111, Cleveland County, for 16 years, eight terms. He has served as the Speaker of the House for two terms.

"When I came in as a freshman legislator in 2007, Representative Moore's office was three doors from mine on the sixth floor of the Legislative Office Building. I had many questions and much to learn. He was always willing to take his time to help a new colleague.

"When he became Speaker of the House, I found him to be a person who stood behind his Members, and if your legislation was allowed to proceed, he helped you get it passed.

"Even though at a late night Session about 1:30 in the morning in 2015, I was explaining an amendment on wild animal legislation, specifically House Bill 554, and he left me hanging out with the little monkeys I was trying to protect, and yes, my amendment passed. I still feel that Representative Moore, with his experience and leadership, is the most qualified Member to lead this Session of the House.

"Therefore, Members of the House, I humbly ask that you join me in voting for Representative Tim Moore as Speaker of the North Carolina House. Thank you."

The Chair recognizes Representative Reives who nominates Representative Darren G. Jackson for the Speaker of the House of Representatives.

"Colleagues, honored guests, family members, I come today honored and humbled, able to nominate my friend and House Minority Leader, Darren Jackson, for Speaker of the House.

January 9, 2019

"Darren, I think, represents what we need at this point in time in our history because we are in a very unique place. This General Assembly will be seen in future years as historic. The times that we live in will be seen as historic politically. And I believe that Darren has the best combination of skills and the best combination of qualities to lead us at this time.

"First and foremost, if you know Darren Jackson, the first thing you know is that he is brilliant. He understands legislation. He understands the nuts and bolts. He understands the Rules, how this House runs, as well as anybody I've dealt with.

"The second thing that I think of when I think of Darren Jackson is his compassion. All of us - and I would reference Representative Dixon's beautiful prayer when he talks about challenges being faced by different Members - all of us have faced different challenges while being here. All of us have had different hardships. And I think any of us, on either side of the aisle, that have been friends with Darren knows that not only is he there for you, but he sincerely cares.

"And compassion is something that I think we could use more of in this political climate. Darren cares as deeply about his colleagues as he does about the wonderful family that he and Tina have helped raise with their three kids. Because he wants to see everybody be the best that they can be. And he wants to see legislators be the best legislators they can be, no matter what their positions, no matter what the letter behind their name, no matter how they appear or where they come from.

"The next thing I think of with Darren Jackson is loyalty and dedication. Again, I know, factually, that those of us on both sides of the aisle can tell you that when Darren tells you he's for you, he is for you. When he supports you, he supports you. I can say personally that Darren has meant as much to my development as a legislator as anybody here. Not through anything that he got from that, but because he wanted to help see me be the best me that I could be.

"And a lot of times when you have somebody with that type of compassion, that type of kindness, that kind of love for his fellow man, they may be lacking in one other area, and sometimes that may be what we like to call toughness. And again, if you know Darren, you do not have any issue whatsoever with his toughness and his ability to stand his ground and fight for what he believes in. And the things he believes in are varied, and they are representative of who North Carolina is right now.

January 9, 2019

"Darren believes that everybody has a right to decent healthcare. Darren believes that everyone should get the best education North Carolina can offer because the public education system is what helped make Darren what he is. Darren believes that you have to have a clean environment to help people stay healthy. And finally, he believes in robust economic growth throughout this State, not just in his district, not just in his county of Wake, but anywhere that we can make it happen, he wants to make it happen.

"And a personal example of his toughness is when Darren decided that he wanted to serve the people of North Carolina and serve the people of his district. He put his name forward like a good public servant, and the people looked at him and said, 'Thanks, but no thanks.' So Darren came out again and put his name forward. He knew how good he could be; the district just didn't know yet. And again, the district said, 'Thanks, but no thanks.' But the third time was a charm, and a lot of us would have sat down by that time. We know how exhausting it is, we know how tough it is to run, but he stuck to it. And because he stuck to it, his district has gotten one of the best representatives they have ever seen. And we have been blessed to have one of the best colleagues we could ever have.

"So I humbly ask you at this time, at this time of great change, at this time in the history of this Great State, to join me in supporting Darren Jackson because he believes in, again, the opportunity for everyone to be the best that they can be and to make this State the best that it can be. And I firmly believe that his unique blend of skills and talents will lead us throughout the 2019-2020 biennium.

"And so I humbly ask for, and would appreciate your support for, Darren Jackson for Speaker of the House."

The Chair recognizes Representative Harrison who seconds the nomination.

"Ladies and gentlemen of the House, and honored guests and friends, it's my honor to second the nomination of Darren Jackson as Speaker of the House.

"I'm reminded of Joe Hackney's first speech when he was elected Speaker. I believe that was in 2006 and 2007. He said, 'The speakership is not a command position. The Speaker's main task is to help House Members identify, address, and decide upon the issues that come before us in an orderly, thoughtful, and responsible manner.' And I believe he got that right. We are all equal members of this House, and we all have the same vote.

January 9, 2019

"I think Darren Jackson is very worthy of this position as House Speaker. I don't want to repeat what Representative Reives has said, but I will just note that Darren is a great listener and a consensus builder in our Caucus. And this is no easy thing with our diverse Caucus, as I'm sure Representative Bell knows with his. The ability to bring about people with diverse viewpoints and diverse backgrounds together into one direction is something that all of us can benefit from.

"As Representative Reives noted, North Carolina now has divided government, but I think there is a lot of common ground that all 120 of us can agree upon.

"I think Darren Jackson as House Speaker would do a great job bringing us all together. I know he'll do a great job leading the House Democrats, working together with our Republican colleagues, Governor Cooper, and all the Council of State in moving us forward the next two years to be the Great State that we can be.

"I'm proud to second Darren Jackson's nomination as Speaker of the House. Thank you."

There being no further nominations, the Chair declares the nominations closed and requests the roll of the House called.

The Speaker takes and subscribes to the following oath of office administered by Senior Associate Justice Paul M. Newby, North Carolina Supreme Court.

OATH FOR SPEAKER OF THE
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
2019 SESSION

"I, TIM MOORE, do solemnly and sincerely swear that I will support the Constitution of the United States; that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to the State of North Carolina, and to the constitutional powers and authorities which are or may be established for the government thereof; and that I will endeavor to support, maintain and defend the Constitution of said State, not inconsistent with the Constitution of the United States, to the best of my knowledge and ability; so help me God.

"I, TIM MOORE, do swear (or affirm) that I will well and truly execute the duties of the office of Speaker of the North Carolina House of Representatives according to the best of my skill and ability, according to law; so help me, God."

The Speaker, having been presented the gavel, makes the following remarks from the Chair:

"Thank you and welcome.

"Fellow Representatives: It is a tremendous honor to accept your nomination to serve as Speaker a third time.

"To our special guests here today and people watching around our Great State: Welcome to the new biennium of the North Carolina House of Representatives.

"On Opening Day, we have a special opportunity to thank our dedicated family members. Members, let's show our appreciation to our loved ones. They support us and sacrifice so much in service to this legislature.

"Congratulations to new Members who are here for the first time today. You took the precious time you have to represent local communities from around North Carolina. We appreciate your service to this legislature and our State.

January 9, 2019

"Many of you represent friends and neighbors still recovering from Hurricanes Florence and Matthew. Our hearts are with the millions of North Carolinians still recovering from the storms.

"And we owe a great thanks for the heroism of our first responders, volunteers, and emergency officials. They showed incredible bravery in countless rescues of moms and dads, children, and families in sudden peril. Others labored for weeks to protect the homes and livelihoods of their fellow North Carolinians. To every one of you, we say thank you. God bless you.

"This legislature will continue to prioritize recovery for citizens still suffering from the devastating floods. They need new investments to rebuild their school systems and higher education campuses. A school construction bond I will file this Session is essential to address these desperate needs.

"When I travel and talk to eastern North Carolinians, I'm in awe of their perseverance through the storms. These are incredible communities determined to respond and emerge stronger than ever. It is with their resilient spirit that the North Carolina General Assembly reconvenes this Session.

"Our State of storied traditions and rich landscapes faces far more opportunities than challenges. I am proud to report that we are well-prepared and poised to fulfill those opportunities. And we will meet challenges with reforms that work. By coming together for our shared priorities, we can continue to empower the public and private sectors.

"Let's continue improving our business climate. Let's keep a rapidly growing population and new jobs pouring into North Carolina. Let's maintain an approach that creates prosperity for native North Carolinians and new arrivals.

"We all share the same goals for our local districts. Public safety is our top priority, along with providing a strong education and getting good jobs for families. We want to improve State government services. We want the same results for our citizens. We will collaborate to achieve them.

"We each have a vision of serving our districts for a better North Carolina. All of us are here to keep promises to the people of our hometowns, our neighbors, and friends. I promise to help you serve them as only you can.

"I have great confidence in the Representatives of this Chamber to continue our State's success: to do the right things for North Carolina, to protect the people and build a brighter future for our kids, to compete around the world for cutting edge industries and a top-tier workforce for the next generation.

January 9, 2019

"Whether you represent a major city, a historic small town, or our rural splendor, each of us is here to give good people the voice they deserve in Raleigh and in their state government. As legislators, we are called to lead by listening and shine a light on the needs of our fellow citizens. To speak up for what is right.

"We have devoted our strength to this cause much greater than ourselves. And we must endeavor to serve and love those who depend on us, above all. To recognize that progress takes compromise. That some values - like being first in freedom - are not just principles. They are God-given guarantees.

"The late Rev. Billy Graham, whose statue will soon represent our State in the U.S. Capitol, said, 'This idea of freedom as a right of all men everywhere is unique among nations.' Let the essential independence of our people be a guiding force for our solutions.

"Like families and businesses, we must expect the unexpected on their behalf. We are entrusted with the people's purse to ensure financial security of institutions that serve millions. With prudent budgets, we have kept our promises and built a better tomorrow for the next generation.

"This year, we will continue to meet the challenges of rapid growth with commitments to core priorities: connecting every corner of our State economy with dependable infrastructure, offering an exceptional education to young minds and securing their safety, controlling the cost of healthcare for young people and patients, families and seniors, balancing budgets and making government services more efficient and reliable.

"We all want to make North Carolina the very best place in the nation. We share a love for the greatness of our State and local communities, and this prosperous country. Together, we will find a balanced path of consensus to tackle tough problems.

"Serious and bipartisan solutions are needed to confront difficult issues. Our constituents are counting on us to find a fix. Let's search for the middle ground, instead of the high ground, bring coalitions together to achieve reform, negotiate in good faith for the good of our State, reach across the aisle to achieve change, endeavor for the truly possible, instead of the political, and recognize our fellow citizens' sincere commitment to the best interests of all people.

"Congratulations, Members. Thank you for stepping forward to serve.

January 9, 2019

"God bless you and God bless the Great State of North Carolina."

The Speaker assumes the duties of the Chair.

ADOPTION OF TEMPORARY RULES

Representative Lewis is recognized and states that he has placed a resolution with the Clerk for consideration by the Body.

The Speaker directs the Clerk to number the resolution and places H.R. 1, A HOUSE RESOLUTION ADOPTING THE TEMPORARY RULES OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES FOR THE 2019 REGULAR SESSION, before the Body.

The resolution is adopted, by electronic vote (116-0), and ordered printed.

ELECTION OF SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The Speaker declares that nominations are in order for Speaker Pro Tempore of the House of Representatives.

The Speaker recognizes Representative Dixon who nominates Representative Stevens for Speaker Pro Tempore of the House of Representatives.

"Mr. Speaker, Members, honored guests, family and friends,

"It is my privileged opportunity to nominate the usually gentle lady from Surry County, Representative Sarah Stevens, as Speaker Pro Tempore of the North Carolina House of Representatives for the 2019-20 biennial Session.

"When Representative Jackson stood to second Representative Stevens' nomination for this same position in 2017, he said, 'We served on Justice and Public Safety together where I immediately saw someone that really, truly, deeply cared about the court system and wanted to make an improvement.'

"I can say without hesitation that for all of the eight years I have been in this House, that I have observed that that same care and concern he saw in her relative to the court system, I have seen trending through all her efforts a desire to make meaningful improvements.

"For two years we were seatmates, and I have fond memories of our discussions from which I learned valuable lessons.

January 9, 2019

"Though I have heard this advice a few additional times since I first heard it from her, it has helped me more than a few times.

"Said she, 'Remember, Jimmy, you don't have to defend what you don't say.'

"I once told her, 'Sarah, I don't have to refuse the snacks you don't offer me.' But, that didn't stop her.

"She has the unique ability to show compassion when needed and stern rebuke when required. She has great respect for this institution and has and will defend and protect it as the People's House.

"Her honorable service over the last two years has added to her abilities, when called upon, to lead this House as Speaker Pro Tempore.

"Mr. Speaker and Members of the House, it is my honor to ask for your support for my friend, Representative Sarah Stevens."

The Speaker recognizes Representative Boles who seconds the nomination.

"Members of the House and guests in the Gallery,

"It is my honor and my privilege to not only nominate my friend, but a colleague and a classmate when we came in together in 2009, Sarah Stevens, to the 2019 Speaker Pro Tem position.

"As Representative Dixon alluded to the Justice and Public Safety, we started together with Public Safety and are still on it. Her commitment to the justice system in North Carolina, and if she has something on her mind, you just might as well hang in there and listen. And you don't have to agree, but you're going to have a heck of a fight.

"So, it's my honor today, to get up, once again, not only a classmate, but my friend, Sarah Stevens, Surry County, nominate as Speaker Pro Tem to the 2019 General Assembly."

The Speaker recognizes Representative Meyer who nominates Representative Reives for Speaker Pro Tempore of the House of Representatives.

"Ladies and gentleman of the North Carolina House of Representatives,

"Today I stand to nominate the gentleman from Chatham and the native of Lee, Representative Robert Reives, for the leadership position of Speaker Pro Tempore.

January 9, 2019

"Representative Reives joined the House in 2013 and is entering his fourth term. During the last Session and in this coming Session, he has earned the respect of his Democratic colleagues serving as Deputy Leader of our Caucus.

"Like the best of North Carolinians, he lives up to our State's motto, 'Esse Quam Videri.' He is here not to be seen; he is here to work and work together.

"During his time in the House, I believe that Representative Reives has established himself as a unifying leader. His most impactful floor speeches have been those calling for civility during our most contentious moments. Like all of us, Representative Reives is driven by his core values. Perhaps more so than most of us, he also finds our common values and works to keep them before the Body.

"Representative Reives is the son of lifelong public servants, Robert and Ruth Reives, husband of human servant, Cynthia Reives, the father of Brianna and TJ, and himself, a servant of God.

"Colleagues, I'm sure that we can all agree that Representative Reives would be a strong and unifying leader. I suggest that if we, the North Carolina House of Representatives, wish to live up to the motto of 'Esse Quam Videri,' there is no better way to show the people that we truly represent all of the people of North Carolina than to reach across party lines in forming our leadership team today.

"Therefore, I encourage all Members of the House to elect Representative Robert Reives to the position of Speaker Pro Tem."

The Speaker recognizes Representative Morey who seconds the nomination.

"Good afternoon, ladies and gentlemen, Members, colleagues, and invited guests. I would just like to second the nomination of Robert Reives for Pro Tem.

"I've known Robert for several years now, first as a lawyer in the court system and now as a new Representative. And one thing I would say about Robert - he is a gentleman. All of you that have been here know he has kindness, he has wit, he has compassion. As the Speaker said, 'He is one of the best listeners in this Body.'

"We are nominating Representative Reives because of his character, his intellect, and also, he represents this Body. And we would like the Members to please consider, and I ask you to support his nomination as Speaker Pro Tem. Thank you."

January 9, 2019

There being no further nominations, the Speaker declares the nominations closed and requests the roll of the House called.

The following Members vote for Representative Stevens: Representatives Adams, Arp, Barnes, Bell, Blackwell, Boles, Brisson, Brody, Bumgardner, Carter, Cleveland, Conrad, Corbin, Davis, Dixon, Dobson, Elmore, Faircloth, Fraley, Goodwin, Grange, D. Hall, K. Hall, Hanig, Hardister, Hastings, Henson, Horn, Howard, Humphrey, Hurley, Jarvis, Johnson, Jones, Kidwell, Lambeth, Lewis, McElraft, McGrady, McNeill, Pittman, Potts, Presnell, Riddell, Rogers, Ross, Saine, Sasser, Sauls, Setzer, Shepard, C. Smith, Speciale, Stevens, Strickland, Szoka, Torbett, R. Turner, Warren, White, Yarborough, Zachary, and Speaker Moore - 63.

The following Members vote for Representative Reives: Representatives Adcock, Ager, Alexander, Autry, Ball, Batch, Beasley, Belk, Black, Brockman, Butler, Carney, Clemmons, Cunningham, Dahle, Everitt, Farmer-Butterfield, Floyd, Gailliard, Garrison, Gill, Goodman, Graham, Harris, Harrison, Hawkins, Holley, Hunt, Hunter, Insko, Jackson, John, Lofton, Logan, Lucas, Majeed, Martin, Meyer, Montgomery, Morey, Pierce, Queen, Quick, Reives, Richardson, Russell, K. Smith, R. Smith, Terry, B. Turner, von Haefen, Willingham, and Wray - 53.

Representative Stevens, having received a majority vote, is declared Speaker Pro Tempore of the 2019 House of Representatives.

The following Members are appointed and repair to the rear of the Chamber to escort the Speaker Pro Tempore, Ms. Sarah Stevens, to the Well: Representative Dixon, Chair; Representatives Boles, Cleveland, and Davis.

The Speaker Pro Tempore takes and subscribes to the following oath of office administered by Senior Associate Justice Paul M. Newby, North Carolina Supreme Court.

OATH FOR SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE OF THE
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
2019 SESSION

"I, SARAH STEVENS, do solemnly and sincerely swear that I will support the Constitution of the United States; that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to the State of North Carolina, and to the constitutional powers and authorities which are or may be established for the government thereof; and that I will endeavor to support, maintain and defend the Constitution of said State, not inconsistent with the Constitution of the United States, to the best of my knowledge and ability; so help me God.

January 9, 2019

"I, SARAH STEVENS, do swear (or affirm) that I will well and truly execute the duties of the office of Speaker Pro Tempore of the North Carolina House of Representatives according to the best of my skill and ability, according to law; so help me, God."

Speaker Pro Tempore Stevens makes the following remarks from the Well:

"Members,

"Thank you so much for the confidence to elect me again as Speaker Pro Tem. The last two years were an incredible experience, and I've learned a lot. I think that the next two years are going to get even better, as I try to reach out to all of you, and please know my door is always open.

"I'm trying to decide which one I need to thank first. If I need a eulogy, Jimmy Dixon is going to preach it 'cause Jimmy is just, Representative Dixon has been just one amazing friend and one amazing statesman for everything he says and does. If something needs to be done with a passion, Jimmy Dixon's it.

"And Representative Boles - Jamie - Jamie and I have been friends since we sat on the back bench, and we've been through a lot together. And we will continue to go through a lot together. Jamie will be someone I always consider a friend.

"I actually had on my little schedule here, and my husband hates when I try to prepare a speech and so does my daughter 'cause it's terrible, but I need to thank my family and their influence. For those of you who were here two years ago, you remember I did a lot of the speech about my brothers and sisters and some tragedies and things that we did. And I had the great honor of having my mother here. What got sort of neglected in some of that is my husband and my three daughters and my daughter-in-law and two of my five grandchildren. Two of the older ones have been here and held the Bible before. One even took the oath; he made it to the newspaper for taking the oath. But these two were dying to come in case there is not another term, and the other one is entirely too small.

"Based on, too, what a lot of the other speakers have said, it sounds like we're all thinking the same way. I don't want to project on what the future is going to be, but I am concerned, at times, about our public perception. Frequently, they say, 'You are doing nothing. You're getting nothing done but arguing.' And we can change that perception by doing better. We don't always have to be looking for the political moment or for the worst in our family members. We can agree to disagree. Please don't forget my seatmate is George Cleveland. We can agree to disagree. I can communicate with George. That tells you that we do have those abilities. Imagine if we all thought the same way. Gosh, we'd be a boring group. But we can be statesmen and continue to agree to disagree and use our diplomatic skills.

"So, I would suggest the following, we first have to start with communication. We need to be able to talk to each other. What do you know about different people here? How many of you know that Jimmy Dixon played on the Wake Forest football team at the same time as Brian Piccolo? Jimmy Dixon was out there. How many of you know what an awesome, awesome basketball player Josh Dobson is? And boy he has some six-pack abs; I've seen those in pictures. But I'm saying there are so many interesting things, and lucky for some of you, I don't know your story or I'm just not going to tell it... right, Jamie?

"I trained as a mediator after about eight years, nine years doing just family law. I also got mediation training and that was the first group that came to North Carolina preaching mediation as the alternative way to do things. And that's an absolutely awesome skill, being able to talk to people. But I think I learned even more from a book called Getting Past No. Sometimes getting to 'Yes' is easier. People are willing to engage, they are doing things, but Getting Past No made an even bigger impact to me and there are several phrases I think we all need to think about. When we're ready to blow our stack, when we are ready to yell and scream at each other, we need to remember this phrase, 'Go to the balcony.' 'Go to the balcony.' That means remove yourself from the situation in one way or the other. Remove yourself by needing to go to the restroom, by needing to make a phone call real quick, by stepping out of the room, or by just physically engaging a different conversation so you can get back to your focus. That's just such an important skill, and it is so hard for us to do because we do get engaged in whatever makes us angry. One of my favorites is, 'Don't get even, get what you want.' I can yell and scream at one of you and that's not going to get me anywhere. But I can manage to talk to you and engage you in whatever we can find as common ground, then we may eventually get to what we want, get some legislation moving, get some things passed. But we can't do that if we can't talk.

"My children and now my grandchildren know that if they're angry and they're yelling at me, I am just as likely to walk away as anything. I will not yell and I will tell them, 'If you really want something and you really want to talk to me, let's get down to this level.' And then I've got a grandson, you've seen he's a little feisty, little handful, and I see his mother frequently have to use the phrase, 'I don't negotiate with terrorists.' He says, 'If you don't do what I want you to do, I'm not going to love you anymore. I'm going to get my way. I'm going to scream and yell.' And she has to look at him and go, 'I don't negotiate with terrorists.' It's okay, Jackson, I told you I was going to say it. And so he was a little confused when everybody kept saying Jackson, he was wanting to respond and get the microphone.

"So, it's being able to open up that line of communication and respect. Respect your constituents, respect the people in this Chamber, feel good about why you're here and what you do, because what you do matters. We have to have some civility in this building, and that's where I always object with these points of order. If you'll notice, anytime I stand up - Lisa Brown, it's not a drinking game - when I stand up and declare 'point of order' it's because we have either gotten far afield of what we're trying to discuss, or somebody is attacking somebody's credibility, motive, talking about what an evil Body we are, and that's just not acceptable. We can get our points across without having to say that.

"One of our biggest misconceptions, at times, is that we are so very different from you. That Republicans are all white, rich men. I'm sorry, all of you over here that are rich, please raise your hand; I'm going to get to know you a whole lot better. I personally shared stories on the floor before about my husband losing his job and drawing unemployment, and that I knew what those people on unemployment were going through because we, in fact, experienced that. So we need to eliminate some of those stories, some of those stereotypes, and be able to talk to each other. You don't know who's been through what. I think I had the occasion one time, too, to talk about my breast cancer, and since then I have talked to several people on both sides of the aisle about dealing with breast cancer. Not only did I have it, but all four of my sisters have it. We've had lots of experience with that. So you never know what people are going through. Remember that we are all here for the same purpose. We may have different goals in the end, but we're all here for the same purpose. We can reach consensus.

"When I started I was in the back of the room in seat 119, I was given the absolute last seat in the House. But you know what, that didn't necessarily keep me quiet. As soon as I found my legs and felt comfortable talking, I still contributed. I looked at bills that were going to go through and were going to pass and tried to make them the best that they could be, and look at some of the unintended consequences. That's certainly what I invite everybody to do. You may see something that we don't see. About 85 to 90 percent of what we do since I've been here is through consensus. It's been through consensus.

January 9, 2019

And I don't discourage opposing opinion, and I don't discourage protest, but protest even should be civil and respectful. You'll be better heard if you do, and when you really want to be heard, you don't go out and look for the media to cover you. You look to come to the individual members and talk to them in a clear, concise, cohesive way.

"But thank you and I look forward to another couple of years. I was getting the 'wind it up' sign from my family, so you can thank them, because I got grandkids who are hungry."

ELECTION OF PRINCIPAL CLERK

The Speaker declares that nominations are in order for Principal Clerk of the House of Representatives.

The Speaker recognizes Representative Bell who nominates James White for Principal Clerk of the House of Representatives.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Members, today I rise to nominate Mr. James White to continue as our House Principal Clerk.

"Mr. White does not only have an impressive resume of service, but has worked to earn the trust and respect of each Member of this Chamber.

"Mr. White and his team work diligently to make sure the House is ready for Session each day. Whether it's late nights or early mornings, they ensure the House is in order to conduct the State's business.

"Mr. White has served honorably for the last two years as our House Principal Clerk, and I ask you join me in his re-election.

"Thank you."

The Speaker recognizes Representative Jackson who seconds the nomination.

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Ladies and gentlemen, I rise today to second the nomination of Mr. White to be the House Principal Clerk.

"There may be no more important office in this Body than the Clerk's Office. Every single one of us relies on the staff's professionalism, competence, and dedication to their craft.

"When deciding how to vote on who should be our next Principal Clerk to lead the Clerk's Office, I want you to think about and ask yourself three questions:

January 9, 2019

"Did you wake up today wondering how to improve the parliamentary and administrative function of the North Carolina House of Representatives?"

"Is Mason's Manual of Legislative Procedure on your bedside table?"

"Do you want to be the one to tell Representative Lewis he's confused about the precedential order of motions?"

"If, like me, you answer 'no' to all three of these questions - I surely hope you did - you have no business being House Principal Clerk."

"But fortunately, in James White, we have someone who is perfect for that job."

"James has served this Body in various capacities since 2010 and as our Principal Clerk last term. During the past two years, he impressed me with his professionalism, his responsiveness, his honesty, and his command for our specific Rules and the general rules of parliamentary procedure."

"I rely on his judgment and respect his authority, and am pleased to ask you all to vote for him today."

"Thank you, Mr. Speaker."

Representative Lewis moves that the nominations be closed and that James White be elected by acclamation.

In compliance with Article VI, Section 5 of the North Carolina Constitution, the election is confirmed by vote of the Members and James White is elected Principal Clerk of the 2019 House of Representatives by acclamation.

James White takes and subscribes to the following oath of office administered by the Speaker of the House, Tim Moore, as authorized under G.S. 120-5.

January 9, 2019

THIRTEENTH DAY

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Tuesday, February 19, 2019

The House meets at 4:45 p.m. pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by Representative Stevens, Speaker Pro Tempore.

The following prayer is offered by Representative Harry Warren:

"Heavenly Father, our Lord and Creator, we gather here on a day in which not much will be accomplished in this General Assembly; and yet, we turn to You and ask for Your guidance.

"Lord, how tiresome it must be for You to suffer the billions of us around the world who simultaneously praise You, beseech You, deny You, and accept You and at random times, as we do now, call out to You to intervene on our behalf to save us from our own incompetency and weaknesses. We ask You to guide us and direct us, seemingly oblivious to the fact You have already granted us the means, the ability, and the direction to do what is in the best interest of all Your people, to the best of our ability.

"So, I and those among us who would join me ask You today, Father, that as the months ahead come upon us, open our eyes, our hearts, and our minds, that we might honor You by using the talents and blessings You have already given us, to fulfill our obligations responsibly and beneficially for those whom You have graciously allowed us to serve.

"Embolden us to courageously seek solutions without regard to personal or partisan advantage. Help us, Lord, to get out of our own way, that our every action reveals that You have truly blessed us and this Great State of North Carolina.

"This we humbly and sincerely ask of You. Amen."

The Chair leads the Body in the Pledge of Allegiance.

Representative Lewis, for the Committee on Rules, Calendar, and Operations of the House, reports the Journal of February 18 has been examined and found correct. Upon his motion, the Journal is approved as written.

STATE OF THE STATE ADDRESS

"Mr. Speaker, Mr. President Pro Tem, Members of the General Assembly, Council of State, members of the Judiciary, members of my Cabinet, and my fellow North Carolinians: I'm honored to join you tonight to report the state of our great state.

"I'm joined by my wife Kristin, my partner in life and in public service, who for the past two years has traveled to every corner of North Carolina. I thank Kristin and our wonderful daughters, Hilary and Natalie, and Claire, who is away at school, for their unwavering love and support. Thank you, guys.

"In recent months, North Carolinians have been put to the test. And we've learned we're made of strong stuff.

"In September, our state was slammed by Hurricane Florence. Homes, businesses, schools and crops were washed away. Dozens of lives were lost. Then Tropical Storm Michael blew through, bringing more damage.

"But adversity only defines us if we refuse to rise and conquer it.

"Days after Florence made landfall, I met an elderly woman in a Wilmington shelter who was rescued from floodwaters by first responders. All she had left were the few belongings she had carried in her arms, but she didn't dwell on her loss.

"When I told her how sorry I was, she said to me, 'I thank God I'm alive, I thank God for that firefighter who rescued me, and I thank God for all these volunteers helping in this shelter - and a lot of them had their own homes flooded. I'm going to make it.'

"It's that courage in the face of fear, that conviction in the face of uncertainty, that determined spirit in the face of challenges that make us the greatest state in the nation.

"That's why tonight, I'm proud to report that the state of our state is determined.

February 25, 2019

"Hurricane Florence showed us that we North Carolinians love our communities, that we help each other, that we're resilient in tough times and that we're determined to work together to rebuild even stronger and smarter.

"But the storm showed us it's also time to come together to meet other challenges that people face every day across our state. And we have to bring that same determination to every challenge.

"To start, we must come together and insist our public schools come first. We must come together to create opportunities in our cities and our rural communities. We must come together to get health care for hundreds of thousands of working people with no insurance. That's the determination we need to make North Carolina truly excellent.

"First, we must be determined to help our state recover stronger and smarter than ever.

"It's hard to find a part of our state that has been spared the blows of nature over the past two years, whether floods, rain, wind, tornadoes or mudslides.

"In my travels, I've witnessed people's pain and loss, and I've been inspired by their determination. Survivors who are working to rebuild their lives and their communities. Volunteers who served thousands of hot meals and repaired homes. First responders who pulled more than 5,200 North Carolinians and over a thousand animals from the flood waters.

"I've been honored to meet many of these storm heroes, including State Highway Patrol Trooper Nicholas Stoneroad. Just after the storm, he spent hours clearing roads and keeping his community safe. Even though his own home was crushed by fallen trees, he kept right on working.

"When he made it back home again, chest-deep floodwaters had destroyed almost everything he owned. But still he kept reporting for duty, protecting others, helping people in need, delivering food to provide meals for survivors. And you know what he said when he was asked why he kept on? He said this: 'I had a job to do.'

"Trooper Stoneroad, your state is deeply grateful to you and to all the people who answered the call to service above self. Please stand so we can thank you and all our hurricane heroes.

"Like Trooper Stoneroad, we have a job to do.

"We're determined to help North Carolinians recover, and we're making progress.

February 25, 2019

"Local, state and federal leaders are working together. And tens of thousands of North Carolinians are already getting assistance. At our urging, the state and federal government have put in over a billion dollars to help North Carolinians get back on their feet, and we're working for a lot more.

"This legislature really stepped up in a big way after Hurricane Florence. We worked together in a bipartisan way to help families, schools, small businesses, fishermen and farmers. But with many small business owners and families just one disaster away from bankruptcy, it's not enough to simply respond to disaster when it strikes. We must also limit damage from the next storm by rebuilding stronger and more resilient.

"Weeks after Hurricane Florence, I formed the new Office of Recovery and Resiliency to carry out recovery and develop strategies to protect our state from future storms.

"We've seen violent weather threaten every corner of our state, and scientists agree climate change is making storms more fierce. It is real. And we're the generation that must act.

"In October, I signed an executive order to reduce our state's greenhouse gas emissions 40 percent by 2025.

"This won't just help in the fight against climate change - it will boost our economy by creating more clean energy jobs.

"We must also be determined to get people better educated for the jobs of today and tomorrow.

"When the founders of the University of North Carolina chartered America's first public university to open its doors in 1789, they knew even then that education creates opportunity. Public education lifts up families, communities and our economy.

"But too often, public schools have taken a back seat to tax breaks for those at the very top. Simply put, public education is our most important job as a state. We must do better.

"When I visit schools across North Carolina, I see determined teachers, I see eager students, and I see hope for our future.

"But too often I see teachers working second jobs to make ends meet. Kids who missed out on early childhood education and Pre-K. Trailers and crowded classrooms. If we want our educators to teach well, we need to treat them well.

February 25, 2019

"Last year, 20,000 teachers from across the state came here to Raleigh and asked us to help our schools. One of them, NaShonda Cooke, is here with us tonight.

"The daughter and granddaughter of teachers, NaShonda decided to become one too during a visit to her mother's classroom. NaShonda said this: 'I knew immediately. I saw my mom change lives. I saw her help children reach their highest potential.'

"NaShonda has taught in North Carolina schools for 20 years.

"Over the years, she's seen fewer teacher assistants, fewer classroom supplies, and she's had trouble making ends meet on a teacher's salary. But when her youngest child said she'd like to become a teacher, NaShonda didn't hesitate to encourage her.

"We want NaShonda's daughter and thousands like her to follow through and become teachers. Let's show NaShonda and other educators that we value and respect them. Ms. Cooke, please stand so we can recognize your hard work and the amazing service of teachers all across our state.

"North Carolina is still ranked 37th in teacher pay nationwide. That's not the respect they deserve. When I send you my budget, we'll put our schools and our teachers first.

"Although we disagree on some issues, I believe there is bipartisan agreement that education will succeed with a good teacher in every classroom and a good principal in every school. Our message to educators should be clear: we trust you to educate our children. We're putting our money where our trust is.

"And we must encourage more of our very best high schoolers to choose teaching as a career. If they'll teach here for at least four years, North Carolina will pay for their college. Teaching Fellows scholarships are a great deal for our state, and they lift the level of respect for the profession. Let's expand the Teaching Fellows program.

"Let's give kids a better start by investing more in early childhood education. We've worked together to expand Pre-K to thousands more students, but we shouldn't stop until every child has it.

"And let's give our students safe, healthy places to learn.

February 25, 2019

"Right now, 4 in 10 public schools in our state are at least 50 years old. That means they're still using the schools you and I went to. That's great for nostalgia, but not so good for students in classrooms with unreliable heat, leaking roofs or crumbling walls.

"K through 12 schools need at least 8 billion dollars in new construction and renovations. There's a smart way to build them that locks in financing against the whims of future legislatures and lets the people decide at the same time.

"It gets hammers swinging all across the state, and still leaves money for good teachers and principals. This session, let's have the people vote on a strong school construction bond.

"We must be determined to build an economy that works for everyone.

"In many ways, our state is the picture of success. Raleigh and Durham are hubs for innovation. The Triad is a growing center for aviation and advanced manufacturing. Charlotte is a global banking capital. Our rural areas offer unique opportunities.

"Just last week, Charlotte hosted the NBA All Star Game, showing people from around the world what we already know: North Carolina is America's best place to live and do business - and play basketball.

"When I took office, House Bill 2 was hurting North Carolinians and holding our economy back. Two years ago, I stood before you and said we must repeal it. And with bipartisan support, HB2 is gone.

"But there is more to do to fight discrimination. We must show the rest of the nation and the world who we really are: a state that values diversity, that is welcoming, and that is open for business. I've signed two executive orders that reaffirm those values by banning workplace discrimination.

"Our economy is strongest when every North Carolinian can contribute. As we continue to grow and thrive, we're determined not to leave anyone behind.

"In the past two years, we've announced more than 40,000 new jobs and billions of dollars of investment in both urban and rural parts of North Carolina. We've worked together with you legislators to expand our economic development tool kit, which now includes strong incentives.

"It's been great to welcome major companies including Honeywell, Advance Auto Parts, Credit Suisse, Egger Wood Products and Triangle Tyre. Our unemployment rate is below the national average and our economy is strong.

February 25, 2019

"But despite this success middle class families are still struggling for better wages. There is an answer for them. Today, there are thousands of jobs available, from advanced manufacturing to construction to technology and health care. Jobs that offer better pay.

"Yet employers tell me they struggle to find the skilled workers they need. And many workers tell me they struggle to find better-paying jobs.

"We're determined to get them together. That's why we started NC Job Ready, a program that trains workers in the skills employers need.

"We're already seeing success. Our Finish Line Grants help community college students living on the economic edge. The grants help people stay in school when they face unexpected costs like car repairs, medical emergencies and childcare.

"Take Takeda Douglas, a community college student and a mother of three. I first met Takeda during a visit to Alamance Community College last month. She wanted a better career, so she enrolled to become a dental assistant.

"But balancing the additional cost of childcare was too much, so Takeda nearly dropped out. A Finish Line grant helped her stay in school and she expects to graduate this summer.

"Takeda is determined not to let anything discourage her, and she's here with us tonight. Let's give her a round of applause for working hard to make a better life for herself and her family.

"Just last week, leaders from all over North Carolina, including this legislature, endorsed the goal for 2 million more North Carolinians to have a post-secondary degree or credential by the year 2030.

"But people need education in order for us to get there. People in North Carolina now have 41 billion dollars in student debt and many middle-class families often can't afford the education they need.

"Last year, I pushed for an effort to provide tuition-free community college for high-demand jobs. This can help us meet our goal. Other states are already doing this, so let's get it done.

"Our economy also depends on infrastructure. When I came into office, the Highway Trust Fund wasn't being used efficiently. You in this chamber challenged our Department of Transportation to build roads and bridges faster. We delivered on that challenge, and then we worked together to pass Build NC. This helps keep our state connected and our economy moving.

February 25, 2019

"Connecting our entire state is especially critical for our rural communities. We have the second-largest rural population of any state in the country.

"Growing up in Nash County, I spent my summers in the tobacco field, my Friday nights on the football field, and my Sunday mornings in Sunday school and church. My parents and my rural North Carolina community taught me the value of hard work. They taught me the value of a dollar and they taught me the importance of faith, family and community.

"For people like Lorenda and Harrell Overman, rural North Carolina will always be home. To them, tending crops and livestock on their farm is more than an occupation - it's a deeply rewarding way of life.

"But right now, many rural business owners and farmers are struggling. Lack of broadband access, trade tariffs and natural disasters have hit them hard. Last year, the Overmans saw their soybean crop wiped out by Hurricane Florence, threatening their ability to keep their 18 full-time employees. Thanks to the bipartisan hurricane relief bill we passed, the Overmans and many other farmers like them are getting help.

"The Overmans are determined to make their business thrive and pass it on to their kids - the next generation of farmers. Lorenda and Harrell, please stand so we can let you and other farmers across our state know we're with you.

"We all know about rural challenges. So that's why last year, I launched Hometown Strong. It's already making a difference, strengthening relationships between state government and over a dozen rural counties.

"For instance, some small communities didn't know how to get funds to fix up struggling downtowns. Hometown Strong is helping connect them with the right resources to get started.

"There's also a monster of an issue facing rural communities: Internet access. Too many North Carolinians lack Internet connection they need to apply for jobs, do homework or run a small business. Among households without broadband, about 95 percent are in rural areas - a digital divide with very real consequences.

"This legislative session we can make a real dent in this problem. I'm asking you to join me in an expansive effort to complete rural broadband projects. We can leverage public/private partnerships to bridge the digital divide and connect all parts of our state to opportunity.

"Finally, we must be determined to help the people of our state become healthier.

February 25, 2019

"We've made important strides. We've protected our clean air and water by punishing polluters and stopping emerging contaminants from being discharged into the Cape Fear River.

"Every North Carolina family deserves to know their drinking water is safe. In October, our administration got people near coal ash ponds off bottled water, and they now have permanent, safe water. Our Department of Environmental Quality will continue to push for safe storage of coal ash across the state.

"We also must protect the health of our coastal communities from the threats of offshore drilling. The federal government must hear us loud and clear: Not off our coast.

"And we know too many North Carolinians don't have health insurance. Tonight, I want to talk about a bipartisan way we can get 500 thousand working North Carolinians some help.

"There are neighbors in your hometowns who are working two jobs that don't provide any health insurance. Doctors and nurses across our state see it every day. Are we willing to help them? It's time.

"Police chiefs and sheriffs say they're overwhelmed by the wreckage of opioid overdose and people who need treatment - not jails. Are we willing to help them? It's time.

"Business owners say they're tired of paying higher premiums to cover the cost of treating the uninsured in emergency rooms. Are we willing to help them? It's time.

"Rural hospitals are bordering on bankruptcy and even closing because many of their patients don't have health insurance. Are we willing to help them? It's time.

"Our communities could use an extra 30 to 40 thousand more good-paying jobs. Are we willing to help them? It's time.

"Many North Carolinians are tired of their tax dollars going to Washington to cover people in other states, but not our state. Are we willing to help them? It's time.

"There's someone in our audience who's willing to help them. Dr. Gregory Adams, a pediatrician who practices in Watauga County, sees the problem of lack of health insurance in his own community. He worries many people won't get treated for their chronic conditions unless we do something about it. He says it makes no sense to say no to something our federal tax dollars already pay for in other states.

February 25, 2019

"Dr. Adams believes that as soon as possible, we should expand Medicaid. Let's follow the doctor's orders.

"Dr. Adams is determined to keep people healthy. Dr. Adams, please stand so we can acknowledge you and all the doctors, nurses and hospitals that want to do this.

"Guys, we can do this. I know some of you have concerns. Let's listen to each other and get this done the North Carolina way.

"When I became your governor, I envisioned a North Carolina where people are healthier, better educated, with more money in their pockets, and where people have the opportunity to live lives of purpose and abundance.

"I envisioned a North Carolina where every child in every school would get an excellent education that allowed them to pursue their purpose.

"I envisioned a North Carolina where every family could live fulfilling lives without the cost of health care stealing their dreams.

"I envisioned a North Carolina where every worker had a big enough paycheck to provide for themselves and their families.

"Those of you sitting in this House chamber tonight know that what we've outlined is easier said than done. But it's time to start doing.

"The people of North Carolina are determined for us to work together. They have spoken.

"They want a more balanced approach to government. They want us to invest in our public schools. They want the education and training they need to get a good-paying job. They want safe drinking water. They want their neighbors to have access to health care. They simply want the opportunity to make the most of their lives. They want us to do our jobs.

"It's our job to build a better North Carolina that makes that possible, whether a person lives in Cherokee or Chocowinity.

February 25, 2019

"I love this state. I believe you do, too. Every one of you. I believe we have broad agreement on what we want for our state. We sometimes differ on how to achieve it. But let's debate in good faith, not with political stunts. In the open, not behind closed doors. With respect for those who disagree, not disdain. We need to seek common ground and build solutions upon it.

"Just like the people I've met along the way, I'm determined. I'm determined to make our state better. I believe you are, too. Starting tonight, let's figure out how best to serve those who sent us here. There's nothing a determined North Carolina can't do.

"God bless you, our country, and the great state of North Carolina."

Upon completion of his address, the Governor is escorted from the Chamber by Senator Brown and Representative Bell.

The House meets at 3:00 p.m. pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by the Speaker.

The following prayer is offered by Representative C. Ray Russell:

"Gracious God, we give You thanks for giving us another day.

"Send us Your Spirit. Enlighten the hearts of those who are faithful and tireless in securing equal justice under the law. Fulfill the hopes of those who long for peace and security for their children. Guide and protect all elected officials and all who choose to serve this Nation, this State, and local communities through public service.

"May Your will be done and through those who pray for divine guidance and who trust in Your providence, even in the midst of conflicting opinions, philosophical differences, and the threat of violence.

"Unite Your people and keep them focused on essentials that reflect Your kingdom. May the fires of Your love, and human freedom, renew the face of the Earth.

"And may all that is done this day be for Your greater honor and glory. In Jesus' Holy Name we pray. Amen."

The following prayer is offered by Representative Harry Warren:

"Heavenly Father, we are advised in 1 Clement, Chapter 4, verses 2-4:

and knowledge to those who have understanding.'

"Let us pray.

"Lord our Creator, Redeemer and Sustainer, we give You thanks for Your abundant blessings and for the wisdom, knowledge and understanding You offer to these leaders as they gather today in this Chamber ready to serve Your people.

We thank You for these legislators, each one whom You elected, Lord, to serve out their duties in servanthood to the people of North Carolina.

"Search our hearts today, Lord. We humbly approach Your throne and ask that Your will be done, not ours, but Yours. If You are for us, who can be against us?

With a shield of faith, we boldly declare that no weapon formed against us shall prosper in Jesus' Name. We give You all of the power, authority, and glory, today and forevermore. "When all of us guys come home from overseas, with everybody wounded just like there are in any war, and they came back with us and went back to hospitals and homes and everything else, they just kind of faded into the citizenship and you never heard much about them. Not to say them guys that come home without legs and a harness are in ballgames now playing games! I have the utmost confidence. We were a bunch of kids that went to war and they wondered if... We were called the 'Great Generation,' but I tell you, the generation you've got now, they're just as great as we were if not greater. I love vets and I love the Army and the military but they've got courage that we didn't have back then, now. But you're lucky, you're still in the United States."

REMARKS BY CORPORAL BOB BRADICICH

"There's one thing I'd like to say to everybody in here, and I hope you hear it loud. Freedom. Freedom is but one generation away from extinction. You don't pass it on to our children through our bloodstream. It must be protected, fought for, taught in the schools and in the homes. Otherwise, we don't have freedom. I thank you."

A REPRESENTATIVE STATEMENT

Submitted by Representative Pricey Harrison:

OBSERVING WORLD REFUGEE DAY

WHEREAS, World Refugee Day is a global day to acknowledge the courage, strength, and determination of women, men, and children who are forced to flee their homes due to persecution; and

June 20, 2019

WHEREAS, according to the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR):

- (1) A refugee is someone who faced persecution or has a well-founded fear of persecution for reasons of race, religion, nationality, political opinion, or membership in a particular social group.
- (2) There are more than 68,500,000 displaced people worldwide, the worst displacement crisis in global history, including 25,400,000 refugees, over 43,100,000 internally displaced people, 3,100,000 asylum seekers, and 10,000,000 stateless people.
- (3) Children account for 52% of the refugee population in the world, millions of whom are unable to access basic services including education.
- (4) On average, 44,400 people per day are displaced from their homes.
- (5) 16,200,000 individuals were newly displaced due to conflict or persecution in 2017 alone, including 11,800,000 internally displaced persons, and 4,400,000 refugees and asylum seekers.
- (6) 37 countries admitted 102,800 refugees for resettlement in 2017, while for the third consecutive year, Lebanon hosted the largest number of refugees relative to its population, where 1 in 6 people was a refugee.
- (7) More than half of the Syrian population lived in displacement in 2017, either displaced across borders or within their own country.
- (8) The fastest-growing refugee population was spurred by the crisis in Myanmar, which grew to over 655,500 Rohingya refugees, the majority of whom are children.
- (9) Projections indicated that more than 1,200,000 refugees were in need of resettlement to a third country in fiscal year 2017 and this projection continues to grow in 2018; and

WHEREAS, refugee children are five times more likely to be out of school than non-refugee children; and

WHEREAS, refugees who are women and children are often at greater risk of violence, human trafficking, exploitation, and gender-based violence; and

June 20, 2019

WHEREAS, the United States resettlement program is a life-saving solution critical to global humanitarian efforts, which serves to strengthen global security, advance U.S. foreign policy goals, and support regional host countries while serving individuals and families in need; and

WHEREAS, during the first six months of fiscal year 2019, the United States welcomed a total of 12,155 refugees, less than half of the administration's refugee admissions goal of 30,000 refugees; and

WHEREAS, at this pace, the United States may only admit around 22,000 refugees this year; and

WHEREAS, refugees are the most vetted traveler to enter the United States and are subject to extensive screening checks, including in-person interviews, biometric data checks, and multiple interagency checks; and

WHEREAS, refugees are large contributors to local economies, pay an average of $21,000 more in taxes than they receive in benefits, and revitalize cities and towns by offsetting population decline and boosting economic growth throughout the country by opening businesses, paying taxes, and buying homes; and

WHEREAS, several industries rely heavily on refugee workers to support their economic stability, and low rates of arrivals of refugees, especially in towns that rely on refugee populations to revitalize their industries, have had serious impacts on economic growth;

NOW, THEREFORE, it is important to observe World Refugee Day and reaffirm the goals of that day by promoting the safety, health, and well-being of the millions of refugees, including the education of refugee children and displaced persons who flee war, persecution, or torture in search of peace, hope, and freedom.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned certifies that the foregoing statement was read in the House and placed upon the Journal on the 20th day of June, 2019.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Thursday, July 4, 2019

The House meets at 8:30 a.m. pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by the Speaker.

The following prayer is offered by Representative Chris Humphrey:

"O Lord our Heavenly Father, high and mighty King of kings, and Lord of lords, who dost from thy throne behold all the dwellers on earth and reignest with power supreme and uncontrolled over all the Kingdoms, Empires and Governments; look down in mercy, we beseech Thee, on these our American States, who have fled to Thee from the rod of the oppressor and thrown themselves on Thy gracious protection, desiring to be henceforth dependent only on Thee. To Thee have they appealed for the righteousness of their cause; to Thee do they now look up for that countenance and support, which Thou alone canst give. Take them, therefore, Heavenly Father, under Thy nurturing care; give them wisdom in Council and valor in the field; defeat the malicious designs of our cruel adversaries; convince them of the unrighteousness of their Cause and if they persist in their sanguinary purposes, of own unerring justice, sounding in their hearts, constrain them to drop the weapons of war from their unnerved hands in the day of battle!

"Be Thou present, O God of wisdom, and direct the councils of this honorable assembly; enable them to settle things on the best and surest foundation. That the scene of blood may be speedily closed; that order, harmony and peace may be effectually restored, and truth and justice, religion and piety, prevail and flourish amongst the people. Preserve the health of their bodies and vigor of their minds; shower down on them and the millions they here represent, such temporal blessings as Thou seest expedient for them in this world and crown them with everlasting glory in the world to come. All this we ask in the name and thorough the merits of Jesus Christ, Thy Son and our Savior.

"Amen."

First Prayer of the Continental Congress, 1774)

"Dear Heavenly Father,

"I humbly come before You to thank You for this day and allowing all of us here to live another day to worship and serve You. I praise You for creating each life here and giving us each specific gifts and passions. I ask Your forgiveness for we, as a state and nation, have strayed far from You and often take for granted our liberties and freedom. We ask for Your endless mercy and forgiveness as we inevitably fail each day. I thank You for the fellowship across the aisle, and ask You help us to love each other like You want us to. Please grant us wisdom and Your perspective as we make decisions that affect the lives of so many others. Please give us patience and a listening ear to views that differ from our own. I pray that we would glorify You in all the words that come out of our mouths and the thoughts that cross our minds, and protect us all and our police and military who may be in harm's way.

"All this I pray in Jesus' Name. Amen."

The following prayer is offered by Representative Susan C. Fisher:

"Let us pray.

"Almighty God, unto whom all hearts are open,

July 22, 2019

"We ponder our hearts: our deepest feelings of love and devotion, our closest organ of vitality, our place of deep decision-making, our instrument of being fully ourselves.

"Our hearts - that throb for contact with You - our hearts are open.

"They are not always open by choice, for we would like sometimes to close our hearts and our minds and our hands.

"But they are open, because our hearts cannot resist Your steady care and address.

"Our hearts are open for You, very God. You are the one who has made us that our hearts are restless 'til they rest in You.

"Do Your mysterious, majestic God-ing with our hearts: reclaim, renew, re-enliven, that we may be transplanted, transformed, transposed, become by Your attentiveness whom we have not yet embraced, open and receptive, honest and undefensive, unafraid and committed to obedience.

"Let the pulse of our heart throb now, according to the cadences of Your rule; command and we will obey, overrule and we will yield, lead and we will walk where we never thought to go.

"Unto You, not unto each other, not unto our pet projects, not unto our favorite charity or passion.

"Unto You, our hearts are open; we are Yours; be our God - yet again. Amen."

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Wednesday, July 31, 2019

The following prayer is offered by Representative Harry Warren:

"O merciful God, our Heavenly Father, our spiritual and physical Creator,

"At this very minute and at every minute of every day, billions of voices across this planet, and for all we know, across the universe, call out to You for myriad reasons, some in desperation, pleading for healing, physical and/or spiritual, for themselves or loved ones. Some call out asking for guidance or forgiveness. Some, just to praise You and to thank You for answering their prayer. And yet, You, merciful and ever patient God that You are, encourage all to turn to You in times of need and in times of trial, that we may know - we are never truly alone, unless we choose to be, by ignoring Your never-ending invitation to seek assistance and comfort in Your loving embrace.

"At this moment, Lord, we raise our voice to simply say, 'Thank You, Lord, for allowing us this opportunity to serve our fellow man, bearing in mind the awesome responsibility that what we do for our brethren, we do unto You. Thank You for giving us the ability and the talents we need to govern accordingly. We thank You and we praise You, and all that we ask now, Father, is that You be within each of us this moment, that we may exercise that responsibility judiciously and fairly, in a manner pleasing to You.' Amen."

"Heavenly Father, Maker of all, please hear this prayer from Your humble servant.

I pray that each and everyone in this room realizes the responsibilities that You, Lord, have placed on us. For He died on the cross to save us from our sins and rose from the dead to sit on the right hand of You, the Father. Without Jesus to speak for me on my day of judgement, I would be doomed to eternal death. With Jesus, I have no fear, Father, that I will receive eternal life.

The legislature finds, and it is hereby declared to be the policy of this Chapter, that such officers have satisfied such requirements by their experience. It is the intent of the Chapter that all justice officers employed at the entry level after the Commission has adopted the required standards shall meet the requirements of this Chapter. All justice officers who are exempted from the required entry level standards by this subsection are subject to the requirements of subsections (b) and (c) of this section as well as the requirements of G.S. 17E-4(a) in order to retain certification.

(b) The Commission shall provide, by regulation, that no person may be appointed as a justice officer at entry level, except on a temporary or probationary basis, unless such person has satisfactorily completed an initial preparatory program of training at a school certified by the Commission or has been exempted from that requirement by the Commission pursuant to this Chapter. (c) In addition to the requirements of subsection (b) of this section, the Commission, by rules and regulations, may fix other qualifications for the employment and retention of justice officers including minimum age, education, physical and mental standards, citizenship, good moral character, experience, and such other matters as relate to the competence and reliability of persons to assume and discharge the responsibilities of the office, and the Commission shall prescribe the means for presenting evidence of fulfillment of these requirements.

Where minimum educational standards are not met, yet the individual shows potential and a willingness to achieve the standards by extra study, they may be waived by the Commission for the reasonable amount of time it will take to achieve the standards required. Upon petition from a sheriff, the Commission may grant a waiver of any provisions of this section (17E-7) for any justice officer serving that sheriff.

(c1) Any justice officer appointed as a telecommunicator at the entry level after March 1, 1998, shall meet all requirements of this Chapter. Any person employed in the capacity of a telecommunicator as defined by the Commission on or before March 1, 1998, shall not be required to meet any entry-level requirements as a condition of continued employment but shall be reported to the Commission for certification. All justice officers who are exempted from the required entry-level standards by this subsection are subject to the requirements of subsections (b) and (c) of this section as well as the requirements of G.S. 17E-4(a) in order to retain certification.

(c2) Effective July 1, 2021, any person employed as a telecommunicator by a municipal police agency shall meet all the requirements for telecommunicators as set forth in this Chapter.

August 22, 2019

GOVERNOR'S OBJECTIONS AND VETO MESSAGEHouse Bill 370, "AN ACT TO REQUIRE COMPLIANCE WITH IMMIGRATION DETAINERS AND ADMINISTRATIVE WARRANTS."

"This legislation is simply about scoring partisan political points and using fear to divide North Carolina. As the former top law enforcement officer of our state, I know that current law allows the state to jail and prosecute dangerous criminals regardless of immigration status. This bill, in addition to being unconstitutional, weakens law enforcement in North Carolina by mandating sheriffs to do the job of federal agents, using local resources that could hurt their ability to protect their counties. Finally, to elevate their partisan political pandering, the legislature has made a sheriff's violation of this new immigration duty as the only specifically named duty violation that can result in a sheriff's removal from office.

"Therefore, I veto the bill."

S/ Roy Cooper
Governor

The bill, having been vetoed, is returned to the Clerk of the North Carolina House of Representatives on this the 21st day of August 2019, at 12:26 p.m. for reconsideration by that body.
