JOINT SELECT COMMITTEE ON JUDICIAL REFORM AND REDISTRICTING (2017)

January 11, 2018

Room 544 of the Legislative Office Building

The Joint Select Committee on Judicial Reform and Redistricting (2017) met on Thursday, January 11, 2018 at 1:00 PM. The meeting was held in Room 544 of the Legislative Office Building. Members present were: Representatives Burr, Lewis, Blust, Davis, Grange, Duane Hall, Destin Hall, Jackson, John, Jordan, Reives, Richardson, Rogers and Stevens; Senators Bishop, Daniel, Rabon, Barret, Blue, Chaudhuri, Edwards, Ford, Hise, McKissick, Sanderson, Newton, Randleman and Van Duyn.

Representative Lewis, Co-Chair, presided.

Chairman Lewis called the meeting to order at 1:14 P.M. He thanked the Sergeant-at-Arms and central staff for preparation of the meeting. He announced the meeting would adjourn at or before 4 P.M. and that all materials were available on committee website. Senator Newton was recognized for opening remarks and an explanation of selection models.

Gus Willis, NCGA Central Staff, gave an overview of the history and summary of the appellate judges' appointment procedure in S971, Session 1995, followed by Senator Newton giving an overview of the election and balanced plan for independence and accountability.

Senator Newton presented on merit selection ideas and answered a series of questions from Representative Jackson related to the elimination of the Missouri model. Chairman Lewis explained that Senator Newton was informing the Committee on issues the Senate Committee had discussed and that the Missouri model was not given favorable feedback from the Senate. Representative Jackson questioned if the slides explaining the merit selection models of South Carolina and Virginia were indicative of what North Carolina would adopt, and asked who could be referred to the Governor for judgeships. Representative Reives asked questions pertaining to qualifications and criteria of nominees. Senator McKissick commented on politicized elections versus merit selection. Senator Chaudhuri questioned the balance of equities, the appointment procedure for the General Assembly and the Merit Selection Committee, and procedures for appointments when the General Assembly was not in session. Representative Blust stated an area of concern about single party control regarding appointments.

Chairman Lewis qualified the information Senator Newton had expressed as an example of how the process could look and there was no written bill that addresses the issue of who would appoint the selection committee. He advised the important issues of diversity in all areas had not been discussed, nor specifics of the role the Legislature would play.

Senator Ford asked for diversity of race, sex, age and religion on nominating or selecting committees to insure the courts are reflective of the communities they serve. Representative Jackson commented on the lack of eligibility for reappointment. Senator Van Duyn acknowledged concerns regarding the commission's need to be diverse.

Representative Stevens was recognized for a statement about the establishment of the Committee and the need for some type of judicial reform. Chairman Lewis responded that the Committee had been tasked with considering the issue and there was no prediction on the outcome, and the committee would decide by a majority vote. Representative Jordan questioned if a non-partisan, independent merit commission would be set up in advance of any vacancy, along with the local independent merit selection committees. Senator Sanderson asked if there was a cap on the number of candidates that could be sent to the General Assembly. Representative Jackson asked if there was a minimum number of candidates to be nominated. Senator McKissick asked for a timeline for the Committee and how a consensus would be reached.

Senator Chaudhuri asked if feedback had been received from stakeholders for the "purple plan". Senator Van Duyn asked what problem was trying to be fixed. Senator Newton advised that the Committee was to determine if there was a better model to insure excellence in the Judiciary in North Carolina. Senator Daniel voiced concerns about the appellate judge selection when a vacancy occurs.

Chairman Lewis recognized Representative Burr to explain proposed map options, including HB717 which was passed by the House. He identified problems found, the corrections and the differences in HB717 and Senate proposal that were to be considered.

Senator Bishop, Co-Chair, presided in Chairman Lewis' absence. Senator Ford questioned the location of the maps on the website. Senator Blue asked for the number of districts in the original Bell plan effective in 1968, the reasons for additional districts in the proposals, and services needed. Senator McKissick suggested considering statewide population and the use of other criteria to produce maps. Representative Burr explained the process involved in present maps and invited Senator McKissick to bring forth proposals.

Representative Jackson questioned the voting fairness in districts and if any current district court districts are unconstitutional and pending lawsuits. Representative Duane Hall asked the Committee to keep in mind the double-bunked judges. Representative Burr asked to be provided the names of double-bunked judges and the source of such a list. Representative Daune Hall will submit a list to the Committee.

Senator Hise admonished the addresses of judges are protected information. Chairman Bishop stated it would be taken under advisement if data is remitted to the Committee Chairs.

Representative Jordan asked about residency districts in the Senate plan and how discussions were going forward. Senator Chaudhuri questioned the number of stakeholders supporting the plan and how the maps were drawn. Representative John asked for the number of judges contacted before beginning work, criteria used in drawing maps, if race of incumbent judges was considered, and if elections results were used in proposed districts. Representative Reives questioned staff if districts are subject to the Voting Rights Act. Central staff attorney Erika Churchill explained the situations observed. Senator Bishop summarized the steps that had been taken to date. Representative Burr stated that concerns brought forward had been addressed. Chairman Bishop presented the Committee with information that was being worked on presently by staff.

Senator Van Duyn asked about election of multiple judges county-wide. Representative Stevens called a point of order on assumptions stated by Senator Van Duyn. Representative Burr replied there was no request to remove election sub-districts. Senator Van Duyn questioned work load, urban versus rural definition, and said she will submit data to the Committee related to her concerns.

Representative Jackson asked if the State was part of the Consent Decree discussed earlier and Erika Churchill asked for time to research.

Senator Blue questioned date compilation of information provided by AOC and its reliability. Senator Bishop offered the study done by AOC had updated information as recently as July 2017. Representative Burr stated there should not be two additional election cycles without making changes. Senator McKissick suggested a second look at disposition rates by AOC.

Senator Barrett stated the data used from AOC currently allows for assignment of judges. Senator Randleman stated that the AOC workload data is reliable and used for determining staffing based on filings and dispositions.

Erika Churchill reported on the Consent Decree filed on November 25, 1987: Kelly Alexander, et al, Plaintiff, vs. James G. Martin, et al, Defendant. Representative Jackson asked if changes to maps would need to ask courts if decree be terminated. Erika Churchill answered that further study would be needed for clarity. She stated that since that time the General Assembly has made changes to the maps.

Discussion was offered by Chairman Bishop. Senator Chaudhuri asked how long it would take the Committee to reach a resolution. Chairman Bishop answered that was not known and members would help to make that decision. Representative Blust asked for clarification on the maps that were to be considered. Chairman Bishop stated that for legislation to move forward the bill would have to move out of Senate Rules Committee for the Senate to rule. Representative Blust expressed a concern on merit selection and who gets to decide merit, and restoration of primaries for judge races.

There being no further business, the meeting adjourned at 3:50 P.M.

S971, 1995 Session: Judicial Appt./Voter Retention Appellate Judges.

2017-2018 General Assembly

Committee:	Joint Select Committee on Judicial Reform and Redistricting	Date:	January 11, 2018
Introduced by:		Prepared by:	Augustus D. Willis
Analysis of:	Senate Bill 971, 1995 Session		Staff Attorney

OVERVIEW: Senate Bill 971 from the 1995 Session of the North Carolina General Assembly would have, subject to voter approval, amended the North Carolina Constitution to provide for appointment of justices and judges of the North Carolina Supreme Court and Court of Appeals by the Governor upon confirmation by joint resolution of the General Assembly. Justices and judges seeking to continue service beyond their initial appointment would have been required to file notice with the State Board of Elections and stand for retention in a non-partisan retention election for an additional 8 year term.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Senate Bill 971 from the 1995 Session of the North Carolina General Assembly would have, subject to voter approval, amended the North Carolina Constitution to set forth an appointment procedure and nonpartisan retention election process for justices of the North Carolina Supreme Court and judges of the North Carolina Court of Appeals as follows:

- Nomination of a candidate to fill a vacancy by the Governor.
 - The Governor may withdraw the nomination at any time.
- Confirmation by Joint Resolution of the General Assembly
 - The legislative committee to which confirmation is referred may conduct investigation of the nominee to include evaluation of any of the following with regard to the nominee:
 - Ethical conduct
 - Knowledge and application of the law
 - Management of the courts over which the nominee has presided
 - Work habits
 - Health
 - Judicial demeanor
 - The legislative committee may inspect files of the Judicial Standards Commission upon request of the committee chairperson.
 - Each house of the General Assembly must vote on confirmation within 60 calendar days of the nomination, except when the nomination is made when the General Assembly is not in regular session, in which case the Governor may call a one-day extra session during which only the nomination may be considered; the nomination may not be confirmed in any other extra session.

- Term of Office Upon Appointment
 - The term of office by appointment as Chief Justice, Associate Justice, or Judge would extend through June 30 after the next statewide election for members of the General Assembly that is held more than 18 months after the nomination is confirmed.
- Nonpartisan Retention Election
 - A justice or judge wishing to continue service beyond the initial term must file notice with the State Board of Elections (SBOE) by noon on the first business day of July in the year of the election.
 - The retention election must be conducted and canvassed in accordance with rules of the SBOE in the same general manner as general elections, except that the retention election is nonpartisan and must be placed at the top of the ballot above all other elections or matters for decision, whether partisan, nonpartisan, or otherwise.
 - Upon a majority of votes cast on the issue of retention, the regular term of a justice or judge is 8 years. If the voters fail to approve retention, the vacancy would be filled by nomination and confirmation as set forth above, but the Governor may only nominate a person of the same political affiliation as the justice or judge who has not been retained.
- Transition Provisions
 - The term of office for a judge or justice elected before January 1, 1996 for a term that extended beyond January 1, 1996, and would have been in office on January 1, 1996, would have been extended through June 30 of the year following the eighth year after such justice or judge was last elected to office. If that person continued to serve the remainder of that term, they could have stood for retention in the office for a succeeding regular term.

BACKGROUND: Senate Bill 971 passed the Senate on July 6, 1995 but failed to pass second reading in the House of Representatives on July 27, 1995. Provisions contained in the bill providing for election of superior court judges within their districts (instead of statewide, as was the law at that time) and for filling vacancies in certain superior court districts were enacted in 1996 via S.L. 2016-9es2.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO AMEND THE CONSTITUTION OF NORTH CAROLINA TO PROVIDE FOR GUBERNATORIAL NOMINATION OF JUSTICES OF THE SUPREME COURT AND JUDGES OF THE COURT OF APPEALS, LEGISLATIVE CONFIRMATION, AND RETENTION BY VOTE OF THE PEOPLE, TO PROVIDE FOR ELECTION OF SUPERIOR COURT JUDGES WITHIN THEIR DISTRICTS, AND TO IMPROVE THE ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE AND PROMOTE JUDICIAL ECONOMY AND EFFICIENCY WITHIN THE SUPERIOR COURT DIVISION OF THE GENERAL COURT OF JUSTICE BY PROVIDING FOR FULL EIGHT-YEAR TERMS OF OFFICE WHEN VACANCIES ARISE AND AN ELECTION IS HELD OTHER THAN AT THE EXPIRATION OF THE PRIOR TERM FOR CERTAIN SUPERIOR COURT JUDGES.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

Section 1. Section 16 of Article IV of the North Carolina Constitution reads as rewritten:

"Sec. 16. Terms of office and election of Justices of the Supreme Court, Judges of the Court of Appeals, and Judges of the Superior Court. Selection and tenure of Justices of the Supreme Court and Judges of the Court of Appeals; election of Judges of the Superior Court.

Justices of the Supreme Court, Judges of the Court of Appeals, and regular (1) Judges of the Superior court shall be elected by the qualified voters and shall hold office for terms of eight years and until their successors are elected and qualified. Justices of the Supreme Court and Judges of the Court of Appeals shall be elected by the qualified voters of the State. Regular Judges of the Superior Court may shall be elected by the qualified voters of the State or by the voters of their respective districts, as the General Assembly may prescribe. districts.

(2) General principles. Justices and judges of the Appellate Division should be selected for and continue to hold office solely upon the basis of personal and professional fitness to administer right and justice wisely, according to law, and without favor, denial, or delay, to all persons who come into the courts. While their continuation in office should be periodically subject to approval by the people, both their initial selection and continuation in office should be free, so far as may be, from the influences and necessities of partisan political activity.

(3) Nomination, confirmation, appointment retention election, and terms of justices and judges. On and after January 1, 1996, when a vacancy occurs in the office of Chief Justice, Associate Justice, or Judge of the Appellate Division, the Governor shall nominate a person to fill the vacancy. Prior to appointment, such nominations by the Governor shall be subject to confirmation of the General Assembly by a majority of the members of each house present and voting prior to appointment. For the purposes of this section, creation of a new judgeship within the Appellate Division creates a vacancy.

Each house of the General Assembly shall vote on confirmation within 60 calendar days of the date of nomination, except that no day shall be included within that calculation if it is:

(a) Between sine die adjournment of one regular session and convening of the next regular session; or

(b) During any period when the General Assembly has adjourned a regular session for more than 30 days jointly as provided under Section 20 of Article II of this Constitution.

If a nomination is made during either of the periods listed in subdivision (a) or (b) of this subsection, the Governor may convene the General Assembly in extra session for the purpose of considering confirmation of the nomination. No action of that extra session shall be valid after the second calendar day of that session, and that extra session may not consider any matters other than rules for the extra session, confirmation of the nomination, and adjournment sine die. The nomination may not be confirmed in any extra session other than one called under this subsection.

1 The term of office by appointment as Chief Justice, Associate Justice, or Judge of the 2 Appellate Division extends through June 30 after the next statewide election for members
3 of the General Assembly that is held more than 18 months after the nomination is 4 confirmed. At that election, a person holding by appointment the office of Chief Justice,
5 Associate Justice, or Judge of the Appellate Division who desires to continue in office
6 shall be subject to approval by nonpartisan ballot, by a majority of the votes cast on the 7 issue of the Justice's or Judge's retention. A Chief Justice, Associate Justice, or Judge of 8 the Appellate Division then approved for retention serves a regular term.

9 The regular term of office of the Chief Justice, Associate Justices, and Judges of the 10 Appellate Division is eight years and expires on June 30.

11 At the last statewide election for members of the General Assembly held before the 12 expiration of a regular term of office, a Chief Justice, Associate Justice, or Judge of the 13 Appellate Division who desires to continue in office shall be subject to approval by 14 nonpartisan ballot, by a majority of the votes cast on the issue of the Justice's or Judge's 15 retention.

16 If the voters fail to approve the retention in office of a Chief Justice, Associate 17 Justice, or Judge of the Appellate Division serving an appointed or regular term, the 18 office shall become vacant at the end of the term of office, and it shall be filled by 19 nomination, confirmation, and appointment as prescribed in this section. In such case, 20 the Governor may only nominate a person of the same political affiliation as the justice or 21 judge who has not been retained in office. For the purpose of this section, the political 22 affiliation of a nominee for justice or judge is determined as of 24 months preceding the 23 date of the vacancy for which the nomination is made.

24 Voting in a retention election on the Chief Justice, Associate Justices, and Judges of 25 the Appellate Division shall be the qualified voters of the whole State.

26 (4) Transition provisions. The term of office of a person who has been elected
27 before January 1, 1996, to the office of Chief Justice, Associate Justice, or Judge of the 28 Appellate Division for a term which extends beyond January 1, 1996, and who is in 29 office on January 1, 1996, is extended through June 30 of the year following the eighth
30 year after the date any such justice or judge was last elected to the office. If the person so 31 elected continues to serve for the remainder of the term, that person may stand for 32 retention in the office for a succeeding regular term as provided in this section. If the 33 person continues to serve for the remainder of the term but does not stand for retention
34 election, a vacancy is created in the office upon expiration of the term, and this vacancy
35 shall be filled by nomination, confirmation, and appointment as provided in this section.

36 The term of office of a person who has been appointed before January 1, 1996, to the 37 office of Chief Justice, Associate Justice, or Judge of the Appellate Division for a term
38 which extends beyond January 1, 1996, and who is in office on January 1, 1996, shall end
39 on June 30, 1999. If the person so appointed continues to serve for the remainder of the 40 term, that person may stand for retention in the office for a regular term as provided by 41 this section at the statewide election for members of the General Assembly held in 1998.

2 Upon the death, resignation, removal, or retirement of any incumbent justice or judge
3 on or after January 1, 1996, and before the expiration of his term of office, the resulting vacancy shall be filled by nomination, confirmation, and appointment as provided in this section.

Vacancies in judicial offices in the Appellate Division occurring before January 1, 1996, and not filled by that date, shall be filled by nomination, confirmation, and appointment as provided in this section.

From the date any incumbent described in this subsection is continued in office by retention vote for a term next succeeding the term in progress on January 1, 1996, or is succeeded in office by another person, the office is held subject to the provisions of this section.

(5) The General Assembly may implement this section by general law."

Sec. 2. The amendment set out in Section 1 of this act shall be submitted to the qualified voters of the State at a statewide election on November 7, 1995, which election shall be conducted under the laws then governing elections in the State. Ballots, voting systems, or both may be used in accordance with Chapter 163 of the General Statutes. The reasonable additional costs of conducting the election shall be reimbursed by the State. The question to be used in the voting systems and ballots shall be:

"[] FOR [] AGAINST

Constitutional amendment to replace the present practice of selecting justices and judges of the Appellate Division by gubernatorial appointment, followed by partisan elections, with a method by which justices and judges of the Appellate Division will be nominated by the Governor, confirmed by the General Assembly, and then serve for limited terms after which the question of the justice's or judge's retention in office is regularly submitted for approval or disapproval by nonpartisan vote of the people at general elections, and to provide for election of superior court judges in their districts."

Sec. 3. If a majority of votes cast on the question are in favor of the amendment set out in Section 1 of this act, the State Board of Elections shall certify the amendment to the Secretary of State. The amendment becomes effective upon this certification. The Secretary of State shall enroll the amendment so certified among the permanent records of that office.

Sec. 3.1. Chapter 7A of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new Article to read:

"ARTICLE 1A.

"APPOINTMENT AND CONFIRMATION OF JUSTICES AND JUDGES, RETENTION ELECTIONS.

"§ 7A-4.1. Nomination of justices and judges by Governor and confirmation by

(b) Nominees are subject to confirmation as provided in this subsection. A nominee is confirmed by passage of a joint resolution of the General Assembly. The Governor may withdraw a nomination at any time.

"§ 7A-4.2. Confirmation procedures.

(a) A legislative committee to which the issue of confirmation is referred may conduct an investigation of the nominee. The investigation may include an evaluation of the nominee's ethical conduct, the nominee's knowledge of and application of the law, the nominee's management of the courts over which he has presided, the nominee's work habits, the nominee's health, and the nominee's judicial demeanor. The nominee or judge shall be given an opportunity to present to the committee any information that the nominee determines to be appropriate.

(b) The committee shall be allowed to inspect the files of the Judicial Standards Commission by request of the chairman of the committee. Notwithstanding the provisions of G.S. 7A-377, the files of the Judicial Standards Commission shall be made available to the committee. "§ 7A-4.3. Governor to issue commissions to justices and judges.

Every person duly nominated by the Governor as Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, or Judge of the Court of Appeals and duly confirmed by the General Assembly shall be appointed by the Governor and shall procure from the Governor a commission attesting that fact, which the Governor shall issue upon receipt of a certification by the Secretary of State of the joint resolution of confirmation.

When a judge is retained in office by vote of the people, the Governor shall issue a commission attesting that fact, which the Governor shall issue upon receipt of a certification by the Secretary of State of the results of the election.

"§ 7A-4.4. No elections in 1996.

No partisan election as previously provided by law for Chief Justice or Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, or Judge of the Court of Appeals, shall be held in 1996 or thereafter.

"§ 7A-4.5. Retention elections.

(a) As provided by Section 16 of Article IV of the Constitution of North Carolina, a Chief Justice or Associate Justice of the Supreme Court or Judge of the Court of Appeals desiring to continue in office shall be subject to approval by nonpartisan ballot, by a majority of votes cast on the issue of the justice's or judge's retention.

(b) A person subject to subsection (a) of this section shall indicate the desire to continue in office by filing a notice to that effect with the State Board of Elections no later than 12:00 noon on the first business day of July in the year of the election. The notice shall be on a form approved by the State Board of Elections. Notice can be withdrawn at any time prior to the deadline for filing notice under this subsection.

(c) Retention elections shall be conducted and canvassed in accordance with rules of the State Board of Elections in the same general manner as general elections under Chapter 163 of the General Statutes, except that the retention election is nonpartisan. The form of the ballot shall be determined by the State Board of Elections.

(d) Retention elections shall be placed at the top of the ballot above all other elections or matters for decision, whether partisan, nonpartisan, or otherwise.

(e) If a person who has filed a notice calling a retention election dies or is removed from office prior to the time that the ballots are printed, the retention election is cancelled. If a person who has filed a notice calling a retention election dies or is removed from office after the ballots are printed, the State Board of Elections may cancel the election if it determines that the ballots can be reprinted without significant expense. If the ballots cannot be reprinted, then the results of the election shall be ineffective."

Sec. 3.2. (a) Chapter 7A of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"(a) Kinds of General Election Ballots; Right to Combine. – For purposes of general elections, there shall be seven kinds of official ballots entitled:

- (1) Ballot for presidential electors
- (2) Ballot for United States Senator
- (3) Ballot for member of the United States House of Representatives

The printing on all ballots shall be plain and legible but, unless large type is specified by this section, type larger than 10-point shall not be used in printing ballots. All general election ballots shall be prepared in such a way as to leave sufficient blank space beneath each name printed thereon in which a voter may conveniently write the name of any person for whom he may desire to vote.

S971, 1995 Session: Judicial Appt./Voter Retention Appellate Judges.

2017-2018 General Assembly

Committee:	Joint Select Committee on Judicial Reform and Redistricting	Date:	January 11, 2018
Introduced by:		Prepared by:	Augustus D. Willis Staff Attorney
Analysis of:	Senate Bill 971, 1995 Session

OVERVIEW: Senate Bill 971 from the 1995 Session of the North Carolina General Assembly would have, subject to voter approval, amended the North Carolina Constitution to provide for appointment of justices and judges of the North Carolina Supreme Court and Court of Appeals by the Governor upon confirmation by joint resolution of the General Assembly. Justices and judges seeking to continue service beyond their initial appointment would have been required to file notice with the State Board of Elections and stand for retention in a non-partisan retention election for an additional 8 year term.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Senate Bill 971 from the 1995 Session of the North Carolina General Assembly would have, subject to voter approval, amended the North Carolina Constitution to set forth an appointment procedure and nonpartisan retention election process for justices of the North Carolina Supreme Court and judges of the North Carolina Court of Appeals as follows:

- Nomination of a candidate to fill a vacancy by the Governor.
 - The Governor may withdraw the nomination at any time.
- Confirmation by Joint Resolution of the General Assembly
 - The legislative committee to which confirmation is referred may conduct investigation of the nominee to include evaluation of any of the following with regard to the nominee:
 - Ethical conduct
 - Knowledge and application of the law
 - Management of the courts over which the nominee has presided
 - Work habits
 - Health
 - Judicial demeanor
 - The legislative committee may inspect files of the Judicial Standards Commission upon request of the committee chairperson.
 - Each house of the General Assembly must vote on confirmation within 60 calendar days of the nomination, except when the nomination is made when the General Assembly is not in regular session, in which case the Governor may call a one-day extra session during which only the nomination may be considered; the nomination may not be confirmed in any other extra session.

- Term of Office Upon Appointment
 - The term of office by appointment as Chief Justice, Associate Justice, or Judge would extend through June 30 after the next statewide election for members of the General Assembly that is held more than 18 months after the nomination is confirmed.
- Nonpartisan Retention Election
 - A justice or judge wishing to continue service beyond the initial term must file notice with the State Board of Elections (SBOE) by noon on the first business day of July in the year of the election.
 - The retention election must be conducted and canvassed in accordance with rules of the SBOE in the same general manner as general elections, except that the retention election is nonpartisan and must be placed at the top of the ballot above all other elections or matters for decision, whether partisan, nonpartisan, or otherwise.
 - Upon a majority of votes cast on the issue of retention, the regular term of a justice or judge is 8 years. If the voters fail to approve retention, the vacancy would be filled by nomination and confirmation as set forth above, but the Governor may only nominate a person of the same political affiliation as the justice or judge who has not been retained.
- Transition Provisions
 - The term of office for a judge or justice elected before January 1, 1996 for a term that extended beyond January 1, 1996, and would have been in office on January 1, 1996, would have been extended through June 30 of the year following the eighth year after such justice or judge was last elected to office. If that person continued to serve the remainder of that term, they could have stood for retention in the office for a succeeding regular term.

BACKGROUND: Senate Bill 971 passed the Senate on July 6, 1995 but failed to pass second reading in the House of Representatives on July 27, 1995. Provisions contained in the bill providing for election of superior court judges within their districts (instead of statewide, as was the law at that time) and for filling vacancies in certain superior court districts were enacted in 1996 via S.L. 2016-9es2.

JUDICIAL BRANCH WORKLOAD FORMULAS DEVELOPED BY NATIONAL CENTER FOR STATE COURTS

January 2018

- All workload formulas are updated annually based on the most recent three fiscal years of filings.
- Current workload calculations are based on July 1, 2014 – June 30, 2017 filings.
- Adjustments to case weights (minutes allotted per case type), day value (number of minutes available per day for case-related work activities), and year value (number of minutes available per year for case-related work activities) are made periodically by NCAOC in response to changes in law and/or practice.

Clerks of Superior Court

- 2007 – National Center for State Courts report set case weights, day values, and year values.
- 2008 – NCAOC conducted a 4 week time study, resulting in adjustments to case weights, day values, and year values.
- 2010 – To align with the National Center for State Courts workload study of assistant district attorneys and district attorney legal assistants (then titled victim witness/legal assistants), NCAOC converted clerk filings counts and case weights to a same-day defendant based count to normalize the data among counties with varying data entry practices.
- 2012 – NCAOC, after consultation with the Clerk Resource Committee and Clerk Executive Committee, updated the clerk workload formula by adding allotted time per case for the following case-related activities:
 - District Civil – reviewing filings to determine if new motions fee is applicable
 - Superior Civil – reviewing filings to determine if new motions fee is applicable
 - Receipts Written – collecting motions fee on relevant filings
 - Special Proceedings – determining new 5th and 6th required foreclosure findings; running criminal background check for name change cases; conducting additional contested hearings
 - Estates – conducting increase in contested estates hearings
 - Juvenile – entering required data into JWise
 - District Criminal – sending notices and making phone calls related to bond forfeiture motions to set aside
 - Superior Criminal – sending notices and making phone calls related to bond forfeiture motions to set aside
- 2014 – NCAOC, after consultation with the Clerk Resource Committee and Clerk Executive Committee, updated the clerk workload formula by adding allotted time per case for Special

Proceedings due to concealed carry permit checks that require a review of involuntary commitments records. Analysis of the impact of the following were determined to be largely offsetting (some increased time and some saved time): payNcticket, eCitation, and on-bench time reporting.

- 2016 – NCAOC, after consultation with the Clerk Resource Committee and Clerk Executive Committee, updated the clerk workload formula by making minor adjustments to day values and by adding allotted time per case for the following case-related activities:
 - Criminal Superior – completing additional required data entry into CCIS-CC.
 - Criminal District – completing additional required data entry into CCIS-CC.

District Court Judges

- 2007 – National Center for State Courts report set case weights, day values, and year values.
- 2010 – To align with the National Center for State Courts workload study of assistant district attorneys and district attorney legal assistants (then titled victim witness/legal assistants), NCAOC converted district court judge filings counts and case weights to a same-day defendant based count to normalize the data among counties with varying data entry practices. Also, minor adjustments were made to day value after consultation with a committee of the Association of District Court Judges.
- 2017 – NCAOC, after consultation with a committee of the Association of District Court Judges, increased the time allotted for impaired driving cases to reflect the increased complexity of those cases.

Magistrates

- 2007 – National Center for State Courts report set case weights, day values, and year values.
- 2010 – To align with the National Center for State Courts workload study of assistant district attorneys and district attorney legal assistants (then titled victim witness/legal assistants), NCAOC converted magistrate filings counts and case weights to a same-day defendant based count to normalize the data among counties with varying data entry practices.

Assistant District Attorneys and District Attorney Legal Assistants

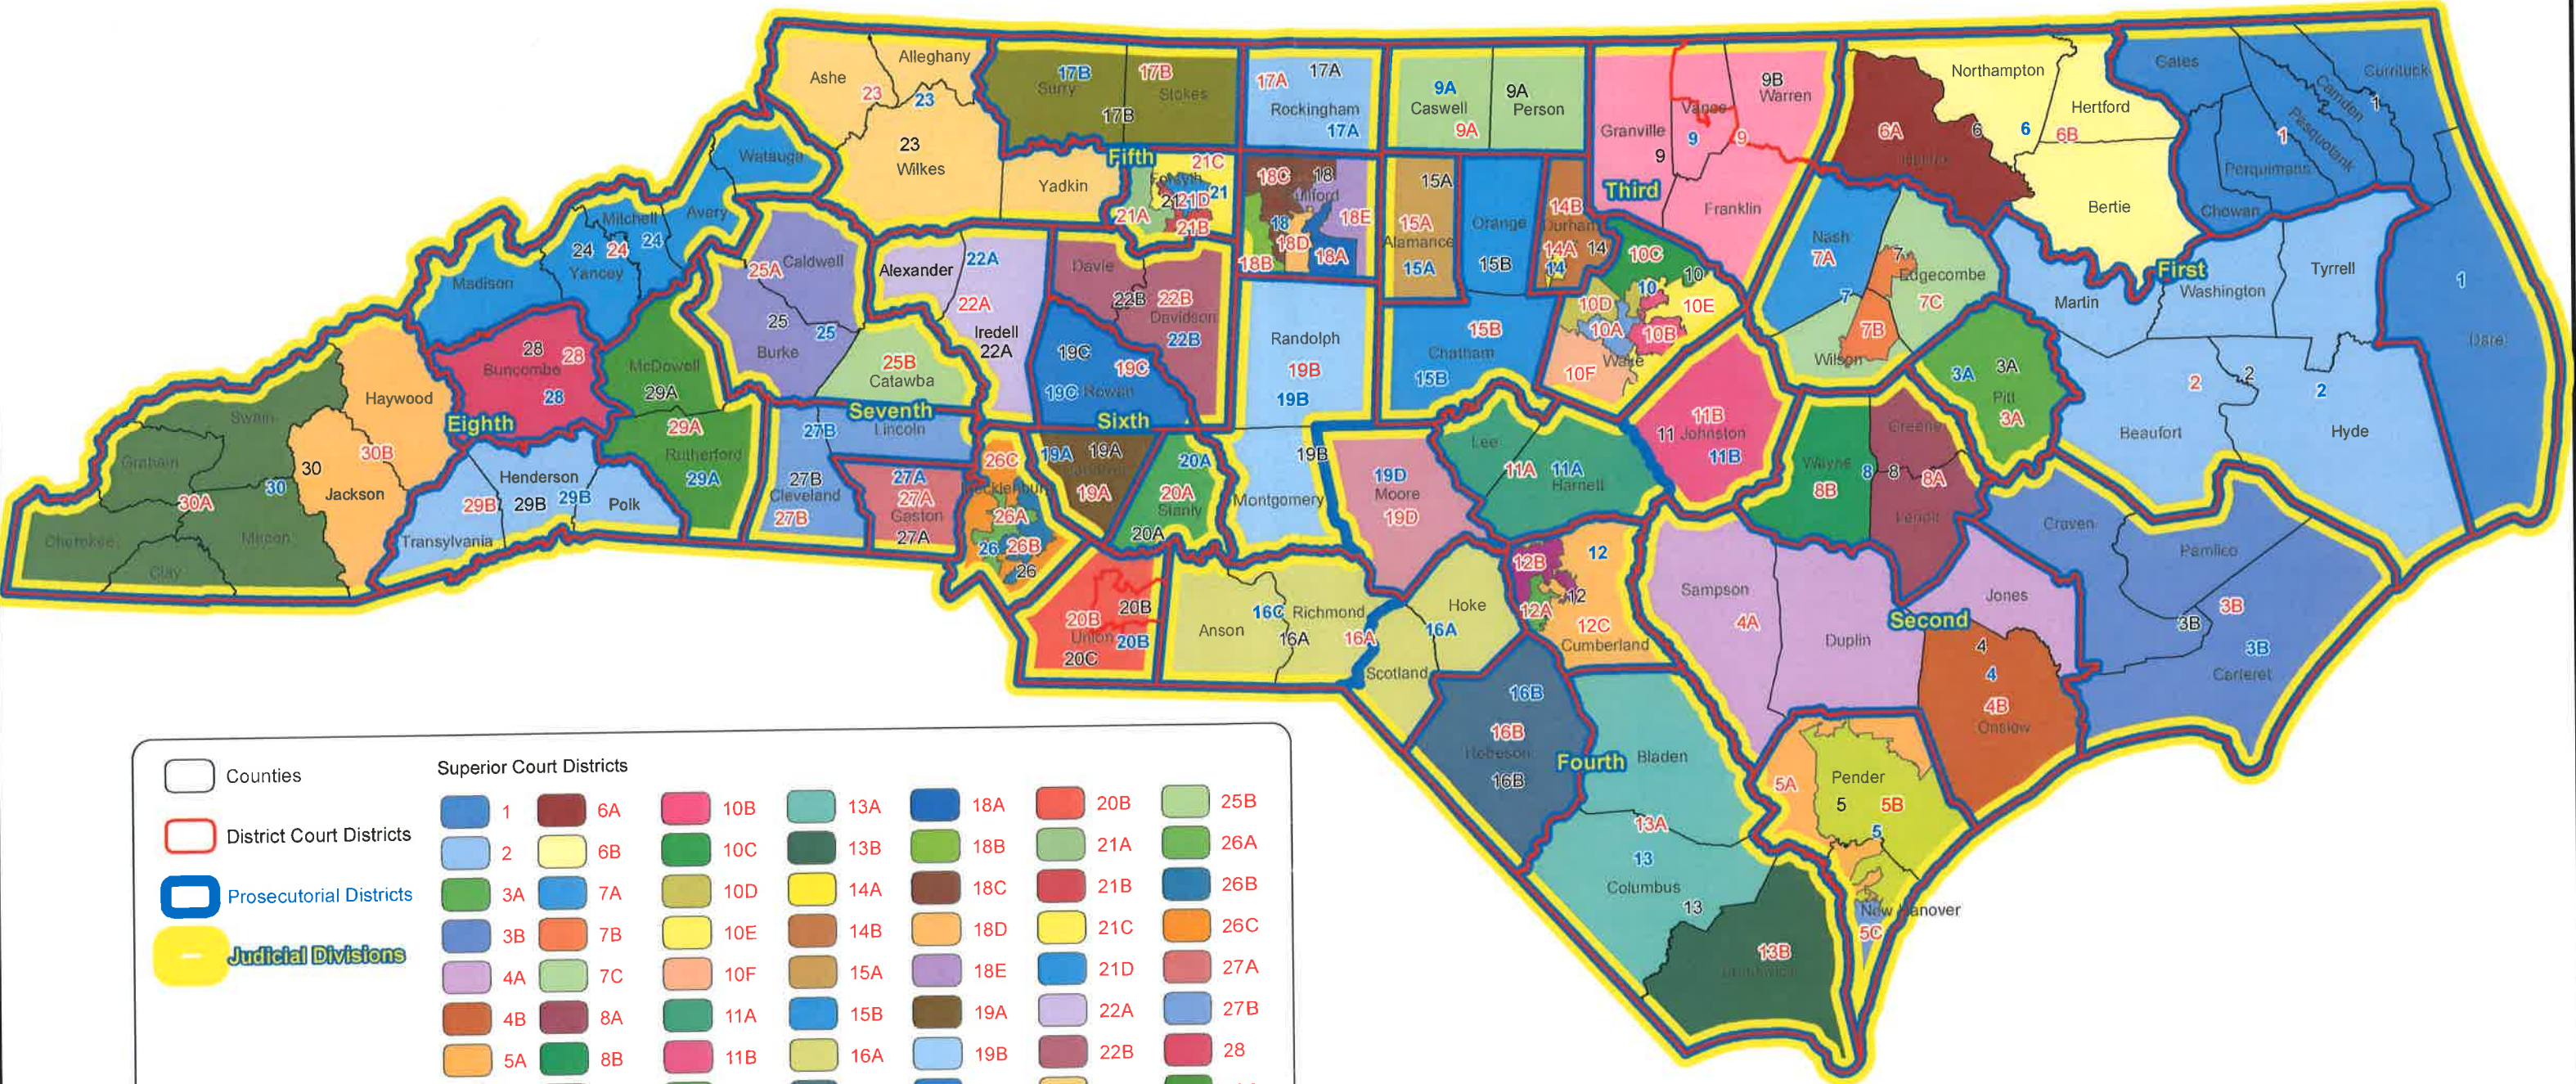

- 2010 – National Center for State Courts report set case weights, day values, and year values for assistant district attorneys and district attorney legal assistants (then titled victim witness/legal assistants). The National Center for State Courts utilized a same-day defendant count for filings to normalize the data among counties with varying data entry practices.
- 2012 – NCAOC, at the request of the Conference of District Attorneys, adjusted the calculated need of assistant district attorneys to provide additional resources for supervision of assistant district attorneys and support staff in offices with a need of at least 7 assistant district attorneys. Additional supervision resources were added in offices with a need of at least 24 assistant district attorneys.

Superior Court Judges

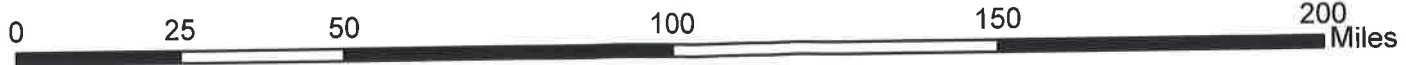

- 2011 – National Center for State Courts report set case weights, day values, and year values. The National Center for State Courts utilized a same-day defendant count for filings to normalize the data among counties with varying data entry practices.

January 2018

- All workload formulas are updated annually based on the most recent three fiscal years of filings.
- Current workload calculations are based on July 1, 2014 – June 30, 2017 filings.
- Adjustments to case weights (minutes allotted per case type), day value (number of minutes available per day for case-related work activities), and year value (number of minutes available per year for case-related work activities) are made periodically by NCAOC in response to changes in law and/or practice.

Clerks of Superior Court

- 2007 – National Center for State Courts report set case weights, day values, and year values.
- 2008 – NCAOC conducted a 4 week time study, resulting in adjustments to case weights, day values, and year values.
- 2010 – To align with the National Center for State Courts workload study of assistant district attorneys and district attorney legal assistants (then titled victim witness/legal assistants), NCAOC converted clerk filings counts and case weights to a same-day defendant based count to normalize the data among counties with varying data entry practices.
- 2012 – NCAOC, after consultation with the Clerk Resource Committee and Clerk Executive Committee, updated the clerk workload formula by adding allotted time per case for the following case-related activities:
 - District Civil – reviewing filings to determine if new motions fee is applicable
 - Superior Civil – reviewing filings to determine if new motions fee is applicable
 - Receipts Written – collecting motions fee on relevant filings
 - Special Proceedings – determining new 5th and 6th required foreclosure findings; running criminal background check for name change cases; conducting additional contested hearings
 - Estates – conducting increase in contested estates hearings

JOINT SELECT COMMITTEE ON JUDICIAL REFORM AND REDISTRICTING (2017)

April 27, 2018

Room 643 of the Legislative Office Building

The Joint Select Committee on Judicial Reform and Redistricting (2017) met on Friday, April 27, 2018 at 9:45 AM. The meeting was held in Room 643 of the Legislative Office Building. Members present were: Senators Bishop, Daniel, Barrett, Blue, Ford, Hise, McKissick, Newton, Randleman, Sanderson and Van Duyn; Representatives Burr, Lewis, Blust, Davis, Grange, Destin Hall, Jackson, John, Jordan, Reives, Richardson and Rogers.

Senator Warren Daniel presided. He welcomed members and visitors, introduced the Sergeant-at-Arms and announced there would be no votes taken in meeting. He then recognized Representative Burr to give an overview of the most recent judicial redistricting proposals and incumbency data. (Map Options A, B and C and incumbency data attached and made a part of the Minutes.)

Representative Burr stated that Options A, B and C maps accompany the incumbency data integrated into the three options. The data was based on the addresses received from the Administrative Office of the Courts and prepared by staff. He requested members review and report to staff any incorrect information for their districts. He explained the way to interrupt the data and changes that had been made from prior recommendations. He stated maps will continue to update, making investments in each of the respective judicial districts to provide resources needed. He then asked for questions.

Representative John questioned if Wake County judges could not leave things as they are, did they choose Options B or C. Representative Burr answered that he worked with the Wake County delegation who brought forth and supported this proposal.

Senator McKissick asked for a document to summarize differences between plans. Senator Daniel asked staff to prepare a list to show which districts and sub-districts had changed and resources used to produce those changes. Senator McKissick asked if compactness was ever a criteria and what variables were identified to help determine how to draw the maps. Representative Burr answered the focus was on correcting the imbalance in election sub-districts that existed, along with superior court sub-districts in urban counties, making populations balanced to bring more in line with the Blankenship case. He worked within boundaries of the precincts in place. Information gathered from judges in the less populated districts indicated they were able to handle changes in maps if given the resources needed, which had been done.

Senator McKissick asked if this proposal could wait for the next census. Representative Burr answered it was up to the General Assembly to decide, but the investments made in these options are needed. Senator McKissick requested stat packs for the most recent changes and Senator Daniel stated they were available online.

Representative Jackson requested a fiscal note and was told by William Childs, Fiscal Research, there was a fiscal note for some of the language in HB717 and that he would provide a fiscal note for these changes within a week. Representative Jackson asked why Wake County would receive two judges, instead of one, which was originally shown. Representative Burr explained the growth of Wake County shows the need for two judges and the seat would be added in two years. Representative Jackson asked how many superior court judges are currently being added in plans B or C across the state. Senator Daniel deferred to staff for the answer.

Senator Hise commented on a question asked earlier about census and that it is conducted once every ten years, and every two years estimates are given on how population is expected to grow. It is never exact until it conducts another census which will be in 2020. The General Assembly would not receive the census data until 2021 to apply to maps.

Senator Ford asked what considerations were given when creating the districts for incumbency in Mecklenburg County Superior Court Options B and C. Representative Burr stated that balancing those populations and moving toward single member districts was developed to try to eliminate double bunking. Judges living in same neighborhoods and precincts made it difficult. He encouraged Senator Ford to present another draft to be considered. Senator Ford asked what to expect about the terms for judges. Representative Burr answered the 2018 elections and beyond depend on what recommendations come from this Committee and the General Assembly in coming months. Senator Ford asked if a deadline for making a decision on judge's elections had been set. Erika Churchill, Fiscal Research, responded that the ballots need to be set and printed by September 7 for the November general election.

Senator Barrett questioned Forsyth County's written material verses the Option C map as it related to double bunking. Representative Burr said the inset maps on the committee website would show a better map and he would look to see about making adjustments if this had occurred.

Senator Bishop was recognized to ask Senator Ford if he had received any recommendations for modifications to cure the double bunking in Mecklenburg Superior Court seats. Senator Ford answered he was gathering that information. Senator Bishop agreed it appropriate to make adaptations to accommodate those concerns and asked for input from the Mecklenburg community.

There being no additional questions, Senator Daniel moved to the next item on the agenda.

Representative Burr was recognized to present HB 240, GA Appoint for District Court Vacancies. (Bill and Summary attached and made a part of the Minutes.)

He explained the bill proposes to modify the existing general statutes on the appointment process for filling district court vacancies, giving the General Assembly the authority to make district court vacancy appointments.

Representative Jackson was recognized to provide a comment on the Bar selection process and questioned the General Assembly's ability to act quickly in making appointments when not in session. Representative Burr addressed the process in place for appointments during the interim.

Representative Reives commented on transparency and accountability in the selection process by the Governor versus the General Assembly and would like to go back to the Governor making appointments. Representative Burr responded the Bar and attorneys choosing a judge is not the same as having the public capable of having input through open meetings with the elected officials throughout the State.

Senator Daniel recognized William Childs, Fiscal Research, to provide an answer related to an earlier question from Representative Jackson for a fiscal note. He stated that without an introduced bill there cannot be an official fiscal note. Representative Burr offered to provide total numbers for each plan for additional superior and district court judges and ADAs. That gave information to see dollar amount for each of the proposals. Representative Jackson responded that travel costs for judges had been the reason for this request.

Representative Reives commented that he preferred the Bar having input on bench appointments and he had concerns that people would question transparency if the General Assembly became a part of the selection process.

Senator Bishop was recognized for a comment on lawyers picking judges and how citizens react negatively to this process. We must look at lawyers tacitly picking judges and just how much is being done in this manner. Election versus selection plans need uniformity and having one person picking the bench was not the best way.

Senator Barrett stated that improving the process of selecting the judges should be reviewed and this was a potential opportunity to improve the process. He asked for information on the history of how changes had been made over time. Senator Daniel requested staff provide statute that outlined the previous process for district court selection and the session law that changed it. Senator Barrett asked for the same on HB 241. He stated the process should have vetting of the local bar as well as the local representatives.

Representative Rogers commented on the smaller districts having one firm larger than others to possibly monopolize choosing every judge, if the process was bound to the lawyers and the Governor.

Representative Richardson suggested the process of how to handle district and superior court vacancy selection be done by the Courts Commission. He had issues with the way things would be handled during interim.

Senator Hise summarized the process that has been used in judge selections and stated that the writers of the Constitution gave the decision to the Legislature to decide the manner in which this process is determined. He stated the bills had passed the House and no bill introduction is needed from the Senate.

Representative John asserted the Commission on Administration of Law and Justice has been established and asked had they recommended a change in the appointment of district court vacancies. Representative Burr stated that in the Legislature was not bound by commissions, committees, boards and reports to propose ideas and legislation. Legislators are elected by the people to make these decisions. Representative John asked who had requested a change in this process and Representative Burr answered that citizens have requested changes in how judges are selected, not wanting a small group of attorneys choosing the judges.

Senator Newton commended Representative Burr and the House for making an effort in this direction. He stated citizens deserve the best in balance between the independency of the judiciary and accountability. House Bill 241 puts more accountability in the selection process by shifting the accountability to the nominating body. The Bar provides an important role. Legislators are more accountable to the people of North Carolina than the Governor due to frequency of their elections.

Senator McKissick asked if this process is the best way due to partisan makeup of the General Assembly when selections are made. Representative Jackson wanted language in the bill that would keep same party appointment when filling a vacancy. Representative Burr asked Representative Jackson if he thought the Governor should be held by the same standards and Representative Jackson answered that the Governor should follow the Constitution and authority that is given. He further added that judges had been nonpartisan until this bill.

Representative Blust was recognized and asked if the General Assembly had time to consider such a bill due to time limitations when in session. Representative Burr answered that the General Assembly meets often between sessions and the public can have input through their legislators and the Constitution states the General Assembly should determine how these vacancies are filled. The House has passed these bills and feels this is the action to take.

Senator Daniel stated that all arguments have been stated on HB240 that would apply to HB241, "Special Sup. Ct. Judgeship Appointed by GA." and requested Representative Burr describe the contents of that bill. Representative Burr stated the modifications of the special superior court judges, Article 4, Section 9 of the Constitution gave the General Assembly the power to determine the selection process of these judges. Since 2013 the Governor has been required to submit his nominations to the General Assembly for confirmation, and the bill proposed changes of appointment authority be moved to the General Assembly. (Bill and Summary attached and made a part of the Minutes.)

Senator Daniel recognized Senator Barrett who commented whether the Legislature or the Governor chose the replacement judge in the interim, the same party candidate should be replaced, allowing people their choice in upcoming election.

Senator Van Duyn suggested an independent panel for choosing judges.

Senator Hise asked if nominations related to HB240 and HB241 would be subject to the veto of the Governor. Representative Burr answered that as long as the bill contained no other provisions it would not be subject to a Governor veto. Erika Churchill confirmed Article 2, Section 22 of our Constitution sets forth exceptions from the veto authority.

There being no further business, the meeting adjourned at 11:35 A.M.

HOUSE BILL 240: GA Appoint for District Court Vacancies.

2017-2018 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Rules and Operations of the Senate	Date:	April 26, 2018
Introduced by:	Reps. Burr, K. Hall, Saine, Bumgardner	Prepared by:	Bill Patterson
Analysis of:	Third Edition		Staff Attorney

OVERVIEW: House Bill 240 would require vacancies in the office of district judge to be filled by appointment of the General Assembly.

CURRENT LAW: Article IV, Section 10 of the North Carolina Constitution provides that vacancies in the office of district judge shall be filled for the unexpired term "in the manner provided by law." Pursuant to G.S. 7A-142, vacancies in the office of district judge are filled by appointment of the Governor. The bar of the judicial district in which the vacancy occurs is required to nominate five people who are residents of the judicial district and are duly authorized to practice law, unless it certifies that there were insufficient nominations to do so. The Governor must give "due consideration" to these nominees but is not required to appoint one of them. There currently is no time limit within which the district bar must submit nominations for the Governor's consideration.

BILL ANALYSIS: House Bill 240 would amend G.S. 7A-142 to require vacancies in the office of district judge to be filled by appointment of the General Assembly. The district bar would be required to submit its nominations to the General Assembly within 15 business days after the vacancy occurs. The General Assembly would not be bound by the district bar's nominations.

If the vacancy occurs when the General Assembly is in session, the appointment would be made by enactment of a bill stating the name of the person appointed, the office to which the appointment is being made, the effective date of the appointment, the date of expiration of the term, and the county of residence of the appointee.

If the vacancy occurs when the General Assembly is not in session, then the Speaker of the House of Representatives and the President Pro Tempore of the Senate could either:

1. Leave the vacancy unfilled until the reconvening of the General Assembly; or
2. Jointly submit the name of a nominee to the Governor, after receiving the district bar's nominations.

In the latter event, the Governor would be required to appoint the nominee within 10 days. The Governor's failure to act within this allotted time would be deemed to be approval of the nominee, who would be eligible to enter office in the same manner as if the Governor had appointed the nominee.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act would be effective when it becomes law.

HOUSE BILL 241: Special Sup. Ct. Judgeship Appointed by GA.

2017-2018 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Rules and Operations of the Senate	Date:	April 26, 2018
Introduced by:	Reps. Burr, K. Hall, Saine, Bumgardner	Prepared by:	Bill Patterson
Analysis of:	First Edition		Staff Attorney

OVERVIEW: House Bill 241 would allow the General Assembly to fill vacancies occurring in a special superior court judgeship for those judges holding such office on or after January 1, 2017, eliminate the Governor's role in nominating a person to be confirmed by the General Assembly and in appointing the confirmed nominee, and repeal obsolete provisions relating to prior gubernatorial appointments.

CURRENT LAW: Article IV, Section 9 of the North Carolina Constitution states: "[t]he General Assembly may provide by general law for the selection or appointment of special or emergency Superior Court Judges not selected for a particular judicial district."

Pursuant to G.S. 7A-45.1, upon the retirement, resignation, removal from office, death, or expiration of the term of any special superior court judge, the Governor is required to submit the name of a nominee for that judgeship to the General Assembly for confirmation by ratified joint resolution. Upon confirmation, the Governor appoints the confirmed nominee to serve a full five-year term as special superior court judge. If the joint resolution confirming the nominee fails any reading, then the Governor has 45 days within which to submit the name of a different nominee for confirmation.

If the Governor fails to submit the name of an initial nominee within 90 days of the occurrence of the vacancy or expiration of the term, or fails to submit the name of a different nominee within 45 days after failure of any reading of a joint resolution confirming a nominee, then the President Pro Tempore of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives are required jointly to submit the name of a nominee to be confirmed by the General Assembly by enactment of a bill stating the name of the person being appointed, the office to which the appointment is being made, and the county of residence of the appointee.

BILL ANALYSIS: For a vacancy occurring in a special superior court judgeship for judges holding this office on or after January 1, 2017, House Bill 241 would eliminate the role of the Governor in nominating a person for confirmation and in appointing the confirmed nominee to fill the vacancy. The bill would authorize the General Assembly to appoint a person to serve a full five-year term as special superior court judge upon expiration of the term of the incumbent judge or upon the occurrence of a vacancy in the judgeship for any reason, including retirement, resignation, removal from office, or death of the incumbent judge. The appointment would be made by the enactment of a bill stating the name of the person being appointed, the office to which the appointment is being made, and the county of residence of the appointee.

House Bill 241 would also remove obsolete references to previous gubernatorial appointments of special superior court judge dating back to 1993.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act is effective when it becomes law.
