Once you've read the story, be sure to check out:

The Edenton Lea Party Resolves

THE ONLINE EXHIBIT

Learn more about the true history of the Edenton Tea Party including topics such as:

The History Behind the Resolves

Fact or Fiction?: The Truth Behind the Tea

Who were the Signers? includes over 45 new biographies

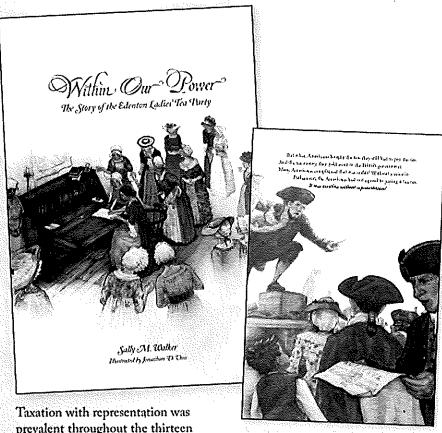

The Legacy of the Edenton Tea
Party

Available Now At:

www.mosaicnc.org/edenton-tea-party

Vithin Our Power The Story of the Edenton Ladies' Tea Party

prevalent throughout the thirteen colonies, Fifty-one women in Edenton, North Carolina used the power of their voices—and the pen—and signed their names to a declaration—a risky action during that period of time and one that no other group of women had yet done. The Edenton ladies expressed their outrage and boycotted tea and other goods from Great Britain.

Purchase Within Our Power: The Story of the Edenton Ladies Tea Party to find out what happened next!

Published by the North Carolina Office of Archives and History

Book distribution by the University of North Carolina Press www.uncpress.org

https://uncpress.org/book/9780865265066/within-our-power/

