(1933, c. 115, s. 2; 1977, c. 378; 1995, c. 509, s. 101; 2001-424, s. 14F.1.)

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 2001-424, s. 1.2, provides: "This act shall be known as the 'Current Operations and Capital Improvements Appropriations Act of 2001'."

.Session Laws 2001-424, s. 36.5 is a severability clause.

2001-424, s. 14F.1, effective July 1, 2001, substituted "two thousand three hundred fifty (2,350)" for "five thousand (5,000)" in the first paragraph and changed the number of North Carolina Manuals provided to the members of the General Assembly from 2 each to 1 each.

§ 147-54.1. Division of Publications; duties.

The Secretary of State is authorized to set up a division to be designated as the Division of Publications and to appoint a director thereof who shall be known as the Director of Publications. This Division shall publish the North Carolina Manual, Directory, Index of Local Legislation and such other publications as may be useful to the members and committees of the General Assembly and other officials of the State and of the various counties and cities. Unless otherwise required by law, the Secretary may publish electronically information permitted or required by this section. The Secretary may sell these publications at such prices as the Secretary deems reasonable; the proceeds of sale shall be paid into the State treasury.

The Division shall also perform all such other duties as may be assigned by the Secretary of State. (1915, c. 202, ss. 1, 2; C.S., ss. 6147, 6148; 1939, c. 316; 1971, c. 685, s. 3; 1977, c. 802, s. 50.31; 1999-260, s. 2.)

§ 147-54.3. Land records management program.

(a) The Secretary of State shall administer a land records management program for the purposes (i) of advising registers of deeds, local tax officials, and local planning officials about sound management practices, and (ii) of establishing greater uniformity in local land records systems. The management program shall consist of the activities provided for in subsections (b) through (e) of this section, and other related activities essential to the effective conduct of the management program.

(b) The Secretary of State, in cooperation with the Secretary of Cultural Resources and in accordance with G.S. 121-5(c) and G.S. 132-8.1, shall establish minimum standards and provide advice and technical assistance to local governments in implementing and maintaining minimum standards with regard to the following aspects of land records management:

- (1) Uniform indexing of land records;

(2) Uniform recording and indexing procedures for maps, plats and condominiums; and

(3) Security and reproduction of land records.

(b1) The Department of Secretary of State, in cooperation with the North Carolina Association of Registers of Deeds, Inc., and the Real Property Section of the North Carolina Bar Association, shall adopt, pursuant to Chapter 150B of the General Statutes, rules specifying the minimum indexing standards established pursuant to subsection (b) of this section and procedures for complying with those minimum standards in land records management. A copy of the standards adopted shall be posted in the office of the register of deeds in each county of the State.

(c) The Secretary of State shall conduct a program for the preparation of county base maps pursuant to standards prepared by the Secretary.

(c1) The Secretary of State, shall, in cooperation with the Secretary of Revenue, conduct a program for the preparation of county cadastral maps pursuant to standards prepared by the Secretary of State.

(d) Upon the joint request of any board of county commissioners and the register of deeds and subject to available resources of personnel and funds, the Secretary shall make a management study of the office of register of deeds, using assistance from the Office of State Personnel. At the conclusion of the study, the Secretary shall make nonbinding recommendations to the board, the register of deeds, and to the General Assembly.

(d1) The Secretary of State shall make comparative salary studies periodically of all registers of deeds offices and at the conclusion of each study the Secretary of State shall present his written findings and shall make recommendations to the board of county commissioners and register of deeds of each county.

(e) The Secretary of State, in cooperation with the Secretary of Cultural Resources and in accordance with G.S. 121-5(c) and G.S. 132-8.1, shall undertake research and provide advice and technical assistance to local governments on the following aspects of land records management:

- (1) Centralized recording systems;
- (2) Filming, filing, and recording techniques and equipment;
- (3) Computerized land records systems; and
- (4) Storage and retrieval of land records.

(f) An advisory committee on land records is created to assist the Secretary in administering the land records management program. The Secretary of State shall appoint 12 members to the committee; one member shall be appointed from each of the organizations listed below from persons nominated by the organization:

- (1) The North Carolina Association of Assessing Officers;
- (2) The North Carolina Section of the American Society of Photogrammetry;
- (3) The North Carolina Chapter of the American Institute of Planners;
- (4) The North Carolina Section of the American Society of Civil Engineers;
- (5) The North Carolina Property Mappers' Association;
- (6) The North Carolina Association of Registers of Deeds;
- (7) The North Carolina Bar Association;
- (8) The North Carolina Society of Land Surveyors; and
- (9) The North Carolina Association of County Commissioners.

In addition, three members from the public at large shall be appointed. The members of the committee shall be appointed for four-year terms, except that the initial terms for members listed in positions (1) through (4) above and for two of the members-at-large shall be two years; thereafter all appointments shall be for four years. The Secretary of State shall appoint the chairman, and the committee shall meet at the call of the chairman. The Secretary of State in making the appointments shall try to achieve geographical and population balance on the advisory committee; one third of the appointments shall be persons from the most populous counties in the State containing approximately one third of the State's population, one third from the least populous counties containing approximately one third of the State's population, and one third shall be from the remaining moderately populous counties containing approximately one third of the State's population. Each organization shall nominate one nominee each from the more populous, moderately populous, and less populous counties of the State. The members of the committee shall receive per diem and subsistence and travel allowances as provided in G.S. 138-5. (1977, c. 771, s. 4; c. 932, s. 1; 1985, c. 479, s. 165(d), (e); 1987, c. 738, s. 158(a); 1989, c. 523, s. 8; c. 727, ss. 169, 218(116a); c. 751, s. 14; 1991, c. 689, ss. 181(b), 181(c); c. 697, s. 1; 1993, c. 258, s. 1.)

Editor's Note. — This section was formerly § 143-345.6. It was recodified as § 147-54.3 by Session Laws 1991, c. 689, s. 181(b).

§ 147-54.4. (For grandfather provision, see the Editor's Note) Certification of local government property mappers.

- (a) Definitions. — The following definitions apply in this section:
- (1) Department. — The Department of the Secretary of State.
  - (2) Large-scale. — A scale that uses an inch to represent no more than 400 feet.
  - (3) Local government. — A county as defined in G.S. 153A-10 and a city as defined in G.S. 160A-1.
  - (4) Property mapper. — A person who is employed by a local government and is responsible for creating and maintaining large-scale cadastral maps.
- (b) Certification. — The Department shall establish a certification program for property mappers. The purpose of the program is to protect and enhance the State's investment in local government large-scale cadastral maps. To be certified as a property mapper, an applicant must meet the following minimum requirements and the additional requirements set by the Department:
- (1) Be at least 18 years old.
  - (2) Hold a high school diploma or certificate of equivalency.
  - (3) Achieve a passing score in courses of instruction approved by the Department covering the following topics:
    - a. The principles and techniques of property mapping.
    - b. The laws of North Carolina governing the listing, appraisal, and assessment of real property for taxation.

The Department shall establish requirements for certification as a property mapper that are in addition to these minimum requirements. The additional requirements shall ensure that an applicant who is certified as a property mapper has the minimum skills necessary to create and maintain large-scale cadastral maps. In establishing these additional requirements, the Department may consult with the advisory committee on land records created by G.S. 147-54.3(f), the North Carolina Property Mappers' Association, and other relevant professional groups. The additional requirements may include mapping experience and a passing score on an examination administered by the Department.

(c) Renewal. — A certification as a property mapper must be renewed every two years. Attendance of 24 hours of continuing education approved by the Department is a condition of renewal of a certification. The Department shall publish a list of courses acceptable for meeting this continuing education requirement.

(d) Application and Fees. — An applicant for certification as a property mapper or renewal of certification as a property mapper must file an application with the Department. The applicant must submit a fee of twenty dollars ($20.00) with the application. Fees collected under this section shall be credited to the General Fund.

(e) Rules. — The Department may adopt rules to implement this section. Chapter 150B of the General Statutes governs the adoption of rules by the Department. (1993, c. 326, s. 1.)

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1993, c. 326, which enacted this section, in s. 2 provides: "A person who has attained certification as a property mapper through the North Carolina Property Mappers' Association as of January 1, 1994, may apply to the Department of the Secretary of State at any time before July 1, 1994, for certification as a property mapper without meeting the requirements of G.S. 147-54.4, as enacted by this act. Upon application and payment of the fee required by G.S. 147-54.4, as enacted by this act, the person shall be certified by the Department as a property mapper".

§ 147-54.5. Investor Protection and Education Trust Fund; administration; limitations on use of the Fund.

(a) The Investor Protection and Education Trust Fund created in the Department of the Secretary of State as an expendable trust account to be used by the Secretary of State only for the purposes set forth in this section.

(b) The proceeds of the Investor Protection and Education Trust Fund shall be used by the Secretary of State to provide investor protection and education to the general public and to potential securities investors in the State through:

- (1) The use of the media, including television and radio public service announcements and printed materials; and
- (2) The sponsorship of educational seminars, whether live, recorded, or through other electronic means.

(c) The proceeds of the Investor Protection and Education Trust Fund shall not be used for:

- (1) Travel expenses of the Secretary of State or staff of the Department of the Secretary of State, unless those expenses are directly related to specific investor protection and education activities performed in accordance with this section.
- (2) General operating expenses of the Department of the Secretary of State, or to supplement General Fund appropriations to the Department of the Secretary of State for other than investor education and protection activities.
- (3) Promoting the Secretary of State or the Department of the Secretary of State.

(d) Expenditures from the Investor Protection and Education Trust Fund shall be made in compliance with State purchasing and contracting requirements for competitive bidding in accordance with the provisions of Article 3 of Chapter 143 of the General Statutes.

(e) Revenues derived from consent orders resulting from negotiated settlements of securities investigations by the Secretary of State shall be credited to the Fund. The State Treasurer shall invest the assets of the Fund according to law. Any interest or other investment income earned by the Investor Protection and Education Trust Fund shall remain in the Fund. The balance of the Investor Protection and Education Trust Fund at the end of each fiscal year shall not revert to the General Fund.

(f) Beginning January 1, 1997, the Department of the Secretary of State shall report annually to the General Assembly's Fiscal Research Division and to the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations on the expenditures from the Investor Protection and Education Trust Fund and on the effectiveness of investor awareness education efforts of the Department of the Secretary of State. (1996, 2nd Ex. Sess., c. 18, s. 13.)

§ 147-54.6. International relations assistance.

(a) The Secretary of State may offer direct and indirect assistance in matters relating to international relations and protocol to other governmental agencies and units of the State of North Carolina. The assistance may be provided upon request of the intended recipient when resources are available for these purposes.

(b) The Secretary of State, on behalf of the State, may accept gifts, donations, bequests, or other forms of voluntary contributions, apply for grants from public and private sources, and may expend funds received under this subsection for the purpose of promoting international relations and hosting foreign dignitaries and leaders in North Carolina. All funds and gifts received pursuant to this subsection shall be subject to audit by the Office of the State Auditor and all funds shall be expended in conformity with the Executive Budget Act and shall become the property of the State. (1999-260, s. 3.)

Editor's Note. — This section was enacted as § 147-54.5 and was redesignated as § 147-54.6 at the direction of the Revisor of Statutes.

Session Laws 1999-260, s. 5, provides that within available appropriated funds, the Secretary of State shall provide information related to the existence of memoranda of understanding and agreements between state agencies and foreign governments obtained pursuant to this act to the Joint Committee on Governmental Operations by March 31, 2000.

§ 147-54.7: Reserved for future codification purposes.

Constitutional Amendments Publication Commission.

§ 147-54.8. Constitutional Amendments Publication Commission.

(a) There is established within the Department of the Secretary of State the Constitutional Amendments Publication Commission (hereinafter "Commission").

(b) The Commission shall consist of three members who shall serve ex officio as follows: The Secretary of State, the Attorney General, and the Legislative Services Officer. (1983, c. 844, s. 1.)

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1983, c. 844, s. 2, provided: "Nothing contained in this act shall affect the validity of the voting on any proposed constitutional amendment, including the exercise of any powers by the Constitutional Amendments Publication Commission."

§ 147-54.9. Officers; meetings; quorum.

(a) The Secretary of State shall be the Chairman of the Commission.

(b) A quorum shall consist of all three members.

(c) The Commission shall meet on the call of the Chairman or any two members. (1983, c. 844, s. 1.)

§ 147-54.10. Powers.

At least 60 days before an election in which a proposed amendment to the Constitution, or a revised or new Constitution, is to be voted on, the Commission shall prepare an explanation of the amendment, revision, or new Constitution in simple and commonly used language.

The summary prepared by the Commission shall be printed by the Secretary of State, in a quantity determined by the Secretary of State. A copy shall be sent along with a news release to each county board of elections, and a copy shall be available to any registered voter or representative of the print or broadcast media making request to the Secretary of State. The Secretary of State may make copies available in such additional manner as he may determine. (1983, c. 844, s. 1.)

ARTICLE 4B.

Business License Information Office.

§ 147-54.11. Purpose.

It is the purpose of this Article to provide a convenient, accessible, and timely one-stop system for the business community to acquire and maintain the necessary State licenses to conduct business. Use of this one-stop system by an applicant is optional. An applicant may deal directly with the appropriate State licensing agency if he so prefers. To accomplish this goal, a business license information office is established to provide information to the business community on all State licensing and regulatory requirements and, to the extent feasible, to provide local and federal information on the same regulated activities. In addition to providing information on State licensing requirements, the business license information office shall develop an operating plan for an automated master application system, shall determine the software and hardware needs of the system, shall determine the staffing levels required for the system, and shall determine the space requirements for the office and automated system.

It is the intent of the General Assembly that the authority for determining whether a requested license shall be issued shall remain with the agency legally authorized to issue the license. (1987, c. 808, s. 1.)

§ 147-54.12. Definitions.

The following definitions apply in this Article:

- (1) "Director" means the director of the Business License Information Office.
- (2) "Environmental license" means any certificate, permit, or other approval by whatever name called, pertaining to a regulatory or management program related to the protection, conservation, or use of or interference with the resources of land, air, or water, which is required to be obtained from a State agency or instrumentality, including, but not limited to, any certificate, permit, or other approval by whatever name called, pertaining to a pollution control rule or standard established by the Commission for Health Services.
- (3) "License" means any certificate, permit, or other evidence, by whatever name called, of a right or privilege to engage in any activity, except occupational licenses and licenses issued under Chapter 20 of the General Statutes.

- (4) "Occupational license" means any certificate, permit, or other evidence, by whatever name called, of a right or privilege to engage in a profession, occupation, or field of endeavor that is issued by any occupational licensing agency.
- (5) "Occupational licensing agency" means any board, commission, committee, or other agency of the State that is established for the primary purpose of regulating the admission or conduct of persons in a particular profession, occupation, or field of endeavor, and is authorized to issue and revoke licenses. The term does not include a State agency or department that issues permits or licenses as only a part of its regular function.
- (6) "Office" means the Business License Information Office.
- (7) "Regulatory" means all licensing and other governmental or statutory requirements pertaining to business or professional activities.
- (8) "Secretary" means the Secretary of State. (1987, c. 808, s. 1; 1993, c. 513, s. 10.)

§ 147-54.13. Business License Information Office established; appointment of director.

(a) There is established within the Department of the Secretary of State the Business License Information Office. The Office shall be under the direction and supervision of a full-time salaried State employee who shall be designated as the Director. The Director shall be appointed by the Secretary of State and shall receive a salary commensurate with State government pay schedules for the duties of this office, or such salary to be set by the State Personnel Board pursuant to G.S. 126-4. Necessary travel allowance or reimbursement for expenses shall be authorized for the Director in accordance with G.S. 138-6. Sufficient staff shall be provided under the direction of the Secretary.

(b) The Office shall make recommendations to agencies and the General Assembly for eliminating, consolidating, simplifying, or expediting licenses, or otherwise improving licensing procedures affecting business undertakings.

(c) The Office shall promulgate and adopt rules and forms necessary to carry out the purposes of this Article. (1987, c. 808, s. 1.)

§ 147-54.14. Clearinghouse functions.

The Office shall be a clearinghouse for State business license information and shall perform the following duties:

- (1) Establish a license information service detailing requirements for establishing and engaging in business in the State;
- (2) Provide the most recent forms and information sheets for all State business licenses; and
- (3) Prepare, publish, and distribute a complete directory of all State licenses required to do business in North Carolina. (1987, c. 808, s. 1.)

§ 147-54.15. License coordination and assistance to applicants.

Upon request, the Office shall assist a person as provided below:

- (1) Identify the type and source of licenses that may be required and the potential difficulties in obtaining the licenses based on an informal review of a potential applicant's business at an early stage in its planning. Information provided by the Office is for guidance purposes only and may not be asserted by an applicant as a waiver or release from any license requirement. However, an applicant who uses the services of the Office as provided in this subdivision, and who receives a written statement identifying required State business licenses relating to a specific business activity, may not be assessed a penalty for failure to obtain any State business license which was not identified, provided that the applicant submits an application for each such license within sixty (60) days after written notification by the Office or the agency responsible for issuing the license;

- (2) Arrange an informal conference between the person and the appropriate agency to clarify licensing requirements or standards, if necessary;
- (3) Assist in preparing the appropriate application and supplemental forms;
- (4) Monitor the license review process to determine the status of a particular license. If there is a delay in the review process, the Office may demand to know the reasons for the delay, the action required to end the delay, and shall provide this information to the applicant. The Office may assist the applicant in resolving a dispute with an agency during the application process. If a request for a license is refused, the Office may explain the recourse available to the person under the Administrative Procedure Act. (1987, c. 808, s. 1; 1989, c. 22.)

§ 147-54.16. Master application system.

The Office shall implement and administer an automated master application system. The Office shall determine the licenses appropriate for inclusion in the master application system. The Office may not include environmental licenses in the master application system.

The appropriate agency shall continue to determine whether a requested license shall be issued and to issue the license if the application is approved by the agency. An applicant who receives written notification by the Office that a license requested through the Office is being issued by the appropriate agency may proceed with the licensed business activity without having physical possession of the issued license.

The Office shall collect from each applicant the total amount of the fees for the licenses applied for through the Office. The Office is the repository for an original signed application form submitted through the Office for a license that is included in the master application system. If, based on the information supplied by the applicant to the Office, the Office fails to make application for a required license, and the applicant did not know such a license was required, the applicant shall not be liable for any civil or criminal penalties or disciplinary action for failure to have the license. If the failure to obtain the license is reported to the applicant by either the Office or the agency issuing the license, the applicant must make application within 30 days or be subject to the penalties or disciplinary action. (1987, c. 808, s. 1; 1993, c. 561, s. 41(a).)

§ 147-54.17. License coordinator designated in all State agencies.

(a) Each agency shall cooperate fully with the Office in providing information on the licenses and regulatory requirements of the agency, in coordinating conferences with applicants to clarify license and regulatory requirements, and in developing a plan for an automated master application system.

(b) Each agency shall designate a business license coordinator. The coordinator shall have the following responsibilities:

- (1) To provide to the Office the most recent application and supplemental forms required for each license issued by the agency, the most recent information available on existing and proposed agency rules, the most recent information on changes or proposed changes in license requirements or agency rules and how those changes will affect the business community, and agency publications that would be of aid or interest to the business community;
- (2) To work with the Office in scheduling conferences for applicants as provided under G.S. 147-54.15;
- (3) To determine, upon request of an applicant or the Office, the status of a license application or renewal, the reason for any delay in the license review process, and the action needed to end the delay; and to notify the applicant or Office, as appropriate, of those findings;
- (4) To work with the Office or applicant, upon request, to resolve any dispute that may arise between the agency and the applicant during the review process;
- (5) To review agency regulatory and license requirements and to provide a written report to the Office that identifies the regulatory and licensing requirements that affect the business community; indicates which, if any, requirements should be eliminated, modified, or consolidated with other requirements; and explains the need for continuing those requirements not recommended for elimination. (1987, c. 808, s. 1.)

§ 147-54.18. Use of Business License Information Office optional.

The services offered to applicants by the Business License Information Office are optional. An applicant may deal directly with the licensing agency in obtaining information, assistance, or in applying for a license if the applicant so prefers. (1987, c. 808, s. 1.)

§ 147-54.19. Report by State agencies.

Each State agency issuing licenses shall, on a quarterly basis, report to the Office the number of licenses issued during the previous quarter. The report shall be broken down by category, and shall be made on a form prescribed and furnished by the Secretary of State. (1993, c. 289, s. 1.)

ARTICLE 5A.

Auditor.

§ 147-64.1. Salary of State Auditor.

(a) The salary of the State Auditor shall be set by the General Assembly in the Current Operations Appropriations Act.

(b) In addition to the salary set by the General Assembly in the Current Operations Appropriations Act, longevity pay shall be paid on the same basis as is provided to employees of the State who are subject to the State Personnel Act. (1983, c. 761, s. 214; c. 913, s. 2; 1983 (Reg. Sess., 1984), c. 1034, s. 164; 1987, c. 738, s. 32(b).)

§ 147-64.2. Legislative policy and intent.

The General Assembly is ultimately responsible for authorizing the expenditure of public moneys, designating the sources from which moneys may be collected, and shaping the administrative structure to perform the work of government throughout the State, and is held finally accountable for how the funds are spent and what is accomplished with them. The legislature should, therefore, provide the basic direction for audits of State agencies.

In the interest of reducing audit overlap and expense at all levels of government, the General Assembly and the Auditor should promote, to the extent possible, coordinated nonduplicating audits of public programs and activities of all governmental levels throughout the State.

It is the intent of this Article that all State agencies, and entities supported, partially or entirely, by public funds be subject to audit under the policy guidance of the Auditor. Such audits shall be made to assist in furnishing the General Assembly, the Governor, the executive departments and agencies of the State, the governing bodies and executive departments of the political subdivisions of the State, and the public in general with an independent evaluation of public program performance. (1983, c. 913, s. 2.)

§ 147-64.3. Legislative and management control system.

It is the intent of this Article that the State Auditor shall perform or coordinate all audit functions for State government. As appropriate, all State agencies are encouraged to establish, maintain, and use effective systems of management control. The adequacy of these control systems will be reviewed by the Auditor. The Auditor may, at his discretion, use such reviews to limit his audit activity or to suggest guidelines, make recommendations, and provide assistance where necessary within the resources available. (1983, c. 913, s. 2.)

§ 147-64.4. Definitions.

The words and phrases used in this Article have the following meanings:

- (1) "Audit". — An independent review or examination of government organizations, programs, activities, and functions. The purpose of an audit is to help ensure full accountability and assist government officials and employees in carrying out their responsibilities. The elements of such an audit are:

- a. Financial and compliance: to determine whether financial operations are properly conducted, whether the financial reports of an audited entity are presented fairly, and whether the entity has complied with applicable laws and regulations; and,
  - b. Economy and efficiency: to determine whether the entity is managing or utilizing its resources (such as personnel and property) in an economical and efficient manner and the causes of any inefficiencies or uneconomical practices, including inadequacies in laws and regulations, management information systems, administrative policies and procedures, or organizational structures; and,
  - c. Program results: to determine whether the desired results or benefits are being achieved, whether the objectives established by the General Assembly or other authorizing body are being met, and whether the agency has considered alternatives which might yield desired results at lower costs.
  - d. An audit may include all three elements or only one or two. It is not intended or desirable that every audit include all three. Economy and efficiency and program result audits should be selected when their use will meet the needs of expected users of audit results.
- (2) "Accounting system". — The total structure of records and procedures which discover, record, classify, and report information on the financial position and operating results of a governmental unit or any of its funds, balanced account groups, and organizational components.
  - (3) "Federal agency". — Any department, agency, or instrumentality of the federal government and any federally owned or controlled corporation.
  - (4) "State agency". — Any department, institution, board, commission, committee, division, bureau, officer, official or any other entity for which the State has oversight responsibility, including but not limited to, any university, mental or specialty hospital, community college, or clerk of court. (1983, c. 913, s. 2; 1987, c. 564, s. 31.)

§ 147-64.5. Cooperation with Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations and other governmental bodies.

(a) Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations. — The Auditor shall furnish copies of any and all audits only when requested by the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations. The copies shall be in written or electronic form, as requested. Accordingly, the Auditor shall, upon request by the chairmen, appear before the Commission to present findings and answer questions concerning the results of these audits. The Commission is hereby authorized to use these audit findings in its inquiries concerning the operations of State agencies and is empowered to require agency heads to advise the Commission of actions taken or to be taken on any recommendations made in the report or explain the reasons for not taking action.

(b) Requests for Auditor Assistance. — Committees of the General Assembly, the Governor, and other State officials may make written requests that the Auditor undertake, to the extent deemed practicable and within the resources provided, a specific audit or investigation; provide technical assistance and advice; and provide recommendations on management systems, finance, accounting, auditing, and other areas of management interest. The Auditor may request the advice of the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations in prioritizing these requests and in determining whether the requests are practicable and can be undertaken within the resources provided.

(c) Cooperation with Other Governmental Bodies. — The Auditor shall cooperate, act, and function with other audit or evaluation organizations in the State, with appropriate councils or committees of other states, with governing bodies of the political subdivisions of the State, and with federal agencies in an effort to maximize the extent of intergovernmental audit coordination and thereby avoid unnecessary duplication and expense of audit effort. Nothing in this Article is intended nor shall it be construed as giving the Auditor control over the internal auditors of any agency. (1983, c. 913, s. 2; 1997-443, s. 25; 2001-424, s. 9.1(b).)

Session Laws 2001-424, s. 36.5 is a severability clause.

Effect of Amendments. — Session Laws 2001-424, s. 9.1(b), effective July 1, 2001, in subsection (a), inserted "only when" in the first sentence and added the second sentence.

§ 147-64.6. Duties and responsibilities.

(a) It is the policy of the General Assembly to provide for the auditing of State agencies by the impartial, independent State Auditor.

(b) The duties of the Auditor are independently to examine into and make findings of fact on whether State agencies:

- (1) Have established adequate operating and administrative procedures and practices; systems of accounting, reporting and auditing; and other necessary elements of legislative or management control.
- (2) Are providing financial and other reports which disclose fairly, consistently, fully, and promptly all information needed to show the nature and scope of programs and activities and have established bases for evaluating the results of such programs and operations.
- (3) Are promptly collecting, depositing, and properly accounting for all revenues and receipts arising from their activities.
- (4) Are conducting programs and activities and expending funds made available in a faithful, efficient, and economical manner in compliance with and in furtherance of applicable laws and regulations of the State, and, if applicable, federal law and regulation.
- (5) Are determining that the authorized activities or programs effectively serve the intent and purpose of the General Assembly and, if applicable, federal law and regulation.

(c) The Auditor shall be responsible for the following acts and activities:

- (1) Audits made or caused to be made by the Auditor shall be conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards as prescribed by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, the United States General Accounting Office, or other professionally recognized accounting standards-setting bodies.
- (2) Financial and compliance audits may be made at the discretion of the Auditor without advance notice to the organization being audited. Audits of economy and efficiency and program results shall be discussed in advance with the prospective auditee unless an unannounced visit is essential to the audit.
- (3) The Auditor, on his own initiative and as often as he deems necessary, or as requested by the Governor or the General Assembly, shall, to the extent deemed practicable and consistent with his overall responsibility as contained in this act, make or cause to be made audits of all or any part of the activities of the State agencies.

- (4) The Auditor, at his own discretion, may, in selecting audit areas and in evaluating current audit activity, consider and utilize, in whole or in part, the relevant audit coverage and applicable reports of the audit staffs of the various State agencies, independent contractors, and federal agencies. He shall coordinate, to the extent deemed practicable, the auditing conducted within the State to meet the needs of all governmental bodies.
- (5) The Auditor is authorized to contract with federal audit agencies, or any governmental agency, on a cost reimbursable basis, for the Auditor to perform audits of federal grants and programs administered by the State Departments and institutions in accordance with agreements negotiated between the Auditor and the contracting federal audit agencies or any governmental agency. In instances where the grantee State agency shall subgrant these federal funds to local governments, regional councils of government and other local groups or private or semiprivate institutions or agencies, the Auditor shall have the authority to examine the books and records of these subgrantees to the extent necessary to determine eligibility and proper use in accordance with State and federal laws and regulations.

The Auditor shall charge and collect from the contracting federal audit agencies, or any governmental agencies, the actual cost of all the audits of the grants and programs contracted by him to do. Amounts collected under these arrangements shall be deposited in the State Treasury and be budgeted in the Department of State Auditor and shall be available to hire sufficient personnel to perform these contracted audits and to pay for related travel, supplies and other necessary expenses.
- (6) The Auditor is authorized and directed in his reports of audits or reports of special investigations to make any comments, suggestions, or recommendations he deems appropriate concerning any aspect of such agency's activities and operations.
- (7) The Auditor shall charge and collect from each examining and licensing board the actual cost of each audit of such board. Costs collected under this subdivision shall be based on the actual expense incurred by the Auditor's office in making such audit and the affected agency shall be entitled to an itemized statement of such costs. Amounts collected under this subdivision shall be deposited into the general fund as nontax revenue.
- (8) The Auditor shall examine as often as may be deemed necessary the accounts kept by the Treasurer, and if he discovers any irregularity or deficiency therein, unless the same be rectified or explained to his satisfaction, report the same forthwith in writing to the General Assembly, with copy of such report to the Governor and Attorney General. In addition to regular audits, the Auditor shall check the treasury records at the time a Treasurer assumes office (not to succeed himself), and therein charge him with the balance in the treasury, and shall check the Treasurer's records at the time he leaves office to determine that the accounts are in order.
- (9) The Auditor may examine the accounts and records of any bank or financial institution relating to transactions with the State Treasurer, or with any State agency, or he may require banks doing business with the State to furnish him information relating to transactions with the State or State agencies.
- (10) The Auditor may, as often as he deems advisable, conduct a detailed review of the bookkeeping and accounting systems in use in the various State agencies which are supported partially or entirely from State funds. Such examinations will be for the purpose of evaluating the adequacy of systems in use by these agencies and institutions. In instances where the Auditor determines that existing systems are outmoded, inefficient, or otherwise inadequate, he shall recommend changes to the State Controller. The State Controller shall prescribe and supervise the installation of such changes, as provided in G.S. 143B-426.39(2).

- (11) The Auditor shall, through appropriate tests, satisfy himself concerning the propriety of the data presented in the Comprehensive Annual Financial Report and shall express the appropriate auditor's opinion in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards.
- (12) The Auditor shall provide a report to the Governor and Attorney General, and other appropriate officials, of such facts as are in his possession which pertain to the apparent violation of penal statutes or apparent instances of malfeasance, misfeasance, or nonfeasance by an officer or employee.
- (13) At the conclusion of an audit, the Auditor or his designated representative shall discuss the audit with the official whose office is subject to audit and submit necessary underlying facts developed for all findings and recommendations which may be included in the audit report. On audits of economy and efficiency and program results, the auditee's written response shall be included in the final report if received within 30 days from receipt of the draft report.
- (14) The Auditor shall notify the General Assembly, the Governor, the Chief Executive Officer of each agency audited, and other persons as the Auditor deems appropriate that an audit report has been published, its subject and title, and the locations, including State libraries, at which the report is available. The Auditor shall then distribute copies of the report only to those who request a report. The copies shall be in written or electronic form, as requested. He shall also file a copy of the audit report in the Auditor's office, which will be a permanent public record; Provided, nothing in this subsection shall be construed as authorizing or permitting the publication of information whose disclosure is otherwise prohibited by law.
- (15) It is not the intent of the audit function, nor shall it be so construed, to infringe upon or deprive the General Assembly and the executive or judicial branches of State government of any rights, powers, or duties vested in or imposed upon them by statute or the Constitution.
- (16) The Auditor shall be responsible for receiving reports of allegations of the improper governmental activities set forth in G.S. 126-84. The Auditor shall provide a telephone hotline to receive such allegations and informant may choose whether to remain anonymous. The Auditor shall implement the necessary policies and procedures to investigate hotline allegations and recommend appropriate action. When the allegation involves issues of substantial and specific danger to the public health and safety, the Auditor shall notify the appropriate agency immediately. In addition, the Auditor shall publicize the hotline number periodically and shall report findings to the agencies involved.

All records maintained by the State Auditor which involve unsubstantiated allegations of improper governmental activities set forth in G.S. 126-84 shall be destroyed within four years from the date such allegation was received.
- (17) The Auditor or the Auditor's designee, in conjunction with the State Controller and the State Budget Officer or their designees, shall handle the resolution of fee disputes between the Office of Information Technology Services and the State agencies receiving information technology services from the Office.

(18) The Auditor shall, after consultation and in coordination with the State Chief Information Officer, assess, confirm, and report on the security practices of information technology systems. If an agency has adopted standards pursuant to G.S. 147-33.82(d)(1) or (2), the audit shall be in accordance with those standards. The Auditor's assessment of information security practices shall include an assessment of network vulnerability. The Auditor may conduct network penetration or any similar procedure as the Auditor may deem necessary. The Auditor may investigate reported information technology security breaches, cyber attacks, and cyber fraud in State government. The Auditor shall issue public reports on the general results of the reviews undertaken pursuant to this subdivision but may provide agencies with detailed reports of the security issues identified pursuant to this subdivision which shall not be disclosed as provided in G.S. 132-6.1(c). For the purposes of this subdivision only, the Auditor is exempt from the provisions of Article 3 of Chapter 143 of the General Statutes in retaining contractors.

(d) Reports and Work Papers. — The Auditor shall maintain for 10 years a complete file of all audit reports and reports of other examinations, investigations, surveys, and reviews issued under his authority. Audit work papers and other evidence and related supportive material directly pertaining to the work of his office shall be retained according to an agreement between the Auditor and State Archives. To promote intergovernmental cooperation and avoid unnecessary duplication of audit effort, and notwithstanding the provisions of G.S. 126-24, pertinent work papers and other supportive material related to issued audit reports may be, at the discretion of the Auditor and unless otherwise prohibited by law, made available for inspection by duly authorized representatives of the State and federal government who desire access to and inspection of such records in connection with some matter officially before them, including criminal investigations.

Except as provided above, or upon subpoena issued by a duly authorized court or court official, audit work papers shall be kept confidential. (1983, c. 913, s. 2; 1985 (Reg. Sess., 1986), c. 1024, ss. 24, 25; 1987, c. 738, s. 62; 1989, c. 236, s. 2; 1999-188, s. 2; 2001-142, s. 2; 2001-424, ss. 9.1(a), 15.2(c).)

Editor's Note. — The reference in subdivision (c)(3) of this section to "this act" refers to Session Laws 1983, c. 913, which enacted this Article and made other changes in the General Statutes.

Session Laws 1985 (Reg. Sess., 1986), c. 1024, s. 25 purported to rewrite "G.S. 147-64.6(11)." At the direction of the Revisor of Statutes, the amendment was effectuated in subdivision (c)(11).

Session Laws 2001-424, s. 1.2, provides: "This act shall be known as the 'Current Operations and Capital Improvements Appropriations Act of 2001'."

Session Laws 2001-424, s. 36.5 is a severability clause.

Effect of Amendments. — Session Laws 2001-142, s. 2, effective May 31, 2001, added subdivision (c)(17).

Session Laws 2001-424, s. 9.1(a), effective July 1, 2001, in subdivision (c)(12), substituted "a report" for "in a written statement" and inserted "of" preceding "such facts"; and in subdivision (c)(14), in the first sentence, substituted "notify" for "provide copies of each audit report to," added "that an audit report has been published, its subject and title, and the locations, including State libraries, at which the report is available" at the end of that sentence, and added the second and third sentences.

Session Laws 2001-424, s. 15.2(c), effective September 26, 2001, added subdivision (c)(18).

§ 147-64.6A. Audit of community colleges.

The State Auditor, within funds available to his Department, shall audit the Community Colleges and Technical Institutes so that all 58 institutions are audited no less than once every five years. (1987, c. 830, s. 71.)

- (a) Access to Persons and Records. —
- (1) The Auditor and his authorized representatives shall have ready access to persons and may examine and copy all books, records, reports, vouchers, correspondence, files, personnel files, investments, and any other documentation of any State agency. The review of State tax returns shall be limited to matters of official business and the Auditor's report shall not violate the confidentiality provisions of tax laws.
  - (2) The Auditor and his duly authorized representatives shall have such access to persons, records, papers, reports, vouchers, correspondence, books, and any other documentation which is in the possession of any individual, private corporation, institution, association, board, or other organization which pertain to:
    - a. Amounts received pursuant to a grant or contract from the federal government, the State, or its political subdivisions.
    - b. Amounts received, disbursed, or otherwise handled on behalf of the federal government or the State. In order to determine that payments to providers of social and medical services are legal and proper, the providers of such services will give the Auditor, or his authorized representatives, access to the records of recipients who receive such services.
  - (3) The Auditor shall, for the purpose of examination and audit authorized by this act, have the authority, and will be provided ready access, to examine and inspect all property, equipment, and facilities in the possession of any State agency or any individual, private corporation, institution, association, board, or other organization which were furnished or otherwise provided through grant, contract, or any other type of funding by the State of North Carolina, or the federal government.
  - (4) All contracts or grants entered into by State agencies or political subdivisions shall include, as a necessary part, a clause providing access as intended by this section.
  - (5) The Auditor and his authorized agents are authorized to examine all books and accounts of any individual, firm, or corporation only insofar as they relate to transactions with any agency of the State.
- (b) Experts; Contracted Audits. —
- (1) The Auditor may obtain the services of independent public accountants, qualified management consultants, or other professional persons and experts as he deems necessary or desirable to carry out the duties and functions assigned under the act.
  - (2) No State agency may enter into any contract for auditing services which may impact on the State's comprehensive annual financial report without consultation with, and the prior written approval of, the Auditor, except in instances where audits are called for by the Governor under G.S. 143-3 and he shall so notify the Auditor. The Auditor shall prescribe policy and establish guidelines containing appropriate criteria for selection and use of independent public accountants, qualified management consultants, or other professional persons by State agencies and governing bodies to perform all or part of the audit function.
- (c) Authority to Administer Oaths, Subpoena Witnesses and Records, and Take Depositions. —
- (1) For the purposes of this Article the Auditor or his authorized representative shall have the power to subpoena witnesses, to take testimony under oath, to cause the deposition of witnesses (residing within or without the State) to be taken in a manner prescribed by law, and to assemble records and documents, by subpoena or otherwise. The subpoena power granted by this section may be exercised only at the specific written direction of the Auditor or his chief deputy.

- (2) In case any person shall refuse to obey a subpoena, the Auditor shall invoke the aid of any North Carolina court within the jurisdiction of which the investigation is carried on or where such person may be, in requiring the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, contracts, agreements, and other records. Such court may issue an order requiring such person to appear before the Auditor or officers designated by the Auditor, there to produce records, if so ordered, or to give testimony touching the matter under investigation or in question; and any failure to obey such order of the court may be punished by such court as a contempt thereof. (1983, c. 913, s. 2; 1999-188, s. 1.)

Editor's Note. — The references in subdivisions (a)(3) and (b)(1) of this section to “act” and “the act” refer to Session Laws 1983, c. 913, which enacted this Article and made other changes in the General Statutes.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL

Pursuant to § 147-64.13, the provisions of subdivision (a)(1) of this section supersede the provisions of § 126-24 to the extent they conflict. Specifically, the Auditor's power to examine documents in the course of an authorized audit includes the power to examine confidential employee personnel files relevant to that audit without the consent of the employee or his employer. See opinion of Attorney General to The Honorable Ralph Campbell, Jr., State Auditor, 1999 N.C.A.G. 8 (3/5/99).

§ 147-64.7A. Obstruction of audit.

Any person who shall willfully make or cause to be made to the State Auditor or his designated representatives any false, misleading, or unfounded report for the purpose of interfering with the performance of any audit, special review, or investigation, or to hinder or obstruct the State Auditor or the State Auditor's designated representatives in the performance of their duties, shall be guilty of a Class 2 misdemeanor. (1997-526, s. 1.)

§ 147-64.8. Independence.

The Auditor shall maintain independence in the performance of his authorized duties. Except as otherwise provided by law, neither the General Assembly nor the Governor nor any department or agency of the executive or judicial branches of State government shall have the authority to limit the scope, direction, or report of an audit undertaken by the Auditor. No State regulatory agency shall by any fiscal or administrative requirements attempt to limit the scope, direction, or report of an audit undertaken by the Auditor. (1983, c. 913, s. 2.)

§ 147-64.9. Rules and regulations.

The Auditor shall make and enforce such reasonable rules and regulations as are necessary for the operation of his office. The Auditor shall install an adequate accounting system for his office and shall keep or cause to be kept a complete, accurate, and adequate record of all fiscal transactions of his office. (1983, c. 913, s. 2.)

§ 147-64.10. Powers of appointment.

The Auditor may, subject to the provisions of the State Personnel Act, appoint all employees necessary to perform the duties and functions assigned to him by the provisions of this Article.

Except where otherwise provided in this Article, all powers and duties vested in the Auditor may be delegated by him to deputies, assistants, employees, or other auditors, consultants, professionals, and experts, whose services are obtained in accordance with the provisions of this act; but the Auditor shall retain responsibility for the powers and duties so delegated. (1983, c. 913, s. 2.)

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL

Delegation of Power to Attend Meetings.

— Those members of the Council of State who have statutory authority to delegate duties may, in conformity with such statutes, attend and vote at meetings of Boards of which they are ex officio members through delegates or designated subordinates. The remaining members of the Council of State may make similar delegations or designations where, in the member's judgment, other duties necessitate his absence and the statute creating his ex officio membership does not express or clearly imply an intent of the General Assembly that the powers of such membership be exercised personally. See opinion of Attorney General to the honorable James E. Long, Commissioner of Insurance, 55 N.C.A.G. 116 (1986).

§ 147-64.11. Review of office.

The Auditor may, on his own initiative and as often as he deems necessary, or as requested by the General Assembly, cause to be made a quality review audit of the operations of his office. Such a "peer review" shall be conducted in accordance with standards prescribed by the accounting profession. Upon the recommendation of the Advisory Budget Commission, the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations may contract with an independent public accountant, qualified management consultant, or other professional person to conduct a financial and compliance, economy and efficiency, and program result audit of the State Auditor. (1983, c. 913, s. 2.)

§ 147-64.12. Conflict of interest.

(a) To preserve the independence and objectivity of the audit function, the Auditor and his employees may not, unless otherwise expressly authorized by statute, serve in any capacity on an administrative board, commission, or agency of government of a political subdivision of the State or any other organization that, under the provisions of this act, they have the responsibility or authority to audit. Nor shall they have a material, direct or indirect financial, or other economic interest in the transactions of any State agency.

(b) The Auditor shall not conduct an audit on a program or activity for which he had management responsibility or in which he has been employed during the preceding two years. The General Assembly shall otherwise provide for the necessary audit of programs and activities within the meaning of this subsection.

If the Auditor's hotline receives a report of allegations of improper governmental activities in a program or activity that the Auditor is prohibited by this subsection from auditing, the Hotline Manager shall transmit the report to the Legislative Services Officer or his designee. The report shall retain the same confidentiality after transmittal to the General Assembly that it had in the possession of the Auditor. (1983, c. 913, s. 2; 1993, c. 152, s. 1; 1996, 2nd Ex. Sess., c. 18, s. 8(n).)

§ 147-64.13. Construction.

This Article shall be construed liberally in the aid of its declared purpose. It is the intent of this Article that the establishment of the Office of the Auditor and the duties, powers, qualifications, and purposes herein specified shall take precedence over any conflicting part or application of any other law. (1983, c. 913, s. 2.)

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL

Pursuant to this section, the provisions of § 147-64.7(a)(1) supersede the provisions of § 126-24 to the extent they conflict. Specifically, the Auditor's power to examine documents in the course of an authorized audit includes the power to examine confidential employee personnel files relevant to that audit without the consent of the employee or his employer. See opinion of Attorney General to The Honorable Ralph Campbell, Jr., State Auditor, 1999 N.C.A.G. 8 (3/5/99).

§ 147-64.14. Severability.

If any provision of this Article or the application thereof to any person, State agency, political subdivision, or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidation shall not affect other provisions or applications of this Article which can be given effect without the invalid provision of application, and to this end the provisions of this Article are declared severable. (1983, c. 913, s. 2.)

ARTICLE 6.

Treasurer.

§ 147-65. Salary of State Treasurer.

The salary of the State Treasurer shall be as established in the Current Operations Appropriations Act. In addition to the salary set by the General Assembly in the Current Operations Appropriations Act, longevity pay shall be paid on the same basis as is provided to employees of the State who are subject to the State Personnel Act. (Code, s. 3723; 1891, c. 505; Rev., s. 2739; 1907, c. 830, s. 3; c. 994, s. 2; 1917, c. 161; 1919, c. 233; c. 247, s. 3; C.S., s. 3868; Ex. Sess. 1920, c. 49, s. 2; 1921, c. 11, s. 1; 1935, c. 249; 1941, c. 1; 1947, c. 1041; 1949, c. 1278; 1953, c. 1, s. 2; 1957, c. 1; 1963, c. 1178, s. 1; 1967, c. 1130; c. 1237, s. 1; 1969, c. 1214, s. 1; 1971, c. 912, s. 1; 1973, c. 778, s. 1; 1975, 2nd Sess., c. 983, s. 16; 1977, c. 802, s. 42.9; 1983, c. 761, s. 215; 1983 (Reg. Sess., 1984), c. 1034, s. 164; 1987, c. 738, s. 32(b).)

Cross References. — As to settlement of affairs of inoperative boards and agencies, see §§ 143-267 through 143-272.

§ 147-66. Office and office hours.

The Treasurer shall keep his office at the City of Raleigh, and shall attend there between the hours of 10 o'clock A.M. and three o'clock P.M., Sundays and legal holidays excepted. He shall be allowed such office room as may be necessary. (1868-9, c. 270, ss. 80, 81; Code, s. 3362; Rev., s. 5369; C.S., s. 7679.)

§ 147-68. To receive and disburse moneys; to make reports.

(a) It is the duty of the Treasurer to receive all moneys which shall from time to time be paid into the treasury of this State; and to pay all warrants legally drawn on the Treasurer.

(b) No moneys shall be paid out of the treasury except on warrant unless there is a legislative appropriation or authority to pay the same.

(c) It shall be the responsibility of the Treasurer to determine that all warrants presented to him for payment are valid and legally drawn on the Treasurer.

(d) The Treasurer shall report to the Governor and Advisory Budget Commission annually and to the General Assembly at the beginning of each biennial session the exact balance in the treasury to the credit of the State, with a summary of the receipts and payments of the treasury during the preceding fiscal year, and so far as practicable an account of the same down to the termination of the current calendar year.

(d1) The Treasurer shall report to the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations, to the Chairman, Appropriations Base Budget Committee and the Chairman, Appropriations Expansion Budget Committee of the House of Representatives, and to the Chairman, Committee on Appropriations and the Chairman, Committee on Base Budget of the Senate, on a quarterly basis, concerning all investments and deposits made by and through his office. The report shall include a listing of all investments with or on behalf of the State or any of its agencies or institutions and shall include the particular agency or institution, fund, rate of return, duration of the investment, and the amount of deposit on all noninterest bearing accounts. The first report is due 90 days after July 1, 1982, and shall include all investments and deposits made during the 1981-82 fiscal year and all investments made during the first quarter of the 1982-83 fiscal year; thereafter, reports shall be made on a quarterly basis including all investments and deposits made during that reporting period.

(d2) After consulting with the Select Committee on Information Technology and the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations and after consultation with and approval of the Information Resources Management Commission, the Department of State Treasurer may spend departmental receipts for the 2000-2001 fiscal year to continue improvement of the Department's investment banking operations system, retirement payroll systems, and other information technology infrastructure needs. The Department of State Treasurer shall report by January 1, 2001, and annually thereafter to the following regarding the amount and use of the departmental receipts: the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations, the Chairs of the General Government Appropriations Subcommittees of both the House of Representatives and the Senate, and the Select Committee on Information Technology.

(e) The State Treasurer shall except as provided in G.S. 143-25 be independent of any fiscal control exercise by the Director of the Budget or the Department of Administration and shall be responsible to the Advisory Budget Commission, the General Assembly and the people of North Carolina for the efficient and faithful exercise of the responsibilities of his office. and Capital Improvements Appropriations Act of 2000'."

Session Laws 2000-67, s. 28.4, contains a severability clause.

CASE NOTES

The Treasurer is not required to pay every warrant which the Auditor may sign, but only those which are legally drawn, and the fact that the Auditor finds that a claim for which he issues a warrant on the Treasurer is authorized by law is not binding upon or a protection to the latter. Commercial & Farmers' Bank v. Worth, 117 N.C. 146, 23 S.E. 160 (1895).

As He Has No Right to Pay Out Money Except on Proper Warrants. — As it is the duty of the State Treasurer to keep his accounts, showing the transactions of each fiscal year ending December 31, he has no right to pay out money except upon proper warrants drawn upon the proper funds in the treasury. Arendell v. Worth, 125 N.C. 111, 34 S.E. 232 (1899).

And the Treasurer is not liable to a mandamus for refusing to pay a warrant improperly drawn. Arendell v. Worth, 125 N.C. 111, 34 S.E. 232 (1899).

Where the State Treasurer denies the correctness of a claim audited by the State Auditor and alleges fraud in the creation of the indebtedness or that the services for which a warrant was issued were not rendered, mandamus will not lie to compel him to pay it, the question raised by such claim being for the legislature, and not the courts, to determine. Garner v. Worth, 122 N.C. 250, 29 S.E. 364 (1898).

Or for Refusing to Pay a Claim Where No Warrant Has Been Issued. — Mandamus will not lie to compel the Treasurer to pay a claim where the Auditor has not issued a warrant therefor, as the Treasurer can only pay on such warrant. Burton v. Furnam, 115 N.C. 166, 20 S.E. 443 (1894).

But the Treasurer is entitled to a man- damus to enforce the drawing of proper warrants upon the proper funds before paying them, as they are his vouchers. Arendell v. Worth, 125 N.C. 111, 34 S.E. 232 (1899).

The courts cannot direct the State Treasurer to pay a claim against the State, however just and unquestioned, when there is no legislative appropriation to pay the same; and when there is such an appropriation, the coercive power is applied not to compel payment of the State liability, but to compel a public servant to discharge his duty by obedience to a legislative enactment. Garner v. Worth, 122 N.C. 250, 29 S.E. 364 (1898).

Refund of Taxes. — The State Treasurer is responsible for the efficient and faithful exercise of the responsibilities of his office, including refunding taxes erroneously collected. Bailey v. State, 330 N.C. 227, 412 S.E.2d 295 (1991), cert. denied, 504 U.S. 911, 112 S. Ct. 1942, 118 L. Ed. 2d 547 (1992), overruled on other grounds, 348 N.C. 130, 500 S.E.2d 54 (1998).

Although the Secretary of Revenue is authorized by § 105-266.1 to refund excessive or incorrect taxes paid by a taxpayer who applies for such refund according to the statutory requisites of § 105-266.1, she is not authorized by that statute or by § 105-267 to order the refund of an invalid or illegal tax, since questions of constitutionality are for the courts. Bailey v. State, 330 N.C. 227, 412 S.E.2d 295 (1991), cert. denied, 504 U.S. 911, 112 S. Ct. 1942, 118 L. Ed. 2d 547 (1992), overruled on other grounds, 348 N.C. 130, 500 S.E.2d 54 (1998).

§ 147-68.1. Banking operations.

The cost of administration, management, and operations of the banking operations of the Department of State Treasurer shall be apportioned equitably among the funds and programs using these services, and the costs so apportioned shall be deposited with the State Treasurer as a general fund nontax revenue. The cost of administration, management and operations of the banking operations of the Department of State Treasurer shall be covered by an appropriation to the State Treasurer for this purpose in the Current Operations Appropriations Act. (1983 (Reg. Sess., 1984), c. 1034, s. 118.)

§ 147-69. Deposits of State funds in banks and savings and loan associations regulated.

Banks and savings and loan associations having State deposits shall furnish to the Auditor of the State, upon his request, a statement of the moneys which have been received and paid by them on account of the treasury. The Treasurer shall keep in his office a full account of all moneys deposited in and drawn from all banks and savings and loan associations in which he may deposit or cause to be deposited any of the public funds, and such accounts shall be open to the inspection of the Auditor. The Treasurer shall sign all checks, and no depository bank or savings and loan association shall be authorized to pay checks not bearing his official signature. The Treasurer is authorized to use a facsimile signature machine or device in affixing his signature to warrants, checks or any other instrument he is required by law to sign. The Commissioner of Banks and the bank examiners, and the Commissioner of Banks and the savings and loan examiners, when so required by the State Treasurer, shall keep the State Treasurer fully informed at all times as to the condition of all such depository banks and savings and loan associations, so as to fully protect the State from loss. The State Treasurer shall, before making deposits in any bank or savings and loan association, require ample security from the bank or savings and loan association for such deposit. (1905, c. 520; Rev., s. 5371; 1915, c. 168; 1917, c. 159; C.S., s. 7684; 1931, c. 127, s. 1; c. 243, s. 5; 1933, c. 175, s. 1; 1945, c. 644; 1949, c. 1183; 1967, c. 398, s. 2; 1977, c. 401, s. 1; 1983, c. 158, s. 4; 1987, c. 751, s. 1; 1989, c. 76, s. 27; 2001-193, s. 16.)

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 2001-193, s. 16, effective July 1, 2001, deleted "Administrator of the Savings Institutions Division" following "bank examiner," in the fifth sentence of the section.

§ 147-69.1. Investments authorized for General Fund and Highway Funds assets.

(a) The Governor and Council of State, with the advice and assistance of the State Treasurer, shall adopt such rules and regulations as shall be necessary and appropriate to implement the provisions of this section.

(b) This section applies to funds held by the State Treasurer to the credit of:

- (1) The General Fund;
- (2) The Highway Fund and Highway Trust Fund.

(c) It shall be the duty of the State Treasurer to invest the cash of the funds enumerated in subsection (b) of this section in excess of the amount required to meet the current needs and demands on such funds, selecting from among the following:

- (1) Obligations of the United States or obligations fully guaranteed both as to principal and interest by the United States.
- (2) Obligations of the Federal Financing Bank, the Federal Farm Credit Bank, the Federal Home Loan Banks, the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation, Fannie Mae, the Government National Mortgage Association, the Federal Housing Administration, the Farmers Home Administration, the United States Postal Service, the Export-Import Bank, the International Bank for Reconstruction and Devel- opment, the International Finance Corporation, the Inter-American Development Bank, the Asian Development Bank, the African Development Bank, and the Student Loan Marketing Association.

- (3) Repurchase Agreements with respect to securities issued or guaranteed by the United States government or its agencies or other securities eligible for investment by this section executed by a bank or trust company or by primary or other reporting dealers to the Federal Reserve Bank of New York.
  - (4) Obligations of the State of North Carolina.
  - (5) Time deposits of financial institutions with a physical presence in North Carolina for the purpose of receiving commercial or retail deposits; provided that any principal amount of such deposit in excess of the amount insured by the federal government or any agency thereof, be fully secured by surety bonds, or be fully collateralized; provided further that the rate of return or investment yield may not be less than that available in the market on United States government or agency obligations of comparable maturity.
  - (6) Repealed by Session Laws 1989 (Regular Session, 1990), c. 813, s. 10.
  - (7) Prime quality commercial paper bearing the highest rating of at least one nationally recognized rating service and not bearing a rating below the highest by any nationally recognized rating service which rates the particular obligation.
  - (8) Bills of exchange or time drafts drawn on and accepted by a commercial bank and eligible for use as collateral by member banks in borrowing from a federal reserve bank, provided that the accepting bank or its holding company is either (i) incorporated in the State of North Carolina or (ii) has outstanding publicly held obligations bearing the highest rating of at least one nationally recognized rating service and not bearing a rating below the highest by any nationally recognized rating service which rates the particular obligations.
  - (9) Asset-backed securities (whether considered debt or equity) provided they bear the highest rating of at least one nationally recognized rating service and do not bear a rating below the highest rating by any nationally recognized rating service which rates the particular securities.
  - (10) Corporate bonds and notes provided they bear the highest rating of at least one nationally recognized rating service and do not bear a rating below the highest by any nationally recognized rating service which rates the particular obligation.

(d) Unless otherwise provided by law, the interest or income received and accruing from all deposits or investments of such cash balances shall be paid into the State's General Fund, except that all interest or income received and accruing on the monthly balance of the Highway Fund and Highway Trust Fund shall be paid into the State Highway Fund and Highway Trust Fund. The cash balances of the several funds may be combined for deposit or investment purposes; and when such combined deposits or investments are made, the interest or income received and accruing from all deposits or investments shall be prorated among the funds in conformity with applicable law and the rules and regulations adopted by the Governor and Council of State.

(e) The State Treasurer shall cause to be prepared quarterly statements on or before the tenth day of February, May, August, and November in each year, which shall show the amount of cash on hand, the amount of money on deposit, the name of each depository, and all investments for which he is in any way responsible. Each quarterly statement shall be delivered to the Governor, Council of State, President Pro Tempore of the Senate, and Speaker of the House of Representatives; and a copy shall be posted in the office of the State Treasurer for the information of the public.

(f) Repealed by Session Laws 1989 (Regular Session, 1990), c. 813, s. 10.

(g) Repealed by Session Laws 2001-444, s. 1, effective October 1, 2001. (1943, c. 2; 1949, c. 213; 1957, c. 1401; 1961, c. 833, s. 2.2; 1967, c. 398, s. 1969, c. 125; 1975, c. 482; 1979, c. 467, s. 1; c. 717, s. 1; 1981, c. 801, ss. 1, 2; 1985, c. 313, s. 3; 1987, c. 751, ss. 2-4; 1987 (Reg. Sess., 1988), c. 882, s. 5; 1989, c. 76, s. 28; c. 751, s. 7(43); 1989 (Reg. Sess., 1990), c. 813, s. 10; 1991 (Reg. Sess., 1992), c. 959, s. 75; 1993, c. 105, s. 2; 1999-251, s. 1; 2001-444, s. 1; 2001-487, s. 14(m).)

See also § 124-5.1(b), regarding the cessation of accrual of interest on the remaining balance of the obligations described in Session Laws 1997-443, s. 32.20(c), as amended by Session Laws 1999-237, s. 27.11(d), effective January 1, 2000.

Session Laws 1997-443, s. 32.30(c), as amended by Session Laws 1999-237, s. 27.11(d), provides: "Notwithstanding G.S. 147-69.1, if a majority of the outstanding shares held by shareholders other than the State and represented in person or by proxy at a North Carolina Railroad Company shareholder meeting where a plan for merger between the Beaufort and Morehead Railroad Company and the North Carolina Railroad Company is approved, then the State Treasurer shall invest on a one-time basis up to sixty-one million dollars ($61,000,000) from the reserve account created in subsection (b) of this section in obligations of the Beaufort and Morehead Railroad Company or any successor company. This investment shall be an interest-bearing demand note and shall be in a form prescribed by the State Treasurer. The remaining balance of the loan is not subject to repayment of principal or interest prior to action of the 2000 Session of the General Assembly. The Director of the Budget shall recommend to the 2000 Session of the General Assembly, by February 1, 2000, a plan for the repayment of the loan."

Subsection (c), as amended by Session Laws 1999-251, s. 1, has been set forth above consistent with directions from the Revisor of statutes.

Session Laws 2001-424, s. 1.2, provides: "This act shall be known as the 'Current Operations and Capital Improvements Appropriations Act of 2001'."

Session Laws 2001-424, s. 2.2(b), provides: "Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 7.2.(a) of S.L. 2000-67, nineteen million dollars ($19,000,000) of the North Carolina Railroad Company dividends received by the State during the 2000-2001 fiscal year and the 2001-2002 fiscal year shall: (i) be applied to increase the capital of the North Carolina Railroad Company, (ii) reduce the obligations described in subsection (c) of Section 32.30 of S.L. 1997-443, as amended by subsection (d) of Section 27.11 of S.L. 1999-237, and (iii) be deposited in the General Fund."

Session Laws 2001-424, s. 36.5 is a severability clause.

Effect of Amendments. — Session Laws 2001-444, s. 1, effective October 1, 2001, deleted "the Bank for Cooperatives, the Federal Intermediate Credit Bank, the Federal Land Banks," following "the Federal Farm Credit Bank," in subdivision (c)(2); in subsection (e), substituted "February, May, August, and November" for "January, April, July and October" in the first sentence, and in the last sentence, deleted "and" preceding "Council of State" and inserted "President Pro Tempore of the Senate, and Speaker of the House of Representatives" thereafter; and repealed subsection (g), regarding the proceeds for the sale of all or any part of stock owned by the State in the North Carolina Railroad Company or the Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad Company.

Session Laws 2001-487, s. 14(m), effective December 16, 2001, substituted "Fannie Mae" for "the Federal National Mortgage Association" in subdivision (c)(2).

§ 147-69.2. Investments authorized for special funds held by State Treasurer.

(a) This section applies to funds held by the State Treasurer to the credit of:

- (1) The Teachers' and State Employees' Retirement System,
- (2) The Consolidated Judicial Retirement System,
- (3) The Teachers' and State Employees' Hospital and Medical Insurance Plan,
- (4) The General Assembly Medical and Hospital Care Plan,
- (5) The Disability Salary Continuation Plan,
- (6) The Firemen's and Rescue Workers' Pension Fund,
- (7) The Local Governmental Employees' Retirement System,
- (8) The Legislative Retirement System,
- (9) The Escheat Fund,
- (10) The Legislative Retirement Fund,
- (11) The State Education Assistance Authority,
- (12) The State Property Fire Insurance Fund,
- (13) The Stock Workers' Compensation Fund,
- (14) The Mutual Workers' Compensation Fund,
- (15) The Public School Insurance Fund,
- (16) The Liability Insurance Trust Fund,
- (17) Trust funds of The University of North Carolina and its constituent institutions deposited with the State Treasurer pursuant to G.S. 116-36.1,
- (17a) North Carolina Veterans Home Trust Fund,
- (17b) North Carolina National Guard Pension Fund,
- (17c) Retiree Health Premium Reserve Account, and
- (18) Any other special fund created by or pursuant to law for purposes other than meeting appropriations made pursuant to the Executive Budget Act.

(b) It shall be the duty of the State Treasurer to invest the cash of the funds enumerated in subsection (a) of this section in excess of the amount required to meet the current needs and demands on such funds, selecting from among the following:

- (1) Any of the investments authorized by G.S. 147-69.1(c)(1)-(7).
- (2) General obligations of other states of the United States.
- (3) General obligations of cities, counties and special districts in North Carolina.
- (4) Obligations of any company, other organization or legal entity incorporated or otherwise created or located within or outside the United States if the obligations bear one of the four highest ratings of at least one nationally recognized rating service and do not bear a rating below the four highest by any nationally recognized rating service which rates the particular security.
- (5) Repealed by Session Laws 2001-444, s. 2, effective October 1, 2001.
- (6) Asset-backed securities (whether considered debt or equity) provided they bear ratings by nationally recognized rating services as provided in G.S. 147-69.2(b)(4) and that they do not bear a rating below the four highest by any nationally recognized rating service that rates the particular securities.
- (7) With respect to Retirement Systems' assets referred to in G.S. 147-69.2(b)(8), (i) insurance contracts that provide for participation in individual or pooled separate accounts of insurance companies, (ii) group trusts, (iii) individual, common, or collective trust funds of banks and trust companies, (iv) real estate investment trusts, and (v) limited partnerships, whether described as limited liability partnerships or limited liability companies; provided the investment manager has assets under management of at least one hundred million dollars ($100,000,000); provided such investment assets are managed primarily for the purpose of investing in or owning real estate or related debt financing located within or outside the United States; and provided that the investment authorized by this subsection shall not exceed ten percent (10%) of the market value of all invested assets of the Retirement Systems.

- (8) With respect to assets of the Teachers' and State Employees' Retirement System, the Consolidated Judicial Retirement System, the Firemen's and Rescue Workers' Pension Fund, the Local Governmental Employees' Retirement System, the Legislative Retirement System, and the North Carolina National Guard Pension Fund (hereinafter referred to collectively as the Retirement Systems), they may be invested in preferred or common stocks issued by any company incorporated or otherwise created or located within or outside the United States provided the investments meet the conditions of this subdivision.

The investments authorized under this subdivision cannot exceed sixty-five percent (65%) of the market value of all invested assets of the Retirement Systems. Up to five percent (5%) of the amount that may be invested under this subdivision may be invested in the stocks or shares of a diversified investment company registered under the "Investment Company Act of 1940" that has total assets of at least fifty million dollars ($50,000,000).

The assets authorized under this subdivision can be invested through individual, common, or collective trust funds of banks, trust companies, and group trust funds of investment advisory companies so long as the investment manager has assets under management of at least one hundred million dollars ($100,000,000).

The assets authorized under this subdivision can also be invested directly, if all of the following conditions are met:

- a. The common stock or preferred stock of such corporation is registered on a national securities exchange as provided in the Federal Securities Exchange Act or quoted through the National Association of Securities Dealers' Automated Quotations (NASDAQ) system.
- b. The corporation has paid a cash dividend on its common stock in each year of the 5-year period next preceding the date of investment and the aggregate net earnings available for dividends on the common stock of the corporation for the whole of that period have been at least equal to the amount of the dividends paid.
- c. In applying the dividend and earnings test under this section to any issuing, assuming, or guaranteeing corporation, if the corporation acquired its property or any substantial part thereof within a five-year period immediately preceding the date of investment by consolidation, merger, or by the purchase of all or a substantial portion of the property of any other corporation or corporations, or acquired the assets of any unincorporated business enterprise by purchase or otherwise, the dividends and net earnings of the several predecessor or constituent corporations or enterprises shall be consolidated and adjusted so as to ascertain whether or not the applicable requirements of this subdivision have been complied with.

No more than one and one-half percent (1 1/2%) of the market value of the Retirement Systems' assets that may be invested under this subdivision can be invested in the stock of a single corporation, and the total number of shares in that single corporation cannot exceed eight percent (8%) of the issued and outstanding stock of that corporation.

d. to f. Repealed by Session Laws 2001-444, s. 2, effective October 1, 2001.

g. That investments may be made in securities convertible into common stocks issued by any such company, if such securities bear one of the four highest ratings of at least one nationally recognized rating service and do not bear a rating below the four highest by any nationally recognized rating service which may then rate the particular security.

(9) With respect to Retirement Systems' assets, as defined in subdivision (b)(8) of this subsection, they may be invested in limited partnership interests in a partnership or in interests in a limited liability company if the primary purpose of the partnership or limited liability company is to invest in public or private debt, public or private equity, or corporate buyout transactions, within or outside the United States. The amount invested under this subdivision shall not exceed five percent (5%) of the market value of all invested assets of the Retirement Systems.

(10) Recodified as part of subdivision (b)(9) by Session Laws 2000-160, s. 2.

(11) With respect to assets of the Escheat Fund, obligations of the North Carolina Global TransPark Authority authorized by G.S. 63A-4(a)(22), not to exceed twenty-five million dollars ($25,000,000), that have a final maturity not later than September 1, 2004. The obligations shall bear interest at the rate set by the State Treasurer. No commitment to purchase obligations may be made pursuant to this subdivision after September 1, 1993, and no obligations may be purchased after September 1, 1994. In the event of a loss to the Escheat Fund by reason of an investment made pursuant to this subdivision, it is the intention of the General Assembly to hold the Escheat Fund harmless from the loss by appropriating to the Escheat Fund funds equivalent to the loss.

(b1) With respect to investments authorized by subsections (b)(8) and (b)(9) of this section, the State Treasurer shall appoint an Investment Advisory Committee, which shall consist of five members: the State Treasurer, who shall be chairman ex officio; two members selected from among the members of the boards of trustees of the Retirement Systems; and two members selected from the general public. The two public members must have experience in one or more of the following areas: investment management, real estate investment trusts, real estate development, venture capital investment, or absolute return strategies. The State Treasurer shall also appoint a Secretary of the Investment Advisory Committee who need not be a member of the committee. Members of the committee shall receive for their services the same per diem and allowances granted to members of the State boards and commissions generally. The committee shall have advisory powers only and membership shall not be deemed a public office within the meaning of Article VI, Section 9 of the Constitution of North Carolina or G.S. 128-1.1.

(c) Repealed by Session Laws 1995, c. 501, s. 2. (1979, c. 467, s. 2; 1983, c. 702, ss. 1-9; 1987, c. 446, s. 1; c. 751, s. 5; 1987 (Reg. Sess., 1988), c. 1070; 1989, c. 770, s. 54; 1989 (Reg. Sess., 1990), c. 813, s. 11; c. 848, s. 5; 1991, c. 542, s. 16; c. 636, s. 3; c. 749, s. 8; 1993 (Reg. Editor's Note. — Subsection (a), as amended by Session Laws 1999-251, s. 2, has been set forth above with subdivision designation changes pursuant to direction from the Revisor of Statutes.

Effect of Amendments. — Session Laws 2000-160, s. 2, effective August 2, 2000, combined former subdivision (b)(10) with subdivision (b)(9); and in present (b)(9), inserted “of the North Carolina Economic Opportunities Fund” and “or the North Carolina Economic Opportunities Fund,” added the last sentence, and made minor stylistic and wording changes.

Session Laws 2001-444, ss. 2 and 3, effective October 1, 2001, rewrote subsection (b); and in subsection (b1), deleted “Equity” preceding “Investment Advisory Committee” in two places, in the first sentence substituted “subsections (b)(8) and (b)(9) of this section” for “subsection (b)(8),” and added the present second sentence.

§ 147-69.3. Administration of State Treasurer’s investment programs.

(a) The State Treasurer shall establish, maintain, administer, manage, and operate within the Department of State Treasurer one or more investment programs for the deposit and investment of assets pursuant to the provisions of G.S. 147-69.1 and G.S. 147-69.2.

(b) Any official, board, commission, other public authority, local government, school administrative unit, local ABC board, or community college of the State having custody of any funds not required by law to be deposited with and invested by the State Treasurer may deposit all or any portion of those funds with the State Treasurer for investment in one of the investment programs established pursuant to this section, subject to any provisions of law with respect to eligible investments, provided that any occupational licensing board as defined in G.S. 93B-1 may participate in one of the investment programs established pursuant to this section regardless of whether or not the funds were required by law to be deposited with and invested by the State Treasurer. In the absence of specific statutory provisions to the contrary, any of those funds may be invested in accordance with the provisions of G.S. 147-69.2 and 147-69.3. Upon request from any depositor eligible under this subsection, the State Treasurer may authorize moneys invested pursuant to this subsection to be withdrawn by warrant on the State Treasurer.

(c) The State Treasurer’s investment programs shall be so managed that in the judgment of the State Treasurer funds may be readily converted into cash when needed.

(d) Except as provided by G.S. 147-69.1(d), the total return earned on investments shall accrue pro rata to the fund whose assets are invested according to the formula prescribed by the State Treasurer with the approval of the Governor and Council of State.

(e) The State Treasurer has full powers as a fiduciary to hold, purchase, sell, assign, transfer, lend and dispose of any of the securities or investments in which any of the programs created pursuant to this section have been invested, and may reinvest the proceeds from the sale of those securities or investments and any other investable assets of the program.

(f) The cost of administration, management, and operation of investment programs established pursuant to this section shall be apportioned equitably among the programs in such manner as may be prescribed by the State Treasurer, such costs to be paid from each program, and to the extent not otherwise chargeable directly to the income or assets of the specific investment program or pooled investment vehicle, shall be deposited with the State Treasurer as a General Fund nontax revenue. The cost of administration, management, and operation of investment programs established pursuant to this section and not directly paid from the income or assets of such program shall be covered by an appropriation to the State Treasurer for this purpose in the Current Operations Appropriations Act.

(g) The State Treasurer is authorized to retain the services of independent appraisers, auditors, actuaries, attorneys, investment counseling firms, statisticians, custodians, or other persons or firms possessing specialized skills or knowledge necessary for the proper administration of investment programs created pursuant to this section.

(h) The State Treasurer shall prepare, as of the end of each fiscal year, a report on the financial condition of each investment program created pursuant to this section. A copy of each report shall be submitted within 30 days following the end of the fiscal year to the official, institution, board, commission or other agency whose funds are invested, the State Auditor, and the Advisory Budget Commission.

(i) The State Treasurer's annual report to the General Assembly shall include a full and complete statement of all moneys invested by virtue of the provisions of G.S. 147-69.1 and G.S. 147-69.2, the nature and character of investments therein, and the revenues derived therefrom.

(j) Subject to the provisions of G.S. 147-69.1(d), the State Treasurer shall adopt any rules necessary to carry out the provisions of this section. (1979, c. 467, s. 3; 1981, c. 445, ss. 4, 5; 1983, c. 515, s. 1; c. 702, s. 10; 1983 (Reg. Sess., 1984), c. 1034, ss. 116, 117; 1987, c. 751, ss. 6-8; 2001-444, s. 4.)

Cross References. — As to investment by community colleges and technical institutes, see § 115D-58.6.

Effect of Amendments. — Session Laws 2001-444, s. 4, effective October 1, 2001, in subsection (b) substituted "those funds" for "such funds" in the first sentence and substituted "of those funds" for "such funds" in the second sentence; in subsection (d) substituted "the total return" for "net income," substituted "accrue" for "be credited," and substituted "the formula" for "such formula as may be"; in subsection (e), substituted "has full powers" for "shall have full powers," and substituted "those securities" for "such securities"; in subsection (g), deleted "such" preceding "independent appraisers" and deleted "as may be" preceding "necessary"; deleted the former last sentence of subsection (i), which read: "The State Treasurer shall also establish annual investment yield targets for all moneys invested by virtue of the provisions of G.S. 147-69.1 and G.S. 147-69.2, and shall include in his annual report a statement of the extent that these targets have been reached"; and in subsection (j), substituted "G.S. 147-69.1(d)" for "G.S. 147-69.1(e)," and substituted "any rules necessary" for "such rules and regulations as may be necessary."

§ 147-70. To make short-term notes in emergencies.

Subject to the approval of the Governor and Council of State, the State Treasurer is authorized to make short-term notes for temporary emergencies, but such notes must only be made to provide for appropriations already made by the General Assembly. (1915, c. 168, s. 3; C.S., s. 7685.)

§ 147-71. May demand and sue for money and property of State.

The Treasurer is authorized to demand, sue for, collect and receive all money and property of the State not held by some person under authority of law. (1866, c. 46; Code, s. 3359; Rev., s. 5375; C.S., s. 7688.)

§ 147-72. Ex officio treasurer of State institutions; duties as such.

The Treasurer shall be ex officio the treasurer of the Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services, of the North Carolina State College of Agriculture and Engineering, of the North Carolina School for the Deaf and Dumb at Morganton, of the North Carolina Institution for the Deaf and Dumb and the Blind at Raleigh, for the State hospitals (for the insane) at Raleigh, Morganton and Goldsboro and for the State's prison. He may appoint deputies to act for him at Morganton and Goldsboro, and may pay such deputies reasonable compensation. He shall keep all accounts of the institutions, and shall pay out all moneys, upon the warrant of the respective chief officers or superintendents, countersigned by two members of the board of directors, managers, or trustees. He shall report to the respective boards at such times as they may call on him, showing the amount received on account of the institution, amount paid out, and amount on hand. He shall perform his duties as treasurer of these several institutions under such regulation as shall be prescribed in each case by their respective boards of managers, trustees or directors, with the approval of the Governor; and shall be responsible on his official bond for the faithful discharge of his duties as treasurer of each of the several institutions. As treasurer of such institutions he shall, annually, after the examination, verification, and cancellation of his vouchers, deposit the same with the respective institutions, and the superintendents thereof shall be responsible for their safekeeping. (1879, c. 240, s. 2; 1881, c. 128; c. 211, s. 9; 1883, c. 156, s. 12; c. 405; Code, ss. 2235, 2251, 3723; 1895, c. 434; 1899, c. 1, s. 11; Rev., s. 5376; 1919, c. 314, s. 6; C.S., s. 7689; 1947, c. 781; 1997-261, s. 109.)

Editor's Note. — The North Carolina State

College of Agriculture and Engineering is now the North Carolina State University at Raleigh. See Session Laws 1963, c. 448, s. 6; 1965, c. 213. And see § 116-4.

§ 147-73. Office of treasurer of each State institution abolished.

The office of treasurer of each of the several State institutions of which the State Treasurer is ex officio treasurer is hereby abolished. (1929, c. 337, s. 3.)

§ 147-74. Office of State Treasurer declared office of deposit and disbursement.

The office of the State Treasurer is declared to be an office of deposit and disbursement and only such records and accounts as may be necessary to disclose the accountability of the State Treasurer shall be kept. The purpose of this section is to prevent duplication in account and record keeping and such accounts as may be necessary shall be prescribed by the Director of the Budget under the terms of the Executive Budget Act. (1929, c. 337, s. 2.)

§ 147-75. Deputy to act for Treasurer.

The Treasurer may authorize a deputy to perform any duties pertaining to the office. The Treasurer may authorize a deputy to affix the Treasurer's signature to any check, warrant or any other instrument the Treasurer is required to sign by use of the facsimile signature machine or device during the Treasurer's absence or disability. The Treasurer shall be responsible for the conduct of his deputies. (1868-9, c. 270, s. 76; Code, s. 3358; Rev., s. 5377; C.S., s. 7690; 1977, c. 401, s. 2.)

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL

Delegation of Power to Attend Meetings.

— Those members of the Council of State who have statutory authority to delegate duties may, in conformity with such statutes, attend and vote at meetings of Boards of which they are ex officio members through delegates or designated subordinates. The remaining members of the Council of State may make similar delegations or designations where, in the member's judgment, other duties necessitate his absence and the statute creating his ex officio membership does not express or clearly imply an intent of the General Assembly that the powers of such membership be exercised personally. See opinion of Attorney General to the honorable James E. Long, Commissioner of Insurance, 55 N.C.A.G. 116 (1986).

§ 147-76. Liability for false entries in his books.

If the Treasurer of the State shall wittingly or falsely make, or cause to be made, any false entry or charge in any book by him as Treasurer, or shall wittingly or falsely form, or procure to be formed, any statement of the treasury, to be by him laid before the Governor, the General Assembly, or any committee thereof, or to be by him used in any settlement which he is required to make with intent, in any of said instances, to defraud the State or any person, such Treasurer shall be guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor. (R.C., c. 34, s. 68; Code, s. 1119; Rev., s. 3606; C.S., s. 7691; 1983, c. 913, s. 53; 1993, c. 539, s. 1055; 1994, Ex. Sess., c. 24, s. 14(c).)

§ 147-77. Daily deposit of funds to credit of Treasurer.

All funds belonging to the State of North Carolina, in the hands of any head of any department of the State which collects revenue for the State in any form whatsoever, and every institution, agency, officer, employee, or representative of the State or any agency, department, division or commission thereof, except officers and the clerks of the Supreme Court and Court of Appeals, collecting or receiving any funds or money belonging to the State of North Carolina, shall daily deposit the same in some bank, or trust company, selected or designated by the State Treasurer, in the name of the State Treasurer, at noon, or as near thereto as may be, and shall report the same daily to said Treasurer: Provided that the State Treasurer may authorize exemptions from the provisions of this section so long as funds are deposited and reported pursuant to the provisions of this section at least once a week and, in addition, so long as funds are deposited and reported pursuant to the provisions of this section whenever as much as two hundred fifty dollars ($250.00) has been collected and received: Provided, that the Treasurer may refund the amount of any bad checks which have been returned to the department by the Treasurer when the same have not been collected after 30 days' trial. (1925, c. 128, s. 1; 1945, c. 159; 1969, c. 44, s. 77; 1985, c. 708.)

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL

“Enterprise funds” maintained by the Division of Vocational Rehabilitation Services and “student activity funds” maintained by the Schools for the Deaf are required to be deposited with the State Treasurer pursuant to § 147-77. See opinion of Attorney General to Mr. Phillip J. Kirk, Jr., Secretary, Department of Human Resources, 56 N.C.A.G. 10 (1986).

Funds donated to Lenox Baker Children's Hospital are required to be deposited with the State Treasurer unless the conditions or terms of the gift provide to the contrary, or unless otherwise provided by law. See opinion of Attorney General to Mr. Richard J. Vinegar, Chairman Board of Directors of Lenox Baker Children's Hospital, 56 N.C.A.G. 31 (1986).

Any gift in trust where the terms contraindicate investment or deposit with the State Treasurer (for example where the terms of the gift provide for a private trustee) would be exempt from the operation of the cash management policy. See opinion of Attorney General to Mr. Phillip J. Kirk, Jr., Secretary, Department of Human Resources, 56 N.C.A.G. 10 (1986).

§ 147-78. Treasurer to select depositories.

The State Treasurer is hereby authorized and empowered to select and designate, wherever necessary, in this State some bank or banks, savings and loan association or associations, or trust company as an official depository of the State. (1925, c. 128, s. 2; 1979, c. 637, s. 4; 1983, c. 158, s. 5.)

§ 147-78.1. Good faith deposits; use of master trust.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the State Treasurer is authorized to select a bank or trust company as master trustee to hold cash or securities to be pledged to the State when deposited with him pursuant to statute or at the request of another State agency. Securities may be held by the master trustee in any form that, in fact, perfects the security interest of the State in the securities. The State Treasurer shall by rule or regulation establish the manner in which the master trust shall operate. The master trustee may charge reasonable fees for services rendered to each person who deposits the cash or securities with the State. (1985, c. 496, s. 1.)

§ 147-79. Deposits to be secured; reports of depositories.

(a) The amount of funds deposited by the State Treasurer in an official depository shall be adequately secured by deposit insurance, surety bonds, or investment securities of such nature, in such amounts, and in such manner, as may be prescribed by rule or regulation of the State Treasurer with the approval of the Governor and Council of State. No security is required for the protection of funds remitted to and received by a bank or trust company designated by the State Treasurer under G.S. 142-1 and acting as paying agent for the payment of the principal of or interest on bonds or notes of the State.

(b) Each official depository having deposits required to be secured by subsection (a) of this section may be required to report to the State Treasurer on January 1 and July 1 of each year (or such other dates as he may prescribe) a list of all surety bonds or investment securities securing such deposits. If the State Treasurer finds at any time that any funds of the State are not properly secured, he shall so notify the depository. Upon such notification, the depository shall comply with the applicable law or regulations forthwith.

(c) Violation of the provisions of this section shall be a Class 1 misdemeanor. (1933, c. 461, ss. 1, 11/2; 1979, c. 637, s. 3; 1993, c. 539, s. 1056; 1994, Ex. Sess., c. 24, s. 14(c).)

§ 147-80. Deposit in other banks unlawful; liability.

It shall be unlawful for any funds of the State to be deposited by any person, institution, or department or agency in any place or bank or trust company, other than those so selected and designated as official depositories of the State of North Carolina by the State Treasurer, and any person so offending or aiding and abetting in such offense shall be guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor and any person so offending or aiding and abetting in such offense shall also immediately become civilly liable to the State of North Carolina in the amount of the money or funds unlawfully deposited, and, at the instance of the State Treasurer, or at the instance of the Governor, the Attorney General shall forthwith institute the civil action in the name of the State of North Carolina against such person or persons, either in the courts of Wake County, according to their respective jurisdiction, or in the county in which said unlawful deposit has been made, according to the selection made by the officer requesting the institution of such action, for the purpose of recovering the amount of the money so unlawfully deposited, with interest thereon at six percent (6%) per annum, and for the cost of said action, and the court in which said action is tried may also tax, as a part of the cost in said action, to the use of the State of North Carolina, a sum sufficient to reimburse the State of North Carolina for all expense incidental to or connected with the preparation and prosecution of such action. (1925, c. 128, s. 3; 1993, c. 539, s. 1057; 1994, Ex. Sess., c. 24, s. 14(c).)

§ 147-81. Number of depositories; contract.

The State Treasurer is authorized and empowered to select as many depositories in one place and in the State as may appear to him to be necessary and convenient for the various officers, representatives and employees of the State, to comply with the purposes of G.S. 147-77, 147-78, 147-80, 147-81, 147-82, 147-83 and 147-84, and may make such contracts with said depositories for the payment of interest on average daily or monthly balances as may appear advantageous to the State in the opinion of such Treasurer and the Governor. (1925, c. 128, s. 4.)

§ 147-82. Accounts of funds kept separate.

In order to preserve and keep them separate, all funds that are now required by law to be kept separate or to be separately administered, both by State departments, institutions, commissions, and other agencies or divisions of the State which collect or receive funds belonging to the State, or funds handled or maintained as trust funds in any form by such department, division or institution shall be evidenced in daily reports by distribution sheets, which shall reflect and show an exact copy of the accounts, showing the distribution of said money kept by such collecting departments, institutions and agencies, and the same shall be entered in the records of the office of the State Treasurer, so as to keep and maintain in the office where the same is first collected or received the same account thereof, and of the distribution thereof, the same records and accounts as are kept in the office of the State Treasurer relating thereto. (1925, c. 128, s. 5.)

§ 147-83. Receipts from federal government and gifts not affected.

General Statutes 147-77, 147-78, 147-80, 147-81, 147-82, 147-83 and 147-84 shall not be held or construed to affect or interfere with the receipts and disbursements of any funds received by any institution or department of this State from the federal government or any gift or donation to any institution or department of the State or commission or agency thereof when either in the act of Congress, relating to such funds received from the federal government, or in the instrument evidencing the said private donation or gift, a contrary disposition or handling is prescribed or required, and the said sections shall not apply to any moneys paid to any department, institution or agency, or undertaking of the State of North Carolina, as a part of any legislative appropriation, or allotment from any contingent fund, as provided by law, after the same has been paid out of the State treasury. (1925, c. 128, s. 6.)

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL

When Federally Confiscated Drug Related Property Is Returned to Local Authorities. — If federal authorities confiscate drug related property and thereafter return a part of it to local authorities for law enforcement purposes, the N.C. Constitution and laws do not require these funds to go to the local school board as forfeited property and they may be used by local law enforcement. See opinion of the Attorney General to Mr. Aubrey S. Tomlinson, Jr., Attorney for Franklin County, 58 N.C.A.G. 51 (1988).

Funds donated to Lenox Baker Children's Hospital are required to be deposited with the State Treasurer unless the conditions or terms of the gift provide to the contrary, or unless otherwise provided by law. See opinion of Attorney General to Mr. Richard J. Vinegar, Chairman Board of Directors of Lenox Baker Children's Hospital, 56 N.C.A.G. 31 (1986).

Any gift in trust where the terms contraindicate investment or deposit with the State Treasurer (for example where the terms of the gift provide for a private trustee) would be exempt from the operation of the cash management policy. See opinion of Attorney General to Mr. Phillip J. Kirk, Jr., Secretary, Department of Human Resources, 56 N.C.A.G. 10 (1986).

§ 147-84. Refund of excess payments.

Whenever taxes or other receipts of any kind are or have been by clerical error, misinterpretation of the law, or otherwise, collected and paid into the State treasury in excess of the amount found legally due the State, said excess amount shall be refunded to the person entitled thereto. (1925, c. 128, s. 7; 1983, c. 913, s. 54.)

§ 147-85. Fiscal year.

The fiscal year of the State government shall annually close on the thirtieth day of June. (1868-9, c. 270, s. 77; 1883, c. 60; Code, s. 3360; 1885, c. 334; 1905, c. 430; Rev., s. 5378; C.S., s. 7692; 1921, c. 229; Ex. Sess. 1921, c. 7; 1925, c. 89, s. 21; 1983, c. 913, s. 55.)

CASE NOTES

Applied in Martin v. Swain County, 201 N.C. 68, 158 S.E. 843 (1931).

§ 147-86. Additional clerical assistance authorized; compensation and duties.

The State Treasurer, by and with the consent and advice of the Governor and Council of State, is authorized to employ an additional clerk in the Treasury Department, whose compensation and duties shall be fixed by the State Treasurer, by and with the consent and advice of the Governor and Council of State. The compensation of such additional clerk as may be employed pursuant to this section shall be paid as other officers and clerks are paid. (1923, c. 172; C.S., s. 7693 (a).)

§ 147-86.1. Pool account for local government unemployment compensation.

(a) The State Treasurer is authorized to establish a pool account, in accordance with rules and regulations of the Employment Security Commission, in cooperation with any one or more units of local government, for the purpose of reimbursing the Employment Security Commission for unemployment benefits paid by the Commission and chargeable to each local unit of government participating in the pool account. In the pool account established pursuant to this section, the funds contributed by a unit of local government shall remain the funds of the particular unit, and interest or other investment income earned by the pool account shall be prorated and credited to the various contributing local units on the basis of the amounts thereof contributed, figured according to an average periodic balance or some other sound accounting principle.

(b) The State Treasurer shall pay to the Employment Security Commission, within 25 days from receipt of a list thereof, all unemployment benefits charged by the Commission to each unit of local government participating in the pool account from the funds in the pool account belonging to each such unit, to the extent that said funds are sufficient to do so.

(c) Notwithstanding the participation by a unit of local government in the pool account authorized by this section, such unit shall remain liable to the Employment Security Commission for any benefits duly charged by the Commission to the unit which are not paid by the State Treasurer from funds in the pool account belonging to the unit. Notwithstanding its participation in the pool account, each unit of local government shall continue to maintain an individual account with the Employment Security Commission.

(d) The Director of the Budget shall be authorized to transfer from the interest earned on the pool account, to the State Treasurer's departmental budget, such funds as may be necessary to defray the Treasurer's cost of administering the pool account. (1977, c. 1124; 1983, c. 717, s. 89.)

§§ 147-86.2 through 147-86.9: Reserved for future codification purposes.

ARTICLE 6A.

Cash Management.

§ 147-86.10. Statement of policy.

It is the policy of the State of North Carolina that all agencies, institutions, departments, bureaus, boards, commissions, and officers of the State, whether or not subject to the Executive Budget Act, Chapter 143, Article 1 of the General Statutes, shall devise techniques and procedures for the receipt, deposit, and disbursement of moneys coming into their control and custody which are designed to maximize interest-bearing investment of cash, and to minimize idle and nonproductive cash balances. This policy shall apply to the General Court of Justice as defined in Article IV of the North Carolina Constitution, the public school administrative units, and the community colleges with respect to the receipt, deposit, and disbursement of moneys required by law to be deposited with the State Treasurer and with respect to moneys made available to them for expenditure by warrants drawn on the State Treasurer. This policy shall include the acceptance of electronic payments in accordance with G.S. 147-86.22 to the maximum extent possible consistent with sound business practices. (1985, c. 709, s. 1; 1999-434, s. 2.)

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1999-434, s. 1 shall implement policies and procedures to ensure "Best Value" Procurement, Solution-Based Procurement, and Procurement Reform. Session Laws 1999-434, s. 2 provides that the Secretary of Commerce shall ensure "Best Value" Procurement, Solution-Based Procurement, and Procurement Reform.

Procurement, and Government-Vendor Partnership.

Session Laws 1999-434, s. 20, requires the Secretary of Commerce to develop and implement policies, procedures, and/or programs to ensure that personnel receive high quality training in the principles of "Best Value" Procurement, Solution-Based Procurement, Government-Vendor Partnership, contract administration, and project management.

Session Laws 1999-434, s. 21, provides that the Secretary of Commerce shall report to the Joint Select Committee on Information Technology on the implementation of this act on or before April 1, 2000.

Session Laws 1999-434, s. 22, provides that the Joint Select Committee on Information Technology shall study the governance of State government-wide information technology management by the creation of a centralized agency responsible for all technology-related issues. An interim report may be made by the Committee to the 2000 Session of the General Assembly and a final report prior to the convening of the 2001 General Assembly.

§ 147-86.11. Cash management for the State.

(a) Uniform Plan. — The State Controller, with the advice and assistance of the State Treasurer, the State Budget Officer, and the State Auditor, shall develop, implement and amend as necessary a uniform statewide plan to carry out the cash management policy for all State agencies. The State Auditor shall report annually to the Advisory Budget Commission and the General Assembly on the implementation of the plan as shown in the audits completed during the prior fiscal year. The State Treasurer shall recommend periodically to the General Assembly any implementing legislation necessary or desirable in the furtherance of the State policy. When used in this section, "State agency" means any agency, institution, bureau, board, commission or officer of the State; however, except as provided in G.S. 147-86.12, 147-86.13, 147-86.14, and 147-86.22, this Article does not apply to the agencies, institutions, bureaus, boards, commissions and officers of the General Court of Justice as defined in Article IV of the North Carolina Constitution or to the local school administrative units and community colleges and their officers and employees.

(b) Duties of Auditor. — The State Auditor pursuant to authority under G.S. 147-64.6 shall monitor agency compliance with this Article, and make any comments, suggestions, and recommendations the Auditor deems advisable to the agencies.

(c) Treasurer's Report. — The State Treasurer shall publish a quarterly report on all funds in the control or custody of the State Treasurer showing cash balances on hand, investments of cash balances and a comparative analysis of earnings and investment performances.

(d) Earnings on Trust Funds. — The statewide cash management plan shall provide that any net earnings on invested funds, whose beneficial owner is not the State or a local governmental unit, shall be paid to the beneficial owners of the funds. "Net earnings" are the amounts remaining after allowance for the cost of administration, management, and operation of the invested funds.

(e) Elements of Plan. — For moneys received or to be received, the statewide cash management plan shall provide at a minimum that:

- (1) Except as otherwise provided by law, moneys received by employees of State agencies in the normal course of their employment shall be deposited as follows:
  - a. Moneys received in trust for specific beneficiaries for which the employee-custodian has a duty to invest shall be deposited with the State Treasurer under the provisions of G.S. 147-69.3.
  - b. All other moneys received shall be deposited with the State Treasurer pursuant to G.S. 147-77 and G.S. 147-69.1.
- (2) Moneys received shall be deposited daily in the form and amounts received, except as otherwise provided by statute.
- (3) Moneys due to a State agency by another governmental agency or by private persons shall be promptly billed, collected and deposited.

- (4) Unpaid billings due to a State agency shall be turned over to the Attorney General for collection no more than 90 days after the due date of the billing, except that a State agency need not turn over to the Attorney General unpaid billings of less than five hundred dollars ($500.00), or (for institutions where applicable) amounts owed by all patients which are less than the federally established deductible applicable to Part A of the Medicare program, and instead may handle these unpaid bills pursuant to agency debt collection procedures.
  - (5) Moneys received in the form of warrants drawn on the State Treasurer shall be deposited by the State agency directly with the State Treasurer and not through the banking system, unless otherwise approved by the State Treasurer.
  - (6) State agencies shall accept payment by electronic payment in accordance with G.S. 147-86.22 to the maximum extent possible consistent with sound business practices.
- (f) Disbursement Requirements. — For the disbursement of money, the statewide cash management plan shall provide at a minimum that:
- (1) Moneys deposited with the State Treasurer remain on deposit with the State Treasurer until final disbursement to the ultimate payee.
  - (2) The order in which appropriations and other available resources are expended shall be subject to the provisions of G.S. 143-27 regardless of whether the State agency disbursing or expending the moneys is subject to the Executive Budget Act.
  - (3) Federal and other reimbursements of expenditures paid from State funds shall be paid immediately to the source of the State funds.
  - (4) Billings to the State for goods received or services rendered shall be paid neither early nor late but on the discount date or the due date to the extent practicable.
  - (5) Disbursement cycles for each agency shall be established to the extent practicable so that the overall efficiency of the warrant disbursement system is maximized while maintaining prompt payment of bills due.
- (g) Interest Maximized. — The interest earnings of the General Fund and Highway Fund shall be maximized to the extent practicable. To this end:
- (1) Interest earnings shall not be allocated to an account by the State Treasurer unless all of the moneys in the account are expressly eligible by law for receiving interest allocations.
  - (2) State officers and employees who received moneys in trust or for investment shall be solely responsible for properly segregating such funds for investment in the manner prescribed by law. The officer or employee charged with the responsibility for these moneys shall be under a duty to segregate the funds in a timely manner. No investment income shall be allocated by the State Treasurer to trust or other investment accounts until properly segregated into investment accounts as provided by law and the rules of the State Treasurer.
- (h) New Technologies. — The statewide cash management plan shall consider new technologies and procedures whenever the technologies and procedures are economically beneficial to the State as a whole. Where the new technologies and procedures may be implemented without additional legislation, the technologies and procedures shall be implemented in the plan.
- (i) Penalty. — A willful or continued failure of an employee paid from State funds or employed by a State agency to follow the statewide cash management plan is sufficient cause for immediate dismissal of the employee. (1985, c. 709, s. 1; 1985 (Reg. Sess., 1986), c. 1024, s. 26; 1987, c. 564, s. 32; c. 738, s. 59(a)(1); 1991, c. 95, s. 1; c. 542, s. 15; 1999-434, s. 4.)

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1999-434, s. 19, provides that the Secretary of Commerce shall implement policies and procedures to ensure “Best Value” Procurement, Solution-Based Procurement, and Government-Vendor Partnership.

Session Laws 1999-434, s. 20, requires the Secretary of Commerce to develop and implement policies, procedures, and/or programs to ensure that personnel receive high quality training in the principles of “Best Value” Procurement, Solution-Based Procurement, Government-Vendor Partnership, contract administration, and project management.

Session Laws 1999-434, s. 21, provides that the Secretary of Commerce shall report to the Joint Select Committee on Information Technology on the implementation of this act on or before April 1, 2000.

Session Laws 1999-434, s. 22, provides that the Joint Select Committee on Information Technology shall study the governance of State government-wide information technology management by the creation of a centralized agency responsible for all technology-related issues. An interim report may be made by the Committee to the 2000 Session of the General Assembly and a final report prior to the convening of the 2001 General Assembly.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL

“Enterprise funds” maintained by the Division of Vocational Rehabilitation Services and “student activity funds” maintained by the Schools for the Deaf are required to be deposited with the State Treasurer pursuant to § 147-77. See opinion of Attorney General to Mr. Phillip J. Kirk, Jr., Secretary, Department of Human Resources, 56 N.C.A.G. 10 (1986).

Individual patient funds which are held in trust by a state institution operated under the Division of Mental Health are not required to be deposited with the State Treasurer. See opinion of Attorney General to Mr. Phillip J. Kirk, Jr., Secretary, Department of Human Resources, 56 N.C.A.G. 10 (1986).

Any gift in trust where the terms contraindicate investment or deposit with the State Treasurer (for example where the terms of the gift provide for a private trustee) would be exempt from the operation of the cash management policy. See opinion of Attorney General to Mr. Phillip J. Kirk, Jr., Secretary, Department of Human Resources, 56 N.C.A.G. 10 (1986).

Individual patient funds held in trust by a state institution may not be invested with the State Treasurer without consent; however, such funds may be placed in an insured interest-bearing savings account without the consent of the patient, grantor of the trust, or legally responsible person. See opinion of Attorney General to Mr. Phillip J. Kirk, Jr., Secretary, Department of Human Resources, 56 N.C.A.G. 10 (1986).

In the case of individual patient funds held in trust by a state custodian, the patient who is the beneficial owner of the funds is entitled to any interest or income generated by deposit in an interest-bearing savings account. See opinion of Attorney General to Mr. Phillip J. Kirk, Jr., Secretary, Department of Human Resources, 56 N.C.A.G. 10 (1986).

In the case of individual patient funds deposited in a common interest-bearing savings account, the state cannot charge an administrative handling fee to cover the costs of computing interest which has accrued on individual funds deposited in the common account. See opinion of Attorney General to Mr. Phillip J. Kirk, Jr., Secretary, Department of Human Resources, 56 N.C.A.G. 10 (1986).

§ 147-86.12. Cash management for school administration units.

All school administrative units and their officers and employees are subject to the provision of G.S. 147-86.11 with respect to moneys required by law to be deposited with the State Treasurer and with respect to moneys made available to the school administrative unit for expenditure by warrants drawn on the State Treasurer. (1985, c. 709, s. 1.)

§ 147-86.13. Cash management for community colleges.

All community colleges and their officers and employees are subject to the provisions of G.S. 147-86.11 with respect to moneys required by law to be deposited with the State Treasurer and with respect to moneys made available to them for expenditure by warrants drawn on the State Treasurer. (1985, c. 709, s. 1; 1987, c. 564, s. 9.)

§ 147-86.14. Cash management for the General Court of Justice.

All agencies, institutions, bureaus, boards, commissions, and officers of the General Court of Justice as defined in Article IV of the Constitution are subject to the provisions of G.S. 147-86.11 with respect to moneys required by law to be deposited with the State Treasurer and with respect to moneys made available to them for expenditure by warrants drawn on the State Treasurer; provided, that the provisions of G.S. 147-86.11 shall not apply to any funds deposited with a clerk of superior court unless the beneficial owner of the funds is either the State or a local governmental unit of the State. (1985, c. 709, s. 1.)

§ 147-86.15. Cash management of the Highway Fund and the Highway Trust Fund.

The State Treasurer may combine the balances of the Highway Fund and the Highway Trust Fund for cash management purposes. The State Treasurer may make short-term loans between the Funds to accomplish the purposes of this section. (2001-424, s. 27.23(b).)

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 2001-424, s. 36.6, made this section effective July 1, 2001.

Session Laws 2001-424, s. 27.23(a), provides: "The Department of Transportation is directed to reorganize its cash management procedures consistent with the March 2001 Joint Legislative Transportation Oversight Committee Cash Management Study final report.

"The Department is directed to:

"(1) Utilize cash flow financing to the maximum extent possible to fund highway construction projects with the goal of reducing the combined average daily cash balance of the Highway Trust Fund and the Highway Fund to an amount equal to twelve percent (12%) of combined estimate of the yearly receipts of the Funds, exclusive of municipal aid funds.

"(2) Establish necessary management controls to facilitate use of cash flow financing, such as establishment of a financial planning committee, development of a monthly financial report, establishment of appropriate fund cash level targets, review of revenue forecasting procedures, and reduction of accrued unbilled costs.

"(3) Strengthen the project delivery process by reorganization of preconstruction functions in order to expedite project delivery and maximize use of cash flow financing of projects. The Department shall designate one person responsible for project delivery, developing project delivery reports, and continually assessing which projects can be accelerated using cash flow financing.

"(4) Report quarterly for a period of two years, beginning in September 2001, to the Joint Legislative Transportation Oversight Committee on its efforts to reorganize the cash management and project delivery process and the results of those efforts."

Session Laws 2001-424, s. 27.23(c), provides: "The Department of Transportation and the State Treasurer are directed to jointly:

"(1) Evaluate the recommendations of the March 2001 Joint Legislative Transportation Oversight Committee Cash Management Study final report concerning authorization for the State Treasurer to borrow funds on a short-term basis in order to allow the Department of Transportation to maintain lower target cash balances and expedite highway construction projects;

"(2) Develop recommendations concerning short-term borrowing for cash management purposes, including any needed legislation; and

"(3) Submit findings and recommendations to the Joint Legislative Transportation Oversight Committee by February 1, 2002."

Session Laws 2001-424, s. 1.2, provides: "This act shall be known as the 'Current Operations and Capital Improvements Appropriations Act of 2001'."

Session Laws 2001-424, s. 36.5 is a severability clause.

Session Laws 2001-424, s. 36.3, provides: "Except for statutory changes or other provisions that clearly indicate an intention to have effects beyond the 2001-2003 fiscal biennium, the textual provisions of this act apply only to funds appropriated for, and activities occurring during, the 2001-2003 fiscal biennium.”

ARTICLE 6B.

Statewide Accounts Receivable Program.

§ 147-86.20. Definitions.

The following definitions apply in this Article:

- (1) Account Receivable. — An asset of the State reflecting a debt that is owed to the State and has not been received by the State agency servicing the debt. The term includes claims, damages, fees, fines, forfeitures, loans, overpayments, and tuition as well as penalties, interest, and other costs authorized by law. The term does not include court costs or fees assessed in actions before the General Court of Justice or counsel fees and other expenses of representing indigents under Article 36 of Chapter 7A of the General Statutes.
- (2) Debtor. — A person who owes an account receivable.
- (2a) Electronic payment. — Payment by charge card, credit card, debit card, or by electronic funds transfer as defined in this subsection.
- (3) Past Due. — An account receivable is past due if the State has not received payment of it by the payment due date.
- (4) Person. — An individual, a fiduciary, a firm, a partnership, an association, a corporation, a unit of government, or another group acting as a unit.
- (5) State Agency. — Defined in G.S. 147-64.4(4). The term does not include, however, a community college, a local school administrative unit, an area mental health, developmental disabilities, and substance abuse authority, or the General Court of Justice.
- (6) Write-off. — To remove an account receivable from a State agency's accounts receivable records. (1993, c. 512, s. 1; 1999-434, s. 1.)

Editor's Note. — Article 36 of Chapter 7A, referred to in this section, is codified as § 7A-450 et seq.

Session Laws 1999-434, s. 19, provides that the Secretary of Commerce shall implement policies and procedures to ensure “Best Value” Procurement, Solution-Based Procurement, and Government-Vendor Partnership.

Session Laws 1999-434, s. 20, requires the Secretary of Commerce to develop and implement policies, procedures, and/or programs to ensure that personnel receive high quality training in the principles of “Best Value” Procurement, Solution-Based Procurement, Government-Vendor Partnership, contract administration, and project management.

Session Laws 1999-434, s. 21, provides that the Secretary of Commerce shall report to the Joint Select Committee on Information Technology on the implementation of this act on or before April 1, 2000.

Session Laws 1999-434, s. 22, provides that the Joint Select Committee on Information Technology shall study the governance of State government-wide information technology management by the creation of a centralized agency responsible for all technology-related issues. An interim report may be made by the Committee to the 2000 Session of the General Assembly and a final report prior to the convening of the 2001 General Assembly.

Session Laws 2000-67, s. 22.1(a)-(d), establishes a one-year Bad Debt Collection Clearinghouse Pilot, extending the limited 90-day Bad Debt Clearinghouse Proof of Concept Prototype for collection of previously determined “uncollectible” accounts, to determine the feasibility of implementing a centralized Bad Debt Collection Clearinghouse Program. The Office of State Controller is to establish a procedure by which State agencies and institutions with a material amount of accounts receivable is to report on collection of bad debts. The Pilot is to address the use of one or more private collection agencies and make provision to allow local government units to participate. The Office is to report the result of the Pilot to the General Assembly no later than May 15, 2001, along with recommendations on changes in law or procedure to better collect bad debts.

Session Laws 2000-67, s. 1.1, provides: "This act shall be known as 'The Current Operations and Capital Improvements Appropriations Act of 2000'."

Session Laws 2000-67, s. 28.4, contains a severability clause.

§ 147-86.21. State agencies to collect accounts receivable in accordance with statewide policies.

A State agency to which an account receivable is owed is responsible for collecting the account receivable. In fulfilling this responsibility, a State agency shall establish internal policies and procedures for the management and collection of accounts receivable and shall submit its internal policies and procedures to the State Controller for review.

The State Controller shall examine the policies and procedures submitted by a State agency to determine whether they are consistent with statewide policies and procedures adopted by the State Controller. The statewide policies and procedures shall ensure that a State agency takes all cost-effective and appropriate actions to collect accounts receivable owed to it. If the State Controller determines that a State agency's policies and procedures are not consistent with the statewide policies and procedures, the State Controller shall discuss the inconsistencies with the State agency to determine whether special circumstances, such as a requirement of federal law, justify the inconsistencies. If the State Controller, after consulting with the Office of the Attorney General, finds that no special circumstances justify the inconsistencies, the State Controller shall notify the State agency and the State agency shall conform its policies and procedures to the statewide policies and procedures. If the State Controller finds that special circumstances justify the inconsistencies, the State agency's internal policies and procedures shall reflect the special circumstances. (1993, c. 512, s. 1.)

§ 147-86.22. Statewide accounts receivable program.

(a) Program. — The State Controller shall implement a statewide accounts receivable program. As part of this program, the State Controller shall do all of the following:

- (1) Monitor the State's accounts receivable collection efforts.
- (2) Coordinate information, systems, and procedures between State agencies to maximize the collection of past-due accounts receivable.
- (3) Adopt policies and procedures for the management and collection of accounts receivable by State agencies.
- (4) Establish procedures for writing off accounts receivable and for determining when to end efforts to collect accounts receivable after they have been written off.

(b) Electronic Payment. — Notwithstanding the provisions of G.S. 147-86.20 and G.S. 147-86.21, this subsection applies to debts owed a community college, a local school administrative unit, an area mental health, developmental disabilities, and substance abuse authority, and the Administrative Office of the Courts, and to debts payable to or through the office of a clerk of superior court or a magistrate, as well as to debts owed to other State agencies as defined in G.S. 147-86.20.

The State Controller shall establish policies that allow accounts receivable to be payable under certain conditions by electronic payment. These policies shall be established with the concurrence of the State Treasurer. In addition, any policies that apply to debts payable to or through the office of a clerk of superior court or a magistrate shall be established with the concurrence of the Administrative Officer of the Courts. The Administrative Officer of the Courts may also establish policies otherwise authorized by law that apply to these debts as long as those policies are not inconsistent with the Controller's policies.

A condition of payment by electronic payment is receipt by the appropriate State agency of the full amount of the account receivable owed to the State agency. A debtor who pays by electronic payment may be required to pay any fee or charge associated with the use of electronic payment. Fees associated with processing electronic payments may be paid out of the General Fund and Highway Fund if the payment of the fee by the State is economically beneficial to the State and the payment of the fee by the State has been approved by the State Controller and State Treasurer.

The State Controller and State Treasurer shall consult with the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations before establishing policies that allow accounts receivable to be payable by electronic payment and before authorizing fees associated with electronic payment to be paid out of the General Fund and Highway Fund. A State agency must also consult with the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations before implementing any program to accept payment under the policies established pursuant to this subsection.

A payment of an account receivable that is made by electronic payment and is not honored by the issuer of the card or the financial institution offering electronic funds transfer does not relieve the debtor of the obligation to pay the account receivable.

(c) Collection Techniques. — The State Controller, in conjunction with the Office of the Attorney General, shall establish policies and procedures to govern techniques for collection of accounts receivable. These techniques may include use of credit reporting bureaus, judicial remedies authorized by law, and administrative setoff by a reduction of an individual's tax refund pursuant to the Setoff Debt Collection Act, Chapter 105A of the General Statutes, or a reduction of another payment, other than payroll, due from the State to a person to reduce or eliminate an account receivable that the person owes the State.

No later than January 1, 1999, the State Controller shall negotiate a contract with a third party to perform an audit and collection process of inadvertent overpayments by State agencies to vendors as a result of pricing errors, neglected rebates and discounts, miscalculated freight charges, unclaimed refunds, erroneously paid excise taxes, and related errors. The third party shall be compensated only from funds recovered as a result of the audit. Savings realized in excess of costs shall be transferred from the agency to the Office of State Budget and Management and placed in a special reserve account for future direction by the General Assembly. Any disputed savings shall be settled by the State Controller. This paragraph does not apply to the purchase of medical services by State agencies or payments used to reimburse or otherwise pay for health care services. (1993, c. 512, s. 1; 1998-212, s. 26.1; 1999-434, s. 3; 2000-140, s. 93.1(a); 2001-424, s. 12.2(b).)

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1999-434, s. 19, provides that the Secretary of Commerce shall implement policies and procedures to ensure "Best Value" Procurement, Solution-Based

Procurement, and Government-Vendor Partnership.

Session Laws 1999-434, s. 20, requires the Secretary of Commerce to develop and implement policies, procedures, and/or programs to ensure that personnel receive high quality training in the principles of “Best Value” Procurement, Solution-Based Procurement, Government-Vendor Partnership, contract administration, and project management.

Session Laws 1999-434, s. 21, provides that the Secretary of Commerce shall report to the Joint Select Committee on Information Technology on the implementation of this act on or before April 1, 2000.

Session Laws 1999-434, s. 22, provides that the Joint Select Committee on Information Technology shall study the governance of State government-wide information technology management by the creation of a centralized agency responsible for all technology-related issues. An interim report may be made by the Committee to the 2000 Session of the General Assembly and a final report prior to the convening of the 2001 General Assembly.

Session Laws 2000-67, s. 22(a)-(e), directs that during the 2000-2001 fiscal year, receipts generated by the collection of inadvertent overpayments by State agencies to vendors as a result of pricing errors, neglected rebates and discounts, miscalculated freight charges, unclaimed refunds, erroneously paid excise taxes, and related errors, as required by G.S. 147-86.22(c), are to be deposited in the Special Reserve Account 24172. For the 2000-2001 fiscal year, $550,000 of the funds transferred from the Account are to be used by the Office of the State Controller for data processing, debt collection, or e-commerce costs, and any unobligated funds realized above this allowance are subject to appropriation by the General Assembly in the 2001 Session. All funds available in the Account on July 1, 2000, are transferred to the General Fund. The State Controller is to report monthly to the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations and the Fiscal Research Division on the revenue deposited into the Special Reserve Account and the disbursement of that revenue.

Session Laws 2000-67, s. 1.1, provides: “This act shall be known as ‘The Current Operations and Capital Improvements Appropriations Act of 2000’.”

Session Laws 2000-67, s. 28.4, contains a severability clause.

Session Laws 2001-424, s. 1.2, provides: “This act shall be known as the ‘Current Operations and Capital Improvements Appropriations Act of 2001’.”

Session Laws 2001-424, s. 36.5 is a severability clause.

Effect of Amendments. — Session Laws 2000-140, s. 93.1(a), effective July 21, 2000, substituted “Office of State Budget, Planning, and Management” for “Office of State Budget and Management” in subsection (c).

Session Laws 2001-424, s. 12.2(b), effective July 1, 2001, substituted “Office of State Budget and Management” for “Office of State Budget, Planning, and Management” in the last paragraph in subsection (c).

§ 147-86.23. Interest and penalties.

A State agency shall charge interest at the rate established pursuant to G.S. 105-241.1(i) on a past-due account receivable from the date the account receivable was due until it is paid. A State agency shall add to a past-due account receivable a late payment penalty of no more than ten percent (10%) of the account receivable. A State agency may waive a late-payment penalty for good cause shown. If another statute requires the payment of interest or a penalty on a past-due account receivable, this section does not apply to that past-due account receivable. (1993, c. 512, s. 1.)

§ 147-86.24. Debtor information and skip tracing.

A State agency shall collect from clients and debtors minimum identifying information as prescribed by the State Controller. A State agency shall use all available debtor information to skip trace debtors as prescribed by the State Controller.

The State Controller shall establish procedures to give the State Controller access to information that is in the custody of a State agency and could assist another State agency in the collection of accounts receivable owed to that State agency. A State agency that has this information shall cooperate with the State Controller in giving the State Controller access to the information. If the information is contained in an electronic database, the State agency shall provide the State Controller on-line electronic access upon request. A State agency is not required to give the State Controller access to information when a State or federal law prohibits the disclosure of the information. (1993, c. 512, s. 1.)

§ 147-86.25. Setoff debt collection.

The State Controller shall implement a statewide setoff debt collection program to provide for collection of accounts receivable that have been written off. The statewide program shall supplement the Setoff Debt Collection Act, Chapter 105A of the General Statutes, and shall provide for written-off accounts receivable to be set off against payments the State owes to debtors, other than payments of individual income tax refunds and payroll.

A program shall provide that, before final setoff can occur, the State agency servicing the debt must notify the debtor of the proposed setoff and of the debtor's right to contest the setoff through an administrative hearing and judicial review. A proposed setoff by a State agency that is a "claimant agency" under Chapter 105A of the General Statutes shall be conducted in accordance with the procedures the State agency must follow under that Chapter. A proposed setoff by a State agency that is not a "claimant agency" under Chapter 105A of the General Statutes shall be conducted under Articles 3 and 4 of Chapter 150B of the General Statutes. (1993, c. 512, s. 1.)

§ 147-86.26. Reporting requirements.

A State agency shall provide the State Controller a complete report of the agency's accounts receivable at least quarterly or more frequently as required by the State Controller. The State Controller shall use the information provided by a State agency and any additional information available to compile a summary report of the agency. The State Controller shall provide copies of these summary reports annually to the Governor, the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations, and each State agency. Each summary report shall include the following:

- (1) The type of accounts receivable owed to the State agency.
  - (2) An aging of the accounts receivable.
  - (3) Any attempted collection activity and any costs incurred in the collection process.
  - (4) Any accounts receivable that have been written off.
  - (5) Information required by subdivisions (1) through (4) for the previous three years.
  - (6) Identification of a State agency that is not complying with this Article or Chapter 105A of the General Statutes.
  - (7) Any additional information the State Controller considers useful.
- (1993, c. 512, s. 1.)

§ 147-86.27. Rules.

A State agency may adopt rules to implement this Article. (1993, c. 512, s. 1.)

§§ 147-86.28, 147-86.29: Reserved for future codification purposes.

ARTICLE 6C.

*Health and Wellness Trust Fund.§ 147-86.30. Health and Wellness Trust Fund established.

(a) Fund Established. — There is established the Health and Wellness Trust Fund in the Office of the State Treasurer that shall be used to develop a comprehensive plan to finance programs and initiatives to improve the health and wellness of the people of North Carolina. As used in this Article, the term “Fund” means the Health and Wellness Trust Fund. It is the intent of the General Assembly that the funds provided pursuant to this Article to address the health needs of North Carolinians be used to supplement, not supplant, existing funding of health and wellness programs.

(b) Fund Earnings, Assets, and Balances. — The State Treasurer shall hold the Fund separate and apart from all other moneys, funds, and accounts. The State Treasurer shall be the custodian of the Fund and shall invest its assets in accordance with G.S. 147-69.2 and G.S. 147-69.3. Investment earnings credited to the assets of the Fund shall become part of the Fund. Any balance remaining in the Fund at the end of any fiscal year shall be carried forward in the Fund for the next succeeding fiscal year. Payments from the Fund shall be made on the warrant of the chair of the Commission, pursuant to directives of the Commission. The Commission may expend moneys in the Fund only as provided in subsections (c) and (d) of this section.

(c) Creation of Fund Reserve. — The Commission shall reserve, and shall not expend, fifty percent (50%) of each annual payment allocated to the Health and Wellness Trust Fund pursuant to G.S. 143-16.4 during years 2001 through 2025 to create and build the Fund Reserve. During years 2001 through 2025, the Commission may expend any investment earnings on the reserved funds. Beginning in year 2026, and thereafter, the Commission shall not expend the reserved funds but may continue to expend any investment earnings on the reserved funds.

(d) Use of Nonreserved Funds. — The Commission may expend all of the annual payments for years 1998, 1999, and 2000 and may expend the remaining fifty percent (50%) portion of each annual payment thereafter through the year 2025 that is not reserved pursuant to subsection (c) of this section. Any unexpended or unencumbered portion of the nonreserved portion of each annual payment for years 2001 through 2025 that has not been expended or encumbered by the third June 30th following the date of the receipt of the payment shall be reserved pursuant to subsection (c) of this section. The Commission may expend any investment earnings on the nonreserved funds in the year in which the investment earnings are received by the Fund.

(e) Fund Purposes. — Moneys from the Fund may be used for any of the following purposes:

- (1) To address the health needs of vulnerable and underserved populations in North Carolina.
- (2) To fund programs and initiatives that include research, education, prevention, and treatment of health problems in North Carolina and to increase the capacity of communities to respond to the public's health needs.
- (3) To develop a comprehensive, community-based plan with goals and objectives to improve the health and wellness of the people of North Carolina with a priority on preventing, reducing, and remedying the health effects of tobacco use and with an emphasis on reducing youth tobacco use. The plan shall include measurable health and wellness objectives and a proposed timetable for achieving these objectives. In developing the plan, the Commission shall consider all facets of health, including prevention, education, treatment, research, and related areas.

(f) Limit on Operating and Administrative Expenses. — No more than two and one-half percent (2 1/2%) of the annual receipts of the Fund for the fiscal year beginning July 1 or a total sum of one million dollars ($1,000,000), whichever is less, may be used each fiscal year for administrative and operating expenses of the Commission and its staff. All administrative expenses of the Commission shall be paid from the Fund. (2000-147, s. 2.)

Cross References. — As to the Tobacco Trust Fund, see § 143-715 et seq.

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 2000-147, s. 9, made this Article effective August 2, 2000.

Session Laws 2000-147, s. 8(a)-(c), provides:

“(a) Interpretation of Act. — The foregoing sections of this act provide an additional and alternative method for the doing of the things authorized by the act, are supplemental and additional to powers conferred by other laws, and do not derogate any powers now existing.

“(b) References in this act to specific sections or Chapters of the General Statutes are intended to be references to those sections or Chapters as amended and as they may be amended from time to time by the General Assembly.

“(c) This act, being necessary for the health and welfare of the people of the State, shall be liberally construed to effect its purposes.”

Session Laws 2000-147, s. 8(d), contains a severability clause.

Session Laws 2001-424, s. 1.2, provides: “This act shall be known as the ‘Current Operations and Capital Improvements Appropriations Act of 2001.’”

Session Laws 2001-424, s. 21.100, provides: “The Health and Wellness Trust Fund Commission shall, as it develops criteria for awarding grants under Article 6C of Chapter 147 of the General Statutes, include criteria that will enable programs and initiatives addressing the need to expand access to prescription drugs to North Carolina senior and disabled citizens to receive grants from the Fund. In making the grants, the Commission shall consider, and coordinate with, the availability of any federal funds allocated to North Carolina pursuant to any federal initiative to provide financial assistance to senior and disabled citizens for the cost of prescription drugs.

“In making its annual report to the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations and to the chairs of the Joint Legislative Health Care Oversight Committee regarding the implementation of that Article, the chair of the Health and Wellness Trust Fund Commission shall report on the programs and initiatives to expand access to prescription drugs to senior and disabled citizens that were funded by the Trust Fund. The report shall include the amount of funds disbursed for programs and initiatives to expand access to prescription drugs to senior and disabled citizens and the success of those programs and initiatives towards helping senior and disabled citizens obtain prescription drugs.”

Session Laws 2001-424, s. 36.5 is a severability clause.

Session Laws 2001-487, s. 124, provides: “Notwithstanding G.S. 150B-21.1(a) (2), the Health and Wellness Trust Fund Commission and the Tobacco Trust Fund Commission shall have the authority to adopt temporary rules as a recent act of the General Assembly through June 30, 2002, in order to adopt rules as authorized in S.L. 2000-147.”

§ 147-86.31. Health and Wellness Trust Fund; eligibility for grants; annual reports from non-State agencies.

(a) Eligible Grant Applicants. — Any of the following are eligible to apply for a grant from the Fund:

(1) A State agency.

(2) A local government or other political subdivision of the State or a combination of such entities.

(3) A nonprofit corporation which has as a significant purpose promoting the public's health, limiting youth access to tobacco products, or reducing the health consequences of tobacco use.

(b) Annual Report From Non-State Agencies. — Grant or financial assistance recipients that are non-State agencies shall submit an annual report to the Commission. The report shall include information concerning how the funds are used, the intended goals and objectives of the recipient's grant proposal or program initiative, and the results of an evaluation of the extent to which the outcomes of the initiatives or proposal achieved those goals and objectives. (2000-147, s. 2.)

§ 147-86.32. Health and Wellness Trust Fund; Commission established; membership qualifications; vacancies.

(a) Commission Established. — There is established the Health and Wellness Trust Fund Commission. As used in this Article, the term "Commission" means the Health and Wellness Trust Fund Commission. The Commission shall exercise its powers independently, but for administrative purposes, the Commission shall be located within the Office of the State Treasurer.

(b) Membership. — The Commission shall consist of 18 members. The members shall not be employed by or be agents of tobacco product manufacturing companies. The Commission shall be appointed as follows: six members by the Governor, six members by the President Pro Tempore of the Senate, and six members by the Speaker of the House of Representatives. These members shall be appointed as follows:

(1) The Governor shall make the following appointments:

a. A person involved in public health.

b. A person involved in the operation of health care delivery systems.

c. A health care practitioner.

d. An at-large appointee.

e. An at-large appointee.

f. An at-large appointee.

(2) The President Pro Tempore of the Senate shall make the following appointments:

a. A person involved in health research.

b. A person involved in tobacco-related health care issues.

c. A person involved in health promotion and disease prevention.

d. An at-large appointee.

e. An at-large appointee.

f. An at-large appointee.

(3) The Speaker of the House of Representatives shall make the following appointments:

a. A person involved in health policy trends.

b. A person involved with health care for underserved populations.

c. A person involved with child health care.

d. An at-large appointee.

e. An at-large appointee.

f. An at-large appointee.

It is the intent of the General Assembly that the appointing authorities, in appointing members, shall appoint members who represent the geographic, political, gender, and racial diversity of the State.

(c) Initial Appointments; Term Limits; Officers. — To provide for a staggered membership, the members initially appointed pursuant to sub-subdivisions

(b)(1)a., (1)b., (2)d., and (3)d. of this section shall serve one-year terms ending on June 30, 2001. The members initially appointed pursuant to sub-subdivisions (b)(2)c., (2)e., (3)a., and (3)e. shall serve two-year terms ending on June 30, 2002. The members initially appointed pursuant to sub-subdivisions (b)(1)c., (1)d., (1)e., (2)b., and (3)c. shall serve three-year terms ending June 30, 2003. The remaining members initially appointed pursuant to subsection (b) of this section shall serve four-year terms ending June 30, 2004.

Except as provided for the initial members under this subsection, members shall serve four-year terms beginning July 1. No member may serve more than two full consecutive terms. Members may continue to serve beyond their terms until their successors are duly appointed, but any holdover shall not affect the expiration date of the succeeding term. A member may be removed from the Commission for cause by the authority that appointed the member.

The Commission shall elect from its membership a chair, vice-chair, and other officers as necessary for two-year terms beginning July 1 at the first meeting of the Commission held on or after July 1 of every even-numbered year. The vice-chair may act for the chair in the absence of the chair as authorized by the Commission.

(d) Vacancies. — Vacancies shall be filled by the designated appointing authority for the remainder of the unexpired term.

(e) Frequency of Meetings. — The Commission shall meet at least twice each year and may hold special meetings at the call of the chair or a majority of the voting members. The Governor shall call the initial meeting of the Commission.

(f) Quorum; Majority. — Ten members shall constitute a quorum of the Commission. The Commission may act upon a majority vote of all the members of the Commission on matters involving the disbursement of funds and personnel matters properly before the Commission. On all other matters, the Commission may act by majority vote of the members of the Commission at a meeting at which a quorum is present.

(g) Meeting Facilities. — The Office of the State Treasurer shall provide meeting facilities for the Commission and its staff as requested by the chair of the Commission.

(h) Per Diem and Expenses. — The members of the Commission shall receive per diem and necessary travel and subsistence expenses in accordance with the provisions of G.S. 138-5. Per diem, subsistence, and travel expenses of the members shall be paid from the Fund.

(i) Conflict of Interest. — The members of the Commission shall comply with the provisions of G.S. 14-234 prohibiting conflicts of interest. In addition to the restrictions imposed under G.S. 14-234, a member shall not vote on, participate in the deliberations of, or otherwise attempt through his or her official capacity to influence the vote on a grant or other financial assistance award by the Commission to a nonprofit entity of which the member is an officer, director, or employee or to a governmental entity of which the member is an employee or a member of the governing board. A violation of this subsection is a Class 1 misdemeanor. (2000-147, s. 2.)

§ 147-86.33. Health and Wellness Trust Fund; powers and duties.

(a) The Commission shall do the following:

- (1) Allocate moneys from the Fund as grants. A grant may be awarded only for a program or initiative that satisfies the criteria and furthers the purposes of this Article, but the provisions of this Article shall be liberally construed. The Commission shall strive to avoid imposing any unnecessary barriers in the grant application process.

- (2) Develop criteria for awarding grants under this Article. The criteria shall include types of programs and initiatives to be funded, including programs which address the short-and long-term health and wellness of the citizens of North Carolina.
- (3) Develop criteria by which to measure the outcomes of funded programs to evaluate the extent to which those programs achieved the goals for which funds were awarded.
- (4) Develop a mechanism with which to evaluate individual applications.
- (5) Ensure that good faith efforts are made to achieve federal mandates targeting the reduction of youth access to tobacco products.
- (6) Administer the provisions of this Article.
- (7) Adopt rules to implement this Article.

(b) The Commission is authorized to hire staff or contract for other expertise for the administration of the Fund.

(c) Gifts and Grants. — The Commission is authorized to accept gifts or grants from other sources. (2000-147, s. 2.)

§ 147-86.34. Advisory Council.

The Commission shall create an Advisory Council to advise it with regard to issues as requested by the Commission. The Advisory Council shall include the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services, the State Health Director, the Dean of the School of Public Health of the University of North Carolina, and others the Commission considers necessary. (2000-147, s. 2.)

§ 147-86.35. Health and Wellness Trust Fund; reporting requirements.

(a) The chair of the Commission shall report each year by November 1 to the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations and to the chairs of the Joint Legislative Health Care Oversight Committee regarding implementation of this Article, including a report on funds disbursed during the fiscal year by amount, purpose, and category of recipient, and other information as requested by the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations. The annual report shall also include a summary of each recipient's annual report submitted to the Health and Wellness Trust Fund Commission pursuant to G.S. 147-86.31(b) and an analysis of progress toward the goals and objectives of any comprehensive, community-based plan established pursuant to G.S. 147-86.30(e)(3). A written copy of the annual report shall also be sent to the Legislative Library by November 1 each year. Written reports shall also be sent on a quarterly basis to the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations.

(b) Any non-State corporation, organization, or institution that receives, uses, or expends any funds from the Commission is subject to the applicable reporting requirements of G.S. 143-6.1. (2000-147, s. 2.)

§ 147-86.36. Health and Wellness Trust Fund; open meeting and public records requirements.

The Open Meetings Law (Article 33 of Chapter 143 of the General Statutes) and the Public Records Act (Chapter 132 of the General Statutes) shall apply to the Fund and the Commission, and the Fund and the Commission shall be subject to audit by the State Auditor as provided by law. The Commission shall reimburse the State Auditor for the actual cost of the audit. (2000-147, s. 2.)

ARTICLE 7.

*Secretary of Revenue.§ 147-87. Secretary of Revenue; appointment; salary.

A Secretary of Revenue shall be appointed by the Governor on January 1, 1933, and quadrennially thereafter. The term of office of the Secretary shall be four years and until his successor is appointed and qualified. His salary shall be fixed by the General Assembly in the Current Operations Appropriations Act. (1921, c. 40, ss. 2, 6; 1929, c. 232; 1973, c. 476, s. 193; 1983, c. 717, s. 90; 1983 (Reg. Sess., 1984), c. 1034, s. 164.)

Organization and Management.

Editor's Note. — For note regarding Session Laws 1989 (Reg. Sess., 1990), c. 933, also known as the Prison Facilities Legislative Bond

Act of 1990, see the Editor's note under § 148-4.1.

§ 148-1: Repealed by Session Laws 1973, c. 1262, s. 10.

Cross References. — For present provisions as to the Department of Correction, see § 143B-260 et seq.

§ 148-2. Prison moneys and earnings.

(a) Persons authorized to collect or receive the moneys and earnings of the State prison system shall enter into bonds payable to the State of North Carolina in penal sums and with security approved by the Department of Correction, conditioned upon the faithful performance by these persons of their duties in collecting, receiving, and paying over prison moneys and earnings to the State Treasurer. Only corporate security with sureties licensed to do business in North Carolina shall be accepted.

(b) All revenues from the sale of articles and commodities manufactured or produced by prison enterprises shall be deposited with the State Treasurer to be kept and maintained as a special revolving working-capital fund designated "Prison Enterprises Fund." Revenue in the Prison Enterprises Fund shall be applied first to capital and operating expenditures, including salaries and wages of supervisory personnel, necessary to develop and operate prison industrial and forestry enterprises to provide diversified employment for prisoners, and incentive wages for non-Prison Enterprises Inmates. Of the remaining revenue in the Fund, five percent (5%) of the net profits, before expansion costs, shall be credited to the Crime Victims Compensation Fund established in G.S. 15B-23 as soon as practicable after profits have been determined for the previous year, and at the direction of the Governor, the remainder shall be used for other purposes within the State prison system or shall be transferred to the General Fund. The provisions of this section shall not apply to revenues generated from private prison enterprises conducted pursuant to G.S. 148-70 except for lease and rental income.

(c) Notwithstanding G.S. 147-77, Article 6A of Chapter 147 of the General Statutes, or any other provision of law, the Department of Correction may deposit revenue from prison canteens in local banks. The profits from prison canteens shall be deposited with the State Treasurer on a monthly basis in a fund denominated as the Correction Inmate Welfare Fund. Once the operating budget for the Correction Inmate Welfare Fund has been met, an amount equal to the funds allocated to each prison unit on a per inmate per year basis shall be credited to the Crime Victims Compensation Fund established in G.S. 15B-23 as soon as practicable after the total amount paid to each unit per inmate per year has been determined. Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1998-212, s. 1.1 provides: "This act shall be known as the 'Current Operations Appropriations and Capital Improvement Appropriations Act of 1998'."

Session Laws 1998-212, s. 17.11 provides: "Notwithstanding the provisions of G.S. 148-2, the Department of Correction may use up to the sum of eight hundred seventy-five thousand dollars ($875,000) from funds available to the Department to provide the State match needed in order to receive federal grant funds. Prior to using funds for this purpose, the Department shall report to the Chairs of the Appropriations Subcommittees on Justice and Public Safety and the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations on the grants to be matched using these funds."

Session Laws 1998-212, s. 30.5 contains a severability clause.

Session Laws 1999-237, s. 18.15, provides that the provisions of G.S. 148-2 notwithstanding, the Department of Correction may use up to the sum of six hundred fifty thousand dollars ($650,000) from funds available to the Department to provide the State match needed in order to receive federal grant funds.

Session Laws 1999-237, s. 1.1 provides: "This act shall be known as the 'Current Operations and Capital Improvement Appropriations Act of 1999'."

Session Laws 1999-237, s. 30.4 contains a severability clause.

Session Laws 2001-424, s. 1.2, provides: "This act shall be known as the 'Current Operations and Capital Improvements Appropriations Act of 2001'."

Session Laws 2001-424, s. 25.7, provides: "Notwithstanding the provisions of G.S. 148-2, the Department of Correction may use up to the sum of nine hundred thousand dollars ($900,000) from funds available to the Department to provide the State match needed in order to receive federal grant funds. Prior to using funds for this purpose, the Department shall report to the Chairs of the Senate and House of Representatives Appropriations Subcommittees on Justice and Public Safety and the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations on the grants to be matched using these funds."

Session Laws 2001-424, s. 36.5 is a severability clause.

§ 148-3. Prison property.

(a) The State Department of Correction shall subject to the provisions of G.S. 143-341, have control and custody of all unexpended surplus highway funds previously allocated for prison purposes and all property of every kind and description now used by or considered a part of units of the State prison system, except vehicles used on a rental basis. The property coming within the provisions of this section shall be identified and agreed upon by the executive heads of the highway and prison systems, or by their duly authorized representatives. The Governor shall have final authority to decide whether or not particular property shall be transferred to the Department of Correction in event the executive heads of the two systems are unable to agree.

(b) Property, both real and personal, deemed by the Department of Correction to be necessary or convenient in the operation of the State prison system may, subject to the provisions of G.S. 143-341, be acquired by gift, devise, purchase, or lease. The Department of Correction may, subject to the provisions of G.S. 143-341, dispose of any prison property, either real or personal, or any interest or estate therein. (1901, c. 472, ss. 2, 6; Rev., s. 5392; C.S., s. 7705; 1925, c. 163; 1933, c. 172, s. 18; 1943, c. 409; 1957, c. 349, s. 3; 1967, c. 996, s. 13.)

CASE NOTES

Discretion as to Operation of Prison. — Whether the maintenance and operation of a prison on a particular site shall be conducted either as at present, or as enlarged by the construction of additional buildings and facilities, or as a "minimum security prison" is a matter for determination by the State Prison Commission (now the Department of Correction) in the exercise of its discretion, and the court has no power to substitute its discretion for that of the Commission; and, in the absence of fraud, manifest abuse of discretion or conduct in excess of lawful authority, the court has no power to intervene. Pharr v. Garibaldi, 252 N.C. 803, 115 S.E.2d 18 (1960).

Construction of a prison on a site selected by public officials pursuant to statutory authority will not be enjoined. Pharr v. Garibaldi, 252 N.C. 803, 115 S.E.2d 18 (1960).

§ 148-4. Control and custody of prisoners; authorizing prisoner to leave place of confinement.

The Secretary of Correction shall have control and custody of all prisoners serving sentence in the State prison system, and such prisoners shall be subject to all the rules and regulations legally adopted for the government thereof. Any sentence to imprisonment in any unit of the State prison system, or to jail to be assigned to work under the State Department of Correction, shall be construed as a commitment, for such terms of imprisonment as the court may direct, to the custody of the Secretary of Correction or his authorized representative, who shall designate the places of confinement within the State prison system where the sentences of all such persons shall be served. The authorized agents of the Secretary shall have all the authority of peace officers for the purpose of transferring prisoners from place to place in the State as their duties might require and for apprehending, arresting, and returning to prison escaped prisoners, and may be commissioned by the Governor, either generally or specially, as special officers for returning escaped prisoners or other fugitives from justice from outside the State, when such persons have been extradited or voluntarily surrendered. Employees of departments, institutions, agencies, and political subdivisions of the State hiring prisoners to perform work outside prison confines may be designated as the authorized agents of the Secretary of Correction for the purpose of maintaining control and custody of prisoners who may be placed under the supervision and control of such employees, including guarding and transferring such prisoners from place to place in the State as their duties might require, and apprehending and arresting escaped prisoners and returning them to prison. The governing authorities of the State prison system are authorized to determine by rules and regulations the manner of designating these agents and placing prisoners under their supervision and control, which rules and regulations shall be established in the same manner as other rules and regulations for the government of the State prison system.

The Secretary of Correction may extend the limits of the place of confinement of a prisoner, as to whom there is reasonable cause to believe he will honor his trust, by authorizing him, under prescribed conditions, to leave the confines of that place unaccompanied by a custodial agent for a prescribed period of time to

- (1) Contact prospective employers; or
- (2) Secure a suitable residence for use when released on parole or upon discharge; or
- (3) Obtain medical services not otherwise available; or
- (4) Participate in a training program in the community; or
- (5) Visit or attend the funeral of a spouse, child (including stepchild, adopted child or child as to whom the prisoner, though not a natural parent, has acted in the place of a parent), parent (including a person though not a natural parent, has acted in the place of a parent), brother, or sister; or
- (6) Participate in community-based programs of rehabilitation, including, but not limited to the existing community volunteer and home-leave programs, pre-release and after-care programs as may be provided for and administered by the Secretary of Correction and other programs determined by the Secretary of Correction to be consistent with the prisoner's rehabilitation and return to society; or
- (7) Be on maternity leave, for a period of time not to exceed 60 days. The county departments of social services are expected to cooperate with officials at the North Carolina Correctional Center for Women to coordinate prenatal care, financial services, and placement of the child; or
- (8) Receive palliative care, only in the case of a terminally ill inmate or a permanently and totally disabled inmate that the Secretary finds no longer poses a threat to society, and only after consultation with any victims of the inmate or the victims' families. For purposes of this subdivision, the term "terminally ill" describes an inmate who, as determined by a licensed physician, has an incurable condition caused by illness or disease that will likely produce death within 12 months. For purposes of this subdivision, the term "permanently and totally disabled" describes an inmate who, as determined by a licensed physician, suffers from permanent and irreversible physical incapacitation as a result of an existing physical or medical condition.

The willful failure of a prisoner to remain within the extended limits of his confinement, or to return within the time prescribed to the place of confinement designated by the Secretary of Correction, shall be deemed an escape from the custody of the Secretary of Correction punishable as provided in G.S. 148-45. (1901, c. 472, s. 4; Rev., s. 5390; C.S., s. 7706; 1925, c. 163; 1933, c. 172, ss. 5, 18; 1935, c. 257, s. 2; 1943, c. 409; 1955, c. 238, s. 2; 1957, c. 349, s. 10; 1959, c. 109; 1965, c. 1042; 1967, c. 996, ss. 13, 15; 1973, c. 902; c. 1262, s. 10; 1977, c. 704, s. 5; 1985, c. 483; 2001-424, s. 25.9(a).)

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 2001-424, s. 1.2, provides: "This act shall be known as the 'Current Operations and Capital Improvements Appropriations Act of 2001'."

Session Laws 2001-424, s. 36.5 is a severability clause.

Effect of Amendments. — Session Laws 2001-424, s. 25.9(a), effective September 26, 2001, and applicable to inmates serving sentences on or after that date, substituted "; or" for a period at the end of subdivision (7), and added subdivision (8).

CASE NOTES

Power to Designate Places of Confinement. — This section gives the Director of Prisons (now the Secretary of Correction) or his duly authorized agents or representatives the authority to designate the places of confinement within the State prison system where the sentences of prisoners shall be served. State v. Whitley, 264 N.C. 742, 142 S.E.2d 600 (1965).

Recommendation as to Confinement Held Not to Constitute Cruel and Unusual Punishment. — An attachment to commitment papers recommending “that the defendant not be placed upon work release or permitted to leave his place of confinement under this section or any other statute but be kept at all times in close security until the sentence is completed” was a mere recommendation and had no legal effect upon the type or place of incarceration of the petitioner, and it did not constitute cruel and unusual punishment. Harris v. North Carolina, 320 F. Supp. 770 (M.D.N.C. 1970), aff’d, 435 F.2d 1305 (4th Cir. 1971).

Instruction on Willfulness Under This Section Unnecessary in Prosecution Under § 148-45. — In a prosecution for felonious escape under § 148-45, trial court was not required to instruct the jury pursuant to this section that one of the essential elements of felonious escape is that the failure to remain in or return to confinement must be willful, since defendant was not charged with escape while outside the place of his confinement pursuant to authorization by the Secretary of Correction under this section, but was charged under § 148-45, which establishes the general escape offense, and that section does not contain the word “willful.” State v. Rose, 53 N.C. App. 608, 281 S.E.2d 404 (1981).

Evidence Held Sufficient to Support

Finding of Escape. — Testimony of a sergeant with the North Carolina Department of Correction assigned to the prison camp in which defendant was confined that on the day in question defendant was given permission to leave the unit on a Community Volunteer Leave was sufficient to support the jury’s finding, and it was not necessary that the State present evidence to show that the Secretary of Correction, after making a determination that there was reasonable cause to believe that defendant would honor his trust, had personally authorized defendant’s release to participate in the community volunteer program and had personally prescribed the precise period of time during which the defendant was permitted to be absent from the prison unit. State v. Harris, 27 N.C. App. 15, 217 S.E.2d 729, cert. denied, 288 N.C. 512, 219 S.E.2d 347 (1975).

A State prisoner has no legal right to the mitigation of his punishment. Wetzel v. Edwards, 635 F.2d 283 (4th Cir. 1980).

Question as to whether a particular inmate is entitled to honor grade status or parole involves policy decisions which should be made by the department and the Parole Board, not the courts. Wetzel v. Edwards, 635 F.2d 283 (4th Cir. 1980).

Applied in Goble v. Bounds, 281 N.C. 307, 188 S.E.2d 347 (1972); State v. Eppley, 30 N.C. App. 217, 226 S.E.2d 675 (1976).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL

As to the status of a convicted person awaiting appeal, see opinion of the Attorney General to Mr. Martin R. Peterson, Director of Legal Services, N.C. Department of Correction, 40 N.C.A.G. 163 (1969).

§ 148-4.1. Release of inmates.

(a) Whenever the Secretary of Correction determines from data compiled by the Department of Correction that it is necessary to reduce the prison population to a more manageable level or to meet the State’s obligations under law, he shall direct the Post-Release Supervision and Parole Commission to release on parole over a reasonable period of time a number of prisoners sufficient to that purpose. From the time the Secretary directs the Post-Release Supervision and Parole Commission until the prison population has been reduced to a more manageable level, the Secretary may not accept any inmates ordered transferred from local confinement facilities to the State prison system under G.S. 148-32.1(b). Further, the Secretary may return any inmate housed in the State prison system under an order entered pursuant to G.S. 148-32.1(b) to the local confinement facility from which the inmate was transferred. In order to meet the requirements of this section, the Parole Commission shall not parole any person convicted under Article 7A of Chapter 14 of a sex offense, under G.S. 14-39, 14-41, or 14-43.3, under G.S. 90-95(h) of a drug trafficking offense, or under G.S. 14-17, or any other violent felon as defined in subsection (a1) of this section. The Parole Commission may continue to consider the suitability for release of such persons in accordance with the criteria set forth in Articles 85 and 85A of Chapter 15A.

(a1) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, the Department of Correction shall at all times secure the necessary prison space to house any violent felon or habitual felon for the full active sentence imposed by the court. For purposes of this subsection, the term "violent felon" means any person convicted of the following felony offenses: first or second degree murder, voluntary manslaughter, first or second degree rape, first or second degree sexual offense, any sexual offense involving a minor, robbery, kidnapping, or assault, or attempting, soliciting, or conspiring to commit any of those offenses.

(b) Except as provided in subsection (c), only inmates who are otherwise eligible for parole pursuant to Article 85 of Chapter 15A or pursuant to Article 3B of this Chapter may be released under this section.

(c) Persons eligible for parole under Article 85A of Chapter 15A shall be eligible for early parole under this section nine months prior to the discharge date otherwise applicable, and six months prior to the date of automatic 90-day parole authorized by G.S. 15A-1380.2.

(c1) through (g). Repealed by 1995 Session Laws, c. 324, s. 19.9(e).

(g1) Expired July 1, 1996.

(h) A person sentenced under Article 81B of Chapter 15A of the General Statutes shall not be released pursuant to this section. (1983, c. 557, s. 1; 1985 (Reg. Sess., 1986), c. 1014, s. 197(a); 1987, c. 7, ss. 1, 3, 4; c. 879, s. 1.2; 1989, c. 1, s. 1; 1990, Ex. Sess., c. 1, ss. 1-3.3; 1989 (Reg. Sess., 1990), c. 933, ss. 10-13; 1991, c. 187, s. 2; c. 217, ss. 6, 7; c. 437, ss. 1-9; 1991 (Reg. Sess., 1992), c. 1036, ss. 5-7; 1993, c. 91, ss. 1-9; c. 538, s. 31; 1994, Ex. Sess., c. 14, s. 64; c. 15, ss. 1-4; c. 24, s. 14(b), (e); 1995, c. 324, s. 19.9(a)-(e).)

Editor's Note. — Effective March 15, 1994, Session Laws 1993 (Reg. Sess., 1994), c. 15, s. 2 repealed Session Laws 1993, c. 91, ss. 7-9, which would have been effective April 1, 1994, and would have increased the figure "21,400" in subsections (d), (e), and (f) to 21,500, pursuant to ss. 7-9 of Session Laws 1993, c. 91.

This section was amended by Session Laws 1994, Extra Session, c. 15, s. 1, in the coded bill drafting format provided by § 120-20.1. In this amendment, the section was set out in full and added a new (c1) but did not include (h). It has been set out in the form above at the direction of the Revisor of Statutes.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL

The Parole Commission has the authority to select fair-sentence inmates to be paroled pursuant to subsection (c) of this section. See opinion of Attorney General to Mr.

Ben G. Irons, II, Senior Administrative Assistant, North Carolina Department of Correction, 53 N.C.A.G. 106 (1984).

§ 148-5. Secretary to manage prison property.

The Secretary of Correction shall manage and have charge of all the property and effects of the State prison system, and conduct all its affairs subject to the provisions of this Chapter and the rules and regulations legally adopted for the government thereof. (1933, c. 172, s. 4; 1955, c. 238, s. 3; 1967, c. 996, s. 15; 1973, c. 1262, s. 10.)

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1995 (Reg. Sess., 1996), c. 18, s. 20.1 provides that in conjunction with the closing of small expensive prison units recommended for consolidation by the Government Performance Audit Committee, the Department of Correction shall consult with the county or municipality in which the unit is located or any private for-profit or non-profit firm about the possibility of converting that unit to other use. The Department may provide for the lease of any of these units to counties, municipalities, or private firms wishing to convert them to other use and the Department may also consider converting some of the units from medium security to minimum security, where that conversion would be cost-effective.

Furthermore, the Department of Correction shall report quarterly to the Joint Legislative Corrections Oversight Committee on the conversion of these units to other use.

§ 148-5.1. Confining inmates away from victims.

If a victim or immediate family member of a victim requests that, for the safety of the victim or family member, an inmate be confined outside the county where the victim or family member resides or is employed, the Department shall make a reasonable effort to house the inmate in a facility in another county. If the inmate is not so housed in another county, the Department shall notify the victim or family member in writing. (2001-433, s. 10; 2001-487, s. 120.)

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 2001-433, s. 120, makes this section effective December 1, 2001, as amended by Session Laws 2001-487, s. 2001.

§ 148-6. Custody, employment and hiring out of convicts.

The State Department of Correction shall provide for receiving, and keeping in custody until discharged by law, all such convicts as may be now confined in the prison and such as may be hereafter sentenced to imprisonment therein by the several courts of this State. The Department shall have full power and authority to provide for employment of such convicts, either in the prison or on farms leased or owned by the State of North Carolina, or elsewhere, or otherwise; and may contract for the hire or employment of any able-bodied convicts upon such terms as may be just and fair, but such convicts so hired, or employed, shall remain under the actual management, control and care of the Department: Provided, however, that no female convict shall be worked on public roads or streets in any manner. (1895, c. 194, s. 5; 1897, c. 270; 1901, c. 472, ss. 5, 6; Rev., s. 5391; C.S., s. 7707; 1925, c. 163; 1933, c. 172, s. 18; 1957, c. 349, s. 10; 1967, c. 996, s. 13.)

Legal Periodicals. — For survey of 1996 developments in the law regarding prisoner rights, see 75 N.C.L. Rev. 2428 (1997).

CASE NOTES

Basis of Section. — This section and §§ 148-26 and 148-33.1, as well as provisions with reference to paroles contained in Article 4 of this Chapter, are predicated upon the idea that the ability as well as the disposition of released prisoners to engage in honest employment and become law-abiding members of society is calculated to serve the best interests of the State and of its citizens. Pharr v. Garibaldi, 252 N.C. 803, 115 S.E.2d 18 (1960).

Employers of work release inmates are not required to supervise and control inmate employees outside the scope of their work release employment. O'Connor v. Corbett Lumber Corp., 84 N.C. App. 178, 352 S.E.2d 267 (1987).

Treatment of Prisoner Whose Conviction Was Overturned. — Where the Court of Appeals reversed defendant's conviction, and where after receiving a copy of the Court of Appeals' certified judgment the Department of Correction released defendant to the custody of the county jail, and where, on the same day, the county jailer obtained a safekeeping order transferring defendant back to the custody of the Department of Correction, the Secretary of the Department of Correction was not responsible for failing to implement a policy directing Department of Correction employees as to the proper manner with which to deal with prisoners whose convictions had been overturned on appeal; the department personnel were not on notice of the circumstances leading to the issuance of the safekeeping order and had no reason to question its sufficiency, and given the lack of discretion allowed to the Department and state law, there was no reasonable way that the Secretary could have detailed a policy that would have avoided defendant's misfortunes. Allen v. Lowder, 875 F.2d 82 (4th Cir. 1989).

Stated in State v. Whitley, 264 N.C. 742, 142 S.E.2d 600 (1965).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL

Department of Correction Has No Authority on Its Own to Correct an Invalid Sentence. — See opinion of Attorney General to Mr. Martin Peterson, Department of Correction, 41 N.C.A.G. 291 (1971).

§ 148-7: Repealed by Session Laws 1995, c. 233, s. 1.

§ 148-8: Transferred to § 66-58(b)(15) by Session Laws 1975, c. 730, s. 2.

§ 148-10. Department of Environment and Natural Resources to supervise sanitary and health conditions of prisoners.

The Department of Environment and Natural Resources shall have general supervision over the sanitary and health conditions of the central prison, over the prison camps, or other places of confinement of prisoners under the jurisdiction of the State Department of Correction, and shall make periodic examinations of the same and report to the State Department of Correction the conditions found there with respect to the sanitary and hygienic care of such prisoners. (1917, c. 286, s. 8; 1919, c. 80, s. 4; C.S., s. 7714; 1925, c. 163; 1933, c. 172, s. 22; 1943, c. 409; 1957, c. 349, s. 10; 1967, c. 996, s. 13; 1973, c. 476, s. 128; 1989, c. 727, s. 219(37); 1997-443, s. 11A.111.)

§ 148-10.1. Employment of clinical chaplains for inmates.

The Department of Correction is authorized and directed to employ clinical chaplains to provide moral, spiritual and social counselling and ministerial services to inmates in the custody of the Secretary of the Department of Correction. The Department of Correction shall seek to employ a diversity of qualified persons having differing faiths which are to the extent practicable reflective of the professed religious composition of the inmate population. (1977, c. 950, s. 1.)

§ 148-10.2. Policy: Certain inmates not to contact family members of victims.

(a) It shall be the policy of the Department of Correction to prohibit death row inmates from contacting the surviving family members of the victims without the written consent of the family members being contacted. For purposes of this subsection, the term "contact" includes arranging for a third party to forward communications from the inmate to the surviving family members of the victim.

(b) At the request of the victim or a family member of the victim, the Department of Correction shall prohibit an inmate convicted of an offense listed in G.S. 15A-830(a)(7) from contacting the requesting party. For purposes of this subsection, the term "contact" includes arranging for a third party to forward communications from the inmate to the victim or family member.

(c) The Department of Correction shall develop and impose sanctions against any inmate who violates the provisions of this section. (1999-358, s. 1; 2001-433, s. 9; 2001-487, s. 120.)

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1999-358, s. 1 was codified as this section at the direction of the Revisor of Statutes.

Effect of Amendments. — Session Laws 2001-433, s. 9, as amended by Session Laws 2001-487, s. 120, effective December 1, 2001, substituted "Certain inmates" for "Death row inmates" in the catchline; inserted the subsection (a) designation and substituted "this subsection" for "this section" in subsection (a); and added subsections (b) and (c).

ARTICLE 2.

Prison Regulations.

§ 148-11. Authority to adopt rules; authority to designate uniforms.

(a) The Secretary shall adopt rules for the government of the State prison system. The Secretary shall have the rules that pertain to enforcing discipline read to every prisoner when received in the State prison system and a printed copy of these rules made available to the prisoners.

(b) The Secretary of Correction has sole authority to designate the uniforms worn by inmates confined in the Division of Prisons. (1873-4, c. 158, s. 15; Code, s. 3444; Rev., s. 5401; C.S., s. 7721; 1925, c. 163; 1933, c. 172, s. 18; 1955, c. 238, s. 4; 1957, c. 349, s. 4; 1967, c. 996, ss. 14, 15; 1973, c. 1262, s. 10; 1983, c. 147, s. 1; 1987, c. 827, s. 1; 1991, c. 418, s. 15; c. 477, ss. 6, 8; 1995, c. 507, s. 27.8(u); 1999-109, s. 2.)

Courts are not authorized to deal with the giving or withholding of privileges or rewards under the rules authorized by this section. State v. Shoemaker, 273 N.C. 475, 160 S.E.2d 281 (1968).

Fact that disciplinary punishment inflicted on a prisoner by a prison official was administered in accordance with the rules and regulations of the former State Highway and Public Works Commission did not render the prison official immune to prosecution for assault unless the particular regulation relied on was within the statutory authority of the Commission. State v. Carpenter, 231 N.C. 229, 56 S.E.2d 713 (1949).

Public Official Immunity for Enforcement of Rules. — Prison officials acted within the scope of their authority and were therefore protected by public official immunity from prisoner's action claiming that officials violated this section and prison regulations by depriving him of pens and other materials. Price v. Davis, 132 N.C. App. 556, 512 S.E.2d 783 (1999).

Fair Sentencing Act. — Although the principal provisions of the Fair Sentencing Act are codified in Chapter 15A, Article 81A of the General Statutes, the act resulted in revisions to other portions of the General Statutes. See, e.g., Chapter 14, Articles 1, 2, 2A, 33; Chapter 15A, Articles 58, 81A, 82, 83, 85, 85A, 89, 91; Chapter 148, Article 2, and Chapter 162, Article 4. State v. Ahearn, 307 N.C. 584, 300 S.E.2d 689 (1983).

For discussion of the historical background, policies, purposes, and implementation of the new Fair Sentencing Act, see State v. Ahearn, 307 N.C. 584, 300 S.E.2d 689 (1983).

Obtaining Medical Care Outside of Prison. — North Carolina law bars all but minimum-security prisoners from exercising an option to go outside the prison and obtain medical care of their choice at their own expense or funded by family resources or private health insurance. West v. Atkins, 487 U.S. 42, 108 S. Ct. 2250, 101 L. Ed. 2d 40 (1988).

Applied in State v. McCall, 273 N.C. 135, 159 S.E.2d 316 (1968).

Cited in State v. Garris, 265 N.C. 711, 144 S.E.2d 901 (1965); Goble v. Bounds, 281 N.C. 307, 188 S.E.2d 347 (1972); Slakan v. Porter, 737 F.2d 368 (4th Cir. 1984).

§ 148-12. Diagnostic and classification programs.

(a) The Department of Correction shall, as soon as practicable, establish diagnostic centers to make social, medical, and psychological studies of persons committed to the Department. Full diagnostic studies shall be made before initial classification in cases where such studies have not been made.

(b) Repealed by Session Laws 1977, c. 711, s. 33, effective July 1, 1978.

(c) Any prisoner confined in the State prison system while under a sentence of imprisonment imposed upon conviction of a felony shall be classified and treated as a convicted felon even if, before beginning service of the felony sentence, such prisoner has time remaining to be served in the State prison system on a sentence or sentences imposed upon conviction of a misdemeanor or misdemeanors. (1917, c. 278, s. 2; 1919, c. 191, s. 2; C.S., s. 7750; 1925, c. 163; 1933, c. 172, s. 18; 1955, c. 238, s. 5; 1959, c. 50; 1967, c. 996, s. 2; 1973, c. 1446, s. 27; 1977, c. 711, s. 33; 1977, 2nd Sess., c. 1147, s. 32.)

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1977, c. 711, s. 34, provided: "All statutes which refer to sections repealed or amended by the act shall be deemed, insofar as possible, to refer to those provisions of this act which accomplish the same or an equivalent purpose."

Session Laws 1977, c. 711, s. 39, as amended by Session Laws 1977, 2nd Sess., c. 1147, s. 32, effective July 1, 1978, provided: "This act shall become effective July 1, 1978, and applies to all matters addressed by its provisions without regard to when a defendant's guilt was established or when judgment was entered against him, except that the provisions of this act regarding parole shall not apply to persons sentenced before July 1, 1978."

Session Laws 1977, c. 732, s. 6, provided that all commitments to the Department of Correction under former G.S. 148-49.3 should be treated as commitments under subsection (b) of this section. However, subsection (b) was repealed by Session Laws 1977, c. 711, s. 33, effective July 1, 1978.

Session Laws 1973, c. 803, s. 44, purported to repeal "the third unnumbered paragraph" of this section. The 1973 act apparently intended to amend § 158-12.

Legal Periodicals. — For article discussing the presence diagnostic program in North Carolina, see 9 N.C. Cent. L.J. 133 (1978).

CASE NOTES

Power of Judge Other Than Trial Judge to Impose Sentence. — Where sentencing was delayed for the purpose of a diagnostic evaluation of the defendant under this section, it was not error for a judge other than the trial judge to impose sentence upon the defendant. State v. Sampson, 34 N.C. App. 305, 237 S.E.2d 883 (1977), cert. denied, 294 N.C. 185, 241 S.E.2d 520 (1978).

§ 148-13. Regulations as to custody grades, privileges, gain time credit, etc.

(a) The Secretary of Correction may issue regulations regarding the grades of custody in which State prisoners are kept, the privileges and restrictions applicable to each custody grade, and the amount of cash, clothing, etc., to be awarded to State prisoners after their discharge or parole. The amount of cash awarded to a prisoner upon discharge or parole after being incarcerated for two years or longer shall be at least forty-five dollars ($45.00).

(a1) The Secretary of Correction shall adopt rules to specify the rates at, and circumstances under, which earned time authorized by G.S. 15A-1340.13(d) and G.S. 15A-1340.20(d) may be earned or forfeited by persons serving activated sentences of imprisonment for felony or misdemeanor convictions.

(b) With respect to prisoners who are serving prison or jail terms for impaired driving offenses under G.S. 20-138.1, the Secretary of Correction may, in his discretion, issue regulations regarding deductions of time from the terms of such prisoners for good behavior, meritorious conduct, work or study, participation in rehabilitation programs, and the like.

(e) The Secretary's regulations concerning earned time credits authorized by this section shall be distributed to and followed by local jail administrators with regard to sentenced jail prisoners.

(f) The provisions of this section do not apply to persons sentenced to a term of special probation under G.S. 15A-1344(e) or G.S. 15A-1351(a). (1933, c. 172, s. 23; 1935, c. 414, s. 15; 1937, c. 88, s. 1; 1943, c. 409; 1955, c. 238, s. 6; 1979, c. 760, s. 4; 1979, 2nd Sess., c. 1316, ss. 43-47; 1981, c. 63, s. 1; c. 179, s. 14; c. 662, ss. 8, 9; 1983, c. 560, s. 3; 1985, c. 310, ss. 1-4; 1987 (Reg. Sess., 1988), c. 1086, s. 120(a); 1991, c. 187, s. 3; 1993, c. 538, s. 32; 1994, Ex. Sess., c. 24, s. 14(b).)

CASE NOTES

Editor's Note. — Most of the cases cited below were decided under this section as it read prior to the 1979 amendment thereto.

Rules as to "Good Time" Rewards Are Strictly Administrative. — Prison rules and regulations respecting rewards and privileges for good conduct ("good time") are strictly administrative and not judicial. State v. Garris, 265 N.C. 711, 144 S.E.2d 901 (1965); State v. McCall, 273 N.C. 135, 159 S.E.2d 316 (1968); Goble v. Bounds, 13 N.C. App. 579, 186 S.E.2d 638, aff'd, 281 N.C. 307, 188 S.E.2d 347 (1972).

As Are Grades Established for "Gain

Time." — The grades established for "gain time" based on differences in work assignment are matters of prison administration, to be disturbed only if clearly arbitrary or capricious. Ham v. North Carolina, 471 F.2d 406 (4th Cir. 1973).

And Allowance of Gained Time. — Allowance of gained time is a discretionary act of the State prison administrative body, and decisions as to its allowance will not be upset by the federal courts unless clearly arbitrary or capricious. Kelly v. North Carolina, 276 F. Supp. 200 (E.D.N.C. 1967).

Courts Are Not Authorized to Deal with Giving or Withholding Such Rewards. —

Giving or withholding of the rewards and privileges under these rules is not a matter with which the courts are authorized to deal. State v. Garris, 265 N.C. 711, 144 S.E.2d 901 (1965); Goble v. Bounds, 13 N.C. App. 579, 186 S.E.2d 638, aff'd, 281 N.C. 307, 188 S.E.2d 347 (1972).

The giving or withholding of the rewards and privileges under rules and regulations authorized by § 148-11 is not a matter with which the courts are authorized to deal. State v. McCall, 273 N.C. 135, 159 S.E.2d 316 (1968).

Discretion of Secretary to Determine Allowance and Forfeiture of Gained Time. —

State law vests authority to determine allowance and forfeiture of gained time in the Director of Prisons (now Secretary of Correction) to be exercised in his sound discretion. Patton v. Ross, 267 F. Supp. 387 (E.D.N.C. 1967).

Service on a vacated sentence must be considered in determining defendant's gained time, if any, on account of good behavior. Patton v. Ross, 267 F. Supp. 387 (E.D.N.C. 1967).

Benefits Depend on Conduct. — Whether a prisoner shall benefit by the rules and regulations authorized by § 148-11 depends on his own conduct. State v. McCall, 273 N.C. 135, 159 S.E.2d 316 (1968).

Honor-Grade Status, Work-Release Privilege and Parole Are Discretionary Acts of Clemency. —

Honor-grade status, work-release privilege, and parole are discretionary acts of grace or clemency extended by the State as a reward for good behavior, conferring no vested rights upon the convicted person. An accused person must be given full constitutional protection before and during his trial, but procedures of constitutional dimension are not appropriate in subsequent determinations of rewards for good behavior while serving a validly imposed sentence of confinement. Goble v. Bounds, 13 N.C. App. 579, 186 S.E.2d 638, aff'd, 281 N.C. 307, 188 S.E.2d 347 (1972).

In Mitigation of Terms of Judgment. —

The grant of honor-grade status, work release, and parole is by way of mitigating the terms of the judgment which the court has entered. The legality and propriety of the trial and sentence have already been determined after the prisoner has been heard and his constitutional rights have been accorded him. The merits of the trial and the validity of the judgment may not again be raised before the Department of Correction and the Board of Paroles (now Parole Commission). Goble v. Bounds, 281 N.C. 307, 188 S.E.2d 347 (1972).

Involving Policy Decisions. — Whether a prisoner is entitled to honor-grade status, work release, or parole involves policy decisions which should be decided by the Department of Correction and the Board of Paroles (Parole Commission). These agencies are charged with the duty of making such decisions and are properly given means of discharging it not available to the courts. Goble v. Bounds, 281 N.C. 307, 188 S.E.2d 347 (1972).

While a prisoner takes with him into the prison certain rights which may not be denied him, the legal right to the mitigation of his punishment is not one of them. It is contemplated as a part of his rehabilitation that he earn his right to honor-grade status, work release, or parole. The decision is not in the nature of an adversary proceeding under rules of evidence. Goble v. Bounds, 281 N.C. 307, 188 S.E.2d 347 (1972).

And Inmate Being Considered for Honor-Grade Status or Work Release Is Not Entitled to Procedural Due Process. —

An inmate being considered for honor-grade status or work release is not entitled, either under the State or federal Constitutions, to procedural due process rights. Goble v. Bounds, 13 N.C. App. 579, 186 S.E.2d 638, aff'd, 281 N.C. 307, 188 S.E.2d 347 (1972).

Judges still have discretion to increase or reduce sentences from the presumptive term upon findings of aggravating or mitigating factors, the weighing of which is a matter within their sound discretion. The balance struck by the trial judge will not be disturbed if there is support in the record for his determination. State v. Stone, 71 N.C. App. 417, 322 S.E.2d 413 (1984).

Trial judge's remarks concerning the effect of "good time" and "gain time", which were not an expression of dissatisfaction with the length of time convicted criminals must serve in prison, but were made in an effort to respond to defense counsel's impassioned argument concerning the fact that the defendant would be required to serve other sentences totalling four years at the expiration of the sentence at issue, could not be said to indicate that the trial court was using the sentencing process to thwart the Fair Sentencing Act. State v. Swimm, 316 N.C. 24, 340 S.E.2d 65 (1985).

Cited in In re Swink, 243 N.C. 86, 89 S.E.2d 792 (1955); State v. Weaver, 264 N.C. 681, 142 S.E.2d 633 (1965); Robbins v. Freeman, 127 N.C. App. 162, 487 S.E.2d 771 (1997), cert. granted, 347 N.C. 270, 493 S.E.2d 746 (1997), aff'd, 347 N.C. 664, 496 S.E.2d 375 (1998).

§ 148-18. Wages, allowances and loans.

(a) Prisoners employed in prison enterprises shall be compensated at hourly rates fixed by the Department of Correction's rules and regulations, or on the basis of production quotas established by prison enterprises, for work performed; provided, that no prisoner working for prison enterprises shall be paid more than three dollars ($3.00) per day from funds made available by the Prison Enterprises Fund.

Prisoners employed other than by prison enterprises and those involved in the maintenance and housekeeping of the prison system, shall be compensated at rates fixed by the Department of Correction's rules and regulations; provided, that no prisoner so paid shall receive more than one dollar ($1.00) per day. The source of wages and allowances provided inmates who are not employed by prison enterprises shall be funds provided by the Department of Transportation to the Department of Correction for this purpose. The provisions of this subsection shall not apply to wages paid by private prison enterprises conducted pursuant to G.S. 148-70.

(b) A prisoner shall be required to contribute to the support of any of his dependents residing in North Carolina who may be receiving public assistance during the period of commitment if funds available to the prisoner are adequate for such purpose. The dependency status and need shall be determined by the department of social services in the county of North Carolina in which such dependents reside.

(c) Repealed by Session Laws 1995, c. 233, s. 2. (1935, c. 414, s. 19; 1967, c. 996, s. 3; 1969, c. 982; 1973, c. 1262, s. 10; 1975, c. 506, s. 3; c. 716, s. 7; 1991 (Reg. Sess., 1992), c. 902, s. 5; 1993, c. 321, s. 175; 1995, c. 233, s. 2.)

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1975, c. 682, which amended § 148-26 and added §§ 148-26.1 through 148-26.5, provided in s. 4: "Nothing in this act shall be construed as altering or amending G.S. 148-26(b) or G.S. 148-18(a) as set out in Chapter 506 of the 1975 Session Laws."

Session Laws 1993, c. 321, s. 322 is a severability clause.

§ 148-18.1. Confiscation of unauthorized articles.

Any item of personal property which a prisoner in any correctional facility is prohibited from possessing by State law or which is not authorized by rules adopted by the Secretary of Correction shall, when found in the possession of a prisoner, be confiscated and destroyed or otherwise disposed of as the Secretary may direct. Any unauthorized funds confiscated under this section or funds from the sale of confiscated property shall be deposited to Inmate Welfare Fund maintained by the Department of Correction. (1983, c. 289, s. 1.)

CASE NOTES

Constitutionality. — This section and the regulations of the North Carolina Department of Correction which implement the statute do not violate petitioner's rights under U.S. Const., Amend. XIV or the law of the land clause of N.C. Const., Art. I, § 19. In re Smith, 82 N.C. App. 107, 345 S.E.2d 423 (1986).

This section and the Department of Correction regulations implementing the statute provide necessary due process procedural safeguards and meet substantive due process requirements. In re Smith, 82 N.C. App. 107, 345 S.E.2d 423 (1986).

§ 148-19. Health services.

(a) The general policies, rules and regulations of the Department of Correction shall prescribe standards for health services to prisoners, which shall include preventive, diagnostic, and therapeutic measures on both an outpatient and a hospital basis, for all types of patients. A prisoner may be taken, when necessary, to a medical facility outside the State prison system. The Department of Correction shall seek the cooperation of public and private agencies, institutions, officials and individuals in the development of adequate health services to prisoners.

(b) Upon request of the Secretary of Correction, the Secretary of Health and Human Services may detail personnel employed by the Department of Health and Human Services to the Department of Correction for the purpose of supervising and furnishing medical, psychiatric, psychological, dental, and other technical and scientific services to the Department of Correction. The compensation, allowances, and expenses of the personnel detailed under this section may be paid from applicable appropriations to the Department of Health and Human Services, and reimbursed from applicable appropriations to the Department of Correction. The Secretary of Correction may make similar arrangements with any other agency of State government able and willing to aid the Department of Correction to meet the needs of prisoners for health services.

(c) Each prisoner committed to the State Department of Correction shall receive a physical and mental examination by a health care professional authorized by the North Carolina Medical Board to perform such examinations as soon as practicable after admission and before being assigned to work. The prisoner's work and other assignments shall be made with due regard for the prisoner's physical and mental condition.

(d) The Commission for Mental Health, Developmental Disabilities, and Substance Abuse Services shall adopt standards for the delivery of mental health and mental retardation services to inmates in the custody of the Department of Correction. The Commission for Mental Health, Developmental Disabilities, and Substance Abuse Services shall give the Secretary of Correction an opportunity to review and comment on proposed standards prior to promulgation of such standards; however, final authority to determine such standards remains with the Commission. The Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services shall designate an agency or agencies within the Department of Health and Human Services to monitor the implementation by the Department of Correction of these standards and of substance abuse standards adopted by the Department of Correction upon the advice of the Substance Abuse Advisory Council established pursuant to G.S. 143B-270. The Secretary of Health and Human Services shall send a written report on the progress which the Department of Correction has made on the implementation of such standards to the Governor, the Lieutenant Governor, and the Speaker of the House. Such reports shall be made on an annual basis beginning January 1, 1978. (1917, c. 286, s. 22; C.S., s. 7727; 1925, c. 163; 1933, c. 172, s. 18; 1957, c. 349, s. 10; 1967, c. 996, s. 4; 1973, c. 476, s. 133; c. 1262, s. 10; 1977, c. 332; c. 679, s. 7; 1981, c. 51, s. 6; c. 707, ss. 1, 2; 1985, c. 589, s. 55.1; 1991, c. 405, s. 1; 1995, c. 94, s. 36; 1997-443, s. 11A.118(a).)

CASE NOTES

Basic Health Services for Prisoners. — In compliance with this section, 5 N.C. Admin. Code § 02E.0201 (1987) charges the director, division of prisons, with the responsibility of providing each prisoner the services necessary to maintain basic health. West v. Atkins, 487 U.S. 42, 108 S. Ct. 2250, 101 L. Ed. 2d 40 (1988).

The Department of Correction has a duty to provide adequate medical care to inmates in its custody, and the duty is of such great importance that the state cannot avoid liability by contracting with someone else to perform it. Medley v. North Carolina Dep't of Cor., 330 N.C. 837, 412 S.E.2d 654 (1992).

Additional Examinations. — Whenever there is a change of physical or mental condition, it would seem to logically follow that a further examination is required under this section; however, the frequency of such examinations must, as a practical matter, be left to the sound discretion of prison authorities. Threatt v. North Carolina, 221 F. Supp. 858 (W.D.N.C. 1963).

Cited in Price v. Dixon, 961 F. Supp. 894 (E.D.N.C. 1997).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL

Legislative Intent. — Although Substance Abuse Advisory Council was not given any rule making authority of its own, the clear intent of the General Assembly was to give Council an active role in the formulation of policy governing the substance abuse program. Thus, Council was directed to give advice to Secretary of Correction as to any rules and regulations and on any other matters pertaining to program; however, 1987 legislation did not impose a duty upon the Commission for Mental Health, Mental Retardation and Substance Abuse Services to consult directly with Council; the Commission's responsibility as set out in subsection (d) of this section was left untouched and is fulfilled by giving Secretary of Correction opportunity to review and comment on proposed standards for delivery of substance abuse services to inmates. Secretary of Correction should then consult with the Council under §§ 143B-270 and 143B-271 in order to effectuate the legislatively intended role of the Council. See opinion of Attorney General to Substance Abuse Council, 60 N.C.A.G. 27 (1990).

(a) Inpatient chemical dependency or substance abuse facilities that provide services exclusively to inmates of the Department of Correction shall be exempt from licensure by the Department of Health and Human Services under Chapter 122C of the General Statutes. If an inpatient chemical dependency or substance abuse facility provides services both to inmates of the Department of Correction and to members of the general public, the portion of the facility that serves inmates shall be exempt from licensure.

(b) Any person who contracts to provide inpatient chemical dependency or substance abuse services to inmates of the Department of Correction may construct and operate a new chemical dependency or substance abuse facility for that purpose without first obtaining a certificate of need from the Department of Health and Human Services pursuant to Article 9 of Chapter 131E of the General Statutes. However, a new facility or addition developed for that purpose without a certificate of need shall not be licensed pursuant to Chapter 122C of the General Statutes and shall not admit anyone other than inmates unless the owner or operator first obtains a certificate of need. (2001-424, s. 25.19(a).)

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 2001-424, s. 36.6, made this section effective July 1, 2001.

Session Laws 2001-424, s. 1.2, provides: "This act shall be known as the 'Current Operations and Capital Improvements Appropriations Act of 2001'."

§ 148-20. Corporal punishment of prisoners prohibited.

It is unlawful for the Secretary of Correction or any other person having the care, custody, or control of any prisoner in this State to make or enforce any rule or regulation providing for the whipping, flogging, or administration of any similar corporal punishment of any prisoner, or to give any specific order for or cause to be administered or personally to administer or inflict any such corporal punishment. (1917, c. 286, s. 7; C.S., s. 7728; 1925, c. 163; 1933, c. 172, s. 18; 1955, c. 238, s. 9; 1963, c. 1174, s. 1; 1967, c. 996, s. 15; 1973, c. 1262, s. 10.)

Striking Prisoner with Key Ring and Kicking Him into Cell Not Countenanced.

— Nothing contained in this section can be said to countenance striking the prisoner with a key ring or kicking him into his cell. Threatt v. North Carolina, 221 F. Supp. 858 (W.D.N.C. 1963).

§ 148-22. Treatment programs.

(a) The general policies, rules and regulations of the Department of Correction shall provide for humane treatment of prisoners and for programs to effect their correction and return to the community as promptly as practicable. Visits and correspondence between prisoners and approved friends shall be authorized under reasonable conditions, and family members shall be permitted and encouraged to maintain close contact with the prisoners unless such contacts prove to be hurtful. Casework, counseling, and psychotherapy services provided to prisoners may be extended to include members of the prisoner's family if practicable and necessary to achieve the purposes of such programs. Education, library, recreation, and vocational training programs shall be developed so as to coordinate with corresponding services and opportunities which will be available to the prisoner when he is released. Programs may be established for the treatment and training of mentally retarded prisoners and other special groups. These programs may be operated in segregated sections of facilities housing other prisoners or in separate facilities.

(b) The Department of Correction may cooperate with and seek the cooperation of public and private agencies, institutions, officials, and individuals in the development and conduct of programs designed to give persons committed to the Department opportunities for physical, mental and moral improvement. The Department may enter into agreements with other agencies of federal, State or local government and with private agencies to promote the most effective use of available resources.

Specifically the Secretary of Correction may enter into contracts or agreements with appropriate public or private agencies offering needed services including health, mental health, mental retardation, substance abuse, rehabilitative or training services for such inmates of the Department of Correction as the Secretary may deem eligible. These agencies shall be reimbursed from applicable appropriations to the Department of Correction for services rendered at a rate not to exceed that which such agencies normally receive for serving their regular clients.

The Secretary may contract for the housing of work-release inmates at county jails and local confinement facilities. Inmates may be placed in the care of such agencies but shall remain the responsibility of the Department and shall be subject to the complete supervision of the Department. The Department may reimburse such agencies for the support of such inmates at a rate not in excess of the average daily cost of inmate care in the corrections unit to which the inmate would otherwise be assigned. ## CASE NOTES

§ 148-22.1. Educational facilities and programs for selected inmates.

(a) The State Department of Correction is authorized to take advantage of aid available from any source in establishing facilities and developing programs to provide inmates of the State prison system with such academic and vocational and technical education as seems most likely to facilitate the rehabilitation of these inmates and their return to free society with attitudes, knowledge, and skills that will improve their prospects of becoming law-abiding and self-supporting citizens. The State Department of Public Instruction is authorized to cooperate with the State Department of Correction in planning academic and vocational and technical education of prison system inmates, but the State Department of Public Instruction is not authorized to expend any funds in this connection.

(b) In expending funds that may be made available for facilities and programs to provide inmates of the State prison system with academic and vocational and technical education, the State Department of Correction shall give priority to meeting the needs of inmates who are less than 21 years of age when received in the prison system with a sentence or sentences under which they will be held for not less than six months nor more than five years before becoming eligible to be considered for a parole or unconditional release. These inmates shall be given appropriate tests to determine their educational needs and aptitudes. When the necessary arrangements can be made, they shall receive such instruction as may be deemed practical and advisable for them. (1959, c. 431; 1967, c. 996, s. 13; 1985, c. 226, s. 1; 1993, c. 180, s. 8.)

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1995, c. 269, s. 1, provides that a pilot correction education program that would allow prison inmates to participate in community college capital construction projects is established. The State Board of Community Colleges shall report to the General Assembly prior to January 1, 1997, on the progress of the program.

§ 148-22.2. Procedure when surgical operations on inmates are necessary.

The medical staff of any penal institution of the State of North Carolina is hereby authorized to perform or cause to be performed by competent and skillful surgeons surgical operations upon any inmate when such operation is necessary for the improvement of the physical condition of the inmate. The decision to perform such operation shall be made by the chief medical officer of the institution, with the approval of the superintendent of the institution, and with the advice of the medical staff of said institution. No such operation shall be performed without the consent of the inmate; or, if the inmate be a minor, without the consent of a responsible member of his family, a guardian, or one having legal custody of such minor; or, if the inmate be non compos mentis, then the consent of a responsible member of his family or of a guardian must be obtained. Any surgical operations on inmates of State penal institutions shall also be subject to the provisions of Article 1A of Chapter 90 of the General Statutes and G.S. 90-21.13 and G.S. 90-21.14.

If the operation on the inmate is determined by the chief medical officer to be an emergency situation in which immediate action is necessary to preserve the life or health of the inmate, and the inmate, if sui juris, is unconscious or otherwise incapacitated so as to be incapable of giving consent or in the case of a minor or inmate non compos mentis, the consent of a responsible member of his family, guardian, or one having legal custody of such inmate cannot be obtained within the time necessitated by the nature of the emergency situation, then the decision to proceed with the operation shall be made by the chief medical officer and the superintendent of the institution with the advice of the medical staff of the institution.

In all cases falling under this Article [section], the chief medical officer of the institution and the medical staff of the institution shall keep a careful and complete record of the measures taken to obtain the permission for such operation and a complete medical record signed by the medical superintendent or director, the surgeon performing the operation and all surgical consultants of the operation performed.

This Article [section] is not to be considered as affecting the provisions of Article 7 of Chapter 35 of the General Statutes dealing with eugenical sterilization. (1919, c. 281, ss. 1, 2; C.S., ss. 7221, 7222; 1947, c. 537, s. 24; 1951, c. 775; 1957, c. 1357, s. 1; 1981, c. 307, ss. 2, 3.)

Editor's Note. — This section was formerly § 130-191. It was amended and transferred to Chapter 148 by Session Laws 1981, c. 307, s. 8, which originally designated the transferred section as § 148-22.1; since that number had already been assigned, the section was renumbered as § 148-22.2.

The reference in this section to § 90-21.14 should probably now be to § 90-21.16. Session Laws 2001-230, s. 1(b), recodified former subsection (a1) of § 90-21.14 as present § 90-21.16.

§ 148-23. Prison employees not to use intoxicants, narcotic drugs or profanity.

No one addicted to the use of alcoholic beverages, or narcotic drugs, shall be employed as superintendent, warden, guard, or in any other position connected with the State Department of Correction, where such position requires the incumbent to have any charge or direction of the prisoners; and anyone holding such position, or anyone who may be employed in any other capacity in the State prison system, who shall come under the influence of alcoholic beverages during hours of employment, or reports for duty under the effect of intoxicants, or narcotic drugs, or who shall become intoxicated, or uses narcotic drugs, under circumstances that bring discredit on the State Department of Correction, shall be subject to immediate dismissal from employment by any of the institutions and shall not be eligible for reinstatement to such position or be employed in any other position in any of the institutions. Any superintendent, warden, guard, supervisor, or other person holding any position in the State Department of Correction who curses a prisoner under his charge shall be subject to immediate dismissal from employment and shall not be eligible for reinstatement. (1917, c. 286, s. 16; 1919, c. 80, s. 8; C.S., s. 7733; 1925, c. 163; 1933, c. 172, s. 18; 1957, c. 349, s. 10; 1967, c. 996, s. 13; 1969, c. 382; 1981, c. 412, s. 4(4); c. 747, s. 66.)

§ 148-24. Religious services.

The general policies, rules and regulations of the Department of Correction shall provide for religious services to be held in all units of the State prison system on Sunday and at such other times as may be deemed appropriate. Attendance of prisoners at religious services shall be voluntary. The Secretary of Correction shall if possible secure the visits of some minister at the prison hospitals to administer to the spiritual wants of the sick. (1873-4, c. 158, s. 18; 1883, c. 349; Code, s. 3446; Rev., s. 5405; 1915, c. 125, ss. 1, 2; 1917, c. 286, s.

15; C.S., s. 7735; 1925, c. 163; c. 275, s. 6; 1933, c. 172, s. 18; 1955, c. 238, s. 9; 1967, c. 996, s. 6; 1973, c. 1262, s. 10.)

§ 148-25. Secretary to investigate death of convicts.

The Secretary of Correction, upon information of the death of a convict other than by natural causes, shall investigate the cause thereof and report the result of such investigation to the Governor, and for this purpose the Secretary may administer oaths and send for persons and papers. (1885, c. 379, s. 2; Rev., s. 5409; C.S., s. 7746; 1925, c. 163; 1933, c. 172, s. 18; 1955, c. 238, s. 9; 1967, c. 996, s. 15; 1973, c. 1262, s. 10.)

ARTICLE 3.

Labor of Prisoners.

§ 148-26. State policy on employment of prisoners.

(a) It is declared to be the public policy of the State of North Carolina that all able-bodied prison inmates shall be required to perform diligently all work assignments provided for them. The failure of any inmate to perform such a work assignment may result in disciplinary action. Work assignments and employment shall be for the public benefit to reduce the cost of maintaining the inmate population while enabling inmates to acquire or retain skills and work habits needed to secure honest employment after their release.

In exercising his power to enter into contracts to supply inmate labor as provided by this section, the Secretary of Correction shall not assign any inmate to work under any such contract who is eligible for work release as provided in this Article, study release as provided by G.S. 148-4(4), or who is eligible for a program of vocational rehabilitation services through the State Vocational Rehabilitation Agency, unless suitable work release employment or educational opportunity cannot be found for the inmate, and the inmate is not eligible for a program of vocational rehabilitation services through the State Vocational Rehabilitation Agency, and shall not agree to supply inmate labor for any project or service unless it meets all of the following criteria:

- (1) The project or service involves a type of work by which inmates can develop a skill to better equip themselves to return to society;
- (2) The project or service is of benefit to the citizens of North Carolina or units of State or local government thereof, regardless of whether the project or service is performed on public or private property;
- (3) Repealed by Session Laws 1977, c. 824, s. 2.
- (4) Wages shall be paid in an amount not exceeding one dollar ($1.00) per day per inmate by the local or State contracting agency.

(b) As many minimum custody prisoners as are available and fit for road work, who cannot appropriately be placed on work release, study release, or other full-time programs, and as many medium custody prisoners as are available, fit for road work and can be adequately guarded during such work without reducing security levels at prison units, shall be employed in the maintenance and construction of public roads of the State. The number and location of prisoners to be kept available for work on the public roads shall be agreed upon by the governing authorities of the Department of Transportation and the State Department of Correction far enough in advance of each budget to permit proper provisions to be made in the request for appropriations submitted by the Department of Transportation. Any dispute between the Departments will be resolved by the Governor. Prisoners so employed shall be compensated, at rates fixed by the Department of Correction's rules and regulations for work performed; provided, that no prisoner working on the public roads under the provisions of this section shall be paid more than one dollar ($1.00) per day from funds provided by the Department of Transportation to the Department of Correction for this purpose. The Department of Correction and the Department of Transportation shall develop a program to be implemented no later than July 1, 1982, to the extent money is herein appropriated, which shall include:

(1) The use of portable toilets for inmate road crews.

(c) As many of the male prisoners available and fit for forestry work shall be employed in the development and improvement of state-owned forests as can be used for this purpose by the agencies controlling these forests.

(d) The remainder of the able-bodied inmates of the State prison system shall be employed so far as practicable in prison industries and agriculture, giving preference to the production of food supplies and other articles needed by state-supported institutions or activities.

(e) The State Department of Correction may make such contracts with departments, institutions, agencies, and political subdivisions of the State for the hire of prisoners to perform other appropriate work as will help to make the prisons as nearly self-supporting as is consistent with the purposes of their creation. The Department of Correction may contract with any person or any group of persons for the hire of prisoners for forestry work, soil erosion control, water conservation, hurricane damage prevention, or any similar work certified by the Secretary of Environment and Natural Resources as beneficial in the conservation of the natural resources of this State. All contracts for the employment of prisoners shall provide that they shall be fed, clothed, quartered, guarded, and otherwise cared for by the Department of Correction. Such work may include but is not limited to work with State or local government agencies in cleaning, construction, landscaping and maintenance of roads, parks, nature trails, bikeways, cemeteries, landfills or other government-owned or operated facilities.

(f) Adult inmates of the State prison system shall be prohibited from working at or being on the premises of any schools or institutions operated or administered by the Youth Development Division of the Department of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention. (1933, c. 172, ss. 1, 14; 1957, c. 349, s. 5; 1967, c. 996, s. 13; 1971, c. 193; 1973, c. 1262, s. 86; 1975, c. 278; c. 506, ss. 1, 2; c. 682, s. 2; c. 716, s. 7; 1977, c. 771, s. 4; c. 802, s. 25.36; c. 824, ss. 1-3; 1981, c. 516; 1981 (Reg. Sess., 1982), c. 1400; 1989, c. 727, s. 218(156); 1997-443, s. 11A.123; 1999-237, s. 18.21; 2001-95, s. 8.)

Effect of Amendments. — Session Laws 2001-95, s. 8, effective May 18, 2001, substituted "Youth Development Division of the Department of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention" for "State Division of Youth Development" in subsection (f).

CASE NOTES

Basis of Section. — This section and §§ 148-6 and 148-33.1, as well as provisions with reference to paroles contained in Article 4 of this Chapter, are predicated upon the idea that the ability as well as the disposition of released prisoners to engage in honest employment and become law-abiding members of society is calculated to serve the best interests of the State and of its citizens. Pharr v. Garibaldi, 252 N.C. 803, 115 S.E.2d 18 (1960).

§ 148-26.1. Definitions.

The following definitions apply:

- (1) through (3) Repealed by Session Laws 1983, c. 709, s. 1.
- (4) through (7) Repealed by Session Laws 1985, c. 226.
- (8) "State public work project" or "State public work": A useful service other than the construction of buildings performed on any land, or any structure thereon, belonging to any principal department of State government as defined in subdivision (6) above, including, but not limited to, State parks, campuses, playgrounds, highways, roads, lakes, forests and waterways.
- (9) Repealed by Session Laws 1985, c. 226, s. 2. (1975, c. 682, s. 3; 1983, c. 709, s. 1; 1985, c. 226, s. 2.)

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1975, c. 682, s. 4, provided: "Nothing in this act shall be construed as altering or amending G.S. 148-26(b) or G.S. 148-18(a) as set out in Chapter 506 of the 1975 Session Laws."

The provisions of G.S. 148-18 and 148-13 shall be applicable to inmate work on local or State public work projects contracted for by the Secretary of Correction as provided by G.S. 148-26 through 148-26.4. Travel, cost of inmate wages and custodial supervision expenses incurred by the Department of Correction and arising out of a local or State public work project shall be reimbursed on a cost basis to the Department of Correction by the local or State contracting agency. (1975, c. 682, s. 3.)

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1975, c. 682, s. 4, provided: "Nothing in this act shall be construed as altering or amending G.S. 148-26(b) or G.S. 148-18(a) as set out in Chapter 506 of the 1975 Session Laws." Sections 148-26.2 to 148-26.4, referred to in this section, were repealed by Session Laws 1983, c. 709, s. 1.

§ 148-27. Women prisoners; limitations on labor of prisoners.

The State Department of Correction may provide suitable quarters for women prisoners and arrange for work suitable to their capacity; and the several courts of the State may assign women convicted of offenses, whether felonies or misdemeanors, to these quarters. No woman prisoner shall be assigned to work under the supervision of the State Department of Correction whose term of imprisonment is less than six months, or who is under 16 years of age. (1931, c. 145, s. 32; 1933, c. 39; c. 172, s. 18; 1935, c. 257, s. 3; 1943, c. 409; 1953, c. 1230; 1957, c. 349, s. 10; 1967, c. 996, s. 13.)

CASE NOTES

In sentencing a woman defendant convicted of a misdemeanor, the court may designate the place of imprisonment as the quarters provided by the State Highway and Public Works Commission (now State Department of Correction) for women prisoners, and upon a finding that such quarters are maintained in the central prison at Raleigh, order defendant's imprisonment in such quarters at that place. State v. Cagle, 241 N.C. 134, 84 S.E.2d 649 (1954).

Cited in State v. Brown, 252 N.C. 366, 113 S.E.2d 584 (1960).

§ 148-28. Sentencing prisoners to Central Prison; youthful offenders.

When a sentenced offender is to be taken to the Central Prison at Raleigh, a sheriff or other appropriate officer of the county shall cause such prisoner to be delivered with the proper commitment papers to the warden of the Central Prison. A person under 16 years of age convicted of a felony shall not be imprisoned in the Central Prison at Raleigh unless:

- (1) The person was convicted of a capital felony; or
- (2) He has previously been imprisoned in a county jail or under the authority of the Department of Correction upon conviction of a felony.

This provision shall not limit the authority of the Secretary of Correction from transferring a person under 16 years of age to Central Prison when in the Secretary's determination this person would not benefit from confinement in separate facilities for youthful offenders or when it has been determined that his presence would be detrimental to the implementation of programs designed for the benefit of other youthful offenders. Nor shall this provision limit the authority of the judges of the superior courts of this State or the Secretary of Correction from committing or transferring a person under 16 years of age to Central Prison for medical or psychiatric treatment. (1933, c. 172, s. 7; 1971, c. 691; 1973, c. 1262, s. 10; 1977, c. 711, s. 27; 1977, 2nd Sess., c. 1147, s. 32.)

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1977, c. 711, s. 39, as amended by Session Laws 1977, 2nd Sess., c. 1147, s. 32, effective July 1, 1978, provided: "This act shall become effective July 1, 1978, and applies to all matters addressed by its provisions without regard to when a defendant's guilt was established or when judgment was entered against him, except that the provisions of this act regarding parole shall not apply to persons sentenced before July 1, 1978."

CASE NOTES

Transfer by Court Pursuant to § 162-39. — Under § 162-39, the trial court, upon making an appropriate finding that it is necessary for the safety of the defendant, may order a defendant transferred to "a unit of the State Prison System designated by the Commissioner of Correction [now Secretary of Correction] or his authorized representative," but the court should not order defendant transferred directly to Central Prison absent a finding that the Central Prison has been properly designated for that purpose by the Commissioner of Correction [now Secretary of Correction] or his authorized representative. State v. Sherron, 4 N.C. App. 386, 166 S.E.2d 836 (1969).

As to who could be sentenced to Central Prison prior to 1977 amendment, see State v. Cagle, 241 N.C. 134, 84 S.E.2d 649 (1954); State v. Floyd, 246 N.C. 434, 98 S.E.2d 478 (1957); State v. Sherron, 4 N.C. App. 386, 166 S.E.2d 836 (1969).

§ 148-29. Transportation of convicts to prison; reimbursement to counties; sheriff's expense affidavit.

(a) The sheriff having in charge any prisoner to be taken to the State prison system shall send the prisoner to the custody of the Department of Correction after sentencing and the disposal of all pending charges against the prisoner, if no appeal has been taken. Beginning on the day after the Division of Prisons has been notified by the sheriff that a prisoner is ready for transfer and the Division has informed the sheriff that bedspace is not available for that prisoner, and continuing through the day the prisoner is received by the Division of Prisons, the Department of Correction shall pay the county:

- (1) A standard sum set by the General Assembly in its appropriations acts for the cost of providing food, clothing, personal items, supervision, and necessary ordinary medical services to the prisoner awaiting transfer to the State prison system; and
- (2) Extraordinary medical costs, as defined in G.S. 148-32.1(a), incurred by prisoners awaiting transfer to the State prison system.

If the Division of Prisons determines that bedspace is not available for a prisoner after the sheriff has notified the Division that the prisoner is ready for transfer, reimbursement under this subsection shall be made beginning on the day after the sheriff gave the notification.

(b) The sheriff having in charge any parolee or post-release supervisee to be taken to the State prison system shall send the prisoner to the custody of the Department of Correction after preliminary hearing held under G.S. 15A-1368.6(b) or G.S. 15A-1376(b). Beginning on the day after the Division of Prisons has been notified by the sheriff that a prisoner is ready for transfer and the Division has informed the sheriff that bedspace is not available for that prisoner, and continuing through the day the prisoner is received by the Division of Prisons, the Department of Correction shall pay the county:

- (1) A standard sum set by the General Assembly in its appropriations acts for the cost of providing food, clothing, personal items, supervision, and necessary ordinary medical services to the parolee or post-release supervisee awaiting transfer to the State prison system; and
- (2) Extraordinary medical costs, as defined in G.S. 148-32.1(a), incurred by parolees or post-release supervisees awaiting transfer to the State prison system.

If the Division of Prisons determines that bedspace is not available for a prisoner after the sheriff has notified the Division that the prisoner is ready for transfer, reimbursement under this subsection shall be made beginning on the day after the sheriff gave the notification.

(c) The sheriff shall file with the board of commissioners of his county a copy of his affidavit as to necessary guard, together with a copy of his itemized account of expenses, both certified to by him as true copies of those on file in his office. (1869-70, c. 180, s. 3; 1870-1, c. 124, s. 3; 1874-5, c. 107, s. 3; Code, ss. 3432, 3437, 3438; Rev., ss. 5398, 5399, 5400; C. S., ss. 7718, 7719, 7720; 1925, c. 163; 1933, c. 172, s. 18; 1957, c. 349, s. 10; 1967, c. 996, s. 13; 1977, c. 711, s. 28; 1977, 2nd Sess., c. 1147, s. 32; 1993, c. 257, s. 18; 1996, 2nd Ex. Sess., c. 18, s. 20.2(a); 1997-443, s. 19(a); 1999-237, s. 18.10(b).)

Session Laws 1995, c. 507, s. 28.9, provides: "Except for statutory changes or other provisions that clearly indicate an intention to have effects beyond the 1995-97 fiscal biennium, the textual provisions of this act apply only to funds appropriated for, and activities occurring during, the 1995-97 biennium."

Session Laws 1999-237, s. 18.10(a), as amended by Session Laws 2000-67, s. 16.2, provides that the Department of Correction may use funds appropriated to the Department for the 1999-2000 and 2000-2001 fiscal years to pay the sum of forty dollars ($40.00) per day as reimbursement to counties for the cost of housing convicted inmates and parolees and post-release supervisees awaiting transfer to the State prison system, as provided in G.S. 148-29. The Department shall report quarterly on the expenditure of funds to reimburse counties for prisoners awaiting transfer and on its progress in reducing the jail backlog. For prior similar provisions, see Session Laws 1995, c. 507, s. 19.4, Session Laws 1996, Second Extra Session, c. 18, ss. 20.2(b) and (c), Session Laws 1997-443, s. 19(b), and Session Laws 1998-212, s. 17.2.

Session Laws 2000-67, s. 1.1, provides: "This act shall be known as 'The Current Operations and Capital Improvements Appropriations Act of 2000'."

Session Laws 2000-67, s. 28.4, contains a severability clause.

Session Laws 2001-424, s. 25.4, provides: "The Department of Correction may use funds appropriated to the Department for the 2001-2002 fiscal year to pay the sum of forty dollars ($40.00) per day as reimbursement to counties for the cost of housing convicted inmates, parolees, and post-release supervisees awaiting transfer to the State prison system, as provided in G.S. 148-29. The Department shall report by December 1 and May 1 of each year to the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations, the Joint Legislative Corrections, Crime Control, and Juvenile Justice Oversight Committee, the Chairs of the Senate and House of Representatives Appropriations Committees, and the Chairs of the Senate and House of Representatives Appropriations Subcommittees on Justice and Public Safety on the expenditure of funds to reimburse counties for prisoners awaiting transfer and on its progress in reducing the jail backlog."

Session Laws 2001-424, s. 1.2, provides: "This act shall be known as the 'Current Operations and Capital Improvements Appropriations Act of 2001'."

Session Laws 2001-424, s. 36.5 is a severability clause.

CASE NOTES

Expense of Conveying Convicts. — The last sentence of this section only applies to the expense of maintenance and does not apply to the expense of conveying convicts to the penitentiary. By the acts of 1869-70 it was especially provided that the expense of conveying should be paid by the State and this section did not repeal that act. Taylor v. Adams, 66 N.C. 338 (1872).

§ 148-30: Repealed by Session Laws 1977, c. 711, s. 33.

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1977, c. 711, s. 34, provided: "All statutes which refer to sections repealed or amended by the act shall be deemed, insofar as possible, to refer to those provisions of this act which accomplish the same or an equivalent purpose."

Session Laws 1977, c. 711, s. 35, provided: "None of the provisions of this act providing for the repeal of certain sections of the General Statutes shall constitute a reenactment of the common law."

Session Laws 1977, c. 711, s. 39, as amended by Session Laws 1977, 2nd Sess., c. 1147, s. 32, effective July 1, 1978, provided: "This act shall become effective July 1, 1978, and applies to all matters addressed by its provisions without regard to when a defendant's guilt was established or when judgment was entered against him, except that the provisions of this act regarding parole shall not apply to persons sentenced before July 1, 1978."

§ 148-31. Maintenance of Central Prison; warden; powers and duties.

The Central Prison shall be maintained in such a manner as to conform to all the requirements of Article XI of the State Constitution, relating to a State's prison. A suitable person shall be appointed warden of the Central Prison, and he shall succeed to and be vested with all the rights, duties, and powers heretofore vested by law in the superintendent of the State's prison or the warden thereof with respect to capital punishment, or any matter of discipline of the inmates of the prison not otherwise provided for in this Article. (1933, c. 172, s. 14.)

Editor's Note. — This section was also repealed by Session Laws 1977, c. 711, s. 33.

§ 148-32.1. Local confinement, costs, alternate facilities, parole, work release.

(a) The Department of Correction shall pay each local confinement facility a standard sum set by the General Assembly in its appropriation acts at a per day, per inmate rate, for the cost of providing food, clothing, personal items, supervision and necessary ordinary medical services to those inmates committed to the custody of the local confinement facility to serve sentences of 30 days or more. This reimbursement shall not include any period of detention prior to actual commitment by the sentencing court. The Department shall also pay to the local confinement facility extraordinary medical expenses incurred for the inmates, defined as follows:

- (1) Medical expenses incurred as a result of providing health care to an inmate as an inpatient (hospitalized);
- (2) Other medical expenses when the total cost exceeds thirty-five dollars ($35.00) per occurrence or illness as a result of providing health care to an inmate as an outpatient (nonhospitalized); and
- (3) Cost of replacement of eyeglasses and dental prosthetic devices if those eyeglasses or devices are broken while the inmate is incarcerated, provided the inmate was using the eyeglasses or devices at the time of his commitment and then only if prior written consent of the Department is obtained by the local facility.

(b) In the event that the custodian of the local confinement facility certifies in writing to the clerk of the superior court in the county in which said local confinement facility is located that the local confinement facility is filled to capacity, or that the facility cannot reasonably accommodate any more prisoners due to segregation requirements for particular prisoners, or that the custodian anticipates, in light of local experiences, an influx of temporary prisoners at that time, or if the local confinement facility does not meet the minimum standards published pursuant to G.S. 153A-221, any judge of the district court in the district court district as defined in G.S. 7A-133 where the facility is located, or any superior court judge who has jurisdiction pursuant to G.S. 7A-47.1 or G.S. 7A-48 in a district or set of districts as defined in G.S. 7A-41.1 where the facility is located may order that the prisoner be transferred to any other qualified local confinement facility within that district or within another such district where space is available, including a satellite jail unit operated pursuant to G.S. 153A-230.3 if the prisoner is a non-violent misdemeanor, which local facility shall accept the transferred prisoner, if the prison population has exceeded a manageable level as provided for in G.S.

148-4.1(a). If no such local confinement facility is available, then any such judge may order the prisoner transferred to such camp or facility as the proper authorities of the Department of Correction shall designate, notwithstanding that the term of imprisonment of the prisoner is 90 days or less. In no event, however, shall a prisoner whose term of imprisonment is less than 30 days be assigned or ordered transferred to any such camp or facility.

(c) When a prisoner sentenced for a conviction of impaired driving under G.S. 20-138.1 is assigned to a local confinement facility pursuant to this section, the clerk of the superior court in the county in which the sentence was imposed shall immediately forward a copy of the commitment order to the Post-Release Supervision and Parole Commission so that the prisoner will be eligible for parole pursuant to G.S. 15A-1371.

(d) When a prisoner serving a sentence of 30 days or more in a local confinement facility is placed on work release pursuant to a recommendation of the sentencing court, the custodian of the facility shall forward the prisoner's work-release earnings to the Department of Correction, which shall disburse the earnings as determined under G.S. 148-33.1(f). When a prisoner serving a sentence of 30 days or more in a local confinement facility is placed on work release pursuant to an order of the sentencing court, the custodian of the facility shall forward the prisoner's work-release earnings to the clerk of the court that sentenced the prisoner or to the Department of Correction, as provided in the prisoner's commitment order. The clerk or the Department, as appropriate, shall disburse the earnings as provided in the prisoner's commitment order. Upon agreement between the Department of Correction and the custodian of the local confinement facility, however, the clerk may disburse to the local confinement facility the amount of the earnings to be paid for the cost of the prisoner's keep, and that amount shall be set off against the reimbursement to be paid by the Department to the local confinement facility pursuant to G.S. 148-32.1(a).

(e) Upon entry of a prisoner serving a sentence of imprisonment for impaired driving under G.S. 20-138.1 into a local confinement facility pursuant to this section, the custodian of the local confinement facility shall forward to the Post-Release Supervision and Parole Commission information pertaining to the prisoner so as to make him eligible for parole consideration pursuant to G.S. 15A-1371. Such information shall include date of incarceration, jail credit, and such other information as may be required by the Post-Release Supervision and Parole Commission. The Post-Release Supervision and Parole Commission shall approve a form upon which the custodian shall furnish this information, which form will be provided to the custodian by the Department of Correction. (1977, c. 450, s. 3; c. 925, s. 2; 1981, c. 859, s. 25; 1985, c. 226, s. 3(1), (2); 1985 (Reg. Sess., 1986), c. 1014, ss. 199, 201(e); 1987, c. 7, ss. 2, 6; 1987 (Reg. Sess., 1988), c. 1037, s. 120; c. 1100, s. 17.4(a); 1989, c. 1, s. 2; c. 761, s. 3; 1991, c. 217, s. 6; 1993, c. 538, s. 33; 1994, Ex. Sess., c. 14, s. 65; c. 24, s. 14(b); 1995, c. 324, s. 19.9(f); 1997-456, s. 23.)

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1987, c. 7, s. 6 as amended by Session Laws 1989, c. 1, s. 2, had provided that the amendment to subsection (b) of this section by s. 2 of the act would expire July 1, 1991, unless reenacted by the General Assembly. However, the expiration provision was deleted by Session Laws 1991, c. 217, s. 6.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL

Misdemeanants with sentences of 180 days or less are not to be sent to the Department of Correction, but must be jailed in a "local confinement facility" (subject to the limited exception found at § 148-32.1). See opinion of Attorney General to Mr. Bruce E. Colvin, Assistant County Attorney, Forsyth County, 55 N.C.A.G. 21 (1985).

§ 148-33. Prison labor furnished other State agencies.

The State Department of Correction may furnish to any of the other State departments, State institutions, or agencies, upon such conditions as may be agreed upon from time to time between the Department and the governing authorities of such Department, institution or agency, prison labor for carrying on any work where it is practical and desirable to use prison labor in the furtherance of the purposes of any State department, institution or agency, and such other employment as is now provided by law for inmates of the State's prison under the provisions of G.S. 148-6: Provided that such prisoners shall at all times be under the custody of and controlled by the duly authorized agent of such Department. Provided, further, that notwithstanding any provisions of law contained in this Article or in this Chapter, no male prisoner or group of male prisoners may be assigned to work in any building utilized by any State department, agency, or institution where women are housed or employed unless a duly designated custodial agent of the Secretary of Correction is assigned to the building to maintain supervision and control of the prisoner or prisoners working there. (1933, c. 172, s. 30; 1957, c. 349, s. 10; 1961, c. 966; 1967, c. 996, ss. 13, 15; 1973, c. 1262, s. 10.)

CASE NOTES

§ 148-33.1. Sentencing, quartering, and control of prisoners with work-release privileges.

(a) Whenever a person is sentenced to imprisonment for a term to be served in the State prison system or a local confinement facility, the Secretary of the Department of Correction may authorize the Director of Prisons or the custodian of the local confinement facility to grant work-release privileges to any inmate who is eligible for work release and who has not been granted work-release privileges by order of the sentencing court. The Secretary of Correction shall authorize immediate work-release privileges for any person serving a sentence not exceeding five years in the State prison system and for whom the presiding judge shall have recommended work-release privileges when (i) it is verified that appropriate employment for the person is available in an area where, in the judgment of the Secretary, the Department of Correction has facilities to which the person may suitably be assigned, and (ii) custodial and correctional considerations would not be adverse to releasing the person without supervision into the free community.

(b) Repealed by Session Laws 1981, c. 541, s. 2.

(c) The State Department of Correction shall from time to time, as the need becomes evident, designate and adapt facilities in the State prison system for quartering prisoners with work-release privileges. No State or county prisoner shall be granted work-release privileges by the Director of Prisons or the custodian of a local confinement facility until suitable facilities for quartering him have been provided in the area where the prisoner has employment or the offer of employment.

(d) The Secretary of Corrections is authorized and directed to establish a work-release plan under which an eligible prisoner may be released from actual custody during the time necessary to proceed to the place of his employment, perform his work, and return to quarters designated by the prison authorities. If the prisoner shall violate any of the conditions prescribed by prison rules and regulations for the administration of the work-release plan, then such prisoner may be withdrawn from work-release privileges, and the prisoner may be transferred to the general prison population to serve out the remainder of his sentence. Rules and regulations for the administration of the work-release plan shall be established in the same manner as other rules and regulations for the government of the State prison system.

(e) The State Department of Labor shall exercise the same supervision over conditions of employment for persons working in the free community while serving sentences imposed under this section as the Department does over conditions of employment for free persons.

(f) A prisoner who is convicted of a felony and who is granted work-release privileges shall give his work-release earnings, less standard payroll deductions required by law, to the Department of Correction. A prisoner who is convicted of a misdemeanor, is committed to a local confinement facility, and is granted work-release privileges by order of the sentencing court shall give his work-release earnings, less standard payroll deductions required by law, to the custodian of the local confinement facility. Other misdemeanants granted work-release privileges shall give their work-release earnings, less standard payroll deductions required by law, to the Department of Correction. The Department of Correction or the sentencing court, as appropriate, shall determine the amount to be deducted from a prisoner's work-release earnings to pay for the cost of the prisoner's keep and to accumulate a reasonable sum to be paid the prisoner when he is paroled or discharged from prison. The Department or sentencing court shall also determine the amount to be disbursed by the Department or clerk of court, as appropriate, for each of the following:

- (1) To pay travel and other expenses of the prisoner made necessary by his employment;
- (2) To provide a reasonable allowance to the prisoner for his incidental personal expenses;
- (3) To make payments for the support of the prisoner's dependents in accordance with an order of a court of competent jurisdiction, or in the absence of a court order, in accordance with a determination of dependency status and need made by the local department of social services in the county of North Carolina in which such dependents reside;
- (3a) To make restitution or reparation as provided in G.S. 148-33.2.
- (4) To comply with an order from any court of competent jurisdiction regarding the payment of an obligation of the prisoner in connection with any judgment rendered by the court.
- (5) To comply with a written request by the prisoner to withhold an amount, when the request has been granted by the Department or the sentencing court, as appropriate.

Any balance of his earnings remaining at the time the prisoner is released from prison shall be paid to him. The Social Services Commission is authorized to promulgate uniform rules and regulations governing the duties of county social services departments under this section.

(g) No prisoner employed in the free community under the provisions of this section shall be deemed to be an agent, employee, or involuntary servant of the State prison system while working in the free community or going to or from such employment.

(h) Any prisoner employed under the provisions of this section shall not be entitled to any benefits under Chapter 96 of the General Statutes entitled "Employment Security" during the term of the sentence.

(i) No recommendation for work release shall be made at the time of sentencing in any case in which the presiding judge shall suspend the imposition of sentence and place a convicted person on probation; however, if probation be subsequently revoked and the active sentence of imprisonment executed, the court may at that time recommend work release. Neither a recommendation for work release by the court or the decision of the Secretary of Correction to place a person on work release shall give rise to any vested statutory right to an individual to be placed on or continued on work release.

(j) The provisions of subsections (f), (g), and (h) of this section shall also apply to prisoners employed in private prison enterprises conducted pursuant to G.S. 148-70. (1957, c. 540; 1959, c. 126; 1961, c. 420; 1963, c. 469, ss. 1, 2; 1967, c. 684; c. 996, s. 13; 1969, c. 982; 1973, c. 476, s. 138; c. 1262, s. 10; 1975, c. 22, ss. 1-3; c. 679, s. 3; 1977, c. 450, ss. 4, 5; c. 614, s. 6; c. 623, ss. 1, 2; c. 711, s. 29; 1977, 2nd Sess., c. 1147, s. 32; 1981, c. 541, ss. 1-3; 1985, c. 474, s. 3; 1985 (Reg. Sess., 1986), c. 1014, s. 201(f)-(i); 1991 (Reg. Sess., 1992), c. 902, s. 6.)

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1977, c. 711, which amended subsection (b), provided in s. 39, as amended by Session Laws 1977, 2nd Sess., c. 1147, s. 32, effective July 1, 1978: "This act shall become effective July 1, 1978, and applies to all matters addressed by its provisions without regard to when a defendant's guilt was established or when judgment was entered against him, except that the provisions of this act regarding parole shall not apply to persons sentenced before July 1, 1978."

CASE NOTES

As to constitutionality of this section, see Advisory Opinion in In re Work-Release Statute, 268 N.C. 727, 152 S.E.2d 225 (1966).

Basis of Section. — This section and §§ 146-6 and 146-26, as well as provisions with reference to paroles contained in Article 4 of this Chapter, are predicated upon the idea that the ability as well as the disposition of released prisoners to engage in honest employment and become law-abiding members of society is calculated to serve the best interests of the State and of its citizens. Pharr v. Garibaldi, 252 N.C. 803, 115 S.E.2d 18 (1960).

Honor-Grade Status, Work-Release Privilege and Parole Are Discretionary Acts of Clemency. — Honor-grade status, work-release privilege, and parole are discretionary acts of grace or clemency extended by the State as a reward for good behavior, conferring no vested rights upon the convicted person. An accused person must be given full constitutional protection before and during his trial, but procedures of constitutional dimension are not appropriate in subsequent determinations of rewards for good behavior while serving a validly imposed sentence of confinement. Goble v. Bounds, 13 N.C. App. 579, 186 S.E.2d 638, aff'd, 281 N.C. 307, 188 S.E.2d 347 (1972).

In Mitigation of Terms of Judgment. — The granting of honor-grade status, work release, and parole is by way of mitigating the terms of the judgment which the court has entered. The legality and propriety of the trial and sentence have already been determined after the prisoner has been heard and his constitutional rights have been accorded him. The merits of the trial and the validity of the judgment may not again be raised before the Department of Correction and the Board of Paroles (now Parole Commission). Goble v. Bounds, 281 N.C. 307, 188 S.E.2d 347 (1972).

§ 148-33.2. Restitution by prisoners with work-release privileges.

(a) Repealed by Session Laws 1985, c. 474, s. 4.

(b) As a rehabilitative measure, the Secretary of the Department of Correction is authorized to require any prisoner granted work-release privileges to make restitution or reparation to an aggrieved party from any earnings gained by the defendant while on work release when the sentencing court recommends that restitution or reparation be paid by the defendant out of any earnings gained by the defendant if he is granted work-release privileges and out of other resources of the defendant, including all real and personal property owned by the defendant and the income derived from such property.

The Secretary shall not be bound by such recommendation, but if they elect not to implement the recommendation, they shall state in writing the reasons therefor, and shall forward the same to the sentencing court.

(c) When an active sentence is imposed, the court shall consider whether, as a rehabilitative measure, it should recommend to the Secretary of Correction that restitution or reparation be made by the defendant out of any earnings gained by the defendant if he is granted work-release privileges and out of other resources of the defendant, including all real and personal property owned by the defendant, and income derived from such property. If the court determines that restitution or reparation should not be recommended, it shall so indicate on the commitment. If, however, the court determines that restitution or reparation should be recommended, the court shall make its recommendation a part of the order committing the defendant to custody. The recommendation shall be in accordance with the applicable provisions of G.S. 15A-1343(d) and Article 81C of Chapter 15A of the General Statutes. If the offense is one in which there is evidence of physical, mental or sexual abuse of a minor, the court may order the defendant to pay from work release earnings the cost of rehabilitative treatment for the minor. The Administrative Office of the Courts shall prepare and distribute forms which provide ample space to make restitution or reparation recommendations incident to commitments, which forms shall be conveniently structured to enable the sentencing court to make its recommendation.

(d) The Secretary of the Department of Correction shall establish rules and regulations to implement this section, which shall include adequate notice to the prisoner that the payment of restitution or reparation from any earnings gained by the prisoner while on work release is being considered as a condition of any work-release privileges granted the prisoner, and opportunity for the prisoner to be heard. Such rules and regulations shall also provide additional methods whereby facts may be obtained to supplement the recommendation of the sentencing court. (1977, c. 614, s. 7; 1977, 2nd Sess., c. 1147, s. 33; 1981, c. 541, ss. 4-9; 1985, c. 474, s. 4; 1987, c. 397, ss. 2, 3; c. 598, s. 5; 1998-212, s. 19.4(g).)

CASE NOTES

Constitutionality. — Since the decision to impose restitution or reparation is discretionary with the trial court and the Secretary, and since indigency could be considered in making that decision, subsection (c) of this section and § 148-57.1(c) are not unconstitutional as a denial of equal protection discriminating against indigent defendants. State v. Lambert, 40 N.C. App. 418, 252 S.E.2d 855 (1979).

The requirement that a defendant pay restitution under subsection (c) of this section or § 148-57.1(c) as a condition of obtaining work-release or parole is not inherently unconstitutional. Whether the restitution requirement is unconstitutional as applied to a particular defendant may only be determined by considering the defendant's financial status and other relevant circumstances at the time when the restitution must be paid, that is, after a defendant becomes eligible for work-release privileges or parole. State v. Parton, 303 N.C. 55, 277 S.E.2d 410 (1981).

The purpose of this section and § 15A-1343(b)(6) is rehabilitation and not additional penalty or punishment, and the sum ordered or recommended must be reasonably related to the damages incurred. If the trial evidence does not support the amount ordered or recommended, then supporting evidence should be required in the sentencing hearing. State v. Killian, 37 N.C. App. 234, 245 S.E.2d 812 (1978).

And Court's Order or Recommendation for Restitution or Restoration Must Be Supported by Evidence. — Together subsection (c) of this section and § 15A-1343(b)(6) require that any order or recommendation of the sentencing court for restitution or restoration to the aggrieved party as a condition of attaining work-release privileges must be supported by the evidence. State v. Killian, 37 N.C. App. 234, 245 S.E.2d 812 (1978); State v. Wilson, 340 N.C. 720, 459 S.E.2d 192 (1995).

An order of restitution as a condition of work-release must be supported by evidence adduced at trial or at sentencing. State v. Daye, 78 N.C. App. 753, 338 S.E.2d 557, aff'd, 318 N.C. 502, 349 S.E.2d 576 (1986).

Amount of Restitution Must Be Supported by Evidence. — Regardless of whether restitution is ordered or recommended by the trial court, the amount must be supported by the evidence. State v. Daye, 78 N.C. App. 753, 338 S.E.2d 557, aff'd, 318 N.C. 502, 349 S.E.2d 576 (1986).

There must be something more than a guess or conjecture as to an appropriate amount of restitution, as restitution is not intended to punish defendants, but to compensate victims. State v. Daye, 78 N.C. App. 753, 338 S.E.2d 557, aff'd, 318 N.C. 502, 349 S.E.2d 576 (1986).

Court Not Required to Consider Ability to Pay. — Trial court did not err in failing to consider defendant's ability to pay restitution, as the potentially binding determination at a later date requiring defendant to pay restitution as a condition of work release or parole by either the Department of Correction or the Parole Commission would by necessity require sufficient evidence of defendant's ability to pay at that time. State v. Wilson, 340 N.C. 720, 459 S.E.2d 192 (1995).

Duty of Sentencing Court to Consider Restitution or Restoration as Prerequisite to Work-Release. — The sentencing court is not only authorized but is required by subsection (c) of this section, when an active sentence is imposed, to consider whether, as a further rehabilitative measure, restitution or restoration should be ordered or recommended to the Secretary of Correction to be imposed as a condition of attaining work-release privileges. State v. Killian, 37 N.C. App. 234, 245 S.E.2d 812 (1978).

But the decision to recommend restitution or reparation is discretionary, and the trial court is not required to impose such a condition. State v. Lambert, 40 N.C. App. 418, 252 S.E.2d 855 (1979).

A recommendation of restitution as a condition of work-release is not binding on the Parole Commission or Department of Corrections. State v. Daye, 78 N.C. App. 753, 338 S.E.2d 557, aff'd, 318 N.C. 502, 349 S.E.2d 576 (1986).

Restitution or reparation may only be recommended as a condition of work-release, and the trial court is without authority to "order" restitution as a condition of work release. State v. Easter, 101 N.C. App. 36, 398 S.E.2d 619 (1990).

Restitution Cannot Be Imposed with Active Prison Sentence. — When a court imposes an active sentence, it may recommend restitution as a condition of work-release, as a condition of post-release supervision and parole, or as a condition of probation, but it may not require the defendant to make restitution while serving an active sentence. State v. Hughes, 136 N.C. App. 92, 524 S.E.2d 63 (1999).

Imposition of Fine Is Not Restitution. — When an active sentence is imposed, the judge should consider whether, as a further rehabilitative measure, restitution or reparation should be ordered or recommended to the Secretary of Correction to be imposed as a condition of attaining work-release privileges; however, the imposition of a fine is not restitution or reparation within the meaning of this section and should not be included in a judgment under this section. State v. Alexander, 47 N.C. App. 502, 267 S.E.2d 396 (1980).

State as "Aggrieved Party." — Although the North Carolina Supreme Court has never definitively decided the issue, there is persuasive authority in North Carolina law supporting the State's right to claim the status of an "aggrieved party" for the expenses associated with providing court-appointed counsel. Alexander v. Johnson, 742 F.2d 117 (4th Cir. 1984).

Order of Restitution Vacated. — Order requiring defendant to pay one-third of his income to the clerk was vacated where the record revealed only that the victim was separated from his wife, and that they had two children who lived with their mother at the time the victim died. State v. Easter, 101 N.C. App. 36, 398 S.E.2d 619 (1990).

Applied in State v. Simpson, 61 N.C. App. 151, 300 S.E.2d 412 (1983); State v. Stallings, 316 N.C. 535, 342 S.E.2d 519 (1986).

§ 148-36. Secretary of Correction to control classification and operation of prison facilities.

All facilities established or acquired by the State Department of Correction shall be under the administrative control and direction of the Secretary of Correction, and operated under rules and regulations proposed by the Secretary and adopted by the Department of Correction as provided in G.S. 148-11. Subject to such rules and regulations, the Secretary shall classify the facilities of the State prison system and develop a variety of programs so as to permit proper segregation and treatment of prisoners according to the nature of the offenses committed, the character and mental condition of the prisoners, and such other factors as should be considered in providing an individualized system of discipline, care, and correctional treatment of persons committed to the Department. The Secretary of Correction, or his authorized representative, shall designate the places of confinement where sentences to imprisonment in the State's prison system shall be served. The Secretary or his representative may designate any available facility appropriate for the individual in view of custodial and correctional considerations. ### § 148-37. Additional facilities authorized; contractual arrangements.

(a) Subject to the provisions of G.S. 143-341, the State Department of Correction may establish additional facilities for use by the Department, such facilities to be either of a permanent type of construction or of a temporary or movable type as the Department may find most advantageous to the particular needs, to the end that the prisoners under its supervision may be so distributed throughout the State as to facilitate individualization of treatment designed to prepare them for lawful living in the community where they are most likely to reside after their release from prison. For this purpose, the Department may purchase or lease sites and suitable lands adjacent thereto and erect necessary buildings thereon, or purchase or lease existing facilities, all within the limits of allotments as approved by the Department of Administration.

(b) The Secretary of Correction may contract with the proper official of the United States or of any county or city of this State for the confinement of federal prisoners after they have been sentenced, county, or city prisoners in facilities of the State prison system or for the confinement of State prisoners in any county or any city facility located in North Carolina, or any facility of the United States Bureau of Prisons, when to do so would most economically and effectively promote the purposes served by the Department of Correction. Except as otherwise provided, any contract made under the authority of this subsection shall be for a period of not more than two years, and shall be renewable from time to time for a period not to exceed two years. Contracts made under the authority of this subsection for the confinement of State prisoners in local or district confinement facilities may be for a period of not more than 10 years and renewable from time to time for a period not to exceed 10 years, and shall be subject to the approval of the Council of State and the Department of Administration after consultation with the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations. Contracts for receiving federal, county and city prisoners shall provide for reimbursing the State in full for all costs involved. The financial provisions shall have the approval of the Department of Administration before the contract is executed. Payments received under such contracts shall be deposited in the State treasury for the use of the State Department of Correction. Such payments are hereby appropriated to the State Department of Correction as a supplementary fund to compensate for the additional care and maintenance of such prisoners as are received under such contracts.

(b1) Recodified as G.S. 148-37.2 by Session Laws 2001-84, s. 1, effective May 17, 2001.

(c) In addition to the authority contained in subsections (a) and (b) of this section, and in addition to the contracts ratified by subsection (f) of this section, the Secretary of Correction may enter into contracts with any public entity or any private nonprofit or for-profit firms for the confinement and care of State prisoners in any out-of-state correctional facility when to do so would most economically and effectively promote the purposes served by the Department of Correction. Contracts entered into under the authority of this subsection shall be for a period not to exceed two years and shall be renewable from time to time for a period not to exceed two years. Prisoners may be sent to out-of-state correctional facilities only when there are no available facilities in this State within the State prison system to appropriately house those prisoners. Any contract made under the authority of this subsection shall be approved by the Department of Administration before the contract is executed. Before expending more than the amount specifically appropriated by the General Assembly for the out-of-state housing of inmates, the Department shall obtain the approval of the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations and shall report such expenditures to the Chairs of the Senate and House Appropriations Committees, the Chairs of the Senate and House Appropriations Subcommittees on Justice and Public Safety, and the Chairs of the Joint Legislative Corrections, Crime Control, and Juvenile Justice Oversight Committee.

(d) Prisoners confined in out-of-state correctional facilities pursuant to subsection (c) of this section shall remain subject to the rules adopted for the conduct of persons committed to the State prison system. The rules regarding good time and gain time, discipline, classification, extension of the limits of confinement, transfers, housing arrangements, and eligibility for parole shall apply to inmates housed in those out-of-state correctional facilities. The operators of those out-of-state correctional facilities may promulgate any other rules as may be necessary for the operation of those facilities with the written approval of the Secretary of Correction. Custodial officials employed by an out-of-state correctional facility are agents of the Secretary of Correction and may use those procedures for use of force authorized by the Secretary of Correction not inconsistent with the laws of the State of situs of the facility to defend themselves, to enforce the observance of discipline in compliance with correctional facility rules, to secure the person of a prisoner, and to prevent escape. Prisoners confined to out-of-state correctional facilities may be required to perform reasonable work assignments within those facilities. Private firms under subsection (c) of this section shall employ inmate disciplinary and grievance policies of the North Carolina Department of Correction.

(e) Repealed by Session Laws 1995, c. 324, s. 19.10.

(f) Any contracts entered into by the Department of Correction with public contractors prior to March 25, 1994, for the out-of-state housing of inmates are ratified.

(g) The Secretary of Correction may contract with private for-profit or nonprofit firms for the provision and operation of four or more confinement facilities totaling up to 2,000 beds in the State to house State prisoners when to do so would most economically and effectively promote the purposes served by the Department of Correction. This 2,000-bed limitation shall not apply to the 500 beds in private substance abuse treatment centers authorized by the General Assembly prior to July 1, 1995. Whenever the Department of Correction determines that new prison facilities are required in addition to existing and planned facilities, the Department may contract for any remaining beds authorized by this section before constructing State-operated facilities.

Contracts entered under the authority of this subsection shall be for a period not to exceed 10 years, shall be renewable from time to time for a period not to exceed 10 years. The Secretary of Correction shall enter contracts under this subsection only if funds are appropriated for this purpose by the General Assembly. Contracts entered under the authority of this subsection may be subject to any requirements for the location of the confinement facilities set forth by the General Assembly in appropriating those funds.

Once the Department has made a determination to contract for additional private prison beds, it shall issue a request for proposals within 30 days of the decision. The request for proposals shall require bids to be submitted within two months, and the Department shall award contracts at the earliest practicable date after the submission of bids. The Secretary of Correction, in consultation with the Chairs of the Joint Legislative Corrections, Crime Control, and Juvenile Justice Oversight Committee and the Chairs of the House and Senate Appropriations Subcommittees on Justice and Public Safety, shall make recommendations to the State Purchasing Officer on the final award decision. The State Purchasing Officer shall make the final award decision, and the contract shall then be subject to the approval of the Council of State after consultation with the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations.

Contracts made under the authority of this subsection may provide the State with an option to purchase the confinement facility or may provide for the purchase of the confinement facility by the State. Contracts made under the authority of this subsection shall state that plans and specifications for private confinement facilities shall be furnished to and reviewed by the Office of State Construction. The Office of State Construction shall inspect and review each project during construction to ensure that the project is suitable for habitation and to determine whether the project would be suitable for future acquisition by the State. All contracts for the housing of State prisoners in private confinement facilities shall require a minimum of ten million dollars ($10,000,000) of occurrence-based liability insurance and shall hold the State harmless and provide reimbursement for all liability arising out of actions caused by operations and employees of the private confinement facility.

Prisoners housed in private confinement facilities pursuant to this subsection shall remain subject to the rules adopted for the conduct of persons committed to the State prison system. The Secretary of Correction may review and approve the design and construction of private confinement facilities before housing State prisoners in these facilities. The rules regarding good time, gain time, and earned credits, discipline, classification, extension of the limits of confinement, transfers, housing arrangements, and eligibility for parole shall apply to inmates housed in private confinement facilities pursuant to this subsection. The operators of private confinement facilities may adopt any other rules as may be necessary for the operation of those facilities with the written approval of the Secretary of Correction. Custodial officials employed by a private confinement facility are agents of the Secretary of Correction and may use those procedures for use of force authorized by the Secretary of Correction to defend themselves, to enforce the observance of discipline in compliance with confinement facility rules, to secure the person of a prisoner, and to prevent escape. Private firms under this subsection shall employ inmate disciplinary and grievance policies of the North Carolina Department of Correction.

(h) Private confinement facilities under this section shall be designed, built, and operated in accordance with applicable State laws, court orders, fire safety codes, and local regulations.

(i) The Department of Correction shall make a written report no later than March 1 of every odd-numbered year, beginning in 1997, on the substance of all outstanding contracts for the housing of State prisoners entered into under the authority of this section. The report shall be submitted to the Council of State, the Department of Administration, the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations, and the Joint Legislative Corrections, Crime Control, and Juvenile Justice Oversight Committee. In addition to the report, the Department of Correction shall provide information on contracts for the housing of State prisoners as requested by these groups. The Department shall also consult with the Department of Justice on the penalty provided for in G.S. 14-256.1 and on the implications of convicting inmates already serving sentences imposed by other jurisdictions in private prisons in North Carolina.

Session Laws 1997-443, s. 21.4(f), provides that all reports directed by that act to be made to the Joint Legislative Corrections Oversight Committee shall be made to the Joint Legislative Corrections and Crime Control Oversight Committee.

Session Laws 2000-67, s. 16.3(b) repealed Session Laws 1997-443, s. 19.17(c), as amended, which had provided that no municipality, county, or private entity could construct or operate a facility for confinement of inmates from any jurisdiction other than North Carolina, a political subdivision thereof, or the federal government until the General Assembly had acted upon the proposed standards, and that no private confinement facility that received payment from the State for the housing of State prisoners could contain inmates from any jurisdiction other than North Carolina or a political subdivision thereof without the written consent of the Secretary of Correction.

Session Laws 2001-84, s. 2, provided: "This act, being necessary for the health and welfare of the people of the State, shall be liberally construed to effect its purposes."

Effect of Amendments. — Session Laws 2001-84, s. 1, effective May 17, 2001, recodified subsection (b1) of this section as § 148-37.2, and amended the text thereof.

Session Laws 2001-138, s. 2, effective July 1, 2001, substituted "Joint Legislative Corrections, Crime Control, and Juvenile Justice Oversight Committee" for "Joint Legislative Corrections and Crime Control Oversight Committee" throughout the section.

§ 148-37.1. Prohibition on private prisons housing out-of-state inmates.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in this section or authorized by North Carolina law, no municipality, county, or private entity may authorize, construct, own, or operate any type of correctional facility for the confinement of inmates serving sentences for violation of the laws of a jurisdiction other than North Carolina.

(b) The provisions of this section shall not apply to facilities owned or operated by the federal government and used exclusively for the confinement of inmates serving sentences for violation of federal law, but only to the extent that such facilities are not subject to restriction by the states under the provisions of the United States Constitution. (2000-67, s. 16.3(a).)

Editor’s Note. — Session Laws 2000-67, s. 16.3(c), made this section effective June 30, 2000.

Session Laws 2000-67, s. 1.1, provides: “This act shall be known as “The Current Operations and Capital Improvements Appropriations Act of 2000’.”

Session Laws 2000-67, s. 28.4, contains a severability clause.

§ 148-37.2. Lease-purchase of three facilities.

(a) Authorization. — The Secretary of Correction may, as provided in this section, enter contracts with private for-profit or nonprofit firms for the construction of three close security correctional facilities totaling up to 3,000 cells to be operated by the Department pursuant to a lease that contains a schedule for purchase of the facilities over a period of up to 20 years.

The State, with the prior approval of the Council of State and the State Treasurer as provided in this section, is authorized to execute and deliver one or more lease-purchase agreements with a special nonprofit corporation providing for the lease-purchase by the State of the Projects from the special nonprofit corporation in connection with and under an arrangement whereby certificates of participation are sold and delivered by the special nonprofit corporation in order to provide funds to pay the purchase price of the Projects. The Projects will be constructed by selected contractors designated to the special nonprofit corporation by the State Property Office of the Department of Administration in consultation with the Department of Correction. The selected contractors will be responsible for arranging for and obtaining their own construction financing, which will consist solely of private funds. The Projects will be sold to the special nonprofit corporation, with the purchase price paid by the special nonprofit corporation from the proceeds of the certificates of participation. The State may lease the real property upon which the Projects will be located, if owned by the State, to the selected contractors constructing the Projects and to the special nonprofit corporation for nominal consideration.

(b) Definitions. — The following definitions apply in this section:

- (1) Certificates of participation. — Certificates or other instruments delivered by a special nonprofit corporation as provided in this section evidencing the assignment of proportionate and undivided interests in the rights to receive lease payments to be made by the State pursuant to a lease-purchase agreement.
- (2) Construction contract agreement. — A contract between the Department of Correction and the selected contractors for construction of the Projects, under which the selected contractors will be responsible for arranging for and obtaining their own construction financing, which will consist solely of private funds.
- (3) Lease-purchase agreement. — A lease-purchase agreement entered into pursuant to this section, under which the State will lease the Projects from the special nonprofit corporation, with option to purchase.
- (4) Projects. — Three close security correctional facilities providing up to 3,000 cells to be constructed by selected contractors, sold to the special nonprofit corporation, and leased to the State pursuant to this section.
- (5) Purchase agreement. — A contract under which the special nonprofit corporation will purchase the Projects from the selected contractors.

- (6) Selected contractors. — One or more private firms selected to construct the Projects.
- (7) Special nonprofit corporation. — A nonprofit corporation created under Chapter 55A of the General Statutes and designated by the State Treasurer for entering into the transactions contemplated by this section.

(c) Request for Proposals. — The Secretary of Correction may issue a request for proposals to private firms for the private firms to construct the Projects in accordance with plans and specifications developed by the Department of Correction and reviewed by the Office of State Construction. The request for proposals shall provide for the option of proposing on one or more of the facilities, and shall require each proposer to provide a separate proposal on a single facility of up to 1,000 cells. It is the intent of the General Assembly that the State may decide to accept proposals for only one, for two, or for all three facilities.

The Secretary of Correction shall make recommendations to the State Property Office of the Department of Administration on the final award decision. The Department of Correction and the State Property Office of the Department of Administration shall consult with the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations before making the final award decision. The Department of Administration shall make the final award decision, which shall then be subject to the approval of the Council of State.

The Department of Correction will enter into a construction contract agreement with the selected contractors for the construction of the Projects. The special nonprofit corporation will enter into a purchase agreement with the selected contractors for the sale of the constructed Projects to the special nonprofit corporation. The Department of Correction shall furnish plans and specifications for review by the State Construction Office. Construction contract agreements entered into under this section shall provide that the Department of Correction and the Office of State Construction shall inspect and review each facility during construction to ensure and determine jointly that the facility is suitable for use as a correctional facility and for future acquisition by the State. The Department of Correction may contract with a design consortium for construction administration services.

(d) Approval of Lease-Purchase Agreement. — A lease-purchase agreement may not be entered into pursuant to this section unless the following conditions are met before the lease-purchase agreement is entered into: (i) the Council of State, by resolution, approves the execution and delivery of the lease-purchase agreement, and (ii) the State Treasurer approves the lease-purchase agreement and all other documentation related to it, including any leasehold deed of trust or trust agreement in connection with it. The resolution of the Council of State may include any matters the Council of State determines. In determining whether to approve the lease-purchase agreement, the State Treasurer may consider any factors as the State Treasurer considers relevant in order to find and determine that all of the following conditions are met:

- (1) The principal amount to be financed under the lease-purchase agreement is adequate and not excessive for the purpose of paying the cost of the Projects.
- (2) The increase, if any, in State revenues necessary to pay the sums to become due under the lease-purchase agreement is not excessive.
- (3) The lease-purchase agreement can be entered into on terms desirable to the State.
- (4) The sale of certificates of participation will not have an adverse effect on any scheduled or proposed sale of obligations of the State or any State agency or of any unit of local government in the State.

(e) Terms and Conditions. — The following provisions apply to a lease-purchase agreement entered into under this section:

- (1) In order to secure the performance by the State of its obligations under the lease-purchase agreement, the lease-purchase agreement may require the eviction of the State from the occupancy of one or more of the Projects in the event that the State breaches its obligations and agreements under the lease-purchase agreement.
- (2) No deficiency judgment may be rendered against the State or any agency, department, or commission of the State in any action for breach of any obligation contained in the lease-purchase agreement or any other related documentation, and the taxing power of the State or any agency, department, or commission of the State is not and may not be pledged to secure any moneys due under the lease-purchase agreement.
- (3) The lease-purchase agreement shall not contain a nonsubstitution clause that restricts the right of the State to replace or provide a substitute for the Projects.
- (4) The lease-purchase agreement may include provisions requesting the Governor to submit in the Governor's budget proposal, or any amendments or supplements to it, appropriations necessary to make the payments required under the lease-purchase agreement.
- (5) The lease-purchase agreement may contain any provisions for protecting and enforcing the rights and remedies of the special nonprofit corporation that are reasonable and proper and not in violation of law, including covenants setting forth the duties of the State with respect to the Projects, which may include provisions relating to insuring, operating, and maintaining the Projects and the custody, safeguarding, investment, and application of moneys.
- (6) The lease-purchase agreement may designate the lease payments to be paid by the State under it to be "principal components" and "interest components." Any interest component of the lease payments may be calculated based upon a fixed or variable interest rate or rates as determined by the State Treasurer.
- (7) The lease-purchase agreement may be entered into by the State, and certificates of participation may be delivered by the special nonprofit corporation, at any time, including at times prior to the delivery of the Projects to the special nonprofit corporation for purchase, and the related delivery of occupancy of the Projects to the State by the special nonprofit corporation. The costs incurred in connection with the preparation of the lease-purchase agreement and related documents and the delivery of the certificates of participation may be paid from the proceeds of the certificates of participation.
- (8) The State is authorized to agree in the lease-purchase agreement to indemnify the special corporation and its directors and agents for any liabilities that arise to the special corporation or directors or agents on account of their participation in the activities contemplated by this act.

(f) Faith and Credit Not Pledged. — The payment of amounts payable by the State under the lease-purchase agreement and other related documentation during any fiscal biennium or fiscal year is limited to funds appropriated for that purpose by the General Assembly in its discretion. No provision of this section and no lease-purchase agreement creates any pledge of the faith and credit of the State or any agency, department, or commission of the State within the meaning of any constitutional debt limitation.

(g) Certificates of Participation. — The State may cooperate as necessary to effectuate the delivery by the special nonprofit corporation of tax-exempt certificates of participation, including participating in the preparation of offering documents, the filing of required tax forms and agreeing to comply with restrictions on the use of the Projects as required in order for the interest component of the lease payments to be tax-exempt. Disclosures and compliance with other federal law requirements by the special nonprofit corporation shall be under the direction of the State Treasurer. Certificates of participation may be sold at the direction of the State Treasurer in the manner, either at public or private sale, and for any price or prices that the State Treasurer determines to be in the best interest of the State and to effect the purposes of this section. Interest payable with respect to certificates of participation shall accrue at the rate or rates determined by the State Treasurer with the approval of the special nonprofit corporation.

Certificates of participation may be delivered pursuant to a trust agreement with a corporate trustee approved by the State Treasurer. The corporate trustee may be any trust company or bank having the powers of a trust company within or without the State. A trust agreement may (i) provide for security and pledges and assignments with respect to the security as may be permitted under this section and further provide for the enforcement of any lien or security interest created pursuant to this section, and (ii) contain any provisions for protecting and enforcing the rights and remedies of the owners of any certificates of participation that are reasonable and proper and not in violation of law as determined by the State Treasurer. The State Treasurer shall designate the professionals providing legal or financial services relating to the lease-purchase agreement and the delivery of certificates of participation, including the provider of any credit facility and the underwriter or placement agent for any certificates of participation.

(h) Tax Exemption. — The lease purchase agreement and any certificates of participation relating to it shall at all times be free from taxation by the State or any political subdivision or any of their agencies, excepting estate, inheritance, or gift taxes, income taxes on the gain from the transfer of the lease-purchase agreement and certificates of participation, and franchise taxes. The interest component of the lease payments made by the State under the lease-purchase agreement, including the interest payable with respect to any certificates of participation, is not subject to taxation as income.

(i) The private for-profit or nonprofit firms authorized to respond to requests for proposal authorized by this section, or entitled to be a Selected Contractor pursuant to any response to such proposal, need not be a licensed general contractor within the meaning of G.S. 87-1 so that providing a response to such request for proposal or entering a Construction Contract Agreement or Purchase Agreement shall not be deemed general contracting within the meaning of G.S. 87-1; provided that this subsection shall not be deemed to remove the actual construction of any prison facility from the provisions of G.S. 87-1. (1999-237, s. 18.20(a); 2001-84, s. 1; 2001-202, s. 1.)

Editor's Note. — This section was formerly codified as subsection (b1) of G.S. 148-37. It was recodified as § 148-37.2 by Session Laws 2001-84, § 1.

Session Laws 1999-237, s. 18.20(b), provides that the Department of Correction shall provide a status report on the development of requests for proposals and the award-making process to the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations, by May 1, 2000, and that after the contract has been awarded, the Department shall report by May 1 of each year on the progress of the project.

Session Laws 1999-237, s. 30.2 provides: "Except for statutory changes or other provisions that clearly indicate an intention to have effects beyond the 1999-2001 fiscal biennium, the textual provisions of this act apply only to funds appropriated for, and activities occurring during, the 1999-2001 biennium."

Session Laws 1999-237, s. 1.1 provides: "This act shall be known as the 'Current Operations and Capital Improvement Appropriations Act of 1999'."

Session Laws 1999-237, s. 30.4 contains a severability clause.

Session Laws 2001-84, s. 2, provided: "This act, being necessary for the health and welfare of the people of the State, shall be liberally construed to effect its purposes.”

Effect of Amendments. — Session Law 2001-84, s. 1, effective May 17, 2001, recodified former subsection (b1) of § 148-37 as this section, and rewrote the text thereof.

Session Laws 2001-202, s. 1, effective May 17, 2001, amends this section as rewritten by Session Laws 2001-84, s. 1, by adding subsection (i).

§ 148-40. Recapture of escaped prisoners.

The rules and regulations for the government of the State prison system may provide for the recapture of convicts that may escape, or any convicts that may have escaped from the State's prison or prison camps, or county road camps of this State, and the State Department of Correction may pay to any person recapturing an escaped convict such reward or expense of recapture as the regulations may provide. Any citizen of North Carolina shall have authority to apprehend any convict who may escape before the expiration of his term of imprisonment whether he be guilty of a felony or misdemeanor, and retain him in custody and deliver him to the State Department of Correction. (1933, c. 172, s. 21; 1955, c. 238, s. 8; 1957, c. 349, s. 10; 1967, c. 996, s. 13.)

§ 148-41. Recapture of escaping prisoners; reward.

The Secretary of Correction shall use every means possible to recapture, regardless of expense, any prisoners escaping from or leaving without permission any of the State prisons, camps, or farms. When any person who has been confined or placed to work escapes from the State prison system, the Secretary shall immediately notify the Governor, and accompany the notice with a full description of the escaped prisoner, together with such information as will aid in the recapture. The Governor may offer such rewards as he may deem desirable and necessary for the recapture and return to the State prison system of any person who may escape or who heretofore has escaped therefrom. Such reward earned shall be paid by warrant of the State Department of Correction and accounted for as a part of the expense of maintaining the State's prisons. (1873-4, c. 158, s. 13; Code, s. 3442; Rev., s. 5407; 1917, c. 236; c. 286, s. 13; C. S., ss. 7742, 7743; 1925, c. 163; 1933, c. 172, s. 18; 1935, c. 414, s. 16; 1943, c. 409; 1955, c. 238, s. 9; c. 279, s. 3; 1957, c. 349, s. 10; 1967, c. 996, ss. 13, 15; 1973, c. 1262, s. 10.)

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1977, c. 711, s. 34, provided: “All statutes which refer to sections repealed or amended by the act shall be deemed, insofar as possible, to refer to those provisions of this act which accomplish the same or an equivalent purpose.”

Session Laws 1977, c. 711, s. 35, provided: “None of the provisions of this act providing for the repeal of certain sections of the General Statutes shall constitute a reenactment of the common law.”

Session Laws 1977, c. 711, s. 39, as amended by Session Laws 1977, 2nd Sess., c. 1147, s. 32, effective July 1, 1978, provided: “This act shall become effective July 1, 1978, and applies to all matters addressed by its provisions without regard to when a defendant's guilt was established or when judgment was entered against him, except that the provisions of this act regarding parole shall not apply to persons sentenced before July 1, 1978.”

§ 148-43: Repealed by Session Laws 1963, c. 1174, s. 5.

§ 148-44. Separation as to sex.

The Department shall provide quarters for female prisoners separate from those for male prisoners. (1933, c. 172, s. 25; 1947, c. 262, s. 2; 1957, c. 349, s. 10; 1963, c. 1174, s. 2; 1985, c. 226, s. 3(3).)

§ 148-45. Escaping or attempting escape from State prison system; failure of conditionally and temporarily released prisoners and certain youthful offenders to return to custody of Department of Correction.

(a) Any person in the custody of the Department of Correction in any of the classifications hereinafter set forth who shall escape from the State prison system, shall for the first such offense, except as provided in subsection (g) of this section, be guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor:

- (1) A prisoner serving a sentence imposed upon conviction of a misdemeanor;
- (2) A person who has been charged with a misdemeanor and who has been committed to the custody of the Department of Correction under the provisions of G.S. 162-39;
- (3) Repealed by Session Laws 1985, c. 226, s. 4.
- (4) A person who shall have been convicted of a misdemeanor and who shall have been committed to the Department of Correction for presentence diagnostic study under the provisions of G.S. 15A-1332(c).

(b) Any person in the custody of the Department of Correction, in any of the classifications hereinafter set forth, who shall escape from the State prison system, shall, except as provided in subsection (g) of this section, be punished as a Class H felon.

- (1) A prisoner serving a sentence imposed upon conviction of a felony;
- (2) A person who has been charged with a felony and who has been committed to the custody of the Department of Correction under the provisions of G.S. 162-39;
- (3) Repealed by Session Laws 1985, c. 226, s. 5.
- (4) A person who shall have been convicted of a felony and who shall have been committed to the Department of Correction for presentence diagnostic study under the provisions of G.S. 15A-1332(c); or
- (5) Any person previously convicted of escaping or attempting to escape from the State prison system.

(c) Repealed by Session Laws 1979, c. 760, s. 5.

(d) Any person who aids or assists other persons to escape or attempt to escape from the State prison system shall be guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor.

(e) Repealed by Session Laws 1983, c. 465, s. 5.

(f) Any person convicted of an escape or attempt to escape classified as a felony by this section shall be immediately classified and treated as a convicted felon even if such person has time remaining to be served in the State prison system on a sentence or sentences imposed upon conviction of a misdemeanor or misdemeanors.

- (g)(1) Any person convicted and in the custody of the North Carolina Department of Correction and ordered or otherwise assigned to work under the work-release program, G.S. 148-33.1, or any convicted person in the custody of the North Carolina Department of Correction and temporarily allowed to leave a place of confinement by the Secretary of Correction or his designee or other authority of law, who shall fail to return to the custody of the North Carolina Department of Correction, shall be guilty of the crime of escape and subject to the applicable provisions of this section and shall be deemed an escapee. For the purpose of this subsection, escape is defined to include, but is not restricted to, willful failure to return to an appointed place and at an appointed time as ordered.
- (2) If a person, who would otherwise be guilty of a first violation of G.S. 148-45(g)(1), voluntarily returns to his place of confinement within 24 hours of the time at which he was ordered to return, such person shall not be charged with an escape as provided in this section but shall be subject to such administrative action as may be deemed appropriate for an escapee by the Department of Correction; said escapee shall not be allowed to be placed on work release for a four-month period or for the balance of his term if less than four months; provided, however, that if such person commits a subsequent violation of this section then such person shall be charged with that offense and, if convicted, punished under the provisions of this section. (1933, c. 172, s. 26; 1955, c. 279, s. 2; 1963, c. 681; 1965, c. 283; 1967, c. 996, s. 13; 1973, c. 1120; c. 1262, s. 10; 1975, cc. 170, 241, 705; c. 770, ss. 1, 2; 1977, c. 732, ss. 3, 4; c. 745; 1979, c. 760, s. 5; 1979, 2nd Sess., c. 1316, s. 47; 1981, c. 63, s. 1; c. 179, s. 14; 1983, c. 465, ss. 1-5; 1985, c. 226, ss. 3(4)-6; 1993, c. 539, ss. 1058, 1321, 1322; 1994, Ex. Sess., c. 24, s. 14(c); 1997-443, s. 19.25(t).)

CASE NOTES

- I. General Consideration.
- II. Effect of Invalidity of Original Conviction.
- III. Practice and Procedure.

I. GENERAL CONSIDERATION.

There are two classes of escape from the state prison system. One is a felonious escape and the other is a misdemeanor. State v. Ledford, 9 N.C. App. 245, 175 S.E.2d 605 (1970).

Escape from Custody Authorized by Law Is a Crime Against Public Justice. — State v. Goff, 264 N.C. 563, 142 S.E.2d 142 (1965).

As Citizens Should Yield Obedience to Law. — The statute declaring escape from custody to be an offense proceeds from the theory that a citizen should yield obedience to the law. State v. Goff, 264 N.C. 563, 142 S.E.2d 142 (1965).

And Persons Confined by Law Must Submit to Such Confinement. — When one has been, by authority or command of the law, confined in prison, it is his duty to submit to such confinement until delivered by due course of law, no matter whether he has been committed for a future trial or for punishment after conviction. State v. Goff, 264 N.C. 563, 142 S.E.2d 142 (1965).

Escape of Prisoners Working for Board of Transportation. — Prisoners hired by the State Highway Commission (now the Board of Transportation) to work on the highways of the State are within the prison system when the agents of the Highway Commission (now the Board of Transportation) have been designated to receive and work such prisoners. State v. Whitley, 264 N.C. 742, 142 S.E.2d 600 (1965).

An escape by a prisoner assigned by an official of the Department of Correction to work under an employee of the State Highway Commission (now Board of Transportation) constitutes an escape from the State prison system. State v. Coleman, 24 N.C. App. 530, 211 S.E.2d 542 (1975).

Murder Committed in the Perpetration or Attempt to Perpetrate a Felonious Escape Is Murder in the First Degree. — State v. Lee, 277 N.C. 205, 176 S.E.2d 765 (1970).

For cases holding that a second escape is a felony, decided prior to repeal of subsection (c) of this section, see State v. Worley, 268 N.C. 687, 151 S.E.2d 618 (1966); State v. Walters, 17 N.C. App. 94, 193 S.E.2d 316 (1972); State v. Stone, 22 N.C. App. 352, 206 S.E.2d 389 (1974).

As to time when sentence began prior to 1965 amendment to this section, see State v. Doggett, 267 N.C. 648, 148 S.E.2d 622 (1966).

Predicate Offense Under Armed Career Criminal Act. — Felony conviction for escape while serving a sentence imposed upon a conviction of a felony (felony escape from custody), under subdivision (b)(1), qualifies as a predicate conviction under the Federal Armed Career Criminal Act, 18 U.S.C. § 924. United States v. Hairston, 71 F.3d 115 (4th Cir. 1995), cert. denied, 517 U.S. 1200, 116 S. Ct. 1699, 134 L. Ed. 2d 798 (1996).

Serious Potential Risk of Physical Injury to Another. — Subdivision (b)(1), “involves conduct that presents a serious potential risk of physical injury to another”, as required by the Federal Armed Career Criminal Act, 18 U.S.C. § 924(e)(2)(B)(ii), because an overt escape, especially an overt escape from a maximum security prison, inherently presents such a risk of physical injury. United States v. Hairston, 71 F.3d 115 (4th Cir. 1995), cert. denied, 517 U.S. 1200, 116 S. Ct. 1699, 134 L. Ed. 2d 798 (1996).

Applied in State v. Gibson, 265 N.C. 487, 144 S.E.2d 402 (1965); State v. Elliott, 269 N.C. 683, 153 S.E.2d 330 (1967); State v. Morgan, 272 N.C. 97, 157 S.E.2d 606 (1967); State v. Faison, 272 N.C. 146, 157 S.E.2d 664 (1967); State v. McCall, 273 N.C. 135, 159 S.E.2d 316 (1968); State v. Shoemaker, 273 N.C. 475, 160 S.E.2d 281 (1968); State v. Collins, 273 N.C. 479, 160 S.E.2d 291 (1968); State v. Allison, 1 N.C. App. 623, 162 S.E.2d 63 (1968); State v. Jones, 3 N.C. App. 69, 163 S.E.2d 910 (1968); State v. Ruffin, 3 N.C. App. 307, 164 S.E.2d 503 (1968); State v. Rogers, 7 N.C. App. 572, 172 S.E.2d 883 (1970); State v. Foster, 8 N.C. App. 67, 173 S.E.2d 577 (1970); State v. Ware, 10 N.C. ## II. EFFECT OF INVALIDITY OF ORIGINAL CONVICTION.

Belief in Innocence or Legal Errors in Convictions. — It would bring the law into disrepute and completely render prison order and discipline unenforceable if prisoners convicted of crime could exercise the right of self-judgment and self-help and be allowed to escape from imprisonment, either because they believed themselves to be innocent or believed that their convictions were obtained through legal error. State v. Goff, 264 N.C. 563, 142 S.E.2d 142 (1965).

Innocence or Guilt of Original Offense Is Immaterial to Crime of Escape. — It is generally held by the more modern authorities that it is immaterial whether a prisoner is innocent or guilty of the original offense insofar as his liability for escaping is concerned. State v. Goff, 264 N.C. 563, 142 S.E.2d 142 (1965).

When a prisoner is held in legal custody and commits an escape, the crime itself does not depend upon whether he would have been adjudged guilty or innocent of the original offense had the proper procedure for appeal been followed. State v. Goff, 264 N.C. 563, 142 S.E.2d 142 (1965).

As Is Later Determination That Original Conviction Was Void. — The crime of escape does not depend upon whether it may or may not be determined in a future habeas corpus proceeding that his original conviction was void for defects in the judgment of conviction by a court of competent jurisdiction. State v. Goff, 264 N.C. 563, 142 S.E.2d 142 (1965).

Or Voidable. — Deprivation of procedural rights before or during imprisonment does not constitute grounds or justification for, an escape by a prisoner serving a sentence imposed by authority of law. This is so even though the sentence the prisoner was serving at the time was later held to be irregular or voidable. A prisoner in such case may not put himself in defiance of the duly constituted authorities by escaping from custody but must seek redress in compliance with due process. State v. Warren, 4 N.C. App. 441, 166 S.E.2d 858 (1969).

North Carolina has held that a prisoner escaping while serving a sentence is not immune to punishment for the escape even though the sentence he was serving at the time of the escape was irregular or voidable and is set aside and a new trial ordered after the escape but prior to imposition of sentence for the escape, since a prisoner serving a sentence imposed by authority of law may not defy that authority but must seek redress in compliance with due process. Kelly v. North Carolina, 276 F. Supp. 200 (E.D.N.C. 1967).

And defendant can be tried and sentenced on charge of escape irrespective of outcome of a new trial. State v. Warren, 4 N.C. App. 441, 166 S.E.2d 858 (1969).

There is no deprivation of federal constitutional rights in trial for escape from an invalid sentence. Kelly v. North Carolina, 276 F. Supp. 200 (E.D.N.C. 1967).

III. PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE.

The elements of felonious escape are (1) lawful custody, (2) while serving a sentence imposed upon a plea of guilty, a plea of nolo contendere, or a conviction for a felony, and (3) escape from such custody. State v. Malone, 73 N.C. App. 323, 326 S.E.2d 302 (1985).

Exact time is not an essential element of the offense of escape as set out in subdivision (g)(1) of this section and the 24-hour exception provided in subdivision (g)(2) of this section is a defense which a defendant may raise should the evidence warrant such a defense. Therefore, the trial court did not err in denying defendant's motion to dismiss at the close of the State's evidence on the grounds that the warrant did not set out the exact date and time of the alleged escape and further failed to state that the period of time was in excess of the 24-hour time limitation found in subdivision (g)(2) of this section. State v. Womble, 44 N.C. App. 503, 261 S.E.2d 263, appeal dismissed, 299 N.C. 740, 267 S.E.2d 669 (1980).

see State v. Kimball, 261 N.C. 582, 135 S.E.2d 568 (1964); State v. Cooper, 275 N.C. 283, 167 S.E.2d 266 (1969); State v. Ledford, 9 N.C. App. 245, 175 S.E.2d 605 (1970).

Indictment to Allege Conviction of a Misdemeanor or Felony. — It is necessary to allege that the escape or attempted escape occurred when defendant was serving a sentence imposed upon conviction of a misdemeanor or of a felony, irrespective of whether the presently alleged escape or attempted escape was alleged to be a first or a second offense. State v. Jordan, 247 N.C. 253, 100 S.E.2d 497 (1957); State v. Whitley, 264 N.C. 742, 142 S.E.2d 600 (1965); State v. Stallings, 267 N.C. 405, 148 S.E.2d 252 (1966).

But Need Not State the Specific Felony. — An indictment charging that a defendant escaped while serving a sentence for a felony imposed in the superior court in a named county is sufficient without naming the felony. State v. Jackson, 14 N.C. App. 75, 187 S.E.2d 470 (1972).

An indictment charging that defendant escaped from lawful custody while serving a sentence for a felony imposed in the superior court of a named county was sufficient, without naming the felony for which defendant was imprisoned, and reference in the indictment to the felony was surplusage. State v. Stallings, 267 N.C. 405, 148 S.E.2d 252 (1966).

Or Other Detailed Information. — Where defendant contended that warrant was defective in that it did not allege: (1) the year of defendant's conviction in Craven County; (2) the length of the sentence imposed; (3) the number of the defendant's commitment from Craven County; and (4) the trial docket number of the case in which the commitment was issued, it was held that such detailed information was not required to charge an offense under this section. State v. Harper, 264 N.C. 354, 141 S.E.2d 475 (1965).

Indictment Held Insufficient to Charge Felony Escape. — A bill of indictment was insufficient to charge the felony of escape while serving a felony sentence, notwithstanding the indictment used the word "felony" to describe one of the offenses for which defendant was serving sentence when he escaped, where it also alleged that sentences for both offenses were imposed in district courts, since district courts are without jurisdiction to impose sentence in felony cases; however, the indictment was sufficient to charge misdemeanor escape. State v. Jackson, 14 N.C. App. 75, 187 S.E.2d 470 (1972).

Variance Held Not Fatal. — Where bill of indictment charged that defendant escaped while lawfully confined in the North Carolina State prison system in the lawful custody of the North Carolina Department of Correction, and the evidence showed he escaped while assigned by an official of the Department of Correction to work under an employee of the State Highway Commission (now Board of Transportation), the variance was not fatal. State v. Coleman, 24 N.C. App. 530, 211 S.E.2d 542 (1975).

Further Prosecution Not Barred by Arrest of Judgment for Defective Indictment. — Arrest of judgment on the ground that the bill of indictment is fatally defective does not bar further prosecution for a violation of this section if the solicitor deems it advisable to proceed on a new bill. State v. Whitley, 264 N.C. 742, 142 S.E.2d 600 (1965).

Nor by Mistrial on Such Ground. — Where indictment on its face negated any possibility of a showing that at the time of the alleged escape the defendant was serving a sentence in prison, such indictment was fatally defective, and the action of the court in ordering a mistrial was tantamount to quashing the bill of indictment, which the trial court had the right to do ex mero motu; hence, the defendant's conviction on a second bill of indictment was valid and a plea of former jeopardy was properly overruled. State v. Whitley, 264 N.C. 742, 142 S.E.2d 600 (1965).

As to indictments for second or subsequent offenses, prior to repeal of subsection (c) of this section, see State v. Lawrence, 264 N.C. 220, 141 S.E.2d 264 (1965); State v. Revis, 267 N.C. 255, 147 S.E.2d 892 (1966); State v. Bennett, 271 N.C. 423, 156 S.E.2d 725 (1967); State v. Jackson, 14 N.C. App. 75, 187 S.E.2d 470 (1972); State v. Chapman, 20 N.C. App. 456, 201 S.E.2d 579 (1974).

Proof of Lawfulness of Custody and Type of Offense for Which Defendant Committed Prerequisite to Conviction. — In order to sustain a conviction for the offense of escape under this section, the State must prove, among other things, from the evidence and beyond a reasonable doubt, that at the time of the escape defendant was in the lawful custody of the State Department of Correction and was serving a sentence imposed upon a plea of guilty, a plea of nolo contendere, or a conviction for a felony. State v. Ledford, 9 N.C. App. 245, 175 S.E.2d 605 (1970).

When a defendant is charged with escape from the State prison system under this section the State is entitled to introduce evidence of any and all convictions for which defendant was in custody at the time of escape. State v. Hammond, 307 N.C. 662, 300 S.E.2d 361 (1983).

Before a defendant can be convicted of felonious escape, the State must prove beyond a reasonable doubt that at the time of his escape defendant was serving a sentence of incarceration imposed for the conviction of a felony. State v. Hammond, 307 N.C. 662, 300 S.E.2d 361 (1983).

When a defendant is charged with escape under this statute, the State has the burden of proving that defendant was in the legal custody of the Department of Correction at the time of the escape. Testimony concerning the kind of crimes for which defendant was sentenced to prison is relevant and competent evidence which the State may introduce in order to meet its burden of proof on this issue. State v. Hammond, 307 N.C. 662, 300 S.E.2d 361 (1983).

When a defendant is charged with felonious escape from the state prison system under this section, the State has the burden of proving that defendant was in the legal custody of the Department of Correction at the time of the escape, serving a sentence imposed upon conviction of a felony. Accordingly, the State is entitled to introduce evidence of any and all convictions for which defendant was in custody at the time of escape. State v. Parrish, 73 N.C. App. 662, 327 S.E.2d 613 (1985).

To sustain a conviction for escape the state must prove that the defendant was in lawful custody and was serving a sentence imposed upon a plea of guilty, a plea of nolo contendere, or a conviction for a felony. State v. Malone, 73 N.C. App. 323, 326 S.E.2d 302 (1985).

The legislature, in setting the presumptive sentence for escape, presumably took into account that evidence of an underlying plea or conviction would be necessary to prove the offense. State v. Malone, 73 N.C. App. 323, 326 S.E.2d 302 (1985).

Failure to Prove Defendant Serving Sentence. — Defendant was improperly convicted of felonious escape where the State failed to present any evidence that defendant was serving a sentence for the commission of a felony on the date defendant escaped from a county jail. State v. Miller, — N.C. App. —, 553 S.E.2d 410, 2001 N.C. App. LEXIS 975 (2001).

What Evidence Competent to Show Lawfulness of Custody and Type of Offense. — A properly certified copy of the commitment is competent, when introduced into evidence, to show the lawfulness of the custody and the type of offense for which defendant was committed. State v. Ledford, 9 N.C. App. 245, 175 S.E.2d 605 (1970).

Certified copies of the record of the superior court showing defendant's conviction and sentence, or a commitment issued under the hand and official seal of the clerk of the superior court, are admissible for the purpose of showing that defendant was in lawful custody at the time of the alleged escape. State v. Stallings, 267 N.C. 405, 148 S.E.2d 252 (1966).

The defense of duress or escaping against his will will not be available to a prisoner charged with escape except where such defendant meets all of the following five requirements: (1) The prisoner is faced with a specific threat of death, forcible sexual attack or substantial bodily injury in the immediate future; (2) there is no time for a complaint to the authorities or there exists a history of futile complaints which make any result from such complaints illusory; (3) there is no time or opportunity to resort to courts; (4) there is no evidence of force or violence used towards prison personnel or other "innocent" persons in the escape; and (5) the prisoner immediately reports to the proper authorities when he has attained a position of safety from the immediate threat. State v. Watts, 60 N.C. App. 191, 298 S.E.2d 436 (1982).

Nature of Offense for Which Defendant Committed as Question for Jury. — A defendant who has committed an escape is entitled to have his case submitted to the jury on the question of whether he was imprisoned while serving a sentence imposed for a felony or for a misdemeanor. State v. Ledford, 9 N.C. App. 245, 175 S.E.2d 605 (1970).

Prejudicial Error Not to Charge Jury That It Must Find Defendant Was Serving Sentence for Felony Conviction at Time of Escape. — Since defendant's plea of not guilty put in issue every essential element of the crime charged, and defendant was charged with escaping from the lawful custody of the State Department of Correction while then and there serving time for a felony, trial judge's failure to instruct the jury that before they could convict defendant of the felony of escape charged, they must find beyond a reasonable doubt that at the time of the escape he was serving a sentence imposed upon conviction of a felony, was prejudicial error which entitled defendant to a new trial. State v. McCloud, 11

The court erred where it did not require the jury to find beyond a reasonable doubt that defendant was serving a felony sentence in a prosecution under this section. State v. Johnson, 21 N.C. App. 85, 203 S.E.2d 424 (1974).

Instruction on Willfulness Unnecessary.

— In a prosecution for felonious escape under this section, the trial court was not required to instruct the jury pursuant to § 148-4 that one of the essential elements of felonious escape is that the failure to remain in or return to confinement must be willful, since defendant was not charged with escape while outside the place of his confinement pursuant to authorization by the Secretary of Correction under § 148-4, but was charged under this section, which establishes the general escape offense and does not contain the word willful. State v. Rose, 53 N.C. App. 608, 281 S.E.2d 404 (1981).

Erroneous Reference to Another Section in Judgment and Commitment Order Held Not Prejudicial. — The fact that the judgment and commitment order in an escape prosecution erroneously referred to § 148-48 instead of this section was not prejudicial to the defendant. State v. Cobb, 9 N.C. App. 51, 175 S.E.2d 381 (1970).

Sentence of 12 Months Not Cruel and Unusual Punishment. — A sentence of imprisonment for 12 months for felonious escape under this section does not constitute cruel and unusual punishment, in violation of N.C. Const., Art. I, § 14 and U.S. Const., Amend. VIII. State v. Dixon, 5 N.C. App. 514, 168 S.E.2d 418 (1969).

§ 148-46. Degree of protection against violence allowed.

(a) When any prisoner, or several combined shall offer violence to any officer, overseer, or guard, or to any fellow prisoner, or attempt to do any injury to the prison building, or to any workshop, or other equipment, or shall attempt to escape, or shall resist, or disobey any lawful command, the officer, overseer, or guard shall use any means necessary to defend himself, or to enforce the observance of discipline, or to secure the person of the offender, and to prevent an escape.

(b) A misdemeanor prisoner classified and treated as a convicted felon as the result of a consecutive felony sentence or sentences, or a convicted felon placed in the custody of the Secretary of Correction pending the outcome of an appeal, or a defendant charged with a felony or felonies and placed in the custody of the Secretary of Correction pending trial, shall be considered as a convicted felon in the custody of the Secretary of Correction against whom any means reasonably necessary, including deadly force, may be used to prevent an escape. (1933, c. 172, s. 27; 1975, c. 230.)

Legal Periodicals. — For note on use of deadly force in preventing escape of fleeing minor felon, see 34 N.C.L. Rev. 122 (1955).

CASE NOTES

Constitutional Liability. — While simple reasonableness governs official forcible encounters with “free citizens,” a vastly different standard governs use of force against convicted prisoners. The prohibition in U.S. Const., Amend. VIII against cruel and unusual punishment requires liability for the unnecessary and wanton infliction of pain. Morrison v. Martin, 755 F. Supp. 683 (E.D.N.C. 1990), aff’d, 917 F.2d 1302 (4th Cir. 1990).

This section specifically permits the use of force to enforce lawful orders by prison officials. The deference due to prison administrators in the establishment of policies reasonably related to legitimate governmental objectives is well established. Morrison v. Martin, 755 F. Supp. 683 (E.D.N.C. 1990), aff’d, 917 F.2d 1302 (4th Cir. 1990).

The use of force against prisoners may be appropriate, depending upon the existence of certain factors: (1) The need for force; (2) the amount of force needed in relation to the amount used; (3) the extent of injury inflicted; and (4) whether the force arose out of good faith efforts to maintain discipline as opposed to the malicious infliction of harm. Stokes v. Galyan, 618 F. Supp. 1483 (W.D.N.C. 1985).

Correctional officers can be held answerable at law only for obduracy and wantonness, not merely because lesser measures might have sufficed or where ordinary errors of judgment occurred. Morrison v. Martin, 755 F. Supp. 683 (E.D.N.C. 1990), aff’d, 917 F.2d 1302 (4th Cir. 1990).

Administrator Dictates Policy. — As long as prison authorities are rationally pursuing a legitimate penological objective, the administrator has the last word as to relevant prison policy. Morrison v. Martin, 755 F. Supp. 683 (E.D.N.C. 1990), aff’d, 917 F.2d 1302 (4th Cir. 1990).

§ 148-46.1. Inflicting or assisting in infliction of self injury to prisoner resulting in incapacity to perform assigned duties.

Any person serving a sentence or sentences within the State prison system who, during the term of such imprisonment, willfully and intentionally inflicts upon himself any injury resulting in a permanent or temporary incapacity to perform work or duties assigned to him by the State Department of Correction, or any prisoner who aids or abets any other prisoner in the commission of such offense, shall be punished as a Class H felon. (1959, c. 1197; 1967, c. 996, s. 13; 1979, c. 760, s. 5; 1979, 2nd Sess., c. 1316, s. 47; 1981, c. 63, s. 1; c. 179, s. 14; 1993, c. 539, s. 1323; 1994, Ex. Sess., c. 24, s. 14(c); 1997-443, s. 19.25(v).)

§ 148-46.2. Procedure when consent is refused by prisoner.

When the Secretary of Correction finds as a fact that the injury to any prisoner was willfully and intentionally self-inflicted and that an operation or treatment is necessary for the preservation or restoration of the health of the prisoner and that the prisoner is competent to act for himself or herself; and that attempts have been made to obtain consent for the proposed operation or treatment but such consent was refused, and the findings have been reduced to writing and entered into the prisoner's records as a permanent part thereof, then the chief medical officer of the prison hospital or prison institution shall be authorized to give or withhold, on behalf of the prisoner, consent to the operation or treatment.

In all cases coming under the provisions of this Article [section], the medical staff of the hospital or institution shall keep a careful and complete medical record of the treatment and surgical procedures undertaken. The record shall be signed by the chief medical officer of the hospital or institution and the surgeon performing any surgery. Any treatment of self-inflicted injuries shall also be subject to the provisions of G.S. 90-21.13 and 90-21.14. (1959, c. 1196; 1967, c. 996, s. 15; 1969, c. 982; 1973, c. 1262, s. 10; 1981, c. 307, ss. 4-7, 9.)

Editor's Note. — This section was formerly § 130-191.1. It was amended and transferred to its present position by Session Laws 1981, c. 307, s. 9.

The reference in this section to § 90-21.14 should probably now be to § 90-21.16. Session Laws 2001-230, s. 1(b), recodified former subsection (a1) of § 90-21.14 as present § 90-21.16.

§ 148-47. Disposition of child born of female prisoner.

Any child born of a female prisoner while she is in custody shall as soon as practicable be surrendered to the director of social services of the county wherein the child was born upon a proper order of the domestic relations court or juvenile court of said county affecting the custody of said child. When it appears to be for the best interest of the child, the court may place custody beyond the geographical bounds of Wake County: Provided, however, that all subsequent proceedings and orders affecting custody of said child shall be within the jurisdiction of the proper court of the county where the infant is residing at the time such proceeding is commenced or such order is sought: Provided, further, that nothing in this section shall affect the right of the mother to consent to the adoption of her child nor shall the right of the mother to place her child with the legal father or other suitable relative be affected by the provisions of this section. (1933, c. 172, s. 28; 1955, c. 1027; 1961, c. 186; 1969, c. 982.)

§ 148-48. Parole powers of Parole Commission unaffected.

Nothing in this Chapter shall be construed to limit or restrict the power of the Parole Commission to parole prisoners under such conditions as it may impose or prevent the reimprisonment of such prisoners upon violation of the conditions of such parole, as now provided by law. (1933, c. 172, s. 29; 1955, c. 867, s. 8; 1973, c. 1262, s. 10.)

CASE NOTES

Erroneous Reference to Statute Under Which Defendant Committed Held Not Prejudicial. — It was not prejudicial to the defendant where, in the judgment and commitment as it appeared in the record, the statute under which the defendant was convicted was erroneously referred to as "G.S. 148.48" instead of § 148-45. State v. Cobb, 9 N.C. App. 51, 175 S.E.2d 381 (1970).

§ 148-49. Prison indebtedness not assumed by Board of Transportation.

The Board of Transportation shall not assume or pay off any part of the deficit of the State prison existing on March 22, 1933. (1933, c. 172, s. 33; 1973, c. 507, s. 5.)

No member of the Post-Release Supervision and Parole Commission shall be permitted to use his position to influence elections or the political action of any person, serve as a member of the campaign committee of any political party, interfere with or participate in the preparation for any election or the conduct thereof at the polling place, or be in any manner concerned in the demanding, soliciting or receiving of any assessments, subscriptions or contributions, whether voluntary or involuntary, to any political party. #### CASE NOTES

Basis of Article. — Sections 148-6, 148-26 and 148-33.1, as well as provisions with reference to paroles contained in this Article, are predicated upon the idea that the ability as well as the disposition of released prisoners to engage in honest employment and become law-abiding members of society is calculated to serve the best interests of the State and of its citizens. Pharr v. Garibaldi, 252 N.C. 803, 115 S.E.2d 18 (1960).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL

Campaigning for Office of Sheriff. — A person employed by the State as a probation and parole officer may file notice of candidacy and campaign for election to the office of sheriff assuming that no federal funds are involved with respect to the probation and parole offic-

§ 148-53. Investigators and investigations of cases of prisoners.

For the purpose of investigating the cases of prisoners, the Department of Correction is hereby authorized and empowered to appoint an adequate staff of competent investigators, particularly qualified for such work, with such reasonable clerical assistance as may be required, who shall, under the rules and regulations duly adopted by the Post-Release Supervision and Parole Commission, investigate all cases designated by it, investigate cases of prisoners eligible for post-release supervision, and otherwise aid the Commission in passing upon the question of the parole and post-release supervision of prisoners, to the end that every prisoner in the custodial care of the State may receive full, fair, and just consideration. (1935, c. 414, s. 3; 1955, c. 867, s. 2; 1973, c. 1262, s. 10; 1977, c. 704, s. 3; c. 711, s. 30; 1977, 2nd Sess., c. 1147, s. 32; 1993, c. 538, s. 45; 1994, Ex. Sess., c. 24, s. 14(b).)

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1977, c. 711, s. 39, as amended by Session Laws 1977, 2nd Sess., c. 1147, s. 32, effective July 1, 1978, provided: "This act shall become effective July 1, 1978, and applies to all matters addressed by its provisions without regard to when a defendant's guilt was established or when judgment was entered against him, except that the provisions of this act regarding parole shall not apply to persons sentenced before July 1, 1978."

§ 148-54. Parole and post-release supervision supervisors provided for; duties.

The Department of Correction is hereby authorized to appoint a sufficient number of competent parole and post-release supervision supervisors, who shall be particularly qualified for and adapted for the work required of them, and who shall under the direction of the Department of Correction, and under regulations prescribed by the Department of Correction after consultation with the Commission, exercise supervision and authority over paroled prisoners and persons on post-release supervision, assist paroled prisoners and persons on post-release supervision, and those who are to be paroled or released for post-release supervision in finding and retaining self-supporting employment, and to promote rehabilitation work with paroled and post-release supervised prisoners, to the end that they may become law-abiding citizens. The supervisors shall also, under the direction of the Department of Correction, maintain frequent contact with paroled and post-release supervised prisoners and find out whether or not they are observing the conditions of their paroles or post-release supervision, and assist them in every possible way toward compliance with the conditions, and they shall perform such other duties in connection with paroled prisoners as the Department of Correction may require. The number of supervisors may be increased by the Department of Correction as and when the number of paroled and post-release supervised prisoners to be supervised requires or justifies such increase. (1935, c. 414, s. 4; 1955, c. 867, s. 11; 1973, c. 1262, s. 10; 1977, c. 704, s. 4; 1993, c. 538, s. 46; 1994, Ex. Sess., c. 24, s. 14(b).)

§ 148-56. Assistance in supervision of parolees or post-release supervisees and preparation of case histories.

Upon request by the Post-Release Supervision and Parole Commission, the county directors of social services shall assist in the supervision of parolees and shall prepare and submit to the Post-Release Supervision and Parole Commission case histories or other information in connection with any case under consideration for parole or some form of executive clemency. (1935, c. 414, s. 6; 1955, c. 867, s. 9; 1961, c. 186; 1969, c. 982; 1973, c. 1262, s. 10; 1993, c. 538, s. 47; 1994, Ex. Sess., c. 24, s. 14(b).)

§ 148-57. Rules and regulations for parole consideration.

The Post-Release Supervision and Parole Commission is hereby authorized and empowered to set up and establish rules and regulations in accordance with which prisoners eligible for parole consideration may have their cases reviewed and by which such proceedings may be initiated and considered. That the rules and regulations shall include but not be limited to, a plan whereby the Post-Release Supervision and Parole Commission may determine parole eligibility, and, when eligibility is so approved, provide for parole of a prisoner to a plan approved by the Secretary of the Department of Correction. (1935, c. 414, s. 7; 1955, c. 867, s. 4; 1973, c. 1262, s. 10; 1977, c. 704, s. 2; 1993, c. 538, s. 48; 1994, Ex. Sess., c. 24, s. 14(b).)

Editor's Note. — This section was amended by Session Laws 1993, c. 538, s. 48, in the coded bill drafting format provided by § 120-20.1. It has been set out in the form above at the direction of the Revisor of Statutes.

CASE NOTES

Honor-Grade Status, Work-Release Privilege and Parole as Discretionary Acts of Clemency. — Honor-grade status, work-release privilege, and parole are discretionary acts of grace or clemency extended by the State as a reward for good behavior, conferring no vested rights upon the convicted person. An accused person must be given full constitutional protection before and during his trial, but procedures of constitutional dimension are not appropriate in subsequent determinations of rewards for good behavior while serving a validly imposed sentence of confinement. Goble v. Bounds, 13 N.C. App. 579, 186 S.E.2d 638, aff'd, 281 N.C. 307, 188 S.E.2d 347 (1972).

§ 148-57.1. Restitution as a condition of parole or post-release supervision.

(a) Repealed by Session Laws 1985, c. 474, s. 5.

(b) As a rehabilitative measure, the Post-Release Supervision and Parole Commission is authorized to require a prisoner to whom parole or post-release supervision is granted to make restitution or reparation to an aggrieved party as a condition of parole or post-release supervision when the sentencing court recommends that restitution or reparation to an aggrieved party be made a condition of any parole or post-release supervision granted the defendant. When imposing restitution as a condition and setting up a payment schedule for the restitution, the Post-Release Supervision and Parole Commission shall take into consideration the resources of the defendant, including all real and personal property owned by the defendant and the income derived from such property, his ability to earn, and his obligation to support dependents. The Post-Release Supervision and Parole Commission shall not be bound by such recommendation, but if it elects not to implement the recommendation, it shall state in writing the reasons therefor, and shall forward the same to the sentencing court.

(c) When an active sentence is imposed, the court shall consider whether, as a rehabilitative measure, it should recommend to the Post-Release Supervision and Parole Commission that restitution or reparation by the defendant be made a condition of any parole or post-release supervision granted the defendant. If the court determines that restitution or reparation should not be recommended, it shall so indicate on the commitment. If, however, the court determines that restitution or reparation should be recommended, the court shall make its recommendation a part of the order committing the defendant to custody. The recommendation shall be in accordance with the applicable provisions of Article 81C of Chapter 15A of the General Statutes. The Administrative Office of the Courts shall prepare and distribute forms which provide ample space to make restitution or reparation recommendations incident to commitments, which forms shall be conveniently structured to enable the sentencing court to make its recommendation.

If the offense is one in which there is evidence of physical, mental or sexual abuse of a minor, the court may order, as a condition of parole or post-release supervision, that the defendant pay the cost of any rehabilitative treatment for the minor.

(d) The Post-Release Supervision and Parole Commission shall establish rules and regulations to implement this section, which shall include adequate notice to the prisoner that the payment of restitution or reparation by the prisoner is being considered as a condition of any parole or post-release supervision granted the prisoner, and opportunity for the prisoner to be heard. Such rules and regulations shall also provide additional methods whereby facts may be obtained to supplement the recommendation of the sentencing court. (1977, c. 614, s. 8; 1977, 2nd Sess., c. 1147, s. 36; 1985, c. 474, s. 5; 1987, c. 397, s. 4; c. 598, s. 4; 1993, c. 538, s. 49; 1994, Ex. Sess., c. 24, s. 14(b); 1998-212, s. 19.4(h).)

CASE NOTES

Constitutionality. — Since the decision to impose restitution or reparation is discretionary with the trial court, the Secretary and the Parole Commission, and since indigency could be considered in making that decision, § 148-33.2(c) and subsection (c) of this section are not unconstitutional as a denial of equal protection discriminating against indigent defendants. State v. Lambert, 40 N.C. App. 418, 252 S.E.2d 855 (1979).

The requirement that a defendant pay restitution under § 148-33.2(c) or subsection (c) of this section as a condition of obtaining work-release or parole is not inherently unconstitutional. Whether the restitution requirement is unconstitutional as applied to a particular defendant may only be determined by considering the defendant's financial status and other relevant circumstances at the time when the restitution must be paid, that is, at the time he becomes eligible for parole or work-release privileges. State v. Parton, 303 N.C. 55, 277 S.E.2d 410 (1981), overruled on other grounds, State v. Freeman, 314 N.C. 432, 333 S.E.2d 743 (1985).

A requirement that a defendant pay restitution as a condition of parole or work release is not inherently unconstitutional. State v. Arnette, 67 N.C. App. 194, 312 S.E.2d 547 (1984).

The constitutionality of a reparation requirement may only be considered if and when restitution is ordered. State v. Arnette, 67 N.C. App. 194, 312 S.E.2d 547 (1984); State v. Wilson, 340 N.C. 720, 459 S.E.2d 192 (1995).

The constitutionality of a reparation requirement may only be determined by considering defendant's financial status at the time when restitution may be paid. State v. Arnette, 67 N.C. App. 194, 312 S.E.2d 547 (1984).

There is no statutory requirement for a sentencing judge to inquire into a defendant's ability to pay restitution when the judge merely recommends restitution as a condition of parole or work release. State v. Arnette, 67 N.C. App. 194, 312 S.E.2d 547 (1984).

Constitutionality of Requiring Repayment of Attorneys' Fees. — The interlocking statutes and court decisions that regulate North Carolina's ability to recover the costs of court-appointed counsel meet constitutional requirements. The indigent defendant's fundamental right to counsel is preserved under the system; he is given ample opportunity to challenge the decision to require repayment at all critical stages; and he is protected against heightened civil or criminal penalties based solely on his inability to pay. Alexander v. Johnson, 742 F.2d 117 (4th Cir. 1984).

Though far from a paragon of clarity and detail as a complete program, the North Carolina statutes relating to the repayment of attorneys' fees by restitution embody all the required features of a constitutionally acceptable approach. The indigent defendant's fundamental right to counsel is preserved under the North Carolina statute and no preconditions are placed on the exercise of that right beyond a reasonable and minimally intrusive procedure designed to establish the fact of indigency. Alexander v. Johnson, 742 F.2d 117 (4th Cir. 1984).

Like its civil recoupment statute, North Carolina's procedures for imposing the reimbursement of court-appointed counsel fees as a condition of parole are narrowly drawn to avoid unfairness and discriminatory effects. Alexander v. Johnson, 742 F.2d 117 (4th Cir. 1984).

Claim of parolee under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 that North Carolina had placed an unconstitutional restraint on her freedom by conditioning her parole upon repayment of attorneys' fees would be dismissed for failure to exhaust state remedies. Alexander v. Johnson, 742 F.2d 117 (4th Cir. 1984).

Amount of Restitution Must Be Supported by Evidence. — The amount of restitution recommended by the trial court must be supported by evidence adduced at trial or at sentencing. State v. Wilson, 340 N.C. 720, 459 S.E.2d 192 (1995).

The decision to recommend restitution or reparation is discretionary, and the trial court is not required to impose such a condition. State v. Lambert, 40 N.C. App. 418, 252 S.E.2d 855 (1979).

Parole Commission, etc., Not Bound by Recommendation of Restitution. — Neither the Parole Commission nor the Department of Correction is bound by the judge's recommendation of restitution as a condition of parole or work release. State v. Arnette, 67 N.C. App. 194, 312 S.E.2d 547 (1984).

Restitution Cannot Be Imposed with Active Prison Sentence. — When a court imposes an active sentence, it may recommend restitution as a condition of work-release, as a condition of post-release supervision and parole, or as a condition of probation, but it may not require the defendant to make restitution while serving an active sentence. State v. Hughes, 136 N.C. App. 92, 524 S.E.2d 63 (1999).

Law Enforcement Agencies Not Victims for Restitution Purposes. — While North Carolina statutes authorize the imposition of a condition, upon parole eligibility, of restitution to victims of crime who have suffered economic loss as a result of that crime, law enforcement agencies are not within the class of such victims. Evans v. Garrison, 657 F.2d 64 (4th Cir. 1981).

State as "Aggrieved Party". — Although the North Carolina Supreme Court has never definitively decided the issue, there is persuasive authority in North Carolina law supporting the State's right to claim the status of an "aggrieved party" for the expenses associated with providing court-appointed counsel. Alexander v. Johnson, 742 F.2d 117 (4th Cir. 1984).

§§ 148-58, 148-58.1: Repealed by Session Laws 1977, c. 711, s. 33.

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1977, c. 711, s. 34, provided: "All statutes which refer to sections repealed or amended by the act shall be deemed, insofar as possible, to refer to those provisions of this act which accomplish the same or an equivalent purpose."

Session Laws 1977, c. 711, s. 35, provided: "None of the provisions of this act providing for the repeal of certain sections of the General Statutes shall constitute a reenactment of the common law."

Session Laws 1977, c. 711, s. 39, as amended by Session Laws 1977, 2nd Sess., c. 1147, s. 32, effective July 1, 1978, provided: "This act shall become effective July 1, 1978, and applies to all matters addressed by its provisions without regard to when a defendant's guilt was established or when judgment was entered against him, except that the provisions of this act regarding parole shall not apply to persons sentenced before July 1, 1978."

§ 148-59. Duties of clerks of superior courts as to commitments; statements filed with Department of Correction.

The several clerks of the superior courts shall attach to the commitment of each prisoner sentenced in such courts a statement furnishing such information as the Post-Release Supervision and Parole Commission shall by regulations prescribe, which information shall contain, among other things, the following:

- (1) The court in which the prisoner was tried;
- (2) The name of the prisoner and of all codefendants;
- (3) The date or session when the prisoner was tried;
- (4) The offense with which the prisoner was charged and the offense for which convicted;
- (5) The judgment of the court and the date of the beginning of the sentence;
- (6) The name and address of the presiding judge;

- (7) The name and address of the prosecuting solicitor;
- (8) The name and address of private prosecuting attorney, if any;
- (9) The name and address of the arresting officer;
- (10) All available information of the previous criminal record of the prisoner; and
- (11) For all Class G or more serious felonies, the names and addresses of the following persons, where the presiding judge makes a finding of such facts:
  - a. Any victims of the offense for which the prisoner was convicted;
  - b. The parent or legal guardian of any minor victims of the offense for which the prisoner was convicted; and
  - c. The next of kin of any homicide victims of the offense for which the prisoner was convicted.

The prison authorities receiving the prisoner for the beginning of the service of sentence shall detach from the commitment the statement furnishing such information and forward it to the Department of Correction, together with any additional information in the possession of such prison authorities relating to the previous criminal record of such prisoner, and the information thus furnished shall constitute the foundation and file of the prisoner's case. Forms for furnishing the information required by this section shall, upon request, be furnished to the said clerks by the State Department of Correction without charge. (1935, c. 414, s. 9; 1953, c. 17, s. 2; 1955, c. 867, s. 12; 1957, c. 349, s. 10; 1967, c. 996, s. 13; 1973, c. 108, s. 90; c. 1262, s. 10; 1993, c. 538, s. 50; 1994, Ex. Sess., c. 12, s. 2; c. 24, s. 14(b).)

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1993 (Reg. Sess., 1994), c. 12, ss. 1, 2 made identical amendments to this section in the coded bill drafting format provided by § 120-20.1, by amending the version of this section appearing in the 1993 supplement and the version appearing in the 1987 replacement chapter.

CASE NOTES

File to Contain Names and Addresses of Sworn Officials. — The file must contain the name and address of the judge, the investigating officer, and the State's prosecutor. These sworn officials know more of the background of the case than the record discloses. Hence, these officers may be consulted on matters in addition to that which the record discloses. Goble v. Bounds, 281 N.C. 307, 188 S.E.2d 347 (1972).

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1977, c. 711, s. 34, provided: "All statutes which refer to sections repealed or amended by the act shall be deemed, insofar as possible, to refer to those provisions of this act which accomplish the same or an equivalent purpose."

Session Laws 1977, c. 711, s. 35, provided: "None of the provisions of this act providing for the repeal of certain sections of the General Statutes shall constitute a reenactment of the common law."

Session Laws 1977, c. 711, s. 39, as amended by Session Laws 1977, 2nd Sess., c. 1147, s. 32, effective July 1, 1978, provided: "This act shall become effective July 1, 1978, and applies to all matters addressed by its provisions without regard to when a defendant's guilt was established or when judgment was entered against him, except that the provisions of this act regarding parole shall not apply to persons sentenced before July 1, 1978."

§ 148-60.1. Allowances for paroled prisoner and prisoner on post-release supervision.

Upon the release of any prisoner upon parole or post-release supervision, the superintendent or warden of the institution shall provide the prisoner with suitable clothing and, if needed, an amount of money sufficient to purchase transportation to the place within the State where the prisoner is to reside. The Post-Release Supervision and Parole Commission may, in its discretion, provide that the prisoner shall upon his release on parole or post-release supervision receive a sum of money of at least forty-five dollars ($45.00). (1953, c. 17, s. 8; 1973, c. 1262, s. 10; 1987 (Reg. Sess., 1988), c. 1086, s. 120(b); 1993, c. 538, s. 51; 1994, Ex. Sess., c. 24, s. 14(b).)

§§ 148-60.2 through 148-62: Repealed by Session Laws 1977, c. 711, s. 33.

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1977, c. 711, s. 34, provided: "All statutes which refer to sections repealed or amended by the act shall be deemed, insofar as possible, to refer to those provisions of this act which accomplish the same or an equivalent purpose."

Session Laws 1977, c. 711, s. 39, as amended by Session Laws 1977, 2nd Sess., c. 1147, s. 32, effective July 1, 1978, provided: "This act shall become effective July 1, 1978, and applies to all matters addressed by its provisions without regard to when a defendant's guilt was established or when judgment was entered against him, except that the provisions of this act regarding parole shall not apply to persons sentenced before July 1, 1978."

§ 148-62.1. Entitlement of indigent parolee and post-release supervisee to counsel, in discretion of Post-Release Supervision and Parole Commission.

Any parolee or post-release supervisee who is an indigent under the terms of G.S. 7A-450(a) may be determined entitled, in the discretion of the Post-Release Supervision and Parole Commission, to the services of counsel at State expense at a parole revocation hearing at which either:

- (1) The parolee or post-release supervisee claims not to have committed the alleged violation of the parole or post-release supervision conditions; or
- (2) The parolee or post-release supervisee claims there are substantial reasons which justified or mitigated the violation and make revocation inappropriate, even if the violation is a matter of public record or is uncontested, and that the reasons are complex or otherwise difficult to develop or present; or
- (3) The parolee or post-release supervisee is incapable of speaking effectively for himself; and where the Commission feels, on a case by case basis, that such appointment in accordance with either (1), (2) or (3) above is necessary for fundamental fairness.

If the parolee or post-release supervisee is determined to be indigent and entitled to services of counsel, counsel shall be appointed in accordance with rules adopted by the Office of Indigent Defense Services. (1973, c. 1116, s. 2; 1993, c. 538, s. 52; 1994, Ex. Sess., c. 24, s. 14(b); 2000-144, s. 45.)

§ 148-63. Arrest powers of police officers.

Any officer who is authorized to make arrests of fugitives from justice shall have full authority and power to arrest any parolee whose parole has been revoked or any post-release supervisee who has been revoked. (1935, c. 414, s. 13; 1993, c. 538, s. 53; 1994, Ex. Sess., c. 24, s. 14(b).)

§ 148-64. Cooperation of prison and parole officials and employees.

The officials and employees of the Department of Correction and the Post-Release Supervision and Parole Commission shall at all times cooperate with and furnish each other such information and assistance as will promote the purposes of this Chapter and the purposes for which these agencies were established. The Commission shall have free access to all prisoners. (1935, c. 414, s. 14; 1955, c. 867, s. 7; 1967, c. 996, ss. 11, 15; 1973, c. 1262, s. 10; 1993, c. 538, s. 54; 1994, Ex. Sess., c. 24, s. 14(b).)

Out-of-State Parolee Supervision.

§ 148-65.1. Governor to execute compact; form of compact.

(a) The Governor of this State is hereby authorized and directed to execute a compact on behalf of the State of North Carolina with any of the United States legally joining therein in the form substantially as follows:

A compact entered into by and among the contracting states, signatories hereto, with the consent of the Congress of the United States of America, granted by an act entitled "An Act granting the consent of Congress to any two or more states to enter into agreements or compacts for cooperative effort and mutual assistance in the prevention of crime and for other purposes."

The contracting states solemnly agree:

- (1) That it shall be competent for the duly constituted judicial and administrative authorities of a state party to this compact (herein called "sending state"), to permit any person convicted of an offense within such state and placed on probation or released on parole to reside in any other state party to this compact (herein called "receiving state"), while on probation or parole, if
  - a. Such person is in fact a resident or has his family residing within the receiving state and can obtain employment there;

- b. Though not a resident of the receiving state and not having his family residing there, the receiving state consents to such person being sent there.

Before granting such permission, opportunity shall be granted to the receiving state to investigate the home and prospective employment of such person.

A resident of the receiving state, within the meaning of this section, is one who has been an actual inhabitant of such state continuously for more than one year prior to his coming to the sending state and has not resided within the sending state more than six continuous months immediately preceding the commission of the offense for which he has been convicted.

- (2) That each receiving state will assume the duties of visitation of and supervision over probationers or parolees of any sending state and in the exercise of those duties will be governed by the same standards that prevail for its own probationers and parolees.
- (3) That duly accredited officers of a sending state may at all times enter a receiving state and there apprehend and retake any person on probation or parole. For that purpose no formalities will be required other than establishing the authority of the officer and the identity of the person to be retaken. All legal requirements to obtain extradition of fugitives from justice are hereby expressly waived on the part of states party hereto, as to such persons. The decision of the sending state to retake a person on probation or parole shall be conclusive upon and not reviewable within the receiving state; provided, however, that if at the time when a state seeks to retake a probationer or parolee there should be pending against him within the receiving state any criminal charge, or he should be suspected of having committed within such state a criminal offense, he shall not be retaken without the consent of the receiving state until discharged from prosecution or from imprisonment for such offense.
- (4) That the duly accredited officers of the sending state will be permitted to transport prisoners being retaken through any and all states parties to this compact, without interference.
- (5) That the governor of each state may designate an officer who, acting jointly with like officers of other contracting states, if and when appointed, shall promulgate such rules and regulations as may be deemed necessary to more effectively carry out the terms of this compact.
- (6) That this compact shall become operative immediately upon its execution by any state as between it and any other state or states so executing. When executed it shall have the full force and effect of law within such state, the form of execution to be in accordance with the laws of the executing state.
- (7) That this compact shall continue in force and remain binding upon each executing state until renounced by it. The duties and obligations hereunder of a renouncing state shall continue as to parolees or probationers residing therein at the time of withdrawal until retaken or finally discharged by the sending state. Renunciation of this compact shall be by the same authority which executed it, by sending six months' notice in writing of its intention to withdraw from the compact to the other state party hereto.

(b) Persons supervised in this State pursuant to this compact shall pay the supervision fee specified in G.S. 15A-1374(c). The fee shall be paid to the clerk of court in the county in which the person initially receives supervision services in this State. (1951, c. 1137, s. 1; 1985 (Reg. Sess., 1986), c. 859, s. 4.)

State Government Reorganization. — The administration of parolee supervision compacts was transferred to the Department of Social Rehabilitation and Control by former § 143A-170, enacted by Session Laws 1971, c. 864, and repealed by Session Laws 1973, c. 1262, s. 10. The functions of the Department of Social Rehabilitation and Control have been transferred to the Department of Correction. See § 143B-262.

Legal Periodicals. — For article on probation and parole revocation procedures and related issues, see 13 Wake Forest L. Rev. 5 (1977).

CASE NOTES

Phrase “at all times” in subdivision (a)(3) of this section clearly implies a right of the sending state to retake the probationer prior to a revocation hearing in the receiving state, and to hold the hearing in the sending state. State v. Coleman, 64 N.C. App. 384, 307 S.E.2d 207 (1983).

§ 148-65.1A. Interstate parole and probation hearing procedures.

(a) Where supervision of a parolee or probationer is being administered pursuant to the Interstate Compact for the Supervision of Parolees and Probationers, the appropriate judicial or administrative authorities in this State shall notify the Compact Administrator of the sending state whenever, in their view, consideration should be given to retaking or reincarceration for a parole or probation violation. Prior to the giving of any such notification, a hearing shall be held in accordance with this section within a reasonable time, unless such hearing is waived by the parolee or probationer. The appropriate officer or officers of this State shall as soon as practicable, following termination of any such hearing, report to the sending state, furnish a copy of the hearing record, and make recommendations regarding the disposition to be made of the parolee or probationer by the sending state. Pending any proceeding pursuant to this section, the appropriate officers of this State may take custody of and detain the parolee or probationer involved for a period not to exceed 15 days prior to the hearing and, if it appears to the hearing officer or officers that retaking or reincarceration is likely to follow, for such reasonable period after the hearing or waiver as may be necessary to arrange for the retaking or reincarceration.

(b) Any hearing pursuant to this section may be before the Administrator of the Interstate Compact for the Supervision of Parolees and Probationers, a deputy of such Administrator, or any other person appointed by the Administrator, or any person authorized pursuant to the laws of this State to hear cases of alleged parole or probation violation, except that no hearing officer shall be the person making the allegation of violation.

(c) With respect to any hearing pursuant to this section, the parolee or probationer:

- (1) Shall have reasonable notice in writing of the nature and content of the allegations to be made, including notice that its purpose is to determine whether there is probable cause to believe that he has committed a violation that may lead to a revocation of parole or probation.
- (2) Shall be permitted to advise with any persons whose assistance he reasonably desires, prior to the hearing.
- (3) Shall have the right to confront and examine any persons who have made allegations against him, unless the hearing officer determines that such confrontation would present a substantial present or subsequent danger of harm to such person or persons.
- (4) May admit, deny or explain the violation alleged and may present proof, including affidavits and other evidence, in support of his contentions. A record of the proceedings shall be made and preserved.

(d) In any case of alleged parole or probation violation by a person being supervised in another state pursuant to the Interstate Compact for the Supervision of Parolees and Probationers, any appropriate judicial or administrative officer or agency in another state is authorized to hold a hearing on the alleged violation. Upon receipt of the record of a parole or probation violation hearing held in another state pursuant to a statute substantially similar to this section, such record shall have the same standing and effect as though the proceeding of which it is a record was had before the appropriate officer or officers in this State, and any recommendations contained in or accompanying the record shall be fully considered by the appropriate officer or officers of this State in making disposition of the matter. (1973, c. 1352.)

§ 148-65.3. North Carolina sentence to be served in another jurisdiction.

The Post-Release Supervision and Parole Commission, with the concurrence of the Secretary of Correction, may direct that the balance of any sentence imposed by the courts of this State shall be served concurrently with a sentence or sentences in another state or federal institution, and may effect a transfer of custody of such individual to the other jurisdiction for such purpose. In the event the individual's sentence liability in the other jurisdiction terminates prior to the expiration of his North Carolina sentence, the individual shall be either paroled (if eligible) or returned to the prison department of this State, in the discretion of the Post-Release Supervision and Parole Commission. #### Farming Out Convicts.

§ 148-66. Cities and towns and Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services may contract for prison labor.

The corporate authorities of any city or town may contract in writing with the State Department of Correction for the employment of convicts upon the highways or streets of such city or town, and such contracts when so exercised shall be valid and enforceable against such city or town, and the Attorney General may prosecute an action in the Superior Court of Wake County in the name of the State for their enforcement.

The Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services is hereby authorized and empowered to contract, in writing, with the State Department of Correction for the employment and use of convicts under its supervision to be worked on the State test farms and/or State experimental stations. ### § 148-67. Hiring to cities and towns and State Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services.

The State Department of Correction shall in their discretion, upon application to them, hire to the corporate authorities of any city or town for the purposes specified in G.S. 148-66, such convicts as are mentally and physically capable of performing the work or labor contemplated and are not at the time of such application hired or otherwise engaged in labor under the direction of the Department; but the convicts so hired for services shall be fed, clothed and quartered while so employed by the Department.

Upon application to it, it shall be the duty of the State Department of Correction, in its discretion, to hire to the Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services for the purposes of working on the State test farms and/or State experimental stations, such convicts as may be mentally and physically capable of performing the work or labor contemplated; but the convicts so hired for services under this paragraph shall be fed, clothed and quartered while so employed by the State Department of Correction. (1881, c. 127, s. 2; Code, s. 3450; Rev., s. 5411; C.S., s. 7759; 1925, c. 163; 1931, c. 145, s. 35; 1933, c. 172, s. 18; 1943, c. 605, s. 2; 1957, c. 349, s. 10; 1967, c. 996, s. 13; 1985, c. 226, s. 10(2); 1997-261, s. 107.)

§ 148-68. Payment of contract price; interest; enforcement of contracts.

The corporate authorities of any city or town so hiring convicts shall pay into the treasury of the State for the labor of any convict so hired such sum or sums of money at such time or times as may be agreed upon in the contract of hire; and if any such city or town fails to pay the State money due for such hiring, the same shall bear interest from the time it is due until paid at the rate of six percent (6%) per annum; and an action to recover the same may be instituted by the Attorney General in the name of the State in the courts of Wake County. (1881, c. 127, s. 3; Code, s. 3451; Rev., s. 5412; C.S., s. 7760; 1925, c. 163; 1931, c. 145, s. 35.)

§ 148-69. Agents; levy of taxes; payment of costs and expenses.

The corporate authorities of any city or town so hiring convicts may appoint and remove at will all such necessary agents to superintend the construction or improvement of such highways and streets as they may deem proper, or to pay the costs and expenses incident to such hiring may levy taxes and raise money as in other respects. (1881, c. 127, s. 4; Code, s. 3452; Rev., s. 5413; C. S., s. 7761; 1925, c. 163; 1931, c. 145, s. 35.)

§ 148-70. Management and care of inmates; prison industries; disposition of products of inmate labor.

The State Department of Correction in all contracts for labor shall provide for feeding and clothing the inmates and shall maintain, control and guard the quarters in which the inmates live during the time of the contracts; and the Department shall provide for the guarding and working of such inmates under its sole supervision and control. The Department may make such contracts for the hire of the inmates confined in the State prison as may in its discretion be proper. In accordance with the provisions of Article 11 of Chapter 66 of the General Statutes, the Department may use the labor of inmates confined in the State prison in work on farms and manufacturing, either within or without the State prison. The Department may dispose of the products of the labor of the inmates, either in farming or in manufacturing or in other industry at the State Prison System to any public institution owned, managed, or controlled by the State, or to any county, city or town in this State, or to any federal, state, or local public institution in any other state of the union. Provided however, no manufacturing or other industry shall be established, supervised or controlled by the Department unless specifically approved by the Governor pursuant to G.S. 66-58(f).

All departments, institutions and agencies of this State which are supported in whole or in part by the State shall give preference to Department of Correction products in purchasing articles, products, and commodities which these departments, institutions, and agencies require and which are manufactured or produced within the State prison system and offered for sale to them by the Department of Correction, and no article or commodity available from the Department of Correction shall be purchased by any such State department, institution, or agency from any other source unless the prison product does not meet the standard specifications and the reasonable requirements of the department, institution, or agency as determined by the Secretary of Administration, or the requisition cannot be complied with because of an insufficient supply of the articles or commodities required. The provisions of Article 3 of Chapter 143 of the General Statutes respecting contracting for the purchase of all supplies, materials and equipment required by the State government or any of its departments, institutions or agencies under competitive bidding shall not apply to articles or commodities available from the Department of Correction, but the Department of Correction shall be required to keep the price of such articles or commodities substantially in accord with that paid by governmental agencies for similar articles and commodities of equivalent quality as determined by the Secretary by reference to competitive bidding as required by law.

In addition, the Secretary of Correction may lease one or more buildings or portions of buildings on the grounds of any State correctional institution or location under Department of Correction control, together with the real estate needed for reasonable access to such buildings, for a term not to exceed 20 years, to a private corporation for the purpose of establishing and operating a factory for the manufacture and processing of products or any other commercial enterprise deemed by the Secretary to provide employment opportunities for inmates in meaningful jobs for wages. A lease entered into pursuant to this section may include provisions for the remodeling or construction of buildings. Each lease shall be approved by the Governor and Council of State and may be entered into only after consultation with the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations. Each lease negotiated and concluded pursuant to this section shall include and shall be valid only so long as the lessee adheres to the following provisions:

- (1) All persons employed in the factory or other commercial enterprise operated in or on the leased property, except the lessee's supervisory employee and necessary training personnel, shall be inmates who are approved for such employment by the Secretary or his designee.
- (2) The factory or other commercial enterprise operated in or on the leased property shall observe at all times such practices and procedures regarding security as the lease may specify or as the Secretary may stipulate.
- (3) The factory or other commercial enterprise operated on the leased property shall be deemed a private enterprise and subject to all the laws and lawfully adopted rules of this State governing the operation of similar business enterprises elsewhere, except that the provisions of G.S. 66-58 shall not apply to the industries or products of such private enterprise.

The Secretary shall adopt rules for the administration and management of personnel policies for prisoner workers including wages, working hours, and conditions of employment.

Except as prohibited by applicable provisions of the United States Code, inmates of correctional institutions of this State may be employed in the manufacture and processing of products and services for introduction into interstate commerce, so long as they are paid no less than the prevailing minimum wage. ## § 148-74. Records Section.

Case records and related materials compiled for the use of the Secretary of Correction and the Parole Commission shall be maintained in a single central file system designed to minimize duplication and maximize effective use of such records and materials. When an individual is committed to the State prison system after a period on probation, the probation files on that individual shall be made a part of the combined files used by the Department of Correction and the Parole Commission. The administration of the Records Section shall be under the control and direction of the Secretary of Correction. (1925, c. 228, s. 1; 1953, c. 55, ss. 2, 4; 1967, c. 996, s. 12; 1973, c. 1262, s. 10; 1985, c. 226, s. 12.)

§ 148-77. Statistics, research, and planning.

In order to facilitate regular improvement in the structure, administration, and programs of the Department of Correction, there shall be established within the Department organizational units responsible for statistics, research, and planning. The Department of Correction may cooperate with and seek the cooperation of public and private agencies, institutions, officials, and individuals in the development and conduct of programs to compile and analyze statistics and to conduct research in criminology and correction. ARTICLE 8.

Any person who, having been convicted of a felony and having been imprisoned therefor in a State prison of this State, and who was thereafter or who shall hereafter be granted a pardon of innocence by the Governor upon the grounds that the crime with which the person was charged either was not committed at all or was not committed by that person, may as hereinafter provided present by petition a claim against the State for the pecuniary loss sustained by the person through his or her erroneous conviction and imprisonment, provided the petition is presented within five years of the granting of the pardon. (1947, c. 465, s. 1; 1997-388, s. 1.)

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1997-443, s. 7.2(b), rewrites Session Laws 1997-388, s. 5 to provide in part that notwithstanding the five year limitation set forth in G.S. 148-82, as rewritten by s. 1, the petition of a person who has received a pardon of innocence prior to July 1, 1995, may be presented at any time prior to July 1, 1998, and this act shall apply to that petition, regardless of any prior claims for compensation filed and settled or otherwise resolved. If the petitioner has received compensation pursuant to a prior claim, the Industrial Commission shall consider the amount of the award received by the petitioner and may deduct that amount, plus interest, from the date the award was made, from an award granted pursuant to this act.

Legal Periodicals. — For brief comment on this Article, see 25 N.C.L. Rev. 403 (1947).

§ 148-83. Form, requisites and contents of petition; nature of hearing.

Such petition shall be addressed to the Industrial Commission, and must include a full statement of the facts upon which the claim is based, verified in the manner provided for verifying complaints in civil actions, and it may be supported by affidavits substantiating such claim. Upon its presentation the Industrial Commission shall fix a time and a place for a hearing, and shall mail notice to the claimant, and shall notify the Attorney General, at least 15 days before the time fixed therefor. (1947, c. 465, s. 2; 1963, c. 1174, s. 4; 1973, c. 1262, s. 10; 1997-388, s. 2.)

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1997-443, s. 7.2(b), rewrites Session Laws 1997-388, s. 5 to provide in part that notwithstanding the five year limitation set forth in G.S. 148-82, as rewritten by s. 1, the petition of a person who has received a pardon of innocence prior to July 1, 1995, may be presented at any time prior to July 1, 1998, and this act shall apply to that petition, regardless of any prior claims for compensation filed and settled or otherwise resolved. If the petitioner has received compensation pursuant to a prior claim, the Industrial

Commission shall consider the amount of the award received by the petitioner and may deduct that amount, plus interest, from the date the award was made, from an award granted pursuant to this act.

§ 148-84. Evidence; action by Industrial Commission; payment and amount of compensation.

At the hearing the claimant may introduce evidence in the form of affidavits or testimony to support the claim, and the Attorney General may introduce counter affidavits or testimony in refutation. If the Industrial Commission finds from the evidence that the claimant received a pardon of innocence for the reason that the crime was not committed at all, or was not committed by the claimant, and that the claimant was imprisoned and has been vindicated in connection with the alleged offense for which he or she was imprisoned, the Industrial Commission shall award to the claimant an amount equal to twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) for each year or the pro rata amount for the portion of each year of the imprisonment actually served, including any time spent awaiting trial, but in no event shall the compensation exceed a total amount of five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000). The Director of the Budget shall pay the amount of the award to the claimant out of the Contingency and Emergency Fund, or out of any other available State funds. The Industrial Commission shall give written notice of its decision to all parties concerned. The determination of the Industrial Commission shall be subject to judicial review upon appeal of the claimant or the State according to the provisions and procedures set forth in Article 31 of Chapter 143 of the General Statutes. (1947, c. 465, s. 3; 1963, c. 1174, s. 4; 1973, c. 1262, s. 10; 1997-388, s. 3; 2001-424, s. 25.12(a).)

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1997-443, s. 7.2(b), rewrites Session Laws 1997-388, s. 5 to provide in part that notwithstanding the five year limitation set forth in G.S. 148-82, as rewritten by s. 1, the petition of a person who has received a pardon of innocence prior to July 1, 1995, may be presented at any time prior to July 1, 1998, and this act shall apply to that petition, regardless of any prior claims for compensation filed and settled or otherwise resolved. If the petitioner has received compensation pursuant to a prior claim, the Industrial Commission shall consider the amount of the award received by the petitioner and may deduct that amount, plus interest, from the date the award was made, from an award granted pursuant to this act.

Session Laws 2001-424, s. 1.2, provides: "This act shall be known as the 'Current Operations and Capital Improvements Appropriations Act of 2001'."

Session Laws 2001-424, s. 36.5 is a severability clause.

Effect of Amendments. — Session Laws 2001-424, s. 25.12(a), effective September 26, 2001, and applicable to persons granted a pardon of innocence on or after January 1, 2001, combined the second and former fourth sentences into the present second sentence, deleting "determine the amount the claimant is entitled to be paid for the claimant's pecuniary loss and shall enter an award for that amount. The Director of the Budget shall pay the amount of the award to the claimant out of the Contingency and Emergency Fund, or out of any other available State funds. The Industrial Commission shall" following "the Industrial Commission shall" near the middle of the present second sentence, and in that sentence substituted "twenty thousand dollars ($20,000)" for "ten thousand dollars ($10,000)," inserted "including any time spent awaiting trial," and substituted "five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000)" for "one hundred fifty thousand dollars ($150,000)"; and added the present third sentence.

ARTICLE 11A.

Corrections Administrative Remedy Procedure.

§ 148-118.1. Authority.

The Department of Correction shall adopt an Administrative Remedy Procedure in compliance with 42 U.S.C. 1997, the “Civil Rights of Institutionalized Persons Act”. The Administrative Remedy Procedure and any amendments or changes thereto shall be adopted only after prior consultation with the Grievance Resolution Board. (1987, c. 746, s. 2.)

§ 148-118.2. Effect.

(a) Upon approval of the Administrative Remedy Procedure by a federal court as authorized and required by 42 U.S.C. 1997(e)(a), and the implementation of the procedure, this procedure shall constitute the administrative remedies available to a prisoner for the purpose of preserving any cause of action under the purview of the Administrative Remedy Procedure, which a prisoner may claim to have against the State of North Carolina, the Department of Correction, or its employees.

(b) No State court shall entertain a prisoner’s grievance or complaint which falls under the purview of the Administrative Remedy Procedure unless and until the prisoner shall have exhausted the remedies as provided in said procedure. If the prisoner has failed to pursue administrative remedies through this procedure, any petition or complaint he files shall be stayed for 90 days to allow the prisoner to file a grievance and for completion of the procedure. If at the end of 90 days the prisoner has failed to timely file his grievance, then the petition or complaint shall be dismissed. Provided, however, that the court can waive the exhaustion requirement if it finds such waiver to be in the interest of justice. (1987, c. 746, s. 2.)

§ 148-118.3. Publication of procedure.

The Administrative Remedy Procedure shall be published in the North Carolina Register. (1987, c. 746, s. 2.)

§ 148-118.4. Definitions.

For purposes of this Article, “prisoner” shall refer to all prisoners in the physical custody of the Department of Correction. (1987, c. 746, s. 2.)

§ 148-118.5. Records confidentiality.

All reports, investigations, and like supporting documents prepared by the Department for purposes of responding to the prisoner’s request for an administrative remedy shall be deemed to be confidential. All formal written responses to the prisoner’s request shall be furnished to the prisoner as a matter of course as required by the procedure. The Grievance Resolution Board shall have access to all relevant records developed by the Department of Correction. (1987, c. 746, s. 2.)

§ 148-118.6. Grievance Resolution Board.

The Grievance Resolution Board is established as a separate agency within the Department of Correction. It shall consist of five members appointed by the Governor to serve four-year terms. Of the members so appointed, three shall be attorneys selected from a list of 10 persons recommended by the Council of the North Carolina State Bar. The remaining two members shall be persons of knowledge and experience in one or more fields under the jurisdiction of the Secretary of Correction. In the event a vacancy occurs on the Board prior to the expiration of a member's term, the Governor shall appoint a new Board member to serve the unexpired term. If the vacancy occurs in one of the positions designated for an attorney, the Governor shall select another attorney from a list of five persons recommended by the Council of the North Carolina State Bar. The Board shall perform those functions assigned to it by the Governor and shall review the grievance procedure. The Grievance Resolution Board shall meet not less than quarterly to review summaries of grievances. All members of the Inmate Grievance Commission, appointed by the Governor pursuant to G.S. 148-101, may complete their terms as members of the Board. Each member of the Board shall receive per diem and travel expenses as authorized for members of State commissions and boards under G.S. 138-5. (1987, c. 746, s. 2.)

Editor's Note. — Section 148-101, referred to in the next to the last sentence, was repealed by Session Laws 1987, c. 746, s. 1.

§ 148-118.7. Removal of members.

The Governor may remove any member of the Grievance Resolution Board for one or more of the following reasons:

- (1) Conviction of a crime involving moral turpitude or of any criminal offense the effect of which is to prevent or interfere with the performance of Board duties.
- (2) Failure to regularly attend meetings of the Board.
- (3) Failure to carry out duties assigned by the Board or its chairman.
- (4) Acceptance of another office or the conduct of other business conflicting with or tending to conflict with the performance of Board duties.
- (5) Any other ground that, under law, necessitates or justifies the removal of a State employee. (1987, c. 746, s. 2.)

§ 148-118.8. Appointment, salary, and authority of Executive Director and inmate grievance examiners.

(a) The Grievance Resolution Board shall appoint an Executive Director and grievance examiners after consultation with the Secretary of Correction. The Executive Director shall manage the staff and perform such other functions as are assigned to him by the Grievance Resolution Board. The Executive Director and the grievance examiners shall serve at the pleasure of the Grievance Resolution Board. However, if a grievance examiner is removed from his position for other than just cause, he shall have priority for any position that becomes available for which he is qualified according to rules regulating and defining priority as promulgated by the State Personnel Commission. The grievance examiners shall be subject to Article 2 of Chapter 126 of the North Carolina General Statutes for purposes of salary and leave. Support staff, equipment, and facilities for the Board shall be provided by the Department of Correction.

(b) The inmate grievance examiners shall investigate inmate grievances pursuant to the procedures established by the Administrative Remedy Procedure. Examiners shall attempt to resolve grievances through mediation with all parties. Otherwise, the inmate grievance examiners shall either (i) order such relief as is appropriate; or (ii) deny the grievance. The decision of the grievance examiner shall be binding, unless the Secretary of Correction (i) finds that such relief is not appropriate, (ii) gives a written explanation for this finding, and (iii) makes an alternative order of relief or denies the grievance. (1987, c. 746, s. 2.)

§ 148-118.9. Investigatory power of the Grievance Resolution Board.

The Secretary of Correction may request that the Grievance Resolution Board investigate matters involving broad policy concerns. The Grievance Resolution Board may convene a fact-finding hearing to consider the issues presented for investigation. A record of testimony presented at such hearing shall be maintained by the Board. The Board shall report the findings of its investigation to the Secretary within a reasonable time. In no event shall such a request on the part of the Secretary result in a delay of the resolution of an inmate's grievance beyond the 90 day period. (1987, c. 746, s. 2.)

ARTICLE 12.

Interstate Corrections Compact.

§ 148-119. Short title.

This Article shall be known and may be cited as the Interstate Corrections Compact. (1979, c. 623.)

§ 148-120. Governor to execute; form of compact.

The Governor of North Carolina is hereby authorized and requested to execute, on behalf of the State of North Carolina, with any other state or states legally joining therein a compact which shall be in form substantially as follows:

The contracting states solemnly agree that:

- (1) The party states, desiring by common action to fully utilize and improve their institutional facilities and provide adequate programs for the confinement, treatment and rehabilitation of various types of offenders, declare that it is the policy of each of the party states to provide such facilities and programs on a basis of cooperation with one another, and with the federal government, thereby serving the best interest of such offenders and of society and effecting economies in capital expenditures and operational costs. The purpose of this compact is to provide for the mutual development and execution of such programs of cooperation for the confinement, treatment and rehabilitation of offenders with the most economical use of human and material resources.
- (2) As used in this compact, unless the context clearly requires otherwise:
  - a. "State" means a state of the United States; the United States of America; a territory or possession of the United States; the District of Columbia; the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.
  - b. "Sending state" means a state party to this compact in which conviction or court commitment was had.

- c. "Receiving state" means a state party to this compact to which an inmate is sent for confinement other than a state in which conviction or court commitment was had.
  - d. "Inmate" means a male or female offender who is committed, under sentence to or confined in a penal or correctional institution.
  - e. "Institution" means any penal or correctional facility, including but not limited to a facility for the mentally ill or mentally defective, in which inmates as defined in (2)d. above may lawfully be confined.
- (3)a. Each party state may make one or more contracts with any one or more of the other party states, or with the federal government, for the confinement of inmates on behalf of a sending state in institutions situated within receiving states. Any such contract shall provide for:
- 1. Its duration;
  - 2. Payments to be made to the receiving state or to the federal government, by the sending state for inmate maintenance, extraordinary medical and dental expenses, and any participation in or receipt by inmates of rehabilitative or correctional services, facilities, programs or treatment not reasonably included as part of normal maintenance;
  - 3. Participation in programs of inmate employment, if any; the disposition or crediting of any payments received by inmates on account thereof; and the crediting of proceeds from or disposal of any products resulting therefrom;
  - 4. Delivery and retaking of inmates;
  - 5. Such other matters as may be necessary and appropriate to fix the obligations, responsibilities and rights of the sending and receiving states.
- b. The terms and provisions of this compact shall be a part of any contract entered into by the authority of or pursuant thereto and nothing in any such contract shall be inconsistent therewith.
- (4)a. Whenever the duly constituted authorities in a state party to this compact, and which has entered into a contract pursuant to Article III, Subsection (1) [paragraph a. of subdivision (3)] shall decide that confinement in, or transfer of an inmate to, an institution within the territory of another party state is necessary or desirable in order to provide adequate quarters and care or an appropriate program of rehabilitation or treatment, said officials may direct that the confinement be within an institution within the territory of said other party state, the receiving state to act in that regard solely as agent for the sending state.
- b. The appropriate officials of any state party to this compact shall have access, at all reasonable times, to any institution in which it has a contractual right to confine inmates for the purpose of inspecting the facilities thereof and visiting such of its inmates as may be confined in the institution.
- c. Inmates confined in an institution pursuant to the terms of this compact shall at all times be subject to the jurisdiction of the sending state and may at any time be removed therefrom for transfer to a prison or other institution within the sending state, for transfer to another institution in which the sending state may have a contractual or other right to confine inmates, for release on probation or parole, for discharge, or for any other purpose permitted by the laws of the sending state, provided that the sending state shall continue to be obligated to such payments as - may be required pursuant to the terms of any contract entered into under the terms of Article III, Subsection (1) [paragraph a. of subdivision (3)].

- d. Each receiving state shall provide regular reports to each sending state on the inmates of that sending state in institutions pursuant to this compact including a conduct record of each inmate and certify said record to the official designated by the sending state, in order that each inmate may have official review of his or her record in determining and altering the disposition of said inmate in accordance with the law which may obtain in the sending state and in order that the same may be a source of information for the sending state.
  - e. All inmates who may be confined in an institution pursuant to the provisions of this compact shall be treated in a reasonable and humane manner and shall be treated equally with such similar inmates of the receiving state as may be confined in the same institution. The fact of confinement in a receiving state shall not deprive any inmate so confined of any legal rights which said inmate would have had if confined in an appropriate institution of the sending state.
  - f. Any hearing or hearings to which an inmate confined pursuant to this compact may be entitled by the laws of the sending state may be had before the appropriate authorities of the sending state, or of the receiving state if authorized by the sending state. The receiving state shall provide adequate facilities for such hearings as may be conducted by the appropriate officials of a sending state. In the event such hearing or hearings are had before officials of the receiving state, the governing law shall be that of the sending state and a record of the hearing or hearings as prescribed by the sending state shall be made. Said record, together with any recommendations of the hearing officials, shall be transmitted forthwith to the official or officials before whom the hearing would have been had if it had taken place in the sending state. In any and all proceedings had pursuant to the provisions of this subdivision, the officials of the receiving state shall act solely as agents of the sending state and no final determination shall be made in any matter except by the appropriate officials of the sending state.
  - g. Any inmate confined pursuant to this compact shall be released within the territory of the sending state unless the inmate, and the sending and receiving states, shall agree upon release in some other place. The sending state shall bear the cost of such return to its territory.
  - h. Any inmate confined pursuant to the terms of this compact shall have any and all rights to participate in and derive any benefits or incur or be relieved of any obligations or have such obligations modified or his status changed on account of any action or proceeding in which he could have participated if confined in any appropriate institution of the sending state located within such state.
  - i. The parents, guardian, trustee, or other person or persons entitled under the laws of the sending state to act for, advise or otherwise function with respect to any inmate shall not be deprived of or restricted in his exercise of any power in respect of any inmate confined pursuant to the terms of this compact.
- (5)a. Any decision of the sending state in respect to any matter over which it retains jurisdiction pursuant to this compact shall be conclu-

- sive upon and not reviewable within the receiving state, but if at the time the sending state seeks to remove an inmate from an institution in the receiving state there is pending against the inmate within such state any criminal charge or if the inmate is formally accused of having committed within such state a criminal offense, the inmate shall not be returned without the consent of the receiving state until discharge from prosecution or other form of proceeding, imprisonment or detention for such offense. The duly accredited officers of the sending state shall be permitted to transport inmates pursuant to this compact through any and all states party to this compact without interference.
- b. An inmate who escapes from an institution in which he is confined pursuant to this compact shall be deemed a fugitive from the sending state and from the state in which the institution is situated. In the case of an escape to a jurisdiction other than the sending or receiving state, the responsibility for institution of extradition or rendition proceedings shall be that of the sending state, but nothing contained herein shall be construed to prevent or affect the activities of officers and agencies of any jurisdiction directed toward the apprehension and return of an escapee.
- (6) Any state party to this compact may accept federal aid for use in connection with any institution or program, the use of which is or may be affected by this compact or any contract pursuant hereto; and any inmate in a receiving state pursuant to this compact may participate in any such federally-aided program or activity for which the sending and receiving states have made contractual provision, provided that if such program or activity is not part of the customary correctional regimen, the express consent of the appropriate official of the sending state shall be required therefor.
- (7) This compact shall enter into force and become effective and binding upon the states so acting when it has been enacted into law by any two states. Thereafter, this compact shall enter into force and become effective and binding as to any other of said states upon similar action by such state.
- (8) This compact shall continue in force and remain binding upon a party state until it shall have enacted a statute repealing the same and providing for the sending of formal written notice of withdrawal from the compact to the appropriate official of all other party states. An actual withdrawal shall not take effect until one year after the notice provided in said statute has been sent. Such withdrawal shall not relieve the withdrawing state from its obligations assumed hereunder prior to the effective date of withdrawal. Before effective date of withdrawal, a withdrawing state shall remove to its territory, at its own expense, such inmates as it may have confined pursuant to the provisions of this compact.
- (9) Nothing contained in this compact shall be construed to abrogate or impair any agreement or other arrangement which a party state may have with a nonparty state for the confinement, rehabilitation or treatment of inmates nor to repeal any other laws of a party state authorizing the making of cooperative institutional arrangements.
- (10) The provisions of this compact shall be liberally construed and shall be severable. If any phrase, clause, sentence or provision of this compact is declared to be contrary to the constitution of any participating state or of the United States or the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this compact and the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance shall not be affected thereby. If this compact shall be held contrary to the constitution of any state participating therein, the compact shall remain in full force and effect as to the remaining states and in full force and effect as to the state affected as to all severable matters. (1979, c. 623.)

§ 148-121. Proceedings to be open; all documents public records; exception.

(a) Except as provided in subsection (c) of this section, at least 30 days before a transfer of a North Carolina inmate to another state system pursuant to this Article is approved, the Secretary of Correction shall give notice that the transfer is being considered. The Secretary shall give notice of the proposed transfer by:

- (1) Notifying the district attorney of the district where the prisoner was convicted, the judge who presided at the prisoner's trial, the law-enforcement agency that arrested the prisoner, and the victim of the prisoner's crime;
- (2) Posting notice at the courthouse in the county in which the prisoner was convicted; and
- (3) Notifying any other person who has made a written request to receive notice of a transfer of the prisoner.

(b) Except as provided in subsection (c) of this section, all written comments regarding a transfer are public records under General Statutes Chapter 132.

(c) If, in the discretion of the Secretary, such notice or disclosure requirements provided for in this section would jeopardize the safety of persons or property, the provisions of this section do not apply. (1983, c. 874, s. 1.)

Chapter 149.

State Song and Toast.

149-2. "A Toast" to North Carolina.

§ 149-1. "The Old North State."

The song known as "The Old North State," as hereinafter written, is adopted and declared to be the official song of the State of North Carolina, said song being in words as follows:

"Carolina! Carolina! Heaven's blessings attend her!
While we live we will cherish, protect and defend her;
Though the scorner may sneer at and witlings defame her,
Our hearts swell with gladness whenever we name her.
Hurrah! Hurrah! The Old North State forever!
Hurrah! Hurrah! The good Old North State!
Though she envies not others their merited glory,
Say, whose name stands the foremost in Liberty's story!
Though too true to herself e'er to crouch to oppression,
Who can yield to just rule more loyal submission?
Plain and artless her sons, but whose doors open faster
At the knock of a stranger, or the tale of disaster?
How like to the rudeness of their dear native mountains,
With rich ore in their bosoms and life in their fountains.
And her daughters, the Queen of the Forest resembling—
So graceful, so constant, yet to gentlest breath trembling;
And true lightwood at heart, let the match be applied them,
How they kindle and flame! Oh! none know but who've tried them.
Then let all who love us, love the land that we live in
(As happy a region on this side of Heaven),
Where Plenty and Freedom, Love and Peace smile before us, Raise aloud, raise together, the heart-thrilling chorus!"

(1927, c. 26, s. 1.)

§ 149-2. "A Toast" to North Carolina.

The song referred to as "A Toast" to North Carolina is hereby adopted and declared to be the official toast to the State of North Carolina, said toast being in words as follows:

"Here's to the land of the long leaf pine,
The summer land where the sun doth shine,
Where the weak grow strong and the strong grow great,
Here's to 'Down Home,' the Old North State!
"Here's to the land of the cotton bloom white,
Where the scuppernong perfumes the breeze at night,
Where the soft southern moss and jessamine mate,
'Neath the murmuring pines of the Old North State!
"Here's to the land where the galax grows,
Where the rhododendron's rosette glows,
Where soars Mount Mitchell's summit great,
In the 'Land of the Sky,' in the Old North State!
"Here's to the land where maidens are fair,
Where friends are true and cold hearts rare,

The near land, the dear land whatever fate,
The blest land, the best land, the Old North State!"
(1957, c. 777.)

Chapter 150.
Uniform Revocation of Licenses.

§§ 150-1 through 150-34: Repealed by Session Laws 1973, c. 1331, as amended by Session Laws 1975, c. 69, s. 4.

Cross References. — For provisions as to administrative hearings, see §§ 150B-22 through 150B-42. As to judicial review of administrative decisions, see §§ 150B-43 through 150B-52.

Chapter 150A.

Administrative Procedure Act.

§§ 150A-1 through 150A-64: Recodified as §§ 150B-1 to 150B-64, effective January 1, 1986.

Editor's Note. — This Chapter was rewritten by Session Laws 1985, c. 746, s. 1, effective January 1, 1986, and has been recodified as Chapter 150B.

Session Laws 1985, c. 746, s. 19 had provided that the act would expire January 1, 1992, and would not be effective on or after that date, but the expiration date was deleted by Session Laws 1991, c. 103, ss. 1 and 2 and Session Laws 1991, c. 689, s. 182.

Session Laws 1983, c. 923, s. 52 had provided for the repeal of Chapter 150A, with the exception of §§ 150A-9 and 150A-11 through 150A-17, effective July 1, 1985. Session Laws 1985, c. 504, s. 1 extended the date of the repeal to July 11, 1985, and Session Laws 1985, c. 684, s. 1 further extended the date of the repeal to July 14, 1985. Subsequently, Session Laws 1985, c. 746, s. 10, effective July 12, 1985, repealed the repealing language of Session Laws 1983, c. 923, s. 52. Thus, the repeal by Session Laws

Session Laws 1983, c. 883, s. 1, had provided for repeal, effective July 1, 1985, of all rules adopted under the provisions of Article 2 of Chapter 150A which were in effect on January 1, 1985, unless they were approved by the 1985 Session of the General Assembly. Session Laws 1985, c. 504, s. 2 extended the repeal date provided for in Session Laws 1983, c. 883 to July 11, 1985, and Session Laws 1985, c. 684, s. 2, further extended this date to July 14, 1985. Subsequently, Session Laws 1985, c. 746, s. 11, effective July 12, 1985, repealed Session Laws 1983, c. 883, s. 1. Thus, the repeal of rules by Session Laws 1983, c. 883, s. 1 never went into effect.

Former § 150A-10 was repealed by Session Laws 1983, c. 641, s. 2, effective January 1, 1984. Former § 150A-46.1, relating to review de novo, was enacted by Session Laws 1983, c. 919, s. 1.

- 150B-58 through 150B-64. [Repealed.]

General Provisions.

§ 150B-1. Policy and scope.

(a) Purpose. — This Chapter establishes a uniform system of administrative rule making and adjudicatory procedures for agencies. The procedures ensure that the functions of rule making, investigation, advocacy, and adjudication are not all performed by the same person in the administrative process.

(b) Rights. — This Chapter confers procedural rights.

(c) Full Exemptions. — This Chapter applies to every agency except:

- (1) The North Carolina National Guard in exercising its court-martial jurisdiction.
- (2) The Department of Health and Human Services in exercising its authority over the Camp Butner reservation granted in Article 6 of Chapter 122C of the General Statutes.
- (3) The Utilities Commission.
- (4) The Industrial Commission.
- (5) The Employment Security Commission.

(d) Exemptions from Rule Making. — Article 2A of this Chapter does not apply to the following:

- (1) The Commission.
- (2) Repealed by Session Laws 2000-189, s. 14, effective July 1, 2000.
- (3) Repealed by Session Laws 2001-474, s. 34, effective November 29, 2001.
- (4) The Department of Revenue, with respect to the notice and hearing requirements contained in Part 2 of Article 2A.
- (5) The North Carolina Global TransPark Authority with respect to the acquisition, construction, operation, or use, including fees or charges, of any portion of a cargo airport complex.
- (6) The Department of Correction, with respect to matters relating solely to persons in its custody or under its supervision, including prisoners, probationers, and parolees.
- (7) The North Carolina Teachers' and State Employees' Comprehensive Major Medical Plan in administering the provisions of Parts 2 and 3 of Article 3 of Chapter 135 of the General Statutes.
- (8) The North Carolina Federal Tax Reform Allocation Committee, with respect to the adoption of the annual qualified allocation plan required by 26 U.S.C. § 42(m), and any agency designated by the Committee to the extent necessary to administer the annual qualified allocation plan.

- (9) The Department of Health and Human Services in adopting new or amending existing medical coverage policies under the State Medicaid Program.

(e) Exemptions From Contested Case Provisions. — The contested case provisions of this Chapter apply to all agencies and all proceedings not expressly exempted from the Chapter. The contested case provisions of this Chapter do not apply to the following:

- (1) The Department of Health and Human Services and the Department of Environment and Natural Resources in complying with the procedural safeguards mandated by Section 680 of Part H of Public Law 99-457 as amended (Education of the Handicapped Act Amendments of 1986).
  - (2) Repealed by Session Laws 1993, c. 501, s. 29.
  - (3), (4) Repealed by Session Laws 2001-474, s. 35, effective November 29, 2001.
  - (5) Hearings required pursuant to the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, (Public Law 93-122), as amended and federal regulations promulgated thereunder. G.S. 150B-51(a) is considered a contested case hearing provision that does not apply to these hearings.
  - (6) The Department of Revenue.
  - (7) The Department of Correction.
  - (8) The Department of Transportation, except as provided in G.S. 136-29.
  - (9) The Occupational Safety and Health Review Board.
  - (10) The North Carolina Global TransPark Authority with respect to the acquisition, construction, operation, or use, including fees or charges, of any portion of a cargo airport complex.
  - (11) Hearings that are provided by the Department of Health and Human Services regarding the eligibility and provision of services for eligible assaultive and violent children, as defined in G.S. 122C-3(13a), shall be conducted pursuant to the provisions outlined in G.S. 122C, Article 4, Part 7.
  - (12) The North Carolina Teachers' and State Employees' Comprehensive Major Medical Plan with respect to disputes involving the performance, terms, or conditions of a contract between the Plan and an entity under contract with the Plan.
  - (13) The Teachers' and State Employees' Comprehensive Major Medical Plan with respect to determinations by the Executive Administrator and Board of Trustees, the Plan's designated utilization review organization, or a self-funded health maintenance organization under contract with the Plan that an admission, availability of care, continued stay, or other health care service has been reviewed and, based upon the information provided, does not meet the Plan's requirements for medical necessity, appropriateness, health care setting, or level of care or effectiveness, and the requested service is therefore denied, reduced, or terminated.
- (f) (Effective until December 31, 2006) Exemption for the University of North Carolina. — Except as provided in G.S. 143-135.3, no Article in this Chapter except Article 4 applies to The University of North Carolina.
- (f) (Effective December 31, 2006) Exemption from All But Judicial Review. — No Article in this Chapter except Article 4 applies to The University of North Carolina. (1973, c. 1331, s. 1; 1975, c. 390; c. 716, s. 5; c. 721, s. 1; c. 742, s. 4; 1981, c. 614, s. 22; 1983, c. 147, s. 2; c. 927, s. 13; 1985, c. 746, ss. 1, 19; 1987, c. 112, s. 2; c. 335, s. 2; c. 536, s. 1; c. 847, s. 2; c. 850, s. 20; 1987 (Reg. Sess., 1994), c. 777, ss. 4(j), 4(k); 1995, c. 249, s. 4; c. 507, s. 27.8(m); 1997-35, s. 2; 1997-278, s. 1; 1997-412, s. 8; 1997-443, ss. 11A.110, 11A.119(a); 2000-189, s. 14; 2001-192, s. 1; 2001-299, s. 1; 2001-395, s. 6(c); 2001-424, ss. 6.20(b), 21.20(c); 2001-446, s. 5(d); 2001-474, ss. 34, 35; 2001-496, s. 8(c).)

Subsection (f) Set Out Twice. — The first version of subsection (f) set out above is effective until December 31, 2006. The second version of subsection (f) set out above is effective December 31, 2006.

Editor's Note. — This Chapter is former Chapter 150A, as rewritten by Session Laws 1985, c. 746, s. 1, effective January 1, 1986, and recodified. Where appropriate, the historical citations to the sections in the former Chapter have been added to the corresponding sections in the Chapter as rewritten and recodified.

In addition, Session Laws 1985, c. 746, s. 19, had provided that the act would expire January 1, 1992, and would not be effective on or after that date, but the expiration date was deleted by Session Laws 1991, c. 103, ss. 1 and 2 and Session Laws 1991, c. 689, s. 182.

Section 1 of Session Laws 1987, c. 827, provided: "The General Statutes are amended by deleting the reference '150A' and substituting the reference '150B' each time it appears."

Session Laws 1987, c. 536, s. 6 provided that a county ordinance that applies to the Camp Butner reservation on the effective date of the act (July 2, 1987) shall continue to apply until the Secretary of the Department of Human Resources withdraws his approval of the ordinance or the county amends or repeals the ordinance so that it no longer applies to the Camp Butner reservation.

Session Laws 1997-412, s. 14, provided that ss. 6, 7, 8, 10 and 11 of the act, which amended §§ 143-341(3), 143-135.3, 150B-1(f), 143-135.1, 133-1.1(d), and § 116-31.11, as enacted by s. 1 thereof, would expire on July 1, 2001. Subsequently, Session Laws 2001-496, s. 8(c), effective July 1, 2001, reenacted ss. 5, 7, 8 and 10 of Session Laws 1997-412. Session Laws 2001-496, s. 14(a) provided that ss. 8(a) to 8(e) of that act would expire December 31, 2006.

Session Laws 1999-294, s. 13 provides that the Codifier of Rules may amend the text of the administrative rules in Title 11 of the North Carolina Administrative Code to reflect the recodification of Chapter 58 of the General Statutes. An amendment pursuant to this section is exempt from Chapter 150B of the General Statutes and review by the Rules Review Commission to the extent that it does not change the substance of the rule.

Session Laws 2001-424, s. 21.10, provides: "The Codifier of Rules may continue the process of reorganizing Titles 10 and 15A of the North Carolina Administrative Code to reflect the recent reorganization of the Department of Health and Human Services and the Department of Environment and Natural Resources. The reorganization of the Code may include replacing Title 10 with a new Title 10A if desirable for clarity. The Codifier of Rules may make changes in the text of the affected rules to reflect changes in organizational structure of the Department of Health and Human Services and the Department of Environment and Natural Resources. So long as the changes in text do not change the substance of the rules, the reorganization by the Codifier is exempt from the requirements of Chapter 150B of the General Statutes and does not require the review or approval of the Rules Review Commission."

Session Laws 2001-424, s. 1.2, provides: "This act shall be known as the 'Current Operations and Capital Improvements Appropriations Acts of 2001'."

Session Laws 2001-424, s. 36.5 is a severability clause.

Effect of Amendments. — Session Laws 1997-412, s. 8, effective January 1, 1998, and effective until July 1, 2001, substituted "for The University of North Carolina" for "from All But Judicial Review", and inserted "Except as provided in G.S. 143-135.3." Session Laws 1997-412, s. 14, provided that this amendment would expire July 1, 2001. Subsequently, Session Laws 2001-496, s. 8(c), effective July 1, 2001, and expiring December 31, 2006, reenacted Session Laws 1997-412, s. 8.

Session Laws 2000-189, s. 14, effective July 1, 2000, repealed subdivision (d)(2), which had exempted the North Carolina Low-Level Radioactive Waste Management Authority from the rule making provisions of Article 2A of the Chapter when administering §§ 104G-10 and 104G-11.

Session Laws 2001-192, s. 1, effective June 12, 2001, and applicable to cases pending on that date, added subdivision (e)(12).

Session Laws 2001-299, s. 1, effective July 21, 2001, added subsection (d)(8).

Session Laws 2001-395, s. 6(c), effective August 29, 2001, added a subdivision (d)(9) that was identical to the subdivision subsequently added by Session Laws 2001-424, s. 21.20(c); Session Laws 2001-424, s. 6.20(b) repealed s. 6 of Session Laws 2001-395 effective July 1, 2001.

Session Laws 2001-424, s. 21.20(c), effective July 1, 2001, in subsection (d) as amended by Session Laws 2001-299, added subdivision (d)(10), which was redesignated (d)(9) at the direction of the Revisor of Statutes.

Session Laws 2001-446, s. 5(d), effective March 1, 2002, and applicable to health benefit plans that are in effect, delivered, issued for delivery, or renewed on or after that date, added subdivision (e)(12), which was redesignated (e)(13) at the direction of the Revisor of Statutes.

Session Laws 2001-474, ss. 34 and 35, effective November 29, 2001, deleted subdivision (d)(3), which read: "The North Carolina Hazardous Waste Management Commission in administering the provisions of G.S. 130B-13 and G.S. 130B-14"; deleted subdivision (e)(3), which read: "The North Carolina Low-Level Radioactive Waste Management Authority in administering the provisions of G.S. 104G-9, 104G-10, and 104G-11"; and deleted subdivision (e)(4), which read: "The North Carolina Hazardous Waste Management Commission in administering the provisions of G.S. 130B-11, 130B-13, and 130B-14."

CASE NOTES

Editor's Note. — Most of the cases below were decided under corresponding provisions of former Chapter 150A, or prior to the 1991 amendments to this Chapter.

History of Chapter. — The original Administrative Procedure Act (APA), codified as Chapter 150A, was effective until Dec. 31, 1985; the APA was rewritten in 1985 and recodified as Chapter 150B, with the new version becoming effective Jan. 1, 1986. Vass v. Board of Trustees, 108 N.C. App. 251, 423 S.E.2d 796 (1992).

The 1991 Amendment to this section merely confirms that when a person is aggrieved by agency action, the Administrative Procedure Act only "describes the procedures" for Office of Administrative Hearings review in the event the North Carolina General Assembly vests a party with the right to administrative review, such as a contested case hearing. Empire Power Co. v. North Carolina Dep't of Env't, Health & Natural Resources, 112 N.C. App. 566, 436 S.E.2d 594 (1993), rev'd on other grounds, 337 N.C. 569, 447 S.E.2d 768, reh'g denied, 338 N.C. 314, 451 S.E.2d 634 (1994).

The primary purpose of this Act is to confer procedural rights, including the right to an administrative hearing, upon any person aggrieved by an agency decision, and statutes should be liberally construed together to preserve and effectuate that right. Empire Power Co. v. North Carolina Dep't of Env't, Health & Natural Resources, 337 N.C. 569, 447 S.E.2d 768, rehearing denied, 338 N.C. 314, 451 S.E.2d 634 (1994).

The administrative hearing provisions of this act apply to all agencies and all proceedings except those expressly exempted, and it expressly named the particular agencies exempted therefrom, specifying the extent of each such exemption. Empire Power Co. v. North Carolina Dep't of Env't, Health & Natural Resources, 337 N.C. 569, 447 S.E.2d 768, rehearing denied, 338 N.C. 314, 451 S.E.2d 634 (1994).

The University of Chapel Hill is expressly exempted from the administrative hearings provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act. Beauchesne v. University of N.C., 125 N.C. App. 457, 481 S.E.2d 685 (1997).

Application of Chapter. — Where the complaints and notices of hearing were filed prior to Jan. 1, 1986, the action was commenced prior to Jan. 1, 1986, and Chapter 150B had no application; thus, § 150A-45 (rewritten and recodified as § 150B-45), requiring a person seeking review to file a petition in the Superior Court of Wake County, and not § 150B-45, permitting such filing in either Wake County or the county where the person resides, governed. Pinewood Manor Mobile Homes, Inc. v. North Carolina Manufactured Hous. Bd., 84 N.C. App. 564, 353 S.E.2d 231, cert. denied, 319 N.C. 674, 356 S.E.2d 780 (1987).

Individuals aggrieved pursuant to the Rehabilitation Act are not required to seek administrative review in a contested case hearing before the Office of Administrative Hearings via the contested case hearing provisions of this act; rather, they are entitled to a hearing governed by procedures established by the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, P.L.102-569, 42 U.S.C. § 701, et seq. as amended. Hedgepeth v. North Carolina Div. of Servs. for the Blind, 142 N.C. App. 338, 543 S.E.2d 169 (2001).

Direct Challenge to Constitutionality of North Carolina Supreme Court Order. — A direct challenge of the constitutionality of an order of the North Carolina Supreme Court cannot be adjudicated under this Chapter. The issue must be litigated as an original action in the General Court of Justice. Beard v. North Carolina State Bar, 320 N.C. 126, 357 S.E.2d 694 (1987).

Judicial Notice of Regulations. — Where promulgating agency is not subject to the North Carolina Administrative Procedure Act, the court is only required to take judicial notice of its regulations if they are submitted in accordance with certain procedures designed to insure their accuracy. Southern Ry. v. O'Boyle Tank Lines, 70 N.C. App. 1, 318 S.E.2d 872 (1984).

Irreconcilable Dispute. — When a dispute between a state agency and another person arise and cannot be settled informally, the procedures for resolving the dispute are governed by this act. North Buncombe Ass'n of Concerned Citizens v. Rhodes, 100 N.C. App. 24, 394 S.E.2d 462 (1990), appeal dismissed, 327 N.C. 484, 397 S.E.2d 215 (1990).

State Personnel Commission. — As to the applicability of former Chapter 150A to the State Personnel Commission, see Stevenson v. North Carolina Dep't of Ins., 31 N.C. App. 299, 229 S.E.2d 209, cert. denied, 291 N.C. 450, 230 S.E.2d 767 (1976).

Department of Insurance. — Insurance Commissioner's promulgation of 11 N.C.A.C. 12.0319, prohibiting subrogation provisions in life or accident and health insurance contracts, supported by §§ 58-2-40 (right to limit practices injurious to the public) and 58-50-15(a) (prohibiting provisions less favorable to the insured), did not exceed his statutory authority, even though it may change state substantive law, and did not amount to an unconstitutional delegation of legislative powers, because statutory provisions (§§ 58-2-40, 58-51-15, and 58-50-15) and judicial review (available under this chapter) offer adequate procedural safeguards and support the delegation of power to the Commissioner. In re Ruling by N. C. Comm'r of Ins., 134 N.C. App. 22, 517 S.E.2d 134 (1999), cert. denied, appeal dismissed, 351 N.C. 105, 540 S.E.2d 356 (1999).

Department of Transportation. — Language which provides that Articles 2 and 3 of former Chapter 150A shall not apply to the Department of Transportation in rule-making or administrative hearings only applies to actions taken by the department pursuant to Chapter 20, which refers to regulation of motor vehicles. In contrast, Chapters 136 and 143B provide the Department of Transportation and the Board of Transportation with powers and duties to engage in the planning and construction of the state highway system, and had the General Assembly wanted to exclude actions of the Department and Board of Transportation under Chapter 136 from the requirements of Articles 2 and 3 of former Chapter 150A, it would have done so with the same specificity that it used in excluding actions taken pursuant to Chapter 20. Orange County Sensible Hwys. & Protected Env'ts, Inc. v. North Carolina Dep't of Transp., 46 N.C. App. 350, 265 S.E.2d 890 (1980).

University of North Carolina's State Residency Committee (SRC) is exempt from this Chapter; therefore, although provisions in the act requiring judicial review of final administrative review were applicable, the SRC was not governed by § 150B-36, which requires agencies to state reasons for their decisions. Wilson v. State Residence Comm., 92 N.C. App. 355, 374 S.E.2d 415 (1988), cert. denied, 324 N.C. 252, 377 S.E.2d 764 (1989).

Board of Trustees. — Language in § 135-39.7 that board of trustees "may make a binding decision" concerning a dispute between an aggrieved individual and a claims administrator of a medical plan is not an express and unequivocal exemption of the board from the requirements of this Chapter; instead, the use of the term "binding" in the statute was intended to mean only that the board's decision would be binding upon the parties absent further review according to law. Vass v. Board of Trustees, 324 N.C. 402, 379 S.E.2d 26 (1989).

The Department of Environment, Health, and Natural Resources (now the Department of Environment and Natural Resources), is not among those agencies which the Administrative Procedures Act specifically exempts from its provisions. North Buncombe Ass'n of Concerned Citizens v. Rhodes, 100 N.C. App. 24, 394 S.E.2d 462

Entitlement to Administrative Hearing on Mining Permit. — Petitioners were entitled to a contested case hearing by the Office of Administrative Hearings on their claim that mining permit should not have been issued. North Buncombe Ass'n of Concerned Citizens, Inc. v. North Carolina Dep't of Env't, Health, & Natural Resources, 338 N.C. 302, 449 S.E.2d 451 (1994).

The Social Services Commission was not excluded from coverage under subsection (d). Whittington v. North Carolina Dep't of Human Resources, 100 N.C. App. 603, 398 S.E.2d 40 (1990).

Board of Dental Examiners. — The Board of Dental Examiners is an agency governed by the provisions of the North Carolina Administrative Procedure Act and is not exempt from the contested case provisions of the Act. Homoly v. North Carolina State Bd. of Dental Examrs., 121 N.C. App. 695, 468 S.E.2d 481 (1996).

Where taxpayer only argued in his brief that decision by board was unsupported by substantial evidence in view of the "whole record" test, the Court of Appeals would decline to review the board's decision under the other standards of this section. Walls & Marshall Fuel Co. v. North Carolina Dep't of Revenue, 95 N.C. App. 151, 381 S.E.2d 815 (1989).

For discussion of respective powers and duties of Commissioner of Insurance and his designated hearing officer in the review of filed rates and entry of a final agency decision in a contested insurance rate case, see State ex rel. Comm'r of Ins. v. North Carolina Rate Bureau, 61 N.C. App. 506, 300 S.E.2d 845 (1983).

Appeal Allowed. — Third party was entitled under this Act and the Air Pollution Control Act, §§ 143-215.105 et seq., to appeal to the Office of Administrative Hearings from the decision of the Department of Environmental Management, to grant an air pollution control permit to Duke Power Company. Empire Power Co. v. North Carolina Dep't of Env't, Health & Natural Resources, 337 N.C. 569, 447 S.E.2d 768, rehearing denied, 338 N.C. 314, 451 S.E.2d 634 (1994).

Challenges to Constitutionality of Regulation or Statute. — Under North Carolina law, plaintiffs may be able to bypass administrative review and seek direct relief from the court. For example, when an aggrieved party challenges the constitutionality of a regulation or statute, administrative remedies are deemed to be inadequate and exhaustion thereof is not required. Prentiss v. Allstate Ins. Co., 87 F. Supp. 2d 514 (W.D.N.C. 1999).

Applied in Florence Concrete Prods., Inc. v. North Carolina Licensing Bd., 113 N.C. App. 270, 437 S.E.2d 877 (1994); Simonel v. North Carolina Sch. of Arts, 119 N.C. App. 772, 460 S.E.2d 194 (1995); Johnston Health Care Ctr., L.L.C. v. North Carolina Dep't of Human Res., 136 N.C. App. 307, 524 S.E.2d 352 (2000); *Charlotte-Mecklenburg Hosp. Auth. v. ## OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL

Applicability of § 150B-23(a). — Section 150B-23(a), as amended by Session Laws 1987, Chapter 878, is not applicable to agencies governed by Article 3A of this Chapter. See opinion of Attorney General to Mr. Phillip T. Fisher, Executive Director, N.C. Real Estate Commission, 57 N.C.A.G. 85 (1987).

Appeals by applicants and recipients of public assistance or social services from adverse decisions of county agencies or boards are governed by the substantive provisions and procedural requirements of § 108A-79, including the procedural provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act consistent with the statute, to the extent that substance and procedure are not in conflict with applicable federal law and regulations. See opinion of Attorney General to Mr. Phillip J. Kirk, Jr., Secretary, Department of Human Resources, 55 N.C.A.G. 91 (1986).

Procedural, Not Substantive, Provisions of Act Applicable to Appeals of County Agency Decisions. — Given the detailed substantive provisions of § 108A-79, designed specifically to apply to appeals of county agency decisions, and the fact that the Administrative Procedure Act (APA), by its terms, does not apply to such appeals, the Legislature, by reference to the APA, did not intend to substitute the Act's substantive requirements for those of § 108A-79. The citation to the APA simply indicates a legislative intent to incorporate the powers of hearing officers and the hearing procedures detailed in the Act into § 108A-79(i) by reference. See opinion of Attorney General to Mr. Phillip J. Kirk, Jr., Secretary, Department of Human Resources, 55 N.C.A.G. 91 (1986).

When a contested case hearing is conducted by an agency governed by Article

3A of this Chapter, a petition or other notice need not be filed with the Office of Administrative Hearings. See opinion of Attorney General to Mr. Phillip T. Fisher, Executive Director, N.C. Real Estate Commission, 57 N.C.A.G. 85 (1987).

Chapter 78A Does Not Take Precedence over This Act. — The provisions of Chapter 78A are not stated with the specificity and particularity sufficient to take precedence over any similar provisions of this Chapter which might conceivably apply to the actions and proceedings addressed by the Securities Act. See opinion of the Attorney General to Mr. Stephen M. Wallis, Deputy Securities Administrator (acting), 58 N.C.A.G. 76 (1988).

This Chapter applies to the Secretary of State in the execution of the duties delegated in Chapter 78A. To be entirely exempt from this Chapter under subsection (c) of this section, the agency must either be listed in subsection (d) or have a specific statement of exemption from this Chapter in its enabling legislation; however, neither basis for exemption exists for Chapter 78A. Subsection (c) does have the additional effect of causing any applicable provisions of this Chapter which cannot be reconciled with provisions of Chapter 78A to fail in favor of Chapter 78A. See opinion of Attorney General to Mr. Stephen M. Wallis, Deputy Securities Administrator (acting), 58 N.C.A.G. 76 (1988).

§ 150B-2. Definitions.

As used in this Chapter,

- (1) "Administrative law judge" means a person appointed under G.S. 7A-752, 7A-753, or 7A-757.
- (1a) "Agency" means an agency or an officer in the executive branch of the government of this State and includes the Council of State, the Governor's Office, a board, a commission, a department, a division, a council, and any other unit of government in the executive branch. A local unit of government is not an agency.
- (1b) "Adopt" means to take final action to create, amend, or repeal a rule.
- (1c) "Codifier of Rules" means the Chief Administrative Law Judge of the Office of Administrative Hearings or a designated representative of the Chief Administrative Law Judge.
- (1d) "Commission" means the Rules Review Commission.
- (2) "Contested case" means an administrative proceeding pursuant to this Chapter to resolve a dispute between an agency and another person that involves the person's rights, duties, or privileges, including licensing or the levy of a monetary penalty. "Contested case" does not include rulemaking, declaratory rulings, or the award or denial of a scholarship, a grant, or a loan.
- (2a) Repealed by Session Laws 1991, c. 418, s. 3.
- (2b) "Hearing officer" means a person or group of persons designated by an agency that is subject to Article 3A of this Chapter to preside in a contested case hearing conducted under that Article.
- (3) "License" means any certificate, permit or other evidence, by whatever name called, of a right or privilege to engage in any activity, except licenses issued under Chapter 20 and Subchapter I of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes and occupational licenses.

- (4) "Licensing" means any administrative action issuing, failing to issue, suspending, or revoking a license or occupational license. "Licensing" does not include controversies over whether an examination was fair or whether the applicant passed the examination.
- (4a) "Occupational license" means any certificate, permit, or other evidence, by whatever name called, of a right or privilege to engage in a profession, occupation, or field of endeavor that is issued by an occupational licensing agency.
- (4b) "Occupational licensing agency" means any board, commission, committee or other agency of the State of North Carolina which is established for the primary purpose of regulating the entry of persons into, and/or the conduct of persons within a particular profession, occupation or field of endeavor, and which is authorized to issue and revoke licenses. "Occupational licensing agency" does not include State agencies or departments which may as only a part of their regular function issue permits or licenses.
- (5) "Party" means any person or agency named or admitted as a party or properly seeking as of right to be admitted as a party and includes the agency as appropriate. This subdivision does not permit an agency that makes a final decision, or an officer or employee of the agency, to petition for initial judicial review of that decision.
- (6) "Person aggrieved" means any person or group of persons of common interest directly or indirectly affected substantially in his or its person, property, or employment by an administrative decision.
- (7) "Person" means any natural person, partnership, corporation, body politic and any unincorporated association, organization, or society which may sue or be sued under a common name.
- (8) "Residence" means domicile or principal place of business.
- (8a) "Rule" means any agency regulation, standard, or statement of general applicability that implements or interprets an enactment of the General Assembly or Congress or a regulation adopted by a federal agency or that describes the procedure or practice requirements of an agency. The term includes the establishment of a fee and the amendment or repeal of a prior rule. The term does not include the following:
  - a. Statements concerning only the internal management of an agency or group of agencies within the same principal office or department enumerated in G.S. 143A-11 or 143B-6, including policies and procedures manuals, if the statement does not directly or substantially affect the procedural or substantive rights or duties of a person not employed by the agency or group of agencies.
  - b. Budgets and budget policies and procedures issued by the Director of the Budget, by the head of a department, as defined by G.S. 143A-2 or G.S. 143B-3, by an occupational licensing board, as defined by G.S. 93B-1, or by the State Board of Elections.
  - c. Nonbinding interpretative statements within the delegated authority of an agency that merely define, interpret, or explain the meaning of a statute or rule.
  - d. A form, the contents or substantive requirements of which are prescribed by rule or statute.
  - e. Statements of agency policy made in the context of another proceeding, including:
    1. Declaratory rulings under G.S. 150B-4.
    2. Orders establishing or fixing rates or tariffs.

- f. Requirements, communicated to the public by the use of signs or symbols, concerning the use of public roads, bridges, ferries, buildings, or facilities.
  - g. Statements that set forth criteria or guidelines to be used by the staff of an agency in performing audits, investigations, or inspections; in settling financial disputes or negotiating financial arrangements; or in the defense, prosecution, or settlement of cases.
  - h. Scientific, architectural, or engineering standards, forms, or procedures, including design criteria and construction standards used to construct or maintain highways, bridges, or ferries.
  - i. Job classification standards, job qualifications, and salaries established for positions under the jurisdiction of the State Personnel Commission.
  - j. Establishment of the interest rate that applies to tax assessments under G.S. 105-241.1 and the variable component of the excise tax on motor fuel under G.S. 105-449.80.
- (8b) "Substantial evidence" means relevant evidence a reasonable mind might accept as adequate to support a conclusion.
- (9) Repealed by Session Laws 1991, c. 418, s. 3. (1973, c. 1331, s. 1; 1975, 2nd Sess., c. 983, ss. 61, 62; 1977, c. 915, s. 5; 1983, c. 641, s. 1; 1985, c. 746, s. 1; 1985 (Reg. Sess., 1986), c. 1022, s. 1(2)-1(5); 1987, c. 878, ss. 1, 2, 21; 1987 (Reg. Sess., 1988), c. 1111, s. 17; 1991, c. 418, s. 3; c. 477, ss. 3.1, 3.2, 9; 1995, c. 390, s. 29; 1996, 2nd Ex. Sess., c. 18, s. 7.10(g); 1997-456, s. 27.)

CASE NOTES

Editor's Note. — Most of the cases below were decided under corresponding provisions of former Chapter 150A or prior to the 1991 amendments to this Chapter.

"Agency". — The Department of Insurance is an "agency" subject to the provisions of subdivision (1) of this section. North Carolina Reinsurance Facility v. Long, 98 N.C. App. 41, 390 S.E.2d 176 (1990).

Although the North Carolina Administrative Procedure Act (the Act) provides review only for agency decisions, § 150B-50 (1991), and local units of government are not within the definition of agencies in subdivision (1), the principles embodied in the Act "are highly pertinent" to appellate review of local government actions. Vulcan Materials Co. v. Guilford County Bd. of County Comm'rs, 115 N.C. App. 319, 444 S.E.2d 639, cert. denied, 337 N.C. 807, 449 S.E.2d 758 (1994).

"Contested Case". — Case challenging a consent special order entered into by Environmental Management Commission and a corporation, which order was alleged to intrude upon the National Pollutant Discharge Elimination System (NPDES) permit process (which process requires a hearing), was "contested" for the purposes of former § 150A-43. State ex rel. Tenn. Dep't of Health & Env't v. Environmental Mgt. Comm'n, 78 N.C. App. 763, 338 S.E.2d 781 (1986).

Where the rights of the petitioner were determined by an in-person interview and by an investigation conducted by a hearing officer of the North Carolina DMV, a state agency, they constituted "an agency proceeding." Therefore, the case was "contested" for purposes of § 150B-43. Charlotte Truck Driver Training School, Inc. v. North Carolina DMV, 95 N.C. App. 209, 381 S.E.2d 861 (1989).

Petitioner's allegation that he had been "demoted in rank without sufficient cause" stated grounds for his department's action to be deemed "disciplinary" within the meaning and intent of § 126-35 and for his case to be considered "contested" within the meaning and intent of § 126-37(a). Because he had properly pursued all informal procedures mandated by the State Personnel Act and by the North Carolina Administrative Code for the resolution of his grievance, petitioner's appeal also fit the procedural profile of a "contested case" for purposes of its review by the Office of Administrative Hearings under this Chapter. Batten v. North Carolina Dep't of Cor., 326 N.C. 338, 389 S.E.2d 35 (1990), overruled on other grounds, Empire Power Co. v. North Carolina Dep't of Env't, Health & Natural Resources, 337 N.C. 569, 447 S.E.2d 168 (1994).

Wildlife Resources Commission's rejection of sewer district's study and of its request for lower streamflow requirements constituted agency action giving rise to a dispute which ultimately became a "contested case" over which the Office of Administrative Hearings has jurisdiction. Metropolitan Sewerage Dist. v. North Carolina Wildlife Resources Comm'n, 100 N.C. App. 171, 394 S.E.2d 668 (1990).

A contested case hearing is distinguishable from a contested case. The phrase "contested case" extends beyond an adjudicatory hearing to include any agency proceeding, by whatever name called, wherein the legal rights, duties and privileges of a party are required by law to be determined by an agency after an opportunity for an adjudicatory hearing. Community Psychiatric Ctrs. v. North Carolina Dep't of Human Resources, 103 N.C. App. 514, 405 S.E.2d 769 (1991).

Elements of "Contested Case". — There are two elements of a "contested case": (1) An agency proceeding; (2) that determined the rights of a party or parties. Lloyd v. Babb, 296 N.C. 416, 251 S.E.2d 843 (1979).

Clear and Convincing Evidentiary Rule Invalid. — An administrative rule requiring that clear and convincing evidence be presented to show that a transfer of assets was made exclusively for a purpose other than to establish Medicaid eligibility was invalid. Dillingham v. North Carolina Dep't of Human Resources, 132 N.C. App. 704, 513 S.E.2d 823 (1999).

Error of Law. — The reviewing court may substitute its judgment for that of the Review Board if the Board's decision was affected by an error of law. Associated Mechanical Contractors v. Payne, 342 N.C. 825, 467 S.E.2d 398 (1996).

The result of a petitioner's ineffective attempts to file a petition for a contested case hearing was only a contested case. Community Psychiatric Ctrs. v. North Carolina Dep't of Human Resources, 103 N.C. App. 514, 405 S.E.2d 769 (1991).

Without the jurisdictional prerequisite of a contested case hearing, a petitioner cannot utilize § 131E-188(b) to appeal to the Court of Appeals. Community Psychiatric Ctrs. v. North Carolina Dep't of Human Resources, 103 N.C. App. 514, 405 S.E.2d 769 (1991).

"Person Aggrieved". — "Procedural injury," whereby petitioner State of Tennessee's right to be heard on certain aspects of a National Pollutant Discharge Elimination System (NPDES) permit was substantially impaired, was sufficient under former § 150A-43 to qualify petitioner as an "aggrieved person" for purposes of appeal of issuance of Environmental Management Commission's consent special order with corporation. In addition, where the consent special order contained provisions substantially identical to provisions which petitioner opposed in the proposed NPDES permit, which affected the property rights of the petitioner in the Pigeon River, these allegations also established petitioner's "aggrieved person" status. State ex rel. Tenn. Dep't of Health & Env't v. Environmental Mgt. Comm'n, 78 N.C. App. 763, 338 S.E.2d 781 (1986).

Where none of petitioner's personal rights or interests, nor any rights or interests properly attributable to him in a cognizable representative capacity, were either directly or indirectly at issue in requested rule making proceeding, he was not substantially affected by Department of Human Resources' denial of his petition for rule making. Therefore, he was not a "person aggrieved" as a result of the agency decision and had no standing to seek judicial review thereof. In re Wheeler, 85 N.C. App. 150, 354 S.E.2d 374 (1987).

"Person aggrieved" means one who is adversely affected in respect to legal rights, or who is suffering from an infringement or denial of legal rights. In re Wheeler, 85 N.C. App. 150, 354 S.E.2d 374 (1987).

A power company satisfied the definition of a "person aggrieved" because its interest in having the Department of Environment, Health and Natural Resources (now the Department of Environment and Natural Resources) prepare an Environmental Impact Statement before issuing a permit and its interest in the air resources of the state were adversely affected by DEHNR's granting of a permit issued to another power company to construct and operate combustion turbine electric generating units. Empire Power Co. v. North Carolina Dep't of Env't, Health & Natural Resources, 112 N.C. App. 566, 436 S.E.2d 594 (1993), rev'd on other grounds, 337 N.C. 569, 447 S.E.2d 768, reh'g denied, 338 N.C. 314, 451 S.E.2d 634 (1994).

A landowner qualified as a "person aggrieved" as he owned and lived on property adjacent to the proposed site. Empire Power Co. v. North Carolina Dep't of Env't, Health & Natural Resources, 112 N.C. App. 566, 436 S.E.2d 594 (1993), rev'd on other grounds, 337 N.C. 569, 447 S.E.2d 768, reh'g denied, 338 N.C. 314, 451 S.E.2d 634 (1994).

A pet owner was not a "person aggrieved" under § 150B-2(6) as to the decision of the North Carolina Veterinary Medical Board disciplining a veterinarian against whom she filed a complaint, and therefore the pet owner was not entitled to an administrative hearing on the issue and had no standing to seek judicial review. In re Complaint No. 97025-1-1, — N.C. App. —, 552 S.E.2d 230, 2001 N.C. App. LEXIS 855 (2001).

Standing Is Question of Subject Matter Jurisdiction. — Whether one has standing to obtain judicial review of an administrative decision is a question of subject matter jurisdiction. Carter v. North Carolina State Bd. of Registration, 86 N.C. App. 308, 357 S.E.2d 705 (1987).

County had standing to challenge establishment of toxic waste site within its borders because of the effect on its tax base and planning jurisdiction, because of the final agency determination upon issuance of an environmental impact statement, and because the Environmental Policy Act (Art. 1 of Chap. 113A) includes the right to judicial review of an issue which involves a contested case. Warren County v. North Carolina, 528 F. Supp. 276 (E.D.N.C. 1981).

The intervention statute is permissive only. In re Brunswick County, 81 N.C. App. 391, 344 S.E.2d 584 (1986).

Decisions of Municipalities Exempt from Chapter. — The North Carolina Administrative Procedure Act provides judicial review only for agency decisions, from which the decisions of local municipalities are expressly exempt. Coastal Ready-Mix Concrete Co. v. Board of Comm'rs, 299 N.C. 620, 265 S.E.2d 379, rehearing denied, 300 N.C. 562, 270 S.E.2d 106 (1980).

Standard on Review of City's Special Zoning Request Decisions. — Although the North Carolina Administrative Procedure Act provides judicial review only for agency decisions and exempts cities and other local municipalities, a similar standard of review is appropriate to review city council special zoning request decisions. Jennewein v. City Council, 62 N.C. App. 89, 302 S.E.2d 7, cert. denied, 309 N.C. 461, 307 S.E.2d 365 (1983).

The Department of Insurance is an "agency" subject to the provisions of the North Carolina Administrative Procedure Act. State ex rel. Comm'r of Ins. v. North Carolina Rate Bureau, 300 N.C. 381, 269 S.E.2d 547, rehearing denied, 301 N.C. 107, 273 S.E.2d 300 (1980).

Tax Review Board was an "administrative agency" under former statute. In re Halifax Paper Co., 259 N.C. 589, 131 S.E.2d 441 (1963).

"Rule." — Specific findings by the State Banking Commission were not rules as defined under subsection (8a); thus, the Commission did not apply unpromulgated rules in denying application to sell non-credit disability insurance. Beneficial N.C., Inc. v. State ex rel. N.C. State Banking Comm'n, 126 N.C. App. 117, 484 S.E.2d 808 (1997).

Memorandum Was Not a "Rule" Under Subdivision (8a). — Where a memorandum constituted guidelines to be followed when investigating and prosecuting violations of state law and a statement that possession or operation of certain video machines on ABC-licensed premises transgressed that law, the memorandum fell squarely within the meaning of subdivisions (8a)(c) and (8a)(g), and therefore did not constitute a "rule." Ford v. State, Dep't of Crime Control & Pub. Safety, 115 N.C. App. 556, 445 S.E.2d 425 (1994).

Interpretation of Medicaid Law as Rule. — A provision of an agency manual requiring written evidence that a transfer of assets was made exclusively for a purpose other than to establish Medicaid eligibility was an administrative rule under this section, where the requirement created a binding standard interpreting eligibility provisions of Medicaid law. Dillingham v. North Carolina Dep't of Human Resources, 132 N.C. App. 704, 513 S.E.2d 823 (1999).

Rehabilitation Act. — The Superior Court had jurisdiction over a petition for review of denial of services under the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, P.L. 102-569, 42 U.S.C. § 701, et seq. as amended, where, although the petitioner's claims were not heard by an Administrative Law Judge, they were heard by an agency hearing officer, at a proceeding in which petitioner and respondent were allowed to submit and cross-examine evidence and where respondent's director reviewed and affirmed the hearing officer's decision, in accordance with its own regulations. Hedgepeth v. North Carolina Div. of Servs. for the Blind, 142 N.C. App. 338, 543 S.E.2d 169 (2001).

While subdivision (1) expressly excepts local boards of education from the coverage of the Administrative Procedure Act, nonetheless the standards for judicial review set forth in § 150B-51 apply to appeals from school boards. Evers v. Pender County Bd. of Educ., 104 N.C. App. 1, 407 S.E.2d 879 (1991), aff'd, 331 N.C. 380, 416 S.E.2d 3 (1992).

Board of trustees of medical plan was an "agency" of the executive branch of State government under this section. Vass v. Board of Trustees, 324 N.C. 402, 379 S.E.2d 26 (1989).

Trustees of university were not an agency governed by the former statute. In re Carter, 262 N.C. 360, 137 S.E.2d 150 (1964).

State Employee's Attempt to Recover for Surgery Costs. — State employee's dispute with the Board of Trustees of the Teachers' and State Employees' Comprehensive Major Medical Plan, an administrative agency, seeking to recover costs of surgery should have been brought under this Chapter. Vass v. Board of Trustees, 89 N.C. App. 333, 366 S.E.2d 1 (1988), modified and aff'd, 324 N.C. 402, 379 S.E.2d 26 (1989).

Petitioner whose driving privilege was mandatorily suspended under § 20-17(2) and § 20-19(e) did not have the right to appeal under § 20-25 or under this Chapter. However, the superior court could review the actions of the Commissioner by issuing a writ of certiorari. Davis v. Hiatt, 326 N.C. 462, 390 S.E.2d 338 (1990).

Intervenor Not Approved. — For purposes of meeting appeal requirements of § 131E-188(b), appellant, proposed intervenor below, was not and could not be a party to contested hearing at issue below until its motion to intervene was approved. Since this motion was not approved, appellant was not a party to contested case, and therefore, did not meet jurisdictional requirements of § 131E-188(b). HCA Crossroads Residential Centers, Inc. v. North

Editor's Note. — Many of the opinions below were issued prior to the 1991 amendments to this Chapter.

Procedures Substantially Affecting Nonagency Persons Must Be Adopted as Rules. — When § 150B-2(8a) and § 150B-11(1) are read together, it is apparent that any procedures, whether formal or informal, that directly or substantially affect the rights or procedures of nonagency persons must be adopted as rules. See Opinion of Attorney General to Elizabeth H. Drury, Director, Office of Legislative and Legal Affairs, Department of Human Resources, 56 N.C.A.G. 25 (1986) decided prior to the 1991 amendment.

Employee Insurance Committees have rule-making and limited quasi-judicial powers pursuant to former § 58-194.3(b) (see now § 58-31-60) and are "agencies" within the meaning of § 150B-2(1). See Opinion of Attorney General to Elizabeth H. Drury, Director, Office of Legislative and Legal Affairs, Department of Human Resources, 56 N.C.A.G. 25 (1986) decided prior to the 1991 amendment.

The signing of a proposed memorandum of understanding with federal land managers of National Parks and Wilderness Areas in and around North Carolina would not constitute rulemaking under the N.C. Administrative Procedures Act and, therefore, did not require rulemaking by the Environmental Management Commission. See Opinion of Attorney General to Mr. William R. Gilkeson, Staff Attorney, N.C. General Assembly, 1998 N.C.A.G. 54 (12/4/98).

Contested Cases. — Determinations made by the securities administrator pursuant to his statutory authority are considered "contested cases" within the meaning of subdivision (2) of this section. Such determinations control or restrict the activities of dealers, salesmen, or issuers of securities, but these determinations only become "contested cases" if the administrator's action is "disputed" by the subject of such determination. See opinion of the Attorney General to Mr. Stephen M. Wallis, Deputy Securities Administrator (acting), 58 N.C.A.G. 76 (1988).

The registration of securities dealers and salesmen by the Securities Division pursuant to § 78A-37 constitutes the granting of an "occupational license" within the meaning of subdivision (4a) of this section. See opinion of the Attorney General to Mr. Stephen M. Wallis, Deputy Securities Administrator (acting), 58 N.C.A.G. 76 (1988).

Scope of Article 3A of This Chapter. — Even though the Securities Division is determined to be an "occupational licensing agency" within the meaning of subdivision (4b) of this section, the provisions of Article 3A of this chapter (procedure for conduct of administrative hearings by occupational licensing agencies) in no way restrict or modify provisions of §§ 78A-39(a), (c),(e) and (f); 78A-45 or 78A-46(b). See opinion of the Attorney General to Mr. Stephen M. Wallis, Deputy Securities Administrator (acting), 58 N.C.A.G. 76 (1988).

The Securities Division is an "occupational licensing agency" within the meaning of subdivision (4b) of this section. See opinion of the Attorney General to Mr. Stephen M. Wallis, Deputy Securities Administrator (acting), 58 N.C.A.G. 76 (1988).

§ 150B-3. Special provisions on licensing.

(a) When an applicant or a licensee makes a timely and sufficient application for issuance or renewal of a license or occupational license, including the payment of any required license fee, the existing license or occupational license does not expire until a decision on the application is finally made by the agency, and if the application is denied or the terms of the new license or occupational license are limited, until the last day for applying for judicial review of the agency order. This subsection does not affect agency action summarily suspending a license or occupational license under subsections (b) and (c) of this section.

(b) Before the commencement of proceedings for the suspension, revocation, annulment, withdrawal, recall, cancellation, or amendment of any license other than an occupational license, the agency shall give notice to the licensee, pursuant to the provisions of G.S. 150B-23. Before the commencement of such proceedings involving an occupational license, the agency shall give notice pursuant to the provisions of G.S. 150B-38. In either case, the licensee shall be given an opportunity to show compliance with all lawful requirements for retention of the license or occupational license.

(c) If the agency finds that the public health, safety, or welfare requires emergency action and incorporates this finding in its order, summary suspension of a license or occupational license may be ordered effective on the date specified in the order or on service of the certified copy of the order at the last known address of the licensee, whichever is later, and effective during the proceedings. The proceedings shall be promptly commenced and determined.

Nothing in this subsection shall be construed as amending or repealing any special statutes, in effect prior to February 1, 1976, which provide for the summary suspension of a license.

(d) This section does not apply to the following:

- (1) Revocations of occupational licenses based solely on a court order of child support delinquency or a Department of Health and Human Services determination of child support delinquency issued pursuant to G.S. 110-142, 110-142.1, or 110-142.2.
- (2) Refusal to renew an occupational license pursuant to G.S. 87-10.1, 87-22.2, 87-44.2, or 89C-18.1, based solely on a Department of Revenue determination that the licensee owes a delinquent income tax debt. (1973, c. 1331, s. 1; 1985, c. 746, s. 1; 1995, c. 538, s. 2(i); 1997-443, s. 11A.118(a); 1998-162, s. 8.)

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL

The requirements in subsection (c) of this section that an agency make a finding that the “public health, safety, or welfare requires emergency action” prior to a summary suspension of a license or an occupational license, and that the agency incorporate such finding in its order of suspension, are not in any way in conflict with the findings required to be made by the securities administrator by § 78A-

39(a) prior to denying, suspending, or revoking the registration of a securities dealer or salesman and by § 78A-29(a) prior to denying, suspending, or revoking the effectiveness of a securities registration statement. See opinion of the Attorney General to Mr. Stephen M. Wallis, Deputy Securities Administrator (acting), 58 N.C.A.G. 76 (1988).

§ 150B-4. Declaratory rulings.

(a) On request of a person aggrieved, an agency shall issue a declaratory ruling as to the validity of a rule or as to the applicability to a given state of facts of a statute administered by the agency or of a rule or order of the agency, except when the agency for good cause finds issuance of a ruling undesirable. The agency shall prescribe in its rules the circumstances in which rulings shall or shall not be issued. A declaratory ruling is binding on the agency and the person requesting it unless it is altered or set aside by the court. An agency may not retroactively change a declaratory ruling, but nothing in this section prevents an agency from prospectively changing a declaratory ruling. A declaratory ruling is subject to judicial review in the same manner as an order in a contested case. Failure of the agency to issue a declaratory ruling on the merits within 60 days of the request for such ruling shall constitute a denial of the request as well as a denial of the merits of the request and shall be subject to judicial review.

(b) Repealed by Session Laws 1997-34, s. 1, effective April 23, 1997. (1973, c. 1331, s. 1; 1985, c. 746, s. 1; 1991, c. 418, s. 4; c. 477, s. 2.1; 1997-34, s. 1.)

CASE NOTES

Editor's Note. — Most of the cases below were decided under corresponding provisions of former § 150B-17 or Chapter 150A.

Former § 150A-17 clearly did not contemplate an evidentiary proceeding. If evidence were required to establish the facts, then the proper procedure would have been to hold a contested case hearing. In re Ford, 52 N.C. App. 569, 279 S.E.2d 122 (1981).

Good Cause for Denial. — Good cause exists for denial of a request for a declaratory ruling where the denial is based on the existence of a prior agency ruling which necessarily required an interpretation on the same statute which is the subject of the request for declaratory ruling. Catawba Mem. Hosp. v. North Carolina Dep't of Human Resources, 112 N.C. App. 557, 436 S.E.2d 390 (1993), cert. granted, 336 N.C. 72, 445 S.E.2d 31 (1994).

A declaratory ruling by an administrative agency is subject to judicial review as though it were an agency final decision or order in a contested case. High Rock Lake Ass'n v. North Carolina Env'tl. Mgt. Comm'n, 51 N.C. App. 275, 276 S.E.2d 472 (1981).

Plaintiff Failing to Exhaust Administrative Remedies Not Entitled to Judicial Relief. — Plaintiff collection agency was not entitled to seek a declaratory judgment in the superior court as to the validity and applicability of a regulation of the Department of Insurance prohibiting collection agencies from instituting judicial proceedings on behalf of other persons, where plaintiff failed to exhaust available administrative remedies by petitioning the Department of Insurance for amendment or repeal of the regulation under former § 150A-16 or seeking a declaratory ruling from the Department of Insurance as to the validity and applicability of the regulation under former § 150A-17, and then by seeking judicial review of an adverse Department of Insurance decision under former § 150A-43 et seq. Porter v. North Carolina Dep't of Ins., 40 N.C. App. 376, 253 S.E.2d 44, cert. denied, 297 N.C. 455, 256 S.E.2d 808 (1979).

Trial Court Lacked Jurisdiction Where Declaratory Relief Not Pursued in Agency

Proceeding. — Original jurisdiction for a declaratory ruling as to the rights and interest of parties in a pier and boat ramp extending over a state-owned lake rested in the Department of Natural Resources and Community Development (now the Department of Environment and Natural Resources). As the parties did not pursue such declaratory relief and failed to exhaust their administrative remedies prior to instituting their civil action, the trial court lacked subject matter jurisdiction. Woodlief v. Johnson, 75 N.C. App. 49, 330 S.E.2d 265 (1985).

Rules.

§ 150B-18. Scope and effect.

This Article applies to an agency's exercise of its authority to adopt a rule. A rule is not valid unless it is adopted in substantial compliance with this Article. (1991, c. 418, s. 1.)

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1991, ch. 418 repealed former Articles 2 and 5 and enacted in their place a new Article 2A. Where appropriate, the historical citations to sections in the repealed Articles have been added to corresponding sections in new Article 2A.

CASE NOTES

Editor's Note. — The cases below were decided under corresponding provisions of former Article 2 or earlier statutes.

Notice and Opportunity to Be Heard Required. — Substantial compliance under former § 150A-9, among other things, required notice and the opportunity to be heard, as provided by former § 150A-12, before the adoption of a rule. American Guar. & Liab. Ins. Co. v. Ingram, 32 N.C. App. 552, 233 S.E.2d 398, cert. denied, 292 N.C. 729, 235 S.E.2d 782 (1977).

Limitation on Authority of Social Services Commission to Make Rules. — The Social Services Commission has and continues to have general rule making authority under its grant in § 143B-153 and by the provision of § 108A-71 which authorizes the Department of Human Resources to accept all "State appropriations" for programs of social services. That grant became limited, however, by this Chapter upon its enactment, thereby requiring the Commission to comply with certain procedural requirements in adopting rules if specifically authorized by legislative enactment to adopt rules. Whittington v. North Carolina Dep't of Human Resources, 100 N.C. App. 603, 398 S.E.2d 40 (1990).

Rule denying Medicaid payments to those who are eligible for Medicare, but have failed to enroll, would be struck down as unsupported by statutory or regulatory authority and as denying a substantial right. Duke Univ. Medical Ctr. v. Bruton, 134 N.C. App. 39, 516 S.E.2d 633 (1999).

Compliance with This Chapter in Administering State Abortion Fund. — Since the State Abortion Fund prior to the enactment of Session Laws 1985, c. 479, s. 93 was merely a "state appropriation," the Department of Human Resources, through its Social Services Commission, could and did enact rules and regulations pertaining to the program. However, by the passage of s. 93, which specifically limits, by legislative enactment, how the Fund is to be administered, the Department of Human Resources and the Commission's rule making authority must comply with the requirements of this Chapter. Whittington v.

North Carolina Dep't of Human Resources, 100 N.C. App. 603, 398 S.E.2d 40 (1990).

Construction with Coastal Area Management Act. — The mandatory provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act must be read as complementing the procedural safeguards in the Coastal Area Management Act of 1974. Adams v. North Carolina Dep't of Natural & Economic Resources, 295 N.C. 683, 249 S.E.2d 402 (1978).

Administrative agency rules may be grouped into three categories: (1) Procedural rules which describe how the agency will discharge its assigned functions and the requirements others must follow in dealing with the agency; (2) Legislative rules which are established by an agency as a result of a delegation of legislative power to the agency; and (3) Interpretative rules which interpret and apply the provisions of the statute under which the agency operates. State ex rel. Comm'r of Ins. v. North Carolina Rate Bureau, 300 N.C. 381, 269 S.E.2d 547, rehearing denied, 301 N.C. 107, 273 S.E.2d 300 (1980).

The Supreme Court is not limited to the label placed on a rule by an agency, but must look instead to the substance of the rule in question. State ex rel. Comm'r of Ins. v. North Carolina Rate Bureau, 300 N.C. 381, 269 S.E.2d 547, rehearing denied, 301 N.C. 107, 273 S.E.2d 300 (1980).

Amendments to State Guidelines as Administrative Rule-Making. — Amendments to the State guidelines by the Coastal Resources Commission are considered administrative rule-making under this section and thus subject to the comprehensive additional safeguards contained in the Administrative Procedure Act. Adams v. North Carolina Dep't of Natural & Economic Resources, 295 N.C. 683, 249 S.E.2d 402 (1978).

Requirement by the Commissioner of Insurance that audited data be submitted in a ratemaking case was a legislative rule and therefore subject to the rule-making provisions of the North Carolina Administrative Procedure Act. State ex rel. Comm'r of Ins. v. North Carolina Rate Bureau, 300 N.C. 381, 269 S.E.2d 547, rehearing denied, 301 N.C. 107, 273 S.E.2d 300 (1980).

Construction of Former § 150A-10(4). — The exclusion of policy statements or interpretations “made in the decision of a contested case” included in subdivision (4) of former § 150A-10 clearly was not intended to embrace substantive rules with anticipated future applicability. This is so because of the difference between interpretative and legislative rules and because subdivision (6) of former § 150A-10, which excludes “interpretative rules and general statements of policy of the agency” would be unnecessary if subdivision (4) of former § 150A-10 were intended to apply to matters beyond the contested case in question. State ex rel. Comm’r of Ins. v. North Carolina Rate Bureau, 300 N.C. 381, 269 S.E.2d 547, rehearing denied, 301 N.C. 107, 273 S.E.2d 300 (1980).

Cited in Jackson v. North Carolina Dep’t of Human Res., 131 N.C. App. 179, 505 S.E.2d 899 (1998), cert. denied, 350 N.C. 594, 537 S.E.2d 213 (1999).

§ 150B-19. Restrictions on what can be adopted as a rule.

An agency may not adopt a rule that does one or more of the following:

- (1) Implements or interprets a law unless that law or another law specifically authorizes the agency to do so.
- (2) Enlarges the scope of a profession, occupation, or field of endeavor for which an occupational license is required.
- (3) Imposes criminal liability or a civil penalty for an act or omission, including the violation of a rule, unless a law specifically authorizes the agency to do so or a law declares that violation of the rule is a criminal offense or is grounds for a civil penalty.
- (4) Repeats the content of a law, a rule, or a federal regulation. A brief statement that informs the public of a requirement imposed by law does not violate this subdivision and satisfies the “reasonably necessary” standard of review set in G.S. 150B-21.9(a)(3).
- (5) Establishes a fee or other charge for providing a service in fulfillment of a duty unless a law specifically authorizes the agency to do so or the fee or other charge is for one of the following:
  - a. A service to a State, federal, or local governmental unit.
  - b. A copy of part or all of a State publication or other document, the cost of mailing a document, or both.
  - c. A transcript of a public hearing.
  - d. A conference, workshop, or course.
  - e. Data processing services.
- (6) Allows the agency to waive or modify a requirement set in a rule unless a rule establishes specific guidelines the agency must follow in determining whether to waive or modify the requirement. (1973, c. 1331, s. 1; 1985, c. 746, s. 1; 1991, c. 418, s. 1; 1996, 2nd Ex. Sess., c. 18, s. 7.10(a).)

§ 150B-20. Petitioning an agency to adopt a rule.

(a) Petition. — A person may petition an agency to adopt a rule by submitting to the agency a written rule-making petition requesting the adoption. A person may submit written comments with a rule-making petition. If a rule-making petition requests the agency to create or amend a rule, the person must submit the proposed text of the requested rule change and a statement of the effect of the requested rule change. Each agency must establish by rule the procedure for submitting a rule-making petition to it and the procedure the agency follows in considering a rule-making petition.

(b) Time. — An agency must grant or deny a rule-making petition submitted to it within 30 days after the date the rule-making petition is submitted, unless the agency is a board or commission. If the agency is a board or commission, it must grant or deny a rule-making petition within 120 days after the date the rule-making petition is submitted.

(c) Action. — If an agency denies a rule-making petition, it must send the person who submitted the petition a written statement of the reasons for denying the petition. If an agency grants a rule-making petition, it must inform the person who submitted the rule-making petition of its decision and must initiate rule-making proceedings. When an agency grants a rule-making petition, the notice of rule-making proceedings it publishes in the North Carolina Register may state that the agency is initiating rule-making proceedings as the result of a rule-making petition and state the name of the person who submitted the rule-making petition. If the rule-making petition requested the creation or amendment of a rule, the notice of text the agency publishes after the notice of rule-making proceedings may set out the text of the requested rule change submitted with the rule-making petition and state whether the agency endorses the proposed text.

(d) Review. — Denial of a rule-making petition is a final agency decision and is subject to judicial review under Article 4 of this Chapter. Failure of an agency to grant or deny a rule-making petition within the time limits set in subsection (b) is a denial of the rule-making petition.

(e) Repealed by Session Laws 1996, Second Extra Session, c. 18, s. 7.10(b). (1973, c. 1331, s. 1; 1985, c. 746, s. 1; 1991, c. 418, s. 1; c. 477, s. 2; 1996, 2nd Ex. Sess., c. 18, s. 7.10(b); 1997-34, s. 2.)

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1999-237, s. 11 provides that the Codifier of Rules may reorganize Titles 10 and 15A of the North Carolina Administrative Code to reflect the recent reorganization of the Department of Health and Human Services and the Department of Environment and Natural Resources.

Legal Periodicals. — For article, "Advisory Rulings by Administrative Agencies: Their Benefits and Dangers," see 2 Campbell L. Rev. 1 (1980).

CASE NOTES

Editor's Note. — The cases below were decided under corresponding provisions of former Article 2 or earlier statutes.

Judicial Review of Denial. — An agency's denial of a petition for rule making under former § 150A-16 is subject to judicial review pursuant to the provisions of former § 150A-43. In re Wheeler, 85 N.C. App. 150, 354 S.E.2d 374 (1987).

Where the Commission denied plaintiffs' rule-making petition, judicial review of the decision to deny the petition was available pursuant to subsection (d). Act-Up Triangle v. Commission for Health Servs., 345 N.C. 699, 483 S.E.2d 388 (1997).

Use of "Whole Record" Test. — The superior court properly employed the "whole record test" in its judicial review of the Commission's decision to deny plaintiffs' rule-making petition. Act-Up Triangle v. Commission for Health Servs., 345 N.C. 699, 483 S.E.2d 388 (1997).

Plaintiff Failing to Exhaust Administrative Remedies Not Entitled to Judicial Relief. — Plaintiff collection agency was not entitled to seek a declaratory judgment in the superior court as to the validity and applicability of a regulation of the Department of Insurance prohibiting collection agencies from instituting judicial proceedings on behalf of other persons, where plaintiff failed to exhaust available administrative remedies by petitioning the Department of Insurance for amendment or repeal of the regulation under former § 150A-16 or seeking a declaratory ruling from the Department of Insurance as to the validity and applicability of the regulation under former § 150A-17, and then by seeking judicial review of an adverse Department of Insurance decision under former § 150A-43 et seq. Porter v. North Carolina Dep't of Ins., 40 N.C. App. 376, 253 S.E.2d 44, cert. denied, 297 N.C. 455, 256 S.E.2d 808 (1979).

Federal Court Jurisdiction. — Where plaintiff filed a petition for rule-making requesting that North Carolina Department of Human Resources remove rule from the North Carolina Food Stamp Manual, cease all further application of rule, and adopt proposed rule, and the Secretary of the United States Department of Agriculture moved to intervene, then removed the case to federal district court, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1441(b) and 1442(a)(1), the case was remanded to the State Supreme Court because the federal court lacked subject matter jurisdiction. Thomas v. North Carolina Dep't of Human Resources, 898 F. Supp. 315 (M.D.N.C. 1995).

Applied in North Carolina Chiropractic

Ass'n v. North Carolina State Bd. of Educ., 122 N.C. App. 122, 468 S.E.2d 539 (1996); Beneficial N.C., Inc. v. State ex rel. N.C. State Banking Comm'n, 126 N.C. App. 117, 484 S.E.2d 808 (1997).

§ 150B-21. Agency must designate rule-making coordinator; duties of coordinator.

(a) Each agency must designate one or more rule-making coordinators to oversee the agency's rule-making functions. The coordinator shall serve as the liaison between the agency, other agencies, units of local government, and the public in the rule-making process. The coordinator shall report directly to the agency head.

(b) The rule-making coordinator shall be responsible for the following:

- (1) Preparing notices of public hearings.
- (2) Coordinating access to the agency's rules.
- (3) Screening all proposed rule actions prior to publication in the North Carolina Register to assure that an accurate fiscal note has been completed as required by G.S. 150B-21.4(b).
- (4) Consulting with the North Carolina Association of County Commissioners and the North Carolina League of Municipalities to determine which local governments would be affected by any proposed rule action.
- (5) Providing the North Carolina Association of County Commissioners and the North Carolina League of Municipalities with copies of all fiscal notes required by G.S. 150B-21.4(b), prior to publication in the North Carolina Register of the proposed text of a permanent rule change.
- (6) Coordinating the submission of proposed rules to the Governor as provided by G.S. 150B-21.26.

(c) At the earliest point in the rule-making process and in consultation with the North Carolina Association of County Commissioners, the North Carolina League of Municipalities, and with samples of county managers or city managers, as appropriate, the rule-making coordinator shall lead the agency's efforts in the development and drafting of any rules or rule changes that could:

- (1) Require any unit of local government, including a county, city, school administrative unit, or other local entity funded by or through a unit of local government to carry out additional or modified responsibilities;
- (2) Increase the cost of providing or delivering a public service funded in whole or in part by any unit of local government; or
- (3) Otherwise affect the expenditures or revenues of a unit of local government.

(d) The rule-making coordinator shall send to the Office of State Budget and Management for compilation a copy of each final fiscal note prepared pursuant to G.S. 150B-21.4(b).

(e) The rule-making coordinator shall compile a schedule of the administrative rules and amendments expected to be proposed during the next fiscal year. The coordinator shall provide a copy of the schedule to the Office of State Budget and Management in a manner proposed by that Office.

(f) Whenever an agency proposes a rule that is purported to implement a federal law, or required by or necessary for compliance with federal law, or on which the receipt of federal funds is conditioned, the rule-making coordinator shall:

- (1) Attach to the proposed rule a certificate prepared by the rule-making coordinator identifying the federal law requiring adoption of the proposed rule. The certification shall contain a statement setting forth the reasons for why the proposed rule is required by law. If all or part of the proposed rule is not required by federal law or exceeds the requirements of federal law, then the certification shall state the reasons for that opinion. No comment or opinion shall be included in the certification with regard to the merits of the proposed rule; and

- (2) The rule-making coordinator shall maintain a copy of the federal law and shall provide to the Office of State Budget and Management for compilation the citation to the federal law requiring or pertaining to the proposed rule. (1991, c. 418, s. 1; 1995, c. 415, s. 1; c. 507, s. 27.8(v); 2000-140, s. 93.1(a); 2001-424, s. 12.2(b).)

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 2001-113, ss. 1 to 4, provides: "For a well serving a single-family dwelling where lot size or other fixed conditions preclude the separation distances specified in subparagraph (a) (2) of 15A NCAC 2C.0107 (Standards of Construction: Water-Supply Wells), as adopted by the Environmental Management Commission on October 12, 2000, and approved by the Rules Review Commission on November 16, 2000, the required separation distances shall be the maximum possible, but shall in no case be less than the following:

| "(1) Septic tank and drainfield   | 50 feet  |
| "(2) Water-tight sewage or liquid-waste collection or transfer facility | 25 feet  |
| "(3) Animal barns   | 50 feet  |
| "(4) Cesspool or privies  | 50 feet. |

"This act [Session Laws 2001-113] constitutes a recent act of the General Assembly within the meaning of G.S. 150B-21.1(a). The Environmental Management Commission may adopt a temporary rule that incorporates the provisions of Section 1 of this act [Section 1 of Session Laws 2001-113]. Notwithstanding G.S. 150B-21.1(d), a temporary rule adopted in accordance with this section shall remain in effect until a permanent rule adopted to replace the temporary rule becomes effective.

"Except as provided by Section 1 of this act

[Section 1 of Session Laws 2001-113], this act does not limit the authority of the Environmental Management Commission to adopt rules governing the location, construction, repair, and abandonment of wells pursuant to G.S. 87-87 and Article 2A of Chapter 150B of the General Statutes.

"This act is effective retroactively to the date on which it is ratified. If the Environmental Management Commission adopts a temporary rule as provided in Section 2 of this act, Section 1 of this act [Sections 1 and 2 of Session Laws 2001-113] expires when the temporary rule becomes effective."

Session Laws 2001-424, s. 1.2, provides: "This act shall be known as the 'Current Operations and Capital Improvements Appropriations Act of 2001'."

Session Laws 2001-424, s. 36.5 is a severability clause.

Effect of Amendments. — Session Laws 2000-140, s. 93.1(a), effective July 21, 2000, substituted "Office of State Budget, Planning, and Management" for "Office of State Budget and Management" throughout the section.

Session Laws 2001-424, s. 12.2(b), effective July 1, 2001, substituted "Office of State Budget and Management" for "Office of State Budget, Planning, and Management" in subsections (d) and (e) and in subdivision (f)(2).

Part 2. Adoption of Rules.

§ 150B-21.1. Procedure for adopting a temporary rule.

(a) Adoption. — An agency may adopt a temporary rule without prior notice or hearing or upon any abbreviated notice or hearing the agency finds practical when it finds that adherence to the notice and hearing requirements of this Part would be contrary to the public interest and that the immediate adoption of the rule is required by one or more of the following:

- (1) A serious and unforeseen threat to the public health, safety, or welfare.
- (2) The effective date of a recent act of the General Assembly or the United States Congress.
- (3) A recent change in federal or State budgetary policy.
- (4) A federal regulation.
- (5) A court order.

- (6) The need for the rule to become effective the same date as the State Medical Facilities Plan approved by the Governor, if the rule addresses a matter included in the State Medical Facilities Plan.

An agency must prepare a written statement of its findings of need for a temporary rule. The statement must be signed by the head of the agency adopting the rule.

(a1) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (a) of this section, the Wildlife Resources Commission may adopt a temporary rule after prior notice or hearing or upon any abbreviated notice or hearing the agency finds practical to protect the public health, safety, or welfare, conserve wildlife resources, or provide for the orderly and efficient operation of game lands by establishing any of the following:

- (1) No wake zones;
- (2) Hunting or fishing seasons;
- (3) Hunting or fishing bag limits;
- (4) Management of public game lands as defined in G.S. 113-129(8a).

When the Wildlife Resources Commission adopts a temporary rule pursuant to this subsection, it must submit the reference to this subsection as its statement of need to the Codifier of Rules.

(a2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (a) of this section, the Secretary of State may adopt temporary rules to implement the certification technology provisions of Article 11A of Chapter 66 of the General Statutes and to adopt uniform Statements of Policy that have been officially adopted by the North American Securities Administrators Association for the purpose of promoting uniformity of state securities regulation. After having the proposed temporary rule published in the North Carolina Register and at least 30 days prior to adopting a temporary rule pursuant to this subsection, the Secretary shall:

- (1) Notify persons on its mailing list maintained pursuant to G.S. 150B-21.2(d) and any other interested parties of its intent to adopt a temporary rule;
- (2) Accept oral and written comments on the proposed temporary rule; and
- (3) Hold at least one public hearing on the proposed temporary rule.

When the Secretary adopts a temporary rule pursuant to this subsection, the Secretary must submit a reference to this subsection as the Secretary's statement of need to the Codifier of Rules.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Chapter, the Codifier of Rules shall publish in the North Carolina Register a proposed temporary rule received from the Secretary in accordance with this subsection.

(a3) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (a) of this section, the Commissioner of Insurance may adopt a temporary rule to implement the provisions of G.S. 58-2-205 after prior notice or hearing or upon any abbreviated notice or hearing. When the Commissioner adopts a temporary rule pursuant to this subsection, the Commissioner must submit the reference to this subsection as the Commissioner's statement of need to the Codifier of Rules.

(a4) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (a) of this section, the State Chief Information Officer may adopt temporary rules to implement the information technology procurement provisions of Article 3D of Chapter 147 of the General Statutes. After having the proposed temporary rule published in the North Carolina Register and at least 30 days prior to adopting a temporary rule pursuant to this subsection, the Officer shall:

- (1) Notify persons on its mailing list maintained pursuant to G.S. 150B-21.2(d) and any other interested parties of its intent to adopt a temporary rule;

(2) Accept oral and written comments on the proposed temporary rule; and

(3) Hold at least one public hearing on the proposed temporary rule.

When the Officer adopts a temporary rule pursuant to this subsection, the Officer must submit a reference to this subsection as the Officer's statement of need to the Codifier of Rules.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Chapter, the Codifier of Rules shall publish in the North Carolina Register a proposed temporary rule received from the Officer in accordance with this subsection.

(a5) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (a) of this section, the State Board of Elections may adopt a temporary rule after prior notice or hearing or upon any abbreviated notice or hearing the agency finds practical for one or more of the following:

(1) In accordance with the provisions of G.S. 163-22.2.

(2) To implement any provisions of state or federal law for which the State Board of Elections has been authorized to adopt rules.

(3) The need for the rule to become effective immediately in order to preserve the integrity of upcoming elections and the elections process.

When the State Board of Elections adopts a temporary rule pursuant to this subsection, it must submit the reference to this subsection as its statement of need to the Codifier of Rules.

(a6) (Expires June 30, 2002) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (a) of this section, the Manufactured Housing Board may adopt temporary rules regarding continuing education course approval under G.S. 143-143.11B(c). After having the proposed temporary rule published in the North Carolina Register and at least 30 days prior to adopting a temporary rule pursuant to this subsection, the Board shall:

(1) Notify persons on its mailing list maintained pursuant to G.S. 150B-21.2(d) and any other interested parties of its intent to adopt a temporary rule;

(2) Accept oral and written comments on the proposed temporary rule; and

(3) Hold at least one public hearing on the proposed temporary rule.

When the Board adopts a temporary rule pursuant to this subsection, the Board must submit a reference to this subsection as the Board's statement of need to the Codifier of Rules.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Chapter, the Codifier of Rules shall publish in the North Carolina Register a proposed temporary rule received from the Board in accordance with this subsection.

(a7) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (a)(2) of this section, an agency may adopt a temporary rule to implement the provisions of any of the following acts until all rules necessary to implement the provisions of the act have become effective as either temporary or permanent rules:

(1) (Repealed effective July 1, 2002) The North Carolina Rural Redevelopment Authority Act, Part 2D of Article 10 of Chapter 143B of the General Statutes.

(2) (Repealed effective July 1, 2003) Article 34B of Chapter 115C of the General Statutes, relating to qualified zone academy bonds.

(a8) (Expires on June 30, 2003) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (a) of this section, the Secretary of Transportation may adopt temporary rules concerning the permitted height of mobile and modular homes. After having the proposed temporary rule published in the North Carolina Register and at least 30 days prior to adopting a temporary rule pursuant to this subsection, the Secretary shall:

(1) Notify persons on its mailing list maintained pursuant to G.S. 150B-21.2(d) and any other interested parties of its intent to adopt a temporary rule.

(2) Accept oral and written comments on the proposed temporary rule.

(3) Hold at least one public hearing on the proposed temporary rule.

When the Secretary adopts a temporary rule pursuant to this subsection, the Secretary must submit a reference to this subsection as the Secretary's statement of need to the Codifier of Rules.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Chapter, the Codifier of Rules shall publish in the North Carolina Register a proposed temporary rule received from the Secretary in accordance with this subsection.

(a9) (Expires June 30, 2003) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (a) of this section, the Secretary of Transportation may adopt temporary rules pursuant to G.S. 113A-11(b) to establish a class of minimum criteria projects.

After having the proposed temporary rule published in the North Carolina Register, and at least 30 days prior to adopting a temporary rule pursuant to this subsection, the Secretary shall do all of the following:

(1) Notify persons on its mailing list, maintained pursuant to G.S. 150B-21.2(d), and any other interested parties, of his intent to adopt a temporary rule.

(2) Accept oral and written comments on the proposed temporary rule.

(3) Hold at least one public hearing on the proposed temporary rule.

When the Secretary adopts a temporary rule pursuant to this subsection, the Secretary shall submit a reference to this subsection as the Secretary's statement of need to the Codifier of Rules.

(b) Review. — When an agency adopts a temporary rule it must submit the rule and the agency's written statement of its findings of the need for the rule to the Codifier of Rules. Within one business day after an agency submits a temporary rule, the Codifier of Rules must review the agency's written statement of findings of need for the rule to determine whether the statement of need meets the criteria listed in subsection (a) or (a1) of this section. In reviewing the statement, the Codifier of Rules may consider any information submitted by the agency or another person. If the Codifier of Rules finds that the statement meets the criteria, the Codifier of Rules must notify the head of the agency and enter the rule in the North Carolina Administrative Code.

If the Codifier of Rules finds that the statement does not meet the criteria, the Codifier of Rules must immediately notify the head of the agency. The agency may supplement its statement of need with additional findings or submit a new statement. If the agency provides additional findings or submits a new statement, the Codifier of Rules must review the additional findings or new statement within one business day after the agency submits the additional findings or new statement. If the Codifier of Rules again finds that the statement does not meet the criteria listed in subsection (a) or (a1) of this section, the Codifier of Rules must immediately notify the head of the agency.

If an agency decides not to provide additional findings or submit a new statement when notified by the Codifier of Rules that the agency's findings of need for a rule do not meet the required criteria, the agency must notify the Codifier of Rules of its decision. The Codifier of Rules must then enter the rule in the North Carolina Administrative Code on the sixth business day after receiving notice of the agency's decision.

(c) Standing. — A person aggrieved by a temporary rule adopted by an agency may file an action for declaratory judgment in Wake County Superior Court pursuant to Article 26 of Chapter 1 of the General Statutes. In the action, the court shall determine whether the agency's written statement of findings of need for the rule meets the criteria listed in subsection (a) or (a1) of this section and whether the rule meets the standards in G.S. 150B-21.9 that apply to review of a permanent rule. The court shall not grant an ex parte temporary restraining order.

Filing a petition for rule making or a request for a declaratory ruling with the agency that adopted the rule is not a prerequisite to filing an action under this subsection. A person who files an action for declaratory judgment under this subsection must serve a copy of the complaint on the agency that adopted the rule being contested, the Codifier of Rules, and the Commission.

(d) Effective Date and Expiration. — A temporary rule becomes effective on the date specified in G.S. 150B-21.3. A temporary rule expires on the earliest of the following dates:

- (1) The date specified in the rule.
- (2) The effective date of the permanent rule adopted to replace the temporary rule, if the Commission approves the permanent rule.
- (3) The date the Commission returns to an agency a permanent rule the agency adopted to replace the temporary rule.
- (4) The effective date of an act of the General Assembly that specifically disapproves a permanent rule adopted to replace the temporary rule.
- (5) 270 days from the date the temporary rule was published in the North Carolina Register, unless the permanent rule adopted to replace the temporary rule has been submitted to the Commission.

(e) Publication. — When the Codifier of Rules enters a temporary rule in the North Carolina Administrative Code, the Codifier must publish the rule in the North Carolina Register. Publication of a temporary rule in the North Carolina Register serves as a notice of rule-making proceedings for a permanent rule if the permanent rule is substantially the same as the published temporary rule, unless the agency published a notice of rule-making proceedings at least 60 days before it adopted the temporary rule. Editor's Note. — This section was amended by Session Laws 1993, c. 553, s. 54, in the coded bill drafting format provided by § 120-20.1. It has been set out in the form above at the direction of the Revisor of Statutes.

The section above was amended by Session Laws 1999-434, s. 16, and Session Laws 1999-453, s. 5(a). Subdivision (a4) as added by Session Laws 1999-453, s. 5(a), has been redesignated as subdivision (a5) at the direction of the Revisor of Statutes.

Session Laws 1999-453, s. 1, provides that the act shall be known as "The Campaign Reform Act of 1999."

Session Laws 1999-453, s. 11, contains a severability clause.

Session Laws 2000-69, s. 4, in part, provides: "Interpretation of Act.

"(a) Additional Method. This act provides an additional and alternative method for the doing of the things it authorizes and is as supplemental and additional to powers conferred by other laws. Except as otherwise expressly provided, it does not derogate any powers now existing.

"(b) Statutory References. References in this act to specific sections or Chapters of the General Statutes are intended to be references to those sections or Chapters as they may be amended from time to time by the General Assembly.

"(c) Liberal Construction. This act, being necessary for the health and welfare of the people of the State, shall be liberally construed to effect its purposes."

Session Laws 2000-69, s. 4(d) contains a severability clause.

Session Laws 2000-69, s. 5, provides that subdivision (a7)(2), as enacted by s. 3 of the act, is repealed effective July 1, 2003.

Session Laws 2000-148, s. 5, provides that subdivision (a7)(1), as enacted by s. 4 of the act, is repealed effective July 1, 2002.

Session Laws 2001-421, s. 5.3 provides that s. 2.3, which added subsection (a6) of this section, expires June 30, 2002.

Session Laws 2001-421, s. 5.2 is a severability clause.

Session Laws 2001-424, s. 27.17(c), provides that subsection (b), which added subsection (a8) of this section, expires on June 30, 2003.

Session Laws 2001-424, s. 27.22(b), provides that subsection (a), which added subsection (a9) of this section, expires on June 30, 2003.

Session Laws 2001-424, s. 1.2, provides: "This act shall be known as the 'Current Operations and Capital Improvements Appropriations Act of 2001.'"

Neuse River Basin. — Session Laws 1998-221, s. 1.2 provided: "Permanent rule disapproved; temporary rule continued in effect. — Pursuant to G.S. 150B-21.3(b), 15A NCAC 2B.0233 (Neuse River Basin: Nutrient Sensitive Waters Management Strategy: Protection and Maintenance of Riparian Areas with Existing Forest Vegetation), as amended by the Commission and approved by the Rules Review Commission on 19 February 1998, is disapproved as a permanent rule. Notwithstanding G.S. 150B-21.1(d), 15A NCAC 2B.0233 (Neuse River Basin: Nutrient Sensitive Waters Management Strategy: Protection and Maintenance of Riparian Areas with Existing Forest Vegetation), as amended by the Commission effective 22 April 1998, shall remain in effect as a temporary rule until the revised temporary rule required by Section 1.8 of this act becomes effective. The Commission and the Department shall implement temporary rule 15A NCAC 2B.0233 as provided in Section 1.3 of this act."

Session Laws 1998-221, s. 1.12 provided: "Temporary rules authorized. — (a) Notwithstanding G.S. 150B-21.1(a)(2) and 26 NCAC 2C.0102(11), the Commission may adopt temporary rules to implement this Part and to correct other rules related to the Neuse River Nutrient Sensitive Waters (NSW) Management Strategy until 1 October 1999. It is the intention of the General Assembly that the Commission first address the revisions to temporary rule 15A NCAC 2B.0233 required by subdivision (1) of subsection (a) of Section 1.8 of this act and that the Commission adopt all temporary rules required by or necessary to implement this Part no later than 1 April 1999.

"(b) Notwithstanding G.S. 150B-21.1(a)(2) and 26 NCAC 2C.0102(11), the Sedimentation Control Commission may adopt temporary rules to implement Section 1.11 of this act until 1 October 1999. It is the intention of the General Assembly that the Sedimentation Control Commission adopt any temporary rules that may be necessary to implement Section 1.11 of this act no later than 1 April 1999. If the Sedimentation Control Commission determines that adoption of a temporary rule is necessary to implement Section 1.11 of this act, the Sedimentation Control Commission shall proceed, in accordance with Article 2A of Chapter 150B of the General Statutes, with the adoption of a permanent rule to replace the temporary rule. The Sedimentation Control Commission shall require local erosion control programs approved under G.S. 113A-60 to implement the requirements of G.S. 113A-61(b1), as amended by Section 1.11 of this act."

Coastal Energy Facilities. — Session Laws 1998-221, s. 2.1 provided: "Notwithstanding G.S. 150B-21.1(a) and 26 NCAC 2C.0102(11), the Coastal Resources Commission may adopt temporary rules governing coastal energy facilities until 1 July 2005."

Conservation Reserve Enhancement Program. — Session Laws 1998-165, s. 2 provides that the Soil and Water Conservation Commission may adopt temporary rules to implement the Conservation Reserve Enhancement Program. This section shall constitute a recent act of the General Assembly for purposes of G.S. 150B-21.1(a)(2).

Area Mental Health Programs. — Session Laws 1998-212, s. 12.35C(b) provides: "Notwithstanding G.S. 150B-21.1, the Secretary may adopt temporary rules to implement subsection (a) of this section [which amended § 122C-112(a)], provided that the temporary rules shall not become effective until 60 days after the Secretary has provided notice and opportunity for written comment to the general public of the Secretary's intent to adopt temporary rules, the purpose and subject matter of the rules, and the effective date of the rules. Notice and comment shall be through publication in the North Carolina Register, in the print media, and through mailings to area mental health authorities and other appropriate mental health institutions and providers that will be subject to the temporary rules."

Immunization Program. — Session Laws 1998-212, s. 12.52(c), provides in part that the Commission for Health Services may adopt temporary rules to impose upon immunization program providers reasonable reporting requirements with respect to improving immunization program accountability as required by the section.

Session Laws 1998-212, s. 1.1 provides: "This act shall be known as the 'Current Operations Appropriations and Capital Improvement Appropriations Act of 1998.'"

Session Laws 1998-212, s. 30.2 provides: "Except for statutory changes or other provisions that clearly indicate an intention to have effects beyond the 1998-99 fiscal year, the textual provisions of this act apply only to funds appropriated for, and activities occurring during, the 1998-99 fiscal year."

Session Laws 1998-212, s. 30.5 contains a severability clause.

Medicaid. — Session Laws 1999-237, s. 11.12(t) provides that the Department of Health and Human Services may adopt temporary rules according to the procedures established in G.S. 150B-21.1 when it finds that these rules are necessary to maximize receipt of federal funds, to reduce Medicaid expenditures, and to reduce fraud and abuse.

Session Laws 1999-237, s. 1.1 provides: "This act shall be known as the 'Current Operations and Capital Improvement Appropriations Act of 1999.'"

Session Laws 1999-237, s. 30.4 contains a severability clause.

"Best Value." — Session Laws 1999-434, s. 19, provides that the Secretary of Commerce shall implement policies and procedures to ensure "Best Value" Procurement, Solution-Based Procurement, and Government-Vendor Partnership.

Session Laws 1999-434, s. 20, requires the Secretary of Commerce to develop and implement policies, procedures, and/or programs to ensure that personnel receive high quality training in the principles of "Best Value" Procurement, Solution-Based Procurement, Government-Vendor Partnership, contract administration, and project management.

Session Laws 1999-434, s. 21, provides that the Secretary of Commerce shall report to the Joint Select Committee on Information Technology on the implementation of this act on or before April 1, 2000.

Session Laws 1999-434, s. 22, provides that the Joint Select Committee on Information Technology shall study the governance of State government-wide information technology management by the creation of a centralized agency responsible for all technology-related issues. An interim report may be made by the Committee to the 2000 Session of the General Assembly and a final report prior to the convening of the 2001 General Assembly.

Hurricane Floyd Recovery Act. — Session Laws 1999-463, s. 4 authorizes every State agency to adopt temporary rules necessary to implement the provisions of the act, the Hurricane Floyd Recovery Act of 1999, and provides that notwithstanding § 150B-21.1 (a)(2) and 26

NCAC 2C.0102(11), the authority to adopt temporary rules to implement the provisions of the act shall continue in effect until all rules necessary to implement the provisions of the act have become effective as either temporary rules or permanent rules. Notwithstanding § 150B-21.1 (d), a temporary rule adopted to implement the provisions of the act shall specify the date on which the rule will expire and shall continue in effect until that date. Any agency that adopts a temporary rule to implement the provisions of the act shall report the text of the rule and the agency's written statement of its findings of the need for the rule to the Joint Legislative Administrative Procedure Oversight Committee within 30 days of the adoption of the temporary rule. Section 4 applies to the adoption of temporary rules by the Department of Administration under § 113A-11 (a) and to the adoption of temporary rules that establish minimum criteria by any State agency, as defined in § 113A-9, under § 113A-11 (b).

Adult Care Homes—Short-Term Admission. — Session Laws 2000-50, s. 2, provides: "Notwithstanding G.S. 150B-21.1(a), the Medical Care Commission shall adopt temporary rules for the purpose of defining the circumstances under which adult care homes may admit residents on a short-term basis for the purpose of caregiver respite and the rules that shall apply during the course of their stay. The Commission's authority to adopt temporary rules under this section expires on the date that permanent rules pertaining to the same subject matter adopted by the Commission as authorized under G.S. 143B-165(10) become effective."

Mental Health Facilities. — Session Laws 2000-55, s. 6, provides: "Notwithstanding G.S. 150B-21.1(a), the Commission for Mental Health, Developmental Disabilities, and Substance Abuse Services shall adopt temporary rules to implement G.S. 122C-26(5)."

Abuser Treatment Programs. — Session Laws 2000-67, s. 21.5, provides that, notwithstanding the provisions of G.S. 150B-21.1(a), the Department of Administration may adopt temporary rules to approve abuser treatment programs that apply to the North Carolina Council for Women.

Session Laws 2000-67, s. 1.1, provides: "This act shall be known as 'The Current Operations and Capital Improvements Appropriations Act of 2000.'"

Session Laws 2000-67, s. 28.4, contains a severability clause.

Air Quality. — Session Laws 2000-134, s. 21, provides that Session Laws 2000-134, relating to air quality emission inspections, and fund expenditures, constitutes a recent act of the General Assembly within the meaning of G.S. 150B-21.1, and that, notwithstanding G.S. 150B-21.1(a)(2) and 26 NCAC 2C.0102(11), the Environmental Management Commission and the Division of Motor Vehicles of the Department of Transportation may adopt temporary rules to implement the provisions of the act. Section 21 is to continue in effect until all rules necessary to implement the provisions of the act have become effective as either temporary rules or permanent rules.

Tar-Pamlico River Basin. — Session Laws 2001-355, s. 5(b) provides that the Environmental Management Commission may adopt a temporary rule that incorporates the provisions of Sections 2 and 3 of the act (providing for implementation of the Tar-Pamlico River Basin-Nutrient Sensitive Waters Management Strategy; Agricultural Nutrient Control Strategy, as adopted by the Environmental Management Commission on 12 October 2000 and approved by the Rules Review Commission on 20 November 2000, to become effective on 1 September 2001). Notwithstanding G.S. 150B-21.1(d), a temporary rule adopted in accordance with s. 5(b) shall remain in effect until a temporary or permanent rule adopted to replace the temporary rule becomes effective.

Neonatal Care Beds. — Session Laws 2001-410, s. 2, effective September 14, 2001, and expiring 180 days from that date, provides: “Notwithstanding G.S. 150B-21.1(a), the Medical Care Commission shall adopt temporary rules setting forth conditions for licensing all levels of neonatal care beds. After having the proposed temporary rules published in the North Carolina Register and at least 30 days prior to adopting any temporary rules pursuant to this section, the Commission shall:

“(2) Accept oral and written comments on the proposed temporary rules.

“(3) Hold at least one public hearing on the proposed temporary rules. When the Commission adopts temporary rules pursuant to this section, the Commission shall submit a reference to this section as the Commission’s statement of need to the Codifier of Rules. The Codifier of Rules shall review the Commission’s proposed temporary rules in accordance with G.S. 150B-21.1(b).

“When the Commission adopts temporary rules pursuant to this section, the Commission shall submit a reference to this section as the Commission’s statement of need to the Codifier of Rules. The Codifier of Rules shall review the

Medicaid — Temporary Rules. — Session Laws 2001-424, s. 21.19(t) provides: “The Department of Health and Human Services may adopt temporary rules according to the procedures established in G.S. 150B-21.1 when it finds that these rules are necessary to maximize receipt of federal funds within existing State appropriations, to reduce Medicaid expenditures, and to reduce fraud and abuse. Prior to the filing of these temporary rules with the Office of Administrative Hearings, the Department shall consult with the Office of State Budget and Management on the possible fiscal impact of the temporary rule and its effect on State appropriations and local governments.

Medical Coverage Policy Under State Medicaid Program. — Session Laws 2001-424, s. 21.20(a) provides: “(a) In order to promote consistency among providers and to ensure that medical coverage criteria are uniformly applied to Medicaid recipients throughout the State, the Department of Health and Human Services shall adopt medical coverage policies for the State Medicaid Program that are consistent with national standards or Department-defined standards. If the Department determines that application of a national standard would likely cause significant deterioration in the quality of or access to appropriate medical care, then the Department shall substitute for that national standard an evidence-based, best-practice standard that will not compromise quality of or access to appropriate medical care. The adoption of new or amended medical coverage policies under the State Medicaid Program are exempt from the rule-making requirements of Chapter 150B of the General Statutes.”

Session Laws 2001-424, s. 21.20(b) sets out criteria for the development, amendment and adoption of medical coverage policy.

Reorganization of Human Resources Development Program. — Session Laws 2001-424, ss. 30.3(a) to (e), provide:

“(a) The State Board of Community Colleges shall establish a committee to develop and recommend to the Board a core series of employability skills training classes that should be coded in the Continuing Education Master Course List as Human Resources Development.

“(b) The State Board of Community Colleges may waive tuition and fees for enrollment in classes coded in the Continuing Education Master Course List as Human Resources Development if the individual enrolling:

“(1) Is unemployed;

“(2) Has received notification of a pending layoff;

“(3) Is working and is eligible for the Federal Earned Income Tax Credit (FEITC); or “(4) Is working and earning wages at or below

two hundred percent (200%) of the federal poverty guidelines.

"Individuals for whom tuition and fees are waived must sign a form adopted by the State Board of Community Colleges verifying that they meet one of these criteria.

"(c) The State Board of Community Colleges shall study the feasibility of integrating the delivery of human resources development services into the frame work of the JobLink Career Centers. The Board shall report its recommendations to the Joint Legislative Education Oversight Committee by May 1, 2002.

"(d) The State Board of Community Colleges shall report to the Joint Legislative Education Oversight Committee on its reorganization of the Human Resources Development Program by January 1, 2003.

"(e) The State Board of Community Colleges may adopt temporary rules to implement reorganization of the Human Resources Development Program."

Open-End Design Agreements for Wetland, Stream, and Buffer Projects. — Session Laws 2001-442, ss. 6(a) to (c), provide: "(a) This act [Session Laws 2001-442] constitutes a recent act of the General Assembly within the meaning of G.S. 150B-21.1.

"(b) Notwithstanding G.S.150B-21.1(a)(2) and 26 NCAC 2C.0102(11), the Environmental Management Commission may adopt temporary rules to implement this act [Session Laws 2001-422] until 1 July 2002. Prior to the adoption of a temporary rule under this section [s. 6 of Session Laws 2001-442], the Commission shall publish a notice of intent to adopt a temporary rule in the North Carolina Register. The notice shall set out the text of the proposed temporary rule and include the name of the person to whom questions and written comment on the proposed temporary rule may be submitted. The Commission shall accept written comment on the proposed temporary rule for at least 30 days after the notice of intent to adopt a temporary rule is published in the North Carolina Register.

"(c) Notwithstanding G.S.150B-21.1(a)(2) and 26 NCAC 2C.0102(11), the State Building Commission may adopt temporary rules to authorize open-end design agreements for design and construction of wetland, stream, and buffer creation, mitigation, and restoration projects. Prior to the adoption of a temporary rule under this section [s. 6 of Session Laws 2001-442], the Commission shall publish a notice of intent to adopt a temporary rule in the North Carolina Register. The notice shall set out the text of the proposed temporary rule and include the name of the person to whom questions and written comment on the proposed temporary rule may be submitted. The Commission shall accept written comment on the proposed temporary rule for at least 30 days after the notice of intent to adopt a temporary rule is published in the North Carolina Register. The State Building Commission is authorized to adopt temporary rules under this section [s. 6 of Session Laws 2001-442] until 1 July 2002."

Trust Funds. — Session Laws 2001-487, s. 124, provides: "Notwithstanding G.S. 150B-21.1(a)(2), the Health and Wellness Trust Fund Commission and the Tobacco Trust Fund Commission shall have the authority to adopt temporary rules as a recent act of the General Assembly through June 30, 2002, in order to adopt rules as authorized in S.L. 2000-147."

Buffer Requirement. — Session Laws 2001-494, s. 3, provides: "The Coastal Resources Commission may adopt a temporary rule to amend 15A NCAC 7H.0209 that incorporates the provision of Section 1 of this act [s. 1 of Session Laws 2001-494, relating to the 30 foot buffer requirement along public trust and estuarine waters]. Notwithstanding G.S. 150B-21.1(d), a temporary rule adopted in accordance with this section [s. 1 of Session Laws 2001-494] shall remain in effect until the permanent rule that incorporates the temporary rule becomes effective. Notwithstanding G.S. 150B-21.1(a)(2), this act [Session Laws 2001-494] shall not be construed to authorize the adoption of temporary rules except as specifically provided in this section [s. 1 of Session Laws 2001-494]."

Motor Vehicle Emissions. — Session Laws 2001-504, s. 19, provides: "This act constitutes a recent act of the General Assembly within the meaning of G.S. 150B-21.1. Notwithstanding G.S. 150B-21.1(a) (2) and 26 NCAC 2C.0102(11), the Environmental Management Commission and the Division of Motor Vehicles of the Department of Transportation may adopt temporary rules to implement the provisions of this act. This section [s. 19 of Session Laws 2001-504] shall continue in effect until all rules necessary to implement the provisions of this act have become effective as either temporary rules or permanent rules."

Effect of Amendments. — Session Laws 1999-434, s. 16, effective January 1, 2000, added subsection (a4).

Session Laws 1999-453, s. 5(a), effective August 12, 1999, and applicable to rules adopted by the State Board of Elections on or after that date, added subsection (a5).

Session Laws 2000-69, s. 3, effective June 30, 2000, added subsection (a7). See editor's note for repeal of subdivision (a7)(2).

Session Laws 2000-148, s. 4, effective July 1, 2000, added present subdivision (a7)(1), and in subdivision (a7)(2), added "relating to qualified zone academy bonds." See editors's note for repeal of subdivision (a7)(1).

Session Laws 2001-126, s. 12, effective May 25, 2001, in subsection (a2), added the language beginning "and to adopt Uniform Statements of Policy” at the end of first sentence of the introductory language and substituted “Codifier” for “Codifer” in the last paragraph of that subsection.

Session Laws 2001-421, s. 2.3, effective September 22, 2001, added subsection (a6). For expiration provision, see the editor’s note.

Session Laws 2001-424, ss. 27.17(b) and 27.22(a), effective July 1, 2001, added subsections (a8) and (a9). For expiration date, see editor’s notes.

Session Laws 2001-487, s. 21(g), effective December 16, 2001, substituted “the Officer” for “the Secretary” throughout subsection (a4); in the introductory language of subsection (a4), substituted “the State Chief Information Officer” for “the Secretary of Commerce” and “Article 3D of Chapter 147” for “Part 16 of Article 10 of Chapter 143B”; and substituted “the Officer’s statement” for “the Secretary’s statement” in subdivision (a4)(4).

CASE NOTES

Editor’s Note. — The cases below were decided under corresponding provisions of former Article 2.

Rules Not Exempt from Notice and Comment Requirements of Chapter 113A. — Temporary rule issued under this section failed to comply with Coastal Area Management Act’s (CAMA’s) (§ 113A-101 et seq.) notice and comment provisions; the mandatory provisions of this chapter complement the procedural safeguards in the CAMA; the temporary rule provisions of this section exempt agencies only from the notice and comment requirements of this chapter; clearly, the General Assembly did not intend that the Commission use temporary rules promulgated under this chapter to circumvent public review and comment on major projects that could affect the State’s coastal resources. Conservation Council v. Haste, 102

N.C. App. 411, 402 S.E.2d 447 (1991).

Failure to Address Merits of Claim. — Where petitioners argued that the North Carolina Coastal Resources Commission (CRC) failed to comply with the procedures for adopting a temporary rule under this section, vice-chairman’s order was arbitrary and capricious because it required petitioners to specifically allege that the CRC either acted arbitrarily and capriciously or abused its discretion; this finding did not address the merits of petitioners’ claim and imposed on petitioners an additional burden that § 113A-121.1(b) did not require. Conservation Council v. Haste, 102 N.C. App. 411, 402 S.E.2d 447 (1991).

Applied in North Carolina Chiropractic Ass’n v. North Carolina State Bd. of Educ., 122 N.C. App. 122, 468 S.E.2d 539 (1996).

§ 150B-21.2. Procedure for adopting a permanent rule.

(a) Steps. — Before an agency adopts a permanent rule, it must take the following actions:

- (1) Publish a notice of rule-making proceedings in the North Carolina Register, unless the proposed rule is substantially the same as a temporary rule published in the North Carolina Register.
- (2) When required by G.S. 150B-21.4, prepare or obtain a fiscal note for the proposed rule.
- (3) Publish the text of the proposed rule in the North Carolina Register.
- (4) When required by subsection (e) of this section, hold a public hearing on the proposed rule after publication of the proposed text of the rule.
- (5) Accept oral or written comments on the proposed rule as required by subsection (f) of this section.

(b) Notice of Rule-Making Proceedings. — A notice of rule-making proceedings published in the North Carolina Register must include all of the following:

- (1) A statement of the subject matter of the proposed rule making.
- (2) A short explanation of the reason for the proposed action.
- (3) A citation to the law that gives the agency the authority to adopt a rule on the subject matter of the proposed rule making.
- (4) The person to whom questions or written comments may be submitted on the subject matter of the proposed rule making.

Publication in the North Carolina Register of an agency’s rule-making agenda satisfies the requirements of this subsection if the agenda includes the information required by this subsection.

(c) Text After Notice of Rule-Making Proceedings. — A notice of the proposed text of a rule must include all of the following:

- (1) The text of the proposed rule.
- (2) A short explanation of the reason for the proposed rule.
- (3) A citation to the law that gives the agency the authority to adopt the rule.
- (4) The proposed effective date of the rule.
- (5) The date, time, and place of any public hearing scheduled on the rule.
- (6) Instructions on how a person may demand a public hearing on a proposed rule if the notice does not schedule a public hearing on the proposed rule and subsection (e) of this section requires the agency to hold a public hearing on the proposed rule when requested to do so.
- (7) The period of time during which and the person to whom written comments may be submitted on the proposed rule.
- (8) If a fiscal note has been prepared for the rule, a statement that a copy of the fiscal note can be obtained from the agency.

An agency shall not publish the proposed text of a rule until at least 60 days after the date the notice of rule-making proceedings for the proposed rule was published in the North Carolina Register.

(d) Mailing List. — An agency must maintain a mailing list of persons who have requested notice of rule making. When an agency publishes in the North Carolina Register a notice of rule-making proceedings or the text of a proposed rule, it must mail a copy of the notice or text to each person on the mailing list who has requested notice of rule-making proceedings on the subject matter described in the notice or the rule affected. An agency may charge an annual fee to each person on the agency's mailing list to cover copying and mailing costs.

(e) Hearing. — An agency must hold a public hearing on a rule it proposes to adopt if the agency publishes the text of the proposed rule in the North Carolina Register and all the following apply:

- (1) The notice of text does not schedule a public hearing on the proposed rule.
- (2) The agency receives a written request for a public hearing on the proposed rule within 15 days after the notice of text is published.
- (3) The proposed text is not a changed version of proposed text the agency previously published in the course of rule-making proceedings but did not adopt.

An agency may hold a public hearing on a proposed rule in other circumstances. When an agency is required to hold a public hearing on a proposed rule or decides to hold a public hearing on a proposed rule when it is not required to do so, the agency must publish in the North Carolina Register a notice of the date, time, and place of the public hearing. The hearing date of a public hearing held after the agency publishes notice of the hearing in the North Carolina Register must be at least 15 days after the date the notice is published.

(f) Comments. — An agency must accept comments on a notice of proposed rule-making proceedings published in the North Carolina Register until the text of the proposed rule that results from the notice is published. An agency must accept comments on the text of a proposed rule that is published in the North Carolina Register and that requires a fiscal note under G.S. 150B-21.4(b1) for at least 60 days after the text is published or until the date of any public hearing held on the proposed rule, whichever is longer. An agency must accept comments on the text of any other proposed rule published in the North Carolina Register for at least 30 days after the text is published or until the date of any public hearing held on the proposed rule, whichever is longer. An agency must consider fully all written and oral comments received.

(g) Adoption. — An agency shall not adopt a rule until the time for commenting on the proposed text of the rule has elapsed and shall not adopt a rule if more than 12 months have elapsed since the end of the time for commenting on the proposed text of the rule. An agency shall not adopt a rule that differs substantially from the text of a proposed rule published in the North Carolina Register unless the agency publishes the text of the proposed different rule in the North Carolina Register and accepts comments on the proposed different rule for the time set in subsection (f) of this section.

An adopted rule differs substantially from a proposed rule if it does one or more of the following:

- (1) Affects the interests of persons who, based on either the notice of rule-making proceedings or the proposed text of the rule published in the North Carolina Register, could not reasonably have determined that the rule would affect their interests.
- (2) Addresses a subject matter or an issue that is not addressed in the proposed text of the rule.
- (3) Produces an effect that could not reasonably have been expected based on the proposed text of the rule.

When an agency adopts a rule, it shall not take subsequent action on the rule without following the procedures in this Part.

(h) Explanation. — An agency must issue a concise written statement explaining why the agency adopted a rule if, within 30 days after the agency adopts the rule, a person asks the agency to do so. The explanation must state the principal reasons for and against adopting the rule and must discuss why the agency rejected any arguments made or considerations urged against the adoption of the rule.

(i) Record. — An agency must keep a record of a rule-making proceeding. The record must include all written comments received, a transcript or recording of any public hearing held on the rule, and any written explanation made by the agency for adopting the rule. (1973, c. 1331, s. 1; 1975, 2nd Sess., c. 983, s. 63; 1977, c. 915, s. 2; 1983, c. 927, ss. 3, 7; 1985, c. 746, s. 1; 1985 (Reg. Sess., 1986), c. 1022, s. 1(1), (7); 1987, c. 285, ss. 7-9; 1989, c. 5, s. 1; 1991, c. 418, s. 1; 1995, c. 507, s. 27.8(d); 1996, 2nd Ex. Sess., c. 18, s. 7.10(e).)

Editor’s Note. — Session Laws 1986, Extra Session, c. 2, effective February 18, 1986, s. 1 provided: “Prior to the first publication of the North Carolina Register the notice of publication requirements of G.S. 150B-12(c) [now repealed] are met if an agency publishes in one or more newspapers of general circulation notice which includes:

(1) A reference to the statutory authority under which the action is proposed.

(2) The time and place of the public hearing and a statement of the manner in which data, views, and arguments may be submitted to the agency either at the hearing or at other times by any person.

(3) A statement of the terms or substance of the proposed rule or a description of the subjects and issues involved, and the proposed effective date of the rule.”

Notice Provisions of Other Statutes Controlled over Former § 150A-12. — See opinion of Attorney General to Mr. Gary K. Berman, Administrative Procedures Office, Department of Human Resources, 45 N.C.A.G. 217 (1976), issued under corresponding provisions of former Chapter 150A.

§ 150B-21.3. Effective date of rules.

(a) Temporary Rule. — A temporary rule becomes effective on the date the Codifier of Rules enters the rule in the North Carolina Administrative Code.

(b) Permanent Rule. — A permanent rule approved by the Commission becomes effective on the earlier of the thirty-first legislative day or the day of adjournment of the next regular session of the General Assembly that begins at least 25 days after the date the Commission approved the rule, unless a different effective date applies under this section. If a bill that specifically disapproves the rule is introduced in either house of the General Assembly before the thirty-first legislative day of that session, the rule becomes effective on the earlier of either the day an unfavorable final action is taken on the bill or the day that session of the General Assembly adjourns without ratifying a bill that specifically disapproves the rule. If the agency adopting the rule specifies a later effective date than the date that would otherwise apply under this subsection, the later date applies. A permanent rule that is not approved by the Commission or that is specifically disapproved by a bill enacted into law before it becomes effective does not become effective.

A bill specifically disapproves a rule if it contains a provision that refers to the rule by appropriate North Carolina Administrative Code citation and states that the rule is disapproved. Notwithstanding any rule of either house of the General Assembly, any member of the General Assembly may introduce a bill during the first 30 legislative days of any regular session to disapprove a rule that has been approved by the Commission and that either has not become effective or has become effective by executive order under subsection (c) of this section.

(c) Executive Order Exception. — The Governor may, by executive order, make effective a permanent rule that has been approved by the Commission and has not become effective under subsection (b) of this section upon finding that it is necessary that the rule become effective in order to protect public health, safety, or welfare. A rule made effective by executive order becomes effective on the date the order is issued or at a later date specified in the order. When the Codifier of Rules enters in the North Carolina Administrative Code a rule made effective by executive order, the entry must reflect this action.

A rule that is made effective by executive order remains in effect unless it is specifically disapproved by the General Assembly in a bill enacted into law on or before the day of adjournment of the regular session of the General Assembly that begins at least 25 days after the date the executive order is issued. A rule that is made effective by executive order and that is specifically disapproved by a bill enacted into law is repealed as of the date specified in the bill. If a rule that is made effective by executive order is not specifically disapproved by a bill enacted into law within the time set by this subsection, the Codifier of Rules must note this in the North Carolina Administrative Code.

(d) Legislative Day and Day of Adjournment. — As used in this section:

- (1) A "legislative day" is a day on which either house of the General Assembly convenes in regular session.
- (2) The "day of adjournment" of a regular session held in an odd-numbered year is the day the General Assembly adjourns by joint resolution for more than 10 days.

(3) The “day of adjournment” of a regular session held in an even-numbered year is the day the General Assembly adjourns sine die.

(e) OSHA Standard. — A permanent rule concerning an occupational safety and health standard that is adopted by the Occupational Safety and Health Division of the Department of Labor and is identical to a federal regulation promulgated by the Secretary of the United States Department of Labor becomes effective on the date the Division delivers the rule to the Codifier of Rules, unless the Division specifies a later effective date. If the Division specifies a later effective date, the rule becomes effective on that date.

(f) Technical Change. — A permanent rule for which no notice or hearing is required under G.S. 150B-21.5(a)(1) through (a)(5) or G.S. 150B-21.5(b) becomes effective on the first day of the month following the month the rule is approved by the Rules Review Commission. (1991, c. 418, s. 1; 1995, c. 507, s. 27.8(e); 1995 (Reg. Sess., 1996), c. 742, s. 43; 1996, 2nd Ex. Sess., c. 18, s. 7.10(f); 1997-34, s. 3; 2001-487, s. 80(b).)

Cross References. — For section regarding rulemaking to implement ABC plan, see G.S. 115C-17.

Editor’s Note. — Session Laws 1996, Second Extra Session, c. 18, s. 27.36, provides: “G.S. 150B-21.3(c) does not apply to a rule that extends the data set in 15A NCAC 13B.1627(c)(10)(A) for closure of a municipal solid waste landfill facility beyond January 1, 2000.”

Session Laws 1999-237, s. 11.30 provides that, notwithstanding G.S. 150B-21.3(b), Administrative Rules 10 NCAC 41S and 41T, adopted by the Social Services Commission on January 13, 1999, and approved by the Rules Review Commission on February 18, 1999, and Administrative Rules 10 NCAC 41E, 41G, and 41R, repealed by the Social Services Commission on January 13, 1999, and approved by the Rules Review Commission on February 18, 1999, become effective July 1, 1999.

Session Laws 2000-172, s. 2.2, as amended by Session Laws 2000-140, s. 92.1(b), provides that notwithstanding G.S. 150B-21.3(a) and 25 NCAC 2C.0102(11), the Coastal Resources Commission shall adopt a temporary rule to establish use standards for waterfront development in urban areas to replace G.S. 113A-120.2 when it expires. The temporary rule shall become effective April 1, 2000, and shall remain in effect until a permanent rule that replaces the temporary rule becomes effective.

Session Laws 2000-142, s. 3, provides that, notwithstanding G.S. 150B-21.3(a) and 26 NCAC 2C.0102(11), the Coastal Resources Commission may adopt a temporary rule to establish criteria for exceptions to the regulatory requirement, effective August 1, 2000, of a 30-foot development setback along public trust and estuarine waters to allow construction of residences on previously platted undeveloped lots of 5,000 square feet or less that are located in intensively developed areas and that would otherwise be prohibited under rules adopted by the Commission pursuant to Article 7 of Chapter 113A of the General Statutes. The temporary rule shall become effective upon its adoption by the Commission and shall remain in effect until a permanent rule that replaces the temporary rule becomes effective.

Session Laws 2001-361, s.1, provides: “Notwithstanding G.S. 150-21.3(b), 15 NCAC 2B.0315 (Neuse River Basin), as amended by the Environmental Management Commission on 12 October 2000 and approved by the Rules Review Commission on 16 November 2000, becomes effective 1 July 2004 unless the 2004 Regular Session of the 2003 General Assembly specifically disapproves 15A NCAC 2B.0315 (Neuse River Basin), as amended by the Environmental Commission of 12 October 2000 and approved by the Rules Review Commission on 16 November 2000, by enactment of a bill as provided in G.S. 150B-21.3(b).”

Session Laws 2001-418, ss. 1 to 3, authorize the Coastal Resources Commission to adopt temporary rules to establish additional exceptions to the 30-foot buffer requirement along public trust and estuarine waters in certain circumstances and to allow structural modifications to piers to prevent or minimize storm damage.

Effect of Amendments. — Session Laws 2001-487, s. 80(b), effective December 16, 2001, substituted “enacted into law” for “ratified by the General Assembly” in the last sentence of the first paragraph of subsection (b); and in subsection (c), substituted “enacted into law” for “ratified” in the first sentence and substituted “enacted into law” for “ratified by the General Assembly” twice in the last sentence of the second paragraph.

§ 150B-21.4. Fiscal notes on rules.

(a) State Funds. — Before an agency publishes in the North Carolina Register the proposed text of a permanent rule change that would require the expenditure or distribution of funds subject to the Executive Budget Act, Article 1 of Chapter 143, it must submit the text of the proposed rule change and a fiscal note on the proposed rule change to the Director of the Budget and obtain certification from the Director that the funds that would be required by the proposed rule change are available. The fiscal note must state the amount of funds that would be expended or distributed as a result of the proposed rule change and explain how the amount was computed. The Director of the Budget must certify a proposed rule change if funds are available to cover the expenditure or distribution required by the proposed rule change.

(b) Local Funds. — Before an agency publishes in the North Carolina Register the proposed text of a permanent rule change that would affect the expenditures or revenues of a unit of local government, it must submit the text of the proposed rule change and a fiscal note on the proposed rule change to the Office of the Governor as provided by G.S. 150B-21.26, the Fiscal Research Division of the General Assembly, the Office of State Budget and Management, the North Carolina Association of County Commissioners, and the North Carolina League of Municipalities. The fiscal note must state the amount by which the proposed rule change would increase or decrease expenditures or revenues of a unit of local government and must explain how the amount was computed.

(b1) Substantial Economic Impact. — Before an agency publishes in the North Carolina Register the proposed text of a permanent rule change that would have a substantial economic impact and that is not identical to a federal regulation that the agency is required to adopt, the agency must obtain a fiscal note for the proposed rule change from the Office of State Budget and Management or prepare a fiscal note for the proposed rule change and have the note approved by that Office. If an agency requests the Office of State Budget and Management to prepare a fiscal note for a proposed rule change, that Office must prepare the note within 90 days after receiving a written request for the note. If the Office of State Budget and Management fails to prepare a fiscal note within this time period, the agency proposing the rule change may prepare a fiscal note. A fiscal note prepared in this circumstance does not require approval of the Office of State Budget and Management.

If an agency prepares the required fiscal note, the agency must submit the note to the Office of State Budget and Management for review. The Office of State Budget and Management must review the fiscal note within 14 days after it is submitted and either approve the note or inform the agency in writing of the reasons why it does not approve the fiscal note. After addressing these reasons, the agency may submit the revised fiscal note to that Office for its review. If an agency is not sure whether a proposed rule change would have a substantial economic impact, the agency may ask the Office of State Budget and Management to determine whether the proposed rule change has a substantial economic impact.

As used in this subsection, the term “substantial economic impact” means an aggregate financial impact on all persons affected of at least five million dollars ($5,000,000) in a 12-month period.

(b2) Content. — A fiscal note required by subsection (b1) of this section must contain the following:

- (1) A description of the persons who would be affected by the proposed rule change.
- (2) A description of the types of expenditures that persons affected by the proposed rule change would have to make to comply with the rule and an estimate of these expenditures.
- (3) A description of the purpose and benefits of the proposed rule change.
- (4) An explanation of how the estimate of expenditures was computed.

(c) Errors. — An erroneous fiscal note prepared in good faith does not affect the validity of a rule. (1973, c. 1331, s. 1; 1979, 2nd Sess., c. 1137, s. 41.1; 1983, c. 761, s. 185; 1985, c. 746, s. 1; 1987, c. 827, s. 54; 1991, c. 418, s. 1; 1995, c. 415, s. 2; c. 507, s. 27.8(b); 2000-140, s. 93.1(a); 2001-424, s. 12.2(b).)

Cross References. — For section regarding rulemaking to implement ABC plan, see G.S. 115C-17.

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 2001-424, s. 1.2, provides: "This act shall be known as the 'Current Operations and Capital Improvements Appropriations Act of 2001'."

Session Laws 2001-424, s. 36.5 is a severability clause.

Effect of Amendments. — Session Laws

2000-140, s. 93.1(a), effective July 21, 2000, substituted "Office of State Budget, Planning, and Management" for "Office of State Budget and Management" throughout the section.

Session Laws 2001-424, s. 12.2(b), effective July 1, 2001, substituted "Office of State Budget and Management" for "Office of State Budget, Planning, and Management" in subsection (b) and throughout subsection (b1).

§ 150B-21.5. Circumstances when notice and rule-making hearing not required.

(a) Amendment. — An agency is not required to publish a notice of rule-making proceedings or a notice of text in the North Carolina Register or hold a public hearing when it proposes to amend a rule to do one of the following:

- (1) Reletter or renumber the rule or subparts of the rule.
- (2) Substitute one name for another when an organization or position is renamed.
- (3) Correct a citation in the rule to another rule or law when the citation has become inaccurate since the rule was adopted because of the repeal or renumbering of the cited rule or law.
- (4) Change information that is readily available to the public, such as an address or a telephone number.
- (5) Correct a typographical error in the North Carolina Administrative Code.
- (6) Change a rule in response to a request or an objection by the Commission.

(b) Repeal. — An agency is not required to publish a notice of rule-making proceedings or a notice of text in the North Carolina Register or hold a public hearing when it proposes to repeal a rule as a result of any of the following:

- (1) The law under which the rule was adopted is repealed.
- (2) The law under which the rule was adopted or the rule itself is declared unconstitutional.
- (3) The rule is declared to be in excess of the agency's statutory authority.

(c) OSHA Standard. — The Occupational Safety and Health Division of the Department of Labor is not required to publish a notice of rule-making proceedings or a notice of text in the North Carolina Register or hold a public hearing when it proposes to adopt a rule that concerns an occupational safety and health standard and is identical to a federal regulation promulgated by the Secretary of the United States Department of Labor. The Occupational Safety and Health Division is not required to submit to the Commission for review a rule for which notice and hearing is not required under this subsection.

(d) State Building Code. — The Building Code Council is not required to publish a notice of text in the North Carolina Register when it proposes to adopt a rule that concerns the North Carolina State Building Code. The Building Code Council is required to publish a notice of rule-making proceeding in the North Carolina Register when it proposes to adopt a rule that concerns the North Carolina State Building Code. The Building Code Council is required to submit to the Commission for review a rule for which notice and hearing is not required under this subsection. In adopting a rule, the Council shall comply with the procedural requirements of G.S. 150B-21.3. (1991, c. 418, s. 1; 1995, c. 504, s. 12; 1997-34, s. 4; 2001-141, s. 5; 2001-421, s. 1.3.)

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 2001-421, s. 5.2 is a severability clause.

Effect of Amendments. — Session Laws 2001-141, s. 5, effective May 31, 2001, and applicable to revisions made to the North Carolina State Building Code on or after January 1, 2002, added subsection (d).

Session Laws 2001-421, s. 1.3, effective September 22, 2001, and applicable to revisions made to the North Carolina State Building Code on or after January 1, 2002, amended subsection (d) as enacted by 2001-141, s. 5, by inserting the second sentence.

§ 150B-21.6. Incorporating material in a rule by reference.

An agency may incorporate the following material by reference in a rule without repeating the text of the referenced material:

- (1) Another rule or part of a rule adopted by the agency.
- (2) All or part of a code, standard, or regulation adopted by another agency, the federal government, or a generally recognized organization or association.
- (3) Repealed by Session Laws 1997-34, s. 5.

In incorporating material by reference, the agency must designate in the rule whether or not the incorporation includes subsequent amendments and editions of the referenced material. The agency can change this designation only by a subsequent rule-making proceeding. The agency must have copies of the incorporated material available for inspection and must specify in the rule both where copies of the material can be obtained and the cost on the date the rule is adopted of a copy of the material.

A statement in a rule that a rule incorporates material by reference in accordance with former G.S. 150B-14(b) is a statement that the rule does not include subsequent amendments and editions of the referenced material. A statement in a rule that a rule incorporates material by reference in accordance with former G.S. 150B-14(c) is a statement that the rule includes subsequent amendments and editions of the referenced material. (1973, c. 1331, s. 1; 1975, 2nd Sess., c. 983, s. 64; 1981 (Reg. Sess., 1982), c. 1359, s. 5; 1983, c. 641, s. 3; c. 768, s. 19; 1985, c. 746, s. 1; 1987, c. 285, s. 13; 1991, c. 418, s. 1; 1997-34, s. 5.)

§ 150B-21.7. Effect of transfer of duties or termination of agency on rules.

When a law that authorizes an agency to adopt a rule is repealed and another law gives the same or another agency substantially the same authority to adopt a rule, the rule remains in effect until the agency amends or repeals the rule. When a law that authorizes an agency to adopt a rule is repealed and another law does not give the same or another agency substantially the same authority to adopt a rule, a rule adopted under the repealed law is repealed as of the date the law is repealed.

When an executive order abolishes part or all of an agency and transfers a function of that agency to another agency, a rule concerning the transferred function remains in effect until the agency to which the function is transferred amends or repeals the rule. When an executive order abolishes part or all of an agency and does not transfer a function of that agency to another agency, a rule concerning a function abolished by the executive order is repealed as of the effective date of the executive order.

The Director of Fiscal Research of the General Assembly must notify the Codifier of Rules when a rule is repealed under this section. When notified of a rule repealed under this section, the Codifier of Rules must enter the repeal of the rule in the North Carolina Administrative Code. (1973, c. 1331, s. 1; 1985, c. 746, s. 1; 1991, c. 418, s. 1.)

Part 3. Review by Commission.

§ 150B-21.8. Review of rule by Commission.

(a) Temporary Rule. — The Commission does not review a temporary rule.

(b) Permanent Rule. — An agency must submit a permanent rule adopted by it to the Commission before the rule can be included in the North Carolina Administrative Code. The Commission reviews a permanent rule in accordance with the standards in G.S. 150B-21.9 and follows the procedure in this Part in its review of a permanent rule.

(c) Scope. — When the Commission reviews an amendment to a rule, it may review the entire rule that is being amended. The procedure in G.S. 150B-21.12 applies when the Commission objects to a part of a rule that is within its scope of review but is not changed by a rule amendment. (1991, c. 418, s. 1.)

§ 150B-21.9. Standards and timetable for review by Commission.

(a) Standards. — The Commission must determine whether a rule meets all of the following criteria:

- (1) It is within the authority delegated to the agency by the General Assembly.
- (2) It is clear and unambiguous.
- (3) It is reasonably necessary to fulfill a duty delegated to the agency by the General Assembly, when considered in light of the cumulative effect of all rules adopted by the agency related to the specific purpose for which the rule is proposed and the legislative intent of the General Assembly in delegating the duty.

The Commission may determine if a rule submitted to it was adopted in accordance with Part 2 of this Article. The Commission may ask the Office of State Budget and Management to determine if a rule has a substantial economic impact and is therefore required to have a fiscal note. The Commission must ask the Office of State Budget and Management to make this determination if a fiscal note was not prepared for a rule and the Commission receives a written request for a determination of whether the rule has a substantial economic impact.

The Commission must notify the agency that adopted the rule if it determines that a rule was not adopted in accordance with Part 2 of this Article and must return the rule to the agency. Entry of a rule in the North Carolina Administrative Code after review by the Commission is conclusive evidence that the rule was adopted in accordance with Part 2 of this Article.

(b) Timetable. — The Commission must review a rule submitted to it on or before the twentieth of a month by the last day of the next month. The Commission must review a rule submitted to it after the twentieth of a month by the last day of the second subsequent month. (1991, c. 418, s. 1; 1995, c. 507, s. 27.8(f); 2000-140, s. 93.1(a); 2001-424, s. 12.2(b).)

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 2001-424, s. 1.2, provides: "This act shall be known as the 'Current Operations and Capital Improvements Appropriations Act of 2001'."

Session Laws 2001-424, s. 36.5 is a severability clause.

Effect of Amendments. — Session Laws 2000-140, s. 93.1(a), effective July 21, 2000, substituted "Office of State Budget, Planning, and Management" for "Office of State Budget and Management" in subsection (a).

Session Laws 2001-424, s. 12.2(b), effective July 1, 2001, substituted "Office of State Budget and Management" for "Office of State Budget, Planning, and Management" in two places in the first undesignated paragraph of subsection (a).

§ 150B-21.10. Commission action on permanent rule.

At the first meeting at which a permanent rule is before the Commission for review, the Commission must take one of the following actions:

- (1) Approve the rule, if the Commission determines that the rule meets the standards for review.
- (2) Object to the rule, if the Commission determines that the rule does not meet the standards for review.
- (3) Extend the period for reviewing the rule, if the Commission determines it needs additional information on the rule to be able to decide whether the rule meets the standards for review.

In reviewing a new rule or an amendment to an existing rule, the Commission may request an agency to make technical changes to the rule and may condition its approval of the rule on the agency's making the requested technical changes. (1991, c. 418, s. 1.)

§ 150B-21.11. Procedure when Commission approves permanent rule.

When the Commission approves a permanent rule, it must notify the agency that adopted the rule of the Commission's approval, deliver the approved rule to the Codifier of Rules, and include the text of the approved rule and a summary of the rule in its next report to the Joint Legislative Administrative Procedure Oversight Committee.

If the approved rule will increase or decrease expenditures or revenues of a unit of local government, the Commission must also notify the Governor of the Commission's approval of the rule and deliver a copy of the approved rule to the Governor by the end of the month in which the Commission approved the rule. (1991, c. 418, s. 1; 1995, c. 415, s. 4; c. 507, s. 27.8(g).)

§ 150B-21.12. Procedure when Commission objects to a permanent rule.

(a) Action. — When the Commission objects to a permanent rule, it must send the agency that adopted the rule a written statement of the objection and the reason for the objection. The agency that adopted the rule must take one of the following actions:

- (1) Change the rule to satisfy the Commission's objection and submit the revised rule to the Commission.
- (2) Submit a written response to the Commission indicating that the agency has decided not to change the rule.

(b) Time Limit. — An agency that is not a board or commission must take one of the actions listed in subsection (a) of this section within 30 days after receiving the Commission's statement of objection. A board or commission must take one of these actions within 30 days after receiving the Commission's statement of objection or within 10 days after the board or commission's next regularly scheduled meeting, whichever comes later.

(c) Changes. — When an agency changes a rule in response to an objection by the Commission, the Commission must determine whether the change satisfies the Commission's objection. If it does, the Commission must approve the rule. If it does not, the Commission must send the agency a written statement of the Commission's continued objection and the reason for the continued objection.

(d) Return of Rule. — A rule to which the Commission has objected remains under review by the Commission until the agency that adopted the rule decides not to satisfy the Commission's objection and makes a written request to the Commission to return the rule to the agency. When the Commission returns a rule to which it has objected, it must notify the Codifier of Rules of its action and must send a copy of the record of the Commission's review of the rule to the Joint Legislative Administrative Procedure Oversight Committee in its next report to that Committee. If the rule that is returned would have increased or decreased expenditures or revenues of a unit of local government, the Commission must also notify the Governor of its action and must send a copy of the record of the Commission's review of the rule to the Governor. The record of review consists of the rule, the Commission's letter of objection to the rule, the agency's written response to the Commission's letter, and any other relevant documents before the Commission when it decided to object to the rule. (1991, c. 418, s. 1; 1995, c. 415, s. 5; c. 507, s. 27.8(h), (y).)

§ 150B-21.13. Procedure when Commission extends period for review of permanent rule.

When the Commission extends the period for review of a permanent rule, it must notify the agency that adopted the rule of the extension and the reason for the extension. After the Commission extends the period for review of a rule, it may call a public hearing on the rule. Within 70 days after extending the period for review of a rule, the Commission must decide whether to approve the rule, object to the rule, or call a public hearing on the rule. (1991, c. 418, s. 1.)

§ 150B-21.14. Public hearing on a rule.

The Commission may call a public hearing on a rule when it extends the period for review of the rule. At the request of an agency, the Commission may call a public hearing on a rule that is not before it for review. Calling a public hearing on a rule not already before the Commission for review places the rule before the Commission for review. When the Commission decides to call a public hearing on a rule, it must publish notice of the public hearing in the North Carolina Register.

After a public hearing on a rule, the Commission must approve the rule or object to the rule in accordance with the standards and procedures in this Part. The Commission must make its decision of whether to approve or object to the rule within 70 days after the public hearing. (1991, c. 418, s. 1.)

§ 150B-21.15: Repealed by Session Laws 1995, c. 507, s. 27.8(i), effective December 1, 1995.

§ 150B-21.16. Report to Joint Legislative Administrative Procedure Oversight Committee.

The Commission must make monthly reports to the Joint Legislative Administrative Procedure Oversight Committee. The reports are due by the last day of the month. A report must include the rules approved by the Commission at its meeting held in the month in which the report is due and the rules the Commission returned to agencies during that month after the Commission objected to the rule. A report must include any other information requested by the Joint Legislative Administrative Procedure Oversight Committee. When the Commission sends a report to the Joint Legislative Administrative Procedure Oversight Committee, the Commission must send a copy of the report to the Codifier of Rules. (1995, c. 507, s. 27.8(j).)

Part 4. Publication of Code and Register.

§ 150B-21.17. North Carolina Register.

(a) Content. — The Codifier of Rules must publish the North Carolina Register. The North Carolina Register must be published at least two times a month and must contain the following:

- (1) Temporary rules entered in the North Carolina Administrative Code.
  - (1a) Notices of rule-making proceedings, the text of proposed rules, and the text of permanent rules approved by the Commission. Except with regard to notices of rule-making proceedings, this subdivision does not apply to the North Carolina State Building Code.
- (2) Notices of receipt of a petition for municipal incorporation, as required by G.S. 120-165.
- (3) Executive orders of the Governor.
- (4) Final decision letters from the United States Attorney General concerning changes in laws that affect voting in a jurisdiction subject to section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as required by G.S. 120-30.9H.
- (5) Orders of the Tax Review Board issued under G.S. 105-241.2.
- (6) Other information the Codifier determines to be helpful to the public.

(b) Form. — When an agency publishes notice in the North Carolina Register of the proposed text of a new rule, the Codifier of Rules must publish the complete text of the proposed new rule. In publishing the text of a proposed new rule, the Codifier must indicate the rule is new by underlining the proposed text of the rule.

When an agency publishes notice in the North Carolina Register of the proposed text of an amendment to an existing rule, the Codifier must publish the complete text of the rule that is being amended unless the Codifier determines that publication of the complete text of the rule being amended is not necessary to enable the reader to understand the proposed amendment. In publishing the text of a proposed amendment to a rule, the Codifier must indicate deleted text with overstrikes and added text with underlines.

When an agency publishes notice in the North Carolina Register of the proposed repeal of an existing rule, the Codifier must publish the complete text of the rule the agency proposes to repeal unless the Codifier determines that publication of the complete text is impractical. In publishing the text of a rule the agency proposes to repeal, the Codifier must indicate the rule is to be repealed. (1991, c. 418, s. 1; 1995, c. 507, s. 27.8(k); 2001-141, s. 6; 2001-421, s. 1.4.)

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1985, c. 746, s. 4, effective January 1, 1986, provided: "All personnel and equipment presently assigned to the Department of Justice for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of Article 5, Chapter 150A [recodified as this Article] of the General Statutes, are transferred to the Office of Administrative Hearings by a Type I transfer as defined by G.S. 143A-6(a)."

Session Laws 2001-421, s. 5.2 is a severability clause.

Effect of Amendments. — Session Laws

2001-141, s. 6, effective May 31, 2001, and applicable to revisions made to the North Carolina State Building Code on or after January 1, 2002, added the second sentence of subdivision (a)(1a).

Session Laws 2001-421, s. 1.4, effective October 1, 2001, and applicable to revisions made to the North Carolina State Building Code on or after January 1, 2002, in subsection (a) of this section, as rewritten by Session Laws 2001-141, s. 6, inserted "Except with regard to notices of rule-making proceedings" in subdivision (a)(1a).

§ 150B-21.18. North Carolina Administrative Code.

The Codifier of Rules must compile all rules into a Code known as the North Carolina Administrative Code. The format and indexing of the Code must conform as nearly as practical to the format and indexing of the North Carolina General Statutes. The Codifier must publish printed copies of the Code and may publish the Code in other forms. The Codifier must keep the Code current by publishing the Code in a loose-leaf format and periodically providing new pages to be substituted for outdated pages, by publishing the Code in volumes and periodically publishing cumulative supplements, or by another means. The Codifier may authorize and license the private indexing, marketing, sales, reproduction, and distribution of the Code. The Codifier must keep superseded rules. (1973, c. 1331, s. 1; 1979, c. 69, ss. 3, 7; c. 541, s. 2; c. 688, s. 1; 1979, 2nd Sess., c. 1266, ss. 1-3; 1981 (Reg. Sess., 1982), c. 1359, s. 6; 1983, c. 641, s. 6; 1985, c. 746, s. 1; 1985 (Reg. Sess., 1986), c. 1003, s. 2; c. 1022, s. 1(1), (19); c. 1032, s. 12; 1987, c. 774, ss. 2-4; 1987 (Reg. Sess., 1988), c. 1111, s. 3; 1989, c. 500, s. 43(a); 1991, c. 418, s. 1; 1993 (Reg. Sess., 1994), c. 777, s. 2.)

§ 150B-21.19. Requirements for including rule in Code.

To be acceptable for inclusion in the North Carolina Administrative Code, a rule must:

- (1) Cite the law under which the rule is adopted.
- (2) Be signed by the head of the agency or the rule-making coordinator for the agency that adopted the rule.
- (3) Be in the physical form specified by the Codifier of Rules.
- (4) Have been approved by the Commission, if the rule is a permanent rule. (1973, c. 1331, s. 1; 1979, c. 571, s. 1; 1981, c. 688, s. 14; 1983, c. 927, ss. 6, 9; 1985, c. 746, s. 1; 1985 (Reg. Sess., 1986), c. 1022, s. 1(1); c. 1028, s. 35; 1987, c. 285, s. 16; 1991, c. 418, s. 1; 1995, c. 507, s. 27.8(l).)

§ 150B-21.20. Codifier's authority to revise form of rules.

(a) Authority. — After consulting with the agency that adopted the rule, the Codifier of Rules may revise the form of a rule submitted for inclusion in the North Carolina Administrative Code within 10 business days after the rule is submitted to do one or more of the following:

- (1) Rearrange the order of the rule in the Code or the order of the subsections, subdivisions, or other subparts of the rule.
- (2) Provide a catch line or heading for the rule or revise the catch line or heading of the rule.
- (3) Reletter or renumber the rule or the subparts of the rule in accordance with a uniform system.
- (4) Rearrange definitions and lists.
- (5) Make other changes in arrangement or in form that do not change the substance of the rule and are necessary or desirable for a clear and orderly arrangement of the rule.
- (6) Omit from the published rule a map, a diagram, an illustration, a chart, or other graphic material, if the Codifier of Rules determines that the Office of Administrative Hearings does not have the capability to publish the material or that publication of the material is not practicable. When the Codifier of Rules omits graphic material from the published rule, the Codifier must insert a reference to the omitted material and information on how to obtain a copy of the omitted material.

(b) Effect. — Revision of a rule by the Codifier of Rules under this section does not affect the effective date of the rule or require the agency to readopt or resubmit the rule. When the Codifier of Rules revises the form of a rule, the Codifier of Rules must send the agency that adopted the rule a copy of the revised rule. The revised rule is the official rule, unless the rule was revised under subdivision (a)(6) of this section to omit graphic material. When a rule is revised under that subdivision, the official rule is the published text of the rule plus the graphic material that was not published. (1973, c. 1331, s. 1; 1979, c. 571, s. 1; 1981, c. 688, s. 14; 1983, c. 927, ss. 6, 9; 1985, c. 746, s. 1; 1985 (Reg. Sess., 1986), c. 1022, s. 1(1); c. 1028, s. 35; 1987, c. 285, s. 16; 1987 (Reg. Sess., 1988), c. 1111, s. 23; 1991, c. 418, s. 1; 1997-34, s. 6.)

§ 150B-21.21. Publication of rules of North Carolina State Bar, Building Code Council, and exempt agencies.

(a) State Bar. — The North Carolina State Bar must submit a rule adopted or approved by it and entered in the minutes of the North Carolina Supreme Court to the Codifier of Rules for inclusion in the North Carolina Administrative Code. The State Bar must submit a rule within 30 days after it is entered in the minutes of the Supreme Court. The Codifier of Rules must compile, make available for public inspection, and publish a rule included in the North Carolina Administrative Code under this subsection in the same manner as other rules in the Code.

(a1) Building Code Council. — The Building Code Council shall publish the North Carolina State Building Code as provided in G.S. 143-138(g). The Codifier of Rules is not required to publish the North Carolina State Building Code in the North Carolina Administrative Code.

(b) Exempt Agencies. — Notwithstanding G.S. 150B-1, the North Carolina Utilities Commission must submit to the Codifier of Rules those rules of the Utilities Commission that are published from time to time in the publication titled “North Carolina Utilities Laws and Regulations.” The Utilities Commission must submit a rule required to be included in the Code within 30 days after it is adopted.

Notwithstanding G.S. 150B-1, an agency other than the Utilities Commission that is exempted from this Article by that statute must submit a temporary or permanent rule adopted by it to the Codifier of Rules for inclusion in the North Carolina Administrative Code. These exempt agencies must submit a rule to the Codifier of Rules within 30 days after adopting the rule.

(c) Publication. — A rule submitted to the Codifier of Rules under this section must be in the physical form specified by the Codifier of Rules. The Codifier of Rules must compile, make available for public inspection, and publish a rule submitted under this section in the same manner as other rules in the North Carolina Administrative Code. (1991, c. 418, s. 1; 1997-34, s. 7; 2001-141, s. 7.)

Effect of Amendments. — Session Laws 2001-141, s. 7, effective May 31, 2001, and applicable to revisions made to the North Carolina State Building Code on or after January 1, 2002, inserted “Building Code Council” in the section catchline and added subsection (a1).

§ 150B-21.22. Effect of inclusion in Code.

Official or judicial notice can be taken of a rule in the North Carolina Administrative Code and shall be taken when appropriate. (1973, c. 1331, s. 1; 1985, c. 746, s. 1; 1991, c. 418, s. 1; 1997-34, s. 8.)

CASE NOTES

Editor's Note. — The case below was decided under corresponding provisions of former Chapter 150A.

Judicial Notice of Regulations. — Where promulgating agency is not subject to the Administrative Procedure Act, the court is only required to take judicial notice of its regulations if submitted in accordance with certain procedures designed to insure their accuracy. Southern Ry. v. O'Boyle Tank Lines, 70 N.C. App. 1, 318 S.E.2d 872 (1984).

§ 150B-21.23. Rule publication manual.

The Codifier of Rules must publish a manual that sets out the form and method for publishing a notice of rule-making proceedings and a notice of text in the North Carolina Register and for filing a rule in the North Carolina Administrative Code. (1973, c. 1331, s. 1; 1979, c. 571, s. 1; 1981, c. 688, s. 14; 1983, c. 927, ss. 6, 9; 1985, c. 746, s. 1; 1985 (Reg. Sess., 1986), c. 1022, s. 1(1); c. 1028, s. 35; 1987, c. 285, s. 16; 1991, c. 418, s. 1; 1997-34, s. 9.)

§ 150B-21.24. Free copies of Register and Code.

(a) Register. — The Codifier of Rules must distribute copies of the North Carolina Register as soon after publication as practical, without charge, to the following:

- (1) A person who receives a free copy of the North Carolina Administrative Code.
- (2) Upon request, one copy to each member of the General Assembly.

(b) Code. — The Codifier of Rules must distribute copies of the North Carolina Administrative Code as soon after publication as practical, without charge, to the following:

- (1) One copy to the board of commissioners of each county, to be placed at the county clerk of court's office or at another place selected by the board of commissioners.
- (2) One copy to the Commission.
- (3) One copy to the Clerk of the Supreme Court and to the Clerk of the Court of Appeals of North Carolina.
- (4) One copy to the Supreme Court Library and one copy to the library of the Court of Appeals.
- (5) One copy to the Administrative Office of the Courts.
- (6) One copy to the Governor.
- (7) Five copies to the Legislative Services Commission for the use of the General Assembly.
- (8) Upon request, one copy to each State official or department to whom or to which copies of the appellate division reports are furnished under G.S. 7A-343.1.
- (9) Five copies to the Division of State Library of the Department of Cultural Resources pursuant to G.S. 125-11.7. (1973, c. 1331, s. 1; c. 69, ss. 3, 7; c. 688, s. 1; 1979, c. 541, s. 2; 1979, 2nd Sess., c. 1266, ss. 1-3; 1981 (Reg. Sess., 1982), c. 1359, s. 6; 1983, c. 641, s. 6; 1985, c. 746, s. 1; 1985 (Reg. Sess., 1986), c. 1003, s. 2; c. 1022, s. 1(1), (19); c. 1032, s. 12; 1987, c. 774, ss. 2-4; 1987 (Reg. Sess., 1988), c. 1111, s. 3; 1989, c. 500, s. 43(a); 1991, c. 418, s. 1.)

ceptions of Review of Administrative Action,” see 12 N.C. Cent. L.J. 21 (1980).

CASE NOTES

Editor’s Note. — The case below was decided under corresponding provisions of former Chapter 150A.

Administrative remedies prescribed by environmental regulations were inade- quate where they were not published as required by Article 5 of former Chapter 150A. Orange County Sensible Hwys. & Protected Env’ts, Inc. v. North Carolina Dep’t of Transp., 46 N.C. App. 350, 265 S.E.2d 890 (1980).

§ 150B-21.25. Paid copies of Register and Code.

A person who is not entitled to a free copy of the North Carolina Administrative Code or North Carolina Register may obtain a copy by paying a fee set by the Codifier of Rules. The Codifier must set separate fees for the North Carolina Register and the North Carolina Administrative Code in amounts that cover publication, copying, and mailing costs. All monies received under this section must be credited to the General Fund. (1991, c. 418, s. 1.)

Part 5. Rules Affecting Local Governments.

§ 150B-21.26. Governor to conduct preliminary review of certain administrative rules.

(a) Preliminary Review. — At least 30 days before an agency publishes in the North Carolina Register the proposed text of a permanent rule change that would affect the expenditures or revenues of a unit of local government, the agency must submit all of the following to the Governor for preliminary review:

- (1) The text of the proposed rule change.
- (2) A short explanation of the reason for the proposed change.
- (3) A fiscal note stating the amount by which the proposed rule change would increase or decrease expenditures or revenues of a unit of local government and explaining how the amount was computed.

(b) Scope. — The Governor’s preliminary review of a proposed permanent rule change that would affect the expenditures or revenues of a unit of local government shall include consideration of the following:

- (1) The agency’s explanation of the reason for the proposed change.
- (2) Any unanticipated effects of the proposed change on local government budgets.
- (3) The potential costs of the proposed change weighed against the potential risks to the public of not taking the proposed change. (1995, c. 415, s. 3; c. 507, s. 27.8(w).)

Editor’s Note. — This Part was enacted by Session Laws 1995, c. 415, s. 3, as Part 4 of Article 2A. It has been renumbered as Part 5 at the direction of the Revisor of Statutes.

§ 150B-21.27. Minimizing the effects of rules on local budgets.

In adopting permanent rules that would increase or decrease the expenditures or revenues of a unit of local government, the agency shall consider the timing for implementation of the proposed rule as part of the preparation of the fiscal note required by G.S. 150B-21.4(b). If the computation of costs in a fiscal note indicates that the proposed rule change will disrupt the budget process as set out in the Local Government Budget and Fiscal Control Act, Article 3 of

Chapter 159 of the General Statutes, the agency shall specify the effective date of the change as July 1 following the date the change would otherwise become effective under G.S. 150B-21.3. (1995, c. 415, s. 3; c. 507, s. 27.8(x).)

§ 150B-21.28. Role of the Office of State Budget and Management.

The Office of State Budget and Management shall:

- (1) Compile an annual summary of the projected fiscal impact on units of local government of State administrative rules adopted during the preceding fiscal year.
- (2) Compile from information provided by each agency schedules of anticipated rule actions for the upcoming fiscal year.
- (3) Provide the Governor, the General Assembly, the North Carolina Association of County Commissioners, and the North Carolina League of Municipalities with a copy of the annual summary and schedules by no later than March 1 of each year. (1995, c. 415, s. 3; 2000-140, s. 93.1(a); 2001-424, s. 12.2(b).)

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 2001-424, s. 1.2, provides: "This act shall be known as the 'Current Operations and Capital Improvements Appropriations Act of 2001'."

Session Laws 2001-424, s. 36.5 is a severability clause.

Effect of Amendments. — Session Laws 2000-140, s. 93.1(a), effective July 21, 2000, substituted "Office of State Budget, Planning, and Management" for "Office of State Budget and Management" in the catchline and in the introductory language.

Session Laws 2001-424, s. 12.2(b), effective July 1, 2001, substituted "Office of State Budget and Management" for "Office of State Budget, Planning, and Management" in section catchline and in the introductory paragraph.

ARTICLE 3.

Administrative Hearings.

§ 150B-22. Settlement; contested case.

It is the policy of this State that any dispute between an agency and another person that involves the person's rights, duties, or privileges, including licensing or the levy of a monetary penalty, should be settled through informal procedures. In trying to reach a settlement through informal procedures, the agency may not conduct a proceeding at which sworn testimony is taken and witnesses may be cross-examined. If the agency and the other person do not agree to a resolution of the dispute through informal procedures, either the agency or the person may commence an administrative proceeding to determine the person's rights, duties, or privileges, at which time the dispute becomes a "contested case." (1985 (Reg. Sess., 1986), c. 1022, s. 1(11); 1991, c. 418, s. 16.)

Legal Periodicals. — For note on the Brownfields Property Reuse Act of 1997, see 78 N.C.L. Rev. 1015 (1998).

CASE NOTES

Timely Petition. — Failure to timely petition for a hearing before the Office of Administrative Hearings constituted waiver of any right to that administrative remedy. Citizens for Responsible Road-Ways v. North Carolina DOT, — N.C. App. —, 550 S.E.2d 253, 2001

Petitioner's allegation that he had been "demoted in rank without sufficient cause" stated grounds for his department's action to be deemed "disciplinary" within the meaning and intent of § 126-35 and for his case to be considered "contested" within the meaning and intent of § 126-37(a). Because he had properly pursued all informal procedures mandated by the State Personnel Act and by the North Carolina Administrative Code for the resolution of his grievance, petitioner's appeal also fit the procedural profile of a "contested case" for purposes of its review by the Office of Administrative Hearings under this chapter. Batten v. North Carolina Dep't of Cor., 326 N.C. 338, 389 S.E.2d 35 (1990), overruled on other grounds, Empire Power Co. v. North Carolina Dep't of Env't, Health & Natural Resources, 337 N.C. 569, 447 S.E.2d 168 (1994).

Dispute as "Contested Case." — Wildlife Resources Commission's rejection of sewer district's study and of its request for lower streamflow requirements constituted agency action giving rise to a dispute which ultimately became a "contested case" over which the Office of Administrative Hearings has jurisdiction. Metropolitan Sewerage Dist. v. North Carolina Wildlife Resources Comm'n, 100 N.C. App. 171, 394 S.E.2d 668 (1990).

State Employee's Attempt to Recover for Surgery Costs. — State employee's dispute with the Board of Trustees of the Teachers' and State Employees' Comprehensive Major Medical Plan, an administrative agency, seeking to recover costs of surgery should have been brought under this Chapter. Vass v. Board of Trustees, 89 N.C. App. 333, 366 S.E.2d 1 (1988), modified and aff'd, 324 N.C. 402, 379 S.E.2d 26 (1989).

Applied in North Buncombe Ass'n of Concerned Citizens v. Rhodes, 100 N.C. App. 24, 394 S.E.2d 462 (1990), appeal dismissed, 327 N.C. 484, 397 S.E.2d 215 (1990); Homoly v. North Carolina State Bd. of Dental Exmrs., 125 N.C. App. 127, 479 S.E.2d 215 (1997).

§ 150B-23. Commencement; assignment of administrative law judge; hearing required; notice; intervention.

(a) A contested case shall be commenced by filing a petition with the Office of Administrative Hearings and, except as provided in Article 3A of this Chapter, shall be conducted by that Office. The party who files the petition shall serve a copy of the petition on all other parties and, if the dispute concerns a license, the person who holds the license. A party who files a petition shall file a certificate of service together with the petition. A petition shall be signed by a party or a representative of the party and, if filed by a party other than an agency, shall state facts tending to establish that the agency named as the respondent has deprived the petitioner of property, has ordered the petitioner to pay a fine or civil penalty, or has otherwise substantially prejudiced the petitioner's rights and that the agency:

- (1) Exceeded its authority or jurisdiction;
- (2) Acted erroneously;
- (3) Failed to use proper procedure;
- (4) Acted arbitrarily or capriciously; or
- (5) Failed to act as required by law or rule.

The parties in a contested case shall be given an opportunity for a hearing without undue delay. Any person aggrieved may commence a contested case hereunder.

A local government employee, applicant for employment, or former employee to whom Chapter 126 of the General Statutes applies may commence a contested case under this Article in the same manner as any other petitioner. The case shall be conducted in the same manner as other contested cases under this Article, except that the State Personnel Commission shall enter final decisions only in cases in which it is found that the employee, applicant, or former employee has been subjected to discrimination prohibited by Article 6 of Chapter 126 of the General Statutes or in any case where a binding decision is required by applicable federal standards. In these cases, the State Personnel Commission's decision shall be binding on the local appointing authority. In all other cases, the final decision shall be made by the applicable appointing authority.

(a1) Repealed by Session Laws 1985 (Regular Session, 1986), c. 1022, s. 1(9).

(a2) An administrative law judge assigned to a contested case may require a party to the case to file a prehearing statement. A party's prehearing statement must be served on all other parties to the contested case.

(b) The parties to a contested case shall be given a notice of hearing not less than 15 days before the hearing by the Office of Administrative Hearings. If prehearing statements have been filed in the case, the notice shall state the date, hour, and place of the hearing. If prehearing statements have not been filed in the case, the notice shall state the date, hour, place, and nature of the hearing, shall list the particular sections of the statutes and rules involved, and shall give a short and plain statement of the factual allegations.

(c) Notice shall be given personally or by certified mail. If given by certified mail, it shall be deemed to have been given on the delivery date appearing on the return receipt. If giving of notice cannot be accomplished either personally or by certified mail, notice shall then be given in the manner provided in G.S. 1A-1, Rule 4(j1).

(d) Any person may petition to become a party by filing a motion to intervene in the manner provided in G.S. 1A-1, Rule 24. In addition, any person interested in a contested case may intervene and participate in that proceeding to the extent deemed appropriate by the administrative law judge.

(e) All hearings under this Chapter shall be open to the public. Hearings shall be conducted in an impartial manner. Hearings shall be conducted according to the procedures set out in this Article, except to the extent and in the particulars that specific hearing procedures and time standards are governed by another statute.

(f) Unless another statute or a federal statute or regulation sets a time limitation for the filing of a petition in contested cases against a specified agency, the general limitation for the filing of a petition in a contested case is 60 days. The time limitation, whether established by another statute, federal statute, or federal regulation, or this section, shall commence when notice is given of the agency decision to all persons aggrieved who are known to the agency by personal delivery or by the placing of the notice in an official depository of the United States Postal Service wrapped in a wrapper addressed to the person at the latest address given by the person to the agency. The notice shall be in writing, and shall set forth the agency action, and shall inform the persons of the right, the procedure, and the time limit to file a contested case petition. When no informal settlement request has been received by the agency prior to issuance of the notice, any subsequent informal settlement request shall not suspend the time limitation for the filing of a petition for a contested case hearing. ### CASE NOTES

Editor’s Note. — Some of the cases below were decided under corresponding provisions of former Chapter 150A, or under this Chapter prior to the 1991 amendments thereto.

Filing of Petition for “Contested Case” Hearing. — The language of § 131E-188(a) leaves no room for judicial construction. The statute clearly contemplates that a petition for a contested case hearing must be filed — not mailed or served — with the Office of Administrative Hearings within the 30-day deadline. Gummels v. North Carolina Dep’t of Human Resources, 98 N.C. App. 675, 392 S.E.2d 113 (1990).

Under the 1986 version of § 131E-188(a) in effect at time of petitioner’s request for a contested case hearing, request was timely “filed” with the Division of Facility Services where it was received within 30 days of the contested decision; the version of the subdivision in effect at that time read in pertinent part: “... any affected person shall be entitled to a contested case hearing under Article 3 of Chapter 150A [now Chapter 150B] of the General Statutes, if the department receives a request therefor within 30 days after its decision.” Under the current statutes, a request must be filed within 30 days, not just received. Huntington Manor v. North Carolina Dep’t of Human Resources, 99 N.C. App. 52, 393 S.E.2d 104 (1990).

Construction with Other Laws. — It was within the ALJ’s discretion to dismiss the petition as untimely under the North Carolina Administrative Procedures Act (APA), because although the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA) instructs states to make a free appropriate public education (FAPE) available, it has left to the states the procedural mechanisms for putting the same in place, and application of the APA’s 60-day limitation was not inconsistent with the underlying policies of the IDEA. M.E. v. Board of Educ., 88 F. Supp. 2d 493 (W.D.N.C. 1999).

The court held that the 60-day limitations period in this section is the period associated with § 115C-116 and rejected the idea that North Carolina’s catch-all three-year statute of limitations for statutory actions for which no limitations period is otherwise provided, pursuant to § 1-52(2), constituted a better borrowing choice and one more consistent with federal policies. CM v. Board of Educ., 241 F.3d 374 (4th Cir. 2001), cert. denied, — U.S. —, 122 S. Ct. 48, 151 L. Ed. 2d 18 (2001).

The Administrative Procedure Act does not apply to a case involving the Outdoor Advertising Control Act, §§ 136-126 through 136-140, because there is no statute or administrative rule which requires the Department of Transportation to make an agency decision after providing an opportunity for an adjudicatory hearing, and the subject controversy is therefore not a “contested case” within the meaning of former § 150A-23. National Adv. Co. v. Bradshaw, 48 N.C. App. 10, 268 S.E.2d 816, cert. denied and appeal dismissed, 301 N.C. 400, 273 S.E.2d 446 (1980).

Delay Due to Rehearing Not “Undue.” — The delay caused when the full State Personnel Commission ordered a rehearing of the dismissal case of a Department of Transportation employee after declining to accept the recommendation of the hearing officer that a default be entered against the department for its failure to appear was not an “undue delay” within the meaning of subsection (a) of former § 150A-23, nor such a delay as would allow the Court of Appeals to treat the order for rehearing as a final agency decision under former § 150A-43. Davis v. North Carolina Dep’t of Transp., 39 N.C. App. 190, 250 S.E.2d 64 (1978), cert. denied, 296 N.C. 735, 254 S.E.2d 177 (1979).

Erroneous Assertion of Jurisdiction Tolls Time Limit. — In appropriate circumstances, the 60-day time limitation of subsection (f) may be tolled. Specifically, such tolling is appropriate where a court’s erroneous assertion of jurisdiction brings a dispute over an administrative agency’s ruling into the court which would normally review decisions of that agency, and — in reliance on this assertion of jurisdiction — a party fails to seek administrative review within the statutory time limit. House of Raeford Farms, Inc. v. State ex rel. Env’tl Mgt. Comm’n, 338 N.C. 262, 449 S.E.2d 453 (1994).

The time limitation of subsection (f) of this section was tolled by the superior court’s erroneous assertion of subject matter jurisdiction over respondents' penalty assessment and remained tolled until the court's assertion of jurisdiction was vacated by the Court of Appeals' mandate. The Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH) had subject matter jurisdiction over petitioners' contested case petition, since this petition was timely filed in the OAH following the issuance of the Court of Appeals' mandate. House of Raeford Farms, Inc. v. State ex rel. Env'tl Mgt. Comm'n, 338 N.C. 262, 449 S.E.2d 453 (1994).

Failure to Comply with Time Limitation. — Plaintiffs who did not file a petition for a contested case, under § 115C-116 within the time limit prescribed by this section, abandoned the process and sought relief in the courts without exhausting the available administrative remedies, were therefore barred from seeking relief in federal district court. Glen ex rel. Glen v. Charlotte-Mecklenburg Sch. Bd. of Educ., 903 F. Supp. 918 (W.D.N.C. 1995).

The notice requirements in former § 150A-23 were strictly construed. Parrish v. North Carolina Real Estate Licensing Bd., 41 N.C. App. 102, 254 S.E.2d 268 (1979).

Factual Allegations to Be Specific. — The same rationale applicable in criminal proceedings, that an indictment must charge the offense with sufficient certainty to apprise the defendant of the specific accusation against him so as to enable him to prepare his defense, is applicable to factual allegations in proceedings pursuant to former § 150A-23. Parrish v. North Carolina Real Estate Licensing Bd., 41 N.C. App. 102, 254 S.E.2d 268 (1979).

Notice Held Sufficient to Comply with Due Process. — Notice published in a newspaper and provided to each member of the county board of elections and each candidate whose name appeared on the ballot for a county office, to the effect that a public hearing would be held at a specified time and place to inquire into the processes relative to a general election conducted in the county, particularly the processes involving absentee ballots, was sufficient to comply with due process, it not being necessary for the State Board of Elections to particularize any charges in the notice of public hearing. In re Judicial Review by Republican Candidates, 45 N.C. App. 556, 264 S.E.2d 338, cert. denied, 299 N.C. 736, 267 S.E.2d 672 (1980).

Any variance between notice and proof was insignificant in notice served defendant real estate broker that Commission would present evidence that defendant doctored tapes he used in his defense, since defendant was not surprised nor deprived of an opportunity to present his defense when he attempted to use tapes to defend himself. Watson v. North Carolina Real Estate Comm'n, 87 N.C. App. 637, 362

Notice Held Insufficient to Comply with Due Process. — A notice which failed to inform petitioner of her right to contest the designation of her position as "exempt policymaking," the procedure for contesting the designation, or the time limits for filing her objection to the designation was not sufficient to start the limitation period running. Jordan v. DOT, 140 N.C. App. 771, 538 S.E.2d 623 (2000), cert. denied, 353 N.C. 376, 547 S.E.2d 412 (2001).

Notice Held Insufficient to Comply with Due Process. — Defendants-school systems failed to adequately notify the parents of disabled children, as required by this section, that school authorities had reached a final decision regarding reimbursement of their special educational costs that could be challenged only in a due process hearing, which had to be requested within sixty days; the letters which the schools relied on were written during negotiations with the parents and were not express enough to trigger the limitations period, and distribution of the Handbook of Parents' Rights could not remedy the letters' inadequacies. CM v. Board of Educ., 241 F.3d 374 (4th Cir. 2001), cert. denied, — U.S. —, 122 S. Ct. 48, 151 L. Ed. 2d 18 (2001).

Notice Held Insufficient to Support Suspension of License. — Notice to professional engineer that charges against him involved gross negligence, incompetence or misconduct resulting from his noncompliance with certain statutes and administrative regulations in the preparation and sealing of certain plans was insufficient to support suspension of his license for misconduct in placing his seal on engineering work not prepared under his direction and for gross negligence in sealing the work of another in order to procure planning board approval when he knew that the plans did not conform to the State Building Code. In re Trulove, 54 N.C. App. 218, 282 S.E.2d 544 (1981), cert. denied, 304 N.C. 727, 288 S.E.2d 808 (1982).

Evidentiary Hearing in Contested Case. — The exercise of the right to an evidentiary hearing under the contested case provision of § 131E-188(a) does not commence a de novo proceeding by the administrative law judge (ALJ) intended to lead to a formulation of the final decision pursuant to subsection (a), the ALJ, in a contested case hearing under the certificate of need law and this Act, determines whether the petitioner has met its burden in showing that the agency substantially prejudiced petitioner's rights, and that the agency also acted outside its authority, acted erroneously, acted arbitrarily and capriciously, used improper procedure, or failed to act as required by law or rule, based on a hearing limited to the evidence that is presented or available to the agency during the review period. Britthaven, Inc. v. North Carolina Dep't of Human Resources, 118 N.C. App. 379, 455 S.E.2d 455 (1995).

The administrative hearing provisions of this article do not establish the right of a person "aggrieved" by agency action to Office of Administrative Hearings review of that action, but only describe the procedures for such review. Batten v. North Carolina Dep't of Cor., 326 N.C. 338, 389 S.E.2d 35 (1990), overruled on other grounds, Empire Power Co. v. North Carolina Dep't of Env't, Health & Natural Resources, 337 N.C. 569, 447 S.E.2d 168 (1994).

Compliance with Procedures Required for Jurisdiction. — Because Chapter 126 makes compliance with the procedures of this article mandatory, jurisdiction over a contested case hearing arising under Chapter 126 is not conferred upon the Office of Administrative Hearings unless petitioner follows such procedures. Nailing v. UNC-CH, 117 N.C. App. 318, 451 S.E.2d 351 (1994), cert. denied, 339 N.C. 614, 454 S.E.2d 255 (1995).

No statutory authority exists for the State Personnel Commission to review an administrative law judge's recommended decision in a case involving an exempt employee. Johnson v. Natural Resources & Community Dev., 98 N.C. App. 334, 391 S.E.2d 48 (1990).

Discretionary Intervention Under Former § 150A-23(d). — While § 1A-1, Rule 24 contains specific requirements which control and limit intervention, subsection (d) of former § 150A-23 clearly provides for discretionary intervention by the Commissioner of Insurance by providing that the agency may permit any interested person to intervene "and participate in [the] proceeding to the extent deemed appropriate." This discretionary intervention is without limitation, and the statutory language has been construed to provide intervention broader than the permissive intervention under § 1A-1, Rule 24. State ex rel. Comm'r of Ins. v. North Carolina Rate Bureau, 300 N.C. 460, 269 S.E.2d 538 (1980).

Commissioner of Insurance acted within his discretion in permitting a consumer group to intervene in an automobile insurance rate case and in allowing hearings to be held throughout the State. State ex rel. Comm'r of Ins. v. North Carolina Rate Bureau, 300 N.C. 460, 269 S.E.2d 538 (1980).

Intervention Not Approved. — For purposes of meeting appeal requirements of § 131E-188(b), appellant, proposed intervenor below, was not and could not be a party to the contested hearing at issue below until its motion to intervene was approved. Since this motion was not approved, appellant was not a party to contested case and, therefore, did not meet jurisdictional requirements of § 131E-188(b). HCA Crossroads Residential Centers, Inc. v. North Carolina Dep't of Human Resources, 99 N.C. App. 193, 392 S.E.2d 398 (1990).

Application of Time Limitation to Appeal of Personnel Decisions. — The time limitation contained in subsection (f) applies to appeal of personnel decisions under Chapter 126 that are not covered by § 126-38. Clay v. Employment Sec. Comm'n, 340 N.C. 83, 455 S.E.2d 619 (1995).

Petitioner, an intermittent state employee who alleged discrimination on consideration of his application for state employment, under subsection (f) had sixty days to file his petition for a contested case hearing and this period did not begin to run until petitioner received letter from agency chairman which indicated that no evidence of discrimination existed in the agency's selection. *Clay v. ### OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL

Applicability of Subsection (a). — Subsection (a) of this section, as amended by Session Laws 1987, Chapter 878, is not applicable to agencies governed by Article 3A of this Chapter. See opinion of Attorney General to Mr. Phillip T. Fisher, Executive Director, N.C. Real Estate Commission, 57 N.C.A.G. 85 (1987).

Appeals by applicants and recipients of public assistance or social services from adverse decisions of county agencies or boards are governed by the substantive provisions and procedural requirements of § 108A-79, including the procedural provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act (§ 150B-1 et seq.) consistent with the statute, to the extent that substance and procedure are not in conflict with applicable federal law and regulations. See opinion of Attorney General to Mr. Phillip J. Kirk, Jr., Secretary, Department of Human Resources, 55 N.C.A.G. 91 (1986).

Procedural, Not Substantive Provisions

of Act Applicable to Appeals of County Agency Decisions. — Given the detailed substantive provisions of § 108A-79, designed specifically to apply to appeals of county agency decisions, and the fact that the Administrative Procedure Act (APA), by its terms, does not apply to such appeals, the Legislature, by reference to the APA, did not intend to substitute the Act's substantive requirements for those of § 108A-79. The citation to the APA simply indicates a legislative intent to incorporate the powers of hearing officers and the hearing procedures detailed in the Act into § 108A-79(i) by reference. See opinion of Attorney General to Mr. Phillip J. Kirk, Jr., Secretary, Department of Human Resources, 55 N.C.A.G. 91 (1986).

When a contested case hearing is conducted by an agency governed by Article 3A of this Chapter, a petition or other notice need not be filed with the Office of Administrative Hearings. See opinion of Attorney General to Mr. Phillip T. Fisher, Executive Director, N.C. Real Estate Commission, 57 N.C.A.G. 85 (1987).

§ 150B-23.1. Mediated settlement conferences.

(a) Purpose. — This section authorizes a mediation program in the Office of Administrative Hearings in which the chief administrative law judge may require the parties in a contested case to attend a prehearing settlement conference conducted by a mediator. The purpose of the program is to determine whether a system of mediated settlement conferences may make the operation of the Office of Administrative Hearings more efficient, less costly, and more satisfying to the parties.

(b) Definitions. — The following definitions apply in this section:

- (1) Mediated settlement conference. — A conference ordered by the chief administrative law judge involving the parties to a contested case and conducted by a mediator prior to a contested case hearing.
- (2) Mediator. — A neutral person who acts to encourage and facilitate a resolution of a contested case but who does not make a decision on the merits of the contested case.

(c) Conference. — The chief administrative law judge may order a mediated settlement conference for all or any part of a contested case to which an administrative law judge is assigned to preside. All aspects of the mediated settlement conference shall be conducted insofar as possible in accordance with the rules adopted by the Supreme Court for the court-ordered mediation pilot program under G.S. 7A-38.

(d) Attendance. — The parties to a contested case in which a mediated settlement conference is ordered, their attorneys, and other persons having authority to settle the parties' claims shall attend the settlement conference unless excused by the presiding administrative law judge.

(e) Mediator. — The parties shall have the right to stipulate to a mediator. Upon the failure of the parties to agree within a time limit established by the presiding administrative law judge, a mediator shall be appointed by the presiding administrative law judge.

(f) Sanctions. — Upon failure of a party or a party's attorney to attend a mediated settlement conference ordered under this section, the presiding administrative law judge may impose any sanction authorized by G.S. 150B-33(b)(8) or (10).

(g) Standards. — Mediators authorized to conduct mediated settlement conferences under this section shall comply with the standards adopted by the Supreme Court for the court-ordered mediation pilot program under G.S. 7A-38.

(h) Immunity. — A mediator acting pursuant to this section shall have judicial immunity in the same manner and to the same extent as a judge of the General Court of Justice.

(i) Costs. — Costs of a mediated settlement conference shall be paid one share by the petitioner, one share by the respondent, and an equal share by any intervenor, unless otherwise apportioned by the administrative law judge.

(j) Inadmissibility of Negotiations. — All conduct or communications made during a mediated settlement conference are presumed to be made in compromise negotiations and shall be governed by Rule 408 of the North Carolina Rules of Evidence.

Editor's Note. — Section 7A-38, referred to in this section, was repealed by Session Laws, 1995, c. 500, s. 3.

§ 150B-24. Venue of hearing.

(a) The hearing of a contested case shall be conducted:

- (1) In the county in this State in which any person whose property or rights are the subject matter of the hearing maintains his residence;
- (2) In the county where the agency maintains its principal office if the property or rights that are the subject matter of the hearing do not affect any person or if the subject matter of the hearing is the property or rights of residents of more than one county; or
- (3) In any county determined by the administrative law judge in his discretion to promote the ends of justice or better serve the convenience of witnesses.

(b) Any person whose property or rights are the subject matter of the hearing waives his objection to venue by proceeding in the hearing. (1973, c. 1331, s. 1; 1985, c. 746, s. 1; 1987, c. 878, s. 6.)

§ 150B-25. Conduct of hearing; answer.

(a) If a party fails to appear in a contested case after proper service of notice, and if no adjournment or continuance is granted, the administrative law judge may proceed with the hearing in the absence of the party.

(b) Repealed by Session Laws 1991, c. 35, s. 2.

(c) The parties shall be given an opportunity to present arguments on issues of law and policy and an opportunity to present evidence on issues of fact.

(d) A party may cross-examine any witness, including the author of a document prepared by, on behalf of, or for use of the agency and offered in evidence. Any party may submit rebuttal evidence. (1973, c. 1331, s. 1; 1985, c. 746, s. 1; 1985 (Reg. Sess., 1986), c. 1022, s. 1(13); 1987, c. 878, s. 6; 1991, c. 35, s. 2.)

CASE NOTES

Editor’s Note. — The cases below were decided under corresponding provisions of former Chapter 150A, or under this Chapter prior to the 1991 amendments thereto.

Former § 150A-25 was permissive, not mandatory. Frieson v. North Carolina Real Estate Licensing Bd., 72 N.C. App. 665, 325 S.E.2d 293 (1985).

Subsection (a) of Former § 150A-25 Was Permissive and Not Mandatory. — The language of subsection (a) of former § 150A-25, providing that if a party fails to appear after proper service of notice the agency may proceed and render its decision in the absence of that party, is permissive and not mandatory. Davis v. North Carolina Dep’t of Transp., 39 N.C. App. 190, 250 S.E.2d 64 (1978), cert. denied, 296 N.C. 735, 254 S.E.2d 177 (1979).

Contested Case Hearing Appropriate. — Where parties forecast evidence to support recommendation by the administrative law judge and final agency decision which were contrary, a genuine issue of material fact existed regarding hospital’s application for a certificate of need so that a contested case hearing would be required. Presbyterian-Orthopaedic Hosp. v. North Carolina Dep’t of Human Resources, 122 N.C. App. 529, 470 S.E.2d 831 (1996), discretionary review improvidently allowed, 346 N.C. 267, 485 S.E.2d 294 (1997).

§ 150B-26. Consolidation.

When contested cases involving a common question of law or fact or multiple proceedings involving the same or related parties are pending, the Director of the Office of Administrative Hearings may order a joint hearing of any matters at issue in the cases, order the cases consolidated, or make other orders to reduce costs or delay in the proceedings. (1973, c. 1331, s. 1; 1985, c. 746, s. 1; 1985, (Reg. Sess., 1986), c. 1022, s. 1(1), 1(14).)

§ 150B-27. Subpoena.

After the commencement of a contested case, subpoenas may be issued and served in accordance with G.S. 1A-1, Rule 45. In addition to the methods of service in G.S. 1A-1, Rule 45, a State law enforcement officer may serve a subpoena on behalf of an agency that is a party to the contested case by any method by which a sheriff may serve a subpoena under that Rule. Upon a motion, the administrative law judge may quash a subpoena if, upon a hearing, the administrative law judge finds that the evidence the production of which is required does not relate to a matter in issue, the subpoena does not describe with sufficient particularity the evidence the production of which is required, or for any other reason sufficient in law the subpoena may be quashed.

Witness fees shall be paid by the party requesting the subpoena to subpoenaed witnesses in accordance with G.S. 7A-314. However, State officials or employees who are subpoenaed shall not be entitled to witness fees, but they shall receive their normal salary and they shall not be required to take any annual leave for the witness days. Travel expenses of State officials or employees who are subpoenaed shall be reimbursed as provided in G.S. 138-6. (1973, c. 1331, s. 1; 1975, 2nd Sess., c. 983, s. 66; 1985, c. 746, s. 1; 1987, c. 878, s. 6; 1991, c. 35, s. 3.)

Legal Periodicals. — For comment, “The Problem of Procedural Delay in Contested Case Hearings ...” under the North Carolina APA, see 7 N.C. Cent. L.J. 347 (1976).

CASE NOTES

Editor’s Note. — The case below was decided under corresponding provisions of former Chapter 150A.

One of the purposes of a subpoena duces tecum is to insure that documents are described with sufficient particularity and with such definiteness that they can be identified without prolonged or extensive search. Myers v. Holshouser, 25 N.C. App. 683, 214 S.E.2d 630, cert. denied, 287 N.C. 664, 216 S.E.2d 907 (1975).

§ 150B-28. Depositions and discovery.

(b) On a request for identifiable agency records, with respect to material facts involved in a contested case, except records related solely to the internal procedures of the agency or which are exempt from disclosure by law, an agency shall promptly make the records available to a party. (1973, c. 1331, s. 1; 1985, c. 746, s. 1.)

CASE NOTES

Cited in Davenport v. North Carolina DOT, 3 F.3d 89 (4th Cir. 1993); Eury v. North Carolina Emp. Sec. Comm’n, 115 N.C. App. 590, 446

§ 150B-29. Rules of evidence.

150B-23(a) by a preponderance of the evidence. It shall not be necessary for a party or his attorney to object at the hearing to evidence in order to preserve the right to object to its consideration by the administrative law judge in making a decision, by the agency in making a final decision, or by the court on judicial review.

Effect of Amendments. — Session Laws 2000-190, s. 4, effective January 1, 2001, and applicable to contested cases commenced on or after that date, in subsection (a), inserted the next-to-last sentence and deleted “recommended” following “in making a” in the last sentence.

CASE NOTES

Editor’s Note. — The cases below were decided under corresponding provisions of former Chapter 150A, or under this Chapter prior to the 1991 amendments thereto.

The standard of review, known as the “whole record test,” presents to the trial judge a task which must be distinguished from both de novo review and the any competent evidence standard of review. Goodwin v. Goldsboro City Bd. of Educ., 67 N.C. App. 243, 312 S.E.2d 892, cert. denied, 311 N.C. 304, 317 S.E.2d 680 (1984).

The whole record test is not a tool of judicial intrusion; instead it merely gives a reviewing court the capability to determine whether an administrative decision has a rational basis in the evidence. Thus, the task before the trial court is to consider all the evidence, both that which supports the decision of the board and that which detracts from it. Goodwin v. Goldsboro City Bd. of Educ., 67 N.C. App. 243, 312 S.E.2d 892, cert. denied, 311 N.C. 304, 317 S.E.2d 680 (1984).

The whole record test does not allow the reviewing court to replace the board’s judgment as between two reasonably conflicting views, even though the court could justifiably have reached a different result had the matter been before it de novo. On the other hand, the whole record rule requires the court, in determining the substantiality of evidence supporting the board’s decision, to take into account whatever in the record fairly detracts from the weight of the board’s evidence. Goodwin v. Goldsboro City Bd. of Educ., 67 N.C. App. 243, 312 S.E.2d 892, cert. denied, 311 N.C. 304, 317 S.E.2d 680 (1984).

Under the whole evidence rule, the court may not consider the evidence which in and of itself justifies the board’s result, without taking into account contradictory evidence or evidence from which conflicting inferences could be drawn. Goodwin v. Goldsboro City Bd. of Educ., 67 N.C. App. 243, 312 S.E.2d 892, cert. denied, 311 N.C. 304, 317 S.E.2d 680 (1984).

Standard of Proof. — The standard of proof in administrative matters is by the greater weight of the evidence, and it is error to require a showing by clear, cogent, and convincing evidence. Dillingham v. North Carolina Dep’t of Human Resources, 132 N.C. App. 704, 513 S.E.2d 823 (1999).

Board of Adjustment Not Required to Sound-Record Hearings. — Municipal corporations were specifically excluded from requirements under former § 150A-29 and former § 150A-37 that trial rules of evidence and production of evidence be followed in proceedings before State agencies. Thus, a Board of Adjustment was not required to sound-record its hearings. Washington Park Neighborhood Ass’n v. Winston-Salem Zoning Bd. of Adjustment, 35 N.C. App. 449, 241 S.E.2d 872, cert. denied and appeal dismissed, 295 N.C. 91, 244 S.E.2d 263 (1978).

ceeding before Property Tax Commission, see In re McLean Trucking Co., 281 N.C. 375, 189 S.E.2d 194, rehearing denied, 282 N.C. 156 (1972), cert. denied and appeal dismissed, 409 U.S. 1099, 93 S. Ct. 909, 34 L. Ed. 2d 681 (1973).

Reports of physicians are acceptable as evidence, since an agency may use its experience, technical competence, and specialized knowledge in the evaluation of evidence presented to it. Lackey v. North Carolina Dep't of Human Resources, 306 N.C. 231, 293 S.E.2d 171 (1982).

Burden of Proof on Unemployment Claimant. — Where a claimant for unemployment previously quit her job to retire and was presently claiming to have reentered the labor market, the degree of proof required of the claimant was by the greater weight of the evidence. In re Thomas, 281 N.C. 598, 189 S.E.2d 245 (1972).

§ 150B-30. Official notice.

Official notice may be taken of all facts of which judicial notice may be taken and of other facts within the specialized knowledge of the agency. The noticed fact and its source shall be stated and made known to affected parties at the earliest practicable time, and any party shall on timely request be afforded an opportunity to dispute the noticed fact through submission of evidence and argument. (1973, c. 1331, s. 1; 1985, c. 746, s. 1.)

Legal Periodicals. — For comment, "The Problem of Procedural Delay in Contested Case Hearings ..." under the North Carolina APA, see 7 N.C. Cent. L.J. 347 (1976).

School Board's Dismissal of At-Will Employee Upheld. — It was not arbitrary or capricious, nor an abuse of discretion, for school board to terminate an at-will employee for making a racial comment in a school setting. Cooper v. Board of Educ., 135 N.C. App. 200, 519 S.E.2d 536 (1999).

CASE NOTES

Editor's Note. — The cases below were decided under corresponding provisions of former Chapter 150A and earlier statutes.

One of the purposes behind the creation of administrative agencies was the necessity for the supervision and experience of specialists in difficult and complicated fields. Lackey v. North Carolina Dep't of Human Resources, 306 N.C. 231, 293 S.E.2d 171 (1982).

Reports of physicians are acceptable as evidence, since an agency may use its experience, technical competence, and specialized knowledge in the evaluation of evidence presented to it. Lackey v. North Carolina Dep't of Human Resources, 306 N.C. 231, 293 S.E.2d 171 (1982).

Reliance on Paper Presented in Hearing on Prior Rate Filing. — While it is the better practice to produce a witness in a rate-making hearing rather than to rely on exhibits furnished by the witness in earlier hearings, the Commissioner of Insurance did not commit prejudicial error in a homeowners' insurance rate hearing in taking official notice of a paper presented by a witness in a hearing on a prior rate filing and made a part of the order disapproving the prior filing, where the commissioner gave the rate bureau adequate notice in the notice of public hearing that he would rely on the paper in the present hearing. *State ex rel. § 150B-31. Stipulations.

(a) The parties in a contested case may, by a stipulation in writing filed with the administrative law judge, agree upon any fact involved in the controversy, which stipulation shall be used as evidence at the hearing and be binding on the parties thereto. Parties should agree upon facts when practicable.

(b) Except as otherwise provided by law, disposition may be made of a contested case by stipulation, agreed settlement, consent order, waiver, default, or other method agreed upon by the parties. (1973, c. 1331, s. 1; 1985, c. 746, s. 1; 1987, c. 878, s. 6.)

§ 150B-32. Designation of administrative law judge.

(a) The Director of the Office of Administrative Hearings shall assign himself or another administrative law judge to preside over a contested case.

(a1) Repealed by Sessions Laws 1985 (Regular Session, 1986), c. 1022, s. 1(15).

(b) On the filing in good faith by a party of a timely and sufficient affidavit of personal bias or disqualification of an administrative law judge, the administrative law judge shall determine the matter as a part of the record in the case, and this determination shall be subject to judicial review at the conclusion of the proceeding.

(c) When an administrative law judge is disqualified or it is impracticable for him to continue the hearing, the Director shall assign another administrative law judge to continue with the case unless it is shown that substantial prejudice to any party will result, in which event a new hearing shall be held or the case dismissed without prejudice. (1973, c. 1331, s. 1; 1985, c. 746, s. 1; 1985 (Reg. Sess., 1986), c. 1022, s. 1(1), 1(12), 1(15); c. 1028, s. 40; 1987, c. 878, s. 8.)

§ 150B-33. Powers of administrative law judge.

(a) An administrative law judge shall stay any contested case under this Article on motion of an agency which is a party to the contested case, if the agency shows by supporting affidavits that it is engaged in other litigation or administrative proceedings, by whatever name called, with or before a federal agency, and this other litigation or administrative proceedings will determine the position, in whole or in part, of the agency in the contested case. At the conclusion of the other litigation or administrative proceedings, the contested case shall proceed and be determined as expeditiously as possible.

(b) An administrative law judge may:

- (1) Administer oaths and affirmations;
- (2) Sign, issue, and rule on subpoenas in accordance with G.S. 150B-27 and G.S. 1A-1, Rule 45;
- (3) Provide for the taking of testimony by deposition and rule on all objections to discovery in accordance with G.S. 1A-1, the Rules of Civil Procedure;

- (3a) Rule on all prehearing motions that are authorized by G.S. 1A-1, the Rules of Civil Procedure;
- (4) Regulate the course of the hearings, including discovery, set the time and place for continued hearings, and fix the time for filing of briefs and other documents;
- (5) Direct the parties to appear and confer to consider simplification of the issues by consent of the parties;
- (6) Stay the contested action by the agency pending the outcome of the case, upon such terms as he deems proper, and subject to the provisions of G.S. 1A-1, Rule 65;
- (7) Determine whether the hearing shall be recorded by a stenographer or by an electronic device; and
- (8) Enter an order returnable in the General Court of Justice, Superior Court Division, to show cause why the person should not be held in contempt. The Court shall have the power to impose punishment as for contempt for any act which would constitute direct or indirect contempt if the act occurred in an action pending in Superior Court.
- (9) Determine that a rule as applied in a particular case is void because (1) it is not within the statutory authority of the agency, (2) is not clear and unambiguous to persons it is intended to direct, guide, or assist, or (3) is not reasonably necessary to enable the agency to fulfill a duty delegated to it by the General Assembly.
- (10) Impose the sanctions provided for in G.S. 1A-1 or Chapter 3 of Title 26 of the North Carolina Administrative Code for noncompliance with applicable procedural rules.
- (11) Order the assessment of reasonable attorneys' fees and witnesses' fees against the State agency involved in contested cases decided under Chapter 126 where the administrative law judge finds discrimination, harassment, or orders reinstatement or back pay. (1973, c. 1331, s. 1; 1985, c. 746, s. 1; 1987, c. 878, ss. 5, 9, 10, 26; 1987 (Reg. Sess., 1988), c. 1111, ss. 18, 19; 1991, c. 35, s. 5; 2000-190, s. 5.)

Effect of Amendments. — Session Laws 2000-190, s. 5, effective January 1, 2001, and applicable to contested cases commenced on or after that date, added subdivision (b)(11).

CASE NOTES

Editor's Note. — The cases below were decided under corresponding provisions of former Chapter 150A and earlier statutes, or under this Chapter prior to the 1991 amendments thereto.

Powers Generally. — When an agency of State government determines to use the services of a hearing officer (now administrative law judge), it is former § 150A-33 that prescribes his powers. State ex rel. Comm'r of Ins. v. North Carolina Rate Bureau, 61 N.C. App. 262, 300 S.E.2d 586, cert. denied, 308 N.C. 548, 304 S.E.2d 242 (1983).

Proposal for Decision Required of Hearing Officer (Now Administrative Law Judge). — Under the Administrative Procedure Act, when the services of a hearing officer (now administrative law judge) are used, there must be a "proposal for decision" by the hearing officer. State ex rel. Comm'r of Ins. v. North Carolina Rate Bureau, 61 N.C. App. 262, 300 S.E.2d 586, cert. denied, 308 N.C. 548, 304 S.E.2d 242 (1983).

Administrative Law Judge's Decision Reviewed by Personnel Commission. — The administrative law judge must render a decision on the motion which is presented, but the administrative law judge's ruling is subject to review by the ultimate factfinder, the Personnel Commission. Eury v. North Carolina Emp. Sec. Comm'n, 115 N.C. App. 590, 446 S.E.2d 383, cert. denied, 338 N.C. 309, 451 S.E.2d 635 (1994).

Rate Bureau, 61 N.C. App. 506, 300 S.E.2d 845 (1983).

Commissioner of Insurance Has No Statutory Power to Issue Restraining Orders or Injunctions. — The statutes creating the Department of Insurance and prescribing the powers and duties of the Commissioner do not purport to grant him the power of issuing restraining orders and injunctions. Charlotte Liberty Mut. Ins. Co. v. State ex rel. Lanier, 16 N.C. App. 381, 192 S.E.2d 57 (1972).

But He May Apply to the Courts Therefor. — In administering the laws relative to the insurance industry, the Commissioner, if he deems it necessary, may apply to the courts for restraining orders and injunctions. Charlotte Liberty Mut. Ins. Co. v. State ex rel. Lanier, 16 N.C. App. 381, 192 S.E.2d 57 (1972).

Attempted grant to the Commissioner of Insurance of judicial power to impose a penalty upon an insurance agent for a violation of the insurance laws, varying in the Commissioner's discretion from a nominal sum to $25,000, violated N.C. Const., Art. IV, there being no reasonable necessity for conferring such judicial power upon the Commissioner. State ex rel. Lanier v. Vines, 274 N.C. 486, 164 S.E.2d 161 (1968).

Authority to Determine Validity of Rules. — This section provides that an Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) may determine that a rule as applied in a particular case is void; however, it does not authorize an ALJ to make a final decision with respect to the validity of agency rules. Fearrington v. University of N.C., 126 N.C. App. 774, 487 S.E.2d 169 (1997).

§ 150B-34. Decision of administrative law judge.

(a) Except as provided in G.S. 150B-36(c), and subsection (c) of this section, in each contested case the administrative law judge shall make a decision that contains findings of fact and conclusions of law and return the decision to the agency for a final decision in accordance with G.S. 150B-36. The administrative law judge shall decide the case based upon the preponderance of the evidence, giving due regard to the demonstrated knowledge and expertise of the agency with respect to facts and inferences within the specialized knowledge of the agency. All references in this Chapter to the administrative law judge's decision shall include orders entered pursuant to G.S. 150B-36(c).

(b) Repealed by Session Laws 1991, c. 35, s. 6.

(c) Notwithstanding subsection (a) of this section, in cases arising under Article 9 of Chapter 131E of the General Statutes, the administrative law judge shall make a recommended decision or order that contains findings of fact and conclusions of law. A final decision shall be made by the agency in writing after review of the official record as defined in G.S. 150B-37(a) and shall include findings of fact and conclusions of law. The final agency decision shall recite and address all of the facts set forth in the recommended decision. For each finding of fact in the recommended decision not adopted by the agency, the agency shall state the specific reason, based on the evidence, for not adopting the findings of fact and the agency's findings shall be supported by substantial evidence admissible under G.S. 150B-29(a), 150B-30, or 150B-31. The provisions of G.S. 150B-36(b), (b1), (b2), (b3), and (d), and G.S. 150B-51 do not apply to cases decided under this subsection.

(d) Except for the exemptions contained in G.S. 150B-1(c) and (e), and subsection (c) of this section, the provisions of this section regarding the decision of the administrative law judge shall apply only to agencies subject to Article 3 of this Chapter, notwithstanding any other provisions to the contrary relating to recommended decisions by administrative law judges. (1973, c. 1331, s. 1; 1985, c. 746, s. 1; 1987, c. 878, ss. 5, 23; 1987 (Reg. Sess., 1988), c. 1111, s. 21; 1991, c. 35, s. 6; 2000-190, s. 6.)

ommended decision or order" in the catchline; in subsection (a), inserted "and subsection (c) of this section," substituted "decision that contains" for "recommended decision or order that contains," added "and return the decision to the agency for a final decision in accordance with G.S. 150B-36" and added the last two sentences; and added subsections (c) and (d).

§ 150B-35. No ex parte communication; exceptions.

Unless required for disposition of an ex parte matter authorized by law, neither the administrative law judge assigned to a contested case nor a member or employee of the agency making a final decision in the case may communicate, directly or indirectly, in connection with any issue of fact, or question of law, with any person or party or his representative, except on notice and opportunity for all parties to participate. (1973, c. 1331, s. 1; 1985, c. 746, s. 1; 1987, c. 878, s. 11.)

§ 150B-36. Final decision.

(a) Before the agency makes a final decision, it shall give each party an opportunity to file exceptions to the decision made by the administrative law judge, and to present written arguments to those in the agency who will make the final decision or order. If a party files in good faith a timely and sufficient affidavit of personal bias or other reason for disqualification of a member of the agency making the final decision, the agency shall determine the matter as a part of the record in the case, and the determination is subject to judicial review at the conclusion of the case.

(b) Except as provided in G.S. 150B-34(c) or subsection (d) of this section, a final decision in a contested case shall be made by the agency in writing after review of the official record as defined in G.S. 150B-37(a) and shall include findings of fact and conclusions of law. The agency shall adopt each finding of fact contained in the administrative law judge's decision unless the finding is clearly contrary to the preponderance of the admissible evidence, giving due regard to the opportunity of the administrative law judge to evaluate the credibility of witnesses. For each finding of fact not adopted by the agency and each finding of fact made by the agency that is not contained in the administrative law judge's decision, the agency shall follow the procedures set forth in subsections (b1) and (b2) of this section.

(b1) For each finding of fact not adopted by the agency, the agency shall set forth separately and in detail the following:

- (1) The reasons for not adopting the findings of fact.
- (2) The evidence in the record relied upon by the agency in not adopting the finding of fact contained in the administrative law judge's decision.

Any finding of fact not specifically rejected as required by this subsection shall be deemed accepted for purposes of judicial review of the final decision pursuant to Article 4 of this Chapter.

(b2) For each finding of fact made by the agency that is not contained in the administrative law judge's decision, the agency shall set forth separately and in detail the evidence in the record relied upon by the agency in making the finding of fact. Any new finding of fact made by the agency shall be supported by a preponderance of the admissible evidence in the record. The agency shall not make any new finding of fact that is inconsistent with a finding of fact contained in the administrative law judge's decision unless the finding of fact in the administrative law judge's decision is not adopted as required by subsection (b1) of this section.

(b3) Except as provided in G.S. 150B-34(c), the agency shall adopt the decision of the administrative law judge unless the agency demonstrates that the decision of the administrative law judge is clearly contrary to the preponderance of the admissible evidence in the record. If the agency does not adopt the administrative law judge's decision as its final decision, the agency shall set forth its reasoning for the final decision in light of the findings of fact and conclusions of law in the final decision, including any exercise of discretion by the agency. The agency may consider only the official record prepared pursuant to G.S. 150B-37 in making a final decision. A copy of the decision shall be served upon each party personally or by certified mail addressed to the party at the latest address given by the party to the agency, and a copy shall be furnished to his attorney of record and the Office of Administrative Hearings.

(c) The following decisions made by administrative law judges in contested cases are final decisions appealable directly to superior court under Article 4 of this Chapter:

- (1) A determination that the Office of Administrative Hearings lacks jurisdiction.
- (2) An order entered pursuant to the authority in G.S. 7A-759(e).
- (3) An order entered pursuant to a written prehearing motion that either dismisses the contested case for failure of the petitioner to prosecute or grants the relief requested when a party does not comply with procedural requirements.
- (4) An order entered pursuant to a prehearing motion to dismiss the contested case in accordance with G.S. 1A-1, Rule 12(b) when the order disposes of all issues in the contested case.

(d) An administrative law judge may grant judgment on the pleadings, pursuant to a motion made in accordance with G.S. 1A-1, Rule 12(c), or summary judgment, pursuant to a motion made in accordance with G.S. 1A-1, Rule 56, that disposes of all issues in the contested case. Notwithstanding subsection (b) of this section, a decision granting a motion for judgment on the pleadings or summary judgment need not include findings of fact or conclusions of law, except as determined by the administrative law judge to be required or allowed by G.S. 1A-1, Rule 12(c) or Rule 56. For any decision by the administrative law judge granting judgment on the pleadings or summary judgment that disposes of all issues in the contested case, the agency shall make a final decision. If the agency does not adopt the administrative law judge's decision, it shall set forth the basis for failing to adopt the decision and shall remand the case to the administrative law judge for hearing. The party aggrieved by the agency's decision shall be entitled to immediate judicial review of the decision under Article 4 of this Chapter. (1973, c. 1331, s. 1; 1975, 2nd Sess., c. 983, s. 67; 1985, c. 746, s. 1; 1985 (Reg. Sess., 1986), c. 1022, s. 1(16); 1987, c. 878, ss. 12, 24; 1987 (Reg. Sess., 1988), c. 1111, s. 20; 1991, c. 35, s. 7; 2000-190, s. 7.)

the last two sentences; added subsections (b1) and (b2); inserted the subsection (b3) designation, and rewrote subsection (b3); added "appealable directly to superior court under Article 4 of this Chapter" in subsection (c); and added subsection (d).

Legal Periodicals. — For article, "Advisory Rulings by Administrative Agencies: Their Benefits and Dangers," see 2 Campbell L. Rev. 1 (1980).

CASE NOTES

Editor's Note. — Many of the cases below were decided under corresponding provisions of former Chapter 150A, or under this Chapter prior to the 1991 amendments thereto.

Remand Required Where Findings Are Found Insufficient. — Where, on review of an order of a state commission permitting petitioner savings and loan association to open a branch office, the trial court determined that the commission's findings were insufficient in that they lacked the specificity required by this section, the trial court should never have reached the question of whether reversal under former § 150A-51(5) was appropriate, as remand for further findings was essential upon concluding that the findings of record presented an inadequate basis for review. Under no applicable theory of law would it be appropriate for the trial court to reverse the commission and substitute its judgment for the commission's. Community Sav. & Loan Ass'n v. North Carolina Sav. & Loan Comm'n, 43 N.C. App. 493, 259 S.E.2d 373 (1979).

Administrative agencies should be encouraged to continue cases under active deliberation until rendition of a final decision, to assure that that decision is the product of adequate, sound deliberation. In re Alamance Sav. & Loan Ass'n, 53 N.C. App. 326, 280 S.E.2d 748, cert. denied, 304 N.C. 588, 291 S.E.2d 148 (1981).

Final agency decision in writing envisioned by former § 150A-36 was not merely a memorialization of the decision, but was the decision itself, without which agency action did not become final. In re Alamance Sav. & Loan Ass'n, 53 N.C. App. 326, 280 S.E.2d 748, cert. denied, 304 N.C. 588, 291 S.E.2d 148 (1981).

Under subsection (b) of this section, a final agency decision in a contested case hearing must be based on the official record prepared pursuant to § 150B-37l; the agency is not permitted to hear new evidence, and if it does so, the trial court on review is required to reverse or remand the agency decision. Everhart & Assocs. v. Department of Env't, Health & Natural Resources, 127 N.C. App. 693, 493 S.E.2d 66 (1997), cert. denied, 347 N.C. 575, 502 S.E.2d 590 (1998).

Local Appointing Authority. — A "local appointing authority," within the meaning of § 126-37, is required to render its decision in accordance with subsection (b) of this section. Cunningham v. Catawba County, 128 N.C. App. 70, 493 S.E.2d 82 (1997).

DSS was required, in rejecting the recommended decision of the Commission, to state the specific reasons why it did not adopt the recommended decision and serve a copy of its final decision on the petitioner; however, because the legislature did not specifically require that the "local appointing authority" comply with subsection (b), there was no obligation to enter findings of fact and conclusions of law, as required by subsection (b). Cunningham v. Catawba County, 128 N.C. App. 70, 493 S.E.2d 82 (1997).

Duty of Agency to Allow Adequate Opportunity to File Exceptions. — This section places an affirmative duty on the agency to allow parties an adequate opportunity to file exceptions to the recommended decision, but in no way obligates parties to file specific exceptions to the recommended decision before issuance of the final agency decision. Owen v. UNC-G Physical Plant, 121 N.C. App. 682, 468 S.E.2d 813 (1996), discretionary review improvidently allowed, 344 N.C. 73, 477 S.E.2d 33 (1996).

Subsection (a) simply provides the parties with an opportunity to file written exceptions and/or written arguments; it does not create an additional exhaustion hurdle. Jackson v. Department of Admin., 127 N.C. App. 434, 490 S.E.2d 248 (1997).

No Obligation to File Specific Exceptions. — Although this section places an affirmative duty on the agency to provide the opportunity to file exceptions to the parties, the plain language in no way obligates petitioners to file specific exceptions to the recommended decision before issuance of the final agency decision. Jackson v. Department of Admin., 127 N.C. App. 434, 490 S.E.2d 248 (1997).

Decision Not Made on Unlawful Procedure. — A decision of the State Board of Elections ordering a new election for certain county officers was not made on "unlawful procedure" without findings of fact where the chairman orally announced the board's decision on December 6, 1978, to order a new election because of irregularities in assistance rendered to persons who voted by absentee ballots and in the collection and return of voted absentee ballots; a written decision was filed on the same day incorporating the oral decision; and order was entered December 14, 1978, setting a date for the new election and setting out the rules and procedures for its conduct; and on February 13, 1979, the state board filed a written order containing its findings of fact and conclusions of law. In re Judicial Review by Republican Candidates, 45 N.C. App. 556, 264 S.E.2d 338, cert. denied, 299 N.C. 736, 267 S.E.2d 672 (1980).

University of North Carolina's State Residence Committee (SRC) is exempt from the entire Administrative Procedure Act; therefore, although provisions in the act requiring judicial review of final administrative review were applicable, the SRC was not governed by this section, which requires agencies to state reasons for their decisions. Wilson v. State

§ 150B-37. Official record.

(a) In a contested case, the Office of Administrative Hearings shall prepare an official record of the case that includes:

- (1) Notices, pleadings, motions, and intermediate rulings;
- (2) Questions and offers of proof, objections, and rulings thereon;
- (3) Evidence presented;
- (4) Matters officially noticed, except matters so obvious that a statement of them would serve no useful purpose; and
- (5) Repealed by Session Laws 1987, c. 878, s. 25.
- (6) The administrative law judge's decision, or order.

(b) Proceedings at which oral evidence is presented shall be recorded, but need not be transcribed unless requested by a party. Each party shall bear the cost of the transcript or part thereof or copy of said transcript or part thereof which said party requests, and said transcript or part thereof shall be added to the official record as an exhibit.

(c) The Office of Administrative Hearings shall forward a copy of the official record to the agency making the final decision and shall forward a copy of the administrative law judge's decision to each party. (1973, c. 1331, s. 1; 1985, c. 746, s. 1; 1987, c. 878, ss. 13, 25; 2000-190, s. 8.)

Effect of Amendments. — Session Laws 2000-190, s. 8, effective January 1, 2001, and applicable to contested cases commenced on or after that date, deleted "recommended" following "law judge's" in subdivision (a)(6); and substituted "administrative law judge's" for "recommended" in subsection (c).

CASE NOTES

Editor's Note. — The cases below were decided prior to the 1991 amendments to this Chapter.

Board of Adjustment Not Required to Sound-Record Hearings. — Municipal corporations are specifically excluded from requirements under former § 150A-37 and former § 150A-29 that trial rules of evidence and production of evidence be followed in proceedings before State agencies. Thus a Board of Adjustment is not required to sound-record its hearings. Washington Park Neighborhood Ass'n v. Winston-Salem Zoning Bd. of Adjustment, 35 N.C. App. 449, 241 S.E.2d 872, cert. denied and appeal dismissed, 295 N.C. 91, 244 S.E.2d 263 (1978), decided under corresponding provisions of former Chapter 150A.

No statutory authority exists for the State Personnel Commission to review an administrative law judge's recommended decision in a case involving an exempt employee. Johnson v. Natural Resources & Community Dev., 98 N.C. App. 334, 391 S.E.2d 48 (1990).

Official Record Required. — Under § 150B-36(b), a final agency decision in a contested case hearing must be based on the official record prepared pursuant to this section; the agency is not permitted to hear new evidence, and if it does so, the trial court on review is required to reverse or remand the agency decision. Everhart & Assocs. v. Department of Env't, Health & Natural Resources, 127 N.C. App. 693, 493 S.E.2d 66 (1997), cert. denied, 347 N.C. 575, 502 S.E.2d 590 (1998).

Offers of Proof Part of Official Record. — Commission properly considered offers of proof included in the record since offers of proof are part of the official record under subdivision (a)(2) of this section and not "new evidence" violative of § 150B-51(a). Everhart & Assocs. v. Department of Env't, Health & Natural Resources, 127 N.C. App. 693, 493 S.E.2d 66 (1997), cert. denied, 347 N.C. 575, 502 S.E.2d 590 (1998).

Quoted in Living Centers-Southeast, Inc. v. North Carolina Health & Human Servs., 138 N.C. App. 572, 532 S.E.2d 192 (2000).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL

Editor's Note. — The opinions below were issued prior to the 1991 amendments to this Chapter.

Tapes Must Be Included in Official Record. — The tapes of a contested case which have not been transcribed must be included in the official record prepared by the Office of Administrative Hearings pursuant to subdivision (a)(3) and forwarded to the final agency decision maker pursuant to subsection (c). See opinion of Attorney General to Mr. John B. DeLuca, Assistant Director, Office of Legal Affairs, Dept. of Human Resources, 58 N.C.A.G. 85 (1988).

ARTICLE 3A.

*Other Administrative Hearings.§ 150B-38. Scope; hearing required; notice; venue.

(a) The provisions of this Article shall apply to:

- (1) Occupational licensing agencies.
- (2) The State Banking Commission, the Commissioner of Banks, and the Credit Union Division of the Department of Commerce.
- (3) The Department of Insurance and the Commissioner of Insurance.
- (4) The State Chief Information Officer in the administration of the provisions of Article 3D of Chapter 147 of the General Statutes.
- (5) The North Carolina State Building Code Council.

(b) Prior to any agency action in a contested case, the agency shall give the parties in the case an opportunity for a hearing without undue delay and notice not less than 15 days before the hearing. Notice to the parties shall include:

- (1) A statement of the date, hour, place, and nature of the hearing;
- (2) A reference to the particular sections of the statutes and rules involved; and
- (3) A short and plain statement of the facts alleged.

(c) Notice shall be given personally or by certified mail. If given by certified mail, notice shall be deemed to have been given on the delivery date appearing on the return receipt. If notice cannot be given personally or by certified mail, then notice shall be given in the manner provided in G.S. 1A-1, Rule 4(j1).

(d) A party who has been served with a notice of hearing may file a written response with the agency. If a written response is filed, a copy of the response must be mailed to all other parties not less than 10 days before the date set for the hearing.

(e) All hearings conducted under this Article shall be open to the public. A hearing conducted by the agency shall be held in the county where the agency maintains its principal office. A hearing conducted for the agency by an administrative law judge requested under G.S. 150B-40 shall be held in a county in this State where any person whose property or rights are the subject matter of the hearing resides. If a different venue would promote the ends of justice or better serve the convenience of witnesses, the agency or the administrative law judge may designate another county. A person whose property or rights are the subject matter of the hearing waives his objection to venue if he proceeds in the hearing.

(f) Any person may petition to become a party by filing with the agency or hearing officer a motion to intervene in the manner provided by G.S. 1A-1, Rule 24. In addition, any person interested in a contested case under this Article may intervene and participate to the extent deemed appropriate by the agency hearing officer.

(g) When contested cases involving a common question of law or fact or multiple proceedings involving the same or related parties are pending before an agency, the agency may order a joint hearing of any matters at issue in the cases, order the cases consolidated, or make other orders to reduce costs or delay in the proceedings.

(h) Every agency shall adopt rules governing the conduct of hearings that are consistent with the provisions of this Article. (1985, c. 746, s. 1; 1985 (Reg. Sess., 1986), c. 1022, s. 6(3); 1989, c. 76, s. 30; c. 751, s. 7(45); 1991 (Reg. Sess., 1992), c. 959, s. 76; 1999-434, s. 17; 2001-141, s. 8; 2001-193, s. 12; 2001-487, s. 21(h).)

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1999-434, s. 19, provides that the Secretary of Commerce shall implement policies and procedures to ensure "Best Value" Procurement, Solution-Based Procurement, and Government-Vendor Partnership.

Session Laws 1999-434, s. 20, requires the Secretary of Commerce to develop and implement policies, procedures, and/or programs to ensure that personnel receive high quality training in the principles of "Best Value" Procurement, Solution-Based Procurement, Government-Vendor Partnership, contract administration, and project management.

Session Laws 1999-434, s. 21, provides that the Secretary of Commerce shall report to the Joint Select Committee on Information Technology on the implementation of this act on or before April 1, 2000.

Session Laws 1999-434, s. 22, provides that the Joint Select Committee on Information Technology shall study the governance of State government-wide information technology management by the creation of a centralized agency responsible for all technology-related issues. An interim report may be made by the Committee to the 2000 Session of the General Assembly and a final report prior to the convening of the 2001 General Assembly.

Effect of Amendments. — Session Laws 1999-434, s. 17, effective January 1, 2000, added subdivision (a)(4).

Session Laws 2001-141, s. 8, effective May 31, 2001, and applicable to revisions made to the North Carolina State Building Code on or after January 1, 2002, added subdivision (a)(5) and made minor punctuation changes.

Session Laws 2001-193, s. 12, effective July 1, 2001, in subdivision (a)(2), deleted "the Savings Institutions Division of the Department of Commerce" following "Commissioner of Banks," and made minor stylistic changes.

Session Laws 2001-487, s. 21(h), effective December 16, 2001, in subsection (a) of this section, as rewritten by Session Laws 2001-141, s. 8, and by Session Laws 2001-193, s. 12, deleted "the following agencies" at the end of the introductory language, and in subdivision (a)(4), substituted "State Chief Information Officer" for "Department of Commerce" and substituted "Article 3D of Chapter 147" for "Part 16 of Article 10 of Chapter 143B."

Legal Periodicals. — For note, "Contested Case Hearings Under the North Carolina Administrative Procedure Act: 1985 Rewrite Contains Dual System of Administrative Adjudication," see 64 N.C.L. Rev. 852 (1986).

CASE NOTES

Applicability of Article. — Article 3 of the North Carolina Administrative Procedure Act applies to administrative hearings conducted by the Office of Administrative Hearings before an administrative law judge, while Article 3A applies to "other administrative hearings" which are conducted by state agencies enumerated in this section. Homoly v. North Carolina State Bd. of Dental Examrs., 121 N.C. App. 695, 468 S.E.2d 481 (1996).

Action Sufficient to Trigger Contested Case Provisions. — Petitioner's letter, requesting expungement of a record, and requesting an opportunity to meet with the administrative board, was sufficient to trigger the contested case provisions of this section, and respondent's subsequent denial of the request constituted agency action on a contested case which affected the substantive rights of petitioner. In re Sullivan, 112 N.C. App. 795, 436 S.E.2d 862 (1993).

Revocation of Law Enforcement Officer's License. — Petitioner was entitled to both notice and an opportunity to be heard prior to the revocation of his license as a law enforcement officer by the Criminal Justice Education and Training Standards Commission, where such adjudicatory action constituted agency action on a contested case affecting substantive rights. Scroggs v. North Carolina Criminal Justice Educ. & Training Stds. Comm'n, 101 N.C. App. 699, 400 S.E.2d 742 (1991) (decided prior to the 1991 amendments to this Chapter).

Charges Against Licensees of a Board. — The General Assembly intended that any person who prefers charges against, inter alia, a licensee of the Board is entitled to a hearing and decision on those charges. Bryant v. North Carolina State Bd. of Examrs. of Elec. Contrac- tors, 338 N.C. 288, 449 S.E.2d 188 (1994).

Board of Examiners of Electrical Contractors Required to Hold Hearing. —

Though the language is not explicit in requiring that the Board of Examiners of Electrical Contractors hold a hearing on charges, such a requirement is implicit both in the language referring to “hearings of charges” and in the stated purpose of the statute governing the jurisdiction of the Board to hear such charges. Bryant v. North Carolina State Bd. of Exmrs. of Elec. Contractors, 338 N.C. 288, 449 S.E.2d 188 (1994).

Intent of Statute Mandated Hearing. — It would be contrary to the intent expressed in § 87-47(a1), that of protecting the public, to determine that plaintiff was not entitled to a hearing and decision on charges brought to effectuate that very purpose. Bryant v. North Carolina State Bd. of Exmrs. of Elec. Contractors, 338 N.C. 288, 449 S.E.2d 188 (1994).

Applied in Cameron v. North Carolina State Bd. of Dental Exmrs., 95 N.C. App. 332, 382 S.E.2d 864 (1989); McCullough v. North Carolina State Bd. of Dental Exmrs., 111 N.C. App. 186, 431 S.E.2d 816 (1993); Act-Up Triangle v. Commission for Health Servs., 345 N.C. 699, 483 S.E.2d 388 (1997).

Cited in Huang v. North Carolina State Univ., 107 N.C. App. 710, 421 S.E.2d 812 (1992); Adams v. North Carolina State Bd. of Registration, 129 N.C. App. 292, 501 S.E.2d 660 (1998); Brooks v. Southern Nat'l Corp., 131 N.C. App. 80, 505 S.E.2d 306 (1998).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL

Applicability of § 150B-23(a). — Subsection (a) of § 150B-23, as amended by Session Laws 1987, Chapter 878, is not applicable to agencies governed by Article 3A of this Chapter. See opinion of Attorney General to Mr. Phillip T. Fisher, Executive Director, N.C. Real Estate Commission, 57 N.C.A.G. 85 (1987).

When a contested case hearing is conducted by an agency governed by this article, a petition or other notice need not be filed with the Office of Administrative Hearings. See opinion of Attorney General to Mr. Phillip T. Fisher, Executive Director, N.C. Real Estate Commission, 57 N.C.A.G. 85 (1987).

Intended Sanction Not Required in Notice of Hearing. — While subdivision (b)(2) of this section requires licensing boards to include in their notices a reference to the particular sections of the statutes and rules involved, it does not appear to require a board to state which sanction under the applicable disciplinary statute it intends to impose. However, once a board states with specificity that it is proposing to impose only one or two sanctions available under a referenced disciplinary statute for the stated alleged infractions, the board is then precluded from imposing a greater sanction for these infractions. Miller v. North Carolina State Bd. of Registration for Professional Eng'rs & Land Surveyors, 322 N.C. 465, 368 S.E.2d 605 (1988).

§ 150B-39. Depositions; discovery; subpoenas.

(b) Upon a request for an identifiable agency record involving a material fact in a contested case, the agency shall promptly provide the record to a party, unless the record relates solely to the agency's internal procedures or is exempt from disclosure by law.

(c) In preparation for, or in the conduct of, a contested case subpoenas may be issued and served in accordance with G.S. 1A-1, Rule 45. Upon a motion, the agency may quash a subpoena if, upon a hearing, the agency finds that the evidence, the production of which is required, does not relate to a matter in issue, the subpoena does not describe with sufficient particularity the evidence the production of which is required, or for any other reason sufficient in law the subpoena may be quashed. Witness fees shall be paid by the party requesting the subpoena to subpoenaed witnesses in accordance with G.S. 7A-314. However, State officials or employees who are subpoenaed shall not be entitled to any witness fees, but they shall receive their normal salary and they shall not be required to take any annual leave for the witness days. Travel expenses of State officials or employees who are subpoenaed shall be reimbursed as provided in G.S. 138-6. (1985, c. 746, s. 1; 1991, c. 35, s. 8.)

§ 150B-40. Conduct of hearing; presiding officer; ex parte communication.

(a) Hearings shall be conducted in a fair and impartial manner. At the hearing, the agency and the parties shall be given an opportunity to present evidence on issues of fact, examine and cross-examine witnesses, including the author of a document prepared by, on behalf of or for the use of the agency and offered into evidence, submit rebuttal evidence, and present arguments on issues of law or policy.

If a party fails to appear in a contested case after he has been given proper notice, the agency may continue the hearing or proceed with the hearing and make its decision in the absence of the party.

(b) Except as provided under subsection (e) of this section, hearings under this Article shall be conducted by a majority of the agency. An agency shall designate one or more of its members to preside at the hearing. If a party files in good faith a timely and sufficient affidavit of the personal bias or other reason for disqualification of any member of the agency, the agency shall determine the matter as a part of the record in the case, and its determination shall be subject to judicial review at the conclusion of the proceeding. If a presiding officer is disqualified or it is impracticable for him to continue the hearing, another presiding officer shall be assigned to continue with the case, except that if assignment of a new presiding officer will cause substantial prejudice to any party, a new hearing shall be held or the case dismissed without prejudice.

(c) The presiding officer may:

- (1) Administer oaths and affirmations;
- (2) Sign and issue subpoenas in the name of the agency, requiring attendance and giving of testimony by witnesses and the production of books, papers, and other documentary evidence;
- (3) Provide for the taking of testimony by deposition;
- (4) Regulate the course of the hearings, set the time and place for continued hearings, and fix the time for filing of briefs and other documents;
- (5) Direct the parties to appear and confer to consider simplification of the issues by consent of the parties; and
- (6) Apply to any judge of the superior court resident in the district or presiding at a term of court in the county where a hearing is pending for an order to show cause why any person should not be held in contempt of the agency and its processes, and the court shall have the power to impose punishment as for contempt for acts which would constitute direct or indirect contempt if the acts occurred in an action pending in superior court.

(d) Unless required for disposition of an ex parte matter authorized by law, a member of an agency assigned to make a decision or to make findings of fact and conclusions of law in a contested case under this Article shall not communicate, directly or indirectly, in connection with any issue of fact or question of law, with any person or party or his representative, except on notice and opportunity for all parties to participate. This prohibition begins at the time of the notice of hearing. An agency member may communicate with other members of the agency and may have the aid and advice of the agency staff other than the staff which has been or is engaged in investigating or prosecuting functions in connection with the case under consideration or a factually-related case. This section does not apply to an agency employee or party representative with professional training in accounting, actuarial science, economics or financial analysis insofar as the case involves financial practices or conditions.

(e) When a majority of an agency is unable or elects not to hear a contested case, the agency shall apply to the Director of the Office of Administrative Hearings for the designation of an administrative law judge to preside at the hearing of a contested case under this Article. Upon receipt of the application, the Director shall, without undue delay, assign an administrative law judge to hear the case.

The provisions of this Article, rather than the provisions of Article 3, shall govern a contested case in which the agency requests an administrative law judge from the Office of Administrative Hearings.

The administrative law judge assigned to hear a contested case under this Article shall sit in place of the agency and shall have the authority of the presiding officer in a contested case under this Article. The administrative law judge shall make a proposal for decision, which shall contain proposed findings of fact and proposed conclusions of law.

An administrative law judge shall stay any contested case under this Article on motion of an agency which is a party to the contested case, if the agency shows by supporting affidavits that it is engaged in other litigation or administrative proceedings, by whatever name called, with or before a federal agency, and this other litigation or administrative proceedings will determine the position, in whole or in part, of the agency in the contested case. At the conclusion of the other litigation or administrative proceedings, the contested case shall proceed and be determined as expeditiously as possible.

The agency may make its final decision only after the administrative law judge's proposal for decision is served on the parties, and an opportunity is given to each party to file exceptions and proposed findings of fact and to present oral and written arguments to the agency. (1985, c. 746, s. 1; 1985 (Reg. Sess., 1986), c. 1022, ss. 1(1), 6(3), 6(4).)

CASE NOTES

Changes Against Licensees of a Board.

— The General Assembly intended that any person who prefers charges against, inter alia, a licensee of a board is entitled to a hearing and decision on those charges. Bryant v. North Carolina State Bd. of Exmrs. of Elec. Contractors, 338 N.C. 288, 449 S.E.2d 188 (1994).

Intent of Statute Mandated Hearing. — It would be contrary to the intent expressed in § 87-47(a1), that of protecting the public, to determine that plaintiff was not entitled to a hearing and decision on charges brought to effectuate that very purpose. Bryant v. North Carolina State Bd. of Exmrs. of Elec. Contractors, 338 N.C. 288, 449 S.E.2d 188 (1994).

Board of Examiners of Electrical Contractors Required to Hold Hearing. — Though the language is not explicit in requiring that the Board of Examiners of Electrical Contractors hold a hearing on charges, such a requirement is implicit both in the language referring to "hearings of charges" and in the stated purpose of the statute governing the jurisdiction of the Board to hear such charges. *Bryant v. #### OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL

Applicability of § 150B-23(a). — Subsection (a) of § 150B-23, as amended by Session Laws 1987, Chapter 878, is not applicable to agencies governed by Article 3A of this Chapter. See opinion of Attorney General to Mr. Phillip

T. Fisher, Executive Director, N.C. Real Estate Commission, 57 N.C.A.G. 85 (1987).

When a contested case hearing is conducted by an agency governed by this article, a petition or other notice need not be filed with the Office of Administrative Hearings. See opinion of Attorney General to Mr. Phillip T. Fisher, Executive Director, N.C. Real Estate Commission, 57 N.C.A.G. 85 (1987).

§ 150B-41. Evidence; stipulations; official notice.

(a) In all contested cases, irrelevant, immaterial, and unduly repetitious evidence shall be excluded. Except as otherwise provided, the rules of evidence as applied in the trial division of the General Court of Justice shall be followed; but, when evidence is not reasonably available under such rules to show relevant facts, they may be shown by the most reliable and substantial evidence available. It shall not be necessary for a party or his attorney to object to evidence at the hearing in order to preserve the right to object to its consideration by the agency in reaching its decision, or by the court of judicial review.

(b) Evidence in a contested case, including records and documents shall be offered and made a part of the record. Other factual information or evidence shall not be considered in determination of the case, except as permitted under G.S. 150B-30. Documentary evidence may be received in the form of a copy or excerpt or may be incorporated by reference, if the materials so incorporated are available for examination by the parties. Upon timely request, a party shall be given an opportunity to compare the copy with the original if available.

(c) The parties in a contested case under this Article by a stipulation in writing filed with the agency may agree upon any fact involved in the controversy, which stipulation shall be used as evidence at the hearing and be binding on the parties thereto. Parties should agree upon facts when practicable. Except as otherwise provided by law, disposition may be made of a contested case by stipulation, agreed settlement, consent order, waiver, default, or other method agreed upon by the parties.

(d) Official notice may be taken of all facts of which judicial notice may be taken and of other facts within the specialized knowledge of the agency. The noticed fact and its source shall be stated and made known to affected parties at the earliest practicable time, and any party shall on timely request be afforded an opportunity to dispute the noticed fact through submission of evidence and argument. An agency may use its experience, technical competence, and specialized knowledge in the evaluation of evidence presented to it. (1985, c. 746, s. 1.)

§ 150B-42. Final agency decision; official record.

(a) After compliance with the provisions of G.S. 150B-40(e), if applicable, and review of the official record, as defined in subsection (b) of this section, an agency shall make a written final decision or order in a contested case. The decision or order shall include findings of fact and conclusions of law. Findings of fact shall be based exclusively on the evidence and on matters officially noticed. Findings of fact, if set forth in statutory language, shall be accompanied by a concise and explicit statement of the underlying facts supporting them. A decision or order shall not be made except upon consideration of the record as a whole or such portion thereof as may be cited by any party to the proceeding and shall be supported by substantial evidence admissible under G.S. 150B-41. A copy of the decision or order shall be served upon each party personally or by certified mail addressed to the party at the latest address given by the party to the agency and a copy shall be furnished to his attorney of record.

(b) An agency shall prepare an official record of a hearing that shall include:

- (1) Notices, pleadings, motions, and intermediate rulings;
- (2) Questions and offers of proof, objections, and rulings thereon;
- (3) Evidence presented;
- (4) Matters officially noticed, except matters so obvious that a statement of them would serve no useful purpose;
- (5) Proposed findings and exceptions; and
- (6) Any decision, opinion, order, or report by the officer presiding at the hearing and by the agency.

(c) Proceedings at which oral evidence is presented shall be recorded, but need not be transcribed unless requested by a party. Each party shall bear the cost of the transcript or part thereof or copy of said transcript or part thereof which said party requests. (1985, c. 746, s. 1.)

ARTICLE 4.

Judicial Review.

§ 150B-43. Right to judicial review.

Any person who is aggrieved by the final decision in a contested case, and who has exhausted all administrative remedies made available to him by statute or agency rule, is entitled to judicial review of the decision under this Article, unless adequate procedure for judicial review is provided by another statute, in which case the review shall be under such other statute. Nothing in this Chapter shall prevent any person from invoking any judicial remedy available to him under the law to test the validity of any administrative action not made reviewable under this Article. (1973, c. 1331, s. 1; 1985, c. 746, s. 1.)

Local Modification. — (As to Article 4) City of Gastonia: 1985 (Reg. Sess., 1986), c. 902, s. 3; 1991, c. 557, s. 1.

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 2000-67, ss. 24(a) and (b), establishes a reserve in the Office of State Budget and Management (now the Office of State Budget, Planning, and Management), consisting of appropriations from the General Assembly and funds received from any State agency in accordance with s. 24. When a State agency files a petition for judicial review of a final decision of the Rules Review Commission under Article 4 of Chapter 150B and the Rules Review Commission prevails in that action, that State agency is to deposit to the reserve a sum equal to the Commission's actual attorneys' fees.

Session Laws 2000-67, s. 1.1, provides: "This act shall be known as "The Current Operations and Capital Improvements Appropriations Act of 2000."

Session Laws 2000-67, s. 28.4, contains a severability clause.

I. GENERAL CONSIDERATION.

Editor's Note. — Most of the cases below were decided under corresponding provisions of former Chapter 150A and earlier statutes, or under this Chapter prior to the 1991 amendments thereto.

As to purpose and construction of former provisions, see In re Appeal of Harris, 273 N.C. 20, 159 S.E.2d 539 (1968).

Construction with Other Provisions. — Section 113A-123 does not set forth the scope of review but instead provides that judicial review is available pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 150B of the Administrative Procedure Act. Friends of Hatteras Island Nat'l Historic Maritime Forest Land Trust for Preservation, Inc. v. Coastal Resources Comm'n, 117 N.C. App. 556, 452 S.E.2d 337 (1995).

Requirements for Judicial Review Generally. — This section has been interpreted as imposing five requirements in order to have standing for judicial review: (1) the petitioner must be an aggrieved party; (2) there must be a final agency decision; (3) the decision must result from a contested case; (4) the petitioner must have exhausted all administrative remedies; and (5) there must be no other adequate procedure for judicial review. Charlotte Truck Driver School, Inc. v. North Carolina DMV, 95 N.C. App. 209, 381 S.E.2d 861 (1989); Meads v. North Carolina Dep't of Agric., 349 N.C. 656, 509 S.E.2d 165 (1998).

There are five requirements under former § 150A-43: (1) plaintiff must be an aggrieved person; (2) there must be a final agency decision; (3) the decision must result from a contested case; (4) petitioner must have exhausted administrative remedies; and (5) there must be no other adequate procedure for judicial review. Dyer v. Bradshaw, 54 N.C. App. 136, 282 S.E.2d 548 (1981); State ex rel. Tenn. Dep't of Health & Env't v. Environmental Mgt. Comm'n, 78 N.C. App. 763, 338 S.E.2d 781 (1986); In re Wheeler, 85 N.C. App. 150, 354 S.E.2d 374 (1987).

Former § 150A-43 requires a four-part test for standing: an aggrieved party, a final agency decision, a contested case, and exhaustion of administration remedies. Warren County v. North Carolina, 528 F. Supp. 276 (E.D.N.C. 1981).

Whether the jurisdictional prerequisites of the Administrative Procedure Act have been met is not a question of personal jurisdiction, but one of the ripeness, on a case by case basis, of the subject matter of administrative decisions for judicial review. Poret v. State Personnel Comm'n, 74 N.C. App. 536, 328 S.E.2d 880, cert. denied, 314 N.C. 117, 332 S.E.2d 491, 332 S.E.2d 492 (1985), overruled on other grounds, Batten v. N.C. Dep't of Cor., 326 N.C. 338, 389 S.E.2d 35 (1990), overruled on other grounds, Empire Power Co. v. North Carolina Dep't of Env't, Health & Natural Resources, 337 N.C. 569, 447 S.E.2d 168 (1994).

Registration, 86 N.C. App. 308, 357 S.E.2d 705 (1987).

No statutory authority exists for the State Personnel Commission to review an administrative law judge's recommended decision in a case involving an exempt employee. Johnson v. Natural Resources & Community Dev., 98 N.C. App. 334, 391 S.E.2d 48, cert. denied, 327 N.C. 140, 394 S.E.2d 176 (1990), rev'd on other grounds, 328 N.C. 689, 394 S.E.2d 469 (1991).

Administrative Remedy is Exclusive. — When the General Assembly provides an effective administrative remedy by statute, that remedy is exclusive, and the party must pursue and exhaust it before resorting to the courts. Jackson v. North Carolina Dep't of Human Res., 131 N.C. App. 179, 505 S.E.2d 899 (1998), cert. denied, 350 N.C. 594, 537 S.E.2d 213 (1999).

Requirements for Judicial Review Generally. — This section has been interpreted as imposing five requirements in order to have standing for judicial review: (1) the petitioner must be an aggrieved party; (2) there must be a final agency decision; (3) the decision must result from a contested case; (4) the petitioner must have exhausted all administrative remedies; and (5) there must be no other adequate procedure for judicial review. Charlotte Truck Driver School, Inc. v. North Carolina DMV, 95 N.C. App. 209, 381 S.E.2d 861 (1989).

Record Must Indicate Basis for Exercise of Discretion. — While it is true that the determination whether by common judgment certain conduct is disqualifying is left to the sound discretion of the board, the record must include an indication of the basis upon which the board or other agency exercised its expert discretion. Dailey v. North Carolina State Bd. of Dental Exmrs., 309 N.C. 710, 309 S.E.2d 219 (1983).

Corresponding former provisions were inappropriate to initiate an attack upon the constitutionality of a statute fixing the powers and duties of the Board of Paroles (now Parole Commission). The question of the constitutionality of a statute is not for administrative boards, but for the judicial branch. Jernigan v. State, 279 N.C. 556, 184 S.E.2d 259 (1971).

Review of Executive Interpretation of Statute Not Authorized. — Corresponding former provisions did not authorize the filing of a petition in the superior court seeking an advisory opinion on the correctness of an executive interpretation of a statute. Housing Auth. v. Johnson, 261 N.C. 76, 134 S.E.2d 121 (1964).

Upon review pursuant to former § 150A-43, the "whole record" test is applicable, and the decision of the State Board of Alcoholic Control may be reversed if substantial rights of the licensee are prejudiced by administrative findings, inferences, conclusions or decisions which are not supported by competent, material and substantial evidence in view of the entire record as submitted. Fay v. State Bd. of Alcoholic Control, 30 N.C. App. 492, 227 S.E.2d 298, cert. denied, 291 N.C. 175, 229 S.E.2d 689 (1976).

The clear intent of the legislature is to make the "whole record" test the principal standard of judicial review of administrative findings in this State. North Carolina State Bar v. DuMont, 304 N.C. 627, 286 S.E.2d 89 (1982).

Scope of Review Must Be Defined. — In presenting appeals to the judicial branch from State administrative agencies, it is essential that the parties present their contentions as to the applicable scope of judicial review; likewise, the reviewing court should make clear the review standard under which it proceeds. State ex rel. Utils. Comm'n v. Bird Oil Co., 302 N.C. 14, 273 S.E.2d 232 (1981).

Administrative Procedure Act does not preclude entirely the possibility of judicial review by use of the Declaratory Judgment Act or other procedures outside the act. High Rock Lake Ass'n v. North Carolina Env'tl. Mgt. Comm'n, 39 N.C. App. 699, 252 S.E.2d 109 (1979).

Quasi-Judicial Hearing Contemplated. — Former provisions contemplated a quasi-judicial hearing in which the parties were permitted an opportunity to offer evidence and a decision was rendered applicable to a specific factual situation. Housing Auth. v. Johnson, 261 N.C. 76, 134 S.E.2d 121 (1964).

An agency's denial of a petition for rule making under former § 150A-16 is subject to judicial review pursuant to the provisions of former § 150A-43. In re Wheeler, 85 N.C. App. 150, 354 S.E.2d 374 (1987).

Doctrine of Res Judicata. — Where an administrative determination has been reviewed by the courts, the res judicata effect, if any, attaches to the court's judgment rather than to the administrative decision. State ex rel. Utils. Comm'n v. Thornburg, 325 N.C. 463, 385 S.E.2d 451 (1989).

Mandatory Suspension of Driving Privilege. — Petitioner whose driving privilege was mandatorily suspended under § 20-17(2) and § 20-19(e) did not have the right to appeal under § 20-25 or under this Chapter. However, the superior court could review the actions of the Commissioner by issuing a writ of certiorari. Davis v. Hiatt, 326 N.C. 462, 390 S.E.2d 338 (1990).

Once the right to drive has been mandatorily revoked and a petitioner unsuccessfully seeks to have the license reinstated by the DMV, no superior court review of the denial is mandated unless the denial was arbitrary or illegal, because reinstatement is not a legal right but is an act of grace. Alpiser v. Eagle

Pontiac-GMC-Isuzu, Inc., 97 N.C. App. 610, 389 S.E.2d 293 (1990).

II. AGGRIEVED PERSON.

Meaning of "Person Aggrieved". — The expression "person aggrieved" has no technical meaning. What it means depends on the circumstances involved. In re Halifax Paper Co., 259 N.C. 589, 131 S.E.2d 441 (1963); Albemarle Elec. Membership Corp. v. Alexander, 282 N.C. 402, 192 S.E.2d 811 (1972); Orange County Sensible Hwys. & Protected Env'ts, Inc. v. North Carolina Dep't of Transp., 46 N.C. App. 350, 265 S.E.2d 890 (1980).

"Person aggrieved" means one who is adversely affected in respect of legal rights, or is suffering from an infringement or denial of legal rights. Carter v. North Carolina State Bd. of Registration, 86 N.C. App. 308, 357 S.E.2d 705 (1987).

Personal Rights or Interests Not at Issue. — Where none of petitioner's personal rights or interests, nor any rights or interests properly attributable to him in a cognizable representative capacity, were either directly or indirectly at issue in requested rule making proceeding, he was not substantially affected by Department of Human Resources' denial of his petition for rule making. Therefore, he was not a "person aggrieved" as a result of the agency decision and had no standing to seek judicial review thereof. In re Wheeler, 85 N.C. App. 150, 354 S.E.2d 374 (1987).

Person Aggrieved in Representative Capacity. — One may be aggrieved when he is affected only in a representative capacity. In re Halifax Paper Co., 259 N.C. 589, 131 S.E.2d 441 (1963).

Administrative Agency as Person Aggrieved. — An administrative agency cannot be a person aggrieved by its own order, but it may be an aggrieved party to secure judicial review of a decision of an administrative reviewing agency. In re Halifax Paper Co., 259 N.C. 589, 131 S.E.2d 441 (1963).

County as "Person Aggrieved". — A county may be an aggrieved person when an agency issues a ruling that could affect the county's revenue. In re Brunswick County, 81 N.C. App. 391, 344 S.E.2d 584 (1986).

Appeals by Public Officials and Governmental Units in Cases Involving Taxation and Public Funds. — Where statutes permit appeals by persons aggrieved, appeals by public officials and governmental units are usually allowed in cases involving questions of law relating to taxation and public funds. In re Halifax Paper Co., 259 N.C. 589, 131 S.E.2d 441 (1963).

County as Party Aggrieved. — A county is a party aggrieved and is entitled to appeal from a decision of the State Board of Assessment (now the Property Tax Commission) reducing the valuation of property appraised by the county for tax purposes. In re Appeal of Harris, 273 N.C. 20, 159 S.E.2d 539 (1968).

County had standing to challenge establishment of a toxic waste site within its borders under this Chapter because of the effect on its tax base and planning jurisdiction, because of the final agency determination upon issuance of an environmental impact statement, and because the Environmental Policy Act (Art. 1 of Ch. 113A) includes the right to judicial review of an issue which involves a contested case. Warren County v. North Carolina, 528 F. Supp. 276 (E.D.N.C. 1981).

Petitioners Ordered to Forfeit Bid Bond "Aggrieved". — Petitioners were aggrieved persons when the Secretary of Administration ordered them to forfeit their $316,600.00 bid bond or be subject to liability for twice that amount. In re Metric Constructors, Inc., 31 N.C. App. 88, 228 S.E.2d 533 (1976).

Property Owners, etc., Within Proposed Corridor of Highway Were Aggrieved. — Plaintiffs were all "aggrieved" by a decision of the State Board of Transportation on the location of an interstate highway within the meaning of former § 150A-43 where the individual plaintiffs were property owners within the proposed corridor of the highway, the members of plaintiff nonprofit corporation were citizens and taxpayers living in or near the proposed corridor, and plaintiff county's tax base and planning jurisdiction would be affected by the proposed highway. Orange County Sensible Hwys. & Protected Env'ts, Inc. v. North Carolina Dep't of Transp., 46 N.C. App. 350, 265 S.E.2d 890 (1980).

"Procedural injury" implicit in agency failure to prepare an environmental impact statement as to a proposed highway project was itself a sufficient "injury in fact" to support standing as "aggrieved parties" under former § 150A-43, as long as such injury was alleged by a plaintiff having a sufficient geographical nexus to the site of the challenged project that he might be expected to suffer whatever environmental consequences the project may have. Orange County Sensible Hwys. & Protected Env'ts, Inc. v. North Carolina Dep't of Transp., 46 N.C. App. 350, 265 S.E.2d 890 (1980).

Impairment of Hearing Rights in Pollution Discharge Permit Proceeding. — "Procedural injury," whereby petitioner State of Tennessee's right to be heard on certain aspects of a National Pollutant Discharge Elimination System (NPDES) permit was substantially impaired, was sufficient under former § 150A-43 to qualify petitioner as an "aggrieved person" for purposes of appeal of issuance of Environmental Management Commission's consent special order with corporation. In addition, where the consent special order contained provisions substantially identical to provisions which petitioner opposed in the proposed NPDES permit, which affected the property rights of the petitioner in the Pigeon River, these allegations also established petitioner's "aggrieved person" status. State ex rel. Tenn. Dep't of Health & Env't v. Environmental Mgt. Comm'n, 78 N.C. App. 763, 338 S.E.2d 781 (1986).

Petitioner Who Had Won Case Not Aggrieved Party. — Where, although petitioner claimed that it had attempted to preserve a cross-assignment of error, the Commissioner's decision in petitioner's favor was upheld both in the trial court and by the court of appeals; the petitioner was not a party aggrieved. GMC v. Carolina Truck & Body Co., 102 N.C. App. 349, 402 S.E.2d 139 (1991).

III. CONTESTED CASE.

A "contested case" means an administrative proceeding pursuant to this Chapter to resolve a dispute between an agency and another person that involves the person's rights, duties, or privileges, including licensing or the levy of a monetary penalty. State ex rel. Envtl. Mgt. Comm'n v. House of Raeford Farms, Inc., 101 N.C. App. 433, 400 S.E.2d 107 (1991), discretionary review denied, 328 N.C. 576, 403 S.E.2d 521 (1991).

A contested case hearing is distinguishable from a contested case. The phrase "contested case" extends beyond an adjudicatory hearing to include any agency proceeding, by whatever name called, wherein the legal rights, duties and privileges of a party are required by law to be determined by an agency after an opportunity for an adjudicatory hearing. Community Psychiatric Ctrs. v. North Carolina Dep't of Human Resources, 103 N.C. App. 514, 405 S.E.2d 769 (1991).

Proceeding Sufficient to Constitute a "Contested Case". — The Superior Court had jurisdiction over a petition for review of denial of services under the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, P.L. 102-569, 42 U.S.C. § 701, et seq. as amended, where, although the petitioner's claims were not heard by an Administrative Law Judge, they were heard by an agency hearing officer, at a proceeding in which petitioner and respondent were allowed to submit and cross-examine evidence and where respondent's director reviewed and affirmed the hearing officer's decision, in accordance with its own regulations. Hedgepeth v. North Carolina Div. of Servs. for the Blind, 142 N.C. App. 338, 543 S.E.2d 169 (2001).

Case challenging a consent special order entered into by Environmental Management Commission and a corporation, which order was alleged to intrude upon the NPDES permit process (which process requires a hearing), was "contested" for the purposes of former § 150A-43. State ex rel. Tenn. Dep't of Health & Env't v. Environmental Mgt. Comm'n, 78 N.C. App. 763, 338 S.E.2d 781 (1986).

Decision of State Board of Transportation as to location of an interstate highway constituted a "contested case" within the meaning of former § 150A-43, where the North Carolina Environmental Policy Act, §§ 113A-1 through 113A-10, was involved. Orange County Sensible Hwys. & Protected Env'ts, Inc. v. North Carolina Dep't of Transp., 46 N.C. App. 350, 265 S.E.2d 890 (1980).

Where rights of petitioner were determined by an in-person interview and by an investigation conducted by a hearing officer of the North Carolina DMV, a state agency, they constituted "an agency proceeding." Therefore, the case was "contested" for purposes of this section. Charlotte Truck Driver Training School, Inc. v. North Carolina DMV, 95 N.C. App. 209, 381 S.E.2d 861 (1989).

The result of a petitioner's ineffective attempts to file a petition for a contested case hearing was only a contested case. Community Psychiatric Ctrs. v. North Carolina Dep't of Human Resources, 103 N.C. App. 514, 405 S.E.2d 769 (1991).

Without the jurisdictional prerequisite of a contested case hearing, a petitioner cannot utilize § 131E-188(b) to appeal to the Court of Appeals. Community Psychiatric Ctrs. v. North Carolina Dep't of Human Resources, 103 N.C. App. 514, 405 S.E.2d 769 (1991).

IV. FINAL DECISION.

Decision to end a preliminary inquiry is not "a final agency decision in a contested case." Lloyd v. Babb, 296 N.C. 416, 251 S.E.2d 843 (1979).

Dismissal of State Employee. — A recommendation by the State Personnel Commission is not a final decision from which a party may petition for judicial review; thus, the superior court was without jurisdiction to uphold a recommendation by the State Personnel Commission prior to review by the Local Appointing Authority, which ultimately reversed the recommendation. Howell v. Morton, 131 N.C. App. 626, 508 S.E.2d 804 (1998).

Decision by State Board of Transportation to deny plaintiffs a hearing concerning location of an interstate highway was a "final" decision within the meaning of former § 150A-43, since the decision affected a right which plaintiffs had pursuant to the board's own administrative regulations. Orange County Sensible Hwys. & Protected Env'ts, Inc. v. North Carolina Dep't of Transp., 46 N.C. App. 350, 265 S.E.2d 890 (1980).

Delay Caused by Order for Rehearing Insufficient to Make Order a Final Decision. — Delay caused when the full State Personnel Commission ordered a rehearing of a dismissal case involving an employee of the Department of Transportation after declining to accept the recommendation of the hearing officer that a default be entered against the Department for its failure to appear was not an undue delay within the meaning of former § 150A-23(a), nor such a delay as could allow the Court of Appeals to treat the order for rehearing as a final agency decision under former § 150A-43. Davis v. North Carolina Dep't of Transp., 39 N.C. App. 190, 250 S.E.2d 64 (1978), cert. denied, 296 N.C. 735, 254 S.E.2d 177 (1979).

Claim as to Statute's Unconstitutionality Involved No "Decision". — Plaintiffs could not obtain judicial review under former § 150A-43 of their claim that § 143B-350(f)(8), conferring on the State Board of Transportation the power and duty to approve all highway construction programs, unconstitutionally delegated legislative power to the board, since the claim involved no agency "decision"; however, such claim could be heard pursuant to N.C. Const., Art. IV, § 1. Orange County Sensible Hwys. & Protected Env'ts, Inc. v. North Carolina Dep't of Transp., 46 N.C. App. 350, 265 S.E.2d 890 (1980).

V. EXHAUSTION OF ADMINISTRATIVE REMEDIES.

Exhaustion of Administrative Remedies Required. — The Administrative Procedure Act allows judicial review of a final agency decision in a contested case when all relevant administrative remedies have been exhausted and there is no adequate judicial review provided under any other statute. In re Estate of Kapoor, 303 N.C. 102, 277 S.E.2d 403 (1981).

This section provides no authority for permitting plaintiff to bypass the requirements of § 113A-121.1, because by enacting the provisions for administrative review of rules, the legislature wisely determined that the agency itself should have the first opportunity to review the propriety and applicability of its own rules, and so long as the statutory procedures provide an effective means of review of the agency action, the courts will require parties to exhaust their administrative remedies. Leeuwenburg v. Waterway Inv. Ltd. Partnership, 115 N.C. App. 541, 445 S.E.2d 614 (1994).

Where board of trustee's decision denying plaintiff's claim was subject to judicial review only under the terms of the Administrative Procedure Act and, at the time he brought the action in the District Court, plaintiff had not exhausted the administrative remedies available to him under the Act, the court of appeals did not err in concluding that the trial court was without subject matter jurisdiction and that the plaintiff's civil action must be dismissed. Vass v. Board of Trustees, 324 N.C. 402, 379 S.E.2d 26 (1989).

As a general rule a party must exhaust all applicable administrative remedies before filing in the superior court. Jackson v. Department of Admin., 127 N.C. App. 434, 490 S.E.2d 248 (1997).

Plaintiffs' challenge to insurance company's assessment of driving record points under the safe driver incentive plan (SDIP) required them to first exhaust their administrative remedies, as the approval of the SDIP was required by the commissioner of insurance and fell within the administrative procedures act. Prentiss v. Allstate Ins. Co., 144 N.C. App. 404, 548 S.E.2d 557 (2001).

As to necessity for exhaustion of administrative remedies under former provisions, see Sinodis v. State Bd. of Alcoholic Control, 258 N.C. 282, 128 S.E.2d 587 (1962); Porter v. State Bd. of Alcoholic Control, 4 N.C. App. 284, 166 S.E.2d 695 (1969).

The doctrine of exhaustion of administrative remedies is designed to avoid the interruption and cessation of proceedings before a commission by untimely and premature intervention by the courts would completely destroy the efficiency, effectiveness, and purpose of the administrative agencies. Jackson v. Department of Admin., 127 N.C. App. 434, 490 S.E.2d 248 (1997).

Judicial Review Precluded by Failure to Exhaust Administrative Remedies. — Plaintiff collection agency was not entitled to seek a declaratory judgment in the superior court as to the validity and applicability of a regulation of the Department of Insurance prohibiting collection agencies from instituting judicial proceedings on behalf of other persons, where plaintiff failed to exhaust available administrative remedies by petitioning the Department of Insurance for amendment or repeal of the regulation under former § 150A-16 or seeking a declaratory ruling from the Department of Insurance as to the validity and applicability of the regulation under former § 150A-17, and then by seeking judicial review of an adverse Department of Insurance decision under former § 150A-43 et seq. Porter v. North Carolina Dep't of Ins., 40 N.C. App. 376, 253 S.E.2d 44, cert. denied, 297 N.C. 455, 256 S.E.2d 808 (1979).

The guardian of a child entitled to Medicaid was required to exhaust administrative remedies before seeking judicial review where the child's admission to a hospital was not approved. Jackson v. North Carolina Dep't of Human Res., 131 N.C. App. 179, 505 S.E.2d 899

Failure to Exhaust Inadequate Remedy Not Required. — Failure to exhaust an administrative remedy will not bar judicial review if that remedy has been shown to be inadequate. Orange County Sensible Hwys. & Protected Env'ts, Inc. v. North Carolina Dep't of Transp., 46 N.C. App. 350, 265 S.E.2d 890 (1980).

Exhaustion of Remedies Held Unnecessary for Preliminary Injunctive Relief in Civil Rights Case. — Where a state employee asserted civil rights violations under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 for his wrongful dismissal, the superior court retained its traditional power to grant preliminary injunctive relief without requiring him to exhaust the administrative remedies provided in Chapter 126 of the General Statutes. Williams v. Greene, 36 N.C. App. 80, 243 S.E.2d 156, cert. denied and appeal dismissed, 295 N.C. 471, 246 S.E.2d 12 (1978).

Application of Exhaustion Requirement Not Waived. — By entering into a Consent Judgment, which resolved ten cases then pending in the courts and the administrative hearing office, the plaintiff did not waive the application of the exhaustion requirement of this Chapter to penalties which would be assessed in the future. State ex rel. Envtl. Mgt. Comm'n v. House of Raeford Farms, Inc., 101 N.C. App. 433, 400 S.E.2d 107 (1991), discretionary review denied, 328 N.C. 576, 403 S.E.2d 521 (1991).

VI. ADEQUATE JUDICIAL REVIEW UNDER ANOTHER STATUTE.

"Adequate procedure for judicial review" exists only if the scope of review is equal to that under Article 4 of former Chapter 150A. Occidental Life Ins. Co. v. Ingram, 34 N.C. App. 619, 240 S.E.2d 460 (1977); State ex rel. Comm'r of Ins. v. North Carolina Rate Bureau, 300 N.C. 381, 269 S.E.2d 547, rehearing denied, 301 N.C. 107, 273 S.E.2d 300 (1980).

As to reviewability of decisions under corresponding former provisions where no other adequate procedure provided, see State ex rel. N.C. Utils. Comm'n v. Old Fort Finishing Plant, 264 N.C. 416, 142 S.E.2d 8 (1965).

Statutory provision for review "by proceedings in the nature of certiorari" is an "adequate procedure for judicial review" only if the scope of review is equal to that under this Chapter. Jarrell v. Board of Adjustment, 258 N.C. 476, 128 S.E.2d 879 (1963).

Section 93A-6, regulating real estate brokers and salesmen, provides adequate procedure for judicial review of an order of the Real Estate Licensing Board revoking a license, and former § 150A-43 does not apply. In re Dillingham, 257 N.C. 684, 127 S.E.2d 584 (1962).

Section 136-134.1 preempts former § 150A-43 and specifically provides the opportunity to have a de novo proceeding before a trial judge which satisfies due process requirements. National Adv. Co. v. Bradshaw, 48 N.C. App. 10, 268 S.E.2d 816, cert. denied and appeal dismissed, 301 N.C. 400, 273 S.E.2d 446 (1980).

VII. ILLUSTRATIVE CASES.

Decisions of Property Tax Commission.

— Any person aggrieved by a final decision of the Property Tax Commission, and who has exhausted all administrative remedies available to him, is entitled to judicial review under former § 150A-43. Brock v. North Carolina Property Tax Comm'n, 290 N.C. 731, 228 S.E.2d 254 (1976).

Administrative decisions of the Property Tax Commission, whether with respect to the schedule of values or the appraisal of property, are always subject to judicial review after administrative procedures have been exhausted. Brock v. North Carolina Property Tax Comm'n, 290 N.C. 731, 228 S.E.2d 254 (1976).

Appeal by Commissioner (Now Secretary) of Revenue from Decision of Tax Review Board. — The Tax Review Board is an administrative agency of the State, and the Commissioner (now Secretary) of Revenue is entitled to appeal from a decision of the Board reversing in part an assessment of taxes made by the Commissioner (now Secretary). Section 105-241.3 does not impliedly amend former § 150A-43 so as to preclude the right of the Commissioner (now Secretary) to appeal, but the two statutes must be construed together and effect given the provisions of both. In re Halifax Paper Co., 259 N.C. 589, 131 S.E.2d 441 (1963).

Rule-Making Procedure Under § 143-215.13(c) Not Subject to Judicial Review. — An informal hearing conducted by the Commission to consider whether to initiate a proceeding to declare the Yadkin River Basin a capacity use area was no more than a § 143-215.13(c) rule-making type procedure, and thus the plaintiffs were not entitled to judicial review under former § 150A-43 et seq. High Rock Lake Ass'n v. North Carolina Env'tl. Mgt. Comm'n, 39 N.C. App. 699, 252 S.E.2d 109 (1979).

As to availability of judicial review of suspension of university student, see In re Carter, 262 N.C. 360, 137 S.E.2d 150 (1964).

As to former limitation of court review of suspensions and exclusions, see Givens v. Poe, 346 F. Supp. 202 (W.D.N.C. 1972).

OSHA Review Board Decisions. — Judicial review of Occupational Safety and Health Act (OSHA) Review Board decisions is under this Article. Brooks v. Austin Berryhill Fabricators, Inc., 102 N.C. App. 212, 401 S.E.2d 795 (1991).

Termination of Employment of County Superintendent of Schools Reviewable. — Decision of the Wayne County Board of Education terminating the employment of the superintendent of schools and declaring the office vacant was subject to review under former provisions, since although the section providing for the removal of school superintendents contained a proviso that such superintendent would have the right to try his title to office in the courts of the State, the statute was silent as to the procedure and the scope of review contemplated. James v. Wayne County Bd. of Educ., 15 N.C. App. 531, 190 S.E.2d 224, appeal dismissed, 282 N.C. 672, 194 S.E.2d 151 (1972).

Findings of fact and conclusions of law made by the State Board of Elections may be reviewed in an action instituted in the superior court, but appellant is not entitled to a jury trial in such action. Ponder v. Joslin, 262 N.C. 496, 138 S.E.2d 143 (1964).

Cancellation of Truck Driver School License. — Superior court had jurisdiction pursuant to this section to review order cancelling petitioner's truck driver school license, even though petitioner waived its right to an evidentiary hearing. Charlotte Truck Driver Training School, Inc. v. North Carolina DMV, 95 N.C. App. 209, 381 S.E.2d 861 (1989).

Suspension of Retail Beer Permit. — Judicial review of an order of the State Board of Alcoholic Control suspending a retail beer permit is governed by former § 150A-43. Fay v. State Bd. of Alcoholic Control, 30 N.C. App. 492, 227 S.E.2d 298, cert. denied, 291 N.C. 175, 229 S.E.2d 689 (1976).

Environmental Impact Statement. — Department of Administration decision that an environmental impact statement was not required did not automatically mean that a permit would be issued by Department of Environmental Health and Natural Resources. Petitioners' action to challenge the decision did not become ripe until Department of Environmental Health and Natural Resources made its decision to issue the National Pollutant Discharge Elimination System permit to applicant. Because petitioners' claim was not ripe at the time of Department of Administration decision, they did not have the right to a contested case hearing. Citizens for Clean Indus., Inc. v. Lofton, 109 N.C. App. 229, 427 S.E.2d 120 (1993), overruled on other grounds, Empire Power Co. v. North Carolina Dep't of Env't, Health & Natural Resources, 337 N.C. 569, 447 S.E.2d 768, rehearing denied, 338 N.C. 314, 451 S.E.2d 634 (1994).

Petition Not Sufficiently Explicit. — Where petition for judicial review of county health director's decision affirming employee's termination lacked even a single exception to particular findings of fact or conclusions of law but instead, baldly asserted only that the health department's decision was "contrary to the Recommended Decision of the Administrative Law Judge and the State Personnel Commission," petition was not sufficiently explicit to permit effective judicial review of the proceedings, and department's motion to dismiss should have been allowed. Gray v. Orange County Health Dep't, 119 N.C. App. 62, 457 S.E.2d 892, cert. denied, 341 N.C. 649, 462 S.E.2d 511, rehearing dismissed, 342 N.C. 192, 463 S.E.2d 236 (1995).

§ 150B-44. Right to judicial intervention when decision unreasonably delayed.

Unreasonable delay on the part of any agency or administrative law judge in taking any required action shall be justification for any person whose rights, duties, or privileges are adversely affected by such delay to seek a court order compelling action by the agency or administrative law judge. An agency that is subject to Article 3 of this Chapter and is not a board or commission has 60 days from the day it receives the official record in a contested case from the Office of Administrative Hearings to make a final decision in the case. This time limit may be extended by the parties or, for good cause shown, by the agency for an additional period of up to 60 days. An agency that is subject to Article 3 of this Chapter and is a board or commission has 60 days from the day it receives the official record in a contested case from the Office of Administrative Hearings or 60 days after its next regularly scheduled meeting, whichever is longer, to make a final decision in the case. This time limit may be extended by the parties or, for good cause shown, by the agency for an additional period of up to 60 days. If an agency subject to Article 3 of this Chapter has not made a final decision within these time limits, the agency is considered to have adopted the administrative law judge's decision as the agency's final decision. Failure of an agency subject to Article 3A of this Chapter to make a final decision within 120 days of the close of the contested case hearing is justification for a person whose rights, duties, or privileges are adversely affected by the delay to seek a court order compelling action by the agency or, if the case was heard by an administrative law judge, by the administrative law judge. (1973, c. 1331, s. 1; 1985, c. 746, s. 1; 1985 (Reg. Sess., 1986), c. 1022, s. 1(17); 1987, c. 878, ss. 5, 27; 1991, c. 35, s. 9; 2000-190, s. 9.)

last sentence; and substituted "120 days" for "180 days" in the last sentence.

CASE NOTES

Editor's Note. — The cases below were decided under corresponding provisions of former Chapter 150A, or under this Chapter prior to the 1991 amendments thereto.

Protection from Unreasonable Delay. — Parties are protected from unreasonable delay on the part of agencies in reaching final decisions by former § 150A-44 (see now this section), which allows a party adversely affected by such delay to seek a court order compelling action by the agency. In re Alamance Sav. &

Loan Ass'n, 53 N.C. App. 326, 280 S.E.2d 748, cert. denied, 304 N.C. 588, 291 S.E.2d 148 (1981).

The right under former § 150A-44 (see now this section) may be asserted to prevent unreasonable delay in reaching a final agency decision. Stevenson v. North Carolina Dep't of Ins., 31 N.C. App. 299, 229 S.E.2d 209 (1976).

Decision Held Unreasonably Delayed. — State Personnel Commission's decision against a county employee issued 130 days after it had received the official record from the hearing officer was "unreasonably delayed" as defined in this section; however, the hearing officer's decision would not be reinstated. The only available remedy was a court order compelling action by the agency or hearing officer. Davis v. Vance County Dep't of Soc. Servs., 91 N.C. App. 428, 372 S.E.2d 88 (1988).

The Department of Human Resources did not make its final decision within the time limits of this section, where the Department filed an extension, but did not render its final decision until almost six months after it received the record. Holland Group, Inc. v. North Carolina Dep't of Admin., 130 N.C. App. 721, 504 S.E.2d 300 (1998).

§ 150B-45. Procedure for seeking review; waiver.

To obtain judicial review of a final decision under this Article, the person seeking review must file a petition in the Superior Court of Wake County or in the superior court of the county where the person resides.

The person seeking review must file the petition within 30 days after the person is served with a written copy of the decision. A person who fails to file a petition within the required time waives the right to judicial review under this Article. For good cause shown, however, the superior court may accept an untimely petition. (1973, c. 1331, s. 1; 1985, c. 746, s. 1; 1987, c. 878, s. 16.)

Self-Executing Decisions — When an Article 3 administrative agency failed to issue a final decision regarding the recognition of a tribe as an indigenous North Carolina Indian tribe within the time limits set forth in § 150B-44, the recommended decision of an administrative law judge became the final decision in the case by operation of law. *Occaneechi Band v. ### CASE NOTES

Editor's Note. — The cases below were decided under corresponding provisions of former Chapter 150A, or under this Chapter prior to the 1991 amendments thereto.

Application of Section. — Where the complaints and notices of hearing were filed prior to Jan. 1, 1986, the action was commenced prior to Jan. 1, 1986, and Chapter 150B had no application in the case; thus, § 150A-45 (rewritten and recodified as this section), requiring a person seeking review to file a petition in the Superior Court of Wake County, and not this section, permitting such filing in either Wake County or the county where the person resides, governed. Pinewood Manor Mobile Homes, Inc. v. North Carolina Manufactured Hous. Bd., 84 N.C. App. 564, 353 S.E.2d 231, cert. denied, 319 N.C. 674, 356 S.E.2d 780 (1987).

Under Article 3 of Chapter 150B of the General Statutes, judicial review of a final decision under that article is to be had in the Superior Court of Wake County or the superior court of the county where the person seeking review resides. Iredell Mem. Hosp. v. North Carolina Dep't of Human Resources, 103 N.C. App. 637, 406 S.E.2d 304 (1991).

Where declaratory ruling was not served on county in accordance with statute, county did not waive its right to seek judicial review by waiting more than 30 days after it received a copy of the decision to file its petition for review. In re Brunswick County, 81 N.C. App. 391, 344 S.E.2d 584 (1986).

Former § 150A-45 (rewritten and recodified as this section) confers exclusive jurisdiction for judicial review of final agency decisions on the Superior Court of Wake County when a state rather than a local agency made the initial determination. State ex rel. Lee v. Williams, 55 N.C. App. 80, 284 S.E.2d 572 (1981).

Strict Construction of Waiver Provisions. — Statutory provisions providing for the waiver or forfeiture of the right to judicial review under certain conditions should be construed strictly; and, when so construed, the right to petition for review continues unless and until 30 days have expired from the date "a written copy" of the administrative order has been served on the party seeking review, either by personal service or by registered mail, return receipt requested. In re Appeal of Harris, 273 N.C. 20, 159 S.E.2d 539 (1968), decided prior to enactment of this Chapter.

No statutory authority exists for the State Personnel Commission to review an administrative law judge's recommended decision in a case involving an exempt employee. Johnson v. Natural Resources & Community Dev., 98 N.C. App. 334, 391 S.E.2d 48, cert. denied, 327 N.C. 140, 394 S.E.2d 176 (1990), rev'd on other grounds, 328 N.C. 689, 394 S.E.2d 469 (1991).

A petitioner seeking judicial review of a decision of the North Carolina Driver License Medical Review Board must file such petition in the Superior Court of Wake County pursuant to former § 150A-45 (rewritten and recodified as this section), and may not obtain a hearing under § 20-25 in the superior court of the county in which he resides. Cox v. Miller, 26 N.C. App. 749, 217 S.E.2d 198 (1975).

Denial of ABC Permit Constituting Action on "Issuance". — Where application for an ABC permit was initially denied by commission on Dec. 9, 1985, this denial was clearly a commission action on "issuance" of an ABC permit, and, pursuant to the provisions of § 18B-906, the ruling on the application became a "contested case" for purposes of the Administrative Procedure Act on Dec. 9, 1985. Therefore, former § 150A-45 (rewritten and recodified as this section), which required petitions for review to be filed in Wake County, was applicable, rather than this section, and the trial court properly dismissed petition for judicial review, which had been filed in Craven County. In re Melkonian, 85 N.C. App. 715, 355

The result of a petitioner's ineffective attempts to file a petition for a contested case hearing was only a contested case. Community Psychiatric Ctrs. v. North Carolina Dep't of Human Resources, 103 N.C. App. 514, 405 S.E.2d 769 (1991).

Without the jurisdictional prerequisite of a contested case hearing, a petitioner cannot utilize § 131E-188(b) to appeal to the Court of Appeals. Community Psychiatric Ctrs. v. North Carolina Dep't of Human Resources, 103 N.C. App. 514, 405 S.E.2d 769 (1991).

§ 150B-46. Contents of petition; copies served on all parties; intervention.

The petition shall explicitly state what exceptions are taken to the decision or procedure and what relief the petitioner seeks. Within 10 days after the petition is filed with the court, the party seeking the review shall serve copies of the petition by personal service or by certified mail upon all who were parties of record to the administrative proceedings. Names and addresses of such parties shall be furnished to the petitioner by the agency upon request. Any party to the administrative proceeding is a party to the review proceedings unless the party withdraws by notifying the court of the withdrawal and serving the other parties with notice of the withdrawal. Other parties to the proceeding may file a response to the petition within 30 days of service. Parties, including agencies, may state exceptions to the decision or procedure and what relief is sought in the response.

Any person aggrieved may petition to become a party by filing a motion to intervene as provided in G.S. 1A-1, Rule 24. (1973, c. 1331, s. 1; 1985, c. 746, s. 1; 1991, c. 35, s. 10.)

CASE NOTES

Editor's Note. — The cases below were decided under corresponding provisions of former Chapter 150A and earlier statutes, or under this Chapter prior to the 1991 amendments thereto.

Purpose of Statute Necessitates Liberal Construction. — The primary purpose of the statute is to confer the right of review, and the statute should be liberally construed to preserve and effectuate that right. James v. Wayne County Bd. of Educ., 15 N.C. App. 531, 190 S.E.2d 224, appeal dismissed, 282 N.C. 672, 194 S.E.2d 151 (1972).

"Explicit" means characterized by full clear expression; being without vagueness or ambiguity; leaving nothing implied. Vann v. North Carolina State Bar, 79 N.C. App. 173, 339 S.E.2d 97 (1986).

Applied in Gummels v. North Carolina Dep't of Human Resources, 97 N.C. App. 245, 388 S.E.2d 223 (1990).

§ 150B-47. Records filed with clerk of superior court; contents of records; costs.

Within 30 days after receipt of the copy of the petition for review, or within such additional time as the court may allow, the agency that made the final decision in the contested case shall transmit to the reviewing court the original or a certified copy of the official record in the contested case under review together with: (i) any exceptions, proposed findings of fact, or written arguments submitted to the agency in accordance with G.S. 150B-36(a); and (ii) the agency's final decision or order. With the permission of the court, the record may be shortened by stipulation of all parties to the review proceedings. Any party unreasonably refusing to stipulate to limit the record may be taxed by the court for such additional costs as may be occasioned by the refusal. The court may require or permit subsequent corrections or additions to the record when deemed desirable. (1973, c. 1331, s. 1; 1983, c. 919, s. 3; 1985, c. 746, s. 1; 1985 (Reg. Sess., 1986), c. 1022, s. 1(18); 1987, c. 878, s. 22.)

CASE NOTES

Editor's Note. — The case below was decided under corresponding provisions of former Chapter 150A.

Former § 150A-47 does not apply to decisions made by town boards, including boards of adjustment. Burton v. New Hanover County Zoning Bd. of Adjustment, 49 N.C. App. 439, 271 S.E.2d 550 (1980), cert. denied, 302 N.C. 217, 276 S.E.2d 914 (1981).

§ 150B-48. Stay of decision.

At any time before or during the review proceeding, the person aggrieved may apply to the reviewing court for an order staying the operation of the administrative decision pending the outcome of the review. The court may grant or deny the stay in its discretion upon such terms as it deems proper and subject to the provisions of G.S. 1A-1, Rule 65. (1973, c. 1331, s. 1; 1985, c. 746, s. 1.)

CASE NOTES

Editor’s Note. — The cases below were decided under corresponding provisions of former Chapter 150A.

Former § 150A-48 must be construed in pari materia with the rest of this Article, and particularly former § 150A-43, which states that any person who is aggrieved by a final agency decision in a contested case, and who has exhausted all administrative remedies made available to him by statute or agency rule, is entitled to judicial review of such decision under Article 4 of former Chapter 150A. Stevenson v. North Carolina Dep’t of Ins., 31 N.C. App. 299, 229 S.E.2d 209, cert. denied, 291 N.C. 450, 230 S.E.2d 767 (1976); Davis v. North Carolina Dep’t of Transp., 39 N.C. App. 190, 250 S.E.2d 64 (1978), cert. denied, 296 N.C. 735, 254 S.E.2d 177 (1979).

Former § 150A-48 was meant to entitle the aggrieved person to a stay order only after the final agency decision and either before or after initiation of judicial review. Stevenson v. North Carolina Dep’t of Ins., 31 N.C. App. 299, 229 S.E.2d 209 (1976); Davis v. North Carolina Dep’t of Transp., 39 N.C. App. 190, 250 S.E.2d 64 (1978), cert. denied, 296

Stay of Decision Unavailable Prior to “Final Agency Decision”. — Former § 150A-48 is a vehicle for reinstatement only “before or during the review proceeding.” Since, according to former § 150A-43, review is available only after a “final agency decision,” the stay of a decision is similarly only available after a “final agency decision.” Davis v. North Carolina Dep’t of Transp., 39 N.C. App. 190, 250 S.E.2d 64 (1978), cert. denied, 296 N.C. 735, 254 S.E.2d 177 (1979).

Exhaustion of Administrative Remedies Held Unnecessary for Preliminary Injunctive Relief in Federal Civil Rights Action. — Where a state employee asserted civil rights violations under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 for his wrongful dismissal, the superior court retained its traditional power to grant preliminary injunctive relief without requiring him to exhaust the administrative remedies provided in Chapter 126. Williams v. Greene, 36 N.C. App. 80, 243 S.E.2d 156, cert. denied and appeal dismissed, 295 N.C. 471, 246 S.E.2d 12 (1978).

§ 150B-49. New evidence.

An aggrieved person who files a petition in the superior court may apply to the court to present additional evidence. If the court is satisfied that the evidence is material to the issues, is not merely cumulative, and could not reasonably have been presented at the administrative hearing, the court may remand the case so that additional evidence can be taken. If an administrative law judge did not make a decision in the case, the court shall remand the case to the agency that conducted the administrative hearing. After hearing the evidence, the agency may affirm or modify its previous findings of fact and final decision. If an administrative law judge made a decision in the case, the court shall remand the case to the administrative law judge. After hearing the evidence, the administrative law judge may affirm or modify his previous findings of fact and decision. The administrative law judge shall forward a copy of his decision to the agency that made the final decision, which in turn may affirm or modify its previous findings of fact and final decision. The additional evidence and any affirmation or modification of a decision of the administrative law judge or final decision shall be made part of the official record. (1973, c. 1331, s. 1; 1985, c. 746, s. 1; 1987, c. 878, s. 17; 2000-190, s. 10.)

Effect of Amendments. — Session Laws 2000-190, s. 10, effective January 1, 2001, and applicable to contested cases commenced on or after that date, deleted “recommended” preceding “decision” three times and substituted “decision of the administrative law judge” for “recommended decision” in the last sentence.

Legal Periodicals. — For comment, “The Problem of Procedural Delay in Contested Case Hearings ...” under the North Carolina APA, see 7 N.C. Cent. L.J. 347 (1976).

CASE NOTES

Editor’s Note. — The cases below were decided prior to the 1991 amendments to this Chapter.

Whether new evidence offered by an organization should “reasonably have been presented” to the Coastal Resources Commission before, or during the course of, the organization’s petition for a contested case hearing was a question which could not be determined from the record, and therefore, had to be remanded to the superior court for determination. Pamlico Tar River Found., Inc. v. Coastal Resources Comm’n, 103 N.C. App. 24, 404 S.E.2d 167 (1991).

When Superior Court Must Remand Case for Taking of New Evidence. — If the evidence is “material,” “not merely cumulative,” and “could not reasonably have been presented at the administrative hearing,” the superior court must remand the case to the Coastal Resources Commission for the taking of new evidence offered by an organization opposing issuance of a permit. Pamlico Tar River Found., Inc. v. Coastal Resources Comm’n, 103 N.C. App. 24, 404 S.E.2d 167 (1991).

Denial of Remand Upheld. — Trial court’s decision to deny petitioner’s motion to remand for additional evidence relative to petitioner’s alcohol assessment and subsequent treatment after hearing before the commission upheld. Ritter v. Department of Human Resources, 118 N.C. App. 564, 455 S.E.2d 901 (1995).

Applied in Save Our Rivers, Inc. v. Town of Highlands, 341 N.C. 635, 461 S.E.2d 333 (1995).

§ 150B-50. Review by superior court without jury.

The review by a superior court of agency decisions under this Chapter shall be conducted by the court without a jury. (1973, c. 1331, s. 1; 1983, c. 919, s. 2; 1985, c. 746, s. 1; 1987, c. 878, s. 18.)

CASE NOTES

Editor’s Note. — The cases below were decided under corresponding provisions of former Chapter 150A.

Judge Not Subject to Rule 52(a) Requirements. — When the judge of the superior court sits as an appellate court to review the decision of an administrative agency pursuant to former § 150B-50 he is not required to make findings of fact and enter a judgment thereon in the same sense as is a trial judge pursuant to § 1A-1, Rule 52(a). In re Arcadia Dairy Farms, Inc., 43 N.C. App. 459, 259 S.E.2d 368 (1979), appeal dismissed, 299 N.C. 545, 265 S.E.2d 403 (1980).

Appellate Review of Local Government

Actions. — Although this section of the Act provides review only for agency decisions and local units of government are not within the definition of agencies in § 150B-2(1), the principles embodied in the Act “are highly pertinent” to appellate review of local government actions. Vulcan Materials Co. v. Guilford County Bd. of County Comm’rs, 115 N.C. App. 319, 444 S.E.2d 639, cert. denied, 337 N.C. 807, 449 S.E.2d 758 (1994).

Review of Order of Real Estate Licensing Board. — Under § 93A-6, review of an order of the Real Estate Licensing Board suspending or revoking a license is de novo in the superior court in all cases, and former article corresponding to Article 4 of former Chapter 150A did not apply, regardless of whether or not the Board has made a record of its proceedings. In re Dillingham, 257 N.C. 684, 127 S.E.2d 584 (1962).

Standard on Review of City's Special Zoning Request Decisions. — Although the North Carolina Administrative Procedure Act provides judicial review only for agency decisions and exempts cities and other local municipalities, a similar standard of review is appropriate to review city council special zoning request decisions. Jennewein v. City Council, 62 N.C. App. 89, 302 S.E.2d 7, cert. denied, 309 N.C. 461, 307 S.E.2d 365 (1983).

Stated in Huang v. North Carolina State Univ., 107 N.C. App. 710, 421 S.E.2d 812 (1992).

§ 150B-51. Scope and standard of review.

(a) In reviewing a final decision in a contested case in which an administrative law judge made a recommended decision and the State Personnel Commission made an advisory decision in accordance with G.S. 126-37(b1), the court shall make two initial determinations. First, the court shall determine whether the applicable appointing authority heard new evidence after receiving the recommended decision. If the court determines that the applicable appointing authority heard new evidence, the court shall reverse the decision or remand the case to the applicable appointing authority to enter a decision in accordance with the evidence in the official record. Second, if the applicable appointing authority did not adopt the recommended decision, the court shall determine whether the applicable appointing authority's decision states the specific reasons why the applicable appointing authority did not adopt the recommended decision. If the court determines that the applicable appointing authority did not state specific reasons why it did not adopt a recommended decision, the court shall reverse the decision or remand the case to the applicable appointing authority to enter the specific reasons.

(a1) In reviewing a final decision in a contested case in which an administrative law judge made a decision, in accordance with G.S. 150B-34(a), and the agency adopted the administrative law judge's decision, the court shall determine whether the agency heard new evidence after receiving the decision. If the court determines that the agency heard new evidence, the court shall reverse the decision or remand the case to the agency to enter a decision in accordance with the evidence in the official record. The court shall also determine whether the agency specifically rejected findings of fact contained in the administrative law judge's decision in the manner provided by G.S. 150B-36(b1) and made findings of fact in accordance with G.S. 150B-36(b2). If the court determines that the agency failed to follow the procedure set forth in G.S. 150B-36, the court may take appropriate action under subsection (b) of this section.

(b) Except as provided in subsection (c) of this section, in reviewing a final decision, the court may affirm the decision of the agency or remand the case to the agency or to the administrative law judge for further proceedings. It may also reverse or modify the agency's decision, or adopt the administrative law judge's decision if the substantial rights of the petitioners may have been prejudiced because the agency's findings, inferences, conclusions, or decisions are:

- (1) In violation of constitutional provisions;
  - (2) In excess of the statutory authority or jurisdiction of the agency;
  - (3) Made upon unlawful procedure;
  - (4) Affected by other error of law;
  - (5) Unsupported by substantial evidence admissible under G.S. 150B-29(a), 150B-30, or 150B-31 in view of the entire record as submitted;
- or

(6) Arbitrary, capricious, or an abuse of discretion.

(c) In reviewing a final decision in a contested case in which an administrative law judge made a decision, in accordance with G.S. 150B-34(a), and the agency does not adopt the administrative law judge's decision, the court shall review the official record, de novo, and shall make findings of fact and conclusions of law. In reviewing the case, the court shall not give deference to any prior decision made in the case and shall not be bound by the findings of fact or the conclusions of law contained in the agency's final decision. The court shall determine whether the petitioner is entitled to the relief sought in the petition, based upon its review of the official record. The court reviewing a final decision under this subsection may adopt the administrative law judge's decision; may adopt, reverse, or modify the agency's decision; may remand the case to the agency for further explanations under G.S. 150B-36(b1), 150B-36(b2), or 150B-36(b3), or reverse or modify the final decision for the agency's failure to provide the explanations; and may take any other action allowed by law.

(d) In reviewing a final agency decision allowing judgment on the pleadings or summary judgment, or in reviewing an agency decision that does not adopt an administrative law judge's decision allowing judgment on the pleadings or summary judgment pursuant to G.S. 150B-36(d), the court may enter any order allowed by G.S. 1A-1, Rule 12(c) or Rule 56. If the order of the court does not fully adjudicate the case, the court shall remand the case to the administrative law judge for such further proceedings as are just. (1973, c. 1331, s. 1; 1983, c. 919, s. 4; 1985, c. 746, s. 1; 1987, c. 878, s. 19; 2000-140, s. 94.1; 2000-190, s. 11.)

Effect of Amendments. — Session Laws 2000-140, s. 94.1, effective July 21, 2000, in this section as amended by Session Laws 2000-190, s. 11, substituted "applicable appointing authority" for "agency" and substituted "applicable appointing authority's" for "agency's" in subsection (a).

Session Laws 2000-190, s. 11, effective January 1, 2001, and applicable to contested cases commenced on or after that date, inserted "and standard" in the catchline; in subsection (a), deleted the subsection heading, and inserted "and the State Personnel Commission made an advisory decision in accordance with G.S. 126-37(b1)" in the first sentence; added subsection (a1); rewrote subsection (b); rewrote subdivision (b)(6), which had read "Arbitrary or capricious"; and added subsections (c) and (d).

CASE NOTES

- I. General Consideration.
- II. Exceeding Statutory Authority or Jurisdiction.
- III. Unlawful Procedure.
- IV. "Whole Record" Test.
- V. Arbitrary or Capricious Findings, Decisions, etc.

I. GENERAL CONSIDERATION.

Editor's Note. — Most of the cases below were decided under corresponding provisions of former Chapter 150A and earlier statutes, or under this Chapter prior to the 1991 amendments thereto.

The precise scope of review by the Court of Appeals is contained in this section. Dockery v. North Carolina Dep't of Human Resources, 120 N.C. App. 827, 463 S.E.2d 580 (1995).

Reasons for Not Adopting Decision. — If the State Board of Elections determines that it will not adopt the recommended decision of a county board, it should include in its order specific reasons for such decision. In re Ramseur, 120 N.C. App. 521, 463 S.E.2d 254 (1995).

Chapter Not Applicable to Decisions of Municipalities and Town Boards. — The current general administrative agencies review statutes are expressly not applicable to the decisions of town boards. Former Chapter 150A provides judicial review only for agency decisions, from which the decisions of local municipalities are expressly exempt. Coastal Ready-Mix Concrete Co. v. Board of Comm'rs, 299 N.C. 620, 265 S.E.2d 379, rehearing denied, 300 N.C. 562, 270 S.E.2d 106 (1980).

But Principles of Former § 150A-51 Are Pertinent. — While former § 150A-51 is not directly applicable to reviews of town board zoning decisions, the principles it embodies are highly pertinent. Coastal Ready-Mix Concrete Co. v. Board of Comm'rs, 299 N.C. 620, 265 S.E.2d 379, rehearing denied, 300 N.C. 562, 270 S.E.2d 106 (1980).

Review of Discretionary Agency Decisions. — Former Chapter 150A does not preclude judicial review of agency decisions which are discretionary. High Rock Lake Ass'n v. North Carolina Env'tl. Mgt. Comm'n, 51 N.C. App. 275, 276 S.E.2d 472 (1981).

Superior Court Review of Agency Decision. — In its role as an appellate court, the superior court reviews the agency's decision, but is not allowed to replace the agency's judgment with its own when there are two reasonably conflicting views, even though the court could have reached a different result upon de novo review. Rector v. North Carolina Sheriffs' Educ. & Training Stds. Comm'n, 103 N.C. App. 527, 406 S.E.2d 613 (1991).

Review of Agency Decisions. — Under § 150B-36(b), a final agency decision in a contested case hearing must be based on the official record prepared pursuant to § 150B-37; the agency is not permitted to hear new evidence, and if it does so, the trial court on review is required to reverse or remand the agency decision. Everhart & Assocs. v. Department of Env't, Health & Natural Resources, 127 N.C. App. 693, 493 S.E.2d 66 (1997), cert. denied, 347 N.C. 575, 502 S.E.2d 590 (1998).

Nature of Error Dictates Manner of Review. — The nature of the error asserted by the party seeking review dictates the appropriate manner of review, so that if the appellant contends the agency's decision was affected by a legal error, de novo review is required, whereas if he contends the decision was not supported by the evidence or was arbitrary or capricious the whole record test is used. Dillingham v. North Carolina Dep't of Human Resources, 132 N.C. App. 704, 513 S.E.2d 823 (1999).

Administrative agency decisions may be reversed as arbitrary or capricious if they are patently in bad faith, or whimsical in the sense that they indicate a lack of fair and careful consideration or fail to indicate any course of reasoning and the exercise of judgment. Rector v. North Carolina Sheriffs' Educ. & Training Stds. Comm'n, 103 N.C. App. 527, 406 S.E.2d 613 (1991).

Constitutional Review Not Contemplated Absent Assertion of Constitutional Violations. — Former section 58-9.6(b)(1) (now § 58-2-90(b)(1)) and subdivision (1) of former § 150A-51 do not contemplate constitutional review where appellants, rate bureau and member companies, made no assertion that their rights were prejudiced because any of the findings or conclusions of the Commissioner of Insurance were in violation of any constitutional provisions. State ex rel. Comm'r of Ins. v. North Carolina Rate Bureau, 300 N.C. 381, 269 S.E.2d 547, rehearing denied, 301 N.C. 107, 273 S.E.2d 300 (1980).

The superior court misperceived the proper scope of its review where the record nowhere demonstrated petitioners raised any constitutional issues in a manner requiring the superior court to pass on the constitutional validity of any assessment under § 113A-64. In re Appeal from Civil Penalty Assessed for Violations of Sedimentation Pollution Control Act, 92 N.C. App. 1, 373 S.E.2d 572 (1988), rev'd on other grounds, 324 N.C. 373, 379 S.E.2d 30 (1989).

Appellate Review of Improper Constitutional Consideration. — Although the trial court improperly considered a constitutional issue, where that court vacated the Department of Natural Resources and Community Development's (now the Department of Environment and Natural Resources) assessment based on an interpretation of N.C. Const., Art. IV, § 3, which the department properly challenged on appeal, the Court of Appeals would address that constitutional ground in the exercise of its supervisory jurisdiction. In re Appeal from Civil Penalty Assessed for Violations of Sedimentation Pollution Control Act, 92 N.C. App. 1, 373 S.E.2d 572 (1988), rev'd on other grounds, 324 N.C. 373, 379 S.E.2d 30 (1989).

Official Acts Presumed to Be Made Lawfully and in Good Faith. — The members of the State Board of Assessment (now the Property Tax Commission) are public officers, and the Board's official acts are presumed to be made in good faith and in accordance with law; the burden is upon the party asserting otherwise to overcome such presumptions by competent evidence to the contrary. Albemarle Elec. Membership Corp. v. Alexander, 282 N.C. 402, 192 S.E.2d 811 (1972).

There is a rebuttable presumption that an administrative agency has properly performed its official duties, and while arbitrary and capricious agency action is itself prohibited by federal and state due process, any assertion of arbitrary agency action does not necessarily require the agency's action be reviewed for compliance with every other requirement under the state and federal Constitutions. In re Appeal from Civil Penalty Assessed for Violations of Sedimentation Pollution Control Act, 92 N.C. App. 1, 373 S.E.2d 572 (1988), rev'd on other grounds, 324 N.C. 373, 379 S.E.2d 30 (1989).

Authority of Judge on Review. — The authority of the judge when reviewing the actions of administrative agencies is limited to affirming, modifying, reversing or remanding the decision of the agency. Faulkner v. North Carolina State Hearing Aid Dealers & Fitters Bd., 38 N.C. App. 222, 247 S.E.2d 668 (1978).

Under former Chapter 150A, a reviewing court's power to affirm the decision of the agency and to remand for further proceedings is not circumscribed. Harrell v. Wilson County Schools, 58 N.C. App. 260, 293 S.E.2d 687 (1982), cert. denied, 460 U.S. 1012, 103 S. Ct. 1251, 75 L. Ed. 2d 481 (1983).

It is unnecessary for a trial judge who reviews administrative action under former § 150A-51 to explain the reasons for his decision to affirm such action. Area Mental Health v. Speed, 69 N.C. App. 247, 317 S.E.2d 22, cert. denied, 312 N.C. 81, 321 S.E.2d 893 (1984).

Standards for Judicial Review. — The standards for judicial review set forth in this section, the whole record test, govern appeals from decisions of city or county boards of education. Warren v. New Hanover County Bd. of Educ., 104 N.C. App. 522, 410 S.E.2d 232 (1991).

Standards for Judicial Review Must Be Clearly Applied. — A case involving the denial of Rehabilitation Act benefits under P.L. 102-569, 42 U.S.C. § 701, et seq. as amended, was remanded to the trial court so it could: (1) advance its own characterization of the issues presented by petitioner; and (2) clearly delineate the standards of review, detailing the standards used to resolve each distinct issue raised. Hedgepeth v. North Carolina Div. of Servs. for the Blind, 142 N.C. App. 338, 543 S.E.2d 169 (2001).

Review of Statutory Interpretation. — As incorrect statutory interpretation by an agency constitutes an error of law under subdivision (b)(4), when the issue on appeal is whether the state agency erred in interpreting a statutory term, an appellate court may substitute its own judgment for that of the agency and employ de novo review. Friends of Hatteras Island Nat'l Historic Maritime Forest Land Trust for Preservation, Inc. v. Coastal Resources Comm'n, 117 N.C. App. 556, 452 S.E.2d 337 (1995).

This Section Distinguished from Review Pursuant to § 150B-52. — When an appellate court reviews the decision of a lower court (as opposed to when it reviews an administrative agency's decision on direct appeal), the scope of review to be applied under § 150B-52 is the same as it is for other civil cases. Henderson v. North Carolina Dep't of Human Resources, 91 N.C. App. 527, 372 S.E.2d 887 (1988).

Unlawful Delegation of Power to Make Final Decision. — Where the Commissioner of Insurance delegated to his appointed hearing officer the power to make the final agency decision, the Commissioner made an unlawful delegation of his powers. State ex rel. Comm'r of Ins. v. North Carolina Rate Bureau, 61 N.C. App. 262, 300 S.E.2d 586, cert. denied, 308 N.C. 548, 304 S.E.2d 242 (1983).

Application in Insurance Ratemaking Cases. — While former § 150A-51 is the controlling judicial review statute in insurance ratemaking cases, to the extent that former § 58-9.6(b) (now § 58-2-90(b)) adds to the judicial review function, and in light of the virtually identical thrust of the two statutes, the Supreme Court would apply the review standards of both former § 58-9.6 (now § 58-2-90) and former § 150A-51, where such standards could be construed as being consistent with each other. State ex rel. Comm'r of Ins. v. North Carolina Rate Bureau, 300 N.C. 381, 269 S.E.2d 547, rehearing denied, 301 N.C. 107, 273 S.E.2d 300 (1980).

Since the scope of review provided in Article 4 of former Chapter 150A is substantially broader than that provided by former § 58-9.3 (now § 58-2-75), the scope of judicial review applicable to a denial by the Commissioner of Insurance of a plan by a domestic insurance company to reorganize under a holding company structure was that provided for in Article 4. Occidental Life Ins. Co. v. Ingram, 34 N.C. App. 619, 240 S.E.2d 460 (1977).

Along with Former §§ 58-9 Through 58-27 (Now §§ 58-2-40 Through 58-2-200) Insofar as Compatible. — While former Chapter 150A controls judicial review of insurance ratemaking procedures, the review provisions of former §§ 58-9 through 58-27 (now §§ 58-2-40 through 58-2-200) should also apply insofar as those provisions are compatible with the act. State ex rel. Comm'r of Ins. v. North Carolina Rate Bureau, 300 N.C. 460, 269 S.E.2d 538 (1980).

Application of Review Standards in This Section and § 58-2-75. — Although § 58-2-75 and this section are comparable, this section is the controlling judicial review statute; however, to the extent that § 58-2-75 added to and was consistent with the judicial review function of this section, the court would apply the review standards articulated in both statutes. North Carolina Reinsurance Facility v. Long, 98 N.C. App. 41, 390 S.E.2d 176 (1990).

When De Novo Review Permissible. — When the issue on appeal is whether a state agency erred in interpreting a statutory term, an appellate court may freely substitute its judgment for that of the agency and employ de novo review. Brooks v. Rebarco, Inc., 91 N.C. App. 459, 372 S.E.2d 342 (1988).

Although the interpretation of a statute by an agency created to administer that statute is traditionally accorded some deference by appellate courts, those interpretations are not binding. Bashford v. North Carolina Licensing Bd., 107 N.C. App. 462, 420 S.E.2d 466 (1992).

When a petitioner alleges that an agency violated his constitutional rights, the Supreme Court will undertake de novo review. Meads v. North Carolina Dep't of Agric., 349 N.C. 656, 509 S.E.2d 165 (1998).

Because appellees alleged in their petition for judicial review that appellants erroneously construed State and federal law regarding the relation between Medicare and Medicaid, the court would review the matter de novo and was free to substitute its judgment for that of the administrative agency. Duke Univ. Medical Ctr. v. Bruton, 134 N.C. App. 39, 516 S.E.2d 633 (1999).

This section, as recodified in 1985, and prior to its amendment in 1987, did not require the reviewing court to set out its reasons for reversal or modification, unlike under former § 150A-51, which required the reviewing court to set out written reasons only when reversing or modifying an agency decision. Shepherd v. Consolidated Judicial Retirement Sys., 89 N.C. App. 560, 366 S.E.2d 604 (1988).

Appellate Court Review Not Limited to Superior Court's Findings and Conclusions. — Appellate court's review is limited to assignments of error to the superior court's order, but is not required to accord any particular deference to the superior court's findings and conclusions concerning the Commission's actions. Watson v. North Carolina Real Estate Comm'n, 87 N.C. App. 637, 362 S.E.2d 294 (1987), cert. denied, 321 N.C. 746, 365 S.E.2d 296 (1988).

Court of Appeals merely determines whether an administrative decision has a rational basis in the evidence. North Carolina Dep't of Cor. v. Hodge, 99 N.C. App. 602, 394 S.E.2d 285 (1990).

Reasons for Not Adopting Recommendations. — Subsection (a) did not entitle petitioner to a review of whether the specific reasons the State Personnel Commission did not adopt the recommended decision were correct; only that they be stated. Oates v. North Carolina Dep't of Cor., 114 N.C. App. 597, 442 S.E.2d 542 (1994).

Review by Court of Appeals. — Court of Appeals' review of trial court's consideration of final agency decision is to determine whether trial court failed to properly apply review standard articulated in this section. Review is further limited to exceptions and assignments of error set forth to order of superior court. Walker v. North Carolina Dep't of Human Resources, 100 N.C. App. 498, 397 S.E.2d 350 (1990), cert. denied, 328 N.C. 98, 402 S.E.2d 430 (1991).

Generally, review by Court of Appeals is limited by properly presented assignments of error and exceptions. North Carolina Dep't of Cor. v. Hodge, 99 N.C. App. 602, 394 S.E.2d 285 (1990).

The scope of review applied by an appellate court when reviewing a decision of a lower court is the same as in other civil cases. Thus, the appellate court's review is limited to determining whether the superior court committed any errors of law. Crowell Constructors, Inc. v. North Carolina Dep't of Env't, Health & Natural Resources, 107 N.C. App. 716, 421 S.E.2d 612 (1992), cert. denied, 333 N.C. 343, 426 S.E.2d 704 (1993).

The standard of review for an appellate court upon an appeal from an order of the superior court affirming or reversing an administrative agency decision is the same standard of review as that employed by the superior court. Dorsey v. UNC-Wilmington, 122 N.C. App. 58, 468 S.E.2d 557 (1996).

Standards of Review Contrasted. — Proper standard to be applied on appeal depends on the issues presented. If it is alleged that the agency's decision was based on an error of law, then de novo review is required. Review of whether an agency decision is supported by evidence, or is arbitrary or capricious, requires the court to employ the whole record test. Walker v. North Carolina Dep't of Human Resources, 100 N.C. App. 498, 397 S.E.2d 350 (1990), cert. denied, 328 N.C. 98, 402 S.E.2d 430 (1991).

Inadequate Notice. — Agency decision dismissing a state employee was reversed where the reviewing court found that notice given to the employee did not provide her with adequate notice of the reasons for her dismissal. Owen v. UNC-G Physical Plant, 121 N.C. App. 682, 468 S.E.2d 813 (1996), discretionary review improvidently allowed, 344 N.C. 73, 477 S.E.2d 33 (1996).

Procedural safeguards within § 126-35(a) serve as a prophylactic protection against summary dismissal of state employees based on inadequate notice. Owen v. UNC-G Physical Plant, 121 N.C. App. 682, 468 S.E.2d 813 (1996), discretionary review improvidently allowed, 344 N.C. 73, 477 S.E.2d 33 (1996).

The statute does not require a point-by-point refutation of the Administrative Law Judge's findings and conclusions. Webb v. North Carolina Dep't of Env't, Health & Natural Resources, Coastal Resources Comm'n, 102 N.C. App. 767, 404 S.E.2d 29 (1991).

Where the commission's findings discussed the flawed premises of the recom- mended decision of the Administrative Law Judge, those findings were adequate, quite specific indeed, and went to the heart of the case. Webb v. North Carolina Dep't of Env't, Health & Natural Resources, Coastal Resources Comm'n, 102 N.C. App. 767, 404 S.E.2d 29 (1991).

Remand Required for Insufficiency of Findings Under Former § 150A-36. — Where, on review of an order of a state commission permitting petitioner savings and loan association to open a branch office, the trial court determined that the commission's findings were insufficient in that they lacked the specificity required by former § 150A-36, the trial court should never have reached the question of whether reversal under subdivision (5) of former § 150A-51 was appropriate, as remand for further findings was essential upon concluding that the findings of record presented an inadequate basis for review. Under no applicable theory of law would it be appropriate for the trial court to reverse the commission and substitute its judgment for the commission's. Community Sav. & Loan Ass'n v. North Carolina Sav. & Loan Comm'n, 43 N.C. App. 493, 259 S.E.2d 373 (1979).

Findings of Fact Binding Where Respondent Failed to Object. — Respondent did not object to adopted findings of fact at superior court level. Findings of fact were binding, therefore, at that appellate level, and binding for purposes of review by the Court of Appeals. Walker v. North Carolina Dep't of Human Resources, 100 N.C. App. 498, 397 S.E.2d 350 (1990), cert. denied, 328 N.C. 98, 402 S.E.2d 430 (1991).

Review of Decisions of Boards of Education. — The appropriate standard of judicial review for reviewing administrative decisions of boards of education is set forth in former § 150A-51. Faulkner v. New Bern-Craven County Bd. of Educ., 65 N.C. App. 483, 309 S.E.2d 548 (1983), rev'd on other grounds, 311 N.C. 42, 316 S.E.2d 281 (1984).

Applicable standard of judicial review for an appeal of a school board decision is set forth in former § 150A-51. Goodwin v. Goldsboro City Bd. of Educ., 67 N.C. App. 243, 312 S.E.2d 892, cert. denied, 311 N.C. 304, 317 S.E.2d 680 (1984).

The standards for judicial review set forth in former § 150A-51 are applicable to appeals from school boards to the courts, since no other statute provides guidance for judicial review of school board decisions and in the interest of uniformity in reviewing administrative board decisions. Faulkner v. New Bern-Craven County Bd. of Educ., 311 N.C. 42, 316 S.E.2d 281 (1984).

While § 150B-2(1) expressly excepts local boards of education from the coverage of the Administrative Procedure Act, nonetheless the standards for judicial review set forth in this section apply to appeals from school boards. Evers v. Pender County Bd. of Educ., 104 N.C. App. 1, 407 S.E.2d 879 (1991), aff'd, 331 N.C. 380, 416 S.E.2d 3 (1992).

Appeal to Superior Court. — A teacher who is denied a promotion under the career ladder program may appeal to the superior court after exhausting his administrative remedies by appealing to the local board of education. Warren v. New Hanover County Bd. of Educ., 104 N.C. App. 522, 410 S.E.2d 232 (1991).

As to review of teacher dismissal proceedings under former § 150A-51 and former § 115-142, see Thompson v. Wake County Bd. of Educ., 292 N.C. 406, 233 S.E.2d 538 (1977).

Review of a decision by Commission of Motor Vehicles is governed by former § 150A-51. GMC v. Kinlaw, 78 N.C. App. 521, 338 S.E.2d 114 (1985).

Basis for Review of Personnel Commission Decision. — While respondent's and petitioner's motions for summary judgment in superior court on review of State Personnel Commission's decision were procedurally incorrect, the trial court's order allowing respondent's motion for summary judgment was tantamount to affirming the full Commission's ruling, and sufficiently set forth a reviewable basis for affirming such ruling. Parks v. Department of Human Resources, 79 N.C. App. 125, 338 S.E.2d 826, cert. denied, 316 N.C. 553, 344 S.E.2d 8, 345 S.E.2d 383 (1986).

Review of Award of Industrial Commission. — In passing upon an appeal from an award of the Industrial Commission, the reviewing court is limited in its inquiry to two questions of law, namely: (1) Whether or not there was any competent evidence before the Commission to support its findings of fact; and (2) Whether or not the findings of fact of the Commission justified its legal conclusions and decision. Waggoner v. North Carolina Bd. of Alcoholic Control, 7 N.C. App. 692, 173 S.E.2d 548 (1970).

Cancellation of Truck Driver School License. — Superior court had jurisdiction pursuant to this section to review order cancelling petitioner's truck driver school license, even though petitioner waived its right to an evidentiary hearing. Charlotte Truck Driver Training School, Inc. v. North Carolina DMV, 95 N.C. App. 209, 381 S.E.2d 861 (1989).

Rescission of Coastal Area Management Act Development Permit. — Trial court's rescission of Coastal Area Management Act Development permit was affirmed where there were a variety of ecological concerns, potential environmental damage, and interference with public access to and use of the affected waters, and the whole record showed that the only basis for issuing the permit was that it would make the public waters adjacent to the permittee's condominium project more convenient for the permittee's use. Ballance v. North Carolina Coastal Resources Comm'n, 108 N.C. App. 288, 423 S.E.2d 815 (1992), petition for reconsideration dismissed, 333 N.C. 789, 431 S.E.2d 21 (1993).

Determining Unnecessary Hardship from Coastal Area Management Act. — To determine whether a parcel of property suffers from unnecessary hardship due to strict application of the Coastal Area Management Act, the Coastal Resources Commission must make findings of fact and conclusions of law as to the impact of the Act on the landowner's ability to make reasonable use of his property. Williams v. North Carolina Dep't of Env't & Natural Resources, 144 N.C. App. 479, 548 S.E.2d 793 (2001).

Superior court is without power to order the North Carolina Board of Alcoholic Control to issue a permit to petitioners, but can order the Board to exercise its discretion in accordance with law. Waggoner v. North Carolina Bd. of Alcoholic Control, 7 N.C. App. 692, 173 S.E.2d 548 (1970).

Evidence held incompetent to sustain a finding of the State Board of Alcoholic Control that a licensee sold beer to a minor or failed to give his licensed premises proper supervision. Thomas v. State Bd. of Alcoholic Control, 258 N.C. 513, 128 S.E.2d 884 (1963).

Safety training violation by contractor was considered "serious" where the evidence showed that (1) the lack of proper training created the possibility of an accident, and (2) if an accident did occur, there was a substantial probability of death or serious physical harm. Associated Mechanical Contractors v. Payne, 342 N.C. 825, 467 S.E.2d 398 (1996).

Statement of Reasons for Reversing Decision Held Adequate. — Statement of superior court judge in reversing Hearing Aid Dealers and Fitters Board's conclusions that the facts found by the agency failed "to support its conclusion of law that the petitioner was grossly incompetent within the purview of § 93D-13(a)(2)" constituted a succinct and adequate statement of its reasons for reversing the agency's decision. Faulkner v. North Carolina State Hearing Aid Dealers & Fitters Bd., 38 N.C. App. 222, 247 S.E.2d 668 (1978).

Evidence Supported Conclusion State Funds Had Been Misused. — Where petitioner had charged a number of personal calls to the State Telephone Network credit card he had been issued, there was substantial evidence before the commission to support its conclusion that petitioner had willfully and repeatedly misused state funds. White v. North Carolina Dep't of Env'tl., Health, & Natural Resources, 117 N.C. App. 545, 451 S.E.2d 376 (1995).

Error of Law. — An error of law, as that term is used in subdivision (b)(4), exists if a conclusion of law entered by the administrative agency is not supported by the findings of fact entered by the agency or if the conclusion of law does not support the decision of the agency. Brooks v. Anasco & Assocs., 114 N.C. App. 711, 443 S.E.2d 89 (1994).

The standard of review to be applied by the reviewing court depends on the issues presented on appeal. Homoly v. North Carolina State Bd. of Dental Exmrs., 125 N.C. App. 127, 479 S.E.2d 215 (1997).

Offers of Proof Properly Considered. — Commission properly considered offers of proof included in the record since offers of proof are part of the official record under § 150B-37(a)(2) and not "new evidence" violative of subsection (a) of this section. Everhart & Assocs. v. Department of Env't, Health & Natural Resources, 127 N.C. App. 693, 493 S.E.2d 66 (1997), cert. denied, 347 N.C. 575, 502 S.E.2d 590 (1998).

Applied in Johnson v. Division of Social Servs., 89 N.C. App. 481, 366 S.E.2d 538 (1988); Meyers v. Department of Human Resources, 92 N.C. App. 193, 374 S.E.2d 280 (1988); Wilson v. State Residence Comm., 92 N.C. App. 355, 374 S.E.2d 415 (1988); Uicker v. North Carolina State Bd. of Dental Exmrs., 93 N.C. 295, 378 S.E.2d 45 (1989); Cameron v. North Carolina State Bd. of Dental Exmrs., 95 N.C. App. 332, 382 S.E.2d 864 (1989); Boston v. North Carolina Private Protective Servs. Bd., 96 N.C. App. 204, 385 S.E.2d 148 (1989); Cowan v. North Carolina Private Protective Servs. Bd., 98 N.C. App. 498, 391 S.E.2d 217 (1990); Gadson v. North Carolina Mem. Hosp., 99 N.C. App. 169, 392 S.E.2d 618 (1990); Huntington Manor v. North Carolina Dep't of Human Resources, 99 N.C. App. 52, 393 S.E.2d 104 (1990); Evans v. North Carolina Dep't of Crime Control & Pub. Safety, 101 N.C. App. 108, 398 S.E.2d 880 (1990); McKoy v. Department of Human Resources, 101 N.C. App. 356, 399 S.E.2d 382 (1991); Jarrett v. North Carolina Dep't of Cultural Resources, 101 N.C. App. 475, 400 S.E.2d 66 (1991); Brooks v. Austin Berryhill Fabricators, Inc., 102 N.C. App. 212, 401 S.E.2d 795 (1991); *Cramer Mt. Country Club & Properties, Inc. v. ## II. EXCEEDING STATUTORY AUTHORITY OR JURISDICTION.

Prohibitions in Former § 150A-51(2) and (3) Distinguished. — The prohibition against agency action “in excess of statutory authority” in former § 58-9.6(b)(2) (now § 58-2-90(b)(2)) and subdivision (2) of former § 150A-51 refers to the general authority of an administrative agency properly to discharge its statutorily assigned responsibilities, while the prohibition against agency action “made upon unlawful procedure” in former § 58-9.6(b)(3) (now § 58-2-90(b)(3)) and subdivision (3) of former § 150A-51 refers to the procedures employed by the agency in discharging its statutorily authorized acts. State ex rel. Comm'r of Ins. v. North Carolina Rate Bureau, 300 N.C. 381, 269 S.E.2d 547, rehearing denied, 301 N.C. 107, 273 S.E.2d 300 (1980).

Order Not In Excess of Statutory Powers. — An order of the Commissioner of Insurance that data submitted in a ratemaking case be audited was not in excess of his statutory powers as contemplated by former § 58-9.6(b)(2) (now § 58-2-90(b)(2)) or subdivision (2) of former § 150A-51. State ex rel. Comm'r of Ins. v. North Carolina Rate Bureau, 300 N.C. 381, 269 S.E.2d 547, rehearing denied, 301 N.C. 107, 273 S.E.2d 300 (1980).

Assessment Based upon Penalty Factors Reasonably Related to Act's Enforcement.

— Department's assessment was not based upon the secretary's “absolute” discretion, but instead upon numerous penalty factors reasonably related to the act's administration and enforcement, which resulted in a fair and reasoned penalty assessment. In re Appeal from Civil Penalty Assessed for Violations of Sedimentation Pollution Control Act, 92 N.C. App. 1, 373 S.E.2d 572 (1988), rev'd on other grounds, 324 N.C. 373, 379 S.E.2d 30 (1989).

Exceeding Authority Did Not Prejudice Competitor.

— While the Department of Health and Human Services technically exceeded its authority and jurisdiction and committed errors of law by awarding a certificate of need to establish a new dialysis center on the basis of an application that was never shown to be conforming to all applicable criteria, its actions did not prejudice the applicant's competitor because the alleged mistakes and omissions, made under a settlement agreement, were corrected by final agency decision. Bio-Medical Applications of N.C., Inc. v. North Carolina Dep't of Human Resources, 136 N.C. App. 103, 523 S.E.2d 677 (1999).

III. UNLAWFUL PROCEDURE.

Attempt to Establish Rule Violated Former § 150A-51(3).

— Attempt by Commissioner of Insurance to establish a rule requiring audited data in an insurance ratemaking hearing was “made upon unlawful procedure” as contemplated by former § 58-9.6(b) (3) (now § 58-2-90(b)(3)) and subdivision (3) of former § 150A-51, where the Commissioner sought to establish the rule on an ad hoc adjudication basis rather than following normal North Carolina Administrative Procedure Act rulemaking requirements, since the process of rulemaking would have presented no danger that its use would frustrate the effective accomplishment of the agency's functions. State ex rel. Comm'r of

Ins. v. North Carolina Rate Bureau, 300 N.C. 381, 269 S.E.2d 547, rehearing denied, 301 N.C. 107, 273 S.E.2d 300 (1980).

Verification Procedure Unsupported by Federal Regulations Violated Subdivision (b)(3). — Federal regulations govern verification of information concerning a food stamp recipient by a State agency. And thus where the verification procedure used by a county was unsupported by the federal regulations, it was in violation of subdivision (b)(3) of this section. Tay v. Flaherty, 90 N.C. App. 346, 368 S.E.2d 403, cert. denied, 323 N.C. 370, 373 S.E.2d 556 (1988).

IV. "WHOLE RECORD" TEST.

Whole Record Test Retained. — Although the 1985 amendment of former § 150A-51 deleted the phrase "in view of the entire record as submitted," the amendment maintained the whole record test for judicial review under the Administrative Procedure Act. In re K-mart Corp., 319 N.C. 378, 354 S.E.2d 468 (1987), decided prior to 1987 amendment which reinserted the phrase "in view of the entire record as submitted"; Bashford v. North Carolina Licensing Bd., 107 N.C. App. 462, 420 S.E.2d 466 (1992).

Function of "Whole Record" Test. — The "whole record" test is not a tool of judicial intrusion; instead, it merely gives a reviewing court the capability to determine whether an administrative decision has a rational basis in the evidence. North Carolina Dep't of Cor. v. Gibson, 58 N.C. App. 241, 293 S.E.2d 664 (1982), rev'd on other grounds, 308 N.C. 131, 301 S.E.2d 78 (1983).

"Whole Record" Test. — In reviewing an agency's decision, the superior court applies the "whole record" test, which requires the examination of all competent evidence to determine if the administrative agency's decision is supported by substantial evidence. Rector v. North Carolina Sheriffs' Educ. & Training Stds. Comm'n, 103 N.C. App. 527, 406 S.E.2d 613 (1991).

The whole record test is applied when determining whether a decision is arbitrary and capricious. Rector v. North Carolina Sheriffs' Educ. & Training Stds. Comm'n, 103 N.C. App. 527, 406 S.E.2d 613 (1991).

The applicable scope of review is the "whole record" test. When the test is applied, the reviewing court is required to take into account all of the evidence, including that which supports the findings and contradictory evidence. Crowell Constructors, Inc. v. North Carolina Dep't of Env't, Health & Natural Resources, 107 N.C. App. 716, 421 S.E.2d 612 (1992), cert. denied, 333 N.C. 343, 426 S.E.2d 704 (1993).

"Whole Record" Test Inappropriate — The trial court erred in applying the "Whole Record" test where the appellant/ex-police officer alleged that the appellee/civil service board incorrectly applied the law in terminating his employment. The trial court was required to review that decision "de novo." Jordan v. Charlotte Civil Serv. Bd., 137 N.C. App. 575, 528 S.E.2d 927 (2000).

"Substantial Evidence" Defined. — Substantial evidence is such relevant evidence as a reasonable mind might accept as adequate to support a conclusion. It is more than a scintilla or a permissible inference. Lackey v. North Carolina Dep't of Human Resources, 306 N.C. 231, 293 S.E.2d 171 (1982).

Substantial evidence is that which a reasonable mind would regard as adequately supporting a particular conclusion. Walker v. North Carolina Dep't of Human Resources, 100 N.C. App. 498, 397 S.E.2d 350 (1990), cert. denied, 328 N.C. 98, 402 S.E.2d 430 (1991).

Standard of judicial review set forth in former § 150A-51(5) is known as the "whole record" test and must be distinguished from both de novo review and the "any competent evidence" standard of review. Thompson v. Wake County Bd. of Educ., 292 N.C. 406, 233 S.E.2d 538 (1977); North Carolina A & T Univ. v. Kimber, 49 N.C. App. 46, 270 S.E.2d 492 (1980); Overton v. Goldsboro City Bd. of Educ., 51 N.C. App. 303, 276 S.E.2d 458, aff'd, 304 N.C. 312, 283 S.E.2d 495 (1981); Dailey v. North Carolina State Bd. of Dental Exmrs., 60 N.C. App. 441, 299 S.E.2d 473, rev'd on other grounds, 309 N.C. 710, 309 S.E.2d 219 (1983); Burrow v. Randolph County Bd. of Educ., 61 N.C. App. 619, 301 S.E.2d 704 (1983); Faulkner v. New Bern-Craven County Bd. of Educ., 65 N.C. App. 483, 309 S.E.2d 548 (1983), rev'd on other grounds, 311 N.C. 42, 316 S.E.2d 281 (1984); Goodwin v. Goldsboro City Bd. of Educ., 67 N.C. App. 243, 312 S.E.2d 892 (1984).

As distinguished from the "any competent evidence" test and a de novo review, the "whole record" test "gives a reviewing court the capability to determine whether an administrative decision has a rational basis in the evidence." Bennett v. Hertford County Bd. of Educ., 69 N.C. App. 615, 317 S.E.2d 912, cert. denied, 312 N.C. 81, 321 S.E.2d 893 (1984).

In reviewing an administrative decision to determine whether the decision is supported by substantial evidence, the appellate court must apply the "whole record" test. Leiphart v. North Carolina School of Arts, 80 N.C. App. 339, 342 S.E.2d 914, cert. denied, 318 N.C. 507, 349 S.E.2d 862 (1986), decided under former § 150A-51.

In determining whether reversal or modification of an administrative decision is appropriate under former § 150A-51(5), the test applied to the evidence must be the "whole record" test. Community Sav. & Loan Ass'n v. North Caro- lina Sav. & Loan Comm'n, 43 N.C. App. 493, 259 S.E.2d 373 (1979).

Court Must Consider All Evidence. — The applicable scope of review of the decision of an administrative agency is the "whole record" test. In applying the whole record test, the court must consider all the evidence, including that which supports the findings and contradictory evidence. Mount Olive Home Health Care Agency, Inc. v. N.C. Dep't of Human Resources, 78 N.C. App. 224, 336 S.E.2d 625 (1985).

The "whole record" test requires the court to take into account all the evidence, both that which supports the decision of the Commission and that which in fairness detracts from it. Leiphart v. North Carolina School of Arts, 80 N.C. App. 339, 342 S.E.2d 914, cert. denied, 318 N.C. 507, 349 S.E.2d 862 (1986).

Court of Appeals review of an administrative agency's decision is governed by the Administrative Procedure Act, and court may reverse or modify the agency's decision only if it violates one of five statutory grounds. Court will determine if the agency's findings, inferences, conclusions, or decisions are affected by error of law or unsupported by substantial evidence admissible under §§ 150B-29(a), 150B-30, or 150B-31 in view of the entire record as submitted. North Carolina Dep't of Cor. v. Hodge, 99 N.C. App. 602, 394 S.E.2d 285 (1990).

And Must Examine the "Whole Record" to Determine If Substantial Evidence Supports Agency's Decision. — The reviewing court is required to examine all of the competent evidence, pleadings, etc., which comprise the "whole record" to determine if there is substantial evidence in the record to support the administrative tribunal's findings and conclusions. Community Sav. & Loan Ass'n v. North Carolina Sav. & Loan Comm'n, 43 N.C. App. 493, 259 S.E.2d 373 (1979); Henderson v. North Carolina Dep't of Human Resources, 91 N.C. App. 527, 372 S.E.2d 887 (1988).

To determine whether an agency's findings are supported by substantial evidence, the reviewing court applies the "whole record" test. Employment Sec. Comm'n v. Peace, 122 N.C. App. 313, 470 S.E.2d 63 (1996), review granted, 345 N.C. 640, 483 S.E.2d 706 (1997).

Including Contradictory and Conflicting Evidence. — The "whole record" rule set forth in former § 150A-51(5) requires the court, in determining the substantiality of evidence supporting the board's decision, to take into account whatever in the record fairly detracts from the weight of the board's evidence. Under the whole evidence rule, the court may not consider the evidence which in and of itself justifies the board's result, without taking into account contradictory evidence or evidence from which conflicting inferences could be drawn. Thompson v. Wake County Bd. of Educ., 292 N.C. 406, 233 S.E.2d 538 (1977); Chesnutt

v. Peters, 300 N.C. 359, 266 S.E.2d 623 (1980); McCormick v. Peters, 48 N.C. App. 365, 269 S.E.2d 168 (1980); North Carolina A & T Univ. v. Kimber, 49 N.C. App. 46, 270 S.E.2d 492 (1980); In re Land & Mineral Co., 49 N.C. App. 608, 272 S.E.2d 878 (1980), cert. denied, 302 N.C. 397, 279 S.E.2d 351 (1981); Overton v. Goldsboro City Bd. of Educ., 51 N.C. App. 303, 276 S.E.2d 458, aff'd, 304 N.C. 312, 283 S.E.2d 495 (1981); North Carolina Dep't of Cor. v. Gibson, 58 N.C. App. 241, 293 S.E.2d 664 (1982); Faulkner v. New Bern-Craven County Bd. of Educ., 65 N.C. App. 483, 309 S.E.2d 548 (1983), rev'd on other grounds, 311 N.C. 42, 316 S.E.2d 281 (1984); Crump v. Board of Educ., 79 N.C. App. 372, 339 S.E.2d 483, cert. denied, 317 N.C. 333, 346 S.E.2d 137 (1986).

Consideration of the sufficiency of the evidence to support a decision under the "whole record" test does not allow the Supreme Court to replace the agency's judgment where there are two reasonably conflicting views. However, the Supreme Court is required to take into account the evidence supporting the agency's decision as well as the evidence that detracts from the weight of that evidence and its decision. In re Broad & Gales Creek Community Ass'n, 300 N.C. 267, 266 S.E.2d 645 (1980).

The "whole record" test properly takes into account the specialized expertise of the staff of an administrative agency, and thus does not allow the reviewing court to substitute its own judgment for that of the agency. It does require, however, that the court take into account evidence in the record which fairly detracts from the weight of the evidence the agency relied upon to make its decision. High Rock Lake Ass'n v. North Carolina Envtl. Mgt. Comm'n, 51 N.C. App. 275, 276 S.E.2d 472 (1981).

And Testimony of All Witnesses. — Under the whole record test, judge reviewing an administrative decision must consider the complete testimony of all the witnesses. In re Environmental Mgt. Comm'n, 53 N.C. App. 135, 280 S.E.2d 520 (1981).

The reviewing court must take into account contradictory evidence or evidence from which conflicting inferences could be drawn and determine whether the administrative decision had a rational basis in the evidence. Henderson v. North Carolina Dep't of Human Resources, 91 N.C. App. 527, 372 S.E.2d 887 (1988).

Judgment Held to Meet Requirements of Section. — Where the judgment recited that the court had reviewed the record and matters on file and had considered the oral arguments and relevant statutory provisions, and based on these considerations, the judge concluded that declaratory ruling was not erroneous as a matter of law and was due to be affirmed, the judgment met all the requirements of this section and was clearly sufficient as a matter of law. Shepherd v. Consolidated Judicial Retire- ment Sys., 89 N.C. App. 560, 366 S.E.2d 604 (1988).

The trial court applied the “whole record test,” the correct standard of review, to determine the sufficiency of the evidence, thus, no further findings were necessary where the court determined that the Real Estate Commission properly refused to license an applicant on the basis that he did not possess the requisite integrity because he had been convicted of soliciting a crime against nature. Hodgkins v. North Carolina Real Estate Comm’n, 130 N.C. App. 626, 504 S.E.2d 789 (1998).

Insufficiency of an agency’s findings does not relieve trial court of responsibility for considering all competent evidence in the whole record to determine whether substantial evidence is present to support the commission’s conclusions. Community Sav. & Loan Ass’n v. North Carolina Sav. & Loan Comm’n, 43 N.C. App. 493, 259 S.E.2d 373 (1979).

Conflicting Evidence. — When evidence is conflicting, the standard for judicial review of administrative decisions is that of the “whole record” test. State ex rel. Comm’r of Ins. v. North Carolina Rate Bureau, 300 N.C. 381, 269 S.E.2d 547, rehearing denied, 301 N.C. 107, 273 S.E.2d 300 (1980); Lackey v. North Carolina Dep’t of Human Resources, 306 N.C. 231, 293 S.E.2d 171 (1982).

The “whole record” test does not allow the reviewing court to replace the board’s judgment as between two reasonable conflicting views, even though the court could justifiably have reached a different result had the matter been before it de novo. Wilkie v. North Carolina Wildlife Resources Comm’n, 118 N.C. App. 475, 455 S.E.2d 871 (1995).

The whole record test is not a tool of judicial intrusion; instead it merely gives a reviewing court the capability to determine whether an administrative decision has a rational basis in the evidence. Thus, the task before the trial court is to consider all the evidence, both that which supports the decision of the board and that which detracts from it. Goodwin v. Goldsboro City Bd. of Educ., 67 N.C. App. 243, 312 S.E.2d 892, cert. denied, 311 N.C. 304, 317 S.E.2d 680 (1984).

The “whole record” test is not a tool of judicial intrusion and the court is not permitted to replace the agency’s judgment with its own even though the court might rationally justify reaching a different conclusion. Floyd v. North Carolina Dep’t of Commerce, 99 N.C. App. 125, 392 S.E.2d 660 (1990).

The “whole record” standard of review is not intended to encourage “judicial duplication” of administrative decision-making. Watson v. North Carolina Real Estate Comm’n, 87 N.C. App. 637, 362 S.E.2d 294

Mathematically Inconsistent Testimony. — Commissioner’s derived figure for underwriting profit would not be based on “substantial evidence” if it relied on mathematically inconsistent testimony. State ex rel. Comm’r of Ins. v. North Carolina Rate Bureau, 96 N.C. App. 220, 385 S.E.2d 510 (1989).

Court May Not Replace Agency’s Judgment with Its Own. — The “whole record” test set forth in subdivision (5) of former § 150A-51 does not allow the reviewing court to replace the board’s judgment as between two reasonably conflicting views, even though the court could justifiably have reached a different result had the matter been before it de novo. Thompson v. Wake County Bd. of Educ., 292 N.C. 406, 233 S.E.2d 538 (1977); Chesnutt v. Peters, 300 N.C. 359, 266 S.E.2d 623 (1980); North Carolina A & T Univ. v. Kimber, 49 N.C. App. 46, 270 S.E.2d 492 (1980); Overton v. Goldsboro City Bd. of Educ., 51 N.C. App. 303, 276 S.E.2d 458, aff’d, 304 N.C. 312, 283 S.E.2d 495 (1981); Faulkner v. New Bern-Craven County Bd. of Educ., 65 N.C. App. 483, 309 S.E.2d 548 (1983), rev’d on other grounds, 311 N.C. 42, 316 S.E.2d 281 (1984); Crump v. Board of Educ., 79 N.C. App. 372, 339 S.E.2d 483, cert. denied, 317 N.C. 333, 346 S.E.2d 137 (1986).

The “whole record” test is distinguishable from both de novo review and the “any competent evidence” standard of review. Under the “whole record” test, the reviewing court cannot replace the board’s judgment between two reasonably conflicting views, even though the court could have reached a different conclusion had the matter been before it de novo. Boehm v. North Carolina Bd. of Podiatry Exmrs., 41 N.C. 567, 255 S.E.2d 328, cert. denied, 298 N.C. 294, 259 S.E.2d 298 (1979); North Carolina Dep’t of Cor. v. Gibson, 58 N.C. App. 241, 293 S.E.2d 664 (1982), rev’d on other grounds, 308 N.C. 131, 301 S.E.2d 78 (1983).

The whole record test does not allow the reviewing court to replace the board’s judgment as between two reasonably conflicting views, even though the court could justifiably have reached a different result had the matter been heard before it de novo. Community Sav. & Loan Ass’n v. North Carolina Sav. & Loan Comm’n, 43 N.C. App. 493, 259 S.E.2d 373 (1979); Dailey v. North Carolina State Bd. of Dental Exmrs., 60 N.C. App. 441, 299 S.E.2d 473, rev’d on other grounds, 309 N.C. 710, 309 S.E.2d 219 (1983); Meads v. North Carolina Dep’t of Agric., 349 N.C. 656, 509 S.E.2d 165 (1998).

No court may weigh evidence presented to the State board and substitute its evaluation of the evidence for that of the board. In re Appeal of Amp, Inc., 287 N.C. 547, 215 S.E.2d 752 (1975); North Carolina Dep’t of Cor. v. Gibson, 58 N.C. App. 241, 293 S.E.2d 664 (1982), rev'd on other grounds, 308 N.C. 131, 301 S.E.2d 78 (1983).

The mere existence of conflicting evidence does not permit the reviewing court to weigh the evidence and substitute its determination for that of the administrative agency. The credibility of the witnesses and the resolution of conflicts in their testimony is a matter for the agency, not a reviewing court. Dailey v. North Carolina State Bd. of Dental Exmrs., 60 N.C. App. 441, 299 S.E.2d 473, rev'd on other grounds, 309 N.C. 710, 309 S.E.2d 219 (1983).

The whole record test does not allow the reviewing court to replace the board's judgment as between two reasonably conflicting views, even though the court could justifiably have reached a different result had the matter been before it de novo. On the other hand, the whole record rule requires the court, in determining the substantiality of evidence supporting the board's decision, to take into account whatever in the record fairly detracts from the weight of the board's evidence. Goodwin v. Goldsboro City Bd. of Educ., 67 N.C. App. 243, 312 S.E.2d 892, cert. denied, 311 N.C. 304, 317 S.E.2d 680 (1984).

The "whole record" test does not permit the reviewing court to substitute its judgment for the agency's as between two reasonably conflicting views; however, it does require the court to take into account both the evidence justifying the agency's decision and the contradictory evidence from which a different result could be reached. Floyd v. North Carolina Dep't of Commerce, 99 N.C. App. 125, 392 S.E.2d 660 (1990).

In applying the whole record test, reasonable but conflicting views emerge from the evidence, the Court of Appeals cannot replace the agency's judgment with its own. It must, however, take into account whatever in the record fairly detracts from the weight of the evidence which supports the decision. Ultimately it must determine whether the decision has a rational basis in the evidence. GMC v. Kinlaw, 78 N.C. App. 521, 338 S.E.2d 114 (1985); In re Kozy, 91 N.C. App. 342, 371 S.E.2d 778 (1988), cert. denied, 299 N.C. 736, 267 S.E.2d 672 (1980).

The reviewing court may reverse or modify an agency's decision if the substantial rights of the petitioner may have been prejudiced because the agency's findings, inferences, conclusions, or decisions are unsupported by substantial evidence in view of the entire record as submitted; this standard, the "whole record" test, does not allow the reviewing court to replace the agency's judgment as between two reasonably conflicting views, even though the court could justifiably have reached a different result had the matter been before it de novo. Mendenhall v. North Carolina Dep't of Human Resources, 119 N.C. App. 644, 459 S.E.2d 820 (1995).

The whole record test does not permit a reviewing court to replace the Disciplinary Hearing Commission's judgment as between two reasonably conflicting views, even though the court may have justifiably reached a different decision. North Carolina State Bar v. Maggiolo, 124 N.C. App. 22, 475 S.E.2d 727 (1996).

Weight and Sufficiency of Evidence. — It is for the administrative agency to determine the weight and sufficiency of the evidence and the credibility of the witnesses, to draw inferences from the facts, and to appraise conflicting and circumstantial evidence. State ex rel. Comm'r of Ins. v. North Carolina Rate Bureau, 300 N.C. 381, 269 S.E.2d 547, rehearing denied, 301 N.C. 107, 273 S.E.2d 300 (1980).

Agency's Findings of Fact Supported by Competent Evidence Are Conclusive. — The law of this State regarding the respective roles of the administrative agency and the reviewing court concerning conflicting evidence is premised on the notion that the credibility of the witnesses and the resolution of conflicts in their testimony is for the agency, not a reviewing court, and the findings of the agency supported by competent evidence, are conclusive upon judicial review of the agency's order. Dailey v. North Carolina State Bd. of Dental Exmrs., 60 N.C. App. 441, 299 S.E.2d 473, rev'd on other grounds, 309 N.C. 710, 309 S.E.2d 219 (1983).

When the judge of the superior court sits as an appellate court to review the decision of an administrative agency pursuant to this section, the findings of fact made by the administrative agency, if supported by competent, material and substantial evidence when viewed on the record as a whole, are conclusive upon the reviewing court. North Carolina Dep't of Cor. v. Gibson, 58 N.C. App. 241, 293 S.E.2d 664 (1982), rev'd on other grounds, 308 N.C. 131, 301 S.E.2d 78 (1983).

The administrative findings of fact made by the State Board of Opticians, if supported by competent, material and substantial evidence in view of the entire record, are conclusive upon a reviewing court, and not within the scope of its reviewing powers. In re Berman, 245 N.C. 612, 96 S.E.2d 836 (1957); In re Hawkins, 17 N.C. App. 378, 194 S.E.2d 540, cert. denied and appeal dismissed, 283 N.C. 393, 196 S.E.2d 275, cert. denied, 414 U.S. 1001, 94 S. Ct. 355, 38 L. Ed. 2d 237 (1973); Faulkner v. North Carolina State Hearing Aid Dealers & Fitters Bd., 38 N.C. App. 222, 247 S.E.2d 668 (1978).

And Court May Not Make Findings at Variance Therewith. — Upon a review of an order of the Property Tax Commission, the superior court is without authority to make findings at variance with the findings of the board when the findings of the board are supported by competent, material and substantial evidence. In re Appeal of Amp, Inc., 287 N.C. 547, 215 S.E.2d 752 (1975). See also, In re Property of Pine Raleigh Corp., 258 N.C. 398, 128 S.E.2d 855 (1963); In re Appeal of Reeves Broadcasting Corp., 273 N.C. 571, 160 S.E.2d 728 (1968).

Where the superior court, at the instance of appellant, found additional facts which the Tax Review Board had, although requested, refused to make, the court, in making these findings, weighed the evidence and substituted its evaluation of the evidence for that of the Board, and in so doing it exceeded its right of review. Clark Equip Co. v. Johnson, 261 N.C. 269, 134 S.E.2d 327 (1964).

The court cannot substitute its judgment for that of the State Board of Opticians in making findings of fact. In re Berman, 245 N.C. 612, 96 S.E.2d 836 (1957).

When Court May Make Findings at Variance with Agency's. — Where the reviewing court determines that the findings of the agency are not supported by substantial evidence, the court may make findings of variance with those of the agency. Scroggs v. North Carolina Criminal Justice Educ. & Training Stds. Comm'n, 101 N.C. App. 699, 400 S.E.2d 742 (1991).

Finding of Fact in Accordance with Uncontradicted Evidence. — When an administrative body finds a fact in accordance with uncontradicted evidence, little remains for the reviewing court to do, other than to find no error in the administrative body's election to accord the necessary weight and credibility to the testimony. North Carolina Dep't of Cor. v. Gibson, 58 N.C. App. 241, 293 S.E.2d 664 (1982), rev'd on other grounds, 308 N.C. 131, 301 S.E.2d 78 (1983).

Agency's Judgment Must Be Affirmed If Supported by Competent Evidence. — The reviewing court, while obligated to consider evidence of record that detracts from the administrative ruling, is not free to weigh all of the evidence and reach its own conclusions on the merits. If, after all the record has been reviewed, substantial competent evidence is found which would support the agency ruling, the ruling must stand. Substantial evidence in this context has been defined as such relevant evidence as a reasonable mind might accept as adequate to support a conclusion. Dailey v. North Carolina State Bd. of Dental Exmrs., 60 N.C. App. 441, 299 S.E.2d 473, rev'd on other grounds, 309 N.C. 710, 309 S.E.2d 219 (1983).

The "whole record" test requires the board's judgment to be affirmed if upon consideration of the whole record as submitted, the facts found by the board are supported by competent, material and substantial evidence, taking into account any contradictory evidence, or evidence from which conflicting inferences could be drawn. Boehm v. North Carolina Bd. of Podia- try Exmrs., 41 N.C. App. 567, 255 S.E.2d 328, cert. denied, 298 N.C. 294, 259 S.E.2d 298 (1979).

The reviewing court, while obligated to consider evidence of record that detracts from the administrative ruling, is not free to weigh all of the evidence and reach its own conclusions of the merits. If, after the record has been reviewed, substantial competent evidence is found which would support the agency ruling, the ruling must stand. Community Sav. & Loan Ass'n v. North Carolina Sav. & Loan Comm'n, 43 N.C. App. 493, 259 S.E.2d 373 (1979).

Agency findings of fact are conclusive if, upon review of the whole record, they are supported by competent, material, and substantial evidence. Humana Hosp. Corp. v. North Carolina Dep't of Human Resources, 81 N.C. App. 628, 345 S.E.2d 235 (1986).

But May Be Reversed If Not So Supported. — Upon review, the decision of the Board of Alcoholic Control may be reversed if substantial rights of the licensee are prejudiced by administrative findings, inferences, conclusions or decisions which are not supported by competent, material, and substantial evidence in view of the entire record as submitted. Underwood v. State Bd. of Alcoholic Control, 278 N.C. 623, 181 S.E.2d 1 (1971).

An agency decision may be reversed or modified if it is unsupported by substantial evidence, in view of the entire record as submitted. This standard of review is known as the "whole record" test. GMC v. Kinlaw, 78 N.C. App. 521, 338 S.E.2d 114 (1985).

Trial court properly reversed order of state board of elections ordering a new election based on the fact that it did not agree with the propriety of the county board's reliance on the affidavits of ineligible voters to show the effect of those votes on the outcome of the election, as the established law of the state holds that such testimony is proper. In re Harper, 118 N.C. App. 698, 456 S.E.2d 878 (1995).

Findings of Fact by Judge Not Required. — When the judge of the superior court sits as an appellate court to review the decision of an administrative agency pursuant to former § 150A-51, the judge is not required to make findings of fact. Faulkner v. North Carolina State Hearing Aid Dealers and Fitters Bd., 38 N.C. App. 222, 247 S.E.2d 668 (1978).

Findings Based on Unsworn Statement Not Authorized. — Absent stipulations or waiver, a zoning board of adjustment may not base critical findings of fact as to the existence or nonexistence of a nonconforming use on unsworn statements. Jarrell v. Board of Adjustment, 258 N.C. 476, 128 S.E.2d 879 (1963).

Applicability of "Whole Record" Test to Insurance Ratemaking Proceedings. — The "whole record" test is applicable to judicial review of administrative decisions in North Carolina, and both former § 58-9.6(b)(5) (now § 58-2-90(b)(5)) and former § 150A-51(5) put forth that test as a proper standard of judicial review of insurance ratemaking proceedings. State ex rel. Comm'r of Ins. v. North Carolina Rate Bureau, 300 N.C. 381, 269 S.E.2d 547, rehearing denied, 301 N.C. 107, 273 S.E.2d 300 (1980).

The superior court did not exceed the bounds of appropriate judicial review by engaging in independent fact finding when it reversed the Commissioner of Motor Vehicle's decision upon a review of the whole record, upon finding that the findings of fact and conclusions of law set out by the Commissioner were unsupported by substantial evidence. Star Auto. Co. v. Saab-Scania of Am., Inc., 84 N.C. App. 531, 353 S.E.2d 260 (1987).

Record Devoid of Substantial Evidence.

— Department of Human Resources erred in terminating spousal support where the record is clear that nursing home resident wanted his "money" but the record was devoid of any substantial evidence that he intended to apply all of his income, exceeding his personal needs allowance, to his nursing care, rather than towards the support of his wife. English v. Britt, 121 N.C. App. 320, 465 S.E.2d 48 (1996).

Review of disciplinary hearing decisions of the Disciplinary Hearing Commission is governed by the "whole record" test. North Carolina State Bar v. Maggiolo, 124 N.C. App. 22, 475 S.E.2d 727 (1996).

V. ARBITRARY OR CAPRICIOUS FINDINGS, DECISIONS, ETC.

Infection of an agency decision by consideration of arbitrary and capricious matter is clearly violative of subdivision (6) of former § 150A-51. North Carolina A & T Univ. v. Kimber, 49 N.C. App. 46, 270 S.E.2d 492 (1980).

Where an employee has engaged in off-duty criminal conduct, the agency need not show actual harm to its interests to demonstrate just cause for an employee's dismissal; however, it is well established that administrative agencies may not engage in arbitrary and capricious conduct. Eury v. North Carolina Emp. Sec. Comm'n, 115 N.C. App. 590, 446 S.E.2d 383, cert. denied, 338 N.C. 309, 451 S.E.2d 635 (1994).

Rational Nexus Required. — In cases in which an employee has been dismissed based upon an act of off-duty criminal conduct, the agency must demonstrate that the dismissal is supported by the existence of a rational nexus between the type of criminal conduct committed and the potential adverse impact on the employee's future ability to perform for the agency. Eury v. North Carolina Emp. Sec. Comm'n, 115 N.C. App. 590, 446 S.E.2d 383, cert. denied, 338 N.C. 309, 451 S.E.2d 635 (1994).

Factors to Consider in Determining If a Nexus Exists. — In determining whether a rational nexus exists between the type of off-duty criminal activity conducted by the employee and the employee's future ability to do his job, the Commission may consider the following factors: (1) how the conduct may have adversely affected clients or colleagues; (2) the relationship between the work performed by the employee and the type of criminal conduct committed; (3) the likelihood of recurrence of the questioned conduct and how the conduct may affect work performance, work quality, and the agency's goodwill and interests; (4) the proximity or remoteness in time of the conduct to the commencement of the disciplinary proceedings; (5) extenuating or aggravating circumstances; (6) the blameworthiness or praiseworthiness of the motives resulting in the conduct; and (7) the presence or absence of any relevant factors in mitigation. Eury v. North Carolina Emp. Sec. Comm'n, 115 N.C. App. 590, 446 S.E.2d 383, cert. denied, 338 N.C. 309, 451 S.E.2d 635 (1994).

"Whole Record" Standard of Review Applied. — The "whole record" test is applied when the court considers whether an agency decision is arbitrary and capricious. Brooks v. Rebarco, Inc., 91 N.C. App. 459, 372 S.E.2d 342 (1988).

Action Held Arbitrary and Capricious. — Where the Commissioner of Insurance did nothing more, in adopting a complicated and novel formula for determining underwriting profit, than listen to one employee of an insurance department in a sister state which was refining the policy adopted and which was given only limited approval by the Supreme Court of Massachusetts, his approach was a clear example of an arbitrary and capricious action by an administrative agency as contemplated by the North Carolina Legislature in establishing that criterion for judicial review in former § 58-9.6(b)(6) (now § 58-2-90(b)(6)) and subdivision (6) of former § 150A-51. State ex rel. Comm'r of Ins. v. North Carolina Rate Bureau, 300 N.C. 381, 269 S.E.2d 547, rehearing denied, 301 N.C. 107, 273 S.E.2d 300 (1980).

Action of the Commissioner of Insurance ordering audited data in a ratemaking case was arbitrary and capricious, as contemplated by former § 58-9.6(b)(6) (now § 58-2-90(b)(6)) and subdivision (6) of former § 150A-51, where (1) The order was vague and uncertain in that it did not establish the extent to which examination of "original source documents" was required; (2) It did not make clear whether auditing must be performed by certified public accountants, other accountants, or actuaries; (3) It did not specify the degree of precision and reliability required of "statistical sampling"; (4) It generally did not provide adequate guidelines for compliance with the general conclusion that data in a ratemaking hearing be audited; (5) It included no determination by the Commissioner as to the possibility of performance of his new rule nor whether implementation of the rule would be economically feasible; (6) It included no determination whether statutory time limits could be complied with in face of the new rule; and (7) It included no determination whether the "original source data" contemplated by the new rule was even available for the past years involved in this filing or whether such data, if available, was located in North Carolina or outside the State in the case of the several hundred companies writing insurance in this State. State ex rel. Comm'r of Ins. v. North Carolina Rate Bureau, 300 N.C. 381, 269 S.E.2d 547, rehearing denied, 301 N.C. 107, 273 S.E.2d 300 (1980).

School Board's Termination of Teacher Was Not an Abuse of Discretion. — Where school board took into consideration the attribution rate, the qualifications, certification, evaluations and experience of teachers, and respondent had the lowest level of certification and the least amount of experience, the school board's determination to terminate respondent was not arbitrary, capricious or an abuse of discretion. Taborn v. Hammonds, 91 N.C. App. 302, 371 S.E.2d 736 (1988), rev'd on other grounds, 324 N.C. 546, 380 S.E.2d 513 (1989).

State Personnel Commission abused its discretion and lacked careful and impartial decisionmaking when it passed over personnel office employee and filled a vacant position with an applicant who did not meet state qualifications for the position and who had filed her application and had been effectively offered the job a month before it was posted. Joyce v. Winston-Salem State Univ., 91 N.C. App. 153, 370 S.E.2d 866, cert. denied, 323 N.C. 476, 373 S.E.2d 862 (1988).

Assessment of Penalty Held Not Arbitrary or Capricious. — Where the penalty assessed by the Department of Natural Resources and Community Development (now the Department of Environment and Natural Resources) was within the statutory limits provided in § 113A-64, and the record evidenced the secretary's reasoned weighing of the penalty factors announced in 15 N.C. Adm. Code 4C.006, which were reasonably related to the act's administration and enforcement, the department's assessment of the monetary penalty in this case was not arbitrary and capricious. In re Appeal from Civil Penalty Assessed for Violations of Sedimentation Pollution Control Act, 92 N.C. App. 1, 373 S.E.2d 572 (1988), rev'd on other grounds, 324 N.C. 373, 379 S.E.2d 30 (1989).

Dismissal Held Not Arbitrary or Capricious. — Department of Human Resource's dismissal of employee's appeal on grounds it was filed one day after the deadline was neither arbitrary or capricious where employee was informed of the time limits for perfecting appeal, offered assistance for complying with appeal procedures since legal representation was not allowed at that time of the proceeding, and employee's apparent justification for filing late was difficulty in retaining an attorney. Lewis v. North Carolina Dep't of Human Resources, 92 N.C. App. 737, 375 S.E.2d 712 (1989).

Issuance of Injunction Requiring Insurance Commissioner to Act Upheld. — The trial court did not exceed its power and authority by issuing its mandatory injunction requiring the Commissioner of Insurance to approve a domestic insurance corporation's plan to reorganize under a holding company structure where the Commissioner acted arbitrarily and capriciously when he disapproved the plan. Occidental Life Ins. Co. v. Ingram, 34 N.C. App. 619, 240 S.E.2d 460 (1977).

Showing Necessary to Obtain Relief from Valuations of Property for Taxation. — In order to obtain relief from valuations upon their property by the State Board of Assessment (now the Property Tax Commission), appellant electric membership corporations must show that the methods used in determining true value were illegal and arbitrary, and that appellants were substantially injured by a resulting excessive valuation of their property. Albemarle Elec. Membership Corp. v. Alexander, 282 N.C. 402, 192 S.E.2d 811 (1972); In re Land & Mineral Co., 49 N.C. App. 608, 272 S.E.2d 878 (1980), cert. denied, 302 N.C. 397, 279 S.E.2d 351 (1981).

It is only when the actions of the State Board of Assessment (now the Property Tax Commission) are found to be arbitrary and capricious that courts will interfere with tax assessments because of asserted violations of the due process clause. Albemarle Elec. Membership Corp. v. Alexander, 282 N.C. 402, 192 S.E.2d 811 (1972).

Evidence Held Sufficient. — There was substantial evidence in the record to support State Code Officials Qualification Board's findings and conclusions as to the revocation of petitioner's certificates based on Board's findings of several different violations of the N.C. Uniform Residential Building Code; many of the violations were plainly visible and should have been discovered by an inspection performed with ordinary care and prudence and many of the remaining violations, although less obvious or more technical, could have been discovered by an inspection performed with ordinary care and prudence. Bunch v. North

§ 150B-52. Appeal; stay of court's decision.

A party to a review proceeding in a superior court may appeal to the appellate division from the final judgment of the superior court as provided in G.S. 7A-27. The scope of review to be applied by the appellate court under this section is the same as it is for other civil cases. In cases reviewed under G.S. 150B-51(c), the court's findings of fact shall be upheld if supported by substantial evidence. Pending the outcome of an appeal, an appealing party may apply to the court that issued the judgment under appeal for a stay of that judgment or a stay of the administrative decision that is the subject of the appeal, as appropriate. (1973, c. 1331, s. 1; 1985, c. 746, s. 1; 1987, c. 878, s. 20; 2000-140, s. 94; 2000-190, s. 12.)

Effect of Amendments. — Session Laws 2000-140, s. 94, effective July 21, 2000, substituted "G.S. 150B-51(c)" for "G.S. 150B-51(a1)(3)" in this section as amended by Session Laws 2000-190, s. 12.

Session Laws 2000-190, s. 12, effective January 1, 2001, and applicable to contested cases commenced on or after that date, added the second and third sentences.

CASE NOTES

Editor's Note. — Most of the cases below were decided under corresponding provisions of former Chapter 150A and earlier statutes, or under this Chapter prior to the 1991 amendments thereto.

Scope of Appellate Review. — The scope of review to be applied by the appellate court under this section is the same as it is for other civil cases. That is, it must be determined whether the trial court committed any errors of law. American Nat'l Ins. Co. v. Ingram, 63 N.C. App. 38, 303 S.E.2d 649, cert. denied, 309 N.C. 819, 310 S.E.2d 348 (1983); Tay v. Flaherty, 90 N.C. App. 346, 368 S.E.2d 403, cert. denied, 323 N.C. 370, 373 S.E.2d 556 (1988).

Under this section, the appellate court examines the trial court's order for error of law, determining whether the trial court exercised the appropriate scope of review and, if appropriate, deciding whether the court did so properly. Eury v. North Carolina Emp. Sec. Comm'n, 115 N.C. App. 590, 446 S.E.2d 383, cert. denied, 338 N.C. 309, 451 S.E.2d 635 (1994).

When an appellate court reviews the decision of a lower court, (as opposed to when it reviews an administrative agency's decision on direct appeal), the scope of review to be applied by the appellate court under this section is the same as it is for other civil cases. Henderson v. North Carolina Dep't of Human Resources, 91 N.C. App. 527, 372 S.E.2d 887 (1988).

The Court of Appeal's review of the superior court's determination under this section, is limited to whether the superior court made any errors in law in light of the record as a whole. Scroggs v. North Carolina Criminal Justice

Pursuant to this section, court review of a trial court's consideration of a final agency decision is to determine whether the trial court committed any errors of law which would be based upon its failure to properly apply the review standard set forth in § 150B-51. Sherrod v. North Carolina Dep't of Human Resources, 105 N.C. App. 526, 414 S.E.2d 50 (1992).

Examination for Error — A Twofold Task. — The appellate court should examine the trial court's order for error of law, which has been described as a twofold task: (1) determining whether the trial court exercised the appropriate scope of review and, if appropriate, (2) deciding whether the court did so properly. Amanini v. N.C. Dep't of Human Resources, 114 N.C. App. 668, 443 S.E.2d 114 (1994).

Legal proceeding must be prosecuted by a legal person, whether it be a natural person who is sui juris or a group of individuals or other entity having the capacity to sue and be sued, such as a corporation, partnership, unincorporated association, or governmental body or agency. Even a class action must be prosecuted or defended by one or more named members of the class. A legal proceeding prosecuted by an aggregation of anonymous individuals, known only to their counsel, is a phenomenon unknown to the law of this jurisdiction. In re Coleman, 11 N.C. App. 124, 180 S.E.2d 439 (1971).

Rule that appeal to appellate division may be prosecuted only at the instance of a party or parties aggrieved by the judgment of the court or tribunal from which the appeal is taken applies with as much force to proceedings governed by former Article 33 of Chapter 143 as to ordinary civil cases. In re Coleman, 11 N.C. App. 124, 180 S.E.2d 439 (1971).

No statutory authority exists for the State Personnel Commission to review an administrative law judge's recommended decision in a case involving an exempt employee. Johnson v. Natural Resources & Community Dev., 98 N.C. App. 334, 391 S.E.2d 48 (1990).

Failure to Cross-Appeal as Waiver. — Where trial court erroneously failed to render conclusions concerning all statutory grounds for review raised by the petition for review, petitioners' failure to cross-appeal any such error to the appellate court waived its consideration on appeal. In re Appeal from Civil Penalty Assessed for Violations of Sedimentation Pollution Control Act, 92 N.C. App. 1, 373 S.E.2d 572, supersedeas allowed on reconsideration, 323 N.C. 625, 374 S.E.2d 873 (1988).

Appeal Must Follow Theory of Trial. — Where petitioner relied upon jurisdiction under former § 143-314 before the trial court, on appeal he could not argue that the trial court had original subject matter jurisdiction pursuant to § 7A-240 based upon a constitutional right to hearing and judicial review, since an appeal must follow the theory of the trial. ## Chapter 152.

Coroners.

Sec.	Sec.
152-1. Election; vacancies in office; appointment by clerk in special cases.	152-7. Duties of coroners with respect to inquests and preliminary hearings.
152-2. Oaths to be taken.	152-8. Acts as sheriff in certain cases; special coroner.
152-3. Coroner's bond.	152-9. Compensation of jurors at inquest.
152-4. Coroners' bonds registered; certified copies evidence.	152-10. Hearing by coroner in lieu of other preliminary hearing; habeas corpus.
152-5. Fees of coroners.	152-11. Service of process issued by coroner.
152-6. Powers, penalties, and liabilities of special coroner.

§ 152-1. Election; vacancies in office; appointment by clerk in special cases.

In each county a coroner shall be elected by the qualified voters thereof in the same manner and at the same time as the election of members of the General Assembly, and shall hold office for a term of four years, or until his successor is elected and qualified.

A vacancy in the office of coroner shall be filled by the county commissioners, and the person so appointed shall, upon qualification, hold office until his successor is elected and qualified. If the coroner were elected as the nominee of a political party, then the county commissioners shall consult with the county executive committee of that political party before filling the vacancy, and shall appoint the person recommended by that committee if the party makes a recommendation within 30 days of the occurrence of the vacancy; this sentence shall apply only to the counties of Alamance, Alleghany, Avery, Beaufort, Brunswick, Buncombe, Burke, Cabarrus, Caldwell, Cherokee, Clay, Cleveland, Davidson, Davie, Graham, Guilford, Haywood, Henderson, Jackson, Madison, McDowell, Mecklenburg, Moore, New Hanover, Polk, Randolph, Rockingham, Rutherford, Stanly, Stokes, Transylvania, Wake, and Yancey.

When the coroner shall be out of the county, or shall for any reason be unable to hold the necessary inquest as provided by law, or there is a vacancy existing in the office of coroner which has not been filled by the county commissioners and it is made to appear to the clerk of the superior court by satisfactory evidence that a deceased person whose body has been found within the county probably came to his death by the criminal act or default of some person, it is the duty of the clerk to appoint some suitable person to act as coroner in such special case. (Const., art. 4, s. 24; 1903, c. 661; Rev., ss. 1047, 1049; C.S., ss. 1014, 1018; Ex. Sess. 1924, c. 65; 1935, c. 376; 1981, c. 504, s. 8; c. 763, s. 5; c. 830.)

Editor's Note. — An amendment to this section in Session Laws 1981, c. 504, s. 8, was made effective upon certification of approval of the constitutional amendments proposed by ss. 1 through 3 of the act. The constitutional amendments were submitted to the people at an election held June 29, 1982, and were defeated. Therefore, the amendment never went into effect.

§ 152-2. Oaths to be taken.

Every coroner, before entering upon the duties of his office, shall take and subscribe to the oaths prescribed for public officers, and an oath of office. (Code, s. 661; Rev., s. 1048; C.S., s. 1015; Ex. Sess. 1924, c. 65.)

and § 11-1 et seq. As to form of oath, see § 11-11. As to penalty for failure to take oath, see § 128-5. As to oath of county officers generally, see § 153A-26.

§ 152-3. Coroner's bond.

Every coroner shall execute an undertaking conditioned upon the faithful discharge of the duties of his office with good and sufficient surety in the penal sum of two thousand dollars ($2,000), payable to the State of North Carolina, and approved by the board of county commissioners. (1791, c. 342, ss. 1, 2, P. R.; 1820, c. 1047, ss. 1, 2, P. R.; R. C., c. 25, s. 2; Code, s. 661; 1899, c. 54, s. 52; Rev., s. 299; C.S., s. 1016; Ex. Sess. 1924, c. 65.)

CASE NOTES

Validity of Acts of Coroner De Facto. — Where an individual has been appointed coroner of a county, even though it may appear that he has not renewed his official bond as required by law, yet his acts as a coroner de facto are valid, at least as regards third persons. Mabry v. Turrentine, 30 N.C. 201 (1847).

§ 152-4. Coroners' bonds registered; certified copies evidence.

All official bonds of coroners shall be duly approved, certified, registered, and filed as sheriffs' bonds are required to be; and certified copies of the same duly certified by the register of deeds, with official seal attached, shall be received and read in evidence in the like cases and in like manner as such copies of sheriffs' bonds are now allowed to be read in evidence. (1860-1, c. 18; Code, s. 662; Rev., s. 300; C.S., s. 1017; Ex. Sess. 1924, c. 65.)

Local Modification. — Randolph: 1965, c. 754, s. 1.

Cross References. — As to official bonds, see §§ 58-72-10 through 58-72-70.

§ 152-5. Fees of coroners.

Fees of coroners shall be the same as are or may be allowed sheriffs in similar cases:

For holding an inquest over a dead body, five dollars ($5.00); if necessarily engaged more than one day, for each additional day, five dollars ($5.00).

For burying a pauper over whom an inquest has been held, all necessary and actual expenses, to be approved by the board of county commissioners, and paid by the county. (Code, s. 3743; 1903, c. 781; Rev., s. 2775; C.S., s. 3905; 1967, c. 1154, s. 6.)

Local Modification. — Alamance: 1959, c. 1105, s. 2; Buncombe: 1949, c. 910; Burke: 1963, c. 952; Cabarrus: 1947, c. 410; 1953, c. 567; Caldwell: Pub. ### § 152-6. Powers, penalties, and liabilities of special coroners.

The special coroner appointed under the provisions of G.S. 152-1 shall be invested with all the powers and duties conferred upon the several coroners in respect to holding inquests over deceased bodies, and shall be subject to the penalties and liabilities imposed on the said coroners. (1903, c. 661, s. 2; Rev., s. 1050; C.S., s. 1019; Ex. Sess. 1924, c. 65.)

§ 152-7. Duties of coroners with respect to inquests and preliminary hearings.

The duties of the several coroners with respect to inquests and preliminary hearings shall be as follows:

- (1) Whenever it appears that the deceased probably came to his death by the criminal act or default of some person, he shall go to the place where the body of such deceased person is and make a careful investigation and inquiry as to when and by what means such deceased person came to his death and the name of the deceased, if to be found out, together with all the material circumstances attending his death, and shall make a complete record of such personal investigation: Provided, however, that the coroner shall not proceed to summon a jury as is hereinafter provided if he shall be satisfied from his personal investigation that the death of the said deceased was from natural causes, or that no person is blamable in any respect in connection with such death, and shall so find and make such finding in writing as a part of his report, giving the reason for such finding; unless an affidavit be filed with the coroner indicating blame in connection with the death of the deceased. A written report of said investigation shall be filed by the coroner with the medical examiner and the district attorney of the superior court.

- (2) To empanel a jury of six persons, under oath, to make further inquiry as to the circumstances of death and to call witnesses as necessary to determine the circumstances. The coroner shall order that the names of at least 15 persons be drawn from the jury box in accordance with the procedure in G.S. 9-5. The coroner shall examine the jurors appearing in obedience to the summons, and may excuse jurors for whom service would be an extreme hardship, who would be unable to remain impartial in determining the issues, or are otherwise disqualified to serve as jurors. If the remaining jurors are less than six in number, the coroner shall cause sufficient additional names to be drawn from the jury box and have them summoned, so as to obtain the immediate attendance of at least six qualified jurors. The first six qualified jurors constitute the inquest jury.
- (3) If it appears that the deceased was slain, or came to his death in such manner as to indicate any person or persons guilty of the crime in connection with the said death, then the said inquiry shall ascertain who was guilty, either as principal or accessory, or otherwise, if known; and the cause and manner of his death.
- (4) Whenever in such investigations, whether preliminary or before his jury, it shall appear to the coroner or to the jury that any person or persons are culpable in the matter of such death, he shall forthwith issue his warrant for such persons and cause the same to be brought before him and the inquiry shall proceed as in the case of preliminary hearings in the district court, and in case it appears to the said coroner and the jury that such persons are probably guilty of any crime in connection with the death of the deceased, then the said coroner shall commit such persons to jail, if it appears that such persons are probably guilty of a capital crime, and in case it appears that such persons are not probably guilty of a capital crime, but are probably guilty of a lesser crime, then such coroner is to have the power and authority to fix bail for such person or persons. All such persons as are found probably guilty in such hearing shall be delivered to the keeper of the common jail for such county by the sheriff or such other officer as may perform his duties at such hearings and committed to jail unless such persons have been allowed and given the bail fixed by such coroner.
- (5) As many persons as are found to be material witnesses in the matters involved in such inquiry and hearings, and are not culpable themselves shall be bound in recognizance with sufficient surety to appear at the next superior court to give evidence, and such as may default in giving such recognizance may be by such coroner committed to jail as is provided for State witnesses in other cases.
- (6) Immediately upon information of the death of a person within his county, under such circumstances as call for an investigation as provided in G.S. 130-198, the coroner shall notify the district attorney of the superior court and the medical examiner.

- (7) If an inquest or preliminary hearing be ordered, to arrange for the examination of any and all witnesses including those who may be offered by the county medical examiner.
- (8) To permit counsel for the family of the deceased, the solicitor of his district, or anyone designated by him, and counsel for any accused person to be present and participate in such hearing and examine and cross-examine witnesses and, whenever a warrant shall have been issued for any accused person, such accused person shall be entitled to counsel and to a full and complete hearing.
- (9) To hold his inquiry where the body of the deceased shall be or at any other place in the county, and the body of the deceased need not be present at such hearing. The hearing may be adjourned to other times and places.
- (10) To reduce to writing all of the testimony of all witnesses, and to have each witness to sign his testimony in the presence of the coroner, who shall attest the same, and, upon direction of the district attorney of the district, all of the testimony heard by the coroner and his jury shall be taken stenographically, and expense of such taking, when approved by the coroner and the district attorney of the district, shall be paid by the county. When the testimony is taken by a stenographer, the witness shall be caused to sign the same after it has been written out, and the coroner shall attest such signature. The attestation of all the signatures of witnesses who shall testify before the coroner shall include attaching his seal, and such statements, when so signed and attested, shall be received as competent evidence in all courts either for the purpose of contradiction or corroboration of witnesses who make the same, under the same rules as other evidence to contradict or corroborate may be now admitted. The coroner shall file a copy of all written testimony given at the hearing with the county medical examiner and with the district attorney of the superior court. #### CASE NOTES

This section is simply a statement of the historical function of a coroner. The coroner is by this section commanded to make an investigation whenever it appears that deceased probably came to his death by criminal act. He is not required to summon a jury unless he is satisfied from his personal investigation that death was the result of criminal conduct. Gillikin v. United States Fid. & Guar. Co., 254 N.C. 247, 118 S.E.2d 606 (1961).

A coroner has no authority to perform an autopsy in cases where there is no suspicion of foul play. Gurganiou v. Simpson, 213 N.C. 613, 197 S.E. 163 (1938).

Administration of Oaths. — Though the coroner is judge of the coroner's court and the power and authority to administer oaths to the witnesses rests in him, the administration of oaths is a ministerial act and may be performed by anyone by the direction and in the presence of the court. State v. Knight, 84 N.C. 789 (1881).

Swearing and Charging of Jury. — The inquest is the coroner's court, and it is an indispensable requisite that the jury which is summoned be sworn and charged by the coroner in the presence of the body of the deceased. State v. Knight, 84 N.C. 789 (1881).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL

Coroner Has No Authority to Order Autopsy. — See opinion of Attorney General to Mr. Edgar E. Smith, 41 N.C.A.G. 212 (1971).

§ 152-8. Acts as sheriff in certain cases; special coroner.

If at any time there is no person properly qualified to act as sheriff in any county, the coroner of such county is hereby required to execute all process and in all other things to act as sheriff, until some person is appointed sheriff in said county; and he shall be under the same rules and regulations, and subject to the same forfeitures, fines, and penalties as sheriffs are by law for neglect or disobedience of the same duties. If at any time the sheriff of any county is interested in or a party to any proceeding in any court, and there is no coroner in such county, or if the coroner is interested in any such proceeding, then the clerk of the court from which such process issues shall appoint some suitable person to act as special coroner to execute such process, and such special coroner shall be under the same rules, regulations, and penalties as hereinabove provided for. (Code, s. 658; 1891, c. 173; Rev., s. 1052; C.S., s. 1021; Ex. Sess. 1924, c. 65.)

Local Modification. — Randolph: 1965, c. 754, s. 1.

CASE NOTES

The words “any proceedings in any court,” contained in the provision for deputizing special officers where the sheriff and coroner are interested, have been given a literal interpretation, and the provision is held applicable to courts of justices of the peace as well as to the higher courts. Baker v. Brem, 127 N.C. 322, 37 S.E. 454 (1900).

Service of Summons by Coroner When Sheriff Is Party. — In an action in which the sheriff is a party it is proper that the summons be addressed to and served by the coroner. State v. Baird, 118 N.C. 854, 24 S.E. 668 (1896).

As to service by the coroner's deputy in an action in which the sheriff is a party, see Yeargin v. Siler, 83 N.C. 348 (1880).

§ 152-9. Compensation of jurors at inquest.

All persons who may be summoned to act as jurors in any inquest held by a coroner over dead bodies, and who, in obedience thereto, appear and act as such jurors, shall be entitled to the same compensation in per diem and mileage as is allowed by law to jurors acting in the superior courts. The coroners of the respective counties are authorized and empowered to take proof of the number of days of service of each juror so acting, and also of the number of miles traveled by such juror in going to and returning from such place of inquest, and shall file with the board of commissioners of the county a correct account of the same, which shall be, by such commissioners, audited and paid in the manner provided for the pay of jurors acting in the superior courts. (Code, ss. 659, 660; Rev., s. 1053; C.S., s. 1022; Ex. Sess. 1924, c. 65.)

Local Modification. — Randolph: 1965, c. 754, s. 1.

§ 152-10. Hearing by coroner in lieu of other preliminary hearing; habeas corpus.

All hearings by a coroner and his jury, as provided herein, when the accused has been arrested and has participated in such hearing, shall be in lieu of any other preliminary hearing, and such cases shall be immediately sent to the clerk of the superior court of such county and docketed by him in the same manner as warrants from magistrates. Any accused person who shall be so committed by a coroner shall have the right, upon habeas corpus, to have a judge of the superior or district court review the action of the coroner in fixing bail or declining the same. (Ex. Sess. 1924, c. 65; 1973, c. 108, s. 93.)

§ 152-11. Service of process issued by coroner.

All process, both subpoenas and warrants for the arrest of any person or persons, and orders for the summoning of a jury, in case it may appear necessary for such coroner to issue such order, shall be served by the sheriff or other lawful officer of the county in which such dead body is found, and in case it is necessary to subpoena witnesses or to arrest persons in a county other than such county in which the body of the deceased is found, then such coroner may issue his process to any other county in the State, with his official seal attached, and such process shall be served by the sheriff or other lawful officer of the county to which it is directed, but such process shall not be served outside of the county in which such dead body is found unless attested by the official seal of such coroner. (Ex. Sess. 1924, c. 65.)

Chapter 153.

Counties and County Commissioners.

Editor's Note. — This Chapter was repealed by Session Laws 1973, c. 822, which enacted new Chapter 153A, Counties. The following sections were transferred by the 1973 act to other Chapters: §§ 153-177 to 153-198 was transferred to former § 162-31 and §§ 162-32 to 162-49 by Session Laws 1973, c. 822, s. 3; §§ 153-295 to 153-324 were transferred to §§ 162A-64 to 162A-80 by Session Laws 1973, c. 822, s. 4.

Session Laws 1973, c. 822, ss. 9 through 12, provided:

“(a) Now vested or accrued, in whole or in part, the validity of which might be sustained or preserved by reference to a provision of law repealed by this act; or

or ordinances) taken before the effective date of this act pursuant to or within the scope of a provision of law repealed by this act.

“Sec. 10. No law repealed, expressly or by implication, before the effective date of this act and no law granting authority that has been exhausted before the effective date of this act is revived by:

“(a) The repeal in this act of any act repealing such a law; or

“(b) Any provision of this act that disclaims an intention to repeal or affect enumerated, designated, or described laws.

“Sec. 11. No provision of this act is intended, nor may any be construed, to impair the obligation of any bond, note, or coupon outstanding on the effective date of this act.

“Sec. 12. No action or proceeding of any nature (whether civil or criminal, judicial or administrative, or otherwise) pending at the effective date of this act is abated or otherwise affected by the adoption of this act.”

ARTICLE 1.

*Definitions and Statutory Construction.§ 153A-1. Definitions.

Unless otherwise specifically provided, or unless otherwise clearly required by the context, the words and phrases defined in this section have the meaning indicated when used in this Chapter.

- (1) "City" means a city as defined by G.S. 160A-1(2), except that it does not include a city that, without regard to its date of incorporation, would be disqualified from receiving gasoline tax allocations by G.S. 136-41.2(a).
- (2) "Clerk" means the clerk to the board of commissioners.
- (3) "County" means any one of the counties listed in G.S. 153A-10.
- (4) "General law" means an act of the General Assembly that applies to all units of local government, to all counties, to all counties within a class defined by population or other criteria, to all cities, or to all cities within a class defined by population or other criteria, including a law that meets the foregoing standards but contains a clause or section exempting from its effect one or more counties, cities, or counties and cities.
- (5) "Local act" means an act of the General Assembly that applies to one or more specific counties, cities, or counties and cities by name. "Local act" is interchangeable with the terms "special act," "special law," "public-local act," and "private act," is used throughout this Chapter in preference to those terms, and means a local act as defined in this subdivision without regard to the terminology employed in local acts or other portions of the General Statutes.
- (6) "Publish," "publication," and other forms of the verb "to publish" mean insertion in a newspaper qualified under G.S. 1-597 to publish legal advertisements in the county. (1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

Local Modification. — New Hanover: 1983, c. 365.

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1973, c. 822, repealed Chapter 153, Counties, and enacted in its place a new Chapter 153A. Certain other 1973 acts originally codified in Chapter 153 are included in Chapter 153A as directed in Session Laws 1973, c. 822, s. 2. Where appropriate, the historical citations to sections in the repealed Chapter have been added to corresponding sections in new Chapter 153A.

Session Laws 1973, c. 822, ss. 9 through 12, provided:

"Sec. 9. No provision of this act is intended, nor may any be construed, to affect in any way a right or interest, public or private:

"(a) Now vested or accrued, in whole or in part, the validity of which might be sustained or preserved by reference to a provision of law repealed by this act; or

or ordinances) taken before the effective date of this act pursuant to or within the scope of a provision of law repealed by this act.

"Sec. 10. No law repealed, expressly or by implication, before the effective date of this act and no law granting authority that has been exhausted before the effective date of this act is revived by:

"(a) The repeal in this act of any act repealing such a law; or

"(b) Any provision of this act that disclaims an intention to repeal or affect enumerated, designated, or described laws.

"Sec. 11. No provision of this act is intended, nor may any be construed, to impair the obligation of any bond, note, or coupon outstanding on the effective date of this act.

"Sec. 12. No action or proceeding of any nature (whether civil or criminal, judicial or administrative, or otherwise) pending at the effective date of this act is abated or otherwise affected by the adoption of this act."

§ 153A-2. Effect on prior laws and actions taken pursuant to prior laws.

The provisions of this Chapter, insofar as they are the same in substance as laws in effect as of December 31, 1973, are intended to continue those laws in effect and not to be new enactments. The enactment of this Chapter does not require the readoption of any county or city ordinance adopted pursuant to laws that were in effect as of December 31, 1973, and that are restated or revised in this Chapter. The provisions of this Chapter do not affect any act heretofore done, any liability incurred, any right accrued or vested, or any suit or prosecution begun or cause of action accrued as of January 1, 1974. (1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 153A-3. Effect of Chapter on local acts.

(a) Except as provided in this section, nothing in this Chapter repeals or amends a local act in effect as of January 1, 1974, or any portion of such an act, unless this Chapter or a subsequent enactment of the General Assembly clearly shows a legislative intent to repeal or supersede that local act.

(b) If this Chapter and a local act each provide a procedure that contains every action necessary for the performance or execution of a power, right, duty, function, privilege, or immunity, the two procedures may be used in the alternative, and a county may follow either one.

(c) If this Chapter and a local act each provide a procedure for the performance or execution of a power, right, duty, function, privilege, or immunity, but the local act procedure does not contain every action necessary for the performance or execution, the two procedures may be used in the alternative, and a county may follow either one; but the local act procedure shall be supplemented as necessary by this Chapter's procedure. If a local act procedure is being supplemented in such a manner, and there is a conflict or inconsistency between the local act procedure and this Chapter's procedure, the local act procedure shall be followed.

(d) If a power, right, duty, function, privilege, or immunity is conferred on counties by this Chapter, and a local act enacted earlier than this Chapter omits or expressly denies or limits the same power, right, duty, function, privilege, or immunity, this Chapter supersedes the local act. (1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 153A-4. Broad construction.

It is the policy of the General Assembly that the counties of this State should have adequate authority to exercise the powers, rights, duties, functions, privileges, and immunities conferred upon them by law. To this end, the provisions of this Chapter and of local acts shall be broadly construed and grants of power shall be construed to include any powers that are reasonably expedient to the exercise of the power. (1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

CASE NOTES

Legislative Intent. — This legislative mandate requires broad construction of those statutes granting power and restrictive readings of those purporting to limit the power. Stillings v. City of Winston-Salem, 63 N.C. App. 618, 306 S.E.2d 489 (1983), rev'd on other grounds, 311 N.C. 689, 319 S.E.2d 233 (1984).

Amendment to county zoning ordinance constituted a valid legislative prerogative to change the sanitary landfill use from a "special use permit" category to a "use by right under prescribed conditions" category and that section of the county zoning ordinance, which allowed county zoning administrator to approve the county's permit application for the siting of a landfill, was constitutional and lawful on its face. County of Lancaster v. Mecklenburg County, 334 N.C. 496, 434 S.E.2d 604 (1993).

§ 153A-5. Statutory references deemed amended to conform to Chapter.

If a reference is made in another portion of the General Statutes, in a local act, or in a city or county ordinance, resolution, or order to a portion of Chapter 153, and the reference is to Chapter 153 as it existed immediately before February 1, 1974, the reference is deemed amended to refer to that portion of this Chapter that most nearly corresponds to the repealed or superseded portion of Chapter 153. (1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§§ 153A-6 through 153A-9: Reserved for future codification purposes.

ARTICLE 2.

§ 153A-11. Corporate powers.

The inhabitants of each county are a body politic and corporate under the name specified in the act creating the county. Under that name they are vested with all the property and rights of property belonging to the corporation; have perpetual succession; may sue and be sued; may contract and be contracted with; may acquire and hold any property and rights of property, real and personal, that may be devised, bequeathed, sold, or in any manner conveyed, dedicated to, or otherwise acquired by the corporation, and from time to time may hold, invest, sell, or dispose of the property and rights of property; may have a common seal and alter and renew it at will; and have and may exercise in conformity with the laws of this State county powers, rights, duties, functions, privileges, and immunities of every name and nature. (1868, c. 20, ss. 1, 2, 3, 8; 1876-7, c. 141, s. 1; Code, ss. 702, 703, 704, 707; Rev., ss. 1309, 1310, 1318; C.S., ss. 1290, 1291, 1297; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

- II. Suits By and Against County.

I. GENERAL CONSIDERATION.

Editor's Note. — Many of the cases cited below were decided under corresponding sections of former law.

Counties Are Bodies Politic and Corporate. — Counties are bodies politic and corporate, which may exercise as agents for the State only such powers as are prescribed by statute and those which are necessarily implied therefrom by law, essential to the exercise of the powers specifically conferred. O'Neal v. Wake County, 196 N.C. 184, 145 S.E. 28 (1928). See also, Board of Comm'rs v. Hanchett Bond Co., 194 N.C. 137, 138 S.E. 614 (1927).

The Constitution recognizes the existence of counties as governmental agencies. White v. Commissioners of Chowan, 90 N.C. 437 (1884); Woodall v. Western Wake Hwy. Comm'n, 176 N.C. 377, 97 S.E. 226 (1918).

Which Are Part of the State Government. — Counties are of, and constitute a part of, the State government. Their chief purpose is to establish its political organization, and effectuate the local civil administration of its powers and authority. They are in their general nature governmental—mere instrumentalities of government—and possess corporate powers adapted to its purposes. It is not their purpose to create civil liability on their part, and become answerable to individuals civilly or otherwise. Manuel v. Board of Comm'rs, 98 N.C. 9, 3 S.E. 829 (1887), citing White v. Commissioners of Chowan, 90 N.C. 437 (1884) and McCormac v. Commissioners of Robeson, 90 N.C. 441 (1884).

Counties are a branch of the State government. Bell v. Commissioners of Johnston County, 127 N.C. 85, 37 S.E. 136 (1900).

By Art. VII of the Constitution of 1868, counties were regarded as municipal corporations. Winslow v. Commissioners of Perquimans County, 64 N.C. 218 (1870). See also, Gooch v. Gregory, 65 N.C. 142 (1871).

But counties are not, in a strictly legal sense, municipal corporations, like cities and towns. Their purposes are more general and partake more largely of the purposes and powers of government proper. Manuel v. Board of Comm'rs, 98 N.C. 9, 3 S.E. 829 (1887); Bell v.

Commissioners of Johnston County, 127 N.C. 85, 37 S.E. 136 (1900); Martin v. Board of Comm'rs, 208 N.C. 354, 180 S.E. 777 (1935).

The powers of the legislature over counties are very broad and far-reaching, giving to it practically full control of them. Jones v. Commissioners, 137 N.C. 579, 50 S.E. 291 (1905); Woodall v. Western Wake Hwy. Comm'n, 176 N.C. 377, 97 S.E. 226 (1918).

Legislature May Create Counties and Invest Them with Powers. — It is within the power of the legislature to subdivide the territory of the State and invest the inhabitants of such subdivisions with corporate functions, more or less extensive and varied in their character, for the purpose of government. The legislature alone can create counties, directly or indirectly, and invest them, and agencies in them, with powers, corporate or otherwise in their nature, to effectuate the purposes of the government, whether these be local or general, or both. Such organizations are intended to be instrumentalities and agencies employed to aid in the administration of the government, and are always under the control of the power that created them unless the same shall be restricted by some constitutional limitations. McCormac v. Commissioners of Robeson, 90 N.C. 441 (1884); Board of Trustees v. Webb, 155 N.C. 379, 71 S.E. 520 (1911); Commissioners of Cumberland County v. Commissioners of Harnett County, 157 N.C. 517, 73 S.E. 195 (1911); Woodall v. Western Wake Hwy. Comm'n, 176 N.C. 377, 97 S.E. 226 (1918).

And May Impose Liability on Counties. — The legislature, subject to constitutional limitations, may confer upon counties such corporate powers to make contracts, create civil liabilities, and serve such business purposes, as it may deem expedient and wise, and may make them answerable in damages for the negligence of their officers and agents in failing to properly exercise the powers with which they are charged, or for exercising them improperly, to the injury of individuals. But such corporate authority and liability must be especially created by and appear from statutory provision, expressed in terms or necessarily implied. Manuel v. Board of Comm'rs, 98 N.C. 9, 3 S.E. 829 (1887).

The legislature may direct counties to perform as duties all things which it can empower them to do. State ex rel. Tate v. Board of Comm'rs, 122 N.C. 812, 30 S.E. 352 (1898).

And May Enlarge, Abridge or Modify Counties' Functions. — The functions of counties are not always the same, and they may be enlarged, abridged or modified at the will of the legislature. White v. Commissioners of Chowan, 90 N.C. 437 (1884).

As Well as Alter or Abolish Counties. — Counties are legislative creations and subject to be changed, even abolished, or divided and subdivided, at the will of the General Assembly. Jones v. Commissioners, 143 N.C. 59, 55 S.E. 427 (1906); Board of Trustees v. Webb, 155 N.C. 379, 71 S.E. 520 (1911); Woodall v. Western Wake Hwy. Comm'n, 176 N.C. 377, 97 S.E. 226 (1918).

As to construction of powers granted to counties under former statutes, see Vaughn v. Commissioners of Forsyth County, 118 N.C. 636, 24 S.E. 425 (1896).

Supervisory Control of Boards of Commissioners. — Under the Constitution and public laws of North Carolina, the boards of county commissioners are generally given supervision and control of governmental matters in the several counties. Bunch v. Commissioners of Randolph County, 159 N.C. 335, 74 S.E. 1048 (1912).

County Must Act Through Commissioners Convened in a Legal Session. — For a county to exercise its power to contract, it is essential that it act through its county commissioners as a body convened in legal session, regular, adjourned or special, and, as a rule, authorized meetings are prerequisite to corporate action, which should be based upon deliberate conference and intelligent discussion of proposed measures. O'Neal v. Wake County, 196 N.C. 184, 145 S.E. 28 (1928); Davenport v. Pitt County Drainage Dist., 220 N.C. 237, 17 S.E.2d 1 (1941); Jefferson Std. Life Ins. Co. v. Guilford County, 225 N.C. 293, 34 S.E.2d 430 (1945).

And Not in Joint Meeting with Other Governmental Agencies. — The commissioners of a county are without authority, constitutional or statutory, to enter into a joint meeting with other State governmental agencies functioning as entirely separate departments respectively of the county and the State, and therein to make a binding corporate contract by the adoption of a joint verbal agreement to pledge the faith and credit of the county for its part in paying for the employment of a person to render service in the capacity of a detective to determine and procure evidence against those who have committed a criminal offense. O'Neal v. Wake County, 196 N.C. 184, 145 S.E. 28 (1928).

In order to make a binding pecuniary obligation on a county under former statute imposing duty on county commissioners to provide for the poor, there had to be a contract to that effect, express in its terms, or the service had to be done at the express request of an officer or agent charged with the duty and having the power to make contracts concerning it. Copple v. Commissioners, 138 N.C. 127, 50 S.E. 574 (1905).

A county may not exercise jurisdiction over any part of a city located within its borders. Davidson County v. City of High Point, 321 N.C. 252, 362 S.E.2d 553 (1987).

Applied in Malloy v. Durham County Dep't of Social Servs., 58 N.C. App. 61, 293 S.E.2d 285 (1982); Cabarrus County v. City of Charlotte, 71 N.C. App. 192, 321 S.E.2d 476 (1984); Hubbard v. County of Cumberland, 143 N.C. App. 149, 544 S.E.2d 587 (2001), cert. denied, 354 N.C. 69, — S.E.2d — (2001).

II. SUITS BY AND AGAINST COUNTY.

Suit in Name of County. — Where a county is the real party in interest, it must sue and be sued in its own name. Lenoir County v. Crabtree, 158 N.C. 357, 74 S.E. 105 (1912); Fountain v. County of Pitt, 171 N.C. 113, 87 S.E. 990 (1916); Johnson v. Marrow, 228 N.C. 58, 44 S.E.2d 468 (1947).

A county is not required in an action for mandatory injunction to bring the suit in the name of the county commissioners. Such a suit should be brought in the name of the county. Lenoir County v. Crabtree, 158 N.C. 357, 74 S.E. 105 (1912).

Absent a refusal of the board of commissioners of a county to institute an action in its behalf, the action must be instituted in the name of the county or on relation of the county. Johnson v. Marrow, 228 N.C. 58, 44 S.E.2d 468 (1947).

As to requirement of former statute that all actions and proceedings by or against a county in its corporate capacity be in the name of the board of commissioners, see Pegram v. Commissioners of Cleveland County, 65 N.C. 114 (1871); Askew v. Pollock, 66 N.C. 49 (1872); State ex rel. Wescott v. Thees, 89 N.C. 55 (1883); Fountain v. County of Pitt, 171 N.C. 113, 87 S.E. 990 (1916).

As to venue of action under former statute providing that a county should sue and be sued in the name of the board of commissioners, see Jones v. Board of Comm'rs, 69 N.C. 412 (1873); Steele v. Commissioners of Rutherford, 70 N.C. 137 (1874).

Form of Action Against County. — Where a good cause of action exists, a county may be sued in any form appropriate to the cause of action, and its liability does not differ as respects the form of the action from that of a private corporation or of an individual.

Winslow v. Commissioners of Perquimans County, 64 N.C. 218 (1870).

Failure to Join the County in Rezoning Dispute Was Fatal. — The trial court erred in denying the Board of Commissioners' motion to dismiss under § 1A-1, Rule 12(b)(1), (2), (4), (6) and (7) where the plaintiffs brought their action challenging a rezoning solely against the board and not against the county, and where the plaintiffs' attempts to amend the complaint to substitute the county as the named defendant were ineffective as they occurred after the statute of limitations had run under § 1-54.1. Piland v. Board of Comm'rs, 141 N.C. App. 293, 539 S.E.2d 669 (2000).

Counties and County Commissioners Do Not Have Sovereign Immunity. — These powers and the many others enumerated in this Chapter show that a county and the county commissioners are not part of the State of North Carolina and they do not enjoy its sovereign immunity. Meares v. Brunswick County, 615 F. Supp. 14 (E.D.N.C. 1985).

Counties may be sued only in such cases and for such causes as may be allowed by statute. Bell v. Commissioners of Johnston County, 127 N.C. 85, 37 S.E. 136 (1900).

And Are Not Ordinarily Liable for Exercise of Corporate Powers. — Counties are not ordinarily liable to be sued civilly for the manner in which they exercise or fail to exercise their corporate powers. White v. Commissioners of Chowan, 90 N.C. 437 (1884).

Generally a county is not liable for damages by reason of the neglect of its officers or agents. Manuel v. Board of Comm'rs, 98 N.C. 9, 3 S.E. 829 (1887).

Absent Statutory Provisions Giving a Right of Action. — Counties are not liable in damages for the torts of their officials, in the absence of statutory provisions giving a right of action. Keenan v. Commissioners of New Hanover County, 167 N.C. 356, 83 S.E. 556 (1914), petition for rehearing denied, 169 N.C. 246, 85 S.E. 5 (1915). As to waiver of governmental immunity by county, see § 153A-435.

For case holding county not liable in damages for injury occasioned by a defective bridge forming a part of the highway, see Moffitt v. City of Asheville, 103 N.C. 237, 9 S.E. 695 (1889).

Power to Compromise Suits. — The power to sue and to defend suits carries with it, by necessary implication, the power to make bona fide compromise adjustments of such suits. Board of Comm'rs v. Tollman, 145 F. 753 (4th Cir. 1906).

Power to Enter Consent Judgment. — County commissioners have authority to assent to the entry of a consent judgment in an action pending against the county, when such judgment is entered in good faith and is free from fraud, etc., a consent judgment being a contract of the parties spread upon the records with the approval and sanction of a court of competent jurisdiction. Weaver v. Hampton, 204 N.C. 42, 167 S.E. 484 (1933).

County revenue is safe from seizure by creditors, or even for taxes due the federal government, because to admit the right to appropriate such revenue in satisfaction of a claim would be to concede the power to destroy the State government by depriving its agencies of the means of performing their proper functions. Subject to the restrictions contained in the federal Constitution, the State is a sovereignty, and it is essential to its preservation to give to all property held for it by such agencies as counties the same protection as is given to that held in its own name. Hughes v. Commissioners of Craven County, 107 N.C. 598, 12 S.E. 465 (1890); Vaughn v. Commissioners of Forsyth County, 118 N.C. 636, 24 S.E. 425 (1896).

Property and Revenue of County Not Subject to Execution. — A county can only acquire and hold property for necessary public purposes and for the benefit of all its citizens, and the principles of public policy prevent such property from being sold under execution to satisfy the debt of an individual. Hughes v. Commissioners of Craven County, 107 N.C.

598, 12 S.E. 465 (1890). See also, Gooch v. Gregory, 65 N.C. 142 (1871).

Ordinarily, the only remedy of a judgment creditor of a county is a writ of mandamus to compel its commissioners to levy a tax to pay the debt. Hughes v. Commissioners of Craven County, 107 N.C. 598, 12 S.E. 465 (1890), citing Pegram v. Commissioners of Cleveland County, 64 N.C. 557 (1870); Lutterloh v. Board of Comm'rs, 65 N.C. 403 (1871); Rogers v. Jenkins, 98 N.C. 129, 3 S.E. 821 (1887).

A plaintiff who has obtained a judgment against a county is not entitled to an execution against it. His remedy is by writ of mandamus against the board of commissioners of the county to compel them to levy a tax for the satisfaction of the judgment. Gooch v. Gregory, 65 N.C. 142 (1871).

When Mandamus Unnecessary. — An action may be maintained against county commissioners establishing a debt against the county without asking for a writ of mandamus where it appears that the county has property subject to trusts, or such as can be reached only by proceedings supplemental to execution. Hughes v. Commissioners of Craven County, 107 N.C. 598, 12 S.E. 465 (1890).

§ 153A-12. Exercise of corporate power.

Except as otherwise directed by law, each power, right, duty, function, privilege and immunity of the corporation shall be exercised by the board of commissioners. A power, right, duty, function, privilege, or immunity shall be carried into execution as provided by the laws of the State; a power, right, duty, function, privilege, or immunity that is conferred or imposed by law without direction or restriction as to how it is to be exercised or performed shall be carried into execution as provided by ordinance or resolution of the board of commissioners. (1868, c. 20, ss. 1, 2; 1876-7, c. 141, s. 1; Code, ss. 702, 703; Rev., s. 1309; C.S., s. 1290; 1973, c. 882, s. 1.)

CASE NOTES

Counties and County Commissioners Do Not Have Sovereign Immunity. — These powers and the many others enumerated in this Chapter show that a county and the county commissioners are not part of the State of North Carolina and they do not enjoy its sovereign immunity. Meares v. Brunswick County, 615 F. Supp. 14 (E.D.N.C. 1985).

Failure to Join the County in Rezoning Dispute Was Fatal. — The trial court erred in denying the Board of Commissioners' motion to dismiss under § 1A-1, Rule 12(b)(1), (2), (4), (6) and (7) where the plaintiffs brought their action challenging a rezoning solely against the board and not against the county, and where the plaintiffs' attempts to amend the complaint to substitute the county as the named defendant were ineffective as they occurred after the statute of limitations had run under § 1-54.1. *Piland v. ### § 153A-13. Continuing contracts.

A county may enter into continuing contracts, some portion or all of which are to be performed in ensuing fiscal years. In order to enter into such a contract, the county must have sufficient funds appropriated to meet any amount to be paid under the contract in the fiscal year in which it is made. In each year, the board of commissioners shall appropriate sufficient funds to meet the amounts to be paid during the fiscal year under continuing contracts previously entered into. (1959, c. 250; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 153A-14. Grants from other governments.

A county may contract for and accept grants and loans as permitted by G.S. 160A-17.1. (1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 153A-15. Consent of board of commissioners necessary in certain counties before land may be condemned or acquired by a unit of local government outside the county.

(a) Notwithstanding the provisions of Chapter 40A of the General Statutes or any other general law or local act conferring the power of eminent domain, before final judgment may be entered in any action of condemnation initiated by a county, city or town, special district, or other unit of local government which is located wholly or primarily outside another county, whereby the condemnor seeks to acquire property located in the other county, the condemnor shall furnish proof that the county board of commissioners of the county where the land is located has consented to the taking.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of G.S. 153A-158, 160A-240.1, 130A-55, or any other general law or local act conferring the power to acquire real property, before any county, city or town, special district, or other unit of local government which is located wholly or primarily outside another county acquires any real property located in the other county by exchange, purchase or lease, it must have the approval of the county board of commissioners of the county where the land is located.

(c) This section applies to Alamance, Alleghany, Anson, Ashe, Bertie, Bladen, Brunswick, Burke, Buncombe, Cabarrus, Caldwell, Camden, Carteret, Caswell, Catawba, Chatham, Cherokee, Clay, Cleveland, Columbus, Craven, Cumberland, Currituck, Davidson, Davie, Duplin, Durham, Edgecombe, Forsyth, Franklin, Gaston, Graham, Granville, Greene, Guilford, Halifax, Harnett, Haywood, Henderson, Hoke, Iredell, Jackson, Johnston, Jones, Lee, Lenoir, Lincoln, Macon, Madison, Martin, McDowell, Mecklenburg, Montgomery, Nash, New Hanover, Onslow, Orange, Pamlico, Pasquotank, Pender, Perquimans, Person, Pitt, Polk, Richmond, Robeson, Rockingham, Rowan, Sampson, Scotland, Stanly, Stokes, Surry, Swain, Transylvania, Union, Vance, Wake, Warren, Watauga, Wayne, Wilkes, and Yancey Counties only.

(d) This section does not apply as to any condemnation or acquisition of real property or an interest in real property by a city where the property to be condemned or acquired is within the corporate limits of that city. (1981, c. 134, ss. 1, 2; c. 270, ss. 1, 2; c. 283, ss. 1-3; c. 459, s. 1; c. 941, s. 1; 1981 (Reg. Sess., 1982), c. 1150, s. 1; 1989 (Reg. Sess., 1990), c. 973, s. 1; c. 1061, s. 1; 1991, c. 615, s. 3; 1991 (Reg. Sess., 1992), c. 790, s. 1; 1993 (Reg. Sess., 1994), c. 624, s. 1; c. 628, s. 1; 1995 (Reg. Sess., 1996), c. 681, s. 1; 1997-164, s. 1; 1997-263, s. 1; 1998-110, s. 1; 1998-217, s. 47; 1999-6, s. 1.)

Sess., 1990), c. 1061, s. 2.

Editor's Note. — Sections 1 and 2 of Session Laws 1981, cc. 134 and 270, and ss. 1 through 3 of Session Laws 1981, c. 283, as amended by Session Laws 1981, cc. 459, 941, and 1150, and Session Laws 1989 (Reg. Sess., 1990), cc. 973, and 1061, have been codified as this section under the direction of the Revisor of Statutes.

Sections 130-130 and 153A-159, most of Article 11 of Chapter 160A, and Chapter 40, referred to in this section, have been repealed. As to eminent domain, see now Chapter 40A.

For similar provisions pertaining to Cabarrus County, see Session Laws 1985, c. 194.

ARTICLE 3.

Boundaries.

§ 153A-17. Existing boundaries.

The boundaries of each county shall remain as presently established, until changed in accordance with law. (1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 153A-18. Uncertain or disputed boundary.

(a) If two or more counties are uncertain as to the exact location of the boundary between them, they may cause the boundary to be surveyed, marked, and mapped. The counties may appoint special commissioners to supervise the surveying, marking, and mapping. A commissioner so appointed or a person surveying or marking the boundary may enter upon private property to view and survey the boundary or to erect boundary markers. Upon ratification of the survey by the board of commissioners of each county, a map showing the surveyed boundary shall be recorded in the office of the register of deeds of each county in the manner provided by law for the recordation of maps or plats and in the Secretary of State's office. The map shall contain a reference to the date of each resolution of ratification and to the page in the minutes of each board of commissioners where the resolution may be found. Upon recordation, the map is conclusive as to the location of the boundary.

(b) If two or more counties dispute the exact location of the boundary between them, and the dispute cannot be resolved pursuant to subsection (a) of this section, any of the counties may apply to a superior court judge who has jurisdiction pursuant to G.S. 7A-47.1 or 7A-48 in any of the districts or sets of districts as defined in G.S. 7A-41.1 in which any of the counties is located for appointment of a boundary commission. The application shall identify the disputed boundary and ask that a boundary commission be appointed. Upon receiving the application, the court shall set a date for a hearing on whether to appoint the commission. The court shall cause notice of the hearing to be served on the other county or counties. If, after the hearing, the court finds that the location of the boundary is disputed, it shall appoint a boundary commission.

The commission shall consist of one resident of each disputing county and a resident of some other county. The court may appoint one or more surveyors to assist the commission. The commission shall locate, survey, and map and may mark the disputed boundary. To do so it may take evidence and hear testimony, and any commissioner and any person surveying or marking the boundary may enter upon private property to view and survey the boundary or to erect boundary markers. Within 45 days after the day it is appointed, unless this time is extended by the court, the commission shall make its report (which shall include a map of the surveyed boundary) to the court. To be sufficient, the report must be concurred in by a majority of the commissioners. If the court is satisfied that the commissioners have made no error of law, it shall ratify the report, after which the map shall be recorded in the office of the register of deeds of each county in the manner provided by law for the recordation of maps or plats and in the Secretary of State's office. Upon recordation, the map is conclusive as to the location of the boundary.

The disputing counties shall divide equally the costs of locating, surveying, marking, and mapping the boundary, unless the court finds that an equal division of the costs would be unjust. In that case the court may determine the division of costs.

(c) Two or more counties may establish the boundary between them pursuant to subsection (a), above, by the use of base maps prepared from orthophotography, which base maps show the monuments of the United States Geological Survey and North Carolina State Plane Coordinate System established pursuant to Chapter 102 of the General Statutes. Upon ratification of the location of the boundary determined from orthophotography by the board of commissioners of each county, the map showing the boundary and the monuments of the United States Geological Survey and North Carolina State Plane Coordinate System shall be recorded in the Office of the Register of Deeds of each county and in the Secretary of State's office. The map shall contain a reference to the date of each resolution of ratification and to the page in the minutes of each board of commissioners where the resolution may be found. Upon recordation, the map is conclusive as to the location of the boundary. (1836, c. 3; R.C., c. 27; Code, s. 721; Rev., s. 1322; C.S., s. 1299; 1925, c. 251; 1973, c. 822, s. 1; 1987 (Reg. Sess., 1988), c. 1037, s. 121; 1997-299, s. 1.)

Local Modification. — Session Laws 1997-299, s. 1, repealed the local modifications to this section.

§ 153A-19. Establishing and naming townships.

(a) A county may by resolution establish and abolish townships, change their boundaries, and prescribe their names, except that no such resolution may become effective during the period beginning January 1, 1998, and ending January 2, 2000, and any resolution providing that the boundaries of a township shall change automatically with changes in the boundaries of a city shall not be effective during that period. The current boundaries of each township within a county shall at all times be drawn on a map, or set out in a written description, or shown by a combination of these techniques. This current delineation shall be available for public inspection in the office of the clerk.

(b) Any provision of a city charter or other local act which provides that the boundaries of a township shall change automatically upon a change in a city boundary shall not be effective during the period beginning January 1, 1998, and ending January 2, 2000.

(c) The county manager or, where there is no county manager, the chairman of the board of commissioners, shall report township boundaries and changes in those boundaries to the United States Bureau of the Census in the Boundary and Annexations Survey. In responding to the surveys, each county manager or, if there is no manager, chairman of the board of commissioners shall consult with the county board of elections and other appropriate local agencies as to the location of township boundaries, so that the Census Bureau's mapping of township boundaries does not disagree with any county voting precinct boundaries that may be based on township boundaries. (1868, c. 20, s. 8; Code, s. 707; Rev., s. 1318; C.S., s. 1297; 1973, c. 822, s. 1; 1987, c. 715, s. 1; c. 879, s. 2; 1993, c. 352, s. 1; 1995, c. 423, s. 4.)

CASE NOTES

Editor's Note. — The cases cited below were decided under corresponding sections of former law.

Townships are within the power and control of the General Assembly, just as are counties, cities, towns and other municipal corporations. It may confer upon them, or any single one of them, corporate powers, with the view to accomplish any lawful purpose. Such powers may be conferred for a single purpose as well as many. Brown v. Commissioners of Hertford, 100 N.C. 92, 5 S.E. 178 (1888); Jones v. Commissioners of Person County, 107 N.C. 248, 12 S.E. 69 (1890).

Power to Subdivide Territory and Bestow Corporate Functions. — It is within the power of the legislature to subdivide the territory of the State and invest the inhabitants of such subdivisions with corporate functions. Moreover, it is not essential that such subdivisions be created directly by legislative enactment, certain agencies may be required by statute to establish them. McCormac v. Commissioners of Robeson, 90 N.C. 441 (1884).

As to former corporate powers of townships and former boards of township trustees, see Mitchell v. Board of Trustees, 71 N.C. 400 (1874); Wallace v. Board of Trustees, 84 N.C. 164 (1881); Jones, Gaskill & Co. v. Commissioners of Rowan, 85 N.C. 278 (1881); Brown v. Commissioners of Hertford, 100 N.C. 92, 5 S.E. 178 (1888); *Jones v. ### § 153A-20. Map of electoral districts.

If a county is divided into electoral districts for the purpose of nominating or electing persons to the board of commissioners, the current boundaries of the electoral districts shall at all times be drawn on a map, or set out in a written description, or shown by a combination of these techniques. This current delineation shall be available for public inspection in the office of the clerk. (1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 153A-21: Repealed by Session Laws 1973, c. 884.

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1975, c. 389, applicable only to Robeson County, reenacted this section.

§ 153A-22. Redefining electoral district boundaries.

(a) If a county is divided into electoral districts for the purpose of nominating or electing persons to the board of commissioners, the board of commissioners may find as a fact whether there is substantial inequality of population among the districts.

(b) If the board finds that there is substantial inequality of population among the districts, it may by resolution redefine the electoral districts.

(c) Redefined electoral districts shall be so drawn that the quotients obtained by dividing the population of each district by the number of commissioners apportioned to the district are as nearly equal as practicable, and each district shall be composed of territory within a continuous boundary.

(d) No change in the boundaries of an electoral district may affect the unexpired term of office of a commissioner residing in the district and serving on the board on the effective date of the resolution. If the terms of office of members of the board do not all expire at the same time, the resolution shall state which seats are to be filled at the initial election held under the resolution.

(e) A resolution adopted pursuant to this section shall be the basis of electing persons to the board of commissioners at the first general election for members of the board of commissioners occurring after the resolution's effective date, and thereafter. A resolution becomes effective upon its adoption, unless it is adopted during the period beginning 150 days before the day of a primary and ending on the day of the next succeeding general election for membership on the board of commissioners, in which case it becomes effective on the first day after the end of the period.

(f) Not later than 10 days after the day on which a resolution becomes effective, the clerk shall file in the Secretary of State's office, in the office of the register of deeds of the county, and with the chairman of the county board of elections, a certified copy of the resolution.

(g) This section shall not apply to counties where under G.S. 153A-58(3)d. or under public or local act, districts are for residence purposes only, and the qualified voters of the entire county nominate all candidates for and elect all members of the board. (1981, c. 795.)

Local Modification. — Dare: 1991, Ex. Sess., c. 2, ss. 4-5.1 (As to applicability and contingency provisions, see 1991 Session Laws, Ex. Sess., c. 2, s. 7).

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1993, c. 521, s. 2 provides: "Section 1 of this act supersedes any previous action under G.S. 153A-22." Section 1 provides: "Chapter 136, Session Laws of 1991, [relating to expanding and redistricting the Guilford County Board of Commissioners] is reenacted."

§§ 153A-23, 153A-24: Reserved for future codification purposes.

ARTICLE 4.

Form of Government.

Part 1. General Provisions.

§ 153A-25. Qualifications for appointive office.

The board of commissioners may fix qualifications for any appointive office, including a requirement that a person serving in such an office reside within the county. The board may not waive qualifications fixed by law for an appointive office but may fix additional qualifications for that office. (1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 153A-26. Oath of office.

Each person elected by the people or appointed to a county office shall, before entering upon the duties of the office, take and subscribe the oath of office prescribed in Article VI, Sec. 7 of the Constitution. The oath of office shall be administered by some person authorized by law to administer oaths and shall be filed with the clerk.

On the first Monday in December following each general election at which county officers are elected, the persons who have been elected to county office in that election shall assemble at the regular meeting place of the board of commissioners. At that time each such officer shall take and subscribe the oath of office. An officer not present at this time may take and subscribe the oath at a later time. (1868, c. 20, s. 8; 1874-5, c. 237, s. 3; Code, ss. 707, 708; 1895, c. 135, ss. 3, 4; Rev., ss. 1316, 1318; C.S., ss. 1295, 1297; 1965, c. 26; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

CASE NOTES

Applied in Ratcliff v. County of Buncombe, 663 F. Supp. 1003 (W.D.N.C. 1987).

§ 153A-27. Vacancies on the board of commissioners.

If a vacancy occurs on the board of commissioners, the remaining members of the board shall appoint a qualified person to fill the vacancy. If the number of vacancies on the board is such that a quorum of the board cannot be obtained, the chairman of the board shall appoint enough members to make up a quorum, and the board shall then proceed to fill the remaining vacancies. If the number of vacancies on the board is such that a quorum of the board cannot be obtained and the office of chairman is vacant, the clerk of superior court of the county shall fill the vacancies upon the request of any remaining member of the board or upon the petition of any five registered voters of the county. If for any other reason the remaining members of the board do not fill a vacancy within 60 days after the day the vacancy occurs, the clerk shall immediately report the vacancy to the clerk of superior court of the county. The clerk of superior court shall, within 10 days after the day the vacancy is reported to him, fill the vacancy.

If the member being replaced was serving a two-year term, or if the member was serving a four-year term and the vacancy occurs later than 60 days before the general election held after the first two years of the term, the appointment to fill the vacancy is for the remainder of the unexpired term. Otherwise, the term of the person appointed to fill the vacancy extends to the first Monday in December next following the first general election held more than 60 days after the day the vacancy occurs; at that general election, a person shall be elected to the seat vacated, either to the remainder of the unexpired term or, if the term has expired, to a full term.

To be eligible for appointment to fill a vacancy, a person must (i) be a member of the same political party as the member being replaced, if that member was elected as the nominee of a political party, and (ii) be a resident of the same district as the member being replaced, if the county is divided into electoral districts. The board of commissioners or the clerk of superior court, as the case may be, shall consult the county executive committee of the appropriate political party before filling a vacancy, but neither the board nor the clerk of the superior court is bound by the committee's recommendation. (Code, s. 719; 1895, c. 135, s. 7; Rev., s. 1314; 1909, c. 490, s. 1; C.S., s. 1294; 1959, c. 1325; 1965, cc. 239, 382; 1967, cc. 7, 424, 439, 1022; 1969, cc. 82, 222; 1971, c. 743, s. 1; 1973, c. 822, s. 1; 1985, c. 563, ss. 7.3, 7.4.)

Cross References. — As to counties not subject to this section, see § 153A-27.1.

CASE NOTES

Authority to Accept Resignation. — Under former statute which authorized the clerk of the superior court to fill vacancies on boards of commissioners in all cases, it was held that a tender of resignation by a county commissioner to the clerk of the superior court was a tender to the proper authority. While the mere filing of the resignation did not vacate the office, its acceptance by the clerk was final, and after its acceptance the commissioner had no power to withdraw it. Rockingham County v. Luten Bridge Co., 35 F.2d 301 (4th Cir. 1929).

§ 153A-27.1. Vacancies on board of commissioners in certain counties.

(a) If a vacancy occurs on the board of commissioners, the remaining members of the board shall appoint a qualified person to fill the vacancy. If the number of vacancies on the board is such that a quorum of the board cannot be obtained, the chairman of the board shall appoint enough members to make up a quorum, and the board shall then proceed to fill the remaining vacancies. If the number of vacancies on the board is such that a quorum of the board cannot be obtained and the office of chairman is vacant, the clerk of superior court of the county shall fill the vacancies upon the request of any remaining member of the board or upon the petition of any registered voters of the county.

(b) If the member being replaced was serving a two-year term, or if the member was serving a four-year term and the vacancy occurs later than 60 days before the general election held after the first two years of the term, the appointment to fill the vacancy is for the remainder of the unexpired term. Otherwise, the term of the person appointed to fill the vacancy extends to the first Monday in December next following the first general election held more than 60 days after the day the vacancy occurs; at that general election, a person shall be elected to the seat vacated for the remainder of the unexpired term.

(c) To be eligible for appointment to fill a vacancy, a person must (i) be a member of the same political party as the member being replaced, if that member was elected as the nominee of a political party, and (ii) be a resident of the same district as the member being replaced, if the county is divided into electoral districts.

(d) If the member who vacated the seat was elected as a nominee of a political party, the board of commissioners, the chairman of the board, or the clerk of superior court, as the case may be, shall consult the county executive committee of the appropriate political party before filling the vacancy, and shall appoint the person recommended by the county executive committee of the political party of which the commissioner being replaced was a member, if the party makes a recommendation within 30 days of the occurrence of the vacancy.

(e) Whenever because of G.S. 153A-58(3)b. or because of any local act, only the qualified voters of an area which is less than the entire county were eligible to vote in the general election for the member whose seat is vacant, the appointing authority must accept the recommendation only if the county executive committee restricted voting to committee members who represent precincts all or part of which were within the territorial area of the district of the county commissioner.

(f) The provisions of any local act which provides that a county executive committee of a political party shall fill any vacancy on a board of county commissioners are repealed.

(g) Counties subject to this section are not subject to G.S. 153A-27.

(h) This section shall apply only in the following counties: Alamance, Alexander, Alleghany, Avery, Beaufort, Brunswick, Buncombe, Burke, Cabarrus, Caldwell, Carteret, Cherokee, Clay, Cleveland, Cumberland, Dare, Davidson, Davie, Forsyth, Graham, Guilford, Haywood, Henderson, Hyde, Jackson, Lincoln, Macon, Madison, McDowell, Mecklenburg, Moore, Pender, Polk, Randolph, Rockingham, Rutherford, Sampson, Stanly, Stokes, Transylvania, Wake, and Yancey. (1981, c. 763, ss. 6, 14; c. 830; 1983, c. 418; 1985, c. 563, s. 7.2; 1987, c. 196, s. 1; 1989, c. 296; c. 497, s. 2; 1991, c. 395, s. 1; c. 558, s. 1; 1995 (Reg. Sess., 1996), c. 683, s. 1; 1997-88, s. 1.)

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL

For a discussion of the proper authority and procedures for appointing an interim county tax collector, see opinion of Attorney General to The Honorable Charles Beall, North Carolina House of Representatives, 1998 N.C.A.G. 35 (8/5/98).

§ 153A-28. Compensation of board of commissioners.

The board of commissioners may fix the compensation and allowances of the chairman and other members of the board by inclusion of the compensation and allowances in and adoption of the budget ordinance. In addition, if the chairman or any other member of the board becomes a full-time county official, pursuant to G.S. 153A-81 or 153A-84, his compensation and allowances may be adjusted at any time during his service as a full-time official, for the duration of that service. (Code, s. 709; Rev., s. 2785; 1907, c. 500; C.S., s. 3918; 1969, c. 180, s. 1; 1971, c. 1125, s. 1; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

CASE NOTES

Erroneous But Innocent Mileage Allowance. — Where a board of county commissioners audited in favor of its members for mileage, to which they were not entitled, and it was found as a fact that they did so under advice and without any corrupt or fraudulent motive, it was held that the members of the board were not indictable either under § 14-234 or at common law. State v. Norris, 111 N.C. 652, 16 S.E. 2 (1892), decided under former law.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL

Authority of the county commissioners to amend the county budget to raise or lower their compensation at any time during the fiscal year is limited by their authority to fix their compensation in the adoption of the annual budget. See opinion of Attorney General to Mr. James C. Fox, New Hanover County Attorney, 42 N.C.A.G. 132 (1972), issued under former law.

§ 153A-29: Repealed by Session Laws 1975, c. 514, s. 17.

§§ 153A-30 through 153A-33: Reserved for future codification purposes.

Part 2. Structure of the Board of Commissioners.

§ 153A-34. Structure of boards of commissioners.

Each county is governed by a board of commissioners. The structure and manner of election of the board of commissioners in each county shall remain as it is on February 1, 1974, until changed in accordance with law. (Rev., s. 1311; C.S., s. 1292; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1973, c. 822, s. 2, provided, in part, that the repeal of former §§ 153-4 and 153-5 did not affect in any way the structure or manner of election of any board of county commissioners nor the structure or manner of election of which was established by those sections, and that each board of commissioners would continue to have the same structure and manner of election as it had on the effective date of the 1973 act until that structure or manner of election was changed in accordance with law.

Legal Periodicals. — For note on one man, one vote as applied to local governing bodies, see 47 N.C.L. Rev. 413 (1969).

CASE NOTES

Editor's Note. — The cases cited below were decided under corresponding sections of former law.

Board of commissioners of a county has a perpetual existence, continued by members who succeed each other, and the body remains the same, notwithstanding a change in the individuals who compose it. Pegram v. Commissioners of Cleveland County, 65 N.C. 114 (1871).

Powers of Board of Commissioners. — The board of commissioners in a county possesses only those powers which have been prescribed by statute and those necessarily implied by law, and no others. This is the general rule. Fidelity & Deposit Co. v. Fleming, 132 N.C. 332, 43 S.E. 899 (1903).

Powers of De Facto Board. — An old board of commissioners, holding over as de facto officers, has the right and duty of performing, to the fullest extent, all the appropriate functions of office. State ex rel. Jones v. Jones, 80 N.C. 127 (1879).

Exercise of Powers by Board as Exercise by County. — The board's exercise of statutory powers is, in contemplation of law, the exercise of such powers by the county. Board of Comm'rs v. Hanchett Bond Co., 194 N.C. 137, 138 S.E. 614 (1927).

Powers to Be Exercised by Majority. — A majority of the commissioners constitute the legal body, and generally a majority of the members of the legally organized body can exercise the powers delegated to the county. Cleveland Cotton Mills v. Commissioners of Cleveland County, 108 N.C. 678, 13 S.E. 271 (1891).

There is no grade among the duties and powers of county commissioners, and no preference is given to one over another. Long v. Commissioners of Richmond County, 76 N.C. 273 (1877).

The board of commissioners has the power and duty of auditing and passing upon the validity of claims. Reed v. Farmer, 211 N.C. 249, 189 S.E. 882 (1937), citing Martin v. Clark, 135 N.C. 178, 47 S.E. 397 (1904).

Remedy for Failure of Board to Act on Claim. — If the board of commissioners refuses to audit or act upon a claim, mandamus will lie to compel them to do so. If after a hearing the board refuses to allow or issue a warrant for its payment, an action will lie against the commissioners to establish the debt and for such other relief as the party may be entitled to. Reed v. Farmer, 211 N.C. 249, 189 S.E. 882 (1937), citing Martin v. Clark, 135 N.C. 178, 47 S.E. 397 (1904).

Mandamus will lie against county commissioners who refuse to issue bonds, as required by an act of the legislature. Jones v. Commissioners, 137 N.C. 579, 50 S.E. 291 (1905).

Who Must Obey Mandamus When Membership of Board Changes Between Order and Service Thereof. — When a writ of mandamus is obtained against a board of commissioners, and there is a change in the individual members between the time when the writ is ordered and the time when it is served, those who compose the board at the time of service must obey it. Pegram v. Commissioners of Cleveland County, 65 N.C. 114 (1871).

Correction of Clerical Error in Record by Board. — Where the record of the board of county commissioners, through a clerical error, stated that a twenty cents (20¢) tax levy for general county purposes was on $100.00 valuation of property, this error could subsequently be corrected by the board, at its own instance, to correctly show that in fact the levy was actually made for 15 cents for general county purposes, 5 cents thereof being for the improvement of the courthouse and county home, and thus within the constitutional requirement. Norfolk S.R.R. v. Forbes, 188 N.C. 151, 124 S.E. 132 (1924).

Personal Liability of Commissioners as Imposed by Legislature. — Where the legislature has created certain duties to be performed by county commissioners, and has expressly imposed a personal liability upon their failure to perform some of them but not others, such liability only attaches where it is expressly so declared. Fore v. Feimster, 171 N.C. 551, 88 S.E. 977 (1916).

Personal Liability for Negligent Performance or Omission of Ministerial Duties. — County commissioners are held to an individual liability in the negligent performance of, or negligent omission to perform, a purely ministerial duty, to a person specially injured thereby, when the means to act are available and the matter does not involve the exercise of a discretionary or judicial power conferred upon them by statute. Hipp v. Farrell, 169 N.C. 551, 86 S.E. 570 (1915).

Personal Liability for Judicial and Discretionary Acts. — Public officers are not personally liable to persons specially injured by their acts done in the exercise of judicial or discretionary powers conferred on them by statute, unless it is alleged and shown that in doing the acts complained of they did so corruptly and with malice. Hipp v. Farrell, 169 N.C. 551, 86 S.E. 570 (1915).

Part 3. Organization and Procedures of the Board of Commissioners.

§ 153A-39. Selection of chairman and vice-chairman; powers and duties.

On:

(1) The first Monday in December of each even-numbered year; and
 (2) Its first regular meeting in December of each odd-numbered year, the board of commissioners shall choose one of its members as chairman for the ensuing year, unless the chairman is elected as such by the people or otherwise designated by law. The board shall also at that time choose a vice-chairman to act in the absence or disability of the chairman. If the chairman and the vice-chairman are both absent from a meeting of the board, the members present may choose a temporary chairman.

The chairman is the presiding officer of the board of commissioners. Unless excused by rule of the board, the presiding officer has the duty to vote on any question before the board, but he has no right to break a tie vote in which he participated. (Code, s. 706; Rev., s. 1317; C.S., s. 1296; 1945, c. 132; 1951, c. 904, s. 1; 1961, c. 154; 1967, c. 617, s. 1; 1969, c. 349, s. 1; c. 1036; 1973, c. 822, s. 1; 1993, c. 95, s. 1.)

§ 153A-40. Regular and special meetings.

(a) The board of commissioners shall hold a regular meeting at least once a month, and may hold more frequent regular meetings. The board may by resolution fix the time and place of its regular meetings. If such a resolution is adopted, at least 10 days before the first meeting to which the resolution is to apply, the board shall cause a copy of it to be posted on the courthouse bulletin board and a summary of it to be published. If no such resolution is adopted, the board shall meet at the courthouse on the first Monday of each month, or on the next succeeding business day if the first Monday is a holiday.

If use of the courthouse or other designated regular meeting place is made temporarily impossible, inconvenient, or unwise, the board may change the time or place or both of a regular meeting or of all regular meetings within a specified period of time. The board shall cause notice of the temporary change to be posted at or near the regular meeting place and shall take any other action it considers helpful in informing the public of the temporary change.

The board may adjourn a regular meeting from day to day or to a day certain until the business before the board is completed.

(b) The chairman or a majority of the members of the board may at any time call a special meeting of the board of commissioners by signing a written notice stating the time and place of the meeting and the subjects to be considered. The person or persons calling the meeting shall cause the notice to be delivered to the chairman and each other member of the board or left at the usual dwelling place of each at least 48 hours before the meeting and shall cause a copy of the notice to be posted on the courthouse bulletin board at least 48 hours before the meeting. Only those items of business specified in the notice may be transacted at a special meeting, unless all members are present or those not present have signed a written waiver.

If a special meeting is called to deal with an emergency, the notice requirements of this subsection do not apply. However, the person or persons calling such a special meeting shall take reasonable action to inform the other members and the public of the meeting. Only business connected with the emergency may be discussed at a meeting called pursuant to this paragraph.

In addition to the procedures set out in this subsection, a person or persons calling a special or emergency meeting of the board of commissioners shall comply with the notice requirements of Article 33B of General Statutes Chapter 143.

(c) The board of commissioners shall hold all its meetings within the county except:

- (1) In connection with a joint meeting of two or more public bodies; provided, however, that such a meeting shall be held within the boundaries of the political subdivision represented by the members of one of the public bodies participating;
- (2) In connection with a retreat, forum, or similar gathering held solely for the purpose of providing members of the board with general information relating to the performance of their public duties; provided, however, that members of the board of commissioners shall not vote upon or otherwise transact public business while in attendance at such a gathering;

- (3) In connection with a meeting between the board of commissioners and its local legislative delegation during a session of the General Assembly; provided, however, that at any such meeting the members of the board of commissioners may not vote upon or otherwise transact public business except with regard to matters directly relating to legislation proposed to or pending before the General Assembly;
- (4) While in attendance at a convention, association meeting or similar gathering; provided, however, that any such meeting may be held solely to discuss or deliberate the board's position concerning convention resolutions, elections of association officers and similar issues that are not legally binding upon the board of commissioners or its constituents.

All meetings held outside the county shall be deemed "official meetings" within the meaning of G.S. 143-318.10(d). (Code, s. 706; Rev., s. 1317; C.S., s. 1296; 1945, c. 132; 1951, c. 904, s. 1; 1961, c. 154; 1967, c. 617, s. 1; 1969, c. 349, s. 1; c. 1036; 1973, c. 822, s. 1; 1977, 2nd Sess., c. 1191, s. 6; 1985, c. 745.)

Editor's Note. — Article 33B of Chapter 143, referred to in subsection (b) of this section, was repealed. For present provisions concerning meetings of public bodies, see Chapter 143,

Article 33C (§§ 143-318.9 through 143-318.18.)
For survey of 1978 administrative law, see 57 N.C.L. Rev. 831 (1979).

§ 153A-41. Procedures.

The board of commissioners may adopt its own rules of procedure, in keeping with the size and nature of the board and in the spirit of generally accepted principles of parliamentary procedure. (Code, s. 706; Rev., s. 1317; C.S., s. 1296; 1945, c. 132; 1951, c. 904, s. 1; 1961, c. 154; 1967, c. 617, s. 1; 1969, c. 349, s. 1; c. 1036; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 153A-42. Minutes to be kept; ayes and noes.

The clerk shall keep full and accurate minutes of the proceedings of the board of commissioners, which shall be available for public inspection. The clerk shall record the results of each vote in the minutes; and upon the request of any member of the board, the ayes and noes upon any question shall be taken and recorded. (Code, s. 712; 1905, c. 530; Rev., s. 1325; C.S., s. 1310; 1953, c. 973, s. 3; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

CASE NOTES

Record of a board of county commissioners may be corrected nunc pro tunc to speak the truth by the board itself. Norfolk S.R.R. v. Reid, 187 N.C. 320, 121 S.E. 534 (1924), decided under former law.

Where county commissioners exercised their statutory authority to loan county funds to the State Highway Commission (now the Board of Transportation), anticipating the allotment of State funds for the building of highways within the county, and lawfully contracted for that purpose, they could not, after the passage of a later act taking away this power, materially change the contract, but the county commissioners nunc pro tunc could correct the entries on their minutes theretofore duly passed and entered of record so as to make the entry speak the truth as to what had been regularly done, to this end parol evidence being admissible, the time of the correction so made relating back to the time the entry should have been correctly made. Oliver v. Board of Comm'rs, 194 N.C. 380, 139 S.E. 767 (1927), decided under former law.

§ 153A-43. Quorum.

A majority of the membership of the board of commissioners constitutes a quorum. The number required for a quorum is not affected by vacancies. If a member has withdrawn from a meeting without being excused by majority vote of the remaining members present, he shall be counted as present for the purposes of determining whether a quorum is present. The board may compel the attendance of an absent member by ordering the sheriff to take the member into custody. (Code, s. 706; Rev., s. 1317; C.S., s. 1296; 1945, c. 132; 1951, c. 904, s. 1; 1961, c. 154; 1967, c. 617, s. 1; 1969, c. 349, s. 1; c. 1036; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 153A-44. (Effective until July 1, 2002) Members excused from voting.

The board may excuse a member from voting, but only upon questions involving his own financial interest or his official conduct. (For purposes of this section, the question of the compensation and allowances of members of the board does not involve a member's own financial interest or official conduct.) (Code, s. 706; Rev., s. 1317; C.S., s. 1296; 1945, c. 132; 1951, c. 904, s. 1; 1961, c. 154; 1967, c. 617, s. 1; 1969, c. 349, s. 1; c. 1036; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

Section Set Out Twice. — The section above is effective until July 1, 2002. For the section as amended July 1, 2002, see the following section, also numbered § 153A-44.

CASE NOTES

Cited in County of Lancaster v. Mecklenburg County, 334 N.C. 496, 434 S.E.2d 604 (1993).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL

Disqualification. — Any situation in which a county commissioner has a personal economic interest would disqualify that commissioner from voting. See opinion of Attorney General to C. Preston Cornelius, Senior Resident Superior Court Judge, 60 N.C.A.G. 50 (1990).

No Conflict of Interest Found. — A county commissioner who is also chairman of the county social services board can present the department of social services budget to the county commissioners and thereafter participate and vote as a member of the county commissioners regarding the approval or disapproval of that budget, as the budget for the department of social services would not ordinarily involve an economic conflict of interest. See opinion of Attorney General to C. Preston Cornelius, Senior Resident, Superior Court Judge, 60 N.C.A.G. 50 (1990).

The chairman of the county social services board, who is also a county commissioner, can participate in discussions and vote at county commission meetings in matters pertaining to personnel and the operation of the county department of social services. It is apparent that the legislature contemplates county commissioners serving on other boards and commissions as an extension of commissioner duties, and that such service will not ordinarily disqualify the commissioners from participating in discussions and voting at county commission meetings. See opinion of Attorney General to C. Preston Cornelius, Senior Resident, Superior Court Judge, 60 N.C.A.G. 50 (1990).

§ 153A-44. (Effective July 1, 2002) Members excused from voting.

The board may excuse a member from voting, but only upon questions involving the member's own financial interest or official conduct or on matters on which the member is prohibited from voting under G.S. 14-234. For purposes of this section, the question of the compensation and allowances of members of the board does not involve a member's own financial interest or official conduct. (Code, s. 706; Rev., s. 1317; C.S., s. 1296; 1945, c. 132; 1951, c. 904, s. 1; 1961, c. 154; 1967, c. 617, s. 1; 1969, c. 349, s. 1; c. 1036; 1973, c. 822, s. 1; 2001-409, s. 8.)

Section Set Out Twice. — The section above is effective July 1, 2002. For the section as in effect until July 1, 2002, see the preceding section, also numbered 153A-44.

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 2001-409, s. 10, provides that prosecutions for offenses committed before the effective dates of the provisions of the act are not abated or affected by the act, and the statutes that would be applicable but for the act remain applicable to those prosecutions.

Effect of Amendments. — Session Laws 2001-409, s. 8, effective July 1, 2002, and applicable to actions taken and offenses committed on or after that date, in the first sentence substituted "the member's own financial interest or official conduct" for "his own financial interest or his official conduct" and added the language beginning "or on matters on which" at the end of that sentence, and deleted parentheses that had enclosed the second sentence.

§ 153A-45. Adoption of ordinances.

To be adopted at the meeting at which it is first introduced, an ordinance or any action having the effect of an ordinance (except the budget ordinance, any bond order, or any other ordinance on which a public hearing must be held before the ordinance may be adopted) must receive the approval of all the members of the board of commissioners. If the ordinance is approved by a majority of those voting but not by all the members of the board, or if the ordinance is not voted on at that meeting, it shall be considered at the next regular meeting of the board. If it then or at any time thereafter within 100 days of its introduction receives a majority of the votes cast, a quorum being present, the ordinance is adopted. (1963, c. 1060, ss. 1, 11/2; 1965, cc. 388, 567, 1083, 1158; 1967, c. 495, s. 2; 1969, c. 36, s. 1; 1971, c. 702, ss. 1-3; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

CASE NOTES

For discussion of the distinction between an ordinance and a resolution, see Pittman v. Wilson County, 839 F.2d 225 (4th Cir. 1988).

Personnel Rules. — Absent evidence that "personnel resolution" containing "rules and regulations" for the dismissal of county employees, incorporated in an employee handbook, was passed with the formality required for the enactment of an ordinance, the court would conclude that it was not an ordinance. Pittman v. Wilson County, 839 F.2d 225 (4th Cir. 1988).

§ 153A-46. Franchises.

No ordinance making a grant, renewal, extension, or amendment of any franchise may be finally adopted until it has been passed at two regular meetings of the board of commissioners. No such grant, renewal, extension, or amendment may be made except by ordinance. (1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

Cross References. — As to approval, under this section, of long-term contracts entered into by boards of county commissioners for the disposal of solid waste, see § 153A-299.5.

§ 153A-47. Technical ordinances.

Subject to G.S. 143-138(e), a county may in an ordinance adopt by reference a published technical code or a standard or regulation promulgated by a public agency. A technical code or standard or regulation so adopted has the force of law in any area of the county in which the ordinance is applicable. An official copy of a technical code or standard or regulation adopted by reference shall be available for public inspection in the office of the clerk and need not be filed in the ordinance book. (1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

CASE NOTES

Cited in Bostic v. Wall, 588 F. Supp. 994 (W.D.N.C. 1984).

§ 153A-48. Ordinance book.

The clerk shall maintain an ordinance book, separate from the minute book of the board of commissioners. The ordinance book shall be indexed and shall be available for public inspection in the office of the clerk. Except as provided in this section and in G.S. 153A-47, each county ordinance shall be filed and indexed in the ordinance book.

The budget ordinance and any amendments thereto, any bond order, and any other ordinance of limited interest or transitory nature may be omitted from the ordinance book. However, the ordinance book shall contain a section showing the caption of each omitted ordinance and the page in the commissioners' minute book at which the ordinance may be found.

If a county adopts and issues a code of its ordinances, county ordinances need be recorded and indexed in the ordinance book only until they are placed in the codification. (1963, c. 1060, ss. 1, 11/2; 1965, cc. 388, 567, 1083, 1158; 1967, c. 495, s. 2; 1969, c. 36, s. 1; 1971, c. 702, ss. 1-3; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

For discussion of the distinction between an ordinance and a resolution, see Pittman v. Wilson County, 839 F.2d 225 (4th Cir. 1988).

Personnel Rules. — Absent evidence that "personnel resolution" containing "rules and regulations" for the dismissal of county employees, incorporated in an employee handbook, was passed with the formality required for the enactment of an ordinance, the court would conclude that it was not an ordinance. Pittman v. Wilson County, 839 F.2d 225 (4th Cir. 1988).

§ 153A-49. Code of ordinances.

A county may adopt and issue a code of its ordinances. The code may be reproduced by any method that gives legible and permanent copies, and may be issued as a securely bound book or books with periodic separately bound supplements, or as a loose-leaf book maintained by replacement pages.

Supplements or replacement pages should be adopted and issued at least annually, unless there have been no additions to or modifications of the code during the year.

A code may consist of two parts, the "General Ordinances" and the "Technical Ordinances." The technical ordinances may be published as separate books or pamphlets, and may include ordinances regarding the construction of buildings, the installation of plumbing and electric wiring, and the installation of cooling and heating equipment; ordinances regarding the use of public utilities, buildings, or facilities operated by the county; the zoning ordinance; the subdivision control ordinance; the privilege license tax ordinance; and other similar ordinances designated as technical ordinances by the board of commissioners. The board may omit from the code the budget ordinance, any bond orders, and other designated classes of ordinances of limited interest or transitory nature, but the code shall clearly describe the classes of ordinances omitted from it.

The board of commissioners may provide that ordinances (i) establishing or amending the boundaries of county zoning areas or (ii) establishing or amending the boundaries of zoning districts shall be codified by appropriate entries upon official map books to be retained permanently in the office of the clerk or some other county office generally accessible to the public. (1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 153A-50. Pleading and proving county ordinances.

County ordinances shall be pleaded and proved under the rules and procedures of G.S. 160A-79. References to G.S. 160A-77 and G.S. 160A-78 appearing in G.S. 160A-79 are deemed, for purposes of this section, to refer to G.S. 153A-49 and G.S. 153A-48, respectively. (1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 153A-51: Reserved for future codification purposes.

§ 153A-52. Conduct of public hearing.

The board of commissioners may hold public hearings at any place within the county. The board may adopt reasonable rules governing the conduct of public hearings, including but not limited to rules (i) fixing the maximum time allotted to each speaker, (ii) providing for the designation of spokesmen for groups of persons supporting or opposing the same position, (iii) providing for the selection of delegates from groups of persons supporting or opposing the same positions when the number of persons wishing to attend the hearing exceeds the capacity of the hall, and (iv) providing for the maintenance of order and decorum in the conduct of the hearing.

The board may continue a public hearing without further advertisement. If a public hearing is set for a given date and a quorum of the board is not then present, the board shall continue the hearing without further advertisement until its next regular meeting. (1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§§ 153A-53 through 153A-57: Reserved for future codification purposes.

Part 4. Modification in the Structure of the Board of Commissioners.

§ 153A-58. Optional structures.

A county may alter the structure of its board of commissioners by adopting one or any combination of the options prescribed by this section.

- (1) Number of members of the board of commissioners: The board may consist of any number of members not less than three, except as limited by subdivision (2)d of this section.
- (2) Terms of office of members of the board of commissioners:
  - a. Members shall be elected for two-year terms of office.
  - b. Members shall be elected for four-year terms of office.
  - c. Members shall be elected for overlapping four-year terms of office.
  - d. The board shall consist of an odd number of members, who are elected for a combination of four- and two-year terms of office, so that a majority of members is elected each two years. This option may be used only if all members of the board are nominated and elected by the voters of the entire county, and only if the chairman of the board is elected by and from the members of the board.
- (3) Mode of election of the board of commissioners:
  - a. The qualified voters of the entire county shall nominate all candidates for and elect all members of the board.
For options b, c, and d, the county shall be divided into electoral districts, and board members shall be apportioned to the districts so that the quotients obtained by dividing the population of each district by the number of commissioners apportioned to the district are as nearly equal as practicable.
  - b. The qualified voters of each district shall nominate candidates and elect members who reside in the district for seats apportioned to that district; and the qualified voters of the entire county shall nominate candidates and elect members apportioned to the county at large, if any.
  - c. The qualified voters of each district shall nominate candidates who reside in the district for seats apportioned to that district, and the qualified voters of the entire county shall nominate candidates for seats apportioned to the county at large, if any; and the qualified voters of the entire county shall elect all the members of the board.
  - d. Members shall reside in and represent the districts according to the apportionment plan adopted, but the qualified voters of the entire county shall nominate all candidates for and elect all members of the board.
If any of options b, c, or d is adopted, the board shall divide the county into the requisite number of electoral districts according to the apportionment plan adopted, and shall cause a delineation of the districts so laid out to be drawn up and filed as required by G.S. 153A-20. No more than half the board may be apportioned to the county at large.
- (4) Selection of chairman of the board of commissioners:
  - a. The board shall elect a chairman from among its membership to serve a one-year term, as provided by G.S. 153A-39.
  - b. The chairmanship shall be a separate office. The qualified voters of the entire county nominate candidates for and elect the chairman for a two- or four-year term. (1927, c. 91, s. 3; 1969, c. 717, s. 1; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 153A-59. Implementation when board has members serving a combination of four- and two-year terms.

If the structure of the board of commissioners is altered to establish a board with an odd number of members serving a combination of four- and two-year terms of office, the new structure shall be implemented as follows:

At the first election all members of the board shall be elected. A simple majority of those elected shall be elected for two-year terms, and the remaining members shall be elected for four-year terms. The candidate or candidates receiving the highest number of votes shall be elected for the four-year terms.

At each subsequent general election, a simple majority of the board shall be elected. That candidate who is elected with the least number of votes shall be elected for a two-year term, and the other member or members elected shall be elected for four-year terms. (1927, c. 91, s. 3; 1969, c. 717, s. 1; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 153A-60. Initiation of alterations by resolution.

The board of commissioners shall initiate any alteration in the structure of the board by adopting a resolution. The resolution shall:

- (1) Briefly but completely describe the proposed alterations;
- (2) Prescribe the manner of transition from the existing structure to the altered structure;
- (3) Define the electoral districts, if any, and apportion the members among the districts;
- (4) Call a special referendum on the question of adoption of the alterations. The referendum shall be held and conducted by the county board of elections. The referendum may be held at the same time as any other state, county or municipal primary, election, special election or referendum, or on any date set by the board of county commissioners, provided, that such referendum shall not be held within the period of time beginning 60 days before and ending 60 days after any other primary, election, special election or referendum held in the county.

Upon its adoption, the resolution shall be published in full. (1927, c. 91, s. 4; 1969, c. 717, s. 1; 1973, c. 822, s. 1; 1977, c. 382.)

§ 153A-61. Submission of proposition to voters; form of ballot.

A proposition to approve an alteration shall be printed on the ballot in substantially the following form:

“Shall the structure of the board of commissioners be altered? (Describe the effect of the alteration.)

- YES
- NO”

The ballot shall be separate from other ballots used at the election.

If a majority of the votes cast on the proposition are in the affirmative, the plan contained in the resolution shall be put into effect as provided in this Part. If a majority of the votes cast are in the negative, the resolution and the plan contained therein are void. (1927, c. 91, s. 4; 1969, c. 717, s. 1; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

Local Modification. — Craven: 2001-447, s. 1 (applicable only to resolutions adopted before January 1, 2002); Dare: 1991, Ex. Sess., c. 2, s. 7); Lee: 1989, c. 195, s. 2 (effective June 1, 1989, but only applicable to resolutions approved on or before Aug. 1, 1990); Wayne: 1987, c. 119 (only applicable to resolutions approved on or before Nov. 30, 1988).

§ 153A-62. Effective date of any alteration.

Any approved alteration shall be the basis for nominating and electing the members of the board of commissioners at the first succeeding primary and general election for county offices held after approval of the alteration; and the alteration takes effect on the first Monday in December following that general election. (1927, c. 91, s. 4; 1969, c. 717, s. 1; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL

Effect of County Referendum. — A referendum on reorganizing the Board of Commissioners in Madison County, if approved, would be effective for the next general election in which county offices are scheduled to be filled. See opinion of Attorney General to Mr. Larry Leake, Chairman, State Board of Elections, 1998 N.C.A.G. 37 (8/27/98).

§ 153A-63. Filing copy of resolution.

ARTICLE 5.

Administration.

§ 153A-76. Board of commissioners to organize county government.

The board of commissioners may create, change, abolish, and consolidate offices, positions, departments, boards, commissions, and agencies of the county government, may impose ex officio the duties of more than one office on a single officer, may change the composition and manner of selection of boards, commissions, and agencies, and may generally organize and reorganize the county government in order to promote orderly and efficient administration of county affairs, subject to the following limitations:

- (1) The board may not abolish an office, position, department, board, commission, or agency established or required by law.
- (2) The board may not combine offices or confer certain duties on the same officer when this action is specifically forbidden by law.
- (3) The board may not discontinue or assign elsewhere a function or duty assigned by law to a particular office, position, department, board, commission, or agency.
- (4) The board may not change the composition or manner of selection of a local board of education, the board of health, the board of social services, the board of elections, or the board of alcoholic beverage control. (1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

CASE NOTES

County Department and Board of Social Services Do Not Have Sovereign Immunity. — Because a county department of social services and a county board of social services are extensions of the county, which does not enjoy sovereign immunity, neither do they have sovereign immunity. Meares v. Brunswick County, 615 F. Supp. 14 (E.D.N.C. 1985). These powers and the many others enumerated in this Chapter show that a county and the county commissioners are not part of the State of North Carolina and they do not enjoy its sovereign immunity. Meares v. Brunswick County, 615 F. Supp. 14 (E.D.N.C. 1985).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL

For a discussion of the proper authority and procedures for appointing an interim county tax collector, see opinion of Attorney General to The Honorable Charles Beall, North Carolina House of Representatives, 1998 N.C.A.G. 35 (8/5/98).

Division of County Health Department.

— Although a board of commissioners may organize county government pursuant to this section, the section expressly prohibits the board from abolishing a department, such as the county health department, and assigning elsewhere its functions and duties. Therefore, a county health department may not be divided into two or more agencies. See opinion of Attorney General to Dr. Ronald H. Levine, State Health Director, 52 N.C.A.G. 44 (1982).

§ 153A-77. Authority of boards of commissioners in certain counties over commissions, boards, agencies, etc.

(a) In the exercise of its jurisdiction over commissions, boards and agencies, the board of county commissioners may assume direct control of any activities theretofore conducted by or through any commission, board or agency by the adoption of a resolution assuming and conferring upon the board of county commissioners all powers, responsibilities and duties of any such commission, board or agency. This subsection shall apply to the board of health, the social services board, area mental health, developmental disabilities, and substance abuse area board and any other commission, board or agency appointed by the board of county commissioners or acting under and pursuant to authority of the board of county commissioners of said county. A board of county commissioners exercising the power and authority under this subsection may, notwithstanding G.S. 130A-25, enforce public health rules adopted by the board through the imposition of civil penalties. If a public health rule adopted by a board of county commissioners imposes a civil penalty, the provisions of G.S. 130A-25 making its violation a misdemeanor shall not be applicable to that public health rule unless the rule states that a violation of the rule is a misdemeanor. The board of county commissioners may exercise the power and authority herein conferred only after a public hearing held by said board pursuant to 30 days' notice of said public hearing given in a newspaper having general circulation in said county.

The board of county commissioners may also appoint advisory boards, committees, councils and agencies composed of qualified and interested county residents to study, interpret and develop community support and cooperation in activities conducted by or under the authority of the board of county commissioners of said county.

(b) In the exercise of its jurisdiction over commissions, boards, and agencies, the board of county commissioners of a county having a county manager pursuant to G.S. 153A-81 may:

- (1) Consolidate the provision of human services in the county under the direct control of a human services director appointed and supervised by the county manager in accordance with subsection (e) of this section;
- (2) Create a consolidated human services board having the powers conferred by subsection (c) of this section;
- (3) Create a consolidated county human services agency having the authority to carry out the functions of the local health department, the county department of social services, and the area mental health, developmental disabilities, and substance abuse services authority; and
- (4) Assign other county human services functions to be performed by the consolidated human services agency under the direction of the human services director, with policy-making authority granted to the consolidated human services board as determined by the board of county commissioners.

(c) A consolidated human services board appointed by the board of county commissioners shall serve as the policy-making, rule-making, and administrative board of the consolidated human services agency. The consolidated human services board shall be composed of no more than 25 members. The composition of the board shall reasonably reflect the population makeup of the county and shall include:

- (1) Eight persons who are consumers of human services, public advocates, or family members of clients of the consolidated human services agency, including: one person with mental illness, one person with a developmental disability, one person in recovery from substance abuse, one family member of a person with mental illness, one family member of a person with a developmental disability, one family member of a person with a substance abuse problem, and two consumers of other human services.
- (2) Eight persons who are professionals, each with qualifications in one of these categories: one psychologist, one pharmacist, one engineer, one dentist, one optometrist, one veterinarian, one social worker, and one registered nurse.
- (3) Two physicians licensed to practice medicine in this State, one of whom shall be a psychiatrist.
- (4) One member of the board of county commissioners.
- (5) Other persons, including members of the general public representing various occupations.

The board of county commissioners may elect to appoint a member of the consolidated human services board to fill concurrently more than one category of membership if the member has the qualifications or attributes of more than one category of membership.

All members of the consolidated human services board shall be residents of the county. The members of the board shall serve four-year terms. No member may serve more than two consecutive four-year terms. The county commissioner member shall serve only as long as the member is a county commissioner.

The initial board shall be appointed by the board of county commissioners upon the recommendation of a nominating committee comprised of members of the preconsolidation board of health, social services board, and area mental health, developmental disabilities, and substance abuse services board. In order to establish a uniform staggered term structure for the board, a member may be appointed for less than a four-year term. After the subsequent establishment of the board, its board shall be appointed by the board of county commissioners from nominees presented by the human services board. Vacancies shall be filled for any unexpired portion of a term.

A chairperson shall be elected annually by the members of the consolidated human services board. A majority of the members shall constitute a quorum. A member may be removed from office by the county board of commissioners for (i) commission of a felony or other crime involving moral turpitude; (ii) violation of a State law governing conflict of interest; (iii) violation of a written policy adopted by the county board of commissioners; (iv) habitual failure to attend meetings; (v) conduct that tends to bring the office into disrepute; or (vi) failure to maintain qualifications for appointment required under this subsection. A board member may be removed only after the member has been given written notice of the basis for removal and has had the opportunity to respond.

A member may receive a per diem in an amount established by the county board of commissioners. Reimbursement for subsistence and travel shall be in accordance with a policy set by the county board of commissioners. The board shall meet at least quarterly. The chairperson or three of the members may call a special meeting.

(d) The consolidated human services board shall have authority to:

- (1) Set fees for departmental services based upon recommendations of the human services director. Fees set under this subdivision are subject to the same restrictions on amount and scope that would apply if the fees were set by a county board of health, a county board of social services, or a mental health, developmental disabilities, and substance abuse area authority.
- (2) Assure compliance with laws related to State and federal programs.
- (3) Recommend creation of local human services programs.
- (4) Adopt local health regulations and participate in enforcement appeals of local regulations.
- (5) Perform regulatory health functions required by State law.
- (6) Act as coordinator or agent of the State to the extent required by State or federal law.
- (7) Plan and recommend a consolidated human services budget.
- (8) Conduct audits and reviews of human services programs, including quality assurance activities, as required by State and federal law or as may otherwise be necessary periodically.
- (9) Advise local officials through the county manager.
- (10) Perform public relations and advocacy functions.
- (11) Protect the public health to the extent required by law.
- (12) Perform comprehensive mental health services planning.
- (13) Develop dispute resolution procedures for human services contractors and clients and public advocates, subject to applicable State and federal dispute resolution procedures for human services programs, when applicable.

Except as otherwise provided, the consolidated human services board shall have the powers and duties conferred by law upon a board of health, a social services board, and an area mental health, developmental disabilities, and substance abuse services board.

Local employees who serve as staff of a consolidated county human services agency are subject to county personnel policies and ordinances only and are not subject to the provisions of the State Personnel Act.

(e) The human services director of a consolidated county human services agency shall be appointed and dismissed by the county manager with the advice and consent of the consolidated human services board. The human services director shall report directly to the county manager. The human services director shall:

- (1) Appoint staff of the consolidated human services agency with the county manager's approval.
- (2) Administer State human services programs.
- (3) Administer human services programs of the local board of county commissioners.
- (4) Act as secretary and staff to the consolidated human services board under the direction of the county manager.
- (5) Plan the budget of the consolidated human services agency.
- (6) Advise the board of county commissioners through the county manager.
- (7) Perform regulatory functions of investigation and enforcement of State and local health regulations, as required by State law.
- (8) Act as an agent of and liaison to the State, to the extent required by law.

Except as otherwise provided by law, the human services director or the director's designee shall have the same powers and duties as a social services director, a local health director, and a director of an area mental health, developmental disabilities, and substance abuse services authority.

(f) This section applies to counties with a population in excess of 425,000. (1973, c. 454, ss. 1-21/2; 1985, c. 589, s. 56; c. 754, s. 1; 1987, c. 217, ss. 1, 2; 1995 (Reg. Sess., 1996), c. 690, s. 3; 2001-120, s. 1.)

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1995 (Reg. Sess., 1996), c. 690, s. 16, effective July 1, 1996, and expiring on January 1, 2001, provides that counties which consolidate human services pursuant to G.S. 153A-77(b) shall report by January 1, 1998, and annually thereafter to the Chairs of the House Appropriations Subcommittees on Human Resources and Natural and Economic Resources and the Chairs of the Senate Appropriations Committees on Human Resources and Natural and Economic Resources, to the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations, and to the Fiscal Research Division regarding the county's implementation of consolidated human services.

Effect of Amendments. — Session Laws 2001-120, s. 1, effective May 25, 2001, inserted the third and fourth sentences in the first paragraph of subsection (a).

CASE NOTES

Personal Jurisdiction Involving Negligent Placement of Foster Child. — Where defendants raised the issues of failure to state a claim and lack of subject matter jurisdiction, but failed to raise the issue of personal jurisdiction, and stipulated in the record before the appellate court that they were properly before the trial court, the defendants could not argue that they were not subject to suit under this section and Chapters 108A and 122C. Hobbs v. North Carolina Dep't of Human Resources, 135 N.C. App. 412, 520 S.E.2d 595 (1999).

Cited in Meares v. Brunswick County, 615 F. Supp. 14 (E.D.N.C. 1985).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL

County Board of Health. — Pursuant to this section, a board of commissioners, in a county with a population in excess of 325,000 (now 425,000), may assume all powers, responsibilities and duties of a county board of health. The board may exercise the power and authority after conducting a public hearing pursuant to 30 days' notice. Although the board may appoint advisory groups, the statute does not authorize the delegation of the former power and authority of the county board of health to another agency. See Opinion of Attorney General to Dr. Ronald H. Levine, State Health Director, 52 N.C.A.G. 44 (1982).

Local Health Director. — The authority conferred by this section is limited to commissions, boards and agencies appointed by the board of commissioners or acting pursuant to its authority. The local health director is appointed by the county board of health and his authority is conferred by statute. Furthermore, the authority of the board of commissioners to assume the power and responsibilities of agencies is limited by the statute to boards, such as health and social services, and similar agencies. The office of local health director is unaffected by this section and must be filled by the board of commissioners. See opinion of Attorney General to Dr. Ronald H. Levine, State Health Director, 52 N.C.A.G. 44 (1982).

§ 153A-77.1. Single portal of entry.

A county may develop for human services a single portal of entry, a consolidated case management system, and a common data base; provided that if the county is part of a district health department or multicounty public health authority or a multicounty area mental health, developmental disabilities, and substance abuse authority, such action must be approved by the district board of health or public health authority board or the area mental health, developmental disabilities, and substance abuse board to affect any matter within the jurisdiction of that board. Nothing in this section shall be construed to abrogate a patient's right to confidentiality as provided by law. (1987, c. 422, s. 1; 1991 (Reg. Sess., 1992), c. 1030, s. 47; 1997-502, s. 5.)

Part 2. Administration in Counties Having Managers.

§ 153A-81. Adoption of county-manager plan; appointment or designation of manager.

The board of commissioners may by resolution adopt or discontinue the county-manager plan. If it adopts the county-manager plan, the board may, in the alternative:

- (1) Appoint a county manager to serve at its pleasure. The manager shall be appointed solely on the basis of his executive and administrative qualifications. He need not be a resident of the county or the State at the time of his appointment.
- (2) Confer upon the chairman or some other member of the board of commissioners the duties of county manager. If this is done, the chairman or member shall become a full-time county official, and the board may increase his salary pursuant to G.S. 153A-28.
- (3) Confer upon any other officer, employee, or agent of the county the duties of county manager.

As used in this Part, the word "manager" includes the chairman or any member of the board of commissioners exercising the duties of manager or any officer, employee, or agent of a county exercising the duties of manager. (1927, c. 91, ss. 5, 8; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 153A-82. Powers and duties of manager.

The manager is the chief administrator of county government. He is responsible to the board of commissioners for the administration of all departments of county government under the board's general control and has the following powers and duties:

- (1) He shall appoint with the approval of the board of commissioners and suspend or remove all county officers, employees, and agents except those who are elected by the people or whose appointment is otherwise provided for by law. The board may by resolution permit the manager to appoint officers, employees, and agents without first securing the board's approval. The manager shall make his appointments, suspensions, and removals in accordance with any general personnel rules, regulations, policies, or ordinances that the board may adopt. The board may require the manager to report each suspension or removal to the board at the board's first regular meeting following the suspension or removal; and, if the board has permitted the manager to make appointments without board approval, the board may require the manager to report each appointment to the board at the board's first regular meeting following the appointment.
- (2) He shall direct and supervise the administration of all county offices, departments, boards, commissions and agencies under the general control of the board of commissioners, subject to the general direction and control of the board.

- (3) He shall attend all meetings of the board of commissioners and recommend any measures that he considers expedient.
- (4) He shall see that the orders, ordinances, resolutions, and regulations of the board of commissioners are faithfully executed within the county.
- (5) He shall prepare and submit the annual budget and capital program to the board of commissioners.
- (6) He shall annually submit to the board of commissioners and make available to the public a complete report on the finances and administrative activities of the county as of the end of the fiscal year.
- (7) He shall make any other reports that the board of commissioners may require concerning the operations of county offices, departments, boards, commissions, and agencies.
- (8) He shall perform any other duties that may be required or authorized by the board of commissioners. (1927, c. 91, ss. 6, 7; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

CASE NOTES

Severance Pay. — The right of a public officer to receive compensation can only arise out of the rendition of the public services related to his office. Leete v. County of Warren, 341 N.C. 116, 462 S.E.2d 476 (1995).

Where county manager worked one month after giving notice of his resignation and received all compensation due him under the terms of his employment with the County, severance pay would be compensation beyond that due for services rendered and, thus, constitutionally impermissible. Leete v. County of Warren, 341 N.C. 116, 462 S.E.2d 476 (1995).

Severance pay to county manager who voluntarily resigned violated North Carolina Constitution, Art. 1, sec. 32, because county manager was to be compensated for duties that were not performed, since the record reflected that the compensation was not for prior services rendered, and he was paid all benefits due him. Leete v. County of Warren, 341 N.C. 116, 459 S.E.2d 232 (1995).

Applied in Ratcliff v. County of Buncombe, 663 F. Supp. 1003 (W.D.N.C. 1987).

§ 153A-83. Acting county manager.

By letter filed with the clerk, the manager may designate, subject to the approval of the board of commissioners, a qualified person to exercise the powers and perform the duties of manager during the manager’s temporary absence or disability. During an absence or disability, the board may revoke the designation at any time and appoint another person to serve until the manager returns or his disability ceases. (1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 153A-84. Interim county manager.

Whenever the position of county manager is vacant, the board of commissioners shall designate a qualified person to exercise the powers and perform the duties of manager until the vacancy is filled. The board may designate the chairman or some other member as interim manager; for the interim the chairman or member shall become a full-time county official, and the board may increase his salary pursuant to G.S. 153A-28. (1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

Part 3. Administration in Counties Not Having Managers.

§ 153A-87. Administration in counties not having managers.

In a county that has not adopted or does not operate under the county-manager plan, the board of commissioners shall appoint, suspend, and remove all county officers, employees, and agents except those who are elected by the people or whose appointment is otherwise provided for by law. The board may delegate to the head of any county department the power to appoint, suspend, and remove county officers or employees assigned to his department. (1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 153A-88. Acting department heads.

By letter filed with the clerk, the head of a department may designate, subject to the approval of the board of commissioners, a qualified person to exercise the powers and perform the duties of head of that department during the department head's temporary absence or disability. During an absence or disability, the board may revoke the designation at any time and appoint another person to serve until the department head returns or his disability ceases. (1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 153A-89. Interim department heads.

Whenever the position of head of a department is vacant, the board may designate a qualified person to exercise the powers and perform the duties of head of the department until the vacancy is filled. (1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§§ 153A-90, 153A-91: Reserved for future codification purposes.

Part 4. Personnel.

§ 153A-92. Compensation.

(a) Subject to the limitations set forth in subsection (b) of this section, the board of commissioners shall fix or approve the schedule of pay, expense allowances, and other compensation of all county officers and employees, whether elected or appointed, and may adopt position classification plans.

(b) In exercising the authority granted by subsection (a) of this section, the board of commissioners is subject to the following limitations:

- (1) The board of commissioners may not reduce the salary, allowances, or other compensation paid to an officer elected by the people for the duties of his elective office if the reduction is to take effect during the term of office for which the incumbent officer has been elected, unless the officer agrees to the reduction or unless the Local Government Commission pursuant to Chapter 159, Article 10, orders a reduction.
- (2) During the year of a general election, the board of commissioners may reduce the salary, allowances, or other compensation of an officer to be elected at the general election only in accordance with this subdivision. The board of commissioners shall by resolution give notice of intention to make the reduction no later than 14 days before the last day for filing notice of candidacy for the office. The resolution shall set forth the reduced salary, allowances, and other compensation and shall provide that the reduction is to take effect at the time the person elected to the office in the general election takes office. Once adopted, the resolution may not be altered until the person elected to the office in the general election has taken office. The filing fee for the office shall be determined by reference to the reduced salary.

- (3) If the board of commissioners reduces the salaries, allowances, or other compensation of employees assigned to an officer elected by the people, and the reduction does not apply alike to all county offices and departments, the elected officer involved must approve the reduction. If the elected officer refuses to approve the reduction, he and the board of commissioners shall meet and attempt to reach agreement. If agreement cannot be reached, either the board or the officer may refer the dispute to arbitration by the senior resident superior court judge of the superior court district or set of districts as defined in G.S. 7A-41.1 in which the county is located. The judge shall make an award within 30 days after the day the matter is referred to him. The award may extend for no more than two fiscal years, including the fiscal year for which it is made.
- (4) The board of commissioners shall fix their own salaries, allowances, and other compensation in accordance with G.S. 153A-28.
- (5) The board of commissioners shall fix the salaries, allowances and other compensation of county employees subject to the State Personnel Act according to the procedures set forth in Chapter 126. The board may make these employees subject to a county position classification plan only as provided in Chapter 126.

(c) In counties with a county manager, the manager is responsible for preparing position classification and pay plans for submission to the board of commissioners and for administering the pay plan and any position classification plan in accordance with general policies and directives adopted by the board. In counties without a county manager, the board of commissioners shall appoint or designate a personnel officer, who shall then be responsible for administering the pay plan and any position classification plan in accordance with general policies and directives adopted by the board.

(d) A county may purchase life insurance or health insurance or both for the benefit of all or any class of county officers and employees as a part of their compensation. A county may provide other fringe benefits for county officers and employees. (1927, c. 91, s. 8; 1953, c. 1227, ss. 1-3; 1969, c. 358, s. 1; c. 1017; 1973, c. 822, s. 1; 1987 (Reg. ### § 153A-93. Retirement benefits.

(a) The board of commissioners may provide for enrolling county officers and employees in the Local Governmental Employees' Retirement System, the Law-Enforcement Officers' Benefit and Relief Fund, the Firemen's Pension Fund, or a retirement plan certified to be actuarially sound by a qualified actuary as defined in subsection (c) of this section and may make payments into such a retirement system or plan on behalf of its employees.

(b) No county may make payments into a retirement system or plan established or authorized by a local act unless the system or plan is certified to be actuarially sound by a qualified actuary as defined in subsection (c) of this section.

(c) A qualified actuary means a member of the American Academy of Actuaries or an individual certified as qualified by the Commissioner of Insurance.

(d) A county which is providing health insurance under G.S. 153A-92(d) may provide health insurance for all or any class of former officers and employees of the county who are receiving benefits under subsection (a) of this section. Such health insurance may be paid entirely by the county, partly by the county and former officer or employee, or entirely by the former officer or employee, at the option of the county.

(e) The board of commissioners may provide a deferred compensation plan. Where the board of commissioners provides a deferred compensation plan, the investment of funds for the plan shall be exempt from the provisions of G.S. 159-30 and G.S. 159-31. Counties may invest deferred compensation plan funds in life insurance, fixed or variable annuities and retirement income contracts, regulated investment trusts, or other forms of investments approved by the Board of Trustees of the North Carolina Public Employee Deferred Compensation Plan. (1973, c. 822, s. 1; 1981, c. 347, s. 1; 1991, c. 277, s. 1.)

Cited in Bostic v. Wall, 588 F. Supp. 994 (W.D.N.C. 1984).

§ 153A-94. Personnel rules; office hours, workdays, and holidays.

(a) The board of commissioners may adopt or provide for rules and regulations or ordinances concerning but not limited to annual leave, sick leave, special leave with full pay or with partial pay supplementing workers' compensation payments for employees injured in accidents arising out of and in the course of employment, working conditions, service award and incentive award programs, other personnel policies, and any other measures that promote the hiring and retention of capable, diligent, and honest career employees.

(b) The board of commissioners may prescribe the office hours, workdays, and holidays to be observed by the various offices, departments, boards, commissions, and agencies of the county. (1959, c. 251; 1973, c. 822, s. 1; 1991, c. 636, s. 3.)

§ 153A-95. Personnel board.

The board of commissioners may establish a personnel board with authority, as regards employees in offices, departments, boards, commissions, and agencies under the general control of the board of commissioners, to administer tests designed to determine the merit and fitness of candidates for appointment or promotion, to conduct hearings upon the appeal of employees who have been suspended, demoted, or discharged, to hear employee grievances, or to undertake any other duties relating to personnel administration that the board of commissioners may direct. (1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 153A-96. Participation in the Social Security Act.

The board of commissioners may take any action necessary to allow county officers and employees to participate fully in benefits provided by the Federal Social Security Act. (1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 153A-97. Defense of officers, employees and others.

A county may, pursuant to G.S. 160A-167, provide for the defense of:

- (1) Any county officer or employee, including the county board of elections or any county election official.
- (2) Any member of a volunteer fire department or rescue squad which receives public funds.
- (2a) Any soil and water conservation supervisor, and any local soil and water conservation employee, whether the employee is a county employee or an employee of a soil and water conservation district.
- (3) Any person or professional association who at the request of the board of county commissioners provides medical or dental services to inmates in the custody of the sheriff and is sued pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983 with respect to the services. (1957, c. 436; 1973, c. 822, s. 1; 1977, c. 307, s. 1; 1989, c. 733, s. 2; 2001-300, s. 1.)

Effect of Amendments. — Session Laws 2001-300, s. 1, effective July 21, 2001, made a minor punctuation change at the end of subdivi-vision (1); deleted "and" at the end of subdivision (2); and added subdivision (2a).

§ 153A-98. Privacy of employee personnel records.

(a) Notwithstanding the provisions of G.S. 132-6 or any other general law or local act concerning access to public records, personnel files of employees, former employees, or applicants for employment maintained by a county are subject to inspection and may be disclosed only as provided by this section. For purposes of this section, an employee's personnel file consists of any information in any form gathered by the county with respect to that employee and, by way of illustration but not limitation, relating to his application, selection or nonselection, performance, promotions, demotions, transfers, suspension and other disciplinary actions, evaluation forms, leave, salary, and termination of employment. As used in this section, "employee" includes former employees of the county.

(b) The following information with respect to each county employee is a matter of public record: name; age; date of original employment or appointment to the county service; current position title; current salary; date and amount of the most recent increase or decrease in salary; date of the most recent promotion, demotion, transfer, suspension, separation or other change in position classification; and the office to which the employee is currently assigned. The board of county commissioners shall determine in what form and by whom this information will be maintained. Any person may have access to this information for the purpose of inspection, examination, and copying, during regular business hours, subject only to such rules and regulations for the safekeeping of public records as the board of commissioners may have adopted. Any person denied access to this information may apply to the appropriate division of the General Court of Justice for an order compelling disclosure, and the court shall have jurisdiction to issue such orders.

(c) All information contained in a county employee's personnel file, other than the information made public by subsection (b) of this section, is confidential and shall be open to inspection only in the following instances:

- (1) The employee or his duly authorized agent may examine all portions of his personnel file except (i) letters of reference solicited prior to employment, and (ii) information concerning a medical disability, mental or physical, that a prudent physician would not divulge to his patient.
- (2) A licensed physician designated in writing by the employee may examine the employee's medical record.
- (3) A county employee having supervisory authority over the employee may examine all material in the employee's personnel file.
- (4) By order of a court of competent jurisdiction, any person may examine such portion of an employee's personnel file as may be ordered by the court.
- (5) An official of an agency of the State or federal government, or any political subdivision of the State, may inspect any portion of a personnel file when such inspection is deemed by the official having custody of such records to be necessary and essential to the pursuance of a proper function of the inspecting agency, but no information shall be divulged for the purpose of assisting in a criminal prosecution of the employee, or for the purpose of assisting in an investigation of the employee's tax liability. However, the official having custody of such records may release the name, address, and telephone number from a personnel file for the purpose of assisting in a criminal investigation.

- (6) An employee may sign a written release, to be placed with his personnel file, that permits the person with custody of the file to provide, either in person, by telephone, or by mail, information specified in the release to prospective employers, educational institutions, or other persons specified in the release.
- (7) The county manager, with concurrence of the board of county commissioners, or, in counties not having a manager, the board of county commissioners may inform any person of the employment or nonemployment, promotion, demotion, suspension or other disciplinary action, reinstatement, transfer, or termination of a county employee and the reasons for that personnel action. Before releasing the information, the manager or board shall determine in writing that the release is essential to maintaining public confidence in the administration of county services or to maintaining the level and quality of county services. This written determination shall be retained in the office of the manager or the county clerk, is a record available for public inspection and shall become part of the employee's personnel file.

(c1) Even if considered part of an employee's personnel file, the following information need not be disclosed to an employee nor to any other person:

- (1) Testing or examination material used solely to determine individual qualifications for appointment, employment, or promotion in the county's service, when disclosure would compromise the objectivity or the fairness of the testing or examination process.
- (2) Investigative reports or memoranda and other information concerning the investigation of possible criminal actions of an employee, until the investigation is completed and no criminal action taken, or until the criminal action is concluded.
- (3) Information that might identify an undercover law enforcement officer or a law enforcement informer.
- (4) Notes, preliminary drafts and internal communications concerning an employee. In the event such materials are used for any official personnel decision, then the employee or his duly authorized agent shall have a right to inspect such materials.

(c2) The board of county commissioners may permit access, subject to limitations they may impose, to selected personnel files by a professional representative of a training, research, or academic institution if that person certifies that he will not release information identifying the employees whose files are opened and that the information will be used solely for statistical, research, or teaching purposes. This certification shall be retained by the county as long as each personnel file so examined is retained.

(d) The board of commissioners of a county that maintains personnel files containing information other than the information mentioned in subsection (b) of this section shall establish procedures whereby an employee who objects to material in his file on grounds that it is inaccurate or misleading may seek to have the material removed from the file or may place in the file a statement relating to the material.

(e) A public official or employee who knowingly, willfully, and with malice permits any person to have access to information contained in a personnel file, except as is permitted by this section, is guilty of a Class 3 misdemeanor and upon conviction shall only be fined an amount not more than five hundred dollars ($500.00).

(f) Any person, not specifically authorized by this section to have access to a personnel file designated as confidential, who shall knowingly and willfully examine in its official filing place, remove or copy any portion of a confidential personnel file shall be guilty of a Class 3 misdemeanor and upon conviction shall only be fined in the discretion of the court but not in excess of five hundred dollars ($500.00). (1975, c. 701, s. 1; 1981, c. 926, ss. 1, 5-8; 1993, c. 539, ss. 1059, 1060; 1994, Ex. Sess., c. 24, s. 14(c).)

§ 153A-99. County employee political activity.

(a) Purpose. The purpose of this section is to ensure that county employees are not subjected to political or partisan coercion while performing their job duties, to ensure that employees are not restricted from political activities while off duty, and to ensure that public funds are not used for political or partisan activities.

It is not the purpose of this section to allow infringement upon the rights of employees to engage in free speech and free association. Every county employee has a civic responsibility to support good government by every available means and in every appropriate manner. Employees shall not be restricted from affiliating with civic organizations of a partisan or political nature, nor shall employees, while off duty, be restricted from attending political meetings, or advocating and supporting the principles or policies of civic or political organizations, or supporting partisan or nonpartisan candidates of their choice in accordance with the Constitution and laws of the State and the Constitution and laws of the United States of America.

(b) Definitions. For the purposes of this section:

- (1) “County employee” or “employee” means any person employed by a county or any department or program thereof that is supported, in whole or in part, by county funds;
- (2) “On duty” means that time period when an employee is engaged in the duties of his or her employment; and
- (3) “Workplace” means any place where an employee engages in his or her job duties.

(c) No employee while on duty or in the workplace may:

- (1) Use his or her official authority or influence for the purpose of interfering with or affecting the result of an election or nomination for political office; or
- (2) Coerce, solicit, or compel contributions for political or partisan purposes by another employee.

(d) No employee may be required as a duty or condition of employment, promotion, or tenure of office to contribute funds for political or partisan purposes.

(e) No employee may use county funds, supplies, or equipment for partisan purposes, or for political purposes except where such political uses are otherwise permitted by law.

(f) To the extent that this section conflicts with the provisions of any local act, local ordinance, resolution, or policy, this section prevails to the extent of the conflict. (1991, c. 619, s. 1; 1993, c. 298, s. 1.)

§ 153A-102. Commissioners to fix fees.

The board of commissioners may fix the fees and commissions charged by county officers and employees for performing services or duties permitted or required by law. The board may not, however, fix fees in the General Court of Justice or modify the fees of the register of deeds prescribed by G.S. 161-10 or the fees of the board of elections prescribed by G.S. 163-107. (1953, c. 1227, ss. 1-3; 1969, c. 358, s. 1; c. 1017; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 153A-103. Number of employees in offices of sheriff and register of deeds.

Subject to the limitations set forth below, the board of commissioners may fix the number of salaried employees in the offices of the sheriff and the register of deeds. In exercising the authority granted by this section, the board of commissioners is subject to the following limitations:

- (1) Each sheriff and register of deeds elected by the people has the exclusive right to hire, discharge, and supervise the employees in his office. However, the board of commissioners must approve the appointment by such an officer of a relative by blood or marriage of nearer kinship than first cousin or of a person who has been convicted of a crime involving moral turpitude.
- (2) Each sheriff and register of deeds elected by the people is entitled to at least two deputies who shall be reasonably compensated by the county, provided that the register of deeds justifies to the Board of County Commissioners the necessity of the second deputy. Each deputy so appointed shall serve at the pleasure of the appointing officer.

Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this section, approval of the board of commissioners is not required for the reappointment or continued employment of a near relative of a sheriff or register of deeds who was not related to the appointing officer at the time of initial appointment. (1953, c. 1227, ss. 1, 2; 1969, c. 358, s. 1; 1973, c. 822, s. 1; 1977, c. 36; 1979, c. 551; 1987, c. 362.)

Legal Periodicals. — For a survey of 1996 developments in constitutional law, see 75 N.C.L. Rev. 2281 (1997).

CASE NOTES

Sheriff Can Make Official Government Policy. — Official government policy can be established not only by the formal policymaking actions of the lawmakers, but also by the actions of officials with final policymaking authority; the sheriff is such an official, as indicated in subsection (1), which gives the sheriff exclusive control over supervision of employees in his office. Flood v. Hardy, 868 F. Supp. 809 (E.D.N.C. 1994).

Government Employees Cannot Impose Unconstitutional Conditions on Public Employment. — Deputies work at the pleasure of the sheriff. However, government employees including sheriffs can neither impose unconstitutional conditions upon public employment such as requiring employees to relinquish their rights of free speech and association nor discharge employees for a constitutionally infirm reason. Joyner v. Lancaster, 553 F. Supp. 809 (M.D.N.C. 1982).

Control of the employees hired by the sheriff is vested exclusively in the sheriff. The sheriff has the exclusive right to fire any deputy or employee in his office. The only authority vested in the board of commissioners is in determining the number of employees the sheriff can hire and the ability to approve the appointment of a relative or a person convicted of a crime involving moral turpitude. Peele v. Provident Mut. Life Ins. Co., 90 N.C. App. 447, 368 S.E.2d 892, appeal dismissed, 323 N.C. 366, 373 S.E.2d 547 (1988).

Sheriff Not Liable for County's Salary Administration. — Because there was absolutely no evidence that defendant sheriff "acted in concert" with defendant county, as alleged, or had anything to do with the administration of plaintiffs' salaries, he was an unnecessary party to their case. Hubbard v. County of Cumberland, 143 N.C. App. 149, 544 S.E.2d 587 (2001), cert. denied, 354 N.C. 69, — S.E.2d — (2001).

This section explicitly grants sheriffs exclusive power over employment decisions, and the North Carolina courts have interpreted this statute to deny sheriffs' employees any property right in their employment. Jackson v. Long, 102 F.3d 722 (4th Cir. 1996).

Employee of Sheriff Held Not an Employee of the County. — Plaintiff's argument that even though she was hired by the sheriff, she remained the employee of the county, and that thus all the protections and privileges provided by the Board of Commissioners to other county employees should have been afforded her, was without merit. Peele v. Provident Mut. Life Ins. Co., 90 N.C. App. 447, 368 S.E.2d 892, appeal dismissed, 323 N.C. 366, 373 S.E.2d 547 (1988).

County, having no control over sheriff's deputy department, could not be a party to any employment contract deputy may have had, and therefore, deputy could not recover against the county for breach of her employment contract. Spencer v. Byrd, 899 F. Supp. 1439 (M.D.N.C. 1995).

County May Be Bound by Sheriff's Decisions. — In North Carolina, where the sheriff is given exclusive control over the supervision of his employees, including deputies and jailers, the sheriff may bind the county by his decisions. Flood v. Hardy, 868 F. Supp. 809 (E.D.N.C. 1994).

County is not liable for deputy's or sheriff's actions, as their employer. Clark v. Burke County, 117 N.C. App. 85, 450 S.E.2d 747 (1994).

County Not Liable for Sheriff's Decision. — County could not be liable under 42 U.S.C. 1983 for sheriff's employment decisions where the state gives the sheriff final policymaking authority on employment decisions. Harter v. Vernon, 953 F. Supp. 685 (M.D.N.C. 1996), aff'd, 101 F.3d 334 (4th Cir. 1996), cert. denied, 521 U.S. 1120, 117 S. Ct. 2511, 138 L. Ed. 2d 1014 (1997).

Because, pursuant to this section, sheriff/defendant, and not the county, had exclusive responsibility for discharging plaintiff/jailer (who claimed the discharge was retaliatory), the district court properly granted summary judgment for the county on plaintiff's § 1983 claims. Knight v. Vernon, 214 F.3d 544 (4th Cir. 2000).

Deputy Sheriffs enjoy no property right in continued employment. Burns v. Brinkley, 933 F. Supp. 528 (E.D.N.C. 1996).

The fact that North Carolina has established a generous pension system for its public employees as part of its compensatory and incentive package does not confer upon those employees a property interest in continued employment; the programs are merely part of the consideration forming the basis for public employment contracts, and do not alter the at-will nature of such employment relationships. Burns v. Brinkley, 933 F. Supp. 528 (E.D.N.C. 1996).

Plaintiffs who made no claim that they were exempted from the employment-at- will rule other than that their employment was subject to a general order allowing appeal to a Termination Review Board had no property interest in their employment which could form the basis for a denial of due process. Buchanan v. Hight, 133 N.C. App. 299, 515 S.E.2d 225 (1999).

Quoted in Jenkins v. Medford, 119 F.3d 1156 (4th Cir. 1997), cert. denied, 522 U.S. 1090, 118

§ 153A-104. Reports from officers, employees, and agents of the county.

The board of commissioners may require any officer, employee, or agent of the county to make to the board, either directly or through the county manager, periodic or special reports concerning any matter connected with the officer's, employee's or agent's duties. The board may require that such a report be made under oath. If a person fails or refuses to obey a reasonable order to make a report, issued pursuant to this section, the board may apply to the appropriate division of the General Court of Justice for an order requiring that its order be obeyed. The court has jurisdiction to issue these orders. (1868, c. 20, s. 8; Code, s. 707; Rev., s. 1318; C.S., s. 1297; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§§ 153A-105 through 153A-110: Reserved for future codification purposes.

Part 6. Clerk to the Board of Commissioners.

§ 153A-111. Appointment; powers and duties.

The board of commissioners shall appoint or designate a clerk to the board. The board may designate the register of deeds or any other county officer or employee as clerk. The clerk shall perform any duties that may be required by law or the board of commissioners. The clerk shall serve as such at the pleasure of the board. (Const., art. 7, s. 2; Code, s. 710; 1895, c. 135, s. 4; Rev., s. 1324; C.S., s. 1309; 1955, c. 247, s. 1; 1963, c. 372; 1969, c. 207; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

CASE NOTES

County Commissioners' Actions Not Protected by Legislative Immunity. — The county commissioners' refusal to reappoint plaintiff as clerk, the elimination of the clerk's salary, the consolidation of the clerk's position with another, and the refusal to select plaintiff for the combined position constituted administrative actions that were not entitled to immunity. Alexander v. Holden, 66 F.3d 62 (4th Cir. 1995).

§ 153A-114. Appointment; duties.

The board of commissioners shall appoint a county attorney to serve at its pleasure and to be its legal adviser. (1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§§ 153A-115 through 153A-120: Reserved for future codification purposes.

ARTICLE 6.

Delegation and Exercise of the General Police Power.

§ 153A-121. General ordinance-making power.

(a) A county may by ordinance define, regulate, prohibit, or abate acts, omissions, or conditions detrimental to the health, safety, or welfare of its citizens and the peace and dignity of the county; and may define and abate nuisances.

(b) This section does not authorize a county to regulate or control vehicular or pedestrian traffic on a street or highway under the control of the Board of Transportation, nor to regulate or control any right-of-way or right-of-passage belonging to a public utility, electric or telephone membership corporation, or public agency of the State. In addition, no county ordinance may regulate or control a highway right-of-way in a manner inconsistent with State law or an ordinance of the Board of Transportation.

(c) This section does not impair the authority of local boards of health to adopt rules and regulations to protect and promote public health. (1963, c. 1060, ss. 1, 11/2; 1965, cc. 388, 567, 1083, 1158; 1967, c. 495, s. 2; 1969, c. 36, s. 1; 1971, c. 702, ss. 1-3; 1973, c. 507, s. 5; c. 822, s. 1.)

CASE NOTES

Editor's Note. — Many of the cases cited below were decided under former § 153-9.

Ordinance Upheld. — County ordinance which regulated the location of adult and sexually oriented businesses (but did not prohibit them) for the stated purpose of promoting the health, safety and morals and general welfare of the citizenry of the county was well within the parameters of this section. Maynor v. Onslow County, 127 N.C. App. 102, 488 S.E.2d 289 (1997), appeal dismissed, 347 N.C. 268, 493 S.E.2d 458 (1997), cert. denied, 347 N.C. 400, 496 S.E.2d 385 (1997).

Former § 153-9(55) Was a Home Rule Statute. — Former § 153-9(55), authorizing boards of county commissioners to adopt ordinances for the better government of the county, was a Home Rule statute, applicable throughout the State. It enabled the county commissioners of every county to enact ordinances in the exercise of the general police power within the prescribed territory, just as other statutes enable the governing bodies of cities and towns to enact ordinances in the exercise of the general police powers within their corporate limits. Whitney Stores, Inc. v. Clark, 277 N.C. 322, 177 S.E.2d 418 (1970).

And a General Law. — Former § 153-9(55) was a general law and therefore did not contravene N.C. Const. 1868, Art. II, § 29. Whitney Stores, Inc. v. Clark, 277 N.C. 322, 177 S.E.2d 418 (1970).

Conferring General Police Powers. — Former § 153-9(55) did not confer or withhold authority in respect of specific activities; on the contrary, it conferred authority to enact ordinances in the exercise of the general police power. In this respect, the statute was similar to the statutes which confer general police power upon cities and towns. Whitney Stores, Inc. v. Clark, 277 N.C. 322, 177 S.E.2d 418 (1970); State v. Tenore, 280 N.C. 238, 185 S.E.2d 644 (1972).

Such as That Conferred Upon Cities and Towns. — The authority conferred by former § 153-9(55) upon the boards of commissioners of the respective counties was the same as that conferred upon cities and towns by §§ 160A-

174 and 160A-181. State v. Tenore, 280 N.C. 238, 185 S.E.2d 644 (1972).

Regulation of Signs Held Constitutional.

— The off-premise/on-premise classification is a constitutionally valid basis for regulation of outdoor advertising signs. Summey Outdoor Adv., Inc. v. County of Henderson, 96 N.C. App. 533, 386 S.E.2d 439 (1989).

County ordinance regulating off-premises signs larger than 15 square feet held to meet the constitutional requirements of due process. Summey Outdoor Adv., Inc. v. County of Henderson, 96 N.C. App. 533, 386 S.E.2d 439 (1989).

Regulation of Signs Did Not Constitute a Taking. — Five year amortization provisions of county ordinance regulating off-premises signs of over 15 square feet were sufficient, and the ordinance did not constitute a taking of plaintiff's property without compensation. Summey Outdoor Adv., Inc. v. County of Henderson, 96 N.C. App. 533, 386 S.E.2d 439 (1989).

This section and § 153A-340 do not operate exclusively of each other. Summey Outdoor Adv., Inc. v. County of Henderson, 96 N.C. App. 533, 386 S.E.2d 439 (1989).

Subsection (a) of this section confers general police power upon cities and towns. Summey Outdoor Adv., Inc. v. County of Henderson, 96 N.C. App. 533, 386 S.E.2d 439 (1989).

Legislative Authority of County Board of Commissioners. — A county board of commissioners has no legislative authority not granted to it expressly or by necessary implication from expressly granted powers. State v. Tenore, 280 N.C. 238, 185 S.E.2d 644 (1972).

Power of General Assembly to Delegate Authority to County Boards. — Subject to constitutional limitations, the power of the General Assembly to delegate to county commissioners the authority to adopt ordinances in the lawful exercise of the police power is well established. Whitney Stores, Inc. v. Clark, 277 N.C. 322, 177 S.E.2d 418 (1970).

Courts Are Not Concerned with Motives, Wisdom or Expediency of Board's Acts. — If the board of commissioners does not exceed its delegated or constitutional authority, the courts are not concerned with the motives, wisdom or expediency which prompt its actions. Whitney Stores, Inc. v. Clark, 277 N.C. 322, 177 S.E.2d 418 (1970).

When the most that can be said against an ordinance is that it is fairly debatable whether it is an unreasonable, arbitrary or unequal exercise of power, the courts will not interfere. County of Hoke v. Byrd, 107 N.C. App. 658, 421 S.E.2d 800 (1992).

Ordinance May Not Forbid Conduct Dealt with by Statute. — The board of commissioners of a county cannot enact a valid ordinance forbidding certain conduct if a statewide statute in effect at the time the ordinance in question is adopted deals specifically with the identical conduct. State v. Tenore, 280 N.C. 238, 185 S.E.2d 644 (1972).

And Repeal of Statute Does Not Breathe Life into Ordinance. — The repeal of a statewide law which, during its life, prohibited the enactment of a county ordinance, is prospective and does not breathe life into an ordinance which was beyond the authority of the ordaining body when it was adopted. State v. Tenore, 280 N.C. 238, 185 S.E.2d 644 (1972).

A county's zoning authority is limited: it can be applied only to buildings within the county's borders which are outside city limits, and it is confined to the purposes of promoting health, safety, morals, or the general welfare. Davidson County v. City of High Point, 321 N.C. 252, 362 S.E.2d 553 (1987).

Right of County to Proscribe Obscenity Which Is Not Forbidden by State Law. — Nothing in §§ 14-190.1 through 14-190.9, statewide laws relating to obscene literature and exhibitions and to indecent exposure, expresses or indicates an intent by the General Assembly to preclude cities and towns or counties from enacting and enforcing ordinances requiring a higher standard of conduct or condition within their respective jurisdictions. State v. Tenore, 280 N.C. 238, 185 S.E.2d 644 (1972).

Authority to Regulate Signs. — Fact that defendant county had authority to regulate signs under the zoning power in § 153A-340 did not mean that it could not regulate signs in a similar manner under the general police powers in this section, allowing regulation of "conditions detrimental to the health, safety or welfare of its citizens and the peace and dignity of the county." Summey Outdoor Adv., Inc. v. County of Henderson, 96 N.C. App. 533, 386 S.E.2d 439 (1989).

County's moratorium on outdoor advertising signs did not require a notice or a public hearing prior to passage, as it was enacted pursuant to the county's general police powers, and a property owner did not have a statutory vested right to erect a sign. PNE AOA Media, L.L.C. v. Jackson County, — N.C. App. —, 554 S.E.2d 657, 2001 N.C. App. LEXIS 981 (2001).

Defendant county's ordinance regulating off-premises signs larger than 15 square feet was well within the parameters of this section; while it might have been more desirable and better planning for defendant county to adopt a county-wide zoning ordinance, the fact that defendant did not do so did not preclude it from regulating outdoor advertising signs under this section. Summey Outdoor Adv., Inc. v. County of Henderson, 96 N.C. App. 533, 386 S.E.2d 439 (1989).

Authority for County Ordinance Concerning Drive-In Theaters. — Former

§ 153-9(55) provided plenary authority for enacting a county ordinance making it unlawful to operate a drive-in motion picture theater near streets or highways in such a manner that the screen is visible to passing motorists. Variety Theaters, Inc. v. Cleveland County, 282 N.C. 272, 192 S.E.2d 290 (1972), appeal dismissed, 411 U.S. 911, 93 S. Ct. 1548, 36 L. Ed. 2d 303 (1973).

As to constitutionality of county ordinance concerning drive-in theaters, see Variety Theaters, Inc. v. Cleveland County, 282 N.C. 272, 192 S.E.2d 290 (1972), appeal dismissed, 411 U.S. 911, 93 S. Ct. 1548, 36 L. Ed. 2d 303 (1973).

Authority to Regulate Location of Adult and Sexually Oriented Businesses. — Failure of a county to adopt a county-wide comprehensive zoning plan did not preclude it from regulating the location of adult and sexually oriented businesses pursuant to its police powers. Onslow County v. Moore, 129 N.C. App. 376, 499 S.E.2d 780 (1998).

Sunday Closing Ordinances. — Former § 153-9(55) conferred authority to enact Sunday closing ordinances upon the boards of commissioners of the respective counties. State v. Atlas, 283 N.C. 165, 195 S.E.2d 496 (1973).

As to constitutionality of Sunday closing ordinances, see State v. Atlas, 283 N.C. 165, 195 S.E.2d 496 (1973).

Authority for County Ordinance Concerning Collection and Disposal of Solid Waste. — County governments are delegated by the state with a general police power. Additionally, counties are specifically vested by statute with authority to regulate by ordinance the collection and disposal of solid waste within their jurisdictions. In order to effect this regulatory power and meet their police power responsibilities, counties are specifically authorized by statute to enact ordinances granting exclusive franchises to commercially collect or dispose of solid waste within all or a defined portion of the county. Stillings v. City of Winston-Salem, 63 N.C. App. 618, 306 S.E.2d 489 (1983), rev'd on other grounds, 311 N.C. 689, 319 S.E.2d 233 (1984).

Use of City-Owned Sewage Treatment Plant Without Prior Approval of County.

— Since county had no authority to restrict or regulate city's provision of sewer service to its residents, the city could use city-owned sewage treatment plant located outside the city but within the county, which was upgraded pursuant to the county's special use permit, with a condition attached to the permit requiring the county's prior approval of service to county citizens, to meet its statutory mandate to provide sewer service to residents in newly annexed areas without seeking the county's prior approval, even though the facility was located in the county. Davidson County v. City of High Point, 321 N.C. 252, 362 S.E.2d 553 (1987).

Regulation of Junkyards. — Requirements of ordinance which imposed expensive requirements on junkyard owners which could prohibit them from continuing to use their property in one manner did not exceed the boundaries of the board's discretion and, therefore, the ordinance would be left undisturbed. County of Hoke v. Byrd, 107 N.C. App. 658, 421 S.E.2d 800 (1992).

Cited in State v. Taylor, 128 N.C. App. 616, 495 S.E.2d 413 (1998); Derwort v. Polk County, 129 N.C. App. 789, 501 S.E.2d 379 (1998); State v. Baggett, 133 N.C. App. 47, 514 S.E.2d 536 (1999); Craig v. County of Chatham, 143 N.C. App. 30, 545 S.E.2d 455 (2001), cert. granted, 354 N.C. 68, — S.E.2d — (2001).

§ 153A-122. Territorial jurisdiction of county ordinances.

Except as otherwise provided in this Article, the board of commissioners may make any ordinance adopted pursuant to this Article applicable to any part of the county not within a city. In addition, the governing board of a city may by resolution permit a county ordinance adopted pursuant to this Article to be applicable within the city. The city may by resolution withdraw its permission to such an ordinance. If it does so, the city shall give written notice to the county of its withdrawal of permission; 30 days after the day the county receives this notice the county ordinance ceases to be applicable within the city. (1963, c. 1060, ss. 1, 1 1/2; 1965, cc. 388, 567, 1083, 1158; 1967, c. 495, s. 2; 1969, c. 36, s. 1; 1971, c. 702, ss. 1-3; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

CASE NOTES

Power to Enact Ordinances Giving Franchise Rights. — In general, a state legislature has the power to delegate to the state or inferior agency the authority to make ordinances, such as those giving rise to franchise rights, as it deems appropriate in the lawful exercise of the police power. Stillings v. City of Winston-Salem, 311 N.C. 689, 319 S.E.2d 233 (1984).

Authority of counties to issue exclusive solid waste collection franchises is derived from this section and § 153A-136. Stillings v. City of Winston-Salem, 311 N.C. 689, 319 S.E.2d 233 (1984).

Effect of Annexation on Franchises. — Given the limited territorial jurisdiction of a county ordinance granting exclusive solid waste collection franchises, such franchises were not protected from the city's actions in annexing some areas of the county served by the franchisees and providing free solid waste collection services in the newly annexed areas, and therefore did not survive annexation as to those areas which became part of the city. Stillings v. City of Winston-Salem, 311 N.C. 689, 319 S.E.2d 233 (1984).

Cited in State v. Baggett, 133 N.C. App. 47, 514 S.E.2d 536 (1999).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL

A City Is Not Required to Approve by Resolution County Parking Ordinances Pertaining to County Property Located

Within the City. — See opinion of Attorney General to Mr. F.L. Carr, 43 N.C.A.G. 409 (1974).

§ 153A-123. Enforcement of ordinances.

(a) A county may provide for fines and penalties for violation of its ordinances and may secure injunctions and abatement orders to further insure compliance with its ordinances, as provided by this section.

(b) Unless the board of commissioners has provided otherwise, violation of a county ordinance is a misdemeanor or infraction as provided by G.S. 14-4. An ordinance may provide by express statement that the maximum fine, term of imprisonment, or infraction penalty to be imposed for a violation is some amount of money or number of days less than the maximum imposed by G.S. 14-4.

(c) An ordinance may provide that violation subjects the offender to a civil penalty to be recovered by the county in a civil action in the nature of debt if the offender does not pay the penalty within a prescribed period of time after he has been cited for violation of the ordinance.

(c1) An ordinance may provide for the recovery of a civil penalty by the county for violation of the fire prevention code of the State Building Code as authorized under G.S. 143-139.

(d) An ordinance may provide that it may be enforced by an appropriate equitable remedy issuing from a court of competent jurisdiction. In such a case, the General Court of Justice has jurisdiction to issue any order that may be appropriate, and it is not a defense to the county's application for equitable relief that there is an adequate remedy at law.

(e) An ordinance that makes unlawful a condition existing upon or use made of real property may provide that it may be enforced by injunction and order of abatement, and the General Court of Justice has jurisdiction to issue such an order. When a violation of such an ordinance occurs, the county may apply to the appropriate division of the General Court of Justice for a mandatory or prohibitory injunction and order of abatement commanding the defendant to correct the unlawful condition upon or cease the unlawful use of the property. The action shall be governed in all respects by the laws and rules governing civil proceedings, including the Rules of Civil Procedure in general and Rule 65 in particular.

In addition to an injunction, the court may enter an order of abatement as a part of the judgment in the cause. An order of abatement may direct that buildings or other structures on the property be closed, demolished, or removed; that fixtures, furniture, or other movable property be removed from buildings on the property; that grass and weeds be cut; that improvements or repairs be made; or that any other action be taken that is necessary to bring the property into compliance with the ordinance. If the defendant fails or refuses to comply with an injunction or with an order of abatement within the time allowed by the court, he may be cited for contempt and the county may execute the order of abatement. If the county executes the order, it has a lien on the property, in the nature of a mechanic's and materialman's lien, for the costs of executing the order. The defendant may secure cancellation of an order of abatement by paying all costs of the proceedings and posting a bond for compliance with the order. The bond shall be given with sureties approved by the clerk of superior court in an amount approved by the judge before whom the matter was heard and shall be conditioned on the defendant's full compliance with the terms of the order of abatement within the time fixed by the judge. Cancellation of an order of abatement does not suspend or cancel an injunction issued in conjunction with the order.

(f) Subject to the express terms of the ordinance, a county ordinance may be enforced by any one or more of the remedies authorized by this section.

(g) A county ordinance may provide, when appropriate, that each day's continuing violation is a separate and distinct offense. (1973, c. 822, s. 1; 1985, c. 764, s. 34; 1985 (Reg. Sess., 1986), c. 852, s. 17; 1993, c. 329, s. 5.)

Local Modification. — Orange: 1989, c. 478, s. 3; 1995, c. 339, s. 3.

Editor's Note. — The Rules of Civil Procedure are found in § 1A-1.

CASE NOTES

Enforcement of Zoning Ordinances. — This section and § 153A-345 give the superior court the power to enforce zoning ordinances through the issuance of an injunction. Mize v. County of Mecklenburg, 80 N.C. App. 279, 341 S.E.2d 767 (1986).

Ordinance Itself Need Not Provide for Equitable Enforcement. — It is unnecessary for a zoning ordinance itself to contain any specific provision for equitable enforcement because § 153A-324 allows any remedy under this section to be used at the county's election as a matter of right and without qualification, unless the county's zoning ordinance provides otherwise. New Hanover County v. Pleasant, 59 N.C. App. 644, 297 S.E.2d 760 (1982).

Cited in Bostic v. Wall, 588 F. Supp. 994 (W.D.N.C. 1984); Pittman v. Wilson County, 839 F.2d 225 (4th Cir. 1988).

§ 153A-124. Enumeration not exclusive.

The enumeration in this Article or other portions of this Chapter of specific powers to define, regulate, prohibit, or abate acts, omissions, or conditions is not exclusive, nor is it a limit on the general authority to adopt ordinances conferred on counties by G.S. 153A-121. (1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

CASE NOTES

Quoted in Summy Outdoor Adv., Inc. v. County of Henderson, 96 N.C. App. 533, 386 S.E.2d 439 (1989).

§ 153A-125. Regulation of solicitation campaigns, flea markets and itinerant merchants.

A county may by ordinance regulate, restrict, or prohibit the solicitation of contributions from the public for charitable or eleemosynary purposes, and also the business activities of itinerant merchants, salesmen, promoters, drummers, peddlers, flea market operators and flea market vendors and hawkers. These ordinances may include, but are not limited to, requirements that an application be made and a permit issued, that an investigation be made, that activities be reasonably limited as to time and place, that proper credentials and proof of financial stability be submitted, that not more than a stated percentage of contributions to solicitation campaigns be retained for administrative expenses, and that an adequate bond be posted to protect the public from fraud. A county may charge a fee for a permit issued pursuant to such an ordinance. (1967, c. 80, ss. 1-21/2; 1973, c. 822, s. 1; 1987, c. 708, s. 7.)

CASE NOTES

Editor's Note. — The cases cited below were decided under former § 105-53.

- I. General Consideration.
- II. Regulation and Taxation by Cities and Counties.

I. GENERAL CONSIDERATION.

Tax Is on Occupation, Not Goods. — Peddlers and transient dealers are commonly taxed a specific sum because they are likely to escape any other tax. A peddler's tax is on the occupation, not on the goods, and one who engages in the business, whether as agent or owner, must pay it. State v. Rhyne, 119 N.C. 905, 26 S.E. 126 (1896).

Statute Not Applicable to Citizens of Other States. — The provision of a statute similar to this was held unconstitutional on the grounds that it was made to apply to citizens of other states, thus regulating interstate commerce. In re Spain, 47 F. 208 (E.D.N.C. 1891). See also In re Flinn, 57 F. 496 (W.D.N.C. 1893).

Subsections (e) and (g) relate exclusively to privileges taxes upon peddlers. State v. Bridgers, 211 N.C. 235, 189 S.E. 869 (1937).

"Peddler" Defined. — A peddler is one who sells and delivers the identical goods he carries about with him. State v. Lee, 113 N.C. 681, 18 S.E. 713 (1893).

A peddler is primarily one who travels around on foot, selling or bartering the identical goods he carries. State v. Frank, 130 N.C. 724, 41 S.E. 785 (1902).

Peddling Is Lawful Business. — Under general State law, "peddling," as defined in this section, is a lawful business or occupation. State v. Byrd, 259 N.C. 141, 130 S.E.2d 55 (1963).

Peddling Is a Privilege and Not a Right. — To peddle is not a matter of right under the laws, which any person can demand upon the payment of the tax. It is a privilege. It is discretionary with the county commissioners whether or not they will grant a license to a peddler. The privilege is personal to the applicant, and is not assignable. State v. Rhyne, 119 N.C. 905, 26 S.E. 126 (1896).

State license issued under this section authorizes the licensee to engage in the business of peddling. State v. Byrd, 259 N.C. 141, 130 S.E.2d 55 (1963).

Such as Peddling Ice Cream. — Under a license issued in accordance with general State law, the sale and offering for sale of ice cream products on public streets in the area covered by such license is a lawful business or occupation. State v. Byrd, 259 N.C. 141, 130 S.E.2d 55 (1963).

Sales by Samples. — It was held that a former statute, similar to this section, did not apply to sales by sample of goods not at the time of sale within the State and ready for immediate delivery, but applied only where goods were actually exposed and offered for sale, and ready for delivery at once to the purchaser. In re Flinn, 57 F. 496 (W.D.N.C. 1893).

A person who travels from house to house on foot selling goods by sample, and afterwards delivers them on foot, is not a peddler. State v. Frank, 130 N.C. 724, 41 S.E. 785 (1902).

One who sells goods by sample, which goods are shipped to the purchaser in care of one who sold them and delivered by him, is a peddler. State v. Franks, 127 N.C. 510, 37 S.E. 70 (1900).

A picture dealer who contracts to sell pictures, has them sent out to him, delivers to the purchaser, and receives the price agreed upon beforehand, is no peddler. City of Greensboro v. Williams, 124 N.C. 167, 32 S.E. 492 (1899).

Selling Fruit in Wholesale Lots. — It was held that a former statute, similar to this section, did not apply to a person selling watermelons in wholesale lots in the city of Salisbury, to be shipped from a nearby town, and only delivered to those from whom he had taken orders. State v. Ninestein, 132 N.C. 1039, 132 N.C. 4039, 43 S.E. 936, 43 S.E. 936 (1903).

The words "any articles of the farm," in an earlier statute, were used to embrace all the products of the farm, and a farmer who butchered cattle raised on his farm and sold the beef was not a peddler. State v. Smith, 173 N.C. 772, 92 S.E. 325 (1917).

Use of Motor Vehicles. — And the statutory provisions contemplate the use of motor vehicles by peddlers in the prosecution of their business or occupation. State v. Byrd, 259 N.C. 141, 130 S.E.2d 55 (1963).

Presumption as to Having License. — If a peddler is required by proper authorities to exhibit his license and he fails to do so the presumption is that he has none. State v. Crump, 104 N.C. 763, 10 S.E. 468 (1889).

Former Subsection Requiring License for Display of Goods by One Not Regular Retailer Was Unconstitutional. — Former subsection (e), requiring one not a regular retail merchant in North Carolina to obtain a $250 license to entitle him to display goods for purpose of securing orders for retail sale, violated "commerce" clause of federal Constitution as applied to a New York merchandise establishment which rented display room in a North Carolina hotel for several days and took orders for goods corresponding to samples, which orders were filled by shipping direct to customers from New York City, where regular retail merchants in North Carolina were subject to only an annual $1 license tax for privilege of doing business. Best & Co. v. Maxwell, 311 U.S. 454, 61 S. Ct. 334, 85 L. Ed. 275 (1940), commented on in 18 N.C.L. Rev. 48.

II. REGULATION AND TAXATION BY CITIES AND COUNTIES.

Subsection (g) Does Not Prohibit City Tax on Trades and Businesses. — A tax levied under the general authority given a city in its charter, authorizing the levying of a tax upon trades and businesses carried on within its corporate limits is not such a tax as is prohibited by subsection (g) of this section. The prohibition relates to license taxes levied "under this section." The tax complained of was not levied "under this section." State v. Bridgers, 211 N.C. 235, 189 S.E. 869 (1937).

There Is No Express Grant of Powers as to Peddling. — Section 160A-11 which sets forth express powers conferred on municipal corporations, contains no provision relating to the prohibition or regulation of the business or occupation of peddling. State v. Byrd, 259 N.C. 141, 130 S.E.2d 55 (1963).

Other Than to Impose License Taxes. — No express power has been conferred by the General Assembly on municipal corporations to prohibit or to regulate the business or occupation of peddling otherwise than by imposing license taxes thereon. State v. Byrd, 259 N.C. 141, 130 S.E.2d 55 (1963).

Whether City May Prohibit or Regulate Selling on Streets Depends on Delegated Powers. — Whether a municipal corporation has the power to regulate or prohibit the sale of articles of merchandise on its streets and sidewalks depends upon the legislative power delegated to it by the State legislature. State v. Byrd, 259 N.C. 141, 130 S.E.2d 55 (1963).

City cannot, by ordinance, prohibit conduct that is legalized and sanctioned by the General Assembly. Eastern Carolina Taste-Freez, Inc. v. City of Raleigh, 256 N.C. 208, 123 S.E.2d 632 (1962), holding invalid a municipal ordinance prohibiting the peddling of ice cream along the streets and sidewalks of a city.

City Has Implied Power to Regulate Selling on Streets from Mobile Units. — In the exercise of express powers conferred upon municipal corporations by the General Assembly a municipal corporation has the implied power to adopt an ordinance providing for the reasonable regulation, but not for the prohibition, of the sale and offering for sale of merchandise upon its streets from mobile units. State v. Byrd, 259 N.C. 141, 130 S.E.2d 55 (1963).

Discretion of County Commissioners to Grant Exemptions. — The discretion vested in the county commissioners to exempt from the peddler's tax the "poor and infirm" is necessary to the administration of statutes like this, and will not be interfered with unless arbitrarily exercised. Smith v. Wilkins, 164 N.C. 135, 80 S.E. 168 (1913).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL

Applicability to Traveling Auctioneers. — If an auctioneer travels into a city or county in which he does not maintain a regular place of business and sells or auctions property owned by him, he must obtain an itinerant merchant license pursuant to this section, as well as comply with any ordinances of the particular city or county governing itinerant merchants. See opinion of Attorney General to Mr. DeWitt S. McCarley, City Attorney, Greenville, North Carolina, 55 N.C.A.G. 38 (1985).

An auctioneer is not deemed to be an itinerant merchant if he travels into a city or county in which he does not maintain a regular place of business and auctions merchandise belonging to another person, whether or not that person maintains a regular place of business in the particular city or county. Therefore, such an auctioneer would not be required to comply with § 105-53(d) or any local ordinances of the particular city or county governing itinerant merchants. However, if the owner of the goods to be auctioned off does not maintain a regular place of business in the particular city or county, that person would be required to comply with § 105-53(d) and any local ordinances governing itinerant merchants. See opinion of Attorney General to Mr. DeWitt S. McCarley, City Attorney, Greenville, North Carolina, 55 N.C.A.G. 38 (1985).

§ 153A-126. Regulation of begging.

A county may by ordinance prohibit or regulate begging or otherwise canvassing the public for contributions for the private benefit of the solicitor or any other person. (1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

Cited in Pittman v. Wilson County, 839 F.2d 225 (4th Cir. 1988).

§ 153A-127. Abuse of animals.

A county may by ordinance define and prohibit the abuse of animals. (1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 153A-128. Regulation of explosive, corrosive, inflammable, or radioactive substances.

A county may by ordinance regulate, restrict, or prohibit the sale, possession, storage, use or conveyance of any explosive, corrosive, inflammable, or radioactive substance or of any weapon or instrumentality of mass death and destruction. (1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 153A-129. Firearms.

A county may by ordinance regulate, restrict, or prohibit the discharge of firearms at any time or place except when used to take birds or animals pursuant to Chapter 113, Subchapter III, when used in defense of person or property, or when used pursuant to lawful directions of law-enforcement officers. A county may also regulate the display of firearms on the public roads, sidewalks, alleys, or other public property. This section does not limit a county's authority to take action under Chapter 14, Article 36A. (1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 153A-130. Pellet guns.

A county may by ordinance regulate, restrict, or prohibit the sale, possession, or use of pellet guns or any other mechanism or device designed or used to project a missile by compressed air or mechanical action with less than deadly force. (1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 153A-131. Possession or harboring of dangerous animals.

A county may by ordinance regulate, restrict, or prohibit the possession or harboring of animals which are dangerous to persons or property. No such ordinance shall have the effect of permitting any activity or condition with respect to a wild animal which is prohibited or more severely restricted by regulations of the Wildlife Resources Commission. (1973, c. 822, s. 1; 1977, c. 407, s. 1.)

Cross References. — As to the power of session or harboring of dangerous animals, see cities to regulate, restrict or prohibit the pos- § 160A-187.

§ 153A-132. Removal and disposal of abandoned and junked motor vehicles.

(a) Grant of Power. — A county may by ordinance prohibit the abandonment of motor vehicles on public grounds and private property within the county's ordinance-making jurisdiction and on county-owned property wherever located. The county may enforce the ordinance by removing and disposing of abandoned or junked motor vehicles according to the procedures prescribed in this section.

(b) Definitions. — "Motor vehicle" includes any machine designed or intended to travel over land or water by self-propulsion or while attached to self-propelled vehicle.

- (1) An "abandoned motor vehicle" is one that:
  - a. Is left on public grounds or county-owned property in violation of a law or ordinance prohibiting parking; or
  - b. Is left for longer than 24 hours on property owned or operated by the county; or
  - c. Is left for longer than two hours on private property without the consent of the owner, occupant, or lessee of the property; or
  - d. Is left for longer than seven days on public grounds.
- (2) A "junked motor vehicle" is an abandoned motor vehicle that also:
  - a. Is partially dismantled or wrecked; or
  - b. Cannot be self-propelled or moved in the manner in which it originally was intended to move; or
  - c. Is more than five years old and appears to be worth less than one hundred dollars ($100.00); or
  - d. Does not display a current license plate.

(c) Removal of Vehicles. — A county may remove to a storage garage or area an abandoned or junked motor vehicle found to be in violation of an ordinance adopted pursuant to this section. A vehicle may not be removed from private property, however, without the written request of the owner, lessee, or occupant of the premises unless the board of commissioners or a duly authorized county official or employee has declared the vehicle to be a health or safety hazard. Appropriate county officers and employees have a right, upon presentation of proper credentials, to enter on any premises within the county ordinance-making jurisdiction at any reasonable hour in order to determine if any vehicles are health or safety hazards. The county may require a person requesting the removal from private property of an abandoned or junked motor vehicle to indemnify the county against any loss, expense, or liability incurred because of the vehicle's removal, storage, or sale.

When an abandoned or junked motor vehicle is removed, the county shall give notice to the owner as required by G.S. 20-219.11(a) and (b).

(d) Hearing Procedure. — Regardless of whether a county does its own removal and disposal of motor vehicles or contracts with another person to do so, the county shall provide a hearing procedure for the owner. For purposes of this subsection, the definitions in G.S. 20-219.9 apply.

- (1) If the county operates in such a way that the person who tows the vehicle is responsible for collecting towing fees, all provisions of Article 7A, Chapter 20, apply.
- (2) If the county operates in such a way that it is responsible for collecting towing fees, it shall:
  - a. Provide by contract or ordinance for a schedule of reasonable towing fees,
  - b. Provide a procedure for a prompt fair hearing to contest the towing,
  - c. Provide for an appeal to district court from that hearing,
  - d. Authorize release of the vehicle at any time after towing by the posting of a bond or paying of the fees due, and
  - e. Provide a sale procedure similar to that provided in G.S. 44A-4, 44A-5, and 44A-6, except that no hearing in addition to the probable cause hearing is required. If no one purchases the vehicle at the sale and if the value of the vehicle is less than the amount of the lien, the county may destroy it.

(e), (f) Repealed by Session Laws 1983, c. 420, s. 10.

(g) No Liability. — No person nor any county may be held to answer in a civil or criminal action to any owner or other person legally entitled to the possession of an abandoned, junked, lost, or stolen motor vehicle for disposing of the vehicle as provided in this section.

(h) Exceptions. — This section does not apply to any vehicle in an enclosed building, to any vehicle on the premises of a business enterprise being operated in a lawful place and manner if the vehicle is necessary to the operation of the enterprise, or to any vehicle in an appropriate storage place or depository maintained in a lawful place and manner by the county. (1971, c. 489; 1973, c. 822, s. 1; 1975, c. 716, s. 5; 1983, c. 420, ss. 8-10; 1997-456, s. 27.)

Editor’s Note. — Subdivision designations in subsection (b) were renumbered pursuant to S.L. 1997-456, s. 27 which authorized the Revisor of Statutes to renumber or reletter sections and parts of sections having a number or letter designation that is incompatible with the General Assembly’s computer database.

Local Modification. — Wake: 1979, c. 375.

§ 153A-132.1. To provide for the removal and disposal of trash, garbage, etc.

The board of county commissioners of any county is hereby authorized to enact ordinances governing the removal, method or manner of disposal, depositing or dumping of any trash, debris, garbage, litter, discarded cans or receptacles or any waste matter whatsoever within the rural areas of the county and outside and beyond the corporate limits of any municipality of said county. An ordinance adopted pursuant hereto may make it unlawful to place, discard, dispose, leave or dump any trash, debris, garbage, litter, discarded cans or receptacles or any waste matter whatsoever upon a street or highway located within that county or upon property owned or operated by the county unless such trash, debris, garbage, litter, discarded cans or receptacles or any waste matter is placed in a designated location or container for removal by a specific garbage or trash service collector.

Boards of county commissioners may also provide by ordinance enacted pursuant to this section, that the placing, discarding, disposing, leaving or dumping of the articles forbidden by this section shall, for each day or portion thereof the articles or matter are left, constitute a separate offense, and that a person in violation of the ordinance may be punished by a fine not exceeding fifty dollars ($50.00) or imprisoned not exceeding 30 days, or both, for each offense. (1973, c. 952.)

Local Modification. — Davie: 1985 (Reg. Sess., 1986), c. 830, s. 1; Rowan: 1985, c. 63, ss. 1, 4.

§ 153A-132.2. Regulation, restraint and prohibition of abandonment of junked motor vehicles.

(a) A county may by ordinance regulate, restrain or prohibit the abandonment of junked motor vehicles on public grounds and on private property within the county's ordinance-making jurisdiction upon a finding that such regulation, restraint or prohibition is necessary and desirable to promote or enhance community, neighborhood or area appearance, and may enforce any such ordinance by removing and disposing of junked motor vehicles subject to the ordinance according to the procedures prescribed in this section. The authority granted by this section shall be supplemental to any other authority conferred upon counties. Nothing in this section shall be construed to authorize a county to require the removal or disposal of a motor vehicle kept or stored at a bona fide "automobile graveyard" or "junkyard" as defined in G.S. 136-143.

For purposes of this section, the term "junked motor vehicle" means a vehicle that does not display a current license plate and that:

- (1) Is partially dismantled or wrecked; or
- (2) Cannot be self-propelled or moved in the manner in which it originally was intended to move; or
- (3) Is more than five years old and appears to be worth less than one hundred dollars ($100.00).

(a1) Any junked motor vehicle found to be in violation of an ordinance adopted pursuant to this section may be removed to a storage garage or area, but no such vehicle shall be removed from private property without the written request of the owner, lessee, or occupant of the premises unless the board of commissioners or a duly authorized county official or employee finds in writing that the aesthetic benefits of removing the vehicle outweigh the burdens imposed on the private property owner. Such finding shall be based on a balancing of the monetary loss of the apparent owner against the corresponding gain to the public by promoting or enhancing community, neighborhood or area appearance. The following, among other relevant factors, may be considered:

- (1) Protection of property values;
- (2) Promotion of tourism and other economic development opportunities;
- (3) Indirect protection of public health and safety;
- (4) Preservation of the character and integrity of the community; and
- (5) Promotion of the comfort, happiness, and emotional stability of area residents.

(a2) The county may require any person requesting the removal of a junked or abandoned motor vehicle from private property to indemnify the county against any loss, expense, or liability incurred because of the removal, storage, or sale thereof. When an abandoned or junked motor vehicle is removed, the county shall give notice to the owner as required by G.S. 20-219.11(a) and (b).

(a3) Hearing Procedure. — Regardless of whether a county does its own removal and disposal of motor vehicles or contracts with another person to do so, the county shall provide a prior hearing procedure for the owner. For purposes of this subsection, the definitions in G.S. 20-219.9 apply.

- (1) If the county operates in such a way that the person who tows the vehicle is responsible for collecting towing fees, all provisions of Article 7A, Chapter 20, apply.
- (2) If the county operates in such a way that it is responsible for collecting towing fees, it shall:
  - a. Provide by contract or ordinance for a schedule of reasonable towing fees,
  - b. Provide a procedure for a prompt fair hearing to contest the towing,
  - c. Provide for an appeal to district court from that hearing,
  - d. Authorize release of the vehicle at any time after towing by the posting of a bond or paying of the fees due, and
  - e. Provide a sale procedure similar to that provided in G.S. 44A-4, 44A-5, and 44A-6, except that no hearing in addition to the probable cause hearing is required. If no one purchases the vehicle at the sale and if the value of the vehicle is less than the amount of the lien, the city may destroy it.

(a4) Any person who removes a vehicle pursuant to this section shall not be held liable for damages for the removal of the vehicle to the owner, lienholder or other person legally entitled to the possession of the vehicle removed; however, any person who intentionally or negligently damages a vehicle in the removal of such vehicle, or intentionally or negligently inflicts injury upon any person in the removal of such vehicle, may be held liable for damages.

(b) Any ordinance adopted pursuant to this section shall include a prohibition against removing or disposing of any motor vehicle that is used on a regular basis for business or personal use. (1983, c. 841, s. 1; 1985, c. 737, s. 1; 1987, c. 42, s. 1; c. 451, s. 1; 1987 (Reg. Sess., 1988), c. 902, s. 1; 1989, c. 743, s. 1.)

Editor's Note. — As enacted by Session Laws 1983, c. 841, s. 1, effective October 1, 1983, this section was applicable only to the Counties of Dare, Stokes, Alleghany, Carteret and Columbus. Subsequently, Session Laws 1985, c. 737, s. 1, effective July 12, 1985, amended this section by making it applicable to an additional 19 counties. Subsequently, Session Laws 1987, cc. 42 and 451, added six additional counties to those listed in subsection (a). At the direction of the Revisor of Statutes, the section has been set out above as § 153A-132.2.

§ 153A-133. Noise regulation.

A county may by ordinance regulate, restrict, or prohibit the production or emission of noises or amplified speech, music, or other sounds that tend to annoy, disturb, or frighten its citizens. (1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

Local Modification. — Currituck: 1991, c. 5; Rockingham: 1991 (Reg. Sess., 1992), c. 996, s. 1.

CASE NOTES

Ordinance Declared Partially Unconstitutional. — The partial unconstitutionality of county's noise ordinance did not support the granting of plaintiff's motions to dismiss the charges, where part of it remained valid and enforceable, and the State was entitled to proceed with the prosecution under this ordinance. State v. Garren, 117 N.C. App. 393, 451 S.E.2d 315 (1994).

§ 153A-134. Regulating and licensing businesses, trades, etc.

A county may by ordinance, subject to the general law of the State, regulate and license occupations, businesses, trades, professions, and forms of amusement or entertainment and prohibit those that may be inimical to the public health, welfare, safety, order, or convenience. In licensing trades, occupations, and professions, the county may, consistent with the general law of the State, require applicants for licenses to be examined and charge a reasonable fee therefor. This section does not authorize a county to examine or license a person holding a license issued by an occupational licensing board of this State as to the profession or trade that he has been licensed to practice or pursue by the State.

This section does not impair the county's power to levy privilege license taxes on occupations, businesses, trades, professions, and other activities pursuant to G.S. 153A-152. (1868, c. 20, s. 8; Code, s. 707; Rev., s. 1318; C.S., s. 1297; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 153A-135. Regulation of places of amusement.

A county may by ordinance regulate places of amusement and entertainment, and may regulate, restrict, or prohibit the operation of pool and billiard halls, dance halls, carnivals, circuses, or itinerant shows or exhibitions of any kind. Places of amusement and entertainment include coffeehouses, cocktail lounges, nightclubs, beer halls, and similar establishments, but any regulation of such places shall be consistent with any permit or license issued by the North Carolina Alcoholic Beverage Control Commission. (1963, c. 1060, ss. 1, 11/2; 1965, cc. 388, 567, 1083, 1158; 1967, c. 495, s. 2; 1969, c. 36, s. 1; 1971, c. 702, ss. 1-3; 1973, c. 822, s. 1; 1981, c. 412, ss. 4, 5.)

§ 153A-136. Regulation of solid wastes.

(a) A county may by ordinance regulate the storage, collection, transportation, use, disposal, and other disposition of solid wastes. Such an ordinance may:

- (1) Regulate the activities of persons, firms, and corporations, both public and private.
- (2) Require each person wishing to commercially collect or dispose of solid wastes to secure a license from the county and prohibit any person from commercially collecting or disposing of solid wastes without a license. A fee may be charged for a license.

- (3) Grant a franchise to one or more persons for the exclusive right to commercially collect or dispose of solid wastes within all or a defined portion of the county and prohibit any other person from commercially collecting or disposing of solid wastes in that area. The board of commissioners may set the terms of any franchise, except that no franchise may be granted for a period exceeding 30 years, nor may any franchise by its terms impair the authority of the board of commissioners to regulate fees as authorized by this section.
- (4) Regulate the fees, if any, that may be charged by licensed or franchised persons for collecting or disposing of solid wastes.
- (5) Require the source separation of materials prior to collection of solid waste for disposal.
- (6) Require participation in a recycling program by requiring separation of designated materials by the owner or occupant of the property prior to disposal. An owner of recovered materials as defined by G.S. 130A-290(a)(24) retains ownership of the recovered materials until the owner conveys, sells, donates, or otherwise transfers the recovered materials to a person, firm, company, corporation, or unit of local government. A county may not require an owner to convey, sell, donate, or otherwise transfer recovered materials to the county or its designee. If an owner places recovered materials in receptacles or delivers recovered materials to specific locations, receptacles, and facilities that are owned or operated by the county or its designee, then ownership of these materials is transferred to the county or its designee.
- (6a) Regulate the illegal disposal of solid waste, including littering on public and private property, provide for enforcement by civil penalties as well as other remedies, and provide that such regulations may be enforced by county employees specially appointed as environmental enforcement officers.
- (7) Include any other proper matter.

(b) Any ordinance adopted pursuant to this section shall be consistent with and supplementary to any rules adopted by the Commission for Health Services or the Department of Environment and Natural Resources.

(c) The board of commissioners of a county shall consider alternative sites and socioeconomic and demographic data and shall hold a public hearing prior to selecting or approving a site for a new sanitary landfill that receives residential solid waste that is located within one mile of an existing sanitary landfill within the State. The distance between an existing and a proposed site shall be determined by measurement between the closest points on the outer boundary of each site. The definitions set out in G.S. 130A-290 apply to this subsection. As used in this subsection:

- (1) "Approving a site" refers to prior approval of a site under G.S. 130A-294(a)(4).
- (2) "Existing sanitary landfill" means a sanitary landfill that is in operation or that has been in operation within the five-year period immediately prior to the date on which an application for a permit is submitted.
- (3) "New sanitary landfill" means a sanitary landfill that includes areas not within the legal description of an existing sanitary landfill as set out in the permit for the existing sanitary landfill.
- (4) "Socioeconomic and demographic data" means the most recent socioeconomic and demographic data compiled by the United States Bureau of the Census and any additional socioeconomic and demographic data submitted at the public hearing.

(d) As used in this section, "solid waste" means nonhazardous solid waste, that is, solid waste as defined in G.S. 130A-290 but not including hazardous waste. (1955, c. 1050; 1957, cc. 120, 376; 1961, c. 40; c. 514, s. 1; cc. 711, 803; c. 806, s. 1; 1965, c. 452; 1967, cc. 34, 90; c. 183, s. 1; cc. 304, 339; c. 495, s. 4; 1969, cc. 79, 155, 176; c. 234, s. 1; c. 452; c. 1003, s. 4; 1973, c. 476, s. 128; c. 822, s. 1; 1989 (Reg. Sess., 1990), c. 1009, s. 1; 1991 (Reg. Sess., 1992), c. 1013, s. 1; 1993, c. 165, s. 1; 1997-443, s. 11A.123; 2001-512, s. 5.)

Local Modification. — Orange: 2000-107, s. 2 (except for Carr and Cheeks Precincts).

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1991 (Reg. Sess., 1992), c. 1013, which amended this section, in s. 8 provides: "Any contract for solid waste collection or disposal entered into by any county, city, or town that would have been lawful if this act had been in effect at the time the contract was entered into is validated. The provisions of this act that limit a contract or franchise for the collection and disposal of solid waste to a period of not more than 30 years shall not be construed to invalidate any contract or franchise for a longer period up to 60 years that was entered into by any county, city, or town prior to the date this act is effective." The act became effective July 22, 1992.

Session Laws 1991 (Reg. Sess., 1992), c. 1013, s. 9 provides: "G.S. 153A-136(c), as enacted by Section 1 of this act, and G.S. 160A-325(a), as enacted by Section 3 of this act, shall not apply to the selection or approval of a site for a new sanitary landfill if, prior to the effective date of this act:

"(1) The site was selected or approved by the board of commissioners of a county or the governing board of a city;

"(2) A public hearing on the selection or approval of the site has been held;

"(3) A long-term contract was approved by the Department of Environment, Health, and Natural Resources [now the Department of Environment and Natural Resources] under Part 4 of Article 15 of Chapter 153A of the General Statutes; or

"(4) An application for a permit for a sanitary landfill to be located on the site has been submitted to the Department of Environment, Health and Natural Resources [now the Department of Environment or Natural Resources]." The act became effective July 22, 1992.

Session Laws 2001-512, s. 15, provides: "This act shall not be construed to obligate the General Assembly to appropriate any funds to implement the provisions of this act. Every agency to which this act applies shall implement the provisions of this act from funds otherwise appropriated or available to the agency."

Effect of Amendments. — Session Laws 2001-512, s. 5, effective January 4, 2002, added subdivision (a)(6a).

CASE NOTES

Constitutionality of Former § 153-272. — Former § 153-272, authorizing counties to regulate private collectors of garbage, was not an unconstitutional delegation of legislative power, but came within the exception permitting the delegation to municipal corporations and counties of power to legislate concerning local problems. Porter v. Suburban San. Serv., Inc., 283 N.C. 479, 196 S.E.2d 760 (1973), decided under former § 153-272.

For history of former statute, see Lafayette Transp. Serv., Inc. v. County of Robeson, 283 N.C. 494, 196 S.E.2d 770 (1973).

Power to Enact Ordinances Giving Franchise Rights. — In general, a state legislature has the power to delegate to the state or inferior agency the authority to make ordinances, such as those giving rise to franchise rights, as it deems appropriate in the lawful exercise of the police power. Stillings v. City of Winston-Salem, 311 N.C. 689, 319 S.E.2d 233 (1984).

Authority of County Ordinance Concerning Collection and Disposal of Solid Waste. — County governments are delegated by the state with a general police power. Additionally, counties are specifically vested by statute with authority to regulate by ordinance the collection and disposal of solid waste within their jurisdictions. In order to effect this regulatory power and meet their police power responsibilities, counties are specifically authorized by statute to enact ordinances granting exclusive franchises to commercially collect or dispose of solid waste within all or a defined portion of the county. Stillings v. City of Winston-Salem, 63 N.C. App. 618, 306 S.E.2d 489 (1983), rev'd on other grounds, 311 N.C. 689, 319 S.E.2d 233 (1984).

Authority of counties to issue exclusive solid waste collection franchises is derived from § 153A-122 and this section. Stillings v. City of Winston-Salem, 311 N.C. 689, 319 S.E.2d 233 (1984).

County was without power to impose its own fee schedule on city for landfill operated by the city but located in the county. Cabarrus County v. City of Charlotte, 71 N.C. App. 192, 321 S.E.2d 476 (1984).

A county ordinance providing that no fees could be charged residents of the county or franchise haulers by the owners or operators of a sanitary landfill located within the county was improper, because it based fees upon the wrong criteria (residence rather than kind and degree of service) in violation of § 160A-314. Therefore, the county could not enforce the ordinance against a city which operated a sanitary landfill in the county. Cabarrus County v. City of Charlotte, 71 N.C. App. 192, 321 S.E.2d 476 (1984).

Consideration of Alternative Sites. — Subsection (c) requires a board of commissioners to give careful and thorough consideration to alternative sites for a landfill within the county. Greene Citizens for Responsible Growth, Inc. v. Greene County Bd. of Comm'rs, 143 N.C. App. 702, 547 S.E.2d 480 (2001), cert. denied, 354 N.C. 69, — S.E.2d — (2001), review denied, 354 N.C. 69, 553 S.E.2d 41 (2001).

Effect of Annexation on Franchises. — Given the limited territorial jurisdiction of a county ordinance granting exclusive solid waste collection franchises, such franchises were not protected from the city's actions in annexing some areas of the county served by the franchisees and providing free solid waste collection services in the newly annexed areas, and therefore did not survive annexation as to those areas which became part of the city. Stillings v. City of Winston-Salem, 311 N.C. 689, 319 S.E.2d 233 (1984).

Competing Government Service. — The word "commercially," as used in this section, leads to the conclusion that a commercial service franchise does not provide protection to the holder against government service which would compete with it. Stillings v. City of Winston-Salem, 311 N.C. 689, 319 S.E.2d 233 (1984).

§ 153A-137. Cable television franchises.

Consistent with the rules and regulations of the Federal Communications Commission, a county may by ordinance grant upon reasonable terms franchises for the operation of cable television systems within any portion of the county, exclusive of incorporated areas and make it unlawful to operate such a system without a franchise. A franchise may not be granted for a period longer than the maximum term prescribed by the Federal Communications Commission.

As used in this section, "cable television system" means a facility that, in whole or in part, receives directly or indirectly over the air and amplifies or otherwise modifies the signals transmitting programs broadcast by one or more television stations and distributes these signals by wire or cable to subscribing members of the public who pay for the service. "Cable television system" does not include a facility that serves only the residents of one or more apartment dwellings under common ownership, control, or management and commercial establishments located on the premises of such an apartment dwelling. (1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

Legal Periodicals. — For note, "Municipal Ownership of Cable Television Systems: Madison Cablevision, Inc. v. City of Morganton," see 68 N.C.L. Rev. 1295 (1990).

§ 153A-138. Registration of mobile homes, house trailers, etc.

A county may by ordinance provide for the annual registration of mobile homes, house trailers and similar vehicular equipment designed for use as living or business quarters and for the display of a sticker or other device thereon as evidence of such registration. No fee shall be charged for such registration. (1975, c. 693.)

§ 153A-139. Regulation of traffic at parking areas and driveways.

The governing body of any county may, by ordinance, regulate the stopping, standing, or parking of vehicles in specified areas of any parking areas or driveways of a hospital, shopping center, apartment house, condominium complex, or commercial office complex or any other privately owned public vehicular area, or prohibit such stopping, standing, or parking during any specified hours, provided the owner or person in general charge of the operation and control of that area requests in writing that such an ordinance be adopted. The owner of a vehicle parked in violation of an ordinance adopted pursuant to this subsection shall be deemed to have appointed any appropriate law-enforcement officer as his agent for the purpose of arranging for the transportation and safe storage of such vehicle. (1979, c. 745, s. 1.)

Local Modification. — Wake: 1981, c. 256.

§ 153A-140. Abatement of public health nuisances.

A county shall have authority, subject to the provisions of Article 57 of Chapter 106 of the General Statutes, to remove, abate, or remedy everything that is dangerous or prejudicial to the public health. The expense of the action shall be paid by the person in default, and, if not paid, shall be a lien upon the land or premises where the nuisance arose, and shall be collected as unpaid taxes. The authority granted by this section may only be exercised upon adequate notice, the right to a hearing, and the right to appeal to the General Court of Justice. Nothing in this section shall be deemed to restrict or repeal the authority of any municipality to abate or remedy health nuisances pursuant to G.S. 160A-174, 160A-193, or any other general or local law. This section shall not affect bona fide farms, but any use of farm property for nonfarm purposes is subject to this section. (1981 (Reg. Sess., 1982), c. 1314, s. 1.)

§ 153A-142. Curfews.

A county may by an appropriate ordinance impose a curfew on persons of any age less than 18. (1997-189, s. 2.)

§§ 153A-143 through 153A-145: Reserved for future codification purposes.

ARTICLE 7.

Taxation.

§ 153A-146. General power to impose taxes.

A county may impose taxes only as specifically authorized by act of the General Assembly. Except when the statute authorizing a tax provides for penalties and interest, the power to impose a tax includes the power to impose reasonable penalties for failure to declare tax liability, if required, and to impose penalties or interest for failure to pay taxes lawfully due within the time prescribed by law or ordinance. The power to impose a tax also includes the power to provide for its administration in a manner not inconsistent with the statute authorizing the tax. (1868, c. 20, s. 8; Code, s. 707; Rev., s. 1318; C.S., s. 1297; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

CASE NOTES

Editor's Note. — Most of the cases cited below were decided under corresponding sections of former law.

Powers of Counties Derived from Legislature. — A sovereign state possesses the inherent power of taxation, but counties must derive that power, as well as all others, from the legislature. Stam v. State, 302 N.C. 357, 275 S.E.2d 439 (1981).

Acts Beyond Power Granted Void. — Counties must derive the power of taxation from the legislature, and any attempt to exercise the taxing power which is found not to be within the powers granted to the county is ultra vires and void. Stam v. State, 302 N.C. 357, 275 S.E.2d 439 (1981).

Authority of County to Raise Revenues. — While the General Assembly may regulate the amount of and methods for raising county revenues, the system of county government contemplates that such function shall be performed by the county authorities, subject to the limitations prescribed by the Constitution. Parker v. Board of Comm'rs, 104 N.C. 166, 10 S.E. 137 (1889).

Strict Construction of Grant of Power to Levy Taxes. — A grant to a county of the power to levy taxes must be strictly construed. It is an established rule that the authority of municipalities to levy a tax must be made clearly to appear, and that doubts, if any, as to the power sought to be exercised must be resolved against the municipality. Stam v. State, 302 N.C. 357, 275 S.E.2d 439 (1981).

Constitutional requirement that every act levying taxes shall state the objects to which they shall be applied has no application to taxes levied by county for county purposes. Parker v. Board of Comm'rs, 104 N.C. 166, 10 S.E. 137 (1889).

Mandamus to Compel Levy of Tax and Payment of Debt. — A plaintiff, upon a proper prayer for judgment, may have a mandamus to compel the board of commissioners to levy a tax and pay the debt of a county. Winslow v. Commissioners of Perquimans County, 64 N.C. 218 (1870).

Injunction Against Levy of Unconstitutional Tax. — A taxpayer may enjoin county commissioners from making a tax levy to pay interest on railroad bonds issued under an unconstitutional statute, without restoring to the bona fide holders of the bonds the consideration paid therefor. Graves v. Commissioners, 135 N.C. 49, 47 S.E. 134 (1904).

Where it was alleged that board of commissioners had not levied a sufficient tax to defray the ordinary expenses of the county, on account of the levy of a tax to pay for repairing the courthouse, it was held to be no ground for interference by the courts. Long v. Commissioners of Richmond County, 76 N.C. 273 (1877).

§ 153A-147. Remedies for collecting taxes other than property taxes.

In addition to any other remedies provided by law, a county may collect any county tax by use of the remedies of levy and sale and attachment and garnishment, under the rules and according to the procedures prescribed by the Machinery Act (Chapter 105, Subchapter II) for the enforcement of tax liability against personal property. However, these remedies become available only on the due date of the tax and not before that time. (1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 153A-148. Continuing taxes.

Except for taxes levied on property under the Machinery Act (Chapter 105, Subchapter II), a county may impose any authorized tax by a permanent ordinance that shall stand from year to year until amended or repealed, and it is not necessary to reimpose the tax in each annual budget ordinance. (1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

Legal Periodicals. — See legislative survey, 21 Campbell L. Rev. 323 (1999).

§ 153A-148.1. Disclosure of certain information prohibited.

(a) Disclosure Prohibited. — Notwithstanding Chapter 132 of the General Statutes or any other law regarding access to public records, local tax records that contain information about a taxpayer's income or receipts are not public records. A current or former officer, employee, or agent of a county who in the course of service to or employment by the county has access to information about the amount of a taxpayer's income or receipts may not disclose the information to any other person unless the disclosure is made for one of the following purposes:

- (1) To comply with a court order or a law.
- (2) Review by the Attorney General or a representative of the Attorney General.
- (3) To sort, process, or deliver tax information on behalf of the county, as necessary to administer a tax.
- (4) To exchange information with a regional public transportation authority or a regional transportation authority created pursuant to Article 26 or Article 27 of Chapter 160A of the General Statutes, when the information is needed to fulfill a duty imposed on the authority or on the county.
- (5) To exchange information with the Department of Revenue, when the information is needed to fulfill a duty imposed on the Department or on the county.

(b) Punishment. — A person who violates this section is guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor. If the person committing the violation is an officer or employee, that person shall be dismissed from public office or public employment and may not hold any public office or public employment in this State for five years after the violation. (1993, c. 485, s. 33; 1994, Ex. Sess., c. 14, s. 66; 1998-139, s. 2.)

§ 153A-149. Property taxes; authorized purposes; rate limitation.

(a) Pursuant to Article V, Sec. 2(5) of the Constitution of North Carolina, the General Assembly confers upon each county in this State the power to levy, within the limitations set out in this section, taxes on property having a situs within the county under the rules and according to the procedures prescribed in the Machinery Act (Chapter 105, Subchapter II).

(b) Each county may levy property taxes without restriction as to rate or amount for the following purposes:

- (1) Courts. — To provide adequate facilities for and the county's share of the cost of operating the General Court of Justice in the county.
- (2) Debt Service. — To pay the principal of and interest on all general obligation bonds and notes of the county.
- (3) Deficits. — To supply an unforeseen deficiency in the revenue (other than revenues of public enterprises), when revenues actually collected or received fall below revenue estimates made in good faith and in accordance with the Local Government Budget and Fiscal Control Act.
- (4) Elections. — To provide for all federal, State, district and county elections.
- (5) Jails. — To provide for the operation of a jail and other local confinement facilities.
- (6) Joint Undertakings. — To cooperate with any other county, city, or political subdivision in providing any of the functions, services, or activities listed in this subsection.

- (7) Schools. — To provide for the county's share of the cost of kindergarten, elementary, secondary, and post-secondary public education.
- (8) Social Services. — To provide for public assistance required by Chapters 108A and 111 of the General Statutes.

(c) Each county may levy property taxes for one or more of the purposes listed in this subsection up to a combined rate of one dollar and fifty cents ($1.50) on the one hundred dollars ($100.00) appraised value of property subject to taxation. Authorized purposes subject to the rate limitation are:

- (1) To provide for the general administration of the county through the board of county commissioners, the office of the county manager, the office of the county budget officer, the office of the county finance officer, the office of the county assessor, the office of the county tax collector, the county purchasing agent, and the county attorney, and for all other general administrative costs not allocated to a particular board, commission, office, agency, or activity of the county.
- (2) Agricultural Extension. — To provide for the county's share of the cost of maintaining and administering programs and services offered to agriculture by or through the Agricultural Extension Service or other agencies.
- (3) Air Pollution. — To maintain and administer air pollution control programs.
- (4) Airports. — To establish and maintain airports and related aeronautical facilities.
- (5) Ambulance Service. — To provide ambulance services, rescue squads, and other emergency medical services.
- (6) Animal Protection and Control. — To provide animal protection and control programs.
- (6a) Arts Programs and Museums. — To provide for arts programs and museums as authorized in G.S. 160A-488.
- (6b) Auditoriums, coliseums, and convention and civic centers. — To provide public auditoriums, coliseums, and convention and civic centers.
- (7) Beach Erosion and Natural Disasters. — To provide for shoreline protection, beach erosion control, and flood and hurricane protection.
- (8) Cemeteries. — To provide for cemeteries.
- (9) Civil Preparedness. — To provide for civil preparedness programs.
- (10) Debts and Judgments. — To pay and discharge any valid debt of the county or any judgment lodged against it, other than debts and judgments evidenced by or based on bonds and notes.
- (10a) Defense of Employees and Officers. — To provide for the defense of, and payment of civil judgments against, employees and officers or former employees and officers, as authorized by this Chapter.
- (10b) Economic Development. — To provide for economic development as authorized by G.S. 158-12.
- (11) Fire Protection. — To provide fire protection services and fire prevention programs.
- (12) Forest Protection. — To provide forest management and protection programs.
- (13) Health. — To provide for the county's share of maintaining and administering services offered by or through the local health department.
- (14) Historic Preservation. — To undertake historic preservation programs and projects.
- (15) Hospitals. — To establish, support and maintain public hospitals and clinics, and other related health programs and facilities, or to aid any private, nonprofit hospital, clinic, related facility, or other health program or facility.

- (15a) Housing Rehabilitation. — To provide for housing rehabilitation programs authorized by G.S. 153A-376, including personnel costs related to the planning and administration of these programs. This subdivision applies only to counties with a population of 400,000 or more, according to the most recent decennial federal census.
- (15b) Housing. — To undertake housing programs for low- and moderate-income persons as provided in G.S. 153A-378.
- (16) Human Relations. — To undertake human relations programs.
- (16a) Industrial Development. — To provide for industrial development as authorized by G.S. 158-7.1.
- (17) Joint Undertakings. — To cooperate with any other county, city, or political subdivision in providing any of the functions, services, or activities listed in this subsection.
- (18) Law Enforcement. — To provide for the operation of the office of the sheriff of the county and for any other county law-enforcement agency not under the sheriff's jurisdiction.
- (19) Libraries. — To establish and maintain public libraries.
- (20) Mapping. — To provide for mapping the lands of the county.
- (21) Medical Examiner. — To provide for the county medical examiner or coroner.
- (22) Mental Health. — To provide for the county's share of the cost of maintaining and administering services offered by or through the area mental health, developmental disabilities, and substance abuse authority.
- (23) Open Space. — To acquire open space land and easements in accordance with Article 19, Part 4, Chapter 160A of the General Statutes.
- (24) Parking. — To provide off-street lots and garages for the parking and storage of motor vehicles.
- (25) Parks and Recreation. — To establish, support and maintain public parks and programs of supervised recreation.
- (26) Planning. — To provide for a program of planning and regulation of development in accordance with Article 18 of this Chapter and Article 19, Parts 3A and 6, of Chapter 160A of the General Statutes.
- (26a) Ports and Harbors. — To participate in programs with the North Carolina Ports Authority and provide for harbor masters.
- (27) Public Transportation. — To provide public transportation by rail, motor vehicle, or another means of conveyance other than a ferry, including any facility or equipment needed to provide the public transportation. This subdivision does not authorize a county to provide public roads in the county in violation of G.S. 136-51.
- (27a) Railway Corridor Preservation. — To acquire property for railroad corridor preservation as authorized by G.S. 160A-498.
- (28) Register of Deeds. — To provide for the operation of the office of the register of deeds of the county.
- (28a) Roads. — To provide for the maintenance of county roads as authorized by G.S. 153A-301(d).
- (29) Sewage. — To provide sewage collection and treatment services as defined in G.S. 153A-274(2).
- (30) Social Services. — To provide for the public welfare through the maintenance and administration of public assistance programs not required by Chapters 108A and 111 of the General Statutes, and by establishing and maintaining a county home.
- (31) Solid Waste. — To provide solid waste collection and disposal services, and to acquire and operate landfills.
- (31a) Stormwater. — To provide structural and natural stormwater and drainage systems of all types.

- (32) Surveyor. — To provide for a county surveyor.
- (33) Veterans' Service Officer. — To provide for the county's share of the cost of services offered by or through the county veterans' service officer.
- (34) Water. — To provide water supply and distribution systems.
- (35) Watershed Improvement. — To undertake watershed improvement projects.
- (36) Water Resources. — To participate in federal water resources development projects.
- (37) Armories. — To supplement available State or federal funds to be used for the construction (including the acquisition of land), enlargement or repair of armory facilities for the North Carolina national guard.

(d) With an approving vote of the people, any county may levy property taxes for any purpose for which the county is authorized by law to appropriate money. Any property tax levy approved by a vote of the people shall not be counted for purposes of the rate limitation imposed in subsection (c).

The county commissioners may call a referendum on approval of a property tax levy. The referendum may be held at the same time as any other referendum or election, but may not be otherwise held within the period of time beginning 30 days before and ending 10 days after any other referendum or election to be held in the county and already validly called or scheduled by law at the time the tax referendum is called. The referendum shall be conducted by the county board of elections. The clerk to the board of commissioners shall publish a notice of the referendum at least twice. The first publication shall be not less than 14 days and the second publication not less than seven days before the last day on which voters may register for the referendum. The notice shall state the date of the referendum, the purpose for which it is being held, and a statement as to the last day for registration for the referendum under the election laws then in effect.

The proposition submitted to the voters shall be substantially in one of the following forms:

- (1) Shall _____ County be authorized to levy annually a property tax at a rate not in excess of _____ cents on the one hundred dollars ($100.00) value of property subject to taxation for the purpose of _____?
- (2) Shall _____ County be authorized to levy annually a property tax at a rate not in excess of that which will produce $ _____ for the purpose of _____?
- (3) Shall _____ County be authorized to levy annually a property tax without restriction as to rate or amount for the purpose of _____?

If a majority of those participating in the referendum approve the proposition, the board of commissioners may proceed to levy annually a property tax within the limitations (if any) described in the proposition.

The board of elections shall canvass the referendum and certify the results to the board of commissioners. The board of commissioners shall then certify and declare the result of the referendum and shall publish a statement of the result once, with the following statement appended: "Any action or proceeding challenging the regularity or validity of this tax referendum must be begun within 30 days after (date of publication)." The statement of results shall be filed in the clerk's office and inserted in the minutes of the board.

Any action or proceeding in any court challenging the regularity or validity of a tax referendum must be begun within 30 days after the publication of the results of the referendum. After the expiration of this period of limitation, no right of action or defense based upon the invalidity of or any irregularity in the referendum shall be asserted, nor shall the validity of the referendum be open to question in any court upon any ground whatever, except in an action or proceeding begun within the period of limitation prescribed herein.

Except for supplemental school taxes and except for tax referendums on functions not included in subsection (c) of this section, any referendum held before July 1, 1973, on the levy of property taxes is not valid for the purposes of this subsection. Counties in which such referendums have been held may support programs formerly supported by voted property taxes within the general rate limitation set out in subsection (c) at any appropriate level and are not subject to the former voted rate limitation.

(e) With an approving vote of the people, any county may increase the property tax rate limitation imposed in subsection (c) and may call a referendum for that purpose. The referendum may be held at the same time as any other referendum or election, but may not be otherwise held within the period of time beginning 30 days before and ending 30 days after any other referendum or election. The referendum shall be conducted by the county board of elections.

The proposition submitted to the voters shall be substantially in the following form: "Shall the property tax rate limitation applicable to _____ County be increased from _____ on the one hundred dollars ($100.00) value of property subject to taxation to _____ on the one hundred dollars ($100.00) value of property subject to taxation?"

If a majority of those participating in the referendum approve the proposition, the rate limitation imposed in subsection (c) shall be increased for the county.

(f) With respect to any of the categories listed in subsections (b) and (c) of this section, the county may provide the necessary personnel, land, buildings, equipment, supplies, and financial support from property tax revenues for the program, function, or service.

(g) This section does not authorize any county to undertake any program, function, joint undertaking, or service not otherwise authorized by law. It is intended only to authorize the levy of property taxes within the limitations set out herein to finance programs, functions, or services authorized by other portions of the General Statutes or by local acts. (1973, c. 803, s. 1; c. 822, s. 2; c. 963; c. 1446, s. 25; 1975, c. 734, s. 17; 1977, c. 148, s. 5; c. 834, s. 3; 1979, c. 619, s. 4; 1981, c. 66, s. 2; c. 562, s. 11; c. 692, s. 1; 1983, c. 511, ss. 1, 2; 1985, c. 589, s. 57; 1987, c. 45, s. 2; c. 697, s. 2; 1989, c. 600, s. 5; c. 625, s. 25; c. 643, s. 1; 1989 (Reg. Local Modification. — Gaston: 1987 (Reg. Sess., 1988), c. 897, s. 6(c); Mecklenburg: 1987 (Reg. Sess., 1988), c. 897, s. 6(c).

Editor's Note. — The above section was enacted as § 153-65 by Session Laws 1973, c. 803, s. 1. As directed by Session Laws 1973, c. 822, s. 2, it has been substituted for § 153A-149, as enacted by Session Laws 1973, c. 822, s. 1.

Subdivision (c)(27a) was originally codified as subdivision (c)(38); it was recodified to facilitate alphabetization.

Part 3A of Article 19 of Chapter 160A, referred to in subdivision (c)(26) of this section, was repealed by Session Laws 1989, c. 706. See now Part 3C.

The introductory language of Session Laws 1997-502, s. 6, read: "G.S. 153A-149(13) reads as rewritten"; however, the amendment has been made to subdivision (c)(13), as the apparently intended subdivision.

Session Laws 1999-366, s. 1, provides: "The General Assembly finds and declares that the purpose of this act is to provide authority for counties in North Carolina to provide funds for residential housing construction, new or rehabilitated, and to provide for the sale or rental of housing to persons and families of low and moderate income. The General Assembly finds and declares that there exists in counties in the State a serious shortage of decent, safe, and sanitary residential housing available at low prices or rentals to persons and families of low and moderate income. This shortage is inimical to the health, safety, welfare, and prosperity of all residents of the State and to the sound growth of North Carolina communities."

CASE NOTES

Editor's Note. — Most of the cases cited below were decided under corresponding sections of former law.

Where a statute authorizing the levy of a tax beyond the constitutional limit for a special purpose is intra vires, the taxes collected beyond the requirements of the special purpose may be turned into the general fund and used for general purposes; but where the act authorizes the levy partly for a "special purpose" and partly for general purposes it is ultra vires, and no part of the levy can be collected. Williams v. Commissioners of Craven County, 119 N.C. 520, 26 S.E. 150 (1896).

Levy to Fund Medically Unnecessary Abortions Is Ultra Vires and Void. — Section 153A-255 does not give counties the underlying authority to levy taxes pursuant to subdivision (c)(30) of this section to fund medically unnecessary abortions, since the authority conferred upon counties to provide social services pursuant to § 153A-255 is limited to providing the poor with the basic necessities of life, and a medically unnecessary abortion is not a basic necessity of life; therefore, a county exceeds its statutorily conferred power in levying a tax to fund medically unnecessary abortions, and the tax levy is ultra vires and void. Stam v. State, 302 N.C. 357, 275 S.E.2d 439 (1981).

Appropriation for Dyslexia School Unauthorized. — An appropriation by the Gaston County Board of Commissioners to the Dyslexia School of North Carolina was not authorized by either subdivision (c)(30) of this section or § 153A-255. Hughey v. Cloninger, 297 N.C. 86, 253 S.E.2d 898 (1979).

General taxes for county purposes are leviable only once a year. Bradshaw v. Board of Comm'rs, 92 N.C. 278 (1885).

Tax Rate Variable. — There is no constitutional requirement that the tax rate for county purposes shall be the same everywhere. It varies in the different counties, and may vary in different townships, parts of townships, districts, towns, and cities in the same county. Jones v. Commissioners of Stokes County, 143 N.C. 59, 55 S.E. 427 (1906).

Assessment of Property Subject to Taxation. — All of the property, including solvent credits, in the State, shall be assessed and taxed at its value in money. Caldwell Land & Lumber Co. v. Smith, 146 N.C. 199, 59 S.E. 653 (1907).

The legislature has the power to provide for the listing, assessment, and taxing of personal property omitted to be listed by the owner as the law requires. And there is no reason why it may not be taxed for five or more preceding years if it has escaped taxation so long. Kyle v. Mayor & Comm'rs, 75 N.C. 445 (1876); North Carolina R.R. v. Commissioners of Alamance, 82 N.C. 260 (1880); City of Wilmington v. Cronly, 122 N.C. 388, 30 S.E. 9 (1898); Caldwell Land & Lumber Co. v. Smith, 146 N.C. 199, 59 S.E. 653 (1907).

An assessment for the building of a stock law fence is not a tax which requires a referendum vote by the people. Tripp v. Commissioners of Pitt County, 158 N.C. 180, 73 S.E. 896 (1912).

Land of Schools and Railroads Held Exempt from Special Tax. — An act which provided for the construction of a fence to enclose the whole of several districts and that the commissioners should levy a special tax on all the real estate in the district which was taxable by the State and county did not embrace the real estate of schools and railroads, which was not taxable for general purposes. Bradshaw v. Board of Comm'rs, 92 N.C. 278 (1885).

Application of Tax Raised for One Purpose to Another Purpose. — There is no statute nor any rule of law or of public policy which prevents county commissioners from applying a tax raised professedly for one purpose to any other legitimate purpose. There may, perhaps, be an exception where a tax is levied by a special authority from the legislature, or upon the vote of the people, which would not otherwise be lawful. Long v. Commissioners of Richmond County, 76 N.C. 273 (1877).

Funds Impressed with a Trust. — Where taxes are levied and collected to pay coupons on bonds issued by a county, the funds so collected are impressed with a trust for the benefit of the owners of the coupons. Board of Comm'rs v. Tollman, 145 F. 753 (4th Cir. 1906).

Tax Necessary to Maintain Schools for Required Term. — When it becomes necessary, the county commissioners are required to levy a tax sufficient to maintain the county schools for the required term each year. Former constitutional limitation did not apply to defeat such a levy. Collie v. Commissioners of Franklin County, 145 N.C. 170, 59 S.E. 44 (1907), expressly overruling Barksdale v. Commissioners of Sampson County, 93 N.C. 472 (1885), and Board of Educ. v. Board of Comm'rs, 111 N.C. 578, 16 S.E. 621 (1892); Southern Ry. v. Cherokee County, 177 N.C. 86, 97 S.E. 758 (1919).

Tax to Erect and Maintain Courthouse.

— Power of limited taxation for the purpose of erecting and maintaining a county courthouse and its exercise is no invasion of the Bill of Rights. Lockhart v. Harrington, 8 N.C. 408 (1821).

Taxpayers cannot enjoin the levy of taxes necessary to pay the principal and interest on bonds issued for repairs to the courthouse. Harrell v. Board of Comm'rs, 206 N.C. 225, 173 S.E. 614 (1934).

Tax Levied According to Procedures in Machinery Act. — The legislature authorized defendant and other counties to levy property taxes, including taxes on plaintiff's system property, according to the procedures in the Machinery Act (Chapter 105, Subchapter II). North Carolina E. Mun. Power v. Wake County, 100 N.C. App. 693, 398 S.E.2d 486 (1990), cert.

denied, 329 N.C. 270, 407 S.E.2d 838 (1991).

Resolution Correcting Record as to Purpose of Levy. — Resolutions of the board of county commissioners correcting records as to the purpose of tax levies will, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, be presumed bona fide. Atlantic Coast Line R.R. v. Duplin County, 226 N.C. 719, 40 S.E.2d 371 (1946).

Counties and County Commissioners Do Not Have Sovereign Immunity. — These powers and the many others enumerated in this Chapter show that a county and the county commissioners are not part of the State of North Carolina and they do not enjoy its sovereign immunity. Mearns v. Brunswick County, 615 F. Supp. 14 (E.D.N.C. 1985).

Applied in Gray v. Laws, 51 F.3d 426 (4th Cir. 1995).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL

Local School Administrative Unit May Levy Taxes at Local Level. — The legislature may by statute, consistently with the Constitution, provide that a local school administrative unit may levy taxes at the local level but such taxing authority must be conferred either by a general law, applicable statewide, or by local act subject to a vote of those persons affected. See opinion of Attorney General to Mr. John B. Dunn, Superintendent, Edenton-Chowan Schools, 60 N.C.A.G. 17 (1990).

§ 153A-150. Reserve for octennial reappraisal.

Before the beginning of the fiscal year immediately following the effective date of an octennial reappraisal of real property conducted as required by G.S. 105-286, the county budget officer shall present to the board of commissioners an eight-year budget for financing the cost of the next octennial reappraisal. The budget shall estimate the cost of the reappraisal and shall propose a plan for raising the necessary funds in eight annual installments during the next fiscal years, with all installments as nearly uniform as practicable. The board shall consider this budget, making any amendments to the budget it deems advisable, and shall adopt a resolution establishing a special reserve fund for the next octennial reappraisal. In the budget ordinance of the first fiscal year of the plan, the board of commissioners shall appropriate to the special reappraisal reserve fund the amount set out in the plan for the first year's installment. When the county budget for each succeeding fiscal year is in preparation, the board shall review the eight-year reappraisal budget with the budget officer and shall amend it, if necessary, so that it will reflect the probable cost at that time of the reappraisal and will produce the necessary funds at the end of the eight-year period. In the budget ordinance for each succeeding fiscal year, the board shall appropriate to the special reappraisal reserve fund the amount set out in the plan as due in that year.

Moneys appropriated to the special reappraisal reserve fund shall not be available or expended for any purpose other than the reappraisal of real property required by G.S. 105-286, except that the funds may be deposited at interest or invested as permitted by G.S. 159-30. If there is a fund balance in the reserve fund following payment for the required reappraisal, it shall be retained in the fund for use in financing the next required reappraisal.

Within 10 days after the adoption of each annual budget ordinance, the county finance officer shall report to the Department of Revenue, on forms to be supplied by the Department, the terms of the county's eight-year reappraisal budget, the current condition of the special reappraisal reserve fund, and the amount appropriated to the reserve fund in the current fiscal year. (1959, c. 704, s. 6; 1971, c. 806, s. 4; c. 931, s. 2; 1973, c. 476, s. 193; c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 153A-151. Sales tax.

A county may levy a local sales and use tax under the rules and according to the procedures prescribed by the Local Government Sales and Use Tax Act (Chapter 105, Subchapter VIII). (1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 153A-152. Privilege license taxes.

(a) Authority. — A county may levy privilege license taxes on trades, occupations, professions, businesses, and franchises to the extent authorized by Article 2 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes and any other acts of the General Assembly. A county may levy privilege license taxes to the extent formerly authorized by the following sections of Article 2 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes before they were repealed:

- G.S. 105-50 Pawnbrokers.
- G.S. 105-53 Peddlers, itinerant merchants, and specialty market operators.
- G.S. 105-55 Installing elevators and automatic sprinkler systems.
- G.S. 105-58 Fortune tellers, palmists, etc.
- G.S. 105-65 Music machines.
- G.S. 105-66.1 Electronic video games.
- G.S. 105-80 Firearms dealers and dealers in other weapons.
- G.S. 105-89 Automobiles, wholesale supply dealers and service stations.
- G.S. 105-89.1 Motorcycle dealers.
- G.S. 105-90 Emigrant and employment agents.
- G.S. 105-102.5 General business license.

(b) Telecommunications Restriction. — A county may not impose a license, franchise, or privilege tax on a company taxed under G.S. 105-164.4(a) (4c). (1973, c. 822, s. 1; 1996, 2nd Ex. Sess., c. 14, s. 22; 2001-430, s. 16.)

Effect of Amendments. — Session Laws 2001-430, s. 16, effective January 1, 2002, and applicable to taxable services reflected on bills dated on or after January 1, 2002, inserted the subsection (a) designation and subsection catchline; and added subsection (b).

CASE NOTES

Editor's Note. — The cases cited below were decided under former § 105-90.

Constitutionality of Tax on Emigrant Agent. — A former statute imposing a tax “on every emigrant agent or person engaged in procuring laborers to accept employment in another state” was held constitutional. State v. Hunt, 129 N.C. 686, 40 S.E. 216, 85 Am. St. R. 758 (1901).

Valid Exercise of Taxing Power. — A former statute taxing persons engaged in the business of procuring laborers for employment outside the State was held a valid exercise of the legislative power to tax trades and professions and was not a police regulation. State v. Roberson, 136 N.C. 587, 48 S.E. 595 (1904). See also State v. Hunt, 129 N.C. 686, 40 S.E. 216, 85 Am. St. R. 758 (1901); Carr v. Commissioners of Duplin County, 136 N.C. 125, 48 S.E. 597 (1904); Lane v. Commissioners of Rowan County, 139 N.C. 443, 52 S.E. 140 (1905).

Statute Applied to Agents in Business of Hiring Laborers. — A former statute imposing a license tax upon “every emigrant agent or person engaged in procuring laborers for employment out of this State” applied to agents who made it their business to hire laborers in this State to be sent beyond the limits of the State to be employed by others. Carr v. Commissioners of Duplin County, 136 N.C. 125, 48 S.E. 597 (1904).

Employment of Laborers to Work for Hirer. — Public Laws 1903, c. 247, s. 74, imposing a license tax upon “every emigrant agent or person engaged in procuring laborers for employment out of this State” was held not to apply to a person who came into this State and employed laborers to work for him in another state. Carr v. Commissioners of Duplin County, 136 N.C. 125, 48 S.E. 597 (1904).

Officer of foreign corporation coming into this State and hiring hands for employment by the corporation in another state was not “engaged in the business of hiring hands,” etc., and was held liable for the tax of emigrant agents, under a former statute. Lane v. Commissioners of Rowan County, 139

N.C. 443, 52 S.E. 140 (1905).

Amount of Tax Not Reviewable. — A tax on the business of procuring laborers for employment outside the State being an exercise of the power of the State to levy taxes, the amount is not reviewable by the courts. When the Constitution confers upon the legislature the power to levy taxes, the amount of the tax to be levied is committed to that department of the government and not open to review by the judicial department. The Supreme Court may inquire into the question of power, but not as to the manner of its exercise. State v. Roberson, 136 N.C. 587, 48 S.E. 595 (1904).

Applied in State v. Moore, 113 N.C. 697, 18 S.E. 342 (1893); Cabarrus County v. City of Charlotte, 71 N.C. App. 192, 321 S.E.2d 476 (1984).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL

Municipality may not levy privilege license tax on employment agency when the only contact is by telephone into the municipality. See opinion of Attorney General to Mr. John H. McMurray, Morgantown City Attorney, 41 N.C.A.G. 82 (1970).

§ 153A-152.1. Privilege license tax on low-level radioactive and hazardous waste facilities.

(a) Counties in which hazardous waste facilities as defined in G.S. 130A-290 or low-level radioactive waste facilities as defined in G.S. 104E-5(9b) are located may levy an annual privilege license tax on persons or firms operating such facilities only in accordance with this section.

(b) The rate or rates of a tax levied under authority of this section shall be in an amount calculated to compensate the county for the additional costs incurred by it from having a hazardous waste facility or a low-level radioactive waste facility located in its jurisdiction to the extent to which compensation for such costs is not otherwise provided, which costs may include the loss of ad valorem property tax revenues from the property on which a facility is located, the cost of providing any additional emergency services, the cost of monitoring air, surface water, groundwater, and other environmental media to the extent other monitoring data is not available, and other costs the county establishes as being associated with the facilities and for which it is not otherwise compensated.

(c) Any person or firm taxed pursuant to this section may appeal the tax rate to the Board, but shall pay the tax when due, subject to a refund when the appeal is resolved by the Board or in the courts. (1981, c. 704, s. 16; 1985, c. 462, s. 11; 1987, c. 850, s. 21; 1989, c. 168, s. 34.)

Editor’s Note. — Session Laws 1987 (Reg. Sess., 1988), c. 993, s. 23, repealed Session Laws 1987, c. 850, s. 27(a), which provided that

c. 850 should not be construed as a revenue bill within the meaning of N.C. Const., Art. II, § 23.

§ 153A-153. Animal tax.

A county may levy an annual license tax on the privilege of keeping dogs and other pets within the county. (1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

CASE NOTES

Applied in Development Assocs. v. Wake County Bd. of Adjustment, 48 N.C. App. 541, 269 S.E.2d 700 (1980).

§ 153A-154. Cable television franchise tax.

A county may levy an annual franchise tax on cable television companies franchised under G.S. 153A-137. (1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 153A-154.1. Uniform penalties for local meals taxes.

(a) Penalties. — Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the civil and criminal penalties that apply to State sales and use taxes under Chapter 105 of the General Statutes apply to local meals taxes. The governing board of a taxing county has the same authority to waive the penalties for a local meals tax that the Secretary of Revenue has to waive the penalties for State sales and use taxes.

(b) Scope. — This section applies to every county authorized by the General Assembly to levy a meals tax. As used in this section, the term “meals tax” means a tax on prepared food and drink. (2001-264, s. 1.)

Editor’s Note. — Session Laws 2001-264, s. 4, made this section effective October 1, 2001. Session Laws 2001-264, s. 3, provides: “Any provision of a local act that conflicts with G.S. 153A-154.1 or G.S. 160A-214.1 is repealed.”

§ 153A-155. Uniform provisions for room occupancy taxes.

(a) Scope. — This section applies only to counties the General Assembly has authorized to levy room occupancy taxes.

(b) Levy. — A room occupancy tax may be levied only by resolution, after not less than 10 days’ public notice and after a public hearing held pursuant thereto. A room occupancy tax shall become effective on the date specified in the resolution levying the tax. That date must be the first day of a calendar month, however, and may not be earlier than the first day of the second month after the date the resolution is adopted.

(c) Collection. — Every operator of a business subject to a room occupancy tax shall, on and after the effective date of the levy of the tax, collect the tax. The tax shall be collected as part of the charge for furnishing a taxable accommodation. The tax shall be stated and charged separately from the sales records and shall be paid by the purchaser to the operator of the business as trustee for and on account of the taxing county. The tax shall be added to the sales price and shall be passed on to the purchaser instead of being borne by the operator of the business. The taxing county shall design, print, and furnish to all appropriate businesses and persons in the county the necessary forms for filing returns and instructions to ensure the full collection of the tax. An operator of a business who collects a room occupancy tax may deduct from the amount remitted to the taxing county a discount equal to the discount the State allows the operator for State sales and use tax.

(d) Administration. — The taxing county shall administer a room occupancy tax it levies. A room occupancy tax is due and payable to the county finance officer in monthly installments on or before the 15th day of the month following the month in which the tax accrues. Every person, firm, corporation, or association liable for the tax shall, on or before the 15th day of each month, prepare and render a return on a form prescribed by the taxing county. The return shall state the total gross receipts derived in the preceding month from rentals upon which the tax is levied. A room occupancy tax return filed with the county finance officer is not a public record and may not be disclosed except in accordance with G.S. 153A-148.1 or G.S. 160A-208.1.

(e) Penalties. — A person, firm, corporation, or association who fails or refuses to file a room occupancy tax return or pay a room occupancy tax as required by law is subject to the civil and criminal penalties set by G.S. 105-236 for failure to pay or file a return for State sales and use taxes. The governing board of the taxing county has the same authority to waive the penalties for a room occupancy tax that the Secretary of Revenue has to waive the penalties for State sales and use taxes.

(f) Repeal or Reduction. — A room occupancy tax levied by a county may be repealed or reduced by a resolution adopted by the governing body of the county. Repeal or reduction of a room occupancy tax shall become effective on the first day of a month and may not become effective until the end of the fiscal year in which the resolution was adopted. Repeal or reduction of a room occupancy tax does not affect a liability for a tax that was attached before the effective date of the repeal or reduction, nor does it affect a right to a refund of a tax that accrued before the effective date of the repeal or reduction.

(g) This section applies only to Anson, Brunswick, Buncombe, Cabarrus, Carteret, Craven, Cumberland, Currituck, Dare, Davie, Durham, Granville, Madison, Montgomery, Nash, Pender, Person, Randolph, Richmond, Rowan, Scotland, Stanly, Transylvania, Tyrrell, Vance, and Washington Counties, and to the Township of Averasboro in Harnett County. (1997-102, s. 3; 1997-255, s. 2; 1997-342, s. 2; 1997-364, s. 3; 1997-410, s. 6; 1998-14, s. 2; 1999-155, s. 2; 1999-205, s. 2; 1999-286, s. 2; 2000-103, s. 5; 2001-162, s. 2; 2001-305, s. 2; 2001-321, s. 3; 2001-381, s. 10; 2001-434, s. 1; 2001-439, s. 18.2; 2001-468, s. 3; 2001-480, s. 14; 2001-484, s. 2.)

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1997-102, s. 3 enacted this section and made it effective to Madison County only. Session Laws 1997-255, s. 2 made this section applicable to Nash County. Session Laws 1997-342, s. 2 made this section applicable to Randolph County. Session Laws 1997-364, s. 3 made this section applicable to Brunswick and Person Counties. Session Laws 1997-410, s. 6 made this section applicable to Avery and Scotland Counties. Session Laws 1998-14, s. 2 made this section applicable to Davie County. Session Laws 1999-155, s. 2 made this section applicable to Currituck County. Session Laws 1999-205, s. 2 made this section applicable to Transylvania County. Session Laws 1999-286, s. 2 made this section applicable to Craven County. This section has been codified at the direction of the Revisor of Statutes.

Session Laws 2001-321, s. 2, amended this section by adding "Vance" preceding "Counties" at the end of subsection (g). However, Session Laws 2001-321, s. 3 provided that if House Bill 757 of the 2001 Session became law, then instead of the amendment by s. 2, subsection (g) would be amended by inserting "Vance" preceding "and Washington." House Bill 757 was enacted as Session Laws 2001-305.

Session Laws 2001-480, s. 6(d), effective December 5, 2001, except that any taxes levied under this section become effective March 1, 2002, provides that G.S. 153A-155(a) and G.S. 153A-155(b) apply to Durham County.

Session Laws 2001-480, s. 6(e), provides that Part III of the act [which inserted "Durham" in subsection (g)] is effective only if Durham County has, prior to February 1, 2002, levied all of the taxes authorized by 6(a), 6(b), and 6(c) of the act.

Tourism Promotion and Development. — Session Laws 2001-162, 2001-305, 2001-321, 2001-365, 2001-381, 2001-434, 2001-439, 2001-480, and 2001-484 authorize the affected localities (the counties of Anson, Avery, Buncombe, Dare, Durham, Cabarrus, Carteret, Cumberland, Montgomery, Pender, Richmond, Rowan, Stanly, Washington and Vance, the Cities of Durham, Gastonia, Kings Mountain, Lincolnton, Monroe, and North Topsail Beach, the towns of Beech Mountain, Carrboro, Selma, Smithfield, Wilkesboro and Averasboro Township in Harnett County) to levy additional occupancy taxes for tourism promotion and development.

Effect of Amendments. — Session Laws 2000-103, s. 5, effective October 1, 2000, and applicable to taxes collected on or after that date, added "Granville" to the list of counties in subsection (g).

Session Laws 2001-162, s. 2, effective June 4, 2001, added "Buncombe" to the list of counties in subsection (g).

Session Laws 2001-305, s. 2, effective July 24, 2001, inserted "Washington" in the list of counties in subsection (g).

Session Laws 2001-321, s. 3, effective July 30, 2001, inserted "Vance" in the list of counties in subsection (g).

Session Laws 2001-381, s. 10, effective August 20, 2001, added "Carteret" to subsection (g).

Session Laws 2001-434, s. 1, effective October 11, 2001, inserted "Anson," "Montgomery," and "Stanly" in subsection (g).

Session Laws 2001-439, s. 18.2, effective October 15, 2001, added "Cabarrus," "Dare," "Pender," "Richmond," "Rowan" and "the Township of Averagesboro in Harnett County" in subsection (g).

Session Laws 2001-468, s. 3, effective November 27, 2001, added Tyrrell to the list of counties in subsection (g).

Session Law 2001-480, s. 14, added "Durham" to subsection (g). See editor's note for effective date.

Session Laws 2001-484, s. 2, effective December 6, 2001, in subsection (g), deleted "Avery," following "Anson," and added "Cumberland."

§ 153A-156. Gross receipts tax on short-term leases or rentals.

(a) As a substitute for and in replacement of the ad valorem tax, which is excluded by G.S. 105-275(42), a county may levy a gross receipts tax on the gross receipts from the short-term lease or rental of vehicles at retail to the general public. The tax rate shall not exceed one and one-half percent (1.5%) of the gross receipts from such short-term leases or rentals.

(b) If a county enacts the substitute and replacement gross receipts tax pursuant to this section, any entity required to collect the tax shall include a provision in each retail short-term lease or rental agreement noting that the percentage amount enacted by the county of the total lease or rental price, excluding highway use tax, is being charged as a tax on gross receipts. For purposes of this section, the transaction giving rise to the tax shall be deemed to have occurred at the location of the entity from which the customer takes delivery of the vehicle. The tax shall be collected at the time of lease or rental and placed in a segregated account until remitted to the county.

(c) The collection and use of taxes under this section are not subject to highway use tax and are not included in the gross receipts of the entity. The proceeds collected under this section belong to the county and are not subject to creditor liens against the entity.

(d) A tax levied under this section shall be collected by the county but otherwise administered in the same manner as the tax levied under G.S. 105-164.4(a)(2).

(e) The following definitions apply in this section:

(1) Short-term lease or rental. — Defined in G.S. 105-187.1(4).

(2) Vehicle. — Any of the following:

- a. A motor vehicle of the passenger type, including a passenger van, minivan, or sport utility vehicle.
- b. A motor vehicle of the cargo type, including cargo van, pickup truck, or truck with a gross vehicle weight of 26,000 pounds or less used predominantly in the transportation of property for other than commercial freight and that does not require the operator to possess a commercial drivers license.
- c. A trailer or semitrailer with a gross vehicle weight of 6,000 pounds or less.

(f) The penalties and remedies that apply to local sales and use taxes levied under Subchapter VIII of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes apply to a tax levied under this section. The county board of commissioners may exercise any power the Secretary of Revenue may exercise in collecting local sales and use taxes. (2000-2, s. 2; 2000-140, s. 75(b).)

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 2000-2, s. 5, made this section effective July 1, 2000.

Session Laws 2000-2, s. 4, directs the Fiscal Research Division of the General Assembly to compare the revenue generated statewide by the substitute and replacement gross receipts tax authorized by the act with the revenue that would have been generated by an ad valorem tax and to report its findings to the 2003 Session of the 2003-2004 General Assembly.

The definitions in subsection (e) have been set out in alphabetical order at the direction of the Revisor of Statutes.

Effect of Amendments. — Session Laws 2000-140, s. 75(b), effective July 1, 2000, substituted "G.S. 105-275(42)" for "G.S. 105-275(41)" in subsection (a); substituted "highway use" for "sales" in subsections (b) and (c); deleted "private" preceding "passenger type" in subdivision (e)(2)a; and substituted "Chapter 105 of the General Statutes" for "this Chapter" in subsection (f).

County Property.

Part 1. Acquisition of Property.

§ 153A-157: Recodified as § 153A-158.1(a) by Session Laws 1995, c. 17, s. 15(a), effective March 23, 1995.

Editor's Note. — This section was recodified by Session Laws 1995, c. 17, s. 15(a) as § 153A-158.1(a).

Session Laws 1989 (Reg. Sess., 1990), c. 885, s. 1, effective July 10, 1990, as amended by Session Laws 1991 (Reg. Sess., 1992), c. 832, s.

1, effective July 2, 1992; c. 848, s. 1, effective July 6, 1992; c. 865, s. 1, effective July 7, 1992; and c. 1001, s. 1, effective July 21, 1992, had been codified as this section at the direction of the Revisor of Statutes.

§ 153A-158. Power to acquire property.

A county may acquire, by gift, grant, devise, bequest, exchange, purchase, lease, or any other lawful method, the fee or any lesser interest in real or personal property for use by the county or any department, board, commission, or agency of the county. In exercising the power of eminent domain a county shall use the procedures of Chapter 40A. (1868, c. 20, ss. 3, 8; 1879, c. 144, s. 1; Code, ss. 704, 707; Rev., ss. 1310, 1318; C.S., ss. 1291, 1297; 1973, c. 822, s. 1; 1981, c. 919, s. 21; 1995, c. 17, s. 14.)

Cross References. — As to counties in which the consent of the board of commissioners is required before land may be condemned or acquired by a local governmental unit outside the county, see § 153A-15.

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1999-115, s. 4, provides that s. 3, which repealed local modifications to this section, becomes effective

January 1, 2000, and shall not be construed to alter any agreements entered into before that date.

CASE NOTES

Editor's Note. — Many of the cases cited below were decided under corresponding sections of former law.

Purchase and Gift of Property Improper. — County exceeded its statutory authority where it purchased land and gave it to the State as an enticement for the building of a State prison. Carter v. Stanly County, 125 N.C.

App. 628, 482 S.E.2d 9 (1997), cert. denied, 346 N.C. 276, 487 S.E.2d 540 (1997).

The building and repairing of a courthouse by the county is a part of its necessary expense. Burgin v. Smith, 151 N.C. 561, 66 S.E. 607 (1909); Jackson v. Board of County Comm'rs, 171 N.C. 379, 88 S.E. 521 (1916).

As Is a Jail. — A jail is a necessary county expense, and in the absence of statutory restrictions, the county commissioners may pledge the credit of the county in order to obtain one. Haskett v. Tyrrell County, 152 N.C. 714, 68 S.E. 202 (1910).

Courts cannot substitute their judgment for that of the county officials honestly and fairly exercised. For a court to enjoin a proposed expenditure, there must be allegation and proof that the county officials acted in wanton disregard of public good. Barbour v. Carteret County, 255 N.C. 177, 120 S.E.2d 448 (1961).

Effect of Limit on Expense Imposed by Legislature. — When a special act of the legislature has imposed a limit on the expense of a county to be incurred in improving its courthouse, the commissioners cannot avoid the will of the legislature as therein declared by setting up a general power of contracting debts for necessary expenses, limited only by the constitutional limitation of taxation, and thus under an entire contract made beforehand expend a larger amount for the purpose than that prescribed by the special act. Burgin v. Smith, 151 N.C. 561, 66 S.E. 607 (1909).

Authority to Levy Special Tax. — While the county commissioners are clothed with the necessary power to erect and repair county buildings, they have no power to levy a special tax out of which to pay the interest and create a sinking fund, unless they have the special authority of the General Assembly. Harrell v.

Board of Comm'rs, 206 N.C. 225, 173 S.E. 614 (1934), holding that the county had such authority under former §§ 153-1, 153-9(8) and 153-77.

County Bound by Conditions Expressed in Conveyance. — Where a county, owning a site upon which to build its courthouse, is authorized by statute to buy, sell, and exchange real estate surrounding it upon such terms and conditions as it may deem just and proper, and for the best interest of the county, and in pursuance of this authority has acquired a conveyance of lands from adjoining owners upon condition that they shall be used as a public square and kept open for that purpose, etc., regardless of whether such conditions are called conditions subsequent or otherwise they are within the purview of the authority conferred upon the county; and coming within the intent of the parties as expressed in the conveyance, and forming a material part of the consideration for the lands, they are valid and binding upon the county. Guilford County v. Porter, 167 N.C. 366, 83 S.E. 564 (1914).

Commissioners Not Individually Liable for Failure to Take Contractor's Bond. — County commissioners are not individually liable for the failure of their ministerial duty to take the bond required from a contractor for the erection of a county home, such not having been expressly declared; and the remedy is by indictment. Fore v. Feimster, 171 N.C. 551, 88 S.E. 977 (1916).

§ 153A-158.1. Acquisition and improvement of school property in certain counties.

(a) Acquisition by County. — A county may acquire, by any lawful method, any interest in real or personal property for use by a school administrative unit within the county. In exercising the power of eminent domain a county shall use the procedures of Chapter 40A. The county shall use its authority under this subsection to acquire property for use by a school administrative unit within the county only upon the request of the board of education of that school administrative unit and after a public hearing.

(b) Construction or Improvement by County. — A county may construct, equip, expand, improve, renovate, or otherwise make available property for use by a school administrative unit within the county. The local board of education shall be involved in the design, construction, equipping, expansion, improvement, or renovation of the property to the same extent as if the local board owned the property.

(c) Lease or Sale by Board of Education. — Notwithstanding the provisions of G.S. 115C-518 and G.S. 160A-274, a local board of education may, in connection with additions, improvements, renovations, or repairs to all or part of any of its property, lease or sell the property to the board of commissioners of the county in which the property is located for any price negotiated between the two boards.

(d) Board of Education May Contract for Construction. — Notwithstanding the provisions of G.S. 115C-40 and G.S. 115C-521, a local board of education may enter into contracts for the erection of school buildings upon sites owned in fee simple by one or more counties in which the local school administrative unit is located.

(e) Scope. — This section applies to Alamance, Alexander, Alleghany, Anson, Ashe, Avery, Bertie, Bladen, Brunswick, Burke, Cabarrus, Caldwell, Camden, Carteret, Catawba, Chatham, Cherokee, Chowan, Clay, Columbus, Craven, Cumberland, Currituck, Dare, Davidson, Davie, Duplin, Durham, Edgecombe, Forsyth, Franklin, Gaston, Gates, Graham, Greene, Guilford, Halifax, Harnett, Haywood, Henderson, Hoke, Hyde, Iredell, Jackson, Johnston, Jones, Lee, Lenoir, Lincoln, Macon, Madison, Martin, McDowell, Mecklenburg, Mitchell, Montgomery, Moore, Nash, New Hanover, Onslow, Orange, Pamlico, Pasquotank, Pender, Perquimans, Person, Pitt, Randolph, Richmond, Robeson, Rockingham, Rowan, Rutherford, Sampson, Scotland, Stanly, Stokes, Surry, Transylvania, Union, Vance, Wake, Watauga, Wayne, Wilkes, Wilson, and Yadkin Counties. (Reg. Sess., 1994), c. 614; Union: 1995, c. 363, s. 1.

Editor's Note. — At the direction of the Revisor of Statutes, local modifications to § 153A-157 have been enacted as this section. Subsection (a) of this section is former § 153A-157 as recodified by Session Laws 1995, c. 17, s. 15(a). The historical citation from the former section has been added to this section as recodified.

Effect of Amendments. — Session Laws 2001-76, s. 1, effective May 15, 2001, amended subsection (e) to include Anson, Craven, McDowell, Montgomery and Pamlico in the list of counties to which this section is applicable.

Session Laws 2001-427, s. 7(a), effective September 28, 2001, in this section as amended by Session Laws 2001-76, in subsection (e), inserted in their respective alphabetical order the following counties: Bertie, Chatham, Clay, Rutherford, Transylvania and Yadkin.

§ 153A-158.2. Acquisition and improvement of community college property.

(a) Acquisition. — A county may acquire, by any lawful method, any interest in real or personal property for use by a community college within the county. In exercising the power of eminent domain for real property, a county shall use the procedures of Chapter 40A of the General Statutes.

(b) Construction; Disposition. — A county may construct, equip, expand, improve, renovate, repair, or otherwise make available property for use by a community college within the county and may lease, sell, or otherwise dispose of property for use by a community college within the county for any price and on any terms negotiated by the board of county commissioners and the board of trustees of the community college.

(c) Public Hearing. — A county may use its authority under this section to acquire an interest in real or personal property for use by a community college within the county only upon request of the board of trustees of the community college for which property is to be made available. The board of county commissioners shall hold a public hearing prior to final action. A notice of the public hearing shall be published at least once at least 10 days before the date fixed for the hearing. (1999-115, s. 1.)

Cross References. — For present provisions as to eminent domain, see Chapter 40A.

§ 153A-163. Acquisition of property at a judicial sale, execution sale, or sale pursuant to a power of sale; disposition of such property.

A county, city, or other unit of local government may purchase real property at a judicial sale, an execution sale, or a sale made pursuant to a power of sale, to secure a debt due the county, city, or other unit. The purchasing government may sell any property so acquired by private sale for not less than the amount of its bid or may sell or exchange the property for any amount according to the procedures prescribed by Chapter 160A, Article 12. (1868, c. 20, s. 8; 1879, c. 144, s. 1; Code, s. 707; Rev., s. 1318; C.S., s. 1297; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

Two or more counties, cities, other units of local government (including local boards of education), or any combination of such governments may jointly acquire or construct public buildings to house offices, departments, bureaus, agencies, or facilities of each government. The governments may acquire any land necessary for a joint building or may use land already held by one of the governments.

In exercising the powers granted by this section, the governments shall proceed according to the procedures and provisions of Chapter 160A, Article 20, Part 1. (1965, c. 682, s. 1; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 153A-165. Leases.

A county may lease as lessee, with or without option to purchase, any real or personal property for any authorized public purpose. A lease of personal property with an option to purchase is subject to Chapter 143, Article 8. (1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§§ 153A-166 through 153A-168: Reserved for future codification purposes.

Part 2. Use of County Property.

§ 153A-169. Care and use of county property; sites of county buildings.

The board of commissioners shall supervise the maintenance, repair, and use of all county property. The board may issue orders and adopt by ordinance or resolution regulations concerning the use of county property, may designate and redesignate the location of any county department, office, or agency, and may designate and redesignate the site for any county building, including the courthouse. Before it may redesignate the site of the courthouse, the board of commissioners shall cause notice of its intention to do so to be published once at least four weeks before the meeting at which the redesignation is made. (1868, c. 20, ss. 3, 8; Code, ss. 704, 707; Rev., ss. 1310, 1318; C.S., ss. 1291, 1297; 1925, c. 229; 1927, c. 91, ss. 11, 13; 1957, c. 909, s. 1; 1961, c. 811; 1967, c. 581, s. 1; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

CASE NOTES

Editor's Note. — The cases cited below were decided under corresponding sections of former law.

Duties Involving Construction of Public Building Inherent in Office of County Commissioner. — County commissioners, in approving the design, the method of construction and the site for a public building and the amount to be paid for the site are performing duties inherent in their offices, expressly conferred by the legislature. Barbour v. Carteret County, 255 N.C. 177, 120 S.E.2d 448 (1961).

Repairing a courthouse is a necessary county expense. Burgin v. Smith, 151 N.C. 561, 66 S.E. 607 (1909).

Discretion of Commissioners with Respect to Repair or Erection of Courthouse or Jail. — It is within the sound discretion of the county commissioners to have the courthouse or jail of the county repaired or to erect new ones on the same sites as a necessary county expense, which will not be reviewed in the courts in the absence of mala fides; and should a bill of indictment be drawn by the solicitor, at the request of the judge holding the courts of the county, and a true bill be found by the grand jury thereon, it is open to the commissioners to set up any available defense they may have. Jackson v. Board of County Comm'rs, 171 N.C. 379, 88 S.E. 521 (1916).

As to extent of commissioners' responsibility with respect to a privy, see Threadgill v. Board of Comm'rs, 99 N.C. 352, 6 S.E. 189 (1888).

The site of a county building embraces only the space occupied by the building and such adjacent land as is reasonably required for the convenient use of the building. Brown v. Candler, 236 N.C. 576, 73 S.E.2d 550 (1952).

Location of Court House. — The Board of County Commissioners had authority under this section to redesignate the location of the county courthouse, where the new location was outside the boundaries designated by prior special acts of the General Assembly. Bethune v. County of Harnett, 349 N.C. 343, 507 S.E.2d 40 (1998).

§ 153A-170. Regulation of parking on county property.

A county may by ordinance regulate parking of motor vehicles on county-owned property. Such an ordinance may be enforced pursuant to G.S. 153A-123. In addition, the ordinance may provide that vehicles parked in violation thereof may be removed from the property by the county or an agent of the county to a storage area or garage. If a vehicle is so removed, the owner, as a condition of regaining possession of the vehicle, shall be required to pay to the county all reasonable costs incidental to the removal and storage of the vehicle and any fine or penalty due for the violation. (1961, c. 191; 1971, c. 109; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§§ 153A-171 through 153A-175: Reserved for future codification purposes.

Part 3. Disposition of County Property.

§ 153A-176. Disposition of property.

A county may dispose of any real or personal property belonging to it according to the procedures prescribed in Chapter 160A, Article 12. For purposes of this section references in Chapter 160A, Article 12, to the "city," the "council," or a specific city official are deemed to refer, respectively, to the county, the board of commissioners, and the county official who most nearly performs the same duties performed by the specified city official. For purposes of this section, references in G.S. 160A-266(c) to "one or more city officials" are deemed to refer to one or more county officials designated by the board of county commissioners. (1868, c. 20, ss. 3, 8; Code, ss. 704, 707; Rev., ss. 1310, 1318; C.S., ss. 1291, 1297; 1973, c. 822, s. 1; 1983, c. 130, s. 2.)

Local Modification. — Alamance: 1995 (Reg. Sess., 1996), c. 618, s. 2; Bladen: 1993 (Reg. Sess., 1994), c. 721, ss. 1, 2; Durham: 1985 (Reg. Sess., 1986), c. 908; Halifax: 1987, cc. 238, 239; Lee: 1987 (Reg. Sess., 1988), c. 933; Lincoln: 1983 (Reg. Sess., 1984), c. 944; 1989, c. 411, s. 1; McDowell: 1987 (Reg. Sess., 1988), c. 909; Pamlico: 1985, c. 386; Pender: 1989, c. 503, s. 1; 1993, c. 52, s. 1; Polk: 1989, c. 375, s. 1; Rowan: 1987, c. 157; Scotland: 1987, c. 57; Transylvania: 1989, c. 4; Tyrrell: 1987, c. 9.

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1999-386, s. 4, effective August 4, 1999, provides that, notwithstanding the requirements of G.S. 131E-8,

G.S. 131E-13, G.S. 131E-14, G.S. 153A-176, and Article 12 of Chapter 160A of the General Statutes, and any past compliance or failure to comply with those requirements, the prior conveyance by a municipality as defined in G.S. 131E-6(5), or by a hospital authority as defined in G.S. 131E-16(14), of a hospital facility that currently serves as collateral in a transaction involving North Carolina Medical Care Commission bonds issued under Part 10 of Article 3 of Chapter 143B of the General Statutes is hereby validated. Section 5 of the act provides that Section 4 shall not apply to litigation pending on or before the effective date.

CASE NOTES

Editor's Note. — The cases cited below were decided under corresponding sections of former law.

Commissioners Act as Fiduciaries or Trustees. — Boards of commissioners, in selling or leasing real property belonging to the county, are acting as fiduciaries or trustees for the taxpayers and citizens of the county, and must exercise their best judgment and skill, as reasonable men, to obtain the best price for the land. Puett v. Gaston County, 19 N.C. App. 231, 198 S.E.2d 440 (1973).

When Commissioners May Not Sell Property. — County commissioners have no power to sell property held for corporate purposes where its alienation would tend to embarrass or prevent the performance of their duties to the public. Vaughn v. Commissioners of Forsyth County, 118 N.C. 636, 24 S.E. 425 (1896).

Power to sell is not a power to mortgage; hence, express authority conferred upon county commissioners to sell real estate of the county at a fair price does not imply power to encumber the same by a mortgage. Threadgill v. Board of Comm'rs, 99 N.C. 352, 6 S.E. 189 (1888).

County commissioners had no authority to convey land on which they proposed to erect courthouse by a mortgage deed to secure the bonds issued to build it, and thereby render the site and buildings liable to sale for satisfaction of the debt. Vaughn v. Commissioners of Forsyth County, 118 N.C. 636, 24 S.E. 425 (1896).

Right of Taxpayer to Bring Action to Restrain Execution of Mortgage. — Though a proposed mortgage of county land by the county commissioners to secure bonds issued to build a courthouse would be void, and equity would enjoin foreclosure thereunder, a taxpayer may bring an action to restrain the execution of the mortgage without waiting until foreclosure is threatened. Vaughn v. Commissioners of Forsyth County, 118 N.C. 636, 24 S.E. 425 (1896).

§ 153A-177. Reconveyance of property donated to a local government.

If real or personal property is conveyed without consideration to a county, city, or other unit of local government to be used for a specific purpose set out in the instrument of conveyance and the governing body of the county, city, or other unit of local government determines that the property will not be used for that purpose, the county, city, or other unit of local government may reconvey the property without consideration to the grantor or his heirs, assigns, or nominees. Before it may make a reconveyance, the county, city, or other unit of local government shall publish once a week for two weeks notice of its intention to do so. (1937, c. 441; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§§ 153A-178 through 153A-184: Reserved for future codification purposes.

ARTICLE 9.

Special Assessments.

§ 153A-185. Authority to make special assessments.

A county may make special assessments against benefited property within the county for all or part of the costs of:

- (1) Constructing, reconstructing, extending, or otherwise building or improving water systems;
- (2) Constructing, reconstructing, extending, or otherwise building or improving sewage collection and disposal systems of all types, including septic tank systems or other on-site collection or disposal facilities or systems;
- (3) Acquiring, constructing, reconstructing, extending, renovating, enlarging, maintaining, operating, or otherwise building or improving
  - a. Beach erosion control or flood and hurricane protection works; and
  - b. Watershed improvement projects, drainage projects and water resources development projects (as those projects are defined in G.S. 153A-301).
- (4) Constructing, reconstructing, paving, widening, installing curbs and gutters, and otherwise building and improving streets, as provided in G.S. 153A-205.
- (5) Providing street lights and street lighting in a residential subdivision, as provided in G.S. 153A-206.

A county may not assess property within a city pursuant to subdivision (1) or (2) of this section unless the governing board of the city has by resolution approved the project. (1963, c. 985, s. 1; 1965, c. 714; 1969, c. 474, s. 1; 1973, c. 822, s. 1; 1975, c. 487, s. 1; 1979, c. 619, s. 11; 1983, c. 321, s. 1; 1989 (Reg. Sess., 1990), c. 923, s. 1.)

Local Modification. — (As to Article 9) Avery and Brunswick: 1987 (Reg. Sess., 1988), c. 1046; Lincoln: 1997, c. 169; Mecklenburg: 1983, c. 189.

Cross References. — As to applicability to assessments levied by water and sewer authorities established pursuant to Chapter 162A, Article 1, see G.S. § 162A-6.

§ 153A-186. Bases for making assessments.

- (a) For water or sewer projects, assessments may be made on the basis of:

- (1) The frontage abutting on the project, at an equal rate per foot of frontage; or
  - (2) The street frontage of the lots served, or subject to being served, by the project, at an equal rate per foot of frontage; or
  - (3) The area of land served, or subject to being served, by the project, at an equal rate per unit of area; or
  - (4) The valuation of land served, or subject to being served, by the project, being the value of the land without improvements as shown on the tax records of the county, at an equal rate per dollar of valuation; or
  - (5) The number of lots served, or subject to being served, by the project when the project involves extension of an existing system to a residential or commercial subdivision, at an equal rate per lot; or
  - (6) A combination of two or more of these bases.
- (b) For beach erosion control or flood and hurricane protection works, watershed improvement projects, drainage projects and water resources development projects, assessments may be made on the basis of:
- (1) The frontage abutting on the project, at an equal rate per foot of frontage; or
  - (2) The frontage abutting on a beach or shoreline or watercourse protected or benefited by the project, at an equal rate per foot of frontage; or
  - (3) The area of land benefited by the project, at an equal rate per unit of area; or
  - (4) The valuation of land benefited by the project, being the value of the land without improvements as shown on the tax records of the county, at an equal rate per dollar of valuation; or
  - (5) A combination of two or more of these bases.
- (c) Whenever the basis selected for assessment is either area or valuation, the board of commissioners shall provide for the laying out of one or more benefit zones according (i), in water or sewer projects, to the distance of benefited property from the project being undertaken and (ii), in beach erosion control or flood and hurricane protection works, watershed improvement projects, drainage projects and water resources development projects, to the distance from the shoreline or watercourse, the distance from the project, the elevation of the land, or other relevant factors. If more than one benefit zone is established, the board shall establish differing rates of assessment to apply uniformly throughout each benefit zone.
- (d) For each project, the board of commissioners shall endeavor to establish an assessment method from among the bases set out in this section that will most accurately assess each lot or parcel of land according to the benefit conferred upon it by the project. The board's decision as to the method of assessment is final and not subject to further review or challenge. (1963, c. 985, s. 1; 1965, c. 714; 1973, c. 822, s. 1; 1983, c. 321, ss. 2, 3.)

§ 153A-187. Corner lot exemptions.

The board of commissioners may establish schedules of exemptions from assessments for water or sewer projects for corner lots when water or sewer lines are installed along both sides of the lots. A schedule of exemptions shall be based on categories of land use (residential, commercial, industrial, and agricultural) and shall be uniform for each category. A schedule may not allow exemption of more than seventy-five percent (75%) of the frontage of any side of a corner lot, or 150 feet, whichever is greater. (1963, c. 985, s. 1; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 153A-188. Lands exempt from assessment.

Except as provided in this Article, no land within a county is exempt from special assessments except land belonging to the United States that is exempt under the provisions of federal statutes and, in the case of water or sewer projects, land within any floodway delineated by a local government pursuant to Chapter 143, Article 21, Part 6. In addition, in the case of water or sewer projects, land owned, leased, or controlled by a railroad company is exempt from assessments by a county to the same extent that it would be exempt from assessments by a city under G.S. 160A-222. (1963, c. 958, s. 1; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

Local Modification. — Brunswick: 1987, c. 712.

§ 153A-189. State participation in improvement projects.

If a county proposes to undertake a project that would benefit land owned by the State of North Carolina or a board, agency, commission, or institution of the State and to finance all or a part of the project by special assessments, the board of commissioners may request the Council of State to authorize the State to pay its ratable part of the cost of the project, and the Council of State may authorize these payments. The Council of State may authorize the Secretary of Administration to approve or disapprove requests from counties for payment pursuant to this section, but a county may appeal to the Council of State if the Secretary disapproves a request. The Council of State may direct that any payment authorized pursuant to this section be made from the Contingency and Emergency Fund of the State of North Carolina or from any other available funds. Except as State payments are authorized pursuant to this section, state-owned property is exempt from assessment under this Article. (1973, c. 822, s. 1; 1975, c. 879, s. 46.)

§ 153A-190. Preliminary resolution; contents.

Whenever the board of commissioners decides to finance all or part of a proposed project by special assessments, it shall first adopt a preliminary assessment resolution containing the following:

- (1) A statement of intent to undertake the project;
- (2) A general description of the nature and location of the project;
- (3) A statement as to the proposed basis for making assessments, which shall include a general description of the boundaries of the area benefited if the basis of assessment is either area or valuation;
- (4) A statement as to the percentage of the cost of the work that is to be specially assessed;
- (5) A statement as to which, if any, assessments shall be held in abeyance and for how long;
- (6) A statement as to the proposed terms of payment of the assessment; and
- (7) An order setting a time and place for a public hearing on all matters covered by the preliminary assessment resolution. The hearing shall be not earlier than three weeks and not later than 10 weeks from the day on which the preliminary resolution is adopted. (1963, c. 985, s. 1; 1965, c. 714; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

CASE NOTES

Duties of County Commissioners When Financing Project by Special Assessments.

— Pursuant to this section, when all or any portion of a public enterprise is to be financed by assessments, the county commissioners are required to adopt a preliminary assessment resolution, which must contain information about the proposed project, a statement as to the percentage of the cost of the project that will be assessed, and an order setting a date for public hearing. The preliminary assessment resolution must be sent by first-class mail to each property owner in the project at least ten days prior to the public hearing. In return, the county receives a specific lien; the delinquency of the assessed obligation authorizes a foreclosure of property without any exemptions allowed or the payment of prior recorded liens except local, state, and federal taxes. McNeill v. Harnett County, 327 N.C. 552, 398 S.E.2d 475 (1990).

§ 153A-191. Notice of preliminary resolution.

At least 10 days before the date set for the public hearing, the board of commissioners shall publish a notice that a preliminary assessment resolution has been adopted and that a public hearing on it will be held at a specified time and place. The notice shall describe generally the nature and location of the improvement. In addition, at least 10 days before the date set for the hearing, the board shall cause a copy of the preliminary assessment resolution to be mailed by first-class mail to each owner, as shown on the county tax records, of property subject to assessment if the project is undertaken. The person designated to mail these resolutions shall file with the board a certificate stating that they were mailed by first-class mail and on what date. In the absence of fraud, the certificate is conclusive as to compliance with the mailing requirements of this section. (1963, c. 985, s. 1; 1965, c. 714; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

Harnett County, 327 N.C. 552, 398 S.E.2d 475 (1990).

County's Election of Procedural Requirements Determines Remedies and Owners' Protections. — If no special assessment liens under § 153A-200 exist on the property, the process invoked and completed, rather than the words used, is of paramount importance. If the requirements of this Article are met, the County then has certain remedies otherwise not available to it. However, if the County does not elect to acquire these statutory benefits by following the procedural requirements which would culminate in a lien on the property, the plaintiffs do not receive the statutory protections of notice and a hearing as set out in this section. McNeill v. Harnett County, 327 N.C. 552, 398 S.E.2d 475 (1990).

§ 153A-192. Hearing on preliminary resolution; assessment resolution.

At the public hearing, the board of commissioners shall hear all interested persons who appear with respect to any matter covered by the preliminary assessment resolution. At or after the hearing, the board may adopt a final assessment resolution directing that the project or portions thereof be undertaken. The final assessment resolution shall describe the project in general terms (which may be by reference to projects described in the preliminary resolution) and shall set forth the following:

- (1) The basis on which the special assessments will be made, together with a general description of the boundaries of the areas benefited if the basis of assessment is either area or valuation;
- (2) The percentage of the cost of the work that is to be specially assessed; and
- (3) The terms of payment, including the conditions, if any, under which assessments are to be held in abeyance.

The percentage of cost to be assessed may not be different from the percentage proposed in the preliminary assessment resolution, nor may the project authorized be greater in scope than the project described in that resolution. If the board decides that a different percentage of the cost should be assessed than that proposed in the preliminary assessment resolution, or that the project should be greater in scope than that described in that resolution, it shall adopt and advertise a new preliminary assessment resolution as provided in this Article. (1963, c. 985, s. 1; 1965, c. 714; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

Local Modification. — Brunswick: 1987
(Reg. Sess., 1988), c. 984.

§ 153A-193. Determination of costs.

When a project is complete, the board of commissioners shall determine the project's total cost. In determining total cost, the board may include construction costs, the cost of necessary legal services, the amount of interest paid during construction, the cost of rights-of-way, and the cost of publishing and mailing notices and resolutions. The board's determination of the total cost of a project is conclusive. (1963, c. 985, s. 1; 1965, c. 714; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

Local Modification. — Brunswick: 1987
(Reg. Sess., 1988), c. 984.

§ 153A-193.1. Discounts authorized.

The board of commissioners is authorized to establish a schedule of discounts to be applied to assessments paid before the expiration of 30 days from the date that notice is published of confirmation of the assessment roll pursuant to G.S. 153A-196. Such a schedule of discounts may be established even though it was not included among the terms of payment as specified in the preliminary assessment resolution or final assessment resolution. The amount of any discount may not exceed thirty percent (30%). (1983, c. 381, s. 1.)

§ 153A-194. Preliminary assessment roll; publication.

When the total cost of a project has been determined, the board of commissioners shall cause a preliminary assessment roll to be prepared. The roll shall contain a brief description of each lot, parcel, or tract of land assessed, the basis for the assessment, the amount assessed against each, the terms of payment, including the schedule of discounts, if such a schedule is to be established and the name of the owner of each lot, parcel, or tract as far as this can be ascertained from the county tax records. A map of the project on which is shown each lot, parcel, or tract assessed, the basis of its assessment, the amount assessed against it, and the name of its owner as far as this can be ascertained from the county tax records is a sufficient assessment roll.

After the preliminary assessment roll has been completed, the board shall cause the roll to be filed in the clerk's office, where it shall be available for public inspection, and shall set the time and place for a public hearing on the roll. At least 10 days before the date set for the hearing, the board shall publish a notice that the preliminary assessment roll has been completed. The notice shall describe the project in general terms, note that the roll in the clerk's office is available for inspection, and state the time and place for the hearing on the roll. In addition, at least 10 days before the date set for the hearing, the board shall cause a notice of the hearing to be mailed by first-class mail to each owner of property listed on the roll. The mailed notice shall state the time and place of the hearing, note that the roll in the clerk's office is available for inspection, and state the amount as shown on the roll of the assessment against the property of the owner. The person designated to mail these notices shall file with the board a certificate stating that they were mailed by first-class mail and on what date. In the absence of fraud, the certificate is conclusive as to compliance with the mailing requirements of this section. (1963, c. 985, s. 1; 1965, c. 714; 1973, c. 822, s. 1; 1983, c. 381, s. 2.)

Local Modification. — Brunswick: 1987
(Reg. Sess., 1988), c. 984.

§ 153A-195. Hearing on preliminary assessment roll; revision; confirmation; lien.

At the public hearing the board of commissioners shall hear all interested persons who appear with respect to the preliminary assessment roll. At or after the hearing, the board shall annul, modify, or confirm the assessments, in whole or in part, either by confirming the preliminary assessments against any lot, parcel, or tract described in the preliminary assessment roll or by cancelling, increasing, or reducing the assessments as may be proper in compliance with the basis of assessment. If any property is found to be omitted from the preliminary assessment roll, the board may place it on the roll and make the proper assessment. When the board confirms assessments for a project, the clerk shall enter in the minutes of the board the date, hour, and minute of confirmation. From the time of confirmation, each assessment is a lien on the property assessed of the same nature and to the same extent as the lien for county or city property taxes, under the priorities set out in G.S. 153A-200. After the assessment roll is confirmed, the board shall cause a copy of it to be delivered to the county tax collector for collection in the same manner (except as provided in this Article) as property taxes. (1963, c. 985, s. 1; 1965, c. 714; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 153A-196. Publication of notice of confirmation of assessment roll.

No earlier than 20 days from the date the assessment roll is confirmed, the county tax collector shall publish once a notice that the roll has been confirmed. The notice shall also state that assessments may be paid without interest at any time before the expiration of 30 days from the date that the notice is published and that if they are not paid within this time, all installments thereof shall bear interest as determined by the board of commissioners. The notice shall also state the schedule of discounts, if one has been established, to be applied to assessments paid before the expiration date for payment of assessments without interest. (1963, c. 985, s. 1; 1965, c. 714; 1973, c. 822, s. 1; 1983, c. 381, s. 3.)

Local Modification. — Brunswick: 1987 (Reg. Sess., 1988), c. 984.

Cross References. — As to meaning of term "county tax collector," see G.S. § 162A-6.

§ 153A-197. Appeal to the General Court of Justice.

If the owner of, or any person having an interest in, a lot, parcel, or tract of land against which an assessment is made is dissatisfied with the amount of the assessment, he may, within 10 days after the day the assessment roll is confirmed, file a notice of appeal to the appropriate division of the General Court of Justice. He shall then have 20 days after the day the roll is confirmed to serve on the board of commissioners or the clerk a statement of facts upon which the appeal is based. The appeal shall be tried like other actions at law. (1963, c. 985, s. 1; 1965, c. 714; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 153A-198. Reassessment.

When in its judgment an irregularity, omission, error, or lack of jurisdiction has occurred in any proceeding related to a special assessment made by it, the board of commissioners may set aside the assessment and make a reassessment. In that case, the board may include in the total project cost all additional interest paid, or to be paid, as a result of the delay in confirming the assessment. A reassessment proceeding shall, as far as practicable, follow the comparable procedures of an original assessment proceeding. A reassessment has the same force as if it originally had been made properly. (1963, c. 985, s. 1; 1965, c. 714; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 153A-199. Payment of assessments in full or by installments.

Within 30 days after the day that notice of confirmation of the assessment roll is published, each owner of assessed property shall pay his assessment in full, unless the board of commissioners has provided that assessments may be paid in annual installments. If payment by installments is permitted, any portion of an assessment not paid within the 30-day period shall be paid in annual installments. The board shall in the assessment resolution determine whether payment may be made by annual installments and set the number of installments, which may not be more than 10. With respect to payment by installment, the board may provide

- (1) That the first installment with interest is due on the date when property taxes are due, and one installment with interest is due on the same date in each successive year until the assessment is paid in full, or

- (2) That the first installment with interest is due 60 days after the date that the assessment roll is confirmed, and one installment with interest is due on that same day in each successive year until the assessment is paid in full. (1963, c. 985, s. 1; 1965, c. 714; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

Local Modification. — Brunswick: 1987
(Reg. Sess., 1988), c. 984.

§ 153A-200. Enforcement of assessments; interest; foreclosure; limitations.

(a) Any portion of an assessment that is not paid within 30 days after the day that notice of confirmation of the assessment roll is published shall, until paid, bear interest at a rate to be fixed in the assessment resolution. The maximum rate at which interest may be set is eight percent (8%) per annum.

(b) If an installment of an assessment is not paid on or before the due date, all of the installments remaining unpaid immediately become due, unless the board of commissioners waives acceleration. The board may waive acceleration and permit the property owner to pay all installments in arrears together with interest due thereon and the cost to the county of attempting to obtain payment. If this is done, any remaining installments shall be reinstated so that they fall due as if there had been no default. The board may waive acceleration and reinstate further installments at any time before foreclosure proceedings have been instituted.

(c) A county may foreclose assessment liens under any procedure provided by law for the foreclosure of property tax liens, except that (i) lien sales and lien sale certificates are not required and (ii) foreclosure may be begun at any time after 30 days after the due date. The county is not entitled to a deficiency judgment in an action to foreclose an assessment lien. The lien of special assessments is inferior to all prior and subsequent liens for State, local, and federal taxes, and superior to all other liens.

(d) No county may maintain an action or proceeding to foreclose any special assessment lien unless the action or proceeding is begun within 10 years from the date that the assessment or the earliest installment thereof included in the action or proceeding became due. Acceleration of installments under subsection (b) of this section does not have the effect of shortening the time within which foreclosure may be begun; in that event the statute of limitations continues to run as to each installment as if acceleration had not occurred. (1963, c. 985, s. 1; 1965, c. 714; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

Local Modification. — Rockingham: 1985
(Reg. Sess., 1986), c. 817.

CASE NOTES

Foreclosure of Assessment Liens. — Pursuant to § 153A-190, when all or any portion of a public enterprise is to be financed by assessments, the county commissioners are required to adopt a preliminary assessment resolution, which must contain information about the proposed project, a statement as to the percentage of the cost of the project that will be assessed, and an order setting a date for public hearing. The preliminary assessment resolution must be sent by first-class mail to each property owner in the project at least ten days prior to the public hearing. In return, the county receives a specific lien; the delinquency of the assessed obligation authorizes a foreclosure of property without any exemptions allowed or the payment of prior recorded liens except local, state, and federal taxes. McNeill v. Harnett County, 327 N.C. 552, 398 S.E.2d 475 (1990).

Special Assessment Proceeding. — Forced sale of land under a general lien is subjected to exemptions and prior recorded liens. It is, therefore, the special assessment proceeding itself which creates the lien for the assessment. If the county commissioners elect not to pursue the procedure which would establish the lien, then the special proceeding is not necessary. McNeill v. Harnett County, 327 N.C. 552, 398 S.E.2d 475 (1990).

importance. If the requirements of this Article are met, the County then has certain remedies otherwise not available to it. However, if the County does not elect to acquire these statutory benefits by following the procedural requirements which would culminate in a lien on the property, the plaintiffs do not receive the statutory protections of notice and a hearing as set out in § 153A-191. McNeill v. Harnett County, 327 N.C. 552, 398 S.E.2d 475 (1990).

§ 153A-201. Authority to hold assessments in abeyance.

The assessment resolution may provide that assessments made pursuant to this Article shall be held in abeyance without interest for any benefited property assessed. Water or sewer assessments may be held in abeyance until improvements on the assessed property are connected to the water or sewer system for which the assessment was made, or until a date certain not more than 10 years from the date of confirmation of the assessment roll, whichever event occurs first. Beach erosion control or flood and hurricane protection assessments may be held in abeyance for not more than 10 years from the date of confirmation of the assessment roll. When the period of abeyance ends, the assessment is payable in accordance with the terms set out in the assessment resolution.

If assessments are to be held in abeyance, the assessment resolution shall classify the property assessed according to general land use, location with respect to the water or sewer system (for water or sewer assessments), or other relevant factors. The resolution shall also provide that the period of abeyance shall be the same for all assessed property in the same class.

Statutes of limitations are suspended during the time that any assessment is held in abeyance without interest. (1963, c. 985, s. 1; 1965, c. 714; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 153A-202. Assessments on property held by tenancy for life or years; contribution.

(a) Assessments upon real property in the possession or enjoyment of a tenant for life or a tenant for a term of years shall be paid pro rata by the tenant and the remaindermen after the life estate or by the tenant and the owner in fee after the expiration of the tenancy for years according to their respective interests in the land as calculated pursuant to G.S. 37-13.

(b) If a person having an interest in land held by tenancy for life or years pays more than his pro rata share of an assessment against the property, he may maintain an action in the nature of a suit for contribution against any delinquent party to recover from that party his pro rata share of the assessment, with interest thereon from the date of the payment; and in addition, he is subrogated to the right of the county to a lien on the property for the delinquent party's share of the assessment. (1963, c. 985, c. 1; 1965, c. 714; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

Editor's Note. — Section 37-13, referred to in this section, was repealed by Session Laws 1973, c. 729, s. 3. See now § 37-36.

§ 153A-203. Lien in favor of a cotenant or joint owner paying special assessments.

Any one of several tenants in common or joint tenants (other than copartners) may pay the whole or any part of a special assessment made against property held in common or jointly. Any amount so paid that exceeds his share of the assessment and that was not paid through agreement with or on behalf of the other joint owners is a lien in his favor upon the shares of the other joint owners. This lien may be enforced in a proceeding for actual partition, a proceeding for partition and sale, or by any other appropriate judicial proceeding. This lien is not effective against an innocent purchaser for value until notice of the lien is filed in the office of the clerk of superior court in the county in which the land lies and indexed and docketed in the same manner as other liens required by law to be filed in that clerk's office. (1963, c. 985, s. 1; 1965, c. 714; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 153A-204. Apportionment of assessments.

If a special assessment has been made against property that has been or is about to be subdivided, the board of commissioners may, with the consent of the owner of the property, (i) apportion the assessment among the lots or tracts within the subdivision, or (ii) release certain lots or tracts from the assessment if, in the board's opinion, the released lots or tracts are not benefited by the project, or (iii) both. Upon an apportionment each of the lots or tracts in the subdivision is released from the lien of the original assessment, and the portion of the original assessment assessed against each lot or tract has, as to that lot or tract, the same force as the original assessment. At the time the board makes an apportionment under this section, the clerk shall enter on the minutes of the board the date, hour, and minute of apportionment and a statement to the effect that the apportionment is made with the consent of the owners of the property affected, which entry is conclusive in the absence of fraud. The apportionment is effective at the time shown in the minute book. Apportionments may include past due installments with interest, as well as installments not then due; and any installment not then due shall fall due at the same date as it would have under the original assessment. (1963, c. 985, s. 1; 1965, c. 714; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 153A-204.1. Maintenance assessments.

(a) In order to pay for the costs of maintaining and operating a project, the board of commissioners may annually or at less frequent intervals levy maintenance and operating assessments for any project purpose set forth in G.S. 153A-185(3) on the same basis as the original assessment. The amount of these assessments shall be determined by the board of commissioners on the basis of the board's estimate of the cost of maintaining and operating a project during the ensuing budget period, and the board's decision as to the amount of the assessment is conclusive. In determining the total cost to be included in the assessment the board may include estimated costs of maintaining and operating the project, of necessary legal services, of interest payments, of rights-of-way, and of publishing and mailing notices and resolutions. References to "total costs" in provisions of this Article that apply to maintenance and operating assessments shall be construed to mean "total estimated costs." Within the meaning of this section a "budget period" may be one year or such other budget period as the board determines.

(b) All of the provisions of this Article shall apply to maintenance and operating assessments, except for G.S. 153A-190 through G.S. 153A-193. (1983, c. 321, s. 4.)

§ 153A-205. Improvements to subdivision and residential streets.

(a) A county may finance the local share of the cost of improvements made under the supervision of the Department of Transportation to subdivision and residential streets that are a part of the State maintained system located in the county and outside of a city and shall levy and collect pursuant to the procedures of Article 9 of Chapter 153A of the General Statutes special assessments against benefited property to recoup that portion of the costs financed by the county. The local share is that share required by policies of the Secondary Roads Council, and may be paid by the county from funds not otherwise limited as to use by law. Land owned, leased, or controlled by a railroad company is exempt from such assessments to the same extent that it would be exempt from street assessments of a city under G.S. 160A-222. No project may be commenced under this section unless it has been approved by the Department of Transportation.

(b) A county may finance the local share of the cost of improvements made under the supervision of the Department of Transportation to subdivision and residential streets located in the county and outside of a city in order to bring those streets up to the standards of the Secondary Roads Council so that they may become a part of the State-maintained system and shall levy and collect pursuant to the procedures of Article 9 of Chapter 153A of the General Statutes special assessments against benefited property to recoup that portion of the costs financed by the county. The local share is that share required by policies of the Secondary Roads Council, and may be paid by the county from funds not otherwise limited as to use by law. Land owned, leased, or controlled by a railroad company is exempt from such assessments to the same extent that it would be exempt from street assessments of a city under G.S. 160A-222. No project may be commenced under this section unless it has been approved by the Department of Transportation.

(c) Before a county may finance all or a portion of the cost of improvements to a subdivision or residential street, it must receive a petition for the improvements signed by at least seventy-five percent (75%) of the owners of property to be assessed, who must represent at least seventy-five percent (75%) of all the lineal feet of frontage of the lands abutting on the street or portion thereof to be improved. The petition shall state that portion of the cost of the improvement to be assessed, which shall be the local share required by policies of the Secondary Roads Council. A county may treat as a unit and consider as one street two or more connecting State-maintained subdivision or residential streets in a petition filed under this subsection calling for the improvement of subdivision or residential streets subject to property owner sharing in the cost of improvement under policies of the Department of Transportation.

Property owned by the United States shall not be included in determining the lineal feet of frontage on the improvement, nor shall the United States be included in determining the number of owners of property abutting the improvement. Property owned by the State of North Carolina shall be included in determining frontage and the number of owners only if the State has consented to assessment as provided in G.S. 153A-189. Property owned, leased, or controlled by railroad companies shall be included in determining frontage and the number of owners to the extent the property is subject to assessment under G.S. 160A-222. Property owned, leased, or controlled by railroad companies that is not subject to assessment shall not be included in determining frontage or the number of owners.

No right of action or defense asserting the invalidity of street assessments on grounds that the county did not comply with this subsection in securing a valid petition may be asserted except in an action or proceeding begun within 90 days after the day of publication of the notice of adoption of the preliminary assessment resolution.

(d) This section is intended to provide a means of assisting in financing improvements to subdivision and residential streets that are on the State highway system or that will, as a result of the improvements, become a part of the system. By financing improvements under this section, a county does not thereby acquire or assume any responsibility for the street or streets involved, and a county has no liability arising from the construction of such an improvement or the maintenance of such a street. Nothing in this section shall be construed to alter the conditions and procedures under which State system streets or other public streets are transferred to municipal street systems pursuant to G.S. 136-66.1 and 136-66.2 upon annexation by, or incorporation of, a municipality. (1975, c. 487, s. 2; c. 716, s. 7; 1981, c. 768.)

§ 153A-206. Street light assessments.

(a) Authorization. A county may annually levy special assessments against benefited property in a residential subdivision within the county and not within a city for the costs of providing street lights and street lighting pursuant to the procedures provided in this Article. The provisions of this Article, other than G.S. 153A-186, G.S. 153A-187 and G.S. 153A-190 through G.S. 153A-193, apply to street light assessments under this section.

(b) Basis of Assessment. The estimated costs of providing street lights and street lighting shall be apportioned among all benefited property on the basis of the number of lots served, or subject to being served, by the street lights, at an equal rate per lot.

(c) Amount of Assessment. The county shall determine the amount of the assessments on the basis of an estimate of the cost of constructing or operating the street lights during the ensuing year, and the board of commissioners' determination of the amount of the assessment is conclusive. In determining the total cost to be included in the assessment, the board may also include estimated costs of necessary legal services, projected utility rate increases, and the costs to the county of administering and collecting the assessment.

(d) Procedure. The county may approve the levy of street light assessments under this section upon petition of at least two-thirds of the owners of the lots within the subdivision. The request or petition shall include an estimate from the appropriate utility of the charge for providing street lights and street lighting within the subdivision for one year. Upon approval of the petition, the petitioning owner or owners shall pay to the tax collector the total estimated assessment amount for the ensuing year as determined by the county. This payment shall be set aside by the county tax office in escrow as security for payment of the assessments.

(e) Collection and Administration. The county shall levy the street light assessments on an annual basis and shall pay the costs of providing street lights and street lighting to the appropriate utility on a periodic basis. The assessment amount shall be adjusted on an annual basis in order to maintain in the escrow account an amount equal to the estimated cost of providing street lighting plus related expenses for the ensuing year. (1989 (Reg. Sess., 1990), c. 923, s. 2.)

ARTICLE 10.

Law Enforcement and Confinement Facilities.

Part 1. Law Enforcement.

§ 153A-211. Training and development programs for law enforcement.

A county may plan and execute training and development programs for law-enforcement agencies, and for that purpose may:

- (1) Contract with other counties, cities, and the State and federal governments and their agencies;
- (2) Accept, receive, and disburse funds, grants, and services;
- (3) Pursuant to the procedures and provisions of Chapter 160A, Article 20, Part 1, create joint agencies to act for and on behalf of the participating counties and cities;
- (4) Apply for, receive, administer, and expend federal grant funds;
- (5) Appropriate funds not otherwise limited as to use by law. (1969, c. 1145, s. 2; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

Local Modification. — Onslow: 1985 (Reg. Sess., 1986), c. 895.

§ 153A-212. Cooperation in law-enforcement matters.

A county may cooperate with the State and other local governments in law-enforcement matters, as permitted by G.S. 160A-283 (joint auxiliary police), by G.S. 160A-288 (emergency aid), G.S. 160A-288.1 (assistance by State law-enforcement officers), and by Chapter 160A, Article 20, Part 1. (1973, c. 822, s. 1; 1979, c. 639, s. 2.)

§ 153A-212.1. Resources to protect the public.

Subject to the requirements of G.S. 7A-41, 7A-44.1, 7A-64, 7A-102, 7A-133, and 7A-498.7, a county may appropriate funds under contract with the State for the provision of services for the speedy disposition of cases involving drug offenses, domestic violence, or other offenses involving threats to public safety. Nothing in this section shall be construed to obligate the General Assembly to make any appropriation to implement the provisions of this section. Further, nothing in this section shall be construed to obligate the Administrative Office of the Courts or the Office of Indigent Defense Services to maintain positions or services initially provided for under this section. (1999-237, s. 17.17(b); 2000-67, s. 15.4(e); 2001-424, s. 22.11(e).)

Editor’s Note. — Session Laws 2000-67, s. 1.1, provides: “This act shall be known as ‘The Current Operations and Capital Improvements Appropriations Act of 2000.’”

Session Laws 2000-67, s. 28.4, contains a severability clause.

Session Laws 2001-424, s. 1.2, provides:

“This act shall be known as the ‘Current Operations and Capital Improvements Appropriations Act of 2001.’”

Session Laws 2001-424, s. 36.5 is a severability clause.

Effect of Amendments. — Session Laws 2000-67, s. 15.4.(e), effective July 1, 2000, substituted "G.S. 7A-41, 7A-44.1, 7A-64, 7A-102, 7A-133, and 7A-467" for "G.S. 7A-64."

Session Laws 2001-424, s. 22.11(e), effective July 1, 2001, substituted "7A-498.7" for "7A-467" in the first sentence and inserted "or the Office of Indigent Defense Services" in the last sentence.

§§ 153A-213 through 153A-215: Reserved for future codification purposes.

Part 2. Local Confinement Facilities.

§ 153A-216. Legislative policy.

The policy of the General Assembly with respect to local confinement facilities is:

- (1) Local confinement facilities should provide secure custody of persons confined therein in order to protect the community and should be operated so as to protect the health and welfare of prisoners and provide for their humane treatment.
- (2) Minimum statewide standards should be provided to guide and assist local governments in planning, constructing, and maintaining confinement facilities and in developing programs that provide for humane treatment of prisoners and contribute to the rehabilitation of offenders.
- (3) The State should provide services to local governments to help improve the quality of administration and local confinement facilities. These services should include inspection, consultation, technical assistance, and other appropriate services.
- (4) Adequate qualifications and training of the personnel of local confinement facilities are essential to improving the quality of these facilities. The State shall establish entry level employment standards for jailers and supervisory and administrative personnel of local confinement facilities to include training as a condition of employment in a local confinement facility pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 17C and Chapter 17E and the rules promulgated thereunder. ## § 153A-217. Definitions.

Unless otherwise clearly required by the context, the words and phrases defined in this section have the meanings indicated when used in this Part:

- (1) "Commission" means the Social Services Commission.
- (2) "Secretary" means the Secretary of Health and Human Services.
- (3) "Department" means the Department of Health and Human Services.
- (4) "Governing body" means the governing body of a county or city or the policy-making body for a district or regional confinement facility.
- (5) "Local confinement facility" includes a county or city jail, a local lockup, a regional or district jail, a juvenile detention facility, a detention facility for adults operated by a local government, and any other facility operated by a local government for confinement of persons awaiting trial or serving sentences except that it shall not include a county satellite jail/work release unit governed by Part 3 of Article 10 of Chapter 153A.
- (6) "Prisoner" includes any person, adult or juvenile, confined or detained in a confinement facility.
- (7) "Unit," "unit of local government," or "local government" means a county or city. (1967, c. 581, s. 2; 1969, c. 981, s. 1; 1973, c. 476, s. 138; c. 822, s. 1; 1987, c. 207, s. 2; 1997-443, s. 11A.118(a); 1998-202, s. 4(cc).)

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL

"Local Confinement Facility" Definition Applicable to § 15A-1352(a). — Although by its terms, the definition of "local confinement facility" in subsection (5) applies only to Chapter 153A, Article 10, Pt. 1, as this definition is the only definition of "local confinement facility" appearing in the General Statutes, it may be assumed that this was the meaning intended by the General Assembly when it adopted § 15A-1352(a). See Opinion of Attorney General to Mr. Bruce Colvin, Assistant County Attorney, Forsyth County, 55 N.C.A.G. 21 (1985).

§ 153A-218. County confinement facilities.

A county may establish, acquire, erect, repair, maintain, and operate local confinement facilities and may for these purposes appropriate funds not otherwise limited as to use by law. A juvenile detention facility may be located in the same facility as a county jail provided that the juvenile detention facility meets the requirements of this Article and G.S. 147-33.40. (1868, c. 20, s. 8; Code, s. 707; Rev., s. 1318; 1915, c. 140; C.S., s. 1297; 1973, c. 822, s. 1; 1998-202, s. 4(dd).)

Editor's Note. — The section of Chapter 147 referred to above was repealed by Session Laws 2000-137, s. 1(a). As to juvenile facilities, see now § 143B-525 et seq.

Legal Periodicals. — For note, "North Carolina County Jail Inmates' Right of Access to Courts," see 66 N.C.L. Rev. 583 (1988).

CASE NOTES

Editor's Note. — Most of the cases cited below were decided under corresponding sections of former law.

Requirements for Persons Confined in Prison. — The least that is required is that persons confined in any public prison shall have a clean place, comfortable bedding, wholesome food and drink, and necessary attendance. Lewis v. City of Raleigh, 77 N.C. 229 (1877).

County and Board of Commissioners were liable under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 for past and continuing deprivations of constitutional rights of county prisoners and were subject to equitable remedies against them. Parnell v. Waldrep, 538 F. Supp. 1203 (W.D.N.C. 1982).

County Responsible for Its Own Confinement Facilities. — This section makes clear that the primary responsibility for county confinement facilities rests upon the county itself. Reid v. Johnston County, 688 F. Supp. 200 (E.D.N.C. 1988), aff'd sub nom. Reid v. Kayye, 878 F.2d 1430 (4th Cir.), 885 F.2d 129 (4th Cir. 1989).

For case holding that an action could not be maintained against a county for damages sustained by a person while imprisoned in the county jail by reason of the failure of the commissioners to provide adequate means for his health and protection, see Manuel v. Board of Comm'rs of Cumberland County, 98 N.C. 9, 3 S.E. 829 (1887).

State Officials Held Not Liable for Conditions of a County Jail. — In an action by inmates of a county jail against state officials of the Department of Human Resources alleging the existence of unconstitutional conditions at the jail, the state officials could not be held vicariously liable under 42 U.S.C.A. § 1983, where plaintiffs did not demonstrate that actions taken by the officials under color of state law in any way caused constitutionally deficient conditions at the county jail. Reid v. Johnston County, 688 F. Supp. 200 (E.D.N.C.

1988), aff'd sub nom. Reid v. Kayye, 878 F.2d 1430 (4th Cir.), 885 F.2d 129 (4th Cir. 1989).

Liability for Failure to Make Regulations for Safety of Prisoners. — The duty to make proper rules and regulations imposes a discretionary duty on the board of commissioners exercisable only in its corporate capacity, and the commissioners are not liable as individuals for failure to make regulations for the safety of prisoners unless they corruptly or with malice fail to make proper rules and regulations. Moye v. McLawhorn, 208 N.C. 812, 182 S.E. 493 (1935).

Liability for Nuisance in Erection and Maintenance of Jail. — A county is not liable for a nuisance to a citizen in the erection of a jail in the immediate vicinity of his residence, nor for suffering it to become so filthy and disorderly as to be a nuisance to him and his family. The doctrine is that while such corporate agencies must provide the means and employ the men to perform such duties, they are not personally and by their own labor to perform such menial services; the default to make them liable must be in neglecting to exercise their authority in the use of labor and money for that purpose, and so it must be charged to make a cause of action against them. Threadgill v. Board of Comm'rs, 99 N.C. 352, 6 S.E. 189 (1888).

§ 153A-219. District confinement facilities.

(a) Two or more units of local government may enter into and carry out an agreement to establish, finance, and operate a district confinement facility. The units may construct such a facility or may designate an existing facility as a district confinement facility. In addition, two or more units of local government may enter into and carry out agreements under which one unit may use the local confinement facility owned and operated by another. In exercising the powers granted by this section, the units shall proceed according to the procedures and provisions of Chapter 160A, Article 20, Part 1.

(b) If a district confinement facility is established, the units involved shall provide for a jail administrator for the facility. The administrator need not be the sheriff or any other official of a participating unit. The administrator and the other custodial personnel of a district confinement facility have the authority of law-enforcement officers for the purposes of receiving, maintaining custody of, and transporting prisoners.

(c) If a district confinement facility is established, or if one unit contracts to use the local confinement facility of another, the law-enforcement officers of the contracting units and the custodial personnel of the facility may transport prisoners to and from the facility.

(d) The Department shall provide technical and other assistance to units wishing to exercise any of the powers granted by this section. (1933, c. 201; 1967, c. 581, s. 2; 1969, c. 743; 1971, c. 341, s. 1; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 153A-220. Jail and detention services.

The Commission has policy responsibility for providing and coordinating State services to local government with respect to local confinement facilities. The Department shall:

- (1) Consult with and provide technical assistance to units of local government with respect to local confinement facilities.
- (2) Develop minimum standards for the construction and operation of local confinement facilities.
- (3) Visit and inspect local confinement facilities; advise the sheriff, jailer, governing board, and other appropriate officials as to deficiencies and recommend improvements; and submit written reports on the inspections to appropriate local officials.
- (4) Review and approve plans for the construction and major modification of local confinement facilities.
- (5) Repealed by Session Laws 1983, c. 745, s. 5.
- (6) Perform any other duties that may be necessary to carry out the State's responsibilities concerning local confinement facilities. (1967, c. 581, s. 2; 1973, c. 476, s. 138; c. 822, s. 1; 1983, c. 745, s. 5.)

Cross References. — As to juvenile detention services, see § 134A-36 et seq.

§ 153A-221. Minimum standards.

(a) The Secretary shall develop and publish minimum standards for the operation of local confinement facilities and may from time to time develop and publish amendments to the standards. The standards shall be developed with a view to providing secure custody of prisoners and to protecting their health and welfare and providing for their humane treatment. The standards shall provide for:

- (1) Secure and safe physical facilities;
- (2) Jail design;
- (3) Adequacy of space per prisoner;
- (4) Heat, light, and ventilation;
- (5) Supervision of prisoners;
- (6) Personal hygiene and comfort of prisoners;
- (7) Medical care for prisoners, including mental health, mental retardation, and substance abuse services;
- (8) Sanitation;
- (9) Food allowances, food preparation, and food handling;
- (10) Any other provisions that may be necessary for the safekeeping, privacy, care, protection, and welfare of prisoners.

(b) In developing the standards and any amendments thereto, the Secretary shall consult with organizations representing local government and local law enforcement, including the North Carolina Association of County Commissioners, the North Carolina League of Municipalities, the North Carolina Sheriffs' Association, and the North Carolina Police Executives' Association. The Secretary shall also consult with interested State departments and agencies, including the Department of Correction, the Department of Health and Human Services, the Department of Insurance, and the North Carolina Criminal Justice Education and Training Standards Commission, and the North Carolina Sheriffs' Education and Training Standards Commission.

(c) Before the standards or any amendments thereto may become effective, they must be approved by the Commission and the Governor. Upon becoming effective, they have the force and effect of law. (1967, c. 581, s. 2; 1973, c. 476, ss. 128, 133, 138; c. 822, s. 1; 1983, c. 745, s. 6; c. 768, s. 20; 1991, c. 237, s. 1; 1997-443, s. 11A.118(a).)

§ 153A-221.1. Standards and inspections.

The legal responsibility of the Secretary of Health and Human Services and the Social Services Commission for State services to county juvenile detention homes under this Article is hereby confirmed and shall include the following: development of State standards under the prescribed procedures; inspection; consultation; technical assistance; and training.

The Secretary of Health and Human Services shall also develop standards under which a local jail may be approved as a holdover facility for not more than five calendar days pending placement in a juvenile detention home which meets State standards, providing the local jail is so arranged that any child placed in the holdover facility cannot converse with, see, or be seen by the adult population of the jail while in the holdover facility. The personnel responsible for the administration of a jail with an approved holdover facility shall provide close supervision of any child placed in the holdover facility for the protection of the child. (1973, c. 1230, s. 2; c. 1262, s. 10; 1975, c. 426, s. 2; 1983, c. 768, s. 21; 1997-443, s. 11A.118(a); 1998-202, s. 13(nn); 1999-423, s. 12; 2000-137, s. 4(hh).)

Effect of Amendments. — Session Laws 2000-137, s. 4(hh), effective July 20, 2000, deleted the former second paragraph, pertaining to the duty of the Director of the Office of Juvenile Justice to develop standards for county detention homes and regional detention homes.

§ 153A-222. Inspections of local confinement facilities.

Department personnel shall visit and inspect each local confinement facility at least semiannually. The purpose of the inspections is to investigate the conditions of confinement, the treatment of prisoners, the maintenance of entry level employment standards for jailers and supervisory and administrative personnel of local confinement facilities as provided for in G.S. 153A-216(4), and to determine whether the facilities meet the minimum standards published pursuant to G.S. 153A-221. The inspector shall make a written report of each inspection and submit it within 30 days after the day the inspection is completed to the governing body and other local officials responsible for the facility. The report shall specify each way in which the facility does not meet the minimum standards. The governing body shall consider the report at its first regular meeting after receipt of the report and shall promptly initiate any action necessary to bring the facility into conformity with the standards. Notwithstanding the provisions of G.S. 8-53 or any other provision of law relating to the confidentiality of communications between physician and patient, the representatives of the Department of Health and Human Services who make these inspections may review any writing or other record in any recording medium which pertains to the admission, discharge, medication, treatment, medical condition, or history of persons who are or have been inmates of the facility being inspected. Physicians, psychologists, psychiatrists, nurses, and anyone else involved in giving treatment at or through a facility who may be interviewed by representatives of the Department may disclose to these representatives information related to an inquiry, notwithstanding the existence of the physician-patient privilege in G.S. 8-53 or any other rule of law; provided the patient, resident or client has not made written objection to such disclosure. The facility, its employees, and any person interviewed during these inspections shall be immune from liability for damages resulting from the disclosure of any information to the Department. Any confidential or privileged information received from review of records or interviews shall be kept confidential by the Department and not disclosed without written authorization of the inmate or legal representative, or unless disclosure is ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction. The Department shall institute appropriate policies and procedures to ensure that this information shall not be disclosed without authorization or court order. The Department shall not disclose the name of anyone who has furnished information concerning a facility without the consent of that person. Neither the names of persons furnishing information nor any confidential or privileged information obtained from records or interviews shall be considered "public records" within the meaning of G.S. 132-1. Prior to releasing any information or allowing any inspections referred to in this section the patient, resident or client must be advised in writing that he has the right to object in writing to such release of information or review of his records and that by an objection in writing he may prohibit the inspection or release of his records. § 153A-223. Enforcement of minimum standards.

If an inspection conducted pursuant to G.S. 153A-222 discloses that the jailers and supervisory and administrative personnel of a local confinement facility do not meet the entry level employment standards established pursuant to Chapter 17C or Chapter 17E or that a local confinement facility does not meet the minimum standards published pursuant to G.S. 153A-221 and, in addition, if the Secretary determines that conditions in the facility jeopardize the safe custody, safety, health, or welfare of persons confined in the facility, the Secretary may order corrective action or close the facility, as provided in this section:

- (1) The Secretary shall give notice of his determination to the governing body and each other local official responsible for the facility. The Secretary shall also send a copy of this notice, along with a copy of the inspector's report, to the senior resident superior court judge of the superior court district or set of districts as defined in G.S. 7A-41.1 in which the facility is located. Upon receipt of the Secretary's notice, the governing body shall call a public hearing to consider the report. The hearing shall be held within 20 days after the day the Secretary's notice is received. The inspector shall appear at this hearing to advise and consult with the governing body concerning any corrective action necessary to bring the facility into conformity with the standards.
- (2) The governing body shall, within 30 days after the day the Secretary's notice is received, request a contested case hearing, initiate appropriate corrective action or close the facility. The corrective action must be completed within a reasonable time.
- (3) A contested case hearing, if requested, shall be conducted pursuant to G.S. 150B, Article 3. The issues shall be: (i) whether the facility meets the minimum standards; (ii) whether the conditions in the facility jeopardize the safe custody, safety, health, or welfare of persons confined therein; and (iii) the appropriate corrective action to be taken and a reasonable time to complete that action.
- (4) If the governing body does not, within 30 days after the day the Secretary's notice is received, or within 30 days after service of the final agency decision if a contested case hearing is held, either initiate corrective action or close the facility, or does not complete the action within a reasonable time, the Secretary may order that the facility be closed.
- (5) The governing body may appeal an order of the Secretary to the senior resident superior court judge. The governing body shall initiate the appeal by giving by registered mail to the judge and to the Secretary notice of its intention to appeal. The notice must be given within 15 days after the day the Secretary's order is received. If notice is not given within the 15-day period, the right to appeal is terminated.
- (6) The senior resident superior court judge shall hear the appeal. He shall cause notice of the date, time, and place of the hearing to be given to each interested party, including the Secretary, the governing body, and each other local official involved. The Secretary, if a contested case hearing has been held, shall file the official record, as defined in G.S. 150B-37, with the senior resident superior court judge and shall serve a copy on each person who has been given notice of the hearing. The judge shall conduct the hearing without a jury. He shall consider the official record, if any, and may accept evidence from the Secretary, the governing body, and each other local official which he finds appropriate. The issue before the court shall be whether the facility continues to jeopardize the safe custody, safety, health, or welfare of persons confined therein. The court may affirm, modify, or reverse the Secretary's order. (1947, c. 915; 1967, c. 581, s. 2; 1973, c. 476, s. 138; c. 822, s. 1; 1981, c. 614, ss. 20, 21; 1983, c. 745, s. 8; 1987, c. 827, s. 1; 1987 (Reg. Sess., 1988), c. 1037, s. 123.)

CASE NOTES

The use of the word "may" in this section is not accidental. It is consistent with the clearly defined statutory role of the Department and its Secretary. Reid v. Johnston County, 688 F. Supp. 200 (E.D.N.C. 1988), aff'd sub nom. Reid v. Kayye, 878 F.2d 1430 (4th Cir.), 885 F.2d 129 (4th Cir. 1989).

The enforcement of minimum standards at local jails is a discretionary duty. Reid v. Johnston County, 688 F. Supp. 200 (E.D.N.C. 1988), aff'd sub nom. Reid v. Kayye, 878 F.2d 1430 (4th Cir.), 885 F.2d 129 (4th Cir. 1989).

Secretary's affirmative duties are limited by the discretionary language in this section. Reid v. Johnston County, 688 F. Supp. 200 (E.D.N.C. 1988), aff'd sub nom. Reid v. Kayye, 878 F.2d 1430 (4th Cir.), 885 F.2d 129 (4th Cir. 1989).

Discretion of Secretary. — Use of the word "may" in this section is purposeful. Department of Human Resources officials are not vested with the mandatory duty to remedy substandard jail conditions, since there is no evidence that the General Assembly intends the Secretary to have anything more than the discretionary power to act when and if he chooses to use that discretion. Reid v. Kayye, 885 F.2d 129 (4th Cir. 1989).

County and its Board of Commissioners were liable under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 for past and continuing deprivations of constitutional rights of county prisoners and were subject to equitable remedies against them. Parnell v. Waldrep, 538 F. Supp. 1203 (W.D.N.C. 1982).

State Officials Held Not Liable for Conditions at a County Jail. — In an action by inmates of a county jail against state officials of the Department of Human Resources alleging the existence of unconstitutional conditions at the jail, the state officials could not be held vicariously liable under 42 U.S.C.A. § 1983, where plaintiffs did not demonstrate that actions taken by the officials under color of state law in any way caused constitutionally deficient conditions at the county jail. Reid v. Johnston County, 688 F. Supp. 200 (E.D.N.C. 1988), aff'd sub nom. Reid v. Kayye, 878 F.2d 1430 (4th Cir.), 885 F.2d 129 (4th Cir. 1989).

§ 153A-224. Supervision of local confinement facilities.

(a) No person may be confined in a local confinement facility unless custodial personnel are present and available to provide continuous supervision in order that custody will be secure and that, in event of emergency, such as fire, illness, assaults by other prisoners, or otherwise, the prisoners can be protected. These personnel shall supervise prisoners closely enough to maintain safe custody and control and to be at all times informed of the prisoners' general health and emergency medical needs.

(b) In a medical emergency, the custodial personnel shall secure emergency medical care from a licensed physician according to the unit's plan for medical care. If a physician designated in the plan is not available, the personnel shall secure medical services from any licensed physician who is available. The unit operating the facility shall pay the cost of emergency medical services unless the inmate has third-party insurance, in which case the third-party insurer shall be the initial payor and the medical provider shall bill the third-party insurer. The county shall only be liable for costs not reimbursed by the third-party insurer, in which event the county may recover from the inmate the cost of the non-reimbursed medical services.

(c) If a person violates any provision of this section, he is guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor. (1967, c. 581, s. 2; 1973, c. 822, s. 1; 1993, c. 510, s. 1; c. 539, s. 1061; 1994, Ex. Sess., c. 24, s. 14(c).)

CASE NOTES

Subdivision (b) of this section and § 153A-225 require that a county provide emergency medical services to prisoners incarcerated in the county's jail and pay for such services. University of N.C. v. Hill, 96 N.C. App. 673, 386 S.E.2d 755, aff'd, 327 N.C. 465, 396 S.E.2d 323 (1990).

City Not Liable for Cost of Treatment Where Persons Arrested Were Confined in County Jail. — A city was not liable to a hospital for the cost of treating a habitual inebriate who was injured when he fell while being assisted by city police officers, where there was no express agreement to pay for such services. Nor was there an implied promise to pay, pursuant to a statutory duty, since persons arrested by city police officers, if confined, were confined in the county jail. Under subsection (b) of this section, the cost of emergency medical services rendered to persons confined in local confinement facilities is imposed on the local governmental unit operating the facility. Craven County Hosp. Corp. v. Lenoir County, 75 N.C. App. 453, 331 S.E.2d 690, cert. denied, 314 N.C. 663, 336 S.E.2d 620 (1985).

Payment of Expenses Under Insurance

Policy. — Since medical payments made by county were mandated by statute, paying jail inmate's medical expenses was not voluntary, and therefore, payment under insurance policy was not barred for this reason. County of Guilford v. National Union Fire Ins. Co., 108 N.C. App. 1, 422 S.E.2d 360 (1992).

County's Claim Not Barred by Policy Exclusion. — Although insurance company argued that since county had a contract with hospital to provide medical care for prison inmates, policy exclusion barred coverage of payments made under that contract, since the county's liability for inmate's medical expenses was due not to its contract with the hospital, but rather to the statutory requirement that county prisons implement a plan for providing medical care to inmates, the county's claim was not barred by this policy exclusion. County of Guilford v. National Union Fire Ins. Co., 108 N.C. App. 1, 422 S.E.2d 360 (1992).

§ 153A-225. Medical care of prisoners.

(a) Each unit that operates a local confinement facility shall develop a plan for providing medical care for prisoners in the facility. The plan

- (1) Shall be designed to protect the health and welfare of the prisoners and to avoid the spread of contagious disease;
- (2) Shall provide for medical supervision of prisoners and emergency medical care for prisoners to the extent necessary for their health and welfare;
- (3) Shall provide for the detection, examination and treatment of prisoners who are infected with tuberculosis or venereal diseases.

The unit shall develop the plan in consultation with appropriate local officials and organizations, including the sheriff, the county physician, the local or district health director, and the local medical society. The plan must be approved by the local or district health director after consultation with the area mental health, developmental disabilities, and substance abuse authority, if it is adequate to protect the health and welfare of the prisoners. Upon a determination that the plan is adequate to protect the health and welfare of the prisoners, the plan must be adopted by the governing body.

As a part of its plan, each unit may establish fees of not more than ten dollars ($10.00) per incident for the provision of nonemergency medical care to prisoners. In establishing fees pursuant to this section, each unit shall establish a procedure for waiving fees for indigent prisoners.

(b) If a prisoner in a local confinement facility dies, the medical examiner and the coroner shall be notified immediately. Within five days after the day of the death, the administrator of the facility shall make a written report to the local or district health director and to the Secretary of Health and Human Services. The report shall be made on forms developed and distributed by the Department of Health and Human Services.

(c) If a person violates any provision of this section (including the requirements regarding G.S. 130-97 and 130-121), he is guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor. (1967, c. 581, s. 2; 1973, c. 476, ss. 128, 138; c. 822, s. 1; 1973, c. 1140, s. 3; 1989, c. 727, s. 204; 1991, c. 237, s. 2; 1993, c. 539, s. 1062; 1994, Ex. Sess., c. 24, s. 14(c); 1995, c. 385, s. 1; 1997-443, s. 11A.112.)

Editor's Note. — Sections 130-97 and 130-121, referred to in subsection (c) of this section, were repealed by Session Laws 1983, c. 891, s. 1.

CASE NOTES

This section and § 153A-224(b) require that a county provide emergency medical services to prisoners incarcerated in the county's jail and pay for such services. University of N.C. v. Hill, 96 N.C. App. 673, 386 S.E.2d 755, aff'd, 327 N.C. 465, 396 S.E.2d 323 (1990).

Liability of County for Emergency Medical Services. — Where a sheriff in an emergency requested a physician to render services to a prisoner in his custody who had been badly wounded resisting arrest, and there was evidence tending to show that under the circumstances he could not have obtained in time an order from the board of county commissioners assuming responsibility on behalf of the county to pay for such services, the objection of the commissioners that under such circumstances the county would not pay for the services and that liability would only attach as to those prisoners delivered at the county jail was untenable. Spicer v. Williamson, 191 N.C. 487, 132 S.E. 291 (1926), decided under former law.

Payment of Expenses Under Insurance

Policy. — Since medical payments made by county were mandated by statute, paying jail inmate's medical expenses was not voluntary, and therefore, payment under insurance policy was not barred for this reason. County of Guilford v. National Union Fire Ins. Co., 108 N.C. App. 1, 422 S.E.2d 360 (1992).

County's Claim Not Barred by Policy Exclusion. — Although insurance company argued that since county had a contract with hospital to provide medical care for prison inmates, policy exclusion barred coverage of payments made under that contract, since the county's liability for inmate's medical expenses was due not to its contract with the hospital, but rather to the statutory requirement that county prisons implement a plan for providing medical care to inmates, the county's claim was not barred by this policy exclusion. County of Guilford v. National Union Fire Ins. Co., 108 N.C. App. 1, 422 S.E.2d 360 (1992).

Applied in State ex rel. Williams v. Adams, 288 N.C. 501, 219 S.E.2d 198 (1975).

§ 153A-225.1. Duty of custodial personnel when prisoners are unconscious or semiconscious.

(a) Whenever a custodial officer of a local confinement facility takes custody of a prisoner who is unconscious, semiconscious, or otherwise apparently suffering from some disabling condition and unable to provide information on the causes of the condition, the officer should make a reasonable effort to determine if the prisoner is wearing a bracelet or necklace containing the Medic Alert Foundation's emergency alert symbol to indicate that the prisoner suffers from diabetes, epilepsy, a cardiac condition or any other form of illness which would cause a loss of consciousness. If such a symbol is found indicating that the prisoner suffers from one of those conditions, the officer must make a reasonable effort to have appropriate medical care provided.

(b) Failure of a custodial officer of a local confinement facility to make a reasonable effort to discover an emergency alert symbol as required by this section does not by itself establish negligence of the officer but may be considered along with other evidence to determine if the officer took reasonable precautions to ascertain the emergency medical needs of the prisoner in his custody.

(c) A prisoner who is provided medical care under the provisions of this section is liable for the reasonable costs of that care unless he is indigent.

(d) Repealed by Session Laws 1975, c. 818, s. 2. (1975, c. 306, s. 2; c. 818, s. 2.)

§ 153A-226. Sanitation and food.

(a) The Commission for Health Services shall adopt rules governing the sanitation of local confinement facilities, including the kitchens and other places where food is prepared for prisoners. The rules shall address, but not be limited to, the cleanliness of floors, walls, ceilings, storage spaces, utensils, ventilation equipment, and other facilities; adequacy of lighting, water, lavatory facilities, bedding, food protection facilities, treatment of eating and drinking utensils, and waste disposal; methods of food preparation, handling, storage, and serving; and any other item necessary to the health of the prisoners or the public.

(b) The Commission for Health Services shall prepare a score sheet to be used by local health departments in inspecting local confinement facilities. The local health departments shall inspect local confinement facilities as often as may be required by the Commission for Health Services. If an inspector of the Department finds conditions that reflect hazards or deficiencies in the sanitation or food service of a local confinement facility, he shall immediately notify the local health department. The health department shall promptly inspect the facility. After making its inspection, the local health department shall forward a copy of its report to the Department of Health and Human Services and to the unit operating the facility, on forms prepared by the Department of Environment and Natural Resources. The report shall indicate whether the facility and its kitchen or other place for preparing food is approved or disapproved for public health purposes. If the facility is disapproved, the situation shall be rectified according to the procedures of G.S. 153A-223. (1967, c. 581, s. 2; 1973, c. 476, s. 128; c. 822, s. 1; 1989, c. 727, s. 205; 1993, c. 262, s. 5; 1997-443, ss. 11A.113, 11A.118(a).)

§ 153A-228. Separation of sexes.

Male and female prisoners shall be confined in separate facilities or in separate quarters in local confinement facilities. (1967, c. 581, s. 2; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 153A-229. Jailers' report of jailed defendants.

The person having administrative control of a local confinement facility must furnish to the clerk of superior court a report listing such information reasonably at his disposal as is necessary to enable said clerk of superior court to comply with the provisions of G.S. 7A-109.1. (1973, c. 1286, s. 23; 1981, c. 522.)

Part 3. Satellite Jail/Work Release Units.

§ 153A-230. Legislative policy.

The policy of the General Assembly with respect to satellite jail/work release units is:

- (1) To encourage counties to accept responsibility for incarcerated misdemeanants thereby relieving the State prison system of its misdemeanant population;
- (2) To assist counties in providing suitable facilities for certain misdemeanants who receive active sentences;

- (3) To allow more misdemeanants who are employed at the time of sentencing to retain their jobs by eliminating the time involved in processing persons through the State system;
- (4) To enable misdemeanants to pay for their upkeep while serving time, to pay restitution, to continue to support their dependents, and to remain near the communities and families to which they will return after serving their time;
- (5) To provide more appropriate, cost effective housing for certain minimum custody misdemeanants and to utilize vacant buildings where possible and suitable for renovation;
- (6) To provide a rehabilitative atmosphere for non-violent misdemeanants who otherwise would face a substantial threat of imprisonment; and
- (7) To encourage the use of alternative to incarceration programs. (1987, c. 207, s. 1.)

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1987, c. 207, s. 4 made this Part effective July 1, 1987, but provided that the act should not be construed to obligate the General Assembly to make any appropriation to implement its provisions, nor should it be construed to obligate the State to make any grant for which no funds have been appropriated by the General Assembly.

§ 153A-230.1. Definitions.

Unless otherwise clearly required by the context, the words and phrases defined in this section have the meanings indicated when used in this Part:

- (1) "Office" means the Office of State Budget and Management.
- (2) "Satellite Jail/Work Release Unit" means a building or designated portion of a building primarily designed, staffed, and used for the housing of misdemeanants participating in a work release program. These units shall house misdemeanants only, except that, if he so chooses, the Sheriff may accept responsibility from the Department of Correction for the housing of felons who do not present security risks, who have achieved work release status, and who will be employed on work release, or for felons committed directly to his custody pursuant to G.S. 15A-1352(b). These units shall be operated on a full time basis, i.e., seven days/nights a week. (1987, c. 207, s. 1; 1987, (Reg. Sess., 1988), c. 1106, s. 1; 2000-140, s. 93.1(a); 2001-424, s. 12.2(b).)

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 2001-424, s. 1.2, provides: "This act shall be known as the 'Current Operations and Capital Improvements Appropriations Act of 2001'."

Session Laws 2001-424, s. 36.5 is a severability clause.

Effect of Amendments. — Session Laws 2000-140, s. 93.1(a), effective July 21, 2000, substituted "Office of State Budget, Planning, and Management" for "Office of State Budget and Management" in subsection (1).

Session Laws 2001-424, s. 12.2(b), effective July 1, 2001, substituted "Office of State Budget and Management" for "Office of State Budget, Planning, and Management" in subdivision (1).

§ 153A-230.2. Creation of Satellite Jail/Work Release Unit Fund.

(a) There is created in the Office of State Budget and Management the County Satellite Jail/Work Release Unit Fund to provide State grant funds for counties or groups of counties for construction of satellite jail/work release units for certain misdemeanants who receive active sentences. A county or group of counties may apply to the Office for a grant under this section. The application shall be in a form established by the Office. The Office shall:

- (1) Develop application and grant criteria based on the basic requirements listed in this Part,
- (2) Provide all Boards of County Commissioners and Sheriffs with the criteria and appropriate application forms, technical assistance, if requested, and a proposed written agreement,
- (3) Review all applications,
- (4) Select grantees and award grants,
- (5) Award no more than seven hundred fifty thousand dollars ($750,000) for any one county or group of counties except that if a group of counties agrees to jointly operate one unit for males and one unit for females, the maximum amount may be awarded for each unit,
- (6) Take into consideration the potential number of misdemeanants and the percentage of the county's or counties' misdemeanor population to be diverted from the State prison system,
- (7) Take into consideration the utilization of existing buildings suitable for renovation where appropriate,
- (8) Take into consideration the timeliness with which a county proposes to complete and occupy the unit,
- (9) Take into consideration the appropriateness and cost effectiveness of the proposal,
- (10) Take into consideration the plan with which the county intends to coordinate the unit with other community service programs such as intensive probation, community penalties, and community service.

When considering the items listed in subdivisions (6) through (10), the Office shall determine the appropriate weight to be given each item.

(b) A county or group of counties is eligible for a grant under this section if it agrees to abide by the basic requirements for satellite jail/work release units established in G.S. 153A-230.3. In order to receive a grant under this section, there must be a written agreement to abide by the basic requirements for satellite jail/work release units set forth in G.S. 153A-230.3. The written agreement shall be signed by the Chairman of the Board of County Commissioners, with approval of the Board of County Commissioners and after consultation with the Sheriff, and a representative of the Office of State Budget and Management. If a group of counties applies for the grant, then the agreement must be signed by the Chairman of the Board of County Commissioners of each county. Any variation from, including termination of, the original signed agreement must be approved by both the Office of State Budget and Management and by a vote of the Board of County Commissioners of the county or counties.

When the county or group of counties receives a grant under this section, the county or group of counties accepts ownership of the satellite jail/work release unit and full financial responsibility for maintaining and operating the unit, and for the upkeep of its occupants who comply with the eligibility criteria in G.S. 153A-230.3(a)(1). The county shall receive from the Department of Correction the amount paid to local confinement facilities under G.S. 148-32.1 for prisoners which are in the unit, but do not meet the eligibility of requirements under G.S. 153A-230.3(a)(1). (1987, c. 207, s. 1; 1987 (Reg. Sess., 1988), c. 1106, ss. 2, 3; 1989, c. 761, s. 2; 2000-140, s. 93.1(a); 2001-424, s. 12.2(b).)

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 2001-424, s. 1.2, provides: "This act shall be known as the 'Current Operations and Capital Improvements Appropriations Act of 2001'."

Session Laws 2001-424, s. 36.5 is a severability clause.

Effect of Amendments. — Session Laws

2000-140, s. 93.1(a), effective July 21, 2000, substituted "Office of State Budget, Planning, and Management" for "Office of State Budget and Management."

Session Laws 2001-424, s. 12.2(b), effective July 1, 2001, substituted "Office of State Budget and Management" for "Office of State Budget, Planning, and Management" in the introductory paragraphs of subsections (a) and (b).

§ 153A-230.3. Basic requirements for satellite jail/work release units.

(a) Eligibility for Unit. — The following rules shall govern which misdemeanants are housed in a satellite jail/work release unit:

- (1) Any convicted misdemeanant who:
  - a. Receives an active sentence in the county or group of counties operating the unit,
  - b. Is employed in the area or can otherwise earn his keep by working at the unit on maintenance and other jobs related to upkeep and operation of the unit or by assignment to community service work, and
  - c. Consents to placement in the unit under these conditions, shall not be sent to the State prison system except by written findings of the sentencing judge that the misdemeanant is violent or otherwise a threat to the public and therefore unsuitable for confinement in the unit.
- (2) The County shall offer work release programs to both male and female misdemeanants, through local facilities for both, or through a contractual agreement with another entity for either, provided that such arrangement is in reasonable proximity to the misdemeanant's workplace.
- (3) The sentencing judge shall make a finding of fact as to whether the misdemeanant is qualified for occupancy in the unit pursuant to G.S. 15A-1352(a). If the sentencing judge determines that the misdemeanant is qualified for occupancy in the unit and the misdemeanant meets the requirements of subdivision (1), then the custodian of the local confinement facility may transfer the misdemeanant to the unit. If at any time either prior to or after placement of an inmate into the unit the Sheriff determines that there is an indication of violence, unsuitable behavior, or other threat to the public that could make the prisoner unsuitable for the unit, the Sheriff may place the prisoner in the county jail.
- (4) The Sheriff may accept work release misdemeanants from other counties provided that those inmates agree to pay for their upkeep, that space is available, and that the Sheriff is willing to accept responsibility for the prisoner after screening.
- (5) The Sheriff may accept work release misdemeanants or felons from the Department of Correction provided that those inmates agree to pay for their upkeep, that space is available, and that the Sheriff is willing to accept responsibility for the prisoner after screening.

(a1) Non-eligible for unit. — If the sentencing judge finds that the misdemeanant does not meet the eligibility criteria set forth in G.S. 135A-230.3(a)(1)b, but is otherwise eligible for placement in the unit, then the Sheriff may transfer the misdemeanant from the local confinement facility to the unit if the misdemeanant meets the eligibility criteria at a later date. The Sheriff may also transfer prisoners who were placed in the unit pursuant to G.S. 148-32.1(b) to the local confinement facility when space becomes available.

(b) Operation of Satellite Jail/Work Release Unit. — A county or group of counties operating a satellite jail/work release unit shall comply with the following requirements concerning operation of the unit:

- (1) The county shall make every effort to ensure that at least eighty percent (80%) of the unit occupants shall be employed and on work release, and that the remainder shall earn their keep by working at the unit on maintenance and other jobs related to the upkeep and operation of the unit or by assignment to community service work, and that alcohol and drug rehabilitation be available through community resources.

- (2) The county shall require the occupants to give their earnings, less standard payroll deduction required by law and premiums for group health insurance coverage, to the Sheriff. The county may charge a per day charge from those occupants who are employed or otherwise able to pay from other resources available to the occupants. The per day charge shall be calculated based on the following formula: The charge shall be either the amount that the Department of Correction deducts from a prisoner's work-release earnings to pay for the cost of the prisoner's keep or fifty percent (50%) of the occupant's net weekly income, whichever is greater, but in no event may the per day charge exceed an amount that is twice the amount that the Department of Correction pays each local confinement facility for the cost of providing food, clothing, personal items, supervision, and necessary ordinary medical expenses. The per day charge may be adjusted on an individual basis where restitution and/or child support has been ordered, or where the occupant's salary or resources are insufficient to pay the charge.

The county also shall accumulate a reasonable sum from the earnings of the occupant to be returned to him when he is released from the unit. The county also shall follow the guidelines established for the Department of Correction in G.S. 148-33.1(f) for determining the amount and order of disbursements from the occupant's earnings.

- (3) Any and all proceeds from daily fees shall belong to the county's General Fund to aid in offsetting the operation and maintenance of the satellite unit.
- (4) The unit shall be operated on a full-time basis, i.e., seven days/nights a week, but weekend leave may be granted by the Sheriff. In granting weekend leave, the Sheriff shall follow the policies and procedures of the Department of Correction for granting weekend leave for Level 3 minimum custody inmates.
- (5) Earned time shall be applied to these county prisoners in the same manner as prescribed in G.S. 15A-1340.20 and G.S. 148-13 for State prisoners.
- (6) The Sheriff shall maintain complete and accurate records on each inmate. These records shall contain the same information as required for State prisoners that are housed in county local confinement facilities. (1987, c. 207, s. 1; 1987 (Reg. Sess., 1988), c. 1106, ss. 4, 5; 1989, c. 761, ss. 4, 7; 1993 (Reg. Sess., 1994), c. 767, s. 3.)

Editor's Note. — The reference in subsection (a1) of this section to § 135A-230.3 was probably intended to refer to this section.

§ 153A-230.4. Standards.

The county satellite jail/work release units for misdemeanants shall not be subject to the standards promulgated for local confinement facilities pursuant to G.S. 153A-221. The Secretary of Health and Human Services shall develop and enforce standards for satellite/work release units. The Secretary shall take into consideration that they are to house only screened misdemeanants most of whom are on work release and therefore occupy the premises only in their off-work hours. After consultation with the North Carolina Sheriff's Association, the North Carolina Association of County Commissioners, and the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations, the Secretary of Health and Human Services shall promulgate standards suitable for these units by January 1, 1988, and shall include these units in the Department's monitoring and inspection responsibilities. Further, the North Carolina Sheriffs' Education and Training Standards Commission shall include appropriate training for Sheriffs and other county law enforcement personnel in regard to the operation, management and guidelines for county work release centers pursuant to its authority under G.S. 17E-4. (1987, c. 207, s. 1; 1987 (Reg. Sess., 1988), c. 1106, s. 6; 1997-443, s. 11A.118(a).)

§ 153A-230.5. Satellite jails/work release units built with non-State funds.

(a) If a county is operating a satellite jail/work release unit prior to the enactment of this act, the county may apply to the Office of State Budget and Management for grant funds to recover any verifiable construction or renovation costs for those units and for improvement funds except that the total for reimbursement and improvement shall not exceed seven hundred fifty thousand dollars ($750,000). Any county accepting such a grant or any other State monies for county satellite jails must agree to all of the basic requirements listed in G.S. 153A-230.2 and G.S. 153A-230.3.

(b) If a county operates a non-State funded satellite jail/work release unit that does not comply with the basic requirements listed in G.S. 153A-230.2 and G.S. 153A-230.3, then the satellite jail shall be subject to the standards, rules, and regulations to be promulgated by the Secretary of Health and Human Services pursuant to Part 2 of Article 10 of Chapter 153A. If a county is reimbursed for the cost of a prisoner's keep from an inmate's work release earnings in an amount equal to or greater than that paid by the Department of Correction to local confinement facilities under G.S. 148-32.1, the county may not receive additional payments from the department for the cost of a prisoner's keep. However, if reimbursement to the county for the cost of a prisoner's keep is less than the amount allowed under G.S. 148-32.1, the county may receive from the Department of Correction the difference in the amount received from work release earnings and the amount paid by the department to local confinement facilities. The department may promulgate rules regarding such payment arrangements. (1987, c. 207, s. 1; 1987 (Reg. Sess., 1988), c. 1106, s. 7; 1989, c. 761, s. 5; 1997-443, s. 11A.118(a); 2000-140, s. 93.1(a); 2001-424, s. 12.2(b).)

Editor's Note. — The phrase "this act" in subsection (a) refers to Session Laws 1987, c. 207, which became effective July 1, 1987.

Session Laws 2001-424, s. 1.2, provides: "This act shall be known as the 'Current Operations and Capital Improvements Appropriations Act of 2001'."

Session Laws 2001-424, s. 36.5 is a severability clause.

Effect of Amendments. — Session Laws

2000-140, s. 93.1(a), effective July 21, 2000, substituted "Office of State Budget, Planning, and Management" for "Office of State Budget and Management" in subsection (a).

Session Laws 2001-424, s. 12.2(b), effective July 1, 2001, substituted "Office of State Budget and Management" for "Office of State Budget, Planning, and Management" in subsection (a).

ARTICLE 11.

*Fire Protection.§ 153A-233. Fire-fighting and prevention services.

A county may establish, organize, equip, support, and maintain a fire department; may prescribe the duties of the fire department; may provide financial assistance to incorporated volunteer fire departments; may contract for fire-fighting or prevention services with one or more counties, cities, or other units of local government or with an agency of the State government, or with one or more incorporated volunteer fire departments; and may for these purposes appropriate funds not otherwise limited as to use by law. The county may also designate fire districts or parts of existing districts and prescribe the boundaries thereof for insurance grading purposes. (1945, c. 244; 1973, c. 822, s. 1; 1977, c. 158.)

Local Modification. — Graham: 1985, c. 272; (As to Article 11) Richmond: 1995 (Reg. Sess., 1996), c. 657, s. 1; Macon: 1985, c. 272; (As to Article 11) Halifax: 1993, c. 316, s. 1;

§ 153A-234. Fire marshal.

A county may appoint a fire marshal and employ persons as his assistants. A county may also impose any duty that might be imposed on a fire marshal on any other officer or employee of the county. The board of commissioners shall set the duties of the fire marshal, which may include but are not limited to:

- (1) Advising the board on improvements in the fire-fighting or fire prevention activities under the county's supervision or control.
- (2) Coordinating fire-fighting and training activities under the county's supervision or control.
- (3) Coordinating fire prevention activities under the county's supervision or control.
- (4) Assisting incorporated volunteer fire departments in developing and improving their fire-fighting or fire prevention capabilities.
- (5) Making fire prevention inspections, including the periodic inspections and reports of school buildings required by Chapter 115 and the inspections of child care facilities required by Chapter 110. A fire marshal shall not make electrical inspections unless he is qualified to do so under G.S. 153A-351. (1959, c. 290; 1969, c. 1064, s. 2; 1973, c. 822, s. 1; 1997-506, s. 62.)

ARTICLE 12.

*Roads and Bridges.§ 153A-238. Public road defined for counties.

(a) In this Article “public road” or “road” means any road, street, highway, thoroughfare, or other way of passage that has been irrevocably dedicated to the public or in which the public has acquired rights by prescription, without regard to whether it is open for travel, except that in G.S. 153A-239.1, the word “road” means both private roads and public roads.

(b) Repealed by Session Laws 1993, c. 62, s. 1. (1979, 2nd Sess., c. 1319, s. 1; 1981, c. 568; 1983, cc. 98, 299; 1987 (Reg. Sess., 1988), cc. 900, 906; 1989, c. 335, s. 1; 1989 (Reg. and 1989 (Reg. Sess., 1990), c. 836, was codified as this section at the direction of the Revisor of Statutes.

Editor’s Note. — Section 153A-238 formerly excepted certain counties from the application of this section. Session Laws 1993, c. 62, repealed this section and made § 153A-238 statewide in application.

§ 153A-239.1. Naming roads and assigning street numbers in unincorporated areas for counties.

(a) A county may by ordinance name or rename any road within the county and not within a city, and may pursuant to a procedure established by ordinance assign or reassign street numbers for use on such a road. In naming or renaming a road, a county may not:

- (1) Change the name, if any, given to the road by the Board of Transportation, unless the Board of Transportation agrees;
- (2) Change the number assigned to the road by the Board of Transportation, but may give the road a name in addition to its number; or
- (3) Give the road a name that is deceptively similar to the name of any other public road in the vicinity.

A county shall not name or rename a road or adopt an ordinance to establish a procedure to assign or reassign street numbers on a road until it has held a public hearing on the matter. At least 10 days before the day of the hearing to name or rename a road, the board of commissioners shall cause notice of the time, place and subject matter of the hearing to be prominently posted at the county courthouse, in at least two public places in the township or townships where the road is located, and shall publish a notice of such hearing in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county. At least 10 days before the day of the hearing to adopt an ordinance to establish a procedure to assign or reassign street numbers on a road, the board of commissioners shall publish a notice of such hearing in a newspaper of general circulation in the county. After naming or renaming a road, or assigning or reassigning street numbers on a road, a county shall cause notice of its action to be given to the local postmaster with jurisdiction over the road, to the Board of Transportation, and to any city within five miles of the road. Names may be initially assigned to new roads by recordation of an approved subdivision plat without following the procedure established by this section.

(b) Repealed by Session Laws 1993, c. 62, s. 3. (1979, 2nd Sess., c. 1319, s. 2; 1981, c. 568; 1983, cc. 98, 299; 1987 (Reg. Sess., 1988), cc. 900, 906; 1989, c. 335, s. 1; 1989 (Reg. Local Modification. — Cleveland: 1989, c. 156.

Editor’s Note. — Session Laws 1979, 2nd Sess., c. 1319, s. 2, as amended by Session Laws 1981, c. 568; 1983, cc. 98 and 299; 1987 (Reg. Sess., 1988), cc. 900 and 906; 1989, c. 335, s. 1; and 1989 (Reg. Sess., 1990), cc. 836, 854 and 911 has been codified as this section at the direction of the Revisor of Statutes.

Effect of Amendments. — Session Laws

2001-146, s. 1, effective May 31, 2001, in subsection (a), inserted “pursuant to a procedure established by ordinance” in the introductory language, and in the last paragraph, inserted “adopt an ordinance to establish a procedure to” in the first sentence, inserted “to name or rename a road” in the second sentence, added the third and fifth sentences, and made minor punctuation changes.

Editor’s Note. — Section 153A-239.1 formerly excepted certain counties from the application of this section. Session Laws 1993, c. 62, repealed this section and made § 153A-239.1 statewide in application.

§ 153A-241. Closing public roads or easements.

A county may permanently close any public road or any easement within the county and not within a city, except public roads or easements for public roads under the control and supervision of the Department of Transportation. The board of commissioners shall first adopt a resolution declaring its intent to close the public road or easement and calling a public hearing on the question. The board shall cause a notice of the public hearing reasonably calculated to give full and fair disclosure of the proposed closing to be published once a week for three successive weeks before the hearing, a copy of the resolution to be sent by registered or certified mail to each owner as shown on the county tax records of property adjoining the public road or easement who did not join in the request to have the road or easement closed, and a notice of the closing and public hearing to be prominently posted in at least two places along the road or easement. At the hearing the board shall hear all interested persons who appear with respect to whether the closing would be detrimental to the public interest or to any individual property rights. If, after the hearing, the board of commissioners is satisfied that closing the public road or easement is not contrary to the public interest and (in the case of a road) that no individual owning property in the vicinity of the road or in the subdivision in which it is located would thereby be deprived of reasonable means of ingress and egress to his property, the board may adopt an order closing the road or easement. A certified copy of the order (or judgment of the court) shall be filed in the office of the register of deeds of the county.

Any person aggrieved by the closing of a public road or an easement may appeal the board of commissioners’ order to the appropriate division of the General Court of Justice within 30 days after the day the order is adopted. The court shall hear the matter de novo and has jurisdiction to try the issues arising and to order the road or easement closed upon proper findings of fact by the trier of fact.

No cause of action founded upon the invalidity of a proceeding taken in closing a public road or an easement may be asserted except in an action or proceeding begun within 30 days after the day the order is adopted.

Upon the closing of a public road or an easement pursuant to this section, all right, title, and interest in the right-of-way is vested in those persons owning lots or parcels of land adjacent to the road or easement, and the title of each adjoining landowner, for the width of his abutting land, extends to the center line of the public road or easement. However, the right, title or interest vested in an adjoining landowner by this paragraph remains subject to any public utility use or facility located on, over, or under the road or easement immediately before its closing, until the landowner or any successor thereto pays to the utility involved the reasonable cost of removing and relocating the facility. (1949, c. 1208, ss. 1-3; 1957, c. 65, s. 11; 1965, cc. 665, 801; 1971, c. 595; 1973, c. 507, s. 5; c. 822, s. 1; 1977, c. 464, s. 34; 1995, c. 374, s. 1.)

aries of a dedicated street when use of the street is discontinued, see 45 N.C.L. Rev. 564 (1967).

CASE NOTES

Editor's Note. — Some of the cases cited below were decided under corresponding sections of former law.

Owners of property on a street which is to be partially closed have an interest in the hearing on the request to close the street. In re City of Washington, 15 N.C. App. 505, 190 S.E.2d 309, cert. denied, 282 N.C. 151, 191 S.E.2d 601 (1972).

Legislative Intent as to Giving Notice. — The true legislative intent is that if a municipality wishes to close a street, or a part thereof, the notices required must be given. Such an intent is fair and just, because it affords all interested parties an opportunity to be heard. In re City of Washington, 15 N.C. App. 505, 190 S.E.2d 309, cert. denied, 282 N.C. 151, 191 S.E.2d 601 (1972).

Notice to Adjoining Property Owners Not to Be Limited to Those with Special Interest. — The statute requires notice by registered mail to the owners of property adjoining the street to be closed who did not join in the request for closing the street. The words of the statute are clear and unequivocal. There is nothing to indicate that only those with a "special interest" must be notified by registered mail. In re City of Washington, 15 N.C. App. 505, 190 S.E.2d 309, cert. denied, 282 N.C. 151, 191 S.E.2d 601 (1972).

Restrictions on County's Power to Close a Way of Passage. — From this section and former § 153A-239, it was clear that a county did not have the power to close a way of passage which had not been dedicated to the public or in which the public had not acquired rights by prescription. In re Easement of Right of Way, 90 N.C. App. 303, 368 S.E.2d 639 (1988).

The closing of a street must not deprive a property owner of reasonable ingress or egress. Wofford v. North Carolina State Hwy. Comm'n, 263 N.C. 677, 140 S.E.2d 376, cert. denied, 382 U.S. 822, 86 S. Ct. 50, 15 L. Ed. 2d 67 (1965).

An individual may restrain the wrongful obstruction of a public way, of whatever origin, if he will suffer injury thereby as distinct from the inconvenience to the public generally, and he may recover such special damages as he has sustained by reason of the obstruction. Wofford v. North Carolina State Hwy. Comm'n, 263 N.C. 677, 140 S.E.2d 376, cert. denied, 382 U.S. 822, 86 S. Ct. 50, 15 L. Ed. 2d 67 (1965).

Applied in Whitehead Community Club v. Hoppers, 43 N.C. App. 671, 260 S.E.2d 94 (1979).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL

This section does not apply to closing a portion of a street in a subdivision that has been offered for dedication but never accepted by a public authority nor opened for public use. Subdivision streets are not open to the public as a matter of right until they have been accepted on behalf of the public in a manner recognized by law. County authorities can only proceed under this section to close a road after an offer of dedication has been accepted and public rights have attached. See opinion of Attorney General to William P. Mayo, County Attorney, Beaufort County, 49 N.C.A.G. 188 (1980).

§ 153A-242. Regulation or prohibition of fishing from bridges.

A county may by ordinance regulate or prohibit fishing from any bridge within the county and not within a city. In addition, the governing board of a city may by resolution permit a county to regulate or prohibit fishing from any bridge within the city. The city may by resolution withdraw its permission to the county ordinance. If it does so, the city shall give written notice to the county of its withdrawal of permission; 30 days after the date the county receives this notice the county ordinance ceases to be applicable within the city. An ordinance adopted pursuant to this section shall provide for signs to be posted on each bridge affected, summarizing the regulation or prohibition pertaining to that bridge.

No person may fish from the drawspan of a regularly attended bridge, and no county may permit any person to do so.

The authority granted by this section is subject to the authority of the Department of Transportation to prohibit fishing from any bridge on the State highway system. (1971, c. 690, ss. 1, 6; 1973, c. 507, s. 5; c. 822, s. 1; 1977, c. 464, s. 34.)

§ 153A-243. Authorizing bridges over navigable waters.

A county may grant to persons who between them own or occupy real property on both sides of a body of navigable water lying wholly within the county the right to construct and maintain across the body of water a bridge connecting the property. The board of commissioners shall first adopt a resolution declaring its intent to grant the right and calling a public hearing on the question. The board shall cause the resolution to be published once a week for four successive weeks before the hearing. At the hearing the board shall hear all interested persons who appear with respect to whether the grant would be in the public interest. If, after the hearing, the board finds that the grant is not contrary to the public interest, it may adopt an order granting the right to construct the bridge. The board may place reasonable terms and conditions, including time limitations, on the grant.

A person aggrieved by a grant may appeal the board of commissioners' order to the appropriate division of the General Court of Justice within 30 days after the day it is adopted. The court shall hear the matter de novo and has jurisdiction to try the issues arising and to grant the right to construct the bridge.

Before construction may be commenced on any bridge authorized pursuant to this section, the bridge's location and plans must be submitted to and approved by the Chief of Engineers of the United States Army and the Secretary of the Army. (Pub. Loc. 1191, c. 227; C.S., s. 1297; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 153A-244. Railroad revitalization programs.

Any county is authorized to participate in State and federal railroad revitalization programs necessary to insure continued or improved rail service to the county, as are authorized in Article 2D of Chapter 136 of the General Statutes. County participation includes the authority to enter into contracts with the North Carolina Department of Transportation to provide for the nonfederal matching funds for railroad revitalization programs. Such funds may be comprised of State funds distributed to the counties under the provisions of G.S. 136-44.38 and of county funds. County governments are also authorized to levy local property tax for railroad revitalization programs subject to G.S. 153A-149(d). County funds for any project may not exceed ten percent (10%) of total project costs. (1979, c. 658, s. 4.)

§ 153A-247. Provision for public health and mental health.

A county may provide for and regulate the public health pursuant to Chapter 130A of the General Statutes and any other law authorizing local public health activities and may provide mental health[,], mental retardation, and substance abuse programs pursuant to Chapter 122C of the General Statutes. (1973, c. 822, s. 1; 1985, c. 589, s. 58.)

CASE NOTES

Boards of county commissioners can establish public hospitals for their several counties in cases of necessity and make rules, regulations and bylaws for preventing the spread of contagious and infectious diseases and for taking care of those afflicted thereby, the same not being inconsistent with the laws of the State. Prichard v. Board of Comm'rs, 126 N.C. 908, 36 S.E. 353 (1900), decided under former law.

A board of county commissioners cannot burn a residence to prevent the spread of contagious and infectious diseases. A proper disinfection would be the extent of their powers in respect to property thus tainted or infected. Prichard v. Board of Comm'rs, 126 N.C. 908, 36 S.E. 353 (1900), decided under former law.

§ 153A-248. Health-related appropriations.

(a) A county may appropriate revenues not otherwise limited as to use by law:

- (1) To a licensed facility for the mentally retarded, whether publicly or privately owned, to assist in maintaining and developing facilities and treatment, if the board of commissioners determines that the care offered by the facility is available to residents of the county. The facility need not be located within the county.
- (2) To a sheltered workshop or other private, nonprofit, charitable organization offering work or training activities to the physically or mentally handicapped, and may otherwise assist such an organization.

- (3) To an orthopedic hospital, whether publicly or privately owned, to assist in maintaining and developing facilities and treatment, if the board of commissioners determines that the care offered by the hospital is available to residents of the county. The hospital need not be located within the county.
- (4) To a training center or other private, nonprofit, charitable organization offering education, treatment, rehabilitation, or developmental programs to the physically or mentally handicapped, and may otherwise assist such organizations; provided, however, such action shall be with the concurrence of the county board of education; and provided, further, that within 30 days after receipt of the request for concurrence, the county board of education shall notify the board of county commissioners whether it concurs, and should it fail to so notify the board of county commissioners within such period, it shall be deemed to have concurred.

(b) The ordinance making the appropriation shall state specifically what the appropriation is to be used for, and the board of commissioners shall require that the recipient account for the appropriation at the close of the fiscal year. (1967, cc. 464, 1074; 1969, c. 802; 1973, c. 822, s. 1; 1977, c. 474; 1979, c. 1074, s. 2.)

CASE NOTES

Subdivision (a)(2) Is Inapplicable to Learning-Disabled Children. — While the general terms of subdivision (a)(2) of this section could conceivably be construed to address the problem of inadequate educational opportunities for learning-disabled children in the school system, it is evident that the specific remedies prescribed in former §§ 115-315.7, et seq., 115-377, and 115-384 were controlling. Hughey v. Cloninger, 297 N.C. 86, 253 S.E.2d 898 (1979).

And subdivision (a)(2) cannot be reasonably interpreted to encompass schools for dyslexic children. Hughey v. Cloninger, 297 N.C. 86, 253 S.E.2d 898 (1979).

Hence an appropriation by Gaston County to the Dyslexia School of North Carolina was not authorized by subdivision (a)(2) of this section. Hughey v. Cloninger, 297 N.C. 86, 253 S.E.2d 898 (1979).

§ 153A-249. Hospital services.

A county may provide and support hospital services pursuant to Chapters 122C, 131 and 131E of the General Statutes. (1868, c. 20, s. 8; Code, s. 707; Rev., s. 1318; C.S., s. 1297; 1923, c. 81; 1973, c. 822, s. 1; 1985, c. 589, s. 59.)

Editor's Note. — Chapter 131, referred to in this section, was repealed by Session Laws 1983, c. 775, s. 1. As to health care facilities and services, see now Chapter 131E.

CASE NOTES

County commissioners are not liable for failure to establish hospitals. Bell v. Commissioners of Johnston County, 127 N.C. 85, 37 S.E. 136 (1900), decided under former law.

Funds paid to memorial hospital by city and county under contract did not make the hospital a State agency subject to federal interdiction. Eaton v. Board of Managers, 261 F.2d 521 (4th Cir. 1958), cert. denied, 359 U.S. 984, 79 S. Ct. 941, 3 L. Ed. 2d 934 (1959) decided under former law.

Applied in National Medical Enters., Inc. v. Sandrock, 72 N.C. App. 245, 324 S.E.2d 268 (1985).

Ogletree, Tyrrell County Attorney, 40 N.C.A.G. 352 (1970).

§ 153A-250. Ambulance services.

(a) A county may by ordinance franchise ambulance services provided in the county to the public at large, whether the service is based inside or outside the county. The ordinance may:

- (1) Grant franchises to ambulance operators on terms set by the board of commissioners;
- (2) Make it unlawful to provide ambulance services or to operate an ambulance in the county without such a franchise;
- (3) Limit the number of ambulances that may be operated within the county;
- (4) Limit the number of ambulances that may be operated by each franchised operator;
- (5) Determine the areas of the county that may be served by each franchised operator;
- (6) Establish and from time to time revise a schedule of rates, fees, and charges that may be charged by franchised operators;
- (7) Set minimum limits of liability insurance for each franchised operator;
- (8) Establish other necessary regulations consistent with and supplementary to any statute or any Department of Health and Human Services regulation relating to ambulance services.

Before it may adopt an ordinance pursuant to this subsection, the board of commissioners must first hold a public hearing on the need for ambulance services. The board shall cause notice of the hearing to be published once a week for two successive weeks before the hearing. After the hearing the board may adopt an ordinance if it finds that to do so is necessary to assure the provision of adequate and continuing ambulance service and to preserve, protect, and promote the public health, safety, and welfare.

If a person, firm, or corporation is providing ambulance services in a county or any portion thereof on the effective date of an ordinance adopted pursuant to this subsection, the person, firm, or corporation is entitled to a franchise to continue to serve that part of the county in which the service is being provided. The board of commissioners shall determine whether the person, firm, or corporation so entitled to a franchise is in compliance with Chapter 130, Article 26; and if that is the case, the board shall grant the franchise.

(b) In lieu of or in addition to adopting an ordinance pursuant to subsection (a) of this section, a county may operate or contract for ambulance services in all or a portion of the county. A county may appropriate for ambulance services any revenues not otherwise limited as to use by law, and may establish and from time to time revise schedules of rates, fees, charges, and penalties for the ambulance services. A county may operate its ambulance services as a line department or may create an ambulance commission and vest in it authority to operate the ambulance services.

(c) A city may adopt an ordinance pursuant to and under the procedures of subsection (a) of this section and may operate or contract for ambulance services pursuant to subsection (b) of this section if (i) the county in which the city is located has adopted a resolution authorizing the city to do so or (ii) the county has not, within 180 days after being requested by the city to do so, provided for ambulance services within the city pursuant to this section. Any action taken by a city pursuant to this subsection shall apply only within the corporate limits of the city.

If a city is exercising a power granted by this subsection, the county in which the city is located may thereafter take action to provide for ambulance service within the city, either under subsection (a) or subsection (b) of this section, only after having given to the city 180 days' notice of the county's intention to take action. At the end of the 180 days, the city's authority under this subsection is preempted by the county.

(d) A county or a city may contract with a franchised ambulance operator or with another county or city for ambulance service to be provided upon the call of a department or agency of the county or city. A county may contract with a franchised ambulance operator for transportation of indigents or persons certified by the county department of social services to be public assistance recipients.

(e) Each county or city operating ambulance services is subject to the provisions of Chapter 130, Article 26 ("Regulation of Ambulance Services"). (1967, c. 343, s. 5; 1969, c. 147; 1973, c. 476, s. 128; c. 822, s. 1; 1997-443, s. 11A.118(a).)

Cross References. — As to the providing of emergency medical, rescue and ambulance service by rural fire protection districts, see § 69-25.4.

Editor's Note. — Chapter 130, Article 26, referred to in this section, was repealed by Session Laws 1983, c. 891, s. 1. As to regulation of ambulance services, see now § 131E-155 et seq.

CASE NOTES

Editor's Note. — Many of the cases cited below were decided under corresponding sections of former law.

Constitutionality of Liability Insurance Provision. — Subdivision a6 of former § 153-9(58), which was identical to subdivision (a)(7) of this section, was not void as being in contravention of constitutional prohibitions against monopolies and exclusive emoluments, since it did not provide that liability insurance should be the exclusive method of indemnifying persons or property against loss due to negligent operation of the ambulance service. Whaley v. Lenoir County, 5 N.C. App. 319, 168 S.E.2d 411 (1969).

Regulation of ambulance service is a valid and legitimate exercise of the police power. Whaley v. Lenoir County, 5 N.C. App. 319, 168 S.E.2d 411 (1969).

But Authority of County Cannot Exceed That Given by Enabling Act. — The authority of the county to regulate ambulance service, whether it be by franchise, permit, certificate of public convenience or necessity, license or whatever name is given, can only come from and cannot exceed that given by the enabling act. Whaley v. Lenoir County, 5 N.C. App. 319, 168 S.E.2d 411 (1969).

For case holding county ordinance reg- ulating ambulance service unconstitutional, see Whaley v. Lenoir County, 5 N.C. App. 319, 168 S.E.2d 411 (1969).

County-operated ambulance service was entitled to governmental immunity, even though it charged a fee to help defray operating costs. McIver v. Smith, 134 N.C. App. 583, 518 S.E.2d 522 (1999).

Contract with Funeral Home for Ambulance Services. — In the absence of a vote or of authority expressly granted by the legislature, a county may not legally contract with a funeral home for ambulance services, and its attempt to do so prior to the enactment of an enabling statute was ultra vires. Moody v. Transylvania County, 271 N.C. 384, 156 S.E.2d 716 (1967).

The grandfather clause in this section is not self-executing. Nursing Registry, Inc. v. Eastern N.C. Regional Emergency Medical Servs. Consortium, Inc., 959 F. Supp. 298 (E.D.N.C. 1997).

Application Required. — In order to notify the board of commissioners that one is currently providing ambulance services, and in order to give the board an opportunity to affirmatively grant a franchise to continue doing business, it is necessary that an ambulance company actually submit an application that can be granted. Nursing Registry, Inc. v. Eastern N.C. Regional Emergency Medical Servs.

Consortium, Inc., 959 F. Supp. 298 (E.D.N.C. 1997).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL

Provision of Ambulance Service Within Discretion of Board of Commissioners. — Former § 153-9(58) did not authorize the holding of a “straw vote” election, or any type of referendum to determine whether ambulance services should be provided or continued. Whether ambulance service should be provided or continued is a matter within the discretion of the board of county commissioners. See opinion of Attorney General to Mr. E. Ray Etheridge, Camden County Attorney, 40 N.C.A.G. 74 (1969).

County May, in Certain Cases, Provide Free Ambulance Service. — See opinion of Attorney General to Mr. Joe O. Brewer, 43 N.C.A.G. 157 (1973).

§§ 153A-251 through 153A-254: Reserved for future codification purposes.

Part 2. Social Service Provisions.

§ 153A-255. Authority to provide social service programs.

Each county shall provide social service programs pursuant to Chapter 108A and Chapter 111 and may otherwise undertake, sponsor, organize, engage in, and support other social service programs intended to further the health, welfare, education, employment, safety, comfort, and convenience of its citizens. (1868, c. 20, s. 8; Code, s. 707; Rev., s. 1318; C.S., s. 1297; 1973, c. 822, s. 1; 1981, c. 562, s. 12; 1997-443, s. 12.13.)

Legal Periodicals. — For survey of 1980 constitutional law, see 59 N.C.L. Rev. 1116 (1981).

CASE NOTES

Editor’s Note. — Some of the cases cited below were decided under corresponding sections of former law.

Appropriation for Dyslexia School Not Authorized. — An appropriation by the Gaston County Board of Commissioners to the Dyslexia School of North Carolina was not authorized by either § 153A-149(c)(30) or this section. Hughey v. Cloninger, 297 N.C. 86, 253 S.E.2d 898 (1979).

Tax Levy to Fund Medically Unnecessary Abortions Ultra Vires and Void. — This section does not give counties the underlying authority to levy taxes pursuant to § 153A-149(c)(30) to fund medically unnecessary abortions, since the authority conferred upon counties to provide social services pursuant to this section is limited to providing the poor with the basic necessities of life, and a medically unnecessary abortion is not a basic necessity of life; therefore, a county exceeds its statutorily conferred power in levying a tax to fund medically unnecessary abortions, and the tax levy is ultra vires and void. Stam v. State,

Ascertainment of Indigents Entitled to Support. — It is the exclusive right of the legislature to determine and declare by whom and how the indigent of the State entitled to support shall be ascertained, and from what fund and by whom allowances for their support shall be made. Board of Educ. v. Commissioners of Bladen, 113 N.C. 379, 18 S.E. 661 (1893).

The legislature may delegate authority to county officials to provide and care for one class of the indigent or unfortunate inhabitants of the State, and to disburse a part of the fund devoted to the support of the poor, by appropriating it more directly to another class, whose wants, in the opinion of the lawmakers, can be best supplied through public agencies of a different kind. Board of Educ. v. Commissioners of Bladen, 113 N.C. 379, 18 S.E. 661 (1893).

No Recovery from County for Officially Providing for Pauper. — Although a person may be a proper subject of county charge, anyone who officiously provides for such person cannot recover the amount of his outlay from the county. Copple v. Commissioners of Davie County, 138 N.C. 127, 50 S.E. 574 (1905).

Express Contract or Express Request for Service Necessary to Bind County. — In order to make a binding pecuniary obligation on the county, there must be an express contract to that effect, or the service must be done at the express request of the proper county officer or agent. Copple v. Commissioners of Davie County, 138 N.C. 127, 50 S.E. 574 (1905).

Thirty-Year Contract Upheld. — Where the General Assembly authorized a county to enter into a contract with a public hospital for the care of its indigent sick for a period of 30 years, and the board of commissioners of the county, in the exercise of the discretion vested in the board by the statute, agreed to contract for that period, the contract would not be held invalid because of its duration. Martin v. Board of Comm'rs, 208 N.C. 354, 180 S.E. 777 (1935).

For case holding contracts for the loan of money made by the late county courts for the support of paupers ultra vires, and therefore void, see Daniel v. Board of Comm'rs, 74 N.C. 494 (1876).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL

County-owned pharmacy which is operated with the approval of the county commissioners for the purpose of dispensing drugs to needy persons may be a participant in the State Board of Social Services' (now Department of Human Resources') drug program under which the board (department) makes payments to pharmacies for drugs dispensed to welfare recipients. See opinion of Attorney General to Mr. Emmett L. Sellers, Director, Division of Medical Services, State Department of Social Services, 40 N.C.A.G. 704 (1969).

§ 153A-256. County home.

A county may establish, erect, acquire, lease as lessor or lessee, equip, support, operate, and maintain a county home for aged and infirm persons and may appropriate funds for these purposes.

The superintendent of each county home shall make an annual report on its operation to the board of commissioners of the county operating the home and to the Department of Health and Human Services. The report shall contain any information that the board of commissioners and the Department of Health and Human Services, respectively, require, and the Department may provide forms for this report. (1876-7, c. 277, s. 3; Code, ss. 3541, 3543; 1891, c. 138; Rev., ss. 1328, 1329; 1919, c. 72; C.S., ss. 1336, 1337, 1338; 1961, c. 139, s. 1; 1973, c. 476, s. 138; c. 822, s. 1; 1997-443, s. 11A.118(a).)

CASE NOTES

Three-year statute of limitations applies to an action brought by a county against an inmate of a county home to secure reimbursement or indemnity for sums expended for her upkeep in the home. Guilford County v. Hampton, 224 N.C. 817, 32 S.E.2d 606 (1945), decided under former law.

§ 153A-257. Legal residence for social service purposes.

(a) Legal residence in a county determines which county is responsible (i) for financial support of a needy person who meets the eligibility requirements for a public assistance or medical care program offered by the county or (ii) for other social services required by the person.

Legal residence in a county is determined as follows:

- (1) Except as modified below, a person has legal residence in the county in which he resides.
- (2) If a person is in a hospital, mental institution, nursing home, boarding home, confinement facility, or similar institution or facility, he does not, solely because of that fact, have legal residence in the county in which the institution or facility is located.

(3) A minor has the legal residence of the parent or other relative with whom he resides. If the minor does not reside with a parent or relative and is not in a foster home, hospital, mental institution, nursing home, boarding home, educational institution, confinement facility, or similar institution or facility, he has the legal residence of the person with whom he resides. Any other minor has the legal residence of his mother, or if her residence is not known then the legal residence of his father; if his mother's or father's residence is not known, the minor is a legal resident of the county in which he is found.

(b) A legal residence continues until a new one is acquired, either within or outside this State. When a new legal residence is acquired, all former legal residences terminate.

(c) This section is intended to replace the law defining "legal settlement." Therefore any general law or local act that refers to "legal settlement" is deemed to refer to this section and the rules contained herein. (1777, c. 117, s. 16, P.R.; R.C., c. 86, s. 12; Code, s. 3544; Rev., s. 1333; C.S., s. 1342; 1931, c. 120; 1943, c. 753, s. 2; 1959, c. 272; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

CASE NOTES

Editor's Note. — The cases cited below were decided under corresponding sections of former law.

Each County Charged with Support of Its Poor. — It is the manifest purpose of the law in regard to pauper settlements to charge each county with the support of its own poor. Commissioners of County of Burke v. Commissioners of County of Buncombe, 101 N.C. 520, 8 S.E. 176 (1888).

Liability of County Dependent on Residence or Settlement. — The liability of a county for the support of a pauper does not depend upon the law of domicile or citizenship, but upon that of residence or settlement. Commissioners of County of Burke v. Commissioners of County of Buncombe, 101 N.C. 520, 8 S.E. 176 (1888).

The legal settlement of the pauper determines the liability. Board of Comm'rs of McDowell County v. Board of Comm'rs of Forsyth County, 121 N.C. 295, 28 S.E. 412 (1897).

Although in most cases the county of domicile and the county of settlement are the same, yet they are sometimes different, and in such case the county of settlement is chargeable with the maintenance of an illegitimate child. State v. Elam, 61 N.C. 460 (1868).

Liability for Illegitimate Child Fixed by Mother's Settlement. — The liability of the county for the maintenance of an illegitimate child is fixed not by its birth but by the settlement of its mother at the time of its birth. State v. Elam, 61 N.C. 460 (1868).

An illegitimate child, who has not gained a new settlement by a year's residence in some other county, is, for the purpose of being apprenticed, subject to the jurisdiction of the court of that county in which its mother was settled at the time of its birth. Ferrell v. Boykin, 61 N.C. 9 (1866).

Settlement Not Ipso Facto Obtained by Birth. — Neither legitimate nor illegitimate children shall gain a settlement by birth in the county in which they may be born, if neither of their parents had any settlement therein. State v. Elam, 61 N.C. 460 (1868).

What County Liable When Mother of Illegitimate Child Is Without Settlement. — An illegitimate child, born in this State of a mother who had not resided in it for 12 months, as required by the statute then in effect, was chargeable for maintenance upon the county in which it was born. Since the statute did not contemplate the case of foreign paupers, the question of settlement was left as at common law. State ex rel. Merritt v. McQuaig, 63 N.C. 550 (1869).

A legal settlement continues until a new one is acquired. Board of Comm'rs of McDowell County v. Board of Comm'rs of Forsyth County, 121 N.C. 295, 28 S.E. 412 (1897).

Recovery for Medical Services Furnished Pauper Injured in Another County. — Where a pauper, temporarily absent from the county where he had a "legal settlement," was so disabled as to require immediate medical services and was furnished by the authorities of another county with such attention and board, the latter was entitled to recover the expenses thereof from the county where the pauper had his settlement. Board of Comm'rs of McDowell County v. Board of Comm'rs of Forsyth County, 121 N.C. 295, 28 S.E. 412 (1897).

Part 3. Health and Social Services Contracts.

§ 153A-259. Counties authorized to contract with other entities for health and social services.

A county is authorized to contract with any governmental agency, person, association, or corporation for the provision of health or social services provided that the expenditure of funds pursuant to such contracts shall be for the purpose for which the funds were appropriated and is not otherwise prohibited by law. ## ARTICLE 14.

Libraries.§ 153A-261. Declaration of State policy.

The General Assembly recognizes that the availability of adequate, modern library services and facilities is in the general interest of the people of North Carolina and a proper concern of the State and of local governments. Therefore it is the policy of the State of North Carolina to promote the establishment and development of public library services throughout the State. (1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

CASE NOTES

Operation of a public library meets the test of "governmental function." Seibold v. Kinston-Lenoir County Pub. Library, 264 N.C.

360, 141 S.E.2d 519 (1965), decided under former law.

§ 153A-262. Library materials defined.

For purposes of this Article, the phrase "library materials" includes, without limitation, books, plates, pictures, engravings, maps, magazines, pamphlets, newspapers, manuscripts, films, transparencies, microforms, recordings, or other specimens, works of literature, or objects of art, historical significance, or curiosity. (1953, c. 721; 1963, c. 945; 1971, c. 698, s. 3; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 153A-263. Public library systems authorized.

A county or city may:

- (1) Establish, operate, and support public library systems;
- (2) Set apart lands and buildings for a public library system;
- (3) Acquire real property for a public library system by gift, grant, purchase, lease, exercise of the power of eminent domain, or any other lawful method. If a library board of trustees is appointed, a county or city shall, before acquiring real property by purchase, lease, or exercise of the power of eminent domain, seek the recommendations of the board of trustees regarding the proposed acquisition;
- (4) Provide, acquire, construct, equip, operate, and maintain buildings and other structures for a public library system;
- (5) Acquire library materials by purchase, exchange, bequest, gift, or any other lawful method;
- (6) Appropriate funds to carry out the provisions of this Article;
- (7) Accept any gift, grant, lease, loan, exchange, bequest, or devise of real or personal property for a public library system. Devises, bequests, grants, and gifts may be accepted and held subject to any term or condition that may be imposed by the grantor or trustor, except that no county or city may accept or administer any term or condition that requires it to discriminate among its citizens on the basis of race, sex, or religion. (1953, c. 721; 1963, c. 945; 1971, c. 698, s. 3; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 153A-264. Free library services.

If a county or city, pursuant to this Article, operates or makes contributions to the support of a library, any resident of the county or city, as the case may be, is entitled to the free use of the library. (1953, c. 721; 1963, c. 945; 1971, c. 698, s. 3; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 153A-265. Library board of trustees.

The governing body of a county or city may appoint a library board of trustees. The governing body shall determine the number of members of the board of trustees (which may not be more than 12), the length of their terms, the manner of filling vacancies, and the amount, if any, of their compensation and allowances. The governing body may remove a trustee at any time for incapacity, unfitness, misconduct, or neglect of duty. (1953, c. 721; 1963, c. 945; 1971, c. 698, s. 1; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

Local Modification. — Burke: 1977, 2nd Sess., c. 1168; 1981 (Reg. Sess., 1982), c. 1141.

§ 153A-266. Powers and duties of trustees.

If a board of trustees is appointed, it shall elect a chairman and may elect other officers. The governing body may delegate to the board of trustees any of the following powers:

- (1) To formulate and adopt programs, policies, and regulations for the government of the library;

- (2) To make recommendations to the governing body concerning the construction and improvement of buildings and other structures for the library system;
- (3) To supervise and care for the facilities of the library system;
- (4) To appoint a chief librarian or director of library services and, with his advice, to appoint other employees of the library system. If some other body or official is to appoint the chief librarian or director of library services, to advise that body or official concerning that appointment;
- (5) To establish, a schedule of fines and charges for late return of, failure to return, damage to, and loss of library materials, and to take other measures to protect and regulate the use of such materials;
- (6) To participate in preparing the annual budget of the library system;
- (7) To extend the privileges and use of the library system to nonresidents of the county or city establishing or supporting the system, on any terms or conditions the board may prescribe.
- (8) To otherwise advise the board of commissioners on library matters.

The board of trustees shall make an annual report on the operations of the library to the governing body of the county or city and shall make an annual report to the Department of Cultural Resources as required by G.S. 125-5. If no board of trustees is established, the governing body shall make the annual report to the Department. (1953, c. 721; 1963, c. 945; 1969, c. 488; 1971, c. 698, s. 3; 1973, c. 476, s. 84; c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 153A-267. Qualifications of chief librarian; library employees.

(a) To be eligible for appointment and service as chief administrative officer of a library system (whether designated chief librarian, director of library services, or some other title), a person must have a professional librarian certificate issued by the Secretary of Cultural Resources, pursuant to G.S. 125-9, under regulations for certification of public librarian as established by the North Carolina Public Librarian Certification Commission pursuant to the provisions of G.S. 143B-67.

(b) The employees of a county or city library system are, for all purposes, employees of the county or city, as the case may be. (1953, c. 721; 1963, c. 945; 1969, c. 488; 1971, c. 698, s. 3; 1973, c. 476, s. 53; c. 822, s. 1; 1975, c. 516.)

§ 153A-268. Financing library systems.

A county or city may appropriate for library purposes any funds not otherwise limited as to use by law. (1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 153A-269. Title to library property.

The title to all property acquired by a county or city for library purposes shall be in the name of the county or city. If property is given, granted, devised, bequeathed, or otherwise conveyed to the board of trustees of a county or city library system, it shall be deemed to have been conveyed to the county or city and shall be held in the name of the county or city. (1953, c. 721; 1963, c. 945; 1971, c. 698, s. 3; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 153A-270. Joint libraries; contracts for library services.

Two or more counties or cities or counties and cities may establish a joint library system or contract for library services, according to the procedures and provisions of Chapter 160A, Article 20, Part 1. (1953, c. 721; 1963, c. 945; 1971, c. 698, s. 3; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 153A-271. Library systems operated under local acts brought under this Article.

If a county or city operates a library system pursuant to a local act, the governing body of the county or city may by ordinance provide that the library system is to be operated pursuant to this Article. (1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 153A-272. Designation of library employees to register voters.

The governing body of each public library with four or more employees shall designate at least one employee of the library to be appointed by the county board of elections to register voters pursuant to G.S. 163-80(a)(6). With the approval of the board of elections, additional employees may also be designated for this purpose by the governing body. (1983, c. 588, s. 1.)

Editor's Note. — G.S. 163-80, referred to above, has been repealed.

§ 153A-273: Reserved for future codification purposes.

ARTICLE 15.

Public Enterprises.

Part 1. General Provisions.

§ 153A-274. Public enterprise defined.

As used in this Article, "public enterprise" includes:

- (1) Water supply and distribution systems.
- (2) Wastewater collection, treatment, and disposal systems of all types, including septic tank systems or other on-site collection or disposal facilities or systems.
- (3) Solid waste collection and disposal systems and facilities.
- (4) Airports.
- (5) Off-street parking facilities.
- (6) Public transportation systems.
- (7) Stormwater management programs designed to protect water quality by controlling the level of pollutants in, and the quantity and flow of, stormwater and structural and natural stormwater and drainage systems of all types. (1965, c. 370; 1957, c. 266, s. 3; 1961, c. 514, s. 1; c. 1001, s. 1; 1971, c. 568; 1973, c. 822, s. 1; c. 1214; 1977, c. 514, s. 1; 1979, c. 619, s. 1; 1989, c. 643, s. 2; 1991 (Reg. Sess., 1992), c. 944, s. 13; 2000-70, s. 1.)

Local Modification. — Bladen: 1985, c. 433, s. 1; 1989 (Reg. Sess., 1990), c. 839; Columbus: 1991 (Reg. Sess., 1992), c. 844; Duplin: 1991 (Reg. Sess., 1992), c. 844; Franklin: 1991 (Reg. Sess., 1992), c. 864; Hertford: 1991 (Reg. Sess., 1992), c. 844; Martin: 1991 (Reg. Sess., 1992), c.

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 2000-70, s. 8, effective June 30, 2000, is a severability clause.

Effect of Amendments. — Session Laws 2000-70, s. 1, effective retroactively to July 15, 1989, added the language beginning “Stormwater management programs” and ending “stormwater and” in subdivision (7); and made stylistic and punctuation changes throughout.

CASE NOTES

A public enterprise includes sewage collection and disposal systems of all types. McNeill v. Harnett County, 327 N.C. 552, 398 S.E.2d 475 (1990).

Greater in Scope Than a Building. — A public enterprise denotes a complex systematic activity or undertaking — something greater in scope than a building. Davidson County v. City of High Point, 85 N.C. App. 26, 354 S.E.2d 280, modified and aff’d, 321 N.C. 252, 362 S.E.2d 553 (1987).

The word “building,” as used in § 153A-347, does not encompass a “public enterprise,” as used in this section and § 160A-311. Davidson County v. City of High Point, 85 N.C. App. 26, 354 S.E.2d 280, modified and aff’d, 321 N.C. 252, 362 S.E.2d 553 (1987).

Operation of a Water and/or Sewer System for and on Behalf of Another Unit of Local Government. — Pursuant to an interlocal cooperative agreement and pursuant to authority granted in this Article, a county may, among other things, operate a water and/or sewer system for and on behalf of another unit of local government, such as a water and sewer district, and in conjunction therewith may exercise those rights, powers, and functions granted to water and sewer districts as found in § 162A-88 and those rights, powers, and functions granted to counties in this Article. McNeill v. Harnett County, 327 N.C.

Sewer district and Harnett County entered into a contract on July 23, 1984, wherein it was agreed that the sewer district’s sewer system, which had been completed that year, would be operated by Harnett County through its Department of Public Utilities. Such units of local government may contract with each other to execute undertakings such as public enterprises, which would include a sewer system. McNeill v. Harnett County, 327 N.C. 552, 398 S.E.2d 475 (1990).

Use of City-Owned Sewage Treatment Plant Without Prior Approval of County.

— Since county had no authority to restrict or regulate city’s provision of sewer service to its residents, the city could use city-owned sewage treatment plant located outside the city but within the county, which was upgraded pursuant to the county’s special use permit, with a condition attached to the permit requiring the county’s prior approval of service to county citizens, to meet its statutory mandate to provide sewer service to residents in newly annexed areas without seeking the county’s prior approval, even though the facility was located in the county. Davidson County v. City of High Point, 321 N.C. 252, 362 S.E.2d 553 (1987).

§ 153A-275. Authority to operate public enterprises.

(a) A county may acquire, lease as lessor or lessee, construct, establish, enlarge, improve, extend, maintain, own, operate, and contract for the operation of public enterprises in order to furnish services to the county and its citizens. A county may acquire, construct, establish, enlarge, improve, maintain, own, and operate outside its borders any public enterprise.

(b) A county may adopt adequate and reasonable rules to protect and regulate a public enterprise belonging to or operated by it. The rules shall be adopted by ordinance, shall apply to the public enterprise system both within and outside the county, and may be enforced with the remedies available under any provision of law. (1955, c. 370; 1957, c. 266, s. 3; 1961, c. 514, s. 1; c. 1001, s. 1; 1967, c. 462; 1971, c. 568; 1973, c. 822, s. 1; 1991 (Reg. Sess., 1992), c. 836, s. 2.)

CASE NOTES

Constitutionality of Former Statute. — Former § 153-9(46), was constitutional, violating neither § 5 nor § 17 of Art. I of the Constitution of 1868. Ramsey v. Rollins, 246 N.C. 647, 100 S.E.2d 55 (1957).

The limitation upon the counties contained in Art. VII, § 7 of the Constitution of 1868, requiring that bonds for the construction of water and sewer systems be approved by the voters in such county, did not impair the constitutionality of the grant of the power to construct such systems in any respect. Ramsey v. Rollins, 246 N.C. 647, 100 S.E.2d 55 (1957).

Public Enterprises Outside County's Boundaries. — By the broad language which the legislature has used in § 160A-312 and this section, it has evidenced its intent to give cities and counties comprehensive authority to own and operate public enterprises outside their boundaries with respect to the service of themselves and their citizens. Davidson County v. City of High Point, 85 N.C. App. 26, 354 S.E.2d 280 (1987).

No Blanket Subjection to Host Jurisdiction's Zoning Regulations. — The Legislature has not seen fit to curtail the broad grant of authority it has given cities and counties in § 160A-312 and this section, respectively, by blanketly subjecting public enterprises to a host jurisdiction's zoning regulations. Rather, when in its judgment it has deemed it necessary to restrict one political subdivision's ability to establish a particular type of public enterprise in another political subdivision the legislature has enacted a statute to accomplish that specific goal. Davidson County v. City of High Point, 85 N.C. App. 26, 354 S.E.2d 280, modified and aff'd, 321 N.C. 252, 362 S.E.2d 553 (1987).

A county is authorized to operate a public enterprise in order to furnish services to its citizens. McNeill v. Harnett County, 327 N.C. 552, 398 S.E.2d 475 (1990).

Water and sewer districts may contract with counties to carry out their purposes. McNeill v. Harnett County, 327 N.C. 552, 398 S.E.2d 475 (1990).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL

As to authority for county to appropriate nontax funds for water and sewer system, see opinion of Attorney General to Mr. M.

§ 153A-276. Financing public enterprises.

Subject to the restrictions, limitations, procedures, and regulations otherwise provided by law, a county may finance the cost of a public enterprise by levying taxes, borrowing money, and appropriating any other revenues, and by accepting and administering gifts and grants from any source. (1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

CASE NOTES

The operation of the sewer system is a public enterprise, and, as such, the method of financing the system is subject to this section. However, the mandate of this section applies only where such "restrictions, limitations, procedures, and regulations otherwise provided by law" are themselves mandatory. McNeill v. Harnett County, 327 N.C. 552, 398 S.E.2d 475 (1990).

Procedures and Regulations Provided by Law Applicable to Public Enterprises. — When an ordinance regulating a public enterprise is adopted by a local government to finance the public enterprise, the procedures supplied in the General Statutes for adopting such an ordinance must likewise be followed; when a general obligation bond is issued by a local government, the provisions of Chapter 159 must be followed; and when a local government purchases equipment, the applicable statutes regarding competitive bidding, where applicable, must likewise be followed. There is no statute or law that mandates notice and hearing requirements for ordinances requiring mandatory connections and fixing related connection charges and user fees. McNeill v. Harnett County, 327 N.C. 552, 398 S.E.2d 475 (1990).

Quoted in McNeill v. Harnett County, 97 N.C. App. 41, 387 S.E.2d 206 (1990).

§ 153A-277. Authority to fix and enforce rates.

(a) A county may establish and revise from time to time schedules of rents, rates, fees, charges, and penalties for the use of or the services furnished by a public enterprise. Schedules of rents, rates, fees, charges, and penalties may vary for the same class of service in different areas of the county and may vary according to classes of service, and different schedules may be adopted for services provided outside of the county. A county may include a fee relating to subsurface discharge wastewater management systems and services on the property tax bill for the real property where the system for which the fee is imposed is located.

- (a1)(1) Before it establishes or revises a schedule of rates, fees, charges, or penalties for stormwater management programs and structural and natural stormwater and drainage systems under this section, the board of commissioners shall hold a public hearing on the matter. A notice of the hearing shall be given at least once in a newspaper having general circulation in the area, not less than seven days before the public hearing. The hearing may be held concurrently with the public hearing on the proposed budget ordinance.
  - (2) The fees established under this subsection must be made applicable throughout the area of the county outside municipalities. Schedules of rates, fees, charges, and penalties for providing stormwater management programs and structural and natural stormwater and drainage system service may vary according to whether the property served is residential, commercial, or industrial property, the property's use, the size of the property, the area of impervious surfaces on the property, the quantity and quality of the runoff from the property, the characteristics of the watershed into which stormwater from the property drains, and other factors that affect the stormwater drainage system. Rates, fees, and charges imposed under this subsection may not exceed the county's cost of providing a stormwater management program and a structural and natural stormwater and drainage system. The county's cost of providing a stormwater management program and a structural and natural stormwater and drainage system includes any costs necessary to assure that all aspects of stormwater quality and quantity are managed in accordance with federal and State laws, regulations, and rules.
  - (3) No stormwater utility fee may be levied under this subsection whenever two or more units of local government operate separate stormwater management programs or separate structural and natural stormwater and drainage system services in the same area within a county. However, two or more units of local government may allocate among themselves the functions, duties, powers, and responsibilities for jointly operating a stormwater management program and structural and natural stormwater and drainage system service in the same area within a county, provided that only one unit may levy a fee for the service within the joint service area. For purposes of this subsection, a unit of local government shall include a regional authority providing stormwater management programs and structural and natural stormwater and drainage system services.
- (b) A county may collect delinquent accounts by any remedy provided by law for collecting and enforcing private debts, and may specify by ordinance the order in which partial payments are to be applied among the various enterprise services covered by a bill for the services. A county may also discontinue service to a customer whose account remains delinquent for more than 10 days. If a delinquent customer is not the owner of the premises to which the services are delivered, the payment of the delinquent account may not be required before providing services at the request of a new and different tenant or occupant of the premises. If water or sewer services are discontinued for delinquency, it is unlawful for a person other than a duly authorized agent or employee of the county to reconnect the premises to the water or sewer system.

(c) Rents, rates, fees, charges, and penalties for enterprisory services are in no case a lien upon the property or premises served and, except as provided in subsection (d) of this section, are legal obligations of the person contracting for them, provided that no contract shall be necessary in the case of structural and natural stormwater and drainage systems.

(d) Rents, rates, fees, charges, and penalties for enterprisory services are legal obligations of the owner of the property or premises served when:

- (1) The property or premises is leased or rented to more than one tenant and services rendered to more than one tenant are measured by the same meter; or
- (2) Charges made for use of a sewerage system are billed separately from charges made for the use of a water distribution system. (1961, c. 1001, s. 1; 1973, c. 822, s. 1; 1991, c. 591, s. 2; 1991 (Reg. Sess., 1992), c. 932, s. 3; c. 1007, s. 45; 2000-70, s. 2.)

Local Modification. — Cumberland: 1995, c. 469, § 1; Durham: 1998-60; Mecklenburg: 1999-50, s. 1.

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 2000-70, s. 8, effective June 30, 2000, is a severability clause.

Effect of Amendments. — Session Laws 2000-70, s. 2, effective retroactively to July 15, 1989, added subdivision designations (1) through (3) in subsection (a1); inserted "stormwater management programs and" in subdivision (a1)(1); in subdivision (a1)(2), inserted "stormwater management programs and" in the second sentence, inserted "stormwater management program and a structural and natural" in the third sentence, and added the fourth sentence; and in subdivision (a1)(3), inserted "stormwater management programs or separate" in the first sentence, substituted "stormwater management program and structural" for "single structural" in the second sentence, and inserted "stormwater management programs and" in the third sentence.

CASE NOTES

Rate Classification Must Be Reasonable and Based on Substantial Differences. — Rates may be fixed in view of dissimilarities in conditions of service, but there must be some reasonable proportion between the variance in the conditions and the variances in the charges. Classification must be based on substantial difference. Barnhill San. Serv., Inc. v. Gaston County, 87 N.C. App. 532, 362 S.E.2d 161 (1987), aff'd, 321 N.C. 742, 366 S.E.2d 856 (1988).

Charge Imposed Only on Commercial, Industrial and Municipal Haulers Upheld. — It was not a levy of an unreasonable discriminatory rate for a county to charge only commercial, industrial and municipal haulers of garbage for the use of the landfills. Barnhill San. Serv., Inc. v. Gaston County, 87 N.C. App. 532, 362 S.E.2d 161 (1987), aff'd, 321 N.C. 742, 366 S.E.2d 856 (1988).

§ 153A-278. Joint provision of enterprisory services.

Two or more counties, cities, or other units of local government may cooperate in the exercise of any power granted by this Article according to the procedures and provisions of Chapter 160A, Article 20, Part 1. (1961, c. 1001, s. 1; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

CASE NOTES

Interlocal Cooperative Agreements Sanctioned. — The use of interlocal cooperative agreements is sanctioned with respect to public enterprises in this section, which provides that "two or more counties, cities, or other units of local government may cooperate in the exercise of any powers granted by this Article [Article 15 of Chapter 153A]." McNeill v. Harnett County, 327 N.C. 552, 398 S.E.2d 475 (1990).

§§ 153A-279 through 153A-282: Reserved for future codification purposes.

Part 2. Special Provisions for Water and Sewer Services.

§ 153A-283. Nonliability for failure to furnish water or sewer services.

In no case may a county be held liable for damages for failure to furnish water or sewer services. (1961, c. 1001, s. 1; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

CASE NOTES

Water Service Is Not “Property”. — Water service furnished by the County does not rise to the level of “property” protected by due process requirements. McNeill v. Harnett County, 327 N.C. 552, 398 S.E.2d 475 (1990).

No Claim of Entitlement to Water Services. — While other statutes specifically authorize disconnections in certain situations, this section states specifically that “in no case may a county be held liable for damages for failure to furnish water or sewer services.” In light of this statutory provision, a citizen of a county in North Carolina may not assert a claim of entitlement to water services. McNeill v. Harnett County, 327 N.C. 552, 398 S.E.2d 475 (1990).

Applicability. — This section did not apply to action against county for denying plaintiffs access to county sewer line, where plaintiffs did not seek sewer services from the the county, which were to be provided by town, but all plaintiffs sought from defendant was access to a county-owned sewer line. Browning-Ferris Indus. of S. Atl., Inc. v. Wake County, 905 F. Supp. 312 (E.D.N.C. 1995).

§ 153A-284. Power to require connections.

A county may require the owner of developed property on which there are situated one or more residential dwelling units or commercial establishments located so as to be served by a water line or sewer collection line owned, leased as lessee, or operated by the county or on behalf of the county to connect the owner’s premises with the water or sewer line and may fix charges for these connections. In the case of improved property that would qualify for the issuance of a building permit for the construction of one or more residential dwelling units or commercial establishments and where the county has installed water or sewer lines or a combination thereof directly available to the property, the county may require payment of a periodic availability charge, not to exceed the minimum periodic service charge for properties that are connected. (1963, c. 985, s. 1; 1965, c. 969, s. 2; 1973, c. 822, s. 1; 1979, c. 619, s. 13; 1995, c. 511, s. 3.)

CASE NOTES

Constitutionality. — This section and the ordinances in question, which were passed without notice and an opportunity to be heard and which mandated connections to the sewer lines as well as the payment of related connection charges and user fees, were consistent with federal procedural due process protections and were a valid exercise of the police power. McNeill v. Harnett County, 327 N.C. 552, 398 S.E.2d 475 (1990).

This section and county mandating ordinances met the requirements of both the federal and State Constitutions in authorizing the imposition of connection charges and user/availability fees related to mandated connections. McNeill v. Harnett County, 327 N.C. 552, 398 S.E.2d 475 (1990).

Exercise of Police Power. — The establishment and maintenance of a sewer system by a city is ordinarily regarded as an exercise of its police power. McNeill v. Harnett County, 327 N.C. 552, 398 S.E.2d 475 (1990).

The establishment and operation of a sewer system by the sewer district and the county is a valid exercise of the police power under the law of the land clause of the North Carolina Constitution. McNeill v. Harnett County, 327 N.C. 552, 398 S.E.2d 475 (1990).

Notice and Hearing for Individual Property Owners Not Required. — The law of the land clause does not require notice and opportunity for hearing prior to the passage of an ordinance mandating connection to a sewer system adopted under the authority of this section. McNeill v. Harnett County, 327 N.C. 552, 398 S.E.2d 475 (1990).

To require notice and opportunity for hearing to all individual property owners prior to the adoption of an ordinance mandating connection of improved properties pursuant to the enabling act would be burdensome, costly to local governments, and not consistent with procedures employed in the exercise of other police powers. McNeill v. Harnett County, 327 N.C. 552, 398 S.E.2d 475 (1990).

Power of County to Mandate Connections and Fix Charges. — In addition to those powers granted to the Sewer District in § 162A-88, a county, as operator of a public enterprise, is clothed with those powers set forth in Chapter 153A, Article 15, including the power to mandate connections and to fix charges for those connections under this section. The plain wording of this section clearly supports this conclusion. McNeill v. Harnett County, 327 N.C. 552, 398 S.E.2d 475 (1990).

There is no meaningful legal distinction between a mandated connection and mandated charges and fees for that connection. The latter naturally follow the former. McNeill v. Harnett County, 327 N.C. 552, 398 S.E.2d 475 (1990).

County Must Own "or" Operate Sewage Collection Line. — This section provides that a county may mandate connections to a sewage collection line "owned or operated" by the county. The use of the word "or," indicating the alternative, is dispositive of this issue. Had the legislature intended that a county could mandate connections only when it both owned and operated a sewage collection line, the language of the statute would have so provided. McNeill v. Harnett County, 327 N.C. 552, 398 S.E.2d 475 (1990).

Methods of Financing Sewer Project. — The General Assembly intended that the local government may choose between financing the sewer project using a procedure which would result in an assessment and doing so by other methods not involving a lien-producing assessment. McNeill v. Harnett County, 327 N.C. 552, 398 S.E.2d 475 (1990).

§ 153A-285: Repealed by Session Laws 1993, c. 348, s. 4.

Cross References. — This section, concerning prerequisites to acquisition of water and water rights in certain counties, was repealed by Session Laws 1993, c. 348, s. 4, effective January 1, 1994. For present similar provisions, see G.S. 143-215.22I.

§ 153A-286. Law with respect to riparian rights not changed.

Nothing in this Article changes or modifies existing common or statute law with respect to the relative rights of riparian owners or others concerning the use of or disposal of water in the streams of North Carolina. (1961, c. 1001, s. 1; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 153A-287: Repealed by Session Laws 1993, c. 348, s. 5.

Cross References. — This section, concerning the prohibition of diversion of water from certain river basins, was repealed by Session Laws 1993, c. 348, s. 5, effective January 1, 1994. For present similar provisions, see G.S. 143-215.22I.

§ 153A-288. Venue for actions by riparian owners.

Any riparian owner alleging injury as a result of an act taken pursuant to this Article by a county or city acting jointly or by a joint agency may maintain an action for relief against the act (i) in the county where the land of the riparian owner lies, (ii) in the county taking the action, or (iii) in any county in which the city or joint agency is located or operates. (1961, c. 1001, s. 1; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

Part 3. Special Provisions for Solid Waste Collection and Disposal.

§ 153A-291. Cooperation between the Department of Transportation and any county in establishing or operating solid waste disposal facilities.

A county and the Department of Transportation may enter into an agreement under which the Department of Transportation will make available to the county the use of equipment and prison and other labor in order to establish or operate solid waste disposal facilities within the county. The county shall reimburse the Department of Transportation for the cost of providing the equipment and labor. The agreement shall specify the work to be done thereunder and shall set forth the basis for reimbursement. (1967, c. 707; 1973, c. 507, s. 5; c. 822, s. 1; 1977, c. 464, s. 34.)

§ 153A-292. County collection and disposal facilities.

(a) The board of county commissioners of any county may establish and operate solid waste collection and disposal facilities in areas outside the corporate limits of a city. The board may by ordinance regulate the use of a disposal facility provided by the county, the nature of the solid wastes disposed of in a facility, and the method of disposal. The board may contract with any city, individual, or privately owned corporation to collect and dispose of solid waste in the area. Counties and cities may establish and operate joint collection and disposal facilities. A joint agreement shall be in writing and executed by the governing bodies of the participating units of local government.

(b) The board of county commissioners may impose a fee for the collection of solid waste. The fee may not exceed the costs of collection.

The board of county commissioners may impose a fee for the use of a disposal facility provided by the county. The fee for use may not exceed the cost of operating the facility and may be imposed only on those who use the facility. The fee for use may vary based on the amount, characteristics, and form of recyclable materials present in solid waste brought to the facility for disposal. A county may not impose a fee for the use of a disposal facility on a city located in the county or a contractor or resident of the city unless the fee is based on a schedule that applies uniformly throughout the county.

The board of county commissioners may impose a fee for the availability of a disposal facility provided by the county. A fee for availability may not exceed the cost of providing the facility and may be imposed on all improved property in the county that benefits from the availability of the facility. A county may not impose an availability fee on property whose solid waste is collected by a county, a city, or a private contractor for a fee if the fee imposed by a county, a city, or a private contractor for the collection of solid waste includes a charge for the availability and use of a disposal facility provided by the county. Property served by a private contractor who disposes of solid waste collected from the property in a disposal facility provided by a private contractor is not considered to benefit from a disposal facility provided by the county and is not subject to a fee imposed by the county for the availability of a disposal facility provided by the county.

In determining the costs of providing and operating a disposal facility, a county may consider solid waste management costs incidental to a county's handling and disposal of solid waste at its disposal facility, including the costs of the methods of solid waste management specified in G.S. 130A-309.04(a) of the Solid Waste Management Act of 1989. A fee for the availability or use of a disposal facility may be based on the combined costs of the different disposal facilities provided by the county.

(c) The board of county commissioners may use any suitable vacant land owned by the county for the site of a disposal facility, subject to the permit requirements of Article 9 of Chapter 130A of the General Statutes. If the county does not own suitable vacant land for a disposal facility, it may acquire suitable land by purchase or condemnation. The board may erect a gate across a highway that leads directly to a disposal facility operated by the county. The gate may be erected at or in close proximity to the boundary of the disposal facility. The county shall pay the cost of erecting and maintaining the gate.

(f) This section does not prohibit a county from providing aid to low-income persons to pay all or part of the cost of solid waste management services for those persons. (1961, c. 514, s. 1; 1971, c. 568; 1973, c. 535; c. 822, s. 2; 1981, c. 919, s. 22; 1989 (Reg. Sess., 1990), c. 1009, s. 3; 1991, c. 652, s. 1; 1995 (Reg. Sess., 1996), c. 594, s. 27.)

Editor's Note. — The above section was enacted by Session Laws 1973, c. 535, and codified as § 153-274. As directed by Session Laws 1973, c. 822, s. 2, it has also been codified as § 153A-292.

CASE NOTES

Property Under Consideration for Annexation into Municipality. — When a county initiates condemnation of property for a sanitary landfill, and the property is being considered for voluntary annexation into a municipality, the county may proceed with the condemnation action. The county is entitled to an injunction enjoining the annexation proceeding, and the property owners and the municipality may raise the proposed annexation in the answer to the condemnation complaint, for appropriate consideration by the court. Yandle v. Mecklenburg County, 85 N.C. App. 382, 355 S.E.2d 216, cert. denied, 320 N.C. 798, 361 S.E.2d 91 (1987).

Landfill fees, like sewer service charges, are neither taxes nor assessments, but are tolls or rents for benefits received by the use of the landfill. Barnhill San. Serv., Inc. v. Gaston County, 87 N.C. App. 532, 362 S.E.2d 161 (1987), aff'd, 321 N.C. 742, 366 S.E.2d 856 (1988).

Municipality Status Not Available to Privately Owned Corporation to Challenge Validity of an Ordinance. — Where the record revealed that plaintiff was a privately owned corporation, it could not assert the status of a municipality in order to challenge the validity of an ordinance, as an agent of the municipality. Barnhill San. Serv., Inc. v. Gaston County, 87 N.C. App. 532, 362 S.E.2d 161 (1987), aff'd, 321 N.C. 742, 366 S.E.2d 856 (1988).

§ 153A-293. (See editor’s note) Collection of fees for solid waste disposal facilities and solid waste collection services.

A county may adopt an ordinance providing that any fee imposed under G.S. 153A-292 may be billed with property taxes, may be payable in the same manner as property taxes, and, in the case of nonpayment, may be collected in any manner by which delinquent personal or real property taxes can be collected. If an ordinance states that delinquent fees can be collected in the same manner as delinquent real property taxes, the fees are a lien on the real property described on the bill that includes the fee. (1989, c. 591, ss. 1, 2; 1989 (Reg. Sess., 1990), cc. 905, 938, 940, 974, 1017; 1991, c. 652, s. 2; 1991 (Reg. Sess., 1992), c. 1007, s. 26.)

Editor’s Note. — This section was originally derived from Session Laws 1989, c. 591, effective July 6, 1989, and was applicable to fees imposed on or after April 1, 1989. As enacted, c. 591 was applicable to Ashe, Robeson and Wayne Counties only. The section was made applicable to additional counties by Session Laws 1989 (Reg. Sess., 1990), as follows: Chapter 905, effective July 13, 1990, made this section applicable to Alleghany, Caswell, Richmond, and Watauga; c. 938, effective July 17, 1990, and applicable to fees imposed on or after Jan. 1, 1991, made this section applicable to Polk, Transylvania, and Cleveland; c. 940, effective July 17, 1990, made this section applicable to Duplin; c. 974, effective July 19, 1990, made this section applicable to Burke, Gaston, Lee, Lenoir, and Washington; c. 1017, effective July 26, 1990, made this section applicable to Anson and Montgomery.

Section 6 of Session Laws 1991, c. 652 provides: “Chapters 591, 905, 938, 940, 974, 1007, and 1017 of the 1989 Session Laws are repealed. An ordinance adopted under a local act that is repealed by this act is considered to have been adopted under G.S. 153A-293, as amended by this act.”

Session Laws 1991, c. 652, s. 6, as amended by Session Laws 1991 (Reg. Sess., 1992), c. 1007, s. 26, provides: “Chapters 591, 905, 938, 940, 974, 1007, and 1017 of the 1989 Session Laws are repealed to clarify that G.S. 153A-293, as amended by this act, is a statewide statute and not a local statute. An ordinance adopted under a local act that is repealed by this act is considered to have been adopted under G.S. 153A-293, as amended by this act.”

As used in this Article, “solid waste” means nonhazardous solid waste, that is, solid waste as defined in G.S. 130A-290 but not including hazardous waste. (1991 (Reg. Sess., 1992), c. 1013, s. 4.)

Editor’s Note. — Session Laws 1991 (Reg. Sess., 1992), c. 1013, which enacted this section, in s. 8 provides: “Any contract for solid waste collection or disposal entered into by any county, city, or town that would have been lawful if this act had been in effect at the time the contract was entered into is validated. The provisions of this act that limit a contract or franchise for the collection and disposal of solid waste to a period of not more than 30 years shall not be construed to invalidate any contract or franchise for a longer period up to 60 years that was entered into by any county, city, or town prior to the date this act is effective.” The act became effective July 22, 1992.

§§ 153A-295 through 153A-299: Reserved for future codification purposes.

Part 4. Long Term Contracts for Disposal of Solid Waste.

§§ 153A-299.1 through 153A-299.6: Repealed by Session Laws 1991 (Regular Session, 1992), c. 1013, s. 5.

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1991 (Reg. Sess., 1992), c. 1013, which repealed this part, in s. 8 provides: "Any contract for solid waste collection or disposal entered into by any county, city, or town that would have been lawful if this act had been in effect at the time the contract was entered into is validated. The provisions of this act that limit a contract or franchise for the collection and disposal of solid waste to a period of not more than 30 years shall not be construed to invalidate any contract or franchise for a longer period up to 60 years that was entered into by any county, city, or town prior to the date this act is effective." The act became effective July 22, 1992.

Session Laws 1991 (Reg. Sess., 1992), c. 763, s. 2, provides: "Any contract for solid waste disposal entered into by Bladen, Cumberland, and Hoke Counties which would have been lawful if this act had been in effect at the time the contract was entered into is ratified." The act was ratified June 9, 1992.

Session Laws 1991 (Reg. Sess., 1992), c. 763, s. 1, effective June 9, 1992, inserted "Bladen County," "Cumberland County," and "Hoke County" in § 153A-299.6 prior to its repeal.

Session Laws 1991 (Reg. Sess., 1992), c. 773, s. 1, effective June 22, 1992, inserted "Bertie County," "Chowan County," "Hertford County," and "Tyrrell County" in § 153A-299.6 prior to its repeal.

Session Laws 1991 (Reg. Sess., 1992), c. 775, s. 1, effective June 22, 1992, inserted "Moore County" in § 153A-299.6, prior to its repeal.

ARTICLE 16.

County Service Districts; County Research and Production Service Districts.

Part 1. County Service Districts.

§ 153A-300. Title; effective date.

This Article may be cited as "The County Service District Act of 1973," and is enacted pursuant to Article V, Sec. 2(4) of the Constitution of North Carolina, effective July 1, 1973. (1973, c. 489, s. 1; c. 822, s. 2.)

Editor's Note. — Sections 153A-300 through 153A-308 were originally codified as §§ 153-383 through 153-391. They have been recodified in Chapter 153A as directed by Session Laws 1973, c. 822, s. 2.

Session Laws 1985, c. 435, s. 1 designated existing Article 16 as Part 1 of Article 16, entitled "County Service Districts," and added new Part 2 of Article 16.

§ 153A-301. Purposes for which districts may be established.

(a) The board of commissioners of any county may define any number of service districts in order to finance, provide, or maintain for the districts one or more of the following services, facilities and functions in addition to or to a greater extent than those financed, provided or maintained for the entire county:

- (1) Beach erosion control and flood and hurricane protection works.
- (2) Fire protection.

- (3) Recreation.
- (4) Sewage collection and disposal systems of all types, including septic tank systems or other on-site collection or disposal facilities or systems.
- (5) Solid waste collection and disposal systems.
- (6) Water supply and distribution systems.
- (7) Ambulance and rescue.
- (8) Watershed improvement projects, including but not limited to watershed improvement projects as defined in Chapter 139 of the General Statutes; drainage projects, including but not limited to the drainage projects provided for by Chapter 156 of the General Statutes; and water resources development projects, including but not limited to the federal water resources development projects provided for by Article 21 of Chapter 143 of the General Statutes.
- (9) Cemeteries.
- (10) Law enforcement if all of the following apply:
  - a. The population of the county is over 500,000 according to the most recent federal decennial census.
  - b. The county has an interlocal agreement with a city in the county under which the city provides law enforcement services in the entire unincorporated area of the county.
  - c. The county will pay to the city the following percentages of the city-county police department budget if there are no significant changes to the city's statutory annexation authority:
    1. 9.60% for fiscal years 1995-96 and 1996-97.
    2. 7.60% for fiscal years 1997-98 and 1998-99.
    3. 5.60% for fiscal years 1999-2000 and 2000-2001.
    4. 3.60% for fiscal years 2001-02 and 2002-03.
    5. 1.60% for fiscal years 2003-04 and 2004-05.

Provided, if the difference between the ratio of the population in the unincorporated area to the total population served by the city-county police department and the rate for the current year as stated above is greater than fifteen percent (15%), the county's agreement to pay such percentages can be amended to reflect that difference.

(b) The General Assembly finds that coastal-area counties have a special problem with lack of maintenance of platted rights-of-way, resulting in ungraded sand travelways deviating from the original rights-of-way and encroaching on private property, and such cartways exhibit poor drainage and are blocked by junk automobiles.

(c) To address the problem described in subsection (b), the board of commissioners of any coastal-area county as defined by G.S. 113A-103(2) may define any number of service districts in order to finance, provide, or maintain for the districts one or more of the following services, facilities and functions in addition to or to a greater extent than those financed, provided or maintained for the entire county:

- (1) Removal of junk automobiles; and
- (2) Street maintenance.

(d) The board of commissioners of a county that contains a protected mountain ridge, as defined by G.S. 113A-206(6), may define any number of service districts, composed of subdivision lots within one or more contiguous subdivisions that are served by common public roads, to finance for the district the maintenance of such public roads that are either located in the district or provide access to some or all lots in the district from a State road, where some portion of those roads is not subject to compliance with the minimum standards of the Board of Transportation set forth in G.S. 136-102.6. The service district or districts created shall include only subdivision lots within the subdivision, and one or more additional contiguous subdivisions, where the property owners' association, whose purpose is to represent these subdivision lots, agrees to be included in the service district. For subdivision lots in an additional contiguous subdivision or for other adjacent or contiguous property to be annexed according to G.S. 153A-303, the property owners' association representing the subdivision or property to be annexed must approve the annexation. For the purposes of this subsection: (i) "subdivision lots" are defined as either separate tracts appearing of record upon a recorded plat, or other lots, building sites, or divisions of land for sale or building development for residential purposes; and (ii) "public roads" are defined as roads that are in actual open use as public vehicular areas, or dedicated or offered for dedication to the public use as a road, highway, street, or avenue, by a deed, grant, map, or plat, and that have been constructed and are in use by the public, but that are not currently being maintained by any public authority. (1973, c. 489, s. 1; c. 822, s. 2; c. 1375; 1979, c. 595, s. 1; c. 619, s. 6; 1983 (Reg. Sess., 1984), c. 1078, s. 1; 1989, c. 620; 1993, c. 378, s. 1; 1995, c. 354, s. 1; c. 434, s. 1; 1997-456, s. 24.)

Local Modification. — Gaston: 1977, c. 336.

§ 153A-302. Definition of service districts.

(a) Standards. — In determining whether to establish a proposed service district, the board of commissioners shall consider all of the following:

- (1) The resident or seasonal population and population density of the proposed district.
- (2) The appraised value of property subject to taxation in the proposed district.
- (3) The present tax rates of the county and any cities or special districts in which the district or any portion thereof is located.
- (4) The ability of the proposed district to sustain the additional taxes necessary to provide the services planned for the district.
- (5) If it is proposed to furnish water, sewer, or solid waste collection services in the district, the probable net revenues of the projects to be financed and the extent to which the services will be self-supporting.
- (6) Any other matters that the commissioners believe to have a bearing on whether the district should be established.

(a1) Findings. — The board of commissioners may establish a service district if, upon the information and evidence it receives, the board finds that all of the following apply:

- (1) There is a demonstrable need for providing in the district one or more of the services listed in G.S. 153A-301.
- (2) It is impossible or impracticable to provide those services on a countywide basis.
- (3) It is economically feasible to provide the proposed services in the district without unreasonable or burdensome annual tax levies.
- (4) There is a demonstrable demand for the proposed services by persons residing in the district.

Territory lying within the corporate limits of a city or sanitary district may not be included unless the governing body of the city or sanitary district agrees by resolution to such inclusion.

(b) Report. — Before the public hearing required by subsection (c), the board of commissioners shall cause to be prepared a report containing:

- (1) A map of the proposed district, showing its proposed boundaries;

- (2) A statement showing that the proposed district meets the standards set out in subsection (a); and
- (3) A plan for providing one or more of the services listed in G.S. 153A-301 to the district.

The report shall be available for public inspection in the office of the clerk to the board for at least four weeks before the date of the public hearing.

(c) Hearing and Notice. — The board of commissioners shall hold a public hearing before adopting any resolution defining a new service district under this section. Notice of the hearing shall state the date, hour, and place of the hearing and its subject, and shall include a map of the proposed district and a statement that the report required by subsection (b) is available for public inspection in the office of the clerk to the board. The notice shall be published at least once not less than one week before the date of the hearing. In addition, it shall be mailed at least four weeks before the date of the hearing by any class of U.S. mail which is fully prepaid to the owners as shown by the county tax records as of the preceding January 1 (and at the address shown thereon) of all property located within the proposed district. The person designated by the board to mail the notice shall certify to the board that the mailing has been completed and his certificate is conclusive in the absence of fraud.

(d) Effective Date. — The resolution defining a service district shall take effect at the beginning of a fiscal year commencing after its passage, as determined by the board of commissioners.

(e) Exceptions For Countywide District. — The following requirements do not apply to a board of commissioners that proposes to create a law enforcement service district pursuant to G.S. 153A-301(a)(10) that covers the entire unincorporated area of the county:

- (1) The requirement that the district cannot be created unless the board makes the finding in subdivision (a1)(2) of this section.
- (2) The requirement in subsection (c) of this section to notify each property owner by mail, if the board publishes a notice of its proposal to establish the district, once a week for four successive weeks before the date of the hearing required by that subsection. (1973, c. 489, s. 1; c. 822, s. 2; 1981, c. 53, s. 1; 1995, c. 354, s. 2.)

§ 153A-303. Extension of service districts.

(a) Standards. — The board of commissioners may by resolution annex territory to any service district upon finding that:

- (1) The area to be annexed is contiguous to the district, with at least one eighth of the area's aggregate external boundary coincident with the existing boundary of the district; and
- (2) That the area to be annexed requires the services of the district.

(b) Annexation by Petition. — The board of commissioners may also by resolution extend by annexation the boundaries of any service district when one hundred percent (100%) of the real property owners of the area to be annexed have petitioned the board for annexation to the service district.

(c) Territory lying within the corporate limits of a city or sanitary district may not be annexed to a service district unless the governing body of the city or sanitary district agrees by resolution to such annexation.

(d) Report. — Before the public hearing required by subsection (e), the board shall cause to be prepared a report containing:

- (1) A map of the service district and the adjacent territory, showing the present and proposed boundaries of the district;
- (2) A statement showing that the area to be annexed meets the standards and requirements of subsections (a), (b), and (c); and
- (3) A plan for extending services to the area to be annexed.

The report shall be available for public inspection in the office of the clerk to the board for at least two weeks before the date of the public hearing.

(e) Hearing and Notice. — The board shall hold a public hearing before adopting any resolution extending the boundaries of a service district. Notice of the hearing shall state the date, hour and place of the hearing and its subject, and shall include a statement that the report required by subsection (d) is available for inspection in the office of the clerk to the board. The notice shall be published at least once not less than one week before the date of the hearing. In addition, the notice shall be mailed at least four weeks before the date of the hearing to the owners as shown by the county tax records as of the preceding January 1 of all property located within the area to be annexed. The notice may be mailed by any class of U.S. mail which is fully prepaid. The person designated by the board to mail the notice shall certify to the board that the mailing has been completed, and his certificate shall be conclusive in the absence of fraud.

(f) Effective Date. — The resolution extending the boundaries of the district shall take effect at the beginning of a fiscal year commencing after its passage, as determined by the board. (1973, c. 489, s. 1; c. 822, s. 2; 1981, c. 53, s. 2.)

§ 153A-304. Consolidation of service districts.

(a) The board of commissioners may by resolution consolidate two or more service districts upon finding that:

- (1) The districts are contiguous or are in a continuous boundary;
- (2) The services provided in each of the districts are substantially the same; or
- (3) If the services provided are lower for one of the districts, there is a need to increase those services for that district to the level of that enjoyed by the other districts.

(b) Report. — Before the public hearing required by subsection (c), the board of commissioners shall cause to be prepared a report containing:

- (1) A map of the districts to be consolidated;
- (2) A statement showing the proposed consolidation meets the standards of subsection (a); and
- (3) If necessary, a plan for increasing the services for one of the districts so that they are substantially the same throughout the consolidated district.

The report shall be available in the office of the clerk to the board for at least two weeks before the public hearing.

(c) Hearing and Notice. — The board of commissioners shall hold a public hearing before adopting any resolution consolidating service districts. Notice of the hearing shall state the date, hour, and place of the hearing and its subject, and shall include a statement that the report required by subsection (b) is available for inspection in the office of the clerk to the board. The notice shall be published at least once not less than one week before the date of the hearing. In addition, the notice shall be mailed at least four weeks before the hearing to the owners as shown by the county tax records as of the preceding January 1 of all property located within the consolidated district. The notice may be mailed by any class of U.S. mail which is fully prepaid. The person designated by the board to mail the notice shall certify to the board that the mailing has been completed, and his certificate shall be conclusive in the absence of fraud.

(d) Effective Date. — The consolidation of service districts shall take effect at the beginning of a fiscal year commencing after passage of the resolution of consolidation, as determined by the board. (1973, c. 489, s. 1; c. 822, s. 2; 1981, c. 53, s. 2.)

§ 153A-304.1. Reduction in district after annexation.

(a) When the whole or any portion of a county service district organized for fire protection purposes under G.S. 153A-301(2) has been annexed by a municipality furnishing fire protection to its citizens, and the municipality had not agreed to allow territory within it to be within the county service district under G.S. 153A-302(a), then such county service district or the portion thereof so annexed shall immediately thereupon cease to be a county service district or a portion of a county service district; and such district or portion thereof so annexed shall no longer be subject to G.S. 153A-307 authorizing the board of county commissioners to levy and collect a tax in such district for the purpose of furnishing fire protection therein.

(b) Nothing in this section prevents the board of county commissioners from levying and collecting taxes for fire protection in the remaining portion of a county service district not annexed by a municipality.

(c) When all or part of a county service district is annexed, and the effective date of the annexation is a date other than a date in the month of June, the amount of the county service district tax levied on property in the district for the fiscal year in which municipal taxes are prorated under G.S. 160A-58.10 shall be multiplied by the following fraction: the denominator shall be 12 and the numerator shall be the number of full calendar months remaining in the fiscal year following the day on which the annexation becomes effective. For each owner, the product of the multiplication is the prorated fire protection payment. The finance officer of the city shall obtain from the tax supervisor [assessor] or tax collector of the county where the annexed territory was located a list of the owners of property on which fire protection district taxes were levied in the territory being annexed, and the city shall, no later than 90 days after the effective date of the annexation, pay the amount of the prorated fire protection district payment to the owners of that property. Such payments shall come from any funds not otherwise restricted by law.

(d) Whenever a city is required to make fire protection district tax payments by subsection (c) of this section, and the city has paid or has contracted to pay to a rural fire department funds under G.S. 160A-37.1 or G.S. 160A-49.1, the county shall pay to the city from funds of the county service district an amount equal to the amount paid by the city (or to be paid by the city) to a rural fire department under G.S. 160A-37.1 or G.S. 160A-49.1 on account of annexation of territory in the county service district for the number of months in that fiscal year used in calculating the numerator under subsection (c) of this section; provided that the required payments by the county to the city shall not exceed the total of fire protection district payments made to taxpayers in the district on account of that annexation. (1987, c. 711, s. 1.)

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1987, c. 711, s. 3 made this section effective with respect to annexations effective on or after August 1, 1987.

The word "assessor" has been inserted in brackets following "tax supervisor" in subsection (c), in view of Session Laws 1987, c. 45, which changed the title "tax supervisor" to "assessor" in numerous sections of the General Statutes.

§ 153A-304.2. Reduction in district after annexation to Chapter 69 fire district.

(a) When the whole or any portion of a county service district organized for fire protection purposes under G.S. 153A-301(a)(2) has been annexed into a fire protection district created under Chapter 69 of the General Statutes, then such county service district or the portion thereof so annexed shall immediately thereupon cease to be a county service district or a portion of a county service district; and such district or portion thereof so annexed shall no longer be subject to G.S. 153A-307 authorizing the board of county commissioners to levy and collect a tax in such district for the purpose of furnishing fire protection therein.

§ 153A-305. Required provision or maintenance of services.

(a) New District. — When a county defines a new service district, it shall provide, maintain, or let contracts for the services for which the residents of the district are being taxed within a reasonable time, not to exceed one year, after the effective date of the definition of the district.

(b) Extended District. — When a county annexes territory to a service district, it shall provide, maintain, or let contracts for the services provided or maintained throughout the district to the residents of the area annexed to the district within a reasonable time, not to exceed one year, after the effective date of the annexation.

(c) Consolidated District. — When a county consolidates two or more service districts, one of which has had provided or maintained a lower level of services, it shall increase the services within that district (or let contracts therefor) to a level comparable to those provided or maintained elsewhere in the consolidated district within a reasonable time, not to exceed one year, after the effective date of the consolidation. (1973, c. 489, s. 1; c. 822, s. 2.)

Local Modification. — Onslow: 1975, c. 757.

§ 153A-306. Abolition of service districts.

Upon finding that there is no longer a need for a particular service district and that there are no outstanding bonds or notes issued to finance projects in the district, the board of commissioners may by resolution abolish that district. The board shall hold a public hearing before adopting a resolution abolishing a district. Notice of the hearing shall state the date, hour and place of the hearing, and its subject, and shall be published at least once not less than one week before the date of the hearing. The abolition of any service district shall take effect at the end of a fiscal year following passage of the resolution, as determined by the board. (1973, c. 489, s. 1; c. 822, s. 2.)

§ 153A-307. Taxes authorized; rate limitation.

A county may levy property taxes within defined service districts in addition to those levied throughout the county, in order to finance, provide or maintain for the districts services provided therein in addition to or to a greater extent than those financed, provided or maintained for the entire county. In addition, a county may allocate to a service district any other revenues whose use is not otherwise restricted by law.

Property subject to taxation in a newly established district or in an area annexed to an existing district is that subject to taxation by the county as of the preceding January 1.

Property taxes may not be levied within any district established pursuant to this Article in excess of a rate on each one hundred dollars ($100.00) value of property subject to taxation which, when added to the rate levied countywide for purposes subject to the rate limitation, would exceed the rate limitation established in G.S. 153A-149(c), unless the portion of the rate in excess of this limitation is submitted to and approved by a majority of the qualified voters residing within the district. Any referendum held pursuant to this paragraph shall be held and conducted as provided in G.S. 153A-149. (1973, c. 489, s. 1; c. 822, s. 2.)

§ 153A-308. Bonds authorized.

A county may issue its general obligation bonds under the Local Government Bond Act to finance services, facilities, or functions provided within a service district. If a proposed bond issue is required by law to be submitted to and approved by the voters of the county, and if the proceeds of the proposed bond issue are to be used in connection with a service that is or, if the bond issue is approved, will be provided only for one or more service districts or at a higher level in service districts than countywide, the proposed bond issue must be approved concurrently by a majority of those voting throughout the entire county and by a majority of the total of those voting in all of the affected or to-be-affected service districts. (1973, c. 489, s. 1; c. 822, s. 2.)

§ 153A-309. EMS services in fire protection districts.

(a) If a service district is established under this Article for fire protection purposes under G.S. 153A-301(a)(2), (including a district established with a rate limitation under G.S. 153A-309.2), and it was not also established under this Article for ambulance and rescue purposes under G.S. 153A-301(a)(7), the board of county commissioners may, by resolution, permit the service district to provide emergency medical, rescue, and/or ambulance services, and may levy property taxes for such purposes under G.S. 153A-307, but if the district was established under G.S. 153A-309.2, the rate limitation established under that section shall continue to apply.

(b) The resolution expanding the purposes of the district under this section shall take effect at the beginning of a fiscal year commencing after its passage. (1983, c. 642; 1989, c. 559.)

§ 153A-309.2. Rate limitation in certain districts.

(a) In connection with the establishment of a service district for fire protection as provided by G.S. 153A-301(2), if the board of commissioners adopts a resolution within 90 days prior to the public hearing required by G.S. 153A-302(c) but prior to the first publication of notice required by subsection (b) of this section, which resolution states that property taxes within a district may not be levied in excess of a rate of fifteen cents (15¢) on each one hundred dollars ($100.00) of property subject to taxation, then property taxes may not be levied in that service district in excess of that rate.

(b) Whenever a service district is established under this section, instead of the procedures for hearing and notice under G.S. 153A-302(c), the board of commissioners shall hold a public hearing before adopting any resolution defining a new service district under this section. Notice of the hearing shall state the date, hour and place of the hearing and its subject, and shall include a map of the proposed district and a statement that the report required by G.S. 153A-302(b) is available for public inspection in the office of the clerk to the board. The notice shall be published at least twice, with one publication not less than two weeks before the hearing, and the other publication on some other day not less than two weeks before the hearing. (1985, c. 724.)

§ 153A-310. Rate limitation in certain districts.

(a) In connection with the establishment of a service district for ambulance and rescue as provided by G.S. 153A-301(7), if the board of commissioners adopts a resolution within 90 days prior to the public hearing required by G.S. 153A-302(c) but prior to the first publication of notice required by subsection (b) of this section, which resolution states that property taxes within a district may not be levied in excess of a rate of five cents (5¢) on each one hundred dollars ($100.00) of property subject to taxation, then property taxes may not be levied in that service district in excess of that rate.

(b) Whenever a service district is established under this section, instead of the procedures for hearing and notice under G.S. 153A-302(c), the board of commissioners shall hold a public hearing before adopting any resolution defining a new service district under this section. Notice of the hearing shall state the date, hour and place of the hearing and its subject, and shall include a map of the proposed district and a statement that the report required by G.S. 153A-302(b) is available for public inspection in the office of the clerk to the board. The notice shall be published at least twice, with one publication not less than two weeks before the hearing, and the other publication on some other day not less than two weeks before the hearing. (1985, c. 430, s. 1.)

Part 2. County Research and Production Service Districts.

§ 153A-311. Purposes for which districts may be established.

The board of commissioners of any county may define a county research and production service district in order to finance, provide, and maintain for the district any service, facility, or function that a county or a city is authorized by general law to provide, finance, or maintain. Such a service, facility, or function shall be financed, provided, or maintained in the district either in addition to or to a greater extent than services, facilities, or functions are financed, provided, or maintained for the entire county. (1985, c. 435, s. 1.)

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1985, c. 435, s. 2 prohibited any municipality from annexing a described tract of land in Durham and Wake Counties except under Parts 1 or 4 of Chapter 160A. The legal description of this tract can be found in c. 435, s. 2. The tract described is the Research Triangle Park, which is a county research and production service district.

§ 153A-312. Definition of research and production service district.

(a) Standards. — The board of commissioners may by resolution establish a research and production service district for any area of the county that, at the time the resolution is adopted, meets the following standards:

- (1) All real property in the district is being used for or is subject to covenants that limit its use to research or scientifically-oriented production or for associated commercial or institutional purposes.
- (2) The district contains at least 4,000 acres.
- (3) The district includes research and production facilities that in combination employ at least 5,000 persons.

- (4) All real property located in the district was at one time or is currently owned by a nonprofit corporation, which developed or is developing the property as a research and production park.
- (5) A petition requesting creation of the district signed by at least fifty percent (50%) of the owners of real property in the district who own at least fifty percent (50%) of total area of the real property in the district has been presented to the board of commissioners. In determining the total area of real property in the district and the number of owners of real property, there shall be excluded (1) real property exempted from taxation and real property classified and excluded from taxation and (2) the owners of such exempted or classified and excluded property.
- (6) The district has no more than 25 permanent residents.
- (7) There exists in the district an association of owners and tenants, to which at least seventy-five percent (75%) of the owners of real property belong, which association can make the recommendations provided for in G.S. 153A-313.
- (8) There exist deed-imposed conditions, covenants, restrictions, and reservations that apply to all real property in the district other than property owned by the federal government.
- (9) No part of the district lies within the boundaries of any incorporated city or town.

The Board of Commissioners may establish a research and production service district if, upon the information and evidence it receives, the Board finds that:

- (1) The proposed district meets the standards set forth in this subsection; and
- (2) It is impossible or impracticable to provide on a countywide basis the additional or higher levels of services, facilities, or functions proposed for the district; and
- (3) It is economically feasible to provide the proposed services, facilities, or functions to the district without unreasonable or burdensome tax levies.

(b) Multi-County Districts. — If an area that meets the standards for creation of a research and production service district lies in more than one county, the boards of commissioners of those counties may adopt concurrent resolutions establishing a service district, even if that portion of the district lying in any one of the counties does not by itself meet the standards. Each of the county boards of commissioners shall follow the procedure set out in this section for creation of a service district.

If a multi-county service district is established, as provided in this subsection, the boards of commissioners of the counties involved shall jointly determine whether the same appraisal and assessment standards apply uniformly throughout the district. This determination shall be set out in concurrent resolutions of the boards. If the same appraisal and assessment standards apply uniformly throughout the district, the boards of commissioners of all the counties shall levy the same rate of tax for the district, so that a uniform rate of tax is levied for district purposes throughout the district. If the boards determine that the same standards do not apply uniformly throughout the district, the boards shall agree on the extent of divergence between the counties and on the resulting adjustments of tax rates that will be necessary in order that an effectively uniform rate of tax is levied for district purposes throughout the district.

The boards of commissioners of the counties establishing a multi-county service district pursuant to this subsection may, by concurrent resolution, provide for the administration of services within the district by one county on behalf of all the establishing counties.

(c) Report. — Before the public hearing required by subsection (d), the board of commissioners shall cause to be prepared a report containing:

- (1) A map of the proposed district, showing its proposed boundaries;
- (2) A statement showing that the proposed district meets the standards set out in subsection (a); and
- (3) A plan for providing one or more services, facilities, or functions to the district.

The report shall be available for public inspection in the office of the clerk to the board for at least four weeks before the date of the public hearing.

(d) Hearing and Notice. — The board of commissioners shall hold a public hearing before adopting any resolution defining a service district under this section. Notice of the hearing shall state the date, hour, and place of the hearing and its subject, and shall include a map of the proposed district and a statement that the report required by subsection (c) is available for public inspection in the office of the clerk to the board. The notice shall be published at least once not less than one week before the date of the hearing. In addition, it shall be mailed at least four weeks before the date of the hearing by any class of U.S. mail which is fully prepaid to the owners as shown by the county tax records as of the preceding January 1 (and at the address shown thereon) of all property located within the proposed district. The person designated by the board to mail the notice shall certify to the board that the mailing has been completed and his certificate is conclusive in the absence of fraud.

(e) Effective Date. — The resolution defining a service district shall take effect at the beginning of a fiscal year commencing after its passage, as determined by the board of commissioners. (1985, c. 435, s. 1.)

§ 153A-313. Advisory committee.

The board or boards of commissioners, in the resolution establishing a research and production service district, shall also provide for an advisory committee for the district. Such a committee shall have at least 10 members, serving terms as set forth in the resolution; one member shall be the representative of the developer of the research and production park. The resolution shall provide for the appointment or designation of a chairman. The board of commissioners or, in the case of a multi-county service district, the boards of commissioners shall appoint the members of the advisory committee. If a multi-county service district is established, the concurrent resolutions establishing the district shall provide how many members of the advisory committee are to be appointed by each board of commissioners. Before making the appointments, the appropriate board shall request the association of owners and tenants, required by G.S. 153A-312(a), to submit a list of persons to be considered for appointment to the committee; the association shall submit at least two names for each appointment to be made. Except as provided in the next two sentences, the board of commissioners shall make the appointments to the committee from the list of persons submitted. In addition, the developer of the research and production park shall appoint one person to the advisory committee as the developer's representative on the committee. In addition, in a single county service district, the board of commissioners may make two additional appointments of such other persons as the board of commissioners deems appropriate, and in a multi-county service district, each board of county commissioners may make one additional appointment of such other person as that board of commissioners deems appropriate. Whenever a vacancy occurs on the committee in a position filled by appointment by a board of commissioners, the appropriate board, before filling the vacancy, shall request the association to submit the names of at least two persons to be considered for the vacancy; and the board shall fill the vacancy by appointing one of the persons so submitted, except that if the vacancy is in a position appointed by the board of commissioners under the preceding sentence of this section, the board of commissioners making that appointment shall fill the vacancy with such person as that board of commissioners deems appropriate.

Each year, before adopting the budget for the service district and levying the tax for the district, the board or boards of commissioners shall request recommendations from the advisory committee as to the level of services, facilities, or functions to be provided for the district for the ensuing year. The board or boards of commissioners shall, to the extent permitted by law, expend the proceeds of any tax levied for the district in the manner recommended by the advisory board. (1985, c. 435, s. 1.)

§ 153A-314. Extension of service districts.

(a) Standards. — A board of commissioners may by resolution annex territory to a research and production service district upon finding that:

- (1) The conditions, covenants, restrictions, and reservations required by G.S. 153A-312(a)(8) that apply to all real property in the research district, other than property owned by the federal government, also apply or will apply to the property, other than property owned by the federal government, to be annexed.
- (2) One hundred percent (100%) of the owners of real property in the area to be annexed have petitioned for annexation.
- (3) The district, following the annexation, will continue to meet the standards set out in G.S. 153A-312(a).
- (4) The area to be annexed requires the services, facilities, or functions financed, provided, or maintained for the district.
- (5) The area to be annexed is contiguous to the district.

(b) Report. — Before the public hearing required by subsection (c), the board shall cause to be prepared a report containing:

- (1) A map of the district and the adjacent territory proposed to be annexed, showing the present and proposed boundaries of the district; and
- (2) A statement showing that the area to be annexed meets the standards and requirements of subsection (a) of this section.

The report shall be available for public inspection in the office of the clerk to the board for at least four weeks before the date of the public hearing.

(c) Hearing and Notice. — The board shall hold a public hearing before adopting any resolution extending the boundaries of a service district. Notice of the hearing shall state the date, hour and place of the hearing and its subject, and shall include a statement that the report required by subsection (b) of this section is available for inspection in the office of the clerk to the board. The notice shall be published at least once not less than four weeks before the hearing. In addition, the notice shall be mailed at least four weeks before the date of the hearing by any class of U.S. mail which is fully prepaid to the owners as shown by the county tax records as of the preceding January 1 (and at the address shown thereon) of all property located within the area to be annexed. The person designated by the board to mail the notice shall certify to the board that the mailing has been completed, and the certificate shall be conclusive in the absence of fraud.

(d) Effective Date. — The resolution extending the boundaries of the district shall take effect at the beginning of a fiscal year commencing after its passage, as determined by the board. (1985, c. 435, s. 1.)

§ 153A-315. Required provision or maintenance of services.

(a) New District. — When a county or counties define a research and production service district, it or they shall provide, maintain, or let contracts for the services for which the district is being taxed within a reasonable time, not to exceed one year, after the effective date of the definition of the district.

(b) Extended District. — When a territory is annexed to a research and production service district, the county or counties shall provide, maintain, or let contracts for the services provided or maintained throughout the district to property in the area annexed to the district within a reasonable time, not to exceed one year, after the effective date of the annexation. (1985, c. 435, s. 1.)

§ 153A-316. Abolition of service districts.

A board or boards of county commissioners may by resolution abolish a research and production service district upon finding that (i) a petition requesting abolition, signed by at least fifty percent (50%) of the owners of real property in the district who own at least fifty percent (50%) of the total area of real property in the district, has been submitted to the board or boards; and (ii) there is no longer a need for such service district. In determining the total area of real property in the district and the number of owners of real property, there shall be excluded (1) real property exempted from taxation and real property classified and excluded from taxation and (2) the owners of such exempted or classified and excluded property. The board or boards shall hold a public hearing before adopting a resolution abolishing a district. Notice of the hearing shall state the date, hour, and place of the hearing, and its subject, and shall be published at least once not less than one week before the date of the hearing. The abolition of any service district shall take effect at the end of a fiscal year following passage of the resolution, as determined by the board or boards. If a multi-county service district is established, it may be abolished only by concurrent resolution of the board of commissioners of each county in which the district is located. (1985, c. 435, s. 1.)

§ 153A-317. Taxes authorized; rate limitation.

A county may levy property taxes within a research and production service district in addition to those levied throughout the county, in order to finance, provide, or maintain for the district services provided therein in addition to or to a greater extent than those financed, provided, or maintained for the entire county. In addition, a county may allocate to a service district any other revenues whose use is not otherwise restricted by law. The proceeds of taxes only within a service district may be expended only for services provided for the district.

Property subject to taxation in a newly established district or in an area annexed to an existing district is that subject to taxation by the county as of the preceding January 1.

Such additional property taxes may not be levied within any district established pursuant to this Article in excess of a rate of ten cents (10¢) on each one hundred dollars ($100.00) value of property subject to taxation. (1985, c. 435, s. 1.)

CASE NOTES

A county sign ordinance did not violate the equal protection clause of U.S. Const., Amend. XIV or N.C. Const., Art. I, § 19, because the county would not enforce the ordinance with respect to any person owning or operating a sign in certain municipalities within the county since the county could not exercise zoning authority within a city which had enacted a zoning ordinance and it could defer from zoning within cities. County of Cumberland v. Eastern Fed. Corp., 48 N.C. App. 518, 269 S.E.2d 672, cert. denied, 301 N.C. 527, 273 S.E.2d 453 (1980).

A county may not exercise jurisdiction over any part of a city located within its borders. Davidson County v. City of High Point, 321 N.C. 252, 362 S.E.2d 553 (1987).

Use of City-Owned Sewage Treatment Plant Without Prior Approval of County.

— Since county had no authority to restrict or regulate city's provision of sewer service to its residents, the city could use city-owned sewage treatment plant located outside the city but within the county, which was upgraded pursuant to the county's special use permit, with a condition attached to the permit requiring the county's prior approval of service to county citizens, to meet its statutory mandate to provide sewer service to residents in newly annexed areas without seeking the county's prior approval, even though the facility was located in the county. *Davidson County v. ## § 153A-321. Planning agency.

A county may by ordinance create or designate one or more agencies to perform the following duties:

- (1) Make studies of the county and surrounding areas;
- (2) Determine objectives to be sought in the development of the study area;
- (3) Prepare and adopt plans for achieving these objectives;
- (4) Develop and recommend policies, ordinances, administrative procedures, and other means for carrying out plans in a coordinated and efficient manner;

- (5) Advise the board of commissioners concerning the use and amendment of means for carrying out plans;
- (6) Exercise any functions in the administration and enforcement of various means for carrying out plans that the board of commissioners may direct;
- (7) Perform any other related duties that the board of commissioners may direct.

An agency created or designated pursuant to this section may include but shall not be limited to one or more of the following:

- (1) A planning board or commission of any size (with not fewer than three members) or composition considered appropriate, organized in any manner considered appropriate;
- (2) A joint planning board created by two or more local governments according to the procedures and provisions of Chapter 160A, Article 20, Part 1. (1945, c. 1040, s. 1; 1955, c. 1252; 1957, c. 947; 1959, c. 327, s. 1; c. 390; 1973, c. 822, s. 1; 1979, c. 611, s. 6; 1997-309, s. 5.)

CASE NOTES

Amendment to county zoning ordinance constituted a valid legislative prerogative to change the sanitary landfill use from a “special use permit” category to a “use by right under prescribed conditions” category and that section of the county zoning ordinance, which allowed the county zoning administrator to approve the county’s permit application for the siting of a landfill, was constitutional and lawful on its face. County of Lancaster v. Mecklenburg County, 334 N.C. 496, 434 S.E.2d 604 (1993).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL

Member of County Planning Board Serves at Will of Commissioners. — See opinion of Attorney General to Mr. William C.

Reeves, Madison County Attorney, 41 N.C.A.G. 230 (1971).

§ 153A-322. Supplemental powers.

A county or its designated planning agency may accept, receive, and disburse in furtherance of its functions funds, grants, and services made available by the federal government or its agencies, the State government or its agencies, any local government or its agencies, and private or civic sources. A county, or its designated planning agency with the concurrence of the board of commissioners, may enter into and carry out contracts with the State or federal governments or any agencies of either under which financial or other planning assistance is made available to the county and may agree to and comply with any reasonable conditions that are imposed upon the assistance.

A county, or its designated planning agency with the concurrence of the board of commissioners, may enter into and carry out contracts with any other county, city, regional council, or planning agency under which it agrees to furnish technical planning assistance to the other local government or planning agency. A county, or its designated planning agency with the concurrence of the board of commissioners, may enter into and carry out contracts with any other county, city, regional council, or planning agency under which it agrees to pay the other local government or planning agency for technical planning assistance.

A county may make any appropriations that may be necessary to carry out an activity or contract authorized by this Article, by Chapter 157A, or by Chapter 160A, Article 19 or to support, and compensate members of, any planning agency that it may create or designate pursuant to this Article. (1945, c. 1040, s. 1; 1955, c. 1252; 1957, c. 947; 1959, c. 327, s. 1; c. 390; 1973, c. 822, s. 1; 1983, c. 377, s. 8.)

Editor's Note. — Chapter 157A, referred to in this section, was transferred to Chapter 160A, Article 19, Part 3B (§ 160A-399.1 et seq.), by Session Laws 1973, c. 426, s. 62. Chapter 160A, Article 19, Part 3B was later repealed by Session Laws 1989, c. 706. As to historic districts and landmarks, see now Chapter 160A, Article 19, Part 3C, § 160A-400.1 et seq.

§ 153A-323. Procedure for adopting or amending ordinances under this Article and Chapter 160A, Article 19.

Before adopting or amending any ordinance authorized by this Article or Chapter 160A, Article 19, the board of commissioners shall hold a public hearing on the ordinance or amendment. The board shall cause notice of the hearing to be published once a week for two successive calendar weeks. The notice shall be published the first time not less than 10 days nor more than 25 days before the date fixed for the hearing. In computing such period, the day of publication is not to be included but the day of the hearing shall be included. (1959, c. 1006, s. 1; c. 1007; 1973, c. 822, s. 1; 1981, c. 891, ss. 2, 9.)

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1993, c. 469, s. 3(a), effective January 1, 1994, repeals various acts, including the following local modifications to this section: Session Laws 1993, c. 101, as to Wilkes; 1993, c. 139, as to Stokes; 1993, c. 156, as to Watauga; 1993, c. 267, as to Davidson and Davie; 1993, c. 296, as to Nash and Franklin. Section 3(b) of c. 469 provides that nothing in the section affects any ordinance adopted under the authority of any act repealed by s. 3(a) prior to the effective date of c. 469.

Session Laws 1993, c. 469, s. 5 provides: "Sec. 5. (a) This act becomes effective January 1, 1994, except that as to any city or county, it becomes effective at any time between the date of ratification of this act and January 1, 1994 if the city or county, as appropriate, adopts an ordinance placing it into effect at such earlier date. Adoption of such ordinance is subject to the procedural requirements of G.S. 160A-364 or G.S. 153A-323, as appropriate, but not to any procedural requirement of the zoning ordinance for adoption of amendments to the zoning ordinance. The ordinance may provide for different dates of applicability based on the stage of the zoning classification action on the effective date.

"If the city or county is subject to a local act repealed by Section 3 of this act, the ordinance prevails over some or all of the local act if the ordinance so provides.

"(b) This section does not apply to Forsyth County or municipalities located within that county."

The requirement that a public hearing be conducted is mandatory. Freeland v. Orange County, 273 N.C. 452, 160 S.E.2d 282 (1968); Orange County v. Heath, 278 N.C. 688, 180 S.E.2d 810 (1971).

Hearing and Opportunity to Present Views Intended. — The manifest intention of the General Assembly was that a public hearing be conducted at which those who opposed and those who favored adoption of the ordinance would have a fair opportunity to present their respective views. Freeland v. Orange County, 273 N.C. 452, 160 S.E.2d 282 (1968); Orange County v. Heath, 278 N.C. 688, 180 S.E.2d 810 (1971).

County commissioners are not required to hear all persons in attendance without limitation as to number and time. Freeland v. Orange County, 273 N.C. 452, 160 S.E.2d 282 (1968).

Nor to Answer Questions. — The county commissioners are not required to answer questions asked by those in attendance at the public meeting. Freeland v. Orange County, 273 N.C. 452, 160 S.E.2d 282 (1968).

Repetition of Same Views Not Contemplated. — The General Assembly did not contemplate that all persons entertaining the same views would have an unqualified right to iterate and reiterate these views in endless repetition. Freeland v. Orange County, 273 N.C. 452, 160 S.E.2d 282 (1968).

Failure to Comply with Notice Requirements. — Where there was no notice to the public or advertised public hearing prior to adoption of the ordinance as required by this section; the trial court's conclusion that the ordinance passed by the board imposing a moratorium on building permits pending zoning was invalid. Vulcan Materials Co. v. Iredell County, 103 N.C. App. 779, 407 S.E.2d 283 (1991).

§ 153A-324. Enforcement of ordinances.

In addition to the enforcement provisions of this Article and subject to the provisions of the ordinance, any ordinance adopted pursuant to this Article, to Chapter 157A, or to Chapter 160A, Article 19 may be enforced by any remedy provided by G.S. 153A-123. (1959, c. 1006, s. 1; 1961, c. 414; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

repealed by Session Laws 1989, c. 706. As to historic districts and landmarks, see now Chapter 160A, Article 19, Part 3C (§ 160A-400.1 et seq.).

CASE NOTES

Zoning Ordinance May Be Enforced by Injunction. — The relevant enabling acts provide for enforcement of the provisions of a zoning ordinance by injunction. County of Durham v. Addison, 262 N.C. 280, 136 S.E.2d 600 (1964), decided under former law.

Ordinance Itself Need Not Provide for Equitable Enforcement. — It is unnecessary for a zoning ordinance itself to contain any specific provision for equitable enforcement because this section allows any remedy under § 153A-123 to be used at the county's election as a matter of right and without qualification, unless the county's zoning ordinance provides otherwise. New Hanover County v. Pleasant, 59 N.C. App. 644, 297 S.E.2d 760 (1982).

§ 153A-325. Submission of statement concerning improvements.

A county may by ordinance require that when a property owner improves property at a cost of more than twenty-five hundred dollars ($2,500) but less than five thousand dollars ($5,000), the property owner must, within 14 days after the completion of the work, submit to the county assessor a statement setting forth the nature of the improvement and the total cost thereof. (1983, c. 614, s. 4; 1987, c. 45, s. 1.)

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1983, c. 614, s. 5, provides that the act shall not apply to Wilson, Nash and Edgecombe Counties.

§ 153A-326. Building setback lines.

Counties shall have the same authority to regulate building setback lines as is provided for cities in G.S. 160A-306. (1987, c. 747, s. 15.)

§§ 153A-327 through 153A-329: Reserved for future codification purposes.

Part 2. Subdivision Regulation.

§ 153A-330. Subdivision regulation.

A county may by ordinance regulate the subdivision of land within its territorial jurisdiction. If a county, pursuant to G.S. 153A-342, has adopted a zoning ordinance that applies only to one or more designated portions of its territorial jurisdiction, it may adopt subdivision regulations that apply only within the areas so zoned and need not regulate the subdivision of land in the rest of its jurisdiction. (1959, c. 1007; 1965, c. 195; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

CASE NOTES

Limitation on Authority of County Commissioners to Adopt Subdivision Control Ordinance. — The authority of a board of county commissioners to adopt a subdivision control ordinance may be lawfully exercised only within prescribed limitations. Thus, a subdivision ordinance adopted by the board of county commissioners applies solely to land lying within the county and outside the subdivision-regulation jurisdiction of any municipality. State v. McBane, 276 N.C. 60, 170 S.E.2d 913 (1969), decided under former law.

Applied in Springdale Estates Ass'n v. Wake County, 47 N.C. App. 462, 267 S.E.2d 415 (1980).

§ 153A-331. Contents and requirements of ordinance.

A subdivision control ordinance may provide for the orderly growth and development of the county; for the coordination of streets and highways within proposed subdivisions with existing or planned streets and highways and with other public facilities; for the dedication or reservation of recreation areas serving residents of the immediate neighborhood within the subdivision and of rights-of-way or easements for street and utility purposes including the dedication of rights-of-way pursuant to G.S. 136.66.10 or G.S. 136-66.11; and for the distribution of population and traffic in a manner that will avoid congestion and overcrowding and will create conditions essential to public health, safety, and the general welfare. The ordinance may include requirements that the final plat show sufficient data to determine readily and reproduce accurately on the ground the location, bearing, and length of every street and alley line, lot line, easement boundary line, and other property boundaries, including the radius and other data for curved property lines, to an appropriate accuracy and in conformity with good surveying practice. A subdivision control ordinance may provide that a developer may provide funds to the county whereby the county may acquire recreational land or areas to serve the development or subdivision, including the purchase of land which may be used to serve more than one subdivision or development within the immediate area.

The ordinance may provide that in lieu of required street construction, a developer may provide funds to be used for the development of roads to serve the occupants, residents, or invitees of the subdivision or development. All funds received by the county under this section shall be transferred to the municipality to be used solely for the development of roads, including design, land acquisition, and construction. Any municipality receiving funds from a county under this section is authorized to expend such funds outside its corporate limits for the purposes specified in the agreement between the municipality and the county. Any formula adopted to determine the amount of funds the developer is to pay in lieu of required street construction shall be based on the trips generated from the subdivision or development. The ordinance may require a combination of partial payment of funds and partial dedication of constructed streets when the governing body of the county determines that a combination is in the best interest of the citizens of the area to be served.

The ordinance may provide for the more orderly development of subdivisions by requiring the construction of community service facilities in accordance with county policies and standards, and, to assure compliance with these requirements, the ordinance may provide for the posting of bond or any other method that will offer guarantee of compliance.

The ordinance may provide for the reservation of school sites in accordance with comprehensive land use plans approved by the board of commissioners or the planning agency. For the authorization to reserve school sites to be effective, the board of commissioners or planning agency, before approving a comprehensive land use plan, shall determine jointly with the board of education with jurisdiction over the area the specific location and size of each school site to be reserved, and this information shall appear in the plan. Whenever a subdivision that includes part or all of a school site to be reserved under the plan is submitted for approval, the board of commissioners or the planning agency shall immediately notify the board of education. That board shall promptly decide whether it still wishes the site to be reserved and shall notify the board of commissioners or planning agency of its decision. If the board of education does not wish the site to be reserved, no site may be reserved. If the board of education does wish the site to be reserved, the subdivision may not be approved without the reservation. The board of education must acquire the site within 18 months after the date the site is reserved, either by purchase or by exercise of the power of eminent domain. If the board of education has not purchased the site or begun proceedings to condemn the site within the 18 months, the subdivider may treat the land as freed of the reservation.

The ordinance may require that a plat be prepared, approved, and recorded pursuant to its provisions whenever a subdivision of land takes place. (1959, c. 1007; 1973, c. 822, s. 1; 1975, c. 231; 1987, c. 747, ss. 10, 17.)

CASE NOTES

Former Statute Did Not Authorize Laying Out, etc., of Highways, Streets or Alleys Within Meaning of Constitution. — The statutory provisions of former §§ 153-266.3 and 153-266.4, as to what might and what must be included in a county subdivision ordinance, did not constitute “authorizing the laying out, opening, altering, maintaining, or discontinuing of highways, streets, or alleys” within the meaning of N.C. Const., Art. II, § 24. State v. McBane, 276 N.C. 60, 170 S.E.2d 913 (1969).

Effect of Specific Exemption. — The general health, safety, and welfare language of this section cannot invalidate the specific exemption clearly stated in § 153A-335(2), as the language of subdivision (2) itself is not ambiguous, and plaintiff's division of land falls, without question under this exception. Three Guys Real Estate v. Harnett County, 345 N.C. 468, 480 S.E.2d 681 (1997).

§ 153A-332. Ordinance to contain procedure for plat approval; approval prerequisite to plat recordation; statement by owner.

A subdivision ordinance adopted pursuant to this Part shall contain provisions setting forth the procedures to be followed in granting or denying approval of a subdivision plat before its registration.

The ordinance shall provide that the following agencies be given an opportunity to make recommendations concerning an individual subdivision plat before the plat is approved:

- (1) The district highway engineer as to proposed State streets, State highways, and related drainage systems;
- (2) The county health director or local public utility, as appropriate, as to proposed water or sewerage systems;
- (3) Any other agency or official designated by the board of commissioners.

The ordinance may provide that final approval of each individual subdivision plat is to be given by:

- (1) The board of commissioners,
- (2) The board of commissioners on recommendation of a planning agency, or
- (3) A designated planning agency.

From the effective date of a subdivision ordinance that is adopted by the county, no subdivision plat of land within the county's jurisdiction may be filed or recorded until it has been submitted to and approved by the appropriate board or agency, as specified in the subdivision ordinance, and until this approval is entered in writing on the face of the plat by an authorized representative of the county. The Review Officer, pursuant to G.S. 47-30.2, shall not certify a plat of a subdivision of land located within the territorial jurisdiction of the county that has not been approved in accordance with these provisions, and the clerk of superior court may not order or direct the recording of a plat if the recording would be in conflict with this section. (1959, c. 1007; 1973, c. 822, s. 1; 1997-309, s. 6.)

Legal Periodicals. — For article, "Transferring North Carolina Real Estate, Part I: How the Present System Functions," see 49 N.C.L. Rev. 413 (1971).

§ 153A-333. Effect of plat approval on dedications.

The approval of a plat does not constitute or effect the acceptance by the county or the public of the dedication of any street or other ground, public utility line, or other public facility shown on the plat and shall not be construed to do so. (1959, c. 1007; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

CASE NOTES

§ 153A-334. Penalties for transferring lots in unapproved subdivisions.

If a person who is the owner or the agent of the owner of any land located within the territorial jurisdiction of a county that has adopted a subdivision regulation ordinance subdivides his land in violation of the ordinance or transfers or sells land by reference to, exhibition of, or any other use of a plat showing a subdivision of the land before the plat has been properly approved under the ordinance and recorded in the office of the appropriate register of deeds, he is guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor. The description by metes and bounds in the instrument of transfer or other document used in the process of selling or transferring land does not exempt the transaction from this penalty. The county may bring an action for injunction of any illegal subdivision, transfer, conveyance, or sale of land, and the court shall, upon appropriate findings, issue an injunction and order requiring the offending party to comply with the subdivision ordinance. (1959, c. 1007; 1973, c. 822, s. 1; 1977, c. 820, s. 1; 1993, c. 539, s. 1063; 1994, Ex. Sess., c. 24, s. 14(c).)

CASE NOTES

Editor's Note. — The case annotated below was decided under former § 153-266.6.

Purpose of Former § 153-266.6. — The sole purpose of former § 153-266.6, similar to this section, was to compel compliance with ordinance provisions seeking to prevent any subdivision of land covered by its terms unless and until the proposed subdivision map had been submitted to and approved by designated governmental agencies. State v. McBane, 276 N.C. 60, 170 S.E.2d 913 (1969).

What former § 153-266.6 condemned as a misdemeanor was the description of land in any contract of sale, deed or other instrument of transfer by reference to a subdivision plat that had not been properly approved and recorded. State v. McBane, 276 N.C. 60, 170 S.E.2d 913 (1969).

Recording of Instrument Containing Improper Reference Immaterial. — The misdemeanor defined in former § 153-266.6 related to a sale or transfer of land with reference to a plat showing a subdivision of land before such plat had been properly approved under the ordinance and recorded in the office of the appropriate register of deeds. Whether the contract of sale, deed or other instrument of transfer was recorded was immaterial. State v. McBane, 276 N.C. 60, 170 S.E.2d 913 (1969).

Ordinance Regulating Subdivision of Land Prerequisite to Conviction. — As one of the prerequisites to conviction for sale of land by reference to an unapproved plat, it must be alleged and established that an ordinance regulating the subdivision of land was adopted by the board of county commissioners in accordance with the authority conferred by statute. State v. McBane, 276 N.C. 60, 170 S.E.2d 913 (1969).

Person Subject to Prosecution. — The owner of land or his agent within the "platting jurisdiction" granted the county commissioners by statute was the only person subject to criminal prosecution for the sale of land by reference to an unapproved plat. State v. McBane, 276 N.C. 60, 170 S.E.2d 913 (1969).

Warrant Must Allege That Defendant Was Land Owner or Owner's Agent Within Platting District. — A warrant is fatally defective if it fails to allege one of the essential elements of the criminal offense, namely, that defendant was the owner of land or his agent within the platting jurisdiction granted to the county commissioners by the statute. State v. McBane, 276 N.C. 60, 170 S.E.2d 913 (1969).

General allegation that defendant's conduct constituted a misdemeanor in violation of the statute was insufficient. State v. McBane, 276 N.C. 60, 170 S.E.2d 913 (1969).

§ 153A-335. "Subdivision" defined.

For purposes of this Part, "subdivision" means all divisions of a tract or parcel of land into two or more lots, building sites, or other divisions for the purpose of sale or building development (whether immediate or future) and includes all division of land involving the dedication of a new street or a change in existing streets; however, the following is not included within this definition and is not subject to any regulations enacted pursuant to this Part:

- (1) The combination or recombination of portions of previously subdivided and recorded lots if the total number of lots is not increased and the resultant lots are equal to or exceed the standards of the county as shown in its subdivision regulations;
- (2) The division of land into parcels greater than 10 acres if no street right-of-way dedication is involved;
- (3) The public acquisition by purchase of strips of land for widening or opening streets; and
- (4) The division of a tract in single ownership the entire area of which is no greater than two acres into not more than three lots, if no street right-of-way dedication is involved and if the resultant lots are equal to or exceed the standards of the county as shown by its subdivision regulations. (1959, c. 1007; 1973, c. 822, s. 1; 1979, c. 611, s. 2.)

Local Modification. — Cherokee: 1977, c. 253; Davie: 1995, c. 78, s. 1; Harnett: 1997, c. 246, s. 1; 2001-50, s. 1; Henderson: 1989 (Reg. Sess., 1990), c. 863, s. 1; Jones: 1999-125, s. 1; Montgomery: 1995, c. 337, s. 1; Onslow: 1975, c. 105; Pasquotank: 1993, c. 194, s. 1; Pender: 1991, c. 204, s. 2; Person: 1987 (Reg. Sess.,

CASE NOTES

Specific Exemption Controls. — The general health, safety, and welfare language of § 153A-331 cannot invalidate the specific exemption clearly stated in subdivision (2) as the language of subdivision (2) itself is not ambiguous, and plaintiff's division of land falls, without question under this exception. Three Guys Real Estate v. Harnett County, 345 N.C. 468, 480 S.E.2d 681 (1997).

Land Not Subject to Regulations. — Where plaintiff's plat showed a division of land into parcels greater than ten acres, and no street right-of-way dedication was involved, plaintiff's division of land was not subject to any regulations enacted pursuant to §§ 153A-330 to 153A-335. Three Guys Real Estate v. Harnett County, 345 N.C. 468, 480 S.E.2d 681 (1997).

Survey Requiring Certification. — A survey of a division of land that is described in subsection (2) falls under § 47-30(f)(11)(d) and requires a certification of "no approval required" before the plat may be presented for recordation. Three Guys Real Estate v. Harnett County, 345 N.C. 468, 480 S.E.2d 681 (1997).

Applied in Springdale Estates Ass'n v. Wake County, 47 N.C. App. 462, 267 S.E.2d 415 (1980).

Part 3. Zoning.

§ 153A-340. Grant of power.

(a) For the purpose of promoting health, safety, morals, or the general welfare, a county may regulate and restrict the height, number of stories and size of buildings and other structures, the percentage of lots that may be occupied, the size of yards, courts and other open spaces, the density of population, and the location and use of buildings, structures, and land for trade, industry, residence, or other purposes, and to provide density credits or severable development rights for dedicated rights-of-way pursuant to G.S. 136-66.10 or G.S. 136-66.11.

(b)(1) These regulations may affect property used for bona fide farm purposes only as provided in subdivision (3) of this subsection. This subsection does not limit regulation under this Part with respect to the use of farm property for nonfarm purposes.

- (2) Bona fide farm purposes include the production and activities relating or incidental to the production of crops, fruits, vegetables, ornamental and flowering plants, dairy, livestock, poultry, and all other forms of agricultural products having a domestic or foreign market.
- (3) The definitions set out in G.S. 106-802 apply to this subdivision. A county may adopt zoning regulations governing swine farms served by animal waste management systems having a design capacity of 600,000 pounds steady state live weight (SSLW) or greater provided that the zoning regulations may not have the effect of excluding swine farms served by an animal waste management system having a design capacity of 600,000 pounds SSLW or greater from the entire zoning jurisdiction.

(c) The regulations may provide that a board of adjustment may determine and vary their application in harmony with their general purpose and intent and in accordance with general or specific rules therein contained. The regulations may also provide that the board of adjustment or the board of commissioners may issue special use permits or conditional use permits in the classes of cases or situations and in accordance with the principles, conditions, safeguards, and procedures specified therein and may impose reasonable and appropriate conditions and safeguards upon these permits. Where appropriate, the conditions may include requirements that street and utility rights-of-way be dedicated to the public and that recreational space be provided. When issuing or denying special use permits or conditional use permits, the board of commissioners shall follow the procedures for boards of adjustment except that no vote greater than a majority vote shall be required for the board of commissioners to issue such permits, and every such decision of the board of commissioners shall be subject to review by the superior court by proceedings in the nature of certiorari.

(d) A county may regulate the development over estuarine waters and over lands covered by navigable waters owned by the State pursuant to G.S. 146-12, within the bounds of that county.

(e) For the purpose of this section, the term "structures" shall include floating homes.

(f) Any petition for review by the superior court shall be filed with the clerk of superior court within 30 days after the decision of the board of commissioners is filed in such office as the ordinance specifies, or after a written copy thereof is delivered to every aggrieved party who has filed a written request for such copy with the clerk at the time of the hearing of the case, whichever is later. The decision of the board of commissioners may be delivered to the aggrieved party either by personal service or by registered mail or certified mail return receipt requested. Session Laws 1997-458, s. 2.2, provides: "Zoning regulations governing swine farms served by animal waste management systems having a design capacity of 600,000 pounds steady state live weight (SSLW) or greater adopted under G.S. 153A-340(b), as amended by Section 2.1 of this act, shall not, with respect to a swine farm in existence at the time the zoning ordinance is adopted:

"(1) Prohibit the continued existence of the swine farm.

"(2) Require the amortization of the swine farm.

“(3) Prohibit the repair or replacement on the same site of the swine farm so long as the repair or replacement does not increase the swine population beyond the population that the animal waste management system serving the swine farm is designed to accommodate, as set forth in the permit for the animal waste management system.”

CASE NOTES

Editor’s Note. — Some of the cases cited below were decided under corresponding sections of former law.

Constitutional Protections. — This Part, §§ 153A-340 through 153A-345, provide adequate constitutional protections for an aggrieved party. JWL Invs., Inc. v. Guilford County Bd. of Adjustment, 133 N.C. App. 426, 515 S.E.2d 715 (1999).

Counties have no inherent authority to enact zoning ordinances. Jackson v. Guilford County Bd. of Adjustment, 275 N.C. 155, 166 S.E.2d 78 (1969).

Construction with Local Law. — Counties may not act to zone a swine farm other than as authorized by the limited statutory exception of subsection (b)(3) of this section; because the General Assembly has provided a “complete and integrated regulatory scheme” of swine farm regulations, the county Swine Ordinance and the county Health Board Rules, which were more burdensome than State law, were preempted by State law. Craig v. County of Chatham, 143 N.C. App. 30, 545 S.E.2d 455 (2001), cert. granted, 354 N.C. 68, — S.E.2d — (2001).

This section and § 153A-121 do not operate exclusively of each other. Summey Outdoor Adv., Inc. v. County of Henderson, 96 N.C. App. 533, 386 S.E.2d 439 (1989).

Delegation of Power to Adopt Zoning Ordinances as Exception to Rule of Nondelegation of Legislative Powers. — The authority of the General Assembly to delegate to municipal corporations power to legislate concerning local problems, such as zoning, is an exception, established by custom in most, if not all, of the states, to the general rule that legislative powers vested in the General Assembly may not be delegated by it. This exception to the doctrine of nondelegation is not limited to a delegation of such legislative authority to incorporated cities and towns, but extends, as to other types of local matters, to a like delegation to counties and other units established by the General Assembly for local government. Jackson v. Guilford County Bd. of Adjustment, 275 N.C. 155, 166 S.E.2d 78 (1969).

The General Assembly may confer upon county boards of commissioners power to adopt zoning ordinances otherwise valid, notwithstanding N.C. Const., Art. II, § 1. Jackson v. Guilford County Bd. of Adjustment, 275 N.C. 155, 166 S.E.2d 78 (1969).

But a county zoning ordinance may not delegate such legislative powers to the county board of adjustment. Jackson v. Guilford County Bd. of Adjustment, 275 N.C. 155, 166 S.E.2d 78 (1969).

Zoning Ordinance Is Presumed Valid. — The presumption is that a zoning ordinance as a whole is a proper exercise of the police power. County of Durham v. Addison, 262 N.C. 280, 136 S.E.2d 600 (1964).

It is the duty of municipal authorities, in their sound discretion, to determine what ordinances or regulations are reasonably necessary for the protection of the public or the better government of the town. When such ordinance is adopted, it is presumed to be valid, and the courts will not declare it invalid unless it is clearly shown to be so. No law or ordinance will be declared unconstitutional unless it clearly is, and every reasonable intentment will be made to sustain it. County of Cumberland v. Eastern Fed. Corp., 48 N.C. App. 518, 269 S.E.2d 672, cert. denied, 301 N.C. 527, 273 S.E.2d 453 (1980).

When Enactment or Amendment of Ordinance Is Invalid. — The legislative act of enacting or amending a zoning ordinance is invalid if it is unreasonable, arbitrary, or an unequal exercise of legislative power. Chrismon v. Guilford County, 85 N.C. App. 211, 354 S.E.2d 309 (1987).

Burden of Showing Invalidity Is on Person Asserting It. — The burden to show that a zoning ordinance as a whole is not a proper exercise of the police power rests upon the property owner who asserts its invalidity. County of Durham v. Addison, 262 N.C. 280, 136 S.E.2d 600 (1964).

Mere fact that a zoning ordinance seriously depreciates the value of complainant's property is not enough, standing alone, to establish its invalidity. County of Durham v. Addison, 262 N.C. 280, 136 S.E.2d 600 (1964).

Regulation of Signs. — Fact that defendant had authority to regulate signs under the zoning power in this section did not mean that it could not regulate signs in a similar manner under the general police powers in § 153A-121, allowing regulation of “conditions detrimental to the health, safety or welfare of its citizens and the peace and dignity of the county. Summey Outdoor Adv., Inc. v. County of Henderson, 96 N.C. App. 533, 386 S.E.2d 439 (1989).

The practice of conditional use zoning is an approved practice in North Carolina, so long as the action of the local zoning authority in accomplishing the zoning is reasonable, neither arbitrary nor unduly discriminatory, and in the public interest. Chrismon v. Guilford County, 322 N.C. 611, 370 S.E.2d 579 (1988).

Review pursuant to writ of certiorari under this section does not encompass the adjudication of issues such as whether the denial of a special use permit constitutes a taking without the payment of just compensation, inverse condemnation or a violation of 42 U.S.C. 1983. Guilford County Dep't of Emergency Servs. v. Seaboard Chem. Corp., 114 N.C. App. 1, 441 S.E.2d 177, cert. denied, 336 N.C. 604, 447 S.E.2d 390 (1994).

Property Rezoned to Conditional Use District. — It is not necessary that property rezoned to a conditional use district be available for all of the uses allowed under the corresponding general use district. Chrismon v. Guilford County, 322 N.C. 611, 370 S.E.2d 579 (1988).

Rezoning Held Valid Conditional Use Zoning. — The rezoning of two tracts of land from A-1 to CU-M-2 so as to allow the storage and sale of agricultural chemicals was valid conditional use zoning and not illegal contract zoning. Chrismon v. Guilford County, 322 N.C. 611, 370 S.E.2d 579 (1988).

The phrase, “trade, industry, residence, or other purposes,” as used in this section, relates to private property, and the phrase “other purposes” is not to be broadened to include the use of land by a municipality for a public enterprise listed in § 160A-311. Davidson County v. City of High Point, 85 N.C. App. 26, 354 S.E.2d 280, modified and aff'd, 321 N.C. 252, 362 S.E.2d 553 (1987).

City Immune from County's Zoning Ordinances. — City which owned a sewage treatment facility located in a county and outside the city's boundaries was not required to comply with county's zoning ordinances in upgrading the facility and providing sewage service to newly annexed areas of city with that facility. Davidson County v. City of High Point, 85 N.C. App. 26, 354 S.E.2d 280, modified and aff'd, 321 N.C. 252, 362 S.E.2d 553 (1987).

A county's zoning authority is limited: it can be applied only to buildings within the county's borders which are outside city limits, and it is confined to the purposes of promoting health, safety, morals, or the general welfare. Davidson County v. City of High Point, 321 N.C. 252, 362 S.E.2d 553 (1987).

Use of City-Owned Sewage Treatment Plant Without Prior Approval of County. —

Since county had no authority to restrict or regulate city's provision of sewer service to its residents, the city could use city-owned sewage treatment plant located outside the city but within the county, which was upgraded pursuant to the county's special use permit, with a condition attached to the permit requiring the county's prior approval of service to county citizens, to meet its statutory mandate to provide sewer service to residents in newly annexed areas without seeking the county's prior approval, even though the facility was located in the county. Davidson County v. City of High Point, 321 N.C. 252, 362 S.E.2d 553 (1987).

Spot Zoning. — Spot zoning is not invalid per se, but rather, it is beyond the authority of the municipality or county and therefore void only in the absence of a clear showing of a reasonable basis therefor. Chrismon v. Guilford County, 322 N.C. 611, 370 S.E.2d 579 (1988).

Clear Showing of Reasonable Basis for Spot Zoning. —

While the rezoning of two tracts from A-1 to CU-M-2, so as to allow the storage and sale of agricultural chemicals, constituted a form of spot zoning, this activity was legal and not illegal spot zoning. Because of the substantial benefits created for the surrounding community by the rezoning and because of the close relationship between the likely uses of the rezoned property and the uses already present in the surrounding tracts, there was a clear showing of a reasonable basis for the spot zoning. Chrismon v. Guilford County, 322 N.C. 611, 370 S.E.2d 579 (1988).

The principal differences between valid conditional use zoning and illegal contract zoning are related and are essentially two in number: First, valid conditional use zoning features merely a unilateral promise from the landowner to the local zoning authority as to the landowner's intended use of the land in question, while illegal contract zoning anticipates a bilateral contract in which the landowner and the zoning authority make reciprocal promises. Second, in the context of conditional use zoning, the local zoning authority maintains its independent decision-making authority, while in the contract zoning scenario, it abandons that authority by binding itself contractually with the landowner seeking a zoning amendment. Chrismon v. Guilford County, 322 N.C. 611, 370 S.E.2d 579 (1988).

Power of County Commissioners to Grant Special Exceptions. — Statute authorizing the board of county commissioners by regulation to provide that the board of adjustment or the board of county commissioners may issue special use permits or conditional permits in the classes of cases or situations and in accordance with the principles, conditions, safeguards, and procedures specified in the zoning ordinance did not purport to confer more power upon the commissioners to grant special exceptions than the commissioners could delegate to the board of adjustment. In re Ellis, 277 N.C. 419, 178 S.E.2d 77 (1970).

Like the board of adjustment, the commissioners cannot deny applicants a permit in their unguided discretion or, stated differently, refuse it solely because, in their view, a mobile-home park would adversely affect the public interest. The commissioners must also proceed under standards, rules and regulations uniformly applicable to all who apply for permits. In re Ellis, 277 N.C. 419, 178 S.E.2d 77 (1970).

Ordinance Held Valid. — A county zoning ordinance, applicable only to swine farms "served by an animal waste management system having a design capacity of 600,000 pounds steady state live weight (SSLW) or greater" and enacted pursuant to the express statement of power given by the State, was not preempted. Craig v. County of Chatham, 143 N.C. App. 30, 545 S.E.2d 455 (2001), cert. granted, 354 N.C. 68, — S.E.2d — (2001).

Ordinance Held Invalid. — So much of an ordinance as required the board of adjustment to deny a permit for the establishment of a mobile-home park in an A-1 agricultural district unless it found that the granting of the special exception would not adversely affect the public interest was beyond the authority of the board of county commissioners to enact and so was invalid. Keiger v. Winston-Salem Bd. of Adjustment, 278 N.C. 17, 178 S.E.2d 616 (1971).

Activities Regarding Transportation of Farm Products. — The use of large trucks to transport farm products, and the creation of facilities such as driveways and loading docks for such trucks, are both activities so essential to large-scale agricultural production that their exclusion from the exemption would render it meaningless. Sedman v. Rijdes, 127 N.C. App. 700, 492 S.E.2d 620 (1997).

Constitutionality of County Sign Ordinance. — A county sign ordinance did not violate the equal protection clause of U.S. Const., Amend. XIV or N.C. Const., Art. I, § 19, because the county would not enforce the ordinance with respect to any person owning or operating a sign in certain municipalities within the county, since the county could not exercise zoning authority within a city which had enacted a zoning ordinance, and it could defer from zoning within cities. County of Cumberland v. Eastern Fed. Corp., 48 N.C. App. 518, 269 S.E.2d 672, cert. denied, 301 N.C. 527, 273 S.E.2d 453 (1980).

Provision of a county sign ordinance requiring nonconforming uses to be discontinued within three years from the effective date of the ordinance, thus giving the owner of a nonconforming sign a three-year period in which to amortize or depreciate the cost of the sign, was reasonable and did not provide for an unconstitutional taking of property. County of Cumberland v. Eastern Fed. Corp., 48 N.C. App. 518, 269 S.E.2d 672, cert. denied, 301 N.C. 527, 273 S.E.2d 453 (1980).

Soil Remediation Not Agricultural Use. — Remediation of petroleum contaminated soil is a waste treatment process, not an agricultural use, and thus it was a nonconforming use in a residential agricultural zoning district of a county. Ball v. Randolph County Bd. of Adjustment, 129 N.C. App. 300, 498 S.E.2d 833 (1998), petition for discretionary review improvidently granted, 49 N.C. 348, 507 S.E.2d 272 (1998).

Kennel Operation Not "Farming." — Dogs are not livestock, and a dog breeding and kennel operation does not constitute "farming," so as to exempt property used therefor from a county's zoning authority pursuant to this section. Development Assocs. v. Wake County Bd. of Adjustment, 48 N.C. App. 541, 269 S.E.2d 700 (1980), cert. denied, 301 N.C. 719, 274 S.E.2d 227 (1981).

Horses Considered Livestock. — Where activity undertaken by landowner was related and incidental to the farming activities of boarding, breeding, raising, pasturing and watering horses, horses were considered as livestock, qualifying the property for the exemption granted bona fide farms under § 153A-340. County of Durham v. Roberts, — N.C. App. —, 551 S.E.2d 494, 2001 N.C. App. LEXIS 747 (2001).

The use of fans and heating devices is "incidental" to the year-round raising of plants inside greenhouses. Sedman v. Rijdes, 127 N.C. App. 700, 492 S.E.2d 620 (1997).

Greenhouse Operations Exempt. — Activities of greenhouse operation, including the construction of a driveway, the use of large trucks to export plants, and the operation of fans and heating devices were exempt from compliance with zoning ordinances. Sedman v. Rijdes, 127 N.C. App. 700, 492 S.E.2d 620 (1997).

§ 153A-341. Purposes in view.

Zoning regulations shall be made in accordance with a comprehensive plan and designed to lessen congestion in the streets; to secure safety from fire, panic, and other dangers; to promote health and the general welfare; to provide adequate light and air; to prevent the overcrowding of land; to avoid undue concentration of population; and to facilitate the adequate provision of transportation, water, sewerage, schools, parks, and other public requirements. The regulations shall be made with reasonable consideration as to, among other things, the character of the district and its peculiar suitability for particular uses, and with a view to conserving the value of buildings and encouraging the most appropriate use of land throughout the county. In addition, the regulations shall be made with reasonable consideration to expansion and development of any cities within the county, so as to provide for their orderly growth and development. (1959, c. 1006, s. 1; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

CASE NOTES

In exercising their zoning authority, counties are limited in that they are required by statute to exercise their zoning regulations "with reasonable consideration to expansion and development of any cities within the county, so as to provide for their orderly growth and development." Davidson County v. City of High Point, 321 N.C. 252, 362 S.E.2d 553 (1987).

Zoning generally must be accomplished in accordance with a comprehensive plan in order to promote the general welfare and serve the purposes of the enabling statute. Chrismon v. Guilford County, 85 N.C. App. 211, 354 S.E.2d 309 (1987), rev'd on other grounds, 322 N.C. 611, 370 S.E.2d 579 (1988).

The language of this section does not require an extensive written plan, such as a master plan based upon a comprehensive study; the ordinance itself may show that the zoning is comprehensive in nature. Willis v. Union County, 77 N.C. App. 407, 335 S.E.2d 76 (1985).

A county's legislative body has authority to rezone when reasonably necessary to do so in the interests of the public health, safety, morals or general welfare; ordinarily the only limitation upon this authority is that it may not be exercised arbitrarily or capriciously. Willis v. Union County, 77 N.C. App. 407, 335 S.E.2d 76 (1985); Nelson v. City of Burlington, 80 N.C. App. 285, 341 S.E.2d 739 (1986).

A duly adopted rezoning ordinance is presumed to be valid, and the burden is upon the plaintiff to establish its invalidity. Nelson v. City of Burlington, 80 N.C. App. 285, 341 S.E.2d 739 (1986).

Statutes do not give a county authority over provision of sewer services within a city, or over newly annexed areas of the city which also lie in the county. Davidson County v. City of High Point, 321 N.C. 252, 362 S.E.2d 553 (1987).

Use of City-Owned Sewage Treatment Plant Without Prior Approval of County. — Since county had no authority to restrict or regulate city's provision of sewer service to its residents, the city could use city-owned sewage treatment plant located outside the city but within the county, which was upgraded pursuant to the county's special use permit, with a condition attached to the permit requiring the county's prior approval of service to county citizens, to meet its statutory mandate to provide sewer service to residents in newly annexed areas without seeking the county's prior approval, even though the facility was located in the county. Davidson County v. City of High Point, 321 N.C. 252, 362 S.E.2d 553 (1987).

Spot Zoning. — Because it zones a small area differently than a much larger area surrounding it, spot zoning, by definition, conflicts with the whole purpose of planned zoning. Therefore, unless there is a clear showing of a reasonable basis, spot zoning is beyond the authority of the county or municipality. Chrismon v. Guilford County, 85 N.C. App. 211, 354 S.E.2d 309 (1987), rev'd on other grounds, 322 N.C. 611, 370 S.E.2d 579 (1988); Alderman v. Chatham County, 89 N.C. App. 610, 366 S.E.2d 885, cert. denied, 323 N.C. 171, 373 S.E.2d 103 (1988).

In determining whether rezoning was invalid as spot zoning, the courts have also considered the classification and development of nearby land. Alderman v. Chatham County, 89 N.C. App. 610, 366 S.E.2d 885, cert. denied, 323 N.C. 171, 373 S.E.2d 103 (1988).

Contract Zoning. — To avoid contract zoning, all the areas in each class must be subject to the same restrictions; if the rezoning is done in consideration of an assurance that a particular tract or parcel will be developed in accordance with a restricted plan, this is contract zoning and is illegal. Willis v. Union County, 77 N.C. App. 407, 335 S.E.2d 76 (1985).

Approval Improper. — Where county commissioners approved the rezoning application without considering the factors set out in this section, the Commissioners acted arbitrarily and capriciously. Gregory v. County of Harnett, 128 N.C. App. 161, 493 S.E.2d 786 (1997).

Applied in Mahaffey v. Forsyth County, 99 N.C. App. 676, 394 S.E.2d 203 (1990); Covington v. Town of Apex, 108 N.C. App. 231, 423 S.E.2d 537 (1992).

Cited in Maynor v. Onslow County, 127 N.C. App. 102, 488 S.E.2d 289 (1997), appeal dismissed, 347 N.C. 268, 493 S.E.2d 458 (1997), cert. denied, 347 N.C. 400, 496 S.E.2d 385 (1997).

§ 153A-341.1. Zoning regulations for manufactured homes.

The provisions of G.S. 160A-383.1 shall apply to counties. (1987, c. 805, s. 2.)

CASE NOTES

County Ordinance Requiring Certain Siding and Shingles. — A county ordinance requiring mobile homes to have siding and shingles of a type similar to standard residential construction was enacted to remove from the range of safe and satisfactorily performing materials only ones based on undesirable appearance, and left the regulation of safety and performance of roofing and siding materials to Congress and the Department of Housing and Urban Development, and thus was not preempted. CMH Mfg., Inc. v. Catawba County, 994 F. Supp. 697 (W.D.N.C. 1998).

§ 153A-342. Districts; zoning less than entire jurisdiction.

A county may divide its territorial jurisdiction into districts of any number, shape, and area that it may consider best suited to carry out the purposes of this Part. Within these districts a county may regulate and restrict the erection, construction, reconstruction, alteration, repair, or use of buildings, structures, or land. Such districts may include, but shall not be limited to, general use districts, in which a variety of uses are permissible in accordance with general standards; overlay districts, in which additional requirements are imposed on certain properties within one or more underlying general or special use districts; and special use districts or conditional use districts, in which uses are permitted only upon the issuance of a special use permit or a conditional use permit. Property may be placed in a special use district or conditional use district only in response to a petition by the owners of all the property to be included. Except as authorized by the foregoing, all regulations shall be uniform for each class or kind of building throughout each district, but the regulations in one district may differ from those in other districts.

A county may determine that the public interest does not require that the entire territorial jurisdiction of the county be zoned and may designate one or more portions of that jurisdiction as a zoning area or areas. A zoning area must originally contain at least 640 acres and at least 10 separate tracts of land in separate ownership and may thereafter be expanded by the addition of any amount of territory. A zoning area may be regulated in the same manner as if the entire county were zoned, and the remainder of the county need not be regulated. (1959, c. 1006, s. 1; 1965, c. 194, s. 2; 1973, c. 822, s. 1; 1985, c. 607, s. 3.)

ing contract zoning and conditional use zoning in North Carolina, see 68 N.C.L. Rev. 177 (1989).

CASE NOTES

Zoning Map Requirement. — This section does not require the county to have a zoning map for the entire county when its objective is to implement zoning on an area by area basis; only a map of the area being zoned and a full text of the zoning ordinance zoned are required. Frizzelle v. Harnett County, 106 N.C. App. 234, 416 S.E.2d 421, cert. denied, 332 N.C. 147, 419 S.E.2d 571 (1992).

The practice of conditional use zoning is an approved practice in North Carolina, so long as the action of the local zoning authority in accomplishing the zoning is reasonable, neither arbitrary nor unduly discriminatory, and in the public interest. Chrismon v. Guilford County, 322 N.C. 611, 370 S.E.2d 579 (1988).

Property Rezoned to Conditional Use District. — It is not necessary that property rezoned to a conditional use district be available for all of the uses allowed under the corresponding general use district. Chrismon v. Guilford County, 322 N.C. 611, 370 S.E.2d 579 (1988).

Spot zoning is not invalid per se, but rather, it is beyond the authority of the municipality or county and therefore void only in the absence of a clear showing of a reasonable basis therefor. Chrismon v. Guilford County, 322 N.C. 611, 370 S.E.2d 579 (1988).

Clear Showing of Reasonable Basis for Spot Zoning. — While the rezoning of two tracts from A-1 to CU-M-2, so as to allow the storage and sale of agricultural chemicals, constituted a form of spot zoning, this activity was legal and not illegal spot zoning. Because of the substantial benefits created for the surrounding community by the rezoning and because of the close relationship between the likely uses of the rezoned property and the uses already present in the surrounding tracts, there was a clear showing of a reasonable basis for the spot zoning. Chrismon v. Guilford County, 322 N.C.

611, 370 S.E.2d 579 (1988).

The principal differences between valid conditional use zoning and illegal contract zoning are related and are essentially two in number: First, valid conditional use zoning features merely a unilateral promise from the landowner to the local zoning authority as to the landowner's intended use of the land in question, while illegal contract zoning anticipates a bilateral contract in which the landowner and the zoning authority make reciprocal promises. Second, in the context of conditional use zoning, the local zoning authority maintains its independent decision-making authority, while in the contract zoning scenario, it abandons that authority by binding itself contractually with the landowner seeking a zoning amendment. Chrismon v. Guilford County, 322 N.C. 611, 370 S.E.2d 579 (1988).

Rezoning Held Valid Conditional Use Zoning. — The rezoning of two tracts of land from A-1 to CU-M-2 so as to allow the storage and sale of agricultural chemicals was valid conditional use zoning and not illegal contract zoning. Chrismon v. Guilford County, 322 N.C. 611, 370 S.E.2d 579 (1988).

A county sign ordinance did not violate the equal protection clause of U.S. Const., Amend. XIV or N.C. Const., Art. I, § 19, because the county would not enforce the ordinance with respect to any person owning or operating a sign in certain municipalities within the county, since the county could not exercise zoning authority within a city which had enacted a zoning ordinance, and it could defer from zoning within cities. County of Cumberland v. Eastern Fed. Corp., 48 N.C. App. 518, 269 S.E.2d 672, cert. denied, 301 N.C. 527, 273 S.E.2d 453 (1980).

§ 153A-343. Method of procedure:

(a) The board of commissioners shall, in accordance with the provisions of this Article, provide for the manner in which zoning regulations and restrictions and the boundaries of zoning districts shall be determined, established, and enforced, and from time to time amended, supplemented, or changed. The procedures adopted pursuant to this section shall provide that whenever there is a zoning map amendment, the owner of that parcel of land as shown on the county tax listing, and the owners of all parcels of land abutting that parcel of land as shown on the county tax listing, shall be mailed a notice of a public hearing on the proposed amendment by first class mail at the last addresses listed for such owners on the county tax abstracts. This notice must be deposited in the mail at least 10 but not more than 25 days prior to the date of the public hearing. The person or persons mailing such notices shall certify to the Board of Commissioners that fact, and such certificate shall be deemed conclusive in the absence of fraud.

(b) The first class mail notice required under subsection (a) of this section shall not be required if the zoning map amendment directly affects more than 50 properties, owned by a total of at least 50 different property owners, and the county elects to use the expanded published notice provided for in this subsection. In this instance, a county may elect to either make the mailed notice provided for in subsection (a) of this section or may as an alternative elect to publish once a week for four successive calendar weeks in a newspaper having general circulation in the area an advertisement of the public hearing that shows the boundaries of the area affected by the proposed zoning map amendment and explains the nature of the proposed change. The final two advertisements shall comply with and be deemed to satisfy the provisions of G.S. 153A-323. The advertisement shall not be less than one-half of a newspaper page in size. The advertisement shall only be effective for property owners who reside in the area of general circulation of the newspaper which publishes the notice. Property owners who reside outside of the newspaper circulation area, according to the address listed on the most recent property tax listing for the affected property, shall be notified by first class mail pursuant to this section. The person or persons mailing the notices shall certify to the board of commissioners that fact, and the certificates shall be deemed conclusive in the absence of fraud. In addition to the published notice, a county shall post one or more prominent signs on or immediately adjacent to the subject area reasonably calculated to give public notice of the proposed rezoning.

(c) The provisions of this section shall not be applicable to any zoning map adoption that initially zones property added to the territorial coverage of the ordinance. (1973, c. 822, s. 1; 1985, c. 595, s. 1; 1987, c. 807, s. 2; 1989 (Reg. Sess., 1990), c. 980, s. 2; 1993, c. 469, s. 2; 1995, c. 261, s. 1; c. 546, s. 2; 1997-456, s. 25.)

Local Modification. — Durham; 1989, c. 516, s. 1; Orange; 1995, c. 339, s. 1.

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1985, c. 595, which added the last two sentences, provides that the amendment is applicable only when tax maps are available for the areas to be zoned.

Session Laws 1985 (Reg. Sess., 1986), c. 950 provides that Session Laws 1985, c. 595, which added the last two sentences of this section, does not apply to the City of Asheboro or the counties of Scotland, Stanly, Union, and Richmond, and incorporated cities or towns located wholly within those counties.

Session Laws 1993, c. 469, which amended this section, in ss. 5 and 6 provides: "Sec. 5. (a) This act becomes effective January 1, 1994, except that as to any city or county, it becomes effective at any time between the date of ratification of this act and January 1, 1994 if the city or county, as appropriate, adopts an ordinance placing it into effect at such earlier date. Adoption of such ordinance is subject to the procedural requirements of G.S. 160A-364 or G.S. 153A-323, as appropriate, but not to any procedural requirement of the zoning ordinance for adoption of amendments to the zoning ordinance. The ordinance may provide for different dates of applicability based on the stage of the zoning classification action on the effective date.

"If the city or county is subject to a local act repealed by Section 3 of this act, the ordinance prevails over some or all of the local act if the ordinance so provides.

"(b) This section does not apply to Forsyth County or municipalities located within that county.

"Sec. 6. (a) This act becomes effective January 1, 1995 as to Forsyth County or any municipality located within that county, but it becomes effective at any time between the date of ratification of this act and January 1, 1995 if the municipality or Forsyth County, as appropriate, adopts an ordinance placing it into effect at such earlier date. Adoption of such ordinance is subject to the procedural requirements of G.S. 160A-364 or G.S. 153A-323, as appropriate, but not to any procedural requirement of the zoning ordinance for adoption of amendments to the zoning ordinance. The ordinance may provide for different dates of applicability based on the stage of the zoning classification action on the effective date.

"The ordinance prevails over some or all of Chapter 455, Session Laws of 1987, as amended by Chapter 271, Session Laws of 1993, if the ordinance so provides."

Session Laws 1993, c. 469, s. 3(a), effective January 1, 1994, repeals various acts, including the following local modifications to this section: Session Laws 1993, c. 101, as to Wilkes; 1993, c. 139, as to Stokes; 1993, c. 156, as to Watauga; 1993, c. 267, as to Davidson and Davie; 1993, c. 271, as to Rockingham; 1993, c. 296, as to Nash and Franklin; 1993, c. 358, s. 15, as to Orange. In addition, by virtue of Session Laws 1993, c. 469, s. 3, the local modifications for Alexander, Cabarrus, Catawba, Iredell, Johnston, Martin, Randolph, Wake, and Yadkin should be stricken from the main volume. Section 3(b) of c. 469 provides that nothing in the section affects any ordinance adopted under the authority of any act repealed by s. 3(a) prior to the effective date of c. 469.

Session Laws 1995, c. 546, s. 2.1, effective July 29, 1995, provides "Any local act in conflict with this act is repealed to the extent of the conflict."

Session Laws 1997-456, s. 25, effective August 29, 1997, repealed Session Laws 1995, c. 261, s. 1, which had inserted " , at its option, provide said notice or" following "a county shall" in the first sentence following subdivision (b)(5). Subsection (b) was subsequently rewritten by Session Laws 1995, c. 546, s. 2, but that phrase was not shown as deleted.

§ 153A-344. Planning agency; zoning plan; certification to board of commissioners; amendments.

(a) To exercise the powers conferred by this Part, a county shall create or designate a planning agency under the provisions of this Article or of a local act. The planning agency shall prepare a proposed zoning ordinance, including both the full text of such ordinance and maps showing proposed district boundaries. The planning agency may hold public hearings in the course of preparing the ordinance. Upon completion, the planning agency shall certify the ordinance to the board of commissioners. The board of commissioners shall not hold the public hearing required by G.S. 153A-323 or take action until it has received a certified ordinance from the planning agency. Following its required public hearing, the board of commissioners may refer the ordinance back to the planning agency for any further recommendations that the agency may wish to make prior to final action by the board in adopting, modifying and adopting, or rejecting the ordinance.

Zoning regulations and restrictions and zone boundaries may from time to time be amended, supplemented, changed, modified, or repealed. Whenever territory is added to an existing designated zoning area, it shall be treated as an amendment to the zoning ordinance for that area. Before an amendment may be adopted, it must be referred to the planning agency for the agency's recommendation. The agency shall be given at least 30 days in which to make a recommendation. The board of commissioners is not bound by the recommendations, if any, of the planning agency.

(b) Amendments, modifications, supplements, repeal or other changes in zoning regulations and restrictions and zone boundaries shall not be applicable or enforceable without consent of the owner with regard to buildings and uses for which either (i) building permits have been issued pursuant to G.S. 153A-357 prior to the enactment of the ordinance making the change or changes so long as the permits remain valid and unexpired pursuant to G.S. 153A-358 and unrevoked pursuant to G.S. 153A-362 or (ii) a vested right has been established pursuant to G.S. 153A-344.1 and such vested right remains valid and unexpired pursuant to G.S. 153A-344.1. (1959, c. 1006, s. 1; 1965, c. 194, s. 3; 1973, c. 822, s. 1; 1979, c. 611, s. 3; 1985, c. 540, s. 1; 1989 (Reg. Sess., 1990), c. 996, s. 5.)

CASE NOTES

When Enactment or Amendment Is Invalid. — The legislative act of enacting or amending a zoning ordinance is invalid if it is unreasonable, arbitrary, or an unequal exercise of legislative power. Chrismon v. Guilford County, 85 N.C. App. 211, 354 S.E.2d 309 (1987), rev'd on other grounds, 322 N.C. 611, 370 S.E.2d 579 (1988); Alderman v. Chatham County, 89 N.C. Amendment Held Not Applicable to Defendants. — Where the uncontradicted forecast of evidence established as a matter of law that defendants made substantial expenditures for the operation of a quarry on the property in question in good faith and in reliance upon the special use permit previously granted by the Zoning Board, a later amendment by the Zoning Board precluding operation of a quarry on such property would not apply to defendants. Cardwell v. Smith, 106 N.C. App. 187, 415 S.E.2d 770, cert. denied, 332 N.C. 146, 419 S.E.2d 569 (1992).

The manifest intention of the General Assembly was that a public hearing be conducted at which those who opposed and those who favored adoption of an ordinance would have a fair opportunity to present their respective views. *Orange County v. The requirement that a public hearing be conducted is mandatory. Orange County v. Heath, 278 N.C. 688, 180 S.E.2d 810 (1971), decided under former law.

Spot Zoning. — Because it zones a small area differently than a much larger area surrounding it, spot zoning, by definition, conflicts with the whole purpose of planned zoning. Therefore, unless there is a clear showing of a reasonable basis, spot zoning is beyond the authority of the county or municipality. Chrismon v. Guilford County, 85 N.C. App. 211, 354 S.E.2d 309 (1987), rev'd on other grounds, 322 N.C. 611, 370 S.E.2d 579 (1988); Alderman v. Chatham County, 89 N.C. Spot zoning is not invalid per se, but rather, it is beyond the authority of the municipality or county and therefore void only in the absence of a clear showing of a reasonable basis therefor. Chrismon v. Guilford County, 322 N.C. 611, 370 S.E.2d 579 (1988).

Clear Showing of Reasonable Basis for Spot Zoning. — While the rezoning of two tracts from A-1 to CU-M-2, so as to allow the storage and sale of agricultural chemicals, constituted a form of spot zoning, this activity was legal and not illegal spot zoning. Because of the substantial benefits created for the surrounding community by the rezoning and because of the close relationship between the likely uses of the rezoned property and the uses already present in the surrounding tracts, there was a clear showing of a reasonable basis for the spot zoning. Chrismon v. Guilford County, 322 N.C. 611, 370 S.E.2d 579 (1988).

Rezoning. — It is not necessary that property rezoned to a conditional use district be available for all of the uses allowed under the corresponding general use district. Chrismon v. Guilford County, 322 N.C. 611, 370 S.E.2d 579 (1988).

Rezoning lacks a permissible basis where it is done on consideration of assurances that a particular tract or parcel will be developed in accordance with restricted approval plans. Chrismon v. Guilford County, 85 N.C. App. 211, 354 S.E.2d 309 (1987), rev'd on other grounds, 322 N.C. 611, 370 S.E.2d 579 (1988).

Rezoning Held Valid Conditional Use Zoning. — The rezoning of two tracts of land from A-1 to CU-M-2 so as to allow the storage and sale of agricultural chemicals was valid conditional use zoning and not illegal contract zoning. Chrismon v. Guilford County, 322 N.C. 611, 370 S.E.2d 579 (1988).

As the board of commissioners' enactment of a rezoning ordinance was a legislative act reviewable under the "whole record" test, the trial court erred in considering evidence outside the record of the rezoning process. Kerik v. Davidson County, — N.C. App. —, 551 S.E.2d 186, 2001 N.C. App. LEXIS 671 (2001).

§ 153A-344.1. Vesting rights.

(a) The General Assembly finds and declares that it is necessary and desirable, as a matter of public policy, to provide for the establishment of certain vested rights in order to ensure reasonable certainty, stability, and fairness in the land-use planning process, secure the reasonable expectations of landowners, and foster cooperation between the public and private sectors in the area of land-use planning. Furthermore, the General Assembly recognizes that county approval of land-use development typically follows significant landowner investment in site evaluation, planning, development costs, consultant fees, and related expenses.

The ability of a landowner to obtain a vested right after county approval of a site specific development plan or a phased development plan will preserve the prerogatives and authority of local elected officials with respect to land-use matters. There will be ample opportunities for public participation and the public interest will be served. These provisions will strike an appropriate balance between private expectations and the public interest, while scrupulously protecting the public health, safety, and welfare.

(b) Definitions.

- (1) "Landowner" means any owner of a legal or equitable interest in real property, including the heirs, devisees, successors, assigns, and personal representative of such owner. The landowner may allow a person holding a valid option to purchase to act as his agent or representative for purposes of submitting a proposed site specific development plan or a phased development plan under this section, in the manner allowed by ordinance.
- (2) "County" shall have the same meaning as set forth in G.S. 153A-1(3).
- (3) "Phased development plan" means a plan which has been submitted to a county by a landowner for phased development which shows the type and intensity of use for a specific parcel or parcels with a lesser degree of certainty than the plan determined by the county to be a site specific development plan.
- (4) "Property" means all real property subject to zoning regulations and restrictions and zone boundaries by a county.
- (5) "Site specific development plan" means a plan which has been submitted to a county by a landowner describing with reasonable certainty the type and intensity of use for a specific parcel or parcels of property. Such plan may be in the form of, but not be limited to, any of the following plans or approvals: A planned unit development plan, a subdivision plat, a preliminary or general development plan, a conditional or special use permit, a conditional or special use district zoning plan, or any other land-use approval designation as may be utilized by a county. Unless otherwise expressly provided by the county such a plan shall include the approximate boundaries of the site; significant topographical and other natural features effecting development of the site; the approximate location on the site of the proposed buildings, structures, and other improvements; the approximate dimensions, including height, of the proposed buildings and other structures; and the approximate location of all existing and proposed infrastructure on the site, including water, sewer, roads, and pedestrian walkways. What constitutes a site specific development plan under this section that would trigger a vested right shall be finally determined by the county pursuant to an ordinance, and the document that triggers such vesting shall be so identified at the time of its approval. However, at a minimum, the ordinance to be adopted by the county shall designate a vesting point earlier than the issuance of a building permit. A variance shall not constitute a site specific development plan, and approval of a site specific development plan with the condition that a variance be obtained shall not confer a vested right unless and until the necessary variance is obtained. Neither a sketch plan nor any other document which fails to describe with reasonable certainty the type and intensity of use for a specified parcel or parcels or property may constitute a site specific development plan.

- (6) "Vested right" means the right to undertake and complete the development and use of property under the terms and conditions of an approved site specific development plan or an approved phased development plan.

(c) Establishment of vested right.

A vested right shall be deemed established with respect to any property upon the valid approval, or conditional approval, of a site specific development plan or a phased development plan, following notice and public hearing by the county with jurisdiction over the property. Such vested right shall confer upon the landowner the right to undertake and complete the development and use of said property under the terms and conditions of the site specific development plan or the phased development plan including any amendments thereto. A county may approve a site specific development plan or a phased development plan upon such terms and conditions as may reasonably be necessary to protect the public health, safety, and welfare. Such conditional approval shall result in a vested right, although failure to abide by such terms and conditions will result in a forfeiture of vested rights. A county shall not require a landowner to waive his vested rights as a condition of developmental approval. A site specific development plan or a phased development plan shall be deemed approved upon the effective date of the county's action or ordinance relating thereto.

(d) Duration and termination of vested right.

- (1) A right which has been vested as provided for in this section shall remain vested for a period of two years. This vesting shall not be extended by any amendments or modifications to a site specific development plan unless expressly provided by the county.
- (2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (d)(1), a county may provide that rights shall be vested for a period exceeding two years but not exceeding five years where warranted in light of all relevant circumstances, including, but not limited to, the size and phasing of development, the level of investment, the need for the development, economic cycles, and market conditions. These determinations shall be in the sound discretion of the county.
- (3) Notwithstanding the provisions of (d)(1) and (d)(2), the county may provide by ordinance that approval by a county of a phased development plan shall vest the zoning classification or classifications so approved for a period not to exceed five years. The document that triggers such vesting shall be so identified at the time of its approval. The county still may require the landowner to submit a site specific development plan for approval by the county with respect to each phase or phases in order to obtain final approval to develop within the restrictions of the vested zoning classification or classifications. Nothing in this section shall be construed to require a county to adopt an ordinance providing for vesting of rights upon approval of a phased development plan.

- (4) Following approval or conditional approval of a site specific development plan or a phased development plan, nothing in this section shall exempt such a plan from subsequent reviews and approvals by the county to ensure compliance with the terms and conditions of the original approval, provided that such reviews and approvals are not inconsistent with said original approval. Nothing in this section shall prohibit the county from revoking the original approval for failure to comply with applicable terms and conditions of the approval or the zoning ordinance.
  - (5) Upon issuance of a building permit, the provisions of G.S. 153A-358 and G.S. 153A-362 shall apply, except that a permit shall not expire or be revoked because of the running of time while a vested right under this section is outstanding.
  - (6) A right which has been vested as provided in this section shall terminate at the end of the applicable vesting period with respect to buildings and uses for which no valid building permit applications have been filed.
- (e) Subsequent changes prohibited; exceptions.
- (1) A vested right, once established as provided for in this section, precludes any zoning action by a county which would change, alter, impair, prevent, diminish, or otherwise delay the development or use of the property as set forth in an approved site specific development plan or an approved phased development plan, except:
    - a. With the written consent of the affected landowner;
    - b. Upon findings, by ordinance after notice and a public hearing, that natural or man-made hazards on or in the immediate vicinity of the property, if uncorrected, would pose a serious threat to the public health, safety, and welfare if the project were to proceed as contemplated in the site specific development plan or the phased development plan;
    - c. To the extent that the affected landowner receives compensation for all costs, expenses, and other losses incurred by the landowner, including, but not limited to, all fees paid in consideration of financing, and all architectural, planning, marketing, legal, and other consultant's fees incurred after approval by the county, together with interest thereon at the legal rate until paid. Compensation shall not include any diminution in the value of the property which is caused by such action;
    - d. Upon findings, by ordinance after notice and a hearing, that the landowner or his representative intentionally supplied inaccurate information or made material misrepresentations which made a difference in the approval by the county of the site specific development plan or the phased development plan; or
    - e. Upon the enactment or promulgation of a State or federal law or regulation which precludes development as contemplated in the site specific development plan or the phased development plan, in which case the county may modify the affected provisions, upon a finding that the change in State or federal law has a fundamental effect on the plan, by ordinance after notice and a hearing.
  - (2) The establishment of a vested right shall not preclude the application of overlay zoning which imposes additional requirements but does not affect the allowable type or intensity of use, or ordinances or regulations which are general in nature and are applicable to all property subject to land-use regulation by a county, including, but not limited to, building, fire, plumbing, electrical, and mechanical codes. Otherwise applicable new regulations shall become effective with respect to property which is subject to a site specific development plan or a phased development plan upon the expiration or termination of the vesting rights period provided for in this section.

(3) Notwithstanding any provision of this section, the establishment of a vested right shall not preclude, change or impair the authority of a county to adopt and enforce zoning ordinance provisions governing nonconforming situations or uses.

(f) Miscellaneous provisions.

(1) A vested right obtained under this section is not a personal right, but shall attach to and run with the applicable property. After approval of a site specific development plan or a phased development plan, all successors to the original landowner shall be entitled to exercise such rights.

(2) Nothing in this section shall preclude judicial determination, based on common-law principles or other statutory provisions, that a vested right exists in a particular case or that a compensable taking has occurred. Except as expressly provided in this section, nothing in this section shall be construed to alter the existing common law.

(3) In the event a county fails to adopt an ordinance setting forth what constitutes a site specific development plan triggering a vested right, a landowner may establish a vested right with respect to property upon the approval of a zoning permit, or otherwise may seek appropriate relief from the Superior Court Division of the General Court of Justice. (1989 (Reg. Sess., 1990), c. 996, s. 6.)

CASE NOTES

North Carolina recognizes two methods for a landowner to establish a vested right in a zoning ordinance: (1) qualify with relevant statutes (§§ 153A-344.1, 160A-385.1) or

(2) qualify under the common law. Browning-Ferris Indus. of S. Atl., Inc. v. Guilford County Bd. of Adjustment, 126 N.C. App. 168, 484 S.E.2d 411 (1997).

§ 153A-345. Board of adjustment.

(a) The board of commissioners may provide for the appointment and compensation, if any, of a board of adjustment consisting of at least five members, each to be appointed for three years. In appointing the original members of the board, or in filling vacancies caused by the expiration of the terms of existing members, the board of commissioners may appoint some members for less than three years to the end that thereafter the terms of all members do not expire at the same time. The board of commissioners may provide for the appointment and compensation, if any, of alternate members to serve on the board in the absence of any regular member. Alternate members shall be appointed for the same term, at the same time, and in the same manner as regular members. Each alternate member, while attending any regular or special meeting of the board and serving in the absence of a regular member, has and may exercise all the powers and duties of a regular member. If the board of commissioners does not zone the entire territorial jurisdiction of the county, each designated zoning area shall have at least one resident as a member of the board of adjustment.

A county may designate a planning agency to perform any or all of the duties of a board of adjustment in addition to its other duties.

(b) The board of adjustment shall hear and decide appeals from and review any order, requirement, decision, or determination made by an administrative official charged with enforcing an ordinance adopted pursuant to this Part. Any person aggrieved or any officer, department, board, or bureau of the county may take an appeal. Appeals shall be taken within times prescribed by the board of adjustment by general rule, by filing with the officer from whom the appeal is taken and with the board of adjustment a notice of appeal, specifying the grounds thereof. The officer from whom the appeal is taken shall forthwith transmit to the board all the papers constituting the record upon which action appealed from was taken. An appeal stays all proceedings in furtherance of the action appealed from, unless the officer from whom the appeal is taken certifies to the board of adjustment, after notice of appeal has been filed with him, that because of facts stated in the certificate a stay would, in his opinion, cause imminent peril to life or property or that because the violation charged is transitory in nature a stay would seriously interfere with enforcement of the ordinance. In that case proceedings may not be stayed except by a restraining order, which may be granted by the board of adjustment or by a court of record on application, on notice to the officer from whom the appeal is taken and on due cause shown. The board of adjustment shall fix a reasonable time for the hearing of the appeal, give due notice of the appeal to the parties, and decide the appeal within a reasonable time. The board of adjustment may reverse or affirm, in whole or in part, or may modify the order, requirement, decision, or determination appealed from, and shall make any order, requirement, decision, or determination that in its opinion ought to be made in the circumstances. To this end the board has all of the powers of the officer from whom the appeal is taken.

(c) The zoning ordinance may provide that the board of adjustment may permit special exceptions to the zoning regulations in classes of cases or situations and in accordance with the principles, conditions, safeguards, and procedures specified in the ordinance. The ordinance may also authorize the board to interpret zoning maps and pass upon disputed questions of lot lines or district boundary lines and similar questions that may arise in the administration of the ordinance. The board shall hear and decide all matters referred to it or upon which it is required to pass under the zoning ordinance.

(d) When practical difficulties or unnecessary hardships would result from carrying out the strict letter of a zoning ordinance, the board of adjustment may, in passing upon appeals, vary or modify any regulation or provision of the ordinance relating to the use, construction, or alteration of buildings or structures or the use of land, so that the spirit of the ordinance is observed, public safety and welfare secured, and substantial justice done.

(e) The board of adjustment, by a vote of four-fifths of its members, may reverse any order, requirement, decision, or determination of an administrative officer charged with enforcing an ordinance adopted pursuant to this Part, or may decide in favor of the applicant a matter upon which the board is required to pass under the ordinance, or may grant a variance from the provisions of the ordinance. Each decision of the board is subject to review by the superior court by proceedings in the nature of certiorari. Any petition for review by the superior court shall be filed with the clerk of superior court within 30 days after the decision of the board is filed in such office as the ordinance specifies, or after a written copy thereof is delivered to every aggrieved party who has filed a written request for such copy with the secretary or chairman of the board at the time of its hearing of the case, whichever is later. The decision of the board may be delivered to the aggrieved party either by personal service or by registered mail or certified mail return receipt requested.

(f) The chairman of the board of adjustment or any member temporarily acting as chairman may in his official capacity administer oaths to witnesses in any matter coming before the board. (1959, c. 1006, s. 1; 1965, c. 194, s. 4; 1967, c. 1208, ss. 5-7; 1973, c. 822, s. 1; 1979, c. 611, s. 4; c. 635; 1981, c. 891, s. 8; 1985, c. 397, s. 1.)

CASE NOTES

Editor's Note. — Some of the cases cited below were decided under corresponding sections of former law.

Construction of Section. — The purpose of this section is to provide a right of review, and statutes providing for review of administrative decisions should be liberally construed to preserve and effectuate that right. Mize v. County of Mecklenburg, 80 N.C. App. 279, 341 S.E.2d 767 (1986).

The legislature may delegate to the board of adjustment, as a quasi-judicial body, authority to determine facts and draw conclusions as a basis for its official action. Jackson v. Guilford County Bd. of Adjustment, 2 N.C. App. 408, 163 S.E.2d 265 (1968), aff'd, 275 N.C. 155, 166 S.E.2d 78 (1969).

Power of Board to Impose Civil Penalties. — Since the Board possesses all powers of the enforcement officer for non-compliance, the trial court did not err in finding that the Board had authority to impose civil penalties. JWL Invs., Inc. v. Guilford County Bd. of Adjustment, 133 N.C. App. 426, 515 S.E.2d 715 (1999).

Finality of Board's Decisions. — The decisions of the board are final, subject to the right of the courts to review errors in law and to give relief against its orders which are arbitrary, oppressive or attended with manifest abuse of authority. Jackson v. Guilford County Bd. of Adjustment, 2 N.C. App. 408, 163 S.E.2d 265 (1968), aff'd, 275 N.C. 155, 166 S.E.2d 78 (1969).

Decisions of the board of adjustment are final, subject to the right of courts on certiorari to review errors in law and to give relief against its orders which are arbitrary, oppressive or attended with manifest abuse of authority. County of Durham v. Addison, 262 N.C. 280, 136 S.E.2d 600 (1964).

Conclusive Effect of Board's Findings. — Upon review by a superior court upon writ of certiorari issued pursuant to subsection (e) of this section, the findings of fact made by the board, if supported by evidence introduced at the hearing before the board, are conclusive. Godfrey v. Zoning Bd. of Adjustment, 317 N.C. 51, 344 S.E.2d 272 (1986).

Enforcement of Zoning Ordinances. — Section 153A-123 and this section give the superior court the power to enforce zoning ordinances through the issuance of an injunction. Mize v. County of Mecklenburg, 80 N.C. App. 279, 341 S.E.2d 767 (1986).

County Board of Adjustment Rightly Applied Local Notice Provision. — Section 1A-1-6 did not apply in a case where the language of a local ordinance was clear and unambiguous in its requirement that a minimum ten-day "notice of public hearing" be given and further stated how that ten days should be calculated. Richardson v. Union County Bd. of Adjustment, 136 N.C. App. 134, 523 S.E.2d 432 (1999).

Writ permitted to obtain review of the decision of a board of adjustment is a writ to bring the matter before the court upon the evidence presented by the record itself for review of alleged errors of law. Jackson v. Guilford County Bd. of Adjustment, 2 N.C. App. 408, 163 S.E.2d 265 (1968), aff'd, 275 N.C. 155, 166 S.E.2d 78 (1969).

The inquiry on review upon writ of certiorari under this section is whether the board committed an error of law or whether an order of the board is arbitrary, oppressive or attended with manifest abuse of authority. Teen Challenge Training Center, Inc. v. Board of Adjustment, 90 N.C. App. 452, 368 S.E.2d 661 (1988).

Appeal Held Not Taken Within Reasonable Time. — Where Board of Adjustment failed to prescribe any time within which an appeal had to be taken from a zoning compliance officer, a notice of appeal, consisting of a letter from an attorney representing adjacent landowners, filed 322 days after the officer issued the certificate of zoning compliance, was not taken within a reasonable time. See Teen Challenge Training Center, Inc. v. Board of Adjustment, 90 N.C. App. 452, 368 S.E.2d 661 (1988).

Challenge Under Dillon's Rule — Certiorari Not Necessary. — Where owner of mobile home challenged validity of city ordinance as violating requirements of Dillon's Rule, complaint did not need to be in form of a petition for certiorari since trial court should have allowed owner to attack ordinance directly; owner stated direct attack on ordinance so long as she could show that attack was timely under § 153A-348. White v. Union County, 93 N.C. App. 148, 377 S.E.2d 93 (1989).

Decisions of a board of adjustment are not subject to collateral attack. County of Durham v. Addison, 262 N.C. 280, 136 S.E.2d 600 (1964).

For case holding that defendant in action for violating zoning ordinance, having failed to exhaust his statutory remedies, could not challenge validity of ordinance, see Forsyth County v. York, 19 N.C. App. 361, 198 S.E.2d 770, cert. denied, 284 N.C. 253, 200 S.E.2d 653 (1973).

Since Board Decision Would Be Rendered Meaningless. — To allow a collateral attack on an unappealed board decision would make the decision meaningless. New Hanover County v. Pleasant, 59 N.C. App. 644, 297 S.E.2d 760 (1982).

The Zoning Board of Adjustment is a necessary party respondent to a petition filed pursuant to subsection (e) of this section. Mize v. County of Mecklenburg, 80 N.C. App. 279, 341 S.E.2d 767 (1986).

Board of Adjustment Necessary Party. — In dispute over zoning code the trial court did not err in dismissing the action based on the failure to join the Board of Adjustment as a necessary party to the lawsuit. City of Raleigh v. Hudson Belk Co., 114 N.C. App. 815, 443 S.E.2d 112 (1994).

In addition to the Zoning Board of Adjustment, other parties may in fact be necessary to determine issues raised in a petition under subsection (e) of this section. Mize v. County of Mecklenburg, 80 N.C. App. 279, 341 S.E.2d 767 (1986).

Amendment of Petition to Join Party. — Where petitioners complied with all the express requirements of this vague section by filing a petition in Mecklenburg County Superior Court within 30 days of the decision of the board, under the circumstances presented, the court abused its discretion by failing to allow the petitioners to amend the petition to join the Zoning Board of Adjustment. Mize v. County of Mecklenburg, 80 N.C. App. 279, 341 S.E.2d 767 (1986).

Time for Filing Petition for Review. — The language of this section requires only that any petition seeking review by the superior court be filed with the clerk of superior court within 30 days after the decision of the board is filed or after a written copy has been delivered to every aggrieved party. Mize v. County of Mecklenburg, 80 N.C. App. 279, 341 S.E.2d 767 (1986).

The scope of review under subsection (e) of this section is: (1) Reviewing the record for errors in law; (2) insuring that procedures specified by law in both statute and ordinance are followed; (3) insuring that appropriate due process rights of a petitioner are protected, including the right to offer evidence, cross-examine witnesses and inspect documents; (4) insuring that the decisions of zoning boards are supported by competent, material and substantial evidence in the whole record; and (5) insuring that decisions are not arbitrary and capricious. Mize v. County of Mecklenburg, 80 N.C. App. 279, 341 S.E.2d 767 (1986).

It is not the function of the reviewing court, upon writ of certiorari under subsection (e) of this section, to find the facts, but to determine whether the findings of fact made by the board are supported by the evidence before the board. It may vacate an order based upon a finding of fact not supported by the evidence. Godfrey v. Zoning Bd. of Adjustment, 317 N.C. 51, 344 S.E.2d 272 (1986).

The matter is before the court upon writ of certiorari under subsection (e) of this section to determine whether an error of law has been committed and to give relief from an order of the board which is found to be arbitrary, oppressive or attended with manifest abuse of authority. Godfrey v. Zoning Bd. of Adjustment, 317 N.C. 51, 344 S.E.2d 272 (1986).

In reviewing zoning decisions, the superior court is not the trier of fact; it sits in the posture of an appellate court. There is no necessity for, or entitlement to, a jury trial. Mize v. County of Mecklenburg, 80 N.C. App. 279, 341 S.E.2d 767 (1986).

No Ground for Equitable Relief Absent Invasion of Property Rights or Lack of Other Adequate Remedy. — There is no ground for equitable relief against zoning where there has been no invasion of property rights, or where there is an adequate remedy at law, as by certiorari or mandamus, or by pursuit of a statutory remedy. Michael v. Guilford County, 269 N.C. 515, 153 S.E.2d 106 (1967).

Depreciation of Complainant's Property Does Not Invalidate Ordinance. — The mere fact that a zoning ordinance seriously depreciates the value of complainant's property is not enough, standing alone, to establish its invalidity. Michael v. Guilford County, 269 N.C. 515, 153 S.E.2d 106 (1967).

Special Exception Defined. — A special exception, within the meaning of a zoning ordinance, is one which is expressly permitted in a given zone upon proof that certain facts and conditions detailed in the ordinance exist. It is granted by the board, after a public hearing, upon a finding that the specified conditions have been satisfied. In re Ellis, 277 N.C. 419, 178 S.E.2d 77 (1970).

Right to a special exception permit cannot be made to hinge upon whether the board considers proposed structure beneficial or harmful to the community. Such power would subject the board to the pressures of individuals or groups who, for an infinite variety of reasons, might oppose the permit, and enable it to make a different rule of law in every case. Statute empowering the commissioners to authorize the board of adjustment to permit special exceptions in the classes of cases or situations and in accordance with the principles, conditions, safeguards, and procedures specified in the ordinance does not purport to confer such unbridled discretion upon it. In re Ellis, 277 N.C. 419, 178 S.E.2d 77 (1970).

Provision of a county ordinance requiring board of adjustment to deny a permit if it found the granting of it would adversely affect the public interest was in excess of the authority which the statute permitted to be so conferred upon the board. Jackson v. Guilford County Bd. of Adjustment, 275 N.C. 155, 166 S.E.2d 78 (1969).

This section did not change Forsyth County zoning ordinance enacted pursuant to Session Laws 1947, c. 677 in April, 1967. Cardwell v. Forsyth County Zoning Bd. of Adjustment, 88 N.C. App. 244, 362 S.E.2d 843 (1987), aff'd, 321 N.C. 742, 366 S.E.2d 858 (1988).

Cemetery was not estopped from asserting that no special use permit was required for the construction and installation of facilities for above-ground burial since such facilities were not an unlawful extension of its nonconforming use of its cemetery property. Stegall v. Zoning Bd. of Adjustment, 87 N.C. App. 359, 361 S.E.2d 309 (1987), cert. denied, 321 N.C. 480, 364 S.E.2d 671 (1988).

Above-Ground Burial Facilities Held Legal Extension of Cemetery's Nonconforming Use of Cemetery Property. — Where the Zoning Ordinance provides for the continuation of pre-existing nonconforming uses of property, a cemetery construction of above-ground burial facilities relates to the process by which the nonconforming activity is conducted and does not amount to a change in the nature and kind of use to which the property was devoted. Stegall v. Zoning Bd. of Adjustment, 87 N.C. App. 359, 361 S.E.2d 309 (1987), cert. denied, 321 N.C. 480, 364 S.E.2d 671 (1988).

Board's Action Upheld. — Petitioners failed to show that Board of Adjustment acted arbitrarily or capriciously in combining standards for granting a special use permit to a broadcasting company. Richardson v. Union County Bd. of Adjustment, 136 N.C. App. 134, 523 S.E.2d 432 (1999).

Applied in Lathan v. Zoning Bd. of Adj., 69 N.C. App. 686, 317 S.E.2d 733 (1984); In re Dunn, 73 N.C. App. 243, 326 S.E.2d 309 (1985); JWL Invs., Inc. v. Guilford County Bd. of Adjustment, 133 N.C. App. 426, 515 S.E.2d 715 (1999).

§ 153A-346. Conflict with other laws.

When regulations made under authority of this Part require a greater width or size of yards or courts, or require a lower height of a building or fewer number of stories, or require a greater percentage of a lot to be left unoccupied, or impose other higher standards than are required in any other statute or local ordinance or regulation, the regulations made under authority of this Part govern. When the provisions of any other statute or local ordinance or regulation require a greater width or size of yards or courts, or require a lower height of a building or a fewer number of stories, or require a greater percentage of a lot to be left unoccupied, or impose other higher standards than are required by regulations made under authority of this Part, the provisions of the other statute or local ordinance or regulation govern. (1959, c. 1006, s. 1; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 153A-347. Part applicable to buildings constructed by the State and its subdivisions; exception.

Each provision of this Part is applicable to the erection, construction, and use of buildings by the State of North Carolina and its political subdivisions.

Notwithstanding the provisions of any general or local law or ordinance, no land owned by the State of North Carolina may be included within an overlay district or a special use or conditional use district without approval of the Council of State. (1959, c. 1006, s. 1; 1973, c. 822, s. 1; 1985, c. 607, s. 4.)

Legal Periodicals. — For comment on exclusionary zoning of community facilities, see 12 N.C. Cent. L.J. 167 (1980).

CASE NOTES

The word "building," as used in this section, does not encompass a "public enterprise," as used in §§ 153A-274 and 160A-311. Davidson County v. City of High Point, 85 N.C. App. 26, 354 S.E.2d 280, modified and aff'd, 321 N.C. 252, 362 S.E.2d 553 (1987).

City Immune from County's Zoning Ordinances. — City which owned a sewage treatment facility located in a county and outside the city's boundaries was not required to comply with county's zoning ordinances in upgrading the facility and providing sewage service to newly annexed areas of city with that facility. Davidson County v. City of High Point, 85 N.C. App. 26, 354 S.E.2d 280, modified and aff'd, 321 N.C. 252, 362 S.E.2d 553 (1987).

County does not have authority over provision of sewer services within a city, or over newly annexed areas of a city which also lie in the county. Davidson County v. City of High Point, 321 N.C. 252, 362 S.E.2d 553 (1987).

Use of City-Owned Sewage Treatment Plant Without Prior Approval of County. — Since county had no authority to restrict or regulate city's provision of sewer service to its residents, the city could use city-owned sewage treatment plant located outside the city but within the county, which was upgraded pursuant to the county's special use permit, with a condition attached to the permit requiring the county's prior approval of service to county citizens, to meet its statutory mandate to provide sewer service to residents in newly annexed areas without seeking the county's prior approval, even though the facility was located in the county. Davidson County v. City of High Point, 321 N.C. 252, 362 S.E.2d 553 (1987).

Locating Buildings in Violation of Another Jurisdiction's Zoning Laws. — While municipalities or counties may exercise the power of eminent domain for the construction, enlarging or improving of those buildings listed in § 40A-3(b)(6), the power of eminent domain does not include locating a particular building in violation of another jurisdiction's zoning laws by virtue of the fact that through this section and § 160A-392 the Legislature has made zoning regulations with regard to buildings specifically applicable to political subdivisions. The same zoning restrictions do not apply, however, to the construction, establishment, enlargement, improvement, maintenance, ownership or operation of a public enterprise unless the Legislature has clearly manifested a contrary intent. Davidson County v. City of High Point, 85 N.C. App. 26, 354 S.E.2d 280, modified and aff'd, 321 N.C. 252, 362 S.E.2d 553 (1987).

§ 153A-348. Statute of limitations.

A cause of action as to the validity of any zoning ordinance, or amendment thereto, adopted under this Part or other applicable law shall accrue upon adoption of the ordinance, or amendment thereto, and shall be brought within two months as provided in G.S. 1-54.1. (1981, c. 705, s. 2; 1995 (Reg. Sess., 1996), c. 746, s. 6.)

CASE NOTES

and the institution of this action was approximately four and one-half years. Baucom's Nursery Co. v. Mecklenburg County, 89 N.C. App. 542, 366 S.E.2d 558, cert. denied, 322 N.C. 834, 371 S.E.2d 274 (1988).

Challenge Under Dillon's Rule — Certiorari Not Necessary. — Where owner of mobile home challenged validity of city ordinance as violating requirements of Dillon's Rule, complaint did not need to be in form of a petition for certiorari since trial court should have allowed owner to attack ordinance directly; owner stated direct attack on ordinance so long as she could show that attack was timely under this section. *White v. § 153A-350.1. Tribal lands.

As used in this Part, the term:

- (1) "Board of commissioners" includes the Tribal Council of such tribe.
- (2) "County" or "counties" also means a federally recognized Indian Tribe, and as to such tribe includes lands held in trust for the tribe. (1999-78, s. 1.)

§ 153A-351. Inspection department; certification of electrical inspectors.

(a) A county may create an inspection department, consisting of one or more inspectors who may be given the titles of building inspector, electrical inspector, plumbing inspector, housing inspector, zoning inspector, heating and air-conditioning inspector, fire prevention inspector, deputy or assistant inspector, or any other title that is generally descriptive of the duties assigned. The department may be headed by a superintendent or director of inspections.

(a1) Every county shall perform the duties and responsibilities set forth in G.S. 153A-352 either by:

- (1) Creating its own inspection department;
- (2) Creating a joint inspection department in cooperation with one or more other units of local government, pursuant to G.S. 153A-353 or Part 1 of Article 20 of Chapter 160A; or,
- (3) Contracting with another unit of local government for the provision of inspection services pursuant to Part 1 of Article 20 of Chapter 160A.

Such action shall be taken no later than the applicable date in the schedule below, according to the county's population as published in the 1970 United States Census:

Counties over 75,000 population — July 1, 1979

Counties between 50,001 and 75,000 — July 1, 1981

Counties between 25,001 and 50,000 — July 1, 1983

Counties 25,000 and under — July 1, 1985.

In the event that any county shall fail to provide inspection services by the date specified above or shall cease to provide such services at any time thereafter, the Commissioner of Insurance shall arrange for the provision of such services, either through personnel employed by his Department or through an arrangement with other units of government. In either event, the Commissioner shall have and may exercise within the county's jurisdiction all powers made available to the board of county commissioners with respect to building inspection under Part 4 of Article 18 of this Chapter and Part 1 of Article 20 of Chapter 160A. Whenever the Commissioner has intervened in this manner, the county may assume provision of inspection services only after giving the Commissioner two years' written notice of its intention to do so; provided, however, that the Commissioner may waive this requirement or permit assumption at an earlier date if he finds that such earlier assumption will not unduly interfere with arrangements he has made for the provision of those services.

(b) No person may perform electrical inspections pursuant to this Part unless he has been certified as qualified by the Commissioner of Insurance. To be certified a person must pass a written examination based on the electrical regulations included in the latest edition of the State Building Code as filed with the Secretary of State. The examination shall be under the supervision of and conducted according to rules and regulations prescribed by the Chief State Electrical Inspector or Engineer of the State Department of Insurance and the Board of Examiners of Electrical Contractors. It shall be held quarterly, in Raleigh or any other place designated by the Chief State Electrical Inspector or Engineer.

The rules and regulations may provide for the certification of class I, class II, and class III inspectors, according to the results of the examination. The examination shall be based on the type and character of electrical installations being made in the territory in which the applicant wishes to serve as an electrical inspector. A class I inspector may serve anywhere in the State, but class II and class III inspectors shall be limited to service in the territory for which they have qualified.

The Commissioner of Insurance shall issue a certificate to each person who passes the examination, approving the person for service in a designated territory. To remain valid, a certificate must be renewed each January by payment of an annual renewal fee of one dollar ($1.00). The examination fee shall be five dollars ($5.00).

If the person appointed by a county as electrical inspector fails to pass the examination, the county shall continue to make appointments until an appointee has passed the examination. For the interim the Commissioner of Insurance may authorize the county to use a temporary inspector.

The provisions of this subsection shall become void and ineffective on such date as the North Carolina Code Officials Qualification Board certifies to the Secretary of State that it has placed in effect a certification system for electrical inspectors pursuant to its authority granted by Article 9C of Chapter 143 of the General Statutes. ## CASE NOTES

Failure of City to Provide Inspection Services. — Section 160A-411 does not mandate that the city and the county must agree regarding the provision of inspection services; rather, it provides the options available to the city in determining who shall perform the inspections, one of which is arranging for the county to perform them, and if the city fails to provide inspection services via any of the four options, the statute dictates that the Commissioner of Insurance shall arrange for the provision of the services. The legislature does not need to intervene in the process should the county and the city fail to agree; instead, the legislature has provided that the Commissioner of Insurance shall do so should the city fail to follow the requirements of the statute. City of New Bern v. New Bern-Craven County Bd. of Educ., 338 N.C. 430, 450 S.E.2d 735 (1994).

§ 153A-351.1. Qualifications of inspectors.

On and after the applicable date set forth in the schedule in G.S. 153A-351, no county shall employ an inspector to enforce the State Building Code as a member of a county or joint inspection department who does not have one of the following types of certificates issued by the North Carolina Code Officials Qualification Board attesting to his qualifications to hold such position: (i) a probationary certificate, valid for one year only; (ii) a standard certificate; or (iii) a limited certificate, which shall be valid only as an authorization for him to continue in the position held on the date specified in G.S. 143-151.10(c) and which shall become invalid if he does not successfully complete in-service training prescribed by the Qualification Board within the period specified in G.S. 143-151.10(c). An inspector holding one of the above certificates can be promoted to a position requiring a higher level certificate only upon issuance by the Board of a standard certificate or probationary certificate appropriate for such new position. (1977, c. 531, s. 4.)

151.10(c) in two places above appears to be incorrect. The reference should apparently be to § 143-151.13(c).

§ 153A-352. Duties and responsibilities.

The duties and responsibilities of an inspection department and of the inspectors in it are to enforce within the county's territorial jurisdiction State and local laws and local ordinances and regulations relating to:

- (1) The construction of buildings;
- (2) The installation of such facilities as plumbing systems, electrical systems, heating systems, refrigeration systems, and air-conditioning systems;
- (3) The maintenance of buildings in a safe, sanitary, and healthful condition;
- (4) Other matters that may be specified by the board of commissioners.

These duties and responsibilities include receiving applications for permits and issuing or denying permits, making necessary inspections, issuing or denying certificates of compliance, issuing orders to correct violations, bringing judicial actions against actual or threatened violations, keeping adequate records, and taking any other actions that may be required to adequately enforce the laws and ordinances and regulations. The board of commissioners may enact reasonable and appropriate provisions governing the enforcement of the laws and ordinances and regulations. (1937, c. 57; 1941, c. 105; 1947, c. 719; 1951, c. 651; 1953, c. 984; 1955, cc. 144, 942, 1171; 1957, cc. 415, 456, 1286, 1294; 1959, cc. 399, 940, 1031; 1961, cc. 763, 884, 1036; 1963, cc. 639, 868; 1965, cc. 243, 371, 453, 494, 846; 1967, cc. 45, 73, 113; c. 495, ss. 1, 3; 1969, cc. 675,

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL

Statutorily Obligated Services to School System. — Any agreement between a county school system and the county or a municipality which obligates a school system to pay the county or municipality “development charges” under the guise of consideration for services which the county or municipality is statutorily obligated to provide would be null and void as contrary to legislative intent. See opinion of Attorney General to The Honorable J. Sam Ellis House of Representatives, 1998 N.C.A.G. 41 (10/13/98).

§ 153A-353. Joint inspection department; other arrangements.

A county may enter into and carry out contracts with one or more other counties or cities under which the parties agree to create and support a joint inspection department for enforcing those State and local laws and local ordinances and regulations specified in the agreement. The governing bodies of the contracting units may make any necessary appropriations for this purpose.

In lieu of a joint inspection department, a county may designate an inspector from another county or from a city to serve as a member of the county inspection department, with the approval of the governing body of the other county or city. A county may also contract with an individual who is not a city or county employee but who holds one of the applicable certificates as provided in G.S. 153A-351.1 or G.S. 160A-411.1 or with the employer of an individual who holds one of the applicable certificates as provided in G.S. 153A-351.1 or G.S. 160A-411.1. The inspector, if designated from another county or city under this section, while exercising the duties of the position, is a county employee. The county shall have the same potential liability, if any, for inspections conducted by an individual who is not an employee of the county as it does for an individual who is an employee of the county. The company or individual with whom the county contracts shall have errors and omissions and other insurance coverage acceptable to the county. (1937, c. 57; 1941, c. 105; 1947, c. 719; 1951, c. 651; 1959, c. 940; 1963, c. 639; 1965, c. 371; 1967, c. 495, s. 1; 1969, c. 918; c. 1010, s. 4; c. 1064, ss. 1, 5; c. 1066, s. 1; 1973, c. 822, s. 1; 1993, c. 232, s. 1; 1999-372, s. 1; 2001-278, s. 1.)

Effect of Amendments. — Session Laws 2001-278, s. 1, effective October 1, 2001, deleted the former third sentence in the second paragraph, which read “Contracts with an individual or with the employer of an individual who is not an employee of another county or a city may be entered into only for specifically designated projects.”

§ 153A-354. Financial support.

A county may appropriate any available funds for the support of its inspection department. It may provide for paying inspectors fixed salaries, or it may reimburse them for their services by paying over part or all of any fees collected. It may fix reasonable fees for issuing permits, for inspections, and for other services of the inspection department. (1937, c. 57; 1941, c. 105; 1947, c. 719; 1951, c. 651; 1953, c. 984; 1955, cc. 144, 942, 1171; 1957, cc. 415, 456, 1286, 1294; 1959, cc. 399, 940, 1031; 1961, cc. 763, 884, 1036; 1963, cc. 639, 868; 1965, cc. 243, 371, 453, 494, 846; 1967, cc. 45, 73, 113; c. 495, ss. 1, 3; 1969, cc. 675, 918; c. 1003, s. 7; c. 1010, s. 4; c. 1064, ss. 1, 4, 5; c. 1066, s. 1; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 153A-355. Conflicts of interest.

Unless he or she is the owner of the building, no member of an inspection department shall be financially interested or employed by a business that is financially interested in furnishing labor, material, or appliances for the construction, alteration, or maintenance of any building within the county's territorial jurisdiction or any part or system thereof, or in making plans or specifications therefor. No member of any inspection department or other individual or an employee of a company contracting with a county to conduct inspections may engage in any work that is inconsistent with his or her duties or with the interest of the county, as determined by the county. The county must find a conflict of interest if any of the following is the case:

- (1) If the individual, company, or employee of a company contracting to perform inspections for the county has worked for the owner, developer, contractor, or project manager of the project to be inspected within the last two years.
- (2) If the individual, company, or employee of a company contracting to perform inspections for the county is closely related to the owner, developer, contractor, or project manager of the project to be inspected.
- (3) If the individual, company, or employee of a company contracting to perform inspections for the county has a financial or business interest in the project to be inspected. (1937, c. 57; 1941, c. 105; 1947, c. 719; 1951, c. 651; 1953, c. 984; 1955, cc. 144, 942, 1171; 1957, cc. 415, 456, 1286, 1294; 1959, cc. 399, 1031; 1961, cc. 763, 884, 1036; 1963, c. 868; 1965, cc. 243, 453, 494, 846; 1967, cc. 45, 73, 113; c. 495, s. 3; 1969, cc. 675, 918; c. 1003, s. 7; c. 1064, ss. 1, 4; c. 1066, s. 1; 1973, c. 822, s. 1; 1993, c. 232, s. 2; 1999-372, s. 2.)

§ 153A-356. Failure to perform duties.

If a member of an inspection department willfully fails to perform the duties required of him by law, or willfully improperly issues a permit, or gives a certificate of compliance without first making the inspections required by law, or willfully improperly gives a certificate of compliance, he is guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor. (1969, c. 1066, s. 1; 1973, c. 822, s. 1; 1993, c. 539, s. 1064; 1994, Ex. Sess., c. 24, s. 14(c).)

§ 153A-357. Permits.

(a) No person may commence or proceed with:

- (1) The construction, reconstruction, alteration, repair, movement to another site, removal, or demolition of any building;
- (2) The installation, extension, or general repair of any plumbing system;
- (3) The installation, extension, alteration, or general repair of any heating or cooling equipment system; or
- (4) The installation, extension, alteration, or general repair of any electrical wiring, devices, appliances, or equipment without first securing from the inspection department with jurisdiction over the site of the work each permit required by the State Building Code and any other State or local law or local ordinance or regulation applicable to the work. A permit shall be in writing and shall contain a provision that the work done shall comply with the State Building Code and all other applicable State and local laws and local ordinances and regulations. Nothing in this section shall require a county to review and approve residential building plans submitted to the county pursuant to Section R-110 of Volume VII of the North Carolina State Building Code; provided that the county may review and approve such residential building plans as it deems necessary. No permit may be issued unless the plans and specifications are identified by the name and address of the author thereof; and if the General Statutes of North Carolina require that plans for certain types of work be prepared only by a registered architect or registered engineer, no permit may be issued unless the plans and specifications bear the North Carolina seal of a registered architect or of a registered engineer. If a provision of the General Statutes of North Carolina or of any ordinance requires that work be done by a licensed specialty contractor of any kind, no permit for the work may be issued unless the work is to be performed by such a duly licensed contractor. No permit issued under Articles 9 or 9C of G.S. Chapter 143 shall be required for any construction, installation, repair, replacement, or alteration costing five thousand dollars ($5,000) or less in any single-family residence or farm building unless the work involves: the addition, repair or replacement of load bearing structures; the addition (excluding replacement of same size and capacity) or change in the design of plumbing; the addition, replacement or change in the design of heating, air conditioning, or electrical wiring, devices, appliances, or equipment; the use of materials not permitted by the North Carolina Uniform Residential Building Code; or the addition (excluding replacement of like grade of fire resistance) of roofing. Violation of this section constitutes a Class 1 misdemeanor.

(b) No permit shall be issued pursuant to subsection (a) for any land-disturbing activity, as defined in G.S. 113A-52(6), for any activity covered by G.S. 113A-57, unless an erosion control plan has been approved by the Sedimentation Pollution Control Commission pursuant to G.S. 113A-54(d)(4) or by a local government pursuant to G.S. 113A-61 for the site of the activity or a tract of land including the site of the activity. (1969, c. 1066, s. 1; 1973, c. 822, s. 1; 1981, c. 677, s. 2; 1983, c. 377, s. 2; c. 614, s. 2; 1987 (Reg. Sess., 1988), c. 1000, s. 1; 1993, c. 539, s. 1065; 1994, Ex. Sess., c. 24, s. 14(c); 1993 (Reg. Sess., 1994), c. 741, s. 1.)

ment designed or intended to meet the State Building Code requirements for insulation and energy utilization standards meet all requirements of this section or § 160A-417, see § 143-151.30. For provision that a county may by ordinance require that when a property owner improves property at a cost of more than $2500.00 but less than $5000.00 the property owner must submit a statement setting forth the nature of the improvement and the total cost thereof, see § 153A-325.

§ 153A-358. Time limitations on validity of permits.

A permit issued pursuant to G.S. 153A-357 expires six months, or any lesser time fixed by ordinance of the county, after the date of issuance if the work authorized by the permit has not commenced. If after commencement the work is discontinued for a period of 12 months, the permit therefor immediately expires. No work authorized by a permit that has expired may thereafter be performed until a new permit has been secured. (1969, c. 1066, s. 1; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 153A-359. Changes in work.

After a permit has been issued, no change or deviation from the terms of the application, the plans and specifications, or the permit, except if the change or deviation is clearly permissible under the State Building Code, may be made until specific written approval of the proposed change or deviation has been obtained from the inspection department. (1969, c. 1066, s. 1; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 153A-360. Inspections of work in progress.

As the work pursuant to a permit progresses, local inspectors shall make as many inspections of the work as may be necessary to satisfy them that it is being done according to the provisions of the applicable State and local laws and local ordinances and regulations and of the terms of the permit. In exercising this power, each member of the inspection department has a right, upon presentation of proper credentials, to enter on any premises within the territorial jurisdiction of the department at any reasonable hour for the purposes of inspection or other enforcement action. (1969, c. 1066, s. 1; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 153A-361. Stop orders.

Whenever a building or part thereof is being demolished, constructed, reconstructed, altered, or repaired in a hazardous manner, or in substantial violation of a State or local building law or local building ordinance or regulation, or in a manner that endangers life or property, the appropriate inspector may order the specific part of the work that is in violation or that presents such a hazard to be immediately stopped. The stop order shall be in writing and directed to the person doing the work, and shall state the specific work to be stopped, the specific reasons for the stoppage, and the conditions under which the work may be resumed. The owner or builder may appeal from a stop order involving alleged violation of the State Building Code or any approved local modification thereof to the North Carolina Commissioner of Insurance or his designee within five days after the day the order is issued. The owner or builder shall give to the Commissioner of Insurance or his designee written notice of appeal, with a copy to the local inspector. The Commissioner or his designee shall promptly conduct an investigation and the appellant and the inspector shall be permitted to submit relevant evidence. The Commissioner or his designee shall as expeditiously as possible provide a written statement of the decision setting forth the facts found, the decision reached, and the reasons for the decision. Pending the ruling by the Commissioner of Insurance or his designee on an appeal, no further work may take place in violation of a stop order. In the event of dissatisfaction with the decision, the person affected shall have the options of:

- (1) Appealing to the Building Code Council, or
- (2) Appealing to the Superior Court as provided in G.S. 143-141.

Violation of a stop order constitutes a Class 1 misdemeanor. (1969, c. 1066, s. 1; 1973, c. 822, s. 1; 1983, c. 377, s. 4; 1989, c. 681, s. 5; 1993, c. 539, s. 1066; 1994, Ex. Sess., c. 24, s. 14(c).)

§ 153A-362. Revocation of permits.

The appropriate inspector may revoke and require the return of any permit by giving written notice to the permit holder, stating the reason for the revocation. Permits shall be revoked for any substantial departure from the approved application or plans and specifications, for refusal or failure to comply with the requirements of any applicable State or local laws or local ordinances or regulations, or for false statements or misrepresentations made in securing the permit. A permit mistakenly issued in violation of an applicable State or local law or local ordinance or regulation also may be revoked. (1969, c. 1066, s. 1; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 153A-363. Certificates of compliance.

At the conclusion of all work done under a permit, the appropriate inspector shall make a final inspection. If he finds that the completed work complies with all applicable State and local laws and local ordinances and regulations and with the terms of the permit, he shall issue a certificate of compliance. No new building or part thereof may be occupied, no addition or enlargement of an existing building may be occupied, and no existing building that has been altered or removed may be occupied until the inspection department has issued a certificate of compliance. A temporary certificate of compliance may be issued permitting occupancy for a stated period of specified portions of the building that the inspector finds may safely be occupied before completion of the entire building. Violation of this section constitutes a Class 1 misdemeanor. (1973, c. 822, s. 1; 1993, c. 539, s. 1067; 1994, Ex. Sess., c. 24, s. 14(c).)

Cross References. — As to inspections by the energy and insulation inspector and issuance of a certificate of compliance for work done with regard to the installation, alteration or restoration of any insulation or other materials or energy utilization equipment designed or intended to meet the State Building Code requirements for insulation and energy utilization standards, see § 143-151.32.

§ 153A-364. Periodic inspections for hazardous or unlawful conditions.

The inspection department shall make periodic inspections, subject to the board of commissioners' directions, for unsafe, unsanitary, or otherwise hazardous and unlawful conditions in buildings within its territorial jurisdiction. In addition, it shall make any necessary inspections when it has reason to believe that such conditions may exist in a particular building. In exercising these powers, each member of the inspection department has a right, upon presentation of proper credentials, to enter on any premises within the territorial jurisdiction of the department at any reasonable hour for the purposes of inspection or other enforcement action. (1969, c. 1066, s. 1; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 153A-365. Defects in buildings to be corrected.

If a local inspector finds any defect in a building, or finds that the building has not been constructed in accordance with the applicable State and local laws and local ordinances and regulations, or finds that a building because of its condition is dangerous or contains fire-hazardous conditions, he shall notify the owner or occupant of the building of its defects, hazardous conditions, or failure to comply with law. The owner and the occupant shall each immediately remedy the defects, hazardous conditions, or violations of law in the property each owns. (1969, c. 1066, s. 1; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 153A-366. Unsafe buildings condemned.

The inspector shall condemn as unsafe each building that appears to him to be especially dangerous to life because of its liability to fire, bad conditions of walls, overloaded floors, defective construction, decay, unsafe wiring or heating system, inadequate means of egress, or other causes; and he shall affix a notice of the dangerous character of the building to a conspicuous place on its exterior wall. (1969, c. 1066, s. 1; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 153A-367. Removing notice from condemned building.

If a person removes a notice that has been affixed to a building by a local inspector and that states the dangerous character of the building, he is guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor. (1969, c. 1066, s. 1; 1973, c. 822, s. 1; 1993, c. 539, s. 1068; 1994, Ex. Sess., c. 24, s. 14(c).)

§ 153A-368. Action in event of failure to take corrective action.

If the owner of a building that has been condemned as unsafe pursuant to G.S. 153A-366 fails to take prompt corrective action, the local inspector shall by certified or registered mail to his last known address or by personal service give him written notice:

- (1) That the building is in a condition that appears to constitute a fire or safety hazard or to be dangerous to life, health, or other property;

- (2) That a hearing will be held before the inspector at a designated place and time, not later than 10 days after the date of the notice, at which time the owner is entitled to be heard in person or by counsel and to present arguments and evidence pertaining to the matter; and
- (3) That following the hearing, the inspector may issue any order to repair, close, vacate, or demolish the building that appears appropriate.

If the name or whereabouts of the owner cannot after due diligence be discovered, the notice shall be considered properly and adequately served if a copy thereof is posted on the outside of the building in question at least 10 days before the day of the hearing and a notice of the hearing is published at least once not later than one week before the hearing. (1969, c. 1066, s. 1; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 153A-369. Order to take corrective action.

If, upon a hearing held pursuant to G.S. 153A-368, the inspector finds that the building is in a condition that constitutes a fire or safety hazard or renders it dangerous to life, health, or other property, he shall issue a written order, directed to the owner of the building, requiring the owner to remedy the defective conditions by repairing, closing, vacating, or demolishing the building or taking other necessary steps, within such period, not less than 60 days, as the inspector may prescribe; provided, that where the inspector finds that there is imminent danger to life or other property, he may order that corrective action be taken in such lesser period as may be feasible. (1969, c. 1066, s. 1; 1973, c. 822, s. 1; 1979, c. 611, s. 5.)

§ 153A-370. Appeal; finality of order not appealed.

An owner who has received an order under G.S. 153A-369 may appeal from the order to the board of commissioners by giving written notice of appeal to the inspector and to the clerk within 10 days following the day the order is issued. In the absence of an appeal, the order of the inspector is final. The board of commissioners shall hear any appeal within a reasonable time and may affirm, modify and affirm, or revoke the order. (1969, c. 1066, s. 1; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 153A-371. Failure to comply with order.

If the owner of a building fails to comply with an order issued pursuant to G.S. 153A-369 from which no appeal has been taken, or fails to comply with an order of the board of commissioners following an appeal, he is guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor. (1969, c. 1066, s. 1; 1973, c. 822, s. 1; 1993, c. 539, s. 1069; 1994, Ex. Sess., c. 24, s. 14(c).)

§ 153A-372. Equitable enforcement.

Whenever a violation is denominated a misdemeanor under the provisions of this Part, the county, either in addition to or in lieu of other remedies, may initiate any appropriate action or proceeding to prevent, restrain, correct, or abate the violation or to prevent the occupancy of the building involved. (1969, c. 1066, s. 1; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

CASE NOTES

Applied in Mecklenburg County v. Westbery,
32 N.C. App. 630, 233 S.E.2d 658 (1977).

§ 153A-373. Records and reports.

The inspection department shall keep complete, and accurate records in convenient form of each application received, each permit issued, each inspection and reinspection made, and each defect found, each certificate of compliance granted, and all other work and activities of the department. These records shall be kept in the manner and for the periods prescribed by the North Carolina Department of Cultural Resources. The department shall submit periodic reports to the board of commissioners and to the Commissioner of Insurance as the board or the Commissioner may require. (1969, c. 1066, s. 1; 1973, c. 822, s. 1; 1983, c. 377, s. 6.)

§ 153A-374. Appeals.

Unless otherwise provided by law, any appeal from an order, decision, or determination of a member of a local inspection department pertaining to the State Building Code or any other State building law shall be taken to the Commissioner of Insurance or his designee or other official specified in G.S. 143-139, by filing a written notice with him and with the inspection department within 10 days after the day of the order, decision, or determination. Further appeals may be taken to the State Building Code Council or to the courts as provided by law. (1969, c. 1066, s. 1; 1973, c. 822, s. 1; 1989, c. 681, s. 7.)

§ 153A-375. Establishment of fire limits.

A county may by ordinance establish and define fire limits in any area within the county and not within a city. The limits may include only business and industrial areas. Within any fire limits, no frame or wooden building or addition thereto may be erected, altered, repaired, or moved (either into the fire limits or from one place to another within the limits) except upon the permit of the inspection department and approval of the Commissioner of Insurance. The board of commissioners may make additional regulations necessary for the prevention, extinguishment, or mitigation of fires within the fire limits. (1969, c. 1066, s. 1; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

Part 5. Community Development.

§ 153A-376. Community development programs and activities.

(a) Any county is authorized to engage in, to accept federal and State grants and loans for, and to appropriate and expend funds for community development programs and activities. In undertaking community development programs and activities, in addition to other authority granted by law, a county may engage in the following activities:

- (1) Programs of assistance and financing of rehabilitation of private buildings principally for the benefit of low and moderate income persons, or for the restoration or preservation of older neighborhoods or properties, including direct repair, the making of grants or loans, the subsidization of interest payments on loans, and the guaranty of loans;

- (2) Programs concerned with employment, economic development, crime prevention, child care, health, drug abuse, education, and welfare needs of persons of low and moderate income.

(b) Any board of county commissioners may exercise directly those powers granted by law to county redevelopment commissions and those powers granted by law to county housing authorities. Any board of county commissioners desiring to do so may delegate to redevelopment commission or to any housing authority the responsibility of undertaking or carrying out any specified community development activities. Any board of county commissioners and any municipal governing body may by agreement undertake or carry out for each other any specified community development activities. Any board of county commissioners may contract with any person, association, or corporation in undertaking any specified community development activities. Any county or city board of health, county board of social services, or county or city board of education, may by agreement undertake or carry out for any board of county commissioners any specified community development activities.

(c) Any board of county commissioners undertaking community development programs or activities may create one or more advisory committees to advise it and to make recommendations concerning such programs or activities.

(d) Any board of county commissioners proposing to undertake any loan guaranty or similar program for rehabilitation of private buildings is authorized to submit to its voters the question whether such program shall be undertaken, such referendum to be conducted pursuant to the general and local laws applicable to special elections in such county.

(e) No state or local taxes shall be appropriated or expended by a county pursuant to this section for any purpose not expressly authorized by G.S. 153A-149, unless the same is first submitted to a vote of the people as therein provided.

(f) All program income from Economic Development Grants from the Small Cities Community Development Block Grant Program may be retained by recipient "economically distressed counties", as defined in G.S. 143B-437A for the purposes of creating local economic development revolving loan funds. Such program income derived through the use by counties of Small Cities Community Development Block Grant money includes but is not limited to: (i) payment of principal and interest on loans made by the county using Community Development Block Grant Funds; (ii) proceeds from the lease or disposition of real property acquired with Community Development Block Grant Funds; and (iii) any late fees associated with loan or lease payments in (i) and (ii) above. The local economic development revolving loan fund set up by the county shall fund only those activities eligible under Title I of the federal Housing and Community Development Act of 1974, as amended (P.L. 93-383), and shall meet at least one of the three national objectives of the Housing and Community Development Act. Any expiration of G.S. 143B-437A or G.S. 105-129.3 shall not affect this subsection as to designations of economically distressed counties made prior to its expiration.

(g) Any county may receive and dispense funds from the Community Development Block Grant Section 108 Loan Guarantee program, Subpart M, 24 CFR 570.700 et seq., either through application to the North Carolina Department of Commerce or directly from the federal government, in accordance with State and federal laws governing these funds. Any county that receives these funds directly from the federal government may pledge current and future CDBG funds for use as loan guarantees in accordance with State and federal laws governing these funds. A county may implement the receipt, dispensing, and pledging of CDBG funds under this subsection by borrowing CDBG funds and lending all or a portion of those funds to a third party in accordance with applicable laws governing the CDBG program.

Any county that has pledged current or future CDBG funds for use as loan guarantees prior to the enactment of this subsection is authorized to have taken such action. A pledge of future CDBG funds under this subsection is not a debt or liability of the State or any political subdivision of the State or a pledge of the faith and credit of the State or any political subdivision of the State. The pledging of future CDBG funds under this subsection does not directly, indirectly, or contingently obligate the State or any political subdivision of the State to levy or to pledge any taxes. (1975, c. 435, s. 2; c. 689, s. 2; 1987 (Reg. Sess., 1988), c. 992, s. 1; 1995, c. 310, s. 2; 1995 (Reg. Sess., 1996), c. 575, s. 2; 1996, 2nd Ex. Sess., c. 13, s. 3.8.)

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1995, c. 310, s. 2, effective July 1, 1995, enacted a subsection (e). As a subsection (e) already existed, that subsection was redesignated as subsection (g) at the direction of the Revisor of Statutes.

§ 153A-377. Acquisition and disposition of property for redevelopment.

In addition to the powers granted by G.S. 153A-376, any county is authorized, either as a part of a community development program or independently thereof, and without the necessity of compliance with the Urban Redevelopment Law, to exercise the following powers:

- (1) To acquire, by voluntary purchase from the owner or owners, real property which is either:
  - a. Blighted, deteriorated, deteriorating, undeveloped, or inappropriately developed from the standpoint of sound community development and growth;
  - b. Appropriate for rehabilitation or conservation activities;
  - c. Appropriate for housing construction of the economic development of the community; or
  - d. Appropriate for the preservation or restoration of historic sites, the beautification of urban land, the conservation of open space, natural resources, and scenic areas, the provision of recreational opportunities, or the guidance of urban development;
- (2) To clear, demolish, remove, or rehabilitate buildings and improvements on land so acquired; and
- (3) To retain property so acquired for public purposes, or to dispose, through sale, lease, or otherwise, of any property so acquired to any person, firm, corporation, or governmental unit; provided, the disposition of such property shall be undertaken in accordance with the procedures of G.S. 153A-176, or the procedures of G.S. 160A-514, or any applicable local act modifying such procedures. (1977, c. 660, s. 2.)

§ 153A-378. Low- and moderate-income housing programs.

In addition to the powers granted by G.S. 153A-376 and G.S. 153A-377, any county is authorized to exercise the following powers:

- (1) To engage in and to appropriate and expend funds for residential housing construction, new or rehabilitated, for sale or rental to persons and families of low and moderate income. Any board of commissioners may contract with any person, association, or corporation to implement the provisions of this subdivision.
- (2) To acquire real property by voluntary purchase from the owners to be developed by the county or to be used by the county to provide affordable housing to persons of low and moderate income.
- (3) Under procedures and standards established by the county, to convey property by private sale to any public or private entity that provides affordable housing to persons of low or moderate income. The county shall include as part of any such conveyance covenants or conditions that assure the property will be developed by the entity for sale or lease to persons of low or moderate income.
- (4) Under procedures and standards established by the county, to convey residential property by private sale to persons of low or moderate income in accordance with G.S. 160A-267 and any terms and conditions that the board of commissioners may determine. (1999-366, s. 2.)

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1999-366, s. 5, made this section effective August 4, 1999.

Session Laws 1999-366, s. 1, provides: "The General Assembly finds and declares that the purpose of this act is to provide authority for counties in North Carolina to provide funds for residential housing construction, new or rehabilitated, and to provide for the sale or rental of housing to persons and families of low and moderate income. The General Assembly finds and declares that there exists in counties in the State a serious shortage of decent, safe, and sanitary residential housing available at low prices or rentals to persons and families of low and moderate income. This shortage is inimical to the health, safety, welfare, and prosperity of all residents of the State and to the sound growth of North Carolina communities."

ARTICLE 19.

Regional Planning Commissions.

§ 153A-391. Creation; admission of new members.

Two or more counties, cities, or counties and cities may create a regional planning commission by adopting identical concurrent resolutions to that effect in accordance with the provisions and procedures of this Article. A county or city may join an existing regional planning commission with the consent of the existing member governments.

The resolution creating a regional planning commission may be modified, amended, or repealed by the unanimous action of the member governments. (1961, c. 722, s. 3; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

Local Modification. — Cherokee, Graham, Jackson and Swain: 1973, c. 1406.

CASE NOTES

Stated in Hyde v. Land-Of-Sky Regional Council, 572 F.2d 988 (4th Cir. 1978).

§ 153A-392. Contents of resolution.

The resolutions creating a regional planning commission shall:

- (1) Specify the name of the commission;
- (2) Establish the number of delegates to represent each member government, fix the delegates' terms of office and the conditions, if any, for their removal, provide methods for filling vacancies, and prescribe the compensation and allowances, if any, to be paid to delegates;
- (3) Set out the method of determining the financial support that will be given to the commission by each member government;
- (4) Set out the budgetary and fiscal control procedures to be followed by the commission, which shall substantially comply with the Local Government Budget and Fiscal Control Act (Chapter 159, Subchapter III).

In addition the resolution may, but need not, contain rules and regulations for the conduct of commission business and any other matters pertaining to the organization, powers, and functioning of the commission that the member governments consider appropriate. (1961, c. 722, s. 3; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

CASE NOTES

Contributions Held Due. — Where, from 1971 through February 1982, defendant county participated as a member in plaintiff regional council's activities, attending meetings and workshops and receiving the benefits of plaintiff's plans and services, and during this time defendant made full payments of its proportionate share of plaintiff's budget as set forth in plaintiff's bylaws, and where, most significantly, defendant indicated in a letter of March 8, 1982, that the county board of commissioners unanimously voted to comply with the obligations incumbent on a withdrawing member, and furthermore, where defendant did not raise any material question of fact pertaining to plaintiff's request that defendant should be estopped from denying its obligation, grant of plaintiff's motion for summary judgment on its complaint seeking contributions due from defendant would be affirmed. Land-of-Sky Regional Council v. County of Henderson, 78 N.C. App. 85, 336 S.E.2d 653 (1985), cert. denied, 316 N.C. 553, 344 S.E.2d 7 (1986).

§ 153A-393. Withdrawal from commission.

A member government may withdraw from a regional planning commission by giving at least two years' written notice to the other counties and cities involved. (1961, c. 722, s. 3; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 153A-394. Organization of the commission.

Upon its creation, a regional planning commission shall meet at a time and place agreed upon by the counties and cities involved. It shall organize by electing a chairman and any other officers that the resolution specifies or that the commission considers advisable. The commission may adopt bylaws for the conduct of its business. All commission meetings shall be open to the public.

The chairman of the commission may appoint any committees authorized by the bylaws. Committee members need not be delegates to the commission. (1961, c. 722, s. 3; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 153A-395. Powers and duties.

A regional planning commission may:

- (1) Apply for, accept, receive, and disburse funds, grants, and services made available to it by the State of North Carolina or any agency thereof, the federal government or any agency thereof, any unit of local government or any agency thereof, or any private or civic agency;
- (2) Employ personnel;
- (3) Contract with consultants;
- (4) Contract for services with the State of North Carolina, any other state, the United States, or any agency of those governments;
- (5) Study and inventory regional goals, resources, and problems;
- (6) Prepare and amend regional development plans, which may include recommendations for land use within the region, recommendations concerning the need for and general location of public works of regional concern, recommendations for economic development of the region, and any other relevant matters;
- (7) Cooperate with and provide assistance to federal, State, other regional, and local planning activities within the region;
- (8) Encourage local efforts toward economic development;
- (9) Make recommendations for review and action to its member governments and other public agencies that perform functions within the region;
- (10) Exercise any other power necessary to the discharge of its duties. (1961, c. 722, s. 3; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 153A-396. Fiscal affairs.

Each county and city having membership in a regional planning commission may appropriate to the commission revenues not otherwise limited as to use by law. Services of personnel, use of equipment and office space, and other services may be made available to a commission by its member governments as a part of their financial support. (1961, c. 722, s. 3; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 153A-397. Reports.

Each regional planning commission shall prepare and distribute to its member governments and make available to the public an annual report of its activities, including a financial statement. (1961, c. 722, s. 3; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 153A-398. Regional planning and economic development commissions.

Two or more counties, cities, or counties and cities may create a regional planning and economic development commission by adopting identical concurrent resolutions to that effect. Such a commission has the powers granted by this Article and the powers granted by Chapter 158, Article 2. If such a commission is created, it shall maintain separate books of account for appropriations and expenditures made pursuant to this Article and for appropriations and expenditures made pursuant to Chapter 158, Article 2. (1961, c. 722, s. 3; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

ARTICLE 20.

Consolidation and Governmental Study Commissions.

§ 153A-401. Establishment; support.

(a) Two or more counties or cities or counties and cities may by concurrent resolutions of their governing bodies establish a charter or governmental study commission as provided in this section:

- (1) Two or more counties that are contiguous or that lie within a continuous boundary may create a commission to study the consolidation of the counties or of one or more functions and services of the counties.
- (2) Two or more cities that are contiguous or that lie within a continuous boundary may create a commission to study the consolidation of the cities or of one or more functions and services of the cities.
- (3) A county and one or more cities within the county may create a commission to study the consolidation of the county and the city or cities or of one or more of their functions and services.

(b) A county or city that participates in the establishment of a commission pursuant to this Article may appropriate for the support of the commission any revenues not otherwise limited as to use by law. (1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 153A-402. Purposes of a commission.

A commission established pursuant to this Article may be charged with any of the following purposes:

- (1) To study the powers, duties, functions, responsibilities, and organizational structures of the counties or cities that established the commission and of other units of local government and public agencies within those counties or cities;
- (2) To prepare a report on its studies and findings;
- (3) To prepare a plan for consolidating one or more functions and services of the governments that established the commission;
- (4) To prepare drafts of any agreements or legislation necessary to effect the consolidation of one or more functions and services;
- (5) To prepare a plan for consolidating into a single government some or all of the governments that established the commission;
- (6) To prepare drafts of any legislation necessary to effect the plan of governmental consolidation;
- (7) To call a referendum, as provided in G.S. 153A-405, on the plan of governmental consolidation. (1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 153A-403. Content of concurrent resolutions.

The concurrent resolutions establishing a commission shall:

- (1) Set forth the purposes that are to be vested in the commission pursuant to G.S. 153A-402;
- (2) Determine the composition of the commission, the manner of appointment of its members, and the manner of selection of its officers;
- (3) Determine the compensation, if any, to be paid to commission members;
- (4) Provide for the organizational meeting of the commission;
- (5) Set out the method for determining the financial support that will be given to the commission by each of the governments establishing the commission;
- (6) Set forth the date by which the commission is to complete its work;
- (7) Set forth any other directions or limitations considered necessary. (1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 153A-404. Powers of a commission.

A commission established pursuant to this Article may:

- (1) Adopt rules and regulations for the conduct of its business;
- (2) Apply for, accept, receive, and disburse funds, grants, and services made available to it by the State of North Carolina or any agency thereof, the federal government or any agency thereof, any unit of local government, or any private or civic agency;
- (3) Employ personnel;
- (4) Contract with consultants;
- (5) Hold hearings in the furtherance of its business;
- (6) Take any other action necessary or expedient to the furtherance of its business. (1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 153A-405. Referendum; General Assembly action.

(a) If authorized to do so by the concurrent resolutions that established it, a commission may call a referendum on its proposed plan of governmental consolidation. If authorized or directed in the concurrent resolutions, the ballot question may include the assumption of debt secured by a pledge of faith and credit language and may also include the assumption of the right to issue authorized but unissued faith and credit debt language as provided in subsection (b) of this section. The referendum may be held on the same day as any other referendum or election in the county or counties involved, but may not otherwise be held during the period beginning 30 days before and ending 30 days after the day of any other referendum or election to be conducted by the board or boards of elections conducting the referendum and already validly called or scheduled by law.

(b) The proposition submitted to the voters shall be substantially in one or more of the following forms and may include part or all of the bracketed language as appropriate and other such modifications as may be needed to reflect the issued debt secured by a pledge of faith and credit of any of the consolidating units or the portion of the authorized but unissued debt secured by a pledge of faith and credit of any of the consolidating units the right to issue which is proposed to be assumed by the consolidated city-county:

- (1) "Shall the County of _____ and the County of _____ be consolidated [and the consolidated unit assume the debt of each secured by a pledge of faith and credit, [the right to issue authorized but unissued debt to be secured by a pledge of faith and credit [(including any such debt as may be authorized for said counties on the date of this referendum)]] and any of said authorized but unissued debt as may be hereafter issued,] and be authorized to levy taxes in an amount sufficient to pay the principal of and the interest on said debt secured by a pledge of faith and credit]?

YES  NO

- (2) "Shall the City of _____ and the City of _____ be consolidated [and the consolidated unit assume the debt of each secured by a pledge of faith and credit, [the right to issue authorized but unissued debt to be secured by a pledge of faith and credit [(including any such debt as may be authorized for said cities on the date of this referendum)] and any of said authorized but unissued debt as may be hereafter issued,] and be authorized to levy taxes in an amount sufficient to pay the principal of and the interest on said debt secured by a pledge of faith and credit]?

YES  NO

- (3) "Shall the City of _____ and the County of _____ be consolidated [and the consolidated unit assume the debt of each secured by a pledge of faith and credit, [the right to issue authorized but unissued debt to be secured by a pledge of faith and credit [(including any such debt as may be authorized for said city or county on the date of this referendum)] and any of said authorized but unissued debt as may be hereafter issued,] and be authorized to levy taxes in an amount sufficient to pay the principal of and the interest on said debt secured by a pledge of faith and credit]?

YES  NO

(c) The proposition submitted to the voters shall be substantially in one of the following forms:

- (1) "Shall the County of _____ and the County of _____ be consolidated?

YES  NO

- (2) "Shall the City of _____ and the City of _____ be consolidated?

YES  NO

- (3) "Shall the City of _____ and the County of _____ be consolidated?

YES  NO

(d) If the proposition is to consolidate two or more counties or to consolidate two or more cities, to be approved it must receive the votes of a majority of those voting in each of the counties or cities, as the case may be. If the proposition is to consolidate one or more cities with a county, to be approved it must receive the votes of a majority of those voting in the referendum. In addition, no governmental consolidation may become effective until enacted into law by the General Assembly.

(e) Subsection (b) of this section applies to any county that has (i) a population over 120,000 according to the most recent federal decennial census and (ii) an area of less than 200 square miles. Subsection (c) of this section applies to all other counties. If any subsection or provision of this section is declared unconstitutional or invalid by the courts, it does not affect the validity of the section as a whole or any part other than the part so declared to be unconstitutional or invalid, provided that if the classifications in subsections (b) and (c) of this section are held unconstitutional or invalid then subsection (c) of this section is repealed and subsection (b) of this section shall be applicable uniformly to all counties. (1973, c. 822, s. 1; 1995, c. 461, s. 5; 1995 (Reg. Sess., 1996), c. 742, s. 38.)

ARTICLE 22.

*Regional Solid Waste Management Authorities.§ 153A-421. Definitions; applicability; creation of authorities.

(a) Unless a different meaning is required by the context, terms relating to the management of solid waste used in this Article have the same meaning as in G.S. 130A-2 and in G.S. 130A-290. As used in this Article, the term "solid waste" means nonhazardous solid waste, that is, solid waste as defined in G.S. 130A-290 but not including hazardous waste. In addition to the meaning set out in G.S. 130A-290, the term "unit of local government" means the Eastern Band of the Cherokee Indians in North Carolina.

(b) This Article shall not be construed to authorize any authority created pursuant to this Article to regulate or manage hazardous waste. An authority created under this Article may manage sludges, other than a sludge that is a hazardous waste, under rules of the Commission for Health Services and criteria established by the Department of Environment and Natural Resources for the management of sludge.

(c) Any two or more units of local government may create a regional solid waste management authority by adopting substantially identical resolutions to that effect in accordance with the provisions of this Article. The resolutions creating a regional solid waste management authority and any amendments thereto are referred to in this Article as the "charter" of the regional solid waste management authority. Units of local government which participate in the creation of a regional solid waste management authority are referred to in this Article as "members".

(d) As used in G.S. 153A-427(a)(24), the term "transferred" means placed at or delivered to any (i) place normally and customarily used by the authority for the collection of solid waste, (ii) other place agreed upon by the generator or owner of recyclable materials and the authority, or (iii) facility owned, operated, or designated by the authority. (1989 (Reg. Sess., 1990), c. 888, s. 1; 1991, c. 580, s. 2; 1991 (Reg. Sess., 1992), c. 932, s. 4; c. 948, s. 1; 1997-443, s. 11A.123.)

§ 153A-422. Purposes of an authority.

The purpose of a regional solid waste management authority is to provide environmentally sound, cost effective management of solid waste, including storage, collection, transporting, separation, processing, recycling, and disposal of solid waste in order to protect the public health, safety, and welfare; enhance the environment for the people of this State; and recover resources and energy which have the potential for further use and to encourage, implement and promote the purposes set forth in Part 2A of Article 9 of Chapter 130A of the General Statutes. (1989 (Reg. Sess., 1990), c. 888, s. 1.)

§ 153A-423. Membership; board; delegates.

(a) Each unit of local government initially adopting a resolution under G.S. 153A-421 shall become a member of the regional solid waste management authority. Thereafter, any unit of local government may join the authority by ratifying its charter and by being admitted by a unanimous vote of the existing members. All of the rights and privileges of membership in a regional solid waste management authority shall be exercised on behalf of the member units of local government by a board composed of delegates to the authority who shall be appointed by and shall serve at the pleasure of the governing boards of their respective units of local government. A vacancy on the board shall be filled by appointment by the governing board of the unit of local government having the original appointment.

(b) Any delegate appointed by a member unit of local government to an authority created pursuant to this Article who is a county commissioner or city or town alderman or commissioner serves on the board of the authority in an ex officio capacity and such service shall not constitute the holding of an office for the purpose of determining dual office holding under Section 9 of Article VI of the Constitution of North Carolina or of Article 1 of Chapter 128 of the General Statutes. (1989 (Reg. Sess., 1990), c. 888, s. 1.)

§ 153A-424. Contents of charter.

(a) The charter of a regional solid waste management authority shall:

- (1) Specify the name of the authority;
- (2) Establish the powers, duties and functions that the authority may exercise and perform;
- (3) Establish the number of delegates to represent the member units of local government and prescribe the compensation and allowances, if any, to be paid to delegates;
- (4) Set out the method of determining the financial support that will be given to the authority by each member unit of local government; and
- (5) Establish a method for amending the charter, and for dissolving the authority and liquidating its assets and liabilities.

(b) The charter of a regional solid waste management authority may, but need not, contain rules for the conduct of authority business and any other matter pertaining to the organization, powers, and functioning of the authority that the member units of local government deem appropriate. (1989 (Reg. Sess., 1990), c. 888, s. 1.)

§ 153A-425. Organization of authorities.

The governing board of a regional solid waste management authority shall hold an initial organizational meeting at such time and place as is agreed upon by its member units of local government and shall elect a chairman and any other officers that the charter may specify or the delegates may deem advisable. The authority shall then adopt bylaws for the conduct of its business. All meetings of regional solid waste management authorities shall be subject to the provisions of Article 33C of Chapter 143 of the General Statutes. (1989 (Reg. Sess., 1990), c. 888, s. 1.)

§ 153A-426. Withdrawal from an authority.

If the authority has no outstanding indebtedness, any member may withdraw from a regional solid waste management authority effective at the end of the current fiscal year by giving at least six months notice in writing to each of the other members. Withdrawal of a member shall not dissolve the authority if at least two members remain. (1989 (Reg. Sess., 1990), c. 888, s. 1.)

§ 153A-427. Powers of an authority.

(a) The charter may confer on the regional solid waste management authority any or all of the following powers:

- (1) To apply for, accept, receive, and disburse funds and grants made available to it by the State or any agency thereof, the United States of America or any agency thereof, any unit of local government whether or not a member of the authority, any private or civic agency, and any persons, firms, or corporations;
- (2) To employ personnel;
- (3) To contract with consultants;
- (4) To contract with the United States of America or any agency or instrumentality thereof, the State or any agency, instrumentality, political subdivision, or municipality thereof, or any private corporation, partnership, association, or individual, providing for the acquisition, construction, improvement, enlargement, operation or maintenance of any solid waste management facility, or providing for any solid waste management services;
- (5) To adopt bylaws for the regulation of its affairs and the conduct of its business and to prescribe rules and policies in connection with the performance of its functions and duties, not inconsistent with this Article;
- (6) To adopt an official seal and alter the same;
- (7) To establish and maintain suitable administrative buildings or offices at such place or places as it may determine by purchase, construction, lease, or other arrangements either by the authority alone or through appropriate cost-sharing arrangements with any unit of local government or other person;
- (8) To sue and be sued in its own name, and to plead and be impleaded;
- (9) To receive, administer, and comply with the conditions and requirements respecting any gift, grant, or donation of any property or money;
- (10) To acquire by purchase, lease, gift, or otherwise, or to obtain options for the acquisition of any property, real or personal, improved or unimproved, including an interest in land less than the fee thereof;
- (11) To sell, lease, exchange, transfer, or otherwise dispose of, or to grant options for any such purposes with respect to any real or personal property or interest therein;
- (12) To pledge, assign, mortgage, or otherwise grant a security interest in any real or personal property or interest therein, including the right and power to pledge, assign, or otherwise grant a security interest in any money, rents, charges, or other revenues and any proceeds derived by an authority from any and all sources;
- (13) To issue revenue bonds of the authority and enter into other financial arrangements including those permitted by this Chapter and Chapters 159, 159I, and 160A of the General Statutes to finance solid waste management activities, including but not limited to systems and facilities for waste reduction, materials recovery, recycling, resource recovery, landfilling, ash management, and disposal and for related support facilities, to refund any revenue bonds or notes issued by the authority, whether or not in advance of their maturity or earliest redemption date, or to provide funds for other corporate purposes of the authority;
- (14) With the approval of any unit of local government, to use officers, employees, agents, and facilities of the unit of local government for such purposes and upon such terms as may be mutually agreeable;
- (15) To develop and make data, plans, information, surveys, and studies of solid waste management facilities within the territorial jurisdiction of the members of the authority, to prepare and make recommendations in regard thereto;

- (16) To study, plan, design, construct, operate, acquire, lease, and improve systems and facilities, including systems and facilities for waste reduction, materials recovery, recycling, resource recovery, landfilling, ash management, household hazardous waste management, transportation, disposal, and public education regarding solid waste management, in order to provide environmentally sound, cost-effective management of solid waste including storage, collection, transporting, separation, processing, recycling, and disposal of solid waste in order to protect the public health, safety, and welfare; to enhance the environment for the people of this State; recover resources and energy which have the potential for further use, and to promote and implement the purposes set forth in Part 2A of Article 9 of Chapter 130A of the General Statutes;
- (17) To locate solid waste facilities, including ancillary support facilities, as the authority may see fit;
- (18) To assume any responsibility for disposal and management of solid waste imposed by law on any member unit of local government;
- (19) To operate such facilities together with any person, firm, corporation, the State, any entity of the State, or any unit of local government as appropriate and otherwise permitted by its charter and the laws of this State;
- (20) To set and collect such fees and charges as is reasonable to offset operating costs, debt service, and capital reserve requirements of the authority;
- (21) To apply to the appropriate agencies of the State, the United States of America or any state thereof, and to any other appropriate agency for such permits, licenses, certificates, or approvals as may be necessary, and to construct, maintain, and operate projects in accordance with such permits, licenses, certificates, or approvals in the same manner as any other person or operating unit of any other person;
- (22) To employ engineers, architects, attorneys, real estate counselors, appraisers, financial advisors, and such other consultants and employees as may be required in the judgment of the authority, to fix and pay their compensation from funds available to the authority therefor, to select and retain, subject to approval of the Local Government Commission, the financial consultants, underwriters, and bond attorneys to be associated with the issuance of any revenue bonds, and to pay for services rendered by financial consultants, underwriters, or bond attorneys from funds available to the authority including the proceeds of any revenue bond issue with regard to which the services were performed;
- (23) To acquire property located within the territorial jurisdiction of any member unit of local government by eminent domain pursuant to authority granted to counties;
- (24) To require that any and all (i) solid waste generated within the authority's service area and (ii) recyclable materials generated within the authority's service area and transferred to the authority be separated and delivered to specific locations and facilities provided that if a private landfill shall be substantially affected by such requirement then the regional solid waste management authority shall be required to give the operator of the affected landfill at least two years written notice prior to the effective date of the requirement; and
- (25) To do all things necessary, convenient, or desirable to carry out the purposes and to exercise the powers granted to an authority under its charter.

(b) The acquisition and disposal of real and personal property by an authority created under this Article shall be governed by those provisions of the General Statutes which govern the acquisition and disposal of real and personal property by counties. No authority created pursuant to this Article shall exercise any power of eminent domain with respect to any property located outside the territorial jurisdiction of the members of such authority.

(c) Each authority's plan shall take into consideration facilities and other resources for management of solid waste which may be available through private enterprise. This Article shall be construed to encourage the involvement and participation of private enterprise in solid waste management. (1989 (Reg. Sess., 1990), c. 888, s. 1; 1991, c. 580, s. 1.)

§ 153A-428. Fiscal accountability; support from other governments.

(a) A regional solid waste management authority is a public authority subject to the provisions of Chapter 159 of the General Statutes.

(b) The establishment and operation of an authority as herein authorized are governmental functions and constitute a public purpose, and the State and any unit of local government may appropriate funds to support the establishment and operation of an authority.

(c) The State and any unit of local government may also dedicate, sell, convey, donate, or lease any of their interests in any property to an authority. (1989 (Reg. Sess., 1990), c. 888, s. 1.)

§ 153A-429. Long-term contract permitted by and with an authority.

(a) To the extent authorized by its charter, an authority may enter into long-term and continuing contracts, not to exceed a term of 60 years, with member or other units of local government for the acquisition, construction, improvement, enlargement, operation, or maintenance of any solid waste management facility or for solid waste management services with respect to solid waste generated within their geographic boundaries or brought into their geographic boundaries.

(b) Contracts entered into by an authority may include, but are not limited to, provisions for:

- (1) Payment by the members of the authority and other units of local government of a fee or other charge by the authority to accept and dispose of solid waste;
- (2) Periodic adjustments to the fee or other charges to be paid by each member of the authority and such other units of local government;
- (3) Warranties from the members of the authority and such other units of local government with respect to the quantity of the solid waste which will be delivered to the authority and warranties relating to the content or quality of the solid waste; and
- (4) Legal and equitable title to the solid waste passing to the authority upon delivery of the solid waste to the authority. (1989 (Reg. Sess., 1990), c. 888, s. 1.)

§ 153A-430. Compliance with other law.

(a) Repealed by Session Laws 1989 (Regular Session, 1990), c. 1004, s. 47.

(b) An authority created pursuant to this Article shall comply with all applicable federal and State laws, regulations, and rules, including specifically those enacted or adopted for the management of solid waste or for the protection of the environment or public health.

(c) Except as provided by subsection (d) of this section, a unit of local government that is exempt from compliance with State laws or rules enacted or adopted for the management of solid waste or for the protection of the environment shall, by becoming a member of a regional solid waste management authority created under this Article and as a condition of such membership, agree to comply with and to be bound by all applicable federal and State laws, regulations, and rules enacted or adopted for the management of solid waste and for the protection of the environment with respect to all solid waste management activities of the authority within the territorial jurisdiction of the unit of local government and with respect to all solid waste management activities performed by the unit of local government in connection with membership in the authority.

(d) A unit of local government that is exempt from compliance with State laws or rules enacted or adopted for the management of solid waste shall obtain all permits that may be necessary for the conduct of solid waste management activities within the territorial jurisdiction of the unit of local government as provided by federal law and regulations. Responsibility for the enforcement of laws, regulations, and rules enacted or adopted for the management of solid waste within the territorial jurisdiction of a unit of local government that is exempt from compliance with State laws or rules enacted or adopted for the management of solid waste shall be as provided by federal law and regulations. (1989 (Reg. Sess., 1990), c. 888, s. 1; c. 1004, s. 47; c. 1075, s. 5; 1991 (Reg. Sess., 1992), c. 948, s. 2.)

§ 153A-431. Issuance of revenue bonds and notes.

The State and Local Government Revenue Bond Act, Article 5 of Chapter 159 of the General Statutes, governs the issuance of revenue bonds by an authority. Article 9 of Chapter 159 of the General Statutes governs the issuance of notes in anticipation of the sale of revenue bonds. (1989 (Reg. Sess., 1990), c. 888, s. 1.)

§ 153A-432. Advances.

Any member or other units of local government may make advances from any monies that may be available for such purpose, in connection with the creation of an authority and to provide for the preliminary expenses of an authority. Any such advances may be repaid to such member or other units of local government from the proceeds of the revenue bonds or anticipation notes issued by such authority or from funds otherwise available to the authority. (1989 (Reg. Sess., 1990), c. 888, s. 1.)

§§ 153A-433, 153A-434: Reserved for future codification purposes.

ARTICLE 23.

Miscellaneous Provisions.

§ 153A-435. Liability insurance; damage suits against a county involving governmental functions.

(a) A county may contract to insure itself and any of its officers, agents, or employees against liability for wrongful death or negligent or intentional damage to person or property or against absolute liability for damage to person or property caused by an act or omission of the county or of any of its officers, agents, or employees when acting within the scope of their authority and the course of their employment. The board of commissioners shall determine what liabilities and what officers, agents, and employees shall be covered by any insurance purchased pursuant to this subsection.

Purchase of insurance pursuant to this subsection waives the county's governmental immunity, to the extent of insurance coverage, for any act or omission occurring in the exercise of a governmental function. Participation in a local government risk pool pursuant to Article 39 of General Statute Chapter 58 shall be deemed to be the purchase of insurance for the purposes of this section. By entering into an insurance contract with the county, an insurer waives any defense based upon the governmental immunity of the county.

(b) If a county has waived its governmental immunity pursuant to subsection (a) of this section, any person, or if he dies, his personal representative, sustaining damages as a result of an act or omission of the county or any of its officers, agents, or employees, occurring in the exercise of a governmental function, may sue the county for recovery of damages. To the extent of the coverage of insurance purchased pursuant to subsection (a) of this section, governmental immunity may not be a defense to the action. Otherwise, however, the county has all defenses available to private litigants in any action brought pursuant to this section without restriction, limitation, or other effect, whether the defense arises from common law or by virtue of a statute.

Despite the purchase of insurance as authorized by subsection (a) of this section, the liability of a county for acts or omissions occurring in the exercise of governmental functions does not attach unless the plaintiff waives the right to have all issues of law or fact relating to insurance in the action determined by a jury. The judge shall hear and determine these issues without resort to a jury, and the jury shall be absent during any motion, argument, testimony, or announcement of findings of fact or conclusions of law relating to these issues unless the defendant requests a jury trial on them. (1955, c. 911, s. 1; 1973, c. 822, s. 1; 1985 (Reg. Sess., 1986), c. 1027, s. 27.)

CASE NOTES

Editor's Note. — Many of the cases cited below were decided under corresponding sections of former law.

Construction with Other Provisions. — The jurisdictional provisions of § 153A-435(b) control whenever they conflict with the jurisdictional provisions of § 143-291(a). Meyer v. Walls, 122 N.C. App. 507, 471 S.E.2d 422 (1996), aff'd in part and rev'd in part, 347 N.C. 97, 489 S.E.2d 880 (1997).

Waiver of Immunity by Local Agencies.

— Since cities and counties can waive their immunity by purchasing liability insurance, local agencies of the state such as a county ABC Board can likewise waive their immunity by purchasing such insurance. McNeill v. Durham County ABC Bd., 87 N.C. App. 50, 359 S.E.2d 500 (1987), modified on other grounds, 322 N.C. 425, 368 S.E.2d 619, rehearing denied, 322 N.C. 838, 371 S.E.2d 278 (1988).-

A governmental entity generally retains immunity from civil liability in its governmental capacity to the extent it does not purchase liability insurance or participate in a local government risk pool pursuant to statute. Kephart v. Pendergraph, 131 N.C. App. 559, 507 S.E.2d 915 (1998).

Waiver of Immunity by Nonprofit Fire Company. — Defendant, a nonprofit fire company employed by the county, was liable for plaintiff's injuries in a nonfire related rescue attempt only to the extent of their insurance coverage, since they had governmental immunity up to their insurance coverages and were engaged in duties other than the suppression of a reported fire. Geiger v. Guilford College Community Volunteer Firemen's Ass'n, 668 F. Supp. 492 (M.D.N.C. 1987).

County Department of Social Services. — Since County Department of Social Services was not a state agency, the Tort Claims act did not apply to claim against the Department. Meyer v. Walls, 347 N.C. 97, 489 S.E.2d 880 (1997).

Waiver of Immunity by County. — A county may waive its immunity by purchasing liability insurance to the extent of the insurance coverage. Marlowe v. Piner, 119 N.C. App. 125, 458 S.E.2d 220 (1995).

Constituted Waiver of Immunity. — By requiring a security company to obtain an insurance policy and to name the county as an additional insured, the county contracted, within the meaning of this section, to have itself insured and, thus, waived its governmental immunity. Wood v. Guilford County, 143 N.C. App. 507, 546 S.E.2d 641 (2001).

Actions Against Sheriffs. — The legislature has prescribed two ways for a sheriff to be sued in his official capacity, § 58-76-5 and this section. Smith v. Phillips, 117 N.C. App. 378, 451 S.E.2d 309 (1994).

Inclusion of the sheriff in the county's liability insurance policy did not serve to make the county liable for the sheriff's actions or a proper or necessary defendant in plaintiff's action against the sheriff for illegal seizure of plaintiff's property. Goodwin v. Furr, 25 F. Supp. 2d 713 (M.D.N.C. 1998).

Sheriffs Not Specified as Local Officials. — This section provides for the availability of insurance for county officials sued for negligence in their official capacity, but does not identify the sheriff or his deputies as local officials nor specify judgments against them will be paid by counties. Braswell v. Ellis, 950 F. Supp. 145 (E.D.N.C. 1995).

Local Government Risk Pool. — The county's self-funded loss program was not a "local government risk pool," for purposes of determining whether that program waived the county's governmental immunity, since the county was the sole entity retaining risks and funds under the program. Kephart v.

Pendergraph, 131 N.C. App. 559, 507 S.E.2d 915 (1998).

Proof of Waiver of Immunity. — Where plaintiff alleged and offered proof of the county's liability insurance policy, the trial court properly denied defendants' motion to dismiss based upon governmental immunity. Smith v. Phillips, 117 N.C. App. 378, 451 S.E.2d 309 (1994).

Self-funded Loss Program Not Insurance. — The county's self-funded loss program did not constitute insurance for purposes of waiving governmental immunity. Kephart v. Pendergraph, 131 N.C. App. 559, 507 S.E.2d 915 (1998).

Immunity Not Waived by Ambulance Service. — Defendant/county-operated ambulance service did not waive its immunity for claims totaling less than $250,000 since it was only insured for negligence claims equal to or above that amount. McIver v. Smith, 134 N.C. App. 583, 518 S.E.2d 522 (1999).

Immunity Not Waived as to Employees and Premises Not Included in Policy. — A policy of insurance affording protection to a county against liability caused by negligence of named personnel and employees of the county and covering listed and described premises does not waive the county's governmental immunity for negligence in the operation of a public library when the employees of the library and library premises are not included in the policy. Seibold v. City of Kinston, 268 N.C. 615, 151 S.E.2d 654 (1966).

Immunity Not Waived Where Action Excluded from Coverage. — Because an insurance policy did not indemnify the defendant county against the negligent acts alleged in the plaintiff's complaint, the county had not waived its sovereign immunity. Doe v. Jenkins, 144 N.C. App. 131, 547 S.E.2d 124 (2001).

Liability Not Waived Where Action Excluded from Coverage. — Because county liability insurance policy excluded libel action from coverage, the county did not waive its governmental immunity as to this action by purchasing the policy. Dickens v. Thorne, 110 N.C. App. 39, 429 S.E.2d 176 (1993).

Liability for Injury on Public Walk Within Courthouse Grounds. — The liability of a county for injuries sustained by a pedestrian falling on a public walk within the courthouse grounds is no more extensive than the liability of a city to a pedestrian falling upon a public sidewalk maintained by the city. Cook v. County of Burke, 272 N.C. 94, 157 S.E.2d 611 (1967).

Failure to Protect Minors. — For case reversing summary judgment in favor of defendants county and social worker in case alleging their tort liability for failure to protect minors from harm, see Coleman v. Cooper, 89 N.C. App.

188, 366 S.E.2d 2, cert. denied, 322 N.C. 834, 371 S.E.2d 275 (1988).

Superior Court Jurisdiction. — Where sovereign immunity is waived by the purchase of liability insurance, subject matter jurisdiction is statutorily vested in the superior court. Meyer v. Walls, 122 N.C. App. 507, 471 S.E.2d 422 (1996), aff'd in part and rev'd in part, 347 N.C. 97, 489 S.E.2d 880 (1997).

Jurisdiction of Federal Courts. — Former § 153-9(44), similar to this section, providing that the injured person could sue “in any court of competent jurisdiction in such county,” did not attempt to limit jurisdiction to a State court in such county, nor to a court of such county; the United States District Court was a court of competent jurisdiction in the county. Moreover, even if the legislative intent was to deprive the federal court of jurisdiction, it could not do so, as federal jurisdiction cannot be defeated by a State statute prescribing the court in which an action is to be brought. Knighon v. Johnston County, 330 F. Supp. 652 (E.D.N.C. 1971).

Allegations of Complaint. — It is appropriate for the complaint to contain allegations regarding liability insurance and waiver of governmental immunity. Wilkie v. Henderson County, 1 N.C. App. 155, 160 S.E.2d 505 (1968).

When suing a county or its officers, agents or employees, the complainant must allege waiver of immunity by a county contracting to insure itself in order to recover. Absent an allegation to the effect that immunity has been waived, the complaint fails to state a cause of action against the county. Clark v. Burke County, 117 N.C. App. 85, 450 S.E.2d 747 (1994).

Protection against prejudice is afforded by providing that no part of the pleadings relating to liability insurance shall be read or mentioned in the presence of the trial jury. Wilkie v. Henderson County, 1 N.C. App. 155, 160 S.E.2d 505 (1968).

Where a county is covered by a policy of liability insurance, the question of governmental immunity from suit from injuries caused by alleged negligence does not arise with reference to the validity of a judgment of nonsuit. Cook v. County of Burke, 272 N.C. 94, 157 S.E.2d 611 (1967).

Damage Limitations. — Where government entities waive the defense of sovereign immunity by their purchase of liability insurance, recoverable damages are capped at policy limits. Meyer v. Walls, 122 N.C. App. 507, 471 S.E.2d 422 (1996), aff'd in part and rev'd in part, 347 N.C. 97, 489 S.E.2d 880 (1997).

§ 153A-436. Photographic reproduction of county records.

(a) A county may provide for the reproduction, by photocopy, photograph, microphotograph, or any other method of reproduction that gives legible and permanent copies, of instruments, documents, and other papers filed with the register of deeds and of any other county records. The county shall keep each reproduction of an instrument, document, paper, or other record in a fire-resistant file, vault, or similar container. If a duplicate reproduction is made to provide a security-copy, the county shall keep the duplicate in a fire-resistant file, vault, or similar container separate from that housing the principal reproduction.

If a county has provided for reproducing records, any custodian of public records of the county may cause to be reproduced any of the records under, or coming under, his custody.

(b) If a county has provided for reproducing some or all county records, the custodian of any instrument, document, paper, or other record may permit it to be removed from its regular repository for up to 24 hours in order to be reproduced. An instrument, document, paper or other record may be removed from the county in order to be reproduced. The board of commissioners may permit an instrument, document, paper, or other record to be removed for longer than 24 hours if a longer period is necessary to complete the process of reproduction.

(c) The original of any instrument, document, or other paper received by the register of deeds and reproduced pursuant to this Article shall be filed, maintained, and disposed of in accordance with G.S. 161-17 and G.S. 121-5. The original of any other county record that is reproduced pursuant to this Article may be kept by the county or disposed of pursuant to G.S. 121-5.

(d) If an instrument, document, or other paper received by the register of deeds is reproduced pursuant to this Article, the recording of the reproduction is a sufficient recording for all purposes.

(e) A reproduction, made pursuant to this Article, of an instrument, document, paper, or other record is as admissible in evidence in any judicial or administrative proceeding as the original itself, whether the original is extant or not. An enlargement or other facsimile of the reproduction is also admissible in evidence if the original reproduction is extant and available for inspection under the direction of the court or administrative agency.

(f) The provisions of this section shall apply to records stored on any form of permanent, computer-readable media, such as a CD-ROM, if the medium is not subject to erasure or alteration. Nonerasable, computer-readable storage media shall not be used for preservation duplicates, as defined in G.S. 132-8.2, or for the preservation of permanently valuable records as provided in G.S. 121-5(d), except to the extent expressly approved by the Department of Cultural Resources pursuant to standards and conditions established by the Department. (1945, c. 286, ss. 1-7; c. 944; 1951, c. 19, ss. 1-6; 1953, c. 675, ss. 23, 24; 1957, c. 330, s. 3; 1973, c. 822, s. 1; 1999-131, s. 4; 1999-456, s. 47(d).)

§ 153A-437. Assistance to historical organizations.

(a) A county or city may appropriate revenues not otherwise limited as to use by law to a local historical or preservation society, museum, or other similar organization. Before such an appropriation may be made, the recipient organization shall adopt and present to the county or city a resolution requesting the funds and describing the intended use of the funds. The funds may be used for preserving historic sites, buildings, structures, areas, or objects; for recording and publishing materials relating to the history of the area; for establishing or maintaining historical museums or projects; for paying salaries of personnel employed in such museums or projects; for the costs of acquiring, recording, and maintaining materials and equipment; and for any other purposes that are approved by the county or city and that contribute to the preservation of historic sites, buildings, structures, areas, or objects, or historic materials. The ordinance making the appropriation shall state specifically what the appropriation is to be used for, and the governing board of the county or city shall require that the recipient account for the appropriation at the close of the fiscal year.

(b) A county or city, a board of education, or the board of trustees of a public library may make available space in a building under its control to a local historical society, historical museum, or other historical organization.

(c) This section is supplemental to and does not supersede any other law. (1955, c. 371, ss. 1-4; 1957, c. 398; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

Legal Periodicals. — For article discussing government in North Carolina, see 17 Wake legal issues of historic preservation for local Forest L. Rev. 707 (1981).

§ 153A-438. Beach erosion control and flood and hurricane protection works.

A county may appropriate revenues not otherwise limited as to use by law to finance the acquisition, construction, reconstruction, extension, maintenance, improvement, or enlargement of groins, jetties, dikes, moles, walls, sand dunes, vegetation, or other types of works or improvements that are designed for controlling beach erosion, for protection from hurricane floods, or for preserving or restoring facilities and natural features that afford protection to the beaches and other land areas of the county and to the life and property of the county. (1965, c. 307, s. 1; 1971, c. 1159, s. 3; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 153A-439. Support of extension activities; personnel rules for extension employees.

A county may support the work of the North Carolina Agricultural Extension Service and for these purposes may appropriate revenues not otherwise limited as to use by law.

If a county adopts rules and regulations concerning annual leave, sick leave, hours of employment, and holidays that apply to county employees generally, these rules and regulations apply to county extension employees. Otherwise, the rules and regulations adopted by the North Carolina Agricultural Extension Service concerning these matters apply to county extension employees. (1911, c. 1; C.S., s. 1297; 1957, c. 1004, s. 5; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 153A-440. Promotion of soil and water conservation work.

A county may cooperate with and support the work of the Federal Soil Conservation Service and the State and local soil and water conservation agencies and districts and for these purposes may appropriate revenues not otherwise limited as to use by law. (1959, c. 1213; 1961, cc. 266, 290, 301, 579, 581, 582, 584, 656, 693, 705, 809, 1126; 1963, cc. 290, 701; 1965, cc. 531, 702; 1967, c. 319; 1969, c. 64, s. 1; c. 174, s. 1; c. 1003, s. 1; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 153A-440.1. Watershed improvement programs; drainage and water resources development projects.

(a) A county may establish and maintain a county watershed improvement program pursuant to G.S. 139-41 or 139-41.1 and for these purposes may appropriate funds not otherwise limited as to use by law. A county watershed improvement program or project may also be financed pursuant to G.S. 153A-301, G.S. 153A-185 or by any other financing method available to counties for this purpose.

(b) A county may establish and maintain drainage projects and water resources development projects (as those projects are defined by G.S. 153A-301) and for these purposes may appropriate funds not otherwise limited as to use by law. A county drainage project or water resources development project may also be financed pursuant to G.S. 153A-301, G.S. 153A-185, or by any other financing method available to counties for this purpose. (1981, c. 251, s. 2; 1983, c. 321, ss. 5, 6.)

§ 153A-441. County surveyor.

A county may appoint a person registered as a land surveyor pursuant to Chapter 89 as county surveyor. (Const., art. 7, s. 1; Rev., s. 4296; C. S., s. 1383; 1959, c. 1237, s. 1; 1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

Editor's Note. — Chapter 89, referred to in this section, was rewritten by Session Laws 1975, c. 681, s. 1, and has been recodified as Chapter 89C.

§ 153A-442. Animal shelters.

A county may establish, equip, operate, and maintain an animal shelter or may contribute to the support of an animal shelter, and for these purposes may appropriate funds not otherwise limited as to use by law. (1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 153A-443. Redesignation of site of "courthouse door," etc.

If a county determines that the traditional location of the "courthouse," the "courthouse door," the "courthouse bulletin board" or the "courthouse steps" has become inappropriate or inconvenient for the doing of any act or the posting of any notice required by law to be done or posted at such a site, the county may by ordinance designate some appropriate or more convenient location for the site. The board of commissioners shall cause such an ordinance to be published at least once within 30 days after the day it is adopted and shall cause a copy of it to be posted for 60 days at the traditional location. (1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 153A-444. Parks and recreation.

A county may establish parks and provide recreational programs pursuant to Chapter 160A, Article 18. (1973, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 153A-445. Miscellaneous powers found in Chapter 160A.

(a) A county may take action under the following provisions of Chapter 160A:

- (1) Chapter 160A, Article 20, Part 1. — Joint Exercise of Powers.
- (2) Chapter 160A, Article 20, Part 2. — Regional Councils of Governments.
- (3) G.S. 160A-487. — Financial support for rescue squads.
- (4) G.S. 160A-488. — Art galleries and museums.
- (5) G.S. 160A-492. — Human relations programs.
- (6) G.S. 160A-497. — Senior citizens programs.
- (7) G.S. 160A-489. — Auditoriums, coliseums, and convention and civic centers.
- (8) G.S. 160A-498. — Railroad corridor preservation.

(b) This section is for reference only, and the failure of any section of Chapter 160A to appear in this section does not affect the applicability of that section to counties. (1973, c. 822, s. 1; 1975, c. 19, s. 61; 1979, 2nd Sess., c. 1094, s. 3; 1981, c. 692, s. 3; 1989, c. 600, s. 6.)

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1979, 2nd Sess., c. 1094, which added subdivision (6) of subsection (a), provided in s. 6: "This act is effective upon ratification. All contracts which would be permissible under this act which were entered into on or after April 20, 1979, are hereby validated." The act was ratified on June 17, 1980.

The preamble to Session Laws 1979, 2nd Sess., c. 1094, cited as the reason for the enactment the case of Hughey v. Cloninger, 297 N.C. 86, 253 S.E.2d 898 (1979), requiring statutory authority for third-party contracts.

§ 153A-446. County may offer reward for information as to persons damaging county property.

The board of county commissioners is authorized to offer and pay rewards in an amount not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500.00) for information leading to the arrest and conviction of any person who willfully defaces, damages or destroys, or commits acts of vandalism or larceny of any county property. The amount necessary to pay said rewards shall be an item in the current expense budget of the county. (1975, c. 258.)

§ 153A-447. Certain counties may appropriate funds to Western North Carolina Development Association, Inc.

(a) The board of county commissioners of the counties hereafter named are authorized to appropriate funds to the Western North Carolina Development Association, Inc., for the public good and welfare of said counties. The amount to be expended by each county shall be determined in the discretion of the board of commissioners.

(b) This section shall apply to the counties of Avery, Buncombe, Burke, Cherokee, Clay, Graham, Haywood, Henderson, Jackson, McDowell, Macon, Madison, Mitchell, Polk, Rutherford, Swain, Transylvania, and Yancey. (1979, c. 674, ss. 1, 2.)

§ 153A-448. Mountain ridge protection.

Counties may enact and enforce mountain ridge protection ordinances pursuant to Article 14 of Chapter 113A of the General Statutes, and in such enactment and enforcement shall comply with all applicable provisions of Article 14 unless the county has removed itself from the coverage of Article 14 through the procedure provided by law. (1983, c. 676, s. 2.)

§ 153A-449. Contracts with private entities.

A county may contract with and appropriate money to any person, association, or corporation, in order to carry out any public purpose that the county is authorized by law to engage in. (1985, c. 271, s. 2.)

§ 153A-450. Contracts for construction of satellite campuses of community colleges.

(a) Boards of county commissioners may enter into contracts for the construction of satellite campuses of community colleges, to be located in their counties.

(b) The board of county commissioners of the county in which a satellite campus of a community college is to be constructed shall submit the plans for the satellite facility's construction to the board of trustees of the community college that will be operating the facility for its approval prior to entering into any contract for the construction of the satellite facility.

(c) A satellite facility may be used only as a satellite facility of the community college that operates it and for no other purpose except as approved by the board of trustees of the community college that has been assigned the county where the satellite facility is located as a service delivery area either by an act of the General Assembly or by the State Board of Community Colleges. (1985, c. 757, s. 148(b), (d), (e); 1987, c. 564, ss. 11, 12.)

Part 1. Petition by Individual Owner.

§ 156-1. Supplemental proceeding.

The proceedings initiated under this Chapter may be, to the extent practicable, supplemented by the procedures of Chapter 40A. (Code, s. 1324; Rev., s. 4028; C.S., s. 5260; 1981, c. 919, s. 23.)

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1981, c. 919,

s. 23, effective January 1, 1982, rewrote this section, which formerly provided that the proceeding under this Subchapter should be as prescribed in Article 2 of the Chapter Eminent Domain.

CASE NOTES

As to the constitutionality of this Chapter, see Sanderlin v. Luken, 152 N.C. 738, 68 S.E. 225 (1910); Forehand v. Taylor, 155 N.C. 353, 71 S.E. 433 (1911).

This Chapter comes within the police power of the State. Winslow v. Winslow, 95 N.C. 24 (1886). See also, Porter v. Armstrong, 139 N.C. 179, 51 S.E. 926, petition for rehearing dismissed, 137 N.C. 703, 51 S.E.2d 1036 (1905).

Various Statutes Harmonized. — While the various statutes for the drainage of swamp-lands in eastern North Carolina have not the same provisions in all respects, they have been collected and are to be found in this Chapter, and should be construed to harmonize, and constitute, with such variations, a system of drainage laws for the State. Adams v. Joyner, 147 N.C. 77, 60 S.E. 725 (1908); Sawyer Canal Co. v. Keys, 234 N.C. 360, 67 S.E.2d 259 (1951).

Foundation of Right to Condemn. — The right of the State to condemn land for drains rests on the same foundation as its right in cases of public roads, mills, railroads, school-houses, etc. Norfleet v. Cromwell, 70 N.C. 634 (1874).

The right to drain through the banks of a natural watercourse is exactly similar in character to the right to construct dykes or levees to keep their excessive waters from overflowing the adjacent lands, a right which has been recognized in the legislation of all countries from the most ancient times. Sanderlin v. Luken, 152 N.C. 738, 68 S.E. 225 (1910).

Flexible Procedure Provided. — The statutes authorizing the creation, maintenance and improvements of drainage districts provide flexible procedure which may be modified and molded by decrees from time to time to promote the beneficial objects sought by the creation of the district, subject to the restrictions that there should be no material change nor any change that would impose additional costs upon landowners except to the extent of benefits to them. In re Lyon Swamp Drainage & Levee Dist., 228 N.C. 248, 45 S.E.2d 130 (1947).

The correct procedure to secure additional authority for proper maintenance and improvements in a drainage district is by motion or petition in the original cause. In re Lyon Swamp Drainage & Levee Dist., 228 N.C. 248, 45 S.E.2d 130 (1947).

Power to Issue Bonds and Make Assessments Applicable Only to Section of District Benefited. — Where proposed improvements and repairs will primarily benefit lands embraced in one section of a drainage district and would be of no substantial benefit to landowners in another section thereof, the drainage commissioners have power under statutory authority to issue bonds and make assessments applicable only to the section benefited. In re Lyon Swamp Drainage & Levee Dist., 228 N.C. 248, 45 S.E.2d 130 (1947).

§ 156-2. Petition filed; commissioners appointed.

Any person owning pocosin, swamp, or flatlands, or owning lowlands subject to inundation, which cannot be conveniently drained or embanked so as to drain off or dam out the water from such lands, except by cutting a canal or ditch, or erecting a dam through or upon the lands of other persons, may by petition apply to the superior court of the county in which the lands sought to be drained or embanked or some part of such lands lie, setting forth the particular circumstances of the case, the situation of the land to be drained or embanked, to what outlet and through whose lands he desires to drain, or on what lands he would erect his dam, and who are the proprietors of such lands; whereupon a summons shall be served on each of the proprietors, and, on the hearing of the petition the court shall appoint three persons as commissioners, who shall be duly sworn to do justice between the parties. (1795, c. 436, P.R.; 1852, c. 57, ss. 1, 2; R.C., c. 40, s. 1; Code, s. 1297; Rev., s. 3983; C.S., s. 5261.)

CASE NOTES

Clerk of the superior court has jurisdiction of a proceeding to obtain a right of drainage over the land of an adjoining landowner and to assess damages, etc. Durden v. Simmons, 84 N.C. 555 (1881).

This Chapter and the amendments thereto are the charts which should guide the commissioners, and their decisions, findings and report should conform thereto. Porter v. Armstrong, 139 N.C. 179, 51 S.E. 926, petition for rehearing dismissed, 137 N.C. 703, 51 S.E. 1036 (1905).

This Chapter applies only to artificial outlets made over the land of another to reach a natural watercourse. Mizell v. McGowan, 129 N.C. 93, 39 S.E. 729 (1901).

Readjustment. — When the rights and duties of adjoining landowners as to drainage in a certain canal have been determined under this Chapter, and judgment entered, proceedings subsequently brought for the purpose of readjustment, owing to change of ownership and partition, etc., are in effect a motion in the cause, in which the judgment, unlike a final judgment, is not conclusive; and the cause can be brought forward from time to time, upon notice to the parties, and further decrees made to conform to the exigencies and changes which may arise. Staton v. Staton, 148 N.C. 490, 62 S.E. 596 (1908); Sawyer Canal Co. v. Keys, 234 N.C. 360, 67 S.E.2d 259 (1951).

Joint Petition. — Two or more separate proprietors cannot sustain a joint petition for a ditch to drain their lands, without alleging that a common ditch would drain the lands of all the petitioners. Shaw v. Burfoot, 53 N.C. 344 (1861).

Landowner Must Be Made Party. — An order by the county commissioners (now superior court) appointing appraisers to assess the value of the benefits and damages which would accrue to the owner of land on account of a certain canal sought to be cut through his land, upon the petition of other parties, filed under the provisions of this Chapter, is void, unless said landowner is made a party to the petition. Gamble v. McCrady, 75 N.C. 509 (1876).

Where separate owners have derived their lands subject to a drainage system placed upon the entire tract by the original owner, each one using the system must bear the costs of maintenance and repair required by the portion of the system on his own premises. Lamb v. Lamb, 177 N.C. 150, 98 S.E. 307 (1919).

Water may not be diverted from its natural course so as to damage another, but it may be increased and accelerated. Hocutt v. Wilmington & W.R.R., 124 N.C. 214, 32 S.E. 681 (1899); Mizell v. McGowan, 125 N.C. 439, 34 S.E. 538 (1899); Lassiter v. Norfolk & C.R.R., 126 N.C. 509, 36 S.E. 48 (1900); Mizell v. McGowan, 129 N.C. 93, 39 S.E. 729 (1901); Barcliff v. Norfolk S.R.R., 168 N.C. 268, 84 S.E. 290 (1915).

The owners of swamps, whose waters naturally flow into natural watercourses, may make such canals as are necessary to drain them of the water naturally flowing therein, although in doing so the flow of water in the natural watercourse is increased and accelerated so that the water is discharged on the land of an abutting owner. Mizell v. McGowan, 120 N.C. 134, 26 S.E. 783 (1897).

Liability for Damages from Diversion. — Where a person diverts water from a stream by cutting a channel from it, and at a point lower down the stream turns it back into the old channel, and by its own momentum it is carried on to the lands of an adjoining owner, he is liable for damages. Briscoe v. Young, 131 N.C. 386, 42 S.E. 893 (1902).

One is liable for damages caused to the lands of another by his diverting the natural flow of surface water thereto. Roberts v. Baldwin, 151 N.C. 407, 66 S.E. 346 (1909).

Surface waters should be drained so as to be carried off in the due course of nature. The upper proprietor is liable in damages to the land of the lower proprietor caused by water diverted by his ditches and not carried to a natural waterway. Briscoe v. Parker, 145 N.C. 14, 58 S.E. 443 (1907).

Landowner's Remedies. — When the lands of the lower proprietor are damaged by the improper drainage of the upper proprietor, he may elect to bring an action for damages or proceed under this and the following sections. Briscoe v. Parker, 145 N.C. 14, 58 S.E. 443 (1907).

Artificial Waterway Constructed for Temporary Purposes. — When an upper proprietor of lands constructs and maintains for his own use and advantage an artificial waterway or structure affecting the flow of water, without invading the rights of the lower proprietor, for a temporary purpose or a specific purpose which he may at any time abandon, the upper proprietor comes under no obligation to maintain the structure, though the incidental effect has been to confer a benefit on the lower tenant. Lake Drummond Canal & Water Co. v. Burnham, 147 N.C. 41, 60 S.E. 650 (1908).

Setting Aside Former Judgment. — If a former judgment in a similar proceeding has not been pleaded in an action for drainage of lands, as an estoppel or res adjudicata, before final judgment, the party relying thereon must move the court within one year to set the judgment aside for excusable mistake or inadvertence. Adams v. Joyner, 147 N.C. 77, 60 S.E. 725 (1908).

As to jury questions, see Heirs at Law of Collins v. Heirs at Law of Haughton, 26 N.C. 420 (1844).

Appeal. — An order in a drainage proceeding directing matters proper for the determination of the commissioners to be referred to a jury is appealable. Porter v. Armstrong, 134 N.C. 447, 46 S.E. 997 (1904).

Formerly the law required the appointment of disinterested freeholders as commissioners in a proceeding to obtain a right of drainage over the lands of an adjoining landowner. Durden v. Simmons, 84 N.C. 555 (1881).

Quoted in Sawyer Canal Co. v. Keys, 232 N.C. 664, 62 S.E.2d 67 (1950).

§ 156-3. Duty of commissioners.

The commissioners, or a majority of them, on a day of which each proprietor of land aforesaid is to be notified at least five days, shall meet on the premises and view the lands to be drained or embanked, and the lands through or on which the drain is to pass or the embankment to be erected, and shall determine and report whether the lands of the petitioner can be conveniently drained or embanked except through or on the lands of the defendants or some of them; and if they are of opinion that the same cannot be conveniently done except through or on such lands, they shall decide and determine the route of the canal, ditch, or embankment, the width thereof, and the depth or height, as the case may be, and the manner in which the same shall be cut or thrown up, considering all the circumstances of the case, and providing as far as possible for the effectual drainage or embankment of the water from the petitioner's land, and also securing the defendant's lands from inundation, and every other injury to which the same may be probably subjected by such canal, ditch, or embankment; and they shall assess, for each of the defendants, such damage as in their judgment will fully indemnify him for the use of his land in the mode proposed; but in assessing such damages, benefits shall be deducted. (1795, c. 436, P.R.; 1852, c. 57, ss. 1, 2; R.C., c. 40, s. 2; Code, s. 1298; Rev., s. 3984; C.S., s. 5262.)

CASE NOTES

Effect of § 156-16. — Section 156-16, concerning the drainage of lowlands, does not expressly repeal this section, but leaves in operation such of its provisions as are not repugnant to such section. Worthington v. Coward, 114 N.C. 289, 19 S.E. 154 (1894).

Stated in Sawyer Canal Co. v. Keys, 232 N.C. 664, 62 S.E.2d 67 (1950).

Cited in Porter v. Armstrong, 134 N.C. 447, 46 S.E. 997 (1904); In re Atkinson-Clark Canal Co., 231 N.C. 131, 56 S.E.2d 442 (1949).

§ 156-4. Report and confirmation; easement acquired; exceptions.

The commissioners shall report in writing, under their hands, the whole matter to the court, which shall confirm the same, unless good cause be shown to the contrary; and on payment of the damages and cost of the proceedings the court shall order and decree that the petitioner may cut the canal or ditch, or raise the embankment in the manner reported and determined by the commissioners; and thereupon the petitioner shall be seized in fee simple of the easement aforesaid: Provided, that, without the consent of the proprietor, such canal, ditch, or embankment shall not be cut or raised through or on his yard or curtilage, nor be allowed when the same shall injure any mill, by cutting off or stopping the water flowing thereto; nor shall such dam be allowed so as to create a nuisance by stagnant water, or cut off the flow of useful springs or necessary streams of water, or stop any ditches of such proprietor when there is no freshet. (1795, c. 436, s. 2, P.R.; 1835, c. 7; 1852, c. 57, ss. 1, 2; R.C., c. 40, s. 3; Code, s. 1299; Rev., s. 3985; C.S., s. 5263.)

CASE NOTES

Conclusive Effect of Commissioners' Report. — The report of commissioners appointed to condemn lands and assess damages for the purpose of drainage is, like the verdict of a jury, conclusive of the facts therein ascertained, until set aside. Norfolk S.R.R. v. Ely, 101 N.C. 8, 7 S.E. 476 (1888).

Power of Judge to Set Aside Report. — On appeal from the judgment of the clerk upon the report of commissioners appointed to lay off a ditch for drainage of lowlands, the judge could set aside the report either for cause or in his discretion, if in his opinion the ends of justice could be subserved by that course. Worthington v. Coward, 114 N.C. 289, 19 S.E. 154 (1894).

Setting Aside of Commissioners' Report Not Reversed on Appeal. — Where judge set aside commissioners' report because it did not comply with the statute, and further found as a fact in his order that two of the commissioners had been guilty of gross indiscretion, the Supreme Court would not reverse his order, whether the report conformed to the statute or not. Porter v. Armstrong, 139 N.C. 179, 51 S.E. 926, petition for rehearing denied, 137 N.C.

703, 51 S.E. 1036 (1905).

Jury to Settle Issues of Fact. — Upon an application to condemn lands for the purpose of drainage, the issue of fact raised by the pleadings should be framed and settled by a jury, and cannot be raised or considered upon exceptions to the report of the commissioners appointed to assess damages. Norfolk S.R.R. v. Ely, 101 N.C. 8, 7 S.E. 476 (1888).

Acquisition of Title in Lands Condemned. — Where, upon the petition of one or more parties, under this section, leave was granted by the county court to cut a canal across the land of another for the purposes of drainage, the petitioners and their assignees, upon the report of the jury provided for in the statute being confirmed, acquired not merely an easement, but title in fee to the land condemned. Norfleet v. Cromwell, 70 N.C. 634 (1874).

Quoted in In re Atkinson-Clark Canal Co., 231 N.C. 131, 56 S.E.2d 442 (1949).

§ 156-5. Width of right-of-way for repairs.

The commissioners, when they may deem it necessary, shall designate the width of the land to be left on each side of the canal, ditch, or dam, to be used for the protection and reparation thereof, which land shall be altogether under the control and dominion of the owner of the canal, ditch, or dam, except as aforesaid: Provided, that in no case shall a greater width of land on both sides, inclusive of a dam, be taken than five times the base of such dam. (R.C., c. 40, s. 6; Code, s. 1302; Rev., s. 3985a; C.S., s. 5264.)

CASE NOTES

Remand When Unnecessary Amount of Land Condemned. — Where, upon appeal from the report of the commissioners, the jury found that the amount of land condemned by the commissioners for the purpose of the protection and reparation of the ditches was unnecessary, it was proper for the court to remand the cause, with directions to constitute another commission. Winslow v. Winslow, 95 N.C. 24 (1886).

§ 156-6. Right of owner to fence; entry for repairs.

Any proprietor, through or on whose land such canal or ditch may be cut or embankment raised, may put a fence or make paths across the same, provided the usefulness thereof be not impaired; and the owner of the canal, ditch, or dam, his heirs and assigns, shall at all times have free access to the same for the purpose of making and repairing them; doing thereby no unnecessary damage to the lands of the proprietors. (1795, c. 436, s. 2, P.R.; 1835, c. 7; 1852, c. 57, ss. 1, 2; R.C., c. 40, s. 4; Code, s. 1300; Rev., s. 3986; C.S., s. 5265.)

§ 156-7. Earth for construction of dam; removal of dam.

The earth necessary for the erection of a dam may be taken from either side of it, or wherever else the commissioners may designate and allow. And such dam may be removed by the proprietor of the land, his heirs or assigns, to any other part of his lands, and he may adjoin any dam of his own thereto, if allowed by the court on a petition and such proceedings therein as are provided in this Chapter, as far as the same may apply to his case: Provided always, that the usefulness of the dam will not be thereby impaired or endangered. (R.C., c. 40, s. 5; Code, s. 1301; Rev., s. 3987; C.S., s. 5266.)

§ 156-8. Earth from canal removed or leveled.

The earth excavated from the canal or ditch shall be removed away or leveled as nearly as may be with the surface of the adjacent land, unless the commissioners shall otherwise specially allow. (R.C., c. 40, s. 7; Code, s. 1303; Rev., s. 3988; C.S., s. 5267.)

§ 156-9. No drain opened within 30 feet.

The proprietor of any swamp or flatlands through which a canal or ditch passes shall not have a right to open or cut any drain within 30 feet thereof but by the consent of the owner. Such proprietor, however, and other persons may cut into such canal or ditch in the manner hereinafter provided. (R.C., c. 40, s. 8; Code, s. 1304; Rev., s. 3989; C.S., s. 5268.)

§ 156-10. Right to drain into canal.

Any person desirous of draining into the canal or ditch of another person as an outlet may do so in the manner hereinbefore provided, and in addition to the persons directed to be made parties, all others shall be parties through whose lands, canals, or ditches the water to be drained may pass till it shall have reached the furthest artificial outlet. And the privilege of cutting into such canal or ditch may be granted under the same rules and upon the same conditions and restrictions as are provided in respect to cutting the first canal or ditch: Provided, that no canal or ditch shall be allowed to be cut into another if thereby the safety or utility of the latter shall be impaired or endangered: Provided, further, that if such impairing and danger can be avoided by imposing on the petitioner duties or labor in the enlarging or deepening of such canal or ditch, or otherwise, the same may be done; but no absolute decree for cutting such second canal or ditch shall pass till the duties or work so imposed shall be performed and the effect thereof is seen, so as to enable the commissioners to determine the matter whether such second canal or ditch ought to be allowed or not: Provided, that any party to the proceeding may appeal from the judgment of the court rendered under this section to the superior court of the county, where a trial and determination of all issues raised in the pleadings shall be had as in other cases before a judge and jury. (R.C., c. 40, s. 9; Code, s. 1305; 1887, c. 222; Rev., s. 3990; C.S., s. 5269; 1973, c. 108, s. 94.)

CASE NOTES

In a proceeding by plaintiff drainage corporation to levy assessments against the lands of respondents for the proportionate part of the expense for making necessary improvements, upon allegations that such lands drained into the corporation's canals and would be greatly benefited by the improvements, where it appeared that respondents' predecessor in title cut a large canal through his lands draining into the lands of the corporation, it would be presumed that respondents' predecessor in title acquired the right to cut into the canal of plaintiff pursuant to the provisions of this section, and the petition would be considered as a motion in that cause for the proper adjudication of the rights of the parties. Sawyer Canal Co. v. Keys, 232 N.C. 664, 62 S.E.2d 67 (1950).

Stated in Sawyer Canal Co. v. Keys, 234 N.C. 360, 67 S.E.2d 259 (1951).

Cited in Brooks v. Tucker, 61 N.C. 309 (1867); In re Atkinson-Clark Canal Co., 231 N.C. 131, 56 S.E.2d 442 (1949).

§ 156-11. Expense of repairs apportioned.

Besides the damages which the commissioners may assess against the petitioner for the privilege of cutting into such canal or ditch, they shall assess and apportion the labor which the petitioner and defendants shall severally contribute towards repairing the canal or ditch into or through which the petitioner drains the water from his lands, and report the same to court; which, when confirmed, shall stand as a judgment of the court against each of the parties, his executors and administrators, heirs and assigns. (R.C., c. 40, s. 10; Code, s. 1306; Rev., s. 3991; C.S., s. 5270.)

CASE NOTES

Report Failing to Assess and Apportion Labor Fatally Defective. — A commissioners' report under this section which fails to assess and apportion that part of the labor which is to be contributed by the defendants is fatally defective. Brooks v. Tucker, 61 N.C. 309 (1867).

Applied in Worthington v. Coward, 114 N.C. 289, 19 S.E. 154 (1894).

Quoted in Sawyer Canal Co. v. Keys, 232 N.C. 664, 62 S.E.2d 67 (1950).

§ 156-12. Notice of making repairs.

Whenever the canals or ditches for the reparation of which more than one person shall be bound under the provisions of G.S. 156-11 shall need to be repaired, any of the persons so bound may notify the others thereof, and of the time he proposes to repair the same; and thereupon each of the persons shall jointly work on the same and contribute his proportion of labor till the same be repaired or the work cease by consent. (R.C., c. 40, s. 11; Code, s. 1307; Rev., s. 3992; C.S., s. 5271.)

CASE NOTES

Stated in Sawyer Canal Co. v. Keys, 232 N.C. 664, 62 S.E.2d 67 (1950).

§ 156-13. Judgment against owner in default; lien.

In case the person so notified shall make default, any of the others may perform his share of labor and recover against him the value thereof, on a notice to be issued for such default, in which shall be stated on oath made before the clerk the value of such labor, and unless good cause to the contrary be shown on the return of the notice, the court shall render judgment for the same with interest and costs; which judgment shall be a lien upon the lands from the date of the performance of the work. (R.C., c. 40, s. 12; Code, s. 1308; 1899, c. 396; Rev., s. 3993; C.S., s. 5272.)

CASE NOTES

Right of Landowner to Notice and Hearing. — Before any specific amount may be adjudged against a landowner as a lien on his land, he is entitled to be heard, after notice, as to whether the assessment made by the commissioners was unjust or oppressive. Adams v. Joyner, 147 N.C. 77, 60 S.E. 725 (1908).

§ 156-14. Subsequent owners bound.

All persons to whom may descend, or who may otherwise own or occupy lands drained by any canal or ditch, for the privilege of cutting which any labor for repairing is assessed, shall contribute the same, and shall be bound therefor to all intents and purposes, and in the same manner and by the same judgment as the original party himself would be if he occupied the land. (R.C., c. 40, s. 13; Code, s. 1309; Rev., s. 3994; C.S., s. 5273.)

CASE NOTES

Applied in Norfleet v. Cromwell, 70 N.C. 634 (1874); Craft & Bergeson v. John L. Roper Lumber Co., 181 N.C. 29, 106 S.E. 138 (1921).

Quoted in Sawyer Canal Co. v. Keys, 232 N.C. 664, 62 S.E.2d 67 (1950).

§ 156-15. Amount of contribution for repair ascertained.

Whenever there shall be a dam, canal, or ditch, in the repairing and keeping up of which two or more persons shall be interested and receive actual benefit therefrom, and the duties and proportion of labor which each one ought to do and perform therefor shall not be fixed by agreement or by the mode already in this Subchapter provided for assessing and apportioning such labor, any of the parties may have the same assessed and apportioned by applying to a magistrate, who shall give all parties at least three days' notice, and shall summon two disinterested freeholders who, together with the magistrate, shall meet on the premises and assess the damages sustained by the applicant, whereupon the magistrate shall enter judgment in favor of the applicant for damages or for work done on such ditch or lands. (R.C., c. 40, s. 14; Code, s. 1310; 1889, c. 101; Rev., s. 3995; C.S., s. 5274; 1973, c. 108, s. 95.)

CASE NOTES

Constitutionality. — This section is constitutional and valid. Forehand v. Taylor, 155 N.C. 353, 71 S.E. 433 (1911).

A proceeding under this section is in effect a motion in the cause which can be brought forward from time to time, upon notice to all the parties to be affected, for orders in the cause, to promote the objects of the proceeding, the whole matter remaining in the control of the court. Staton v. Staton, 148 N.C. 490, 62 S.E. 596 (1908); Sawyer Canal Co. v. Keys, 234 N.C. 360, 67 S.E.2d 259 (1951).

Procedure for Enlarging or Deepening Canal. — The method by which the user of a canal by prescriptive right may enlarge or deepen it with an apportionment of the costs is provided by this section. Armstrong v. Spruill, 182 N.C. 1, 108 S.E. 300 (1921).

Liability for Damages. — Where the users of a canal by prescriptive right enlarge the same, and thereby place water upon the lower proprietor to his damage, they are liable therefor, and upon conflicting evidence, the issue should be submitted to the jury. Armstrong v. Spruill, 182 N.C. 1, 108 S.E. 300 (1921).

Action Dismissed for Noncompliance with Statute Not Bar to Second Action. — When damages were sought in an action before a justice of the peace (now magistrate) relating to drainage districts, etc., and the action was dismissed because there had been no contract or agreement between the parties and the requirements of the statute had not been met, the plaintiff was not thereby barred from proceeding to have the damages assessed and from bringing another action therefor, as the former judgment did not bar the second one. Forehand v. Taylor, 155 N.C. 353, 71 S.E. 433 (1911).

Applied in Porter v. Durham, 98 N.C. 320, 3 S.E. 832 (1887).

§ 156-16. Petition by servient owner against dominant owner.

Any person owning lands lying upon any creek, swamp, or other stream not navigable, which are subject to inundation and which cannot be conveniently drained or embanked on account of the volume of water flowing over the same from lands lying above, and by draining the same the lands above will be benefited and better drained, such person may by petition apply to the superior court of the county in which the lands sought to be drained or embanked, or some part of such lands, lie, setting forth the particular circumstances of the case, the valuation of the lands to be drained or embanked, and what other lands above would be benefited, and who are the proprietors of such lands; whereupon a summons shall be served upon each of the proprietors, who are not petitioners, requiring them to appear before the court at a time to be named in the summons, which shall not be less than 10 days from the service thereof, and upon such day the petition shall be heard and the court shall appoint three persons as commissioners, who shall, before entering upon the discharge of their duties, be sworn to do justice between the parties. (1889, c. 253; Rev., s. 4016; C.S., s. 5275.)

Local Modification. — Lenoir: 1891, c. 73; Rev., s. 4016.

CASE NOTES

Effect on § 156-3. — This section does not repeal § 156-3, but leaves in operation such of its provisions as are not repugnant to it. Worthington v. Coward, 114 N.C. 289, 19 S.E. 154 (1894).

For case holding that the procedure under this and the following sections is analogous to the general drainage law, that the proceedings are regarded as being kept alive for further orders without being retained on the docket, and that in the case at issue the original assessment did not constitute a bar to the motion to vacate and the assessment was properly set aside on the facts found, see Spence v. Granger, 204 N.C. 247, 167 S.E. 805 (1933).

Judgment Not Set Aside. — In an action brought for the drainage of lands under this and the following sections, the judgment upon motion thereafter would not be set aside merely upon the ground that a similar proceeding had been prosecuted to judgment between several of the parties. Adams v. Joyner, 147 N.C. 77, 60 S.E. 725 (1908).

§ 156-17. Commissioners to examine lands and make report.

The commissioners, or a majority of them, on a day of which each proprietor is to be notified at least five days, shall meet on the premises and view the land to be drained and the lands affected thereby, and shall determine and report whether the lands of the petitioner or petitioners ought to be drained exclusively by him or them, and if they are of the opinion that the same ought not to be drained exclusively at the expense of the petitioner or petitioners, they shall decide and determine the route of the canal, ditch, or embankment, the width thereof, and the depth and height, as the case may be, and the manner in which the same shall be cut or thrown up, considering all the circumstances of the case, and providing as far as possible for the effectual drainage of the petitioner's land, and the protection and benefit of the defendant's lands; and they shall apportion the labor to be done or assess the amount to be paid by each of the owners of the lands affected by such canal, ditch, or embankment, towards the construction and keeping the same in repair, and report the same to the court, which, when confirmed, shall stand as a judgment of the court against each of the parties, his executors, administrators, heirs and assigns. (1889, c. 253, s. 2; Rev., s. 4017; C.S., s. 5276.)

Local Modification. — Beaufort, Lenoir: 1891, c. 73, s. 2; Rev., s. 4017; Pub. Loc. 1911, c. 545.

CASE NOTES

Cost of Work Not Required to Be Set Out in Report. — The cost of the work to be done in the drainage of lands is not required under this section, and cannot, for its uncertainty of amount, be set out in the report of the commissioners appointed. It is a compliance with the statutes when the portion of the work to be done by the landowners is set out. Adams v. Joyner, 147 N.C. 77, 60 S.E. 725 (1908).

§ 156-18. Cost of repairs enforced by judgment.

Whenever any such ditch, canal, or embankment shall need repairs or cleaning out, and any of the parties interested therein refuse to perform the labor apportioned to them, or refuse to contribute the amount assessed against them, the same shall be enforced in the manner hereinbefore provided for the joint repair of canals and ditches. (1889, c. 253, s. 3; Rev., s. 4018; C.S., s. 5277.)

§ 156-19. Obstructing canal or ditch dug under agreement.

Where two or more persons have dug a canal or ditch along any natural drain or waterway under parol agreement, or otherwise, wherein all the parties shall have contributed to the digging thereof, if any servient or lower owner shall fill up or obstruct said canal or ditch without the consent of the higher owners and without providing other drainage for the higher lands, he shall be guilty of a Class 3 misdemeanor. (1899, c. 255; Rev., s. 3375; C.S., s. 5278; 1993, c. 539, s. 1070; 1994, Ex. Sess., c. 24, s. 14(c).)

CASE NOTES

This section applies only where all the parties contributed under a valid agreement to the lawful digging of a ditch or canal.

Porter v. Armstrong, 129 N.C. 101, 39 S.E. 799 (1901).

§ 156-20. Right of dominant owner to repair.

In the absence of any agreement for maintaining the efficiency of such ditch or canal, or should the servient owner neglect or refuse to clean out or aid in cleaning out the same through his lands, it shall be lawful for the dominant or higher owner, after giving three days' notice to the servient owner, to enter along such canal and not more than 12 feet therefrom and clean out or remove obstructions or accumulated debris therefrom at his own personal expense or without cost to the servient owner. (1899, c. 255, s. 2; Rev., s. 4025; C.S., s. 5279.)

CASE NOTES

Where a person enlarges a canal on the lands of another, under a void proceeding, he is a trespasser, and cannot claim credit for money spent thereon. Porter v. Armstrong, 129

N.C. 101, 39 S.E. 799 (1901).

§ 156-21. Canal maintained for seven years presumed a necessity; drainage assessments declared liens.

After a canal has been dug along any natural depression or waterway and maintained for seven years, it shall be prima facie evidence of its necessity, and upon application to the clerk of the superior court of any landowner who is interested in maintaining the same, it shall be the duty of the clerk of the superior court to appoint and cause to be summoned three disinterested and discreet freeholders, who, after being duly sworn, shall go upon the lands drained or intended to be drained by such canal, and after carefully examining the same and hearing such testimony as may be introduced touching the question of cost of canal, the amount paid, and the advantages and disadvantages to be shared by each of the parties to the action, shall make their report in writing to the clerk of the superior court stating the facts and apportioning the cost of maintaining such canal among the parties to the action, and the cost of the action shall be divided in the same ratio; and their report when approved shall be properly registered by the clerk and the said report or reports shall, when filed in the office of the clerk of the superior court, be a lien upon each tract of land embraced in said report or reports to the extent of the proportionate part of the costs stipulated in said report or reports as a charge against same, and shall have the effect and force of a judgment thereon, and such judgments shall be subject to execution and collection as in cases of other judgments. (1899, c. 255, s. 3; Rev., s. 4026; 1917, c. 248, s. 1; C.S., s. 5280; 1931, c. 227, s. 1.)

CASE NOTES

Section to Be Construed to Carry Out Its Purposes. — The provisions of this section are necessary for the cultivation and improvements of lowlands required to be drained, and should be construed to carry into effect its beneficent purposes, when practicable. Ange & Forest v. Atlantic C.L.R.R., 159 N.C. 547, 75 S.E. 796 (1912).

In Connection with Other Sections of this Chapter. — This section should be construed in connection with the other sections of the Chapter relating to the drainage of lowlands. Ange & Forest v. Atlantic C.L.R.R., 159 N.C. 547, 75 S.E. 796 (1912).

“Ditch” and “Canal” Used Interchangeably. — In the Chapter relating to the drainage of lowlands, the terms “ditch” and “canal” are used indiscriminately to designate an artificial drain. Ange & Forest v. Atlantic C.L.R.R., 159 N.C. 547, 75 S.E. 796 (1912).

Artificial Drain as “Canal.” — An artificial drain in some places from 3 to 5 feet wide and from 2 to 5 feet deep, made for the purpose of cultivating and improving lowlands by draining them, is a “canal” within the meaning of this section. Ange & Forest v. Atlantic C.L.R.R., 159 N.C. 547, 75 S.E. 796 (1912).

Contribution to Original Construction Not Prerequisite to Liability for Maintenance. — It is not necessary that the owner of lands lying along a drainage canal, within the meaning of this section, shall have contributed to its original construction to make him liable to assessments for its maintenance under the provisions of the statute. Ange & Forest v. Atlantic C.L.R.R., 159 N.C. 547, 75 S.E. 796 (1912).

Liability of Railroad for Maintenance of Canal. — While a railroad company may not be the absolute owner of lands in fee, it has the proprietorship and control of those constituting its rights-of-way; and when such lands are benefited by a canal which comes within the meaning of this section, the provision of the statute relative to the maintenance of the canal applies. Ange & Forest v. Atlantic C.L.R.R., 159 N.C. 547, 75 S.E. 796 (1912).

Applied in Craft & Bergeson v. John L. Roper Lumber Co., 181 N.C. 29, 106 S.E. 138 (1921).

§ 156-22. Supplemental assessments to make up deficiency; vacancy appointments of assessment jurors.

The freeholders, commissioners or jurors, appointed in any application or proceeding filed or instituted under G.S. 156-21 or any other section of Article 1 of this Chapter, are authorized and empowered during the establishment of and providing for the construction, maintenance and payment therefor, of such ditch, canal or drain, to make other and further assessments for the costs of establishment, construction and expense, when it shall be determined by the clerk of the court that the provisions in the former report for the payment thereof are insufficient, and that such supplementary reports shall be made on the same basis of an equitable and just proportion, as made in the former report, which report or reports shall be filed with the clerk of the superior court and have the same force and effect as the former or original report.

In case of death, resignation, removal or for any other cause there becomes a vacancy as to the freeholders, commissioners or jurors, appointed to carry out the provisions of the sections contained in this Chapter, the clerk of the superior court is authorized to fill such vacancy by the appointment of some disinterested freeholder in the county, and the said person so appointed to fill such vacancy shall qualify before the clerk of the superior court before entering upon his duties. (1931, c. 227, s. 2.)

Local Modification. — Duplin: 1931, c. 227, s. 2.

CASE NOTES

Right of Interested Parties to Notice and Hearing. — Where drainage assessments are levied against lands under this and related sections, either original assessments or additional assessments to cover unforeseen expenses in the construction of the drainage ditch, the parties whose lands are assessed are entitled to notice and an opportunity to be heard. Spence v. Granger, 207 N.C. 19, 175 S.E. 824 (1934).

§ 156-23. Easement of drainage surrendered.

If any persons, or those claiming through or under them, who have cut any ditch or canal into which any other person has been permitted to drain land under any proceeding authorized in this Subchapter, shall desire to surrender their easement or right in such ditch or canal and be discharged from any judgment rendered and existing under such proceedings, such persons may on motion have such proceeding reinstated for hearing and file a petition therein setting forth such fact or any other grounds for relief thereunder, and upon proof satisfactory to the court that such petitioners have cut another ditch or canal which drains their lands formerly drained by the first ditch or canal, and have abandoned the use of it for any purpose of drainage, the court shall adjudge the easement or right of the petitioners surrendered and determined, and from that time the petitioners and their land shall forever be discharged and released from the judgment heretofore rendered in such former proceedings: Provided, however, that all parties then having an easement or right in such ditch or canal shall be served with notice of such petition 20 days before the hearing thereof. (1887, c. 222, s. 3; Rev., s. 4027; C.S., s. 5281.)

§ 156-24. Obstructing drain cut by consent.

If any person shall stop or in any way obstruct the passage of the water in any ditch or canal having been cut through lands of any person by consent of the owner of said land, before giving the interested parties a reasonable time to comply with the mode of proceedings provided for the drainage of lowlands, he shall be guilty of a Class 3 misdemeanor. (1891, c. 434; Rev., s. 3376; C.S., s. 5282; 1993, c. 539, s. 1071; 1994, Ex. Sess., c. 24, s. 14(c).)

§ 156-25. Protection of canals, ditches, and natural drains.

If any person shall fell any tree in any ditch, canal, or natural drainway of any farm, unless he shall remove the same and put such ditch, canal, or natural drainway in as good condition as it was before such tree was so felled; or if any person shall stop up or fill in such ditch, canal, or drainway and thereby obstruct the free passage of water along the said ditch, canal, or drainway, unless the said person shall first secure the written consent of the landowner, and those damaged by such obstruction in said ditch, canal, or drainway, or unless such person so filling in and stopping up such ditch, canal, or drainway shall, upon the demand of the person so damaged, clean out and put the said ditch, canal, or drainway in as good condition as the same was before such filling in and stopping up of the said ditch, canal, or drainway happened, he shall be guilty of a Class 3 misdemeanor. (1901, c. 478; Rev., s. 3382; C.S., s. 5283; 1993, c. 539, s. 1072; 1994, Ex. Sess., c. 24, s. 14(c).)

Part 2. Petition under Agreement for Construction.

§ 156-26. Procedure upon agreement.

(a) Agreement; Names Filed. — Whenever a majority of the landowners or the persons owning three fifths of all the lands in any well-defined swamp or lowlands shall, by a written agreement, agree to give a part of the land situated in such swamp or lowlands as compensation to any person, firm, or corporation who may propose to cut or dig any main drainway through such swamp or lowlands, or shall, by written agreement, contract with any person, firm or corporation to cut or dig any main drainway through such swamp or lowlands, then the person, firm, or corporation so proposing to cut or dig such main drainway shall file with the clerk of the superior court of the county, or, if there be two or more counties, with the clerk of the superior court of either county in or through which the proposed canal or drainway is to pass, the names of the landowners, with the approximate number of acres owned by each to be affected by the proposed drainway who have entered into the written agreement with the person, firm, or corporation, together with a brief outline of the proposed improvement, and in addition thereto shall file with the clerk the names and addresses, as far as can be ascertained, of the landowners, with the number of acres owned by each of them to be affected by the proposed drainway, who have not made any agreement with the person, firm, or corporation proposing to do the improvement.

(b) Notice. — Upon the filing of such names, it shall be the duty of the clerk to forthwith issue a notice which shall be served by the sheriff to all landowners who have not made any agreement to appear before him at a certain date, which date shall be not less than 10 and not more than 20 days from the service of such notice, or, in lieu of the personal service hereinabove required, it shall be sufficient for the clerk to publish in a newspaper published in the county once a week for four weeks a notice to all landowners who have not made any agreement to appear before him at a certain date, which date shall be not less than 30 days and not more than 40 days from the first publication of notice, at which time and place the landowners shall state their objections to the proposed improvement, and in addition thereto make an estimate of the amount of damage that might be done to the land owned by each of them on account of the proposed drainway.

(c) Hearing; Viewers. — Upon the hearing it shall be the duty of the clerk of the superior court to forthwith appoint three disinterested persons, none of whom shall own land to be affected by such drainway, if requested by the person, firm, or corporation proposing to do the improvement, whose duty it shall be to familiarize themselves with the proposed improvement, view the premises of the landowners, estimating damages, and make an estimate themselves of the amount of damages that might accrue to the lands of each landowner filing objections on account of the proposed improvement, and report the same to the clerk of the superior court within 15 days from the date of their appointment.

(d) Report; Bond. — Immediately upon the filing of the reports the clerk of the superior court shall forthwith notify the person, firm, or corporation proposing to dig the drainway or canal of the estimated damages contained in the reports, and the person, firm, or corporation shall execute and deliver a bond in a surety company authorized to do business in the State of North Carolina in twice the sum total of the estimated amount of damages, which bond shall be payable to the clerk of the superior court and conditioned upon the payment to the landowners of the amount of damages that may be assessed in the manner hereinafter provided.

(e) Construction Authorized. — Upon the execution and delivery to the clerk of the said bond, the person, firm, or corporation so proposing to cut or dig such main drainway shall be and they are hereby authorized to proceed with the cutting or digging of the drainway through any lands in its proposed course, whether the owners of the land may have consented thereto or not, and the person, firm, or corporation so proposing to cut or dig the drainway shall have the proper and necessary right-of-way for that purpose and for all things incident thereto through any lands or timbers situated in such swamp or lowlands. (1917, c. 273, s. 1; C.S., s. 5284; 1969, c. 1046.)

Editor's Note. — The provisions of this and the following sections under this Article supplant those of Session Laws 1915, Chapter 141. Session Laws 1915, Chapter 141 was held unconstitutional and void in Lang v. Carolina

Land & Dev. Co., 169 N.C. 662, 86 S.E. 599 (1915), as a taking of private property without providing for just compensation to the private owners of lands whose consent had not been given.

CASE NOTES

Withdrawal of Petitioners. — Upon the return day set by the clerk of the court for the hearing of the landowners in a proposed drainage district, it may be shown by those opposed to the petition that some of those who signed the petition desired to withdraw, and that after eliminating their names the petitioners would not represent a majority of the landowners in the district, or of persons owning three fifths of the lands, as the statute requires. Armstrong v. Beaman, 181 N.C. 11, 105 S.E. 879 (1921).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL

As to exemption of housing authority from fees, see opinion of Attorney General to the Honorable F. Crane, Commissioner of Labor, 41 N.C.A.G. 303 (1971).

§ 156-27. Recovery for benefits; payment of damages.

After the drainway herein provided for shall be completed the person, firm, or corporation cutting or digging the same shall be entitled to recover of the landowners owning that part of the land with reference to which no contract for compensating those cutting or digging the drainway may have been made, an amount equal to the benefits to accrue to such lands by reason of the drainway, and shall be required by the clerk of the superior court to pay to any landowner the amount of damages in excess of benefits which may be done to the land to be determined in the manner hereinafter provided: Provided, that the recovery from any owner of the land shall be limited to the benefits to accrue to that land owned by such person, and situated in such swamp or lowlands or adjacent thereto; and provided further, that the amount to be so recovered as herein provided for until fully paid shall be and constitute a lien upon such land, the lien to be in force regardless of who may own the land at the time the amount to be recovered as compensation for digging or cutting the drainway shall be determined. (1917, c. 273, s. 2; C.S., s. 5285.)

§ 156-28. Notice to landowners; assessments made by viewers.

After the completion of the main drainway, upon the application of the person, firm, or corporation, or their heirs or assigns, digging or cutting the same, the clerk of the superior court of the county in which any land through which the drainway may pass is situated shall issue a notice to be served by the sheriff upon any person who may have failed to agree with the person, firm, or corporation digging or cutting such drainway, upon a compensation to be paid by the landowner for the digging or cutting of such drainway, notifying the landowner that on a certain day, which shall be named in the notice and not less than 20 days from the date of the issuing of the notice, the clerk of the superior court will appoint three competent and disinterested persons, one of whom may be a surveyor, and none of whom shall own land to be affected by the drainway, to view the land so drained and for which no compensation for the drainage may have been agreed upon as aforesaid, and report to the clerk of the superior court what amount shall be paid therefor by the various landowners who may have failed to arrange for and agree upon the compensation for the drainage as aforesaid, and the amount of damages in cases where the damages have exceeded the benefits, which shall be paid to the landowners by the person, firm, or corporation cutting or digging such canal or drainway. In making the appointment of the viewers the clerk of the superior court shall hear any objections which may be advanced by those interested to any of the persons the clerk may consider to be appointed as viewers, but the clerk shall name those whom he considers best qualified. (1917, c. 273, s. 3; C.S., s. 5286.)

§ 156-29. Report filed; appeal and jury trial.

A report signed by two of the persons appointed as viewers shall be entered by the clerk as the report of the viewers. Any landowner affected by the report, and the person, firm, or corporation digging or cutting the drainway, has the right of appeal and the right to have any issue arising upon the report tried by a jury, provided exceptions shall be filed to the report within 20 days after the filing of the report with the clerk, in which exceptions so filed may be a demand for a jury trial. If a jury trial is demanded, the clerk shall transfer the proceedings to the civil-issue docket, and it shall be heard as other civil actions. If no jury trial is demanded, the clerk shall hear the parties upon the exceptions filed, and appeal may be had as in special proceedings except as modified by this section, but no jury trial may be had unless demanded as provided in this section. (1917, c. 273, s. 4; C.S., s. 5287; 1999-216, s. 17.)

Cross References. — As to appeal in special proceedings, see §§ 1-272 through 1-276 [see now § 1-301.1 et seq.].

Effect of Amendments. — Session Laws 1999-216, s. 17, effective January 1, 2000, and applicable to all orders or judgments subject to this act that are entered on or after that date, rewrote the section.

CASE NOTES

Jurisdiction of Superior Court. — The superior court, upon certification of the opinion of the Supreme Court, has jurisdiction to retain the cause for hearing upon the appeal from the clerk's order, this section providing that appeals from the clerk in drainage assessment proceedings shall be the same as in special proceedings, and § 1-276 [see now § 1-301.1 et seq.] giving the superior court jurisdiction to hear and determine all matters in controversy upon appeal from the clerk in special proceedings. Spence v. Granger, 207 N.C. 19, 175 S.E. 824 (1934). See also, Flat Swamp, Lock's Creek & Evan's Creek Canal Co. v. McAlister, 74 N.C. 159 (1876).

§ 156-30. Confirmation of report.

Unless an appeal is taken, the clerk of superior court shall confirm the report of the viewers. If exceptions are filed and no jury trial is demanded, the clerk shall hear the exceptions and enter judgment as in other special proceedings. If the report is confirmed by the clerk because no exceptions or demand for a jury trial is filed, the judgment of confirmation is the judgment of the court. Any judgment entered against the person, firm, or corporation cutting or digging the drainway is a judgment against the person, firm, or corporation and against the surety on the bond required by G.S. 156-26. (1917, c. 273, s. 5; C.S., s. 5288; 1999-216, s. 18.)

Effect of Amendments. — Session Laws 1999-216, s. 18, effective January 1, 2000, and applicable to all orders or judgments subject to

this act that are entered on or after that date, rewrote the section.

§ 156-31. Payment in installments.

The amount to be recovered from any person as compensation for digging or cutting the drainway after the amount shall be definitely determined as herein provided for, shall be payable in five equal annual installments, the first payable one year from the filing of the report of the viewers with the clerk of the superior court, and one payment on the same day of each year thereafter until the full amount be paid. The amount to be recovered from the person, firm, or corporation cutting or digging the drainway, on account of any damages in excess of benefits to the lands of any landowner, shall be payable in one installment which shall be due and payable one year from the filing of the report of the viewers with the clerk of the superior court. (1917, c. 273, s. 6; C. S., s. 5289.)

ARTICLE 2.

Jurisdiction in County Commissioners.

§ 156-32. Petition filed; board appointed; refusal to serve misdemeanor.

Upon the petition of three citizens in any county to the county commissioners, petitioning for the draining of any creek, swamp, or branch, either upon the plea of health or to promote and advance the agricultural interest of the farmers who may own lands lying on such creek, swamp, or branch petitioned to be drained, the county commissioners shall within 10 days after the filing of such petition order the county surveyor to summon three disinterested freeholders, good and lawful men of intelligence and discretion, who shall constitute a board, and the county surveyor shall be the chairman of such board; and the chairman shall give all persons who may be interested in having such creek, swamp, or branch drained three days' notice of the time and place of the meeting of the board: Provided, the petitioners shall deposit with the county treasurer the sum of twenty-five dollars ($25.00) for the payment of current expenses not otherwise provided for in this Article. Any person duly summoned by the county surveyor to act as a commissioner for the drainage of any such creek, swamp, or branch, who shall refuse to serve, shall be guilty of a Class 3 misdemeanor. (1887, c. 267; Rev., ss. 3379, 4011; C.S., s. 5290; 1993, c. 539, s. 1073; 1994, Ex. Sess., c. 24, s. 14(c).)

Local Modification. — Hyde: 1901, c. 166.

§ 156-33. Duty of board; refusal to comply with their requirements misdemeanor.

The board provided for in G.S. 156-32 shall meet at the call of the chairman and shall proceed to inspect and examine the lands as described in the petition to be drained, and the board shall have power to summon witnesses, administer oaths, and take testimony, and if the board decides that the lands specified in the petition shall be drained, either upon the plea of health or for the benefit of the farms lying on or contiguous to such watercourse, then the board shall select a place at which the ditch shall be begun. They shall also decide the depth and width of the ditch to be dug, and shall proceed to survey, locate, lay off, and mark the course of the ditch, and the board shall assign to the landowners the amount of the labor to be performed and the amount of money to be paid for the purpose of defraying the necessary expenses by each landowner in proportion to the amount of lands drained or pro rata benefits received by the drainage of such lands, and the board shall specify the time in which the work so assigned shall be completed: Provided, no one shall be required to commence on the work assigned to him until the person next below him shall have completed his work in accordance with the specifications of the board. If any person shall refuse to comply with any of the requirements of the board he shall be guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor. (1887, c. 267, ss. 2, 7; Rev., ss. 3377, 4012; C.S., s. 5291; 1993, c. 539, s. 1074; 1994, Ex. Sess., c. 24, s. 14(c).)

§ 156-34. Report filed.

The board shall make a written report to the county commissioners showing all the acts and decisions of the board as to the length, depth, and width of the ditch, the names of all the owners of the lands that will be drained, and the amount of work to be performed and the amount of money to be paid by each person benefited by such drainage. But in case the board determines that the lands described in the petition shall not be drained, then the expenses of the board shall be paid out of the funds deposited with the county treasurer by the petitioners. (1887, c. 267, s. 3; Rev., s. 4013; C.S., s. 5292.)

§ 156-35. Owners to keep ditch open.

All persons whose lands shall be drained under the provisions of this Article shall keep the ditch on their lands clear of all rafts of logs, brush, or any trash that will obstruct the flow of water through the ditch. (1887, c. 267, s. 4; Rev., s. 4014; C.S., s. 5293.)

§ 156-36. Compensation of board.

The compensation of the board shall be as follows: The county surveyor shall receive three dollars ($3.00) per day and the other members shall receive one dollar and fifty cents ($1.50) per day while engaged in the duties imposed in this Chapter. (1887, c. 267, s. 5; Rev., s. 4015; C.S., s. 5294.)

SUBCHAPTER II. DRAINAGE BY CORPORATION.

ARTICLE 3.

Manner of Organization.

§ 156-37. Petition filed in superior court.

Any proprietor in fee of swamplands, which cannot be drained except by cutting a canal through the lands of another or other proprietor in fee, situated at a lower level and which would also be materially benefited by the cutting of such canal, who desires that such canal be cut on the terms on which it is hereinafter allowed, may apply by petition, setting forth the facts, to the superior court of the county in which any of the lands through which the canal will pass may lie. (1868-9, c. 164, s. 2; Code, s. 1311; Rev., s. 3996; C.S., s. 5295.)

CASE NOTES

Evidence Held Insufficient to Show Establishment of Drainage Corporation. — Where petitioners showed only the granting of an easement in response to a petition by an individual to be allowed to drain into an existing canal on the lands of another under the provisions of §§ 156-2, 156-3 and 156-10, such evidence was insufficient to show the establishment of a drainage corporation under this section. In re Atkinson-Clark Canal Co., 231 N.C. 131, 56 S.E.2d 442 (1949).

Burden of Proof Where Drainage Assess- ment Challenged. — When the validity of a drainage assessment is challenged, the burden is upon the drainage district or corporation to show that it was created in substantial compliance with the applicable statutes and that the assessments were levied pursuant to and in compliance with the statutory provisions. In re Atkinson-Clark Canal Co., 231 N.C. 131, 56 S.E.2d 442 (1949).

Stated in Sawyer Canal Co. v. Keys, 232 N.C. 664, 62 S.E.2d 67 (1950).

§ 156-38. Commissioners appointed; report required.

On the establishment by the petitioner of his allegations, the court shall appoint three persons as commissioners who, having been duly sworn, shall examine the premises and inquire and report:

- (1) Whether the lands of the petitioner can be conveniently drained otherwise than through those of some other person.
- (2) Through the lands of what other persons a canal to drain the lands of the petitioner would properly pass, considering the interests of all concerned.
- (3) A description of the several pieces of lands through which the canal would pass, and the present values of such portions of the pieces of lands as would be benefited by it, and the reasons for arriving at the conclusion as to the benefit.
- (4) The route and plan of the canal, including its breadth, depth, and slope, as nearly as they can be calculated, with all other particulars necessary for calculating its cost.
- (5) The probable cost of the canal and of a road on its bank, and of such other work, if any, as may be necessary for its profitable use.

- (6) The proportion of the benefit (after a deduction of all damages) which each proprietor would receive by the proposed canal and a road on its bank if deemed necessary and in which each ought, in equity and justice, to pay toward their construction and permanent support.
- (7) With their report they shall return a map explaining, as accurately as may be, the various matters required to be stated in their report. (1868-9, c. 164, s. 3; Code, s. 1312; Rev., s. 3997; C.S., s. 5296.)

CASE NOTES

Constitutionality of Assessments. — An assessment made under the provisions of this Subchapter is constitutional and valid. Middle Canal Co. v. Whitley, 172 N.C. 100, 90 S.E. 1 (1916).

Collateral Attack on Assessment. — In an action to enforce payment of an assessment, when the assessment does not appear to be void on its face, it may not be collaterally attacked by defendant landowner. Middle Canal Co. v. Whitley, 172 N.C. 100, 90 S.E. 1 (1916).

Confirmation of Report as to Those Not Objecting. — Report of the commissioners, assessing persons for benefits accruing to their lands from the operations of plaintiff canal company, should have been confirmed by the court as to those defendants who did not object; but as to those who did object, the court should have proceeded to try the issues involved in the controversy. Lock's Creek Canal Co. v.

McKeithan, 89 N.C. 52 (1883).

Right of Landowners to Notice. — Landowners whose interests might be affected under proceedings under the provisions of this Chapter are entitled to notice. Gamble v. McCrady, 75 N.C. 509 (1876).

Notice Held Sufficient. — It was immaterial whether or not landowner had notice of a meeting at which a committee was appointed to assess the lands in the district and determine the amount of each assessment, when the assessment was accordingly made, and was duly ratified and confirmed at a subsequent meeting regularly called and held in accordance with the statute, of which he had notice. Middle Canal Co. v. Whitley, 172 N.C. 100, 90 S.E. 1 (1916).

§ 156-39. Surveyor employed.

The commissioner may employ a surveyor to prepare the map required to accompany their report. (1868-9, c. 164, s. 4; Code, s. 1313; Rev., s. 3998; C.S., s. 5297.)

§ 156-40. Confirmation of report.

If it appear that the lands on the lower level will be increased in value twenty-five percent (25%) or upwards by the proposed improvement, within one year after the completion thereof, and that the cost of making such improvement will not exceed three fourths of the present estimated value of the land to be benefited, and that the proprietors of at least one half in value of the land to be affected consent to the improvement, the court may confirm such report, either in full or with such modifications therein as shall be just and equitable. (1868-9, c. 164, s. 5; Code, s. 1314; Rev., s. 3999; C.S., s. 5298.)

CASE NOTES

Prerequisites to Establishment of Drainage Corporation. — In order to establish a drainage corporation, it is necessary that a petition in conformity with § 156-37 be filed, that commissioners be appointed and that they file a report in conformity with § 156-38, and that there be an adjudication and confirmation of the report. It is only after such confirmation that the corporation may be declared to exist and may proceed to organize and levy assessments. In re Atkinson-Clark Canal Co., 231 N.C. 131, 56 S.E.2d 442 (1949).

§ 156-41. Proprietors become a corporation.

Upon a final adjudication, confirming the report, the proprietors of the several pieces of land adjudged to be benefited by the improvement shall be declared a corporation, of which the capital stock shall be double the estimated cost of the improvements, and in which the several owners of the land adjudged to be benefited shall be corporators, holding shares of stock in the proportions in which they are adjudged liable for the expense of making and keeping up the improvement. (1868-9, c. 164, s. 6; Code, s. 1315; Rev., s. 4000; C.S., s. 5299.)

§ 156-42. Organization; corporate name, officers and powers.

The clerk of the court of the county in which the proceeding is pending or any corporator, who is a petitioner, may call a meeting of the corporators, at which meeting the corporators shall choose a name for the corporation, unless the commissioners selected the name, elect a president, vice-president, secretary and treasurer, but said officers shall be chosen or elected from the corporators who are petitioners in the proceeding; and they shall also choose or elect a board of directors and they shall be chosen or elected from the corporators who are petitioners in the proceeding. The corporators shall also make all bylaws and regulations, not contrary to law, which may be necessary and proper for effecting the purpose of the corporation, but said duty may be delegated to the board of directors. They shall fix the number of shares of stock, and assign to each proprietor or corporator his proper number, but this duty and right may be delegated to and done by the board of directors. The board of directors shall have such powers as are generally given to directors under the corporation law of the State; and they shall assess the sums or amount which shall be paid by each proprietor or corporator in conformity with and in compliance with the report of the commissioners on which the corporation is based. When said assessments against said proprietors or corporators and their lands affected are duly certified to the clerk of the superior court of the county in which such proceeding was instituted, the same shall be passed upon by the clerk of court and when approved by the clerk, said assessments shall become judgments against the several proprietors, corporators and owners so assessed, and the same shall be liens on the lands of the owners or corporators against whom said assessments were made and judgments entered, subject only to taxes, but said judgments shall be judgments in rem only. The board of directors will also have power, if they deem it proper, to fix and prescribe the time, mode and manner of payment; and do such other things as are necessary for the construction, enlargement and keeping up or maintaining said canal and improvement. In every meeting of the corporators or stockholders, each proprietor or corporator shall have one vote for each share of stock owned by him. (1868-9, c. 164, s. 7; Code, s. 1316; Rev., s. 4001; C.S., s. 5300; 1939, c. 180, s. 1.)

§ 156-43. Incorporation of canal already constructed; commissioners; reports.

Whenever the proprietors of any canal already cut shall desire to become incorporated, any number of the proprietors, not less than one third in number, may file their petition before the clerk of the superior court of the county in which the canal is located, or in either county, where the canal may be located in more than one county, setting forth the names of the proprietors, the length and size of the canal, the names of the owners of land draining in such canal, and the quantity of land tributary thereto. And upon filing the petition, summons shall issue to all parties having an easement in the canal, returnable as in other special proceedings; upon the return thereof, or upon a day fixed by the clerk for hearing same, all owners of the canal may become corporators therein, and upon failure of any to avail themselves of that right, they shall not be entitled to become corporators, except under such bylaws and regulations as such corporation shall make and declare. But those who fail to avail themselves of the benefit of this Subchapter shall not be deprived of their easement in the canal, but shall enjoy the same upon payment to the corporation of the assessment made upon them pro rata with the corporators; such assessment shall be made on the land tributary to the canal and apportioned pro rata to each owner thereof; it shall be made by the corporation on 10 days' notice to each owner of the land, under such rules and regulations as the bylaws may prescribe; but any person dissatisfied therewith shall have the right to appeal to a jury at the regular term of the superior court of the county, and the amount of damages assessed shall be a first lien on the land of the owner against whom judgment shall be rendered.

Upon the return date of the summons or on the hearing by the clerk as provided in this section, the clerk of the court may appoint three persons as commissioners, who having been duly sworn shall examine the premises and inquire and report:

- (1) The route and plan of the canal, including the breadth, depth and slope as nearly as they can be calculated, with all other particulars necessary for calculating the cost of enlarging and improving said canal.
- (2) The probable cost of the improvement and enlargement of said canal.
- (3) The proportion which each proprietor or corporator ought in equity and justice to pay toward the enlargement, improvement and permanent support and upkeep of said canal.
- (4) With their report they shall return a map explaining as accurately as may be, the various matters required and necessary in aid or explanation of their report.
- (5) The said report shall be heard and determined as other reports in special proceedings, and if approved by the clerk, such proprietors shall become a body corporate or a corporation.
- (6) A meeting of the corporators may be called by the clerk of court or by any corporator or proprietor who is a petitioner in the proceeding, and at such meeting a president, vice-president, secretary and treasurer shall be elected from the proprietors or corporators who are petitioners; and also a board of directors shall be elected from the proprietors or corporators who are petitioners in the proceeding.
- (7) The board of directors shall assess the sum or amount which shall be paid by each proprietor or corporator in conformity and compliance with the report of the commissioners on which the corporation was based. When said assessments against said proprietors or corporators and their lands affected are duly certified to the clerk of the superior court of the county in which said proceeding was pending and instituted, the same shall be passed upon by the clerk of court, and when approved by the clerk, said assessments shall become judgments against the several proprietors or corporators so assessed, and the same shall be liens on the lands of the owners or corporators against whom said assessments were made and judgments entered, subject only to taxes, but said judgments shall be judgments in rem only. The board of directors will also, if they deem it proper, fix and prescribe the time, manner and mode of payment. (1889, c. 380; 1901, c. 670; Rev., s. 4008; C.S., s. 5301; 1939, c. 180, s. 2.)

CASE NOTES

Statutory provisions determine the property liable to drainage assessment. Hence, to constitute a valid assessment the particular land against which it is levied must come within the meaning of this section. In re Westover Canal, 230 N.C. 91, 52 S.E.2d 225 (1949).

Assessment to Be Levied Only on Property Benefited. — The general rule is well settled that a special assessment for the purpose of drainage can be levied only upon property benefited by the improvement. It is said that the legal theory underlying drainage assessments is one of benefit increasing the value of the land and justifying its assessment. In re Westover Canal, 230 N.C. 91, 52 S.E.2d 225 (1949).

Relief Where Tract Not Benefited by Inclusion in District. — Where it clearly appears that a canal will neither drain a particular tract of land nor render it more accessible, there is no valid reason for including it in the district, and if it is nevertheless arbitrarily made a part thereof, the owner may obtain relief. In re Westover Canal, 230 N.C. 91, 52 S.E.2d 225 (1949).

Meaning of "Land Tributary to the Canal". — As used in this section, the phrases "land tributary thereto" and "land tributary to the canal" mean land from which water drains or flows into the canal. In re Westover Canal, 230 N.C. 91, 52 S.E.2d 225 (1949).

Burden of Proof on Appeal. — This section gives to any person dissatisfied with an assessment the right to appeal to a jury at a regular term of the superior court of the county. In such event, it would seem that the authority undertaking to establish the assessment would still have the burden of proving the provisions of the statute essential to the creation of a valid assessment. It may be that the order of the clerk of the superior court approving and confirming the assessment as proposed by the commissioners and the board of directors of the corporation creates a prima facie case. But a prima facie case, or prima facie evidence, does not change the burden of proof. In re Westover Canal, 230 N.C. 91, 52 S.E.2d 225 (1949).

In order to constitute a valid drainage assessment, it is necessary that the land assessed drain or flow into the canal, and therefore on appeal to the superior court on a landowner's exceptions to the order of the clerk confirming assessments as proposed by the commissioners, the drainage district has the burden of proving the number of acres of land owned by the exceptor which drain into the canal, and what amount said land should be assessed per acre. The fact that the exceptor first introduced evidence, presumably on the theory that the order of the clerk made out a prima facie case, does not alter the rule as to the burden of proof. In re Westover Canal, 230 N.C. 91, 52 S.E.2d 225 (1949).

Finality of Judgment of Clerk of Superior Court. — A judgment entered by a clerk of the superior court in a special proceeding under this section will stand as a judgment of the court, if not excepted to and reversed or modified on appeal, as allowed by law. In re Atkinson-Clark Canal Co., 234 N.C. 374, 67 S.E.2d 276 (1951).

Where the clerk's decision was erroneous, and the petitioner undertook to appeal therefrom, but the appeal was dismissed in the superior court, and notice of appeal was given to the Supreme Court, but the appeal was not perfected, the judgment of the clerk of the superior court was as final and effective as if no appeal therefrom had been attempted. In re Atkinson-Clark Canal Co., 234 N.C. 374, 67 S.E.2d 276 (1951).

In an action to compel corporate defendant to purchase property from plaintiffs in accordance with purchase contract, where defendant alleged that a judgment creating a canal corporation created a lien on the subject property which constituted an encumbrance unsatisfactory to it and rendered plaintiffs' title unmarketable, the trial court erred in directing a verdict in defendant's favor on this ground, since the judgment creating a canal corporation was not entered into evidence at trial; there was no indication in the record on appeal that the trial court took judicial notice of the judgment; a copy of the judgment was not included in the record on appeal; and there was thus no evidence of a canal constituting an encumbrance on the subject property. Waters v. North Carolina Phosphate Corp., 50 N.C. App. 252, 273 S.E.2d 517; cert. denied, 302 N.C. 402, 279 S.E.2d 357 (1981).

ARTICLE 4.

Rights and Liabilities in the Corporation.

§ 156-44. Shares of stock annexed to land.

The ownership of the shares of stock is indissolubly annexed to the ownership of the pieces of land adjudged to be benefited by the improvement; and such shares, or a part thereof proportionate to the area of such land that may descend or be conveyed for any longer time than three years, shall, upon such descent or conveyance, descend and pass with the land, even although such shares be not mentioned in the deed of conveyance, and although their transfer be forbidden by such deed so that every owner of such land in possession, except a tenant for a term of years, not exceeding three, and every owner in reversion or remainder after a term not exceeding three years, shall, during his ownership, be entitled to all the rights and privileges and be subject to all the obligations and burdens of a corporator. Every attempted sale of shares otherwise than as annexed to the land shall be void. (1868-9, c. 164, s. 8; Code, s. 1317; Rev., s. 4002; C.S., s. 5302.)

CASE NOTES

Stated in Sawyer Canal Co. v. Keys, 232 N.C. 664, 62 S.E.2d 67 (1950).

§ 156-45. Shareholders to pay assessments.

Every corporator shall be bound to obey the lawful bylaws of the company, and pay all dues lawfully assessed on him: Provided, he shall in no case pay more than his proportion of the expenses as fixed by this Subchapter; and such dues may be collected in the corporate name in any court having jurisdiction; and every assessment duly docketed in the county where the land to be affected lies shall be a lien on the lands of the debtor which are connected with the corporation from the date of such docketing. (1868-9, c. 164, s. 9; Code, s. 1318; Rev., s. 4003; C.S., s. 5303.)

Cross References. — As to collection of assessments out of other property of delinquent, see § 156-106.

CASE NOTES

An assessment made upon landowners constitutes a lien upon the lands therein and is enforceable by proceedings in rem in a court having equitable jurisdiction. Personal judgment against the defendant may not be had, as in actions arising ex contractu. Middle Canal Co. v. Whitley, 172 N.C. 100, 90 S.E. 1 (1916); Long Creek Drainage Dist. v. Huffstetler, 173 N.C. 523, 92 S.E. 368 (1917).

Which Is Enforceable by Execution. — Assessments made in accordance with the statute become liens on the lands when properly certified by the officers of the corporation and docketed in the office of the superior court of the proper county; and executions may issue directing that such lands be sold to pay the assessments and the costs. Middle Canal Co. v. Whitley, 172 N.C. 100, 90 S.E. 1 (1916).

A justice of the peace (now magistrate) had no jurisdiction over actions to enforce payment of such assessments, and such actions would be dismissed upon motion to nonsuit when brought in a justice's court. Middle Canal Co. v. Whitley, 172 N.C. 100, 90 S.E.

1 (1916); Long Creek Drainage Dist. v. Huffstetler, 173 N.C. 523, 92 S.E. 368 (1917).

Review of Assessments by Certiorari. — The courts will review by writ of certiorari the action of the drainage corporation in making illegal assessments and enjoin such assessments as are absolutely void upon their face.

Middle-Canal Co. v. Whitley, 172 N.C. 100, 90 S.E. 1 (1916).

An assessment that does not appear to be void on its face cannot be attacked collaterally. Middle Canal Co. v. Whitley, 172 N.C. 100, 90 S.E. 1 (1916).

§ 156-46. Payment of dues entitles to use of canal.

Every corporator paying his dues legally assessed without regard to the number of his shares, shall be entitled to the full and free use of the canal for drainage and navigation, and of the road for passage and transportation. Bylaws may be made to regulate these rights, but not so as to produce an inequality. (1868-9, c. 164, s. 10; Code, s. 1319; Rev., s. 4004; C.S., s. 5304.)

§ 156-47. Rights of infant owners protected.

If any proprietor whose lands are adjudged to be benefited by a canal shall be an infant, no process shall be issued against him during his minority, or within 12 months thereafter, to enforce payments of any assessment, and he may, at any time within such 12 months, apply to have any order, judgment, or decree made against him set aside as to him. If the infant or his guardian shall, during his minority, and the 12 months next thereafter, pay the dues assessed on him, he shall have all the rights and privileges of corporator, to be exercised through his guardian. If the infant shall fail to pay, he shall not have any such rights, but if no action to set aside the judgment of the court creating the corporation shall have been brought by him as aforesaid, or upon the decision of such action against him, he shall be entitled to receive his proper share of stock and to possess all the rights and be bound by all the liabilities of a corporator, including a liability for assessments made during his minority, but not for interest on such, nor for any penalty for their prior nonpayment. (1868-9, c. 164, s. 11; Code, s. 1320; Rev., s. 4005; C.S., s. 5305.)

§ 156-48. Compensation for damage to lands.

If any proprietor of lands shall be damaged by any improvement proposed, the commissioners shall so report, and he shall be entitled to be compensated as may be just by the proprietor whose lands are benefited in proportion to the benefit to them respectively; but in estimating such damages the benefit shall be deducted, and such proprietor shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges of a corporator as respects the use of the improvement, but shall not be entitled to a vote, or be bound for the assessment. (1868-9, c. 164, s. 12; Code, s. 1321; Rev., s. 4006; C.S., s. 5306.)

§ 156-49. Dissolution of corporation.

If, from any cause, the canal or other improvement shall become or shall prove to be valueless, any corporator may apply as is provided in other cases of special proceedings, and the court may dissolve the corporation created in connection with it. (1868-9, c. 164, s. 13; Code, s. 1322; Rev., s. 4007; C.S., s. 5307.)

§ 156-50. Laborer's lien for work on canal.

Whenever work or repair shall be done on such canal and any of the parties owning lands liable to be assessed for such work or repairs shall fail or refuse to pay the amount assessed upon their land, then and in that event the laborers performing such work shall have a lien upon such land to the extent of the amount assessed against the same by the corporation, and such lien may be enforced in the same manner as provided by the laws of this State for the enforcement of laborers' lien. (1899, c. 600, s. 2; Rev., s. 4009; C.S., s. 5308.)

§ 156-51. Penalty for nonpayment of assessments.

Whenever any person whose lands have been adjudged liable to contribute to the maintenance or repair of such canal shall fail or refuse to pay the amount assessed against his land for such maintenance or repair for 30 days after such payment has been demanded by the company, then the company may give such person notice in writing of its intention to cut off his right of drainage into the canal, and if such person shall still neglect and refuse to pay such assessment for 30 days after such notice, then the company may proceed to so obstruct and dam up the ditches of such delinquent as will effectually prevent his draining in the canal. (1899, c. 600, s. 3; Rev., s. 4010; C.S., s. 5309.)

CASE NOTES

Applicability of Section. — The provisions of this section providing for a penalty for nonpayment of assessments relate only to the remedy available where incorporators fail and refuse to pay assessments duly levied. Sawyer Canal Co. v. Keys, 232 N.C. 664, 62 S.E.2d 67 (1950).

In a proceeding by drainage corporations to have lands of respondents assessed for improvements, upon allegations that respondents were not members of the corporation but that nevertheless their lands drained into the canals and would be materially benefited by the improvements, it was held that respondents' contention that the sole remedy of petitioners was under the provisions of this section to construct dams to prevent water from draining from respondents' lands into the canals was untenable, since the provisions of this section were inapplicable to such proceeding, being applicable solely as a remedy where incorporators fail and refuse to pay assessments duly levied. Sawyer Canal Co. v. Keys, 232 N.C. 664, 62 S.E.2d 67 (1950).

Cited in Sawyer Canal Co. v. Keys, 234 N.C. 360, 67 S.E.2d 259 (1951).

§ 156-52. Corporation authorized to issue bonds.

The corporations organized under this Subchapter are authorized to issue bonds to such an amount and in such denomination as they may elect, payable at such times as may be provided, and to sell the same at not less than par, the proceeds of the sale of such bonds to be used for the payment of the costs of survey and construction and maintenance of the canal. The bonds shall constitute a lien upon the lands drained or improved by the canal as described in the reports of the commissioners. (1908, c. 75, s. 1; C.S., s. 5310.)

§ 156-53. Payment of bonds enforced.

Upon default of the payment of the interest or principal of such bonds, the holders of the bonds of the corporations organized under this Subchapter shall have a right to enforce the lien created by G.S. 156-52 by civil actions in the superior courts of the State. (1908, c. 75, s. 2; C.S., s. 5311.)

SUBCHAPTER III. DRAINAGE DISTRICTS.

ARTICLE 5.

*Establishment of Districts.§ 156-54. Jurisdiction to establish districts.

The clerk of the superior court of any county in the State of North Carolina shall have jurisdiction, power and authority to establish levee or drainage districts either wholly or partly located in his county, and which shall constitute a political subdivision of the State, and to locate and establish levees, drains or canals, and cause to be constructed, straightened, widened or deepened, any ditch, drain or watercourse, and to build levees or embankments and erect tidal gates and pumping plants for the purpose of draining and reclaiming wet, swamp or overflowed land; and it is hereby declared that the drainage of swamplands and the drainage of surface water from agricultural lands and the reclamation of tidal marshes shall be considered a public use and benefit and conducive to the public health, convenience and welfare, and that the districts heretofore and hereafter created under the law shall be and constitute political subdivisions of the State, with authority to provide by law to levy taxes and assessments for the construction and maintenance of said public works. (1909, c. 442, s. 1; C.S., s. 5312; 1921, c. 7.)

CASE NOTES

Constitutionality. — This and the following sections of this Subchapter are constitutional. Sanderlin v. Luken, 152 N.C. 738, 68 S.E. 225 (1910); In re Big Cold Water Creek Drainage Dist., 162 N.C. 127, 78 S.E. 14 (1913); Shelton v. White, 163 N.C. 90, 79 S.E. 427 (1913); Banks v. Lane, 170 N.C. 14, 86 S.E. 713 (1915), petition for rehearing denied, 171 N.C. 505, 88 S.E. 754 (1916); Lower Creek Drainage Comm'rs v. Mitchell, 170 N.C. 324, 87 S.E. 112 (1915); Beaufort County Lumber Co. v. Drainage Comm'rs, 174 N.C. 647, 94 S.E. 457 (1917).

Vested Rights Not Affected by 1921 Act. — The proceeding in forming a drainage district under the original act was judicial and not administrative, and the 1921 amendment could not affect vested rights of landowners acquired under orders, judgments or decrees made in pursuance of the powers conferred by the original act. Broadhurst v. Board of Comm'rs, 195 N.C. 439, 142 S.E. 477 (1928).

Where the rights of landowners in the Mattamuskeet Drainage District were determined in a court having jurisdiction as to assessments in proportion to the benefits conferred, they were not affected by the subsequent amendment of 1921, for such would be to impair the vested rights of those whose property had been assessed by the final judgment. O'Neal v. Mann, 193 N.C. 153, 136 S.E. 379 (1927).

The drainage act, with its various amendments, is a statewide public statute. Nesbit v. Kafer, 222 N.C. 48, 21 S.E.2d 903 (1942).

Public Purposes of Subchapter Recognized. — This Subchapter, authorizing the establishment of certain levee or drainage districts, which presents a scheme for the drainage of lowlands in which the public of the locality is generally interested, which is at once comprehensive, adequate and efficient, and in which the rights of all persons to be affected have been fully considered and protected, is not objectionable on the ground that it is for the benefit of private landowners and not for public purposes. Sanderlin v. Luken, 152 N.C. 738, 68 S.E. 225 (1910).

This Subchapter adopts a system for the cooperation of landowners in the drain- age of lands by forming drainage districts, which are to become quasi-public corporations, for the purpose of improving the health of the district and the fertility of the lands, under which the lands are assessed in proportion to the benefits derived and an organization is effected in each district to execute and maintain a system of drainage. In re Big Cold Water Creek Drainage Dist., 162 N.C. 127, 78 S.E. 14 (1913).

Basis of Legislative Authority. — The authority of the legislature to provide for the creation of levee and drainage districts is based upon the police power, the right of eminent domain and the taxing power. Shelton v. White, 163 N.C. 90, 79 S.E. 427 (1913).

The drainage of swamps and of surface water from agricultural lands in a drainage district is of public benefit and conducive to the public health, etc., thus falling within the police power; and proceedings thereunder are in the exercise of the right of eminent domain. Taylor v. Richardson, 176 N.C. 217, 96 S.E. 1027 (1918).

Clerk's Authority Not a Delegation of Legislative Power. — The authority and powers conferred by this Subchapter upon the clerk of the court do not constitute a delegation of legislative power and duty to the judicial department of the State prohibited by the Constitution, the powers and duties conferred being of a judicial nature in relation to the prescribed proceedings to be instituted for the establishment of drainage districts. Sanderlin v. Luken, 152 N.C. 738, 68 S.E. 225 (1910).

Drainage districts created pursuant to this Subchapter are quasi-municipal corporations. In re Albemarle Drainage Dist., Beaufort County No. 5, 255 N.C. 338, 121 S.E.2d 599 (1961).

And Can Alter Their Boundaries Only as Permitted by Statute. — Municipal or quasi-municipal corporations created and having their boundaries fixed by statutory formula can alter their boundaries only as permitted by statute. In re Albemarle Drainage Dist., Beaufort County No. 5, 255 N.C. 338, 121 S.E.2d 599 (1961).

Drainage District Subject to Open Meetings Requirements. — As a political subdivision of the state, organized pursuant to the provisions of this section with quasi-judicial and administrative authority, plaintiff drainage district was subject to the open meetings requirements of § 143-318.10. Northampton County Drainage Dist. No. 1 v. Bailey, 92 N.C. App. 68, 373 S.E.2d 560 (1988), modified on other grounds, 326 N.C. 742, 392 S.E.2d 352 (1990).

Pendency of Proceedings as Notice as to All Lands in District. — The pendency of a proceeding to lay off a drainage district under the provisions of the act is notice as to all the lands embraced in the district. Newby & White v. Board of Drainage Comm'rs, 163 N.C. 24, 79 S.E. 266 (1913).

Map Held Sufficient Notice to Subsequent Purchasers. — Where, in a proceeding in Beaufort County, a drainage district comprising lands in both Beaufort and Craven Counties was duly created and organized under this and the following sections, and assessment rolls, showing assessments against each tract of land in the district, were made and filed in each county, such assessments, as they became due, constituted liens upon the lands within the district to which they related, and it was error for the court to dismiss an action in the nature of a mortgage foreclosure, for the collection of such drainage assessments against lands in Craven County, even where the assessment rolls for Craven County had been removed and there was left in that county no other record relating to the drainage district except a map on which were shown the boundaries of the several tracts of land within the district in Craven County, as the map itself was sufficient notice to a subsequent purchaser of the proceedings, including the assessment rolls filed in Beaufort County. Nesbit v. Kafer, 222 N.C. 48, 21 S.E.2d 903 (1942).

Validity of a district laid off according to the drainage acts cannot be collaterally attacked. Newby & White v. Board of Drainage Comm'rs, 163 N.C. 24, 79 S.E. 266 (1913); Banks v. Lane, 170 N.C. 14, 86 S.E. 713 (1915), petition for rehearing denied, 171 N.C. 505, 88 S.E. 754 (1916).

Proceedings Upheld. — Proceedings for the establishment of a drainage district under this Article, and bonds to be issued therefor, would not be held as defective because further steps were not taken for several years after they had been commenced, the court holding that they were still pending, and because of the fact that the engineer and viewers did not file a profile map showing the surface of the ground, bottom grades, etc., at the time of the final report, as required by § 156-69, where this was later done upon order of the board of drainage commissioners, and otherwise the provisions of the statutes had been strictly followed. Oden v. Bell, 185 N.C. 403, 117 S.E. 340 (1923).

As to right of receiver to intervene and become party to suit in federal court, see Board of Drainage Comm'rs v. Lafayette Southside Bank, 27 F.2d 286 (4th Cir. 1928).

As to construction of drainage act for Mattamuskeet Lake, see Carter v. Board of Drainage Comm'rs, 156 N.C. 183, 72 S.E. 380 (1911).

Cited in Northampton County Drainage Dist. Number One v. Bailey, 326 N.C. 742, 392 S.E.2d 352 (1990).

§ 156-55. Venue; special proceedings.

When the lands proposed to be drained and created into a drainage district are located in two or more counties, the clerk of the superior court of either county has the jurisdiction conferred by this Subchapter. Venue is in that county in which the petition is first filed. The law and the rules regulating special proceedings apply in the proceeding, except as modified by this Subchapter. The proceedings may be ex parte or adversary. (1909, c. 42, ss. 2, 38; C.S., s. 5313; 1999-216, s. 19.)

Effect of Amendments. — Session Laws 1999-216, s. 19, effective January 1, 2000, and applicable to all orders or judgments subject to this act that are entered on or after that date, rewrote the section.

CASE NOTES

Proceedings to form a drainage district under this Subchapter are regarded as proceedings in rem. Staton v. Staton, 148 N.C. 490, 62 S.E. 596 (1908); Banks v. Lane, 170 N.C. 14, 86 S.E. 713 (1915), petition for rehearing denied, 171 N.C. 505, 88 S.E. 754 (1916); Taylor v. Richardson, 176 N.C. 217, 96 S.E. 1027 (1918).

§ 156-56. Petition filed.

A petition signed by a majority of the resident landowners in a proposed drainage district or by the owners of three fifths of all the land which will be affected or assessed for the expense of the proposed improvements may be filed in the office of the clerk of the superior court of any county in which a part of the lands is located, setting forth that any specific body or district of land in the county and adjoining counties, described in such a way as to convey an intelligent idea as to the location of such land, is subject to overflow or too wet for cultivation, and the public benefit or utility or the public health, convenience or welfare will be promoted by draining, ditching, or leveeing the same or by changing or improving the natural watercourses, and setting forth therein, as far as practicable, the starting point, route, and terminus and lateral branches, if necessary, of the proposed improvement.

The petition will also show whether or not the proposed drainage is for the reclamation of lands not then fit for cultivation or for the improvement of land already under cultivation. It shall also state that, if a reclamation district is proposed to be established, such lands so reclaimed will be of such value as to justify the reclamation. (1909, c. 442, s. 2; C.S., s. 5314; 1921, c. 76; Pub. Loc. 1923, c. 88, s. 2; 1925, c. 85; 1927, c. 98.)

205; Robeson: 1925, c. 144; Rowan: 1925, c. 144.

Cross References. — For distinction between reclamation districts and improvement districts, see § 156-62(5).

CASE NOTES

This is a flexible proceeding, and is to be modified and molded by decrees from time to time to promote the objects of the proceeding. Adams v. Joyner, 147 N.C. 77, 60 S.E. 725 (1908); Staton v. Staton, 148 N.C. 490, 62 S.E. 596 (1908); In re Lyon Swamp Drainage Dist., 175 N.C. 270, 95 S.E. 485 (1918).

Assent of Statutory Number of Owners

Sufficient. — It is not necessary that every owner of land within a drainage district should have assented to its formation when the statutory number thereof have done so. Taylor v. Richardson, 176 N.C. 217, 96 S.E. 1027 (1918).

Property Must Be Described. — One of the essentials of the proceeding is that the property sought to be charged shall be identified by description in the proceedings. Dover Lumber Co. v. Board of Comm'rs, 173 N.C. 117, 91 S.E. 714 (1917).

§ 156-57. Bond filed and summons issued.

Upon filing with the petition a bond for the amount of fifty dollars ($50.00) per mile for each mile of the ditch or proposed improvement, signed by two or more sureties or by some lawful and authorized surety company, to be approved by the clerk of superior court, conditioned for the payment of all costs and expenses incurred in the proceeding in case the court does not grant the prayer of the petition, the clerk, shall at any time thereafter, issue summons to be served on all the defendant landowners, who have not joined in the petition and whose lands are included in the proposed drainage district. The summons may be served by publication as to any defendant who cannot be personally served as provided by law.

The attorney for the petitioners shall certify to the clerk of the superior court, prior to the hearing on the final report of the board of viewers, that due diligence has been used to determine the names of all landowners within the area of the proposed drainage district; and, that summons has been issued for such landowners, so determined, and served either by personal service or by publication for all known and unknown landowners, insofar as could be determined by due diligence. (1909, c. 442, s. 2; C.S., s. 5315; 1967, c. 621.)

Cross References. — See Local Modification under § 156-56.

CASE NOTES

Notice of Summons to Be Given to All Affected Parties. — The drainage laws of North Carolina have been largely copied from the acts in Indiana and Illinois, and following the construction of these acts for the long period of time the acts have been in force, it is essential that notice of summons in all such proceedings be given to all parties who will be affected thereby. Dover Lumber Co. v. Board of Comm'rs, 173 N.C. 117, 91 S.E. 714 (1917).

Requirement That Summons Be Served on Landowners Mandatory. — This section is mandatory in requiring a "summons to be served on all the defendant landowners who have not joined in the petition and whose lands are included in the proposed drainage district." Dover Lumber Co. v. Board of Comm'rs, 173 N.C. 117, 91 S.E. 714 (1917).

What Notice Is Sufficient. — It would interfere with a much-needed public development if, as a prerequisite thereto, and before a final order could be made, all defects of title and mortgages or liens that might be claimed had to be looked up and adjudicated. It is sufficient that summons is served upon the parties in possession under an apparent legal title, and that before final adjudication notice is given in the manner prescribed, in order that parties claiming liens by mortgage or otherwise, or title to the land adversely to those in possession, should have opportunity to come in and oppose confirmation of the final report. Banks v. Lane, 170 N.C. 14, 86 S.E. 713 (1915), petition for rehearing denied, 171 N.C. 505, 88 S.E. 754 (1916). See also, Drainage Comm'rs v. East Carolina Home & Farm Ass'n, 165 N.C. 697, 81 S.E. 947 (1914).

Subsequent Notification. — The proceedings for forming a drainage district are in rem; and where a valid statute has been complied with therein, and it appears that an owner has not been served with process, it is admissible to notify him, in possession, nunc pro tunc, and to have the lands therein assessed. Taylor v. Richardson, 176 N.C. 217, 96 S.E. 1027 (1918).

Effect of Failure to Serve Summons. — Where a landowner having an interest, within the meaning of the statute, has not been served, and it does not appear that he was an apparent party, an order laying an assessment on his property is void, the proceedings as they relate to him are a nullity, and the assessment may be restrained. Dover Lumber Co. v. Board of Comm'rs, 173 N.C. 117, 91 S.E. 714 (1917), distinguishing Banks v. Lane, 170 N.C. 14, 86 S.E. 713 (1915), petition for rehearing denied, 171 N.C. 505, 88 S.E. 754 (1916), holding a mortgagee not a necessary party.

The statute requires only landowners to be made parties in drainage proceedings.

Dover Lumber Co. v. Board of Comm'rs, 173 N.C. 117, 91 S.E. 714 (1917).

§ 156-58. Publication in case of unknown owners.

If, at the time of the filing of the petition, or at any time subsequent thereto, it shall be made to appear to the court by affidavit or otherwise that the names of the owners of the whole or any share of any tracts of land are unknown, and cannot after due diligence be ascertained by the petitioners, the court shall order a notice in the nature of a summons to be given to all such persons by a publication of the petition, or of the substance thereof, and describing generally the tracts of land as to which the owners are unknown, with the order of the court thereon, in some newspaper published in the county wherein the land is located, or in some other county if no newspaper shall be published in the first-named county, which newspaper shall be designated in the order of the court, and a copy of such publication shall be also posted in at least three conspicuous places within the boundaries of the proposed district, and at the courthouse door of the county. Such publication in a newspaper and by posting shall be made for a period of four weeks. After the time of publication shall have expired, if no person claiming and asserting title to the tracts of land and entitled to notice shall appear, the court in its discretion may appoint some disinterested person to represent the unknown owners of such lands, and thereupon the court shall assume jurisdiction of the tracts of land and shall adjudicate as to such lands to the same extent as if the true owners were present and represented, and shall proceed against the land itself. If at any time during the pendency of the drainage proceeding the true owners of the lands shall appear in person, they may be made parties defendant of their own motion and without the necessity of personal service, and shall thereafter be considered as parties to the proceeding; but they shall have no right to except to or appeal from any order or judgment theretofore rendered, as to which the time for filing exceptions on notice shall have expired. (1911, c. 67, s. 1; C.S., s. 5316; 1953, c. 675, s. 25.)

CASE NOTES

Owners Failing to Oppose Proceeding Are Bound Thereby. — By virtue of the notice required by this section, the owners of land have the opportunity to intervene and assert any right they might have to oppose the proceeding, if deemed contrary to their interest. Not having done so, they are bound by the judgment under which bonds were issued. Banks v. Lane, 170 N.C. 14, 86 S.E. 713 (1915), petition for rehearing denied, 171 N.C. 505, 88 S.E. 754 (1916).

As Is Mortgagee. — In proceedings to form a drainage district under this statute, notice by publication is given of the filing of the report in the office of the clerk of the superior court, which is open to inspection to the landowner or other interested person, and a mortgagee of lands who does not intervene and assert his rights to oppose the proceedings is bound by the final judgment. Banks v. Lane, 170 N.C. 14, 86 S.E. 713 (1915), petition for rehearing denied, 171 N.C. 505, 88 S.E. 754 (1916).

Presumption of Regularity of Judgment.

— Where publication in accordance with this section has been made, every presumption is in favor of the regularity of the judgment. Taylor v. Richardson, 176 N.C. 217, 96 S.E. 1027 (1918).

§ 156-59. Board of viewers appointed by clerk.

The clerk shall, on the filing of petition and bond, appoint a disinterested and competent civil and drainage engineer and two resident freeholders of the county or counties in which the lands are located as a board of viewers to examine the lands described in the petition and make a preliminary report thereon. The drainage engineer shall be appointed upon the recommendation of the Department of Environment and Natural Resources; and no member of the board of viewers so appointed shall own any land within the boundaries of the proposed district. In the selection of the two members of the board of viewers, other than the engineer, the clerk before making the appointment shall make careful inquiry into the character and qualifications of the proposed members, to the end that the members so appointed shall possess the necessary character, capacity, fitness, and impartiality for the discharge of their important duties. (1909, c. 442, s. 2; 1917, c. 152, s. 1; C.S., s. 5317; 1961, c. 614, s. 4; c. 1198; 1973, c. 1262, s. 23; 1977, c. 771, s. 4; 1989, c. 727, s. 218(157); 1997-443, s. 11A.123.)

CASE NOTES

Applied in In re Drainage of Ahoskie Creek, 257 N.C. 337, 125 S.E.2d 908 (1962).

§ 156-60. Attorney for petitioners.

The petitioners shall select some learned attorney or attorneys to represent them, who shall prosecute the drainage proceeding and advise with the petitioners and board of viewers, and shall agree upon the compensation for his professional services up to the time when the district shall be established and the board of drainage commissioners elected, or as nearly so as the same may be approximated. If the petitioners are unable to agree upon the selection of an attorney or attorneys, the selection may be made by the clerk of the court. The foregoing provision shall not interfere with the right of any individual petitioner in the selection of an attorney to represent his individual interests if he shall deem the same desirable or necessary. (1917, c. 152, s. 1; C.S., s. 5318.)

§ 156-61. Estimate of expense and manner of payment; advancement of funds and repayment from assessments.

The clerk may make an estimate of the aggregate sum of money which shall appear to be necessary to pay all the expenses incident to the performance of the duties by the board of viewers, including the compensation of the drainage engineer and his necessary assistants, and also including the sum for the compensation of the attorney for the district, and such court costs as may probably accrue, which estimates shall embrace the period of services up to and including the establishment of the drainage district and the selection and appointment of the board of drainage commissioners. The clerk shall then estimate the number of acres of land owned or represented by the petitioners, as nearly so as may be practicable without actual survey, and shall assess each acre so represented a level rate per acre, to the end that such assessment will realize the sum of money which he has estimated as necessary to pay all necessary costs of the drainage proceeding up to the time of the appointment of the drainage commissioners, as above provided. The assessment above provided for which has been or may hereafter be levied shall constitute a first and paramount lien, second only to State and county taxes, upon the lands so assessed, and shall be collected in the same manner and by the same officers as county taxes are collected. The board of viewers, including the drainage engineer, shall not be required to enter upon the further discharge of their duties until the amount so estimated and assessed shall be paid in cash to the clerk of the court, which shall be retained by him as a court fund, and for which he shall be liable in his official capacity, and he shall be authorized to disburse the same in the prosecution of the drainage proceeding. Unless all the assessments shall be paid within a time to be fixed by the court, which may be extended from time to time, no further proceedings shall be had, and the proceeding shall be dismissed at the cost of the petitioners. If the entire sum so estimated and assessed shall not be paid to the clerk within the time limited, the amounts so paid shall be refunded to the petitioners pro rata after paying the necessary costs accrued. Nothing herein contained shall prevent one or more of the petitioners from subscribing and paying any sum in addition to their assessment in order to make up any deficiency arising from the delinquency of one or more of the petitioners. When the sum of money so estimated shall be paid, the board of viewers shall proceed with the discharge of their duties, and in all other respects the proceeding shall be prosecuted according to the law. After the district shall have been established and the board of drainage commissioners appointed, it shall be the duty of the board of drainage commissioners to refund to each of the petitioners the amount so paid by them as above provided, out of the first moneys which shall come into the hands of the board from the sale of bonds or otherwise, and the same shall be included in ascertaining the total cost of improvement.

In lieu of the procedures set forth in the preceding paragraph, the board of county commissioners may advance funds, or any part thereof, for the purposes set forth in the preceding paragraph. Such advances shall be made to a county official designated by the commissioners, and shall be disbursed upon such terms as the county commissioners may direct. If the district shall be organized, the funds advanced shall be repaid from assessments thereafter levied. (1917, c. 152, s. 1; C.S., s. 5319; 1941, c. 342; 1961, c. 614, s. 6; c. 662.)

§ 156-62. Examination of lands and preliminary report.

The board of viewers shall proceed to examine the land described in the petition, and other land if necessary to locate properly such improvement or improvements as are petitioned for, along the route described in the petition, or any other route answering the same purpose if found more practicable or feasible, and may make surveys such as may be necessary to determine the boundaries and elevation of the several parts of the district, and shall make and return to the clerk of the superior court within 30 days, unless the time shall be extended by the court, a written report, which shall set forth:

- (1) Whether the proposed drainage is practicable or not.
- (2) Whether it will benefit the public health or any public highway or be conducive to the general welfare of the community.
- (3) Whether the improvement proposed will benefit the lands sought to be benefited.
- (4) Whether or not all the lands that are benefited are included in the proposed drainage district.
- (5) Whether or not the district proposed to be formed is to be a reclamation district or an improvement district. A reclamation district is defined to be a district organized principally for reclaiming lands not already under cultivation. An improvement district is defined to be a district organized principally for the improvement of lands then under cultivation. The board of viewers shall further report, if the district is a reclamation district within the above definition, whether or not the proposed drainage would be justified by the additional value for agricultural purposes given to land so drained.

They shall also file with this report a map of the proposed drainage district, showing the location of the ditch or ditches or other improvement to be constructed and the lands that will be affected thereby, and such other information as they may have collected that will tend to show the correctness of their findings. (1909, c. 442, s. 3; C.S., s. 5320; 1927, c. 98, s. 2.)

§ 156-63. First hearing of preliminary report.

The clerk of the superior court shall consider this report. If the viewers report that the drainage is not practicable or that it will not benefit the public health or any public highway or be conducive to the general welfare of the community, and the court shall approve such findings, the petition shall be dismissed at the cost of the petitioners, and such petition shall likewise be dismissed at the cost of the petitioners if it is sought to set up a reclamation district and the viewers report that the cost of reclaiming the land would be so great as not to justify the expense of draining it. Such petition or proceeding may again be instituted by the same or additional landowners at any time after six months, upon proper allegations that conditions have changed or that material facts were omitted or overlooked. If the viewers report that the drainage is practicable and that it will benefit the public health or any public highway or be conducive to the general welfare of the community, and the court shall so find, then the court shall fix a day when the report will be further heard and considered. (1909, c. 442, s. 4; C.S., s. 5321; 1927, c. 98, s. 3.)

§ 156-64. Notice of further hearing.

If the petition is entertained by the court, notice shall be given by publication once a week for at least two consecutive weeks in some newspaper of general circulation within the county or counties, if one shall be published in such counties, and also by posting a written or printed notice at the door of the courthouse and at five conspicuous places within the drainage district, that on the date set, naming the day, the court will consider and pass upon the report of the viewers. At least 15 days shall intervene between the date of the publication and the posting of the notices and the date set for the hearing. (1909, c. 442, s. 5; C.S., s. 5322; 1963, c. 767, s. 1.)

§ 156-65. Further hearing, and district established.

At the date appointed for the hearing the court shall hear and determine any objections that may be offered to the report of the viewers. If it appear that there is any land within the proposed levee or drainage district that will not be affected by the leveeing or drainage thereof, such lands shall be excluded and the names of the owners withdrawn from such proceeding; and if it shall be shown that there is any land not within the proposed district that will be affected by the construction of the proposed levee or drain, the boundary of the district shall be so changed as to include such land, and such additional landowners shall be made parties plaintiff or defendant, respectively, and summons shall issue accordingly, as hereinbefore provided. After such change in the boundary is made, the sufficiency of the petition shall be verified, to determine whether or not it conforms to the requirements hereinbefore provided. The efficiency of the drainage or levees may also be determined, and if it appears that the location of any levee or drain can be changed so as to make it more effective, or that other branches or spurs should be constructed, or that any branch or spur projected may be eliminated or other changes made that will tend to increase the benefits of the proposed work, such modification and changes shall be made by the board. The engineer and the other two viewers may attend this meeting and give any information or evidence that may be sought to verify and substantiate their report. If necessary, the petition, as amended, shall be referred by the court to the engineer and two viewers for further report. The above facts having been determined to the satisfaction of the court, and the boundaries of the proposed district so determined, it shall declare the establishment of the drainage or levee district, which shall be designated by a name or number, for the object and purpose as herein set forth.

If any lands shall be excluded from the district because of the court having found that such lands will not be affected or benefited, and the names of the owners of such lands have been withdrawn from such proceeding, but such lands are so situated as necessarily to be located within the outer boundaries of the district, such fact shall not prevent the establishment of the district, and such lands shall not be assessed for any drainage tax; but this shall not prevent the district from acquiring a right-of-way across such lands for constructing a canal or ditch or for any other necessary purpose authorized by law.

The court shall further determine, if it is sought to establish a reclamation district, whether or not the increased value of the particular land should be so great as to justify the cost and expenses of its reclaiming. (1909, c. 442, s. 6; 1911, c. 67, s. 2; C.S., s. 5323; 1927, c. 98, s. 4.)

CASE NOTES

Reason for Conferring Power to Include Lands of Opposing Owners. — It is because of the benefits which accrue to the public from the establishment of a drainage district under the statute that power conferred thereby upon the court to include lands of owners who are unwilling to sign the petition or who oppose the establishment of the district is sustained. O'Neal v. Mann, 193 N.C. 153, 136 S.E. 379 (1927).

What Issues May Be Raised by Minority Landowner. — A minority landowner included in a proposed drainage district to be laid out may not contest the formation of the district, but may only raise the issue as to his benefits therefrom. Shelton v. White, 163 N.C. 90, 79 S.E. 427 (1913).

Right of Signer of Original Petition to

Object. — Upon the report of the viewers at the final hearing in proceedings to lay off a drainage district, one who signed the original petition and may have ascertained from the information contained in the report, contrary to his previous opinion, that the cost of the improvements and damages would amount to more than the benefits to his land, may then file his objections, and the same procedure is then open to him as if he had not signed the petition. Shelton v. White, 163 N.C. 90, 79 S.E. 427 (1913).

Boundaries Must Include All Lands Benefited. — The court has no authority to decree the establishment of a drainage district which does not include within its boundaries all lands benefited by the work to be done. It must enlarge the boundaries to include all such land.

In re Albemarle Drainage Dist., Beaufort County No. 5, 255 N.C. 338, 121 S.E.2d 599 (1961).

A smaller drainage district may be laid off within the boundaries of a larger one, theretofore organized, the purposes of each harmonizing with the purposes of the other. Drainage Comm'rs v. East Carolina Home & Farm Ass'n, 165 N.C. 697, 81 S.E. 947 (1914).

Applied in In re Drainage of Ahoskie Creek, 257 N.C. 337, 125 S.E.2d 908 (1962).

§ 156-66. Right of appeal.

Any person owning lands within the drainage or levee district which he thinks will not be benefited by the improvement and should not be included in the district may appeal from the decision of the court to the superior court of such county, in termtime, by filing an appeal, accompanied by a bond conditioned for the payment of the costs if the appeal should be decided against him, for such sum as the court may require, not exceeding two hundred dollars ($200.00), signed by two or more solvent sureties or in some approved surety company to be approved by the court. (1909, c. 442, s. 8; C.S., s. 5324.)

Cross References. — As to appeal from final hearing, see § 156-75.

CASE NOTES

Appeal as Notice to Purchaser of Bonds. — Where the owner of land in a drainage district has duly excepted under this section and again under § 156-75 and has appealed, the purchaser of bonds issued by the district takes with notice of the rights of the complaining party so excepting, and acquires the bonds subject thereto. Drainage Dist. No. 1 v. Parks, 170 N.C. 435, 87 S.E. 229 (1917).

Proceedings upon Appeal. — A petition for the establishment of a drainage district by a majority of the resident landowners or by the owners of three fifths of the land therein, approved by the report of the viewers and affirmed by the clerk, permits a majority owner to raise only the issue of fact for the jury to determine as to the benefit to his lands; and should the jury find in favor of the objector, he is not entitled as a matter of right to have his land excluded, but it is for the judge to decide whether this may be done without injury to the district, and if not, he may order that such land be retained upon payment of damages to be awarded by the jury, as in condemnation of lands; all other matters embodied in the report are subject to approval by the clerk, and review by the judge without the intervention of a jury, being questions of fact. Shelton v. White, 163 N.C. 90, 79 S.E. 427 (1913).

Challenge upon Issuance of Additional Bonds Not Permitted After Failure to Appeal. — Appeals are separately provided for under this section when the drainage district has been laid off, and under § 156-75 when the final act is passed upon; and where the complaining owner of land in the district has not entered an exception under either of these two sections, as the statute provides, and bonds have been duly issued on the lands of the district for drainage purposes, and thereafter application has been made by the commissioners for the issuance of additional bonds, in the further proceedings he may not be permitted to go back and challenge the formation of the district and the classification and assessments already made by attacking the reports of the engineers and viewers, and withdraw a large part of his lands from the district theretofore formed. Drainage Dist. No. 1 v. Parks, 170 N.C. 435, 87 S.E. 229 (1917).

Cited in In re Drainage of Ahoskie Creek, 257 N.C. 337, 125 S.E.2d 908 (1962).

§ 156-67. Condemnation of land.

If it shall be necessary to acquire a right-of-way or an outlet over and through lands not affected by the drainage, and the same cannot be acquired by purchase, then and in such event the power of eminent domain is hereby conferred, and the same may be condemned. The owners of the land proposed to be condemned may be made parties defendant in the manner of an ancillary proceeding, and the procedure shall be, to the extent practicable, supplemented by the provisions of Chapter 40A Eminent Domain and such damages as may be awarded as compensation shall be paid by the board of drainage commissioners out of the first funds which shall be available from the proceeds of sale of bonds or otherwise. (1909, c. 442, s. 7; C.S., s. 5325; 1981, c. 919, s. 24.)

§ 156-68. Complete survey ordered.

After the district is established the court shall refer the report of the engineer and viewers back to them to make a complete survey, plans, and specifications for the drains or levees or other improvements, and fix a time when the engineer and viewers shall complete and file their report, not exceeding 60 days. (1909, c. 442, s. 9; C.S., s. 5326.)

§ 156-69. Nature of the survey; conservation and replacement of fish and wildlife habitat; structures to control and store water.

The engineer and viewers shall have power to employ such assistants as may be necessary to make a complete survey of the drainage district, and shall enter upon the ground and make a survey of the main drain or drains and all its laterals. The line of each ditch, drain, or levee shall be plainly and substantially marked on the ground. The course and distance of each ditch shall be carefully noted and sufficient notes made, so that it may be accurately plotted and mapped. A line of levels shall be run for the entire work and sufficient data secured from which accurate profiles and plans may be made. Frequent bench marks shall be established among the line, on permanent objects, and their elevation recorded in the field books. If it is deemed expedient by the engineer and viewers, other levels may be run to determine the fall from one part of the district to another. If an old watercourse ditch, or channel is being widened, deepened, or straightened, it shall be accurately cross-sectioned so as to compute the number of cubic yards saved by the use of such old channel. A drainage map of the district shall then be completed, showing the location of the ditch or ditches and other improvements and the boundary, as closely as may be determined by the records, of the lands owned by each individual landowner within the district. The location of any railroads or public highways and the boundary of any incorporated towns or villages within the district shall be shown on the map. There shall also be prepared to accompany this map a profile of each levee, drain, or watercourse, showing the surface of the ground, the bottom or grade of the proposed improvement, and the number of cubic yards of excavation or fill in each mile or fraction thereof, and the total yards in the proposed improvement and the estimated cost thereof, and plans and specifications, and the cost of any other work required to be done.

The board of viewers shall consider the effect of the proposed improvements upon the habitat of fish and wildlife, and the laws and regulations of the Commission for Health Services. Their report shall include their recommendations and the estimated cost thereof, as to the conservation and replacement of fish and wildlife habitat, if they shall determine such shall be damaged or displaced by the proposed improvement. The board, to determine their recommendations, may consult governmental agencies, wildlife associations, individuals, or such other sources as they may deem desirable, to assist them in their considerations of and recommendations relating to, the conservation and replacement of fish and wildlife habitat.

The board of viewers shall consider the need for and feasibility of, the construction of structures which will do one or more of the following:

- (1) Control the flow of water,
- (2) Impound or store water and,

- (3) Provide areas for conservation and replacement of fish and wildlife habitat.

If structures are recommended for any one or more of said purposes, their report shall include:

- (1) Specifications therefor.
- (2) Location thereof together with the description of the area of land needed for the purpose of said structure, i.e., water storage or impoundment, or fish and wildlife habitat.
- (3) Estimate of cost thereof.

The report of the board of viewers shall set forth, in regard to the foregoing, the following information:

- (1) The areas of land needed for construction and maintenance of:
  - a. The canals and drainage system.
  - b. Structures to:
    1. To control the water,
    2. Impound or store water and,
    3. To conserve and replace fish and wildlife habitat.

- (2) Upon whose land such areas are located.

- (3) The area of land necessary to be acquired from each landowner.

The map accompanying the report shall have shown thereon, the location of the areas of land needed for the construction and maintenance of the following:

- (1) The canal and drainage system.
- (2) Structures to:
  - a. Control the flow of water,
  - b. Impound or store the water,
  - c. Conserve and replace fish and wildlife habitat.

The board of viewers may, in its discretion, agree with the Soil Conservation Service of the Department of Agriculture or any agency of the government of the United States or of the State of North Carolina whereby such agency will furnish all or a part of the service necessary to obtain the information set forth in the preceding paragraph and in G.S. 156-68.

The board of viewers may accept such information as furnished by such agencies and include such information in their final report to the clerk.

The board of viewers and engineers of the district may use control or semicontrol, mosaic aerial photographs or other sources and stereoscopic or other methods, generally used and deemed acceptable by civil and drainage engineers for the purpose of obtaining the information required in this section and in lieu of a detailed ground survey. In the event a detailed ground survey is not made, only those ground markings need be made as the board of viewers deem necessary. The location of the proposed canals must be shown on the ground prior to actual construction. (1909, c. 442, s. 10; C.S., s. 5327; 1959, c. 597, s. 1; 1961, c. 614, ss. 5, 9; 1965, c. 1143, s. 1; 1973, c. 476, s. 128.)

§ 156-70. Assessment of damages.

It shall be the further duty of the engineer and viewers to assess the damages claimed by anyone that are justly right and due to him for land taken or for inconvenience imposed because of the construction of the improvement, or for any other legal damages sustained. Such damages shall be considered separate and apart from any benefit the land would receive because of the proposed work, and shall be paid by the board of drainage commissioners when funds shall come into their hands. (1909, c. 442, s. 11; 1915, c. 238; 1917, c. 152, s. 16; C.S., s. 5328.)

CASE NOTES

Pendency of a proceeding to lay off a drainage district under the statute is notice as to all the lands embraced in the district, and the grantees thereof are bound by statutory requirements as to the procedure to recover damages to the lands, as were their grantors who were parties to the proceedings and who owned the lands at the time thereof. Newby & White v. Board of Drainage Comm'rs, 163 N.C. 24, 79 S.E. 266 (1913).

Inclusion of Damages to Timber. — While under the drainage acts no assessments for benefits can be made against the owner of timber interests, only the land itself being liable, the owner of the land and of timber within the district, by the provision of the statute, when made a party to the proceedings and duly notified, is required to present his claim for the entire injury, inclusive of that to his timber, and the damages to the timber should thus be included and allowed in the final judgment in the proceedings. Beaufort County Lumber Co. v. Drainage Comm'rs, 174 N.C. 647, 94 S.E. 457 (1917).

When Independent Action for Damages May Be Maintained. — The principles that conclude parties to proceedings in the formation of drainage districts under the statute by final judgment from a recovery of damages to their lands applies to such as may have accrued in the laying out and establishment of the district under the procedure prescribed, and does not prevent an injured proprietor, within or without the district, from maintaining an independent action to recover damages caused by an unauthorized and substantial departure from the scheme and plan established by the decrees and orders in the cause, nor where the damage complained of is attributable to the negligence of the company or its officers or agents in carrying out the proposed work. Spencer v. Wills, 179 N.C. 175, 102 S.E. 275 (1920).

Permanent Damages Held Recoverable. — Where the whole of plaintiff's land was originally included in a drainage district to be established under the statutory provisions, but the final judgment so restricted and modified the survey, plat and boundaries as to exclude all except a comparatively small portion of the land, but the preliminary survey showed that a canal would go through the land included as well as through the land, or a large part thereof, excluded by the final judgment, and there was no evidence that ancillary proceedings for this outside land by condemnation had been resorted to, the plaintiff, in his independent action, could elect to recover the permanent damages caused to his land. Sawyer v. Camden Run Drainage Dist., 179 N.C. 182, 102 S.E. 273 (1920).

§ 156-70.1. When title deemed acquired for purpose of easements or rights-of-way; notice to landowner; claim for compensation; appeal.

The district shall be deemed to have acquired title for the purpose of easements or rights-of-way to those areas of land identified in the final report of the board of viewers and as shown on the map accompanying said report, at the time said final report is confirmed by the clerk of the superior court.

The board of viewers shall cause notice as to the area or areas of land involved, to be given to each landowner so affected, which notice shall be in writing and mailed to the last known address of the landowner at least seven days prior to the hearing on the final report as provided by G.S. 156-73.

If the landowner desires compensation for the land areas so acquired by the district, claim for the value of the same shall be submitted to the board of viewers on or before the time of the adjudication upon the final report as provided for by G.S. 156-74.

If the board of viewers shall approve the claim, the amount so approved shall be added to the total cost of the district as estimated in said final report and this shall be done by amendment to the final report submitted to the clerk of the superior court on or before the adjudication provided for in G.S. 156-74.

If the board of viewers shall not approve said claim, the clerk of the superior court shall consider the claim and determine what in his opinion is a fair value and the amount so determined shall be shown in the said final report as amended and confirmed by said adjudication. The landowner or the drainage district may appeal from the decision of the clerk of the superior court, to the superior court, upon the question of the value of the land taken and such value shall be determined by a jury. The procedure for the appeal shall be in accordance with the provision of G.S. 156-75. (1959, c. 597, s. 2; c. 1085; 1965, c. 1143, s. 2.)

CASE NOTES

Applied in Taylor v. Askew, 17 N.C. App. 620, 195 S.E.2d 316 (1973).

§ 156-71. Classification of lands and benefits.

It shall be the further duty of the engineer and viewers to personally examine the land in the district and classify it with reference to the benefit it will receive from the construction of the levee, ditch, drain, or watercourse or other improvement. In the case of drainage, the degree of wetness on the land, its proximity to the ditch or a natural outlet, and the fertility of the soil shall be considered in determining the amount of benefit it will receive by the construction of the ditch. The land benefited shall be separated in five classes. The land receiving the highest benefit shall be marked "Class A"; that receiving the next highest benefit, "Class B"; that receiving the next highest benefit, "Class C"; that receiving the next highest benefit, "Class D," and that receiving the smallest benefit, "Class E." The holdings of any one landowner need not be all in one class, but the number of acres in each class shall be ascertained, though its boundary need not be marked on the ground or shown on the map. The total number of acres owned by one person in each class and the total number of acres benefited shall be determined. The total number of acres of each class in the entire district shall be obtained and presented in tabulated form. The scale of assessment upon the several classes of land returned by the engineer and viewers shall be in the ratio of five, four, three, two, and one; that is to say, as often as five mills per acre is assessed against the land in "Class A," four mills per acre shall be assessed against the land in "Class B," three mills per acre in "Class C," two mills per acre in "Class D," and one mill per acre in "Class E." This shall form the basis of the assessment of benefits to the lands for drainage purposes. In any district lands may be included which are not benefited for the agriculture or crop production, or slightly so, but which will receive benefit by improvement in health conditions, and as to such lands the engineer and viewers may assess each tract of land without regard to the ratio and at such a sum per acre as will fairly represent the benefit of such lands. Villages or towns or parts thereof and small parcels of land located outside thereof and used primarily for residence or other specific purposes, and which require drainage, may also be included in any drainage district which by reason of their improved conditions and the limited area in each parcel under individual ownership, it is impracticable to fairly assess the benefits to each separated parcel of land by the ratio herein provided, and as to such parcels of land the engineer and viewers may assess each parcel of land without regard to the ratio and at a higher rate per acre respectively by reason of the greater benefits. If the streets or other property owned by any incorporated town or village are likewise benefited by such drainage works, the corporation may be assessed in proportion to such benefits, which assessment shall constitute a liability against the corporation and may be enforced as provided by law.

The board of viewers may determine that some areas of the district will receive more benefits than other areas and if such is determined, the varying benefits shall be reflected in the manner of classification of benefits to each area and the tracts of land therein. (1909, c. 442, s. 12; C.S., s. 5329; 1923, c. 217, s. 1; 1961, c. 614, s. 7.)

Cross References. — As to application of this section, see § 156-104.

CASE NOTES

Discretion of Commissioners as to Classification Under Local Act. — The legislature, in authorizing the establishment of a drainage district, may very largely commit to the commissioners the exercise of their judgment as to what should be done in carrying out the general provisions specified by the statute; and the special act of the legislature creating the Gaston County Drainage Commission, c. 427, Public-Local Laws of 1911, thus construed, does not relieve a landowner therein from paying his authorized assessments for benefits solely because the commission failed to strictly and literally divide the lands into the number of classes therein set out. Mitchem v. Gaston County Drainage Comm'n, 182 N.C. 511, 109 S.E. 551 (1921).

Applied in In re Drainage of Ahoskie Creek, 257 N.C. 337, 125 S.E.2d 908 (1962).

Stated in In re Albemarle Drainage Dist., Beaufort County No. 5, 255 N.C. 338, 121 S.E.2d 599 (1961).

§ 156-72. Extension of time for report.

In case the work is delayed by high water, sickness, or any other good cause, and the report is not completed at the time fixed by the court, the engineer and viewers shall appear before the court and state in writing the cause of such failure and ask for sufficient time in which to complete the work, and the court shall set another date by which the report shall be completed and filed. (1909, c. 442, s. 14; C.S., s. 5330.)

§ 156-73. Final report filed; notice of hearing.

When the final report is completed and filed it shall be examined by the court, and if it is found to be in due form and in accordance with the law it shall be accepted, and if not in due form it may be referred back to the engineer and viewers, with instructions to secure further information, to be reported at a subsequent date to be fixed by the court. When the report is fully completed and accepted by the court a date not less than 20 days thereafter shall be fixed by the court for the final hearing upon the report, and notice thereof shall be given by publication in a newspaper of general circulation in the county and by posting a written or printed notice on the door of the courthouse and at five conspicuous places throughout the district, such publication to be made once a week for at least three consecutive weeks before the final hearing. During this time a copy of the report shall be on file in the office of the clerk of the superior court, and shall be open to the inspection of any landowner or other persons interested within the district. (1909, c. 442, s. 15; C.S., s. 5331; 1959, c. 807, ss. 1, 2; 1963, c. 767, s. 2.)

CASE NOTES

Newspaper Publication Held Unnecessary. — It was not fatal to the validity of bonds issued by a drainage district that the notice of the time of hearing objections to the final report was not published in some newspaper of general circulation in the county, when it appeared that no newspaper was published therein or elsewhere which had a general circulation in the county, and that the landowners affected had actual and ample notice of such time and raised no objection. Board of Drainage Comm'rs

v. Brett Eng'r Co., 165 N.C. 37, 80 S.E. 897
(1914).

§ 156-74. Adjudication upon final report.

At the date set for hearing any landowner may appear in person or by counsel and file his objection in writing to the report of the viewers; and it shall be the duty of the court to carefully review the report of the viewers and the objections filed thereto, and make such changes as are necessary to render substantial and equal justice to all the landowners in the district. If, in the opinion of the court, the cost of construction, together with the amount of damages assessed, is not greater than the benefits that will accrue to the land affected, the court shall confirm the report of the viewers. If, however, the court finds that the cost of construction, together with the damages assessed, is greater than the resulting benefit that will accrue to the lands affected, the court shall dismiss the proceedings at the cost of the petitioners, and the sureties upon the bond so filed by them shall be liable for such costs. Provided, that the Department of Environment and Natural Resources may remit and release to the petitioners the costs expended by the board on account of the engineer and his assistants. The court may from time to time collect from the petitioners such amounts as may be necessary to pay costs accruing, other than costs of the engineer and his assistants, such amounts to be repaid from the special tax hereby authorized.

The court shall, at the time of consideration of said report, determine whether:

- (1) The petitioners constitute a majority of the resident landowners, whose lands are adjudged to be benefited by the proposed construction work as shown in the final report of the board of viewers and finally approved by the court; or
- (2) The petitioners own three fifths of the land area which is adjudged to be benefited by the proposed construction work as shown in the final report of the board of viewers and finally approved by the court.

If the petitioners do not constitute either a majority of the resident landowners or own three fifths of the land as set out in subdivisions (1) or (2) above, then the proceedings shall be dismissed. (1909, c. 442, s. 16; 1915, c. 238, s. 2; 1917, c. 152, s. 16; C.S., s. 5332; 1925, c. 122, s. 4; 1959, c. 1312, s. 1; 1961, c. 1198; 1973, c. 1262, s. 23; 1977, c. 771, s. 4; 1989, c. 727, s. 218(158); 1997-443, s. 11A.123.)

CASE NOTES

Final Decree as Adjudication That Benefits Exceed Burdens. — A final decree in proceedings to lay off a statutory drainage district is an adjudication that the benefits to the land within the district are more than the burdens assessed against it for such purpose. Banks v. Lane, 170 N.C. 14, 86 S.E. 713 (1915), petition for rehearing denied, 171 N.C. 505, 88 S.E. 754 (1916).

Failure to Object as Waiver. — The question as to whether an owner of land within a drainage district has realized the benefits anticipated is eliminated when the district is established upon the report; and where such owner remains silent or makes no objection or exception at the proper time as to the proceedings of the board, his silence is a waiver of any right he may have had therein, and an independent remedy by injunction is not open to him. Mitchem v. Gaston County Drainage Comm'n, 182 N.C. 511, 109 S.E. 551 (1921).

Where a drainage district has been duly laid off in conformity with the statute, and a landowner therein has not excepted to either the preliminary or final report, he may not, after appointment of the commissioners, be heard to complain that the benefits he is to receive are not as great as those he had contemplated. Griffin v. Board of Comm'rs, 169 N.C. 642, 86 S.E. 575 (1915).

§ 156-75. Appeal from final hearing.

Any landowner, party petitioner, or the drainage district may, within 10 days after the entry of an order or judgment by the clerk upon the report of the board of viewers, appeal to the superior court in session time or in chambers. The procedures for taking appeal are as provided in Article 27A of Chapter 1 of the General Statutes, except as provided otherwise by this Subchapter. In an appeal to the superior court taken under this section or any other section or provision of the drainage laws of the State, general or local, the appeal has precedence in consideration and trial by the court. If other issues also have precedence in the superior court under existing law, the court, in its discretion, determines the order in which they are heard. (1909, c. 442, s. 17; 1911, c. 67, s. 3; C.S., s. 5333; 1923, c. 217, s. 2; 1969, c. 192, s. 1; 1973, c. 108, s. 96; 1999-216, s. 20.)

Cross References. — As to right of appeal, see § 156-66. As to application of this section, see § 156-104.

Effect of Amendments. — Session Laws

1999-216, s. 20, effective January 1, 2000, and applicable to all orders or judgments subject to this act that are entered on or after that date, rewrote the section.

CASE NOTES

Construction of Section. — This section, providing for an appeal upon exception to the final report by an owner of lands in a drainage district laid off under the provisions of the statute, necessarily refers to the formation of the district and the assessments of the lands embraced in it. Wayne County Drainage Dist. No. 1 v. Parks, 170 N.C. 435, 87 S.E. 229 (1917).

Appeal Only upon Exceptions Filed Below. — An appeal from the final order of the clerk in establishing a drainage district under this section is heard only upon the exceptions thereto filed as to issues of law or fact. In re Big Cold Water Drainage Dist., 162 N.C. 127, 78 S.E. 14 (1913); Shelton v. White, 163 N.C. 90, 79 S.E. 427 (1913).

It is sufficient that the clerk has found as a fact that the allegations set out in the petition are true, if these allegations are sufficient, and distinctly and clearly made. In re Big Cold Water Drainage Dist., 162 N.C. 127, 78 S.E. 14 (1913).

Where, by consent of the parties to an action, the court has ordered a referee for hearing and determining "all matters in controversy," and the controversy has arisen upon exceptions taken by a landowner to the final report on the plan and assessments made in forming a drainage district, by this section, the complaining party may not successfully except to the authority of the referee in passing upon questions therein arising which have been referred to him. Wayne County Drainage Dist. No. 1 v. Parks, 170 N.C. 435, 87 S.E. 229 (1917).

§ 156-76. Compensation of board of viewers.

The compensation of the engineer, including his necessary assistants, rodmen, and laborers, and also the compensation of the viewers, shall be fixed by the clerk. In fixing such compensation, particularly of the drainage engineer, the clerk shall confer fully with the Department of Environment and Natural Resources and with the petitioners. The compensation to be paid the two members of the board of viewers, other than the engineer, shall be in such amount per day as may be fixed by the clerk of the superior court for the time actually employed in the discharge of their duties, and in addition any actual and necessary expenses of travel and subsistence while in the actual discharge of their duties, an itemized report of which shall be submitted and verified. (1909, c. 442, s. 36; 1917, c. 152, ss. 1, 2; C.S., s. 5334; 1925, c. 122, s. 4; 1959, c. 288; 1961, c. 1198; 1973, c. 1262, s. 23; 1977, c. 771, s. 4; 1989, c. 727, s. 218(159); 1997-443, s. 11A.123.)

§ 156-77. Account of expenses filed.

The engineer and viewers shall keep an accurate account and report to the court the name and number of days each person was employed on the survey and the kind of work he was doing, and any expenses that may have been incurred in going to and from the work, and the cost of any supplies or material that may have been used in making the survey. (1909, c. 442, s. 13; C.S., s. 5335.)

§ 156-78. Drainage record.

The clerk of the superior court shall provide a suitable book, to be known as the "Drainage Record," in which he shall transcribe every petition, motion, order, report, judgment, or finding of the board in every drainage transaction that may come before it, in such a manner as to make a complete and continuous record of the case. Copies of all the maps and profiles are to be furnished by the engineer and marked by the clerk "official copies," which shall be kept on file by him in his office, and one other copy shall be pasted or otherwise attached to his record book. (1909, c. 442, s. 18; C.S., s. 5336.)

CASE NOTES

Waiver by Failure to Object to Proceedings Noted in Record Book. — Upon the filing of the final report by the viewers, etc., in a proceeding to establish a drainage district under the provisions of the statute, a record is required by the statute to be kept in a book for the purpose, giving all those interested in the proceedings notice of all that has been done materially affecting them; and when they have timely failed to make objection, they have lost their right to object by the delay. Griffin v. Board of Comm'rs, 169 N.C. 642, 86 S.E. 575 (1915).

§ 156-78.1. Municipalities.

(a) Any municipality may participate in drainage district works or projects upon mutually agreeable terms relating to such matters as the construction, financing, maintenance and operation thereof.

(b) Any municipality may contribute funds toward the construction, maintenance and operation of drainage district works or projects, to the extent that such works or projects:

- (1) Provide a source of municipal water supply for the municipality, or protect an existing source of such supply, enhance its quality or increase its dependable capacity or quantity, or implement or facilitate the disposal of sewage of the municipality; or
- (2) Protect against or alleviate the effects of floodwater or sediment damages affecting, or provide drainage benefits for property owned by the municipality or its inhabitants.

(c) Municipal expenditures for the aforesaid purposes are declared to be for necessary expenses. Municipalities may enter continuing contracts, some portion or all of which may be performed in an ensuing year, agreeing to make periodic payments in ensuing fiscal years to drainage districts in consideration of benefits set forth in subsection (b) (2) of this section, but no such contract may be entered into unless sufficient funds have been appropriated to meet any amount to be paid under the contract in the fiscal year in which the contract is made. The municipal governing body shall, in the budget ordinance of each ensuing fiscal year during which any such contract is in effect, appropriate sufficient funds to meet the amount to be paid under the contract in such ensuing fiscal year. The statement required by G.S. 160-411.1 to be printed, written or typewritten on all contracts, agreements, or requisitions requiring the payment of moneys shall be placèd on such a continuing contract only if sufficient funds have been appropriated to meet the amount to be paid under the contract in the fiscal year in which the contract is made.

(d) The provisions of this section are permissive. If a municipality does not participate in accordance with the provisions of this section, then the other provisions of Subchapter III shall apply and be followed. (1961, c. 614, s. 10.)

Cross References. — As to property taxes to provide for drainage projects or programs, see § 160A-209.

Editor's Note. — Section 160-411.1, referred to in this section, was repealed by Session Laws 1971, c. 780, s. 13. See now § 159-28.

ARTICLE 6.

Drainage Commissioners.

§ 156-79. Appointment and organization under original act.

After the drainage district has been declared established, as aforesaid, and the survey and plan therefor approved, the court shall appoint three persons, in the manner set forth in G.S. 156-81, who shall be designated as the board of drainage commissioners. Any vacancy thereafter occurring shall be filled by the clerk or clerks of the superior court in the manner set forth in G.S. 156-81. Such three drainage commissioners, when so appointed, shall be immediately created a body corporate under the name and style of "The Board of Drainage Commissioners of _____ District," with the right to hold property and convey the same, to sue and be sued, and shall possess such other powers as usually pertain to corporations. They shall organize by electing from among their number a chairman and a vice-chairman. They shall also elect a secretary, either within or without their body. Such board of drainage commissioners shall adopt a seal, which they may alter at pleasure. The board of drainage commissioners shall have and possess such powers as are herein granted. (1909, c. 442, s. 19; 1917, c. 152, s. 17; C.S., s. 5337; 1947, c. 273; 1963, c. 767, s. 3; 1989 (Reg. Sess., 1990), c. 959, s. 2.)

CASE NOTES

Individual Acts of Officials Not Binding on District. — A drainage district is a corporation, and as any other corporation, public or private, it cannot be bound by the acts of its officials or agents acting separately or individually. Davenport v. Pitt County Drainage Dist. No. 2, 220 N.C. 237, 17 S.E.2d 1 (1941).

A drainage district is not authorized to enter into a contract that would give special or particular rights or claims to one landowner in the drainage district that are not enjoyed by all landowners similarly situated. Davenport v. Pitt County Drainage Dist. No. 2, 220 N.C. 237, 17 S.E.2d 1 (1941).

§ 156-80. Name of districts.

The name of such drainage district shall constitute a part of its corporate name; for illustration, the board of drainage commissioners of Mecklenburg Drainage District, No. 1. In the naming of a drainage district the clerk of the court, notwithstanding the name given in the petition, shall so change the name as to make it conform to the county within which the district, or the main portion of the district, is located, and such district shall also be designated by number, the number to indicate the number of districts petitioned for in the county. For illustration, the first district organized in Mecklenburg County would be Mecklenburg County Drainage District, No. 1; the name of the second would be Mecklenburg County Drainage District, No. 2; the fifth one organized would be Mecklenburg County Drainage District, No. 5: Provided, that so much of this section as provides for numbering the districts in each county shall not apply to districts in which bonds have been issued and sold prior to the fifth day of March, 1917. (1909, c. 442, s. 19; 1917, c. 152, s. 17; C.S., s. 5338.)

§ 156-81. Appointment and organization under amended act.

(a) Method of Appointment. —

The manner of appointment shall be as follows:

- (1) If the drainage district shall lie solely within one county, the clerk of superior court for such county shall appoint such commissioners.
- (2) If the said district shall lie in more than one county, then such commissioners shall be appointed by unanimous action of the clerks of court for the counties wherein any part of such district lies.

(b) Organization. — Immediately after the appointment of the board of drainage commissioners, the clerk of the court of the county wherein such drainage proceeding is pending shall notify each of the commissioners in writing to appear at a certain time and place within the district and organize. The clerk or clerks of court, as the case may be, shall appoint one of the three members as chairman of the board of drainage commissioners, and in doing so he or they shall consider carefully and impartially the respective qualifications of each of the members for the position.

(c) Term of Office. — The term of service of the members of the board of drainage commissioners so appointed shall begin upon their appointment. Where all three commissioners are appointed at once, one commissioner shall serve for one year, one for two years, and the other for three years, the term to be computed from the first day of October following their organization. The members so serving for one, two, and three years, respectively, shall be unanimously designated by the clerk or clerks of the court. Thereafter each member shall be appointed for three years. The clerk of the court for the county wherein the proceeding is pending shall record in the drainage record the date of appointment, the members appointed, and the beginning and expiration of their term of office.

(d) Vacancies Filled. — If a vacancy shall occur in the office of any commissioner by death, resignation, or otherwise, the remaining two members are to discharge the necessary duties of the board until the vacancy shall be filled; and if the vacancy shall be in the office of chairman or secretary, the two remaining members may elect a secretary, and the clerk or clerks, as the case may be, shall appoint one of the two remaining members to act as chairman to hold until the vacancy in the board shall be filled. The clerk of the county wherein the proceeding is pending shall keep a similar record of any appointment to fill vacancies. The person appointed to fill the vacancy shall be appointed in the manner set forth in subsection (a) of this section and shall serve until the expiration of the term of his predecessor. The secretary of the board of drainage commissioners shall promptly notify the appropriate clerk or clerks of the superior court of any vacancy in the board.

(e) Failure to Appoint. — If for any reason the clerk or clerks of the court shall fail to provide for the appointment of drainage commissioners prior to the expiration of a term, the incumbents shall continue to hold their office as commissioners until their successors are appointed and qualified. The term of office of boards of drainage commissioners heretofore elected and appointed shall expire immediately upon the appointment of new commissioners pursuant to subsection (a) of this section.

(f) Meetings. — The board shall meet once each month at a stated time and place during the progress of drainage construction, and more often if necessary. After the drainage work is completed, or at any time, the chairman shall have the power to call special meetings of the board at a certain time and place. The chairman shall also call a meeting at any time upon the written request of the owners of a majority in area of the land in the district.

(g) Compensation. — The chairman of the board of drainage commissioners shall receive compensation and allowances as fixed by the clerk of the superior court. In fixing such compensation and allowances, the clerk shall give due consideration to the duties and responsibilities imposed upon the chairman of the board. The other members of the board shall receive a per diem not to exceed twenty-five dollars ($25.00) a day, while engaged in attendance upon meetings of the board, or in the discharge of duties imposed by the board. The secretary of the board shall receive such compensation and expense allowances as may be determined by the board.

The chairman and members of the board of drainage commissioners shall also receive their actual travel and subsistence expenses while engaged in attendance upon meetings of the board, or in the discharge of duties imposed by the board. The compensation and expense allowances as herein set out shall be paid from the assessments made annually for the purpose of maintaining the canals of the drainage district, or from any other funds of the district.

(h) Application of Section. — The provisions of this section shall apply to all drainage districts now or hereafter existing in this State, without regard to the date of organization.

(i) Repealed by Session Laws 1989 (Regular Session, 1990), c. 959, s. 3. (1917, c. 152, s. 5; 1919, cc. 109, 217; C.S., s. 5339; 1947, c. 935; 1949, c. 956, ss. 1-3; 1957, c. 912, s. 1; 1975, c. 494; 1989 (Reg. Sess., 1990), c. 959, s. 3.)

Local Modification. — Hyde, Pitt: 1935, c. 469, s. (4a); 1939, c. 350; Pitt, Mattamuskeet Drainage District: C.S. 5339; Drainage District No. 1: 1965, c. 746, s. 1.

CASE NOTES

Unconstitutional Delegation of Legislative Powers. — Discretion provided by subsections (a) and (i) of this section to the clerks of superior court to determine whether drainage commissioners should be elected or appointed is an unconstitutional delegation of legislative powers. Northampton County Drainage Dist. Number One v. Bailey, 326 N.C. 742, 392 S.E.2d 352 (1990).

Where one of three drainage commissioners dies, the two surviving commissioners have authority, until the election and qualification of their successors, to levy an additional assessment against the lands of the district necessary to discharge the obligations of the district. Peoples Loan & Sav. Bank v. King, 212 N.C. 349, 193 S.E. 663 (1937).

Landowners in Drainage District Prohibited from Voting Deprived of Equal Protection of the Laws. — Where some landowners who lived in a drainage district could vote for the clerk who appointed the commissioners of the drainage district and some landowners could not, the defendant nonvoters had been deprived of a fundamental right; furthermore, plaintiff drainage district failed to show that the classification of voters in this case was necessary to promote a compelling government-tal interest; therefore, defendants were deprived equal protection of the laws in violation of N.C. Const., Art. I, § 19. Northampton County Drainage Dist. Number One v. Bailey, 326 N.C. 742, 392 S.E.2d 352 (1990).

§ 156-81.1. Treasurer.

The appointing authority as determined by G.S. 156-81 shall appoint a treasurer for the drainage district for a term not to exceed 12 months. The treasurer so appointed may be a member of the board of commissioners of the district or some other person deemed competent, and shall furnish bond as may be required by the said clerk of the superior court. The treasurer shall continue in office until a successor has been appointed and qualified.

All references in Subchapter III of Chapter 156 of the General Statutes of North Carolina, to "treasurer" or "county treasurer" or "county auditor" are hereby amended to refer exclusively to the treasurer appointed as hereinbefore provided. (1963, c. 767, s. 4; 1989 (Reg. Sess., 1990), c. 959, s. 6.)

Local Modification. — Hyde: 1967, c. 1010.

§ 156-82. Validation of election of members of drainage commission.

All irregularities caused by failure of any officer whose duty it was to provide for the election of a member or members of board of drainage commissioners of any drainage district, or the failure of any candidate to make a deposit as may be required by law, shall not invalidate such election where the following facts appear affirmatively:

- (1) That said election was held at the time and place prescribed by law.
- (2) That a ballot box was provided for the ballots cast for drainage commissioner.
- (3) That the ballots were canvassed and the results declared by the judge of the general election.
- (4) That the candidate receiving the greatest number of votes was declared elected.
- (5) That no candidate for election as a member of board of drainage commissioners made any deposit as prescribed by law.
- (6) That the candidate receiving the majority votes at said election has already qualified and is acting as such drainage commissioner.

This section shall not apply to any election contested before March 9, 1921. (1921, c. 210; C.S., s. 5339(a).)

§ 156-82.1. Duties and powers of the board of drainage commissioners.

(a) The board of drainage commissioners shall proceed with the levying of assessments, issuance of bonds and construction of canals, water retardant structures and other improvements and acquisition of equipment as approved by the court in the adjudication upon the final report of the board of viewers, either in the creation of the district or in subsequent proceedings authorized by Article 7B.

(b) The commissioners shall maintain the canals, water retardant structures, and all other improvements and equipment of the district.

(c) The commissioners, with the approval of the clerk of the superior court, may use surplus funds in such manner as they deem best for (i) the maintenance of the improvements, (ii) construction or enlargement of canals and water retardant structures, or other improvements or equipment, (iii) replacement or acquisition of equipment or structures, and (iv) for payment of any or all operating expenses including salaries, fees and costs of court.

The term "surplus funds" is defined to mean any funds remaining after the payment of those items set forth specifically in the certificate of assessment, as well as funds provided in said certificate for maintenance and contingencies, and also, shall include maintenance and any other funds which the said commissioners may have on hand and which are not necessary for the payment of the bonds and interest thereon which have been issued by the said district.

(d) The board of commissioners may agree, or contract, with any agency of the government of the United States or of North Carolina for such engineering or other services as may be provided by such agency.

(e) The board of commissioners may, in its discretion, release areas taken for rights-of-way if it determines, after the construction of the canals, that such are not needed for the purpose of the district. The release must be approved by the clerk of the superior court and such release shall be filed in the proceedings by virtue of which the district was created.

(f) The board of drainage commissioners shall have all the duties and powers as set forth and imposed upon them by the various sections of this Subchapter and all others which are necessary to promote the purposes of the district.

(g) The board of commissioners may authorize the use of stored or impounded water for recreational purposes. They may acquire title, by gift or purchase, but not by condemnation, of land to be used in conjunction with the stored and impounded water, for the development of recreational facilities.

The said commissioners are not authorized to use funds obtained from assessments upon the lands within the drainage district, for the purposes of the acquisition and development of recreational facilities. They are authorized to issue revenue bonds or notes, for the acquisition of land and construction and development of recreational facilities. The funds received from the use of the said recreational facilities, may be pledged for the payment of said revenue bonds and notes.

The terms and conditions of the issuance and payment of the said revenue bonds or notes, must be approved by the clerk of the superior court who has jurisdiction of the said drainage district.

The commissioners are authorized to enter into a contract with persons, association of persons or municipal or private corporations, for the operation of recreational facilities, owned by the drainage district. The contract may be entered into by negotiation or by award to the highest bidder at a public rental to be advertised as directed by the clerk of the superior court. The terms of the contract must be approved by the clerk of the superior court who has jurisdiction of the said drainage district.

(h) The commissioners may enter into a contract with a municipality or other nonprofit organizations, for the joint use of a facility for the impoundment or storage of water. The contract must be approved by the clerk of the superior court who has jurisdiction of the drainage district.

(i) All improvements constructed and acquired under the provisions of this Subchapter shall be under the control and supervision of the board of drainage commissioners. It shall be their duty to keep all improvements in good repair. (1961, c. 614, s. 2; 1965, c. 1143, s. 3.)

§ 156-82.2. Appointment of drainage commissioners.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law (including, where applicable, any special acts or local modification of general law), the General Assembly hereby appoints all sitting drainage district commissioners and drainage commission treasurers, as of the date of ratification of this section, as commissioners, officers, and treasurers of their respective districts. Said commissioners, officers, and treasurers shall continue in office until such time as appointments shall be made as provided in G.S. 156-81 and G.S. 156-81.1, which appointments shall be made by the clerk or clerks of the superior court not later than January 1, 1991. (1989 (Reg. Sess., 1990), c. 959, s. 1.)

§ 156-82.3. Validation of previous actions.

(a) All expenditures heretofore incurred, and all actions heretofore taken, by a drainage district for purposes authorized by this Chapter are hereby validated notwithstanding any defect in the selection of any or all of its commissioners or any other defect.

(b) The provisions of this section are expressly made applicable to any and all bonds and other financial obligations of any such district. No action based on the alleged invalidity of the assessments heretofore made or of any such bonds or other obligations of a district shall lie after January 1, 1991, to enjoin or contest the enforceability of any such assessment, bond, or other obligation. (1989 (Reg. Sess., 1990), c. 959, s. 5.)

ARTICLE 7.

Construction of Improvement.

§ 156-83. Superintendent of construction.

The board of drainage commissioners shall appoint a competent drainage engineer of good repute as superintendent of construction. Such superintendent of construction shall furnish a copy of his monthly and final estimates to the Department of Environment and Natural Resources, in addition to other copies herein provided which shall be filed and preserved. In the event of the death, resignation, or removal of the superintendent of construction, his successor shall be appointed in the same manner.

The board of drainage commissioners may, in its discretion, agree with the Soil Conservation Service of the Department of Agriculture or any agency of the government of the United States or of North Carolina whereby such agency may furnish the service required of the superintendent of construction. If this is done by the board, any reference in this Chapter to the superintendent of construction and/or his duties shall include or be exercised by the said agency subject to the approval of the board of commissioners. (1909, c. 442, s. 20; C.S., s. 5340; 1923, c. 217, s. 3; 1925, c. 122, s. 5; 1959, c. 597, s. 3; 1961, c. 1198; 1963, c. 767, s. 5; 1973, c. 1262, s. 23; 1977, c. 771, s. 4; 1989, c. 727, s. 218(160); 1997-443, s. 11A.123.)

Local Modification. — Hyde: 1957, c. 714.

§ 156-84. Letting contracts.

The board of drainage commissioners shall cause notice to be given of the letting of the contract. The notice shall be posted at the courthouse door in the county wherein the district was organized. Notice shall be posted no less than 15 days prior to the opening of the bids and shall be published at least once a week for two consecutive weeks immediately prior to the opening of the bids, in some newspaper published in the county wherein such improvement is located, if such there be, and such additional publication elsewhere as they may deem expedient, of the time and place of letting the work of construction of such improvement, and in such notice they shall specify the approximate amount of work to be done and the time fixed for the completion thereof; and on the date appointed for the letting they, together with the superintendent of construction, shall convene and let to the lowest responsible bidder, either as a whole or in sections, as they may deem most advantageous for the district, the proposed work. No bid shall be entertained that exceeds the estimated cost, except for good and satisfactory reasons it shall be shown that the original estimate was erroneous. They shall have the right to reject all bids and advertise again the work, if in their judgment the interest of the district will be subserved by doing so. The successful bidder shall be required to enter into a contract with the board of drainage commissioners and to execute a bond for the faithful performance of such contract, with sufficient sureties, in favor of the board of drainage commissioners for the use and benefit of the levee or drainage district, in an amount equal to no less than 25 nor more than one hundred per centum (100%) of the estimated cost of the work awarded to him. In canvassing bids and letting the contract, the superintendent of construction shall act only in an advisory capacity to the board of drainage commissioners. The contract shall be based on the plans and specifications submitted by the viewers in their final report as confirmed by the court, the original of which shall remain on file in the office of the clerk of the superior court and shall be open to the inspection of all prospective bidders. All bids shall be sealed and shall not be opened except under the authority of the board of drainage commissioners and on the day theretofore appointed for opening the bids. The drainage commissioners shall have power to correct errors and modify the details of the report of the engineer and viewers if, in their judgment, they can increase the efficiency of the drainage plan and afford better drainage to the lands in the district without increasing the estimated cost submitted by the engineer and viewers and confirmed by the court. (1909, c. 442, s. 21; 1911, c. 67, s. 4; C.S., s. 5341; 1959, c. 806; 1963, c. 767, s. 6.)

CASE NOTES

Discretionary Power of Commissioners.

— This section directs that the levee or drainage commissioners shall convene with the superintendent of construction and let the work contemplated to the “lowest responsible bidder,” thereby conferring a discretionary power in adjudging the responsibility of the bidder, in all respects, with which the courts will not interfere in the absence of undue influence or a procurement by fraud. Sanderlin v. Luken, 152 N.C. 738, 68 S.E. 225 (1910).

Acceptance of Work by Commissioners.

— The acceptance of the work of the contractors as a compliance on their part with the contract is a judicial act of the board of commissioners and cannot be questioned except for fraud or collusion, and then only to make the commissioners personally and individually liable. Craven v. Board of Comm’rs, 176 N.C. 531, 97 S.E. 470 (1918).

Only Minor Changes in Report Authorized. — The authority given by this section to correct errors and modify the details of the report contemplates only such minor changes of detail as may occur in carrying out the plans, etc., specified in the final report and not a substantial departure therefrom. Griffin v. Board of Comm’rs, 169 N.C. 642, 86 S.E. 575 (1915).

§ 156-85. Monthly estimates for work and payments thereon; final payment.

The superintendent in charge of construction shall make monthly estimates of the amount of work done, and furnish one copy to the contractor and file the other with the secretary of the board of drainage commissioners; and the commissioners shall, within five days after the filing of such estimate, meet and direct the secretary to draw a warrant in favor of such contractor for ninety per centum (90%) of the work done, according to the specifications and contracts; and upon the presentation of such warrant, properly signed by the chairman and secretary, to the treasurer of the drainage fund, he shall pay the amount due thereon. When the work is fully completed and accepted by the superintendent he shall make an estimate for the whole amount due, including the amounts withheld on the previous monthly estimates, which shall be paid from the drainage fund as before provided. (1909, c. 442, s. 22; C.S., s. 5342.)

§ 156-86. Failure of contractors; reletting.

If any contractor to whom such work has been let shall fail to perform the same according to the terms specified in his contract, action may be had in behalf of the board of drainage commissioners against such contractor and his bond in the superior court for damages sustained by the levee or drainage district, and recovery made against such contractor and his sureties. In such an event the work shall be advertised and relet in the same manner as the original letting. (1909, c. 442, s. 23; 1911, c. 67, s. 5; C.S., s. 5343.)

§ 156-87. Right to enter upon lands; removal of timber.

In the construction of the work the contractor shall have the right to enter upon the lands necessary for this purpose and the right to remove private or public bridges or fences and to cross private lands in going to or from the work. In case the right-of-way of the improvement is through timber the owner thereof shall have the right to remove it, if he so desires, before the work of construction begins, and in case it is not removed by the landowner it shall become the property of the contractor and may be removed by him. (1909, c. 442, s. 24; C.S., s. 5344.)

CASE NOTES

Constitutionality. — Objection that this section constitutes an unconstitutional taking of the owner's timber, giving it to the contractor without compensation, cannot be maintained. Beaufort County Lumber Co. v. Drainage Comm'rs, 174 N.C. 647, 94 S.E. 457 (1917).

Purpose of Section. — The drainage acts contemplate that all damages to the owner of lands shall be assessed, including the taking of his timber necessary to carry out its plans, this section being designed to give the owner of the timber the privilege of taking such timber if he so elects. Beaufort County Lumber Co. v. Drainage Comm'rs, 174 N.C. 647, 94 S.E. 457 (1917).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL

Time for Removal of Timber. — Provision in this section that the owner of timber shall have the right to remove it "before the work of construction begins" means when work is begun on a particular landowner's tract. See opinion of Attorney General to Colonel Paul S. Denison, Army Corps of Engineers, 40 N.C.A.G. 197 (1969).

§ 156-88. Drainage across public or private ways.

Where any public ditch, drain or watercourse established under the provisions of this Subchapter crosses or, in the opinion of the board of viewers, should cross a public highway under the supervision of the Department of Transportation the actual cost of constructing the same across the highway shall be paid for from the funds of the drainage district, and it shall be the duty of the Department of Transportation, upon notice from the court, to show cause why it should not be required to repair or remove any old bridge and/or build any new bridge to provide the minimum drainage space determined by the court; whereupon the court shall hear all evidence pertaining thereto and shall determine whether the Department of Transportation shall be required to do such work, and whether at its own expense or whether the cost thereof should be prorated between the Department of Transportation and the drainage district. Either party shall have the right of appeal from the clerk to the superior court and thence to the appellate division, and should the court be of the opinion that the cost should be prorated then the percentage apportioned to each shall be determined by a jury.

Whenever the Department of Transportation is required to repair or remove any old bridge and/or build any new bridge as hereinbefore provided, the same may be done in such manner and according to such specifications as it deems best, and no assessment shall be charged the Department of Transportation for any benefits to the highway affected by the drain under the same, and such bridge shall thereafter be maintained by and at the expense of the Department of Transportation.

Where any public ditch, drain, or watercourse established under the provisions of this Subchapter crosses a public highway or road, not under the supervision of the Department of Transportation, the actual cost of constructing the same across the highway or removing old bridges or building new ones shall be paid for from the funds of the drainage district. Whenever any highway within the levee or drainage district shall be beneficially affected by the construction of any improvement or improvements in such district it shall be the duty of the viewers appointed to classify the land, to give in their report the amount of benefit to such highway, and notice shall be given by the clerk of the superior court to the commissioners of the county where the road is located, of the amount of such assessment, and the county commissioners shall have the right to appear before the court and file objections, the same as any landowner. When it shall become necessary for the drainage commissioners to repair any bridge or construct a new bridge across a public highway or road not under the supervision of the Department of Transportation, by reason of enlarging any watercourse, or of excavating any canal intersecting such highway, such bridge shall thereafter be maintained by and at the expense of the official board or authority which by law is required to maintain such highway so intersected.

Where any public canal established under the provisions of the general drainage law shall intersect any private road or cartway the actual cost of constructing a bridge across such canal at such intersection shall be paid for from the funds of the drainage district and constructed under the supervision of the board of drainage commissioners, but the bridge shall thereafter be maintained by and at the expense of the owners of the land exercising the use and control of the private roads; provided, if the private road shall be converted into a public highway the maintenance of the bridge shall devolve upon the Department of Transportation or such other authority as by law shall be required to maintain public highways and bridges. (1909, c. 442, s. 25; 1911, c. 67, s. 6; 1917, c. 152, s. 6; C.S., s. 5345; 1947, c. 1022; 1953, c. 675, s. 26; 1957, c. 65, s. 11; 1969, c. 44, s. 78; 1973, c. 507, s. 5; 1977, c. 464, s. 34.)

§ 156-89. Drainage across railroads; procedure.

Whenever the engineer and the viewers in charge shall make a survey for the purpose of locating a public levee or drainage district or changing a natural watercourse, and the same would cross the right-of-way of any railroad company, it shall be the duty of the owner in charge of the work to notify the railroad company, by serving written notice upon the agent of such company or its lessee or receiver, that they will meet the company at the place where the proposed ditch, drain, or watercourse crosses the right-of-way of such company, the notice fixing the time of such meeting, which shall not be less than 10 days after the service of the same, for the purpose of conferring with the railroad company with relation to the place where and the manner in which such improvement shall cross such right-of-way. When the time fixed for such conference shall arrive, unless for good cause more time is agreed upon, it shall be the duty of the viewers in charge and the railroad company to agree, if possible, upon the place where and the manner and method in which such improvement shall cross such right-of-way. If the viewers in charge and the railroad company cannot agree, or if the railroad company shall fail, neglect, or refuse to confer with the viewers, they shall determine the place and manner of crossing the right-of-way of the railroad company, and shall specify the number and size of openings required, and the damages, if any, to the railroad company, and so specify in their report. The fact that the railroad company is required by the construction of the improvement to build a new bridge or culvert or to enlarge or strengthen an old one shall not be considered as damages to the railroad company. The engineer and viewers shall also assess the benefits that will accrue to the right-of-way, roadbed, and other property of the company by affording better drainage or a better outlet for drainage, but no benefits shall be assessed because of the increase in business that may come to the road because of the construction of the improvement. The benefits shall be assessed as a fixed sum, determined solely by the physical benefit that its property will receive by the construction of the improvement, and it shall be reported by the viewers as a special assessment, due personally from the railroad company as a special assessment; it may be collected in the manner of an ordinary debt in any court having jurisdiction. (1909, c. 442, s. 26; C.S., s. 5346.)

CASE NOTES

Mandamus Against County Commissioners Upheld. — A judgment in proceedings seeking mandamus against county commissioners to compel them to pay an assessment of a drainage district for benefit to the public roads therein, that the defendants pay the same, with interest and costs, out of the first moneys coming into their hands and not otherwise appropriated, was valid and not in violation of the Constitution or statutes relating to taxation. Cabarrus County Drainage Dist. No. 2 v. Board of Comm'rs, 174 N.C. 738, 94 S.E. 530 (1917).

§ 156-90. Notice to railroad.

The clerk of the superior court shall have notice served upon the railroad company of the time and place of the meeting to hear and determine the final report of the engineer and viewers, and the railroad company shall have the right to file objections to the report and to appeal from the findings of the board of commissioners in the same manner as any landowner. But such an appeal shall not delay or defeat the construction of the improvement. (1909, c. 442, s. 27; C.S., s. 5347.)

§ 156-91. Manner of construction across railroad.

(a) Duty of Railroad. — After the contract is let and the actual construction is commenced, if the work is being done with a floating dredge, the superintendent in charge of construction shall notify the railroad company of the probable time at which the contractor will be ready to enter upon the right-of-way of such railroad and construct the work thereon. It shall be the duty of the railroad to send a representative to view the ground with the superintendent of construction and arrange the exact time at which such work can be most conveniently done. At the time agreed upon the railroad company shall remove its rails, ties, stringers, and such other obstructions as may be necessary to permit the dredge to excavate the channel across its right-of-way. The work shall be so planned and conducted as to interfere in the least possible manner with the business of the railroad.

(b) Utilities Commission to Settle. — If the superintendent of construction and the railroad company shall not be able to agree as to the exact time at which such work can be done, including the time of beginning and the time to be consumed in such work, either party may give written notice thereof to the chairman of the Utilities Commission of the State, and thereupon the Utilities Commission shall cause an investigation to be made, and, after hearing both parties, shall fix the time of beginning such work and the time to be consumed in the work of construction, and the final determination of the Utilities Commission thereon shall be binding upon the superintendent of construction representing the district and the railroad company, and the work shall be done in such time as may be fixed by the Utilities Commission.

(c) Penalty for Delay. — In case the railroad company refuses and fails to remove its track and allow the dredge to construct the work on its right-of-way, it shall be held as delaying the construction of the improvement, and such company shall be liable to a penalty of twenty-five dollars ($25.00) per day for each day of delay, to be collected by the board of drainage commissioners for the benefit of the drainage district as in the case of other penalties. Such a penalty may be collected in any court having jurisdiction, and shall inure to the benefit of the drainage district.

(d) Payment of Expense. — Within 30 days after the work is completed an itemized bill for actual expenses incurred by the railroad company for opening its tracks shall be made and presented to the superintendent of construction of the drainage improvement. Such bill, however, shall not include the cost of putting in a new bridge or strengthening or enlarging an old one. The superintendent of construction shall audit this bill and, if found correct, approve the same and file it with the secretary of the board of drainage commissioners. The commissioners shall deduct from this bill the cost of the excavation done by the dredge on the right-of-way of the railroad company at the contract price, and pay the difference, if any, to the railroad company. (1909, c. 442, s. 28; 1911, c. 67, s. 7; C.S., s. 5348; 1933, c. 134, s. 8; 1941, c. 97, s. 1.)

§ 156-92. Control and repairs by drainage commissioners.

Whenever any improvement constructed under this Subchapter is completed it shall be under the control and supervision of the board of drainage commissioners. It shall be the duty of the board to keep the levee, ditch, drain, or watercourse in good repair, and for this purpose they may levy an assessment on the lands benefited by the maintenance or repair of such improvement in the same manner and in the same proportion as the original assessments were made, and the fund that is collected shall be used for repairing and maintaining the ditch, drain, or watercourse in perfect order: Provided, however, that if any repairs are made necessary by the act or negligence of the owner of any land through which such improvement is constructed or by the act or negligence of his agent or employee, or if the same is caused by the cattle, hogs, or other stock of such owner, employee, or agent, then the cost thereof shall be assessed and levied against the lands of the owner alone, to be collected by proper suit instituted by the drainage commissioners. It shall be unlawful for any person to injure or damage or obstruct or build any bridge, fence, or floodgate in such a way as to injure or damage any levee, ditch, drain, or watercourse constructed or improved under the provisions of this Subchapter, and any person causing such injury shall be guilty of a Class 3 misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof may only be fined in any sum not exceeding twice the damage or injury done or caused. (1909, c. 442, s. 29; C.S., s. 5349; 1947, c. 982, s. 1; 1993, c. 539, s. 1075; 1994, Ex. Sess., c. 24, s. 14(c).)

Cross References. — As to improvement, renovation, etc., of canals, structures and boundaries, see § 156-93.2 et seq.

CASE NOTES

Amendment by Implication. — Public Laws 1923, c. 231, which added former § 156-118 and § 156-123, had the effect of amending this section. This section authorizes the drainage commissioners to levy an assessment upon the lands in the district for the purpose of keeping up the drainage. The amending statutes provided that the commissioners could issue bonds instead of levying an assessment. In re Perquimans County Drainage Dist. No. Four, 254 N.C. 155, 118 S.E.2d 431 (1961), decided prior to the repeal of §§ 156-118 through 156-120.

Assessments Authorized on Properties Benefited by Repairs. — It is the duty of the commissioners to keep the drains and works of the districts in good repair. For this purpose they are authorized to levy assessments on the properties within the district benefited by the repairs. In re Albemarle Drainage Dist., Beaufort County No. 5, 255 N.C. 338, 121 S.E.2d 599 (1961).

Provision Limiting Assessments. — A provision in the petition limiting the amount of assessments to be made on lands within a drainage district being formed under the provisions of the statute, which was not inserted in the final judgment rendered in due course, could not at a subsequent term be supplied by amendment, being also contrary to the statutory provisions and invalid. Mann v. Mann, 176 N.C. 353, 97 S.E. 175 (1918).

Under the statute creating the Mattamuskeet Drainage District, control thereof, after its completion, is continued in the board of drainage commissioners for the purpose of its maintenance, and authority is given it to levy assessments therefor on the lands benefited in the same manner and in the same proportion as the "original assessments" were made, and collected by the same officers as those by whom the State and county taxes are collected. It was held that the term "original assessments" refers to those made for construction work on bonds issued therefor, and the assessments for maintenance should be collected by the sheriff of the county for the purpose of maintenance, as taxes for general county purposes are to be collected by him. Drainage Comm'rs of Mattamuskeet Dist. v. Davis, 182 N.C. 140, 108 S.E. 506 (1921).

§ 156-93. Construction of lateral drains.

The owner of any land that has been assessed for the cost of the construction of any ditch, drain, or watercourse, as herein provided, shall have the right to use the ditch, drain, or watercourse as an outlet for lateral drains from such land; and if the land be of such elevation that the owner cannot secure proper drainage through and over his own land, or if the land is separated from the ditch, drain, or watercourse by the land of another or others, and the owner thereof shall be unable to agree with such others as to the terms and conditions on which he may enter their lands and construct the drain or ditch, he may file his ancillary petition in such pending proceeding to the court, and the procedure shall be as now provided by law. (1909, c. 442, s. 30; 1915, c. 43, s. 1; 1917, c. 152, s. 3; C.S., s. 5350.)

ARTICLE 7A.

Maintenance.

§ 156-93.1. Maintenance assessments and contracts; engineering assistance, construction equipment, etc.; joint or consolidated maintenance operations; water-retardant structures; borrowing in anticipation of revenue.

(a) The board of drainage commissioners may annually levy maintenance assessments in the same ratio as the existing classification of the lands within the district. The amount of these assessments shall be determined by the board of drainage commissioners of the district. The proceeds of these assessments shall be used for the purpose of maintaining canals of the drainage district in an efficient operating condition and for the necessary operating expenses of the district. Notice of the meeting at which the board of drainage commissioners determines the amount of the annual levy shall be mailed to the owners, as shown on the county tax records, of all property subject to assessment, or shall be published once a week for two successive calendar weeks in a newspaper having general circulation in the area. The notice shall be sent or published not more than 30 days nor less than 10 days prior to the meeting, and shall state the time, place, and purposes of the meeting. Any interested person has the right to be heard at the meeting prior to the drainage commissioners taking any action on the proposed assessment. In the event that any interested and aggrieved party disagrees with the said assessment, he may, within 20 days of the mailing of the notice of the assessment, file with the clerk for the county wherein the proceeding is pending, a notice specifically setting forth his objection. The Secretary of the District shall file in the records of the proceeding a certification setting forth the date of the mailing of the notice of the annual maintenance assessments. The clerk shall thereupon notify the senior resident superior court judge of such district who shall set the objection down for hearing at the earliest possible time. The court shall hear the matter upon the objections duly set forth in the notice of objection.

The board of drainage commissioners shall have the authority to employ engineering assistance, construction equipment, superintendents and operators for the equipment necessary for the efficient maintenance of the canals, or the maintenance may be done by private contract made after due advertisement as required for the original construction work.

(b) The board of drainage commissioners of a drainage district may join with the commissioners of one or more districts for the purpose of employing engineering assistance, equipment, superintendents and equipment operators for the maintenance of the canals in the several districts desiring to coordinate their maintenance operations and the drainage districts desiring to coordinate a common maintenance force may have a common office with the necessary employees for the furtherance of the joint operations for maintenance. The districts may coordinate their work without regard to county lines.

(c) The board of commissioners of a drainage district may, individually or jointly with the commissioners of other drainage districts, purchase, lease, rent, sell, or otherwise dispose of at public or private sale, equipment for the original construction or maintenance of the canals in the individual or joint districts or the said drainage districts may make contracts with private construction firms for the maintenance and construction of their canals. Contracts made with private construction companies are to be advertised as provided for the contract for the original construction of the canals.

The drainage districts may use the equipment owned by them for the purpose of maintenance of the canals and the construction of extensions to the system of canals in the individual or several drainage districts.

(d) The drainage districts desiring to consolidate their maintenance services and equipment may set up a board composed of one member from each district for the purpose of control and use of the personnel and equipment employed on a joint basis, and in all matters coming before the joint board, the representative of each district shall have a voting strength equal to the proportionate acreage of his drainage district as compared with the total acreage of the combined districts.

(e) The collection of the annual maintenance assessments shall be made by the county tax collector. The board of county commissioners of the county in which a drainage district is located shall upon the request of the board of drainage commissioners of the said district cause to be shown on the tax statement or notice issued by the county to its taxpayers the amount due the drainage district by the landowners in the same manner as other special assessments are shown thereon. This amount shall be collected by the county tax collector in the same manner as county taxes and deposited to the credit of the district in which the land is located.

(f) The provisions for maintenance as set forth in this Article and elsewhere in this Subchapter III shall include water-retardant structures and the operation of such.

(g) The board of commissioners may borrow money in anticipation of revenue from maintenance assessments, as hereinbefore provided for, from which assessments the loan shall be repaid. The amount which the commissioners may borrow shall not be limited to the revenues anticipated for any one year. The terms and provisions of such loan shall be approved by the clerk of the superior court which approval shall be requested in the form of a petition and order in the proceeding by virtue of which the district was organized. The proceeds of said loan shall be used only for purposes set forth in Article 7A of Chapter 156. (1949, c. 1216; 1959, c. 597, s. 4; 1961, c. 614, s. 8; 1989 (Reg. Sess., 1990), c. 959, s. 4; 1991, c. 634, s. 1.)

Local Modification. — Beaufort: 1963, c. 142.

CASE NOTES

The land clause of the Constitution of North Carolina is violated insofar as § 156-138.3 dispenses with notice and an opportunity to be heard before imposing maintenance assessments on landowners within the drainage district; the imposition of these assessments was not a matter of mathematical computation, but rather, it involved some discretion on the part of the commissioners. Northampton County Drainage Dist. Number One v. Bailey, 326 N.C. 742, 392 S.E.2d 352 (1990).

Quoted in In re Perquimans County Drainage Dist. No. Four, 254 N.C. 155, 118 S.E.2d 431 (1961).

ARTICLE 7B.

Improvement, Renovation, Enlargement and Extension of Canals, Structures and Boundaries.

§ 156-93.2. Proceedings for improvement, renovation and extension of canals, structures and equipment.

The board of commissioners may construct, renovate, improve, enlarge and extend the drainage systems and water-retardant structures and any equipment of the district, by complying with the following provisions:

- (1) The commissioners shall file with the clerk of the superior court in the county in which the district was organized, a petition which sets forth the need for the improvements requested and a general description of the proposed improvements.
- (2) Upon the filing of the petition, the clerk shall then appoint a board of viewers with the same composition and qualifications as is required by G.S. 156-59. He shall direct the board of viewers to consider the proposals of the board of commissioners and report to him (i) whether or not the improvement proposed will benefit the lands sought to be benefited and (ii) whether or not the proposed improvement is practicable.

The board of viewers shall make their report to the clerk within 30 days after their appointment unless the time shall be extended by the court upon the showing of a meritorious cause for the extension.

- (3)a. If the board of viewers shall report (i) that none of the improvement proposed will benefit the lands sought to be benefited, or (ii) that it is not practicable, the petition of the board of commissioners shall be dismissed and shall not be submitted again within six months thereafter.
- b. If the board of viewers shall report (i) that part or all the improvement proposed will benefit the lands sought to be benefited and (ii) the proposed improvement is practicable, then the clerk shall fix a time and place for a hearing upon said report. The said hearing shall be no less than 20, nor more than 30, days after the filing of said report.
- (4) Notice of said hearing shall be given as follows:
- a. Posting and publication:
1. Posting at the courthouse door of the county in which the proceeding is pending;
  2. Posting at five conspicuous places within the district;
  3. The notice shall be posted at least 20 days prior to said hearing;
  4. Publication in a newspaper with general circulation within the area once a week for three successive weeks.
- b. Contents:
1. The notice shall state the time and place for the hearing;
  2. Describe in general terms the improvements proposed;
  3. That the court will consider and adjudicate the report of the board of viewers.
- (5) At the date appointed for the hearing the clerk shall hear and determine any objections that may be offered to the said report. The clerk may make such modifications and changes which tend to increase the benefits of the proposed work or improvement.
- (6)a. If the clerk shall adjudicate that (i) none of the improvements proposed will benefit any of the lands sought to be benefited or (ii) that none of the improvements are practicable, he shall dismiss the proceedings and the petition shall not be submitted again within six months thereafter.
- b. If the clerk shall approve the said report, he shall then direct the board of viewers to prepare a further and detailed report which shall include the following:
1. Specific plans and profiles together with estimates of the cost of the work recommended by the said board of viewers and an estimate of all other costs including those incurred by the board of viewers;
  2. If directed by the clerk, a new property map of the district which shall show thereon the general location of each tract of land which will be benefited by the proposed work;
  3. A statement showing the classification of benefits to be received by the several tracts of lands. This classification shall be determined and shown in the same manner as is provided for in G.S. 156-71. The board of viewers may adopt the original classification. Only those lands to be benefited by the proposed work shall be classified for assessment.

The board of viewers shall have, insofar as applicable, the same powers and duties as relate to the final report as are required and provided in Article 5 by G.S. 156-69, 156-70, 156-70.1 and 156-71.

The board of viewers shall make their report to the clerk within 60 days after their appointment. The clerk may extend this time upon the showing of meritorious cause for the extension.

The expense of the board of viewers, their assistants, and all costs incurred by them shall be paid from any surplus funds of the district, as defined in this Subchapter, or if such are not sufficient, by the same means of financing as are available for such purposes when the district is originally organized. The estimate of the expenditures shall be shown in its report and all amounts of money expended shall be reimbursed when funds are available.

- (7) Upon the filing of the said report, the clerk shall fix a time and a place for a hearing thereupon.
- (8) The notice of the hearing upon said report shall be given in the same manner as required for the notice of the proposed work as required by the preceding subdivision (4) which relates to the preliminary hearing.

Also, a notice of said hearing shall be mailed at least 10 days prior to the hearing, to those landowners as their names appear upon the statement of classification of benefits filed with the report of the board of viewers and whose names and addresses are shown on the tax scrolls of the county wherein their land is situated. The attorneys for, or commissioners of, the district shall use due diligence to determine the said names and addresses from the tax scrolls.

The filing with the clerk of the superior court of a certificate by the attorney for, or the commissioners of, the district, that due diligence has been used to obtain the names and addresses from the tax scrolls and that notice has been mailed to those persons at the address shown, shall be sufficient showing that this provision has been complied with. The certificate shall state the names, addresses and dates to whom such notice was mailed.

- (9) At the date set for the hearing any landowner may appear in person, or by counsel, and file his objections in writing to the report of the board of viewers. It shall be the duty of the clerk to carefully review the report of the board of viewers and the objections filed thereto and make such changes as are necessary to render substantial and equal justice to all landowners in the district.

If the clerk shall adjudicate that the benefits which will accrue to the lands affected are greater than the cost of the improvements, the report of the board of viewers shall be confirmed. The clerk shall then direct the commissioners of the district to proceed with the improvements as approved.

If, however, the clerk finds that the cost of the improvements is greater than the resulting benefits that will accrue to the lands affected, the clerk shall dismiss the proceedings.

- (10) Any landowner, party petitioner, or the drainage district may, within 10 days after the entry of the order or judgment by the clerk upon the report of the board of viewers, appeal to the superior court in session time or in chambers. The procedures for taking appeal under Article 27A of Chapter 1 of the General Statutes apply, except as provided otherwise by this Subchapter. All of the terms and provisions of G.S. 156-75 apply to the appeal. (1961, c. 614, s. 1; 1969, c. 192, s. 2; 1999-216, s. 21.)

Effect of Amendments. — Session Laws 1999-216, s. 21, effective January 1, 2000, and applicable to all orders or judgments subject to this act that are entered on or after that date, rewrote subdivision (10).

CASE NOTES

Purpose of Article. — The legislature, when it enacted Subchapter III, authorizing the establishment of drainage districts, made no provision for an alteration and enlargement of the boundaries subsequent to the date of creation, for the simple reason that the boundaries as finally determined had to include all lands benefited by the improvement, and the lands so benefited were required to be assessed for the benefits accruing, and hence no assessment could be levied either for original construction or for cost of maintenance on lands beyond the boundaries. However, the 1961 legislature, recognizing that lands not originally expected to receive benefit from works to be performed by a drainage district might, by changing conditions and the modification or enlargement and maintenance of the drains, receive benefits from work subsequently proposed to be done, made provision for the enlargement of the boundaries of drainage districts. In re Albemarle Drainage Dist., Beaufort County No. 5, 255 N.C. 338, 121 S.E.2d 599 (1961).

§ 156-93.3. Extension of boundaries.

The boundaries of a drainage district may be extended upon compliance with the requirements and procedures as follows:

- (1) The request for extension shall be made by the board of commissioners of the district, in the form of a petition in the name of the drainage district, to the clerk of the superior court of the county wherein the district was originally organized. The proceeding may be ex parte or adversary.
- (2) The area proposed to be included within the boundaries of the district must be either:
  - a. Located upstream and adjacent to the existing boundary of the district and must have as its only source of drainage either:
    1. The canals of the district; or
    2. Natural or artificial drain ways which empty into or are benefited by the canals of the district; and
    3. Must be within the watershed of the existing district; or
  - b. Adjacent to the existing boundary of the district and have a common outfall with the existing district.
- (3)a. In the event the area meets the requirements of (2)a, it shall only be necessary for the petition to be filed by the board of commissioners of the district.
- b. In the event the area meets the requirement of (2)b of this section, the owners of fifty percent (50%) or more of the land area which it is proposed to include or forty percent (40%) or more of the resident landowners who will be benefited within such area, must join with and be petitioners with the commissioners of the existing district, asking for the extension of boundaries and inclusion of land within the existing district.

Should the area proposed to be included within the boundary of the enlarged district embrace one or more existing drainage districts, the commissioners of any such district or districts may join in a petition to the court asking for the extension of boundaries of the existing district.

The joinder in the petition by the commissioners of such drainage district in the name of the district shall have the effect of including in the petition all of the land within said existing drainage district to the same extent as if the petition had been signed individually by each landowner of the district. The total acreage in such district or districts shall be included as land in the petition in determining whether or not the requirements under this section have been complied with.

- (4) Upon filing of the petition for extension of the boundaries, the clerk of the superior court shall appoint a board of viewers with the same composition and qualifications as is required by G.S. 156-59. The board of viewers shall examine the area proposed to be included within the boundaries of the district to determine whether or not, in their opinion, it is feasible and equitable to include said area within the boundaries of the district, and report their finding to the court. The report must be made within 30 days after the appointment of said board of viewers. The time for filing said report may be extended by the clerk upon a showing of a meritorious cause for the extension.
- (5) If the board of viewers shall report that the proposed extension of boundary is not feasible or equitable, the petition shall be dismissed and shall not be submitted again until after six months from date of dismissal.
- (6)a. If the board of viewers shall report that the proposed extension of boundary is feasible and equitable, then the clerk of the superior court shall order the board of viewers to make a further and detailed report which shall include a map of the area that is proposed to be annexed which shall show:
  1. Boundaries of the existing district;
  2. Boundaries of the proposed extension;
  3. A general location of each individual tract of land which will be benefited.
- b. In the event no additional work is proposed, the board of viewers shall report the following:
  1. The allocation of benefits derived from the existing canals, structures or other improvements, between the existing district and the area to be included within the boundaries of the existing district, which shall be a percentage figure and shall be the major factor for the determination of the requirements set forth in the succeeding paragraphs 2 and 3;
  2. The amount of money, if any, which the owners of the land to be included within the district should pay for the use of the canals, structures or other improvements of the district;
  3. The percent of the cost of maintenance and operating expenses which the owners of the land to be included, should pay;
  4. Classification of the additional lands as to benefits derived from the existing canals, structures or other improvements of the district which shall be in accordance with the provisions of G.S. 156-71. The area of the existing district shall not be classified, unless directed by the clerk of the superior court;
  5. The names and addresses of the landowners within the areas proposed to be included insofar as may be determined from the tax records of the county;
  6. Such other information as may be appropriate or as may be directed by the clerk of the superior court.
- c. In the event additional work is proposed, the report of the board of viewers shall also contain the information required in G.S. 156-93.2, as it applies to the final report of the board of viewers.
- (7) The board of viewers shall file their detailed or final report within 60 days after their appointment. The time for filing of said report may be extended by the clerk upon a showing of meritorious cause for the extension.
- (8) Upon the filing of said report those landowners in the area to be included who are not parties to the proceedings and who do not desire to sign the petition, shall be made parties defendant. Summons shall be served upon the defendants in the manner required for special proceedings. There shall be attached to and served with the summons, in lieu of a copy of the petition or final report, a statement which shall set forth (i) the purpose of the proceedings and (ii) that the report of the board of viewers is on file in the office of the clerk of the superior court and may be examined by persons interested.

- (9) The attorney for, or the commissioners of, the district shall use due diligence to give notice to every landowner within the area proposed to be included, who has not signed the petition asking for such extension of boundaries and/or the proposed improvements.

The filing of a certificate by the attorney for, or the commissioners of, the district that due diligence has been used to notify each of said defendant landowners shown by the report of the board of viewers, either by personal service or by publication, shall be sufficient showing of compliance with this provision. The certificate shall contain the names of such landowners served personally, the date of service and the names of those served by publication and the date of service by publication.

- (10) Upon filing of said certificate the clerk shall fix a time and place for a hearing upon said report, which date shall be no less than 20 days after filing of said certificate.

- (11) Notice of said hearing shall be given as follows:

a. Posting and publication:

1. Posting at the courthouse door of the county in which the proceeding is pending;
2. Posting at five conspicuous places in the district and in the area to be included;
3. The notice shall be posted at least 20 days prior to the said hearing;
4. Publication in a newspaper with general circulation within the area once a week for three successive weeks;
5. Mailing a copy of the notice to those persons for whom an address is shown in the certificate filed by the attorney for, or commissioners of, the district.

b. Contents:

1. The notice shall state the time and place for the hearing;
2. Describe in general terms the area proposed to be included and work proposed, if any;
3. That the court will consider and adjudicate the report of the board of viewers.

- (12) At the date set for hearing any landowner may appear in person or by counsel and file his objection in writing to the report of the board of viewers. It shall be the duty of the clerk to carefully review the report of the board of viewers and the objection filed thereto and make such changes as are necessary to render substantial and equal justice to all of the landowners and the existing district.

- (13) The clerk shall, after making adjustments in the report of the board of viewers, if any, determine:

- a. If the area(s) of land sought to be included, or any part thereof, is, or will be, benefited by the canals, structures or other improvements of the district.
- b. If such area(s) should equitably be included within the boundary of the district because of the benefits received or to be received from the district.
- c. If the requirements of the preceding subdivision (3)b, if applicable, are met.

If the clerk shall determine that all of the three preceding requirements are met, he shall direct that the area(s) of land to be included within the boundaries of the district, in accordance with the provisions of the report of the board of viewers, as approved.

(14) If the clerk shall determine either:

- a. That no part of the area proposed to be included is or will be benefited by the canals, structures or other improvements of the district and equitably should not be included within the boundaries of the district; or
- b. That the requirements of the preceding subdivision (3)a or b, whichever is applicable, have not been complied with; he shall dismiss the proceeding.

(15) Any landowner, party petitioner, or the drainage district may, within 10 days after the entry of an order or judgment by the clerk upon the report of the board of viewers, appeal to the superior court in session time or in chambers. The procedures for taking appeal under Article 27A of Chapter 1 of the General Statutes apply, except as provided otherwise by this Subchapter. All of the terms and provisions of G.S. 156-75 apply to the appeal.

(16) The duties and powers of the board of commissioners as to those lands included within the district by the current proceedings shall be the same as to those in the original proceeding. (1961, c. 614, s. 1; 1965, c. 1143, s. 4; 1969, c. 192, s. 3; cc. 440, 1002; 1999-216, s. 22.)

Effect of Amendments. — Session Laws 1999-216, s. 22, effective January 1, 2000, and applicable to all orders or judgments subject to this act that are entered on or after that date, rewrote subdivision (15).

§ 156-93.4. Coordination of proceedings under §§ 156-93.2 and 156-93.3.

In the event a proceeding shall be instituted as provided for in G.S. 156-93.2 and shall also include the extension of boundaries, as provided for in G.S. 156-93.3, the provisions of G.S. 156-93.2 and 156-93.3 shall be coordinated and if there shall be any conflict as to procedure, that provided for in G.S. 156-93.3 shall be followed. (1961, c. 614, s. 1.)

§ 156-93.5. Assessments and bonds for improvement, renovation, enlargement and extension.

The board of drainage commissioners shall, for the purposes set forth in this Article, levy the necessary assessments and may issue bonds or other debentures for the purpose of providing funds for the construction or acquisition of any of the improvements or works authorized by this Article. The time and manner of levying assessments and the issuance of bonds or other debentures and the terms thereof shall be the same as provided for in Article 8 of Subchapter III. (1961, c. 614, s. 1.)

§ 156-93.6. Rights-of-way and easements for existing districts.

All drainage districts heretofore created shall be deemed to own an easement or right-of-way in and to those lands upon which there are existing canals and spoil banks.

Whenever the proposed repairs, maintenance or other improvements make it necessary for the drainage district to acquire additional land for easements or right-of-way, the procedure to secure the same shall be in accordance with G.S. 156-70.1. (1961, c. 614, s. 1.)

§ 156-93.7. Existing districts may act together to extend boundaries within watershed.

If there shall be more than one drainage district in a drainage basin, or watershed, the board of drainage commissioners of any of the districts may initiate or join separately or collectively with the commissioners of one or more of other drainage districts, in the drainage basin or watershed, and/or with the owners of land within the drainage basin, whose lands are not included within an existing drainage district in a petition to the court, asking for the creation of a larger drainage district, or the extension of boundaries of one of the existing districts.

The joinder in the petition by the commissioners of an existing drainage district, acting in the name of the district, shall have the effect of including all of the land assessed within the drainage district, in the petition asking for the creation of the larger drainage district or the extension of boundaries of an existing district. The total area of assessed land, within the existing drainage district shall be included, as land in the petition, in determining whether or not the requirement of G.S. 156-93.3(3)b have been fulfilled.

The provisions of this section shall apply in proceedings provided for in G.S. 156-93.2 and 156-93.3. (1961, c. 614, s. 1; 1965, c. 1143, s. 5.)

ARTICLE 8.

Assessments and Bond Issue.

§ 156-94. Total cost for three years ascertained.

After the classification of lands and the ratio of assessments of the different classes to be made thereon has been confirmed by the court, the board of drainage commissioners shall ascertain the total cost of the improvement, including damages awarded to be paid to owners of land, all costs and incidental expenses, and also including an amount sufficient to pay the necessary expenses of maintaining the improvement for a period of three years after the completion of the work of construction, not exceeding ten per centum (10%) of the estimated actual cost of constructing the drainage works or the contract price thereof if such contract has not been awarded, and after deducting therefrom any special assessments made against any railroad or highway, and, thereupon, the board of drainage commissioners, under the hand of the chairman and secretary of the board, shall certify to the clerk of the superior court the total cost, ascertained as aforesaid; and the certificate shall be forthwith recorded in the drainage record and open to inspection of any landowner in the district. (1909, c. 442, s. 31; 1911, c. 67, s. 8; C.S., s. 5351; 1923, c. 217, s. 4.)

Cross References. — As to application of this section, see § 156-104.

§ 156-95. Assessment and payment; notice of bond issue.

If the total cost of the improvement is less than an average of twenty-five cents (25¢) per acre on all the land in the district, the board of drainage commissioners shall forthwith assess the lands in the district therefor, in accordance with their classification, and said assessment shall be collected in one installment, by the same officer and in the same manner as State and county taxes are collected, and payable at the same time. In case the total cost exceeds an average of twenty-five cents (25¢) per acre on all lands in the district, the board of drainage commissioners shall give notice for three weeks by publication in some newspaper published in a county in which the district, or some part thereof, is situated, if there be any such newspaper, and also by posting a written or printed notice at the door of the courthouse and at five conspicuous places in the district, reciting that they propose to issue bonds for the payment of the total cost of the improvement, giving the amount of bonds to be issued, the rate of interest that they are to bear, and the time when payable. Any landowner in the district not wanting to pay interest on the bonds may, within 15 days after the publication of such notice, pay to the county treasurer the full amount for which his land is liable, to be ascertained from the classification sheet and the certificate of the board showing the total cost of the improvement, and have his lands released from liability to be assessed for the improvement; but such land shall continue liable for any future assessment for maintenance or for any increased assessment authorized under the law. (1909, c. 442, s. 32; 1911, c. 67, s. 9; C.S., s. 5352.)

CASE NOTES

Assessments Are Not "Taxes." — Assessments made for the maintenance of a drainage district, incorporated under the provisions of the statute, are not "taxes," even though they may be so incorrectly denominated therein; they are only assessments made for the special benefits to the land within the district, and are not imposed for the purpose of general revenue. Drainage Comm'rs v. Davis, 182 N.C. 140, 108 S.E. 506 (1921).

Drainage district assessments are not taxes. Northampton County Drainage Dist. Number One v. Bailey, 326 N.C. 742, 392 S.E.2d 352 (1990).

Assessments upon lands in a drainage district are liens in rem, resting upon the lands, into whosoever hands they may be at the time they accrue, and do not come within the terms of a warranty against encumbrances by deed. Taylor v. Commissioners of Moseley Creek Drainage Dist., 176 N.C. 217, 96 S.E. 1027 (1918).

Grantee of Timber Interest Not Liable for Assessment. — A conveyance of the timber, under the usual deed, providing for its cutting and removal from the land within a stated period, is regarded as a severance thereof from the land, and the grantee in the deed is not liable for an assessment for drainage purposes laid thereon. Dover Lumber Co. v. Board of Comm'rs, 173 N.C. 117, 91 S.E. 714 (1917).

No owner is responsible for other owners by reason of their failure to pay, except through the method of assessment provided by the statute. Carter v. Board of Drainage Comm'rs, 156 N.C. 183, 72 S.E. 380 (1911).

Liability for Additional Assessments. — The land of the owner who has paid his assessments, as provided by this section, is subject to additional assessments, the lands in the district being liable until the original bond issue for making the improvements or indebtedness incurred therefor is paid in full. Virginia-Carolina Joint Stock Land Bank v. Watt, 207 N.C. 577, 178 S.E. 228 (1935).

Power of Courts to Enjoin Collection of Assessments. — The courts, in proper instances, have the power to interfere and stay amounts assessed against the owner of lands within an established drainage district, when it appears that the commissioners, in carrying out the ministerial duties imposed on them, endeavored to collect from him a sum in excess of their own assessment, or that they had made out the rolls in utter disregard of the classifications and ratio of assessments established by the final report, or that they had made such changes in the plans and specifications thereof as to exceed their powers and to work substantial wrong and hardship upon the landowner, if he was not guilty of laches and had not unduly delayed asserting his rights. Griffin v. Board of Comm'rs, 169 N.C. 642, 86 S.E. 575 (1915).

Where a drainage district has been fully and lawfully established in accordance with the statute, the commissioners have been duly appointed, and bonds have been issued in furtherance of the scheme, an injunction restraining the collection of the assessment against the landowners therein, at the suit of one of them, will not issue, as against the interest of the holder of the bonds, unless it clearly appears that the commissioners have substantially departed, to the injury of the claimant, from the scheme set forth in the final report of the viewers, etc. Griffin v. Board of Comm'rs, 169 N.C. 642, 86 S.E. 575 (1915).

Purchaser Takes with Notice of Assessments. — The purchaser of lands within a drainage district formed under the provisions of this Chapter is fixed by the statute with notice of the assessments and the time thereof, whether a resident of another state or not. Pate v. Banks, 178 N.C. 139, 100 S.E. 251 (1919).

Presumption as to Notice. — The presumption is in favor of the regularity of the official proceedings of the commissioners of a drainage district, and applies to landowners within the district as to the sufficiency of notice of a meeting duly had to assess such owners according to benefits received from the improvements therein. Mitchem v. Gaston County Drainage Comm'n, 182 N.C. 511, 109 S.E. 551 (1921).

Waiver of Notice. — Where the owner of land in a drainage district, formed under the provisions of the statute, appears at a meeting of the commissioners held for the purpose and is silent, making no objection or exception to the assessment imposed upon his land, the question as to whether he had been sufficiently served with notice of the meeting becomes immaterial, his appearance being construed as a waiver thereof, or rather as dispensing with formal notice, and he cannot collaterally, by injunction, restrain the collection of these assessments by sheriff's sale. This also applies to his grantee who knew that the lands were situate within the district and subject to the assessments. Mitchem v. Gaston County Drainage Comm'n, 182 N.C. 511, 109 S.E. 551 (1921).

Cited in Board of Drainage Comm'rs v. Jarvis, 211 N.C. 690, 191 S.E. 514 (1937).

§ 156-96. Failure to pay deemed consent to bond issue.

Every person owning land in the district who shall fail to pay to the treasurer the full amount for which his land is liable, as aforesaid, within the time above specified, shall be deemed as consenting to the issuance of drainage bonds, and in consideration of the right to pay his proportion in installments, he hereby waives his rights of defense to the payment of any assessments which may be levied for the payment of bonds, because of any irregularity, illegality, or defect in the proceedings prior to this time, except in case of an appeal, as hereinbefore provided, which is not affected by this waiver. The term "person" as used in this Subchapter includes any firm, company, or corporation. (1909, c. 442, s. 33; 1911, c. 67, s. 10; C.S., s. 5353; 1963, c. 767, s. 4.)

§ 156-97. Bonds issued.

At the expiration of 15 days after publication of notice of bond issue the board of drainage commissioners may issue bonds of the drainage district for an amount equal to the total cost of the improvement, less such amounts as shall have been paid in in cash to the treasurer. Bonds issued by the board of drainage commissioners shall comply with the following provisions:

- (1) The bonds shall be serial bonds;
- (2) The denomination of the bonds shall be not less than one hundred dollars ($100.00) nor more than one thousand dollars ($1,000);
- (3) The interest upon said bonds shall not be more than fourteen percent (14%) per annum, from the date of issue and payable semiannually;
- (4) The first annual installment of principal shall fall due not less than three years nor more than six years after the date of the bonds;
- (5) Each annual installment of principal shall be not less than two percent (2%) nor more than ten percent (10%) of the total bonds authorized;

- (6) If the total amount of bonds to be issued does not exceed ten percent (10%) of the total amount of the assessment, the board of commissioners may, in their discretion, not issue any bonds and in lieu thereof issue assessment anticipation bonds which shall mature over a period of not less than four nor more than 10 years and shall be payable in equal annual installments. The interest rate on said assessment anticipation bonds shall not be more than fourteen percent (14%) per annum;
- (7) The board of commissioners may issue bond anticipation note or notes to be redeemed and paid upon the sale and delivery of bonds herein provided for. If such bond anticipation note or notes are issued, at the discretion of the commissioners, such may be done after the bonds have been sold and prior to the printing and delivery of said bonds and must be paid from the proceeds of said bonds when delivered. (1909, c. 442, s. 34; 1911, c. 67, s. 11; 1917, c. 152, s. 12; C.S., s. 5354; 1923, c. 217, s. 5; 1955, c. 1340; 1957, c. 1410, s. 1; 1961, c. 601, s. 1; 1963, c. 767, s. 4; 1969, c. 878; 1985, c. 136, ss. 1, 2.)

CASE NOTES

Bond Issue Upheld Despite Interest of Clerk Appointing Commissioners. — An issue of bonds by a drainage commission was not void by reason of the fact that the clerk of the court who appointed the commissioners owned an interest in a tract of land within the drainage district, as such an interest was too minute and was not directly the subject matter of the litigation. White v. Lane, 153 N.C. 14, 68 S.E. 895 (1910).

§ 156-97.1. Issuance of assessment anticipation notes.

In lieu of the bonds provided for in G.S. 156-97, the board of drainage commissioners may issue assessment anticipation notes of the district for an amount not to exceed the assessment levied by the commissioners and approved by the clerk of the superior court, less such amounts as shall have been paid in in cash to the treasurer. It shall be optional with the board of drainage commissioners in issuing assessment anticipation notes to issue serial notes in any denominations bearing not more than fourteen percent (14%) interest from the date of issue, payable semiannually. The first annual installment of principal shall be due not less than one year nor more than two years after date thereof, and each annual installment of principal shall not be less than two percent (2%) nor more than twenty-five percent (25%) of the total amount of notes authorized and issued.

Such assessment anticipation notes, when issued, shall have the same force and effect of bonds issued under the provisions of this Article and shall be collectible in the same manner.

The commissioners may issue either serial notes or an amortized note. (1957, c. 912, s. 2; 1961, c. 601, s. 3; 1963, c. 767, ss. 4, 7; 1985, c. 136, s. 3.)

§ 156-98. Form of bonds and notes; excess assessment.

All bonds and notes authorized and issued shall be signed by the chairman and secretary of the board of drainage commissioners and the corporate seal of the district affixed thereto, and the interest coupons shall be authenticated by the facsimile signature of the secretary, and both the principal and interest coupons shall be payable at some bank or trust company to be designated by the board of drainage commissioners and incorporated in the body of the bond. The form of the bond shall be authorized by the board of drainage commissioners or by the board and the purchaser of the bonds jointly, at the option of the board.

All bonds of reclamation districts shall have that fact noted upon the face of the bond, either by stamping or printing the same thereon. All bonds of improvement districts shall also have that fact noted upon their face.

For the purpose of meeting any possible deficit in the collection of annual drainage assessments or any deficit arising out of unforeseen contingencies there shall be levied, assessed and collected during each year when either the interest or principal or both interest and principal on the outstanding bonds shall be due, an assessment as will yield ten percent (10%) more than the total of interest and principal due in such years; that is to say, for every one hundred dollars ($100.00) of principal and interest, or either, due in any one year, there shall be levied, assessed and collected a sufficient drainage assessment to yield one hundred and ten dollars ($110.00) for such year. When this excess of drainage tax so levied, assessed and collected shall accumulate so that the aggregate surplus in the hands of the treasurer of the district shall amount to more than fifteen percent (15%) of the total principal of the bonds of the district outstanding and unpaid, then such surplus above fifteen percent (15%) thereof may be available for expenditure by the board of drainage commissioners in the maintenance and upkeep of the drainage work in such district in the manner provided by law: After all the drainage assessments have been collected except the last assessment, if the surplus which has accumulated amounts to more than five percent (5%) of the total issue of bonds of the district, then and in such event the board of drainage commissioners may in their discretion apply such excess above five percent (5%) toward the reduction of the total amount embraced in the last assessment, reducing the same pro rata as to each tract of land embraced in the district, and having regard to the classification, to the end that such reduction shall be fairly and justly made. As to such surplus as shall accumulate in the hands of the treasurer of the district over and above all obligations of the district which may be due, the treasurer is hereby directed to deposit same in some solvent bank or banks at the highest rate of interest obtainable therefor, and the said treasurer shall be authorized, if he deems it necessary, to demand satisfactory security for such deposits; but the said treasurer shall reserve the right to demand a repayment at any time upon giving not exceeding 30 days' notice thereof. Whereas the proceeds of the first drainage assessment may not be collected and in the hands of the treasurer of the district prior to the maturity of the first and second semiannual installments of interest upon the issue of bonds, the treasurer of the district is hereby directed to pay the interest coupons first maturing and also the interest coupons next maturing, if necessary, out of funds in his hands for the purpose of maintaining the improvement for the period of three years after the completion of the work or construction. As a surplus fund with the treasurer arising out of the annual additional assessment of ten per centum (10%) shall accumulate in any one year in excess of fifteen per centum (15%) of the total principal of the bonds of the district outstanding and unpaid, as herein provided, the treasurer shall transfer in each of such years such surplus fund to the fund for maintaining the improvement after completion, as a reimbursement of the fund formerly withdrawn therefrom for the payment of the first and second installments of interest coupons until such reimbursement shall be fully made. The treasurer shall thereafter keep separate accounts of the proceeds of such additional ten percent (10%) assessment remaining each year after the payment of all maturing obligations, and also a separate account of the funds provided for maintaining the improvement for the period of three years after completion of improvement and all payments therefrom and reimbursements thereto. (1917, c. 152, s. 13; C.S., s. 5355; 1923, c. 217, s. 6; 1927, c. 98, s. 5; 1961, c. 601, s. 2.)

§ 156-99. Application of funds; holder's remedy.

The commissioners of the district may sell the bonds or notes of the district for not less than par and devote the proceeds to the payment of the work as it progresses and to the payment of the other expenses of the district provided for in this Subchapter. The proceeds from the sale of the said bonds or notes shall be for the exclusive use of the levee or drainage district specified therein. A copy of said bonds or notes shall be recorded in the drainage record. If serial bonds or notes are issued it shall only be necessary to record the first numbered bond or note, with a statement showing the serial numbers, the amount and the due dates of principal and interest.

There shall be set out specifically in the drainage record of said proceeding, a description of the lands embraced in the district for which the tax or assessment has not been paid in full, and which is subject to the lien of the said obligations. A reference to the tract number on the map of the district as recorded in the drainage proceedings or in the office of the register of deeds is sufficient description.

If any installment of principal or interest represented by the bonds and notes shall not be paid at the time and in the manner when the same shall become due and payable, and such default shall continue for a period of six months, the holders of such bonds or notes upon which default has been made may have a right of action against the drainage district or the board of drainage commissioners of the district, its officers, including the tax collector and treasurer, directing the levying of a tax or special assessment as herein provided, and the collection of same, in such sum as may be necessary to meet any unpaid installments of principal and interest and costs of action; and such other remedies are hereby vested in the holders of such bonds or notes in default, as may be authorized by law and the right of action is hereby vested in the holders if such bonds or notes upon which default has been made, authorizing them to institute suit against any officer on his official bond for failure to perform any duty imposed by the provisions of this Subchapter.

The official bond for the tax collector and treasurer shall be liable for the faithful performance of the duties herein assigned them. Such bond may be increased by the board of county commissioners. (1909, c. 442, s. 34; 1911, c. 67, s. 11; c. 205; C.S., s. 5356; 1923, c. 217, s. 7; 1963, c. 767, s. 8.)

§ 156-100. Sale of bonds.

In making the sale of drainage bonds the board of drainage commissioners shall prepare a notice of such sale containing the usual and appropriate information regarding the terms and provisions of the bonds, and shall publish the same for at least a period of two weeks in at least one paper of general circulation published within the State and in at least one other newspaper of large circulation among the buyers of bonds, in which they shall invite sealed bids from prospective purchasers to be opened on a certain day, and may require a cash deposit to accompany all bids, and shall reserve the right to reject any and all bids. In such notice the commissioners may hold in reserve information as to the date when the first installment of principal shall fall due, the annual installments of principal to be paid, the number of years within which the serial bonds are to be paid, the form of the bonds, and the name of the bank or trust company at which the interest coupons and the installments of principal are to be made payable, and shall state that the information and data so withheld may subsequently be agreed upon between the drainage commissioners and the purchaser of the bonds; or the board of drainage commissioners in their advertisement asking bids may make optional propositions in the respects above recited, inviting bids as to each kind of bond so proposed. The board of drainage commissioners shall accept the highest bona fide bid for such bonds and issue and sell the same accordingly, provided the highest bid shall equal or exceed the par value of the bonds with any accrued interest thereon. If no satisfactory bid shall be received, the board of drainage commissioners may readvertise the bonds for sale in the manner above provided, or they may accept any private bid for the bonds at not less than their par value, with any accrued interest thereon. The board of drainage commissioners shall in good faith make diligent effort to sell the bonds at a price not less than their par value, with accrued interest. Bonds of any drainage district heretofore sold or contracted to be sold by the Local Government Commission in the manner provided by the Local Government Act, either alone or in conjunction with the board of drainage commissioners, shall be deemed to have been lawfully sold or contracted to be sold. (1909, c. 442, s. 34; 1911, c. 67, s. 11; 1917, c. 152, s. 15; C.S., s. 5357; 1941, c. 142.)

CASE NOTES

The remedy provided by statute to the holders of drainage bonds to enforce payment of their obligations is by action against the drainage district and its commissioners and the tax collector and treasurer to compel these officers to perform their legal duties in pursuing the statutory procedure for the collection and application of drainage assessments, which remedy is adequate and exclusive, and the holder of past-due bonds may not maintain an action against the owner of land within the district to enforce the lien of delinquent drainage assessments against the land. Wilkinson v. Boomer, 217 N.C. 217, 7 S.E.2d 491 (1940).

Service by Publication Held Insufficient. — Where, in an action to foreclose a tax lien, service of process on "bondholders, lien holders or other persons having or claiming some interest in the land" was had by publication, but the publication made no reference to any drainage district, drainage assessment, liens or bonds or bondholders of any drainage district, the publication was held insufficient to give the court jurisdiction of the holders of bonds of the drainage district in which the lands or any part of them lay, and the judgment therein could not preclude the bondholders from exercising their remedy under prescribed conditions to have the drainage district levy additional assessments against the lands for the purpose of paying the drainage bonds. Board of Comm'rs v. Gaines, 221 N.C. 324, 20 S.E.2d 377 (1942).

§ 156-100.1. Sale of assessment anticipation notes.

Should assessment anticipation notes be issued by a drainage district under the provisions of G.S. 156-97.1, the board of drainage commissioners may accept any private bid for said assessment anticipation notes at not less than their par value, with accrued interest thereon without the necessity of advertising the sale hereof as is provided for in the sale of bonds under the provisions of G.S. 156-100. (1957, c. 912, s. 3.)

§ 156-100.2. Payment of assessments which become liens after original bond issue.

Payment of assessments not included in the original bond or note issue shall be financed in the following manner:

- (1) In the event of appeal from the order of the clerk of superior court approving the final report of the board of viewers, the assessment approved by the appellate court shall be due and payable 30 days from the entry of the final order in said appeal.
- (2) In the event land should be included within the district for any other reason, the assessment thereon shall be due and payable 30 days after the date of the agreement or court order by which said land is included.
- (3) In the event the assessments referred to in the preceding subdivisions (1) and (2) are not paid at the expiration of the said 30-day period, then the commissioners may provide for installment payments of said assessment upon such terms as may be approved by the clerk of the superior court who has jurisdiction of the said drainage proceeding.

The commissioners of the district may issue bonds or notes for an amount equal to the total of the installment payments, upon terms as approved by the clerk of the superior court. The lien of the assessment, the rights of the bond or note holder, and all other liabilities and rights shall be the same as prescribed in this Subchapter III for other bonds and notes of the district. (1963, c. 767, s. 9.)

§ 156-100.3. Sinking fund.

The commissioners of the drainage district may establish a sinking fund to be used to pay bonds and notes issued by the district. The terms and conditions by which the said sinking fund is established shall be approved by the clerk of the superior court who has jurisdiction of said district. (1963, c. 767, s. 10.)

§ 156-101. Refunding bonds issued.

In any case where the board of drainage commissioners of any drainage district have issued or may issue bonds for the purpose of constructing or completing the drainage works in such district, the payment of which at maturity would in the judgment of the board of drainage commissioners be an unreasonable burden on the owners of the lands in such district assessed for the payment of such bonds and interest, or if it shall appear for other good and substantial reasons that the welfare of the district and the owners of lands therein would be promoted thereby, the board of drainage commissioners shall have the power to refund such bonds, or any part thereof, and issue new bonds equal to the amount of bonds outstanding and unpaid, or any part thereof. The new or refunding bonds shall bear a rate of interest not exceeding six percent (6%) payable semiannually, and shall be divided into such annual installments not exceeding ten percent (10%) and not less than five percent (5%) of the outstanding bonds so refunded. The new assessments shall be levied and collected with which to pay the principal and interest on the bonds in the manner provided by law. The first installment of principal on the bonds so refunded may be made payable at a certain date in the future not exceeding six years from the date of the refunding bonds, and in the meantime annual assessments shall be levied and collected for the payment of the interest. (1917, c. 152, s. 14; C.S., s. 5358.)

§ 156-102. Drainage bonds received as deposits.

The State Treasurer is authorized to receive drainage bonds issued by drainage districts in North Carolina as deposits from banks, insurance companies, and other corporations required by law to make deposits with the State Treasurer: Provided, that the Attorney General shall have approved the form of such bonds. (1917, c. 152, s. 7; C.S., s. 5359.)

Local Modification. — Edgecombe, Pitt:
1937, c. 334.

§ 156-103. Assessment rolls prepared.

The board of drainage commissioners shall immediately prepare the assessment rolls or drainage tax lists, giving thereon the names of the owners of land in the district and a brief description of the several tracts of land assessed and the amount of assessment against each tract of land. The first of these assessment rolls shall be due and payable on the first Monday in September following the date of such bonds, and shall provide funds sufficient for the payment of interest on such bonds for one year. The second assessment roll shall make like provision for the payment of the interest for one year. Annual assessment rolls shall thereafter provide funds sufficient to meet the interest for one year on the issue of bonds outstanding. During the year previous to maturity of any annual installment due upon the principal of said bonds there shall be an assessment roll sufficient to provide funds for the payment of both the interest for one year and for the payment of the annual installment due upon the principal of the bonds. Such annual assessments shall be made from year to year to provide funds to meet the interest for one year and the annual installment of the principal due upon the bonds outstanding, until the whole principal due upon the outstanding bonds and the interest thereon shall be fully paid. In making up such assessment rolls there shall be included ten percent (10%) additional as provided in G.S. 156-98. Each of the assessment rolls shall specify the time when collectible and be numbered in their order, and the amounts assessed against the several tracts of land shall be in accordance with the benefits received, as shown by the classification and ratio of assessments made by the viewers. These assessment rolls shall be signed by the chairman of the board of drainage commissioners and by the secretary of the board. There shall be four copies of each of the assessment rolls, one of which shall be filed with the drainage record, one shall be filed with the chairman of the board of drainage commissioners, who shall carefully preserve the same, one shall be preserved by the clerk of the court, without change or mutilation, for the purposes of reference or comparison, and one shall be delivered to the sheriff, or other county tax collector, after the clerk of the superior court has appended thereto an order directing the collection of such assessments, and the assessments, shall thereupon have the force and effect of a judgment as in the case of State and county taxes. If the drainage commission which has assessed the lands of a drainage district prior to March 11, 1919, shall file the aforesaid four copies of assessment rolls within six months from April 1, 1919, the filing of such assessment rolls shall have the same legal effect as if filed strictly in accordance with this section immediately after the preparation of such assessment rolls. The State having authorized the creation of drainage districts and having delegated thereto the power to levy a valid tax in furtherance of the public purposes thereof, it is hereby declared that drainage districts heretofore or hereafter organized under existing law or any subsequent amendments thereto are created for a public use and are political subdivisions of the State. (1911, c. 67, s. 12; 1917, c. 152, s. 9; 1919, c. 282, s. 1; C.S., s. 5360; 1921, c. 7; 1923, c. 217, s. 8.)

§ 156-104. Application of amendatory provisions of certain sections; amendment or reformation of proceedings.

All the provisions of Chapter 217 of the Public Laws of 1923 amendatory of G.S. 156-71, 156-75, 156-83, 156-94, 156-97, 156-98, 156-99 and 156-103 shall apply to all drainage districts which shall hereafter be organized, and also to all districts where proceedings for the organization thereof have been instituted and are now pending and where the bonds have not been actually issued, sold, and delivered to the purchaser thereof. If it shall be necessary to amend or reform any of the pleadings or orders made by the court or any action taken by the board of drainage commissioners in any drainage proceedings instituted and pending before March 6, 1923, full authority is granted to make any such amendments, to the end that the said drainage proceedings shall conform with the provisions hereof. (1923, c. 217, s. 9; C.S., s. 5360(a).)

Local Modification. — Hyde: 1923, c. 217, s. 10; C.S., s. 5360(a).

§ 156-105. Assessment lien; collection; sale of land.

The assessments shall constitute a first and paramount lien, second only to State and county taxes, upon the lands assessed for the payment of the bonds and interest thereon as they become due, and shall be collected in the same manner and by the same officers as the State and county taxes are collected. The assessments shall be due and payable on the first Monday in September each year, and if the same shall not be paid in full by the thirty-first day of December following, it shall be the duty of the sheriff or tax collector to sell the lands so delinquent. The sale of lands for failure to pay such assessments shall be made at the courthouse door of the county in which the lands are situated, between the hours of 10 o'clock in the forenoon and four o'clock in the afternoon of any date except Sunday or another legal holiday, which may be designated by the board of drainage commissioners. After any such sale date has been designated by the board of drainage commissioners, if for any necessary cause the sale cannot be made on that date, the sale may be continued from day to day for not exceeding four days, or the lands may be readvertised and sold on any day which the board of drainage commissioners may or shall designate during the same hours and without any order being obtained therefor during the same calendar year. Nothing in this section shall be construed to require any order from any court for any sale or resale held hereunder. The existing general tax law in force when sales are made for delinquent assessments shall have application in redeeming lands so sold; and in all other respects, except as herein or otherwise modified or amended, the existing law as to the collection of State and county taxes shall apply to the collection of such drainage assessments. No bid at any sale shall be received unless sufficient in amount to discharge all the drainage assessments and other charges due by the delinquent lands or owner thereof, together with all costs and expenses of sale. If no sufficient bid be received, the board of drainage commissioners of the district shall be deemed the purchaser in its corporate capacity at a sum sufficient to pay all assessments which are due and costs as above stated, and shall be entitled to receive a certificate of purchase and deed in the manner provided by law for purchasers at tax sales. The board of drainage commissioners shall only be required to pay to the sheriff the costs and expenses of sale before receiving a certificate of purchase. The board of drainage commissioners of the district in their corporate capacity shall be in like position and have the same rights and be subject to the same duties as the purchaser of lands at any tax sale under the general law. If the board of drainage commissioners shall have been the purchaser of lands so sold, the amount paid in redemption by the owner, or any person having an estate therein or lien thereon, shall include the sum bid therefor plus the penalty. The board of drainage commissioners shall pay to the sheriff or tax collector the amount representing their bid at the sale of said lands before they shall be entitled to receive a deed therefor, which the sheriff shall pay to the treasurer of the drainage district in the same manner as other funds received by him. The board of drainage commissioners, after acquiring a deed for said lands, may hold the same as an asset of the district, and shall be liable for the payment of all drainage assessments and State and county taxes accruing after the sale at which the district was a bidder, and in all respects be deemed the owner of said lands and subject to the same privileges and liabilities as any other landowner, including the right to convey the said lands for a consideration and pay the proceeds of said sale to the treasurer of the district, which may be distributed by the drainage commissioners for the benefit of the district in the same manner as other district funds.

If any sheriff or tax collector failed for any reason to collect drainage assessments upon lands in any drainage districts due in 1917, or any subsequent years, and further failed to make valid sales of the lands so delinquent in the payment of such assessments, then and in such event the existing sheriff or tax collector is hereby authorized and directed to proceed to collect such unpaid drainage assessments, with interest thereon from the dates when such assessments respectively became due, and in default of payment being made he is further authorized to make sales of such lands as may be in default at any time hereafter, at the times and in the manner authorized by law as amended herein; and the purchaser at said sales shall acquire title to such lands in the manner provided by law. If the sheriff or tax collector in office at the time such assessments were in default has since died or gone out of office, the powers herein given shall be exercised by the existing sheriff or tax collector.

The 1931 amendment to this section shall have the same force and effect from and after April 13, 1931, as if it had been ratified and enacted prior to the first day of January, 1929, and no sale of drainage lands held under the provisions of section 5361 shall be deemed or declared void by reason of the fact that they may not have been held on the day specified in section 5361 of the Consolidated Statutes prior to this amendment. (1911, c. 67, s. 12; 1917, c. 152, s. 9; C.S., s. 5361; Pub. Loc. 1923, c. 88, ss. 3, 4, 5; 1931, c. 273.)

Local Modification. — Franklin, Hyde, Nash, Wilson: Pub. Loc. 1923, c. 88.

CASE NOTES

Due Process of Law Not Denied. — The statute under which a drainage district is formed does not deny the district due process of law by providing for the collection and security of the assessments as other county taxes are collected, kept, etc. Commissioners of Robeson County v. Lewis, 174 N.C. 528, 94 S.E. 8 (1917).

Assessments upon lands in a drainage district are a lien in rem on the lands of the owner for the payment of the bonds issued by the district in accordance with the statute, the district being a geographical quasi-public corporation, and the benefits annually accruing to the advantage of successive owners. Such assessments are due and payable at stated intervals. Pate v. Banks, 178 N.C. 139, 100 S.E. 251 (1919).

The legislature intended that the assessments as shown on the assessment rolls which the board of drainage commissioners is required to prepare immediately upon the sale of the bonds become liens as they become due, affecting all of the lands on the assessment rolls, which relate to the entire district for the entire period over which the payment of the assessments is spread. Nesbit v. Kafer, 222 N.C. 48, 21 S.E.2d 903 (1942).

And Not a Debt of the Landowner. — The lien of the charges for drainage is not a debt of the owner of the land therein, but is a charge solely upon the land, and accrues, pari passu, with the benefits as they shall accrue thereafter. They are not liens until they successfully fall due, and are presumed to be paid out of the increased productiveness and other benefits as they accrue from time to time. These assessments are to be levied from time to time to pay, not the indebtedness of the owner of any tract, but to pay the bonded indebtedness of the district, in that they are exactly like bonds issued by the township, county or State for public benefits and which become liens on property in futuro only to the extent of the taxes falling due each year to pay the interest, and such part of the principal as may become due. One who purchases land in a township, county or State cannot complain that these successive tax liens will, from time to time, be collectible out of his realty. Whether he knew of the existence of such indebtedness or not makes no difference. They are not encumbrances within the sense of the warranty clause of a deed. The assessment in a drainage district to take the water off the land is simply an annual tax for that purpose. Pate v. Banks, 178 N.C. 139, 100 S.E. 251 (1919).

And Do Not Fall Within a Warranty Against Encumbrances Until Due and Payable. — Liens on lands within a statutory drainage district for assessment charges for its maintenance and upkeep do not fall within a warranty or covenant against encumbrances contained in a deed until they are due and payable. Branch v. Saunders, 195 N.C. 176, 141 S.E. 583 (1928).

Priority of Assessments over Mortgage. — The assessments on lands for a bond issue have a prior lien to a mortgage executed thereon prior to the formation of said district. Drainage Comm'rs of Washington County Dist. No. 4 v. Eastern Home & Farm Ass'n, 165 N.C. 697, 81 S.E. 947 (1914).

Failure to Levy Annual Assessments No Bar to Later Collection. — This section provides that assessments shall be collected "in the same manner and by the same officers as the state and county taxes are collected," and § 105-394(3) provides that "[t]he failure to list, appraise, or assess any property for taxation or to levy any tax within the time prescribed by law" is an immaterial irregularity that does not affect the validity of the assessment; therefore, plaintiff drainage district's failure to levy annual assessments for 1974 and 1983 by the first Monday in September of those years did not bar later collection of the assessments. Northampton County Drainage Dist. No. 1 v. Bailey, 92 N.C. App. 68, 373 S.E.2d 560 (1988), rev'd in part and aff'd in part, 326 N.C. 742, 392 S.E.2d 352 (1990).

The drainage assessments collected are public funds although they are to be used solely for the purpose of paying principal and interest on drainage bonds. Wilkinson v. Boomer, 217 N.C. 217, 7 S.E.2d 491 (1940).

This and the following sections impress the moneys derived from the assessments as public money of the county, to be kept in the depository designated under the statute for such funds, although the funds in question are devoted to a particular or defined use. Commissioners of Robeson County v. Lewis, 174 N.C. 528, 94 S.E. 8 (1917).

Remedy for Collection Is Adequate. — It is provided by this section that drainage assessments shall be collected in the same manner as taxes are collected. Such liens may be collected by sale of the land by the sheriff, with issue of certificates of sale, with right in the holder of the certificates to foreclose in due time, or by foreclosure of the lien in a suit instituted by the district or the holder of a tax deed or certificate, in the nature of an action to foreclose a mortgage. This remedy for the collection of such assessments is adequate. Wilkinson v. Boomer, 217 N.C. 217, 7 S.E.2d 491 (1940).

A receiver cannot intervene in a bank's action against the board on the ground that he has the right under this section to collect payments. Board of Drainage Comm'rs v. Lafayette Southside Bank, 27 F.2d 286 (4th Cir. 1928).

§ 156-106. Assessment not collectible out of other property of delinquent.

Only the land assessed in the drainage proceeding shall be liable for the drainage tax or assessment, and no other property of the landowner shall or may be sold for said drainage tax or assessment: Provided, that this section shall not apply to any drainage bond sold and delivered prior to March 7, 1927, or to any litigation pending at that time. (1919, c. 282, s. 2; C.S., s. 5362; 1927, c. 139.)

Local Modification. — Cumberland, Robeson: 1927, c. 139, s. 11/2.

§ 156-107. Sheriff in good faith selling property for assessment not liable for irregularity.

The sheriff who executes upon property for the collection of drainage assessments under the provisions of this Article shall not be liable either civilly or criminally if he shall sell such property in good faith, even though such sale is irregular or for any cause illegal. (1919, c. 282, s. 4; C.S., s. 5363.)

§ 156-108. Receipt books prepared.

The clerk of the superior court in each county where one or more drainage districts have been established shall be required to have prepared annually during the month of August a form of receipt, with appropriate stubs attached and properly bound, for the drainage assessments due on each tract of land as recited in the assessment rolls. This bound book of tax receipts or bills shall be indorsed "Drainage assessments of the (here give the name of the district) for the county of _____, delivered to the sheriff or tax collector as of the first Monday in September, _____, for collection as required by law," and the same indorsement shall be printed at the top of each tax bill or blank receipt. Each tax bill or blank receipt shall contain a blank space for the name of the owner of the property, the amount of the annual drainage tax, the amount of maintenance tax, if any, and a receipt at the bottom of the same, followed by a blank line for the signature of the tax collector. This bound book of tax bills or receipts, with the blanks duly filled in, shall be delivered to the sheriff or tax collector on the first Monday of September of each year. The necessary cost of printing and binding such book of tax bills or receipts and the filling in of the same shall be a proper charge against such drainage district and shall be paid by the board of drainage commissioners. (1917, c. 152, s. 9; 1919, c. 208, s. 2; C.S., s. 5364; 1999-456, s. 59.)

Effect of Amendments. — Session Laws 1999-456, s. 59, effective January 1, 2000, deleted "19" from the date line in the form in this section.

CASE NOTES

Stated in Nesbit v. Kafer, 222 N.C. 48, 21 S.E.2d 903 (1942).

§ 156-109. Receipt books where lands in two or more counties.

Where any drainage district which has been established contains lands located in a county or counties other than the county in which the district was established, the clerk of the superior court of the county in which the district was established shall have prepared annually during the month of August a form of tax bills or receipts, with appropriate stubs attached, covering all the lands in the drainage district located in such other county or counties, and in the form herein provided for the county in which the district has been established, and have the same substantially bound in book form. He shall also fill in the blanks of such tax receipts ready for the signature of the collector. On a page in such bound book after the tax bills or receipts there shall be appended an order directed to the sheriff or tax collector in the county in which such lands are located, which shall be in substantially the following form: State of North Carolina — County of _____. The Sheriff or Tax Collector of _____ County: This is to certify that the foregoing tax bills or blank receipts embrace the drainage assessments made on certain lands in the county of _____, which are located in and are a part of (here insert the name of the drainage district), which district was established in the county of _____. These assessments are due on the first Monday of September, _____, and must be paid and collected within the time required by law. You will make monthly settlements of your collections with the treasurer of _____ County, being the county in which the district was established, and in all other respects you will discharge your duties as sheriff or tax collector as required by law. In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and official seal, this _____ day of _____;

_____
 Clerk Superior Court _____ County.

Thereupon such drainage assessments in such county shall have the force and effect of a judgment upon the lands so assessed, as in the case of State and county taxes, and shall in all other respects be as valid assessments as those levied upon lands in the county in which the district was established. The auditor for drainage districts herein authorized shall also examine the records and accounts of the sheriff of such county. In the establishment and administration of the drainage districts the clerk of the superior court, the treasurer, and the chairman of the board of drainage commissioners shall have jurisdiction over the lands and the collection of drainage assessments in the county or counties other than the county in which the district was established to the same extent as in the county where such district was established: Provided, that in those counties which do not have a county treasurer, then the auditor provided for in this Subchapter shall perform the duties required by this section for the county treasurer. (1917, c. 152, s. 11; C.S., s. 5365; 1963, c. 767, s. 4; 1999-456, s. 59.)

Editor's Note. — Section 156-81.1, as enacted by Session Laws 1963, c. 767, s. 4, provided that all references in Subchapter III of this Chapter to "treasurer", "county treasurer" or "county auditor" were amended to refer exclusively to the treasurer appointed as provided in that section. Pursuant to § 156-81.1, the word "county" has been deleted preceding "treasurer" near the beginning of the third sentence of the last paragraph of this section. However, there was no practicable method of changing the proviso at the end of this section to give effect to § 156-81.1.

Effect of Amendments. — Session Laws 1999-456, s. 59, effective January 1, 2000, twice deleted "19" from the date lines in the form.

CASE NOTES

The first sentence of the second paragraph must be read in connection with the provisions of § 156-105 that "the assessments shall constitute a first and paramount lien, second only to State and county taxes upon the lands assessed for the payment of bonds and interest thereon as they become due, and shall be collected in the same manner and by the same officers as State and county taxes are collected;" when so considered, it is clear that this section is not in conflict with § 156-105, but is intended to implement collection of the assessment by the sheriff. Nesbit v. Kafer, 222 N.C. 48, 21 S.E.2d 903 (1942).

§ 156-110. Authority to collect arrears.

If any sheriff or tax collector was authorized to collect drainage assessments in any year prior to 1917, and failed to collect any part of such drainage assessments, and is now out of office, or is still holding the office of sheriff or tax collector, then and in such event such sheriff or tax collector, regardless of the expiration of his term of office, is hereby authorized and directed to proceed to the collection of such unpaid drainage assessments, and in default of payment being made, he is further authorized to make sales of such lands as may be in default at the times and in the manner authorized by law during the year 1917, 1918 or 1919. (1917, c. 152, s. 9; C.S., s. 5366.)

§ 156-111. Sheriff to make monthly settlements; penalty.

The sheriff or tax collector shall be required to make settlements with the treasurer on the first day of each month of all collections of drainage assessments for the preceding month, and to pay over to the treasurer the money so collected, for which the treasurer shall execute an appropriate receipt, to the end that the treasurer may have funds in hand to meet the payments of the interest and principal due upon the outstanding bonds as they mature. If any sheriff or tax collector shall fail to comply with the law for the collection of drainage assessments, or in making payments thereof to the treasurer as provided by law, he shall be guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor and he shall likewise be liable in a civil action for all damages which may accrue either to the board of drainage commissioners or to the holder of the bonds, to either or both of whom a right of action is given. (1911, c. 67, s. 12; 1917, c. 152, s. 9; C.S., s. 5367; 1963, c. 767, s. 4; 1993, c. 539, s. 1076; 1994, Ex. Sess., c. 24, s. 14(c).)

§ 156-112. Duty of treasurer to make payment; penalty.

It shall be the duty of the treasurer, and without any previous order from the board of drainage commissioners, to provide and pay the installments of interest at the time and place as evidenced by the coupons attached to the bonds, and also to pay the annual installments of the principal due on the bonds at the time and place as evidenced by the bonds. The treasurer shall be guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor if he shall willfully fail to make prompt payments of the interest and principal of the bonds, and he shall likewise be liable in a civil action for all damages which may accrue either to the board of drainage commissioners or to the holder of such bonds, to either or both of whom a right of action is hereby given. (1911, c. 67, s. 12; C.S., s. 5368; 1963, c. 767, s. 4; 1993, c. 539, s. 1077; 1994, Ex. Sess., c. 24, s. 14(c).)

CASE NOTES

Effect of Local Act Abolishing Office of County Treasurer. — Chapter 46, Public-Local Laws 1917, abolished the office of county treasurer of Robeson County and substituted therefor a depository and financial agent, to perform the duties of treasurer in disbursement of the county funds. The act further provided that the sheriff, as such, or ex officio treasurer, should turn over all moneys of the county to such depository. It was held that moneys derived from assessments of a drainage district, being county funds, should be deposited, as the statute directed, with the depository lawfully designated. Commissioners of Robeson County v. Lewis, 174 N.C. 528, 94 S.E. 8 (1917). As to treasurers of drainage districts, see now § 156-81.1.

§ 156-113. Fees for collection and disbursement.

The fee allowed the sheriff or tax collector for collecting the drainage tax as hereinbefore prescribed shall be two percent (2%) of the amount collected, and the fee allowed the treasurer for disbursing the revenue obtained from the sale of drainage bonds shall be one percent (1%) of the amount disbursed: Provided, that no fee shall be allowed the sheriff or tax collector or treasurer for collecting or receiving the revenue obtained from the sale of the bonds hereinbefore provided for, nor for disbursing the revenue raised or paying off such bonds; provided, that where the sheriff, tax collector or treasurer is on a salary basis, the fees herein set out shall not be charged. (1911, c. 67, s. 13; C.S., s. 5369; 1925, c. 271, s. 1; 1957, c. 562; 1963, c. 767, s. 4.)

Local Modification. — Pitt: 1925, c. 271, s. 2.

CASE NOTES

Construction of Sections in Pari Materia. — The relevant sections of the various statutes upon the subject of the collection of assessments on lands in drainage districts by sheriffs and tax collectors and their compensation therefor, being in pari materia, should be construed together by the courts in ascertaining the legislative intent. Drainage Comm'rs v. Davis of Mattamuskeet Dist., 182 N.C. 140, 108 S.E. 506 (1921).

Sheriff's Compensation Restricted. — The bringing forward of s. 13, c. 67, Public Laws 1911, in this section, providing that 2 percent shall be allowed sheriffs "for collecting the drainage assessments as hereinbefore prescribed," is a legislative construction of the prior law, and was intended to restrict the compensation of the sheriff to 2 percent of the amount of the assessments in drainage districts collected by him, and not to allow him a commission of 5 percent as in case of taxes collected for general governmental purposes. Drainage Comm'rs v. Davis of Mattamuskeet Dist., 182 N.C. 140, 108 S.E. 506 (1921).

Compensation of Treasurer. — This section, dealing with the compensation to be allowed the county treasurer (now the treasurer of the drainage district) for disbursing the revenue obtained from the sale of the bonds of a drainage district provides but one compensation for all services. Board of Drainage Comm'rs v. Credle, 182 N.C. 442, 109 S.E. 88 (1921).

§ 156-114. Conveyance of land; change in assessment roll; procedure.

(a) Status of Land Fixed. — The boundaries of lands as surveyed and mapped, the ownership thereof, and the classification and assessment thereof as appears in the final report and map and upon the assessment roll, shall be and remain as of the time when the district was established and the final report of the board of viewers was approved by the court. No conveyance or devise of land or devolution by inheritance after the petition has been filed or the owner thereof has been served with the original summons, either by personal service or by publication, shall affect the status or liability of such land as a part of such drainage district, except as herein provided.

(b) Conveyance before Final Report. — If the owner of any lands included in such district shall, after the filing of the petition, and after being served with the original summons and before the approval of the final report, convey the whole or any part of such lands, or the title thereto shall be otherwise changed, then and in such event the grantor and grantee or new owner, or either, may file a petition in an ancillary proceeding before the clerk of the superior court setting forth the facts, with a description of the lands conveyed either in part or the entire body of land, together with a description of the land excepted and not conveyed. If the grantor or grantee or new owner, in whole or in part, file such petition, the other not so joining shall be served with notice of same. The clerk may require the petitioner to attach to the petition a map showing the boundaries of the entire body of land as it appears in the record of the proceedings, and also showing the part conveyed. If the ownership of such land has been changed by devise or inheritance, or any joint ownership has been changed by partition, such new owner may file a petition as herein provided. Such petition shall conclude with a prayer that the grantee or new owner be made a party to the proceeding. The court after a hearing may make the grantee or new owner a party to the drainage proceeding and shall certify to the engineer and viewers a description of the land so conveyed or held by the new owner, with directions to verify the boundaries and to classify the land to the same extent as if the grantee was the original party. Any part of such lands not so conveyed shall be and remain a part of the district.

(c) Conveyance after District Established. — After the district shall be established, the lands classified, the final report approved, and the assessment roll filed, no conveyance of any land in the district shall affect or change the existing status or liability of such land as to assessment charges or otherwise, except in the manner herein defined. When the title and ownership of any tract of land embraced in the district have been changed or vested in others by grant, devise, or inheritance, or by partition between joint owners, subsequent to the establishment of the district, the assessment roll may be amended in the following manner: The grantor and grantee, or the new owners, may file a petition with the chairman of the board of drainage commissioners alleging that the ownership of the land has changed, and the manner thereof, in whole or in part. If the whole body of land as appears in the final report or on the assessment roll has changed ownership, a general description consistent with such final report and map shall be sufficient. If the ownership of the body of land has changed only as to part thereof, the petition shall contain a description of the part thereof claimed by the new owners, and the number of acres and the classifications, or the several classes if it be in more than one class, and also a description of that part of the land the title to which remains in the original owner, with the number of acres and with the classification and the several classes if it contains more than one class of land. The petition shall so describe the land and the number of acres in each class as to that part of which the ownership has changed as to maintain the number of acres originally assessed, and the class or classes in which the same has been assessed, and the chairman of the board of drainage commissioners may require the petitioners to have the lands surveyed, and submit a map if the same shall be necessary.

(d) Duty of Chairman of Drainage Commissioners and Clerk. — The chairman of the board of drainage commissioners shall present this petition to the clerk of the superior court at any time thereafter, not later than the first Monday in July following. It shall be the duty of the clerk to examine and verify the facts set forth in the petition, and particularly to determine if the number of acres assessed and the classes thereof against the new owners added to the number of acres and the classes assessed against that part of the land, the title to which has not changed, shall equal the total number of acres and the classes so assessed as appear against such entire body of land in the final report and assessment roll. If the clerk shall be so satisfied, he shall enter an order or decree changing the original assessment roll, or the assessment roll as theretofore amended, by adding the name of the new owner with the number of acres assessed in each class, and by amending the number of acres assessed and the classes thereof against the original owner as appears on the original assessment roll or assessment roll as theretofore amended. It shall be the duty of the clerk after such order to make such changes in the assessment roll. It shall be the duty of the clerk of the superior court in making changes in the original assessment roll from time to time to observe and maintain the total number of acres in each class, to the end that the revenue produced from the annual assessment shall not be thereby diminished. The chairman of the board of drainage commissioners, instead of presenting to the clerk of the court each petition of landowners separately, may combine a number of petitions and present the same to the court at one and the same time. The first Monday in July in each year is hereby set apart as a special day on which petitions for changing the assessment roll may be submitted, at which time the clerk shall hear all petitions not theretofore submitted.

(e) Failure of Chairman of Board to Act. — If the chairman of the board of drainage commissioners shall fail to act when any petition shall be submitted to him as herein provided, or the chairman or any member of the board shall fail to discharge any duty imposed by this section or any other provision of the general drainage law, it is hereby made the duty of the clerk of the superior court, either independently or upon the request of any landowner in the district, to cite such chairman or member to appear before him upon a certain day and show cause why he should not be removed from office, and unless good cause be shown, it shall be the duty of the clerk to remove the chairman or any member of the board of drainage commissioners and to certify his action, to the end that another member may be elected according to law. If the failure of the chairman or any member of the board of drainage commissioners to discharge such duty shall be willful, he shall be guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor.

(f) When Owner May File Petition with Clerk. — If the grantor and grantee, or all those claiming to have acquired title to any body of land on the assessment roll and whose assessment will be affected, cannot agree upon joinder in a petition to the chairman of the board of drainage commissioners, or if the said chairman fails within a reasonable time to discharge his duty by presenting the petition to the court, then either party interested in the tract of land as it appears on the assessment roll may file a petition with the clerk of the superior court setting forth the facts as to the change in ownership and title of such land, with the description of the entire tract of land and the number of acres in each class, together with a description of that part of the land as to which the ownership has changed, with the number of acres in each class, and pray the court to order that the assessment roll be amended in accordance with the title and interest of the several owners. At the time of filing the petition a summons shall issue to the other parties interested in the tract of land to show cause, on a day certain, why the prayer of the petition should not be granted. Upon the return day the clerk of the court shall hear all the evidence, find the facts, and enter up a judgment directing the appropriate amendment to the assessment roll. It shall be the duty of the clerk to amend the assessment roll in accordance with his judgment.

(g) Effect of Change in Assessment Roll. — No judgment or amendment of the assessment roll shall be valid unless the number of acres and the classes assessed against the original and new owners shall equal the area and classification as contained in the tract of land as it appears on the original assessment roll. This petition may be presented to the court at any time, but the first Monday in July in each year is hereby designated as the day upon which all petitions for amendments to the assessment roll may be submitted. Any amendments to the assessment roll ordered after the last day of August in each year shall not become effective until the first day of September the following year, and the assessment roll as it appears on the first day of September of each year shall constitute the assessment roll to be delivered to the sheriff on the first Monday in September, and he shall collect the drainage assessments as they appear thereon without regard to any changes in title or ownership or any changes in the assessment roll made by the court after the thirty-first day of August. All amendments sought to be made to the assessment roll shall have reference to the assessment roll as it appears at the time the amendment is sought, which shall be either the original assessment roll or as amended; but it shall be the duty of the clerk of the superior court to examine frequently the assessment roll as amended, and before the same shall be further amended, and make certain that the aggregate number of acres in each class as appeared on the original assessment roll shall not be reduced, nor the aggregate annual assessments reduced. Any amendments ordered shall be made on the assessment roll and become due in the following September, and on all subsequent assessment rolls which have not become due or collectible.

(h) Clerk to Prepare New Assessment Rolls. — It shall be the duty of the chairman and the secretary of the board of drainage commissioners of the district to render to the clerk of the court any clerical assistance involved in changes in the assessment rolls, but the primary duty and responsibility in making such amendments shall remain with the clerk of the superior court, and he shall be held liable for any error or omission which may work a loss to the district or the bondholders. If such amendments to the assessment rolls shall make necessary the preparation of new assessment rolls, the clerk of the superior court shall be required to prepare such new assessment rolls with the clerical assistance of the chairman and secretary of the board of drainage commissioners, and such new assessment rolls shall be signed by the chairman and secretary of the board of drainage commissioners and by the clerk of the superior court before delivery to the sheriff or tax collector as required upon the original assessment rolls. The original assessment rolls shall be preserved by the clerk of the court among his records for future reference.

(i) Number of Copies. — In the event it shall be necessary to prepare new assessment rolls, the clerk shall prepare four copies, one copy for the drainage record, another for the sheriff or tax collector, another for the chairman of the board of drainage commissioners, and the other for filing and preserving among the records, and which fourth copy shall never be mutilated or interlined, but shall be preserved in its original form for reference. As to all drainage districts heretofore established, the clerk of the court shall prepare an additional copy of all the original assessment rolls for the several years the lands in such districts are assessed and securely preserve the same, at least until all outstanding bonds of the district shall be paid, to the end that they may always be accessible for reference and comparison. It shall not be necessary hereafter to deliver to the sheriff or tax collector a copy of the assessment roll for the current year in which assessments are due and payable, but the copy provided for him may remain among the records of the clerk of the court for safekeeping and reference by him.

(j) Costs Determined. — As compensation to the clerk of the court for the performance of duties imposed herein, he shall be paid such sum by the board of drainage commissioners of such drainage district as they may deem fair and adequate, and the same is hereby declared a proper charge against said district, but no additional compensation shall be paid to the clerk in those counties where he receives a salary in lieu of fees. Any costs which may accrue in amendments to the assessment rolls shall be adjudged against the parties in interest, in the discretion of the clerk, and such costs shall be paid before the amendment shall become effective. As to all petitions which shall be filed and submitted to the court on the first Monday in July, no costs shall be paid or adjudged against any party in those counties where the clerk and sheriff receive a salary in lieu of fees.

(k) Chairman Represents Board. — As to all petitions filed with the chairman of the board of drainage commissioners, or as to the discharge of any duty by the chairman required of him under the general drainage law, he shall be presumed to act for the board, and the chairman shall do all things necessary to protect and maintain the interests of the drainage district. If the chairman shall be or become a landowner in the drainage district and may desire an amendment to the assessment rolls, he may file his petition before any other member of the board, or file the same directly with the clerk of the superior court.

(l) Application of Section. — The provisions of this section shall apply to landowners in districts heretofore established and to drainage proceedings heretofore instituted to the same extent as to drainage proceedings hereafter instituted and established. (1917, c. 152, s. 4; 1919, c. 208, s. 1; C.S., s. 5370; 1993, c. 539, s. 1078; 1994, Ex. Sess., c. 24, s. 14(c).)

§ 156-115. Warranty in deed runs to purchaser who pays assessment.

Where the land assessed by drainage commissioners under the provisions of this Article has been purchased since the making of the assessment by a purchaser for value without notice under a deed of general warranty, and said purchaser pays to the sheriff the amount of said drainage assessment, which is a lien on the land purchased, then such purchaser who pays the said drainage assessment shall have a right of action against the warrantor of his title under the covenant of general warranty contained in his deed for the recovery of the amount paid. (1919, c. 282, s. 3; C.S., s. 5371.)

CASE NOTES

Section Does Not Refer to Future Assessments. — An assessment matured and due, under the decisions, would constitute “a lien on the land purchased,” but this section does not refer to future assessments not due at the time the land was purchased. Branch v. Saunders, 195 N.C. 176, 141 S.E. 583 (1928).

Liens Not Within Warranty Against En-

cumbrances Until Due and Payable. — Liens on lands within a statutory drainage district for assessment charges for its maintenance and upkeep do not fall within a warranty or covenant against encumbrances contained in a deed until they are due and payable. Branch v. Saunders, 195 N.C. 176, 141 S.E. 583 (1928).

§ 156-116. Modification of assessments.

(a) Relevy. — Where the court has confirmed an assessment for the construction of any public levee, ditch, or drain, and such assessment has been modified by the court of superior jurisdiction, but for some unforeseen cause it cannot be collected, the board of drainage commissioners shall have power to change or modify the assessment as originally confirmed to conform to the judgment of the superior court and to cover any deficit that may have been caused by the order of court or unforeseen occurrence. The relevy shall be made for the additional sum required, in the same ratio on the lands benefited as the original assessment was made.

(b) Upon Sale of Land for Assessments. — If any person, or any number of persons, claiming to have title to any tract or tracts of land subject to assessment or drainage tax shall fail to pay any annual assessment levied against such lands, and the sheriff or tax collector shall be compelled to sell such lands under the law for the purpose of making such collection, the net proceeds of such sale shall be paid to the treasurer, to be held by him and disbursed for the purpose of paying the current assessment and future annual assessments so far as the proceeds may be sufficient. When the fund in the custody of the treasurer shall be exhausted in the payment of annual assessments against such lands, or there shall not be a sufficient sum to pay the next annual assessment, the treasurer shall immediately give written notice to that effect to the chairman of the board of drainage commissioners of the district, and also to the clerk of the superior court, whereupon the board of drainage commissioners shall institute an investigation of such tract or tracts of land to determine the market value, and if they shall find that the market value is not equal to all the future annual assessments to cover its share of installments of principal and interest on the outstanding bonds, they shall proceed, with the approval of the clerk of the superior court, to make new reassessment rolls on all the remaining lands in the district and increase the sum in sufficient sums to equal the deficit thereby created and such new assessment rolls shall constitute the future assessment rolls until changed according to law, and shall be certified to the tax collector as herein provided in lieu of the former assessment rolls. However, the tract or tracts of land which have been so sold by the tax collector shall continue on the assessment roll in the name of the new owner, but reassessed upon the new basis, and the drainage tax collected at the same time and in the same manner as other lands as long as such lands may have sufficient market value out of which to collect the annual drainage tax, and when such lands shall cease to have such value, or shall be abandoned by the person claiming title thereto, the drainage commissioners may omit the same from the assessment roll with the approval of the clerk of the superior court, but such lands may in the same manner at any time in the future be restored to the assessment rolls.

(c) Surplus Funds. — If the funds in the hands of the treasurer at any time, arising under this section or in any other manner, shall be greater than is necessary to pay the annual installments of principal and interest, or the annual cost of maintenance of the drainage works, or both, such surplus shall be held by the treasurer for future disbursement for other purposes as herein provided or subject to the order of the board of drainage commissioners.

(d) Insufficient Funds. — If there shall be any impairment or destruction of the drainage works by any unforeseen cause or occurrence not anticipated, during the period of construction by the contractor, the contractor shall nevertheless repair and complete the works according to the contract and specifications and shall be liable therefor and also his sureties on his bond; but if the contractor shall make default and if there shall be a failure to collect all resulting damages from such contractor and the sureties upon his bond, and it shall thereby be necessary to raise a greater sum of money to complete the drainage works in accordance with the plans, or if for any other unavoidable cause it shall be necessary to raise a greater sum to complete such drainage works, the board of drainage commissioners, having first obtained the approval of the clerk of the superior court, shall prepare new assessment rolls upon all the lands in the district upon the original basis of classification of benefits and increase the same in sufficient sums to equal the deficit thereby created, and the same shall constitute the new assessment rolls until changed according to law, and shall be certified to the tax collector as herein provided.

(e) Additional Bonds Issued. — If for any of the causes hereinbefore recited in this section, or for any other cause, a sum of money greater than the proceeds of sale of the drainage bonds shall become necessary to complete the drainage system, and the board of drainage commissioners shall determine that the amount to be raised is greater than can be realized from the collection of one annual assessment upon the lands in the district without imposing an undue burden upon the lands, or if it is advisable or necessary to raise the money more expeditiously, then and under such conditions additional bonds may be issued in such aggregate sum as may be necessary.

(f) Manner of Issue. — The proceedings for the issue of such additional bonds shall be substantially as follows: The board of drainage commissioners shall file their petition with the clerk of the superior court, setting forth all the facts which require the expenditure of more money and the issue of additional bonds to complete the drainage system, which shall be accompanied by the recommendation of the drainage engineer who was one of the original viewers, or some other expert drainage engineer selected by the drainage commissioners; whereupon the court shall issue a notice to all the owners of land within the district reciting the substance of the petition and directing each to appear before the court on a day certain, not less than 20 days after the service upon all the parties, and to show cause, if any they have, why the additional bonds should not be authorized, which notice shall be served personally on each such landowner by reading the same, and by leaving a copy, and if the same cannot be personally served, then it shall be served in the manner authorized by law. Any landowner may file an answer denying any material allegation in the petition or setting forth any valid objection to same before the return day thereof.

Upon the day when the notice is returnable, or on such day as to which the same may have been continued, the court shall proceed to hear the petition and answers. If the court shall find that the allegations of the petition are true, and that the issue of additional bonds is advisable or necessary, the court shall make an appropriate order authorizing and directing the issue of such additional bonds, fixing the amount of such issue, the date of same, the time when the interest and principal shall be payable, and all other matters necessary and appropriate in the premises. Any landowner may appeal from the order of the clerk of the superior court, and on such appeal only the issues raised in the answer shall be considered, and such appeal and the further procedure thereon shall be as prescribed in special proceedings, except as modified by this Subchapter.

After the court shall have ordered the additional issue of bonds, the further procedure as to the assessment rolls, the levying and collecting of the drainage taxes, the disbursement of the revenue therefrom for the payment of such bonds and interest thereon, and all further procedure shall be the same as required for the establishment of drainage districts. The additional bonds issued shall not exceed twenty-five percent (25%) of the total amount originally issued. The additional issue of bonds shall bear six percent (6%) interest per annum and may be made payable in 10 annual installments, or in lesser number of annual installments as nearly equal as may be, as recommended by the board of drainage commissioners and approved by the court. (1909, c. 442, s. 35; 1911, c. 67, s. 15; C.S., s. 5372; 1963, c. 767, s. 4.)

Distribution of Surplus to Owners. — Where a drainage district of a county has assessed the property owners therein for improvements, and after completing the same there is a surplus in the hands of the county treasurer, the board of drainage commissioners, upon the exercise of a sound discretion and in good faith, may determine that the fund on hand is not necessary for further disbursements for the benefit of the district, according to the plan adopted, and may distribute the same proportionately among those assessed in accordance with law, especially when such owners have thereto agreed. Foil v. Board of Drainage Comm'rs, 192 N.C. 652, 135 S.E. 781 (1926).

Local Law. — Where, under the provisions of a public-local law, a drainage district could lend its money derived from its assessments until required for use in payment of the principal and interest on its bonds maturing serially for a period of 10 years, and the statute provided for a depository for these funds, the drainage commissioners could not contract with a different bank to deposit the funds there, in consideration of such bank buying at par a certain issue of such bonds that could not otherwise have been sold, except below par; nor could the transaction, contemplating a period of 10 years, be construed as a loan to the bank as authorized by the statute. Regarded either as a deposit of the funds or a loan thereof, the transaction was void. Commissioners of Robeson County v. Lewis, 174 N.C. 528, 94 S.E. 8 (1917).

§ 156-117. Subdistricts formed.

Subdistricts may be formed by owners of land in main districts theretofore established in the manner provided for the organization of main districts. Such subdistricts shall have the right to use the ditches or canals of the main districts for outlets. The formation of subdistricts shall not operate to release the lands in any subdistrict from the payment of any assessment or levy made prior to the formation of such subdistricts, nor from any assessment which may thereafter be made for the completion and maintenance of the canals in main districts, or for the payment of the principal and interest on any indebtedness incurred by the main district, nor shall it give the subdistrict any claim on the funds of such main district for its local use. It shall be the duty of the drainage commissioners of the main district to control all matters pertaining to the main district drainage. Drainage commissioners for the subdistricts shall have authority and control over all matters pertaining to drainage within their respective subdistricts, except such work as belongs exclusively to the main district. (1917, c. 152, s. 8; C.S., s. 5373.)

§§ 156-118 through 156-120: Repealed by Session Laws 1961, c. 614, s. 11.

§ 156-121. Redress to dissatisfied landowners.

Anyone owning land which has been reclassified by the board of viewers who is dissatisfied with their classification shall have the same redress as has heretofore been provided where divisions of classification have been made by a petition to the clerk or otherwise. (1923, c. 231, s. 4; C.S., s. 5373(d).)

§ 156-122. Increase to extinguish debt.

If in the opinion of the board of drainage commissioners it would help the sale of the maintenance or improvement bonds, or they would deem it necessary under the provision of G.S. 156-101, they may, with the approval of the clerk of the superior court, add to the amount estimated by the board of viewers a sufficient amount to pay off all outstanding obligations of the district, leaving this their only bond issue. (1923, c. 231, s. 5; C.S., s. 5373(e).)

§ 156-123. Proceedings as for original bond issue.

The compensation of the board of viewers and their assistants, together with all other expenses in connection with this bond issue, shall be paid in the same manner, the duties and power of the clerk, and the duties and power of the board of drainage commissioners, the bonds shall be advertised and sold, divided into such annual installments, bear such a rate of interest, the landowners shall be given the same notices and the same rights to pay cash, the contract shall be let and supervised, and contractor paid the same, as if this was the original bond issue. (1923, c. 231, s. 6; C.S., s. 5373(f).)

CASE NOTES

As to effect of this section and former § 156-118 or § 156-92, see In re Perquimans County Drainage Dist. No. Four, 254 N.C. 155, 118 S.E.2d 431 (1961), decided prior to the repeal of §§ 156-118 through 156-120.

§ 156-124. No drainage assessments for original object may be levied on property when once paid in full.

Whenever any assessment has been made or may be made by any drainage district formed under the laws of the State of North Carolina upon any lands in said district, either for construction or maintenance of its system of drainage or for any other purpose, and the particular assessment made against any particular piece of property has been paid or shall be hereafter paid in full, then and in that event no other or further assessment may be made upon said land for the purpose of providing money for the purpose for which the original assessment was made. (1933, c. 504; 1935, c. 469, s. 5.)

Local Modification. — Mecklenburg: 1933, c. 504; 1935, c. 469.

CASE NOTES

This section does not apply to bonds issued prior to its effective date, or affect the right of the holders of such bonds under prescribed conditions to require the levying and collection of special assessments for the purpose of paying the bonds. Board of Comm'rs v. Gaines, 221 N.C. 324, 20 S.E.2d 377 (1942).

Additional Assessments to Pay Judgment Rendered Prior to Effective Date. —

This section does not affect the liability of lands within a drainage district for additional assessments necessary to pay a judgment against the district rendered prior to the effective date of this section for improvements theretofore made by the district. Virginia-Carolina Joint Stock Land Bank v. Watt, 207 N.C. 577, 178 S.E. 228 (1935).

§ 156-124.1: Repealed by Session Laws 1961, c. 614, s. 11.

ARTICLE 9.

Adjustment of Delinquent Assessments.

§ 156-125. Adjustment by board of commissioners authorized.

The board of commissioners of any drainage district may, in connection with the issuance of bonds for the purpose of refunding outstanding bonds of the district, and in addition to preparing a new assessment roll, for the payment of principal and interest of such refunding bonds, and when the bonds so refunded constitute all of the bonds of the district for which an assessment has been made against property therein, adjust the uncollected delinquent installments of the assessment made upon property in the district, for the payment of principal and interest of the bonds so refunded and for other purposes authorized by law before said bonds were refunded. The adjustment of such delinquent assessments may include reduction of the principal amount of the delinquent installments, not exceeding fifty per centum (50%) thereof, to which reduced installments shall be added interest computed thereon, at a rate not less than the rate of interest of the refunding bonds, from the date of delinquency of said installments to the date of the refunding bonds, and shall include any costs legally incurred for the collection of the same; the date of delinquency shall be deemed to be the first day of December following the date upon which each of said installments became due: Provided, however, all delinquent installments of such assessment shall be adjusted on the same basis and by the same method. (1935, c. 469, s. 1.)

§ 156-126. Extension of adjusted installments.

Upon adjustment of delinquent installments of any assessment as provided herein, the payment of all delinquent installments so adjusted may be extended over a period not exceeding the life of the issue of refunding bonds, but in no event over a period exceeding 20 years. Such extension shall be made by the preparation of assessment rolls, which shall provide for the payment of installments so adjusted in equal annual installments which shall become due annually on September 1, in accordance with the original assessment, and shall bear interest at the rate of four per centum (4%) per annum from December 1 following their due date until paid. Such assessment rolls shall be prepared and filed with the sheriff and the clerk of superior court and receipts shall be prepared and the same shall be collected in the same manner as other assessments of the district. (1935, c. 469, s. 2.)

§ 156-127. Special fund set up; distribution of collections.

The collection of assessments adjusted under this Article and of interest accrued under G.S. 156-126 shall be set aside in a fund and shall be applied as follows: One third of such collections may be used solely for operating and administrative expenses of the district, but the remaining two thirds thereof shall be reserved as additional security for the payment of the refunding bonds, or for the purchase and retirement of such refunding bonds, at prices not exceeding par and accrued interest. (1935, c. 469, s. 3.)

§ 156-128. Approval of adjustments by Local Government Commission.

Any adjustments of delinquent assessments under the provisions of this Article shall be effective only upon approval of the Local Government Commission. (1935, c. 469, s. 4.)

§ 156-129. Amount of assessments limited; reassessments regulated.

The assessments made under this Article shall in no instance, and against no piece of property, be greater in amount than that percent which the percent assessment authorized by this Article bears to the unpaid original assessment upon each piece or tract of property within the district. In no instance, either under this Article or any other law, shall any reassessment be made upon any piece of property for the purpose of providing money for the same purpose for which the original assessment was made, when the original assessment upon said property has been paid, or shall be paid prior to such general reassessment, nor to the extent that the original assessment has been paid. (1935, c. 469, s. 4(b).)

ARTICLE 10.

Reports of Officers.

§ 156-130. Drainage commissioners to make statements.

It shall be the duty of the commissioners of all drainage districts in the State of North Carolina organized under the provisions of the laws thereof to file with the clerk of the superior court in the county where such district is organized a monthly statement or account during the course of construction of canals for the district, showing the receipts and expenditures of all funds coming into their hands belonging to such drainage district for the period of one month prior to the day on which the same is filed, and also to post a copy of such statement or account at the courthouse door in the county. After the construction of the canals has been concluded and the drainage commissioners have only to maintain the canals, said drainage commissioners shall only be required to file and post the annual statement required in G.S. 156-131. Such statement or account shall be certified by the chairman of the board of commissioners of each drainage district and shall be attested by the secretary thereof, and a copy thereof shall be filed and kept as a part of the minutes of the district. (1917, c. 72, s. 1; C.S., s. 5374; 1927, c. 98, s. 6.)

§ 156-131. Annual report.

At the end of each fiscal year the board of commissioners of all drainage districts in the State of North Carolina shall file with the clerk of the superior court in the county where the district is organized a verified itemized statement of receipts and expenditures of all funds belonging to the district during the fiscal year just closed. (1917, c. 72, s. 2; C.S., s. 5375; 1957, c. 1410, s. 2.)

§ 156-132. Penalty for failure.

Any board of commissioners of any drainage district in the State, and each of the members thereof, which shall fail or refuse to file the statements or accounts, as provided in G.S. 156-130 and 156-131, shall be deemed guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor. (1917, c. 72, s. 3; C.S., s. 5376; 1957, c. 1410, s. 3; 1993, c. 539, s. 1079; 1994, Ex. Sess., c. 24, s. 14(c).)

§ 156-133. Auditor appointed; duties; compensation.

The clerk of the superior court for the county where the district was organized, shall annually appoint an intelligent and competent person of sufficient experience, as auditor for each drainage district which levies current assessments or which has accumulated funds. The same person may be auditor of more than one drainage district. The auditor shall annually report to the court as to financial affairs of the drainage district. The auditor may prepare all financial reports required by the drainage law to be made to the court by the commissioners of the drainage district. The compensation of the auditor shall be fixed by the said clerk of the superior court, and shall be paid out of the general, or operating, fund of the district. (1917, c. 152, s. 10; 1919, c. 208, s. 3; C.S., s. 5377; 1959, c. 420; 1963, c. 767, s. 11.)

§ 156-134. Duties of the auditor.

The auditor for the drainage district will be required to examine the assessment roll and the records and accounts of the sheriff or tax collector as to the assessment roll which went into his hands on the previous first Monday in September and for all previous years as to which the records and accounts of the sheriff or tax collector have not been audited.

The auditor shall for each of such years make a report as to each drainage district, showing the total amount of drainage assessments due for each year, the amount collected by the sheriff up to the fifteenth day of May of the following year, the names of the owners of land, and a brief description of the lands on which the drainage assessments have not been paid, and the total amount of unpaid drainage assessments, with any further data or information which the auditor may regard as pertinent.

If the lands in the district lie in other counties, the auditor for the county in which the district was established shall also examine the records of the sheriff or tax collector for such other counties.

The auditor shall also examine the books of the treasurer for similar years, and he shall report the amount of drainage assessments paid to the treasurer by the sheriff or tax collector for each year, and the amounts paid out by the treasurer during such years, and for what purposes paid. It shall be the duty of the sheriff and treasurer to permit the auditor to examine their official books and records and to furnish all necessary information, and to assist the auditor in the discharge of his duties.

The auditor shall make a report to the board of county commissioners on or before the first Monday in July following his appointment, and he shall deliver a duplicate of such report to the chairman of the board of drainage commissioners of each drainage district established in the county.

If the sheriff has not collected all of the drainage assessments, or has not paid over all collections to the treasurer, or if the treasurer has not made disbursements of the drainage funds as required by law, or has not in his hands the funds not so disbursed by him, it shall be the duty of the auditor to so report, and to prepare two certified copies of his report, one of which shall be delivered to the judge holding a session of superior court in the county following the first Monday in July, and a copy to the district attorney of the prosecutorial district as defined in G.S. 7A-60 in which the county is located, and it shall be the duty of such district attorney to examine carefully such report and to institute such action, civil or criminal, against the sheriff or tax collector or the treasurer, as the facts contained in the report may justify, or as may be required by law. (1917, c. 152, s. 10; C.S., s. 5378; 1963, c. 767, s. 4; 1973, c. 47, s. 2; c. 108, s. 97; 1987 (Reg. Sess., 1988), c. 1037, s. 124.)

ARTICLE 11.

§ 156-135. Construction of drainage law.

The provisions of this Subchapter shall be liberally construed to promote the leveeing, ditching, draining, and reclamation of wet and overflowed lands. The collection of the assessment shall not be defeated, where the proper notices have been given, by reason of any defect in the proceedings occurring prior to the order of the court confirming the final report of the viewers; but such order or orders shall be conclusive and final that all prior proceedings were regular and according to law, unless they were appealed from. If on appeal the court shall deem it just and proper to release any person or to modify his assessment or liability, it shall in no manner affect the rights and legality of any person other than the appellant, and the failure to appeal from the order of the court within the time specified shall be a waiver of any illegality in the proceedings, and the remedies provided for in this Subchapter shall exclude all other remedies. (1909, c. 442, s. 37; C.S., s. 5379.)

CASE NOTES

Liberal Construction of Drainage Laws.
— The drainage laws apply to the whole State, and by the express provision of this section they should be liberally construed to promote the leveeing, ditching, draining and reclamation of wet and overflowed lands. Board of Drainage Comm'rs of Parkville Drainage Dist. No. 1 v. Brett Eng'r Co., 165 N.C. 37, 80 S.E. 897 (1914).

Provision that the collection of assessments shall not be defeated, etc., is absolutely necessary if the public are to be protected in their purchase of the bonds put upon the market. It is to be presumed that when the court has rendered such final judgment and the bonds are issued there will be no interference with the collection of the assessments to pay the bondholders, but that all controversies were thrashed out and settled before such final judgment. Banks v. Lane, 171 N.C. 505, 88 S.E. 754 (1916).

Formation of a district is not subject to collateral attack. Board of Drainage Comm'rs v. Lafayette Southside Bank, 27 F.2d 286 (4th Cir. 1928).

§ 156-135.1. Investment of surplus funds.

Any drainage district organized under the provisions of Subchapter III of Chapter 156 of the General Statutes and the governing authority of same is hereby authorized and empowered to invest any surplus funds or any funds not needed for the immediate use of the district in United States bonds or any securities or type of investment in which guardians, executors, administrators and others acting in a fiduciary capacity are authorized to make investments by virtue of Article 1 of Chapter 36 of the General Statutes as amended. (1951, c. 1058, s. 1.)

Editor's Note. — Article 1 of Chapter 36, referred to in this section, was repealed by Session Laws 1977, c. 502, s. 1. For present provisions covering the subject matter of the repealed article, see Article 1 of Chapter 36A.

CASE NOTES

Cited in In re Perquimans County Drainage District No. Four, 254 N.C. 155, 118 S.E.2d 431 (1961).

§ 156-136. Removal of officers.

Any engineer, viewer, superintendent of construction or other person appointed under this Chapter may be removed by the court, upon petition, for corruption, negligence of duties, or other good and satisfactory cause shown. (1909, c. 442, s. 38; C.S., s. 5380.)

§ 156-137. Local drainage laws not affected.

This Subchapter shall not repeal or change any local drainage laws already enacted. (1909, c. 442, s. 381/2; C.S., s. 5381.)

CASE NOTES

Where a special local statute for the formation and operation of a drainage district is complete in itself in all its details, a general law expressing itself applicable to all such drainage districts in the State, adding further duties and making the failure of the commissioners to file certain reports an indictable offense, will not be construed to apply unless special reference is made to the special local act. State v. Gettys, 181 N.C. 580, 107 S.E. 307 (1921).

§ 156-138. Punishment for violating law as to drainage districts.

If any person shall violate any of the provisions of law in reference to drainage districts as provided in this Chapter, or shall leave any log, brush, trash, or other thing where it is liable to wash into an adjacent stream and obstruct the flow of water or cut any tree so as to fall in a stream, or place any other obstruction in a stream in a drainage district, he shall be fined not more than fifty dollars ($50.00) or imprisoned not more than 30 days. (1905, c. 541, ss. 7, 9; Rev., s. 3378; C.S., s. 5382.)

§ 156-138.1. Acquisition and disposition of lands; lease to or from federal or State government or agency thereof.

The district may acquire any lands necessary or convenient to enable it to accomplish the purposes for which the district was established. If the lands cannot be acquired by agreement as to the purchase price, then the power of eminent domain is hereby conferred and the lands may be condemned by the procedure set out in G.S. 156-67 and Chapter 40A of the General Statutes. The land so acquired may be used in a manner and for the purposes the commissioners of the district deem best. If, in the opinion of the drainage commission of the district the lands should be sold, leased or rented, the board may do so, subject to the approval of the clerk of the superior court.

The commissioners of the district may, in their discretion, convey or lease to the State or federal governments, or any of their agencies, with or without consideration, any properties, real or personal, belonging to the district, if in their opinion it is necessary to enable the district to receive State or federal funds available to the district. The terms of a conveyance or lease shall be subject to the approval of the clerk of the superior court of the county in which the district was established.

The commissioners of the district may lease from the State or federal governments any real or personal property needed by the district to enable it to efficiently operate and maintain the district for the purposes for which it was established. The terms of a lease shall be subject to the approval of the clerk of the superior court of the county in which the district was established. (1957, c. 539; 2001-487, s. 38(h).)

Effect of Amendments. — Session Laws 2001-487, s. 38(h), effective December 16, 2001, made stylistic changes throughout the section; in the first paragraph, substituted “any lands” for “such lands as may be” in the first sentence, deleted “and in such event” following “then” and substituted “Chapter 40A” for “Article 2, Chapter 40” in the second sentence, and substituted “the purposes the commissioners of the district deem best” for “such purposes as the commissioners of the district may deem best” in the third sentence; substituted “may, in their discretion, convey” for “are hereby authorized and empowered, in their discretion, to convey” in the second paragraph; and in the third paragraph, substituted “may lease” for “are authorized and empowered to lease” and deleted “as may be” preceding “needed.”

§ 156-138.2. Meaning of “majority of resident landowners” and “owners of three fifths of land area.”

Wherever in this Subchapter reference is made to a “majority of resident landowners” or “owners of three fifths of the land area,” such reference shall be deemed to refer only to lands alleged in a petition or adjudged by the court to be benefited by the proposed construction work. (1959, c. 1312, s. 2.)

§ 156-138.3. Notice.

Unless specifically required by the provisions of this Subchapter, it is not necessary to give notice to any landowner of a motion made to, or order rendered by the clerk of the superior court or the judge of the superior court relating to the affairs of the district, financial or otherwise, except when an assessment is proposed to be made upon his land and then such notice shall be given as is required by the provisions of this Subchapter. This provision for notice of assessment shall not apply to assessments for annual maintenance expenses, which are provided for in this Subchapter, and specifically in Article 7A and G.S. 156-92. (1961, c. 614, s. 3.)

CASE NOTES

The land clause of the Constitution of North Carolina is violated insofar as this section dispenses with notice and an opportunity to be heard before imposing maintenance assessments on landowners within the drainage district; the imposition of assessments was not a matter of mathematical computation, but rather, it involved some discretion on the part of the commissioners. Northampton County Drainage Dist. Number One v. Bailey, 326 N.C.

742, 392 S.E.2d 352 (1990).

This section violates the law of the land clause of the Constitution of North Carolina insofar as it dispenses with notice and an opportunity to be heard before imposing maintenance assessments on landowners within the drainage district. Northampton County Drainage Dist. Number One v. Bailey, 326 N.C. 742, 392 S.E.2d 352 (1990).

§ 156-138.4. Procedures to be followed in connection with drainage projects that involve channelization.

Every drainage project that involves channelization shall be subject to the procedures set forth in G.S. 139-47. (1971, c. 1138, s. 4.)

Editor's Note. — Section 139-47, referred to in this section, was repealed by Session Laws 1993, c. 391, s. 31, effective July 19, 1993.

SUBCHAPTER IV. DRAINAGE BY COUNTIES.

ARTICLE 12.

Protection of Public Health.

§ 156-139. Cleaning and draining of streams, etc., under supervision of governmental agencies.

When the board of commissioners of any county subject to the provisions of this Article shall, by resolution duly adopted, find as facts: (i) that the cleaning out and draining of any portion of any nonnavigable stream, creek or swamp area in such county is necessary and/or desirable to protect and promote the health of the citizens of such county, and (ii) that the agricultural benefits which the lands along such stream or area might receive from such cleaning out and draining would be so negligible as not to justify the levying of any special assessments against such lands on account thereof, it may order, provide for, and accomplish the cleaning out and draining of such portion of such stream, creek or swamp area by, through, and under the supervision and jurisdiction of, the health department, or any sanitary committee, or any drainage commission, or other governmental agency or department of such county. (1943, c. 553, s. 1.)

Legal Periodicals. — For comment on this section and §§ 156-140 and 156-141, see 21 N.C.L. Rev. 352 (1943).

§ 156-140. Tax levy.

In order to carry out and accomplish the objects and purposes of this Article, the board of commissioners of any such county may annually levy and collect a countywide tax not exceeding two cents (2¢) upon each one hundred dollars ($100.00) in value of the taxable property in such county. (1943, c. 553, s. 2.)

§ 156-141. Article applicable to certain counties only.

This Article shall apply only to those counties which may have a population in excess of 100,000 persons. (1943, c. 553, s. 3.)

CASE NOTES

Constitutionality. — This Article is a constitutional exercise of a legislative power. Wells v. Housing Auth., 213 N.C. 744, 197 S.E. 693 (1938).

A housing authority created under this Article is not invested with legislative and supreme judicial powers, and therefore its creation does not violate the constitutional provision that such powers be and remain separate and distinct. Cox v. Kinston, 217 N.C. 391, 8 S.E.2d 252 (1940).

Purpose of Article. — The State cannot enact laws, and cities and towns cannot pass effective ordinances, forbidding disease, vice and crime to enter into the slums of overcrowded areas, there defeating every purpose for which civilized government exists and spreading influences detrimental to law and order; but experience has shown that this result can be more effectively brought about by the removal of physical surroundings conducive to these conditions. This is the objective of this Article and the means by which it is intended to accomplish it. Martin v. North Carolina Hous. Corp., 277 N.C. 29, 175 S.E.2d 665 (1970).

Slum Clearance as Public Purpose. — "Slum clearance" to rehabilitate crowded and congested areas in cities and towns where conditions conducive to disease and public disorder exist is a public purpose, for which the legislature may create municipal corporations, and housing authorities established under this and the following sections are for such governmental purpose. Wells v. Housing Auth., 213 N.C. 744, 197 S.E. 693 (1938); In re Housing Auth., 233 N.C. 649, 65 S.E.2d 761 (1951).

The State does not engage in a private enterprise when it undertakes a project of slum clearance. Martin v. North Carolina Hous. Corp., 277 N.C. 29, 175 S.E.2d 665 (1970).

A housing authority organized under this Article is created for a public purpose and exercises an essential governmental function. Briefly stated, its public purpose is the elimination or rehabilitation of unsafe and unsanitary dwelling units in crowded and congested areas and the construction of housing projects to provide safe and sanitary dwelling units for rental to persons of low income. Martin v. North Carolina Hous. Corp., 277 N.C. 29, 175 S.E.2d 665 (1970).

Article Relates to Health and Sanitation. — This Article, authorizing the creation of municipal housing authorities, is a statute relating to health and sanitation. State v. Alverson, 254 N.C. 204, 118 S.E.2d 408 (1961).

Hearing Requirements Before Eviction. — Hearing to be afforded tenants of public housing before determination to evict them requires: (1) timely and adequate notice detailing the reasons for a proposed termination, (2) an opportunity on the part of the tenant to confront and cross-examine adverse witnesses, (3) the right of a tenant to be represented by counsel, provided by him to delineate the issues, present the factual contentions in an orderly manner, conduct cross-examination and generally to safeguard his interests, (4) a decision, based on evidence adduced at the hearing, in which the reasons for decision and the evidence relied on are set forth, and (5) an impartial decision maker. Caulder v. Durham Hous. Auth., 433 F.2d 998 (4th Cir. 1970), cert. denied, 401 U.S. 1003, 91 S. Ct. 1228, 28 L. Ed. 2d 539 (1971).

The public duty doctrine did not apply to the defendant Housing Authority because it was properly classified as a local government agency, despite its existence as a municipal corporation, for the following reasons: Pursuant to § 157-4, a housing authority is created by local government; the city council and its members are appointed by the mayor; the language in several provisions within Chapter 157 clearly distinguishes between housing authorities and state agencies; § 157-26 labels housing authorities as "local government agencies" and exempts them from taxation "to the same extent as a unit of local government;" and the Housing Authorities Law which creates the North Carolina Indian Housing Authority states: "It is the intent of the General Assembly that the North Carolina Indian Housing Authority not be treated as a State agency for any purpose, but rather that it be treated as a housing authority as set out above." Huntley v. Pandya, 139 N.C. App. 624, 534 S.E.2d 238 (2000), cert. denied, 353 N.C. 263, 546 S.E.2d 98 (2000).

Applied in Housing Auth. v. Wooten, 257 N.C. 358, 126 S.E.2d 101 (1962); Housing Auth. v. Farabee, 17 N.C. App. 431, 194 S.E.2d 553 (1973).

§ 157-2. Finding and declaration of necessity.

(a) It is hereby declared that unsanitary or unsafe dwelling accommodations exist in urban and rural areas throughout the State and that such unsafe or unsanitary conditions arise from overcrowding and concentration of population, the obsolete and poor condition of the buildings, improper planning, excessive land coverage, lack of proper light, air and space, unsanitary design and arrangement, lack of proper sanitary facilities, and the existence of conditions which endanger life or property by fire and other causes; that in such urban and rural areas many persons of low income are forced to reside in unsanitary or unsafe dwelling accommodations; that in such urban and rural areas there is a lack of safe or sanitary dwelling accommodations available to all the inhabitants thereof and that consequently many persons of low income are forced to occupy overcrowded and congested dwelling accommodations; that these conditions cause an increase in and spread of disease and crime and constitute a menace to the health, safety, morals and welfare of the citizens of the State and impair economic values; that these conditions cannot be remedied by the ordinary operation of private enterprise; that the clearance, replanning and reconstruction of such areas and the providing of safe and sanitary dwelling accommodations for persons of low income are public uses and purposes for which public money may be spent and private property acquired; that it is in the public interest that work on such projects be instituted as soon as possible; and that the necessity for the provisions hereinafter enacted is hereby declared as a matter of legislative determination to be in the public interest.

(b) It is hereby further declared that there is a serious shortage of decent, safe and sanitary housing in North Carolina that can be afforded by persons and families of moderate income; that it is in the best interest of the State to encourage programs to provide housing for such persons without imposing on them undue financial hardship; and that in undertaking such programs a housing authority is promoting the health, welfare and prosperity of all citizens of the State and is serving a public purpose for the benefit of the general public. (1985, c. 456, s. 2; 1938, Ex. Sess., c. 2, s. 14; 1941, c. 78, s. 2; 1987, c. 464, s. 1.)

For note on retaliatory evictions and housing code enforcement, see 49 N.C.L. Rev. 569 (1971).

CASE NOTES

Legislative Purpose. — The legislature authorized the creation of housing authorities as a means of protecting low-income citizens from unsafe or unsanitary conditions in urban or rural areas. Powell v. Eastern Carolina Regional Hous. Auth., 251 N.C. 812, 112 S.E.2d 386 (1960).

Due Process in Eviction Procedure. — Both governmental and individual interests are furthered by affording due process in the eviction procedure. Caulder v. Durham Hous. Auth., 433 F.2d 998 (4th Cir. 1970), cert. denied, 401 U.S. 1003, 91 S. Ct. 1228, 28 L. Ed. 2d 539 (1971).

Suit Against Party Named in Lease. — The law of this State allows the housing authority to sue in summary ejectment the party whose name alone is on the lease. Maxton Hous. Auth. v. McLean, 70 N.C. App. 550, 320 S.E.2d 322 (1984), reversed on other grounds, 313 N.C. 277, 328 S.E.2d 290 (1985).

Eviction of Tenant for Failure to Pay Rent. — In order to evict a tenant occupying public housing for persons with low incomes for failure to pay rent as called for in the lease, there must be a finding of fault on the part of the tenant in failing to make the rental payment. Upon a showing by the Authority that the rental payment has not been made as required by the lease, it is presumed that the failure to pay the rent is good cause for eviction. The burden there-upon shifts to the tenant to produce evidence to prove a lack of fault on his part in failing to make the rental payment. Maxton Hous. Auth. v. McLean, 313 N.C. 277, 328 S.E.2d 290 (1985).

Good cause was not shown for termination of lease, where Authority proved the failure of tenant to make rental payments and water and sewer payment, thus raising a presumption that good cause existed to terminate the lease, but by uncontroverted evidence rebutted the presumption by proving the lack of fault on her part in failing to make these payments, showing that initially, no rent was required of tenant and her two children, that the rent in question was based upon the income of husband when he moved into the apartment after marrying defendant, that tenant still had no income herself, and that husband refused to pay the rent and then lost his job. Maxton Hous. Auth. v. McLean, 313 N.C. 277, 328 S.E.2d 290 (1985).

Applied in Housing Auth. v. Montgomery, 55 N.C. App. 422, 286 S.E.2d 114 (1982).

Stated in State v. Alverson, 254 N.C. 204, 118 S.E.2d 408 (1961).

Cited in Mallard v. Eastern Carolina Regional Hous. Auth., 221 N.C. 334, 20 S.E.2d 281 (1942).

§ 157-3. Definitions.

The following terms, wherever used or referred to in this Article shall have the following respective meanings, unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context:

- (1) "Authority" or "housing authority" shall mean a public body and a body corporate and politic organized in accordance with the provisions of this Article for the purposes, with the powers and subject to the restrictions hereinafter set forth.

- (2) "Bonds" shall mean any bonds, interim certificates, notes, debentures, obligations, or other evidences of indebtedness issued pursuant to this Article.
- (3) "City" shall mean any city or town having a population of more than 500 inhabitants according to the last federal census or any revision or amendment thereto.
- (4) "City clerk" and "mayor" shall mean the clerk and mayor, respectively, of the city or the officers thereof charged with the duties customarily imposed on the clerk and mayor respectively.
- (5) "Commissioner" shall mean one of the members of an authority appointed in accordance with the provisions of this Article.
- (6) "Community facilities" shall include real and personal property, and buildings and equipment for recreational or social assemblies, for educational, health or welfare purposes and necessary utilities, when designed primarily for the benefit and use of the housing authority and/or the occupants of the dwelling accommodation.
- (7) "Contract" shall mean any agreement of an authority with or for the benefit of an obligee whether contained in a resolution, trust indenture, mortgage, lease, bond or other instrument.
- (8) "Council" shall mean the legislative body, council, board of commissioners, board of trustees, or other body charged with governing the city.
- (9) "Farmers of low income" shall mean persons or families who at the time of their admission to occupancy in a dwelling of the authority:
  - a. Live under unsafe or unsanitary housing conditions;
  - b. Derive their principal income from operating or working upon a farm; and
  - c. Had an aggregate average annual net income for the three years preceding their admission that was less than the amount that shall be determined by the authority to be necessary, within its area of operation, to enable them, without financial assistance, to obtain decent, safe and sanitary housing, without overcrowding.
- (10) "Federal government" shall include the United States of America, the Federal Emergency Administration of Public Works or any agency, instrumentality, corporate or otherwise, of the United States of America.
- (11) "Government" shall include the State and federal governments and any subdivision, agency or instrumentality, corporate or otherwise, of either of them.
- (12) "Housing project" shall include all real and personal property, buildings and improvements, stores, offices, lands for farming and gardening, and community facilities acquired or constructed or to be acquired or constructed pursuant to a single plan or undertaking:
  - a. To demolish, clear, remove, alter or repair unsanitary or unsafe housing; and/or
  - b. To provide safe and sanitary dwelling accommodations for persons of low income, or moderate income, or low and moderate income; and/or
  - c. To provide safe and sanitary housing for persons of low income, through payment of rent subsidies from any source; and/or
  - d. To provide grants, loans, interest supplements and other programs of financial assistance (including rent subsidies in furtherance of a program of home ownership) to persons of low income, or moderate income, or low and moderate income, so that such persons may become owners of their own housing or rehabilitate their own housing; and/or

- e. To provide grants, loans, interest supplements and other programs of financial assistance to public or private developers of housing for persons of low income, or moderate income, or low and moderate income.

“Housing project” also includes any project that provides housing for persons of other than low or moderate income, as long as at least twenty percent (20%) of the units in the project are set aside for the exclusive use of persons of low income.

The term “housing project” may also be applied to the planning of the buildings and improvements, the acquisition of property, the demolition of existing structures, the construction, reconstruction, alteration and repair of the improvements and all other work in connection therewith.

- (13) “Mortgage” shall include deeds of trust, mortgages, building and loan contracts or other instruments conveying real or personal property as security for bonds and conferring a right to foreclose and cause a sale thereof.
- (14) “Municipality” shall mean any city, town, incorporated village or other municipality in the State.
- (15) “Obligee of the authority” or “obligee” shall include any bondholder, trustee or trustees for any bondholders, any lessor demising property to the authority used in connection with a housing project or any assignee or assignees of such lessor’s interest or any part thereof, and the United States of America, when it is a party to any contract with the authority.
- (15a) “Persons of low income” means persons in households the annual income of which, adjusted for family size, is not more than sixty percent (60%) of the local area median family income as defined by the most recent figures published by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development.
- (15b) “Persons of moderate income” means persons deemed by the authority to require the assistance made available pursuant to this Chapter on account of insufficient personal or family income taking into consideration, without limitation, (i) the amount of the total income of such persons and families available for housing needs, (ii) the size of the person’s family, (iii) the cost and condition of housing facilities available, and (iv) the eligibility of such persons and families for federal housing assistance of any type predicated upon a moderate or low and moderate income basis.
- (16) “Real property” shall include lands, lands under water, structures, and any and all easements, franchises and incorporeal hereditaments and every estate and right therein, legal and equitable, including terms for years and liens by way of judgment, mortgage or otherwise.
- (17) “State” shall mean the State of North Carolina.
- (18) “Trust indenture” shall include instruments pledging the revenues of real or personal properties but not conveying such properties or conferring a right to foreclose and cause a sale thereof. (1935, c. 456, s. 3; 1938, Ex. Sess., c. 2, s. 14; 1941, c. 78, s. 2; 1943, c. 636, s. 1; 1959, cc. 321, 641, 1281; 1961, c. 200, s. 1; 1977, c. 924; 1987, c. 464, ss. 2, 3.)

Editor’s Note. — Session Laws 1943, c. 636, which amended this section as well as §§ 157-4, 157-10, 157-33, 157-35, 157-36 and 157-37, and added §§ 157-39.1 through 157-39.8, provided in s. 9: “The powers conferred by this act shall be in addition and supplemental to the powers conferred by any other law. Nothing contained in this act shall affect the term of office of any commissioner of a housing authority heretofore appointed under the housing authorities law. The enactment of this act shall not be construed to render invalid any action or proceeding had or taken for the creation or establishment of a housing authority pursuant to laws in existence prior to the enactment of this act.”

CASE NOTES

A housing authority created hereunder is a municipal corporation created for a public governmental purpose, and such authority is invested with a governmental function. Cox v. Kinston, 217 N.C. 391, 8 S.E.2d 252 (1940).

The public duty doctrine did not apply to the defendant Housing Authority because it was properly classified as a local government agency, despite its existence as a municipal corporation, for the following reasons: Pursuant to § 157-4, a housing authority is created by local government; the city council and its members are appointed by the mayor; the language in several provisions within Chapter 157 clearly distinguishes between housing authorities and state agencies; § 157-26 labels housing authorities as “local government agencies” and exempts them from taxation “to the same extent as a unit of local government;” and the Housing Authorities Law which creates the North Carolina Indian Housing Authority states: “It is the intent of the General Assembly that the North Carolina Indian Housing Authority not be treated as a State agency for any purpose, but rather that it be treated as a housing authority as set out above.” Huntley v. Pandya, 139 N.C. App. 624, 534 S.E.2d 238 (2000), cert. denied, 353 N.C. 263, 546 S.E.2d 98 (2000).

§ 157-4. Notice, hearing and creation of authority; cancellation of certificate of incorporation.

Any 25 residents of a city and of the area within 10 miles from the territorial boundaries thereof may file a petition with the city clerk setting forth that there is a need for an authority to function in the city and said surrounding area. Upon the filing of such a petition the city clerk shall give notice of the time, place and purposes of a public hearing at which the council will determine the need for an authority in the city and said surrounding area. Such notice shall be given at the city’s expense by publishing a notice, at least 10 days preceding the day on which the hearing is to be held, in a newspaper having a general circulation in the city and said surrounding area, or, if there be no such newspaper, by posting such notice in at least three public places within the city, at least 10 days preceding the day on which the hearing is to be held.

Upon the date fixed for said hearing held upon notice as provided herein, an opportunity to be heard shall be granted to all residents and taxpayers of the city and said surrounding area and to all other interested persons. After such a hearing, the council shall determine:

- (1) Whether insanitary or unsafe inhabited dwelling accommodations exist in the city and said surrounding area, and/or
- (2) Whether there is a lack of safe or sanitary dwelling accommodations in the city and said surrounding area available for all the inhabitants thereof.

In determining whether dwelling accommodations are unsafe or insanitary, the council shall take into consideration the following: the physical condition and age of the buildings; the degree of overcrowding; the percentage of land coverage; the light and air available to the inhabitants of such dwelling accommodations; the size and arrangement of the rooms; the sanitary facilities; and the extent to which conditions exist in such buildings which endanger life or property by fire or other causes.

If it shall determine that either or both of the above enumerated conditions exist, the council shall adopt a resolution so finding (which need not go into any detail other than the mere finding) and shall cause notice of such determination to be given to the mayor who shall thereupon appoint, as hereinafter provided, not less than five nor more than nine commissioners to act as an authority. Said commission shall be a public body and a body corporate and politic upon the completion of the taking of the following proceedings:

The commissioners shall present to the Secretary of State an application signed by them, which shall set forth (without any detail other than the mere recital):

- (1) That a notice has been given and public hearing has been held as aforesaid, that the council made the aforesaid determination after such hearing, and that the mayor has appointed them as commissioners;
- (2) The name and official residence of each of the commissioners, together with a certified copy of the appointment evidencing their right to office, the date and place of induction into and taking oath of office, and that they desire the housing authority to become a public body and a body corporate and politic under this Article;
- (3) The term of office of each of the commissioners;
- (4) The name which is proposed for the corporation; and
- (5) The location of the principal office of the proposed corporation.

The application shall be subscribed and sworn to by each of said commissioners before an officer authorized by the laws of the State to take and certify oaths, who shall certify upon the application that he personally knows the commissioners and knows them to be the officers as asserted in the application, and that each subscribed and swore thereto in the officer's presence. The Secretary of State shall examine the application and if he finds that the name proposed for the corporation is not identical with that of a person or of any other corporation of this State or so nearly similar as to lead to confusion and uncertainty he shall receive and file it and shall record it in an appropriate book of record in his office.

When the application has been made, filed and recorded, as herein provided, the authority shall constitute a public body and a body corporate and politic under the name proposed in the application; the Secretary of State shall make and issue to the said commissioners a certificate of incorporation pursuant to this Article, under the seal of the State, and shall record the same with the application.

If the council, after a hearing as aforesaid, shall determine that neither of the above enumerated conditions exist, it shall adopt a resolution denying the petition. After three months shall have expired from the date of the denial of any such petitions, subsequent petitions may be filed as aforesaid and new hearings and determinations made thereon.

In any suit, action or proceeding involving the validity or enforcement of or relating to any contract of the authority, the authority shall be conclusively deemed to have been established in accordance with the provisions of this Article upon proof of the issuance of the aforesaid certificate by the Secretary of State. A copy of such certificate, duly certified by the Secretary of State, shall be admissible in evidence in any such suit, action or proceeding, and shall be conclusive proof of the filing and contents thereof.

The Secretary of State is authorized and empowered to revoke or to cancel a certificate of incorporation previously issued to an authority or housing authority upon filing in his office a petition and resolution of the council and a petition and resolution of the authority and its members requesting such revocation or cancellation and when the Secretary of State is satisfied that no indebtedness has been incurred or property acquired by said housing authority. (1935, c. 456, s. 4; 1943, c. 636, s. 7; 1961, c. 987; 1971, c. 362, s. 1; c. 599.)

Local Modification. — City of Durham: 1971, c. 575.

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1943, c. 636, which amended this section as well as §§ 157-

3, 157-10, 157-33, 157-35, 157-36 and 157-37, and added §§ 157-39.1 through 157-39.8, provided in s. 9: "The powers conferred by this act shall be in addition and supplemental to the powers conferred by any other law. Nothing contained in this act shall affect the term of office of any commissioner of a housing authority heretofore appointed under the housing authorities law. The enactment of this act shall not be construed to render invalid any action or proceeding had or taken for the creation or establishment of a housing authority pursuant to laws in existence prior to the enactment of this act."

CASE NOTES

Justification for Housing Authority to Be Determined by Municipality. — Existence or nonexistence of facts within its corporate limits justifying the creation of a housing authority is for the determination of the municipal corporation, which duty is political and not judicial, and in proceedings to enjoin the activities of a housing authority the court does not have authority to hear evidence in regard to the existence of the facts upon which the creation of the housing authority was predicated. Cox v. Kinston, 217 N.C. 391, 8 S.E.2d 252 (1940).

No Unconstitutional Delegation in Authorizing Municipality to Determine Necessity for Authority. — The provision of this section investing each municipal corporation with the power to determine for itself the existence or nonexistence of facts necessary for the creation of a housing authority to perform a proper municipal governmental function within its limits is not an unconstitutional delegation of legislative authority. Cox v. Kinston, 217 N.C. 391, 8 S.E.2d 252 (1940).

A rural housing authority duly created is a municipal corporation created for a public purpose and realty acquired by such authority is exempt from taxation. Mallard v. Eastern Carolina Regional Hous. Auth., 221 N.C. 334, 20 S.E.2d 281 (1942).

Publication of notice is not required for creation of a rural housing authority under this section. Mallard v. Eastern Carolina Regional Hous. Auth., 221 N.C. 334, 20 S.E.2d 281 (1942).

The public duty doctrine did not apply to the defendant Housing Authority because it was properly classified as a local government agency, despite its existence as a municipal corporation, for the following reasons: Pursuant to § 157-4, a housing authority is created by local government; the city council and its members are appointed by the mayor; the language in several provisions within Chapter 157 clearly distinguishes between housing authorities and state agencies; § 157-26 labels housing authorities as "local government agencies" and exempts them from taxation "to the same extent as a unit of local government;" and the Housing Authorities Law which creates the North Carolina Indian Housing Authority states: "It is the intent of the General Assembly that the North Carolina Indian Housing Authority not be treated as a State agency for any purpose, but rather that it be treated as a housing authority as set out above." Huntley v. Pandya, 139 N.C. App. 624, 534 S.E.2d 238 (2000), cert. denied, 353 N.C. 263, 546 S.E.2d 98 (2000).

§ 157-4.1. Alternative organization.

(a) In lieu of creating a housing authority as authorized herein, the council of any city may, if it deems wise, either designate a redevelopment commission created under the provisions of Chapter 160 of the General Statutes to exercise the powers, duties, and responsibilities of a housing authority as prescribed herein, or may itself exercise such powers, duties, and responsibilities. Any such designation shall be by passage of a resolution adopted in accordance with the procedure and pursuant to the finding specified in the first and second paragraphs of G.S. 157-4. In the event the council of any city designates itself to exercise the powers, duties, and responsibilities of a housing authority, then where any act, proceeding, or approval is required to be done, recommended, or approved both by a housing authority and by the council of the city, then the performance, recommendation, or approval thereof once by the council of the city shall be sufficient to make such performance, recommendation, or approval valid and legal. In the event the council of the city designates itself to exercise the powers, duties, and responsibilities of a housing authority, it may assign the administration of the housing programs, projects, and policies to any existing or new department of the city.

(b) The council of any city which has prior to July 1, 1969, created, or which may hereafter create, a housing authority may, in its discretion, by resolution abolish such housing authority, such abolition to be effective on a day set in such resolution not less than 90 days after its adoption. Upon the adoption of such a resolution, the housing authority of the city is hereby authorized and directed to take such actions and to execute such documents as will carry into effect the provisions and the intent of the resolution, and as will effectively transfer its authority, responsibilities, obligations, personnel, and property, both real and personal, to the city. Any city which abolishes a housing authority pursuant to this subsection may, at any time subsequent to such abolition or concurrently therewith, exercise the authority granted by subsection (a) of this section.

On the day set in the resolution of the council:

- (1) The housing authority shall cease to exist as a body politic and corporate and as a public body;
- (2) All property, real and personal and mixed, belonging to the housing authority shall vest in, belong to, and be the property of the city;
- (3) All judgments, liens, rights of liens, and causes of action of any nature in favor of the housing authority shall remain, vest in, and inure to the benefit of the city;
- (4) All rentals, taxes, assessments, and any other funds, charges or fees, owing to the housing authority shall be owed to and collected by the city;
- (5) Any actions, suits, and proceedings, pending against, or having been instituted by the housing authority shall not be abated by such abolition, but all such actions, suits, and proceedings shall be continued and completed in the same manner as if abolition had not occurred, and the city shall be a party to all such actions, suits, and proceedings in the place and stead if the housing authority and shall pay or cause to be paid any judgments rendered against the housing authority in any such actions, suits, or proceedings, and no new process need be served in any such action, suit, or proceeding;
- (6) All obligations of the housing authority, including outstanding indebtedness, shall be assumed by the city, and all such obligations and outstanding indebtedness shall be constituted obligations and indebtedness of the city;
- (7) All ordinances, rules, regulations and policies of the housing authority shall continue in full force and effect until repealed or amended by the council of the city.

(c) Where the governing body of any municipality has in its discretion, by resolution abolished a housing authority, pursuant to subsection (b) above, the governing body of such municipality may, at any time subsequent to the passage of a resolution abolishing a housing authority, or concurrently therewith, by the passage of a resolution adopted in accordance with the procedures and pursuant to the finding specified in G.S. 157-4.1, designate an existing redevelopment commission created pursuant to Article 37 of Chapter 160 of the General Statutes, to exercise the powers, duties, and responsibilities of a housing authority. Where the governing body of any municipality designates, pursuant to this subsection, an existing redevelopment commission created pursuant to Article 37 of Chapter 160 of the General Statutes to exercise the powers, duties, and responsibilities of a housing authority, on the day set in the resolution of the governing body passed pursuant to subsection (b) of this section, or pursuant to subsection (c) of this section:

- (1) The housing authority shall cease to exist as a body politic and corporate and as a public body;
- (2) All property, real and personal and mixed, belonging to the housing authority or to the municipality as hereinabove provided in subsections (a) or (b), shall vest in, belong to, and be the property of the existing redevelopment commission of the municipality;

- (3) All judgments, liens, rights of liens, and causes of action of any nature in favor of the housing authority or in favor of the municipality as hereinabove provided in subsections (a) or (b), shall remain, vest in, and inure to the benefit of the existing redevelopment commission of the municipality;
- (4) All rentals, taxes, assessments, and any other funds, charges, or fees owing to the housing authority or owing to the municipality as hereinabove provided in subsections (a) or (b), shall be owed to and collected by the existing redevelopment commission of the municipality;
- (5) Any actions, suits, and proceedings pending against or having been instituted by the housing authority or the municipality, or to which the municipality has become a party as hereinabove provided in subsections (a) or (b), shall not be abated by such abolition but all such actions, suits, and proceedings shall be continued and completed in the same manner as if abolition had not occurred, and the existing redevelopment commission of the municipality shall be a party to all such actions, suits, and proceedings in the place and stead of the housing authority or the municipality, and shall pay or cause to be paid any judgments rendered in such actions, suits, or proceedings, and no new processes need be served in such action, suit, or proceeding;
- (6) All obligations of the housing authority or the municipality as hereinabove provided in subsections (a) or (b), including outstanding indebtedness, shall be assumed by the existing redevelopment commission of the municipality; and all such obligations and outstanding indebtedness shall be constituted obligations and indebtedness of the existing redevelopment commission of the municipality;
- (7) All ordinances, rules, regulations, and policies of the housing authority or the municipality as hereinabove provided in subsections (a) or (b), shall continue in full force and effect until repealed and amended by the existing redevelopment commission of the municipality.

(d) A redevelopment commission designated by the governing body of any municipality to exercise the powers, duties and responsibilities of a housing authority shall, when exercising the same, do so in accordance with Chapter 157 of the General Statutes. Otherwise the redevelopment commission shall continue to exercise the powers, duties and responsibilities of a redevelopment commission in accordance with Article 37 of Chapter 160 of the General Statutes. (1969, c. 1217, s. 2; 1971, c. 116, ss. 3, 4.)

Editor's Note. — Article 37 of Chapter 160, renumbered Article 22 of Chapter 160A by referred to in this section, was transferred and Session Laws 1973, c. 426.

§ 157-4.2. Authority budgeting and accounting systems as a part of city or county budgeting and accounting systems.

The council of a city or the board of commissioners of a county may by resolution provide that the budgeting and accounting systems of the city's or county's housing authority (or, if the city's redevelopment commission is exercising the powers, duties, and responsibilities of a housing authority, the budgeting and accounting systems of the redevelopment commission) shall be an integral part of the budgeting and accounting systems of the city or county. If such a resolution is adopted:

- (1) For purposes of the Local Government Budget and Fiscal Control Act, the authority (or commission) shall not be considered a "public authority,” as that phrase is defined in G.S. 159-7(b), but rather shall be considered a department or agency of the city or county. The operations of the authority (or commission) shall be budgeted and accounted for as if the operations were those of a public enterprise of the city or county.

- (2) The budget of the authority (or commission) shall be prepared and submitted in the same manner and according to the same procedures as are the budgets of other departments and agencies of the city or county; and the budget ordinance of the city or county shall provide for the operations of the authority (or commission).
- (3) The budget officer and finance officer of the city or county shall administer and control that portion of the city or county budget ordinance relating to the operations of the authority (or commission). (1971, c. 780, s. 37.1; 1973, c. 474, s. 29.)

§ 157-5. Appointment, qualifications and tenure of commissioners.

(a) An authority shall consist of not less than five nor more than eleven commissioners appointed by the mayor and the mayor shall designate the first chair. No commissioner may be a city official. At least one of the commissioners appointed shall be a person who is directly assisted by the public housing authority. However, there shall be no requirement to appoint such a person if the authority: (i) operates less than 300 public housing units, (ii) provides reasonable notice to the resident advisory board of the opportunity for at least one person who is directly assisted by the authority to serve as a commissioner, and (iii) within a reasonable time after receipt of the notice by the resident advisory board, has not been notified of the intention of any such person to serve. The mayor shall appoint the person directly assisted by the authority unless the authority's rules require that the person be elected by other persons who are directly assisted by the authority. If the commissioner directly assisted by the public housing authority ceases to receive such assistance, the commissioner's office shall be abolished and another person who is directly assisted by the public housing authority shall be appointed by the mayor.

(b) No commissioner who is also a person directly assisted by the public housing authority shall be qualified to vote on matters affecting his or her official conduct or matters affecting his or her own individual tenancy, as distinguished from matters affecting tenants in general. No more than one third of the members of any housing authority commission shall be tenants of the authority or recipients of housing assistance through any program operated by the authority.

(c) The council may at any time by resolution or ordinance increase or decrease the membership of an authority, within the limitations herein prescribed.

(d) The mayor shall designate overlapping terms of not less than one nor more than five years for the commissioners first appointed. Thereafter, the term of office shall be five years. A commissioner shall hold office until his or her successor has been appointed and has qualified. Vacancies shall be filled for the unexpired term. A majority of the commissioners shall constitute a quorum. The mayor shall file with the city clerk a certificate of the appointment or reappointment of any commissioner and such certificate shall be conclusive evidence of the due and proper appointment of such commissioner. A commissioner shall receive no compensation for his or her services but he or she shall be entitled to the necessary expenses including traveling expenses incurred in the discharge of his or her duties.

(e) When the office of the first chair of the authority becomes vacant, the authority shall select a chair from among its members. An authority shall select from among its members a vice-chair, and it may employ a secretary (who shall be executive director), technical experts and such other officers, agents, and employees, permanent and temporary, as it may require, and shall determine their qualifications, duties, and compensation. An authority may call upon the corporation counsel or chief law officer of the city for such legal services as it may require or it may employ its own counsel and legal staff. An authority may delegate to one or more of its agents or employees such powers or duties as it may deem proper. (1935, c. 456, s. 5; 1971, c. 362, ss. 2-5; 1981, c. 864; 1999-146, s. 1.)

Local Modification. — City of Charlotte: 1989 (Reg. Sess., 1990), c. 835 (Applicable to terms of office commencing on or after July 3, 1990); city of Durham: 1971, c. 575; city of Greensboro: 1971, c. 573; city of Washington: 1993 (Reg. Sess., 1994), c. 693, s. 1; city of Wilson: 1953, c. 664.

§ 157-6. Duty of authority.

The authority shall be under a statutory duty to comply or to cause compliance strictly with all provisions of this Article and the laws of the State and in addition thereto, with each and every term, provision and covenant in any contract of the authority on its part to be kept or performed. (1935, c. 456, s. 6; 1997-455, s. 1.)

Local Modification. — City of Washington: 1995 (Reg. Sess., 1996), c. 615 (Reg. Sess., 1996), c. 615, s. 1; Washington

§ 157-7. Interested commissioners or employees.

No commissioner or employee of an authority shall acquire any interest direct or indirect in any housing project or in any property included or planned to be included in any project, nor shall he have any interest direct or indirect in any contract or proposed contract for materials or services to be furnished or used in connection with any housing project. If any commissioner or employee of an authority owns or controls an interest direct or indirect in any property included or planned to be included in any housing project, he shall immediately disclose the same in writing to the authority and such disclosure shall be entered upon the minutes of the authority. Failure to so disclose such interest shall constitute misconduct in office. (1935, c. 456, s. 7.)

§ 157-8. Removal of commissioners.

The mayor may remove a commissioner for inefficiency or neglect of duty or misconduct in office, but only after the commissioner shall have been given a copy of the charges against him (which may be made by the mayor) at least 10 days prior to the hearing thereon and had an opportunity to be heard in person or by counsel.

Any obligee of the authority may file with the mayor written charges that the authority is violating willfully any law of the State or any term, provision or covenant in any contract to which the authority is a party. The mayor shall give each of the commissioners a copy of such charges at least 10 days prior to the hearing thereon and an opportunity to be heard in person or by counsel and shall within 15 days after receipt of such charges remove any commissioners of the authority who shall have been found to have acquiesced in any such willful violation.

A commissioner shall be deemed to have acquiesced in a willful violation by the authority of a law of this State or of any term, provision or covenant contained in a contract to which the authority is a party, if, before a hearing is held on the charges against him, he shall not have filed a written statement with the authority of his objections to, or lack of participation in, such violation.

In the event of the removal of any commissioner, the mayor shall file in the office of the city clerk a record of the proceedings together with the charges made against the commissioners and the findings thereon. (1935, c. 456, s. 8.)

Local Modification. — City of Durham:
1971, c. 575.

§ 157-9. Powers of authority.

(a) An authority shall constitute a public body and a body corporate and politic, exercising public powers, and having all the powers necessary or convenient to carry out and effectuate the purposes and provisions of this Article, including the following powers in addition to others herein granted:

To investigate into living, dwelling and housing conditions and into the means and methods of improving such conditions; to determine where unsafe, or insanitary dwelling or housing conditions exist; to study and make recommendations concerning the plan of any city or municipality located within its boundaries in relation to the problem of clearing, replanning and reconstruction of areas in which unsafe or insanitary dwelling or housing conditions exist, and the providing of dwelling accommodations for persons of low income, and to cooperate with any city municipal or regional planning agency; to prepare, carry out and operate housing projects; to approve, assist, and cooperate with, as its instrumentality, a nonprofit corporation in providing financing by the issuance by such nonprofit corporation's obligations (which obligations shall not be or be deemed to be indebtedness of a housing authority) for one or more housing projects, pursuant to the United States Housing Act of 1937, as amended, and applicable regulations thereunder, specifically including, but not limited to, programs to make construction and other loans to developers or owners of residential housing, and to acquire, operate or manage such a housing project, and to administer federal housing assistance subsidy payments for such projects; to provide for the construction, reconstruction, improvement, alteration or repair of any housing project or any part thereof; to take over by purchase, lease or otherwise any housing project located within its boundaries undertaken by any government, or by any city or municipality located in whole or in part within its boundaries; to manage as agent of any city or municipality located in whole or in part within its boundaries any housing project constructed or owned by such city; to act as agent for the federal government in connection with the acquisition, construction, operation and/or management of a housing project or any part thereof; to arrange with any city or municipality located in whole or in part within its boundaries or with a government for the furnishing, planning, replanning, installing, opening or closing of streets, roads, roadways, alleys, sidewalks or other places or facilities or for the acquisition by such city, municipality, or government of property, options or property rights or for the furnishing of property or services in connection with a project; to arrange with the State, its subdivisions and agencies, and any county, city or municipality of the State, to the extent that it is within the scope of each of their respective functions, (i) to cause the services customarily provided by each of them to be rendered for the benefit of such housing authority and/or the occupants of any housing projects and (ii) to provide and maintain parks and sewage, water and other facilities adjacent to or in connection with housing projects and (iii) to change the city or municipality map, to plan, replan, zone or rezone any part of the city or municipality; to lease or rent any of the dwelling or other accommodations or any of the lands, buildings, structures or facilities embraced in any housing project and to establish and revise the rents or charges therefor; to enter upon any building or property in order to conduct investigations or to make surveys or soundings; to purchase, lease, obtain options upon, acquire by gift, grant, bequest, devise, or otherwise any property real or personal or any interest therein from any person, firm, corporation, city, municipality, or government; to acquire by eminent domain any real property, including improvements and fixtures thereon; to sell, exchange, transfer, assign, or pledge any property real or personal or any interest therein to any person, firm, corporation, municipality, city, or government; to own, hold, clear and improve property; to insure or provide for the insurance of the property or operations of the authority against such risks as the authority may deem advisable; to procure insurance or guarantees from a federal government of the payment of any debts or parts thereof secured by mortgages made or held by the authority on any property included in any housing project; to borrow money upon its bonds, notes, debentures or other evidences of indebtedness and to secure the same by pledges of its revenues, and by mortgages upon property held or to be held by it, or in any other manner; in connection with any loan, to agree to limitations upon its right to dispose of any housing project or part thereof or to undertake additional housing projects; in connection with any loan by a government, to agree to limitations upon the exercise of any powers conferred upon the authority by this Article; to invest any funds held in reserves or sinking funds, or any funds not required for immediate disbursement, in property or securities in which savings banks may legally invest funds subject to their control; to sue and be sued; to have a seal and to alter the same at pleasure; to have perpetual succession; to make and execute contracts and other instruments necessary or convenient to the exercise of the powers of the authority; to make and from time to time amend and repeal bylaws, rules and regulations not inconsistent with this Article, to carry into effect the powers and purposes of the authority; to conduct examinations and investigations and to hear testimony and take proof under oath at public or private hearings on any matter material for its information; to issue subpoenas requiring the attendance of witnesses or the production of books and papers and to issue commissions for the examination of witnesses who are out of the State or unable to attend before the authority, or excused from attendance; and to make available to such agencies, boards or commissions as are charged with the duty of abating or requiring the correction of nuisances or like conditions, or of demolishing unsafe or insanitary structures within its territorial limits, its findings and recommendations with regard to any building or property where conditions exist which are dangerous to the public health, morals, safety or welfare. Any of the investigations or examinations provided for in this Article may be conducted by the authority or by a committee appointed by it, consisting of one or more commissioners, or by counsel, or by an officer or employee specially authorized by the authority to conduct it. Any commissioner, counsel for the authority, or any person designated by it to conduct an investigation or examination shall have power to administer oaths, take affidavits and issue subpoenas or commissions. An authority may exercise any or all of the powers herein conferred upon it, either generally or with respect to any specific housing project or projects, through or by an agent or agents which it may designate, including any corporation or corporations which are or shall be formed under the laws of this State, and for such purposes an authority may cause one or more corporations to be formed under the laws of this State or may acquire the capital stock of any corporation or corporations. Any corporate agent, (i) all of the stock of which shall be owned by the authority or its nominee or nominees or (ii) the board of directors of which shall be elected or appointed by the authority or is composed of the commissioners of the authority or (iii) which is otherwise subject to the control of the authority or the governmental entity which created the authority, may to the extent permitted by law exercise any of the powers conferred upon the authority herein. In addition to all of the other powers herein conferred upon it, an authority may do all things necessary and convenient to carry out the powers expressly given in this Article. No provisions with respect to the acquisition, operation or disposition of property by other public bodies shall be applicable to an authority unless the legislature shall specifically so state.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Article or in any other provision of law an authority may include in any contract let in connection with a project, stipulations requiring that the contractor and any subcontractors comply with requirements as to minimum wages and maximum hours of labor, and comply with any conditions which the federal government may have attached to its financial aid of the project.

(c) To the extent not inconsistent with the Constitution or statutes of this State or the United States, an authority may adopt and enforce rules governing the lawful entry of guests and visitors to its properties, including the visitors and guests of its tenants. Prior to adopting such rules, an authority shall make reasonable efforts to consult with or obtain comments from its tenants or their representatives. Persons who enter or remain on the property of an authority in violation of such rules shall be subject to prosecution as applicable under G.S. 14-159.12 or G.S. 14-159.13. (1935, c. 456, s. 9; 1939, c. 150; 1977, c. 784, s. 1; 1979, c. 690, s. 1; c. 805; 1995, c. 520, s. 2.)

CASE NOTES

Authorities created pursuant to §§ 157-2, 157-4, 157-33, and 157-35 are public bodies exercising public powers. Hence, they are sometimes called municipal corporations. Powell v. Eastern Carolina Regional Hous. Auth., 251 N.C. 812, 112 S.E.2d 386 (1960).

No Delegation of Legislative Functions. — The fact that an administrative board or municipal corporation is authorized to investigate and determine the existence or nonexistence of facts upon which depend the application of the law it is charged with administering is not a delegation of legislative functions. Cox v. Kinston, 217 N.C. 391, 8 S.E.2d 252 (1940).

Applied in Housing Auth. v. Montgomery, 55 N.C. App. 422, 286 S.E.2d 114 (1982).

§ 157-9.1. Moderate income.

(a) Whenever the words “low income” appear in this Chapter, they shall be construed to mean “low and moderate income.”

(b) This section applies only to the housing authority of the largest city in a county which has two or more cities with a population of 60,000 or over, according to the most recent decennial federal census.

(c) This section shall apply only to existing, non-federally subsidized structures.

(d) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsections (b) and (c), subsection (a) of this section applies to all counties with an area of 250 square miles or less, and a population of more than 100,000 according to the most recent decennial federal census, and applies to all cities within such counties. (1983, c. 769, s. 1; 1985 (Reg. Sess., 1986), c. 1004, s. 1.)

§ 157-9.2. Additional powers.

(a) The findings and purposes set forth in the first three paragraphs of G.S. 122A-2 and in G.S. 122A-5.4(a) are hereby restated and incorporated herein by reference, except that for purposes of incorporating such findings and purposes herein, the phrases "North Carolina Housing Finance Agency" and "Agency" shall read "authority" and the word "Chapter" shall read "Section".

(b) Words and phrases used in this section and not otherwise defined in this Chapter shall be defined as provided in Chapter 122A of the General Statutes, except that for purposes of incorporating such definitions into this section, the phrases "North Carolina Housing Finance Agency" and "Agency" shall read "authority" and the "Chapter" shall read "Section".

(c) An authority shall have all of the powers necessary or convenient to carry out and effectuate the purposes and provisions of this section, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the power:

- (1) To make or participate in the making of mortgage loans to sponsors of residential housing; provided, however, that such loans shall be made only upon the determination by the authority that mortgage loans are not otherwise available wholly or in part from public or private lenders upon equivalent terms and conditions;
- (2) To make or participate in the making of mortgage loans to persons and families of lower income and persons and families of moderate income for residential housing; provided, however, that such loans shall be made only upon the determination by the authority that mortgage loans are not otherwise available wholly or in part from public or private lenders upon equivalent terms and conditions;
- (3) To make loans to mortgage lenders on terms and conditions requiring the proceeds thereof to be used by such mortgage lenders to originate new mortgage loans to (i) sponsors of residential housing for persons and families of lower income and persons and families of moderate income and (ii) persons and families of lower income and persons and families of moderate income for residential housing. The loans to mortgage lenders and the loans to be made by such mortgage lenders shall be made on such applicable terms and conditions as are set forth in rules and regulations of the authority or otherwise established by the authority; provided, however, that loans shall be made by such mortgage lenders only upon the determination by the authority that such financing is not otherwise available, wholly or in part, from public or private lenders upon equivalent terms and conditions;
- (4) To collect and pay reasonable fees and charges in connection with making, purchasing and servicing of its loans, notes, bonds, commitments and other evidences of indebtedness; and
- (5) To borrow money to carry out and effectuate its corporate purposes and to issue its obligations as evidence of any such borrowing.

(d) Notwithstanding the provisions of G.S. 157-17.1, the approval of the Local Government Commission shall not be necessary for the issuance of bonds or the incurrence of indebtedness pursuant to this section, and the provisions of the Local Government Finance Act shall not be applicable with respect to bonds issued or indebtedness incurred pursuant to this section. Provided further that notwithstanding any other provision of State law or local ordinance, the approval of the governing body of the county or city in which the housing authority is located shall be necessary for the issuance of bonds or the incurrence of indebtedness pursuant to this section.

(e) This section applies only to housing authorities in any county with an area of 250 square miles or less and a population of more than 100,000 according to the most recent decennial federal census, and applies to all housing authorities of all cities within such counties.

(f) Not later than 30 days prior to making its determination, pursuant to subsections (c)(1), (2) or (3) of this section, that mortgage loans are not otherwise available wholly or in part from public or private lenders upon equivalent terms and conditions, an authority shall give written notice of a proposed financing, including the proposed terms and conditions of the mortgage loans to be made, to the North Carolina Housing Finance Agency. Within 20 days following receipt of such notice, the North Carolina Housing Finance Agency shall respond, in writing, to the authority, and provide the authority with any terms and conditions of mortgage loans which the Agency can make available and which the Agency believes are reasonably relevant to said determination. (1987, c. 423, s. 1.)

§ 157-9.3. Mixed income projects owned or operated by authorities.

If an authority is the owner or operator of a housing project that includes units for persons of other than low or moderate income, the operating expenses of that project (or of all such projects, together, owned or operated by the authority) shall be met entirely from rents from the project (or projects) together with any rent subsidies provided to low income tenants in the project (or projects). No rent subsidy may be provided to any tenant who is not a person of low income, and no rent subsidy may be paid from bond proceeds. (1987, c. 464, s. 4.)

§ 157-9.4. Multi-family rental housing projects.

(a) If an authority owns, operates, or provides financial assistance to a multi-family rental housing project, at least twenty percent (20%) of the units in the project shall be set aside for the exclusive use of persons of low income. An authority may group projects being developed concurrently in order to meet the requirement of this subsection.

(b) If an authority provides financial assistance to a multi-family rental housing project, the authority shall establish, as a condition of the assistance, requirements and procedures that insure that all units initially set aside for the exclusive use of persons of low income continue to be so used for at least 15 years after the initial date on which at least fifty percent (50%) of the units in the project are occupied. (1987, c. 464, s. 4.1.)

§ 157-10. Cooperation of authorities.

Any two or more authorities may join or cooperate with one another in the exercise, either jointly or otherwise, of any or all of their powers for the purpose of financing (including the issuance of bonds, notes or other obligations and giving security therefor), planning, undertaking, owning, constructing, operating or contracting with respect to a housing project or projects located within the boundaries of any one or more of said authorities. For such purpose an authority may by resolution prescribe and authorize any other housing authority or authorities, so joining or cooperating with it, to act on behalf with respect to any or all of such powers. Any authorities joining or cooperating with one another may by resolutions appoint from among the commissioners of such authorities an executive committee with full power to act on behalf of such authorities with respect to any or all of their powers, as prescribed by resolutions of such authorities. (1935, c. 456, s. 10; 1943, c. 636, s. 2.)

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1943, c. 636, which amended this section as well as §§ 157-3, 157-4, 157-33, 157-35, 157-36 and 157-37, and added §§ 157-39.2 through 157-39.8, provided in s. 9: "The powers conferred by this act shall be in addition and supplemental to the powers conferred by any other law. Nothing contained in this act shall affect the term of office of any commissioner of a housing authority heretofore appointed under the housing authorities law. The enactment of this act shall not be construed to render invalid any action or proceeding had or taken for the creation or establishment of a housing authority pursuant to laws in existence prior to the enactment of this act.”

§ 157-11. Eminent domain.

The authority shall have the right to acquire by eminent domain any real property, including fixtures and improvements, which it may deem necessary to carry out the purposes of this Article after the adoption by it of a resolution declaring that the acquisition of the property described therein is in the public interest and necessary for public use. The authority may exercise the power of eminent domain pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 40A.

Property already devoted to a public use may be acquired, provided, that no property belonging to any city or municipality or to any government may be acquired without its consent and that no property belonging to a public utility corporation may be acquired without the approval of the commission or other officer or tribunal, if any there be, having regulatory power over such corporation. (1935, c. 456, s. 11; 1981, c. 919, s. 25.)

CASE NOTES

A housing authority has wide discretion in the selection and location of a site for a housing project. It is not required to select a site in a slum area as the site for a low-rent housing project; and the fact that a few isolated properties in an area to be taken and dismantled are above the average standard of slum properties, or that some few desirable homes would be taken, does not affect the public character of the condemnation proceeding. Martin v. North Carolina Hous. Corp., 277 N.C. 29, 175 S.E.2d 665 (1970).

§ 157-12. Acquisition of land for government.

The authority may acquire by purchase or by the exercise of its power of eminent domain, as aforesaid, any property real or personal for any housing project being constructed or operated by a government. The authority upon such terms and conditions, with or without consideration, as it shall determine, may convey title or deliver possession of such property so acquired or purchased to such government for use in connection with such housing project. (1935, c. 456, s. 12.)

§ 157-13. Zoning and building laws.

All housing projects of an authority shall be subject to the planning, zoning, sanitary and building laws, ordinances and regulations applicable to the locality in which the housing project is situated. (1935, c. 456, s. 13.)

CASE NOTES

A town council may not violate at will the regulations it has established for its own procedure; it must comply with the provisions of the applicable ordinance. This requirement is necessary in order to accord due process and equal protection to applicants and to refute charges that any denial is an arbitrary discrimination against the property owner. Piney Mt. Neighborhood Ass'n v. Town of Chapel Hill, 63 N.C. App. 244, 304 S.E.2d 251 (1983).

Applied in Philbrook v. Chapel Hill Hous. Auth., 269 N.C. 598, 153 S.E.2d 153 (1967).

§ 157-14. Types of bonds authority may issue.

An authority shall have power to issue bonds from time to time in its discretion for any of its corporate purposes. An authority shall also have power to issue or exchange refunding bonds for the purpose of paying, retiring, extending or renewing bonds previously issued by it. An authority may issue such types of bonds as it may determine, including (without limiting the generality of the foregoing) bonds on which the principal and interest are payable from income and revenues of the authority and from grants or contributions from the federal government or other source. Such income and revenues securing the bonds may be:

- (1) Exclusively the income and revenues of the housing project financed in whole or in part with the proceeds of such bonds;
- (2) Exclusively the income and revenues of certain designated housing projects, whether or not they are financed in whole or in part with the proceeds of such bonds; or
- (3) The income and revenues of the authority generally.

Any such bonds may be additionally secured by a pledge of any income or revenues of the authority, or a mortgage of any housing project, projects or other property of the authority.

Neither the commissioners of an authority nor any person executing the bonds shall be liable personally on the bonds by reason of the issuance thereof. The bonds and other obligations of an authority (and such bonds and obligations shall so state in their face) shall not be a debt of any city or municipality and neither the State nor any such city or municipality shall be liable thereon, nor in any event shall such bonds or obligations be payable out of any funds or properties other than those of said authority. The bonds shall not constitute an indebtedness within the meaning of any constitutional or statutory debt limitation of the laws of the State. Bonds may be issued under this Article notwithstanding any debt or other limitation prescribed in any statute.

This Article without reference to other statutes of the State shall constitute full and complete authority for the authorization, issuance, delivery and sale of bonds hereunder and such authorization, issuance, delivery and sale shall not be subject to any conditions, restrictions or limitations imposed by any other law whether general, special or local. (1935, c. 456, s. 14; 1939, c. 150, s. 2.)

CASE NOTES

A city or town is not liable on the bonds of a housing authority within its territory, as it is expressly provided that neither the State nor the city or town shall be liable, and the authority is not an agency of the city or town so as to contravene this express statutory provision. Wells v. Housing Auth., 213 N.C. 744, 197 S.E. 693 (1938).

Quoted in Martin v. North Carolina Hous. Corp., 277 N.C. 29, 175 S.E.2d 665 (1970).

§ 157-15. Form and sale of bonds.

The bonds of the authority shall be authorized by its resolution and shall be issued in one or more series and shall bear such date or dates, mature at such time or times, not exceeding 60 years from their respective dates, bear interest at such rate or rates, be in such denominations (which may be made interchangeable), be in such form, either coupon or registered, carry such registration privileges, be executed in such manner, be payable in such medium of payment, at such place or places, and be subject to such terms of redemption (with or without premium) as such resolution or its trust indenture or mortgage may provide.

The bonds may be sold at public or private sale; provided, however, that no public sale shall be held unless notice thereof is published once at least 10 days prior to such sale in a newspaper having a general circulation in the city in which the authority is located and in a financial newspaper published in the City of New York, New York, or in the City of Chicago, Illinois. The bonds may be sold at such price or prices as the authority shall determine.

Pending the authorization, preparation, execution or delivery of definitive bonds, the authority may issue interim certificates, or other temporary obligations, to the purchaser of such bonds. Such interim certificates, or other temporary obligations, shall be in such form, contain such terms, conditions and provisions, bear such date or dates, and evidence such agreements relating to their discharge or payment or the delivery of definitive bonds as the authority may by resolution, trust indenture or mortgage determine.

In case any of the officers whose signatures appear on any bonds or coupons shall cease to be such officers before the delivery of such bonds, such signatures shall, nevertheless, be valid and sufficient for all purposes, the same as if they had remained in office until such delivery.

The authority shall have power out of any funds available therefor to purchase any bonds issued by it at a price not more than the principal amount thereof and the accrued interest; provided, however, that bonds payable exclusively from the revenues of a designated project or projects shall be purchased out of any such revenues available therefor. All funds so purchased shall be cancelled. This paragraph shall not apply to the redemption of bonds.

Any provision of any law to the contrary notwithstanding, any bonds, interim certificates, or other obligations issued pursuant to this Article shall be fully negotiable. (1935, c. 456, s. 15; 1971, c. 87, s. 1; 1977, c. 784, s. 2.)

§ 157-16. Provisions of bonds, trust indentures, and mortgages.

In connection with the issuance of bonds and/or the incurring of any obligation under a lease and in order to secure the payment of such bonds and/or obligations, the authority shall have power:

- (1) To pledge by resolution, trust indenture, mortgage, or other contract, all or any part of its rents, fees, or revenues.
- (2) To covenant against mortgaging all or any part of its property, real or personal, then owned or thereafter acquired, or against permitting or suffering any lien thereon.
- (3) To covenant with respect to limitations on its right to sell, lease or otherwise dispose of any housing project or any part thereof, or with respect to limitations on its right to undertake additional housing projects.
- (4) To covenant against pledging all or any part of its rents, fees and revenues to which its right then exists or the right to which may thereafter come into existence or against permitting or suffering any lien thereon.

- (5) To provide for the release of property, rents, fees and revenues from any pledge or mortgage, and to reserve rights and powers in, or the right to dispose of, property which is subject to a pledge or mortgage.
- (6) To covenant as to the bonds to be issued pursuant to any resolution, trust indenture, mortgage or other instrument and as to the issuance of such bonds in escrow or otherwise, and as to the use and disposition of the proceeds thereof.
- (7) To covenant as to what other, or additional debt, may be incurred by it.
- (8) To provide for the terms, form, registration, exchange, execution and authentication of bonds.
- (9) To provide for the replacement of lost, destroyed or mutilated bonds.
- (10) To covenant that the authority warrants the title to the premises.
- (11) To covenant as to the rents and fees to be charged, the amount (calculated as may be determined) to be raised each year or other period of time by rents, fees, and other revenues and as to the use and disposition to be made thereof.
- (12) To covenant as to the use of any or all of its property, real or personal.
- (13) To create or to authorize the creation of special funds in which there shall be segregated
  - a. The proceeds of any loan and/or grant;
  - b. All of the rents, fees and revenues of any housing project or projects or parts thereof;
  - c. Any moneys held for the payment of the costs of operation and maintenance of any such housing projects or as a reserve for the meeting of contingencies in the operation and maintenance thereof;
  - d. Any moneys held for the payment of the principal and interest on its bonds or the sums due under its leases and/or as a reserve for such payments; and
  - e. Any moneys held for any other reserves or contingencies; and to covenant as to the use and disposal of the moneys held in such funds.
- (14) To redeem the bonds, and to covenant for their redemption and to provide the terms and conditions thereof.
- (15) To covenant against extending the time for the payment of its bonds or interest thereon, directly or indirectly, by any means or in any manner.
- (16) To prescribe the procedure, if any, by which the terms of any contract with bondholders may be amended or abrogated, the amount of bonds the holders of which must consent thereto and the manner in which such consent may be given.
- (17) To covenant as to the maintenance of its property, the replacement thereof, the insurance to be carried thereon and the use and disposition of insurance moneys.
- (18) To vest in an obligee of the authority the right, in the event of the failure of the authority to observe or perform any covenant on its part to be kept or performed, to cure any such default and to advance any moneys necessary for such purpose, and the moneys so advanced may be made an additional obligation of the authority with such interest, security and priority as may be provided in any trust indenture, mortgage, lease or contract of the authority with reference thereto.
- (19) To covenant and prescribe as to the events of default and terms and conditions upon which any or all of its bonds shall become or may be declared due before maturity and as to the terms and conditions upon which such declaration and its consequences may be waived.
- (20) To covenant as to the right, liabilities, powers and duties arising upon the breach by it of any covenant, condition, or obligation.

- (21) To covenant to surrender possession of all or any part of any housing project or projects upon the happening of an event of default (as defined in the contract) and to vest in an obligee the right without judicial proceedings to take possession and to use, operate, manage and control such housing projects or any part thereof, and to collect and receive all rents, fees and revenues arising therefrom in the same manner as the authority itself might do and to dispose of the moneys collected in accordance with the agreement of the authority with such obligee.
- (22) To vest in a trustee or trustees the right to enforce any covenant made to secure, to pay, or in relation to the bonds, to provide for the powers and duties of such trustee or trustees, to limit liabilities thereof and to provide the terms and conditions upon which the trustee or trustees or the holders of bonds or any proportion of them may enforce any such covenant.
- (23) To make covenants other than in addition to the covenants herein expressly authorized, of like or different character.
- (24) To execute all instruments necessary or convenient in the exercise of the powers herein granted or in the performance of its covenants or duties, which may contain such covenants and provisions, in addition to those above specified as the government or any purchaser of the bonds of the authority may reasonably require.
- (25) To make such covenants and to do any and all such acts and things as may be necessary or convenient or desirable in order to secure its bonds, or in the absolute discretion of the authority tend to make the bonds more marketable; notwithstanding that such covenants, acts or things may not be enumerated herein; it being the intention hereof to give the authority power to do all things in the issuance of bonds, in the provisions for their security that are not inconsistent with the Constitution of the State and no consent or approval of any judge or court shall be required thereof. (1935, c. 456, s. 16; 1979, c. 690, ss. 2, 3.)

§ 157-17. Power to mortgage when project financed with governmental aid.

In connection with the interim or permanent financing of any project to be permanently financed in whole or in part by a government, or the permanent financing of which is to be secured by a pledge of a government commitment for rental assistance payments, the authority shall also have the power, subject to the consent or approval of any government providing such financing or making such commitment for rental assistance payments, to mortgage all or any part of its property, real or personal, then owned or thereafter acquired, and thereby:

- (1) To vest in a government the right, upon the happening of an event of default (as defined in such mortgage), to foreclose such mortgage through judicial proceedings or through the exercise of a power of sale without judicial proceedings, so long as a government shall be the holder of any of the bonds secured by such mortgage.
- (2) To vest in a trustee or trustees the right, upon the happening of an event of default (as defined in such mortgage), to foreclose such mortgage through judicial proceedings or through the exercise of a power of sale without judicial proceedings.
- (3) To vest in other obligees the right to foreclose such mortgage by judicial proceedings.
- (4) To vest in an obligee, including a government, the right in foreclosing any mortgage as aforesaid, to foreclose such mortgage as to all or such part or parts of the property covered thereby as such obligee (in its absolute discretion) shall elect; the institution, prosecution and conclusion of any such foreclosure proceedings and/or the sale of any such parts of the mortgaged property shall not affect in any manner or to any extent the lien of the mortgage on the parts of the mortgaged property not included in such proceedings or not sold as aforesaid. (1935, c. 456, s. 17; 1977, c. 784, s. 3.)

§ 157-17.1. Approval of mortgages by Local Government Commission; considerations; rules and regulations.

(a) With the exception of mortgages under G.S. 157-17, no housing authority may execute any mortgage authorized by this Chapter without the approval of the Local Government Commission.

(b) The Local Government Commission shall consider, in any application by a housing authority for approval of a mortgage, the following issues:

- (1) The value of the property, and any other secured indebtedness upon the property;
- (2) The ability of the authority to repay the indebtedness secured by the mortgage;
- (3) Any other issues it deems necessary to insure the financial soundness of the housing authority.

(c) The Local Government Commission shall adopt rules and regulations to implement this section. (1979, c. 690, s. 5.)

§ 157-18. Remedies of an obligee of authority.

An obligee of the authority shall have the right in addition to all other rights which may be conferred on such obligee subject only to any contractual restrictions binding upon such obligee:

- (1) By mandamus, suit, action or proceeding in law or equity (all of which may be joined in one action) to compel the authority, and the commissioners, officers, agents or employees thereof to perform each and every term, provision and covenant contained in any contract of the authority, and to require the carrying out of any or all covenants and agreements of the authority and the fulfillment of all duties imposed upon the authority by this Article.
- (2) By suit, action or proceeding in equity to enjoin any acts or things which may be unlawful, or the violation of any of the rights of such obligee of the authority.
- (3) By suit, action or proceeding in any court of competent jurisdiction to cause possession of any housing project or any part thereof to be surrendered to any obligee having the right to such possession pursuant to any contract of the authority. (1935, c. 456, s. 18.)

§ 157-19. Additional remedies conferrable by mortgage or trust indenture.

Any authority shall have power by its trust indenture, mortgage, lease or other contract to confer upon any obligee holding or representing a specified amount in bonds, lease or other obligations the right upon the happening of an "event of default" as defined in such instrument:

- (1) By suit, action or proceeding in any court of competent jurisdiction to obtain the appointment of a receiver of any housing project of the authority or any part or parts thereof. If such receiver be appointed, he may enter and take possession of such housing project or any part or parts thereof and operate and maintain same, and collect and receive all fees, rents, revenues, or other charges thereafter arising therefrom in the same manner as the authority itself might do and shall keep such moneys in a separate account or accounts and apply the same in accordance with the obligations of the authority as the court shall direct.

- (2) By suit, action or proceeding in any court of competent jurisdiction to require the authority and the commissioners thereof to account as if it and they were the trustees of an express trust. (1935, c. 456, s. 19.)

§ 157-20. Remedies cumulative.

All the rights and remedies hereinabove conferred shall be cumulative and in addition to all other rights and remedies that may be conferred upon such obligee of the authority by law or by any contract with the authority. (1935, c. 456, s. 20.)

§ 157-21. Limitations on remedies of obligee.

All property of the authority shall be exempt from levy and sale by virtue of an execution, and no execution shall issue against the same. No judgment against the authority shall be a charge or lien against its property, real or personal. The provisions of this section shall not apply to or limit the right of obligees of any mortgage of the authority provided for in G.S. 157-17, after foreclosure sale thereunder, to obtain a judgment or decree for any deficiency due on the indebtedness secured thereby and to issue execution on the credit of the authority. Such deficiency judgment or decree shall be a lien and charge upon the property of the authority, which may be levied on and sold by virtue of an execution or other judicial process for the purpose of satisfying such deficiency judgment or decree. (1935, c. 456, s. 21; 1979, c. 690, s. 4.)

§ 157-22. Title obtained at foreclosure sale subject to agreement with government.

Notwithstanding anything in this Article to the contrary, any purchaser or purchasers at a sale of real or personal property of the authority whether pursuant to any foreclosure of a mortgage, pursuant to judicial process or otherwise, shall obtain title subject to any contract between the authority and a government relating to the supervision by a government of the operation and maintenance of such property and the construction of improvements thereon. (1935, c. 456, s. 22.)

§ 157-23. Contracts with federal government.

In addition to the powers conferred upon the authority by other provisions of this Article, the authority is empowered to borrow money and/or accept grants from the federal government for or in aid of the construction of any housing project which such authority is authorized by this Article to undertake, to take over any land acquired by the federal government for the construction of a housing project, to take over or lease or manage any housing project constructed or owned by the federal government, and to these ends, to enter into such contracts, mortgages, trust indentures, leases or other agreements as the federal government may require including agreements that the federal government shall have the right to supervise and approve the construction, maintenance and operation of such housing project. It is the purpose and intent of this Article to authorize every authority to do any and all things necessary to secure the financial aid and the cooperation of the federal government in the construction, maintenance and operation of any housing project which the authority is empowered by this Article to undertake. (1935, c. 456, s. 23.)

§ 157-24. Security for funds deposited by authorities.

The authority may by resolution provide that

- (1) All moneys deposited by it shall be secured by obligations of the United States or of the State of a market value equal at all times to the amount of such deposits or
- (2) By any securities in which savings banks may legally invest funds within their control or
- (3) By an undertaking with such sureties as shall be approved by the authority faithfully to keep and pay over upon the order of the authority any such deposits and agreed interest thereon, and all banks and trust companies are authorized to give any such security for such deposits. (1935, c. 456, s. 24.)

§ 157-25. Housing bonds, legal investments and security.

The State and all public officers, municipal corporations, political subdivisions, and public bodies, all banks, bankers, trust companies, savings banks and institutions, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, investment companies and other persons carrying on a banking business, all insurance companies, insurance associations, and other persons carrying on an insurance business, and all executors, administrators, guardians, trustees and other fiduciaries may legally invest any sinking funds, moneys or other funds belonging to them or within their control in any bonds issued by a housing authority established (or hereafter established) pursuant to this Article or issued by any public housing authority or agency in the United States, when such bonds are secured by a pledge of annual contributions to be paid by the United States government or any agency thereof, or bonds which may be issued notwithstanding any other limitations of this Chapter, by a not-for-profit corporate agency of a housing authority secured by rentals payable pursuant to section 23 of the United States Housing Act of 1937, as amended, or by rental assistance payments under any other section of said act, as amended, and any such bonds shall be authorized security for all public deposits and shall be fully negotiable in this State; it being the purpose of this Article to authorize any persons, firms, corporations, associations, political subdivisions, bodies and officers, public or private, to use any funds owned or controlled by them, including (but not limited to) sinking, insurance, investment, retirement, compensation, pension and trust funds, and funds held on deposit, for the purchase of any such bonds and that any such bonds shall be authorized security for all public deposits and shall be fully negotiable in this State: Provided, however, that nothing contained in this Article shall be construed as relieving any person, firm or corporation from any duty of exercising reasonable care in selecting securities. (1935, c. 456, s. 25; 1941, c. 78, s. 3; 1971, c. 1161; 1977, c. 784, s. 4.)

§ 157-26. Tax exemptions.

An authority is a local government agency and is exempt from taxation to the same extent as a unit of local government. Property owned by an authority is exempt from taxation in accordance with Article V, § 2 of the North Carolina

Constitution. Bonds and other obligations issued by an authority or its corporate agent authorized by this Article to exercise its powers are declared to be issued for a public purpose and to be public instrumentalities. These obligations are exempt from all State, county, and municipal taxation or assessment, direct or indirect, general or special, whether imposed for the purpose of general revenue or otherwise, excluding inheritance and gift taxes, income taxes on the gain from the transfer of the obligations, and franchise taxes. The interest on the obligations is not subject to taxation as income. (1935, c. 456, s. 26; 1953, c. 907; 1973, c. 695, s. 7; 1977, c. 784, s. 5; 1995, c. 46, s. 17.)

Legal Periodicals. — For brief comment on the 1953 amendment to this section, see 31 N.C.L. Rev. 442 (1953).

CASE NOTES

Property of Authority Exempt from Ad Valorem Taxation. — Since a housing authority created under § 157-1, et seq. is a municipal corporation created for a public, governmental purpose, its property is exempt from State, county and municipal taxation. Well's v. Housing Auth., 213 N.C. 744, 197 S.E. 693 (1938).

Collection of Sales Tax from Housing Authority Not Constitutionally Prohibited. — Neither the Constitution of this State nor the Constitution and laws of the United States prohibit the collection of a sales tax on purchases of tangible personal property made by a housing authority duly created, organized and existing under and by virtue of this Article. Housing Auth. v. Johnson, 261 N.C. 76, 134 S.E.2d 121 (1964).

And Authority Is Not Entitled to Refund of Sales Taxes. — A housing authority created pursuant to the provisions of this Article is a municipal corporation but is not an incorporated city or town, and is not entitled to the refund of sales taxes paid on purchases of tangible personal property pursuant to the provisions of § 105-164.14(c). Housing Auth. v. Johnson, 261 N.C. 76, 134 S.E.2d 121 (1964).

A municipal corporation or public agency created, organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of this State, particularly this Article, is not a charitable organization within the meaning of the refund provisions of § 105-164.14(b). Housing Auth. v. Johnson, 261 N.C. 76, 134 S.E.2d 121 (1964).

The public duty doctrine did not apply to the defendant Housing Authority because it was properly classified as a local government agency, despite its existence as a municipal corporation, for the following reasons: Pursuant to § 157-4, a housing authority is created by local government; the city council and its members are appointed by the mayor; the language in several provisions within Chapter 157 clearly distinguishes between housing authorities and state agencies; § 157-26 labels housing authorities as "local government agencies" and exempts them from taxation "to the same extent as a unit of local government;" and the Housing Authorities Law which creates the North Carolina Indian Housing Authority states: "It is the intent of the General Assembly that the North Carolina Indian Housing Authority not be treated as a State agency for any purpose, but rather that it be treated as a housing authority as set out above." Huntley v. Pandya, 139 N.C. App. 624, 534 S.E.2d 238 (2000), cert. denied, 353 N.C. 263, 546 S.E.2d 98 (2000).

§ 157-26.1. Exemption from real estate licensure requirements.

The authority and the regular salaried employees of the authority shall be exempt from the requirements of Chapter 93A of the General Statutes as provided in G.S. 93A-2(c)(8). (1999-409, s. 2.)

§ 157-27. Reports.

The authority shall at least once a year file with the mayor of the city a report of its activities for the preceding year, and shall make any recommendations with reference to any additional legislation or other action that may be necessary in order to carry out the purposes of this Article. (1935, c. 456, s. 27.)

Local Modification. — City of Durham:
1971, c. 575.

§ 157-28. Restriction on right of eminent domain; right of appeal preserved; investigation by Utilities Commission.

Notwithstanding any finding of public convenience and necessity, either in general or specific, by the terms of this Article, the right of eminent domain shall not be exercised unless and until a certificate of public convenience and necessity for such project has been issued by the Utilities Commission of North Carolina, and the proceedings leading up to the issuing of such certificate of public convenience and necessity, and the right to appeal therefrom shall be as now provided by law and said rights are hereby expressly reserved to all interested parties in said proceedings. In addition to the powers now granted by law to the Utilities Commission of North Carolina, the said Utilities Commission is hereby vested with full power and authority to investigate and examine all projects set up or attempted to be set up under the provisions of this Article and determine the question of the public convenience and necessity for said project. (1935, c. 456, s. 28.)

§ 157-29. Rentals; tenant selections; and summary ejections.

(a) It is hereby declared to be the policy of this State that each housing authority shall manage and operate its housing projects in an efficient manner so as to enable it to fix the cost of dwelling accommodations for persons of low income at the lowest possible rates consistent with its providing decent, safe, and sanitary dwelling accommodations. No housing authority may construct or operate its housing projects so as to provide revenues for other activities of the city.

(b) In the operation or management of housing projects, or portions of projects, for persons of low income, an authority shall at all times observe the following duties with respect to rentals and tenant selection:

(1) It may rent or lease dwelling accommodations set aside for persons of low income only to persons who lack the amount of income that is necessary (as determined by the housing authority undertaking the project) to enable them, without financial assistance, to live in decent, safe, and sanitary dwellings, without overcrowding; and

(2) It may rent or lease dwelling accommodations to persons of low income only at rentals within the financial reach of such persons.

(c) An authority may terminate or refuse to renew a rental agreement for a serious or repeated violation of a material term of the rental agreement such as (i) failure to make payments due under the rental agreement, if such payments were properly and promptly calculated according to applicable HUD regulation, whether or not such failure was the fault of the tenant, (ii) failure to fulfill the tenant obligations set forth in 24 C.F.R. Section 966.4(f) or other applicable provisions of federal law as they may be amended from time to time, or (iii) other good cause. Except in the case of failure to make payments due under a rental agreement, fault on the part of a tenant may be considered in determining whether good cause exists to terminate a rental agreement.

(d) The receipt or acceptance of rent by an authority, with or without knowledge of a prior default or failure by the tenant under a rental agreement, shall not constitute a waiver of that default or failure unless (i) the authority expressly agrees to such waiver in writing, or (ii) within 120 days after obtaining knowledge of the default or failure, the authority fails either to notify the tenant that a violation of the rental agreement has occurred or to exercise one of the authority's remedies for such violation.

(e) In any summary ejectment action wherein a housing authority alleges that a tenant's lease has been terminated because the tenant, a household member, or a guest has engaged in a criminal activity that threatens the health and safety of others or the peaceful enjoyment of the premises by others, or has engaged in activity involving illegal drugs, as defined in 24 C.F.R. § 966.4, the housing authority may bring an action under Article 7 of Chapter 42 of the General Statutes. (1939, c. 150; 1985, c. 741, s. 2; 1987, c. 464, s. 5; 1989, c. 272; 1995, c. 520, s. 1; 1997-473, s. 1.)

CASE NOTES

Preference Favoring Landowners Who Convey Property. — Agreement of a rural housing authority giving priority in occupancy of its dwelling units to those landowners or their tenants, sharecroppers or farm wage hands who convey property to the authority, provided that they come within the definition of families of low income, is not unlawful discrimination in favor of such class. Mallard v. East-

§ 157-29.1. Fraudulent misrepresentation.

(a) Any person whether provider or recipient, or person representing himself as such, who willfully and knowingly and with intent to deceive makes a false statement or representation or who willfully and knowingly and with intent to deceive fails to disclose a material fact and as a result of making a false statement or representation or failing to disclose a material fact obtains, for himself or another person, attempts to obtain for himself or another person, or continues to receive housing assistance in the amount or value of not more than four hundred dollars ($400.00) is guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor.

(b) Any person whether provider or recipient, or person representing himself as such, who willfully and knowingly and with intent to deceive makes a false statement or representation or who willfully and knowingly and with intent to deceive fails to disclose a material fact and as a result of making a false statement or representation or failing to disclose a material fact obtains, for himself or another person, or continues to receive housing assistance in the amount or value of more than four hundred dollars ($400.00) is guilty of a Class I felony.

(c) As used in this section the word "person" means person, association, consortium, body politic, partnership, or other group, entity, or organization. (1985, c. 741, s. 1; 1993, c. 539, s. 1080; 1994, Ex. Sess., c. 24, s. 14(c).)

§ 157-31. Contracts, agreements, etc., validated.

All contracts, agreements, obligations and undertakings of such housing authorities heretofore entered into relating to financing or aiding in the development, construction, maintenance or operation of any housing project or projects or to obtaining aid therefor from the United States Housing Authority, including (without limiting the generality of the foregoing) loan and annual contributions contracts and leases with the United States Housing Authority, agreements with municipalities or other public bodies (including those which are pledged or authorized to be pledged for the protection of the holders of any notes or bonds issued by such housing authorities or which are otherwise made a part of the contract with such holders of notes or bonds) relating to cooperation and contributions in aid of housing projects, payments (if any) in lieu of taxes, furnishing of municipal services and facilities, and the elimination of unsafe and insanitary dwellings, and contracts for the construction of housing projects, together with all proceedings, acts and things heretofore undertaken, performed or done with reference thereto, are hereby validated, ratified, confirmed, approved and declared legal in all respects, notwithstanding any want of statutory authority or any defect or irregularity therein. (1939, c. 118, s. 2; 1941, c. 62, s. 2.)

Cross References. — For additional validation provision relating to contracts, agreements, etc., see § 157-32.2.

§ 157-32. Proceedings for issuance, etc., of bonds and notes validated.

All proceedings, acts and things heretofore undertaken, performed or done in or for the authorization, issuance, execution and delivery of notes and bonds by housing authorities for the purpose of financing or aiding in the development or construction of a housing project or projects, and all notes and bonds heretofore issued by housing authorities are hereby validated, ratified, confirmed, approved and declared legal in all respects, notwithstanding any want of statutory authority or any defect or irregularity therein. (1939, c. 118, s. 3; 1941, c. 62, s. 3.)

Cross References. — For additional validation provision relating to bonds and notes, see § 157-32.3.

§ 157-32.1. Other validation of creation, etc.

The creation, establishment and organization of housing authorities under the provisions of the Housing Authorities Law (Chapter 456, Public Laws of 1935, as amended, codified as G.S. 157-1 et seq.), together with all proceedings, acts and things heretofore undertaken or done with reference thereto, are hereby validated and declared legal in all respects. (1943, c. 89, s. 1.)

Editor's Note. — This section and §§ 157-32.2 and 157-32.3, validating housing authorities created under § 157-1 et seq., together with certain acts done in connection therewith, are similar to §§ 157-30 through 157-32. The words “notwithstanding any want of statutory authority or any defect or irregularity therein,” appearing at the end of §§ 157-30 through 157-32, do not appear in the other sections and they differ slightly in other particulars.

§ 157-32.2. Other validation of contracts, agreements, etc.

All contracts, agreements and undertakings of such housing authorities heretofore entered into relating to financing, or aiding in the development or operation of any housing projects, including (without limiting the generality of the foregoing) loan and annual contributions contracts, agency contracts and leases, agreements with municipalities or other public bodies (including those which are pledged or authorized to be pledged for the protection of the holders of any notes or bonds issued by such housing authorities or which are otherwise made a part of the contract with such holders of notes or bonds) relating to cooperation in aid of housing projects, payments to public bodies in the State, furnishing of municipal services and facilities and the elimination of unsafe and insanitary dwellings, and contracts for the construction of housing projects, together with all proceedings, acts and things heretofore undertaken or done with reference thereto, are hereby validated and declared legal in all respects. (1943, c. 89, s. 2.)

Editor's Note. — This section and §§ 157-32.1 and 157-32.3, validating housing authorities created under § 157-1 et seq., together with certain acts done in connection therewith, are similar to §§ 157-30 through 157-32. The words “notwithstanding any want of statutory authority or any defect or irregularity therein,” appearing at the end of §§ 157-30 through 157-32, do not appear in the other sections and they differ slightly in other particulars.

§ 157-32.3. Other validation of bonds and notes.

All proceedings, acts and things heretofore undertaken or done in or for the authorization, issuance, execution and delivery of notes and bonds by housing authorities for the purpose of financing or aiding in the development or construction of a housing project or projects, and all notes and bonds heretofore issued by housing authorities are hereby validated and declared legal in all respects. (1943, c. 89, s. 3.)

Editor's Note. — This section and §§ 157-32.1 and 157-32.2, validating housing authorities created under § 157-1 et seq., together with certain acts done in connection therewith, are similar to §§ 157-30 through 157-32. The words “notwithstanding any want of statutory authority or any defect or irregularity therein,” appearing at the end of §§ 157-30 through 157-32, do not appear in the other sections and they differ slightly in other particulars.

§ 157-32.4. Further validation of contracts, agreements, etc.

All contracts or agreements of housing authorities heretofore entered into with the federal government or its agencies, and with municipalities or others relating to financial assistance for housing projects in which it was required that loans or advances shall bear an interest rate in excess of six per centum (6%) per annum, or in which a municipality or others had agreed to pay funds equal to the interest in excess of six per centum (6%) per annum are hereby validated, ratified, confirmed, approved and declared legal with respect to the payment of interest in excess of six per centum (6%), and all things done or performed in reference thereto. The housing authorities are hereby authorized to assume the full obligation of the municipalities under the contracts or agreements with reference to interest in excess of six per centum (6%), and to reimburse any municipality which has made any interest payment under such contracts or agreements. (1971, c. 87, s. 2.)

§ 157-33. Notice, hearing and creation of authority for a county.

Any 25 residents of a county may file a petition with the clerk of the board of county commissioners setting forth that there is a need for an authority to function in the county. Upon the filing of such a petition such clerk shall give notice of the time, place and purposes of a public hearing at which the board of county commissioners will determine the need for an authority in the county. Such notice shall be given at the county's expense by publishing a notice, at least 10 days preceding the day on which the hearing is to be held, in a newspaper having a general circulation in the county or, if there be no such newspaper, by posting such a notice in at least three public places within the county, at least 10 days preceding the day on which the hearing is to be held.

Upon the date fixed for said hearing to be held upon notice as provided herein, an opportunity to be heard shall be granted to all residents and taxpayers of the county and to all other interested persons. After such a hearing, the board of county commissioners shall determine (i) whether insanitary or unsafe inhabited dwelling accommodations exist in the county and/or (ii) whether there is a lack of safe or sanitary dwelling accommodations in the county available for all the inhabitants thereof. In determining whether dwelling accommodations are unsafe or insanitary, the board of county commissioners shall take into consideration the following: the physical condition and age of the buildings; the degree of overcrowding; the percentage of the land coverage; the light and air available to the inhabitants of such dwelling accommodations; the size and arrangement of the rooms; the sanitary facilities; and the extent to which conditions exist in such buildings which endanger life or property by fire or other causes.

If it shall determine that either or both of the above enumerated conditions exist, the board of county commissioners shall adopt a resolution so finding (which need not go into any detail other than the mere finding) and shall thereupon either (i) determine that the board of county commissioners shall itself constitute and act ex officio as an authority or (ii) appoint, as hereinafter provided, not less than five nor more than nine commissioners to act as an authority. Said authority shall be a public body and a body corporate and politic upon the completion of the taking of the following proceedings:

The commissioners shall present to the Secretary of State an application signed by them, which shall set forth (without any detail other than the mere recital)

- (1) That a notice has been given and public hearing has been held as aforesaid, that the board of county commissioners made the aforesaid determination after such hearing and appointed them as commissioners;

- (2) The name, and official residence of each of the commissioners, together with a certified copy of the appointment evidencing their right to office, the date and place of induction into and taking oath of office, and that they desire the housing authority to become a public body and a body corporate and politic under this Article;
- (3) The term of office of each of the commissioners, except where the authority consists of the board of county commissioners ex officio;
- (4) The name which is proposed for the corporation; and
- (5) The location of the principal office of the proposed corporation.

The application shall be subscribed and sworn to by each of said commissioners before an officer authorized by the laws of the State to take and certify oaths, who shall certify upon the application that he personally knows the commissioners and knows them to be the officers as asserted in the application, and that each subscribed and swore thereto in the officer's presence. The Secretary of State shall examine the application and if he finds that the name proposed for the corporation is not identical with that of a person or of any other corporation of this State or so nearly similar as to lead to confusion and uncertainty he shall receive and file it and shall record it in an appropriate book of record in his office.

When the application has been made, filed and recorded, as herein provided, the authority shall constitute a public body and a body corporate and politic under the name proposed in the application; the Secretary of State shall make and issue to the said commissioners, a certificate of incorporation pursuant to this Article, under the seal of the State, and shall record the same with the application.

If the board of county commissioners, after a hearing as aforesaid, shall determine that neither of the above enumerated conditions exist, it shall adopt a resolution denying the petition. After three months shall have expired from the date of the denial of any such petitions, subsequent petitions may be filed as aforesaid and new hearings and determinations made thereon.

In any suit, action or proceeding involving the validity or enforcement of, or relating to any contract of the authority, the authority shall be conclusively deemed to have been established in accordance with the provisions of this Article upon proof of the issuance of the aforesaid certificate by the Secretary of State. A copy of such certificate, duly certified by the Secretary of State, shall be admissible in evidence in any such suit, action or proceeding, and shall be conclusive proof of the filing and contents thereof. (1941, c. 78, s. 4; 1943, c. 636, s. 7; 1969, c. 785, s. 1; 1981, c. 21, s. 1.)

§ 157-34. Commissioners and powers of authority for a county.

The commissioners of a housing authority created for a county may be appointed and removed by the board of county commissioners of the county in the same manner as the commissioners of a housing authority created for a city may be appointed and removed by the mayor; provided, that the board of county commissioners may determine in the case of any authority for its county that the board of county commissioners itself shall constitute and act ex officio as the authority. The board of county commissioners may at any time by resolution or ordinance increase or decrease the membership of an authority, within the limitations prescribed in G.S. 157-33. Except as otherwise provided herein, each housing authority created for a county and the commissioners thereof shall have the same functions, rights, powers, duties and limitations provided for housing authorities created for cities and the commissioners of such housing authorities: Provided, that for such purposes the term "mayor" or "council" as used in the housing authorities law and any amendments thereto shall be construed as meaning "board of county commissioners," the term "city clerk" as used therein shall be construed as meaning "clerk of the board of county commissioners" and the term "city" as used therein shall be construed as meaning "county" unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context: Provided, further, that a housing authority created for a county shall not be subject to the limitations provided in subdivision (4) of G.S. 157-29 of the housing authorities law with respect to housing projects for farmers of low income. (1941, c. 78, s. 4; 1969, c. 785, s. 2; 1981, c. 21, s. 2.)

Editor's Note. — Subdivision (4) of § 157-29, referred to in the last sentence, which formerly specified a maximum income test for tenants in housing projects, no longer exists.

§ 157-35. Creation of regional housing authority.

If the board of county commissioners of each of two or more contiguous counties having an aggregate population of more than 60,000 by resolution declares that there is a need for one housing authority to be created for all of such counties to exercise powers and other functions herein prescribed for a housing authority in such counties, a public body corporate and politic to be known as a regional housing authority for all of such counties shall (after the commissioners thereof file an application with the Secretary of State as hereinafter provided) thereupon exist for and exercise its powers and other functions in such counties; and thereupon any housing authority created for any of such counties shall cease to exist except for the purpose of winding up its affairs and executing a deed to the regional housing authority as hereinafter provided: Provided, that the board of county commissioners shall not adopt a resolution as aforesaid if there is a county housing authority created for such county which has any bonds or notes outstanding unless first, all holders of such bonds and notes consent in writing to the substitution of such regional housing authority in lieu of such county housing authority on all such bonds and notes; and second, the commissioners of such county housing authority adopt a resolution consenting to the transfer of all the rights, contracts, obligations, and property, real and personal, of such county housing authority to such regional housing authority as hereinafter provided: Provided, further, that when the above conditions are complied with and such regional housing authority is created and authorized to exercise its powers and other functions, all rights, contracts, agreements, obligations, and property, real and personal, of such county housing authority shall be in the name of and vest in such regional housing authority, and all obligations of such county housing authority shall be the obligations of such regional housing authority and all rights and remedies of any person against such county housing authority may be asserted, enforced, and prosecuted against such regional housing authority to the same extent as they might have been asserted, enforced, and prosecuted against such county housing authority. When any real property of a county housing authority vests in a regional housing authority as provided above, the county housing authority shall execute a deed of such property to the regional housing authority which thereupon shall file such deed in the office provided for the filing of deeds: Provided, that nothing contained in this sentence shall affect the vesting of property in the regional housing authority as provided above.

The board of county commissioners of each of two or more said contiguous counties shall by resolution declare that there is a need for one regional housing authority to be created for all of such counties to exercise powers and other functions herein prescribed in such counties, if such board of county commissioners finds (and only if it finds)

- (1) Insanitary or unsafe dwelling accommodations exist in the area of its respective county and/or there is a lack of safe or sanitary dwelling accommodations in the county available for all the inhabitants thereof and
- (2) That a regional housing authority for the proposed region would be a more efficient or economical administrative unit than a housing authority for an area having a smaller population to carry out the purposes of the housing authorities law and any amendments thereto, in such county.

In determining whether dwelling accommodations are unsafe or insanitary, the board of county commissioners shall take into consideration the following: the physical condition and age of the buildings; the degree of overcrowding; the percentage of land coverage; the light and air available to the inhabitants of such dwelling accommodations; the size and arrangement of the rooms; the sanitary facilities; and the extent to which conditions exist in such buildings which endanger life or property by fire or other causes.

If it shall determine that both (1) and (2) of the above enumerated conditions exist, the board of county commissioners shall adopt a resolution so finding (which need not go into any detail other than the mere finding). After the appointment, as hereinafter provided, of the commissioners to act as the regional housing authority, said authority shall be a public body and a body corporate and politic upon the completion of the taking of the following proceedings:

The commissioners shall present to the Secretary of State an application signed by them, which shall set forth (without any detail other than the mere recital)

- (1) That the boards of county commissioners made the aforesaid determination and that they have been appointed as commissioners;
- (2) The name, and official residence of each of the commissioners, together with a certified copy of the appointment evidencing their right to office, the date and place of induction into and taking oath of office, and that they desire the housing authority to become a public body and a body corporate and politic under this Article;
- (3) The term of office of each of the commissioners;
- (4) The name which is proposed for the corporation; and
- (5) The location of the principal office of the proposed corporation.

The application shall be subscribed and sworn to by each of said commissioners before an officer authorized by the laws of the State to take and certify oaths, who shall certify upon the application that he personally knows the commissioners and knows them to be the officers as asserted in the application, and that each subscribed and swore thereto in the officer's presence. The Secretary of State shall examine the application and if he finds that the name proposed for the corporation is not identical with that of a person or of any other corporation of this State or so nearly similar as to lead to confusion and uncertainty he shall receive and file it and shall record it in an appropriate book of record in his office.

When the application has been made, filed and recorded, as herein provided, the authority shall constitute a public body and a body corporate and politic under the name proposed in the application; the Secretary of State shall make and issue to the said commissioners, a certificate of incorporation pursuant to this Article, under the seal of the State, and shall record the same with the application.

In any suit, action or proceeding involving the validity or enforcement of, or relating to any contract of the regional housing authority, the regional housing authority shall be conclusively deemed to have been established in accordance with the provisions of this Article upon proof of the issuance of the aforesaid certificate by the Secretary of State. A copy of such certificate, duly certified by the Secretary of State, shall be admissible in evidence in any such suit, action or proceeding, and shall be conclusive proof of the filing and contents thereof. (1941, c. 78, s. 4; 1943, c. 636, ss. 3, 7; 1998-217, s. 20.)

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1943, c. 636, which amended this section as well as §§ 157-3, 157-4, 157-10, 157-33, 157-36 and 157-37, and added §§ 157-39.1 through 157-39.8, provided in s. 9: "The powers conferred by this act shall be in addition and supplemental to the powers conferred by any other law. Nothing contained in this act shall affect the term of

§ 157-36. Commissioners of regional housing authority.

(a) The board of county commissioners of each county included in a regional housing authority shall appoint one person as a commissioner of such authority, and each such commissioner to be first appointed by the board of county commissioners of a county may be appointed at or after the time of the adoption of the resolution declaring the need for such regional housing authority or declaring the need for the inclusion of such county in the area of operation of such regional housing authority. When the area of operation of a regional housing authority is increased to include an additional county or counties as provided in this Article, the board of county commissioners of each such county shall thereupon appoint one additional person as a commissioner of the regional housing authority. The board of county commissioners of each county shall appoint the successor of the commissioner appointed by it.

(b) The commissioners of the regional housing authority shall appoint as a commissioner at least one person who is directly assisted by the authority unless the authority's rules require that the person be elected by other persons who are assisted by the authority. However, there shall be no requirement to appoint such a person if the authority: (i) operates less than 300 public housing units, (ii) provides reasonable notice to all resident advisory boards within the authority's area of operation of the opportunity for at least one person who is directly assisted by the authority to serve as a commissioner, and (iii) within a reasonable time after receipt of the notice by the resident advisory boards, has not been notified of the intention of any such person to serve. The commissioners of the regional housing authority shall appoint successors of the commissioner appointed by them and shall fill any vacancies. A certificate of the appointment signed by the chair of the commissioners of the regional housing authority shall be conclusive evidence of the due and proper selection of the commissioner. If the commissioner directly assisted by the regional housing authority ceases to receive such assistance, the commissioner's office shall be abolished and another person who is directly assisted by the regional housing authority shall be appointed by the commissioners of the regional housing authority.

(c) No commissioner who is also a person directly assisted by the regional housing authority shall be qualified to vote on matters affecting his or her official conduct or matters affecting his or her own individual tenancy, as distinguished from matters affecting tenants in general.

(d) If any county is excluded from the area of operation of a regional housing authority, the office of the commissioner of such regional housing authority appointed by the board of county commissioners of such county shall be thereupon abolished. If the person appointed as a commissioner under subsection (b) of this section resides in a county that is excluded from the authority's area of operation, the office of that commissioner shall be abolished and another person residing within the authority's area of operation shall be appointed.

(e) A certificate of the appointment of any commissioner signed by the chair of the board of county commissioners (or the appointing officer) shall be conclusive evidence of the due and proper appointment of such commissioner.

(f) If the area of operation of a regional housing authority consists at any time of an even number of counties, except as provided in subsection (g) of this section, the Governor shall appoint one additional commissioner to such regional housing authority whose term of office shall be as herein provided for a commissioner of a regional housing authority, except that such term shall end at any earlier time that the area of operation of the regional housing authority shall be changed to consist of an odd number of counties. The Governor shall likewise appoint each person to succeed such additional commissioner. A certificate of the appointment of any such additional commissioner shall be signed by the Governor and filed with the Secretary of State. A copy of such certificate, duly certified by the Secretary of State, shall be conclusive evidence of the due and proper appointment of such additional commissioner.

(g) If the membership of the board of commissioners consists of an even number as a result of the appointment of a person who is directly assisted by the regional housing authority, the Governor shall appoint one additional commissioner to the authority whose term of office shall be as herein provided for a commissioner of an authority, except that such term shall end at any earlier time that the area of operation of the authority shall be changed to consist of an even number of counties. A certificate of the appointment shall be signed and filed as provided in subsection (f) of this section. The Governor shall appoint successors to the additional commissioner and shall fill any vacancies.

(h) The commissioners of a regional housing authority shall be appointed for terms of five years except that all vacancies shall be filled for the unexpired terms. Each commissioner shall hold office until his or her successor has been appointed and has qualified.

(i) For inefficiency or neglect of duty or misconduct in office, a commissioner of a regional housing authority may be removed by the appointing authority. The commissioner shall have been given a copy of the charges against him or her at least 10 days prior to the hearing thereon and shall have had an opportunity to be heard in person or by counsel.

(j) The commissioners appointed as aforesaid shall constitute the regional housing authority, and the powers of such authority shall be vested in such commissioners in office from time to time.

(k) The commissioners of a regional housing authority shall elect a chair from among the commissioners and shall have power to select or employ such other officers and employees as the regional housing authority may require. A majority of the commissioners of a regional housing authority shall constitute a quorum of such authority for the purpose of conducting its business and exercising its powers and for all other purposes. (1941, c. 78, s. 4; 1943, c. 636, s. 4; 1999-146, s. 2.)

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1943, c. 636, which amended this section as well as §§ 157-3, 157-4, 157-10, 157-33, 157-35, and 157-37, and added §§ 157-39.1 through 157-39.8, provided in s. 9: "The powers conferred by this act shall be in addition and supplemental to the powers conferred by any other law. Nothing contained in this act shall affect the term of

§ 157-37. Powers of regional housing authority.

Except as otherwise provided herein, a regional housing authority and the commissioners thereof shall, within the area of operation of such regional housing authority, have the same functions, rights, powers, duties and limitations provided for housing authorities created for cities or counties and the commissioners of such housing authorities: Provided, that for such purposes the term "mayor" or "council" as used in the Housing Authorities Law and any amendments thereto shall be construed as meaning "board of county commissioners," the term "city clerk" as used therein shall be construed as meaning "clerk of the board of county commissioners" and the term "city" as used therein shall be construed as meaning "county" unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context: Provided, further, that a regional housing authority shall not be subject to the limitations provided in subdivision (4) of G.S. 157-29 of the Housing Authorities Law with respect to housing projects for farmers of low income. Except as otherwise provided in this Article, all the provisions of law applicable to housing authorities created for counties and the commissioners of such authorities shall be applicable to regional housing authorities and the commissioners thereof. (1941, c. 78, s. 4; 1943, c. 636, s. 6.)

authorities law. The enactment of this act shall not be construed to render invalid any action or proceeding had or taken for the creation or establishment of a housing authority pursuant to laws in existence prior to the enactment of this act."

Subdivision (4) of § 157-29, referred to in the first sentence, which formerly specified a maximum income test for tenants in housing projects, no longer exists.

§ 157-38. Rural housing projects.

Housing authorities created for counties and regional housing authorities are specifically empowered and authorized to borrow money, accept grants and exercise their other powers to provide housing for farmers of low income. In connection with such projects, such housing authorities may enter into such lease or purchase agreements, accept such conveyances and rent or sell dwellings forming part of such projects to or for farmers of low income, as such housing authority deems necessary in order to assure the achievement of the objectives of this Article. Such leases, agreements or conveyances may include such covenants as the housing authority deems appropriate regarding such dwellings and the tracts of land described in any such instrument, which covenants shall be deemed to run with the land where the housing authority deems it necessary and the parties to such instrument so stipulate. Nothing contained in this section shall be construed as limiting any other powers of any housing authority. (1941, c. 78, s. 4.)

§ 157-39. Housing applications by farmers.

The owner of any farm operated, or worked upon, by farmers of low income in need of safe and sanitary housing may file an application with a housing authority of a county or a regional housing authority requesting that it provide for a safe and sanitary dwelling or dwellings for occupancy by such farmers of low income. Such applications shall be received and examined by housing authorities in connection with the formulation of projects or programs to provide housing for farmers of low income. (1941, c. 78, s. 4.)

(a) The boundaries or area of operation of a housing authority created for a city shall include said city and the area within 10 miles from the territorial boundaries of said city, but in no event shall it include the whole or a part of any other city, except as otherwise provided herein. Notwithstanding the previous sentence, a housing authority created for a city may operate and perform any of its lawful functions within any other city that has a common boundary with a city creating an authority when requested to do so by resolution of the governing body of such other city. The area of operation or boundaries of a housing authority created for a county shall include all of the county for which it is created and the area of operation or boundaries of a regional housing authority shall include (except as otherwise provided elsewhere in this Article) all of the counties for which such regional housing authority is created and established: Provided, that a county or regional housing authority shall not undertake any housing project or projects within the boundaries of any city unless a resolution shall have been adopted by the governing body of such city (and also by any housing authority which shall have been theretofore established and authorized to exercise its powers in such city) declaring that there is a need for the county or regional housing authority to exercise its power within such city: Provided, that the jurisdiction of any rural housing authority to which the Secretary of State has heretofore issued a certificate of incorporation shall extend to within a distance of one mile of the town or city limits of any town or city having a population in excess of 500, located in any county now or hereafter constituting a part of the territory of such rural housing authority: Provided, further, that this provision shall not affect the jurisdiction of any city housing authority to which the Secretary of State has heretofore issued a certificate of incorporation. A housing authority created for a county may operate and perform any of its lawful functions anywhere within the municipal boundaries of any city located in whole or in part within the county for which it is created, when requested to do so by resolution of the governing body of such city.

(b) In any county in which a city housing authority has been established, but where there are portions of the county in which the city is located which are more than 10 miles from the territorial boundaries of the city, the city housing authority is authorized to operate in areas of the county beyond such limit, which are not within another city, upon the adoption of a joint resolution by the city council and the board of county commissioners. Such joint resolution must find that in such additional area, that insanitary or unsafe inhabited dwelling accommodations exist in such area or there is a shortage of safe or sanitary dwelling accommodations in such county available to persons of low income at rentals they can afford. A public hearing on such resolution need be held only by the board of county commissioners.

(c) A joint resolution adopted under subsection (b) of this section may, in lieu of the appointment provisions of G.S. 157-5, provide that the board of commissioners of the housing authority shall be composed of nine members, with a number (not less than five) to be appointed by the mayor, and the remainder to be appointed by the board of county commissioners. Such housing authority commissioners shall be subject to removal by the appointing person or board under the procedural requirements of G.S. 157-8. (1943, c. 636, s. 5; 1961, c. 200, s. 2; 1979, 2nd Sess., c. 1108, ss. 1, 2; 1993, c. 458, s. 1.)

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1943, c. 636, which added §§ 157-39.1 through 157-39.8, inclusive, and amended §§ 157-3, 157-4, 157-10, 157-33, 157-35, 157-36 and 157-37, provided in s. 9: "The powers conferred by this act shall be in addition and supplemental to the powers conferred by any other law. Nothing contained in this act shall affect the term of office of any

commissioner of a housing authority heretofore appointed under the housing authorities law. The enactment of this act shall not be construed to render invalid any action or proceeding had or taken for the creation or establishment of a housing authority pursuant to laws in existence prior to the enactment of this act."

§ 157-39.2. Increasing area of operation of regional housing authority.

The area of operation or boundaries of a regional housing authority shall be increased from time to time to include one or more additional contiguous counties not already within a regional housing authority if the board of county commissioners of each of the counties then included in the area of operation of such regional housing authority, the commissioners of the regional housing authority and the board of county commissioners of each such additional county or counties each adopts a resolution declaring that there is a need for the inclusion of such additional county or counties in the area of operation of such regional housing authority. Upon the adoption of such resolutions, any county housing authority created for any such additional county shall cease to exist except for the purpose of winding up its affairs and executing a deed to the regional housing authority as hereinafter provided. Provided, however, that such resolutions shall not be adopted unless the commissioners of such county housing authority adopt a resolution consenting to the transfer of all the rights, contracts, bonds, and property, real and personal, of such county housing authority to such regional housing authority as hereinafter provided: Provided, further, that when the above condition is complied with and the area of operation of such regional housing authority is increased to include such additional county, as hereinabove provided, all rights, contracts, bonds, and property, real and personal, of such county housing authority shall be in the name of and vested in such regional housing authority, all contracts and bonds of such county housing authority shall be the contracts and bonds of such regional housing authority and all rights and remedies of any person against such county housing authority may be asserted, enforced, and prosecuted against such regional housing authority to the same extent as they might have been asserted, enforced, and prosecuted against such county housing authority.

When any real property of a county housing authority vests in a regional housing authority as provided above, the county housing authority shall execute a deed of such property to the regional housing authority which thereupon shall file such deed in the office provided for the filing of deeds: Provided, that nothing contained in this sentence shall affect the vesting of property in the regional housing authority as provided above.

The board of county commissioners of each of the counties in the regional housing authority, the commissioners of the regional housing authority and the board of county commissioners of each such additional county or counties shall by resolution declare that there is a need for the inclusion of such county or counties in the area of operation of the regional housing authority, only if:

- (1) The board of county commissioners of each such additional county or counties find that insanitary or unsafe inhabited dwelling accommodations exist in such county or there is a shortage of safe or sanitary dwelling accommodations in such county available to persons of low income at rentals they can afford, and
- (2) The board of county commissioners of each of the counties then included in the area of operation of the regional housing authority, the commissioners of the regional housing authority and the board of county commissioners of each such additional county or counties find that the regional housing authority would be a more efficient or economical administrative unit if the area of operation of the regional housing authority is increased to include such additional county or counties. (1943, c. 636, s. 5; 1971, c. 431, s. 1.)

commissioner of a housing authority heretofore appointed under the housing authorities law. The enactment of this act shall not be construed to render invalid any action or proceeding had or taken for the creation or establishment of a housing authority pursuant to laws in existence prior to the enactment of this act."

§ 157-39.3. Decreasing area of operation of regional housing authority.

The area of operation or boundaries of a regional housing authority shall be decreased from time to time to exclude one or more counties from such area if the board of county commissioners of each of the counties in such area and the commissioners of the regional housing authority each adopt a resolution declaring that there is a need for excluding such county or counties from such area: Provided, that if such action decreases the area of operation of the regional housing authority to only one county, such authority shall thereupon constitute and become a housing authority for such county, in the same manner as though such authority were created, and constituted a public and corporate body for such county pursuant to other provisions of this housing authority law, and the commissioners of such authority shall be thereupon appointed as provided for the appointment of commissioners of a housing authority created for a county.

The board of county commissioners of each of the counties in the area of operation of the regional housing authority and the commissioners of the regional housing authority shall adopt a resolution declaring that there is a need for excluding a county or counties from such area only if:

- (1) Each such board of county commissioners of the counties to remain in the area of operation of the regional housing authority and the commissioners of the regional housing authority find that, because of facts arising or determined subsequent to the time when such area first included the county or counties to be excluded, the regional housing authority would be a more efficient or economical administrative unit if such county or counties were excluded from such area, and
- (2) The board of county commissioners of each county or counties to be excluded and the commissioners of the regional housing authority each also find that another housing authority for such county or counties would be a more efficient or economical administrative unit to function in such county or counties.

Nothing contained herein shall be construed as preventing a county or counties excluded from the area of operation of a regional housing authority, as provided above, from thereafter being included within the area of operation of any housing authority in accordance with this Article.

Any property held by a regional housing authority within a county or counties excluded from the area of operation of such authority as herein provided, shall, as soon as practicable after the exclusion of said county or counties, respectively, be disposed of by such authority in the public interest. (1943, c. 636, s. 5; 1971, c. 431, s. 2.)

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1943, c. 636, which added §§ 157-39.1 through 157-39.8, inclusive, and amended §§ 157-3, 157-4, 157-10, 157-33, 157-35, 157-36 and 157-37, provided in s. 9: "The powers conferred by this act shall be in addition and supplemental to the powers conferred by any other law. Nothing contained in this act shall affect the term of office of any

§ 157-39.4. Requirements of public hearings.

The board of county commissioners of a county shall not adopt any resolution authorized by G.S. 157-35, 157-39.1, 157-39.2 or 157-39.3 unless a public hearing has first been held which shall conform (except as otherwise provided herein) to the requirements of this Housing Authorities Law for hearings to determine the need for a housing authority of a county: Provided, that such hearings may be held by the board of county commissioners without a petition therefor.

In connection with the issuance of bonds, a regional housing authority may covenant as to limitations on its right to adopt resolutions relating to the increase or decrease of its area of operation. (1943, c. 636, s. 5; 1979, 2nd Sess., c. 1108, s. 3.)

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1943, c. 636, which added §§ 157-39.1 through 157-39.8, inclusive, and amended §§ 157-3, 157-4, 157-10, 157-33, 157-35, 157-36 and 157-37, provided in s. 9: "The powers conferred by this act shall be in addition and supplemental to the powers conferred by any other law. Nothing contained in this act shall affect the term of office of any

commissioner of a housing authority heretofore appointed under the housing authorities law. The enactment of this act shall not be construed to render invalid any action or proceeding had or taken for the creation or establishment of a housing authority pursuant to laws in existence prior to the enactment of this act."

§ 157-39.5. Consolidated housing authority.

If the governing body of each of two or more municipalities (with a population of less than 500, but having an aggregate population of more than 500) by resolution declares that there is a need for one housing authority for all of such municipalities to exercise in such municipalities the powers and other functions prescribed for a housing authority, a public body corporate and politic to be known as a consolidated housing authority (with such corporate name as it selects) shall thereupon exist for all of such municipalities and exercise its powers and other functions within its area of operation (as herein defined), including the power to undertake projects therein; and thereupon any housing authority created for any of such municipalities shall cease to exist except for the purpose of winding up its affairs and executing a deed of its real property to the consolidated housing authority: Provided, that the creation of a consolidated housing authority and the finding of need therefor shall be subject to the same provisions and limitations of this Housing Authorities Law as are applicable to the creation of a regional housing authority and that all of the provisions of this Housing Authorities Law applicable to regional housing authorities and the commissioners thereof shall be applicable to consolidated housing authorities and the commissioners thereof: Provided, further that the area of operation or boundaries of a consolidated housing authority shall include all of the territory within the boundaries of each municipality joining in the creation of such authority together with the territory within 10 miles of the boundaries of each such municipality, except that such area of operation may be changed to include or exclude any municipality or municipalities (with its aforesaid surrounding territory) in the same manner and under the same provisions as provided in this Article for changing the area of operation of a regional housing authority by including or excluding a contiguous county or counties: Provided, further, that for all such purposes the term "board of county commissioners" shall be construed as meaning "governing body" except in G.S. 157-36, where it shall be construed as meaning "mayor" or other executive head of the municipality, the term "county" shall be construed as meaning "municipality," the term "clerk" shall be construed as meaning "clerk of the municipality or officer with similar duties," the term "region" shall be construed as meaning "area of operation of the consolidated housing authority" and the terms "county housing authority" and "regional housing authority" shall be construed as meaning "housing authority of the city" and "consolidated housing authority," respectively, unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context.

The governing body of any such municipality for which a housing authority has not been created may adopt the above resolution if it first determines that there is a need for a housing authority to function in said municipality, which determination shall be made in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as the determination required by G.S. 157-4 for the creation of a housing authority for a city: Provided, that after notice given by the clerk (or officer with similar duties) of the municipality, the governing body of the municipality may, without a petition therefor, hold a hearing to determine the need for a housing authority to function therein.

Except as otherwise provided herein, a consolidated housing authority and the commissioners thereof shall, within the area of operation of such consolidated housing authority have the same functions, rights, powers, duties, privileges, immunities and limitations as those provided for housing authorities created for cities, counties, or groups of counties and the commissioners of such housing authorities, in the same manner as though all the provisions of law applicable to housing authorities created for cities, counties, or groups of counties were applicable to consolidated housing authorities. (1943, c. 636, s. 5; 1961, c. 200, s. 3; 1965, c. 431, s. 3.)

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1943, c. 636, which added §§ 157-39.1 through 157-39.8, inclusive, and amended §§ 157-3, 157-4, 157-10, 157-33, 157-35, 157-36 and 157-37, provided in s. 9: "The powers conferred by this act shall be in addition and supplemental to the powers conferred by any other law. Nothing contained in this act shall affect the term of office of any

commissioner of a housing authority heretofore appointed under the housing authorities law. The enactment of this act shall not be construed to render invalid any action or proceeding had or taken for the creation or establishment of a housing authority pursuant to laws in existence prior to the enactment of this act."

§ 157-39.6. Findings required for authority to operate in municipality.

No governing body of a city or other municipality shall adopt a resolution as provided in G.S. 157-39.1 declaring that there is a need for a housing authority (other than a housing authority established by such municipality) to exercise its powers within such municipality, unless a public hearing has first been held by such governing body and unless such governing body shall have found in substantially the following terms: (i) that insanitary or unsafe inhabited dwelling accommodations exist in such municipality or that there is a shortage of safe or sanitary dwelling accommodations in such municipality available to persons of low income at rentals they can afford; and (ii) that these conditions can be best remedied through the exercise of the aforesaid housing authority's powers within the territorial boundaries of such municipality: Provided, that such findings shall not have the effect of thereafter preventing such municipality from establishing a housing authority or joining in the creation of a consolidated housing authority or the increase of the area of operation of a consolidated housing authority. The clerk (or the officer with similar duties) of the city or other municipality shall give notice of the public hearing and such hearing shall be held in the manner provided in G.S. 157-4 for a public hearing by a council to determine the need for a housing authority in the city.

During the time that, pursuant to these findings, a housing authority has outstanding (or is under contract to issue) any evidences of indebtedness for a project within the city or other municipality, no other housing authority may undertake a project within such municipality without the consent of said housing authority which has such outstanding indebtedness or obligation. (1943, c. 636, s. 5.)

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1943, c. 636, which added §§ 157-39.1 through 157-39.8, inclusive, and amended §§ 157-3, 157-4, 157-10, 157-33, 157-35, 157-36 and 157-37, provided in s. 9: "The powers conferred by this act shall be in addition and supplemental to the powers conferred by any other law. Nothing contained in this act shall affect the term of office of any

commissioner of a housing authority heretofore appointed under the housing authorities law. The enactment of this act shall not be construed to render invalid any action or proceeding had or taken for the creation or establishment of a housing authority pursuant to laws in existence prior to the enactment of this act."

§ 157-39.7. Meetings and residence of commissioners.

Nothing contained in this Housing Authorities Law shall be construed to prevent meetings of the commissioners of a housing authority anywhere within the perimeter boundaries of the area of operation of the authority or within any additional area where the housing authority is authorized to undertake a housing project, nor to prevent the appointment of any person as a commissioner of the authority who resides within such boundaries or such additional area, and who is otherwise eligible for such appointment under this Housing Authorities Law. (1943, c. 636, s. 5.)

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1943, c. 636, which added §§ 157-39.1 through 157-39.8, inclusive, and amended §§ 157-3, 157-4, 157-10, 157-33, 157-35, 157-36 and 157-37, provided in s. 9: "The powers conferred by this act shall be in addition and supplemental to the powers conferred by any other law. Nothing contained in this act shall affect the term of office of any

commissioner of a housing authority heretofore appointed under the housing authorities law. The enactment of this act shall not be construed to render invalid any action or proceeding had or taken for the creation or establishment of a housing authority pursuant to laws in existence prior to the enactment of this act."

§ 157-39.8. Agreement to sell as security for obligations to federal government.

In any contract or amendatory or superseding contract for a loan and annual contributions heretofore or hereafter entered into between a housing authority and the federal government with respect to any housing project undertaken by said housing authority, any such housing authority is authorized to make such covenants (including covenants with holders of bonds issued by such authority for purposes of the project involved), and to confer upon the federal government such rights and remedies, as said housing authority deems necessary to assure the fulfillment of the purposes for which the project was undertaken. In any such contract, the housing authority may, notwithstanding any other provisions of law, agree to sell and convey the project (including all lands appertaining thereto) to which such contract relates to the federal government upon the occurrence of such conditions, or upon such defaults on bonds for which any of the annual contributions provided in said contract are pledged, as may be prescribed in such contract, and at a price (which may include the assumption by the federal government of the payment, when due, of the principal of and interest on outstanding bonds of the housing authority issued for purposes of the project involved) determined as prescribed therein and upon such other terms and conditions as are therein provided. Any such housing authority is hereby authorized to enter into such supplementary contracts, and to execute such conveyances, as may be necessary to carry out the provisions hereof. Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, any contracts or supplementary contracts or conveyances made or executed pursuant to the provisions of this section shall not be or constitute a mortgage within the meaning or for the purposes of any of the laws of the State. (1943, c. 636, s. 5.)

commissioner of a housing authority heretofore appointed under the housing authorities law. The enactment of this act shall not be construed to render invalid any action or proceeding had or taken for the creation or establishment of a housing authority pursuant to laws in existence prior to the enactment of this act."

ARTICLE 2.

Municipal Cooperation and Aid.

§ 157-40. Finding and declaration of necessity.

It is hereby declared that insanitary or unsafe dwelling accommodations exist in various areas of the State, and that consequently many persons of low income are forced to reside in such dwelling accommodations; that these conditions cause an increase in and spread of disease and crime and constitute a menace to the health, safety, morals and welfare of the citizens of the State and impair economic values; that the clearance, replanning and reconstruction of the areas in which insanitary or unsafe housing conditions exist and the providing of safe and sanitary dwelling accommodations for persons of low income are public uses and purposes for which private property may be acquired; that it is in the public interest that work on such projects be instituted as soon as possible in order to relieve unemployment which now constitutes an emergency; and the necessity in the public interest for the provisions hereinafter enacted, is hereby declared as a matter of legislative determination. (1935, c. 408, s. 1.)

CASE NOTES

The housing authority of the City of Charlotte, acting in cooperation with the City of Charlotte, is subject to the provisions set forth in this section and subsequent sections in the Housing Authorities Law. In re Housing Auth., 233 N.C. 649, 65 S.E.2d 761 (1951).

§ 157-41. Definitions.

The following terms, whenever used or referred to in this Article, shall have the following respective meanings, unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context:

- (1) "City" shall mean any city or town of the State having a population of more than 500 inhabitants according to the last federal census or any revision or amendment thereto.
- (2) "Housing authority" shall mean any housing authority organized pursuant to the Housing Authorities Law of this State.
- (3) "Housing project" shall mean any undertaking (i) to demolish, clear, remove, alter or repair unsafe or insanitary housing, and/or (ii) to provide dwelling accommodations for persons of low income, and said term may also include such buildings and equipment for recreational or social assemblies for educational, health or welfare purposes, and such necessary utilities as are designed primarily for the benefit and use of the housing authority and/or the occupants of such dwelling accommodations.
- (4) "Municipality" shall mean any city, town or incorporated village of the State. (1935, c. 408, s. 2; 1961, c. 200, s. 4.)

§ 157-42. Conveyance, lease or agreement in aid of housing project.

For the purpose of aiding and cooperating in the planning, construction and operation of housing projects located within their respective territorial boundaries, the State, its subdivisions and agencies, and any county, city or municipality of the State may, upon such terms, with or without considerations as it may determine:

- (1) Dedicate, release, sell, convey, or lease any of its interest in any property, or grant easements, licenses or any other rights or privileges therein to a housing authority or the United States of America or any agency thereof;
- (2) Cause parks, playgrounds, recreational, community, educational, water, sewer or drainage facilities, or any other works, which it is otherwise empowered to undertake, to be furnished adjacent to or in connection with housing projects;
- (3) Furnish, dedicate, close, pave, install, grade, regrade, plan or replan streets, roads, roadways, alleys, sidewalks or other places, which it is otherwise empowered to undertake;
- (4) Plan or replan, zone, or rezone; make exceptions from building regulations and ordinances; any city or town also may change its map;
- (5) Cause services to be furnished to the housing authority of the character which it is otherwise empowered to furnish;

- (6) Enter into agreements with respect to the exercise by it of its powers relating to the repair, closing or demolition of unsafe, insanitary or unfit dwellings;
- (7) Enter into agreements (which may extend over any period, notwithstanding any provision or rule of law to the contrary) with a housing authority respecting action to be taken pursuant to any of the powers granted by this Article. Any law or statute to the contrary notwithstanding, any sale, conveyance, lease or agreement provided for in this section may be made by the State, a city, county, municipality, subdivision or agency of the State without appraisal, public notice, advertisement or public bidding.
- (8) With respect to any housing project which a housing authority has acquired or taken over from the United States of America or any agency thereof and which the housing authority by resolution has found and declared to have been constructed in a manner that will promote the public interest and afford necessary safety, sanitation and other protection, no city or county shall require any changes to be made in the housing project or the manner of its construction or take any other action relating to such construction. (1935, c. 408, s. 3; 1939, c. 137.)

§ 157-43. Advances and donations by the city and municipality.

The council or other governing body of the city included within the territorial boundaries of such authority is authorized to make an estimate of the amount of money necessary for the administrative expenses and overhead of the housing authority during the first year following the incorporation of such housing authority, and to appropriate such amount to the authority out of any moneys in the city treasury not appropriated to some other purposes, and to cause the moneys so appropriated to be paid the authority as a donation, and moneys so appropriated and paid to a housing authority by a city shall be deemed to be a necessary expense of such city. In addition thereto, the city and any municipality located in whole or in part within the boundaries of a housing authority shall have the power annually and from time to time to make donations or advances to the authority of such sums as the city or municipality in its discretion may determine. The authority, when it has money available therefor, shall reimburse the city or municipality for all advances by way of loan made to it. (1935, c. 408, s. 5.)

Legal Periodicals. — For comment on the public purpose doctrine, see 3 Wake Forest Intra. L. Rev. 37 (1967).

§ 157-44. Action of city or municipality by resolution.

Except as otherwise provided in this Article or by the Constitution of the State, all action authorized to be taken under this Article by the council or other governing body of any city or of any municipality may be by resolution adopted by a majority of all the members of its council or other governing body, which resolution may be adopted at the meeting of the council or other governing body at which such resolution is introduced and shall take effect immediately upon such adoption, and no such resolution need be published or posted. ### § 157-45. Restrictions on exercise of right of eminent domain; duties of Utilities Commission; investigation of projects.

Notwithstanding any finding of public convenience and necessity, either in general or specific, by the terms of this Article, the right of eminent domain shall not be exercised unless and until a certificate of public convenience and necessity for such project has been issued by the Utilities Commission of North Carolina, and the proceedings leading up to the issuing of such certificate of public convenience and necessity, and the right to appeal therefrom shall be as now provided by law and said rights are hereby expressly reserved to all interested parties in said proceedings. In addition to the powers now granted by law to the Utilities Commission of North Carolina, the said Utilities Commission is hereby vested with full power and authority to investigate and examine all projects set up or attempted to be set up under the provisions of this Article and determine the question of public convenience and necessity for said project. ### § 157-46. Purpose of Article.

It is the purpose and intent of this Article that the State, its subdivisions and agencies, and any county, city or municipality of the State shall be authorized, and are hereby authorized, to do any and all things necessary to aid and cooperate in the planning, construction and operation of housing projects by the United States of America and by housing authorities. (1935, c. 408, s. 7.)

§ 157-47. Supplemental nature of Article.

The powers conferred by this Article shall be in addition and supplemental to the powers conferred by any other law. (1935, c. 408, s. 8.)

ARTICLE 3.

*Eminent Domain.§ 157-48. Finding and declaration of necessity.

It is hereby declared that insanitary or unsafe dwelling accommodations exist in various areas of the State and that consequently many persons of low income are forced to reside in such dwelling accommodations; that these conditions cause an increase in and spread of disease and crime and constitute a menace to the health, safety, morals and welfare of the citizens of the State and impair economic values; that the clearance, replanning and reconstruction of the areas in which insanitary or unsafe housing conditions exist and the providing of safe and sanitary dwelling accommodations for persons of low income are public uses and purposes for which private property may be acquired; that it is in the public interest that work on such projects be instituted as soon as possible in order to relieve unemployment which now constitutes an emergency; and the necessity in the public interest for the provision hereinafter enacted, is hereby declared as a matter of legislative determination. § 157-49. Housing project.

The term "housing project" whenever used in this Article shall mean any undertaking (i) to demolish, clear, remove, alter or repair unsafe or insanitary housing and/or (ii) to provide dwelling accommodations for persons of low income, and said term may also include such buildings and equipment for recreational or social assemblies for educational, health or welfare purposes, and such necessary utilities as are designed primarily for the benefit and use of the occupants of such dwelling accommodations. (1935, c. 409, s. 2.)

§ 157-50. Eminent domain for housing projects.

Any corporation which is an agency of the United States of America shall have the right to acquire by eminent domain any real property, including improvements and fixtures thereon, which it may deem necessary for a housing project being constructed, operated or aided by it or the United States of America. Any corporation borrowing money or receiving other financial assistance from the United States of America or any agency thereof for the purpose of financing the construction or operation of any housing project or projects, the operation of which will be subject to public supervision or regulation, shall have the right to acquire by eminent domain any real property, including fixtures and improvements thereon, which it may deem necessary for such project. A housing project shall be deemed to be subject to public supervision or regulation within the meaning of this Article if the rents to be charged by it are in any way subject to the supervision, regulation or approval of the United States of America, the State or any of their subdivisions or agencies, or by a housing authority, city, municipality or county, whether such right to supervise, regulate or approve be by virtue of any law, statute, contract or otherwise.

Any such corporate agency of the United States of America or any such corporation, upon the adoption of a resolution declaring that the acquisition of the property described therein is in the public interest and necessary for public use, may exercise the power of eminent domain pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 40A. (1935, c. 409, s. 3; 1981, c. 919, s. 26.)

Discretion of Housing Authority in Selection of Site. — In determining what property is necessary for a public housing site, a broad discretion is vested by statute in housing authority commissioners, to whom the power of eminent domain is delegated. In re Housing Auth., 235 N.C. 463, 70 S.E.2d 500 (1952); Housing Auth. v. Wooten, 257 N.C. 358, 126 S.E.2d 101 (1962); Philbrook v. Chapel Hill Hous. Auth., 269 N.C. 598, 153 S.E.2d 153 (1967).

Selection of Slum Area Site Not Required. — In the selection of a location for a housing project as authorized under the Housing Authorities Law, the project may be built either in a slum area which has been cleared or upon other suitable site. The housing authority is given wide discretion in the selection and location of a site for such project. In re Housing Auth., 233 N.C. 649, 65 S.E.2d 761 (1951); Philbrook v. Chapel Hill Hous. Auth., 269 N.C. 598, 153 S.E.2d 153 (1967).

A housing authority has wide discretion in the selection and location of a site for a housing project. It is not required to select a site in a slum area as the site for a low-rent housing project. Martin v. North Carolina Hous. Corp., 277 N.C. 29, 175 S.E.2d 665 (1970).

Fact that a few isolated properties in an area may be taken and dismantled which are above the standard of slum properties, or that some few desirable homes will be taken, will not affect the public character of the condemnation proceeding. In re Housing Auth., 233 N.C. 649, 65 S.E.2d 761 (1951); Martin v. North Carolina Hous. Corp., 277 N.C. 29, 175 S.E.2d 665 (1970).

When Judicial Review of Authority's Site Selection Is Available. — So extensive is the discretionary power of the housing commissioners that ordinarily the selection of a project site may only become an issuable question, determinable by the court, on allegations charging arbitrary or capricious conduct amounting to an abuse of discretion. However, allegations charging malice, fraud, or bad faith in the selection of a housing project site are not essential to confer the right of judicial review. It suffices to allege and show abuse of discretion. In re Housing Auth., 235 N.C. 463, 70 S.E.2d 500 (1952); Philbrook v. Chapel Hill Hous. Auth., 269 N.C. 598, 153 S.E.2d 153 (1967).

Testimony tending to show that other sites were available and suitable for a housing project is relevant and admissible as bearing directly on the question of whether the housing commissioners acted arbitrarily or capriciously in attempting to appropriate the proposed site. In re Housing Auth., 235 N.C. 463, 70 S.E.2d 500 (1952).

As to evidence showing arbitrary and capricious actions in selecting site, see In re Housing Auth., 235 N.C. 463, 70 S.E.2d 500 (1952).

ARTICLE 4.

National Defense Housing Projects.

§ 157-52. Purpose of Article.

It is hereby found and declared that the National Defense Program involves large increases in the military forces and personnel in this State, a great increase in the number of workers in already established manufacturing centers and the bringing of a large number of workers and their families to new centers of defense industries in the State; that there is an acute shortage of safe and sanitary dwellings available to such persons and their families in this State which impedes the National Defense Program; that it is imperative that action be taken immediately to assure the availability of safe and sanitary dwellings for such persons to enable the rapid expansion of national defense activities in this State and to avoid a large labor turnover in defense industries which would seriously hamper their production; that the provisions hereinafter enacted are necessary to assure the availability of safe and sanitary dwellings for persons engaged in national defense activities which otherwise would not be provided at this time, and that such provisions are for the public use and purpose of facilitating the National Defense Program in this State. It is further declared to be the purpose of this Article to authorize housing authorities to do any and all things necessary or desirable to secure the financial aid of the federal government, or to cooperate with or act as agent of the federal government, in the expeditious development and the administration of projects to assure the availability when needed of safe and sanitary dwellings for persons engaged in national defense activities. (1941, c. 63, s. 1.)

§ 157-53. Definitions.

(a) "Administration," as used in this Article, shall mean any and all undertakings necessary for management, operation or maintenance, in connection with any project, and shall include the leasing of any project (in whole or in part) from the federal government.

(b) "Development" as used in this Article, shall mean any and all undertakings necessary for the planning, land acquisition, demolition, financing, construction or equipment in connection with a project (including the negotiation or award of contracts therefor), and shall include the acquisition of any project (in whole or in part) from the federal government.

(c) "Federal government," as used in this Article, shall mean the United States of America or any agency or instrumentality, corporate or otherwise, of the United States of America.

(d) "Housing authority," as used in this Article, shall mean any housing authority established or hereafter established pursuant to Article 1 of this Chapter.

(e) The development of a project shall be deemed to be "initiated," within the meaning of this Article, if a housing authority has issued any bonds, notes or other obligations with respect to financing the development of such project of the authority, or has contracted with the federal government with respect to the exercise of powers hereunder in the development of such project of the federal government for which an allocation of funds has been made prior to the termination of the present war.

(f) "Persons engaged in national defense activities," as used in this Article shall include: enlisted personnel in the armed services of the United States and employees of the Defense Department assigned to duty at armed forces reservations, posts or bases; and workers engaged or to be engaged in industries connected with and essential to the National Defense Program; and shall include the families of the aforesaid persons who are living with them.

(g) "Persons of low income," as used in this Article, shall mean persons or families who lack the amount of income which is necessary (as determined by the housing authority undertaking the housing project) to enable them, without financial assistance, to live in decent, safe and sanitary dwellings, without overcrowding.

(h) "State public body," as used in this Article, shall include the State, its subdivisions and agencies, and any county, city, town or incorporated village of the State. (1941, c. 63, s. 8; 1943, c. 90, s. 2; 1995, c. 379, s. 4.)

Editor's Note. — The “present war,” referred to in subsection (e) of this section, is World War II.

§ 157-54. Rights, powers, etc., of housing authorities relative to national defense projects.

Any housing authority may undertake the development and administration of projects to assure the availability of safe and sanitary dwellings for persons engaged in national defense activities whom the housing authority determines would not otherwise be able to secure safe and sanitary dwellings within the vicinity thereof, but no housing authority shall initiate the development of any such project pursuant to this Article after the termination of the present war.

In the ownership, development or administration of such projects, a housing authority shall have all the rights, powers, privileges and immunities that such authority has under any provision of law relating to the ownership, development or administration of slum clearance and housing projects for persons of low income, in the same manner as though all the provisions of law applicable to slum clearance and housing projects for persons of low income were applicable to projects developed or administered to assure the availability of safe and sanitary dwellings for persons engaged in national defense activities as provided in this Article, and housing projects developed or administered hereunder shall constitute “housing projects” under Article 1 of this Chapter, as that term is used therein: Provided, that during the period (herein called the “national defense period”) that a housing authority finds (which finding shall be conclusive in any suit, action or proceeding) that within its authorized area of operation, or any part thereof, there is an acute shortage of safe and sanitary dwellings which impedes the National Defense Program in this State and that the necessary safe and sanitary dwellings would not otherwise be provided when needed for persons engaged in national defense activities, any project developed or administered by such housing authority (or by any housing authority cooperating with it) in such area pursuant to this Article, with the financial aid of the federal government (or as agent for the federal government as hereinafter provided), shall not be subject to the limitations provided in G.S. 157-29; and provided further, that, during the national defense period, a housing authority may make payments in such amounts as it finds necessary or desirable for any services, facilities, works, privileges or improvements furnished for or in connection with any such projects. After the national defense period, any such projects owned and administered by a housing authority shall be administered for the purposes and in accordance with the provisions of Article 1 of this Chapter. (1941, c. 63, s. 2; 1943, c. 90, s. 1.)

Editor's Note. — The “present war,” referred to at the end of the first paragraph of this section, is World War II.

§ 157-55. Cooperation with federal government; sale to same.

A housing authority may exercise any or all of its powers for the purpose of cooperating with, or acting as agent for, the federal government in the development or administration of projects by the federal government to assure the availability of safe and sanitary dwellings for persons engaged in national defense activities and may undertake the development or administration of any such project for the federal government. In order to assure the availability of safe and sanitary housing for persons engaged in national defense activities, a housing authority may sell (in whole or in part) to the federal government any housing projects developed for persons of low income but not yet occupied by such persons; such sale shall be at such price and upon such terms as the housing authority shall prescribe and shall include provision for the satisfaction of all debts and liabilities of the authority relating to such project. (1941, c. 63, s. 3.)

§ 157-56. Cooperation of State public bodies in developing projects.

Any State public body shall have the same rights and powers to cooperate with housing authorities, or with the federal government, with respect to the development or administration of projects to assure the availability of safe and sanitary dwellings for persons engaged in national defense activities that such State public body has pursuant to Article 2 of this Chapter, for the purpose of assisting the development or administration of slum clearance or housing projects for persons of low income. (1941, c. 63, s. 4.)

§ 157-57. Obligations issued for projects made legal investments; security for public deposits.

Bonds or other obligations issued by a housing authority for a project developed or administered pursuant to this Article shall be security for public deposits and legal investments to the same extent and for the same persons, institutions, associations, corporations, bodies and officers as bonds or other obligations issued pursuant to Article 1 of this Chapter for the development of a slum clearance or housing project for persons of low income. (1941, c. 63, s. 5.)

§ 157-58. Bonds, notes, etc., issued heretofore, validated.

All bonds, notes, contracts, agreements and obligations of housing authorities heretofore issued or entered into relating to financing or undertaking (including cooperating with or acting as agent of the federal government in) the development or administration of any project to assure the availability of safe and sanitary dwellings for persons engaged in national defense activities, are hereby validated and declared legal in all respects, notwithstanding any defect or irregularity therein or any want of statutory authority. (1941, c. 63, s. 6.)

§ 157-59. Further declaration of powers granted housing authorities.

This Article shall constitute an independent authorization for a housing authority to undertake the development or administration of projects to assure the availability of safe and sanitary dwellings for persons engaged in national defense activities as provided in this Article and for a housing authority to cooperate with, or act as agent for, the federal government in the development or administration of similar projects by the federal government. A housing authority may do any and all things necessary or desirable to cooperate with, or act as agent for, the federal government, or to secure financial aid, in the expeditious development or in the administration of projects to assure the availability of safe and sanitary dwellings for persons engaged in national defense activities and to effectuate the purposes of this Article. (1941, c. 63, s. 7.)

§ 157-60. Powers conferred by Article supplemental.

The powers conferred by this Article shall be in addition and supplemental to the powers conferred by any other law, and nothing contained herein shall be construed as limiting any other powers of a housing authority. (1941, c. 63, s. 9.)

ARTICLE 5.

Indian Housing Authority.

§ 157-66. Authority created.

There is hereby created and established a public body corporate and politic to be known as the North Carolina Indian Housing Authority which shall be governed by the provisions of law controlling housing authorities as set out in this Chapter as well as other applicable provisions of the General Statutes. It is the intent of the General Assembly that the North Carolina Indian Housing Authority not be treated as a State agency for any purpose, but rather that it be treated as a housing authority as set out above. (1977, c. 1112, s. 1; 1989 (Reg. Sess., 1990), c. 1066, s. 15(b); 1993, c. 201, s. 1.)

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1989 (Reg. Sess., 1990), c. 1066, which amended this section, in s. 15(a) provided: "The Director of the Office of Indian Housing has stated that if the North Carolina State Indian Housing Authority is a State agency, then it will be ineligible to receive more than $1,000,000 per year in federal assistance. This section clarifies that the Authority is not a State agency."

Legal Periodicals. — For article on criminal jurisdiction on the North Carolina Cherokee Indian reservation, see 24 Wake Forest L. Rev. 335 (1989).

CASE NOTES

The public duty doctrine did not apply to the defendant Housing Authority because it was properly classified as a local government agency, despite its existence as a municipal corporation, for the following reasons: Pursuant to § 157-4, a housing authority is created by local government; the city council and its members are appointed by the mayor; the language in several provisions within Chapter 157 clearly distinguishes between housing authorities and state agencies; § 157-26 labels housing authorities as "local government agencies" and exempts them from taxation "to the same extent as a unit of local government;" and the Housing Authorities Law which creates the North Carolina Indian Housing Authority states: "It is the intent of the General Assembly that the North Carolina Indian Housing Authority not be treated as a State agency for any purpose, but rather that it be treated as a housing authority as set out above." Huntley v. Pandya, 139 N.C. App. 624, 534 S.E.2d 238 (2000), cert. denied, 353 N.C. 263, 546 S.E.2d 98 (2000).

§ 157-67. Powers of Authority; applicability of certain laws; powers of Governor and Commission of Indian Affairs.

The Indian Housing Authority, hereafter referred to as the Authority, shall exercise its powers to provide housing for Indians of low income. Except as otherwise provided in this Article, all the provisions of law applicable to housing authorities created for municipalities pursuant to Chapter 157 of the General Statutes shall be applicable to this Authority, unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context. The Governor and the Commission of Indian Affairs are hereby authorized to exercise all appointing and other powers with respect to this Authority that are vested pursuant to said Chapter 157 in the chief executive officer and governing body of a municipality. (1977, c. 1112, s. 2; 1993, c. 201, s. 1.)

§ 157-68. Commissioners of Authority.

The Authority shall consist of not less than five nor more than 16 commissioners (the number to be set by the North Carolina State Commission of Indian Affairs) who shall be appointed by the Governor, after receiving nominations from the North Carolina State Commission of Indian Affairs. For each vacancy, the Governor must appoint one person from a list of two eligible persons so nominated. Commissioners shall be selected from the major groups of North Carolina Indians that elect members to the North Carolina State Commission of Indian Affairs under G.S. 143B-407. No person shall be barred from serving as a commissioner because he is a tenant or home buyer in an Indian housing project. (1977, c. 1112, s. 3; 1987 (Reg. Sess., 1988), c. 1014; 1998-155, s. 2; 2001-318, s. 2.)

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1987 (Reg. Sess., 1988), c. 1014, s. 2 provided that the act, which rewrote this section, was effective upon ratification (June 29, 1988), but would not affect the term of office of any current member of the North Carolina State Indian Housing Authority.

Effect of Amendments. — Session Laws 2001-318, s. 2, effective July 28, 2001, substituted "16 commissioners" for "15 commissioners" in the first sentence.

§ 157-69. Area of operation.

The area of operation of the Authority shall include the entire State: Provided, that the Authority shall not undertake any housing project or projects within the area of operation of any city, county or regional housing authority unless a resolution shall have been adopted by such city, county or regional housing authority declaring that there is a need for the Indian Housing Authority to exercise its powers within such city, county or regional housing authority's area of operation. (1977, c. 1112, s. 4; 1993, c. 201, s. 1.)

§ 157-70. Rentals and tenant selection in accordance with § 157-29.

Rentals and tenant selection in connection with projects of the Authority shall be in accordance with G.S. 157-29. (1977, c. 1112, s. 5; 1983 (Reg. Sess., 1984), c. 1068.)

Historic Properties Commissions.

§§ 157A-1 through 157A-13: Transferred to §§ 160A-399.1 to 160A-399.13 by Session Laws 1973, c. 426, s. 62.

§§ 158-3 through 158-7: Repealed by Session Laws 1973, c. 803, ss. 39-43.

§ 158-7.1. Local development.

(a) Each county and city in this State is authorized to make appropriations for the purposes of aiding and encouraging the location of manufacturing enterprises, making industrial surveys and locating industrial and commercial plants in or near such city or in the county; encouraging the building of railroads or other purposes which, in the discretion of the governing body of the city or of the county commissioners of the county, will increase the population, taxable property, agricultural industries and business prospects of any city or county. These appropriations may be funded by the levy of property taxes pursuant to G.S. 153A-149 and 160A-209 and by the allocation of other revenues whose use is not otherwise restricted by law.

(b) A county or city may undertake the following specific economic development activities. (This listing is not intended to limit by implication or otherwise the grant of authority set out in subsection (a) of this section). The activities listed in this subsection may be funded by the levy of property taxes pursuant to G.S. 153A-149 and G.S. 160A-209 and by the allocation of other revenues whose use is not otherwise restricted by law.

- (1) A county or city may acquire and develop land for an industrial park, to be used for manufacturing, assembly, fabrication, processing, warehousing, research and development, office use, or similar industrial or commercial purposes. A county may acquire land anywhere in the county, including inside of cities, for an industrial park, while a city may acquire land anywhere in the county or counties in which it is located. A county or city may develop the land by installing utilities, drainage facilities, street and transportation facilities, street lighting, and similar facilities; may demolish or rehabilitate existing structures; and may prepare the site for industrial or commercial uses. A county or city may convey property located in an industrial park pursuant to subsection (d) of this section.
- (2) A county or city may acquire, assemble, and hold for resale property that is suitable for industrial or commercial use. A county may acquire such property anywhere in the county, including inside of cities, while a city may acquire such property inside the city or, if the property will be used by a business that will provide jobs to city residents, anywhere in the county or counties in which it is located. A county or city may convey property acquired or assembled under this subdivision pursuant to subsection (d) of this section.

- (3) A county or city may acquire options for the acquisition of property that is suitable for industrial or commercial use. The county or city may assign such an option, following such procedures, for such consideration, and subject to such terms and conditions as the county or city deems desirable.
- (4) A county or city may acquire or construct one or more "shell buildings", which are structures of flexible design adaptable for use by a variety of industrial or commercial businesses. A county or city may convey or lease a shell building or space in a shell building pursuant to subsection (c) of this section.
- (5) A county or city may construct, extend or own utility facilities or may provide for or assist in the extension of utility services to be furnished to an industrial facility, whether the utility is publicly or privately owned.
- (6) A county or city may extend or may provide for or assist in the extension of water and sewer lines to industrial properties or facilities, whether the industrial property or facility is publicly or privately owned.
- (7) A county or city may engage in site preparation for industrial properties or facilities, whether the industrial property or facility is publicly or privately owned.

(c) Any appropriation or expenditure pursuant to subsection (b) of this section must be approved by the county or city governing body after a public hearing. The county or city shall publish notice of the public hearing at least 10 days before the hearing is held. If the appropriation or expenditure is for the acquisition of an interest in real property, the notice shall describe the interest to be acquired, the proposed acquisition cost of such interest, the governing body's intention to approve the acquisition, the source of funding for the acquisition and such other information needed to reasonably describe the acquisition. If the appropriation or expenditure is for the improvement of privately owned property by site preparation or by the extension of water and sewer lines to the property, the notice shall describe the improvements to be made, the proposed cost of making the improvements, the source of funding for the improvements, the public benefit to be derived from making the improvements, and any other information needed to reasonably describe the improvements and their purpose.

(d) A county or city may lease or convey interests in real property held or acquired pursuant to subsection (b) of this section in accordance with the procedures of this subsection. A county or city may convey or lease interests in property by private negotiation and may subject the property to such covenants, conditions, and restrictions as the county or city deems to be in the public interest or necessary to carry out the purposes of this section. Any such conveyance or lease must be approved by the county or city governing body, after a public hearing. The county or city shall publish notice of the public hearing at least 10 days before the hearing is held; the notice shall describe the interest to be conveyed or leased, the value of the interest, the proposed consideration for the conveyance or lease, and the governing body's intention to approve the conveyance or lease. Before such an interest may be conveyed, the county or city governing body shall determine the probable average hourly wage to be paid to workers by the business to be located at the property to be conveyed and the fair market value of the interest, subject to whatever covenants, conditions, and restrictions the county or city proposes to subject it to. The consideration for the conveyance may not be less than the value so determined.

(d1) Repealed by Session Laws 1993, c. 497, s. 22.

(d2) In arriving at the amount of consideration that it receives, the Board may take into account prospective tax revenues from improvements to be constructed on the property, prospective sales tax revenues to be generated in the area, as well as any other prospective tax revenues or income coming to the county or city over the next 10 years as a result of the conveyance or lease provided the following conditions are met:

(1) The governing board of the county or city shall determine that the conveyance of the property will stimulate the local economy, promote business, and result in the creation of a substantial number of jobs in the county or city that pay at or above the median average wage in the county or, for a city, in the county where the city is located. A city that spans more than one county is considered to be located in the county where the greatest population of the city resides. For the purpose of this subdivision, the median average wage in a county is the median average wage for all insured industries in the county as computed by the Employment Security Commission for the most recent period for which data is available.

(2) The governing board of the county or city shall contractually bind the purchaser of the property to construct, within a specified period of time not to exceed five years, improvements on the property that will generate the tax revenue taken into account in arriving at the consideration. Upon failure to construct the improvements specified in the contract, the purchaser shall reconvey the property back to the county or city.

(e) All appropriations and expenditures pursuant to subsections (b) and (c) of this section shall be subject to the provisions of the Local Government Budget and Fiscal Control Acts of the North Carolina General Statutes, respectively, for cities and counties and shall be listed in the annual financial report the county or city submits to the Local Government Commission. The budget format for each such governing body shall make such disclosures in such detail as the Local Government Commission may by rule and regulation direct.

(f) At the end of each fiscal year, the total of the following for each county and city may not exceed one-half of one percent (0.5%) of the outstanding assessed property tax valuation for the county or city as of January 1 preceding the beginning of the fiscal year:

(1) The investment in property acquired at any time under subdivisions (b)(1) through (b)(4) of this section and owned at the end of the fiscal year.

(2) The amount expended during the fiscal year under subdivisions (b)(5) and (b)(7) of this section.

(3) The amount of tax revenue that was taken into account under subsection (d2) of this section and was expected to be received during the fiscal year.

The Local Government Commission shall review the annual financial reports filed by counties and cities to determine if any county or city has exceeded the limit set by this subsection. If the Commission finds that a county or city has exceeded this limit, it shall notify the county or city. A county or city that receives a notice from the Commission under this subsection must submit to the Commission for its review and approval any appropriation or expenditure the county or city proposes to make under this section during the next three fiscal years. The Commission shall not approve an appropriation or expenditure that would cause a county or city to exceed the limit set by this subsection.

(g) Repealed by Session Laws 1989, c. 374, s. 1. (1973, c. 803, s. 37; 1985, c. 639, s. 1; 1985 (Reg. Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1987, c. 577, s. 1 amended Session Laws 1985, c. 639, s. 4, as amended by Session Laws 1985 (Reg. Sess., 1986), cc. 846, 848, 849, 858, 874, 911, 916, 921, and Session Laws 1987, c. 203, which formerly made subsections (b) to (f) of this section applicable only to certain counties, municipalities and towns, to read solely: "This act shall become effective January 1, 1986." Furthermore, subsection (g), which was enacted by Session Laws 1987, c. 577, s. 1.1 and excepted Buncombe County and municipalities therein from the provisions of subsections (b) to (f) was repealed by Session Laws 1989, c. 374, s. 1. Thus subsections (b) to (d), (e) and (f) now have statewide application.

Session Laws 1993, c. 272, s. 2 and c. 520, s. 4 created local modifications to subsection (d1) applicable to the cities of Brevard and High Point and to Clay, Henderson, and Transylvania Counties. Subsection (d1) was repealed by Session Laws 1993, c. 497, s. 22 and c. 536, s. 4.

Session Laws 1993, c. 497, which amended this section, in s. 25 provides: "Liberal Construction. This act, being necessary for the prosperity and welfare of the State and its inhabitants, shall be liberally construed to effect these purposes."

Session Laws 1993, c. 497, which amended this section, in s. 29 provides that Sections 22, 23, and 24 do not affect appropriations or expenditures that are made by a county or city after the effective date of the act and were agreed to in writing by the county or city before the effective date of this agreement as part of an economic development. The act was effective upon ratification (July 23, 1993).

Session Laws 1993, c. 536, which amended this section, in s. 3 provides: "This act does not affect appropriations or expenditures that are made by a county or city after the effective date of this act and were agreed to in writing by the county or city before the effective date of this act as part of an economic development project."

CASE NOTES

Constitutionality — This section does not violate the public purpose clause of the North Carolina Constitution. Maready v. City of Winston-Salem, 342 N.C. 708, 467 S.E.2d 615 (1996).

Under the expanded understanding of public purpose, even the most innovative activities this section permits are constitutional so long as they primarily benefit the public and not a private party. Maready v. City of Winston-Salem, 342 N.C. 708, 467 S.E.2d 615 (1996).

Public Purpose. — An expenditure does not lose its public purpose merely because it involves a private actor; if an act will promote the welfare of a state or local government and its citizens, it is for a public purpose. Maready v.

City of Winston-Salem, 342 N.C. 708, 467 S.E.2d 615 (1996).

Promotion of General Economic Welfare. — Sections 158-8 through 158-15, 160A-209(c), and 153A-149(c) clearly indicate that this section is a part of a comprehensive scheme of legislation dealing with economic development whereby the General Assembly is attempting to authorize exercise of the power of taxation for the perceived public purpose of promoting the general economic welfare of the citizens of North Carolina. Maready v. City of Winston-Salem, 342 N.C. 708, 467 S.E.2d 615 (1996).

Permissible Governmental Action. — The activities this section authorizes are in keeping with those accepted as within the scope of permissible governmental action. Maready v.

City of Winston-Salem, 342 N.C. 708, 467 S.E.2d 615 (1996).

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL

A business development investment grant program designed to offer tax rebates for the purposes of “diversify[ing] the tax base, offer[ing] improved employment opportunities for the citizens” and “promot[ing] economic growth” may be permissible under this section depending upon whether it primarily serves a public purpose. See opinion of Attorney General to Robert B. Smith, Jr., Smith and Gamblin, PLLC Attorneys at Law, 1997 N.C.A.G. 55 (8/29/97).

§ 158-7.2. Accounting for expenditures.

In the event funds appropriated for the purposes of this Article are turned over to any agency or organization other than the county or city for expenditure, no such expenditure shall be made until the county or city has approved the same, and all such expenditures shall be accounted for by the agency or organization at the end of the fiscal year for which they were appropriated. (1973, c. 803, s. 38.)

§ 158-7.3: Not in effect.

Editor’s Note. — A § 158-7.3 was enacted by Session Laws 1993, c. 497, s. 19, but was made effective upon certification of approval of an amendment to Article V of the Constitution of North Carolina relating to the authority of any county, city or town to borrow money, without the need of voter approval, and issue financing bonds to be used to finance public activities associated with private economic development projects. This amendment was submitted to the people on November 2, 1993 and was defeated. The section, therefore, never took effect.

ARTICLE 2.

Economic Development Commissions.

§ 158-8. Creation of municipal, county or regional commissions authorized; composition; joining or withdrawing from regional commissions.

The governing body of any municipality or the board of county commissioners of any county may by resolution create an economic development commission for said municipality or county. The governing bodies of any two or more municipalities and/or counties may by joint resolution, adopted by separate vote of each governing body concerned, create a regional economic development commission. A municipal or county economic development commission shall consist of from three to nine members, named for terms and compensation (if any) fixed by its respective governing body. The membership, compensation (if any), and terms of a regional economic development commission, and the formula for its financial support, shall be fixed by the joint resolution creating the commission. Additional governmental units may join a regional commission with the consent of all existing members. Any governmental unit may withdraw from a regional commission on two years’ notice to the other members. The resolution creating a municipal, county, or regional economic development commission may be modified, amended, or repealed in the same manner as it was originally adopted. (1961, c. 722, s. 2.)

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 2001-424, ss. 20.10(a) and (b), provide for the allocation of funds appropriated in Session Laws 2001-424 to the Department of Commerce for regional economic development commissions to the following commissions: Western North Carolina Regional Economic Development Commission, Research Triangle Regional Commission, Southeastern North Carolina Regional Economic Development Commission, Piedmont Triad Partnership, Northeastern North Carolina Regional Economic Development Commission, Global TransPark Development Commission, and Carolinas Partnership, Inc. A series of steps is set out for determining the allocation to each commission.

Session Laws 2001-424, ss. 20.11(a) and (b), provide: "(a) Each regional economic development commission receiving a grant-in-aid from the Department of Commerce shall:

"(1) By January 15, 2002, and more frequently as requested, report to the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations, the Fiscal Research Division, and the Department of Commerce the following information:

"a. State fiscal year 2000-2001 program activities, objectives, and accomplishments;

"b. State fiscal year 2000-2001 itemized expenditures and fund sources;

"c. State fiscal year 2001-2002 planned activities, objectives, and accomplishments as specified in subdivisions (b) (1) through (b)(6) of this section [s. 20.11(b)(1) to (b)(6) of Session Laws 2001-424] including actual results through December 31, 2001;

"d. State fiscal year 2001-2002 estimated itemized expenditures and fund sources including actual expenditures and fund sources through December 31, 2001.

"(2) By January 15, 2003, and more frequently as requested, report to the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations, the Fiscal Research Division, and the Department of Commerce the following information:

"a. State fiscal year 2001-2002 program activities, objectives, and accomplishments;

"b. State fiscal year 2001-2002 itemized expenditures and fund sources;

"c. State fiscal year 2002-2003 planned activities, objectives, and accomplishments as specified in subdivisions (b)(1) through (b)(6) of this section [s. 20.11(b)(1) to (b)(6) of Session Laws 2001-424] including actual results through December 31, 2002;

"d. State fiscal year 2002-2003 estimated itemized expenditures and fund sources including actual expenditures and fund sources through December 31, 2002.

"(3) Provide to the Fiscal Research Division and the Department of Commerce a copy of its annual audited financial statement within 30 days of issuance of the statement.

"(b) Each regional economic development commission receiving a grant-in-aid from the Department of Commerce in each fiscal year of the 2001-2003 biennium shall by January 15 of each fiscal year report to the Department of Commerce the following information for the most recently completed fiscal year:

"(1) The number of and description of marketing outreach events including trade shows, recruitment missions, and related activities;

"(2) The number of jobs saved;

"(3) The amount of investment and number of jobs created by the direct efforts of a commission;

"(4) Initiatives undertaken to establish certified sites and shell buildings;

"(5) The number of referrals or leads handled that were generated by the Department of Commerce;

"(6) The number and listing of available sites and buildings within the region served by a commission;

"(7) A listing of major accomplishments."

Session Laws 2001-424, s. 1.2, provides: "This act shall be known as the 'Current Operations and Capital Improvements Appropriations Act of 2001'."

Session Laws 2001-424, s. 36.5 is a severability clause.

Session Laws 2001-424, s. 36.3, provides: "Except for statutory changes or other provisions that clearly indicate an intention to have effects beyond the 2001-2003 fiscal biennium, the textual provisions of this act apply only to funds appropriated for, and activities occurring during, the 2001-2003 fiscal biennium."

CASE NOTES

Contributions Held Due. — Where, from 1971 through February, 1982, defendant county participated as a member in plaintiff regional council's activities, attending meetings and workshops and receiving the benefits of plaintiff's plans and services, and during this time defendant made full payments of its proportionate share of plaintiff's budget as set forth in plaintiff's bylaws, and where, most significantly, defendant indicated in a letter of March 8, 1982, that the county board of commissioners unanimously voted to comply with the obliga-

complaint seeking contributions due from defendant would be affirmed. Land-of-Sky Regional Council v. County of Henderson, 78 N.C. App. 85, 336 S.E.2d 653 (1985), cert. denied, 316 N.C. 553, 344 S.E.2d 7 (1986).

§ 158-8.1. Creation of Western North Carolina Regional Economic Development Commission.

(a) There is created the Western North Carolina Regional Economic Development Commission to serve Buncombe, Cherokee, Clay, Graham, Haywood, Henderson, Jackson, McDowell, Macon, Madison, Polk, Rutherford, Swain, Transylvania, and Yancey Counties, and any other county assigned to the Commission by the Department of Commerce as authorized by law. The Commission shall be located administratively in the Department of Commerce but shall exercise its statutory powers and duties independently of the Department of Commerce. Funds appropriated for the Commission by the General Assembly shall be disbursed directly to the Commission at the beginning of each fiscal year.

(b) The Commission shall consist of 19 members appointed as follows:

- (1) Three members shall be appointed by the Governor;
- (2) Two members shall be appointed by the Lieutenant Governor;
- (3) Seven members shall be appointed by the General Assembly upon the recommendation of the Speaker of the House of Representatives in accordance with G.S. 120-121; and
- (4) Seven members shall be appointed by the General Assembly upon the recommendation of the President Pro Tempore of the Senate in accordance with G.S. 120-121.

(c) The appointing authority shall designate two of the initial appointees pursuant to subdivision (b)(1), one of the initial appointees pursuant to subdivision (b)(2), two of the initial appointees pursuant to subdivision (b)(3), and two of the initial appointees pursuant to subdivision (b)(4) to serve for terms ending June 30, 1995; the remainder of the initial appointees shall serve for terms ending June 30, 1997. Their successors shall serve for four-year terms ending on June 30 quadrennially thereafter. The appointing authority shall designate the additional appointees under subsections (b3) and (b4) that were added to the Commission membership pursuant to an act of the 1995 General Assembly to serve for terms ending June 30, 1999.

Any appointment to fill a vacancy on the Commission shall be for the balance of the unexpired term. Vacancies in appointments made by the General Assembly shall be in accordance with G.S. 120-122.

(c1) The initial meeting shall be called by the Secretary of the Department of Commerce.

(d) Members of the Commission who are State employees shall receive travel expenses as provided in G.S. 138-6. Other Commission members shall receive per diem of one hundred dollars ($100.00) a day for each day of service when the Commission meets and shall be reimbursed for travel and subsistence as provided in G.S. 138-5. The Commission may adopt policies authorizing additional per diem of one hundred dollars ($100.00) a day for non-State employee members' additional days of service including Commission subcommittee meetings or other Commission activities, plus reimbursement for related travel and subsistence as provided in G.S. 138-5.

(e) In addition to the powers and duties granted to economic development commissions in this Article, the Western North Carolina Regional Economic Development Commission shall:

- (1) Survey Western North Carolina and determine the assets, liabilities, and resources that the region contributes to the economic development process.
- (2) Develop and evaluate alternatives for Western North Carolina economic development.
- (3) Develop a preferred economic development plan for the region and establish strategies for implementing the plan.
- (4) Coordinate activities with and enter into contracts with any nonprofit corporation created to assist the Commission in carrying out its powers and duties.
- (5) Repealed by Session Laws 1999-237, s. 16.5(a), effective July 1, 1999. (1993, c. 321, s. 309(a); c. 561, s. 17(a); 1993 (Reg. Sess., 1994), c. 769, ss. 28.7(j), 28.8(a), 28.8(b); 1995, c. 488, s. 49(a), (b); c. 507, s. 25.5(a); c. 509, ss. 103-105; 1999-237, s. 16.5(a).)

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 2001-491, s. 1, provides: "This act shall be known as 'The Studies Act of 2001.'"

Session Laws 2001-491, ss. 18.1 to 18.10, creates the National Heritage Area Designation Commission. The Commission is directed to seek designation as a National Heritage Area of the 23 county mountain region of North Carolina comprised of the counties designated to be served by the Western North Carolina Regional Economic Development Commission under G.S. 158-8.1: Alleghany, Ashe, Avery, Burke, Buncombe, Caldwell, Cherokee, Clay, Graham, Haywood, Henderson, Jackson, Macon, Madison, McDowell, Mitchell, Polk, Rutherford, Swain, Transylvania, Watauga, Wilkes, and Yancey. In ss. 18.1 and 18.2 the General Assembly makes the following findings:

"Section 18.1. The General Assembly finds that the following physical and cultural features in the mountain region of Western North Carolina are of national significance:

"(1) The Great Smoky Mountains National Park is the most visited national park in America.

"(2) The Blue Ridge Parkway is the nation's longest scenic highway.

"(3) The Joyce Kilmer Memorial Forest is the last remaining stand of virgin timber in the eastern United States.

"(4) The Linville Gorge wilderness area is the first wilderness in the eastern United States and the deepest gorge east of the Mississippi River.

"(5) Mount Mitchell is the highest mountain in the eastern United States.

"(6) The New River is the second oldest river in the world and was designated as an American Heritage River in 1998.

"(7) Fontana Dam is the highest dam in eastern America that was built by the Tennessee Valley Authority and is known as one of the country's greatest engineering feats in history.

"(8) Grandfather Mountain is the oldest mountain in the eastern United States, was designated as an International Biosphere Reserve by the United Nations, and is the only mountain that is privately owned.

"(9) The Cherokee Indian Qualla Boundary is the home of the Eastern Band of the Cherokee Indians, and the Trail of Tears is a National Heritage Trail.

"(10) Roan Mountain is the world's largest natural Catawba rhododendron garden.

"(11) The Appalachian Trail is the longest national hiking trail in the United States.

"(12) Whiteside Mountain has the highest cliffs of perpendicular bare rock east of the Rockies.

"(13) The Nantahala River is the most popular white-water rafting river in America.

"(14) The Biltmore Estate is America's largest private residence.

"(15) The Cradle of Forestry in America National Historic Site is the first forestry school in America.

"(16) The Cherohala Skyway is a National Scenic Byway.

"(17) The Carl Sandburg Home is a National Historic Site.

"Section 18.2. The General Assembly further finds that:

"(1) The National Park Service's definition of a National Heritage Area is a place designated by Congress where natural, cultural, historic, and scenic resources combine to form a cohesive, nationally distinctive landscape arising from patterns of human activity shaped by geography. These patterns make National Heritage Areas representative of the national experience through the physical features that remain and the traditions that have evolved in them. Continued use of the National Heritage Area by people whose traditions helped to shape the landscape enhances their significance.

“(2) Designation by the United States Congress of the North Carolina Appalachian Heritage Area, the 23-county mountain region of Western North Carolina, as a National Heritage Area would recognize the nationally distinctive landscape of this area and the role of this distinctive landscape in defining the collective American cultural landscape. The natural, cultural, historic, and recreation resources in this 23-county region combine to form a cohesive, nationally distinctive landscape arising from patterns of human activity shaped by geography. These patterns make the mountain region of Western North Carolina representative of the national experience through the physical features that remain and the traditions that have evolved in the area. Continued use of this area by people whose traditions helped to shape the landscape enhances its significance.

“(3) Since 1916, the National Park Service has been the federal agency responsible for preserving nationally significant natural and historic resources for present and future generations.

“(4) The National Park Service provides technical expertise to assist in all stages of the process for seeking designation as a National Heritage Area.

“(5) Congress has designated 18 National Heritage Areas.

“(6) Residents, business interests, nonprofit organizations, and governments within the proposed National Heritage Area are interested and committed to completing the suitability and feasibility study that must be completed prior to Congress’s designating a National Heritage Area.

“(7) The National Heritage Area designation by the United States Congress for the 23-county mountain region of Western North Carolina would help to preserve and celebrate the uniqueness of this area and its defining landscape in North Carolina and offers the potential to ensure key educational and inspirational opportunities in perpetuity, without compromising traditional local control over, and use of, the landscape.”

Session Laws 2001-491, s. 18.9, provides that notwithstanding G.S. 158-8.1, the Western North Carolina Regional Economic Development Commission shall provide administrative and funding support to the National Heritage Area Designation Commission.

Session Laws 2001-491, s. 18.10, provides: “Notwithstanding G.S. 158-8.1, the Western North Carolina Regional Economic Development Commission shall develop a regional heritage tourism plan and shall present the plan to the 2002 Regular Session of the 2001 General Assembly no later than May 1, 2002.”

§ 158-8.2. Creation of Northeastern North Carolina Regional Economic Development Commission.

(a) There is created the Northeastern North Carolina Regional Economic Development Commission to facilitate economic development in Beaufort, Bertie, Camden, Chowan, Currituck, Dare, Gates, Halifax, Hertford, Hyde, Martin, Northampton, Pasquotank, Perquimans, Tyrrell, and Washington Counties, and any other county assigned to the Commission by the Department of Commerce as authorized by law. The Commission shall be located administratively in the Department of Commerce but shall exercise its statutory powers and duties independently of the Department of Commerce. Funds appropriated for the Commission by the General Assembly shall be disbursed directly to the Commission at the beginning of each fiscal year.

(b) The Commission shall consist of 18 appointed members and one ex officio member, as provided below. Each appointed member shall be an experienced business person who resides for most of the year in one or more of the counties that are members of the Commission.

- (1) Six members shall be appointed by the Governor.
- (2) Six members shall be appointed by the General Assembly upon the recommendation of the President Pro Tempore of the Senate in accordance with G.S. 120-121.
- (3) Six members shall be appointed by the General Assembly upon the recommendation of the Speaker of the House of Representatives in accordance with G.S. 120-121.
- (4) The Secretary of Commerce, or a designee.
- (5) Repealed by Session Laws 1999-237, s. 16.6(a), effective July 1, 1999.

Any person appointed to the Commission who is also a county commissioner may hold that office in addition to the offices permitted by G.S. 128-1.1. The appointing authorities are encouraged to discuss and coordinate their appointments in an effort to ensure as many counties served by the Commission are represented among the membership of the Commission.

(c) All members shall serve staggered two-year terms ending on June 30 biennially.

(d) Any appointment to fill a vacancy on the Commission shall be for the balance of the unexpired term. Vacancies in appointments made by the General Assembly shall be in accordance with G.S. 120-122.

(d1) The initial meeting shall be called by the Secretary of the Department of Commerce. The Commission shall meet no less than quarterly.

(e) The Commission shall elect annually from among its membership a four-member executive committee consisting of a chair, a vice-chair, a secretary, and a treasurer. Members shall serve one-year terms on the executive committee. The executive committee shall meet no less than quarterly.

(f) In addition to the powers and duties granted to economic development commissions in this Article, the Northeastern North Carolina Regional Economic Development Commission shall:

- (1) Adopt and implement an economic development program, with the assistance of the economic development advisory board, as follows:
  - a. Survey northeastern North Carolina and determine the assets, liabilities, and resources that the region contributes to the economic development process;
  - b. Enhance economic development activities that use the area's natural resources;
  - c. Develop and evaluate alternatives for northeastern North Carolina economic development;
  - d. Develop a preferred economic development plan for the region and establish strategies for implementing the plan;
  - e. Conduct feasibility studies to determine the nature and placement of economic developments for maximum economic impact;
  - f. Identify potential sites for economic development; and
  - g. Carry out other activities to develop and promote economic development.

(2) Repealed by Session Laws 1999-237, s. 16.6(a), effective July 1, 1999.

(3) Coordinate activities with and enter into contracts with any nonprofit corporation created to assist the Commission in carrying out its powers and duties.

(4) Repealed by Session Laws 1999-237, s. 16.5(b), effective July 1, 1999.

(g) Within the limits of funds available, the Commission may hire and fix the compensation of any personnel necessary to its operations, contract with consultants for any services as it may require, and contract with the State of North Carolina or the federal government, or any agency or department thereof, for any services as may be provided by those agencies. The Commission shall hire an employee to serve as president and chief executive officer. The Commission may carry out the provisions of any contracts it may enter.

Within the limits of funds available, the Commission may lease, rent, purchase, or otherwise obtain suitable quarters and office space for its staff, and may lease, rent, or purchase necessary furniture, fixtures, and other equipment.

(h) Members of the Commission who are State employees shall receive travel expenses as provided in G.S. 138-6. Other Commission members shall receive per diem of one hundred dollars ($100.00) a day for each day of service when the Commission meets and shall be reimbursed for travel and subsistence as provided in G.S. 138-5. Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1999-237, s. 16.6(b), provides in part that the Northeastern North Carolina Regional Economic Development Commission shall make the transition from the former membership to the new membership as follows: (1) The present executive committee shall serve until a new committee is elected; (2) The Governor and the General Assembly shall make the appointments provided in G.S. 158-8.2(b)(1)-(3) for terms beginning July 1, 1999; (3) On the date the members of the Commission appointed pursuant to this section take office, the terms of all current members of the Commission appointed before the effective date of this act expire.

Session Laws 1999-237, s. 1.1 provides: "This act shall be known as the 'Current Operations and Capital Improvement Appropriations Act of 1999'."

Session Laws 1999-237, s. 30.4 contains a severability clause.

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL

North Carolina's Northeast Partnership is an "agency" within the meaning of § 132-1(a), and accordingly is fully subject to the Public Records Act; the Northeastern North Carolina Regional Economic Development Commission from which it emerged is an agency located administratively in the North Carolina Department of Commerce, although it has attempted to remove itself from the Department. See opinion of Attorney General to Melanie Thompson, Fiscal Manager, North Carolina's Northeast Partnership, 1999 N.C.A.G. 9 (3/9/99).

§ 158-8.3. Creation of Southeastern North Carolina Regional Economic Development Commission.

(a) There is created the Southeastern North Carolina Regional Economic Development Commission to serve Bladen, Brunswick, Columbus, Cumberland, Hoke, New Hanover, Pender, Richmond, Robeson, Sampson, and Scotland Counties, and any other county assigned to the Commission by the Department of Commerce as authorized by law. The Commission shall be located administratively in the Department of Commerce but shall exercise its statutory powers and duties independently of the Department of Commerce. Funds appropriated for the Commission by the General Assembly shall be disbursed directly to the Commission at the beginning of each fiscal year.

(b) The Commission shall consist of 15 members appointed as follows:

- (1) Three members shall be appointed by the Governor;
- (2) Two members shall be appointed by the Lieutenant Governor;
- (3) Five members shall be appointed by the General Assembly upon the recommendation of the Speaker of the House of Representatives in accordance with G.S. 120-121; and
- (4) Five members shall be appointed by the General Assembly upon the recommendation of the President Pro Tempore of the Senate in accordance with G.S. 120-121.

(c) The appointing authority shall designate two of the initial appointees pursuant to subdivision (b)(1) of this section, one of the initial appointees pursuant to subdivision (b)(2) of this section, two of the initial appointees pursuant to subdivision (b)(3) of this section, and two of the initial appointees pursuant to subdivision (b)(4) of this section to serve for terms ending June 30, 1995; the remainder of the initial appointees shall serve for terms ending June 30, 1997. Their successors shall serve for four-year terms ending on June 30 quadrennially thereafter.

Any appointment to fill a vacancy on the Commission shall be for the balance of the unexpired term. Vacancies in appointments made by the General Assembly shall be filled in accordance with G.S. 120-122.

(c1) The initial meeting shall be called by the Secretary of the Department of Commerce.

(d) Members of the Commission who are State employees shall receive travel expenses as provided in G.S. 138-6. Other Commission members shall receive per diem of one hundred dollars ($100.00) a day for each day of service when the Commission meets and shall be reimbursed for travel and subsistence as provided in G.S. 138-5. The Commission may adopt policies authorizing additional per diem of one hundred dollars ($100.00) a day for non-State employee members' additional days of service including Commission subcommittee meetings or other Commission activities, plus reimbursement for related travel and subsistence as provided in G.S. 138-5.

(e) In addition to the powers and duties granted to economic development commissions in this Article, the Southeastern North Carolina Regional Economic Development Commission shall:

- (1) Survey southeastern North Carolina and determine the assets, liabilities, and resources that the region contributes to the economic development process;
- (2) Develop and evaluate alternatives for southeastern North Carolina economic development;
- (3) Develop a preferred economic development plan for the region and establish strategies for implementing the plan; and
- (4) Coordinate activities with and enter into contracts with any nonprofit corporation created to assist the Commission in carrying out its powers and duties.
- (5) Repealed by Session Laws 1999-237, s. 16.5(c), effective July 1, 1999.

(f) Within the limits of funds available, the Commission may hire and fix the compensation of any personnel necessary to its operations, contract with consultants for any services as it may require, and contract with the State of North Carolina or the federal government, or any agency or department thereof, for any services as may be provided by those agencies. With the approval of any unit of local government, the Commission may contract to use officers, employees, agents, and facilities of the unit of local government. The Commission may carry out the provisions of any contracts it may enter.

Within the limits of funds available, the Commission may lease, rent, purchase, or otherwise obtain suitable quarters and office space for its staff, and may lease, rent, or purchase necessary furniture, fixtures, and other equipment. (1993, c. 321, s. 309.2(a); c. 561, s. 17(c); 1993 (Reg. Sess., 1994), c. 769, ss. 28.7(m), 28.8(e), 28.8(f); 1995, c. 509, ss. 110, 111; 1997-155, s. 1; 1999-237, s. 16.5(c).)

Cross References. — For note regarding the creation of a Regional Economic Development Commission Expansion Program and appropriation for allocation to regional economic development commissions, see the editor's note under § 158-8.

§ 158-8.4. Removal of commission members.

A commission created under G.S. 158-8.1, 158-8.2, or 158-8.3 may, by majority vote, remove a member of the commission if that member does not attend at least eighty percent (80%) of the regularly scheduled meetings of the commission during any full year of service of that member on the board, except that absences excused by the commission due to serious medical or family circumstances shall not be considered. If the commission votes to remove a member under this section, the vacancy will be filled in the same manner as the original appointment. (1997-495, s. 86.)

§ 158-9. Organization of commission; rules and regulations; committees; meetings.

Upon its appointment, the economic development commission shall promptly meet and elect from among its members a chairman and such other officers as it may choose, for such terms as it shall prescribe in its rules and regulations. The commission shall adopt such rules and regulations not inconsistent herewith as it may deem necessary for the proper discharge of its duties. The chairman may appoint such committees as the work of the commission may require. The commission shall meet regularly, at least once every three months, at places and dates specified in the rules. Special meetings may be called as specified in the rules. (1961, c. 722, s. 2.)

§ 158-10. Staff and personnel; contracts for services.

Within the limits of appropriated funds, the commission may hire and fix the compensation of any personnel necessary to its operations, contract with consultants for such services as it may require, and contract with the State of North Carolina or the federal government, or any agency or department thereof, for such services as may be provided by such agencies; and it is hereby empowered to carry out the provisions of such contracts as it may enter. (1961, c. 722, s. 2.)

§ 158-11. Office and equipment.

Within the limits of appropriated funds, the commission may lease, rent, or purchase, or otherwise obtain suitable quarters and office space for its staff, and may lease, rent, or purchase necessary furniture, fixtures, and other equipment. (1961, c. 722, s. 2.)

§ 158-12. Fiscal affairs generally; appropriations.

The commission may accept, receive, and disburse in furtherance of its functions any funds, grants, and services made available by the federal government and its agencies, the State government and its agencies, any municipalities or counties, and by private and civic sources.

Each municipality or county shall have authority to appropriate funds to any local or regional economic development commission which it may have created. These appropriations may be funded by levy of property taxes pursuant to G.S. 153A-149 and G.S. 160A-209 and by the allocation of other revenues whose use is not otherwise restricted by law. (1961, c. 722, s. 2; 1973, c. 803, s. 44; c. 1446, s. 26.)

§ 158-12.1. Commission funds secured.

The Western North Carolina Regional Economic Development Commission, Research Triangle Regional Commission, Southeastern North Carolina Regional Economic Development Commission, Piedmont Triad Partnership, Northeastern North Carolina Regional Economic Development Commission, Global TransPark Development Commission, and Carolinas Partnership, Inc., may deposit money at interest in any bank, savings and loan association, or trust company in this State in the form of savings accounts, certificates of deposit, or such other forms of time deposits as may be approved for county governments. Investment deposits and money deposited in an official depository or deposited at interest shall be secured in the manner prescribed in G.S. 159-31(b). When deposits are secured in accordance with this section, no public officer or employee may be held liable for any losses sustained by an institution because of the default or insolvency of the depository. This section applies to the regional economic development commissions listed in this section only for as long as the commissions are receiving State funds. (2000-67, s. 14.9.)

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 2000-67, s. 28.5, made this section effective July 1, 2000.

Session Laws 2000-67, s. 1.1, provides: "This act shall be known as 'The Current Operations and Capital Improvements Appropriations Act of 2000'."

Session Laws 2000-67, s. 28.2, provides: "Except for statutory changes or other provisions that clearly indicate an intention to have effects beyond the 2000-2001 fiscal year, the textual provisions of this act apply only to funds appropriated for, and activities occurring during, the 2000-2001 fiscal year."

Session Laws 2000-67, s. 28.4, contains a severability clause.

§ 158-13. Powers and duties.

Any economic development commission created pursuant to this Article shall:

- (1) Receive from any municipal, county, joint, or regional planning board or commission with jurisdiction within its area an economic development program for part or all of the area;
- (2) Formulate projects for carrying out such economic development program, through attraction of new industries, encouragement of existing industries, encouragement of agricultural development, encouragement of new business and industrial ventures by local as well as foreign capital, and other activities of a similar nature;
- (3) Conduct industrial surveys as needed, advertise in periodicals or other communications media, furnish advice and assistance to business and industrial prospects which may locate in its area, furnish advice and assistance to existing businesses and industries, furnish advice and assistance to persons seeking to establish new businesses or industries, and engage in related activities;
- (4) Encourage the formation of private business development corporations or associations which may carry out such projects as securing and preparing sites for industrial development, constructing industrial buildings, or rendering financial or managerial assistance to businesses and industries; furnish advice and assistance to such corporations or associations;
- (4a) Use grant funds to make loans for purposes permitted by the federal government, by the grant agreement and in furtherance of economic development; the economic development commission may delegate to another organization or agency the implementation of the grant's purposes, subject to approval by the federal agency involved and the commission's board of directors.
- (5) Carry on such other activities as may be necessary in the proper exercise of the functions described herein. (1961, c. 722, s. 2; 1979, c. 775.)

§ 158-14. Regional planning and economic development commissions authorized.

Any municipalities and/or counties desiring to exercise the powers granted by this Article may, at their option, create a regional planning and economic development commission, which shall have and exercise all of the powers and duties granted to a regional economic development commission under this Article and in addition the powers and duties granted to a regional planning commission under Article 23 of Chapter 153. In the event that such a combined commission is created, it shall keep separate books of accounts for appropriations and expenditures made pursuant to this Article and for appropriations and expenditures made pursuant to Article 23 of Chapter 153. The financial limitations set forth in each such Article shall govern expenditures made pursuant to such Article. (1961, c. 722, s. 2; 1965, c. 431, s. 2.)

Editor's Note. — Article 23 of Chapter 153, section, was repealed by Session Laws 1973, c. 822. See now Article 19 of Chapter 153A.

§ 158-15. Powers granted herein supplementary.

The powers granted to counties and municipalities by this Article shall be deemed supplementary to any powers heretofore or hereafter granted by any general or local act for the same or similar purposes, and in any case where the provisions of this Article conflict with or are different from the provisions of any other act, the board of county commissioners or the municipal governing board may in its discretion proceed in accordance with the provisions of this Article or, as an alternative method, in accordance with the provisions of such other act. (1961, c. 722, s. 2.)

ARTICLE 2A.

Multi-County Water Conservation and Infrastructure District.

§ 158-15.1. Multi-County Water Conservation and Infrastructure District.

(a) There is established the Multi-County Water Conservation and Infrastructure District, which is a public authority for the purpose of the Local Government Budget and Fiscal Control Act.

(b) The member counties of the Multi-County Water Conservation and Infrastructure District are Bertie, Caswell, Forsyth, Granville, Guilford, Halifax, Martin, Northampton, Person, Rockingham, Stokes, Surry, Vance, Warren, and Washington.

(c) The governing body of the Multi-County Water Conservation and Infrastructure District is the Multi-County Water Commission. One member of this Commission shall be appointed for a three-year term by the board of commissioners of each member county.

(d) All monies received by the State of North Carolina for sale of water under the Roanoke River Basin Compact, if enacted, shall be paid to the Multi-County Water Conservation and Infrastructure District.

(e) The District may accept for any of its purposes and functions any and all donations, grants of money, equipment, supplies, materials and services (conditional or otherwise) from any state or the United States or any subdivision or agency thereof, or interstate agency, or from any political subdivision of this State or any other state, or from any institution, person, firm or corporation, and may receive, utilize and dispose of the same. The nature, amount and condition, if any, attendant upon any donation or grant accepted pursuant to this subsection together with the identity of the donor or grantor, shall be detailed in the annual audit of the District.

(f) At times specified by the Multi-County Water Commission, net revenues after operating expenses of the District shall be paid to each of the fifteen member counties according to the following formula: (i) one-half pro-rata based on the population located within the Roanoke River basin area of each member county; and (ii) one-half pro-rata based on the land area located within the Roanoke River Basin area of each county.

(g) Member counties may use funds received under this section for public purposes relating to infrastructure development, economic development, and water conservation.

(h) The Commission may adopt such rules as may be needful for operation of its affairs, and shall employ and terminate personnel as if it were a county. (1995, c. 507, s. 26.12; 1996, 2nd Ex. Sess., c. 18, s. 24.22(a); 1997-443, s. 15.48(a).)

§§ 158-15.2 through 158-15.9: Reserved for future codification purposes.

ARTICLE 3.

Tax Elections for Industrial Development Purposes.

§ 158-16. Board of commissioners may call tax election; rate and purposes of tax.

The board of county commissioners in any county is authorized and empowered to call a special election to determine whether it be the will of the qualified voters of said county that they levy and cause to be collected annually, at the same time and in the same manner as the general county taxes are levied and collected, a special tax at a rate not to exceed five cents (5¢) on each one hundred dollars ($100.00) valuation of property in said county, to be known as an "industrial development tax," the funds therefrom, if the levy be authorized by the voters of said county, to be used for the purpose of attracting new and diversified industries to said county, and for the encouragement of new business and industrial ventures by local as well as foreign capital, and for the purpose of aiding and encouraging the location of manufacturing enterprises, making industrial surveys and locating industrial plants in said county, and for the purpose of encouraging agricultural development in said county. (1959, c. 212, s. 1.)

Local Modification. — Mitchell: 1963, c. 157.

§ 158-17. Registration of voters; election under supervision of county board of elections.

There shall be no new registration of voters for such an election. Registration shall be open for registration of new voters in said county and registration of any and all legal residents of said county, who are or could legally be enfranchised as qualified voters for regular general elections, shall be carried out in accordance with the general election laws of the State of North Carolina as provided for local elections. Notice of such registration of new voters shall be published in a newspaper circulated in said county, once, not less than 55 days before and not more than 65 days before the election, stating the hours and days for registration. The special election, if called, shall be under the control and supervision of the county board of elections. (1959, c. 212, s. 1; 1993 (Reg. Sess., 1994), c. 762, s. 11.)

§ 158-18. Form of ballot; when ballots supplied; designation of ballot box.

The form of the question shall be substantially the words "For Industrial Development Tax," and "Against Industrial Development Tax," which alternates shall appear separated from each other on one ballot containing opposite, and to the left of each alternate, squares of appropriate size in one of which squares the voters may make a mark "X" to designate the voter's choice for or against such tax. Such ballot shall be printed on white paper and each polling place shall be supplied with a sufficient number of ballots not later than the day before the election. At such special election the election board shall cause to be placed at each voting precinct in said county a ballot box marked "Industrial Development Tax Election." (1959, c. 212, s. 1.)

§ 158-19. Counting of ballots; canvassing, certifying and announcing results of elections.

The duly appointed judges and other election officials who are named and fixed by the county board of elections shall count the ballots so cast in such election and the results of the election shall be officially canvassed, certified and announced by the proper officials of the board of elections, according to the manner of canvassing, certifying and announcing the elections held under the general election laws of the State. Except as herein otherwise provided, the registration and election herein provided for shall be conducted in accordance with the general election laws of the State as provided for local elections. (1959, c. 212, s. 1.)

§ 158-20. Authorized tax rate.

If a majority of those voting in such election favor the levying of such a tax, the board of commissioners of said county are authorized to levy a special tax at a rate not to exceed five cents (5¢) on each one hundred dollars ($100.00) of assessed value of real and personal property taxable in said county, and the General Assembly does hereby give its special approval for the levy of such special tax. (1959, c. 212, s. 1.)

Local Modification. — Harnett: 1961, c. 560; Mitchell: 1963, cc. 157, 506; Person: 1961, c. 701; Tyrrell: 1961, c. 228.

§ 158-21. Creation of industrial development commission; membership and terms of office; vacancies; meetings; selection of officers; bylaws and procedural rules and policies; authority of treasurer and required bond; subsidy or investment in business or industry forbidden.

If the majority of the qualified voters voting in such election favor the levying of such a tax, then and in that event, the county commissioners may create a commission to be known as the "Industrial Development Commission" for said county. Such commission shall be composed of nine members. The terms of office of the members of the commission shall be three years, with the exception of the first two years' existence of the commission, in which three shall be appointed to serve for a period of one year, three for a period of two years, and three for a period of three years; thereafter, all members shall be appointed for three years, and shall serve until their successors have been appointed and qualified. All appointments for unexpired terms resulting from resignation, death or other causes, shall be made by the county board of commissioners. The commission shall hold its first meeting within 30 days after its appointment as provided for in this Article, and the beginning date of all terms of office of the commissioners shall be the date on which the commission holds its first meeting. After the members of the commission shall have been appointed and at the time of the holding of the first meeting, they shall, by a majority vote, name and select from their membership their own chairman, vice-chairman, secretary and treasurer, and shall draw up and ratify their own bylaws and procedural rules and policies. The commission member who shall be named treasurer shall have supervision of all funds administered by the commission in any way whatsoever; shall sign and countersign all checks, drafts, bills of exchange, or any and all other negotiable instruments which shall properly be issued under his supervision; and shall furnish such surety bond as shall be designated by the board of county commissioners. No money, property or funds of the commission herein created shall be used directly or indirectly as a subsidy or investment in capital assets in any business, industry or business venture. (1959, c. 212, s. 1.)

§ 158-22. Bureau set up under supervision and control of industrial development commission; furnishing county commissioners with proposed budget.

Under the supervision and jurisdiction of the industrial development commission for said county there shall be set up a bureau, the purpose of which shall be as set forth in G.S. 158-16. The commission shall have charge of the activities of this bureau, full supervision of its operations, and full responsibility for its actions. The commission shall employ personnel for the bureau, supervise its purchases and expense accounts, and administer all the tax funds which shall be turned over to the commission by county authorities from the industrial development tax and any and all other funds which may come into its hands. The commission shall be empowered to lease, rent or purchase, or otherwise obtain suitable quarters and office space for an industrial development bureau, to lease, rent, or purchase necessary furniture, fixtures, and other equipment, to purchase advertising space in periodicals which may be selected for that purpose, and to otherwise engage in any and all activities which shall, in its discretion, promote the business and industrial development and general economic welfare of said county; and it shall have full power to exercise any and all other proper authority in connection with its duties and not expressly mentioned herein. Provided, that said commission shall provide the board of county commissioners 30 days prior to July 1 a proposed budget for the fiscal year commencing on July 1 and shall provide the board of county commissioners an audit by a certified public accountant within 60 days after the expiration of the fiscal year ending on June 30. (1959, c. 212, s. 1.)

§ 158-23. Board of county commissioners may function and carry out duties of industrial development commission.

Nothing herein shall prevent the board of county commissioners itself from functioning and carrying out the duties of the industrial development commission as provided for herein. (1959, c. 212, s. 1.)

§ 158-24. Counties to which Article applies.

The provisions of this Article shall apply only to the following counties: Alexander, Burke, Caswell, Chowan, Edgecombe, Franklin, Harnett, Haywood, Hertford, Mitchell, Northampton, Onslow, Pasquotank, Perquimans, Person, Polk, Rockingham, Rutherford, Tyrrell, Vance and Warren. (1959, c. 212, s. 2; 1961, cc. 208, 228, 339, 560, 683, 701, 1011, 1058; 1963, c. 157, s. 2; cc. 443, 504, 506, 613, 1101; 1965, cc. 189, 523, 622.)

§§ 158-25 through 158-29: Reserved for future codification purposes.

ARTICLE 4.

Global TransPark Development Zone.

§ 158-30. Title.

This Article shall be known as the "Global TransPark Development Zone Act". (1993, c. 544, s. 1.)

§ 158-31. Purpose.

The purpose of this Article is to allow the following counties, which have the potential to derive direct economic benefits from the North Carolina Global TransPark, to create a special economic development district, to be known as the Global TransPark Development Zone: Carteret, Craven, Duplin, Edgecombe, Greene, Jones, Lenoir, Nash, Onslow, Pamlico, Pitt, Wayne, and Wilson.

The purpose of the Global TransPark Development Zone is to promote the development of the North Carolina Global TransPark and to promote and encourage economic development within the territorial jurisdiction of the Zone by fostering or sponsoring development projects to provide land, buildings, facilities, programs, information and data systems, and infrastructure requirements for business and industry in the North Carolina Global TransPark outside of the Global TransPark Complex, and elsewhere in the Zone. (1993, c. 544, s. 1; 1993 (Reg. Sess., 1994), c. 751, s. 1.)

§ 158-32. Definitions.

The following definitions apply in this Article:

- (1) Authority. — The North Carolina Air Cargo Airport Authority created under Chapter 63A of the General Statutes, doing business as the North Carolina Global TransPark Authority.
- (2) Commission. — The Global TransPark Development Commission, the governing body of the Global TransPark Development Zone.
- (3) Global TransPark Complex. — The approximately four to six thousand acre site designated by the Authority for a cargo airport and related facilities in Lenoir County. The site will contain a modern airport large enough to handle the largest aircraft and will be dedicated to the rapid movement of freight and passengers by air with intermodal connecting links with rail, highway, and water transportation facilities.
- (4) North Carolina Global TransPark. — A large area surrounding and including the Global TransPark Complex, which will contain commercial and industrial sites providing attractive locations for business and industry of differing sizes and varying kinds.

- (5) Unit of Local Government. — A local subdivision or unit of government or a local public corporate entity, including any type of special district or public authority.
- (6) Zone. — The Global TransPark Development Zone, an economic development district created pursuant to this Article. (1993, c. 544, s. 1.)

§ 158-33. Creation of Global TransPark Development Zone.

(a) Resolution to Create Zone. — Any three or more of the counties listed in G.S. 158-31 may create the Global TransPark Development Zone as provided in this section. In order to create the Zone, the governing bodies of the counties creating the Zone must first adopt, on or before October 1, 1993, substantially similar resolutions stating their intent to organize the Zone pursuant to this Article. Each resolution shall include articles of incorporation for the Zone which shall set forth the following:

- (1) The name of the Zone, which shall be the “Global TransPark Development Zone”.
- (2) A statement that the Zone is organized under this Article.
- (3) The names of the organizing counties known to the county adopting the resolution.

(b) Public Hearing. — Each resolution may be adopted only after a public hearing on the question, notice of which hearing has been given by publication at least once after July 25, 1993, and not less than 10 days before the date set for the hearing, in a newspaper having a general circulation in the county. The notice shall contain a brief statement of the substance of the proposed resolution, set forth the proposed articles of incorporation of the Zone, and state the time and place of the public hearing to be held on the resolution. No other publication or notice of the resolution is required.

(c) Incorporation of Zone. — Each county that adopts a resolution as provided in this section shall file a certified copy of the resolution with the Secretary of State on or before October 15, 1993, together with proof of publication of notice of the hearing on the resolution. Each resolution must contain the county clerk’s attestation that it was adopted by the board of commissioners. If the Secretary of State finds that the resolutions, including the articles of incorporation, conform to the provisions of this Article and that notices of the hearings were properly published, the Secretary of State shall file the resolutions and proofs of publication and shall issue a certificate of incorporation for the Zone under the seal of the State. The Secretary of State shall record the certificate of incorporation in an appropriate book of record in the Secretary of State’s office.

(d) Effect of Incorporation. — The issuance of the certificate of incorporation by the Secretary of State shall constitute the Global TransPark Development Zone a public body and body politic and corporate of the State. The certificate of incorporation shall be conclusive evidence that the Zone has been duly created and established under this Article. (1993, c. 544, s. 1.)

§ 158-33.1. Addition of counties to Zone.

(a) Authority. — The Zone shall allow an eligible county to participate in the Zone as provided in this section. A county is eligible to participate in the Zone under this section if G.S. 158-31 authorizes the county to create the Zone, but the county failed to adopt a resolution stating its intent to create the Zone by the October 1, 1993, deadline set in G.S. 158-33(b).

(b) Application. — The governing body of an eligible county may apply to participate in the Zone under this section by adopting a resolution to participate in the Zone. The resolution must comply with all the requirements of G.S. 158-33(a) and (b) except that it may be adopted at any time before October 1, 1994. After adopting the resolution, the county shall file a certified copy of the resolution with the Global TransPark Development Commission.

(c) Approval of Application. — Within one month after receipt of an application to join the Zone pursuant to this section, the Commission shall meet to consider the application. At the meeting, the Commission shall approve the application if all of the following conditions are met:

- (1) The applicant is an eligible county and has adopted a resolution that complies with subsection (b) of this section.
- (2) The applicant agrees to pay a fee equal to the initiation fee paid by each of the counties that originally created the Zone.
- (3) The applicant agrees to make monthly payments in lieu of taxes as provided in subsection (f) of this section.

(d) Commission Resolution. — After the Commission votes to add a county to the Zone, the Commission shall adopt a resolution that states its intent to add the county and includes amended articles of incorporation for the Zone which set forth the name of the county to be added to the Zone. The Commission shall file certified copies of this resolution with the Secretary of State.

(e) Effect of Amendment. — If the Secretary of State finds that the resolution conforms to the requirements of this Article, the Secretary of State shall file the resolution, issue an amended certificate of incorporation for the Zone including the additional county, and record the amended certificate of incorporation. The amended certificate of incorporation for the Zone shall become effective on the first day of the second month after it is issued. Upon the effective date of the amended certificate of incorporation for the Zone, the new county becomes a fully participating member of the Zone. If the Commission has levied a tax in the Zone pursuant to G.S. 158-42, that tax applies within the new county beginning on the date the amended certificate of incorporation becomes effective.

(f) Payments in Lieu of Taxes. — A county that participates in the Zone under this section is required to make monthly payments in lieu of taxes to the Zone after the expiration of the tax levied pursuant to G.S. 158-42. Each payment shall be equal to the estimated net amount of tax that would have been collected in the county under G.S. 158-42 for that month if the tax were still in effect. Each payment is due within 15 days after the end of the month in which it accrues. The county is required to make monthly payments for a period equal to the number of months that the county was not participating in the Zone while the tax was levied under G.S. 158-42. The requirement that a county make payments in lieu of taxes expires, however, on the effective date of a withdrawal from the Zone by the county. For the purposes of this Article, payments in lieu of taxes shall be considered proceeds of the tax levied in G.S. 158-42 collected in the county making the payment. (1993 (Reg. Sess., 1994), c. 751, s. 2.)

§ 158-34. Territorial jurisdiction of Zone.

The territorial jurisdiction of the Zone created pursuant to this Article shall be coterminous with the boundaries of the counties participating in the Zone. (1993, c. 544, s. 1.)

§ 158-35. Commission membership, officers, compensation.

(a) Commission Membership. — The governing body of the Zone is the Global TransPark Development Commission. The members of the Commission must be residents of the Zone and shall be appointed as follows:

- (1) The board of commissioners of each county participating in the Zone shall appoint three voting members, one of whom shall be a minority person as defined in G.S. 143-128.2(g)(2) and one of whom may be a member of the board of commissioners.
- (2) The Commission shall appoint at least three but no more than seven voting members. By the appointment of these members, the Commission shall ensure that the voting membership of the Commission includes at least seven women and seven members of a racial minority described in G.S. 143-128.2(g)(2). The Commission shall appoint the fewest number of members necessary to achieve these minimums.
- (3) Four nonvoting members shall be appointed as follows:
  - a. One appointed by the Chancellor of East Carolina University to represent the University.
  - b. One appointed by a majority vote of the presidents of the community colleges located in the Zone, to represent the community colleges.
  - c. One appointed by the chair of the State Ports Authority, to represent the sea ports of the State.
  - d. One member of the board of directors of the Global TransPark Foundation, Inc., appointed by that board.

(b) Terms. — Members of the Commission shall serve for staggered four-year terms. The members appointed by the Chancellor of East Carolina University and by the chair of the State Ports Authority shall serve an initial term of two years. The members appointed by the community colleges located in the Zone and by the board of directors of the Global TransPark Foundation, Inc., shall serve an initial term of four years. The Authority shall designate at least one-half of its appointees to serve an initial term of two years; its remaining appointees shall serve an initial term of four years. Each board of commissioners shall designate one of its appointees to serve an initial term of four years, one to serve an initial term of two years, and one to serve an initial term to be determined at the first meeting of the Commission. One-half of the appointees designated to serve an undetermined initial term shall serve an initial term of two years, as determined by lot at the first meeting of the Commission. The remainder of the appointees designated to serve an undetermined initial term shall serve an initial term of four years. Initial terms begin upon approval by the Secretary of State of the articles of incorporation.

(c) Removal; Vacancies. — A member of the Commission may be removed with or without cause by the appointing body. In addition, a majority of the Commission members may, by majority vote, remove a member of the Commission if that member does not attend at least three-quarters of the regularly scheduled meetings of the Commission during any consecutive 12-month period of service of that member on the Commission, except that absences excused by the Commission due to serious medical or family circumstances shall not be considered. If the Commission votes to remove a member under this subsection, the vacancy shall be filled in the same manner as the original appointment. Appointments to fill vacancies shall be made for the remainder of the unexpired term by the respective appointing authority. All members shall serve until their successors are appointed and qualified, unless removed from office.

(d) Dual Office Holding. — Service on the Commission may be in addition to any other office a person is entitled to hold.

(e) Officers. — The Commission shall annually elect from its membership a chairperson and a vice-chairperson, and shall annually elect a secretary and a treasurer. After the Commission has been duly organized and its officers elected as provided in this section, the secretary of the Commission shall certify to the Secretary of State the names and addresses of the officers as well as the address of the principal office of the Commission.

(f) Compensation. — The members of the Commission shall receive no compensation other than travel, subsistence, and reasonable per diem expenses determined by the Commission for attendance at Commission meetings and other official Zone functions. (1993, c. 544, s. 1; 1998-217, s. 48; 2001-424, ss. 20.13(a), (b); 2001-496, s. 3.5.)

Editor’s Note. — Session Laws 2001-424, s. 1.2, provides: “This act shall be known as the ‘Current Operations and Capital Improvements Appropriations Act of 2001.’”

Session Laws 2001-424, s. 36.5 is a severability clause.

Session Laws 2001-496, s. 13.1 is a severability clause.

Effect of Amendments. — Session Laws 2001-424, ss. 20.13(a) and (b), effective July 1, 2001, substituted “Commission” for “Authority” in three places in subdivision (a)(2) and added the present second and third sentences of subsection (c).

Session Laws 2001-496, s. 3.5, effective January 1, 2002, and applicable to construction projects for which bids or proposals are solicited on or after that date, in subsection (a) of this section as amended by Session Laws 2001-424, s. 20.13(a), substituted “G.S. 143-128.2(g)(2)” for “G.S. 143-128(f)(2)” in subdivisions (a)(1) and (a)(2).

§ 158-36. Voting.

A majority of the Commission members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Each voting member of the Commission shall have one vote. The Commission may transact business only by majority vote of the voting members present and voting. (1993, c. 544, s. 1.)

§ 158-37. Powers of the Zone.

(a) The general powers of the Zone include the following:

- (1) The powers of a corporate body, including the power to sue and be sued and to adopt and use a common seal.
- (2) To adopt bylaws and resolutions in accordance with this Article for its organization and internal management.
- (3) To employ persons as necessary and to fix their compensation within the limit of available funds.
- (4) With the approval of the unit of local government’s chief administrative official, to use officers, employees, agents, and facilities of a unit of local government for purposes and upon terms agreed upon with the unit of local government.
- (5) To make contracts, deeds, leases with or without option to purchase, conveyances, and other instruments, including contracts with the United States, the State of North Carolina, and units of local government.
- (6) To acquire, lease as lessee with or without option to purchase, hold, own, and use any franchise or property or any interest in a franchise or property, within the limit of available funds.
- (7) To transfer, lease as lessor with or without option to purchase, exchange, or otherwise dispose of any franchise or property or any interest in a franchise or property, within the limit of available funds.
- (8) To surrender to the State of North Carolina any property no longer required by the Zone.

(b) The economic development powers of the Zone include the following, to the extent appropriate to carry out its purposes as provided in this Article:

- (1) To levy a temporary annual motor vehicle registration tax on vehicles with a tax situs within the Zone, as provided in G.S. 158-42.
- (2) To acquire, construct, improve, maintain, repair, operate, or administer any component part of a public infrastructure system or facility within the Zone, directly or by contract with a third party.

- (3) Except as otherwise provided in this Article, to exercise the powers granted to a local government for development by G.S. 158-7.1, except the power to levy a property tax.
- (4) To make grants and loans to support economic development projects authorized by this Article within the Zone.
- (5) Reserved.
- (6) To contract with units of local government within the Zone to administer the issuance of permits and approvals required of businesses.
- (7) To provide employee training programs to prepare workers for employment in the Zone.
- (8) To gather and maintain information of an economic, a business, or a commercial character that would be useful to businesses within the Zone.
- (9) To prepare specific site studies to assess the appropriateness of any area within the Zone for use or development by a business and to provide opportunities for businesses to examine sites.
- (10) To exercise the powers of a regional planning commission as provided in G.S. 153A-395 and the powers of a regional economic development commission as provided in Article 2 of this Chapter, but the Zone does not have the authority to establish land-use zoning in any county.
- (11) To carry out the purposes of a consolidation and governmental study commission as provided in Article 20 of Chapter 153A of the General Statutes.
- (12) To enter in a reasonable manner land, water, or premises within the Zone to make surveys, soundings, drillings, or examinations. Such an entry shall not constitute trespass, but the Zone shall be liable for actual damages resulting from such an entry.
- (13) To monitor and encourage the use of utility corridors adjacent to intrastate and interstate highways within the Zone that are four-lane, divided, limited-access highways.
- (14) To plan for and assist in the extension of natural gas within the Zone.
- (15) To assist in the placement of an information highway within the Zone.
- (16) To do all other things necessary or appropriate to carry out its purposes as provided in this Article. (1993, c. 544, s. 1; 1993 (Reg. Sess., 1994), c. 745, ss. 30, 31.)

§ 158-38. Fiscal accountability.

The Zone is a public authority subject to the provisions of Chapter 159 of the General Statutes. (1993, c. 544, s. 1.)

§ 158-39. Funds.

The establishment and operation of the Zone are governmental functions and constitute a public purpose. The State of North Carolina and any unit of local government may appropriate or otherwise provide funds to support the establishment and operation of the Zone. The State of North Carolina and any unit of local government may also dedicate, sell, convey, donate, or lease any of their interests in property to the Zone. The Zone may apply for grants from the State of North Carolina, the United States, or any department, agency, or instrumentality of the State or the United States. Any department of State government may allocate to the Zone any funds the use of which is not restricted by law. (1993, c. 544, s. 1.)

§ 158-40. Tax exemption.

Property owned by the Zone is exempt from taxation. This tax exemption does not apply to the lease, or other arrangement that amounts to a leasehold interest, of Zone property to a private party, or to the income of the lessee, unless the property is leased solely for the purpose of the Zone, in which case the activities of the lessee are considered the activities of the Zone. (1993, c. 544, s. 1.)

§ 158-41. Withdrawal; termination.

(a) Withdrawal. — A county participating in the Zone may, by resolution, withdraw from the Zone. A resolution withdrawing from the Zone may not become effective before the end of the fiscal year in which it is adopted. Upon adoption of a resolution withdrawing from the Zone, the board of commissioners of the county shall provide a copy of the resolution to the Secretary of State, the Commission, the Authority, and every other county participating in the Zone. Withdrawal does not entitle a county to early distribution of its beneficial interest in Zone assets, but a county that has withdrawn retains its right to any distributions that may be made to participating counties pursuant to subsection (b) of this section on the same basis as if it had not withdrawn. For all other purposes, a county that has withdrawn from the Zone no longer participates in the Zone.

(b) Termination. — The Commission may dissolve the Zone and terminate its existence at any time. If the Zone is dissolved and terminated or is otherwise unable to expend the tax proceeds received pursuant to G.S. 158-42, the Commission shall liquidate the assets of the Zone to the extent possible and distribute all Zone assets to the counties of the Zone in proportion to the amount of tax collected in each county. The assets of the Zone that exceed the amount of tax collected by the counties and are attributable to an appropriation made to the Zone by the General Assembly shall revert to the General Fund and may not be distributed to the counties. A county may use funds distributed to it pursuant to this subsection only for economic development projects and infrastructure construction projects. In calculating the amount to be refunded to each county, the Zone shall first allocate amounts loaned and not yet repaid as follows:

- (1) Amounts loaned for a project in a county will be allocated to that county to the extent of its beneficial ownership of the principal of the trust account created under G.S. 158-42 and the county will become the owner of the right to repayment of the amount loaned to the extent of its beneficial ownership of the principal of the trust account created under G.S. 158-42.
- (2) Amounts not allocated pursuant to subdivision (1) shall be allocated among the remaining counties in proportion to the amount of tax collected in each county under G.S. 158-42, and the remaining counties shall become the owners of the right to repayment of the amounts loaned in proportion to the amount of tax collected in each county under G.S. 158-42.

Notes and other instruments representing the right to repayment shall, upon dissolution of the Zone, be held and collected by the State Treasurer, who shall disburse the collections to the counties as provided in this subsection.

The Commission shall distribute those assets that it is unable to liquidate among the Zone counties insofar as practical on an equitable basis, as determined by the Commission. Upon termination, the State of North Carolina shall succeed to any remaining rights, obligations, and liabilities of the Zone not assigned to the Zone counties. (1993, c. 544, s. 1.)

§ 158-42. Temporary Zone vehicle registration tax.

(a) Levy. — The Commission may, by resolution, after not less than 10 days' public notice and a public hearing, levy an annual registration tax of five dollars ($5.00) on motor vehicles with a tax situs within the Zone. A tax levied under this section is in addition to any other motor vehicle license or registration tax.

The tax applies to vehicles required to pay a tax under G.S. 20-88, except trailers, and G.S. 20-87(1), (2), (4), (5), (6), and (7). The tax situs of a motor vehicle for the purpose of this section is its ad valorem tax situs. If the vehicle is not subject to ad valorem tax, its tax situs for the purpose of this section is the ad valorem tax situs it would have if it were subject to ad valorem tax.

(b) Effective Date; Expiration. — The effective date of a tax levied under this section shall be no earlier than July 1, 1994. The effective date of a tax levied under this section must be the first day of a calendar month set by the Commission in the resolution levying the tax, and shall be no earlier than the first day of the third calendar month after the adoption of the resolution.

The authority of the Zone to levy a tax under this section expires five years after the effective date of the first tax levied under this section. A tax levied under this section expires when the Zone's authority to levy the tax expires. The expiration of the tax does not affect the rights or liabilities of the Zone, a taxpayer, or another person arising under this section before the expiration of the tax; nor does it affect the right to any refund or credit of a tax that would otherwise have been available under this section before the expiration of the tax.

(c) Repeal of Tax. — The Commission may, by resolution, repeal a tax levied under this section. The effective date of the repeal must be the first day of a calendar month set by the Commission in the resolution repealing the tax, and shall be no earlier than the first day of the third calendar month after the adoption of the resolution. Repeal of the tax does not affect the date the Zone's authority to levy the tax expires under subsection (b) of this section. Repeal of the tax does not affect the rights or liabilities of the Zone, a taxpayer, or another person arising under this section before the effective date of the repeal; nor does it affect the right to any refund or credit of a tax that would otherwise have been available under this section before the effective date of the repeal.

(d) Administration. — The Division of Motor Vehicles of the Department of Transportation shall collect and administer a tax levied under this section. Immediately after adopting a resolution levying or repealing a tax under this section, the Commission shall deliver a certified copy of the resolution to the Division of Motor Vehicles. If the Secretary of State issues an amended certificate of incorporation adding a county to the Zone pursuant to G.S. 158-33.1, the Commission shall deliver a certified copy of the amended certificate immediately to the Division of Motor Vehicles. If the Commission receives a resolution from a county withdrawing from the Zone pursuant to G.S. 158-41, the Commission shall deliver a certified copy of the resolution immediately to the Division of Motor Vehicles.

A tax levied under this section is due at the same time and subject to the same restrictions as the tax levied in G.S. 20-87 and G.S. 20-88. The tax shall be prorated in accordance with G.S. 20-95. The Commissioner of Motor Vehicles may adopt rules necessary to administer the tax.

(e) Distribution of Tax Proceeds. — The Commissioner of Motor Vehicles shall credit the proceeds of the tax levied under this section to a special account and distribute the net proceeds on a quarterly basis to the Zone. Interest on the special account shall be credited quarterly to the Highway Fund to reimburse the Division of Motor Vehicles for the cost of collecting and administering the tax. The Commissioner of Motor Vehicles shall provide the Zone with an accounting of the percentage of proceeds collected in each county of the Zone in each quarter.

(f) Use of Tax Proceeds. — The Zone may use the proceeds of the tax levied under this section only for economic development projects and infrastructure construction projects that are within the territorial jurisdiction of the Zone but not within the Global TransPark Complex. The Zone shall use the tax proceeds only for public purposes authorized by this Article.

The Zone shall place fifteen percent (15%) of the tax proceeds distributed to it under this section in a general funds account and the remaining eighty-five percent (85%) in an interest-bearing trust account. Each county shall be the beneficial owner of a share of the principal of the trust account in proportion to the amount of tax proceeds collected in that county.

The Zone may not disburse the principal of the trust account except pursuant to a contract that provides that, within a reasonable time not to exceed 20 years, the Zone will recover or be repaid the amount disbursed. The Zone may, in its discretion, set reasonable terms and conditions for the repayment of the principal disbursed, including provisions for securing the debt and the payment of interest. (1993, c. 544, s. 1; 1993 (Reg. Sess., 1994), c. 751, s. 3; c. 761, s. 33; 1995, c. 465, s. 1.)

SUBCHAPTER I. SHORT TITLE AND DEFINITIONS.

ARTICLE 1.

*Short Title and Definitions.§ 159-1. Short title and definitions.

(a) This Chapter may be cited as “The Local Government Finance Act.”

(b) The words and phrases defined in this section have the meanings indicated when used in this Chapter, unless the context clearly requires another meaning, or unless the word or phrase is given a more restrictive meaning by definition in another Article herein.

- (1) “Chairman” means the chairman of the Local Government Commission.
- (2) “City” includes towns and incorporated villages.
- (3) “Clerk” means an officer or employee of a local government or public authority charged by law or direction of the governing board with the duty of keeping the minutes of board meetings and conserving records evidencing official actions of the board.
- (4) “Commission” means the Local Government Commission.
- (5) “Publish,” “publication,” and other forms of the word “publish” mean insertion in a newspaper qualified under G.S. 1-597 to publish legal advertisements.
- (6) “Secretary” means the secretary of the Local Government Commission.

(c) Words in the singular number include the plural, and in the plural include the singular. Words of the masculine gender include the feminine and the neuter, and when the sense so indicates, words of the neuter gender may refer to any gender. (1927, c. 81, s. 2; 1931, c. 60, s. 2; 1971, c. 780, s. 1.)

Local Modification. — (As to Chapter 159) Cabarrus Memorial Hospital: 1989 (Reg. Sess., 1990), c. 982.

Editor’s Note. — Many of the cases cited in the annotations to this Chapter were decided under former similar statutory provisions before the repeal in 1971 of former Chapter 159 and enactment of this Chapter.

Legal Periodicals. — For symposium on municipal finance, see 1976 Duke L.J. 1051 (1976).

§ 159-2. Computation of time.

(a) Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, whenever in this Chapter an act is to be done within a given period of time, the period of time shall be computed according to the rules set out in this section.

(b) When an act is to be done within a given number of days before or after a given day, the period is computed by counting forward beginning with the day following the given day, or counting backward beginning with the day next before the given day. Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays are counted as any other day.

(c) The word “month” means 30 days, unless the words “calendar month” are used, in which case the number of days in the month may vary according to the calendar.

(d) The word “year” means the calendar year.

(e) The word “day,” when used to denote a period of time within which an act may be done, means a period of 24 hours beginning at 12:00 midnight.

(f) When a time of day is given, the time is local time in the City of Raleigh, North Carolina. (1971, c. 780, s. 1.)

SUBCHAPTER II. LOCAL GOVERNMENT COMMISSION.

ARTICLE 2.

Local Government Commission.

§ 159-3. Local Government Commission established.

(a) The Local Government Commission consists of nine members. The State Treasurer, the State Auditor, the Secretary of State, and the Secretary of Revenue each serve ex officio; the remaining five members are appointed to four-year terms as follows: three by the Governor, one by the General Assembly upon the recommendation of the President Pro Tempore in accordance with G.S. 120-121, and one by the General Assembly upon the recommendation of the Speaker of the House in accordance with G.S. 120-121. Of the three members appointed by the Governor, one shall be or have been the mayor or a member of the governing board of a city and one shall be or have been a member of a county board of commissioners. The State Treasurer is chairman ex officio of the Local Government Commission. Membership on the Commission is an office that may be held concurrently with one other office, as permitted by G.S. 128-1.1.

(b) The Commission shall meet at least quarterly in the City of Raleigh, and may hold special meetings at any time or place upon notice to each member given in person or by mail not later than the fifth day before the meeting. The notice need not state the purpose of the meeting.

Action of the Commission shall be taken by resolution adopted by majority vote of those present and voting. A majority of the Commission constitutes a quorum.

(c) The appointed members of the Commission are entitled to the per diem compensation and allowances prescribed by G.S. 138-5. All members are entitled to reimbursement for necessary travel and other expenses.

(d) The Commission may call upon the Attorney General for legal advice in relation to its powers and duties.

(e) The Local Government Commission shall operate as a division of the Department of the State Treasurer.

(f) The Commission may adopt rules and regulations to carry out its powers and duties. (1931, c. 60, s. 7; c. 296, s. 8; 1933, c. 31, s. 1; 1957, c. 541, s. 18; 1963, c. 1130; 1969, c. 445, s. 1; 1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1973, c. 474, s. 2; c. 476, s. 193; 1995, c. 490, s. 30(a).)

§ 159-4. Executive committee; appeal.

(a) The State Auditor, the State Treasurer, the Secretary of State, and the Secretary of Revenue shall constitute the executive committee of the Local Government Commission. The executive committee is vested with all the powers of the Commission when it is not in session, except that the executive committee may not overrule, reverse, or disregard any action of the full Commission. Action of the executive committee shall be taken by resolution adopted by a majority of those present and voting. Any three members of the executive committee constitute a quorum. The chairman may call meetings of the executive committee at any time.

(b) Any member of the Commission or any person affected by an action of the executive committee may appeal to the full Commission by filing a request for review with the chairman within five days after the action is taken. Review of executive committee action by the full Commission shall be de novo. (1931, c. 60, ss. 8, 10; 1933, c. 31, s. 2; 1953, c. 675, s. 27; 1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1973, c. 476, s. 193.)

§ 159-5. Secretary and staff of the Commission.

The chairman shall appoint a secretary of the Commission, and may appoint such other deputies and assistants as may be necessary, who shall be responsible to the chairman through the secretary. The secretary and his deputies and assistants shall have and may exercise any power that the chairman himself may exercise. All actions taken by the secretary, including the signing of any documents and papers provided for in this Chapter, shall be effective as though the chairman himself had taken such action or signed such documents or papers. (1931, c. 60, s. 7; c. 296, s. 8; 1933, c. 31, s. 1; 1957, c. 541, s. 18; 1963, c. 1130; 1969, c. 445, s. 1; 1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1983, c. 717, s. 91.)

§ 159-6. Fees of the Commission.

(a) The Commission may charge and collect fees for services rendered and for all expenses incurred by the Commission in connection with approving or denying an application for an issue of other than general obligation bonds or notes, participating in the sale, award or delivery of such issue or carrying out any other of its powers and duties with respect to such issue or the issuer thereof, pursuant to the laws of the State of North Carolina.

(b) The Commission shall establish rules and regulations concerning the setting and collection of such fees. In establishing the amount of or method of determining such fees, the Commission shall take into account, among other things, the scope of its statutory responsibilities and the nature and extent of its services for such issue or issuer or class thereof.

(c) Such fees collected by the Commission shall be incorporated into the budget of the State Treasurer and shall be expended for costs incurred by the Commission in carrying out its statutory responsibilities in the issuance of revenue bonds.

(d) Apart from the above fees, the Commission is authorized to receive reimbursement for all expenses incurred in the sale or issuance of general obligation bonds and notes by assessing and collecting fees.

(e) In addition to any other fees authorized by this section, the Commission may charge and collect fees for services rendered and expenses incurred in reviewing and processing petitions of counties or cities concerning use of local sales and use tax revenue in accordance with G.S. 105-487(c). (1981 (Reg. Sess., 1982), c. 1175; 1983, c. 908, s. 2.)

SUBCHAPTER III. BUDGETS AND FISCAL CONTROL.

ARTICLE 3.

The Local Government Budget and Fiscal Control Act.

Part 1. Budgets.

§ 159-7. Short title; definitions; local acts superseded.

(a) This Article may be cited as “The Local Government Budget and Fiscal Control Act.”

(b) The words and phrases defined in this section have the meanings indicated when used in this Article, unless the context clearly requires another meaning.

- (1) “Budget” is a proposed plan for raising and spending money for specified programs, functions, activities or objectives during a fiscal year.
- (2) “Budget ordinance” is the ordinance that levies taxes and appropriates revenues for specified purposes, functions, activities, or objectives during a fiscal year.
- (3) “Budget year” is the fiscal year for which a budget is proposed or a budget ordinance is adopted.
- (4) “Debt service” is the sum of money required to pay installments of principal and interest on bonds, notes, and other evidences of debt accruing within a fiscal year, to maintain sinking funds, and to pay installments on debt instruments issued pursuant to Chapter 159G of the General Statutes or Chapter 159I of the General Statutes accruing within a fiscal year.
- (5), (6) Repealed by Session Laws 1975, c. 514, s. 2.
- (7) “Fiscal year” is the annual period for the compilation of fiscal operations, as prescribed in G.S. 159-8(b).
- (8) “Fund” is a fiscal and accounting entity with a self-balancing set of accounts recording cash and other resources, together with all related liabilities and residual equities or balances, and changes therein, for the purpose of carrying on specific activities or attaining certain objectives in accordance with special regulations, restrictions, or limitations.
- (9) Repealed by Session Laws 1975, c. 514, s. 2.
- (10) “Public authority” is a municipal corporation (other than a unit of local government) that is not subject to the Executive Budget Act (Article 1 of Chapter 143 of the General Statutes) or a local governmental authority, board, commission, council, or agency that (i) is not a municipal corporation, (ii) is not subject to the Executive Budget Act, and (iii) operates on an area, regional, or multi-unit basis, and the budgeting and accounting systems of which are not fully a part of the budgeting and accounting systems of a unit of local government.
- (11) Repealed by Session Laws 1975, c. 514, s. 2.
- (12) “Sinking fund” means a fund held for the retirement of term bonds.
- (13) “Special district” is a unit of local government (other than a county, city, town, or incorporated village) that is created for the performance of limited governmental functions or for the operation of a particular utility or public service enterprises.
- (14) “Taxes” do not include special assessments.

(15) "Unit," "unit of local government," or "local government" is a municipal corporation that is not subject to the Executive Budget Act (Article 1 of Chapter 143 of the General Statutes) and that has the power to levy taxes, including a consolidated city-county, as defined by G.S. 160B-2(1), and all boards, agencies, commissions, authorities, and institutions thereof that are not municipal corporations.

(16) "Vending facilities" has the same meaning as it does in G.S. 143-12.1.

(c) It is the intent of the General Assembly by enactment of this Article to prescribe for local governments and public authorities a uniform system of budget adoption and administration and fiscal control. To this end and except as otherwise provided in this Article, all provisions of general laws, city charters, and local acts in effect as of July 1, 1973 and in conflict with the provisions of Part 1 or Part 3 of this Article are repealed. No general law, city charter, or local act enacted or taking effect after July 1, 1973, may be construed to modify, amend, or repeal any portion of Part 1 or Part 3 of this Article unless it expressly so provides by specific reference to the appropriate section.

(d) Except as expressly provided herein, this Article does not apply to school administrative units. The adoption and administration of budgets for the public school system and the management of the fiscal affairs of school administrative units are governed by the School Budget and Fiscal Control Act, Chapter 115, Article 9. However, this Article and the School Budget and Fiscal Control Act shall be construed together to the end that the administration of the fiscal affairs of counties and school administrative units may be most effectively and efficiently administered. (1927, c. 146, ss. 1, 2; 1955, c. 724; 1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1973, c. 474, ss. 3, 4; 1975, c. 437, s. 12; c. 514, s. 2; 1981, c. 685, s. 1; 1983 (Reg. Sess., 1984), c. 1034, s. 173; 1987, c. 282, ss. 30, 31; c. 796, s. 3(1); 1989, c. 756, s. 3; 1995, c. 461, s. 9.)

OPINIONS OF ATTORNEY GENERAL

A Single-County Mental Health Program Is a Public Authority. — See opinion of Attorney General to Mr. Harlan E. Boyles, Local Government Commission, 44 N.C.A.G. 185 (1974).

District health department has authority to operate public transit on fare paying basis, without establishment of a Transportation Authority. Section 62-260(a)(1) specifically exempts political subdivisions of this State from regulation by the North Carolina Utilities Commission. See opinion of Attorney General to Mr. David D. King, Director of Division of Public Transportation, North Carolina Department of Transportation, 55 N.C.A.G. 76 (1986).

§ 159-8. Annual balanced budget ordinance.

(a) Each local government and public authority shall operate under an annual balanced budget ordinance adopted and administered in accordance with this Article. A budget ordinance is balanced when the sum of estimated net revenues and appropriated fund balances is equal to appropriations. Appropriated fund balance in any fund shall not exceed the sum of cash and investments minus the sum of liabilities, encumbrances, and deferred revenues arising from cash receipts, as those figures stand at the close of the fiscal year next preceding the budget year. It is the intent of this Article that, except for moneys expended pursuant to a project ordinance or accounted for in an intragovernmental service fund or a trust and agency fund excluded from the budget ordinance under G.S. 159-13(a), all moneys received and expended by a local government or public authority should be included in the budget ordinance. Therefore, notwithstanding any other provision of law, no local government or public authority may expend any moneys, regardless of their source (including moneys derived from bond proceeds, federal, state, or private grants or loans, or special assessments), except in accordance with a budget ordinance or project ordinance adopted under this Article or through an intragovernmental service fund or trust and agency fund properly excluded from the budget ordinance.

(b) The budget ordinance of a unit of local government shall cover a fiscal year beginning July 1 and ending June 30. The budget ordinance of a public authority shall cover a fiscal year beginning July 1 and ending June 30, except that the Local Government Commission, if it determines that a different fiscal year would facilitate the authority's financial operations, may enter an order permitting an authority to operate under a fiscal year other than from July 1 to June 30. If the Commission does permit an authority to operate under an altered fiscal year, the Commission's order shall also modify the budget calendar set forth in G.S. 159-10 through 159-13 so as to provide a new budget calendar for the altered fiscal year that will clearly enable the authority to comply with the intent of this Part. (1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1973, c. 474, s. 5; 1975, c. 514, s. 3; 1979, c. 402, s. 1; 1981, c. 685, s. 2.)

CASE NOTES

Effect of Town Council Appropriating Funds Outside Its Authority. — Where a town's resolution appropriating a certain percentage of its alcoholic beverage control revenue to county school board was outside the authority of the town council, the town council could not be estopped from terminating the unauthorized payments without notice. Watauga County Bd. of Educ. v. Town of Boone, 106 N.C. App. 270, 416 S.E.2d 411 (1992).

§ 159-9. Budget officer.

Each local government and public authority shall appoint a budget officer to serve at the will of the governing board. In counties or cities having the manager form of government, the county or city manager shall be the budget officer. Counties not having the manager form of government may impose the duties of budget officer upon the county finance officer or any other county officer or employee except the sheriff, or in counties having a population of more than 7,500, the register of deeds. Cities not having the manager form of government may impose the duties of budget officer on any city officer or employee, including the mayor if he agrees to undertake them. A public authority or special district may impose the duties of budget officer on the chairman or any member of its governing board or any other officer or employee. (1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1973, c. 474, s. 6.)

§ 159-10. Budget requests.

Before April 30 of each fiscal year (or an earlier date fixed by the budget officer), each department head shall transmit to the budget officer the budget requests and revenue estimates for his department for the budget year. The budget request shall be an estimate of the financial requirements of the department for the budget year, and shall be made in such form and detail, with such supporting information and justifications, as the budget officer may prescribe. The revenue estimate shall be an estimate of all revenues to be realized by department operations during the budget year. At the same time, the finance officer or department heads shall transmit to the budget officer a complete statement of the amount expended for each category of expenditure in the budget ordinance of the immediately preceding fiscal year, a complete statement of the amount estimated to be expended for each category of expenditure in the current year's budget ordinance by the end of the current fiscal year, the amount realized from each source of revenue during the immediately preceding fiscal year, and the amount estimated to be realized from each source of revenue by the end of the current fiscal year, and such other information and data on the fiscal operations of the local government or public authority as the budget officer may request. (1927, c. 146, s. 5; 1955, cc. 698, 724; 1971, c. 780, s. 1.)

§ 159-11. Preparation and submission of budget and budget message.

(a) Upon receipt of the budget requests and revenue estimates and the financial information supplied by the finance officer and department heads, the budget officer shall prepare a budget for consideration by the governing board in such form and detail as may have been prescribed by the budget officer or the governing board. The budget shall comply in all respects with the limitations imposed by G.S. 159-13(b), and unless the governing board shall have authorized or requested submission of an unbalanced budget as provided in subsection (c) of this section, the budget shall be balanced.

(b) The budget, together with a budget message, shall be submitted to the governing board not later than June 1. The budget and budget message should, but need not, be submitted at a formal meeting of the board. The budget message should contain a concise explanation of the governmental goals fixed by the budget for the budget year, should explain important features of the activities anticipated in the budget, should set forth the reasons for stated changes from the previous year in program goals, programs, and appropriation levels, and should explain any major changes in fiscal policy.

(c) The governing board may authorize or request the budget officer to submit a budget containing recommended appropriations in excess of estimated revenues. If this is done, the budget officer shall present the appropriations recommendations in a manner that will reveal for the governing board the nature of the activities supported by the expenditures that exceed estimated revenues.

(d) The budget officer shall include in the budget a proposed financial plan for each intragovernmental service fund, as required by G.S. 159-13.1, and information concerning capital projects and grant projects authorized or to be authorized by project ordinances, as required by G.S. 159-13.2. (1927, c. 146, s. 6; 1955, cc. 698, 724; 1969, c. 976, s. 1; 1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1975, c. 514, s. 4; 1979, c. 402, s. 2.)

§ 159-12. Filing and publication of the budget; budget hearings.

(a) On the same day that he submits the budget to the governing board, the budget officer shall file a copy of it in the office of the clerk to the board where it shall remain available for public inspection until the budget ordinance is adopted. The clerk shall make a copy of the budget available to all news media in the county. He shall also publish a statement that the budget has been submitted to the governing board, and is available for public inspection in the office of the clerk to the board. The statement shall also give notice of the time and place of the budget hearing required by subsection (b) of this section.

(b) Before adopting the budget ordinance, the board shall hold a public hearing at which time any persons who wish to be heard on the budget may appear. (1927, c. 146, s. 7; 1955, cc. 698, 724; 1971, c. 780, s. 1.)

§ 159-13. The budget ordinance; form, adoption, limitations, tax levy, filing.

(a) Not earlier than 10 days after the day the budget is presented to the board and not later than July 1, the governing board shall adopt a budget ordinance making appropriations and levying taxes for the budget year in such sums as the board may consider sufficient and proper, whether greater or less than the sums recommended in the budget. The budget ordinance shall authorize all financial transactions of the local government or public authority except

- (1) Those authorized by a project ordinance,
- (2) Those accounted for in an intragovernmental service fund for which a financial plan is prepared and approved, and
- (3) Those accounted for in a trust or agency fund established to account for moneys held by the local government or public authority as an agent or common-law trustee or to account for a retirement, pension, or similar employee benefit system.

The budget ordinance may be in any form that the board considers most efficient in enabling it to make the fiscal policy decisions embodied therein, but it shall make appropriations by department, function, or project and show revenues by major source.

(b) The following directions and limitations shall bind the governing board in adopting the budget ordinance:

- (1) The full amount estimated by the finance officer to be required for debt service during the budget year shall be appropriated.

- (2) The full amount of any deficit in each fund shall be appropriated.
- (3) A contingency appropriation shall not exceed five percent (5%) of the total of all other appropriations in the same fund, except there is no limit on contingency appropriations for public assistance programs required by Chapter 108A. Each expenditure to be charged against a contingency appropriation shall be authorized by resolution of the governing board, which resolution shall be deemed an amendment to the budget ordinance setting up an appropriation for the object of expenditure authorized. The governing board may authorize the budget officer to authorize expenditures from contingency appropriations subject to such limitations and procedures as it may prescribe. Any such expenditures shall be reported to the board at its next regular meeting and recorded in the minutes.
- (4) No appropriation may be made that would require the levy of a tax in excess of any constitutional or statutory limitation, or expenditures of revenues for purposes not permitted by law.
- (5) The total of all appropriations for purposes which require voter approval for expenditure of property tax funds under Article V, Sec. 2(5), of the Constitution shall not exceed the total of all estimated revenues other than the property tax (not including such revenues required by law to be spent for specific purposes) and property taxes levied for such purposes pursuant to a vote of the people.
- (6) The estimated percentage of collection of property taxes shall not be greater than the percentage of the levy actually realized in cash as of June 30 during the preceding fiscal year. For purposes of the calculation under this subdivision only, the levy for the registered motor vehicle tax under Article 22A of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes shall be based on the nine-month period ending March 31 of the preceding fiscal year, and the collections realized in cash with respect to this levy shall be based on the 12-month period ending June 30 of the preceding fiscal year.
- (7) Estimated revenues shall include only those revenues reasonably expected to be realized in the budget year, including amounts to be realized from collections of taxes levied in prior fiscal years.
- (8) Repealed by Session Laws 1975, c. 514, s. 6.
- (9) Appropriations made to a school administrative unit by a county may not be reduced after the budget ordinance is adopted, unless the board of education of the administrative unit agrees by resolution to a reduction, or unless a general reduction in county expenditures is required because of prevailing economic conditions.
- (10) Appropriations made to another fund from a fund established to account for property taxes levied pursuant to a vote of the people may not exceed the amount of revenues other than the property tax available to the fund, except for appropriations from such a fund to an appropriate account in a capital reserve fund.
- (11) Repealed by Session Laws 1975, c. 514, s. 6.
- (12) Repealed by Session Laws 1981, c. 685, s. 4.
- (13) No appropriation of the proceeds of a bond issue may be made from the capital project fund account established to account for the proceeds of the bond issue except (i) for the purpose for which the bonds were issued, (ii) to the appropriate debt service fund, or (iii) to an account within a capital reserve fund consistent with the purposes for which the bonds were issued. The total of other appropriations made to another fund from such a capital project fund account may not exceed the amount of revenues other than bond proceeds available to the account.

- (14) No appropriation may be made from a utility or public service enterprise fund to any other fund than the appropriate debt service fund unless the total of all other appropriations in the fund equal or exceed the amount that will be required during the fiscal year, as shown by the budget ordinance, to meet operating expenses, capital outlay, and debt service on outstanding utility or enterprise bonds or notes.
- (15) Sufficient funds to meet the amounts to be paid during the fiscal year under continuing contracts previously entered into shall be appropriated unless such contract reserves to the governing board the right to limit or not to make such appropriation.
- (16) The sum of estimated net revenues and appropriated fund balance in each fund shall be equal to appropriations in that fund. Appropriated fund balance in a fund shall not exceed the sum of cash and investments minus the sum of liabilities, encumbrances, and deferred revenues arising from cash receipts, as those figures stand at the close of the fiscal year next preceding the budget year.
- (17) No appropriations may be made from a county reappraisal reserve fund except for the purposes for which the fund was established.
- (18) No appropriation may be made from a service district fund to any other fund except (i) to the appropriate debt service fund or (ii) to an appropriate account in a capital reserve fund unless the district has been abolished.
- (19) No appropriation of the proceeds of a debt instrument may be made from the capital project fund account established to account for such proceeds except for the purpose for which such debt instrument was issued. The total of other appropriations made to another fund from such a capital project fund account may not exceed the amount of revenues other than debt instrument proceeds available to the account.

Notwithstanding subdivisions (9), (10), (12), (14), (17), or (18) of this subsection, any fund may contain an appropriation to another fund to cover the cost of (i) levying and collecting the taxes and other revenues allocated to the fund, and (ii) building maintenance and other general overhead and administrative expenses properly allocable to functions or activities financed from the fund.

(c) The budget ordinance of a local government shall levy taxes on property at rates that will produce the revenue necessary to balance appropriations and revenues, after taking into account the estimated percentage of the levy that will not be collected during the fiscal year. The budget ordinance of a public authority shall be balanced so that appropriations do not exceed revenues.

(d) The budget ordinance shall be entered in the minutes of the governing board and within five days after adoption copies thereof shall be filed with the finance officer, the budget officer, and the clerk to the governing board. (1927, c. 146, s. 8; 1955, cc. 698, 724; 1969, c. 976, s. 2; 1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1973, c. 474, ss. 7-9; c. 489, s. 3; 1975, c. 437, ss. 13, 14; c. 514, ss. 5, 6; 1981, c. 685, ss. 3-5, 10; 1987, c. 796, s. 3(2); 1989, c. 756, s. 2; 1999-261, s. 1; 2000-140, s. 80.)

Editor's Note. — Subdivision (b)(12), referred to in the last paragraph of subsection (b) of this section, was repealed by Session Laws 1981, c. 685, s. 4.

Effect of Amendments. — Session Laws

2000-140, s. 80, effective July 21, 2000, in subdivision (b)(6), substituted "Article 22A" for "Article 22C" and substituted "12-month" for "twelve month."

CASE NOTES

The statutory limitation on the legal right to transfer or allocate funds from one project to another is exceeded only where a board used funds derived from the sale of school bonds for nonschool purposes. Since in the instant case all expenditures were for school purposes, the individual defendants, as members of the Board of Education or Board of Commissioners, were not acting outside the scope of their duties. *Moore v. ### § 159-13.1. Financial plan for intragovernmental service funds.

(a) If a local government or public authority establishes and operates one or more intragovernmental service funds, it need not include such a fund in its budget ordinance. However, at the same time it adopts the budget ordinance, the governing board shall approve a balanced financial plan for each intragovernmental service fund. A financial plan is balanced when estimated expenditures do not exceed estimated revenues.

(b) The budget officer shall include in the budget he submits to the board, pursuant to G.S. 159-11, a proposed financial plan for each intragovernmental service fund to be operated during the budget year by the local government or public authority. The proposed financial plan shall be in such form and detail as prescribed by the budget officer or governing board.

(c) The approved financial plan shall be entered in the minutes of the governing board, as shall each amendment to the plan approved by the board. Within five days after approval, copies of the plan and copies of each amendment thereto shall be filed with the finance officer, the budget officer, and the clerk to the governing board.

(d) Any change in a financial plan must be approved by the governing board. (1975, c. 514, s. 7.)

§ 159-13.2. Project ordinances.

(a) Definitions. —

(1) In this section “capital project” means a project financed in whole or in part by the proceeds of bonds or notes or debt instruments or a project involving the construction or acquisition of a capital asset.

(2) “Grant project” means a project financed in whole or in part by revenues received from the federal and/or State government for operating or capital purposes as defined by the grant contract.

(b) Alternative Budget Methods. — A local government or public authority may, in its discretion, authorize and budget for a capital project or a grant project either in its annual budget ordinance or in a project ordinance adopted pursuant to this section. A project ordinance authorizes all appropriations necessary for the completion of the project and neither it nor any part of it need be readopted in any subsequent fiscal year. Neither a bond order nor an order authorizing any debt instrument constitutes a project ordinance.

(c) Adoption of Project Ordinances. — If a local government or public authority intends to authorize a capital project or a grant project by a project ordinance, it shall not begin the project until it has adopted a balanced project ordinance for the life of the project. A project ordinance is balanced when revenues estimated to be available for the project equal appropriations for the project. A project ordinance shall clearly identify the project and authorize its undertaking, identify the revenues that will finance the project, and make the appropriations necessary to complete the project.

(d) Project Ordinance Filed. — Each project ordinance shall be entered in the minutes of the governing board. Within five days after adoption, copies of the ordinance shall be filed with the finance officer, the budget officer, and the clerk to the governing board.

(e) Amendment. — A project ordinance may be amended in any manner so long as it continues to fulfill all requirements of this section.

(f) Inclusion of Project Information in Budget. — Each year the budget officer shall include in the budget information in such detail as he or the governing board may require concerning each grant project or capital project (i) expected to be authorized by project ordinance during the budget year and (ii) authorized by previously adopted project ordinances which will have appropriations available for expenditure during the budget year. (1975, c. 514, s. 8; 1979, c. 402, s. 3; 1987, c. 796, s. 3(3), 3(4).)

§ 159-14. Trust and agency funds; budgets of special districts.

(a) Budgets of Special Districts. — If the tax-levying power of a special district is by law exercised on its behalf by a county or city, and if the county or city governing board is vested by law with discretion as to what rate of tax it will levy on behalf of the special district, the governing board of the special district shall transmit to the governing board of the county or city on or before June 1 a request to levy taxes on its behalf for the budget year at a stated rate. The county or city governing board shall then determine what rate of tax it will approve, and shall so notify the district governing board not later than June 15. Failure of the county or city governing board to act on the district's request on or before June 15 and to so notify the district governing board by that date shall be deemed approval of the full rate requested by the district governing board. Upon receiving notification from the county or city governing board as to what rate of tax will be approved or after June 15 if no such notification is received, the district governing board shall complete its budget deliberations and shall adopt its budget ordinance.

If the tax-levying power of a special district is by law exercised on its behalf by a county or city, and if the county or city governing board has no discretion as to what rate of tax it will levy on behalf of the special district, the governing board of the district shall notify the city or county by June 15 of the rate of tax it wishes to have levied. If the district does not notify the county or city governing board on or before June 15 of the rate of tax it wishes to have levied, the county or city is not required to levy a tax for the district for the fiscal year.

If the taxes of a special district are collected on its behalf by a county or city, and if the county or city governing board has no power to approve the district tax levy, the district governing board shall adopt its budget ordinance not later than July 1 and on or before July 15 shall notify the county or city collecting its taxes of the rate of tax it has levied. If the district does not notify the county or city governing board on or before July 15 of the rate of tax it has levied, the county or city is not required to collect the district's taxes for the fiscal year.

(b) Transfers from Certain Trust and Agency Funds. — Except for transfers to the appropriate special district or public authority, a unit of local government may not transfer moneys from a fund established to account for taxes collected on behalf of a special district or from a fund established to account for special assessments collected on behalf of a public authority unless the special district or public authority has ceased to function. (1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1973, c. 474, ss. 10, 11; 1975, c. 514, s. 9.)

§ 159-15. Amendments to the budget ordinance.

Except as otherwise restricted by law, the governing board may amend the budget ordinance at any time after the ordinance's adoption in any manner, so long as the ordinance, as amended, continues to satisfy the requirements of G.S. 159-8 and 159-13. However, no amendment may increase or reduce a property tax levy or in any manner alter a property taxpayer's liability, unless the board is ordered to do so by a court of competent jurisdiction, or by a State agency having the power to compel the levy of taxes by the board.

The governing board by appropriate resolution or ordinance may authorize the budget officer to transfer moneys from one appropriation to another within the same fund subject to such limitations and procedures as it may prescribe. Any such transfers shall be reported to the governing board at its next regular meeting and shall be entered in the minutes. (1927, c. 146, s. 13; 1955, cc. 698, 724; 1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1973, c. 474, s. 12; 2001-308, s. 3.)

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 2001-308, s. 3, effective July 1, 2001, and pursuant to s. 4 of the act expiring October 1, 2001, read: "Except as otherwise restricted by law, the governing board may amend the budget ordinance at any time after the ordinance's adoption in any manner, so long as the ordinance, as amended, continues to satisfy the requirements of G.S. 159-8 and 159-13. However, except as otherwise provided in this section, no amendment may increase or reduce a property tax levy or in any manner alter a property taxpayer's liability, unless the board is ordered to do so by a court of competent jurisdiction, or by a State agency having the power to compel the levy of taxes by the board."

"If after July 1 the local government receives additional and unanticipated revenues, the governing body may amend the budget ordinance to reduce the property tax levy to account for the unanticipated revenues."

"The governing board by appropriate resolution or ordinance may authorize the budget officer to transfer moneys from one appropriation to another within the same fund subject to such limitations and procedures as it may prescribe. Any such transfers shall be reported to the governing board at its next regular meeting and shall be entered in the minutes."

The section is set out above as it read prior to the amendment by Session Laws 2001-308, s. 3.

§ 159-16. Interim budget.

In case the adoption of the budget ordinance is delayed until after July 1, the governing board shall make interim appropriations for the purpose of paying salaries, debt service payments, and the usual ordinary expenses of the local government or public authority for the interval between the beginning of the budget year and the adoption of the budget ordinance. Interim appropriations so made shall be charged to the proper appropriations in the budget ordinance. (1927, c. 146, s. 14; 1955, cc. 698, 724; 1971, c. 780, s. 1.)

§ 159-17. Ordinance procedures not applicable to budget or project ordinance adoption.

Notwithstanding the provisions of any city charter, general law, or local act:

- (1) Any action with respect to the adoption or amendment of the budget ordinance or any project ordinance may be taken at any regular or special meeting of the governing board by a simple majority of those present and voting, a quorum being present;
- (2) No action taken with respect to the adoption or amendment of the budget ordinance or any project ordinance need be published or is subject to any other procedural requirement governing the adoption of ordinances or resolutions by the governing board other than the procedures set out in this Article;
- (3) The adoption and amendment of the budget ordinance or any project ordinance and the levy of taxes in the budget ordinance are not subject to the provisions of any city charter or local act concerning initiative or referendum.

During the period beginning with the submission of the budget to the governing board and ending with the adoption of the budget ordinance, the governing board may hold any special meetings that may be necessary to complete its work on the budget ordinance. Except for the notice requirements of G.S. 143-318.12, which continue to apply, no provision of law concerning the call of special meetings applies during that period so long as (i) each member of the board has actual notice of each special meeting called for the purpose of considering the budget, and (ii) no business other than consideration of the budget is taken up. This section does not allow the holding of closed meetings or executive sessions by any governing board otherwise prohibited by law from holding such a meeting or session, and may not be construed to do so.

No general law, city charter, or local act enacted or taking effect after July 1, 1973, may be construed to modify, amend, or repeal any portion of this section unless it expressly so provides by specific reference to this section. (1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1973, c. 474, s. 13; 1979, c. 402, ss. 4, 5; c. 655, s. 2.)

Local Modification. — Wilmington/New Hanover County Consolidated Government: 1987, c. 643; city of Wilmington: 1983, c. 367.

§ 159-17.1. Vending facilities.

Moneys received by a public authority, special district, or unit of local government on account of operation of vending facilities shall be deposited, budgeted, appropriated, and expended in accordance with the provisions of this Article. (1983 (Reg. Sess., 1984), c. 1034, s. 174.)

Part 2. Capital Reserve Funds.

§ 159-18. Capital reserve funds.

Any local government or public authority may establish and maintain a capital reserve fund for any purposes for which it may issue bonds. A capital reserve fund shall be established by resolution or ordinance of the governing board which shall state (i) the purposes for which the fund is created, (ii) the approximate periods of time during which the moneys are to be accumulated for each purpose, (iii) the approximate amounts to be accumulated for each purpose, and (iv) the sources from which moneys for each purpose will be derived. (1943, c. 593, ss. 3, 5; 1957, c. 863, s. 1; 1967, c. 1189; 1971, c. 780, s. 1.)

Legal Periodicals. — For comment on former Article 10A of Chapter 153, corresponding to this Part, see 21 N.C.L. Rev. 357 (1943).

For symposium on municipal finance, see 1976 Duke L.J. 1051.

CASE NOTES

Constitutionality of Former Statute. — Former § 115-80.1, authorizing a county board of commissioners to levy an ad valorem tax for a county school capital reserve fund, to be used for the purpose of anticipating school capital outlays, was a valid exercise of legislative authority; the creation of such a fund is for a “necessary expense” within the meaning of N.C. Const., Art. V, § 4(2), and does not require a vote of the people. Yoder v. Board of Comm’rs, 7 N.C. App. 712, 173 S.E.2d 529 (1970).

Without the establishment of a capital reserve fund, the requirements of former Article 10A of Chapter 153, corresponding to this Part, never came into play. Davis v. Iredell County, 9 N.C. App. 381, 176 S.E.2d 361 (1970). Wrightsville Beach, 703 F. Supp. 1192 (E.D.N.C. 1988).

Cited in South Shell Inv. v. Town of ### § 159-19. Amendments.

The resolution or ordinance may be amended from time to time in the same manner in which it was adopted. Amendments may, among other provisions, authorize the use of moneys accumulated or to be accumulated in the fund for capital outlay purposes not originally stated. (1943, c. 593, s. 7; 1967, c. 1189; 1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1973, c. 474, s. 14.)

§ 159-20. Funding capital reserve funds.

Capital reserve funds may be funded by appropriations from any other fund consistent with the limitations imposed in G.S. 159-13(b). When moneys or investment securities, the use of which is restricted by law, come into a capital reserve fund, the identity of such moneys or investment securities shall be maintained by appropriate accounting entries. (1943, c. 593, s. 4; 1945, c. 464, s. 2; 1957, c. 863, s. 1; 1967, c. 1189; 1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1973, c. 474, s. 15.)

§ 159-21. Investment.

The cash balances, in whole or in part, of capital reserve funds may be deposited at interest or invested as provided by G.S. 159-30. (1957, c. 863, s. 1; 1967, c. 1189; 1971, c. 780, s. 1.)

§ 159-22. Withdrawals.

Withdrawals from a capital reserve fund may be authorized by resolution or ordinance of the governing board of the local government or public authority. No withdrawal may be authorized for any purpose not specified in the resolution or ordinance establishing the fund or in a resolution or ordinance amending it. The withdrawal resolution or ordinance shall authorize an appropriation from the capital reserve fund to an appropriate appropriation in one of the funds maintained pursuant to G.S. 159-13(a). No withdrawal may be made which would result in an appropriation for purposes for which an adequate balance of eligible moneys or investment securities is not then available in the capital reserve fund. (1943, c. 593, ss. 11, 16; 1945, c. 464, s. 2; 1949, c. 196, s. 3; 1957, c. 863, s. 1; 1967, c. 1189; 1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1973, c. 474, s. 16.)

§ 159-23: Reserved for future codification purposes.

Part 3. Fiscal Control.

§ 159-24. Finance officer.

Each local government and public authority shall appoint a finance officer to hold office at the pleasure of the appointing board or official. The finance officer may be entitled "accountant," "treasurer," "finance director," "finance officer," or any other reasonably descriptive title. The duties of the finance officer may be imposed on the budget officer or any other officer or employee on whom the duties of budget officer may be imposed. (1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1973, c. 474, s. 17.)

Local Modification. — (As to Part 3) Durham: 1993 (Reg. Sess., 1994), c. 666, s. 1; (As to Part 3) city of Durham: 1993 (Reg. Sess., 1994), c. 616, s. 1.

Cross References. — As to the Local Government Fiscal Information Act, see §§ 120-30.41 through 120-30.48.

§ 159-25. Duties of finance officer; dual signatures on checks; internal control procedures subject to Commission regulation.

- (a) The finance officer shall have the following powers and duties:
  - (1) He shall keep the accounts of the local government or public authority in accordance with generally accepted principles of governmental accounting and the rules and regulations of the Commission.
  - (2) He shall disburse all funds of the local government or public authority in strict compliance with this Chapter, the budget ordinance, and each project ordinance and shall preaudit obligations and disbursements as required by this Chapter.
  - (3) As often as may be requested by the governing board or the manager, he shall prepare and file with the board a statement of the financial condition of the local government or public authority.
  - (4) He shall receive and deposit all moneys accruing to the local government or public authority, or supervise the receipt and deposit of money by other duly authorized officers or employees.
  - (5) He shall maintain all records concerning the bonded debt and other obligations of the local government or public authority, determine the amount of money that will be required for debt service or the payment of other obligations during each fiscal year, and maintain all sinking funds.
  - (6) He shall supervise the investment of idle funds of the local government or public authority.
  - (7) He shall perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by law, by the manager, budget officer, or governing board, or by rules and regulations of the Commission.

All references in other portions of the General Statutes, local acts, or city charters to county, city, special district, or public authority accountants, treasurers, or other officials performing any of the duties conferred by this section on the finance officer shall be deemed to refer to the finance officer.

(b) Except as otherwise provided by law, all checks or drafts on an official depository shall be signed by the finance officer or a properly designated deputy finance officer and countersigned by another official of the local government or public authority designated for this purpose by the governing board. If the board makes no other designation, the chairman of the board or chief executive officer of the local government or public authority shall countersign these checks and drafts. The governing board of a unit or authority may waive the requirements of this subsection if the board determines that the internal control procedures of the unit or authority will be satisfactory in the absence of dual signatures.

(c) The Local Government Commission has authority to issue rules and regulations having the force of law governing procedures for the receipt, deposit, investment, transfer, and disbursement of money and other assets by units of local government and public authorities, may inquire into and investigate the internal control procedures of a local government or public authority, and may require any modifications in internal control procedures which, in the opinion of the Commission, are necessary or desirable to prevent embezzlements or mishandling of public moneys. (1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1973, c. 474, ss. 18-20; 1975, c. 514, s. 10; 1987, c. 796, s. 3(5).)

CASE NOTES

Detailed Accounts to Be Kept. — Under the provisions of the former County Fiscal Control Act, it was the duty of a county accountant to keep detailed accounts of appropriations and disbursements of county funds and to certify on each warrant or order drawn against the county that provision had been made for its payment and appropriation duly made or a bond or note duly authorized as required by the act. Avery County v. Braswell, 215 N.C. 270, 1 S.E.2d 864 (1939).

Certification of Vouchers. — The duties of a county accountant in certifying county vouchers under the former County Fiscal Control Act were special in character and were in addition to and not in substitution for the duties and functions of other county officers, and even if it were conceded that the signing of the voucher by the chairman of the county board was malfeasance, the accountant and his surety could not avoid liability on the ground that some other officer was guilty of negligence or malfeasance. Avery County v. Braswell, 215 N.C. 270, 1 S.E.2d 864 (1939).

Summary judgment was inappropriate on plaintiffs' claim that defendant county failed to comply with its duties under the budget ordinance where it was unclear from the record whether the board continued to approve and appropriate in their budget ordinance each year the longevity pay plan originally proposed by the sheriff and adopted by the county in 1980. Hubbard v. County of Cumberland, 143 N.C. App. 149, 544 S.E.2d 587 (2001), cert. denied, 354 N.C. 69, — S.E.2d — (2001).

Submission of Charges to Jury. — Where the evidence showed that expenditures contained both valid and invalid items, the court properly submitted the charges of approving an invalid claim and failure to preaudit to the jury. State v. Davis, 48 N.C. App. 526, 269 S.E.2d 291, cert. denied and appeal dismissed, 301 N.C. 237, 283 S.E.2d 134 (1980).

County Not Entitled to Sovereign Immunity. — Defendant county has a statutory duty to provide the salaries to which it has committed itself in the enacted budget ordinance and may not, after having availed itself of the services provided by the law enforcement officers, claim sovereign immunity as a defense to its statutory and contractual commitment. Hubbard v. County of Cumberland, 143 N.C. App. 149, 544 S.E.2d 587 (2001), cert. denied, 354 N.C. 69, — S.E.2d — (2001).

Applied in State v. Davis, 45 N.C. App. 72, 262 S.E.2d 827 (1980).

§ 159-26. Accounting system.

(a) System Required. — Each local government or public authority shall establish and maintain an accounting system designed to show in detail its assets, liabilities, equities, revenues, and expenditures. The system shall also be designed to show appropriations and estimated revenues as established in the budget ordinance and each project ordinance as originally adopted and subsequently amended.

(b) Funds Required. — Each local government or public authority shall establish and maintain in its accounting system such of the following funds and ledgers as are applicable to it. The generic meaning of each type of fund or ledger listed below is that fixed by generally accepted accounting principles.

(1) General fund.

(2) Special Revenue Funds. — One or more separate funds shall be established for each of the following classes: (i) functions or activities financed in whole or in part by property taxes voted by the people, (ii) service districts established pursuant to the Municipal or County Service District Acts, and (iii) grant project ordinances. If more than one function is accounted for in a voted tax fund, or more than one district in a service district fund, or more than one grant project in a project fund, separate accounts shall be established in the appropriate fund for each function, district, or project.

(3) Debt service funds.

(4) A Fund for Each Utility or Enterprise Owned or Operated by the Unit or Public Authority. — If a water system and a sanitary sewerage system are operated as a consolidated system, one fund may be established and maintained for the consolidated system.

(5) Internal service funds.

- (6) Capital Project Funds. — Such a fund shall be established to account for the proceeds of each bond order or order authorizing any debt instrument and for all other resources used for the capital projects financed by the bond or debt instrument proceeds. A unit or public authority may account for two or more bond orders or orders authorizing any debt instrument in one capital projects fund, but the proceeds of each such order and the other revenues associated with that order shall be separately accounted for in the fund.
- (7) Trust and agency funds, including a fund for each special district, public authority, or school administrative unit whose taxes or special assessments are collected by the unit.
- (8) A ledger or group of accounts in which to record the details relating to the general fixed assets of the unit or public authority.
- (9) A ledger or group of accounts in which to record the details relating to the general obligation bonds and notes and other long-term obligations of the unit.

In addition, each unit or public authority shall establish and maintain any other funds required by other statutes or by State or federal regulations.

(c) Basis of Accounting. — Except as otherwise provided by regulation of the Commission, local governments and public authorities shall use the modified accrual basis of accounting in recording transactions.

(d) Encumbrance Systems. — Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, no local government or public authority is required to record or show encumbrances in its accounting system. Each city or town with a population over 10,000 and each county with a population over 50,000 shall maintain an accounting system that records and shows the encumbrances outstanding against each category of expenditure appropriated in its budget ordinance. Any other local government or any public authority may record and show encumbrances in its accounting system. In determining a unit's population, the most recent federal decennial census shall be used.

(e) Commission Regulations. — The Commission may prescribe rules and regulations having the force of law as to:

- (1) Features of accounting systems to be maintained by local governments and public authorities.
- (2) Bases of accounting, including identifying in detail the characteristics of a modified accrual basis, identifying what revenues are susceptible to accrual, and permitting or requiring use of a basis other than modified accrual in a fund that does not account for the receipt of a tax.
- (3) Definitions of terms not clearly defined in this Article.

The Commission may vary these rules and regulations according to any other criteria reasonably related to the purpose or complexity of the financial operations involved. (1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1975, c. 514, ss. 11, 16; 1979, c. 402, s. 6; 1981, c. 685, ss. 6, 7; 1987, c. 796, s. 3(6).)

§ 159-27. Distribution of tax collections among funds according to levy.

(a) The finance officer shall distribute property tax collections among the appropriate funds, according to the budget ordinance, at least monthly.

(b) Taxes collected during the current fiscal year, that were levied in any one of the two immediately preceding fiscal years, shall be distributed to the appropriate funds according to the levy of the fiscal year in which they were levied. If any fund for which such taxes were levied is not being maintained in the current fiscal year, the proportionate share of the tax that would have been distributed to the discontinued fund shall be allocated (i) to the fund from which the activity or function for which the tax was levied is then being financed, or (ii) to the general fund if the activity or function for which the tax was levied is no longer being performed.

(c) Taxes collected during the current fiscal year, that were levied in any prior fiscal year other than one of the two immediately preceding fiscal years, may be distributed in the discretion of the governing board either (i) to the general fund, or (ii) in accordance with subsection (b) of this section. This subsection shall not repeal any portion of a local act or city charter inconsistent herewith and in effect on July 1, 1973.

(d) This section applies to taxes levied by a unit of local government on behalf of another unit, including school administrative units. (1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1973, c. 474, s. 21; 1975, c. 437, s. 15.)

§ 159-27.1. Use of revenue bond project reimbursements; restrictions.

The finance officer of a unit shall deposit any funds received by the unit as a reimbursement of a loan or advance made by the unit pursuant to G.S. 159-83(a)(8a) in the fund from which the unit originally derived the funds to make the loan or advance.

If the funds originally loaned or advanced were proceeds of a bond issue, any funds received as reimbursement shall be applied as required by this section. The funds shall be applied as provided in the instrument securing payment of the bond issue if the instrument contains applicable provisions. Otherwise, the funds shall be applied to either (i) the same general purposes as those for which the bond issue was authorized, or (ii) payment of debt service on the bond issue, including principal, interest, and premium, if any, upon redemption, or payment of the purchase price of bonds for retirement at not more than their face value and accrued interest. After all the bonds of the issue have been paid or satisfied in full, any funds received as reimbursement shall be deposited in the general fund of the unit and may be used for any general fund purpose. (1991, c. 508, s. 3; c. 761, s. 29.)

§ 159-28. Budgetary accounting for appropriations.

(a) Incurring Obligations. — No obligation may be incurred in a program, function, or activity accounted for in a fund included in the budget ordinance unless the budget ordinance includes an appropriation authorizing the obligation and an unencumbered balance remains in the appropriation sufficient to pay in the current fiscal year the sums obligated by the transaction for the current fiscal year. No obligation may be incurred for a capital project or a grant project authorized by a project ordinance unless that project ordinance includes an appropriation authorizing the obligation and an unencumbered balance remains in the appropriation sufficient to pay the sums obligated by the transaction. If an obligation is evidenced by a contract or agreement requiring the payment of money or by a purchase order for supplies and materials, the contract, agreement, or purchase order shall include on its face a certificate stating that the instrument has been preaudited to assure compliance with this subsection. The certificate, which shall be signed by the finance officer or any deputy finance officer approved for this purpose by the governing board, shall take substantially the following form:

“This instrument has been preaudited in the manner required by the Local Government Budget and Fiscal Control Act.

(Signature of finance officer).”

Certificates in the form prescribed by G.S. 153-130 or 160-411 as those sections read on June 30, 1973, or by G.S. 159-28(b) as that section read on June 30, 1975, are sufficient until supplies of forms in existence on June 30, 1975, are exhausted.

An obligation incurred in violation of this subsection is invalid and may not be enforced. The finance officer shall establish procedures to assure compliance with this subsection.

(b) Disbursements. — When a bill, invoice, or other claim against a local government or public authority is presented, the finance officer shall either approve or disapprove the necessary disbursement. If the claim involves a program, function, or activity accounted for in a fund included in the budget ordinance or a capital project or a grant project authorized by a project ordinance, the finance officer may approve the claim only if

- (1) He determines the amount to be payable and
- (2) The budget ordinance or a project ordinance includes an appropriation authorizing the expenditure and either (i) an encumbrance has been previously created for the transaction or (ii) an unencumbered balance remains in the appropriation sufficient to pay the amount to be disbursed.

The finance officer may approve a bill, invoice, or other claim requiring disbursement from an intragovernmental service fund or trust or agency fund not included in the budget ordinance, only if the amount claimed is determined to be payable. A bill, invoice, or other claim may not be paid unless it has been approved by the finance officer or, under subsection (c) of this section, by the governing board. The finance officer shall establish procedures to assure compliance with this subsection.

(c) Governing Board Approval of Bills, Invoices, or Claims. — The governing board may, as permitted by this subsection, approve a bill, invoice, or other claim against the local government or public authority that has been disapproved by the finance officer. It may not approve a claim for which no appropriation appears in the budget ordinance or in a project ordinance, or for which the appropriation contains no encumbrance and the unencumbered balance is less than the amount to be paid. The governing board shall approve payment by formal resolution stating the board's reasons for allowing the bill, invoice, or other claim. The resolution shall be entered in the minutes together with the names of those voting in the affirmative. The chairman of the board or some other member designated for this purpose shall sign the certificate on the check or draft given in payment of the bill, invoice, or other claim. If payment results in a violation of law, each member of the board voting to allow payment is jointly and severally liable for the full amount of the check or draft given in payment.

(d) Payment. — A local government or public authority may not pay a bill, invoice, salary, or other claim except by a check or draft on an official depository or by a bank wire transfer from an official depository. Except as provided in this subsection each check or draft on an official depository shall bear on its face a certificate signed by the finance officer or a deputy finance officer approved for this purpose by the governing board (or signed by the chairman or some other member of the board pursuant to subsection (c) of this section). The certificate shall take substantially the following form:

“This disbursement has been approved as required by the Local Government Budget and Fiscal Control Act.

 (Signature of finance officer).”

Certificates in the form prescribed by G.S. 153-131 or 160-411.1 as those sections read on June 30, 1973, or by G.S. 159-28(a) as that section read on June 30, 1975, are sufficient until supplies in existence on June 30, 1975, are exhausted.

No certificate is required on payroll checks or drafts on an imprest account in an official depository, if the check or draft depositing the funds in the imprest account carried a signed certificate.

(e) Penalties. — If an officer or employee of a local government or public authority incurs an obligation or pays out or causes to be paid out any funds in violation of this section, he and the sureties on his official bond are liable for any sums so committed or disbursed. If the finance officer or any properly designated deputy finance officer gives a false certificate to any contract, agreement, purchase order, check, draft, or other document, he and the sureties on his official bond are liable for any sums illegally committed or disbursed thereby. (1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1973, c. 474, ss. 22, 23; 1975, c. 514, s. 12; 1979, c. 402, ss. 7, 8.)

Editor's Note. — Chapter 153, of which §§ 153-130 and 153-131, referred to in this section, were a part, and Chapter 160, of which §§ 160-411 and 160-411.1, also referred to in this section, were a part, have been repealed. See now Chapters 153A and 160A.

CASE NOTES

Scope of Section. — This section sets forth the requirements and obligations that must be met before a county may incur contractual obligations. Cincinnati Thermal Spray, Inc. v. Pender County, 101 N.C. App. 405, 399 S.E.2d 758 (1991).

Failure to Show Existence of Certificate. — Where plaintiff made no showing that the certificate of compliance by the county board of commissioners required by subsection (a) of this section authorizing construction of water and sewer existed, no valid contract was formed as a result of alleged discussions between plaintiff and employee of county with regard to provision of adequate water and sewer systems for plaintiff's proposed facility. Cincinnati Thermal Spray, Inc. v. Pender County, 101 N.C. App. 405, 399 S.E.2d 758 (1991).

Where the lease agreement entered between the plaintiff computer supplier and the defendant county failed to comply with the pre-audit certificate requirements of this section, the court held that no valid contract was formed between the plaintiff and defendant county and that the county, therefore, had not waived its sovereign immunity to be sued. Data Gen. Corp. v. County of Durham, 143 N.C. App. 97, 545 S.E.2d 243 (2001).

Later-Incurred Financial Obligation. — Where an obligation incurred by a town did not result in a financial obligation in the year in which the subject contract was signed, the lack of a pre-audit certificate did not invalidate the town's contract. Myers v. Town of Plymouth, 135 N.C. App. 707, 522 S.E.2d 122 (1999).

Applied in State v. Davis, 45 N.C. App. 72, 262 S.E.2d 827 (1980); Watauga County Bd. of Educ. v. Town of Boone, 106 N.C. App. 270, 416 S.E.2d 411 (1992).

§ 159-28.1. Facsimile signatures.

The governing board of a local government or public authority may provide by appropriate resolution or ordinance for the use of facsimile signature machines, signature stamps, or similar devices in signing checks and drafts and in signing the preaudit certificate on contracts or purchase orders. The board shall charge the finance officer or some other bonded officer or employee with the custody of the necessary machines, stamps, plates, or other devices, and that person and the sureties on his official bond are liable for any illegal, improper, or unauthorized use of them. (1975, c. 514, s. 13.)

§ 159-29. Fidelity bonds.

(a) The finance officer shall give a true accounting and faithful performance bond with sufficient sureties in an amount to be fixed by the governing board, not less than ten thousand dollars ($10,000) nor more than two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000). The premium on the bond shall be paid by the local government or public authority.

(b) Each officer, employee, or agent of a local government or public authority who handles or has in his custody more than one hundred dollars ($100.00) of the unit's or public authority's funds at any time, or who handles or has access to the inventories of the unit or public authority, shall, before being entitled to assume his duties, give a faithful performance bond with sufficient sureties payable to the local government or public authority. The governing board shall determine the amount of the bond, and the unit or public authority may pay the premium on the bond. Each bond, when approved by the governing board, shall be deposited with the clerk to the board.

If another statute requires an officer, employee, or agent to be bonded, this subsection does not require an additional bond for that officer, employee, or agent.

(c) A local government or public authority may adopt a system of blanket faithful performance bonding as an alternative to individual bonds. If such a system is adopted, statutory requirements of individual bonds, except for elected officials and for finance officers and tax collectors by whatever title known, do not apply to an officer, employee, or agent covered by the blanket bond. However, although an individual bond is required for an elected official, a tax collector, or finance officer, such an officer or elected official may also be included within the coverage of a blanket bond if the blanket bond protects against risks not protected against by the individual bond. (1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1975, c. 514, s. 14; 1987 (Reg. Sess., 1988), c. 975, s. 32.)

CASE NOTES

As to approval of bond in smaller amount than required by former statute, see Ellis v. Brown, 217 N.C. 787, 9 S.E.2d 467 (1940), decided under the former County Fiscal Control Act.

Stated in Town of Scotland Neck v. Western Sur. Co., 301 N.C. 331, 271 S.E.2d 501 (1980).

§ 159-30. Investment of idle funds.

(a) A local government or public authority may deposit at interest or invest all or part of the cash balance of any fund. The finance officer shall manage investments subject to whatever restrictions and directions the governing board may impose. The finance officer shall have the power to purchase, sell, and exchange securities on behalf of the governing board. The investment program shall be so managed that investments and deposits can be converted into cash when needed.

(b) Moneys may be deposited at interest in any bank, savings and loan association, or trust company in this State in the form of certificates of deposit or such other forms of time deposit as the Commission may approve. Investment deposits, including investment deposits of a mutual fund for local government investment established under subdivision (c)(8) of this section, shall be secured as provided in G.S. 159-31(b).

(c) Moneys may be invested in the following classes of securities, and no others:

- (1) Obligations of the United States or obligations fully guaranteed both as to principal and interest by the United States.
- (2) Obligations of the Federal Financing Bank, the Federal Farm Credit Bank, the Bank for Cooperatives, the Federal Intermediate Credit Bank, the Federal Land Banks, the Federal Home Loan Banks, the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation, Fannie Mae, the Government National Mortgage Association, the Federal Housing Administration, the Farmers Home Administration, the United States Postal Service.
- (3) Obligations of the State of North Carolina.
- (4) Bonds and notes of any North Carolina local government or public authority, subject to such restrictions as the secretary may impose.

- (5) Savings certificates issued by any savings and loan association organized under the laws of the State of North Carolina or by any federal savings and loan association having its principal office in North Carolina; provided that any principal amount of such certificate in excess of the amount insured by the federal government or any agency thereof, or by a mutual deposit guaranty association authorized by the Commissioner of Banks of the Department of Commerce of the State of North Carolina, be fully collateralized.
- (6) Prime quality commercial paper bearing the highest rating of at least one nationally recognized rating service and not bearing a rating below the highest by any nationally recognized rating service which rates the particular obligation.
- (7) Bills of exchange or time drafts drawn on and accepted by a commercial bank and eligible for use as collateral by member banks in borrowing from a federal reserve bank, provided that the accepting bank or its holding company is either (i) incorporated in the State of North Carolina or (ii) has outstanding publicly held obligations bearing the highest rating of at least one nationally recognized rating service and not bearing a rating below the highest by any nationally recognized rating service which rates the particular obligations.
- (8) Participating shares in a mutual fund for local government investment; provided that the investments of the fund are limited to those qualifying for investment under this subsection (c) and that said fund is certified by the Local Government Commission. The Local Government Commission shall have the authority to issue rules and regulations concerning the establishment and qualifications of any mutual fund for local government investment.
- (9) A commingled investment pool established and administered by the State Treasurer pursuant to G.S. 147-69.3.
- (10) A commingled investment pool established by interlocal agreement by two or more units of local government pursuant to G.S. 160A-460 through G.S. 160A-464, if the investments of the pool are limited to those qualifying for investment under this subsection (c).
- (11) Evidences of ownership of, or fractional undivided interests in, future interest and principal payments on either direct obligations of the United States government or obligations the principal of and the interest on which are guaranteed by the United States, which obligations are held by a bank or trust company organized and existing under the laws of the United States or any state in the capacity of custodian.
- (12) Repurchase agreements with respect to either direct obligations of the United States or obligations the principal of and the interest on which are guaranteed by the United States if entered into with a broker or dealer, as defined by the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, which is a dealer recognized as a primary dealer by a Federal Reserve Bank, or any commercial bank, trust company or national banking association, the deposits of which are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or any successor thereof if:
  - a. Such obligations that are subject to such repurchase agreement are delivered (in physical or in book entry form) to the local government or public authority, or any financial institution serving either as trustee for the local government or public authority or as fiscal agent for the local government or public authority or are supported by a safekeeping receipt issued by a depository satisfactory to the local government or public authority, provided that such repurchase agreement must provide that the value of the underlying obligations shall be maintained at a current market value, calculated at least daily, of not less than one hundred percent (100%) of the repurchase price, and, provided further, that the financial institution serving either as trustee or as fiscal agent for the local government or public authority holding the obligations subject to the repurchase agreement hereunder or the depository issuing the safekeeping receipt shall not be the provider of the repurchase agreement;

- b. A valid and perfected first security interest in the obligations which are the subject of such repurchase agreement has been granted to the local government or public authority or its assignee or book entry procedures, conforming, to the extent practicable, with federal regulations and satisfactory to the local government or public authority have been established for the benefit of the local government or public authority or its assignee;
- c. Such securities are free and clear of any adverse third party claims; and
- d. Such repurchase agreement is in a form satisfactory to the local government or public authority.

- (13) In connection with funds held by or on behalf of a local government or public authority, which funds are subject to the arbitrage and rebate provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, participating shares in tax-exempt mutual funds, to the extent such participation, in whole or in part, is not subject to such rebate provisions, and taxable mutual funds, to the extent such fund provides services in connection with the calculation of arbitrage rebate requirements under federal income tax law; provided, the investments of any such fund are limited to those bearing one of the two highest ratings of at least one nationally recognized rating service and not bearing a rating below one of the two highest ratings by any nationally recognized rating service which rates the particular fund.

(d) Investment securities may be bought, sold, and traded by private negotiation, and local governments and public authorities may pay all incidental costs thereof and all reasonable costs of administering the investment and deposit program. Securities and deposit certificates shall be in the custody of the finance officer who shall be responsible for their safekeeping and for keeping accurate investment accounts and records.

(e) Interest earned on deposits and investments shall be credited to the fund whose cash is deposited or invested. Cash of several funds may be combined for deposit or investment if not otherwise prohibited by law; and when such joint deposits or investments are made, interest earned shall be prorated and credited to the various funds on the basis of the amounts thereof invested, figured according to an average periodic balance or some other sound accounting principle. Interest earned on the deposit or investment of bond funds shall be deemed a part of the bond proceeds.

(f) Registered securities acquired for investment may be released from registration and transferred by signature of the finance officer. (1957, c. 864, s. 1; 1967, c. 798, ss. 1, 2; 1969, c. 862; 1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1973, c. 474, ss. 24, 25; 1975, c. 481; 1977, c. 575; 1979, c. 717, s. 2; 1981, c. 445, ss. 1-3; 1983, c. 158, ss. 1, 2; 1987, c. 672, s. 1; 1989, c. 76, s. 31; c. 751, s. 7(46); 1991 (Reg. Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1987, c. 672, s. 2 provided:

"The foregoing section of this act shall be deemed to provide an additional and alternative method for the doing of the things authorized thereby and shall be regarded as supplemental and additional to powers conferred by any other laws, and shall not be regarded as in derogation of any powers now existing."

Effect of Amendments. — Session Laws 2001-193, s. 16, effective July 1, 2001, substituted "Commissioner of Banks" for "Administrator of the Savings Institutions Division" in subdivision (c)(5).

Session Laws 2001-487, s. 14(o), effective December 16, 2001, substituted "Fannie Mae" for "the Federal National Mortgage Association" in subdivision (c)(2).

§ 159-31. Selection of depository; deposits to be secured.

(a) The governing board of each local government and public authority shall designate as its official depositories one or more banks, savings and loan associations, or trust companies in this State or, with the written permission of the secretary, a national bank located in another state. In addition, a unit or public authority, with the written permission of the secretary, may designate a state bank or trust company located in another state as an official depository for the purpose of acting as fiscal agent for the unit or public authority. The names and addresses of the depositories shall be reported to the secretary. It shall be unlawful for any public moneys to be deposited in any place, bank, or trust company other than an official depository, except as permitted by G.S. 159-30(b); however, public moneys may be deposited in official depositories in Negotiable Order of Withdrawal (NOW) accounts.

(b) The amount of funds on deposit in an official depository or deposited at interest pursuant to G.S. 159-30(b) shall be secured by deposit insurance, surety bonds, letters of credit issued by a Federal Home Loan Bank, or investment securities of such nature, in a sufficient amount to protect the local government or public authority on account of deposit of funds made therein, and in such manner, as may be prescribed by rule or regulation of the Local Government Commission. When deposits are secured in accordance with this subsection, no public officer or employee may be held liable for any losses sustained by a local government or public authority because of the default or insolvency of the depository. No security is required for the protection of funds remitted to and received by a bank, savings and loan association, or trust company acting as fiscal agent for the payment of principal and interest on bonds or notes, when the funds are remitted no more than 60 days prior to the maturity date. (1927, c. 146, s. 19; 1929, c. 37; 1931, c. 60, s. 32; c. 296, s. 7; 1935, c. 375, s. 1; 1939, c. 129, s. 1; c. 134; 1953, c. 675, s. 28; 1955, cc. 698, 724; 1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1973, c. 474, s. 26; 1979, c. 637, s. 1; 1981, c. 447, s. 2; 1983, c. 158, s. 3; 1999-74, s. 1.)

Cross References. — As to deposits by community colleges and technical institutes, see § 115D-58.7.

§ 159-32. Daily deposits.

Except as otherwise provided by law, all taxes and other moneys collected or received by an officer or employee of a local government or public authority shall be deposited in accordance with this section. Each officer and employee of a local government or public authority whose duty it is to collect or receive any taxes or other moneys shall deposit his collections and receipts daily. If the governing board gives its approval, deposits shall be required only when the moneys on hand amount to as much as two hundred fifty dollars ($250.00), but in any event a deposit shall be made on the last business day of the month. All deposits shall be made with the finance officer or in an official depository. Deposits in an official depository shall be immediately reported to the finance officer by means of a duplicate deposit ticket. The finance officer may at any time audit the accounts of any officer or employee collecting or receiving taxes or other moneys, and may prescribe the form and detail of these accounts. The accounts of such an officer or employee shall be audited at least annually. (1927, c. 146, s. 19; 1929, c. 37; 1939, c. 134; 1955, cc. 698, 724; 1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1973, c. 474, s. 27.)

§ 159-32.1. Electronic payment.

A unit of local government, public hospital, or public authority may, in lieu of payment by cash or check, accept payment by electronic payment as defined in G.S. 147-86.20 for any tax, assessment, rate, fee, charge, rent, interest, penalty, or other receivable owed to it. A unit of local government, public hospital, or public authority may pay any negotiated discount, processing fee, transaction fee, or other charge imposed by a credit card, charge card, or debit card company, or by a third-party merchant bank, as a condition of contracting for the unit's or the authority's acceptance of electronic payment. A unit of local government, public hospital, or public authority may impose the fee or charge as a surcharge on the amount paid by the person using electronic payment. (1999-434, s. 5.)

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1999, c. 434, s. 19, provides that the Secretary of Commerce shall implement policies and procedures to ensure "Best Value" Procurement, Solution-Based Procurement, and Government-Vendor Partnership.

Session Laws 1999, c. 434, s. 20, requires the Secretary of Commerce to develop and implement policies, procedures, and/or programs to ensure that personnel receive high quality training in the principles of "Best Value" Procurement, Solution-Based Procurement, Government-Vendor Partnership, contract administration, and project management.

Session Laws 1999, c. 434, s. 21, provides that the Secretary of Commerce shall report to the Joint Select Committee on Information Technology on the implementation of this act on or before April 1, 2000.

Session Laws 1999, c. 434, s. 22, provides that the Joint Select Committee on Information Technology shall study the governance of State government-wide information technology management by the creation of a centralized agency responsible for all technology-related issues. An interim report may be made by the Committee to the 2000 Session of the General Assembly and a final report prior to the convening of the 2001 General Assembly.

§ 159-33. Semiannual reports on status of deposits and investments.

Each officer having custody of any funds of any local government or public authority shall report to the secretary of the Local Government Commission on January 1 and July 1 of each year (or such other dates as he may prescribe) the amounts of funds then in his custody, the amounts of deposits of such funds in depositories, and a list of all investment securities and time deposits held by the local government or public authority. In like manner, each bank or trust company acting as the official depository of any unit of local government or public authority may be required to report to the secretary a description of the surety bonds or investment securities securing such public deposits. If the secretary finds at any time that any funds of any unit or authority are not properly deposited or secured, or are invested in securities not eligible for investment, he shall notify the officer or depository in charge of the funds of the failure to comply with law or applicable regulations of the Commission. Upon such notification, the officer or depository shall comply with the law or regulations within 30 days, except as to the sale of securities not eligible for investment which shall be sold within nine months at a price to be approved by the secretary. The Commission may extend the time for sale of ineligible securities, but no one extension may cover a period of more than one year. (1931, c. 60, s. 33; 1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1979, c. 637, s. 2.)

§ 159-33.1. Semiannual reports of financial information.

The finance officer of each unit and public authority shall submit to the secretary on January 1 and July 1 of each year (or such other dates as the secretary may prescribe) a statement of financial information concerning the unit or public authority. The secretary may prescribe the information to be included in the statement and may prescribe the form of the statement. (1973, c. 474, s. 28.)

§ 159-34. Annual independent audit; rules and regulations.

(a) Each unit of local government and public authority shall have its accounts audited as soon as possible after the close of each fiscal year by a certified public accountant or by an accountant certified by the Commission as qualified to audit local government accounts. When specified by the secretary, the audit shall evaluate the performance of a unit of local government or public authority with regard to compliance with all applicable federal and State agency regulations. This audit, combined with the audit of financial accounts, shall be deemed to be the single audit described by the "Federal Single Audit Act of 1984". The auditor shall be selected by and shall report directly to the governing board. The audit contract or agreement shall (i) be in writing, (ii) include the entire entity in the scope of the audit, except that an audit for purposes other than the annual audit required by this section should include an accurate description of the scope of the audit, (iii) require that a typewritten or printed report on the audit be prepared as set forth herein, (iv) include all of its terms and conditions, and (v) be submitted to the secretary for his approval as to form, terms, conditions, and compliance with the rules of the Commission. As a minimum, the required report shall include the financial statements prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, all disclosures in the public interest required by law, and the auditor's opinion and comments relating to financial statements. The audit shall be performed in conformity with generally accepted auditing standards. The finance officer shall file a copy of the audit report with the secretary, and shall submit all bills or claims for audit fees and costs to the secretary for his approval. Before giving his approval the secretary shall determine that the audit and audit report substantially conform to the requirements of this section. It shall be unlawful for any unit of local government or public authority to pay or permit the payment of such bills or claims without this approval. Each officer and employee of the local government or local public authority having custody of public money or responsibility for keeping records of public financial or fiscal affairs shall produce all books and records requested by the auditor and shall divulge such information relating to fiscal affairs as he may request. If any member of a governing board or any other public officer or employee shall conceal, falsify, or refuse to deliver or divulge any books, records, or information, with an attempt thereby to mislead the auditor or impede or interfere with the audit, he is guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor.

(b) The Local Government Commission has authority to issue rules and regulations for the purpose of improving the quality of auditing and the quality and comparability of reporting pursuant to this section or any similar section of the General Statutes. The rules and regulations may consider the needs of the public for adequate information and the performance that the auditor has demonstrated in the past, and may be varied according to the size, purpose or function of the unit, or any other criteria reasonably related to the purpose or substance of the rules or regulation.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, except for Article 5A of Chapter 147 of the General Statutes pertaining to the State Auditor, all State departments and agencies shall rely upon the single audit accepted by the secretary as the basis for compliance with applicable federal and State regulations. All State departments and agencies which provide funds to local governments and public authorities shall provide the Commission with documents that the Commission finds are in the prescribed format describing standards of compliance and suggested audit procedures sufficient to give adequate direction to independent auditors retained by local governments and public authorities to conduct a single audit as required by this section. The secretary shall be responsible for the annual distribution of all such standards of compliance and suggested audit procedures proposed by State departments and agencies and any amendments thereto. Further, the Commission with the cooperation of all affected State departments and agencies shall be responsible for the following:

- (1) Procedures for the timely distribution of compliance standards developed by State departments and agencies, reviewed and approved by the Commission to auditors retained by local governments and public authorities.
- (2) Procedures for the distribution of single audits for local governments and public authorities such that they are available to all State departments and agencies which provide funds to local units.
- (3) The acceptance of single audits on behalf of all State departments and agencies; provided that, the secretary may subsequently revoke such acceptance for cause, whereupon affected State departments and agencies shall no longer rely upon such audit as the basis for compliance with applicable federal and State regulations. (1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1975, c. 514, s. 15; 1979, c. 402, s. 9; 1981, c. 685, ss. 8, 9; 1987, c. 287; 1993, c. 257, s. 20; c. 539, s. 1081; 1994, Ex. Sess., c. 24, s. 14(c); 2001-160, s. 1.)

Local Modification. — Dare (Special Leash Law District): 1989 (Reg. Sess., 1990), c. 963, s. 7.

Effect of Amendments. — Session Laws 2001-160, s. 1, effective May 31, 2001, in the second sentence of subsection (c), substituted “that the Commission finds are in the” for “approved by the State Auditor in a”; and in subsection (c)(1), substituted “Commission” for “State Auditor.”

§ 159-35. Secretary of Local Government Commission to notify units of debt service obligations.

(a) The secretary shall mail to each local government and public authority not later than May 1 of each year a statement of its debt service obligations for the coming fiscal year, including sums to be paid into sinking funds.

(b) The secretary shall mail to each local government and public authority not later than 30 days prior to the due date of each installment of principal or interest on outstanding debt, a statement of the amount of principal and interest so payable, the due date, the place to which the payments should be sent, and a summary of the legal penalties for failing to meet debt service obligations.

(c) The secretary shall mail to each unit of local government not later than 30 days prior to the due date of each payment due to the State under debt instruments issued pursuant to Chapter 159G of the General Statutes or Chapter 159I of the General Statutes a statement of the amount so payable, the due date, the amount of any moneys due to the unit of local government that will be withheld by the State and applied to the payment, the amount due to be paid by the unit of local government from local sources, the place to which payment should be sent, and a summary of the legal penalties for failing to honor the debt instrument according to its terms. Failure of the secretary timely to mail such statement or otherwise comply with the provisions of this subsection (c) shall not affect in any manner the obligation of a unit of local government to make payments to the State in accordance with any such debt instrument. (1931, c. 60, ss. 36, 37; 1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1987, c. 796, s. 3(7); 1989, c. 756, s. 4.)

§ 159-36. Failure of local government to levy debt service taxes or provide for payment of debt.

(a) If any local government or public authority fails or refuses to levy taxes or allocate other revenues in an amount sufficient to meet all installments of principal and interest falling due on its debt during the budget year, or to adequately maintain its sinking funds, the Commission shall enter an order directing and commanding the governing board of the local government or public authority to enact a budget ordinance levying the necessary taxes or raising the necessary revenue by whatever means are legally available. If the governing board shall fail or refuse to comply with the Commission's order within 10 days, the order shall have the same legal force and effect as if the actions therein commanded had been taken by the governing board, and the appropriate officers and employees of the local government or public authority shall proceed to collect the tax levy or implement the plan for raising the revenue to the same extent as if such action had been authorized and directed by the governing board. Any officer, employee, or member of the governing board of any local government or public authority who willfully fails or refuses to implement an order of the Local Government Commission issued pursuant to this section forfeits his office or position.

(b) This section does not apply to contractual obligations undertaken by a unit of local government in a debt instrument issued pursuant to Chapter 159G of the General Statutes unless such debt instrument is secured by a pledge of the faith and credit of the unit of local government. (1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1987, c. 796, s. 3(8).)

§ 159-37. Reports on status of sinking funds.

Each unit or public authority maintaining any sinking fund shall transmit to the secretary upon his request financial reports on the status of the fund and the means by which moneys are obtained for deposit therein. The secretary shall determine from this information whether the sinking funds are being properly maintained, and if he shall find that they are not, he shall order the unit to take such action as may be necessary to maintain the funds in accordance with law. (1931, c. 60, s. 31; 1971, c. 780, s. 1.)

§ 159-38. Local units authorized to accept their bonds in payment of certain claims and judgments.

Any unit of local government or public authority may accept its own bonds, at par, in settlement of any claim or judgment that it may have against any person, firm, corporation, or association due to funds held in an insolvent bank, trust company, or savings and loan association. (1933, c. 376; 1971, c. 780, s. 1.)

Part 4. Public Hospitals.

§ 159-39. Special regulations pertaining to public hospitals.

- (a) For the purposes of this Part, "public hospital" means any hospital that
- (1) Is operated by a county, city, hospital district, or hospital authority, or
  - (2) Is owned by a county, city, hospital district or hospital authority and operated by a nonprofit corporation or association, a majority of whose board of directors or trustees are appointed by the governing body of a county, city, hospital district, or hospital authority, or
  - (3) On whose behalf a county or city has issued and has outstanding general obligation or revenue bonds, or to which a county or city makes current appropriations (other than appropriations for the cost of medical care to prisoners or indigents).
- (b) Except as provided in this Part, none of the provisions of Parts 1, 2, and 3 of this Article apply to public hospitals.
- (c) Each public hospital shall operate under an annual balanced budget. A budget is balanced when the sum of appropriations is equal to the sum of estimated net revenues and appropriated fund balances.
- (d) The governing board of each public hospital shall appoint or designate a finance officer, who shall have the following powers and duties:
- (1) He shall prepare the annual budget for presentation to the governing board of the public hospital and shall administer the budget as approved by the board.
  - (2) He shall keep the accounts of the hospital in accordance with generally accepted principles of accounting.
  - (3) He shall prepare and file a statement of the financial condition of the hospital as revealed by its accounts upon the request of the hospital governing board or the governing board of any county, city, or other unit of local government that has issued on behalf of the hospital and has outstanding its general obligation or revenue bonds or makes current appropriations to the hospital (other than appropriations for the cost of medical care to prisoners or indigents).
  - (4) He shall receive and deposit all moneys accruing to the hospital, or supervise the receipt and deposit of money by other duly authorized officers or employees of the hospital.
  - (5) He shall supervise the investment of idle funds of the hospital.
  - (6) He shall maintain all records concerning the bonded debt of the hospital, if any, determine the amount of money that will be required for debt service during each fiscal year, and maintain all sinking funds, but shall not be responsible for records concerning the bonded debt of any county, city, or other unit of local government incurred on behalf of the hospital.
- (e) The Local Government Commission has authority to issue rules and regulations governing procedures for the receipt, deposit, investment, transfer, and disbursement of money and other assets by public hospitals, may inquire into and investigate the internal control procedures of a public hospital, and may require any modifications in internal control procedures which, in the opinion of the Commission, are necessary or desirable to prevent embezzlements, mishandling of funds, or continued operating deficits.
- (f) The accounting system of a public hospital shall be so designed that the true financial condition of the hospital can be determined therefrom at any time. As soon as possible after the close of each fiscal year, the accounts shall be audited by a certified public accountant or by an accountant certified by the Local Government Commission as qualified to audit local government accounts. The auditor shall be selected by and shall report directly to the hospital governing board. The audit contract or agreement shall be in writing, shall include all its terms and conditions, and shall be submitted to the secretary of the Local Government Commission for his approval as to form, terms and conditions. The terms and conditions of the audit shall include the scope of the audit, and the requirement that upon completion of the examination the auditor shall prepare a written report embodying financial statements and his opinion and comments relating thereto. The finance officer shall file a copy of the audit with the secretary of the Local Government Commission and with the finance officer of any county, city, or other unit of local government that has issued on behalf of the hospital and has outstanding its general obligation or revenue bonds or makes current appropriations to the hospital (other than appropriations for the cost of medical care to prisoners or indigents).

(g) A public hospital may deposit or invest at interest all or part of its cash balance pursuant to G.S. 159-30.

(h) Public hospitals are subject to G.S. 159-31 with regard to selection of an official depository and security of deposits.

(i) Public hospitals are subject to G.S. 159-32 with regard to daily deposits.

(i1) Public hospitals may accept electronic payments pursuant to G.S. 159-32.1.

(j) Public hospitals are subject to G.S. 159-33 with regard to semiannual reports to the Local Government Commission on the status of deposits and investments.

(k) Any hospital district or hospital authority having outstanding general obligation or revenue bonds is subject to G.S. 159-35, 159-36, 159-37, and 159-38. (1973, c. 474, s. 28.1; c. 1215; 1999-434, s. 5.1.)

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1999-377, s. 4, effective August 4, 1999, provides that any hospital continuing to operate under Article 2 of Chapter 131 of the General Statutes pursuant to Section 3 of Chapter 775 of the 1983 Session Laws shall be considered to be a "public hospital" within the meaning of G.S. 159-39 and to be a "unit of local government" within the meaning of G.S. 160A-20.

Session Laws 1999, c. 434, s. 19, provides that the Secretary of Commerce shall implement policies and procedures to ensure "Best Value" Procurement, Solution-Based Procurement, and Government-Vendor Partnership.

Session Laws 1999, c. 434, s. 20, requires the Secretary of Commerce to develop and implement policies, procedures, and/or programs to ensure that personnel receive high quality training in the principles of "Best Value" Procurement, Solution-Based Procurement, Government-Vendor Partnership, contract administration, and project management.

Session Laws 1999, c. 434, s. 21, provides that the Secretary of Commerce shall report to the Joint Select Committee on Information Technology on the implementation of this act on or before April 1, 2000.

Session Laws 1999, c. 434, s. 22, provides that the Joint Select Committee on Information Technology shall study the governance of State government-wide information technology management by the creation of a centralized agency responsible for all technology-related issues. An interim report may be made by the Committee to the 2000 Session of the General Assembly and a final report prior to the convening of the 2001 General Assembly.

Effect of Amendments. — Session Laws 1999-434, s. 5.1, effective August 10, 1999, added subsection (i1).

Part 5. Nonprofit Corporations Receiving Public Funds.

§ 159-40. Special regulations pertaining to nonprofit corporations receiving public funds.

(a) If a city or county grants or appropriates one thousand dollars ($1,000) or more in any fiscal year to a nonprofit corporation or organization, the city or county may require that the nonprofit corporation or organization have an audit performed for the fiscal year in which the funds are received and may require that the nonprofit corporation or organization file a copy of the audit report with the city or county.

(b) Any nonprofit corporation or organization which receives one thousand dollars ($1,000) or more in State funds shall, at the request of the State Auditor, submit to an audit by the office of the State Auditor for the fiscal year in which such funds were received.

(c) Every nonprofit corporation or organization which has an audit performed pursuant to this section shall file a copy of the audit report with the office of the State Auditor.

(d) The provisions of this section shall not apply to sheltered workshops or to Adult Development Activity Programs or to private residential facilities for the mentally retarded and developmentally disabled or to Developmental Day Care Centers or to any nonprofit corporation or organization whose sole use of public funds is to provide hospital services or operate as a volunteer fire department, rescue squad, ambulance squad, or which operates as a junior college, college or university duly accredited by the southern regional accrediting association.

(e) Repealed by Session Laws 1979, c. 905. (1977, c. 687, s. 1; 1977, 2nd Sess., c. 1195, s. 1; 1979, c. 905.)

Part 6. Joint Municipal Power Agencies and Joint Municipal Assistance Agencies.

§ 159-41. Special regulations pertaining to joint municipal power agencies.

(a) For the purposes of this Part, "joint agency" means a public body corporate and politic organized in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 159B, or the combination or recombination of any joint agencies so organized.

(b) Except as provided in this Part, none of the provisions of Article 3 of this Chapter shall apply to joint agencies. Whenever the provisions of this Part and the provisions of Chapter 159B of the General Statutes shall conflict, the provisions of Chapter 159B shall govern.

(c) Each joint agency shall operate under an annual balanced budget resolution adopted by the governing board and entered into the minutes. A budget is balanced when the sum of the appropriations is equal to the sum of estimated net revenues and appropriated fund balances. The budget resolution of a joint agency shall cover a fiscal year beginning January 1 and ending December 31, except that the Local Government Commission, if it determines that a different fiscal year would facilitate the agency's financial operations, may enter an order permitting an agency to operate under a fiscal year other than from January 1 to December 31.

(d) The following directions and limitations shall bind the governing board in adopting the budget resolution:

- (1) The full amount estimated by the finance officer to be required for debt service during the budget year shall be appropriated.

- (2) The full amount of any deficit in each fund shall be appropriated.
- (3) Sufficient funds to meet the amounts to be paid during the fiscal year under continuing contracts previously entered into shall be appropriated.
- (4) The sum of estimated net revenue and appropriated fund balance in each fund shall be equal to appropriations in that fund. Appropriated fund balances in a fund shall not exceed the sum of cash and investments minus the sum of liabilities, encumbrances, and deferred revenue, as those figures stand at the close of the fiscal year preceding the budget year.
- (e) The governing board of the joint agency may amend the budget resolution at any time after its adoption and may authorize its designated finance officer to transfer moneys from one appropriation to another, subject to such limitations and procedures as it may prescribe. All such transfers will be reported to the governing board or its executive committee at its next regular meeting and shall be entered in the minutes.
- (f) Joint agencies are subject to the following sections of Article 3 of this Chapter, to the same extent as a "public authority," provided, however, the term "budget ordinance" as used in such sections shall be interpreted for the purposes of this Part to mean the budget resolution of a joint agency:
  - (1) G.S. 159-9, provided, however, that the governing board of an agency may designate as budget officer someone other than a member of the governing board or an officer or employee of the agency.
  - (2) G.S. 159-12, provided, however, that the provision relating to making the budget available to the news media of a county shall not apply to a joint agency.
  - (3) G.S. 159-13.2.
  - (4) G.S. 159-16.
  - (5) G.S. 159-18.
  - (6) G.S. 159-19.
  - (7) G.S. 159-21.
  - (8) G.S. 159-22, provided, however, that the provision restricting transfers to funds maintained pursuant to G.S. 159-13(a) shall not apply to a joint agency.
  - (9) G.S. 159-24.
  - (10) G.S. 159-25.
  - (11) G.S. 159-26.
  - (12) G.S. 159-28.
  - (13) G.S. 159-28.1.
  - (14) G.S. 159-29.
  - (15) G.S. 159-30.
  - (16) G.S. 159-31.
  - (17) G.S. 159-32.
  - (18) G.S. 159-33.
  - (19) G.S. 159-33.1.
  - (20) G.S. 159-34.
  - (21) G.S. 159-36.
  - (22) G.S. 159-38. (1979, c. 685, s. 1.)

Part 7. Public Housing Authorities.

§ 159-42. Special regulations pertaining to public housing authorities.

- (a) Definition. — As used in this Part, the term "housing authority" means any entity as defined in G.S. 157-3(1) that is not subject to G.S. 157-4.2.

(b) Applicability. — Except as provided in this Part, none of the provisions of Parts 1, 2, or 3 of this Article apply to housing authorities in compliance with this Part.

(c) Annual Budget. — Each housing authority shall operate under an annual budget. The budget shall take the form of estimated revenues plus fund balances available for the program, as defined by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development regulations or their successors, that are equal to or greater than estimated expenditures. The proposed budget shall be available for public inspection in a manner consistent with G.S. 159-12(a). Before adopting the budget, the housing authority governing board shall hold a public hearing at which time any persons who wish to be heard on the budget may appear. The governing board shall cause notice of the public hearing to be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the area once a week for two consecutive weeks prior to the public hearing.

(d) Project Ordinances. — The annual budget shall not include those estimated revenues and expenditures accounted for in a project ordinance. A housing authority shall adopt a project ordinance, as defined by G.S. 159-13.2, for those programs which span two or more fiscal years. The form of the project ordinance shall be in accordance with the relevant funding agency guidelines for that project. The estimated revenues plus fund balances available for a project shall be equal to or greater than the estimated expenditures. The estimated revenues and expenditures related to approved projects for a fiscal year may be included in the annual budget on an informational basis.

(e) Finance Officer. — The housing authority governing board shall appoint or designate a finance officer with the following powers and duties:

- (1) Preparation of the annual budget for presentation to the governing board.
- (2) Administration of the approved budget.
- (3) Maintenance of the accounts and other financial records in accordance with generally accepted principles of accounting.
- (4) Preparation and filing of statements of the financial condition, at least annually and at other times as requested by the governing board.
- (5) Receipt and deposit, or supervision of the receipt and deposit, of all moneys accruing to the housing authority.
- (6) Supervision of the investment of the idle funds of the housing authority.
- (7) Maintenance of all records concerning the bonded debt of the housing authority, if any.
- (8) Maintenance of any sinking funds of the housing authority.

(f) Accounting Procedures. — A housing authority must comply with federal rules and regulations issued by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development pertaining to procedures for the receipt, deposit, investment, transfer, and disbursement of money and other assets. The Commission may inquire into and investigate, with reasonable cause, the internal control procedures of a housing authority. The Commission may require any modifications in internal control procedures which, in the opinion of the Commission, are necessary or desirable to prevent embezzlement, mishandling of funds, or continued operating deficits.

(g) Audits. — The accounting system of a housing authority shall be so designed that the true financial condition of the housing authority can be determined at any time. As soon as possible after the close of each fiscal year, the accounts shall be independently audited by a certified public accountant. The auditor shall be selected by the housing authority governing board and shall report directly to that body. The audit contract or agreement shall be in writing and shall include all its terms and conditions. The terms and conditions of the audit shall include the scope of the audit and the requirement that upon completion of the examination the auditor shall prepare a written report embodying the financial statements and the auditor's opinion and comments relating thereto. The finance officer shall file a copy of the audit with the Secretary of the Commission.

(h) Bonding of Employees. — The bonding requirements of G.S. 159-29 shall apply to the finance officer and those employees of the housing authority handling or having custody of more than one hundred dollars ($100.00) at any one time or those employees who have access to the inventories of the housing authority.

(i) Investments. — A housing authority may deposit or invest, at interest, all or part of its cash balance pursuant to U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development regulations.

(j) Official Depository. — Housing authorities shall comply with G.S. 159-31, except in those circumstances where the statute is in conflict with U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development guidance, which shall control.

(k) Deposits and Payments. — Housing authorities shall comply with G.S. 159-32, 159-32.1, and 159-33. (2001-206, s. 1.)

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 2001-206, s. 3, made this section effective June 15, 2001, and applicable to the fiscal years of housing authorities beginning on or after October 1, 2001.

SUBCHAPTER IV. LONG-TERM FINANCING.

ARTICLE 4.

Local Government Bond Act.

Part 1. Operation of Article.

§ 159-43. Short title; legislative intent.

(a) This Article may be cited as "The Local Government Bond Act."

(b) It is the intent of the General Assembly by enactment of this Article to prescribe a uniform system of limitations upon and procedures for the exercise by all units of local government in North Carolina of the power to borrow money secured by a pledge of the taxing power. To this end, all provisions of special, local, or private acts in effect as of July 1, 1973, authorizing the issuance of bonds or notes secured by a pledge of the taxing power or prescribing procedures therefor are repealed. No special, local, or private act enacted or taking effect after July 1, 1973, may be construed to modify, amend, or repeal any portion of this Article unless it expressly so provides by specific reference to the appropriate section of this Article. (1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1973, c. 494, s. 2.)

Cross References. — As to the Local Government Fiscal Information Act, see §§ 120-30.41 through 120-30.48. As to issuance of capital appreciation bonds pursuant to The Local Government Bond Act, see § 159-99.

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1987 (Reg. Sess., 1988), c. 882, s. 6 and Session Laws 1989, c. 90, provided that all actions and proceedings heretofore taken by units of local government relating to the authorization of general obligation refunding bonds, secured by a pledge of the taxing power and issued pursuant to the Local Government Bond Act, and revenue refunding bonds, secured by a pledge of revenues and issued pursuant to The State and Local Government Revenue Bond Act, and the sale and delivery of all such bonds pursuant to Article 7, as amended, of Chapter 159 of the General

Statutes of North Carolina, in order to provide funds to purchase, at a discount, bonds of such units owned by the Farmers Home Administration, including without limitation, the introduction and adoption of bond orders, the holding of public hearings with respect to such bond orders, the passage of resolutions providing for the issuance and the sale, both public and private, of such refunding bonds, and the delivery of any such refunding bonds were in all respects approved, ratified, validated, and confirmed.

Legal Periodicals. — For symposium on municipal finance, see 1976 Duke L.J. 1051.

CASE NOTES

Provisions Governing General Obligation Bond Must Be Followed. — When an ordinance regulating a public enterprise is adopted by a local government to finance the public enterprise, the procedures supplied in the General Statutes for adopting such an ordinance must likewise be followed; when a general obligation bond is issued by a local government, the provisions of this Chapter must be followed; and when a local government purchases equipment, the applicable statutes regarding competitive bidding, where applicable, must likewise be followed. There is no statute or law that mandates notice and hearing requirements for ordinances requiring mandatory connections and fixing related connection charges and user fees. McNeill v. Harnett County, 327 N.C. 552, 398 S.E.2d 475 (1990).

§ 159-44. Definitions.

The words and phrases defined in this section shall have the meanings indicated when used in this Article, unless the context clearly requires another meaning:

- (1) "Finance officer" means the officer performing the duties of finance officer of a unit of local government pursuant to G.S. 159-24 of the Local Government Budget and Fiscal Control Act.
- (2) "Governing board" or "board" means the governing body of a unit of local government.
- (3) "Sinking fund" means a fund held for the retirement of term bonds.
- (4) "Unit," "unit of local government," or "local government" means counties; cities, towns, and incorporated villages; consolidated city-counties, as defined by G.S. 160B-2(1); sanitary districts; mosquito control districts; hospital districts; merged school administrative units described in G.S. 115C-513; metropolitan sewerage districts; metropolitan water districts; county water and sewer districts; regional public transportation authorities; and special airport districts.
- (5) "Utility or public service enterprise" includes:
  - a. Electric power transmission and distribution systems;
  - b. Water supply facilities and distribution systems;
  - c. Sewage collection and disposal systems;
  - d. Gas transmission and distribution systems;
  - e. Public transportation systems, including but not limited to bus lines, ferries, and mass transit systems;
  - f. Solid waste collection and disposal systems and facilities;
  - g. Cable television systems;
  - h. Off-street parking facilities and systems;
  - i. Public auditoriums, coliseums, stadiums and convention centers;
  - j. Airport;
  - k. Hospitals and other health-related facilities; and
  - l. Structural and natural stormwater and drainage systems of all types. (1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1973, c. 494, s. 3; 1977, c. 466, s. 2; 1979, c. 727, s. 2; 1989, c. 643, s. 3; c. 740, s. 3; 1991, c. 325, s. 4; 1995, c. 461, s. 10; 1997-456, s. 27.)

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1991, c. 325, s. 9 interpreted the 1991 amendment to this section, which inserted “merged school administrative units described in G.S. 115C-513” in subdivision (4), by providing:

“Interpretation of Act.”

“(a) Additional method. The foregoing sections of this act shall be deemed to provide an additional and alternative method for the doing of things authorized thereby and shall be regarded as supplemental and additional to powers conferred by other laws, and shall not be regarded as in derogation of any powers now existing.

“(b) Statutory references. References in this act to specific sections or Chapters of the General Statutes are intended to be references to such sections as they may be amended from time to time by the General Assembly.

“(c) Liberal construction. This act, being necessary for the health and welfare of the people of the State, shall be liberally construed to effect these purposes.

“(d) Inconsistent provisions. Insofar as the provisions of this act are inconsistent with the provisions of any general laws, this act shall be controlling.

“(e) Severability. If any provision of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this act are severable.”

Subdivisions (5)(i) through (5)(xii) of this section were renumbered as subdivisions (5)a. through (5)l. pursuant to Session Laws 1997-456, s. 27 which authorized the Revisor of Statutes to renumber or reletter sections and parts of sections having a number or letter designation that is incompatible with the General Assembly's computer database.

§ 159-45. All general obligation bonds subject to Local Government Bond Act.

No unit of local government in this State shall have authority to enter into any contract or agreement, whether oral or written, whereby it borrows money and makes an express or implied pledge of its power to levy taxes as security for repayment of the loan, except by the issuance of its bonds in accordance with the limitations and procedures prescribed in this Article or by the issuance of its negotiable notes in accordance with the limitations and procedures prescribed in Article 9 of this Chapter or by the issuance of debt instruments in accordance with the limitations and procedures prescribed in Chapter 159G of the General Statutes. (1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1987, c. 796, s. 2(1).)

§ 159-46. Faith and credit pledged.

The faith and credit of the issuing unit are hereby pledged for the payment of the principal of and interest on all bonds issued under this Article and debt instruments secured by a pledge of its faith and credit in accordance with the limitations and procedures prescribed in Chapter 159G of the General Statutes according to their terms, and the power and obligation of the issuing unit to levy taxes and raise other revenues for the prompt payment of installments of principal and interest or for the maintenance of sinking funds shall be unrestricted as to rate or amount, notwithstanding any other provisions of law whether general, special, local, or private. (1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1987, c. 796, s. 2(2).)

Government Commission, to avail themselves of the Federal Bankruptcy Act, see § 23-48.

CASE NOTES

Applicability. — A fair reading of the language of this section and § 159-54 indicates that this Act applies to general obligation bonds which pledge the faith and credit of the county.

McNeill v. Harnett County, 327 N.C. 552, 398 S.E.2d 475 (1990).

A tax must be levied only if revenue from other sources is inadequate to repay the principal and interest on the bonds outstanding. McNeill v. Harnett County, 327 N.C. 552, 398 S.E.2d 475 (1990).

Authorization of Tax Distinguished from Approval of Order Imposing Tax. — Where the ballot that the voters considered indicated that the voters were asked only to authorize a tax rather than to approve an order imposing a tax, the County Commissioners were not compelled to impose a tax and were free, under these facts, to charge reasonable fees and charges to repay the bonds in lieu of the levy of a tax. McNeill v. Harnett County, 327 N.C. 552, 398 S.E.2d 475 (1990).

§ 159-47. Additional security for utility or public service enterprise bonds.

(a) The revenues of a utility or public service enterprise owned or leased by a unit of local government shall be applied in accordance with the following priorities:

- (1) First, to pay the operating, maintenance, and capital outlay expenses of the utility or enterprise.
- (2) Second, to pay when due the interest on and principal of outstanding bonds issued for capital projects that are or were a part of the utility or enterprise.
- (3) Third, for any other lawful purpose.

Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions, a county which owns or leases hospitals or other health-related facilities and has not issued any general obligation bonds during the period July 1, 1973, to July 1, 1974, for a capital project that is or was a part of such hospitals or other health-related facilities shall have the option of applying the revenues of such hospitals or other health-related facilities in accordance with a bond order adopted under the Local Government Revenue Bond Act.

(b) In the discretion of the governing board of the issuing unit, the bond order may pledge the revenues (or any portion of the revenues) of a utility or public service enterprise to the payment of the interest on and principal of bonds issued under this Article to finance capital projects that are to become a part of the utility or enterprise.

(c) In the discretion of the governing board of the issuing unit, a bond order authorizing the issuance of bonds under this Article to finance capital projects that are to become a part of a utility or public service enterprise owned or leased by the issuing unit may state that the revenues of the utility or enterprise may be pledged to the payment of the interest on and principal of the bonds if and to the extent that the governing board of the unit shall thereafter determine by resolution (prior to the issuance of the bonds), and that a tax sufficient to pay the principal of and interest on the bonds shall be annually levied and collected by the issuing unit on all taxable property within its taxing jurisdiction, but that in the event that any revenues of the utility or enterprise shall be pledged to the payment of the bonds, the tax may be reduced by the amount of utility or enterprise revenues available for the payment of the principal and interest. A pledge of utility or enterprise revenues pursuant to this subsection shall be made by resolution of the governing board of the issuing unit after the bond order is adopted and before bonds are issued thereunder.

(d) When a pledge of utility or enterprise revenues is made pursuant to this section, the issuing unit shall have, with respect to the utility or enterprise whose revenues are pledged, all of the powers set out in G.S. 159-83 and G.S. 159-89. (1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1973, c. 1326.)

CASE NOTES

“Operating Expenses”. — Payments by defendant city to the defendants, basketball team and team owner, did not violate the priority of payments outlined in this section, because the money constituted operating expenses which were appropriately paid first from the pool of Coliseum revenue. Peacock v. Shinn, 139 N.C. App. 487, 533 S.E.2d 842 (2000), cert. denied, 353 N.C. 267, 546 S.E.2d 110 (2000).

§ 159-48. For what purposes bonds may be issued.

(a) Each unit of local government is authorized to borrow money and issue its bonds under this Article in evidence thereof for any one or more of the following purposes:

- (1) To suppress riots, insurrections, or any extraordinary breach of law and order.
- (2) To supply an unforeseen deficiency in the revenue when taxes actually received or collected during the fiscal year fall below collection estimates made in the annual budget ordinance within the limits prescribed in G.S. 159-13.
- (3) To meet emergencies threatening the public health or safety, as conclusively determined in writing by the Governor.
- (4) To refund outstanding revenue bonds or revenue bond anticipation notes.
- (5) To refund outstanding general obligation bonds or general obligation bond anticipation notes.
- (6) To fund judgments for specified sums of money entered against the unit by a court of competent jurisdiction.
- (7) To fund valid, existing obligations of the unit not incurred by the borrowing of money.

(b) Each county and city is authorized to borrow money and issue its bonds under this Article in evidence thereof for the purpose of paying any capital costs of any one or more of the following:

- (1) Providing airport facilities, including without limitation related land, landing fields, runways, clear zones, lighting, navigational and signal systems, hangars, terminals, offices, shops, and parking facilities.
- (2) Providing armories for the North Carolina national guard.
- (3) Providing auditoriums, coliseums, arenas, stadiums, civic centers, convention centers, and facilities for exhibitions, athletic and cultural events, shows, and public gatherings.
- (4) Providing beach improvements, including without limitation jetties, seawalls, groins, moles, sand dunes, vegetation, additional sand, pumps and related equipment, and drainage channels, for the control of beach erosion and the improvement of beaches.
- (5) Providing cemeteries.
- (6) Providing facilities for fire fighting and prevention, including without limitation headquarters buildings, station buildings, training facilities, hydrants, alarm systems, and communications systems.
- (7) Providing hospital facilities, including without limitation general, tuberculosis, mental, chronic disease, and other types of hospitals and related facilities such as laboratories, outpatient departments, nurses' homes and training facilities, and central service facilities operated in connection with hospitals; facilities for the provision of public health services, including related facilities such as laboratories, clinics, and administrative offices; facilities specially designed for the diagnosis, treatment, education, training, or custodial care of the mentally retarded, including facilities for training specialists and sheltered workshops for the mentally retarded; nursing homes; and in connection with the foregoing, laundries, nurses', doctors', or interns' residences, administrative buildings, research facilities, maintenance, storage, and utility facilities, auditoriums, dining halls, food service and preparation facilities, fire prevention facilities, mental and physical health care facilities, dental care facilities, nursing schools, mental teaching facilities, offices, parking facilities, and other supporting service structures.

- (8) Providing land for corporate purposes.
- (9) Providing facilities for law enforcement, including without limitation headquarters buildings, station buildings, jails and other confinement facilities, training facilities, alarm systems, and communications systems.
- (10) Providing library facilities, including without limitation fixed and mobile libraries.
- (11) Providing art galleries, museums, and art centers, and providing for historic properties.
- (12) Providing parking facilities, including on- and off-street parking, and in connection therewith any area or place for the parking and storing of automobiles and other vehicles open to public use, with or without charge, including without limitation meters, buildings, garages, driveways, and approaches.
- (13) Providing parks and recreation facilities, including without limitation land, athletic fields, parks, playgrounds, recreation centers, shelters, stadiums, arenas, permanent and temporary stands, golf courses, swimming pools, wading pools, marinas, and lighting.
- (14) Providing public building, including without limitation buildings housing courtrooms, other court facilities, and council rooms, office buildings, public markets, public comfort stations, warehouses, and yards.
- (15) Providing public vehicles, including without limitation those for law enforcement, fire fighting and prevention, sanitation, street paving and maintenance, safety and public health, and other corporate purposes.
- (16) Providing for redevelopment through the acquisition of land and the improvement thereof for assisting local redevelopment commissions.
- (17) Providing sanitary sewer systems, including without limitation community sewerage facilities for the collection, treatment, and disposal of sewage or septic tank systems and other on-site collection and disposal facilities or systems.
- (18) Providing solid waste disposal systems, including without limitation land for sanitary landfills, incinerators, and other structures and buildings.
- (19) Providing storm sewers and flood control facilities, including without limitation levees, dikes, diversionary channels, drains, catch basins, and other facilities for storm water drainage.
- (20) Providing voting machines.
- (21) Providing water systems, including without limitation facilities for the supply, storage, treatment, and distribution of water.
- (22) Providing for any other purpose for which it is authorized, by general laws uniformly applicable throughout the State, to raise or appropriate money, except for current expenses.
- (23) Providing public transportation facilities, including without limitation equipment for public transportation, buses, surface and below-ground railways, ferries, and garage facilities.
- (24) Providing industrial parks, land suitable for industrial or commercial purposes, shell buildings, in order to provide employment opportunities for citizens of the county or city.
- (25) Providing property to preserve a railroad corridor.

(c) Each county is authorized to borrow money and issue its bonds under this Article in evidence of the debt for the purpose of, in the case of subdivisions

(1) through (4b) of this subsection, paying any capital costs of any one or more of the purposes and, in the case of subdivisions (5) and (6) of this subsection, to finance the cost of the purpose:

- (1) Providing community college facilities, including without limitation buildings, plants, and other facilities, physical and vocational educational buildings and facilities, including in connection therewith classrooms, laboratories, libraries, auditoriums, administrative offices, student unions, dormitories, gymnasiums, athletic fields, cafeterias, utility plants, and garages.
- (2) Providing courthouses, including without limitation offices, meeting rooms, court facilities and rooms, and detention facilities.
- (3) Providing county homes for the indigent and infirm.
- (4) Providing school facilities, including without limitation schoolhouses, buildings, plants and other facilities, physical and vocational educational buildings and facilities, including in connection therewith classrooms, laboratories, libraries, auditoriums, administrative offices, gymnasiums, athletic fields, lunchrooms, utility plants, garages, and school buses and other necessary vehicles.
- (4a) Providing improvements to subdivision and residential streets pursuant to G.S. 153A-205.
- (4b) Providing land for present or future county corporate, open space, community college, and public school purposes.
- (5) Providing for the octennial revaluation of real property for taxation.
- (6) Providing housing projects for persons of low or moderate income, including construction or acquisition of projects to be owned by a county, redevelopment commission, or housing authority and the provision of loans, grants, interest supplements, and other programs of financial assistance to such persons. A housing project may provide housing for persons of other than low or moderate income if at least forty percent (40%) of the units in the project are exclusively reserved for persons of low or moderate income. No rent subsidy may be paid from bond proceeds.

(d) Each city is authorized to borrow money and issue its bonds under this Article in evidence thereof for the purpose of paying any capital costs of any one or more of the following:

- (1) Repealed by Session Laws 1977, c. 402, s. 2.
- (2) Providing cable television systems.
- (3) Providing electric systems, including without limitation facilities for the generation, transmission, and distribution of electric light and power.
- (4) Providing gas systems, including without limitation facilities for the production, storage, transmission and distribution of gas, where systems shall also include the purchase and/or lease of natural gas fields and natural gas reserves and the purchase of natural gas supplies, and where any parts of such systems may be located either within the State or without.
- (5) Providing streets and sidewalks, including without limitation bridges, viaducts, causeways, overpasses, underpasses, and alleys; paving, grading, resurfacing, and widening streets; sidewalks, curbs and gutters, culverts, and drains; traffic controls, signals, and markers; lighting; and grade crossings and the elimination thereof and grade separations.
- (6) Improving existing systems or facilities for the transmission or distribution of telephone services.
- (7) Providing housing projects for the benefit of persons of low income, or moderate income, or low and moderate income, including without limitation (i) construction or acquisition of projects to be owned by a city, redevelopment commission or housing authority, and (ii) loans, grants, interest supplements and other programs of financial assistance to persons of low income, or moderate income, or low and moderate income, and developers of housing for persons of low income, or moderate income, or low and moderate income. A housing project may provide housing for persons of other than low or moderate income, as long as at least twenty percent (20%) of the units in the project are set aside for housing for the exclusive use of persons of low income. No rent subsidy may be paid from bond proceeds.

(e) Each sanitary district, mosquito control district, hospital district, merged school administrative unit described in G.S. 115C-513; metropolitan sewerage district, metropolitan water district, county water and sewer district, regional public transportation authority and special airport district is authorized to borrow money and issue its bonds under this Article in evidence thereof for the purpose of paying any capital costs of any one or more of the purposes for which it is authorized, by general laws uniformly applicable throughout the State, to raise or appropriate money, except for current expenses.

(f) For any of the purposes authorized by subsections (b), (c), (d), or (e) of this section, a unit may do any of the following that it considers necessary or convenient:

- (1) Acquire, construct, erect, provide, develop, install, furnish, and equip; and
- (2) Reconstruct, remodel, alter, renovate, replace, refurnish, and reequip; and
- (3) Enlarge, expand, and extend; and
- (4) Demolish, relocate, improve, grade, drain, landscape, pave, widen, and resurface.

(g) Bonds for two or more unrelated purposes, not of the same general class or character, shall not be authorized by the same bond order. However, bonds for any of the purposes listed in any subdivision of any subsection of this section shall be deemed to be for one purpose and may be authorized by the same bond order. In addition, nothing herein may be deemed to prohibit the combining of purposes from any of such paragraphs and the authorization of bonds therefor by the same bond order to the extent that the purposes are not unrelated.

(h) As used in this section, "capital costs" include, without limitation, the following:

- (1) The costs of doing any or all of the things mentioned in subsection (f) of this section; and
- (2) The costs of all property, both real and personal and both improved and unimproved, plants, works, appurtenances, structures, facilities, furnishings, machinery, equipment, vehicles, easements, water rights, franchises, and licenses used or useful in connection with the purpose authorized; and
- (3) The costs of demolishing or moving structures from land acquired and acquiring any lands to which such structures are to be moved; and
- (4) Financing charges, including estimated interest during construction and for six months thereafter; and
- (5) The costs of plans, specifications, studies and reports, surveys, and estimates of costs and revenues; and
- (6) The costs of bond printing and insurance; and
- (7) Administrative and legal expenses; and
- (8) Any other services, costs, and expenses necessary or incidental to the purpose authorized.

(i) This section does not authorize any unit to undertake any program, function, joint undertaking, or service not otherwise authorized by law. It is intended only to authorize the borrowing of money and the issuance of bonds within the limitations set out herein to finance programs, functions, joint undertakings, or services authorized by other portions of the General Statutes or by city charters. (1917, c. 138, s. 16; 1919, c. 178, s. 3(16); C.S., s. 2937; 1921, c. 8, s. 1; Ex. Cross References. — As to property taxes to provide for drainage projects or programs, see § 160A-209.

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1987, c. 577, s. 1 amended Session Laws 1985, c. 639, s. 4, as amended by Session Laws 1985 (Reg. Sess., 1986), cc. 846, 848, 849, 858, 874, 911, 916 and 921 and Session Laws 1987, c. 203, which formerly made subdivision (b)(24) of this section applicable only to certain counties, municipalities and towns, to read solely: "This act shall become effective January 1, 1986." Thus subdivision (b)(24) now has statewide application.

Session Laws 1991, c. 325, s. 9 interpreted the 1991 amendment to this section, which inserted "merged school administrative unit described in G.S. 115C-513" in subsection (e), by providing:

"Interpretation of Act."

"(a) Additional method. The foregoing sections of this act shall be deemed to provide an additional and alternative method for the doing of things authorized thereby and shall be regarded as supplemental and additional to powers conferred by other laws, and shall not be regarded as in derogation of any powers now existing.

"(b) Statutory references. References in this act to specific sections or Chapters of the General Statutes are intended to be references to such sections as they may be amended from time to time by the General Assembly.

"(c) Liberal construction. This act, being necessary for the health and welfare of the people of the State, shall be liberally construed to effect these purposes.

"(d) Inconsistent provisions. Insofar as the provisions of this act are inconsistent with the provisions of any general laws, this act shall be controlling.

of the act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this act are severable."

An amendment to this section, which would have added a new subdivision (b)(26) regarding undertaking public activities in or for the benefit of a development financing district, by Session Laws 1993, c. 497, s. 3, was made effective upon certification of approval of an amendment to Article V of the Constitution of North Carolina relating to the authority of any county, city or town to borrow money, without the need of voter approval, and issue financing bonds to be used to finance public activities associated with private economic development projects. This amendment was submitted to the people on November 2, 1993 and was defeated. The amendment to this section, therefore, never took effect.

Session Laws 1999-366, s. 1, provides: "The General Assembly finds and declares that the purpose of this act is to provide authority for counties in North Carolina to provide funds for residential housing construction, new or rehabilitated, and to provide for the sale or rental of housing to persons and families of low and moderate income. The General Assembly finds and declares that there exists in counties in the State a serious shortage of decent, safe, and sanitary residential housing available at low prices or rentals to persons and families of low and moderate income. This shortage is inimical to the health, safety, welfare, and prosperity of all residents of the State and to the sound growth of North Carolina communities."

Effect of Amendments. — Session Laws 1999-366, s. 4, effective August 4, 1999, in subsection (c), substituted "subdivisions (5) and (6)" for "subdivision (5)" in the introductory language and added subdivision (c)(6).

Session Laws 1999-378, s. 1, effective August 4, 1999, substituted "(4b)" for "(4a)" in the introductory language of subsection (c) and added subdivision (c)(4b).

CASE NOTES

Editor's Note. — The cases cited below were decided under former statutory provisions similar to this section.

Constitutionality of Former § 153-77. — Former § 153-77, specifying the purposes for which county bonds could be issued, was constitutional. Evans v. Mecklenburg County, 205 N.C. 560, 172 S.E. 323 (1934).

Construction of County Water and Sewer Systems. — The General Assembly may grant to a county the authority to issue bonds for the construction of water and sewer systems when "approved by a majority of those who shall vote thereon in any election held for such purpose," as required by N.C. Const., Art. V, § 4(2). Ramsey v. Board of Comm'rs, 246 N.C. 647, 100 S.E.2d 55 (1957).

Erection and Maintenance of Municipal Public Hospital. — The authority to issue valid bonds for the erection and maintenance of a public hospital with the approval of its voters was conferred on a municipality by former §§ 160-230 and 160-378, and where other relevant statutes had been duly followed, the bonds so issued were a valid obligation of the town issuing them, and their issuance would not be enjoined by the courts. Burleson v. Board of Aldermen, 200 N.C. 30, 156 S.E. 241 (1930).

Erection of Schoolhouses and Purchase of Land for School Purposes by Counties. — The counties of the State are authorized to issue bonds and notes for the erection of schoolhouses and for the purchase of land necessary for school purposes, and to levy taxes for the payment of principal and interest on the same, not as municipal corporations, organized primarily for purposes of local government, but as administrative agencies of the State, employed by the General Assembly to discharge the duty imposed upon it by the Constitution to provide a state system of public schools. Frazier v. Board of Comm'rs, 194 N.C. 49, 138 S.E. 433 (1927); Bridges v. City of Charlotte, 221 N.C. 472, 20 S.E.2d 825 (1942).

Indebtedness for teachers' salaries was held to come within the purview of an earlier statute authorizing issuance of bonds for the funding or refunding of valid indebtedness. Hampton v. Board of Educ., 195 N.C. 213, 141 S.E. 744 (1928).

Validity of Refunding Bonds. — Where a county under power conferred by special statute has borrowed money from time to time for the maintenance and equipment of its public schools, its bonds to refund the indebtedness so incurred are valid if issued in conformity with the provisions of the applicable statute. Hartsfield v. Craven County, 194 N.C. 358, 139 S.E. 698 (1927).

§ 159-49. When a vote of the people is required.

Bonds may be issued under this Article only if approved by a vote of the qualified voters of the issuing unit as provided in this Article, except that voter approval shall not be required for:

- (1) Bonds issued for any purpose authorized by G.S. 159-48(a)(1), (2), (3), or (5).
- (2) Bonds issued by a county, county water and sewer district created under Article 6 of Chapter 162A of the General Statutes, metropolitan water district created under Article 4 of Chapter 162A of the General Statutes, or city for any purpose authorized by G.S. 159-48(a)(4), (6), or (7) or G.S. 159-48(b), (c), (d), or (e) (except purposes authorized by G.S. 159-48(b)(3), (11), (16), (22), or (23) or by G.S. 159-48(d)(2)) in an aggregate principal sum not exceeding two thirds of the amount by which the outstanding indebtedness of the issuing county, county water and sewer district, metropolitan water district, or city has been reduced during the next preceding fiscal year.

Pursuant to Article V, Sec. 4(2) of the Constitution, the General Assembly hereby declares that the purposes authorized by G.S. 159-48(a)(4), (6), and (7) and by G.S. 159-48(b), (c), (d), and (e) (except purposes authorized by G.S. 159-48(b)(3), (11), (16), (22), or (23) or by G.S. 159-48(d)(2)) are purposes for which bonds may be issued without a vote of the people, to the extent of two thirds of the amount by which the outstanding indebtedness of the issuing county, county water and sewer district, metropolitan water district, or city was reduced in the last preceding fiscal year. (1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1973, c. 494, s. 5; 1977, c. 402, s. 3; 1989, c. 470.)

Part 2. Procedure for Issuing Bonds.

§ 159-50. Notice of intent to make application for issuance of voted bonds; objection by citizens and taxpayers.

When a unit of local government proposes to issue bonds that must be approved by a vote of the people, it shall first publish a notice of its intent to make application to the Commission for approval of the issue. The notice shall be published once not less than 10 days before the application is filed. The notice shall state (i) that the board intends to file an application with the Commission for approval of a bond issue, (ii) in brief and general terms the purpose of the proposed issue, (iii) the maximum amount of bonds to be issued, and (iv) that any citizen or taxpayer of the issuing unit may, within seven days after the date of the publication, file with the governing board and the Commission a statement of any objections he may have to the issue. The Commission may prescribe the form of the notice.

Any citizen or taxpayer of the issuing unit who objects to the proposed bond issue in whole or in part may, within seven days from the date of publication of the notice, file a written statement of his objections with the board and the Commission. The statement shall set forth each objection to the proposed bond issue and shall contain the name and address of the person filing it. The Commission shall consider the statement of objections along with the application and shall notify the objector and the board of its disposition of each objection.

Failure to comply with this section shall not affect the validity of any bonds otherwise issued in accordance with the law. This section shall not apply to bonds that need not be submitted to a vote of the people. (1953, c. 1121; 1971, c. 780, s. 1.)

Legal Periodicals. — For symposium on municipal finance, see 1976 Duke L.J. 1051.

§ 159-51. Application to Commission for approval of bond issue; preliminary conference; acceptance of application.

No bonds may be issued under this Article unless the issue is approved by the Local Government Commission. The governing board of the issuing unit shall file an application for Commission approval of the issue with the secretary of the Commission. If the issuing unit is a regional public transportation authority, the application must be accompanied by resolutions of the special tax board of that authority and of each of the boards of county commissioners of the counties organizing the authority approving of the application. The application shall state such facts and have attached to it such documents concerning the proposed bonds and the financial condition of the issuing unit as the secretary may require. The Commission may prescribe the form of the application.

Before he accepts the application, the secretary may require the governing board or its representatives to attend a preliminary conference to consider the proposed bond issue. If the issuing unit is a merged school administrative unit described in G.S. 115C-513, each county in which the merged unit is located may attend the preliminary conference.

After an application in proper form has been filed, and after a preliminary conference if one is required, the secretary shall notify the unit in writing that the application has been filed and accepted for submission to the Commission. The secretary's statement shall be conclusive evidence that the unit has complied with this section. (1953, c. 1121; 1971, c. 780, s. 2; 1989, c. 740, s. 5; 1991, c. 325, s. 6; c. 666, s. 6.)

Editor's Note. — As to validation of certain proceedings not complying with former § 159-7, see Session Laws 1959, c. 318.

Session Laws 1991, c. 325, s. 9 interpreted the 1991 amendment to this section by c. 325, s. 6, which added the second sentence of the second paragraph, by providing:

“Interpretation of Act.”

“(a) Additional method. The foregoing sections of this act shall be deemed to provide an additional and alternative method for the doing of things authorized thereby and shall be regarded as supplemental and additional to powers conferred by other laws, and shall not be regarded as in derogation of any powers now existing.

“(b) Statutory references. References in this act to specific sections or Chapters of the General Statutes are intended to be references to such sections as they may be amended from time to time by the General Assembly.

“(c) Liberal construction. This act, being necessary for the health and welfare of the people of the State, shall be liberally construed to effect these purposes.

“(d) Inconsistent provisions. Insofar as the provisions of this act are inconsistent with the provisions of any general laws, this act shall be controlling.

“(e) Severability. If any provision of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this act are severable.”

§ 159-52. Approval of application by Commission.

(a) In determining whether a proposed bond issue shall be approved, the Commission may consider:

- (1) Whether the project to be financed from the proceeds of the bond issue is necessary or expedient.
- (2) The nature and amount of the outstanding debt of the issuing unit.
- (3) The unit's debt management procedures and policies.
- (4) The unit's tax and special assessments collection record.
- (5) The unit's compliance with the Local Government Budget and Fiscal Control Act.
- (6) Whether the unit is in default in any of its debt service obligations.
- (7) The unit's present tax rates, and the increase in tax rate, if any, necessary to service the proposed debt.
- (8) The unit's appraised and assessed value of property subject to taxation.
- (9) The ability of the unit to sustain the additional taxes necessary to service the debt.
- (10) The ability of the Commission to market the proposed bonds at reasonable interest rates.
- (11) If the proposed issue is for a utility or public service enterprise, the probable net revenues of the project to be financed and the extent to which the revenues of the utility or enterprise, after addition of the revenues of the project to be financed, will be sufficient to service the proposed debt.

- (12) Whether the amount of the proposed debt will be adequate to accomplish the purpose for which it is to be incurred.

The Commission may inquire into and give consideration to any other matters which it may believe to have a bearing on whether the issue should be approved.

(b) The Commission shall approve the application if, upon the information and evidence it receives, it finds and determines:

- (1) That the proposed bond issue is necessary or expedient.
- (2) That the amount proposed is adequate and not excessive for the proposed purpose of the issue.
- (3) That the unit's debt management procedures and policies are good, or that reasonable assurances have been given that its debt will henceforth be managed in strict compliance with law.
- (4) That the increase in taxes, if any, necessary to service the proposed debt will not be excessive.
- (5) That the proposed bonds can be marketed at reasonable rates of interest.

If the Commission tentatively decides to deny the application because it is of the opinion that any one or more of these conclusions cannot be supported from the information presented to it, it shall so notify the unit filing the application. If the unit so requests, the Commission shall hold a public hearing on the application at which time any interested persons shall be heard. The Commission may appoint a hearing officer to conduct the hearing, and to present a summary of the testimony and his recommendations for the Commission's consideration. (1931, c. 60, ss. 12, 13; 1971, c. 780, s. 1.)

§ 159-53. Order approving or disapproving an application.

(a) After considering an application, and conducting a public hearing thereon if one is requested under G.S. 159-52(b), the Commission shall enter its order either approving or denying the application. An order approving an issue shall not be regarded as an approval of the legality of the bonds in any respect.

(b) If the Commission shall enter an order denying an application, the proceedings under this Subchapter shall be at an end. (1931, c. 60, s. 14; 1971, c. 780, s. 1.)

§ 159-54. The bond order.

After or at the same time the application is filed and accepted for submission to the Commission, a bond order shall be introduced before the governing board of the issuing unit. The bond order shall state:

- (1) Briefly and generally and without specification of location or material of construction, the purpose for which the bonds are to be issued, but not more than one purpose may be stated. For funding or refunding bonds a brief description of the debt, judgment, or obligation to be funded or refunded shall be sufficient.
- (2) The maximum aggregate principal amount of the bonds.
- (3) That taxes will be levied in an amount sufficient to pay the principal and interest of the bonds.
- (4) The extent, if any, to which utility or enterprise revenues are, or may be, pledged to payment of interest on and principal of the bonds pursuant to G.S. 159-47.
- (5) That a sworn statement of debt has been filed with the clerk and is open to public inspection.

- (6) If the bonds are to be approved by the voters, that the bond order will take effect when approved by the voters.
- (7) If the bonds are issued pursuant to G.S. 159-48(a)(1), (2), (3), or (5), that the bond order will take effect upon its adoption. If the bonds are to be issued pursuant to G.S. 159-48(a)(4), (6), or (7) or G.S. 159-48(b), (c), or (d) and are not to be submitted to the voters, that the bond order will take effect 30 days after its publication following adoption, unless it is petitioned to a vote of the people as provided in G.S. 159-60, and that in that event the order will take effect when approved by the voters.

When the bond order is introduced, the board shall fix the time and place for a public hearing thereon. (1917, c. 138, s. 17; 1919, c. 178, s. 3(17); c. 285, s. 2; C.S., s. 2938; 1921, c. 8, s. 1; Ex. Sess. 1921, c. 106, s. 1; 1927, c. 81, s. 9; 1931, c. 60, ss. 49, 55; 1933, c. 259, ss. 1, 2; 1935, c. 302, ss. 1, 2; 1949, c. 497, ss. 1, 3; 1957, c. 856, s. 2; 1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1973, c. 494, s. 6.)

CASE NOTES

Editor's Note. — Many of the cases cited below were decided under former statutory provisions similar to this section.

Applicability. — A fair reading of the language of this section and § 159-54 indicates that this Act applies to general obligation bonds which pledge the faith and credit of the county. McNeill v. Harnett County, 327 N.C. 552, 398 S.E.2d 475 (1990).

The bond order is the crucial foundation document which supports and explains the proposal to be submitted, and material representations set out in the bond order ordinarily become essential elements of the proposition submitted to the voters. Rider v. Lenoir County, 236 N.C. 620, 73 S.E.2d 913 (1952).

The courts are without authority to supply a deficiency in the bond order. Hall v. Commissioners of Duplin, 195 N.C. 367, 142 S.E. 315 (1928).

Stipulation in Bond Order as Limitation on Subsequent Official Acts. — Where bond order contains a stipulation definitely fixing the maximum amount of county funds to be expended on a proposed project, such stipulation, treated as a compact, becomes a limitation upon subsequent official acts based on a favorable vote and may not be materially varied. Rider v. Lenoir County, 236 N.C. 620, 73 S.E.2d 913 (1952).

Provision Becoming Part of Bonds. — A provision set out in former § 159-46 and incorporated in an ordinance authorizing the issuance of bonds entered into and became an integral part of the bonds when issued, with contractual force and effect, which could not be impaired by subsequent legislation. Nash v. Board of Comm'rs, 211 N.C. 301, 190 S.E. 475 (1937).

Ordinance authorizing a bond sale and calling a special election must state the purpose in only brief and general terms. Sykes

v. Belk, 278 N.C. 106, 179 S.E.2d 439 (1971).

Use of Proceeds of Bonds Limited by Bond Order. — Where a bond order approved by the voters of a county authorized the issuance of bonds in an aggregate amount to finance a new building or buildings to be used as a public hospital and the acquisition of a suitable site therefor, the use of the proceeds of the bonds was limited by the bond order, and the county could not use the surplus left after completing the project contemplated in the bond order toward the construction of a clinic in another municipality of the county. Lewis v. Beaufort County, 249 N.C. 628, 107 S.E.2d 77 (1959).

No Substantial Deviation from Purpose Found. — Where the manifest purpose for which a civic center bond issue was proposed was to revitalize the downtown area, with the civic center becoming the catalyst for other projects, and the site finally chosen by the city council remained in the downtown area, although at a distance of approximately four blocks from the site noted in speeches by public officials before the election, there was not a substantial deviation from the purpose for which the bonds were proposed. Sykes v. Belk, 278 N.C. 106, 179 S.E.2d 439 (1971).

Misrepresentations made as to the site of the civic center for construction of which a bond issue to be paid by taxes was proposed did not vitiate the question as submitted to the voters in the bond issue election. Sykes v. Belk, 278 N.C. 106, 179 S.E.2d 439 (1971).

Use of Funds for Hospital "Buildings". — Where the resolution of the county commissioners in submitting to a vote the question of issuing bonds for a public hospital used the word "buildings," and it was later found that a surplus would remain after the erection and equipment of the main hospital building, such surplus could be used for the purpose of erecting on the hospital grounds a home for nurses, technicians and others engaged in essential employment incidental to the proper operation of the hospital. Worley v. Johnston County, 231 N.C. 592, 58 S.E.2d 99 (1950).

Intent to Use Funds for Construction of Water and Sewer Lines in Annexed Areas.

— Where there was no irregularity in the authorization of municipal bonds for its water and sewer systems, and in the city's notice of intent to annex certain areas it was stated that the city intended to use certain of the proceeds of the bonds for the construction of water and sewer lines in areas intended to be annexed, the fact that neither the bond ordinance nor the ballots used in the election at which the issuance of the bonds was approved disclosed such intent did not affect the validity of the bonds. Upchurch v. City of Raleigh, 252 N.C. 676, 114 S.E.2d 772 (1960).

A bond order may contain several sections and authorize the issue of bonds for different purposes. Atkins v. McAden, 229 N.C. 752, 51 S.E.2d 484 (1949).

Bond order need not set out in detail estimates of cost and descriptions of the particular projects for which the funds are proposed to be used, and their inclusion does not limit the allocation of the proceeds of the bonds, provided the use of the funds falls within the general purpose designated. Atkins v. McAden, 229 N.C. 752, 51 S.E.2d 484 (1949).

Nor Specify That Public Funds Will Supplement Bond Moneys. — Where public funds are to supplement bond moneys, it is not required that the bond order specify, or the voters be advised, that the proceeds of the proposed bond issue are to be used with, or in addition to, a sum of money on hand or otherwise available for the proposed improvement. Rider v. Lenoir County, 236 N.C. 620, 73 S.E.2d 913 (1952).

But Where Order Stipulates Total Sum to Be Expended, Appropriation of Additional Sum Is Unauthorized. — While a county may ordinarily expend unallocated nontax moneys for the public purpose of a county hospital even in those instances in which a bond order for the hospital does not specify that the proceeds of the bonds are to be used together with such unallocated nontax moneys, where the bond order specifically specified that the total maximum amount to be expended by the county for the hospital was not to exceed $465,000, the allocation of an additional supplemental appropriation of over $138,000 out of nontax moneys on hand was a material variance from the compact as set forth in the bond order, and the county could be restrained in a proper suit from issuing the bonds and disbursing county funds in accordance with hospital plans predicated upon such increased appropriation. Rider v. Lenoir County, 236 N.C. 620, 73 S.E.2d 913 (1952).

Amount and Manner of Assessment Against Each Abutting Owner Need Not Be Set Forth.

— It is not required that a bond ordinance of a municipality set forth in express terms the proportion of the cost of the proposed improvements which has been, or is to be, assessed against the property of each owner abutting upon the streets to be improved, or the terms and method of making the payment, if the procedure follow the direction of the statutes relating to the subject. Leak v. Town of Wadesboro, 186 N.C. 683, 121 S.E. 12 (1923).

A tax must be levied only if revenue from other sources is inadequate to repay the principal and interest on the bonds outstanding. McNeill v. Harnett County, 327 N.C. 552, 398 S.E.2d 475 (1990).

Repayment of Bonds by Charging Reasonable Fees. — Where the ballot that the voters considered indicated that the voters were asked only to authorize a tax rather than to approve an order imposing a tax, the County Commissioners were not compelled to impose a tax and were free, under these facts, to charge reasonable fees and charges to repay the bonds in lieu of the levy of a tax. McNeill v. Harnett County, 327 N.C. 552, 398 S.E.2d 475 (1990).

Cited in Citizens Ass'n for Reasonable Growth v. City of Washington, 45 N.C. App. 7, 262 S.E.2d 343 (1980).

§ 159-55. Sworn statement of debt; debt limitation.

(a) After the bond order has been introduced and before the public hearing thereon, the finance officer (or some other officer designated by the governing board for this purpose) shall file with the clerk a statement showing the following:

- (1) The gross debt of the unit, excluding therefrom debt incurred or to be incurred in anticipation of the collection of taxes or other revenues or in anticipation of the sale of bonds other than funding and refunding bonds. The gross debt (after exclusions) is the sum of (i) outstanding debt evidenced by bonds, (ii) bonds authorized by orders introduced but not yet adopted, (iii) unissued bonds authorized by adopted orders, and (iv) outstanding debt not evidenced by bonds. However, for purposes of the sworn statement of debt and the debt limitation, revenue bonds shall not be considered debt and such bonds shall not be included in gross debt nor deducted from gross debt.

- (2) The deductions to be made from gross debt in computing net debt. The following deductions are allowed:
  - a. Funding and refunding bonds authorized by orders introduced but not yet adopted.
  - b. Funding and refunding bonds authorized but not yet issued.
  - c. The amount of money held in sinking funds or otherwise for the payment of any part of the principal of gross debt other than debt incurred for water, gas, electric light or power purposes, or sanitary sewer purposes (to the extent that the bonds are deductible under subsection (b) of this section), or two or more of these purposes.
  - d. The amount of bonded debt included in gross debt and incurred, or to be incurred, for water, gas, or electric light or power purposes, or any two or more of these purposes.
  - e. The amount of bonded debt included in the gross debt and incurred, or to be incurred, for sanitary sewer system purposes to the extent that the debt is made deductible by subsection (b) of this section.
  - f. The amount of uncollected special assessments theretofore levied for local improvements for which any part of the gross debt (that is not otherwise deducted) was or is to be incurred, to the extent that the assessments will be applied, when collected, to the payment of any part of the gross debt.
  - g. The amount, as estimated by the governing board of the issuing unit or an officer designated by the board for this purpose, of special assessments to be levied for local improvements for which any part of the gross debt (that is not otherwise deducted) was or is to be incurred, to the extent that the special assessments, when collected, will be applied to the payment of any part of the gross debt.
- (3) The net debt of the issuing unit, being the difference between the gross debt and deductions.
- (4) The assessed value of property subject to taxation by the issuing unit, as revealed by the tax records and certified to the issuing unit by the assessor.
- (5) The percentage that the net debt bears to the assessed value of property subject to taxation by the issuing unit.

(b) Debt incurred or to be incurred for sanitary sewer system purposes is deductible from gross debt when the combined revenues of the water system and the sanitary sewer system (whether or not the water and sewer system are operated separately or as a consolidated system) were sufficient to pay all operating, capital outlay, and debt service expenditures attributable to both systems in each of the three complete fiscal years immediately preceding the date on which the sworn statement of debt is filed. For the purposes of this subsection, the "revenues" of a water system and a sanitary sewer system include:

- (1) Rates, fees, rentals, charges, and other receipts and income derived from or in connection with the system.
- (2) Fees, rents, or other charges collected from other offices, agencies, institutions, and departments of the issuing unit at rates not in excess of those charged to other consumers, customers, or users.
- (3) Appropriations from the fund balance of the prior fiscal year from the fund or funds established to account for the revenues and expenditures of the water system or sewer system pursuant to G.S. 159-13(a) of the Local Government Budget and Fiscal Control Act.

Before the sworn statement of debt is filed, the secretary shall determine to what extent debt incurred or to be incurred for sanitary sewer system purposes qualifies for deduction from gross debt pursuant to this subsection, and shall give his certificate to that effect. The secretary's certificate shall be filed with and deemed a part of the sworn statement of debt. The secretary's certificate shall be conclusive in the absence of fraud.

(c) No bond order shall be adopted unless it appears from the sworn statement of debt filed in connection therewith that the net debt of the unit does not exceed eight percent (8%) of the assessed value of property subject to taxation by the issuing unit. This limitation shall not apply to:

- (1) Funding and refunding bonds.
- (2) Bonds issued for water, gas, or electric power purposes, or two or more of these purposes.
- (3) Bonds issued for sanitary sewer system purposes when the bonds are deductible pursuant to subsection (b) of this section.
- (4) Bonds issued for sanitary sewers, sewage disposal, or sewage purification plants when the construction of these facilities has been ordered by the Environmental Management Commission, which Commission is hereby authorized to make such an order, or by a court of competent jurisdiction.
- (5) Bonds or notes issued for erosion control purposes.
- (6) Bonds or notes issued for the purpose of erecting jetties or other protective works to prevent encroachment by the ocean, sounds, or other bodies of water. (1917, c. 138, s. 19; 1919, c. 178, s. 3(19); c. 285, s. 4; C.S., s. 2943; 1921, c. 8, s. 1; Ex. Sess. 1921, c. 106, s. 1; 1927, c. 81, ss. 13, 14; c. 102, s. 1; 1931, c. 60, s. 51; 1933, c. 259, s. 1; c. 321; Ex. Sess. 1938, c. 3; 1955, c. 1045; 1959, c. 779, s. 10; 1967, c. 892, s. 4; 1969, c. 1092; 1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1973, c. 494, s. 7; c. 1262, s. 231; 1991, c. 11, ss. 2, 3; 1991 (Reg. Sess., 1992), c. 1007, s. 41.)

Editor's Note. — An amendment to subsection (a) of this section by Session Laws 1993, c. 497, s. 4, was made effective upon certification of approval of an amendment to Article V of the Constitution of North Carolina relating to the authority of any county, city or town to borrow money, without the need of voter approval, and issue financing bonds to be used to finance public activities associated with private economic development projects. This amendment was submitted to the people on November 2, 1993 and was defeated. The amendment to subsection (a) of this section, therefore, never took effect.

An earlier amendment to this section in Session Laws 1981 (Reg. Sess., 1982), c. 1276, s. 2, was made effective on certification of approval of a state constitutional amendment authorizing the enactment of laws dealing with transactions of the type contemplated by the act. Such an amendment was proposed by Session Laws 1981 (Reg. Sess., 1982), c. 1247, was submitted to the people on Nov. 2, 1982, and was defeated. The amendment to this section, therefore, did not go into effect.

CASE NOTES

Editor's Note. — Most of the cases cited below were decided under former statutory provisions similar to this section.

Action Attacking Bond Order on Ground of Failure to File Statement. — Where taxpayers instituted an action attacking a bond order passed by the board of county commissioners for failure of the commissioners to comply with the statute requiring the filing of a true statement of the county debt, the attack upon the order was upon statutory as distinguished from constitutional grounds, and an action instituted more than 30 days after the first publication of the order could not be maintained. Garrell v. Columbus County, 215 N.C. 589, 2 S.E.2d 701 (1939).

Bonds issued by a municipality for water and sewer systems do not come within the inhibition against incurring debt in excess of 8% of the assessed valuation (now 8% of the appraised value). Lamb v. Randleman, 206 N.C. 837, 175 S.E. 293 (1934).

Bonds Including Amount of Special Assessments. — Where a town has issued bonds for general street improvements under legislative authority, and includes the amount required for local improvements by assessment of owners of lands abutting a particular street improved, it may charge off from the proceeds of the sale of the bonds the estimated amount to be realized by the special assessments. Brown v. Town of Hillsboro, 185 N.C. 368, 117 S.E. 41 (1923).

Applied in Wright v. County of Macon, 64 N.C. App. 718, 308 S.E.2d 97 (1983).

§ 159-56. Publication of bond order as introduced.

After the introduction of the bond order, the clerk shall publish it once with the following statement appended:

“The foregoing order has been introduced and a sworn statement of debt has been filed under the Local Government Bond Act showing the appraised value of the [issuing unit] to be $ _____ and the net debt thereof, including the proposed bonds, to be $ _____. A tax will [may] be levied to pay the principal of and interest on the bonds if they are issued. Anyone who wishes to be heard on the questions of the validity of the bond order and the advisability of issuing the bonds may appear at a public hearing or an adjournment thereof to be held at _____.

Editor’s Note. — The case cited below was decided under former statutory provisions similar to this section.

The proper publication of the notices is mandatory, and cannot be dispensed with. Frazier v. Board of Comm’rs, 194 N.C. 49, 138 S.E. 433 (1927).

Sufficiency of Publication. — Former statute requiring notice to taxpayers, etc., of an opportunity to be heard before a county could issue bonds for various purposes was sufficiently complied with if several orders of the county commissioners were published in the same advertisement and a date and place, fixed for passing upon the objections made, if any, was separately placed in the publication, distinctly referring to each of the separate purposes. Frazier v. Board of Comm’rs, 194 N.C. 49, 138 S.E. 433 (1927).

Publication of one statement in connection with three orders was sufficient as a compliance with former statute, a statement for each order not being necessary. Frazier v. Board of Comm’rs, 194 N.C. 49, 138 S.E. 433 (1927).

§ 159-56.1. Certain proceedings ratified notwithstanding provisions of § 159-56.

All proceedings heretofore taken by the governing boards of units of local government in connection with the authorization of bonds are hereby ratified, approved, confirmed and in all respects validated, notwithstanding the provisions of G.S. 159-56; provided that the issuance of said bonds, the indebtedness to be incurred by the issuance thereof and the levy of a tax for the payment thereof shall have been approved at an election by a majority of the qualified voters of the unit voting thereon. (1973, c. 1172.)

§ 159-57. Hearing; passage of bond order.

On the date fixed for the public hearing, which shall be not earlier than six days after the date of publication of the bond order as introduced, the board shall hear anyone who may wish to be heard on the question of the validity of the order or the advisability of issuing the bonds. The hearing may be adjourned from time to time.

After the hearing, (and on the same day as the hearing, if the board so desires) the board may pass the order as introduced, or as amended. No amendment may increase the amount of bonds to be issued, nor substantially change the purpose of the issue. If the board wishes to increase the amount of bonds to be issued, or to substantially change the purpose of the issue, a new proceeding under this Article is required.

The provisions of any city charter, general law, or local act to the contrary notwithstanding, a bond order may be introduced at any regular or special meeting of the governing board and adopted at any such meeting by a simple majority of those present and voting, a quorum being present, and need not be published or subjected to any procedural requirements governing the adoption of ordinances or resolutions by the governing board other than the procedures set out in this Subchapter. Bond orders shall not be subject to the provisions of any city charter or local act concerning initiative and referendum. (1927, c. 81, s. 17; 1953, c. 1065, s. 1; 1971, c. 780, s. 1.)

§ 159-58. Publication of bond order as adopted.

After adoption, the clerk shall publish the bond order once, with the following statement appended:

“The foregoing order was adopted on the _____ day of _____, _____, and is hereby published this _____ day of _____, _____. Any action or proceeding questioning the validity of the order must be begun within 30 days after the date of publication of this notice.

§ 159-59. Limitation of action to set aside order.

Any action or proceeding in any court to set aside a bond order, or to obtain any other relief, upon the ground that the order is invalid, must be begun within 30 days after the date of publication of the bond order as adopted. After the expiration of this period of limitation, no right of action or defense based upon the invalidity of the order shall be asserted, nor shall the validity of the order be open to question in any court upon any ground whatever, except in an action or proceeding begun within the period of limitation prescribed in this section. (1917, c. 138, s. 20; 1919, c. 49, s. 1; c. 178, s. 3(20); C.S., s. 2945; 1921, c. 8, s. 1; Ex. Sess. 1921, c. 106, s. 1; 1927, c. 81, s. 20; 1971, c. 780, s. 1.)

CASE NOTES

Editor's Note. — Many of the cases cited below were decided under former statutory provisions similar to this section.

Right to Test Constitutionality of Bond Issue Not Affected. — Former § 153-90, similar to this section, did not prevent a suit to determine the constitutionality of the bond issue. Sessions v. Columbus County, 214 N.C. 634, 200 S.E. 418 (1939).

When the proposed bond issue contravened the Constitution, the requirement of former § 153-90, similar to this section, that actions to restrain issuance of bonds by counties must be instituted within 30 days of the first publication of notice of the adoption of the bond resolution did not apply. Sessions v. Columbus County, 214 N.C. 634, 200 S.E. 418 (1939).

Suit Alleging Violation of Statutory Restrictions on Amount of Bonds. — Where a board of county commissioners, under ordinance duly passed and hearing thereon had, was about to issue bonds for the necessary purpose of erecting a jail, etc., contrary to the restrictions of the former County Finance Act limiting the amount of bonds, a suit to restrain the issuance of the bonds was required to be commenced within 30 days after the publication of the required notice and order, and a suit instituted after the time prescribed could not be maintained. The question whether former statute, similar to this section, was strictly one of limitation or a condition annexed to the cause of action was immaterial. Kirby v. Board of Comm'rs, 198 N.C. 440, 152 S.E. 165 (1930).

Suit Based on Failure to File True Statement of County Debt. — Where taxpayers instituted an action attacking a bond order passed by the board of county commissioners on the ground that the commissioners had failed to comply with former § 153-84, requiring the filing of a true statement of the county debt, the attack upon the order was held to be upon statutory as distinguished from constitutional grounds, and an action instituted more than 30 days after the first publication of the order could not be maintained. Garrell v. Columbus County, 215 N.C. 589, 2 S.E.2d 701 (1939).

Suit Based on Irregularities in Bond Order and Ballot. — Action to enjoin issuance of hospital bonds and to restrain disbursement of county funds therefor on the ground of irregularities in the bond order and form of ballot was held precluded by former statutes similar to this section and § 159-62 because not instituted until after 30 days subsequent to the statement of the result of election. Rider v. Lenoir County, 236 N.C. 620, 73 S.E.2d 913 (1952).

Applied in Citizens Ass'n for Reasonable Growth v. City of Washington, 45 N.C. App. 7, 262 S.E.2d 343 (1980).

§ 159-60. Petition for referendum on bond issue.

A petition demanding that a bond order be submitted to the voters may be filed with the clerk within 30 days after the date of publication of the bond order as introduced. The petition shall be in writing, and shall be signed by a number of voters of the issuing unit equal to not less than ten percent (10%) of the total number of voters registered to vote in elections of the issuing unit according to the most recent figures certified by the State Board of Elections. The residence address of each signer shall be written after his signature. The petition need not contain the text of the order to which it refers, and need not be all on one sheet.

The clerk shall investigate the sufficiency of the petition and present it to the governing board, with a certificate stating the results of his investigation. The governing board, after hearing any taxpayer who may request to be heard, shall thereupon determine the sufficiency of the petition, and its determination shall be conclusive.

This section does not apply to bonds issued pursuant to G.S. 159-48(a)(1), (2), (3), or (5). (1917, c. 138, s. 21; 1919, c. 49, ss. 1, 2; c. 178, s. 3(21); C.S., s. 2947; 1921, c. 8, s. 1; Ex. Sess. 1921, c. 106, s. 1; 1927, c. 81, s. 20; c. 102, s. 2; 1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1973, c. 494, s. 8.)

CASE NOTES

Editor's Note. — The cases cited below were decided under former statutory provisions similar to this section.

Validity of Bond Order in Absence of Petition for Referendum. — Where no petition was filed within the time prescribed, praying that a bond order duly passed by the board of commissioners of a county be submitted to the voters of the county, in accordance with the provisions of the former County Finance Act, the bond order was valid and effective, without the approval of the voters of the county. Hemric v. Board of Comm'rs, 206 N.C. 845, 175 S.E. 168 (1934).

Approval of Voters Required Where Petition Filed. — Where a petition was filed in accordance with statutory provisions, praying that a bond order duly passed by the board of commissioners of a county, authorizing and directing the issuance of bonds of the county for the purpose of procuring money for the purchase, construction, improvement or equipment of schoolhouses required for the maintenance of a school in each of the districts of the county as required by the Constitution of the State, be submitted to the voters of the county, such bond order was not valid or effective until the same had been approved by the voters of the county as provided. Hemric v. Board of Comm'rs, 206 N.C. 845, 175 S.E. 168 (1934).

Temporary Restraining Order Pending Determination of Sufficiency of Petition.

— Where the taxpayers of a county filed suit under this section to restrain the issuance of bonds until authorized by the qualified voters of the county, and there was a controversy as to whether the signatures of the requisite 15% (now 10%) of qualified voters had been obtained to the petition, a temporary restraining order would be continued until the sufficiency of the petition could be determined. Scruggs v. Rollins, 207 N.C. 335, 177 S.E. 180 (1934).

§ 159-61. Bond referenda; majority required; notice of referendum; form of ballot; canvass.

(a) If a bond order is to take effect upon approval of the voters, the affirmative vote or a majority of those who vote thereon shall be required.

(b) The date of a bond referendum shall be fixed by the governing board, but shall not be more than one year after adoption of the bond order. The governing board may call a special referendum for the purpose of voting on a bond issue on any day, including the day of any regular or special election held for another purpose (unless the law under which the bond referendum or other election is held specifically prohibits submission of other questions at the same time). A special bond referendum may not be held within 30 days before or 10 days after a statewide primary, election, or referendum, or within 30 days before or 10 days after any other primary, election, or referendum to be held in the same unit holding the bond referendum and already validly called or scheduled by law at the time the bond referendum is called. The clerk shall mail or deliver a certified copy of the resolution calling a special bond referendum to the board of elections that is to conduct it within three days after the resolution is adopted, but failure to observe this requirement shall not in any manner affect the validity of the referendum or bonds issued pursuant thereto. Bond referenda shall be conducted by the board of elections conducting regular elections of the county, city, or special district. In fixing the date of a bond referendum, the governing board shall consult the board of elections in order that the referendum shall not unduly interfere with other elections already scheduled or in process. Several bond orders or other matters may be voted upon at the same referendum.

(c) The clerk shall publish a notice of the referendum at least twice. The first publication shall be not less than 14 days and the second publication not less than seven days before the last day on which voters may register for the referendum. The notice shall state the date of the referendum, the maximum amount of the proposed bonds, the purpose of the bonds, a statement that taxes will or may be levied for the payment thereof, and a statement as to the last day for registration for the referendum under the election laws then in effect.

(d) The form of the question as stated on the ballot shall be in substantially the following words:

“Shall the order authorizing $ _____ bonds for (briefly stating the purpose) be approved?

[ ] YES
[ ] NO”

(e) The board of elections shall canvass the referendum and certify the results to the governing board. The governing board shall then certify and declare the result of the referendum and shall publish a statement of the result once, with the following statement appended:

“Any action or proceeding challenging the regularity or validity of this bond referendum must be begun within 30 days after

_____
(date of publication)

(title of governing board)”

The statement of results shall be filed in the clerk’s office and inserted in the minutes of the board. (1917, c. 138, s. 22; 1919, c. 178, s. 3(22); c. 291; C.S., s. 2948; 1921, c. 8, s. 1; Ex. Sess. 1921, c. 106, s. 1; 1927, c. 81, ss. 22, 23, 25-27, 29; 1949, c. 497, ss. 2, 4; 1953, c. 1065, ss. 1, 2; 1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1973, c. 494, s. 9.)

Editor’s Note. — As to the publication of first notice and the closing of registration books for local elections held under G. S. 163-287 or this section on June 10, 1982, see Session Laws 1982, 2nd Ex. Sess., c. 3, s. 19.2.

Session Laws 1999-152, ss. 1 and 2, provides that bond referenda held by units of local government in connection with the authorization of bonds are hereby ratified, approved, confirmed, and in all respects validated, notwithstanding the provisions of G.S. 159-61(b), if the authorization of the bonds was approved at an election by a majority of the qualified voters of the unit voting thereon and notice of the referendum was published. This act applies to all bond referenda held by units of local government between April 1, 1997, and June 1, 1998.

CASE NOTES

Editor’s Note. — Many of the cases cited below were decided under former statutory provisions similar to this section.

Validity of Elections Favored. — It is the general rule that every reasonable presumption will be indulged in favor of the validity of elections, and the courts will uphold the validity of municipal bond elections unless clear grounds are shown for invalidating them. Sykes v. Belk, 278 N.C. 106, 179 S.E.2d 439 (1971).

The result of an election as determined by the proper election officials shall stand until it shall be regularly contested and reversed by a tribunal having jurisdiction for that purpose. The court will not permit itself to be substituted for the proper election officials in the first instance for the purpose of canvassing the returns from the officers holding the election and declaring the result thereof. Garner v. Town of Newport, 246 N.C. 449, 98 S.E.2d 505 (1957).

Ordinance authorizing a bond sale and calling a special election must state the purpose in only brief and general terms. Sykes v. Belk, 278 N.C. 106, 179 S.E.2d 439 (1971).

Necessity of Notice. — While, so far as the officers are concerned who are charged with the duty of giving notice, the requirement as to notice is imperative, yet it will be regarded, otherwise, as directory, if the result would not be changed by a departure from the provisions of the statute. The law looks more to the substance than to the form, and if it appears that a clear majority of the qualified voters have cast their votes in favor of the proposition submitted to them, and that there has been a fair and full opportunity for all to vote, and that there has been no fraud, and the election is in all respects free from taint of any sort, so that no well founded suspicion can be cast upon it, it would be idle to say that this free and untrammelled expression of the popular will should be disregarded and set aside. Hill v. Skinner, 169 N.C. 405, 86 S.E. 351 (1915); Board of Comm’rs v. C.M. Malone & Co., 179 N.C. 604, 103 S.E. 134 (1920).

When Election Held. — The requirement of former § 160-387, that a special bond election should not be held within one month before or after a regular municipal election, was mandatory, and the statutory period was to be computed by excluding the first and including the last day thereof as provided in § 1-593. Adcock v. Town of Fuquay Springs, 194 N.C. 423, 140 S.E. 24 (1927).

The statute permits the use of a broad and general ballot in bond elections. Sykes v. Belk, 278 N.C. 106, 179 S.E.2d 439 (1971).

As to directory nature of former statute with regard to the form and language of the ballot, see Board of Comm'rs v. C.M. Malone & Co., 179 N.C. 604, 103 S.E. 134 (1920).

Submission of More Than One Question or Proposal at Same Election. — While former § 153-93 permitted the submission of more than one question or proposal in one and the same election, this contemplated questions authorized by law. Parker v. Anson County, 237 N.C. 78, 74 S.E.2d 338 (1953).

Ballot Held to Comply with Statute. — A ballot for a school bond election which stated the question submitted for approval or disapproval, followed by a brief statement of the purposes for which the proceeds of the proposed bonds were to be used and that a tax would be levied to pay the principal and interest on the bonds in event of approval, followed by the word "Yes" and the word "No" and a square opposite each, with instructions as to how the ballot should be marked, was held to comply with former § 153-96 and § 163-150, and the fact that the number of proposed projects necessarily resulted in a ballot somewhat longer than usual was not objectionable. Parker v.

Anson County, 237 N.C. 78, 74 S.E.2d 338 (1953).

Misrepresentations made as to the site of a civic center, for whose construction a bond issue to be paid by taxes was proposed, did not vitiate the question as submitted to the voters in the bond issue election. Sykes v. Belk, 278 N.C. 106, 179 S.E.2d 439 (1971).

Publication of Returns. — It is not necessary to the validity of an election that the returns be published, if it appears that no prejudice was sustained because of such failure. Board of Comm'rs v. C.M. Malone & Co., 179 N.C. 604, 103 S.E. 134 (1920).

Necessary Allegations in Suit to Restrain Issuance of Bonds for Irregularities in Election. — In an action to restrain the issuance of bonds on the ground of irregularities in the bond election, a complaint which failed to allege that the officers appointed to hold the election had reported the results thereof to the governing body of the municipality and that the governing body had canvassed the returns and judicially determined the result, as required by former § 160-387, was demurrable. Garner v. Town of Newport, 246 N.C. 449, 98 S.E.2d 505 (1957).

Cited in Citizens Ass'n for Reasonable Growth v. City of Washington, 45 N.C. App. 7, 262 S.E.2d 343 (1980).

§ 159-62. Limitation on actions contesting validity of bond referenda.

Any action or proceeding in any court to set aside a bond referendum, or to obtain any other relief, upon the ground that the referendum is invalid or was irregularly conducted, must be begun within 30 days after the publication of the statement of the results of the referendum. After the expiration of this period of limitation, no right of action or defense based upon the invalidity of or any irregularity in the referendum shall be asserted, nor shall the validity of the referendum be open to question in any court upon any ground whatever, except in an action or proceeding begun within the period of limitation prescribed in this section. (1917, c. 138, s. 22; 1919, c. 178, s. 3(22); c. 291; C.S., s. 2948; 1921, c. 8, s. 1; Ex. Sess. 1921, c. 106, s. 1; 1927, c. 81, s. 30; 1949, c. 497, s. 4; 1953, c. 1065, s. 2; 1971, c. 780, s. 1.)

CASE NOTES

Untimely Claims Extinguished. — This section provides that any claim not prosecuted within 30 days of the date of publication is extinguished. It is different from most statutes of limitation, since ordinarily a statute of limitation does not extinguish a claim but merely serves as a bar to the prosecution of the claim. Citizens Ass'n for Reasonable Growth v. City of Washington, 45 N.C. App. 7, 262 S.E.2d 343, cert. denied, 300 N.C. 195, 269 S.E.2d 622 (1980).

Statute Runs from First Publication. — The statute of limitations of this section begins to run from the date of the first publication required by § 159-61, where the sufficiency of the first notice is not questioned. A city cannot start the statute running anew by publishing the notice a second time. Citizens Ass'n for Reasonable Growth v. City of Washington, 45

N.C. App. 7, 262 S.E.2d 343, cert. denied, 300 N.C. 195, 269 S.E.2d 622 (1980).

§ 159-63. Repeal of bond orders.

A bond order may be repealed at any time before bonds or bond anticipation notes are issued thereunder. No referendum is required on the repeal of any bond order, nor is a petition for any such referendum permitted. (1971, c. 780, s. 1.)

§ 159-64. Within what time bonds may be issued.

Bonds may be issued under a bond order at any time within seven years after the bond order takes effect. Such period may be extended prior to the expiration of such period from seven years to 10 years as hereinafter provided. The board of the issuing unit shall file an application for Commission approval of such extension with the secretary of the Commission. The application shall state such facts and have attached to it such documents concerning such extension as the secretary may require. The Commission may prescribe the form of such application. In determining whether to approve such extension, the Commission may inquire into and give consideration to any matters which it believes may relate to such extension.

The Commission may enter an order approving a proposed extension of the maximum time period for issuing bonds under a bond order from seven to 10 years if, upon the basis of the information and evidence it receives, it finds and determines that governmental approvals relative to the purpose to be financed in whole or in part with the proceeds of the bonds cannot be obtained within seven years after the bond order has taken effect, that funds to be applied together with the proceeds of the bonds to finance the purpose for which the bonds are to be issued will not be available within seven years after the bond order has taken effect or that the proposed extension is necessary for other reasons that are not within the direct control of the issuing unit other than any order of any court. If the Commission enters an order denying such extension, then the proceedings under this section shall be at an end.

If the Commission enters an order approving a proposed extension of the maximum time period for issuing bonds under a bond order as provided in this section, then the board shall fix the time and place for a public hearing on such extension and the clerk shall publish such bond order once with the following statement appended:

“The foregoing order took effect on _____, _____.
Anyone who wishes to be heard on the question of whether the maximum time period for issuing bonds under such order should be extended from seven years to 10 years after such date may appear at a public hearing or an adjournment thereof to be held at _____ (time) on _____ at _____ (date) (place)

Clerk”

On the date fixed for such hearing, which shall be not earlier than six days after the date of publication of the bond order with appended statement as provided in this section, the board shall hear anyone who might wish to be heard on the question of whether the maximum time period for issuing bonds under the bond order should be extended from seven years to 10 years. The hearing may be adjourned from time to time.

After such hearing, the board may adopt an order providing that the maximum time period for issuing bonds under the bond order has been extended from seven to 10 years after the bond order has taken effect. Such order shall provide that it will take effect 30 days after its publication following adoption.

After adoption, the clerk shall publish once an order extending the maximum time period for issuing bonds under a bond order with the following statement appended:

“The foregoing order was adopted on the _____ day of _____, _____, and is hereby published this _____ day of _____, _____. Any action or proceeding questioning the validity of such order must be begun within 30 days after the date of publication of this notice.

_____
Clerk”

Any action or proceeding in any court to set aside an order extending the maximum time period for issuing bonds under a bond order, or to obtain any other relief, upon the ground that such order is invalid, must be begun within 30 days after the date of publication of such order as adopted. After the expiration of this period of limitation, no right of action or defense based upon the invalidity of such order shall be asserted nor shall the validity of such order be open to question in any court upon any ground whatever, except in an action or proceeding begun within the period of limitation prescribed in this section.

When the issuance of bonds under any bond order is prevented or prohibited by any order of any court, the period of time within which bonds may be issued under the bond order in litigation shall be extended by the length of time elapsing between the date of institution of the action or proceeding and the date of its final disposition.

When the issuance of bonds under any bond order, to finance public improvements in an area to be annexed, is prevented or prohibited by reason of litigation respecting the annexation and the Local Government Commission shall certify to such effect, the period of time within which bonds may be issued under the bond order shall be extended by the length of time elapsing between the date of institution of the litigation and the date of its final disposition.

The General Assembly may at any time prior to the expiration of the maximum time period herein provided extend the time for issuing bonds under bond orders.

When any such extension is effected or granted pursuant to this section, no further approval of the voters shall be required. (1917, c. 138, s. 24; 1919, c. 178, s. 3(24); C.S., s. 2950; 1921, c. 8, s. 1; Ex. Sess. 1921, c. 106, s. 1; 1927, c. 81; s. 32; 1939, c. 231, ss. 1, 2(d); 1947, c. 510, ss. 1, 2; 1949, c. 190, ss. 1, 2; 1951, c. 439, ss. 1, 2; 1953, c. 693, ss. 1, 3; 1955, c. 704, ss. 1, 2; 1969, c. 99; 1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1975, c. 545, s. 1; 1977, 2nd Sess., c. 1219, s. 36; 1979, c. 444, s. 1.)

Editor’s Note. — Session Laws 1975, c. 545, s. 1, amended this section by substituting “seven years” for “five years” in the first sentence. Section 2 of the 1975 amendatory act provided: “The provisions of this act shall apply to bonds authorized by bond orders which took effect from January 1, 1971, through the effective date of this act [June 11, 1975] or which take effect hereafter.”

Session Laws 1975, c. 26, s. 1, amended this section by substituting “seven years” for “five years” in the first sentence. Session Laws 1975, c. 26, s. 2, provided that the act would apply only to bonds authorized during the period Jan.

1, 1970, through Dec. 31, 1970.

Session Laws 1975, c. 546, s. 1, amended this section by substituting “eight years” for “five years” in the first sentence. Session Laws 1975, c. 546, s. 2, provided that the act would apply only to bonds authorized during the period commencing March 1, 1968, and ending Dec. 31, 1969.

Session Laws 1987 (Reg. Sess., 1988), c. 1027, effective June 30, 1988, and applicable only to bonds authorized during the period January 1, 1981, through December 31, 1981, amended the first sentence of this section to read as follows: “Bonds may be issued under a bond order at any time within ten years after the bond order takes effect." Section 3 of c. 1027 provided that all laws in conflict with the provisions of the act would be repealed.

Session Laws 1991 (Reg. Sess., 1992), c. 987, s. 1 provides: "All proceedings taken in 1991 by the governing board of any unit of local government in connection with the extension of the period during which bonds may be issued pursuant to G.S. 159-64 are ratified, approved, confirmed, and in all respects validated if the governing board has adopted an order providing for the extension after a public hearing on the extension before the expiration of the period to be extended."

§ 159-65. Resolution fixing the details of the bonds.

After the bond order has been adopted, the board shall adopt a resolution fixing the details of the bonds. In fixing details of the bonds, the board is subject to these restrictions and directions:

- (1) The maturity dates shall not exceed the maximum periods of usefulness prescribed by the Commission pursuant to G.S. 159-122.
- (2) Bonds authorized by two or more bond orders may be consolidated into a single issue.
- (3) Bonds of each issue shall mature in annual installments, the first of which shall be payable not more than three years after the date of the bonds, and the last within the maximum maturity period prescribed by regulation of the Commission under G.S. 159-122.
- (4) No installment of any issue may be more than four times as great in amount as the smallest prior installment of the same issue.
- (5) Bonds of each issue may be issued from time to time in series with different provisions for each series. Each series shall be deemed a separate issue for the purposes of this section.
- (6) Any bond may be made payable on demand or tender for purchase as provided in G.S. 159-79, and any bond may be made subject to redemption prior to maturity, with or without premium, on such notice and at such time or times and with such redemption provisions as may be stated therein. When any such bond shall have been validly called for redemption and provision shall have been made for the payment of the principal thereof, any redemption premium, and the interest thereon accrued to the date of redemption, interest thereon shall cease.
- (7) The bonds may bear interest at such rate or rates, payable semiannually or otherwise, may be in such denominations, and may be made payable in such kind of money and in such place or places within or without the State of North Carolina, as the board may determine.

Subdivisions (3) and (4) of this section shall not apply to bonds purchased by a State or federal agency. Such subdivisions (3) and (4) also shall not apply to bonds the interest on which is or may be includable in gross income for purposes of federal income tax, provided that the dates on which such bonds shall be stated to mature shall be approved by the Commission and the Commission may require that the payment of all or any part of the principal of and interest and any premium on such bonds be provided for by mandatory redemption of principal prior to maturity, a sinking fund, a Credit Facility, as defined in G.S. 159-79, or such other means as may be satisfactory to the Commission. (1917, c. 138, s. 25; 1919, c. 178, s. 3(25); C.S., s. 2951; 1921, c. 8, s. 1; Ex. Sess. 1921, c. 106, s. 1; 1933, c. 259, s. 1; 1951, c. 440, s. 1; 1953, c. 1206, s. 3; 1969, c. 686; 1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1973, c. 494, s. 10; cc. 883, 995; 1987, c. 585, s. 2; c. 586.)

tional and alternative method for the doing of the things authorized thereby and shall be regarded as supplemental and additional to powers conferred by other laws, and shall not be regarded as in derogation of any powers now existing.

“Nothing in this act shall be construed to impair the obligation of any bond, note or coupon issued under The Local Government Finance Act and outstanding on the effective date of this act.”

§ 159-66. Validation of former proceedings and actions.

(a) All proceedings and actions heretofore taken by the governing boards of units of local government and by the Local Government Commission to fix the details of bonds and to provide for the advertisement and sale thereof are hereby ratified, approved, confirmed and in all respects validated, notwithstanding the provisions of G.S. 159-65(4).

(b) This section shall apply to all bonds sold by the Local Government Commission between July 1, 1973, and February 18, 1974. (1973, c. 872, ss. 1, 2.)

§ 159-67. Procedures if a county votes to relocate the county seat.

Whenever the citizens of a county, by referendum, decide that the county’s county seat, along with the courthouse and other county buildings and agencies, should be relocated, the board of county commissioners of that county shall forthwith begin discussions with the Local Government Commission concerning financing of the relocation. If bonds are to be issued for the relocation, or a financing agreement entered into, the board of commissioners shall apply to the Local Government Commission no later than 10 months after the day of the referendum. If a bond election is necessary, it shall be held no later than 22 months after the day of the referendum. (1975, c. 324, s. 5.)

Editor’s Note. — This section was enacted by Session Laws 1975, c. 324, s. 5. The 1975 act appeared from its title to be a local act applicable only to Brunswick County, and the provisions of the act other than s. 5 were expressly restricted to Brunswick County.

§§ 159-68 through 159-71: Reserved for future codification purposes.

Part 3. Funding and Refunding Bonds.

§ 159-72. Purposes for which funding and refunding bonds may be issued; when such bonds may be issued.

A unit of local government may issue funding and refunding bonds under this Article for the purposes listed in G.S. 159-48(a)(4), (5), (6), or (7). Funding bonds may be issued if the debt, judgment, or other obligation to be paid is payable at the time of the passage of the bond order or within one year thereafter. Refunding bonds may be issued at any time prior to the final maturity of the debt or obligation to be refunded. The proceeds from the sale of any refunding bonds shall be applied only as follows: either (i) to the immediate payment and retirement of the obligations being refunded or (ii) if not required for the immediate payment of the obligations being refunded such proceeds shall be deposited in trust to provide for the payment and retirement of the obligations being refunded, and to pay any expenses incurred in connection with such refunding, but provision may be made for the pledging and disposition of any amounts in excess of the amounts required for such purposes, including, without limitation, provision for the pledging of any such excess to the payment of the principal of and interest on any issue or series of refunding bonds issued pursuant to G.S. 159-78. Money in any such trust fund may be invested in (i) direct obligations of the United States government, or (ii) obligations the principal of and interest on which are guaranteed by the United States government, or (iii) to the extent then permitted by law in obligations of any agency or instrumentality of the United States government, or (iv) in certificates of deposit issued by a bank or trust company located in the State of North Carolina if such certificates shall be secured by a pledge of any of said obligations described in (i), (ii), or (iii) above having an aggregate market value, exclusive of accrued interest, equal at least to the principal amount of the certificates so secured. Nothing herein shall be construed as a limitation on the duration of any deposit in trust for the retirement of obligations being refunded but which shall not have matured and which shall not be presently redeemable or, if presently redeemable, shall not have been called for redemption.

The principal amount of refunding bonds issued pursuant to this section, together with the principal amount of refunding bonds, if any, issued under G.S. 159-78 in conjunction with refunding bonds issued pursuant to this section, shall not exceed the amount set forth in G.S. 159-78.

Except as expressly modified in this Part, funding and refunding bonds issued under the provisions of this Part shall be subject to the limitations and procedures set out in Parts 1 and 2 of this Article. (1917, c. 138, s. 16; 1919, c. 178, s. 3(16); C.S., s. 2937; 1921, c. 8, s. 1; Ex. #### CASE NOTES

Editor's Note. — The cases cited below were decided under former statutory provisions similar to this section.

Constitution Does Not Require Election on Refunding Bonds. — An ordinance authorizing the issuance of refunding bonds by a municipality need not be submitted to the voters. A municipal corporation does not contract a debt, within the meaning of N.C. Const., Art. V, § 4(2), when under statutory authority it issues bonds to refund bonds which at the date of the issuance of the funding bonds are valid and enforceable obligations of the municipality. Bolich v. City of Winston-Salem, 202 N.C. 786, 164 S.E. 361 (1932).

Constitutionality. — This section and § 159-78 allow municipalities to issue general obligation refunding bonds in an amount greater than the bonds to be refunded without a vote of the people, and do not violate N.C. Const., Art. V, § 4. City of Concord v. All Owners of Taxable Property, 330 N.C. 429, 410 S.E.2d 482 (1991).

Ordinance provision that holders of pro- posed refunding bonds should be subrogated to all rights and powers of holders of refunded bonds was sanctioned by law; such provision would enter into and become an integral part of the bonds when issued, with contractual force and effect, and could not be impaired by subsequent legislation. Bryson City Bank v. Town of Bryson City, 213 N.C. 165, 195 S.E. 398 (1938).

Statute Limiting Tax Rate of Municipality Held Inoperative Under Facts. — Where defendant municipality proposed to issue refunding bonds to be exchanged for like amounts of the original bonds in the hands of the holders of the original indebtedness, the refunding bonds to be secured by all rights and powers of taxation which protected and formed a part of the obligation of the original bonds, it was held that the parties and the debt were the same and the transaction amounted in reality to an extension and renewal of the original bonds under legislative sanction, and an act of the legislature, passed after the issuance of the original bonds, limiting the tax rate of the municipality was inoperative as to the refunding bonds when the limitation therein imposed would prevent the payment of the refunding bonds according to their tenor; the contention that even though the refunding bonds would not create a new debt, such debt would be evidenced by a new contract, and that therefore the refunding bonds would be subject to the limitation of the statute enacted prior to the issuance of the refunding bonds was untenable. Bryson City Bank v. Town of Bryson City, 213 N.C. 165, 195 S.E. 398 (1938).

§ 159-73. Financing or refinancing agreements.

Each unit of local government is authorized to enter into agreements with the holders of its outstanding debts for the settlement, adjustment, funding, refunding, financing, or refinancing of the debt. Such an agreement may contain any provisions not inconsistent with law and before the unit may enter into it, it must be approved by the Commission. (1971, c. 780, s. 1.)

§ 159-74. Test cases testing validity of funding or refunding bonds.

At any time after the procedure for authorizing the issuance of funding or refunding bonds has been completed, but before the issuance of the bonds, the issuing unit may institute an action in the Superior Court Division of the General Court of Justice in the county in which all or any part of the unit lies, to determine the validity of the bonds and the validity of the means of payment provided therefor. The action shall be in rem, and shall be against all of the owners of taxable property within the unit and all citizens residing in the unit, but it shall not be necessary to name each such owner or citizen in the summons or complaint. Jurisdiction of all parties defendant shall be acquired by publication of a summons once a week for three successive weeks, and jurisdiction shall be complete within 20 days after the date of the last publication. Any interested party may intervene in the action. Except as otherwise provided by this section, the action shall be governed by the Rules of Civil Procedure. (1931, c. 186, ss. 4, 5; 1935, c. 290, ss. 1, 2; 1937, c. 80; 1971, c. 780, s. 1.)

Editor's Note. — The Rules of Civil Procedure, referred to in this section, are found in § 1A-1.

CASE NOTES

Editor's Note. — The case cited below was decided under former statutory provisions similar to this section.

Constitutionality of Former Statutes. — Former versions of §§ 159-52 to 159-56 were not unconstitutional either on the ground that they conferred nonjudicial functions on the superior courts or on the ground that they denied due process of law to taxpayers or citizens of a local governmental unit, in violation of the provisions of U.S. Const., Amend. XIV, or of Art. I, § 17, Const. 1868. Castevens v. Stanly County, 211 N.C. 642, 191 S.E. 739 (1937).

Proceeding in Rem. — The action authorized by former versions of §§ 159-52 to 159-56 was in the nature of a proceeding in rem, and was adversary both in form and in substance. These sections contemplated that issues both of law and of fact could be raised by pleadings duly filed, and that such issues should be determined by the court. The court had no power by virtue of these sections to validate bonds which were for any reason invalid. It had power only to determine whether or not on the facts as found by the court and under the law applicable to such facts the bonds were valid. Castevens v. Stanly County, 211 N.C. 642, 191 S.E. 739 (1937).

Service of Summons by Publication Sufficient. — The contention that an owner of taxable property within the unit, or a citizen residing therein, may be deprived of his property, without due process of law, or contrary to the law of the land, by a decree or judgment in the action declaring or adjudging that bonds and the tax to be levied for their payment, are valid, because it is not required that his name shall appear in the summons or in the complaint, or that the summons shall be served on him personally, cannot be sustained. The action is declared by statute to be in the nature of a proceeding in rem. In such case, all persons included within a well-defined class may be made parties defendant, and service of summons by publication is sufficient, although such persons are not named in the summons. Castevens v. Stanly County, 211 N.C. 642, 191 S.E. 739 (1937).

§ 159-75. Judgment validating issue; costs of the action.

A final decree of the General Court of Justice validating funding or refunding bonds or the financing or refinancing agreement shall be conclusive as to the validity of the bonds or the agreement.

The costs of any action brought under G.S. 159-74 shall be borne by the issuing unit, including a reasonable attorney's fee for the attorney assigned by the court to defend the interests of the citizens and taxpayers in general. (1931, c. 186, ss. 6, 7; 1935, c. 290, s. 3; 1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1973, c. 494, s. 12.)

CASE NOTES

Taxpayer Who Fails to Exercise Rights Without Grounds of Complaint. — No decree or judgment adverse to a taxpayer's rights can be rendered in an action instituted and prosecuted by a taxing unit to have a proposed funding bond issue declared valid until every taxpayer and citizen of the unit has been lawfully served with summons, and until he has had ample opportunity to appear and file such pleadings as he may wish. If he has failed to avail himself of his constitutional rights, which are fully protected by the statute, he has no just ground of complaint that the court will not hear him when he invokes its aid after the decree or judgment has been finally rendered, and others have relied upon its protection. Castevens v. Stanly County, 211 N.C. 642, 191 S.E. 739 (1937), decided under former version of § 159-54.

§ 159-76. Validation of bonds and notes issued before March 26, 1931.

All bonds and notes issued before March 26, 1931, for which the issuing unit received an amount of money not less than the face amount of the bonds or notes and the proceeds of which have been spent for public purposes, and all bonds and notes subsequently issued to refund all or any portion of those bonds or notes, are hereby validated notwithstanding any lack of statutory authority or failure to observe any statutory provisions concerning the issuance of the bonds or notes. This section shall not validate any bonds or notes, the proceeds of which have been lost because of the failure of a bank. (1931, c. 186, s. 2; 1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1973, c. 494, s. 13.)

§ 159-77. Validation of all proceedings in connection with the authorization of bonds taken before April 28, 1975.

All proceedings heretofore taken by the governing boards of units of local government in connection with the authorization of bonds are hereby ratified, approved, confirmed and in all respects validated, notwithstanding the provisions of G.S. 159-61(c); provided that the issuance of said bonds shall have been approved at an election by a majority of the qualified voters of the unit voting thereon and that notice of said referendum shall have been published. (1975, c. 178.)

§ 159-78. Special obligation refunding bonds.

In conjunction with the issuance of refunding bonds pursuant to G.S. 159-72 or G.S. 159-84 a unit of local government may issue a series of refunding bonds which shall be payable from the excess of the amount required by a trust fund established pursuant to G.S. 159-72 or G.S. 159-84 to provide for the payment and retirement of the obligations being retired and the amount required to pay any expenses incurred in connection with such refunding to the extent such expenses are payable from said trust fund.

Such refunding bonds shall be special obligations of the municipality issuing them. The principal of and interest on such refunding bonds shall not be payable from the general funds of the municipality, nor shall they constitute a legal or equitable pledge, charge, lien, or encumbrance upon any of its property or upon any of its income, receipts, or revenues, except the trust fund established pursuant to G.S. 159-72 or G.S. 159-84 from which such refunding bonds are payable. Neither the credit nor the taxing power of the municipality is pledged for the payment of the principal or interest of such refunding bonds, and no holder of such refunding bonds has the right to compel the exercise of the taxing power of the municipality or the forfeiture of any of its property in connection with any default thereon. Every such refunding bond shall recite in substance that the principal of and interest on the bond is payable solely from the trust fund established for its payment and that the municipality is not obligated to pay the principal or interest except from such trust fund.

Any refunding bonds issued under this section shall be issued in compliance with the procedure set forth in Article 5 of this Chapter.

The principal amount of any issue of refunding bonds issued pursuant to G.S. 159-72 or G.S. 159-84, together with the principal amount of refunding bonds, if any, issued pursuant to this section in conjunction with a series of bonds issued under G.S. 159-72 or G.S. 159-84, shall not exceed the sum of the following: (i) the principal amount of the obligations being refinanced, (ii) applicable redemption premiums thereon, (iii) unpaid interest on such obligations to the date of delivery or exchange of the refunding bonds, (iv) in the event the proceeds from the sale of the refunding bonds are to be deposited in trust as provided by G.S. 159-72 or G.S. 159-84, interest to accrue on such obligations being refinanced from the date of delivery of the refunding bonds to the first or any subsequent available redemption date or dates selected, in its discretion, by the governing body of the unit of local government, or to the date or dates of maturity, whichever shall be determined by the governing body of the unit of local government to be most advantageous or necessary and (v) expenses, including bond discount, deemed by the governing body to be necessary for the issuance of the refunding bonds. (1977, c. 201, s. 2.)

CASE NOTES

Constitutionality. — Section 159-72 and this section allow municipalities to issue general obligation refunding bonds in an amount greater than the bonds to be refunded without a vote of the people, and do not violate N.C. Const., Art. V, § 4. City of Concord v. All Owners of Taxable Property, 330 N.C. 429, 410 S.E.2d 482 (1991).

Restriction of Debt Amount. — This section also restricts the amount of debt which may be incurred by the issuance of refunding bonds so that the proceeds from the refunding bonds may not exceed an amount necessary to pay an existing indebtedness. City of Concord v. All Owners of Taxable Property, 330 N.C. 429, 410 S.E.2d 482 (1991).

§ 159-79. Variable rate demand bonds and notes.

(a) Notwithstanding any provisions of this Chapter to the contrary, including particularly, but without limitation, the provisions of G.S. 159-65, G.S. 159-123 to G.S. 159-127, inclusive, G.S. 159-130, G.S. 159-138, G.S. 159-162, G.S. 159-164 and G.S. 159-172, a unit of local government, in fixing the details of general obligation bonds to be issued pursuant to this Article or general obligation notes to be issued pursuant to Article 9 of this Chapter, may provide that such bonds or notes

- (1) May be made payable from time to time on demand or tender for purchase by the owner provided a Credit Facility supports such bonds or notes, unless the Commission specifically determines that a Credit Facility is not required upon a finding and determination by the Commission that the proposed bonds or notes will satisfy the conditions set forth in G.S. 159-52;
- (2) May be additionally supported by a Credit Facility;
- (3) May be made subject to redemption prior to maturity, with or without premium, on such notice, at such time or times, at such price or prices and with such other redemption provisions as may be stated in the resolution fixing the details of such bonds or notes or with such variations as may be permitted in connection with a Par Formula provided in such resolution;
- (4) May bear interest at a rate or rates that may vary as permitted pursuant to a Par Formula and for such period or periods of time, all as may be provided in such resolution; and
- (5) May be made the subject of a remarketing agreement whereby an attempt is made to remarket the bonds to new purchases prior to their presentment for payment to the provider of the Credit Facility or to the issuing unit.

(b) No Credit Facility, repayment agreement, Par Formula or remarketing agreement shall become effective without the approval of the Commission.

(c) As used in this section, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

- (1) "Credit Facility" means an agreement entered into by an issuing unit with a bank, savings and loan association or other banking institution, an insurance company, reinsurance company, surety company or other insurance institution, a corporation, investment banking firm or other investment institution, or any financial institution providing for prompt payment of all or any part of the principal (whether at maturity, presentment or tender for purchase, redemption or acceleration), redemption premium, if any, and interest on any bonds or notes payable on demand or tender by the owner issued in accordance with this section, in consideration of the issuing unit agreeing to repay the provider of such Credit Facility in accordance with the terms and provisions of a repayment agreement. A bank may include a foreign bank or branch or agency thereof the obligations of which bear the highest rating of at least one nationally-recognized rating service and do not bear a rating below the highest rating of any nationally-recognized rating service which rates such particular obligations.
- (2) "Par Formula" shall mean any provision or formula adopted by the issuing unit to provide for the adjustment, from time to time, of the interest rate or rates borne by any such bonds or notes so that the purchase price of such bonds or notes in the open market would be as close to par as possible.

(d) If the aggregate principal amount repayable by the issuing unit under a repayment agreement is in excess of the aggregate principal amount of bonds or notes secured by the related Credit Facility, whether as a result of the inclusion in the Credit Facility of a provision for the payment of interest for a limited period of time or the payment of a redemption premium or for any other reason, then the amount of unissued bonds or notes during the term of such repayment agreement shall not be less than the amount of such excess, unless the payment of such excess is otherwise provided for by agreement of the issuing unit subject to the approval of the Commission. In determining whether or not to grant such approval, the Commission shall consider, in addition to such other factors it may deem relevant, the ability of the issuing unit to pay such excess from other sources without incurring additional indebtedness secured by a pledge of the faith and credit of the issuing unit or levying additional taxes and the adequacy of such other sources to accomplish such purpose.

(e) Any bonds or notes issued pursuant to this section may be sold by the Commission at public or private sale according to such procedures as the Commission may prescribe and at such prices as the Commission determines to be in the best interest of the issuing unit, subject to the approval of the governing board of the issuing unit or one or more persons designated by resolution of the governing board of the issuing unit to approve such prices. (1987, c. 585, s. 1.)

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1987, c. 585, ss. 7 and 8 provided: "The foregoing sections of this act shall be deemed to provide an additional and alternative method for the doing of the things authorized thereby and shall be regarded as supplemental and additional to powers conferred by other laws, and shall not be regarded as in derogation of any powers now existing.

"Nothing in this act shall be construed to impair the obligation of any bond, note or coupon issued under The Local Government Finance Act and outstanding on the effective date of this act."

An amendment to subsection (a) of this section by Session Laws 1993, c. 497, s. 5, was made effective upon certification of approval of an amendment to Article V of the Constitution of North Carolina relating to the authority of any county, city or town to borrow money, without the need of voter approval, and issue financing bonds to be used to finance public activities associated with private economic development projects. This amendment was submitted to the people on November 2, 1993 and was defeated. The amendment to subsection (a) of this section, therefore, never took effect.

ARTICLE 5.

Revenue Bonds.

§ 159-80. Short title; repeal of local acts.

(a) This Article may be cited as "The State and Local Government Revenue Bond Act."

(b) It is the intent of the General Assembly by enactment of this Article to prescribe a uniform system of limitations upon and procedures for the exercise by all municipalities in North Carolina of the power to finance revenue bond projects through the issuance of revenue bonds and notes. To this end, all provisions of special, local, or private acts in effect as of July 1, 1973, authorizing the issuance of bonds or notes secured solely by the revenues of the projects for which the bonds or notes are issued or prescribing procedures therefor are repealed. No special, local or private act enacted or taking effect after July 1, 1973, may be construed to modify, amend, or repeal any portion of this Article unless it expressly so provides by specific reference to the appropriate section of this Article. It is further the intent of the General Assembly by enactment of this Article to provide an alternative and supplemental procedure for the exercise by the State of North Carolina of the power to finance revenue bond projects through the issuance of revenue bonds and notes. (1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1973, c. 494, s. 14; 1983, c. 554, ss. 1, 1.1.)

Cross References. — As to issuance of capital appreciation bonds pursuant to The State and Local Government Revenue Bond Act, see § 159-100.

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1983, c. 554, which amended this section, in ss. 21 through 25 provided as follows:

"Sec. 21. The foregoing sections of this act shall be deemed to provide an additional and alternative method for the doing of the things authorized thereby and shall be regarded as supplemental and additional to powers conferred by other laws, and shall not be regarded as in derogation of any powers not existing; provided, however, that the issuance of bonds and notes under the provisions of this act need not comply with the requirements of any other law applicable to the issuance of bonds or notes.

“Sec. 22. This act, being necessary for the health and welfare of the people of the State shall be liberally construed to effect the purposes thereof.

“Sec. 23. Insofar as the provisions of this act are inconsistent with the provisions of any general or special laws, or parts thereof, the provisions of this act shall be controlling.

“Sec. 24. Nothing in this act shall be construed to impair the obligation of any bond, note or coupon outstanding on the effective date of this act.

Session Laws 1987 (Reg. Sess., 1988), c. 882,

s. 6 and Session Laws 1989, c. 90 provided that all actions and proceedings heretofore taken by units of local government relating to the authorization of general obligation refunding bonds, secured by a pledge of the taxing power and issued pursuant to the Local Government Bond Act, and revenue refunding bonds, secured by a pledge of revenues and issued pursuant to The State and Local Government Revenue Bond Act, and the sale and delivery of all such bonds pursuant to Article 7, as amended, of Chapter 159 of the General Statutes of North Carolina, in order to provide funds to purchase, at a discount, bonds of such units owned by the Farmers Home Administration, including without limitation, the introduction and adoption of bond orders, the holding of public hearings with respect to such bond orders, the passage of resolutions providing for the issuance and the sale, both public and private, of such refunding bonds, and the delivery of any such refunding bonds were in all respects approved, ratified, validated, and confirmed.

CASE NOTES

Purpose of the Revenue Bond Act of 1938 was to permit municipalities to engage in nongovernmental activities of a public nature by pledging the revenue derived from such undertakings to the payment of bonds issued in connection therewith. Thus the act avoided pledging the credit of the municipi-pality to the payment of a debt, for by such arrangements no debt was incurred within the meaning of the Constitution. Britt v. City of Wilmington, 236 N.C. 446, 73 S.E.2d 289 (1952); Keeter v. Town of Lake Lure, 264 N.C. 252, 141 S.E.2d 634 (1965).

§ 159-81. Definitions.

The words and phrases defined in this section shall have the meanings indicated when used in this Article:

- (1) “Municipality” means a county, city, town, incorporated village, sanitary district, metropolitan sewerage district, metropolitan water district, county water and sewer district, water and sewer authority, hospital authority, hospital district, parking authority, special airport district, regional public transportation authority, regional transportation authority, regional natural gas district, regional sports authority, airport authority, joint agency created pursuant to Part 1 of Article 20 of Chapter 160A of the General Statutes, and joint agency authorized by agreement between two cities to operate an airport pursuant to G.S. 63-56, but not any other forms of local government.
- (2) “Revenue bond” means a bond issued by the State of North Carolina or a municipality pursuant to this Article.
- (3) “Revenue bond project” means any undertaking for the acquisition, construction, reconstruction, improvement, enlargement, betterment, or extension of any one or combination of the revenue-producing utility or public service enterprise facilities or systems listed in this subdivision, to be financed through the issuance of revenue bonds, thereby providing funds to pay the costs of the undertaking or to reimburse funds loaned or advanced by or on the behalf of either the State or a municipality to pay the costs of the undertaking.

A revenue bond project shall be (i) owned or leased as lessee by the issuing unit or (ii) owned by one or more of the municipalities participating in an undertaking established pursuant to Part 1 of Article 20 of Chapter 160A of the General Statutes. If the revenue bond project is owned by one or more municipalities as provided in (ii) of this subdivision, any one or more of the participating municipalities may each be an issuing unit consistent with their agreement to establish a joint undertaking. In addition, any joint agency established by participating municipalities pursuant to Part 1 of Article 20 of Chapter 160A of the General Statutes may be an issuing unit without owning the revenue bond project or leasing it as lessee.

The cost of an undertaking may include all property, both real and personal and improved and unimproved, plants, works, appurtenances, machinery, equipment, easements, water rights, air rights, franchises, and licenses used or useful in connection with the undertaking; the cost of demolishing or moving structures from land acquired and the cost of acquiring any lands to which the structures are to be moved; financing charges; the cost of plans, specifications, surveys, and estimates of cost and revenues; administrative and legal expenses; and any other expense necessary or incident to the project.

The following facilities or systems may be revenue bond projects under this subdivision:

- a. Water systems or facilities, including all plants, works, instrumentalities and properties used or useful in obtaining, conserving, treating, and distributing water for domestic or industrial use, irrigation, sanitation, fire protection, or any other public or private use.
- b. Sewage disposal systems or facilities, including all plants, works, instrumentalities, and properties used or useful in the collection, treatment, purification, or disposal of sewage.
- c. Systems or facilities for the generation, production, transmission, or distribution of gas (natural, artificial, or mixed) or electric energy for lighting, heating, or power for public and private uses, where gas systems shall include the purchase and/or lease of natural gas fields and natural gas reserves and the purchase of natural gas supplies, and where any parts of such gas systems may be located either within the State or without.
- d. Systems, facilities and equipment for the collection, treatment, or disposal of solid waste.
- e. Public transportation systems, facilities, or equipment, including but not limited to bus, truck, ferry, and railroad terminals, depots, trackages, vehicles, and ferries, and mass transit systems.
- f. Public parking lots, areas, garages, and other vehicular parking structures and facilities.
- g. Aeronautical facilities, including but not limited to airports, terminals, and hangars.
- h. Marine facilities, including but not limited to marinas, basins, docks, dry docks, piers, marine railways, wharves, harbors, warehouses, and terminals.

- i. Hospitals and other health-related facilities.
  - j. Public auditoriums, gymnasiums, stadiums, and convention centers.
  - k. Recreational facilities.
  - l. Repealed by Session Laws 2001-474, s. 36, effective November 29, 2001.
  - m. Economic development projects, including the acquisition and development of industrial parks, the acquisition and resale of land suitable for industrial or commercial purposes, and the construction and lease or sale of shell buildings in order to provide employment opportunities for citizens of the municipality.
  - n. Facilities for the use of any agency or agencies of the government of the United States of America.
  - o. Structural and natural stormwater and drainage systems of all types.
- (4) "Revenues" include all moneys received by the State or a municipality from, in connection with, or as a result of its ownership or operation of a revenue bond project or a utility or public service enterprise facility or system of which a revenue bond project is a part, including (to the extent deemed advisable by the State or a municipality) moneys received from the United States of America, the State of North Carolina, or any agency of either, pursuant to an agreement with the State or a municipality, as the case may be, pertaining to the project. (Ex. Sess. 1938, c. 2, s. 2; 1939, c. 295; 1941, c. 207, s. 2; 1951, c. 703, s. 1; 1953, c. 901, ss. 4, 5; c. 922, s. 1; 1965, c. 997; 1969, c. 1118, s. 1; 1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1973, c. 494, s. 15; 1975, c. 821, s. 2; 1977, c. 466, s. 3; 1979, c. 727, s. 4; c. 791; 1983, c. 554, ss. 2-2.2; 1985, c. 639, s. 3; 1987 (Reg. Sess., 1988), c. 976, s. 1; 1989, c. 168, ss. 37, 38; c. 643, s. 4; c. 740, s. 2; c. 780, s. 2; 1991, c. 508, s. 1; 1995 (Reg. Sess., 1996), c. 644, s. 3; 1997-393, s. 3; 1997-426, s. 6; 2001-414, s. 48; 2001-474, ss. 36, 37.)

Editor's Note. — For provisions of ss. 21 through 25 of Session Laws 1983, c. 554, ss. 2 to 2.2 of which amended this section, see the Editor's Note under § 159-80.

Session Laws 1987, c. 577, s. 1 amended Session Laws 1985, c. 639, s. 4, as amended by Session Laws 1985 (Reg. Sess., 1986), cc. 846, 848, 849, 858, 874, 911, 916 and 921 and Session Laws 1987, c. 203, which formerly made subdivision (3)m of this section only applicable to certain counties, municipalities and towns, to read: "This act shall become effective January 1, 1986."

Session Laws 1987, c. 577, s. 1.2 added a new s. 3.1 to Session Laws 1985, c. 639, providing that s. 3 of that act, which added subdivision (3)m to this section, did not apply to Buncombe County or any municipality located within that county; however, Session Laws 1989, c. 374, s. 2, provided that Session Laws 1985, c. 639, s. 3.1, as added by Session Laws 1987, c. 577, s. 1.2, was repealed. Therefore subdivision 3(m) of this section now has statewide application; there is no longer an exception for Buncombe County and the municipalities therein.

Session Laws 1991, c. 508, s. 1, which added

"to be financed through the issuance of revenue bonds, thereby providing funds to pay the costs of the undertaking or to reimburse funds loaned or advanced by the State or a municipality to pay the costs of the undertaking;" to subdivision (3), became effective July 2, 1991, and is applicable to loans and advances made by a municipality on or after January 1, 1982.

Session Laws 1997-426, s. 10(a), (b), and (c), provide that, insofar as the provisions of that act are not consistent with the provisions of any other law, public or private, the provisions of that act shall be controlling; that references in that act to specific sections or Chapters of the General Statutes are intended to be references to such sections or Chapters as they may be amended from time to time by the General Assembly; and that that act, being necessary for the health and welfare of the people of the State, shall be liberally construed to effect the purposes thereof.

Session Laws 2001-414, s. 49, provides: "Section 47 of this act [which repealed G.S. 143B-221] does not derogate any existing powers." Section 48 of Session Laws 2001-414, which amended this section, may have been intended rather than section 47.

Effect of Amendments. — Session Laws 2001-414, s. 48, effective September 14, 2001, in the first paragraph of subdivision (3), substituted “revenue-producing utility or public service enterprise facilities or systems listed in this subdivision” for “following revenue-producing utility or public service enterprise facilities or systems owned or leased as lessee by the issuing unit,” inserted “or on the behalf of either,” and deleted a colon at the end of that paragraph; inserted the second, third and fourth paragraphs of subdivision (3); and deleted a former final paragraph, which was similar to the present third paragraph.

Session Laws 2001-474, ss. 36 and 37, effective November 29, 2001, substituted “the” for “such” following “lands to which” in the third paragraph of subdivision (3); deleted subdivision (3)l., which read: “In addition to the foregoing, in the case of the State of North Carolina, low-level radioactive waste facilities developed pursuant to Chapter 104G of the General Statutes, hazardous waste facilities developed pursuant to Chapter 130B of the General Statutes, and any other project authorized by the General Assembly”; and deleted the last sentence of subdivision (4), which read: “Revenues’ also include all moneys received by, or on behalf of, the North Carolina Low-Level Radioactive Waste Management Authority in connection with its financing of a low-level radioactive waste facility and all money received by, or on behalf of, the North Carolina Hazardous Waste Management Commission in connection with its financing of a hazardous waste facility.”

CASE NOTES

A revenue-producing enterprise is manifestly one which produces revenue, not necessarily one which produces profit or net revenue. George v. City of Asheville, 80 F.2d 50, 103 A.L.R. 568 (4th Cir. 1935), decided under former § 160-397.

§ 159-82. Purpose.

The purpose of this Article is to establish a standard, uniform procedure for the financing by a municipality of revenue bond projects through the issuance of revenue bonds. Its provisions are intended to vest authority in and enable municipalities to secure and pay revenue bonds and the interest thereon solely out of revenues without pledging the faith and credit of the municipality. (1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1973, c. 494, s. 16.)

§ 159-83. Powers.

(a) In addition to the powers they may now or hereafter have, the State and each municipality shall have the following powers, subject to the provisions of this Article and of any revenue bond order or trust agreement securing revenue bonds:

- (1) To acquire by gift, purchase, or exercise of the power of eminent domain or to construct, reconstruct, improve, maintain, better, extend, and operate, one or more revenue bond projects or any portion thereof without regard to location within or without its boundaries, upon determination (i) in the case of the State, by the Council of State and (ii) in the case of a municipality, by resolution of the governing board that a location wholly or partially outside its boundaries is necessary and in the public interest.
- (2) To sell, exchange, transfer, assign or otherwise dispose of any revenue bond project or portion thereof or interest therein determined (i) in the case of the State, by the Council of State and (ii) in the case of a municipality, by resolution of the governing board not to be required for any public purpose.
- (3) To sell, furnish, and distribute the services, facilities, or commodities of revenue bond projects.
- (4) To enter into contracts with any person, firm, or corporation, public or private, on such terms (i) in the case of the State, as the Council of

- State and (ii) in the case of a municipality, as the governing board may determine, with respect to the acquisition, construction, reconstruction, extension, betterment, improvement, maintenance, or operation of revenue bond projects, or the sale, furnishing, or distribution of the services, facilities or commodities thereof.
- (5) To borrow money for the purpose of acquiring, constructing, reconstructing, extending, bettering, improving, or otherwise paying the cost of revenue bond projects, and to issue its revenue bonds or bond anticipation notes therefor, in the name of the State or a municipality, as the case may be, but no encumbrance, mortgage, or other pledge or real property of the State or a municipality may be created in any manner.
  - (6) To establish, maintain, revise, charge, and collect such rates, fees, rentals, tolls, or other charges, free of any control or regulation by the North Carolina Utilities Commission or any other regulatory body except as provided in G.S. 159-95 for the use, services, facilities, and commodities of or furnished by any revenue bond project, and to provide methods of collection of and penalties for nonpayment of such rates, fees, rentals, tolls, or other charges. The rates, fees, rentals, tolls and charges so fixed and charged shall be such as will produce revenues at least sufficient with any other available funds to meet the expense and maintenance and operation of and renewals and replacements to the revenue bond project, including reserves therefor, to pay when due the principal, interest, and redemption premiums (if any) on all revenue bonds or bond anticipation notes secured thereby, and to fulfill the terms of any agreements made by the State or the issuing municipality with the holders of revenue bonds issued to finance all or any portion of the cost of the project.
  - (7) To pledge all or part of any proceeds derived from the use of on-street parking meters to the payment of the cost of operating, maintaining, and improving parking facilities whether on-street or off-street, and the principal of and the interest on revenue bonds or bond anticipation notes issued for on-street or off-street parking facilities.
  - (8) To pledge to the payment of its revenue bonds or bond anticipation notes and interest thereon revenues from one or more revenue bond projects and any leases or agreements to secure such payment, including revenues from improvements, betterments, or extensions to such projects thereafter constructed or acquired as well as the revenues from existing systems, plants, works, instrumentalities, and properties of the projects to be improved, bettered, or extended.
  - (8a) In the case of any county, city, town, or incorporated village, to make loans or advances to a municipality to provide funds to the municipality to pay any costs of any revenue bond project. Funds received by a municipality in reimbursement of a loan or advance shall be distributed and restricted as provided in G.S. 159-27.1.
  - (9) To appropriate, apply, or expend for the following purposes the proceeds of its revenue bonds, notes issued in anticipation thereof, and revenues pledged under any resolution or order authorizing or securing the bonds: (i) to pay interest on the bonds or notes and the principal or redemption price thereof when due; (ii) to meet reserves and other requirements set forth in the bond order or trust agreement; (iii) to pay the costs of the revenue bond projects authorized in the bond order, reimburse funds loaned or advanced for the costs of these revenue bond projects in accordance with the bond order, and provide working capital for initial maintenance and operation until funds are available from revenues; (iv) to pay and discharge revenue bonds and notes issued in anticipation thereof; (v) to pay and discharge general obligation bonds issued under Article 4 of this Chapter or under any act of the General Assembly, when the revenues of the project financed in whole or in part by the general obligation bonds will be pledged to the payment of the revenue bonds or notes.

- (10) To make and enforce rules and regulations governing the use, maintenance, and operation of revenue bond projects.
- (11) To accept gifts or grants of real or personal property, money, material, labor, or supplies for the acquisition, construction, reconstruction, extension, improvement, betterment, maintenance, or operation of any revenue bond project and to make and perform such agreements or contracts as may be necessary or convenient in connection with the procuring or acceptance of such gifts or grants.
- (12) To accept loans, grants, or contributions from, and to enter into contracts and cooperate with the United States of America, the State of North Carolina, or any agency thereof, with respect to any revenue bond project.
- (13) To enter on any lands, waters, and premises for the purpose of making surveys, borings, soundings, examinations, and other preliminary studies for constructing and operating any revenue bond project.
- (14) To retain and employ consultants and other persons on a contract basis for rendering professional, financial, or technical assistance and advice and to select and retain subject to approval of the Local Government Commission the financial consultants, underwriters and bond attorneys to be associated with the issuance of any bonds and to pay for services rendered by underwriters, financial consultants or bond attorneys out of the proceeds of any such issue with regard to which the services were performed.
- (15) Subject to any provisions of law requiring voter approval for the sale or lease of utility or enterprise systems, to lease to or from any person, firm, or corporation, public or private, all or part of any revenue bond project, upon such terms and conditions as and for such term of years, not in excess of 40 years, (i) in the case of the State, as the Council of State and (ii) in the case of a municipality, as the governing board may deem advisable to carry out the provisions of this Article, and to provide in such lease for the extension or renewal thereof and, if deemed advisable, for an option to purchase or otherwise lawfully acquire the project upon terms and conditions therein specified.
- (16) To execute such instruments and agreements and to do all things necessary or therein in the exercise of the powers herein granted, or in the performance of the covenants or duties of the State or a municipality, as the case may be, or to secure the payment of its revenue bonds.

(b) Any contract, agreement, lease, deed, covenant, or other instrument or document evidencing an agreement or covenant between bondholders or any public agency and the State or a municipality issuing revenue bonds with respect to any of the powers conferred in this section shall be approved by the commission.

(c) In addition to the powers they may now or hereafter have, the State and each municipality shall have the following powers, notwithstanding any provisions of this Article to the contrary, in connection with the development of new and existing seaports and airports:

- (1) To acquire, construct, own, own jointly with public and private parties, lease as lessee, mortgage, sell, lease as lessor, or otherwise dispose of lands and facilities and improvements, including undivided interests therein;

- (2) To finance and refinance for public and private parties seaport and airport facilities and improvements that relate to, develop, or further waterborne or airborne commerce and cargo and passenger traffic, including commercial, industrial, manufacturing, processing, mining, transportation, distribution, storage, marine, aviation, and environmental facilities and improvements;
- (3) To secure any such financing or refinancing by all or any portion of its revenues, income or assets or other available moneys associated with any of its seaport or airport facilities and with the facilities and improvements to be financed or refinanced, and by foreclosable liens on all or any part of its properties associated with any of its seaport or airport facilities and with the facilities and improvements to be financed or refinanced, but in no event to create a debt secured by a pledge of its faith and credit.

(d) In addition to the powers they may now or hereafter have, the State and each municipality shall have the following powers, notwithstanding any provisions of this Article or any other statute to the contrary, in connection with the development of facilities for the use of any agency or agencies of the government of the United States of America:

- (1) To acquire, construct, own jointly with public and private parties, lease as lessor or lessee, mortgage, sell, or otherwise dispose of lands, facilities and improvements, including undivided interests therein and to do so, regardless of the provisions of any other statute, on such terms (i) in the case of the State, as the Council of State and (ii) in the case of a municipality, as the governing board may deem advisable to carry out the provisions of this subsection;
- (2) To finance and refinance facilities and related improvements for the use of any agency of the government of the United States of America;
- (3) To secure any such financing or refinancing by all or any portion of the revenue, income or assets or other available monies associated with such facilities and improvements to be financed or refinanced, and by foreclosable liens on all or any part of the facilities and improvements to be financed or refinanced, but in no event to create a debt secured by a pledge of its faith and credit.

(e) Repealed by Session Laws 2001-174, s. 39, effective November 29, 2001. (Ex. Sess., 1938, c. 2, s. 3; 1951, c. 703, ss. 2, 3; 1953, c. 922, s. 2; 1969, c. 1118, s. 2; 1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1973, c. 494, s. 17; 1983, c. 554, ss. 3-4; 1985, c. 723, s. 2; 1985 (Reg. Sess., 1986), c. 933, s. 4, added subsection (c), effective upon their becoming effective an amendment to the North Carolina Constitution authorizing the General Assembly to enact laws dealing with the subject matter of the act. Session Laws 1985 (1986 Reg. Session), c. 933,

s. 1 proposed to add a new section to N.C. Const., Art. V, authorizing enactment of laws pertaining to seaport and airport facilities. The amendment proposed by c. 933 was ratified at the general election in November, 1986, and became effective November 25, 1986.

Session Laws 1985 (Reg. Sess., 1986), c. 795, ss. 2 through 4, provide:

"Sec. 2. This act shall be deemed to provide an additional and alternative method for the doing of the things authorized thereby and shall be regarded as supplemental and additional to powers conferred by other laws, and shall not be regarded as in derogation of any powers now existing.

"Sec. 3. Nothing in this act shall be construed to impair the obligation of any bond, note, or coupon issued under the State and Local Government Revenue Bond Act and outstanding on the effective date of this act.

“Sec. 4. If any provision of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of this act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this act are declared to be severable.”

Effect of Amendments. — Session Laws 2001-474, ss. 38 and 39, effective November 29, 2001, deleted the last sentence of subdivision (a)(5), which read: “Notwithstanding the foregoing, the North Carolina Low-Level Radioactive Waste Management Authority may create an encumbrance, mortgage, or other pledge of real property of the Authority in connection with its financing of a low-level radioactive waste facility and the North Carolina Hazardous Waste Management Commission may create an encumbrance, mortgage, or other pledge of real property of the Commission in connection with its financing of a hazardous waste facility.”; and repealed subsection (e), which read: “In the case of the State of North Carolina, any action to be taken by the Council of State pursuant to this section shall be taken (i) with respect to the issuance of revenue bonds by the North Carolina Low-Level Radioactive Waste Management Authority, by the governing board of the Authority and (ii) with respect to the issuance of revenue bonds by the North Carolina Hazardous Waste Management Commission, by the governing board of the Commission, and not by the Council of State.”

CASE NOTES

Power of Municipalities to Purchase Hydroelectric Systems by Sale of Revenue Bonds. — The General Assembly by general enactment of the Revenue Bond Act of 1938 authorized municipalities to acquire by purchase revenue-producing properties of various kinds, including hydroelectric plants or systems or works or properties, and to finance such purchases with funds derived from the sale of revenue bonds, payable solely out of the revenues from the undertaking. Keeter v. Town of Lake Lure, 264 N.C. 252, 141 S.E.2d 634 (1965), decided under former § 160-415.

As to statute being integral part of local bond issue, see Keeter v. Town of Lake Lure, 264 N.C. 252, 141 S.E.2d 634 (1965), decided under former § 160-415.

§ 159-84. Authorization of revenue bonds.

The State and each municipality is hereby authorized to issue its revenue bonds in such principal amount as may be necessary to provide sufficient moneys for the acquisition, construction, reconstruction, extension, betterment, improvement, or payment of the cost of one or more revenue bond projects, including engineering, inspection, legal and financial fees and costs, working capital, interest on the bonds or notes issued in anticipation thereof during construction and, if deemed advisable by the State or a municipality, as the case may be, for a period not exceeding two years after the estimated date of completion of construction, establishment of debt service reserves, and all other expenditures of the State or the municipality, as the case may be, incidental and necessary or convenient thereto.

Subject to agreements with the holders of its revenue bonds, the State or each municipality, as the case may be, may issue further revenue bonds and refund outstanding revenue bonds whether or not they have matured. Revenue bonds may be issued partly for the purpose of refunding outstanding revenue bonds and partly for any other purpose under this Article. Revenue bonds issued to refund outstanding revenue bonds shall be issued under this Article and not Article 4 of this Chapter or any other law.

Refunding bonds may be issued at any time prior to the final maturity of the debt or obligation to be refunded. The proceeds from the sale of any refunding bonds shall be applied only as follows: either, (i) to the immediate payment and retirement of the obligations being refunded or (ii) if not required for the immediate payment of the obligations being refunded such proceeds shall be deposited in trust to provide for the payment and retirement of the obligations being refunded, and to pay any expenses incurred in connection with such refunding, but provision may be made for the pledging and disposition of any amounts in excess of the amounts required for such purposes, including, without limitation, provision for the pledging of any such excess to the payment of the principal of and interest on any issue or series or [of] refunding bonds issued pursuant to G.S. 159-78. Money in any such trust fund may be invested in (i) direct obligations of the United States government, or (ii) obligations the principal of and interest on which are guaranteed by the United States government, or (iii) to the extent then permitted by law in obligations of any agency or instrumentality of the United States government, (iv) certificates of deposit issued by a bank or trust company located in the State of North Carolina if such certificates shall be secured by a pledge of any of said obligations described in (i), (ii), or (iii) above having any aggregate market value, exclusive of accrued interest, equal at least to the principal amount of the certificates so secured. Nothing herein shall be construed as a limitation on the duration of any deposit in trust for the retirement of obligations being refunded but which shall not have matured and which shall not be presently redeemable or, if presently redeemable, shall not have been called for redemption.

The principal amount of refunding bonds issued pursuant to this section, together with the principal amount of refunding bonds, if any, issued under G.S. 159-78 in conjunction with refunding bonds issued pursuant to this section, shall not exceed the amount set forth in G.S. 159-78. (1953, c. 692; 1969, c. 1118, s. 4; 1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1977, c. 201, s. 3; 1983, c. 554, s. 5.)

Editor's Note. — For provisions of ss. 21 which amended this section, see the Editor's through 25 of Session Laws 1983, c. 554, s. 5 of note under § 159-80.

§ 159-85. Application to Commission for approval of revenue bond issue; preliminary conference; acceptance of application.

(a) Neither the State nor a municipality may issue revenue bonds under this Article unless the issue is approved by the Commission. The State Treasurer or the governing board of the issuing municipality or its duly authorized agent, as the case may be, shall file an application for Commission approval of the issue with the secretary of the Commission. If the issuing municipality is a regional public transportation authority, the application must be accompanied by a resolution of the special tax board of that authority approving of the application. The application shall state such facts and have attached to it such documents concerning the proposed revenue bonds and the financial condition of the State or the issuing municipality, as the case may be, and its utilities and enterprises as the secretary may require. The Commission may prescribe the form of the application.

(b) Before he accepts the application, the secretary may require (i) in the case of the State, the State Treasurer or (ii) in the case of a municipality, the governing board or its representatives to attend a preliminary conference at which time the secretary and his deputies may informally discuss the proposed issue and the timing of the steps taken in issuing the bonds.

(c) After an application in proper form and order has been filed, and after a preliminary conference if one is required, the secretary shall notify the State Treasurer or the municipality, as the case may be, in writing that the application has been filed and accepted for submission to the Commission. The secretary's statement shall be conclusive evidence that the State or the municipality, as the case may be, has complied with this section.

(d) Repealed by Session Laws 2001-474, s. 39, effective November 29, 2001. (Ex. Sess. 1938, c. 2, s. 9; 1949, c. 1081; 1967, c. 555; 1969, c. 688, s. 2; 1971, c.

Editor's Note. — For provisions of ss. 21 through 25 of Session Laws 1983, c. 554, s. 6 of which amended this section, see the Editor's note under § 159-80.

Effect of Amendments. — Session Laws 2001-474, s. 39, effective November 29, 2001, deleted subsection (d), which read: "In the case of the State of North Carolina, any action to be taken by the Council of State pursuant to this section shall be taken (i) with respect to the issuance of revenue bonds by the North Carolina Low-Level Radioactive Waste Management Authority, by the governing board of the Authority and (ii) with respect to the issuance of revenue bonds by the North Carolina Hazardous Waste Management Commission, by the governing board of the Commission, and not by the Council of State. Subsection (c) of this section shall not apply to the issuance of revenue bonds by North Carolina Low-Level Radioactive Waste Management Authority or by the North Carolina Hazardous Waste Management Commission."

§ 159-86. Approval of application by Commission.

(a) In determining whether a proposed revenue bond issue shall be approved, the Commission may consider:

- (1) Whether the project to be financed from the proceeds of the revenue bond issue is necessary or expedient.
- (2) Whether the proposed project is feasible.
- (3) The State's or the municipality's, as the case may be, debt management procedures and policies.
- (4) Whether the State or the municipality, as the case may be, is in default in any of its debt service obligations.
- (5) Whether the probable net revenues of the project to be financed will be sufficient to service the proposed revenue bonds.
- (6) The ability of the Commission to market the proposed revenue bonds at reasonable rates of interest.

The Commission may inquire into and give consideration to any other matters that it may believe to have a bearing on whether the issue should be approved.

(b) The Commission shall approve the application if, upon the information and evidence it receives, it finds and determines:

- (1) That the proposed revenue bond issue is necessary or expedient.
- (2) That the amount proposed is adequate and not excessive for the proposed purpose of the issue.
- (3) That the proposed project is feasible.
- (4) That the State's or the municipality's, as the case may be, debt management procedures and policies are good, or that reasonable assurances have been given that its debt will henceforth be managed in strict compliance with law.
- (5) That the proposed revenue bonds can be marketed at reasonable interest cost to the State or the municipality, as the case may be. (1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1983, c. 554, ss. 7, 8.)

Editor's Note. — For provisions of ss. 21 and 8 of which amended this section, see the through 25 of Session Laws 1983, c. 554, ss. 7 Editor's note under § 159-80.

§ 159-87. Order approving or denying the application.

(a) After considering an application the Commission shall enter its order either approving or denying the application. An order approving an issue shall not be regarded as an approval of the legality of the bonds in any respect.

(b) If the Commission enters an order denying the application, the proceedings under this Article shall be at an end. (1971, c. 780, s. 1.)

§ 159-88. Adoption of revenue bond order.

(a) At any time after the Commission approves an application for the issuance of revenue bonds, (i) in the case of the State, the Council of State and (ii) in the case of a municipality, the governing board of the municipality may adopt a revenue bond order pursuant to this Article.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of any city charter, general law, or local act, a revenue bond order may be introduced at any regular or special meeting of the governing board of a municipality and adopted at such a meeting by a simple majority of those present and voting, a quorum being present, and need not be published or subjected to any procedural requirements governing the adoption of ordinances or resolutions by the governing board other than the procedures set out in this Article. Revenue bond orders are not subject to the provisions of any city charter or legal act concerning initiative or referendum.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Article, no bond order authorizing the issuance of revenue bonds of the State shall be adopted by the Council of State until such time as the General Assembly shall have enacted legislation authorizing the undertaking of the revenue bond project to be financed and fixing the maximum aggregate principal amount of revenue bonds that shall be issued for such purpose, and such legislation shall have taken effect.

(d) Repealed by Session Laws 2001-474, s. 39, effective November 29, 2001. (1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1973, c. 494, s. 19; 1983, c. 554, s. 9; 1989, c. 168, s. 42; 2001-474, s. 39.)

Editor's Note. — For provisions of ss. 21 through 25 of Session Laws 1983, c. 554, s. 9 of which amended this section, see the Editor's note under § 159-80.

Session Laws 2000-81, ss. 1-8, effective July 5, 2000, authorizes the issuance of state revenue bonds, not to exceed $40,000,000, to finance improvements to the water and sewer system for the Community of Butner and Camp Butner reservation. Specifically, the bonds are for paying the costs of acquisition, construction, reconstruction, improvement, enlargement, betterment, and extension of the water supply and distribution system and sewage collection and disposal system and certain costs of issuance of the bonds. The bonds are to be issued in compliance the State and Local Government Revenue Bond Act, pursuant to an order adopted by the Council of State under G.S. 159-88, and are to be sold by the Local Government Commission pursuant to the provisions of Article 7 of Chapter 159. The bonds are tax exempt, excepting estate, inheritance, or gift taxes, income taxes on the gain from transfer of securities, and franchise taxes. Section 7 of the act provides that the act is supplemental and additional to powers conferred by other laws. It, being necessary for the health and welfare of the people of the State, is to be liberally construed. Section 7(d) contains a severability clause.

Effect of Amendments. — Session Laws 2001-474, s. 39, effective November 29, 2001, repealed subsection (d), which read: " In the case of the State of North Carolina, any action to be taken by the Council of State pursuant to this section shall be taken (i) with respect to the issuance of revenue bonds by the North Carolina Low-Level Radioactive Waste Management Authority, by the governing board of the Authority and (ii) with respect to the issuance of revenue bonds by the North Carolina Hazardous Waste Management Commission, by the governing board of the Commission, and not by the Council of State. Subsection (c) of this section shall not apply to the issuance of revenue bonds by North Carolina Low-Level Radioactive Waste Management Authority or by the North Carolina Hazardous Waste Management Commission."

§ 159-89. Special covenants.

A revenue bond order or a trust agreement securing revenue bonds may contain covenants as to

- (1) The pledge of all or any part of revenues received or to be received from the undertaking to be financed by the bonds, or the utility or enterprise of which the undertaking is to become a part.

- (2) Rates, fees, rentals, tolls or other charges to be established, maintained, and collected, and the use and disposal of revenues, gifts, grants, and funds received or to be received.
- (3) The setting aside of debt service reserves and the regulation and disposition thereof.
- (4) The custody, collection, securing, investment, and payment of any moneys held for the payment of revenue bonds.
- (5) Limitations or restrictions on the purposes to which the proceeds of sale of revenue bonds then or thereafter to be issued may be applied.
- (6) Limitations or restrictions on the issuance of additional revenue bonds or notes; the terms upon which additional revenue bonds or notes may be issued and secured; or the refunding of outstanding or other revenue bonds.
- (7) The procedure, if any, by which the terms of any contract with bondholders may be amended or abrogated, the percentage of revenue bonds the bondholders of which must consent thereto, and the manner in which such consent may be given.
- (8) Events of default and the rights and liabilities arising thereupon, the terms and conditions upon which revenue bonds issued under this Article shall become or may be declared due before maturity, and the terms and conditions upon which such declaration and its consequences may be waived.
- (9) The preparation and maintenance of a budget with respect to the expenses of the State or a municipality, as the case may be, for the operation and maintenance of revenue bond projects.
- (10) The retention or employment of consulting engineers, independent auditors, and other technical consultants in connection with revenue bond projects.
- (11) Limitations on or the prohibition of free service by revenue bond projects to any person, firm, or corporation, public or private.
- (12) The acquisition and disposal of property for revenue bond projects.
- (13) Provisions for insurance and for accounting reports and the inspection and audit thereof.
- (14) The continuing operation and maintenance of the revenue bond project or the utility or enterprise of which it is to become a part. (Ex. Sess. 1938, c. 2, s. 6; 1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1983, c. 554, s. 10.)

Editor's Note. — For provisions of ss. 21 which amended this section, see the Editor's through 25 of Session Laws 1983, c. 554, s. 10 of note under § 159-80.

§ 159-90. Limitations on details of bonds; additional provisions.

(a) In fixing the details of revenue bonds, the State or the issuing municipality, as the case may be, shall be subject to the following restrictions and directions:

- (1) The maturity dates may not exceed the maximum maturity periods prescribed by the Commission for general obligation bonds pursuant to G.S. 159-122. For bonds issued in reimbursement of a loan or advance, the maximum maturity period to be used in determining the maturity dates of the bonds shall be the maximum permissible period prescribed by the Commission for the original project for which the loan or advance was expended, calculated from the date the original project is completed.
- (2) Any bond may be made subject to redemption prior to maturity, including redemption on demand of the holder, with or without premium, on such notice and at such time or times and with such redemption provisions as may be stated. When any such bond shall have been validly called for redemption and provision shall have been made for the payment of the principal thereof, any redemption premium, and the interest thereon accrued to the date of redemption, interest thereon shall cease.

- (3) The bonds may bear interest at such rate or rates, payable semiannually or otherwise, may be in such denominations, and may be payable in such kind of money and in such place or places within or without the State of North Carolina, as the State Treasurer or the issuing municipality, as the case may be, may determine.

(b) In addition to the foregoing provisions of this section, in fixing the details of revenue bonds the State or the issuing municipality, as the case may be, may provide that bonds

- (1) May be made payable from time to time on demand or tender for purchase by the owner provided a Credit Facility supports such bonds, unless the Commission specifically determines that a Credit Facility is not required upon a finding and determination by the Commission that the proposed bonds will satisfy the conditions set forth in G.S. 159-86(b);
- (2) May be additionally supported by a Credit Facility;
- (3) May be made subject to redemption prior to maturity, with or without premium, on such notice and at such time or times and with such redemption provisions as may be stated in the bond order or trust agreement or with such variations as may be permitted in connection with a Par Formula provided in such bond order or trust agreement;
- (4) May bear interest, notwithstanding the provisions of G.S. 159-125(a), at a rate or rates that may vary as permitted pursuant to a Par Formula and for such period or periods of time, all as may be provided in the bond order or trust agreement; and
- (5) May be made the subject of a remarketing agreement whereby an attempt is made to remarket the bonds to new purchasers prior to their presentment for payment to the provider of the Credit Facility or to the issuing municipality or the State.

No Credit Facility, repayment agreement, Par Formula or remarketing agreement shall become effective without the approval of the Commission.

As used in this subsection, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

“Credit Facility” means an agreement entered into by an issuing municipality or by the State Treasurer on behalf of the State with a bank, savings and loan association or other banking institution, an insurance company, reinsurance company, surety company or other insurance institution, a corporation, investment banker or other investment institution, or any financial institution providing for prompt payment of all or any part of the principal (whether at maturity, presentment for purchase, redemption or acceleration), redemption premium, if any, and interest on any bonds payable on demand or tender by the owner issued in accordance with this section, in consideration of the issuing municipality or the State agreeing to repay the provider of such Credit Facility in accordance with the terms and provisions of such repayment agreement, provided, that any such repayment agreement shall provide that the obligation of the issuing municipality or the State thereunder shall have only such sources of payment as are permitted for the payment of bonds issued under this Article.

“Par Formula” shall mean any provision or formula adopted by the issuing municipality or the State to provide for the adjustment, from time to time, of the interest rate or rates borne by any such bonds so that the purchase price of such bonds in the open market would be as close to par as possible. (Ex. Sess. 1938, c. 2, s. 5; 1949, c. 1081; 1967, c. 100, s. 1; c. 711, s. 2; 1969, c. 688, s. 1; 1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1983, c. 554, s. 11; 1985, c. 265, s. 1; 1991, c. 508, s. 4.)

Editor's Note. — For provisions of ss. 21 through 25 of Session Laws 1983, c. 554, s. 11 of which amended this section, see the Editor's note under § 159-80.

Session Laws 1985, c. 265, ss. 3 to 5 provide:
 "Sec. 3. The foregoing sections of this act shall be deemed to provide an additional and alternative method for the doing of the things authorized thereby and shall be regarded as supplemental and additional to powers conferred by other laws, and shall not be regarded as in derogation of any powers now existing.

"Sec. 4. Nothing in this act shall be construed to impair the obligation of any bond, note or coupon outstanding on the effective date of this act.

"Sec. 5. If any provision of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of this act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this act are declared to be severable."

§ 159-91. Lien of revenue bonds.

(a) All revenue bonds issued under this Article shall be equally and ratably secured by a pledge, charge, and lien upon revenues provided for in the bond order, without priority by reason of number, or of dates of bonds, execution or delivery, in accordance with the provisions of this Article and of the bond order; except that the State or a municipality may provide in a revenue bond order that revenue bonds issued pursuant thereto shall to the extent and in the manner prescribed in the order or agreement be subordinated and junior in standing, with respect to the payment of principal and interest and the security thereof, to any other revenue bonds.

(b) Any pledge made by the State or a municipality pursuant to this Article shall be valid and binding from the date of final passage of the bond order upon the issuance of any bonds or bond anticipation notes thereunder. The revenues, securities, and other moneys so pledged and then held or thereafter received by the State or a municipality, as the case may be, or any fiduciary shall immediately be subject to the lien of the pledge without any physical delivery thereof or further act, and the lien of the pledge shall be valid and binding as against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract, or otherwise against the State or a municipality, as the case may be, without regard to whether such parties have notice thereof. The bond order by which a pledge is created need not be filed or recorded in any manner other than as provided in this Chapter. (1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1983, c. 554, s. 12.)

Editor's Note. — For provisions of ss. 21 through 25 of Session Laws 1983, c. 554, s. 12 of which amended this section, see the Editor's note under § 159-80.

§ 159-92. Status of revenue bonds under Uniform Commercial Code.

Whether or not the revenue bonds and interest coupons appertaining thereto are of such form and character as to be investment securities under Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code as enacted in this State, all revenue bonds represented by instruments and interest coupons appertaining thereto issued under this Article are hereby made investment securities within the meaning of and for all the purposes of Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code as enacted in this State, subject only to the provisions of the bonds pertaining to registration. (1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1983, c. 322, s. 3.)

Editor's Note. — The Uniform Commercial Code, referred to in this section, is found in Chapter 25 of the General Statutes.

§ 159-93. Agreement of the State.

The State of North Carolina does pledge to and agree with the holders of any revenue bonds or revenue bond anticipation notes heretofore or hereafter issued by the State or any municipality in this State that so long as any such bonds or notes are outstanding and unpaid the State will not limit or alter the rights vested in the State or the municipality at the time of issuance of the bonds or notes to establish, maintain, revise, charge, and collect such rates, fees, rentals, tolls, and other charges for the use, services, facilities, and commodities of or furnished by the revenue bond project in connection with which the bonds or notes, or bonds or notes refunded by the bonds or notes, were issued as shall produce revenues at least sufficient with other available funds to meet the expense of maintenance and operation of and renewal and replacements to such project, including reserves therefor, to pay when due the principal, interest, and redemption premiums (if any) of the bonds or notes, and to fulfill the terms of any agreements made with the bondholders or noteholders, nor will the State in any way impair the rights and remedies of the bondholders or noteholders until the bonds or notes and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceedings by or on behalf of the bondholders or noteholders, are fully paid, met, and discharged. (1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1973, c. 494, s. 20; 1983, c. 554, s. 13.)

Editor's Note. — For provisions of ss. 21 through 25 of Session Laws 1983, c. 554, s. 13 of which amended this section, see the Editor's note under § 159-80.

§ 159-94. Limited liability.

(a) Revenue bonds shall be special obligations of the State or the municipality issuing them. The principal of and interest on revenue bonds shall not be payable from the general funds of the State or the municipality, as the case may be, nor shall they constitute a legal or equitable pledge, charge, lien, or encumbrance upon any of its property or upon any of its income, receipts, or revenues, except the funds which are pledged under the bond order authorizing the bonds. Neither the credit nor the taxing power of the State or the municipality, as the case may be, are pledged for the payment of the principal or interest of revenue bonds, and no holder of revenue bonds has the right to compel the exercise of the taxing power by the State or the municipality, as the case may be, or the forfeiture of any of its property in connection with any default thereon. Every revenue bond shall recite in substance that the principal of and interest on the bond is payable solely from the revenues pledged to its payment and that the State or the municipality, as the case may be, is not obligated to pay the principal or interest except from such revenues.

(b) Repealed by Session Laws 2001-474, s. 39, effective November 29, 2001. (Ex. Sess. 1938, c. 2, s. 7; 1953, c. 922, s. 3; 1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1983, c. 554, s. 14; 1989, c. 168, s. 43; 2001-474, s. 39.)

Editor's Note. — For provisions of ss. 21 through 25 of Session Laws 1983, c. 554, s. 14 of which amended this section, see the Editor's note under § 159-80.

Effect of Amendments. — Session Laws 2001-474, s. 39, effective November 29, 2001, repealed subsection (b), which read: "The provisions of this section relating to a legal or equitable pledge, charge, lien, or encumbrance upon real property or the forfeiture thereof shall not apply to revenue bonds issued by the North Carolina Low-Level Radioactive Waste Management Authority or by the North Carolina Hazardous Waste Management Commission."

CASE NOTES

Invocation of Taxing Power Not Provided For. — Where defendant municipality, which owned and operated its own electric distributing system, proposed to issue bonds to obtain funds for the construction of a municipal hydroelectric generating plant to be operated separate and apart therefrom, and the resolution of the city authorizing the issuance of the bonds provided that they should be payable solely out of the revenues of the system, and the bonds themselves were to contain a like provision, such bonds were not a general indebtedness of the municipality and its taxing power could not be invoked to provide for their payment. Provision that the city, if it should voluntarily elect to take energy from its generating system for its own uses, should pay the cost of furnishing the energy so taken, which in no event should exceed a fair and reasonable charge therefor, did not indirectly provide for invocation of the taxing power for the payment of the bonds. McGuinn v. City of High Point, 217 N.C. 449, 8 S.E.2d 462, 128 A.L.R. 608 (1940), decided under former § 160-419.

§ 159-95. Approval of State agencies.

The general design and plan of any revenue bond project undertaken for water systems or facilities or sewage disposal systems or facilities shall be subject to the approval of the Commission for Health Services or the State Environmental Management Commission to the same extent that such projects would be if they were not financed by revenue bonds, and the provisions of the revenue bond order shall be consistent with any requirements imposed on the project by the Commission for Health Services or the State Environmental Management Commission. No revenue bond project for the acquisition or construction of systems or facilities for the generation, production, or transmission of gas or electric power may be undertaken by the State or a municipality unless the State or municipality, as the case may be, shall first obtain a certificate of convenience and necessity from the North Carolina Utilities Commission. (Ex. Sess. 1938, c. 2, s. 9; 1949, c. 1081; 1967, c. 555; 1969, c. 688, s. 2; 1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1973, c. 476, s. 128; c. 494, s. 21; c. 1262, s. 23; 1983, c. 554, s. 15.)

Editor's Note. — For provisions of ss. 21 through 25 of Session Laws 1983, c. 554, s. 15 of which amended this section, see the Editor's note under § 159-80.

§ 159-96. Limitation on extraterritorial operation of enterprises financed by revenue bonds.

(a) Each utility or public service enterprise listed in G.S. 159-81(3), if financed wholly or partially by revenue bonds issued under this Article, shall be owned or operated by the municipality for its own use and for the use of public and private consumers residing within its corporate limits or, in the case of a joint agency or undertaking established pursuant to Part 1 of Article 20 of Chapter 160A of the General Statutes, for the use of the municipalities that established the joint agency or undertaking and for the use of the public and private consumers residing within their corporate limits. A utility or public service enterprise financed wholly or partially by revenue bonds, when operated primarily for the municipality's own use and for users within its corporate limits or, in the case of two or more municipalities participating in a joint agency or undertaking, when operated primarily for the use of the municipalities that established the joint agency or undertaking, may be operated incidentally for users outside the corporate limits of either the issuing unit or a participating municipality. Provided, however, that revenue bonds may be issued for the purpose of financing in whole or in part mass transit systems, aeronautical facilities, marine facilities and systems, systems or facilities for the generation, production, transmission, or distribution of gas (natural, artificial, or mixed), facilities and equipment for the collection, treatment or disposal of solid waste, notwithstanding that such systems, facilities or equipment may be operated for users outside the corporate limits of a municipality that is an issuing unit where the municipality finds that the systems, facilities, or equipment so financed would benefit the municipality or, in the case of two or more municipalities participating in a joint agency or undertaking, where the municipalities that are the issuing units find that the systems, facilities, or equipment so financed would benefit the municipalities that established the joint agency or undertaking.

Revenue bonds may not be issued for the purpose of financing in whole or in part systems or facilities for the transmission or distribution of gas (natural, artificial, or mixed) to users outside the corporate limits of a municipality to whom service is available or will be available within a reasonable time from a local distribution natural gas utility pursuant to a certificate of public convenience and necessity issued by the North Carolina Utilities Commission. A finding by the governing body of a municipality that is an issuing unit that the systems or facilities to be provided by the financing will not provide service to users to whom such service is available or will be available within a reasonable time from a local distribution natural gas utility shall be conclusive upon (i) the expiration of a 45 day period following the making of such finding, (ii) the mailing by the municipality of a copy of such notice within five days after the making of such finding to any local distribution company certificated to provide service to the area in which the facilities are to be located, and (iii) the absence of a written objection to such finding being mailed by any such certificated local distribution company to the municipality by not later than five days prior to the end of such 45 day period, all such mailings to be properly given or made if sent by United States registered mail, return receipt requested, postage prepaid. Time shall be computed pursuant to G.S. 1A-1, Rule 6(a).

(b) A revenue bond project financed wholly or partially by revenue bonds of the State may be located either within or without the State and, when operated primarily for the State's own use and for users within the State, may be operated incidentally for users outside the State.

(c) Repealed by Session Laws 2001-474, s. 39, effective November 29, 2001.

(d) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsections (a) and (b) of this section and G.S. 160A-312, municipalities may acquire sewage collection and disposal systems and water supply and distribution systems located within and without the corporate limits of such municipalities and finance such acquisition with revenue bonds. Further, municipalities may own, maintain and operate such acquired systems, enlarge and improve such acquired systems and finance the enlargement and improvement of such acquired systems with revenue bonds. This subsection applies only to acquisitions by municipalities financed by revenue bonds during the calendar year ending December 31, 1989. (1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1973, c. 1325; 1983, c. 554, s. 16; c. 795, s. 5; 1989, c. 168, s. 44; c. 263; 1991, c. 511, s. 1; 2001-414, s. 50; 2001-474, s. 39.)

Editor's Note. — For provisions of ss. 21 through 25 of Session Laws 1983, c. 554, s. 16 of which amended this section, see the Editor's note under § 159-80.

Session Laws 1983, c. 795, which rewrote the last sentence in the first paragraph, provides in s. 7: "Sections 5 and 6 of this act shall be deemed to provide an additional and alternative method for the doing of the things authorized thereby and shall be regarded as supplemental and additional to powers conferred by other laws, and shall not be regarded as in derogation of any powers now existing."

Session Laws 1991, c. 511, s. 2 provides that c. 511, which rewrote subsection (a), provides an additional and alternative method for accomplishing the things authorized thereby, is supplemental and additional to powers conferred by other laws, and is not in derogation of any powers now existing.

Effect of Amendments. — Session Laws 2001-414, s. 50, effective September 14, 2001, rewrote the first paragraph of subsection (a), and in the second paragraph of that subsection, inserted "Revenue" at the beginning of the first sentence, and inserted "is an issuing unit that" in the second sentence.

Session Laws 2001-474, s. 39, effective November 29, 2001, repealed subsection (c), which read: "The provisions of subsection (b) of this section shall not apply to the financing of any revenue bond project by the North Carolina Low-Level Radioactive Waste Management Authority or by the North Carolina Hazardous Waste Management Commission."

§ 159-97. Taxes for supplementing revenue bond projects.

(a) For the purpose of supplementing the revenues of a revenue bond project, as defined in this section, any county or city may covenant with, or may enter into an agreement with a municipality for the benefit of the holders of revenue bonds of the issuing municipality issued pursuant to this Article, whereby such county or city agrees to:

- (1) Levy for the life of all revenue bonds issued in connection with the revenue bond project an annual property tax not in excess of the rate set forth in the question submitted to voters as hereinafter provided, such levy to be based upon the operating supplement requirement, as defined in this section, or
- (2) Levy for the life of the revenue bonds in respect of which such tax is being levied an annual property tax not in excess of the rate required to pay the principal of and the interest on the aggregate principal amount of revenue bonds set forth in the question submitted to the voters as hereinafter provided, such levy to be based upon the debt service reserve supplement requirement, as defined in this section.

When any such covenant has been made or any such agreement has been entered into, the issuing municipality shall determine, and, in those instances in which the issuing municipality is not also the taxing county or city, the issuing municipality shall certify to the governing board of the taxing county or city, by not later than June 1 of each fiscal year the amount required, determined as hereinafter provided, to be raised by taxation by such county or city in the next fiscal year. The county or city is obligated to levy such tax only to the extent that an operating supplement requirement or a debt service reserve supplement requirement shall occur during the fiscal year preceding the fiscal year in which the tax is to be levied. In no event shall the county or city be required to levy a tax in excess of the rate required to be levied in accordance with the approval of the voters as provided in subsection (c). When any such tax is to be levied, the county or city shall include in its budget ordinance an appropriation to the issuing municipality or the appropriate fund, as the case may be, equal to the estimated yield of the tax levy, and shall pay such appropriation to the issuing municipality or transfer moneys to the appropriate fund in equal monthly installments unless another mutually satisfactory schedule of payments is agreed upon.

(b) A covenant made, or the pledge of an agreement entered into, by a county or city pursuant to this section shall be effected by the provisions of the revenue bond order or the trust agreement securing revenue bonds of the issuing municipality and where the issuing municipality is not also the taxing county or city a resolution of the county or city approving the appropriate provisions of the bond order or trust agreement relating to the pledge of the tax. If the taxing county or city is not the issuing municipality, it shall file an application for approval of the resolution with the secretary of the Commission in the manner provided in G.S. 159-149, and the Commission shall determine whether to approve the application as provided by G.S. 159-151 and 159-152; provided, however, that G.S. 159-148 and 159-150 shall have no application to this section.

(c) A covenant made, or agreement entered into, by a county or city pursuant to this section shall take effect only if approved by the affirmative vote of a majority of those who vote thereon in a referendum held in the taxing county or city. The referendum shall be called and held as provided in G.S. 159-61, except that

- (1) The ballot proposition shall be in substantially one of the following forms:

Operating Supplement Requirement:

“Shall the (order or agreement) binding the (taxing county or city) to levy annually a tax on property not in excess of _____ cents on the one hundred dollars ($100.00) value of property subject to taxation for the purpose of supplementing the revenues of (revenue bond project) in instances where the gross revenues of the project are estimated to be less than the estimated total costs of the (i) current operating expenses of the project, (ii) amount required to maintain the debt service reserve by repaying any withdrawals therefrom in respect of all outstanding bonds issued in connection with the project and (iii) debt service on all outstanding bonds issued in connection with the project, all as defined in such (order or agreement), the proceeds of such tax to be used for the payment of the current operating expenses of the project so long as any revenue bonds issued therefor remain outstanding and unpaid, be approved?

- Yes
- No”

Debt Service Reserve Supplement Requirement:

“Shall the (order or agreement) binding the (taxing county or city) to levy annually, without limitation as to rate or amount, a tax on property subject to taxation for the purpose of supplementing the revenues of (revenue bond project) for maintaining the debt service reserve required by said (order or agreement) in connection with the issuance of not in excess of $ _____ revenue bonds of (the issuing municipality), so long as any of such revenue bonds remain outstanding and unpaid, be approved?

- Yes
- No”

and

- (2) The published statement of result shall have the following statement appended:

“Any action or proceeding challenging the regularity or validity of this supplemental tax referendum must be begun within 30 days after (date of publication).

(title of governing board).”

(d) Any action or proceeding in any court to set aside a supplemental tax referendum held under this section, or to obtain any other relief, upon the ground that the referendum is invalid or was irregularly conducted, must be begun within 30 days after the publication of the statement of the result of the referendum. After the expiration of this period of limitation, no right of action or defense based upon the invalidity of or any irregularity in the referendum shall be asserted, nor shall the validity of the referendum be open to question in any court upon any ground whatever, except in an action or proceeding begun within the period of limitation prescribed in this subsection.

(e) An order or agreement submitted to and approved by the voters pursuant to this section may be repealed at any time before bonds are issued pursuant thereto.

(f) In instances where the taxing county or city is not the issuing municipality, such county or city may levy taxes as provided for in this section in respect of a revenue bond project located outside its corporate limits provided that such county or city is entitled by law to appoint one or more members of the governing body of such municipality.

(g) For the purposes of this section,

- (1) A "revenue bond project" is limited, notwithstanding the provisions of G.S. 159-81, to (i) aeronautical facilities, including but not limited to airports, terminals and hangars, (ii) hospitals and other health-related facilities, and (iii) systems, facilities and equipment for the collection, treatment or disposal of solid waste within the meaning of said G.S. 159-81;
- (2) An "operating supplement requirement" occurs when, as set forth in the budget prepared by the issuing municipality in respect of the revenue bond project, the estimated cost in the next succeeding fiscal year of the (i) current operating expenses of the revenue bond project, (ii) amount required to maintain the debt service reserve by repaying any withdrawals therefrom in respect of all outstanding bonds issued in connection with the revenue bond project, and (iii) debt service on all outstanding bonds issued in connection with the revenue bond project, are in excess of the pledged revenues of the revenue bond project for such fiscal year as estimated by the issuing municipality, excluding taxes levied pursuant to this section; provided, however, that the amount of the operating supplement requirement shall not exceed the total amount of the current operating expenses of the revenue bond project mentioned in clause (i) above, and
- (3) A "debt service reserve supplement requirement" occurs when there have been withdrawn from the debt service reserve any moneys for the purpose of paying debt service on the bonds in respect of which the supplemental tax has been authorized by the voters; provided, however, that the amount of the debt service reserve supplement requirement shall not exceed the amount so withdrawn.

(h) Any covenant or agreement of a county or city made pursuant to this section, and the obligations assumed thereby, shall be excludable from the gross debt of the county or city for purposes of the statement of debt mentioned in G.S. 159-55.

(i) For the purposes of this section the terms county or city shall include a special airport district with respect to financing of aeronautical facilities. (1973, c. 786, s. 1; 1979, c. 727, s. 5; 1983, c. 795, s. 6.)

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1983, c. 795, s. 7, provided: "Sections 5 and 6 of this act shall be deemed to provide an additional and alternative method for the doing of the things authorized thereby and shall be regarded as supplemental and additional to powers conferred by other laws, and shall not be regarded as in derogation of any powers now existing."

ARTICLE 5A.

Capital Appreciation Bonds.

§ 159-99. Issuance of capital appreciation bonds pursuant to The Local Government Bond Act.

Local governmental units are hereby authorized to issue capital appreciation bonds pursuant to the provisions of The Local Government Bond Act and to the extent that the provisions of said act are inconsistent with the issuance of such bonds, such inconsistent provisions are hereby amended to the extent of such inconsistency so as to permit the issuance of such bonds. (1987, c. 650.)

§ 159-100. Issuance of capital appreciation bonds pursuant to The State and Local Government Revenue Bond Act.

The State and local governmental units are hereby authorized to issue capital appreciation bonds pursuant to the provisions of The State and Local Government Revenue Bond Act and to the extent that the provisions of said act are inconsistent with the issuance of such bonds, such inconsistent provisions are hereby amended to the extent of such inconsistency so as to permit the issuance of such bonds. (1987, c. 650.)

ARTICLE 6.

Economic Development Financing Act.

§§ 159-101 through 159-114: Not in effect.

Editor's Note. — An Article 6 entitled “Economic Development Financing Act” was enacted by Session Laws 1993, c. 497, s. 2, but was made effective upon certification of approval of an amendment to Article V of the Constitution of North Carolina relating to the authority of any county, city or town to borrow money, without the need of voter approval, and issue financing bonds to be used to finance public activities associated with private economic development projects. Such an amendment was submitted to the people on November 2, 1993 and was defeated. This Article, therefore, never took effect.

An earlier Article 6, “Tax Increment Financing Act” was enacted by Session Laws 1981 (Reg. Sess., 1982), c. 1276, s. 1, but was made effective on certification of approval of an amendment to the state Constitution authorizing the enactment of general laws dealing with transactions of the type contemplated by the act. Such an amendment was proposed by Session Laws 1981 (Reg. Sess., 1982), c. 1247, was submitted to the people on Nov. 2, 1982, and was defeated. The earlier Article 6, therefore, never took effect.

§§ 159-115 through 159-119: Reserved for future codification purposes.

ARTICLE 7.

Issuance and Sale of Bonds.

§ 159-120. Definitions.

As used in this Article, unless the context clearly requires another meaning, the words “unit” or “issuing unit” mean “unit of local government” as defined in G.S. 159-44, “municipality” as defined in G.S. 159-81, and the State of North Carolina, and the words “governing body,” when used with respect to the State of North Carolina, mean the Council of State. (1973, c. 494, s. 30; 1981 (Reg. Sess., 1982), c. 1276, s. 3; 1983, c. 554, s. 17.)

Editor's Note. — An amendment to this section by Session Laws 1993, c. 497, s. 6, was made effective upon certification of approval of an amendment to Article V of the Constitution of North Carolina relating to the authority of any county, city or town to borrow money, without the need of voter approval, and issue financing bonds to be used to finance public activities associated with private economic development projects. This amendment was submitted to the people on November 2, 1993 and was defeated. The amendment to this section, therefore, never took effect.

An earlier amendment to this section in Session Laws 1981 (Reg. Sess., 1982), c. 1276, s. 3, was made effective on certification of approval of a state constitutional amendment authorizing the enactment of laws dealing with transactions of the type contemplated by the act. Such an amendment was proposed by Session Laws 1981 (Reg. Sess., 1982), c. 1247, was submitted to the people on Nov. 2, 1982, and was defeated. The amendment to this section, therefore, did not go into effect.

For provisions of ss. 21 through 25 of Session Laws 1983, c. 554, which amended this section, see the Editor's Note under § 159-80.

Session Laws 1987 (Reg. Sess., 1988), c. 882, s. 6 provides: "All actions and proceedings heretofore taken by units of local government relating to the authorization of general obligation refunding bonds, secured by a pledge of the taxing power and issued pursuant to the Local Government Bond Act, and revenue refunding bonds, secured by a pledge of revenues and issued pursuant to The State and Local Government Revenue Bond Act, and the sale and delivery of all such bonds pursuant to Article 7, as amended, of Chapter 159 of the General Statutes of North Carolina, in order to provide funds to purchase, at a discount, bonds of such units owned by the Farmers Home Administration, including without limitation, the introduction and adoption of bond orders, the holding of public hearings with respect to such bond orders, the passage of resolutions providing for the issuance and the sale, both public and private, of such refunding bonds, and the delivery of any such refunding bonds are hereby in all respects approved, ratified, validated, and confirmed."

Session Laws 1989, c. 90, effective May 5, 1989, provides: "All actions and proceedings heretofore taken since June 15, 1988, by units of local government relating to the authorization of general obligation refunding bonds, secured by a pledge of the taxing power and issued pursuant to The Local Government Bond Act, and revenue refunding bonds, secured by a pledge of revenues and issued pursuant to The State and Local Government Revenue Bond Act, and the sale and delivery of all such bonds pursuant to Article 7, as amended, of Chapter 159 of the General Statutes, in order to provide funds to purchase, at a discount, bonds of such units owned by the Farmers Home Administration, including without limitation, the introduction and adoption of bond orders, the holding of public hearings with respect to such bond orders, the passage of resolutions providing for the issuance and the sale, both public and private, of such refunding bonds, and the delivery of any such refunding bonds are hereby in all respects approved, ratified, validated, and confirmed."

§ 159-121. Coupon or registered bonds to be issued.

Bonds may be issued as (i) coupon bonds payable to bearer, (ii) coupon bonds registrable as to principal only or as to both principal and interest, or (iii) bonds without coupons registered as to both principal and interest. Each issuing unit may appoint or designate a bond registrar who shall be charged with the duty of attending to the registration and the registration of transfer of bonds. (1917, c. 138, s. 29; 1919, c. 178, s. 3(29); C.S., s. 2955; 1921, c. 8, s. 1; Ex. Sess. 1921, c. 106, s. 1; 1927, c. 81, s. 36; 1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1973, c. 494, s. 22.)

§ 159-122. Maturities of bonds.

(a) Except as provided in this subsection, the last installment of each bond issue shall mature not later than the date of expiration of the period of usefulness of the capital project to be financed by the bond issue, computed from the date of the bonds. The last installment of a refunding bond issue issued pursuant to G.S. 159-48(a)(4) or (5) shall mature not later than either (i) the shortest period, but not more than 40 years, in which the debt to be refunded can be finally paid without making it unduly burdensome on the taxpayers of the issuing unit, as determined by the Commission, computed from the date of the bonds, or (ii) the end of the unexpired period of usefulness of the capital project financed by the debt to be refunded. The last installment of bonds issued pursuant to G.S. 159-48(a)(1), (2), (3), (6), or (7) shall mature not later than 10 years after the date of the bonds, as determined by the Commission. The last installment of bonds issued pursuant to G.S. 159-48(c)(5) shall mature not later than eight years after the date of the bonds, as determined by the Commission.

(b) The Commission shall by regulation establish the maximum period of usefulness of the capital projects for which units of local government may issue bonds, but no capital project may be assigned a period of usefulness in excess of 40 years.

(c) The determination of the Commission as to the classification of the capital projects for which a particular bond issue is authorized, and the Commission's determination of the maximum period of usefulness of the project, as evidenced by the secretary's certificate, shall be conclusive in any action or proceeding involving the validity of the bonds. (1917, c. 138, s. 18; 1919, c. 178, s. 3(18); C.S., s. 2942; 1921, c. 8, s. 1; Ex. Sess. 1921, c. 106, s. 1; 1927, c. 81, s. 11; 1929, c. 170; c. 171, s. 2; 1931, c. 60, ss. 50, 56; cc. 188, 301; 1933, c. 259, ss. 1, 2; 1953, c. 1065, s. 1; 1957, c. 266, s. 2; 1967, c. 987, s. 3; c. 1001, s. 2; c. 1086, ss. 1, 2, 4, 5; 1969, cc. 475, 834; 1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1973, c. 494, s. 23; 1981 (Reg. Sess., 1982), c. 1276, s. 4.)

Editor's Note. — An amendment to subsection (a) of this section by Session Laws 1993, c. 497, s. 7, was made effective upon certification of approval of an amendment to Article V of the Constitution of North Carolina relating to the authority of any county, city or town to borrow money, without the need of voter approval, and issue financing bonds to be used to finance public activities associated with private economic development projects. This amendment was submitted to the people on November 2, 1993 and was defeated. The amendment to subsection (a) of this section, therefore, never took effect.

An earlier amendment to this section in Session Laws 1981 (Reg. Sess., 1982), c. 1276, s. 4, was made effective on certification of approval of a state constitutional amendment authorizing the enactment of laws dealing with transactions of the type contemplated by the act. Such an amendment was proposed by Session Laws 1981 (Reg. Sess., 1982), c. 1247, was submitted to the people on Nov. 2, 1982, and was defeated. The amendment to this section, therefore, did not go into effect.

§ 159-123. Sale of bonds by sealed bids; private sales.

(a) Bonds issued by units of local government shall be sold by the Local Government Commission after advertisement and upon sealed bids, except as otherwise authorized by subsection (b) of this section.

(b) The following classes of bonds may be sold at private sale:

- (1) Bonds that a State or federal agency has previously agreed to purchase.
- (2) Any bonds for which no legal bid is received within the time allowed for submission of bids.
- (3) Revenue bonds, including any refunding bonds issued pursuant to G.S. 159-84, and special obligation bonds issued pursuant to Chapter 159I of the General Statutes.
- (4) Refunding bonds issued pursuant to G.S. 159-78.
- (5) Refunding bonds issued pursuant to G.S. 159-72 if the Local Government Commission determines that a private sale is in the best interest of the issuing unit.
- (6) Bonds designated as qualified zone academy bonds pursuant to G.S. 115C-489.6, if the Local Government Commission determines that a private sale is in the best interest of the issuing unit.

(c) When the issuing unit wishes to have a private sale of bonds, the governing board of the issuing unit shall adopt and file with the Commission a resolution requesting that the bonds be sold at private sale without advertisement to any purchaser or purchasers thereof, at such prices as the Commission determines to be in the best interest of the issuing unit, subject to the approval of the governing board of the issuing unit or one or more persons designated by resolution of the governing board of the issuing unit to approve such prices. Upon receipt of a resolution requesting a private sale of bonds, the Commission may offer them to any purchaser or purchasers without advertisement, and may sell them at any price the Commission deems in the best interest of the issuing unit, subject to the approval of the governing board of the issuing unit or the person or persons designated by resolution of the governing board of the issuing unit to approve such prices. For purposes of this subsection, any resolution of the governing board of the issuing unit which designates a person or persons to approve any price or prices shall also establish a minimum purchase price and a maximum interest rate or maximum interest cost and such other provisions relating to approval as it may determine. Notwithstanding any provisions of this Chapter to the contrary, general obligation bonds issued pursuant to Article 4 of this Chapter may be sold at private sale at not less than ninety-eight percent (98%) of the face value of the bonds plus one hundred percent (100%) of accrued interest.

(d) This section shall not apply to funding or refunding bonds when the governing board of the issuing unit and the holders of the debt to be funded or refunded have agreed to exchange the original obligations for new ones at the same or an adjusted rate of interest. This section also shall not apply to debt instruments that the State has previously agreed to purchase pursuant to Chapter 159G of the General Statutes.

(e) The issuing unit shall have the authority, subject to approval by the Commission, to select and retain the financial consultants, underwriters and bond attorneys to be associated with the bond issue. If the issuing unit shall affirmatively find that the underwriter, financial consultant or bond attorney selected and retained has adequately provided, in similar financial transactions, services of a nature and sophistication comparable to those required for the issuance and sale of the bonds in question and possesses the expertise necessary to perform the services required, approval of a financial consultant, underwriter or bond attorney shall not be withheld by the Commission solely for the reason that the underwriter, financial consultant or bond attorney has not had prior experience in the issuance and sale of a particular type, class or size of bond issue for which the underwriter, financial consultant or bond attorney is retained.

(f) The Commission shall not reject an application for approval of a bond issue because of the issuing units' selection of financial consultants, underwriters or bond attorneys so long as the selection is made in accordance with G.S. 159-123(e). Nothing herein shall limit or otherwise modify the role or powers of the Commission and its staff to review, approve, sell or participate in the sale of bonds pursuant to this Article. (1931, c. 60, ss. 17, 19; c. 296, s. 1; 1933, c. 258, s. 1; 1969, c. 943; 1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1977, c. 201, s. 4; 1985, c. 723, s. 1; 1987, c. 585, s. 3; c. 796, s. 4; 1989, c. 756, s. 5; 1991 (Reg. Sess., 1992), c. 1007, s. 43; 2000-69, s. 2.)

Editor's Note. — An amendment to subsection (b) of this section by Session Laws 1993, c. 497, s. 8, was made effective upon certification of approval of an amendment to Article V of the Constitution of North Carolina relating to the authority of any county, city or town to borrow money, without the need of voter approval, and issue financing bonds to be used to finance public activities associated with private economic development projects. This amendment was submitted to the people on November 2, 1993 and was defeated. The amendment to subsection (b) of this section, therefore, never took effect.

An earlier amendment to this section in Session Laws 1981 (Reg. Sess., 1982), c. 1276, s. 5, was made effective on certification of approval of a state constitutional amendment authorizing the enactment of laws dealing with transactions of the type contemplated by the act. Such an amendment was proposed by Session Laws 1981 (Reg. Sess., 1982), c. 1247, was submitted to the people on Nov. 2, 1982, and was defeated. The amendment to this section, therefore, did not go into effect.

Session Laws 1987, c. 585, which in s. 3 amended this section by rewriting subsection (c), in ss. 7 and 8 provides: "The foregoing sections of this act shall be deemed to provide an additional and alternative method for the doing of the things authorized thereby and shall be regarded as supplemental and additional to powers conferred by other laws, and shall not be regarded as in derogation of any powers now existing.

“Nothing in this act shall be construed to impair the obligation of any bond, note or coupon issued under The Local Government Finance Act and outstanding on the effective date of this act.”

Session Laws 1989, c. 756, s. 9 provides: “This act shall be construed liberally to effectuate the legislative intent and the purposes as complete and independent authority for the performance of each and every act and thing authorized by this act, and all powers granted shall be broadly interpreted to effectuate the intent and purposes and not as a limitation of powers.”

Session Laws 2000-69, ss. 4(a)-(c), provide: “Interpretation of Act.”

“(a) Additional Method. This act provides an additional and alternative method for the doing of the things it authorizes and is as supplemental and additional to powers conferred by other laws. Except as otherwise expressly provided, it does not derogate any powers now existing.”

“(b) Statutory References. References in this act to specific sections or Chapters of the General Statutes are intended to be references to those sections or Chapters as they may be amended from time to time by the General Assembly.”

“(c) Liberal Construction. This act, being necessary for the health and welfare of the people of the State, shall be liberally construed to effect its purposes.”

Session Laws 2000-69, s. 4(d) contains a severability clause.

Effect of Amendments. — Session Laws 2000-69, s. 2, effective June 30, 2000, added subdivision (b)(6).

§ 159-124. Date of sale; notice of sale and blank proposal.

The date of sale shall be fixed by the secretary in consultation with the issuing unit. Prior to the sale date, the secretary shall take such steps as are most likely, in his opinion, to give notice of the sale to all potential bidders within or without this State or the United States of America, taking into consideration the size and nature of the issue.

The secretary shall maintain a mailing list for notices of sale and blank proposals, and shall place thereon any person, firm, or corporation so requesting. Failure to send copies of notices and blank proposals to persons, firms, or corporations on the mailing list shall in no way affect the legality of the bonds.

The secretary shall prepare a notice of sale and blank proposal for bids for each bond issue required to be sold by sealed bids. The notice and blank proposal may be combined with such fiscal information as the secretary deems appropriate, and shall contain:

- (1) A statement that the bonds are to be sold upon sealed bids without auction.
- (2) The aggregate principal amount of the issue.
- (3) The time and place of sale, the time within which bids must be received, the place to which bids must be delivered, and the time and place at which bids will be opened, which place or places may be within or without this State or the United States of America.
- (4) Instructions for entering bids.
- (5) Instructions as to the amount of bid deposit required, the form in which it is to be made, and the effect of failure of the bidder to comply with the terms of his bid. (1931, c. 60, s. 17; c. 296, s. 1; 1933, c. 256, s. 1; 1969, c. 943; 1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1987, c. 585, ss. 4, 5.)

Editor’s Note. — Session Laws 1987, c. 585, which in ss. 4 and 5 amended this section, in ss. 7 and 8 provides: “The foregoing sections of this act shall be deemed to provide an additional and alternative method for the doing of the things authorized thereby and shall be regarded as supplemental and additional to powers conferred by other laws, and shall not be regarded as in derogation of any powers now existing.

“Nothing in this act shall be construed to impair the obligation of any bond, note or coupon issued under The Local Government Finance Act and outstanding on the effective date of this act.”

§ 159-125. Bid instructions; bid deposit.

(a) Except for revenue bonds, no bid for less than the ninety-eight percent (98%) of the face value of the bonds plus one hundred percent (100%) of accrued interest may be entertained.

Different rates of interest may be bid for bonds maturing in different years, but different rates of interest may not be bid for bonds maturing in the same year.

(b) Each bid shall be accompanied by a bid deposit equal to two percent (2%) of the aggregate principal amount of the bond issue. The bid deposit shall be made in a form approved by the Commission, and shall secure the issuing unit against loss resulting from the bidder's failure to comply with the terms of his bid. This subsection shall not apply to bids entered by a State or federal agency.

(c) When a State or federal agency has agreed to purchase the bonds at a stated rate of interest unless more favorable bids are received, bids may be entertained from other purchasers for less than all of the bonds. (1931, c. 60, ss. 17, 19; c. 296, s. 1; 1933, c. 258, s. 1; 1969, c. 943; 1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1981 (Reg. Sess., 1982), c. 1276, s. 6; 1987, c. 585, s. 6.)

Editor's Note. — An amendment to subsection (a) of this section by Session Laws 1993, c. 497, s. 9, was made effective upon certification of approval of an amendment to Article V of the Constitution of North Carolina relating to the authority of any county, city or town to borrow money, without the need of voter approval, and issue financing bonds to be used to finance public activities associated with private economic development projects. This amendment was submitted to the people on November 2, 1993 and was defeated. The amendment to subsection (a) of this section, therefore, never took effect.

An earlier amendment to this section in Session Laws 1981 (Reg. Sess., 1982), c. 1276, s. 6, was made effective on certification of approval of a state constitutional amendment authorizing the enactment of laws dealing with transactions of the type contemplated by the act. Such an amendment was proposed by Session Laws 1981 (Reg. Sess., 1982), c. 1247, was submitted to the people on Nov. 2, 1982, and was defeated. The amendment to this section, therefore, did not go into effect.

Session Laws 1987, c. 585, ss. 7 and 8 provide: "The foregoing sections of this act shall be deemed to provide an additional and alternative method for the doing of the things authorized thereby and shall be regarded as supplemental and additional to powers conferred by other laws, and shall not be regarded as in derogation of any powers now existing.

"Nothing in this act shall be construed to impair the obligation of any bond, note or coupon issued under The Local Government Finance Act and outstanding on the effective date of this act."

§ 159-126. Rejection of bids.

No legal bid may be rejected unless all bids are rejected. All bids shall be rejected upon objection to award by an authorized representative of the issuing unit. If bids have been rejected, another notice of sale shall be given and further bids invited. (1931, ch. 60, s. 18; 1935, c. 356, s. 1; 1939, c. 231, s. 3; 1971, c. 780, s. 1.)

§ 159-127. Award of bonds.

All bids received pursuant to a public sale shall be opened in public on a date and at a time and place to be specified in the notice of sale. The bond shall be awarded to the bidder offering to purchase the bonds at the lowest interest cost to the issuing unit. In calculating such interest cost, the amount of any premium bid shall be deducted from the aggregate amount of interest on the entire issue until maturity. (1931, c. 60, s. 18; 1935, c. 356, s. 1; 1939, c. 231, s. 3; 1971, c. 780, s. 1.)

§ 159-128. Makeup and formal execution of bonds; temporary bonds.

The governing board of the issuing unit shall determine the form and manner of execution of the bonds, including any interest coupons to be attached thereto. The board may also provide for the authentication of the bonds by a trustee or fiscal agent. The board may authorize the use of facsimile signatures and seals on the bonds and coupons, if any, but at least one manual signature (which may be the signature of the representative of the Commission to the Commission's certificate) must appear on each bond that is represented by an instrument. Delivery of bonds executed in accordance with the board's determination shall be valid notwithstanding any change in officers or in the seal of the issuing unit occurring after the original execution of the bonds.

Before definitive bonds are prepared, the unit may issue interim receipts or temporary bonds, with or without coupons, exchangeable for definitive bonds when they have been executed and are available for delivery. (1917, c. 138, s. 28; 1919, c. 178, s. 3(28); C.S., s. 2954; 1921, c. 8, s. 1; Ex. Sess. 1921, c. 106, s. 1; 1927, c. 81, s. 35; 1969, c. 29; 1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1983, c. 322, s. 4.)

§ 159-129. Obligations of units certified by Commission.

Each bond or bond anticipation note that is represented by an instrument shall bear on its face or reverse a certificate signed by the secretary of the Commission or an assistant designated by him that the issuance of the bond or note has been approved under the provisions of The Local Government Bond Act of The Local Government Revenue Bond Act. Such signature may be a manual or facsimile signature as the Commission may determine. Each bond or bond anticipation note that is not represented by an instrument shall be evidenced by a writing relating to such obligation, which writing shall identify such obligation or the issue of which it is part, bear such certificate and be on file with the Commission. The certificate shall be conclusive evidence that the requirements of this Subchapter have been observed, and no bond or note without the Commission's certificate or with respect to which a writing bearing such certificate has not been filed with the Commission shall be valid. (1931, c. 60, s. 22; c. 296, s. 2; 1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1973, c. 494, s. 24; 1981 (Reg. Sess., 1982), c. 1276, s. 7; 1983, c. 322, s. 5.)

Editor's Note. — An amendment to this section by Session Laws 1993, c. 497, s. 10, was made effective upon certification of approval of an amendment to Article V of the Constitution of North Carolina relating to the authority of any county, city or town to borrow money, without the need of voter approval, and issue financing bonds to be used to finance public activities associated with private economic development projects. This amendment was submitted to the people on November 2, 1993 and was defeated. The amendment to this section, therefore, never took effect.

An earlier amendment to this section in Session Laws 1981 (Reg. Sess., 1982), c. 1276, s. 7, was made effective on certification of approval of a state constitutional amendment authorizing the enactment of laws dealing with transactions of the type contemplated by the act. Such an amendment was proposed by Session Laws 1981 (Reg. Sess., 1982), c. 1247, was submitted to the people on Nov. 2, 1982, and was defeated. The amendment to this section, therefore, did not go into effect.

CASE NOTES

Year Debt Contracted. — A county board of education's debt to the State Literary Fund was held to have been contracted during the fiscal year following that in which the county debt was reduced in accordance with N.C. Const., Art. V, § 4, even though the certificate of the secretary of the Local Government Commission was not executed within that time, since the certificate of the Local Government Commission was a detail not required by statute to be performed within any time limit, and the county accepted the offer to lend before the expiration of the fiscal year during which the increase in its indebtedness was permissible under the Constitution. Board of Educ. v. State

Bd. of Educ., 217 N.C. 90, 6 S.E.2d 833 (1940), decided under former version of § 159-18.

§ 159-130. Record of issues kept.

The secretary shall make a record of all bonds and notes issued under this Subchapter, showing the name of the issuing unit, the amount, date, the time fixed for payment of principal and interest, the rate of interest, the place at which the principal and interest will be payable, the denominations, the purpose of issuance, the name of the board in which is vested the authority and power to levy taxes or raise other revenues for the payment of the principal and interest thereof, and a reference to the law under which the bonds or notes were issued. The clerk of the issuing unit shall file with the secretary copies of all proceedings of the board in authorizing the bonds or notes, his certificate that they are correctly recorded in a bound book of the minutes and proceedings of the board, and a notation of the pages or other identification of the exact portion of the book in which the records appear. (1931, c. 60, s. 23; 1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1973, c. 494, s. 25.)

§ 159-131. Contract for services to be approved by Commission.

Any contract or agreement made by any unit with any person, firm, or corporation for services to be rendered in drafting forms of proceedings for a proposed bond issue or a proposed issue of notes shall be void unless approved by the Commission. Before giving its certificate to bonds or notes, the Commission shall satisfy itself by such evidence as it may deem sufficient, that no unapproved contract is in effect. This section shall not apply to contracts and agreements with attorneys-at-law licensed to practice before the courts of the State within which they have their residence or regular place of business so long as the contracts or agreements involve only legal services. (1931, c. 60, s. 24; 1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1973, c. 494, s. 26.)

§ 159-132. State Treasurer to deliver bonds and remit proceeds.

When the bonds are executed, they shall be delivered to the State Treasurer who shall deliver them to the order of the purchaser and collect the purchase price or proceeds. The Treasurer shall then pay from the proceeds any notes issued in anticipation of the sale of the bonds, deduct from the proceeds the Commission's expense in connection with the issue, and remit the net proceeds to the official depository of the unit after assurance that the deposit will be adequately secured as required by law. The proceeds of funding or refunding bonds may be deposited at the place of payment of the indebtedness to be refunded or funded for use solely in the payment of such indebtedness. The proceeds of revenue bonds shall be remitted to the trustee or other depository specified in the trust agreement or resolution securing them. (1931, c. 60, s. 25; 1935, c. 356, s. 2; 1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1981 (Reg. Sess., 1982), c. 1276, s. 8.)

Editor's Note. — An amendment to this section by Session Laws 1993, c. 497, s. 11, was made effective upon certification of approval of an amendment to Article V of the Constitution of North Carolina relating to the authority of any county, city or town to borrow money, without the need of voter approval, and issue financing bonds to be used to finance public activities associated with private economic development projects. This amendment was submitted to the people on November 2, 1993 and was defeated. The amendment to this section, therefore, never took effect.

An earlier amendment to this section in Session Laws 1981 (Reg. Sess., 1982), c. 1276, s. 8, was made effective on certification of approval of a state constitutional amendment authorizing the enactment of laws dealing with transactions of the type contemplated by the act.

Such an amendment was proposed by Session Laws 1981 (Reg. Sess., 1982), c. 1247, was submitted to the people on Nov. 2, 1982, and was defeated. The amendment to this section, therefore, did not go into effect.

§ 159-133. Suit to enforce contract of sale.

The Commission may enforce in any court of competent jurisdiction any contract or agreement made by the Commission for the sale of any bonds or notes of a unit. (1931, c. 60, s. 26; 1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1973, c. 494, s. 27.)

§ 159-134. Fiscal agents.

An issuing unit may employ a bank or trust company either within or without this State as fiscal agent for the payment of installments of principal and interest on the bonds, and for the destruction of paid or cancelled bonds and coupons, and may pay reasonable fees for this service not in excess of maximum rates to be fixed by regulation of the Commission. If an issuing unit employs another person as such fiscal agent or any other person for other services pursuant to the Registered Public Obligations Act of North Carolina, then it may pay reasonable fees for such services not in excess of maximum rates to be fixed by regulation of the Commission. (1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1983, c. 322, s. 6.)

§ 159-135. Application of proceeds.

After payment of any notes issued in anticipation of the sale of the bonds and after payment of the cost of preparing, marketing, and issuing the bonds, the proceeds of the sale of a bond issue shall be applied only to the purposes for which the issue was authorized. Any excess amount which for any reason is not needed for any such purpose shall be applied either (i) toward the purchase and retirement of bonds of that issue at not more than their face value and accrued interest, or (ii) toward payment of the earliest maturing installments of that issue, or (iii) in accordance with any trust agreement or resolution securing the bonds. (1917, c. 138, s. 31; 1919, c. 178, s. 3(31); C.S., s. 2957; 1921, c. 8, s. 1; Ex. Sess. 1921, c. 106, s. 1; 1927, c. 81, s. 38; 1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1973, c. 494, s. 28.)

CASE NOTES

Editor's Note. — The cases cited below were decided under former statutory provisions similar to this section.

Law Authorizing Bond Issue Need Not Declare Proportion of Proceeds Applicable to Each Specific Purpose. — A law authorizing a bond issue for various purposes which does not declare what proportion of the proceeds of the bonds shall be applied to each specific purpose is not void. Such matter may properly rest within the sound discretion of the municipal authorities. Coggins v. City of Asheville, 278 N.C. 428, 180 S.E.2d 149 (1971).

"Corporate Purpose." — A definition of corporate purpose cannot be static. Changing conditions require that application of the limitations be tempered with due recognition of the existing situation, so that the purpose for which the public body was organized may be accomplished and enjoyment thereof by the public made possible. Coggins v. City of Asheville, 278 N.C. 428, 180 S.E.2d 149 (1971).

Right to Transfer and Allocate Funds. — Former § 153-107, relating to application of proceeds of county bonds, did not place a limitation upon the legal right to transfer or allocate funds from one project to another included within the general purpose for which the bonds were issued. The inhibition contained in the statute was to prevent funds obtained for one general purpose from being transferred and used for another general purpose. For example, the statute prohibited the use of funds derived from the sale of bonds to erect, repair and equip school buildings from being used to erect or repair a courthouse or a county home or some similar project. Atkins v. McAden, 229 N.C. 752, 51 S.E.2d 484 (1949); Mauldin v. McAden, 234 N.C. 501, 67 S.E.2d 647 (1951).

While the municipality has a limited authority, under certain conditions, to transfer or allocate funds from one project to another included within the general purpose for which bonds are authorized, the transfer must be to a project included in the general purpose as stated in the bond resolution, and the funds may be diverted to the proposed purposes only in the event the municipality finds in good faith that conditions have so changed since the bonds were authorized that proceeds therefrom are no longer needed for the original purpose. Coggins v. City of Asheville, 278 N.C. 428, 180 S.E.2d 149 (1971).

Effect of Including Specifics in Bond Order. — A bond order is not required to set out in detail the estimates of cost and descriptions of the particular projects for which the funds are proposed to be used, and their inclusion does not limit the allocation of the proceeds of the bonds, provided the use of the funds falls within the general purpose designated. Atkins v. McAden, 229 N.C. 752, 51 S.E.2d 484 (1949).

Immaterial or Temporary Changes Consistent with General Purpose Not Unlawful. — While the law will not justify the use of the proceeds of a State or municipal bond issue for purposes other than those specified in the act authorizing the issue, it does not follow that immaterial or temporary changes consistent with the general purpose of the legislative act should be interpreted as unlawful diversions of public funds. Coggins v. City of Asheville, 278 N.C. 428, 180 S.E.2d 149 (1971).

Such changes as are necessary under existing conditions to accomplish the general purpose are not outlawed. Coggins v. City of Asheville, 278 N.C. 428, 180 S.E.2d 149 (1971).

Minor Changes Are Expected If Conditions Change. — Bond ordinances are passed authorizing indebtedness for certain stated purposes. When an authorizing vote is required, the bond money is earmarked for the stated purposes. However, in planning large permanent improvements the governing authorities look ahead to the future fulfillment of the construction plans. The authorities will inspect and examine the work as it progresses, and minor changes from time to time are expected if conditions change and unforeseen developments occur. Coggins v. City of Asheville, 278 N.C. 428, 180 S.E.2d 149 (1971).

Emphasis Is Placed on Final Result to Be Accomplished. — In construing statutory limitations upon the use of bond money for public improvements, emphasis is placed on the final result sought to be accomplished. Coggins v. City of Asheville, 278 N.C. 428, 180 S.E.2d 149 (1971).

Erection of Consolidated School Instead of Remodeling Old School. — Where a bond issue for the remodeling of the old school buildings in a county administrative unit was duly approved by the voters in an election, it was held that the board of county commissioners had the legal authority to allocate funds from this bond issue to the erection of a proposed consolidated high school, since this was not a change which involved any change of purpose for which the bonds were issued, but was only a change in the manner or method of accomplishing the original purpose. Feezor v. Siceloff, 232 N.C. 563, 61 S.E.2d 714 (1950).

With respect to the use of bond money, the court will not interfere with the exercise of discretionary powers of a municipal corporation unless its actions are so unreasonable and arbitrary as to amount to an abuse of discretion. Coggins v. City of Asheville, 278 N.C. 428, 180 S.E.2d 149 (1971).

§ 159-136. Issuing unit to make and report debt service payments.

The finance officer of each unit having outstanding bonds or notes shall remit the funds necessary for the payment of maturing installments of principal and interest on the bonds or notes to the fiscal agent or agreed upon place of payment in sufficient time for the payment thereof, together with the agreed upon fiscal agency fees, and shall at the same time report the payment to the secretary on forms to be provided by the Commission. (1931, c. 60, s. 27; 1971, c. 780, s. 1.)

§ 159-137. Lost, stolen, defaced, or destroyed bonds or notes.

(a) If lost, stolen, or completely destroyed, any bond, note, or coupon may be reissued in the same form and tenor upon the owner's furnishing to the satisfaction of the secretary and the issuing unit: (i) proof of ownership, (ii) proof of loss or destruction, (iii) a surety bond in twice the face amount of the bond or note and coupons, and (iv) payment of the cost of preparing and issuing the new bond, note, or coupons.

(b) If defaced or partially destroyed, any bond, note, or coupon may be reissued in the same form and tenor to the bearer or registered holder, at his expense, upon surrender of the defaced or partially destroyed bond, note, or coupon and on such other conditions as the Commission may prescribe. The Commission may also provide for authentication of defaced or partially destroyed bonds, notes, or coupons instead of reissuing them.

(c) Each new bond, note, or coupon issued under this section shall be signed by the officers of the issuing unit who are in office at the time, or by the State Treasurer if the unit no longer exists, and shall contain a recital to the effect that it is issued in exchange for or replacement of a certain bond, note, or coupon (describing it sufficiently to identify it) and is to be deemed a part of the same issue as the original bond, note, or coupon. (1935, c. 292, ss. 1, 2; 1939, c. 259; 1971, c. 780, s. 1.)

§ 159-138. Cancellation of bonds and notes.

Each bond or note and coupon shall be cancelled when (i) it is paid, or (ii) it is acquired by the issuing unit in any manner other than purchase for investment. A full report of the cancellation of all bonds, notes, and coupons shall be made to the secretary on forms provided by the Commission. (1931, c. 60, s. 27; 1939, c. 356; 1971, c. 780, s. 1.)

§ 159-139. Destruction of cancelled bonds, notes, and coupons.

All cancelled bonds, notes, and interest coupons of a unit may be destroyed in one of the following ways, in the discretion of the governing board:

- (1) Method 1. — The finance officer shall make an entry in a substantially bound book kept by him for the purpose of recording the destruction of bonds, notes, and coupons, showing
  - a. With respect to bonds and notes, the purpose of issuance, the date of issue, serial numbers (if any), denomination, maturity date, and total principal amount.
  - b. With respect to coupons, the purpose of issue and date of the bonds to which the coupons appertain, the maturity date of the coupons and, as to each maturity date, the denomination, quantity, and total amount of coupons.

After this entry has been made, the paid bonds, notes, and coupons shall be destroyed by either burning or shredding, in the presence of the mayor or chairman of the governing board, the finance officer, the unit's attorney, and the clerk to the governing board, or any three of them, each of whom shall certify under his hand in the book kept by the finance officer that he saw the bonds and coupons destroyed. Cancelled bonds, notes, or coupons shall not be destroyed until after one year from the date of payment.

- (2) Method 2. — The governing board may contract with the bank, trust company or other person acting as fiscal agent for a bond issue for the destruction of bonds and interest coupons which have been cancelled by the fiscal agent. The contract shall require that the fiscal agent give the unit a written certificate of each destruction containing the same information required by Method 1 to be entered in the record of destroyed bonds and coupons. The certificates shall be filed among the permanent records of the finance officer's office. Cancelled bonds or coupons shall not be destroyed until one year from the date of payment.

The provisions of G.S. 121-5 and 132-3 shall not apply to paid bonds, notes, and coupons. The information required to be entered in a substantially bound book prior to destruction under either Method 1 or Method 2 may as an alternative, be shown by photocopying, microfilming or other similar method of recording the information by directly reproducing the cancelled documents. (1941, cc. 203, 293; 1961, c. 663, ss. 1, 2; 1963, c. 1173, ss. 1, 2; 1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1973, c. 494, s. 29; 1983, c. 322, ss. 7, 8.)

§ 159-140. Bonds or notes eligible for investment.

Subject to the provisions of G.S. 159-30, bonds or notes issued under the provisions of this Chapter are hereby made securities in which all public officers and public bodies of the State and its political subdivisions and agencies and all insurance companies, trust companies, investment companies, banks, savings banks, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, credit unions, pension or retirement funds, other financial institutions engaged in business in the State, executors, administrators, trustees and other fiduciaries may properly and legally invest funds, including capital in their control or belonging to them. Such bonds or notes are hereby made securities which may properly and legally be deposited with and received by any State or municipal officer or any agency or political subdivision of the State for any purpose for which the deposit of bonds, notes or obligations of the State is now or may hereafter be authorized by law. (1977, c. 403.)

§ 159-141. Terms and conditions of sale.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, any bond of the State may be sold upon such terms and conditions, at such interest rate or rates, for such price and in such manner, either public or private, as the State Treasurer shall determine. (1983, c. 554, s. 18.)

Editor's Note. — For provisions of ss. 21 through 25 of Session Laws 1983, c. 554, s. 18 of which amended this section, see the Editor's Note under § 159-80.

§§ 159-142 through 159-147: Reserved for future codification purposes.

ARTICLE 8.

Financing Agreements and Other Financing Arrangements.

§ 159-148. Contracts subject to Article; exceptions.

(a) Except as provided in subsection (b) of this section, this Article applies to any contract, agreement, memorandum of understanding, and any other transaction having the force and effect of a contract (other than agreements made in connection with the issuance of revenue bonds, special obligation bonds issued pursuant to Chapter 159I of the General Statutes, or of general obligation bonds additionally secured by a pledge of revenues) made or entered into by a unit of local government (as defined by G.S. 159-7(b) or, in the case of a special obligation bond, as defined in Chapter 159I of the General Statutes), relating to the lease, acquisition, or construction of capital assets, which contract does all of the following:

- (1) Extends for five or more years from the date of the contract, including periods that may be added to the original term through the exercise of options to renew or extend.
- (2) Obligates the unit to pay sums of money to another, without regard to whether the payee is a party to the contract.
- (3) Obligates the unit over the full term of the contract, including periods that may be added to the original term through the exercise of options to renew or extend:
  - a. For baseball park districts, to at least five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000).
  - b. For housing authorities, to at least five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) or a sum equal to two thousand dollars ($2,000) per housing unit owned and under active management by the housing authority, whichever is less.
  - c. For other units, to at least five hundred thousand dollars (\$500,000) or a sum equal to one-tenth of one percent ( $\frac{1}{10}$  of 1%) of the assessed value of property subject to taxation by the contracting unit, whichever is less.
- (4) Obligates the unit, expressly or by implication, to exercise its power to levy taxes either to make payments falling due under the contract, or to pay any judgment entered against the unit as a result of the unit's breach of the contract.

Contingent obligation shall be included in calculating the value of the contract. Several contracts that are all related to the same undertaking shall be deemed a single contract for the purposes of this Article. When several contracts are considered as a single contract, the term shall be that of the contract having the longest term, and the sums to fall due shall be the total of all sums to fall due under all single contracts in the group.

(b) This Article shall not apply to:

- (1) Contracts between a unit of local government and the State of North Carolina or the United States of America (or any agency of either) entered into as a condition to the making of grants or loans to the unit of local government.
- (2) Contracts for the purchase, lease, or lease with option to purchase of motor vehicles or voting machines.
- (3) Loan agreements entered into by a unit of local government pursuant to the North Carolina Solid Waste Management Loan Program, Chapter 159I of the General Statutes. (1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1973, c. 494, s. 31; 1989, c. 756, s. 6; 1991, c. 11, s. 4; 1997-380, s. 4; 1998-222, s. 1; 2001-206, s. 2; 2001-414, s. 52.)

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1989, c. 756, s. 9 provides: "This act shall be construed liberally to effectuate the legislative intent and the purposes as complete and independent authority for the performance of each and every act and thing authorized by this act, and all powers granted shall be broadly interpreted to effectuate the intent and purposes and not as a limitation of powers."

Effect of Amendments. — Session Laws

2001-206, s. 2, effective June 15, 2001, in subsection (a), added "does all of the following" at the end of the introductory language, deleted "and" at the end of subdivisions (a)(1) and (a)(2), rewrote subdivision (a)(3), and made minor punctuation changes.

Session Laws 2001-414, s. 52, effective September 14, 2001, repealed Session Laws 1997-380, which had amended subdivision (a)(3) of this section.

Legal Periodicals. — For symposium on municipal finance, see 1976 Duke L.J. 1051.

§ 159-149. Application to Local Government Commission for approval of contract.

A unit of local government may not enter into any contract subject to this Article unless it is approved by the Local Government Commission as evidenced by the secretary's certificate thereon. Any contract subject to this Article that does not bear the secretary's certificate thereon shall be void, and it shall be unlawful for any officer, employee, or agent of a unit of local government to make any payments of money thereunder. Before executing a contract subject to this Article, the governing board of the contracting unit shall file an application for Commission approval of the contract with the secretary of the Commission. The application shall state such facts and have attached to it such documents concerning the proposed contract and the financial condition of the contracting unit as the secretary may require. The Commission may prescribe the form of the application.

Before he accepts the application, the secretary may require the governing board or its representatives to attend a preliminary conference at which time the secretary and his deputies may informally discuss the proposed contract.

After an application in proper form and order has been filed, and after a preliminary conference if one is required, the secretary shall notify the unit in writing that the application has been filed and accepted for submission to the Commission. The secretary's statement shall be conclusive evidence that the unit has complied with this section. (1971, c. 780, s. 1.)

§ 159-150. Sworn statement of debt; debt limitation.

After or at the time an application is filed under G.S. 159-149, the finance officer, or some other officer designated by the board, shall prepare, swear to, and file with the secretary and for public inspection in the office of the clerk to the board a statement of debt in the same form prescribed in G.S. 159-55 for statements of debt filed in connection with general obligation bond issues. The sums to be included in gross debt and the deductions therefrom to arrive at net debt shall be the same as prescribed in G.S. 159-55, except that sums to fall due under contracts subject to this Article shall be treated as if they were evidenced by general obligation bonds of the unit.

No contract subject to this Article may be executed if the net debt of the contracting unit, after execution of the contract, would exceed eight percent (8%) of the assessed value of property subject to taxation by the contracting unit. (1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1991, c. 11, s. 5.)

§ 159-151. Approval of application by Commission.

(a) In determining whether a proposed contract shall be approved, the Commission may consider:

- (1) Whether the undertaking is necessary or expedient.
- (2) The nature and amount of the outstanding debt of the contracting unit.
- (3) The unit's debt management procedures and policies.
- (4) The unit's tax and special assessments collection record.
- (5) The unit's compliance with the Local Government Budget and Fiscal Control Act.
- (6) Whether the unit is in default in any of its debt service obligations.
- (7) The unit's present tax rates, and the increase in tax rate, if any, necessary to raise the sums to fall due under the proposed contract.

- (8) The unit's appraised and assessed value of property subject to taxation.
- (9) The ability of the unit to sustain the additional taxes necessary to perform the contract.
- (10) If the proposed contract is for utility or public service enterprise, the probable net revenues of the undertaking to be financed and the extent to which the revenues of the utility or enterprise, after addition of the revenues of the undertaking to be financed, will be sufficient to meet the sums to fall due under the proposed contract.
- (11) Whether the undertaking could be financed by a bond issue, and the reasons and justifications offered by the contracting unit for choosing this method of financing rather than a bond issue.

The Commission shall have authority to inquire into and to give consideration to any other matters that it may believe to have bearing on whether the contract should be approved.

(b) The Commission shall approve the application if, upon the information and evidence it receives, it finds and determines:

- (1) That the proposed contract is necessary or expedient.
- (2) That the contract, under the circumstances, is preferable to a bond issue for the same purpose.
- (3) That the sums to fall due under the contract are adequate and not excessive for its proposed purpose.
- (4) That the unit's debt management procedures and policies are good, or that reasonable assurances have been given that its debt will henceforth be managed in strict compliance with law.
- (5) That the increase in taxes, if any, necessary to meet the sums to fall due under the contract will not be excessive.
- (6) That the unit is not in default in any of its debt service obligations.

The Commission need not find all of these facts and conclusions if it concludes that (i) the proposed project is necessary and expedient, (ii) the proposed undertaking cannot be economically financed by a bond issue and (iii) the contract will not require an excessive increase in taxes.

If the Commission tentatively decides to deny the application because it cannot be supported from the information presented to it, it shall so notify the unit filing the information. If the unit so requests, the Commission shall hold a public hearing on the application at which time any interested persons shall be heard. The Commission may appoint a hearing officer to conduct the hearing and to present a summary of the testimony and his recommendation for the Commission's consideration. (1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1973, c. 494, s. 32.)

CASE NOTES

Applied in Wayne County Citizens v. Wayne County Bd. of Comm'rs, 328 N.C. 24, 399 S.E.2d 311 (1991).

§ 159-152. Order approving or denying the application.

(a) After considering an application, and conducting a public hearing thereon if one is requested under G.S. 159-151, the Commission shall enter its order either approving or denying the application. An order approving an application shall not be regarded as an approval of the legality of the contract in any respect.

(b) If the Commission enters an order denying an application, the proceedings under this Article shall be at an end. (1971, c. 780, s. 1.)

§ 159-153. Approval of other financing arrangements.

(a) Commission Approval Required. — Except as provided in subsection (b) of this section, approval by the Commission in accordance with this section is required before a unit of local government, or any public body, agency, or similar entity created by any action of a unit of local government, may do any of the following:

- (1) Incur indebtedness.
- (2) Enter into any similar type of financing arrangement.
- (3) Approve or otherwise participate in the incurrence of indebtedness or the entering into of a similar type of financing arrangement by another party on its behalf.

(a1) Commission Approval Required for Nonprofit Water Corporation Loans From the Clean Water Revolving Loan and Trust Fund. — In addition to the requirements of Chapter 159G of the General Statutes, approval by the Commission in accordance with this section is required before a nonprofit water corporation may be eligible to receive a revolving loan or grant under Chapter 159G of the General Statutes.

(b) Exceptions. — Approval by the Commission in accordance with this section is not required in any of the following cases:

- (1) Another law of this State already specifically requires Commission approval of the indebtedness or financing arrangement and the required approval is obtained in accordance with that law.
- (2) The indebtedness or financing arrangement is a contract entered into by a unit of local government pursuant to G.S. 160A-20 and is not subject to review by the Commission pursuant to G.S. 160A-20(e).
- (3) The indebtedness or financing arrangement is excepted from the review requirements of this Article because it does not meet the conditions of G.S. 159-148(a)(1) or (3) or because it is excluded pursuant to G.S. 159-148(b).

(c) Effect of Special Act. — No special, local, or private act shall be construed to create an exception from the review of the Commission required by this section unless the act explicitly excludes the review and approval of the Commission.

(d) Factors Considered. — The Commission may consider all of the following factors in determining whether to approve the incurrence of, entering into, approval of, or participation in any indebtedness or financing arrangement subject to approval pursuant to this section:

- (1) Whether the undertaking is necessary or expedient.
- (2) The nature and amount of the outstanding debt of the entity proposing to incur the indebtedness or enter the financing arrangement.
- (3) Whether the entity proposing to operate the facilities financed by the indebtedness or financing arrangement and the entity obligating itself under the indebtedness or financing arrangement have demonstrated or can demonstrate the financial responsibility and capability to fulfill their obligations with respect to the indebtedness or financing arrangement. In making this determination, the Commission may consider the operating entity's experience and financial position, the nature of the undertaking being financed, and any additional security such as insurance, guaranties, or property to be pledged to secure the indebtedness or financing arrangement.
- (4) Whether the proposed date and manner of sale of obligations will have an adverse effect upon any scheduled or anticipated sale of obligations by the State or any political subdivision or by any agency of either of them.
- (5) The local government unit's debt management procedures and policies.

- (6) The local government unit's compliance with the Local Government Budget and Fiscal Control Act.
- (7) Whether the local government unit is in default in any of its debt service obligations.

(e) Documentation. — To facilitate the review of the proposed indebtedness or financing arrangement by the Commission, the Secretary may require the unit or other entity to obtain and submit any financial data and information about the proposed indebtedness or financing arrangement and security for it, including any proposed prospectus or offering circular, the proposed financing arrangement and security document, and annual and other financial reports and statements of the obligated entity. Applications and other documents required by the Commission must be in the form prescribed by the Commission.

(f) Conditions for Approval. — If the Commission determines that all of the following conditions are met, the Commission shall approve the incurrence of the indebtedness, entering of the financing arrangement, or approval or other participation in the indebtedness or financing arrangement, by the unit of local government or the other entity referred to in subsection (a) of this section:

- (1) The amount of the indebtedness to be incurred or financed is not excessive for the purpose contemplated.
- (2) The entity that will operate the facilities financed by the indebtedness or financing arrangement and the entity obligating itself under the indebtedness or financing arrangement have demonstrated or can demonstrate the financial responsibility and capability to fulfill their obligations with respect to the indebtedness or financing arrangement.
- (3) The proposed date and manner of sale of obligations will not have an adverse effect upon any scheduled or anticipated sale of obligations by the State or any political subdivision or any agency of either of them. (1998-222, s. 2; 1999-213, s. 11.)

ARTICLE 9.

Bond Anticipation, Tax, Revenue and Grant Anticipation Notes.

Part 1. Bond Anticipation Notes.

§ 159-160. Definitions.

As used in this Part, the words “unit” or “issuing unit” means “unit of local government” as defined in G.S. 159-44, “municipality” as defined in G.S. 159-81, and the State of North Carolina. (1973, c. 494, s. 36; 1981 (Reg. Sess., 1982), c. 1276, s. 9; 1983, c. 554, s. 19.)

Editor's Note. — An amendment to this section by Session Laws 1993, c. 497, s. 12, was made effective upon certification of approval of an amendment to Article V of the Constitution of North Carolina relating to the authority of any county, city or town to borrow money, without the need of voter approval, and issue financing bonds to be used to finance public activities associated with private economic development projects. This amendment was submitted to the people on November 2, 1993 and was defeated. The amendment to this section, therefore, never took effect.

An earlier amendment to this section in Session Laws 1981 (Reg. Sess., 1982), c. 1276, s. 9, was made effective on certification of approval of a state constitutional amendment authorizing the enactment of laws dealing with transactions of the type contemplated by the act. Such an amendment was proposed by Session Laws 1981 (Reg. Sess., 1982), c. 1247, was submitted to the people on Nov. 2, 1982, and was defeated. The amendment to this section, therefore, did not go into effect.

For provisions of ss. 21 through 25 of Session Laws 1983, c. 554, s. 19 of which amended this section, see the Editor's Note under § 159-80.

Legal Periodicals. — For symposium on municipal finance, see 1976 Duke L.J. 1051.

§ 159-161. Bond anticipation notes.

At any time after a bond order has taken effect and with the approval of the Commission, the issuing unit may borrow money for the purposes for which the bonds are to be issued, in anticipation of the receipt of the proceeds of the sale of the bonds, and within the maximum authorized amount of the bond issue. General obligation bond anticipation notes shall be payable not later than seven years after the time the bond order takes effect and shall not be renewed or extended beyond such time, except that, if the issuance of bonds under the bond order is extended by an order of the board of the issuing unit which takes effect pursuant to G.S. 159-64, the bond anticipation notes may be renewed and extended and shall be payable not later than 10 years after the time the bond order takes effect and that, if the issuance of bonds under the bond order is prevented or prohibited by any order of any court, the bond anticipation notes may be renewed or extended by the length of time elapsing between the date of institution of the action or proceeding and the date of its final disposition. Any extension of the time for issuing bonds under a bond order granted by act of the General Assembly pursuant to G.S. 159-64 shall also extend the time for issuing and paying notes under this section for the same period of time. (1917, c. 138, ss. 13, 14; 1919, c. 178, s. 3(13), (14); C.S., ss. 2934, 2935; 1921, c. 8, s. 1; Ex. Sess. 1921, c. 106, s. 1; 1927, c. 81, s. 39; 1931, c. 293; 1939, c. 231, s. 1; 1953, c. 693, ss. 2, 4; 1969, c. 687, s. 3; 1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1973, c. 494, s. 33; 1977, c. 404, s. 1; 1979, c. 444, s. 2.)

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1977, c. 404, which substituted "seven years" for "five years" near the beginning of the second sentence, provided in s. 2: "The provisions of this act shall apply to general obligation bond anticipation notes authorized by bond orders in effect on the date of this act or which shall take effect hereafter." The act was ratified May 18, 1977, and made effective on ratification.

CASE NOTES

No valid bond anticipation note may be issued unless authority exists for the issuance of bonds to provide funds to pay the note. Barbour v. Carteret County, 255 N.C. 177, 120 S.E.2d 448 (1961), decided under former § 153-108.

§ 159-162. Security of general obligation bond anticipation notes.

The faith and credit of the issuing unit are hereby pledged for the payment of each note issued in anticipation of the sale of general obligation bonds according to its terms, and the power and obligation of the issuing unit to levy taxes and raise other revenues for the prompt payment of such notes shall be unrestricted as to rate or amount, notwithstanding any other provisions of law. The proceeds of each general obligation bond issue are also hereby pledged for the payment of any notes issued in anticipation of the sale thereof, and any such notes shall be retired from the proceeds of the bonds as the first priority. In the discretion of the governing board, notes issued in anticipation of the sale of general obligation bonds may be paid from current revenues or other funds instead of from the bond proceeds, but if this is done, the bond order shall be amended to reduce the aggregate authorized principal amount by the amount of the bond anticipation notes and accrued interest thereon. Such an amendment need not be published and shall take effect upon its passage. (1971, c. 780, s. 1.)

§ 159-163. Security of revenue bond anticipation notes.

Notes issued in anticipation of the sale of revenue bonds are hereby declared special obligations of the issuing unit. Neither the credit nor the taxing power of the issuing unit may be pledged for the payment of notes issued in anticipation of the sale of revenue bonds, and no holder of a revenue bond anticipation note shall have the right to compel the exercise of the taxing power by the issuing unit or the forfeiture of any of its property in connection with any default thereon. Notes issued in anticipation of the sale of revenue bonds shall be secured, to the extent and as provided in the resolution authorizing the issuance of such notes, by a pledge, charge, and lien upon the proceeds of the revenue bonds in anticipation of the sale of which such notes are issued and upon the revenues securing such revenue bonds; provided, however, that such notes shall be payable as to both principal and interest from such revenues if not paid from the proceeds of such revenue bonds or otherwise paid. The provisions of G.S. 159-90(b) shall apply to revenue bond anticipation notes as well as to revenue bonds. (1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1979, c. 428; 1985, c. 265, s. 2.)

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1985, c. 265, ss. 3 to 5 provide:

“Sec. 3. The foregoing sections of this act shall be deemed to provide an additional and alternative method for the doing of the things authorized thereby and shall be regarded as supplemental and additional to powers conferred by other laws, and shall not be regarded as in derogation of any powers now existing.

“Sec. 4. Nothing in this act shall be construed to impair the obligation of any bond, note or coupon outstanding on the effective date of this act.

“Sec. 5. If any provision of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of this act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this act are declared to be severable.”

§ 159-163.1: Not in effect.

Editor's Note. — A § 159-163.1 was enacted by Session Laws 1993, c. 497, s. 13, but was made effective upon certification of approval of an amendment to Article V of the Constitution of North Carolina relating to the authority of any county, city or town to borrow money, without the need of voter approval, and issue financing bonds to be used to finance public activities associated with private economic development projects. This amendment was submitted to the people on November 2, 1993 and was defeated. The section, therefore, never took effect.

An earlier § 159-163.1 was enacted by Session Laws 1981 (Reg. Sess., 1982), c. 1276, s. 10, but was made effective on certification of approval of an amendment to the state Constitution authorizing the enactment of general laws dealing with transactions of the type contemplated by the act. Such an amendment was proposed by Session Laws 1981 (Reg. Sess., 1982), c. 1247, was submitted to the people on Nov. 2, 1982, and was defeated. The section therefore never took effect.

§ 159-164. Form of notes to be issued.

Bond anticipation loans shall be evidenced by negotiable notes in bearer form or by certificated or uncertificated registered public obligations pursuant to the Registered Public Obligations Act. Such notes and certificated registered public obligations are hereby declared to be investment securities within the meaning of Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code as enacted in this State. Bond anticipation notes may be renewed or extended from time to time, but not beyond the time period allowed in G.S. 159-161. The governing board may authorize the issuance of bond anticipation notes by resolution which shall fix the maximum aggregate principal amount of the notes and may authorize any officer to fix, within the limitations prescribed by the resolution, the rate of interest, the place or places of payment, and the denomination or denominations of the notes. The notes shall be signed with the manual or facsimile signatures of officers designated by the governing board for that purpose, but at least one manual signature must appear on each note (which may be the signature of the representative of the Commission to the Commission's certificate). The resolution shall specify the form and manner of execution of the notes. (1917, c. 138, ss. 13, 14; 1919, c. 178, s. 3(13), (14); C.S., ss. 2934, 2935; 1921, c. 8, s. 1; Ex. Sess. 1921, c. 106, s. 1; 1927, c. 81, s. 39; 1931, c. 293; 1939, c. 231, s. 1; 1953, c. 693, ss. 2, 4; 1969, c. 687, s. 3; 1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1973, c. 494, s. 34; 1983, c. 322, s. 9.)

§ 159-165. Sale and delivery of bond anticipation notes.

(a) Bond anticipation notes of a municipality, including special obligation bond anticipation notes issued pursuant to Chapter 159I of the General Statutes, shall be sold by the Commission at public or private sale according to such procedures as the Commission may prescribe. Bond anticipation notes of the State shall be sold by the State Treasurer at public or private sale, upon such terms and conditions, and according to such procedures as the State Treasurer may prescribe.

(b) When the bond anticipation notes are executed, they shall be delivered to the State Treasurer who shall deliver them to the order of the purchaser and collect the purchase price or proceeds. The Treasurer shall then deduct from the proceeds the Commission's expense in connection with the issue, and remit the net proceeds to the official depository of the unit after assurance that the deposit will be adequately secured as required by law. The net proceeds of revenue bond anticipation notes or special obligation bond anticipation notes shall be remitted to the trustee or other depository specified in the trust agreement or resolution securing them. If the notes have been issued to renew outstanding notes, the Treasurer, in lieu of collecting the purchase price or proceeds, may provide for the exchange of the newly issued notes for the notes to be renewed. (1917, c. 138, s. 14; 1919, c. 178, s. 3(14); C.S., s. 2935; 1921, c. 8, s. 1; Ex. Sess. 1921, c. 106, s. 1; 1927, c. 81, s. 39; 1931, c. 293; 1939, c. 231, s. 1; 1953, c. 693, s. 2; 1969, c. 687, s. 3; 1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1973, c. 494, s. 35; 1983, c. 554, s. 20; 1989, c. 756, s. 7.)

Editor's Note. — An amendment to subsection (b) of this section by Session Laws 1993, c. 497, s. 14, was made effective upon certification of approval of an amendment to Article V of the Constitution of North Carolina relating to the authority of any county, city or town to borrow money, without the need of voter approval, and issue financing bonds to be used to finance public activities associated with private economic development projects. This amendment was submitted to the people on November 2, 1993 and was defeated. The amendment to subsection (b) of this section, therefore, never took effect.

An earlier amendment to this section in Session Laws 1981 (Reg. Sess., 1982), c. 1276, s. 11, was made effective on certification of approval of a state constitutional amendment authorizing the enactment of laws dealing with transactions of the type contemplated by the act.

Such an amendment was proposed by Session Laws 1981 (Reg. Sess., 1982), c. 1247, was submitted to the people on Nov. 2, 1982, and was defeated. The amendment to this section, therefore, did not go into effect.

For provisions of ss. 21 through 25 of Session Laws 1983, c. 554, which amended this section, see the Editor's Note under § 159-80.

Session Laws 1989, c. 756, s. 9 provides:

"This act shall be construed liberally to effectuate the legislative intent and the purposes as complete and independent authority for the performance of each and every act and thing authorized by this act, and all powers granted shall be broadly interpreted to effectuate the intent and purposes and not as a limitation of powers."

§§ 159-166, 159-167: Reserved for future codification purposes.

Part 2. Tax, Revenue and Grant Anticipation Notes.

§ 159-168. "Unit" defined.

For purposes of this Part, "unit," "unit of local government," or "issuing unit" mean a "unit of local government" as defined by G.S. 159-7(b) and a "public authority" as defined by G.S. 159-7(b). (1973, c. 494, s. 40; 1975, c. 674, s. 2.)

Legal Periodicals. — For symposium on municipal finance, see 1976 Duke L.J. 1051.

§ 159-169. Tax anticipation notes.

(a) A unit of local government having the power to levy taxes is authorized to borrow money for the purpose of paying appropriations made for the current fiscal year in anticipation of the collection of taxes due and payable within the fiscal year, and to issue its negotiable notes in evidence thereof. A tax anticipation note shall mature not later than 30 days after the close of the fiscal year in which it is issued, and may not be renewed beyond that time.

(b) No tax anticipation loan shall be made if the amount thereof, together with the amount of tax anticipation notes authorized or outstanding on the date the loan is authorized, would exceed fifty percent (50%) of the amount of taxes uncollected as of the date of the proposed loan authorization, as certified in writing to the governing board by the chief financial officer of the issuing unit. Each tax anticipation note shall bear on its face or reverse the following certificate signed by the finance officer: "This note and all other tax anticipation notes of (issuing unit) authorized or outstanding as of (date) amount to fifty percent (50%) or less of the amount of taxes for the current fiscal year uncollected as of the above date." No tax anticipation note shall be valid without this certificate.

(c) The faith and credit of the issuing unit are hereby pledged for the payment of each tax anticipation note issued under this section according to its terms, and the power and obligation of the issuing unit to levy taxes and raise other revenues for the prompt payment of such notes shall be unrestricted as to rate or amount, notwithstanding any other provisions of law. (1917, c. 138, s. 12; 1919, c. 178, s. 3(12); 1921, c. 8, s. 1; Ex. Sess. 1921, c. 106, s. 1; 1927, c. 81, s. 4; 1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1973, c. 494, s. 37.)

Cross References. — As to limitations upon the increase of public debt, see N.C. Const., Art. V, § 4.

CASE NOTES

City May Anticipate Collection of Taxes. — Where the levy of taxes had been approved by the qualified voters of a city, the city, under former § 160-374, had the authority to borrow money to pay judgments in anticipation of the collection of taxes validly levied for that purpose. Hammond v. City of Charlotte, 206 N.C. 604, 175 S.E. 148 (1934).

§ 159-170. Revenue anticipation notes.

(a) Authorization; Term. — A unit of local government or a nonprofit corporation or association operating or leasing a public hospital as defined in G.S. 159-39, is authorized to borrow money for the purpose of paying appropriations made or expenses budgeted or incurred for the current fiscal year in anticipation of the receipt of revenues, other than taxes, estimated in its budget to be realized or collected in cash during the fiscal year, and to issue its negotiable notes in evidence thereof. A nonprofit corporation or association operating or leasing a public hospital may only borrow money pursuant to this section if it is legally entitled to collect and pledge such revenues to the payment of the notes as provided in this section. A revenue anticipation note shall mature not later than 30 days after the close of the fiscal year in which it is issued, and may not be renewed beyond that time.

(b) Limit on Amount; Disclosure. — No revenue anticipation loan shall be made if the amount thereof, together with the amount of all revenue anticipation notes authorized or outstanding on the date the loan is authorized, would exceed eighty percent (80%) of the revenues of the issuing unit or the nonprofit corporation or association operating or leasing a public hospital, other than taxes, estimated in its budget to be realized or collected in cash during the fiscal year. Each revenue anticipation note shall bear on its face a statement to the effect that it is payable solely from budgeted nontax revenues of the issuing unit or the nonprofit corporation or association operating or leasing a public hospital and that the faith and credit of the issuing unit or, in the case of revenue anticipation notes issued by a nonprofit corporation or association operating or leasing a public hospital, the local government unit that owns the public hospital are not pledged for the payment of the note. Each note shall also bear on its face or reverse the following certificate signed by the finance officer: "This note and all other revenue anticipation notes of (issuer) authorized or outstanding as of (date) amount to eighty percent (80%) or less of the budgeted nontax revenues for the current fiscal year as of the above date." No revenue anticipation note shall be valid without this certificate.

(c) Faith and Credit Not Pledged. — Revenue anticipation notes issued under this section shall be special obligations of the issuing unit or the nonprofit corporation or association operating or leasing a public hospital. Neither the credit nor the taxing power of the issuing unit or, in the case of revenue anticipation notes issued by a nonprofit corporation or association operating or leasing a public hospital, the local government unit that owns the public hospital may be pledged for the payment of revenue anticipation notes. No holder of a revenue anticipation note shall have the right to compel the exercise of the taxing power by the issuing unit or, in the case of revenue anticipation notes issued by a nonprofit corporation or association operating or leasing a public hospital, the local government unit that owns the public hospital or the forfeiture of any of its property in connection with any default thereon.

(d) Any revenue anticipation notes issued by a nonprofit corporation or association operating or leasing a public hospital pursuant to this section are subject to the approval of the city, county, hospital district, or hospital authority which owns the hospital. Approval of the city, county, hospital district, or hospital authority may be withheld only under one or more of the following circumstances:

- (1) The contract would cause the city, county, hospital district, or hospital authority to breach or violate any covenant in an existing financing instrument entered into by such entity.
- (2) The contract would restrict the ability of the city, county, hospital district, or hospital authority to incur anticipated bank eligible indebtedness under federal tax laws.
- (3) The entering into of the contract would have a material adverse impact on the credit ratings of the city, county, hospital district, or hospital authority or otherwise materially interfere with an anticipated financing by such entity. (1917, c. 138, s. 12; 1919, c. 178, s. 3(12); 1921, c. 8, s. 1; Ex. Sess. 1921, c. 106, s. 1; 1927, c. 81, s. 4; 1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1973, c. 494, s. 38; 1999-386, s. 3.)

§ 159-171. Grant anticipation notes.

(a) A unit of local government is authorized to borrow money for the purpose of paying appropriations made for a capital project in anticipation of the receipt of moneys from grant commitments for such capital project from the State or the United States or any agencies of either, and to issue its negotiable notes in evidence thereof. Grant anticipation notes shall mature not later than 12 months after the estimated completion date of such capital project as determined by the governing body of the unit of local government and may be renewed from time to time, but no renewal shall mature later than 12 months after the estimated completion date of such capital project.

(b) No grant anticipation note may be issued if the amount thereof, together with the amount of all other notes authorized or issued in anticipation of the same grant commitment, shall exceed ninety percent (90%) of the unpaid amount of said grant commitment. Each note shall bear on its face a statement to the effect that it is payable solely from moneys received from a described grant and that the faith and credit of the issuing unit are not pledged for the payment thereof, and on its face or reverse the following certificate signed by the finance officer: "This note and all other grant anticipation notes of (issuing unit) authorized or outstanding as of (date) and issued or to be issued in anticipation of (describe grant commitment) amount to ninety percent (90%) or less of the unpaid amount of said grant commitment." No grant anticipation note shall be valid without this certificate.

(c) Grant anticipation notes issued under this section shall be special obligations of the issuing unit. Neither the credit nor the taxing power of the issuing unit may be pledged for the payment of grant anticipation notes, and no holder of such notes shall have the right to compel the exercise of the taxing power by the issuing unit or the forfeiture of any of its property in connection with any default thereon. (1975, c. 674, s. 1.)

§ 159-172. Authorization and issuance of notes.

(a) Notes issued under this Part shall be authorized by resolution of the governing board of the issuing unit. The resolution shall fix the maximum aggregate principal amount of notes to be issued thereunder, and may authorize any officer to fix, within the limitations prescribed by the resolution, the rate of interest, the place or places of payment, and the denomination or denominations of the notes. Notes that are represented by instruments shall be signed with the manual or facsimile signatures of the officers designated by the government board for that purpose, but at least one manual signature (which may be the signature of the representative of the Commission to the Commission's certificate) must appear on each note that is represented by an instrument. Several notes may be issued under one authorization so long as the aggregate principal amount of notes outstanding at any one time does not exceed the limits of the authorization.

(b) Before any notes may be issued pursuant to this Part, they must be approved by the Commission. In determining whether to approve the issuance of notes, the Commission may consider (i) the reasonableness of the budget estimates of the taxes or other revenues in anticipation of which the tax or revenue anticipation notes are to be issued, (ii) the firm and binding character of the grant commitment in anticipation of which the grant anticipation notes are to be issued, (iii) whether the amount of the notes, together with the amount of other authorized or outstanding notes issued or to be issued in anticipation of the same taxes or other revenues or grant commitments, exceeds the limitations prescribed in G.S. 159-169, 159-170 or 159-171 as the case may be, and (iv) any other matters that the Commission considers to have a bearing on whether the issue should be approved. The Commission shall approve the issuance of the notes if, upon the information and evidence it receives, it finds and determines that (i) the issue is necessary and expedient, (ii) the budget estimates of the taxes or other revenues are reasonable or the grant commitment is firm and binding, and (iii) the amount of the notes, together with the amounts of other authorized or outstanding notes issued or to be issued in anticipation of the same taxes or other revenues or grant commitments do not exceed the appropriate limitations prescribed by this Part. An order approving an issue shall not be regarded as an approval of the legality of the notes in any respect.

(c) Notes issued under this Part shall be sold by the Commission at public or private sale according to such procedures as the Commission may prescribe. Each such note that is represented by an instrument shall bear on its face or reverse a certificate signed by the secretary of the Commission or an assistant designated by him that the issuance of the note has been approved under the provisions of The Local Government Finance Act. Such signature may be a manual or facsimile signature as the Commission may determine. Each note that is not represented by an instrument shall be evidenced by a writing relating to such note, which writing shall identify such note or the issue of which it is a part, bear such certificate and be on file with the Commission. The certificate shall be conclusive evidence that the requirements of this Part have been observed, and no note without the Commission's certificate or with respect to which a writing bearing such certificate has not been filed with the Commission shall be valid.

(d) When the notes are executed, they shall be delivered to the State Treasurer who shall deliver them to the order of the purchaser and collect the purchase price or proceeds. The Treasurer shall also collect from their purchaser the purchase price or proceeds of notes that are not represented by instruments. The Treasurer shall then deduct from the proceeds the Commission's expense in connection with the issue, and remit the net proceeds to the official depository of the unit after assurance that the deposit will be adequately secured as required by law. If the notes have been issued to renew outstanding notes, the Treasurer, in lieu of collecting the purchase price or proceeds, may provide for the exchange of the newly issued notes for the notes to be renewed. ## ARTICLE 10.

Assistance for Defaulting Units in Refinancing Debt.

§ 159-176. Commission to aid defaulting units in developing refinancing plans.

If a unit of local government or municipality (as defined in G.S. 159-44 or 159-81) fails to pay any installment of principal or interest on its outstanding debt on or before the due date (whether the debt is evidenced by general obligation bonds, revenue bonds, bond anticipation notes, tax anticipation notes, or revenue anticipation notes) and remains in default for 90 days, the Commission may take such action as it deems advisable to investigate the unit's or municipality's fiscal affairs, consult with its governing board, and negotiate with its creditors in order to assist the unit or municipality in working out a plan for refinancing, adjusting, or compromising the debt. When a plan is developed that the Commission finds to be fair and equitable and reasonably within the ability of the unit or municipality to meet, the Commission shall enter an order finding that it is fair, equitable, and within the ability of the unit or municipality to meet. The Commission shall then advise the governing board to take the necessary steps to implement it. If the governing board declines or refuses to do so within 90 days after receiving the Commission's advice, the Commission may enter an order directing the governing board to implement the plan. When this order is entered, the members of the governing board and all officers and employees of the unit or municipality shall be under an affirmative duty to do all things necessary to implement the plan. The Commission may apply to the appropriate division of the General Court of Justice for a court order to the governing board and other officers and employees of the unit or municipality to enforce the Commission's order. (1935, c. 124, ss. 1, 2; 1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1973, c. 494, s. 41; 1981 (Reg. Sess., 1982), c. 1276, s. 12.)

Cross References. — For statute authorizing local units of the State to avail themselves of the Federal Bankruptcy Act, see § 23-48.

Editor's Note. — An amendment to this section by Session Laws 1993, c. 497, s. 15, was made effective upon certification of approval of an amendment to Article V of the Constitution of North Carolina relating to the authority of any county, city or town to borrow money, without the need of voter approval, and issue financing bonds to be used to finance public activities associated with private economic development projects. This amendment was submitted to the people on November 2, 1993 and was defeated. The amendment to this section, therefore, never took effect.

An earlier amendment to this section in Session Laws 1981 (Reg. Sess., 1982), c. 1276, s. 12, was made effective on certification of approval of a state constitutional amendment authorizing the enactment of laws dealing with transactions of the type contemplated by the act. Such an amendment was proposed by Session Laws 1981 (Reg. Sess., 1982), c. 1247, was submitted to the people on Nov. 2, 1982, and was defeated. The amendment to this section, therefore, did not go into effect.

§ 159-177. Power to require reports and approve budgets.

When a refinancing plan has been put into effect pursuant to G.S. 159-176, the Commission shall have authority to require any periodic reports on the unit's or municipality's financial affairs (in addition to those otherwise required by law) that the secretary deems necessary, and to approve or reject the unit's or municipality's annual budget ordinance. The governing board of the unit or municipality shall obtain the approval of the secretary before adopting the annual budget ordinance. If the Commission recommends modifications in the budget, the governing board shall be under an affirmative duty to make the modifications before adopting the budget ordinance. (1935, c. 124, ss. 3, 4; 1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1973, c. 494, ss. 41, 42.)

Editor's Note. — An amendment to this section in Session Laws 1981 (Reg. Sess., 1982), c. 1276, s. 12, was made effective on certification of approval of a state constitutional amendment authorizing the enactment of laws dealing with transactions of the type contemplated by the act. Such an amendment was proposed by Session Laws 1981 (Reg. Sess., 1982), c. 1247, was submitted to the people on Nov. 2, 1982, and was defeated. The amendment to this section, therefore, did not go into effect.

§ 159-178. Duration of Commission's powers.

The power and authority granted to the Commission in this Article shall continue with respect to a defaulting unit of local government or municipality until the Commission is satisfied that the unit or municipality has performed or will perform the duties required of it in the refinancing plan, and until agreements made with the unit's or municipality's creditors have been performed in accordance with the plan. (1935, c. 124, s. 5; 1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1973, c. 494, s. 41; 1975, c. 19, s. 62.)

Editor's Note. — An amendment to this section in Session Laws 1981 (Reg. Sess., 1982), c. 1276, s. 12, was made effective on certification of approval of a state constitutional amendment authorizing the enactment of laws dealing with transactions of the type contemplated by the act. Such an amendment was proposed by Session Laws 1981 (Reg. Sess., 1982), c. 1247, was submitted to the people on Nov. 2, 1982, and was defeated. The amendment to this section, therefore, did not go into effect.

ARTICLE 11.

Enforcement of Chapter.

§ 159-181. Enforcement of Chapter.

(a) If any finance officer, governing board member, or other officer or employee of any local government or public authority (as local government and public authority are defined in G.S. 159-7(b)) shall approve any claim or bill knowing it to be fraudulent, erroneous, or otherwise invalid, or make any written statement, give any certificate, issue any report, or utter any other document required by this Chapter, knowing that any portion of it is false, or shall willfully fail or refuse to perform any duty imposed upon him by this Chapter, he is guilty of a Class 3 misdemeanor and upon conviction shall only be fined not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) and forfeits his office, and shall be personally liable in a civil action for all damages suffered thereby by the unit or authority or the holders of any of its obligations.

(b) If any person embezzles any funds belonging to any local government or public authority, or appropriates to his own use any personal property having a value of more than fifty dollars ($50.00) belonging to any local government or public authority, in addition to the crimes and punishment otherwise provided by law, upon conviction he forfeits his office or position and is forever thereafter barred from holding any office or place of trust or profit under the State of North Carolina or any political subdivisions thereof until the disability is removed in the manner provided for restoration of citizenship in Chapter 13 of the General Statutes.

(c) The Local Government Commission shall have authority to impound the books and records of any unit of local government or public authority and assume full control of all its financial affairs (i) when the unit or authority defaults on any debt service payment or, in the opinion of the Commission, will default on a future debt service payment if the financial policies and practices of the unit or authority are not improved, or (ii) when the unit or authority persists, after notice and warning from the Commission, in willfully or negligently failing or refusing to comply with the provisions of this Chapter. When the Commission takes action under this section, the Commission is vested with all of the powers of the governing board as to the levy of taxes, expenditure of money, adoption of budgets, and all other financial powers conferred upon the governing board by law. This subsection (c) does not apply to contractual obligations undertaken by a unit of local government in a debt instrument issued pursuant to Chapter 159G of the General Statutes unless such debt instrument is secured by a pledge of the faith and credit of the unit of local government. (1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1973, c. 494, s. 43; 1987, c. 796, s. 5; 1993, c. 539, s. 108; 1994, Ex. Sess., c. 24, s. 14(c).)

CASE NOTES

Foundation of Public Officers' Liability. — The foundation of liability of public officers can be expressed as follows: However honest the defendants may be, the public has a right to be protected against the wrongful conduct of their servants, if there is carelessness amounting to a willful want of care in the discharge of their official duties, which injures the public. State v. Davis, 48 N.C. App. 526, 269 S.E.2d 291, cert. denied and appeal dismissed, 301 N.C. 237, 283 S.E.2d 134 (1980).

The elements of approving a false claim in violation of this section are (1) that defendant was a finance officer, other officer or employee of local government, (2) that in such capacity she approved a claim or bill, and (3) that at the time she approved the claim or bill she knew it was fraudulent, erroneous or otherwise invalid. State v. Davis, 48 N.C. App. 526, 269 S.E.2d 291, cert. denied and appeal dismissed, 301 N.C. 237, 283 S.E.2d 134 (1980).

The elements of making a false report in violation of this section are (1) that defendant was a finance officer, other officer or employee of local government, (2) that the written statement was required by rules and regulations established by the local government for the lawful disbursement of funds, and (3) that defendant made a written statement on a voucher knowing that a portion of it was false. State v. Davis, 48 N.C. App. 526, 269 S.E.2d 291, cert. denied and appeal dismissed, 301 N.C. 237, 283 S.E.2d 134 (1980).

The State was not required to elect between offenses of approving a false claim in violation of this section and making a false report, since the elements of the two charges were not the same. State v. Davis, 48 N.C. App. 526, 269 S.E.2d 291, cert. denied and appeal dismissed, 301 N.C. 237, 283 S.E.2d 134 (1980).

Corrupt Intent Need Not Be Proved. — In order for the State to prove official misconduct proscribed by this section, it is not necessary for the State to prove a corrupt intent or willful design to cheat and defraud the public. Every public officer is bound to perform the duties of his office faithfully, to use reasonable skill and diligence, and to act primarily for the benefit of the public. State v. Davis, 48 N.C. App. 526, 269 S.E.2d 291, cert. denied and appeal dismissed, 301 N.C. 237, 283 S.E.2d 134 (1980).

Submission of Charges to Jury. — Where the evidence showed that expenditures contained both valid and invalid items, the court properly submitted the charges of approving an invalid claim and failure to preaudit to the jury. State v. Davis, 48 N.C. App. 526, 269 S.E.2d 291, cert. denied and appeal dismissed, 301 N.C. 237, 283 S.E.2d 134 (1980).

§ 159-182. Offending officers and employees removed from office.

If an officer or employee of a local government or public authority persists, after notice and warning from the Commission, in failing or refusing to comply with any provision of this Chapter, he forfeits his office or employment. The Commission may enter an order suspending the offender from further performance of his office or employment after first giving him notice and an opportunity to be heard in his own defense, pending the outcome of quo warranto proceedings. Upon suspending a local officer or employee under this section, the Commission shall report the circumstances to the Attorney General who shall initiate quo warranto proceedings against the officer or employee in the General Court of Justice. If an officer or employee persists in performing any official act in violation of an order of the Commission suspending him from performance of his duties, the Commission may apply to the General Court of Justice for a restraining order and injunction. (1931, c. 60, s. 45; 1971, c. 780, s. 1; 1973, c. 494, s. 44.)

Borrowing by Development Authorities Created by General Assembly.

§ 159-188. Borrowing authority.

A development authority created as a body corporate and politic by an act of the General Assembly, and having as its purpose to stimulate, foster, coordinate, plan, improve and encourage economic development in order to relieve poverty, dependency, chronic unemployment, underemployment and to promote the improvement and development of the economy of a county of the State, and whose members are appointed by the board of commissioners of such county, shall have authority to borrow money from an agency or instrumentality of the United States government and to execute and deliver obligations for the repayment thereof and to encumber its property for the purpose of securing any such obligation and to execute and deliver such mortgages, deeds of trust and other instruments as are necessary or proper for such purpose; provided, that such obligations shall be repayable only from the revenues of such authority.

Insofar as the provisions of this section are not consistent with the provisions of any other section or law, public or private, the provisions of this section shall be controlling. (1979, c. 512, ss. 1, 2.)
